3 seek school seats

BY CHAS CHILD

Although two seats on the Plymouth-Canton Board of Education are up for grabs on the June 12 election, only one of the seats can change hands.

Why? Because only one person besides the two incumbents filed for the two seats.

On the ballot will be incumbents Carol Davis and Elaine Kirchgatter, and newcomer William Johnson. The three met the 4 p.m. filing deadline on Monday.

Another unusual feature of the election is that neither of the two incumbents are running for re-election. Both were appointed to fill spots on the board caused by resignations.

BY HANK MEIJER

Growth is coming, but Plymouth Township's planning commissioners think they've charted a way to channel it in the right directions.

The planning commission will unveil its new proposed Future Land Use Plan at a public hearing Saturday, April 22 at Plymouth Township Hall.

The new plan envisions a township which might someday have a population more than triple its current level of 20,000. Recommended as the most reasonable form of Planned are new areas where subdivisions, stores and factories may someday appear.

The chief value of this new Future Land Use Plan, says Township Planner Jim Anulewicz, is that "we now have some sort of measuring stick, this is the policy we're going to follow."

If the township planning commission and board of trustees accept the proposed land uses, the planning commissioners would then be expected to recommend changes in the current zoning map to reflect the new policies.

And that new policy in many ways reflects what the planners expect will be the effects of the new Plymouth-Ann Arbor Expressway, which slices across the northern side of the township and is expected to open later this year.

"Once we see M-14 completed, then there will be more activity," Anulewicz predicted.

Already, however, some changes are clear. The era when farm fields checker the western portion of the township is fast drawing to a close.

The new future land use plan, like its predecessors, shows no more land reserved for farmland. If growth goes the way the map envisions it, every privately-owned acre of the township could be subdivided. But the planners say that won't occur simply because there's no more agricultural zoning. For years, perhaps decades, to come, some of the residential growth will still be on larger parcels.

Said Anulewicz, "We've got to look at this realistically. If it's got to go from farmland, what do we want it to go to?"

The planners' answer, except for modest increases in the amount of land designated for commercial and industrial use, is homes.

But, as Anulewicz noted, you can't zone all that open land for acre lots and on which

Map's available

The result of nearly a year's study, the Plymouth Township Planning Commission's proposed Future Land Use Plan is now available for public study in Plymouth Township Hall.

On April 22, from 9 a.m. to noon, planning commissioners will be on hand at Township Hall to answer questions about their plan. At 1 p.m. an official public hearing will begin, with citizens' comments recorded then. The planning commission won't vote on its new plan until a later meeting, after the testimony of the public hearing is considered.

eventual development is lower density residential growth through the still sparsely-populated southwestern quarter of the township, with denser housing to the north, across the M-14 expressway and surrounding the property of the Detroit House of Correction.

Canton free to hire new sergeants

BY DONNA LOMAS

Because a Wayne County Judge would not allow four part-time Canton police sergeants to become party to a suit against the township that charged breach of contract and discrimination because of politics, the township can now proceed with the hiring of four full-time sergeants.

Wayne County Circuit Court Judge Horace Gillsford Monday dismissed a case brought against Canton by four part-time sergeants, saying "the interests of the four were not the same as in the Carl Silvers case."

Silvers, coordinator of the Canton police reserves, brought suit against the township because he expected to be second in command with the full-time force - instead of remaining simply 'commander'

Canton surplus may mean fire mill cut

THE COMMUNITY CRIER: April 12, 1978

BY DONNA LOMAS
"First the good news," Canton Finance Director Mike Gorman said to Canton trustees last week. "This year the surplus will reach $1 million.

"Now the bad news," he said. "We're $2 million in debt."

The finance director had come before the board to recommend and apprise board members of the status of the township surplus money, currently at $950,000.

Gorman said the township "should be able" to reduce the fire millage to 1 mill (from 2) and drop the operating taxes to residents by one half of a mill - "which means a savings of $37.50 to a homeowner with a $50,000 home," Gorman said.

The finance director said the township should set aside $100,000 for the Canton library, but cautioned them against funding it from the general fund in following years. "A library should stand on its own," Gorman said. "It isn't possible to run the library out of the general fund."

He recommended leaving the police millage at 2 mills, saying that increased valuation of property here would bring in $70,000 more than last year.

"That leaves $500,000 in the surplus and I believe we should keep it at that until we settle down," Gorman said. He cited land, future needs of police and fire departments, park land purchases and development, and matching funds for federal grant applications as the reasons.

Planning Commissioner Bart Berg asked about funding development rights with some surplus money.

"The amount available in the surplus now wouldn't be much against the cost of the rights (15 million) and Canton may not, probably won't, have extra cash for the next 30 years," Gorman said. "The development rights program won't get off the ground in the next year or so."

Trustees took no action on the recommendations.

Woman hit on Main St.

A 26-year-old Plymouth woman was hit by a car Friday morning on Main at the corner of Union Street after she tried to cross the street in mid-block and did not see a car that had pulled out from a shopping center parking lot, police said.

Winona Kerr, of 543 Maple, was reported in satisfactory condition Friday afternoon at Livonia's St. Mary's Hospital, suffering from a leg injury.

Rick Olenchak, an employee for the Plymouth-Canton Schools and a resident, witnessed the accident while stopped at a railroad crossing.

"Traffic was stopped and she went across the street," he said. "All of a sudden there appeared this car. She was hit by the driver's front fender.

"It was helpful that the railroad gates were down," said one police officer. "That way we were able to control traffic."

According to police, she had apparently seen that traffic was not moving and tried to make it across the road.

More industry in Canton?

BY DONNA LOMAS

Following a month of negotiations, Canton township officials have purchased 132 acres of land for industrial development for $853,847, the first industrial land purchase the township has made, according to the officials.

Canton trustees approved the purchase last Tuesday by a 6-1 vote, with Trustee Lynne Goldsmith dissenting.

The land, on Haggerty Road south of Koppernick and north of Ford Road, has been assessed at 21 million and should bring the three school districts in the township some $850,000 in taxes, with no additional students, Canton Finance Director Mike Gorman said.

By purchasing the parcel, however, the township will be $2 million in debt - more than the state allows townships to be in debt. The township now has to seek special permission from the state to buy the land, said Gorman. Supervisor Harold Stein said once the land was developed, the market value of it would be $43,680,000.

The township hopes to get the land rezoned industrial and sell it, Gorman said. It is now zoned for multiples and was purchased from Metropolitan Savings and Loan Company.

Supervisor Harold Stein said there "may be money for service drives" to the property. He said it was "important for industry relocating here to have class A roads and Canton ought to be able to get money for the paving program."

In response to a question from school board member

Elaine Kirchgatter, Gorman said the schools would "temporarily" lose revenue on the land purchase - which township officials are calling an "investment. It will take at least 10 years to make a profit at it," Gorman said.

The land now brings the township $25,000 in taxes each year and once developed would bring $1,245,098 to the township. The Plymouth-Canton schools would get some $846,000 of that and the township would keep $174,314. Gorman said the township would pay $25,000 each year for the parcel until it is developed in order to make up for taxes the current owner is now paying the township.

"It depends on our ability to merchandise the land," said Clerk John Flodin. "We have to get Haggerty from Warren to Joy paved first."

The money to buy the parcel came from the general fund in the capitol outlay category. Officials said it took three quarters of the fund to buy the land.

Gorman said the township is now $2,183,053 in debt plus interest after the recent land purchase. Debts include the golf course and other land purchases. Gorman said the golf course debt was not

Goldsmith slams land purchase

Canton township officials did not do their homework before the recent $850,000 purchase of 132 acres of land they hope to convert into an industrial site, according to township Trustee Lynne Goldsmith.

In a statement issued last week, Goldsmith, the only trustee to vote against the land purchase, said the township will lose about $28,620 in taxes until the land is developed. Canton Finance Director Mike Gorman said it would be about 10 years before the township will profit on the land.

Goldsmith said the following questions were "not adequately answered" for board members to fully determine the cost of the land: How long before the township realizes a financial benefit; when will Haggerty Road be paved and how much will it cost the township?; who will pay for utilities and other land improvements?; at what cost and when?; and who will market the land?

Goldsmith also asked "What conditions need to exist" before the land would be valued at the $390,000 per acre Supervisor Harold Stein said it would be in a letter to the trustees.

She wanted to know how many acres the township would be able to use according to the price it paid. Goldsmith said Tuesday that 25 acres of the land were floodplain and therefore not useable for industry.

She suggested rezoning the land from multiple dwellings to industrial and to enter into an agreement with the Wayne County Road Commission to pave the property, thus giving it access. Goldsmith also suggested buying the floodplain and use it as a park.

The trustee is also questioning whether the township should use capitol outlay funds from its general budget "for the purpose of buying land to develop it and sell at a later date for profit." Goldsmith said that was a "philosophical question" for the township to consider.

ESY air conditioners purchased

BY ROBERT KIAN

The Plymouth-Canton School Board Monday approved the purchase of $64,040 of air conditioning equipment for Pioneer Middle and Isbister and Gallimore elementary schools.

The equipment is included in the 1977-78 budget and has a total estimated cost of $207,040, which is $77,040 more than the original budget appropriation of $130,000.

According to a purchasing review committee memo, there is a possibility of charging the installation costs to the proposed New Building and Site Fund levy of .5 mill over 10 years, should the measure be approved by voters April 27.

The allocation calls for 178 window air conditioners, a roof-top unit for each school, and an add alternate unit for each.

The board also approved the purchase of replacement boilers for Smith and Bird elementary schools at a cost of $35,880.

School Board Member Flossie Tonda asked why only four bidders had given estimates.

Assistant Supt. for Business Ray Hoedel said prospective bidders were instructed that their products would have to meet strict specifications, and that that accounted for the low number of bidders.

Early election to aid planning

BY CHAS CHILD

With a regular election scheduled on June 12, why is the Plymouth-Canton School District holding a special millage election on April 27?

The answer is planning, according to school officials.

The extra time will give the superintendent's office time to hire teachers, and carefully write budgets for educational programs and building maintenance; said Ray Hoedel, Assistant Superintendent for Business.

"It's just good business management," Superintendent Mike Hoben said.

Besides planning, the special election will also give the district sufficient time to place the millage on the regular election ballot if it fails.

Before the voters will be 4.5 operating mills and a 0.5 mill request for site and building maintenance. The 4.5 mills is the sum of 3.0 mills up for renewal plus 1.5 mills additional to meet costs of student growth and inflation.

If the district knows on April 27 it will have the funds to hire new teachers, it will be able to pick the best applicants, said Hoedel.

"Other school districts have already hired many good teachers by June," he said.

Also, after June 12, many school principals and staff are on vacation, which hinders planning programs and precise budgets, Hoedel said. "Good ideas can be lost when we hurry the planning without all the principals, he said. "Planning is a time-consuming process."

"Finances are so tough in schools these days that you need to know early," he said.

"Now you have to watch every item since some costs are going up rapidly. I don't think a week goes by where we don't have to adjust some budget allocation," said Hoedel.

Waiting until the June 12 election to know whether the millage will pass will also cause "uncertainties" and morale problems" among school officials and employees, Hoben said.

"There are no new projects in the budget," said Hoben. "We are basically asking the question, 'Are you satisfied with the present program?'"

"I think our request is very reasonable if you consider a district like Livonia - which is losing about 2,000 students - is asking for 5.7 mills, while we're gaining about 850 students and asking for only a 1.5 increase," said the superintendent.

Gas station employe held in robbery

Richard Manseau of no known address, was arrested last Tuesday on the charge of embezzling $1,984.70 from the Speedway Gas Station at 5 Mile and Sheldon roads last Monday.

The money was reported missing to the State Police by an employe of the station Tuesday morning. Manseau had worked the previous night's shift, according to the police report, and after an investigation he was arrested by troopers and City of Plymouth policemen at the Plymouth Hilton.

Manseau, who recently lived in Florida, checked out of the Mayflower Hotel in Plymouth last Sunday where he had stayed a couple of nights, the police said. An anonymous call led troopers to the Hilton where he was registered under the name of Santini, the report said.

At Manseau's arraignment on Thursday, Judge Dunbar Davis of the 35th District Court accepted his plea of guilty as a waiver of the preliminary examination, and he was bound over to Circuit Court.

The pre-trial date will be on April 20 and bond was set for $10,000.

Old Village group turns 'Lowertown' around

BY ROBERT KIAN

What was and what will be have emerged in Plymouth in the form of the Old Village Association, a group of 43 area merchants who are re-touching the yellowed and fading still lifes of the place called Lowertown, now known as Old Village.

Scarcely the length of a city block, the area once thought of as "the other side of the tracks," is undergoing a loving restoration that began eight years ago.

Forty-three businesses are contained in the area bounded by Main Street and Plymouth Road to the south, and by Wilcox Lake and Hines Drive to the north.

"We're trying to get back to the idea of old specialty shops," said Margaret Barsch, a shop owner on Mill street.

Several shopfronts on Liberty Street date back one hundred years, but before the attention brought them by the Association, they went unnoticed.

Implicit in the name "Lowertown" was the idea of a run-down block.

"Nothing was ever done to the area," said Bill Ruehr, another Mill Street store owner. Ruehr pointed out that before the association grew, the handful of stores in the area did only marginal business.

"You'd see fewer than six cars along Liberty - but now it's contagious. In one block there's effort on every street, a whole revamping. There's never been this much work before. We hope to make it a unique tourist attraction."

The group's goal is to restore, not renovate, the buildings.

"Quite a few were ready to be condemned," Ruehr added.

Pat Hahn, another owner in the central cluster, and original member, hopes to see the area become another Greenfield Village, a village atmosphere with new homes, shops and restaurants, "to take you back 50 years," she said.

With the help of a $99,000 Federal grant last fall, some of the charm has been realized. Turn-of-the-century street lamps have been installed along Starkweather Street and in the cluster as well at a cost of $60,000.

The beginnings of a cobblestone walk run between Mill and Starkweather. Mrs. Orr mentioned that a fountain will be placed in the middle of the square later this year as well as a kiosk with the names and logos of the stores. Back entrances to stores, a fountain and rose arbors spotted throughout the cluster will give the cluster a park-like feel.

Ten new businesses have appeared in the last year.

"They have a voice by belonging. We can know what they want," Pat Hahn said. As yet, there are no residential members, but "We're trying to include everybody," Mrs. Orr added.

And in an effort to include as many Plymouth residents as possible, the Old Village Association is sponsoring a "walk-through" on Sunday, April 16. The association is emphasizing the 23 points of historic interest in Old Village, among them the 1871 Plymouth railroad station, Starkweather school site and the Nelson Hotel.

WORK IN PROGRESS in Old Village includes a wooden kiosk in the square between Mill and Starkweather streets that will feature the names and logotypes of Village shops. The 19th-century-style lamppost in front is one of about a dozen that have been installed in the past year. (Crier photo by Robert Kian.)

Schools buy 14 buses

The Plymouth-Canton Board of Education gave the go ahead to purchase eight regular and six intermediate-sized buses Monday night.

Guns, coins taken

Two guns and numerous coins were stolen from Orvel Anderson, of Coolidge Street between March 28 and April 4, according to Plymouth police.

Bike swiped

Thomas C. Corin, of N. Harvey Street reported to Plymouth police that his 10-speed bicycle was stolen on March 31.

out buses now in the district's fleet, the additions will cost $216,903.

Two of the intermediate buses are fitted to handle students in wheelchairs. These are needed, school officials said, because there is no spare wheelchair bus now and with breakdowns there are special education students without bus service.

The purchases approved Monday night are for replacement only of heavily used buses. The superintendent's office is working on an overall plan to upgrade the schools' transportation system, and if the millage passes, the board will probably be asked to purchase eight more buses, said Ray Hoedel, assistant superintendent for business.

The new buses are due to be delivered in July and ready for school in the fall.

Community Opinions

THE COMMUNITY CRIER: April 12, 1978

Slim school field reveals our apathy

Three candidates for two Board of Education seats. Discouraging is too gentle a word for this latest development in the decline of interest among community leaders in the Plymouth-Canton school board.

Are the schools perfect and need no attention? We doubt it. Are the present board members the best the community has to offer. We doubt that too.

The answer seems to be plain apathy. The cure for this malaise is mysterious; the effect, however, is all too obvious.

THE COMMUNITY CRIER

Parked truck is little improvement

AN ANONYMOUS SEMI-TRAILER hardly seems like what some city residents had in mind when they complained earlier this year that the front of the empty Super-X drugstore on Main Street was an eyesore. One resident suggested the storefront windows, which revealed empty fixtures in disarray, be white-washed. Apparently as an alternative, a truck was parked in front last week. If this is someone's idea of a solution, it looks like a very temporary one. (Crier photo)

Last Words

Growth riddle invites answer

There's talk in Canton of plans to form a political movement to promote new candidates for this year's township elections. Understandably, more than a few residents who pay heed to township politics aren't exactly enthusiastic about the existing power bases. There's the Stein slate, which after a rocky year is now only beginning to grasp the complexities of township government; the zealots of the old Greenstein crowd; and the Republicans, weighted down by the leadership of Peter Bundarin.

With choices like that, I'd look for something new too. It's like climbing into the pit with an alligator, but someone who wants to take a turn at Canton government could start by translating the debate over development rights into language we can all understand - and then figuring out if hopes of keeping some farmland from being subdivided are justified.

Greenstein got the idea, Bundarin had schemes, Stein and the current administration have reams of research from the planner, but no one is holding his breath until the impulse to sell off and subdivide every acre of flat farmland can be curbed.

Will passenger trains ever run again between Plymouth and Detroit?

The boosters of the Old Village Association, who incidentally will be showing off their end of town to its best advantage Sunday at their annual Spring Walk, would surely find the return of the passenger train a boon to their businesses.

For the rest of us, apart from the novelty and the energy savings in riding the train to Ren Cen, there would be the rare satisfaction of looking out on traffic backed up at the tracks as you hum along in a moving train.

Keep your dog under control

EDITOR:

It is with sadness that we write this as it was our understanding that we were respected as neighbors.

You are such an asset to the neighborhood, why must you though, allow your dog to roam? It isn't fair of you to free your pets at "convenient times" thus forcing us to clean up after him in our yard.

We enjoy you in the neighborhood and like your pet but we do not enjoy doing your job. The job of a responsible pet owner and neighbor.

To those of you who, under cover of night, let your dog out before you go to bed, you may think he isn't being seen.

Please keep your pets restrained, it is frustrating to us as neighbors and we're sure it is to others to find your dog or his excreta in our yard and garden. If you enjoy your pet, please keep him out of trouble and danger and confined to your property.

UNSIGNED

Editor's note: The 'neighbor' who brought this letter to us asked to remain anonymous "because the problem is in all neighborhoods in the Plymouth-Canton area."

anyway, improve the looks of Ford Road in Canton, one of the community's two main commercial strips.

The other strip, Ann Arbor Road, deserves similar treatment from the City of Plymouth and Plymouth Township.

Signs are necessary, but the visual confusion on Ann Arbor Road is not only unsightly, but the merchants don't gain either:

The signs are large and loud, and they compete among themselves for attention. They don't attract, they combine to distract, LIKE TYPING IN ALL CAPITALS.

To improve the looks of the strip and the whole community, the City (on the north side) and the township (on the south) should work toward a bonus system for attractive signs like Canton's.

THE COMMUNITY CRIER

Local and Quotable

"I'd like to see a lot more harmony in the township. We need it. Canton is known as the 'Trouble Township' according to some people. For several years the situation has been disruptive."

-Chairman Robert Schaeztl of Canton's new Industrial Development Committee addressing the Township Board

THE CRIER FAMILY says, "Thanks for a good year."

Crier's operating statement

Although not required to do so, The Community Crier is again publishing its annual operating statement.

We do so out of appreciation to you -- our readers and advertisers -- who support the efforts of the Plymouth-Canton Community's only locally owned and operated newspaper. It is because of your advertising revenues and subscriptions that we are able to remain a vigorous, independent voice for our community.

When we published our first year's (1974) operating statement, we said, "Our philosophy at The Crier is to put as much back into the community, through a bigger and better product, as we take out of it." This remains our credo of newspapering.

Last year was a good year for the paper. It could have been greater, (after all, we lost $111.84) but it will be noted as a year of more growth for us.

We set records in advertising and subscription revenues mainly by increasing our level of service to readers and advertisers. Our circulation is continuing to climb.

We also achieved successes in the aspects of the newspaper which is not so easily quantified, but which may be described as the heart of our toils -- our integrity, aggressiveness, creativity and artistry in producing a community newspaper. We won Michigan Press Association awards for: advertising color use, design and content of opinion pages, use of photographs and advertising ideas.

The continued growth of your support for The Crier has meant larger editions, with more community news, opinions, features, sports and advertising. That alone has been enough of a dividend to the owners of The Crier, who are once again, for 1977, taking no financial return on their investment.

Why put this all out in print for everyone to see (even when our accountant advises us not to)?

Because you -- our readers and advertisers -- have continued to support us. And without you, we could not be the community newspaper we are. Thank you.

W. EDWARD WENDOVER,
CHAIRMAN

Canton to print pinball owners?

Canton trustees were expected to discuss the proposed 'pinball' ordinance at last night's meeting. The item was up for approval, but discussion among trustees on fingerprinting pinball business owners was expected.

The ordinance calls for the police fingerprinting each applicant who wants to operate pinball or "mechanical amusement" devices in the township.

A license will not be issued to any applicant who has been convicted of a felony, the ordinance says, unless the Canton police chief recommends it.

A fee will be charged for the license of operating the mechanical amusements and police and fire departments in the township will be able to inspect the buildings at all times.

The pinball palaces can't open before 10 a.m. and must close by midnight, except on Sundays, when the business can open at noon and close at 6 p.m.

No one under the age of 16 is allowed to play the amusement devices, the ordinance reads.

Violations of the ordinance carry a $100 maximum penalty or a prison sentence no more than 90 days for each violation.

Symphony's final concert features 'Mikado'

In its final concert of the 1977-78 series, the Plymouth Symphony will present the Manhattan Savoyards, in their production of "The Mikado."

Besides this Gilbert and Sullivan favorite, the troupe regularly performs "H.M.S. Pinafore", "The Pirates of Penzance" and Victor Herbert's "Naughty Marietta."

They have appeared with many leading orchestras and, for the last six seasons have toured the presenting productions at colleges, universities, and in concert country series. Wayne Dunlap will conduct the afternoon concert.

The producer-director of the operetta Robert Singer, has been a leading bass-baritone in the Savoy repertoire during a career spanning more than twenty years. The costumes created by Barbara Sabel and Sumiko Murashima are authentic, and the set, designed by Ursula Belden is particularly appropriate to create the Japanese atmosphere, said Symphony President Frances Lang.

Tickets for the concert are $5 for adults and $2.50 for students and senior citizens. They may be purchased in advance from Audette's Office Supply, Arnoldt Williams Music at Ford and Canton Center roads, Beitner's Jewelry Store, Heide's Flowers on Ann Arbor Trail and Plymouth Book World in the Forest Mall. Tickets may also be purchased at the door.

The performance will be Sunday, April 16, at 4 p.m. in the Salem Auditorium on Joy Road. Free baby-sitting service is offered under the direction of experienced Girl Scouts.

This program is made possible, in part, by the State of Michigan through an operational grant from the Michigan Council for the Arts.

It is one of the most serene and reverential of all the large scale choral works, said Rev. Samuel Stout, Minister. Faure, a turn-of-the 20th century conservative French composer, wrote a work of dignity that is without bombast and shouting, he added.

The soloists in the work will be Mary Bozell, Soprano and Richard Schaw, Baritone. The accompaniment will be furnished by Eleanor Pietch, Church Organist and Directed by Joel Ebersole, Director of Church Music.

Y needs volunteers

The Canton-Plymouth-Northville YMCA is looking for volunteers to drive senior citizens to doctor appointments and other errands.

Advance notice of at least a day is given so that the volunteer can arrange his or her time accordingly.

For more information, please call Mrs. Jean Campau, Senior Citizen Coordinator at the "Y" at 453-2968 or 453-2904.

Church seeks funds

A challenge to raise nearly $400,000, some which will be targeted for the Canton Moravian Church, was one of the issues decided by a quadrennial synod of the Western District of the Moravian Church held in Madison, Wis. recently. The Rev. Daryl Bell of Canton attended.

The Faith Community Church in Canton has already begun worshipping and meets in Pioneer Middle School, 46081 Ann Arbor Rd., at 10:30 a.m. Sundays. The district grant will enable the new congregation to begin plans for building in the near future. It presently owns land on Warren Road near Canton Center, which will be the site of the new building.

Canton seniors cut-up

BY DONNA LOMAS

"Anyone who thinks a senior citizen is ready for the rocking chair can forget that idea," said Dale Hall, Canton senior citizen coordinator extraordinaire. "Just look at these wonderful people!"

She was referring to senior actors and actresses in the midst of a wacky dress rehearsal for the upcoming 'Canton Capers', an all senior citizen talent revue scheduled for this weekend, April 14 and 15.

Last Friday morning at the Canton Rec Hall, seniors in costumes ranging from Minnie Pearl to hula skirts were busy rehearsing.

While one woman recited a poem, a man swathed in bandages from head to foot was being threatened by a particularly hammy nurse with a dangerous-looking shot in her hands. Or was he feeling unsafe because of what read on the bag she carried?

A behatted duo whistled - with their stomachs painted as women's faces - to the tune of "The Bridge over the River Kwai." Their act was named appropriately enough, 'The Whistlers.'

A respectable looking man in walking shorts donned a grass hula skirt and leis and belted out a rendition of a Hawaiian love song. Two women wailed with grief and anguish in another skit as they listened to a song about a jilted lover.

After seeing all that in one half hour, I had to go home and take a nap. The 'senior citizens' stayed for lunch and practiced more that afternoon, as they have for the last six weeks.

'Canton Capers,' will be performed this weekend at Salem High School Auditorium on Joy Road. Tickets are available at the door. Performances are at 7:30 p.m. Friday and at 4 p.m. The revue was created and produced by Dale Hall.

There will be an 'after-glow' party for the cast following the Saturday afternoon performance.

Y seminar

The Plymouth-Northville YMCA will sponsor four seminars on "Coping with older parents effectively." The meetings will be held at the Plymouth Credit Union on Harvey Street from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. Call the Y for more information.

People's Church is affiliated with the Reformed Church in America, the oldest denomination in the United States with an uninterrupted history of 350 years.

Presently involved in a $5 million church expansion program, the Reformed Church selected the Canton area as one of the locations to begin a new church.

Kiwanis film April 19

The Plymouth Kiwanis Foundation will present its final program of the "Travel and Adventure Series" Wednesday, April 19 at 8 p.m. in the Salem High School auditorium, with a film on Hong Kong by Willis Butler.

Butler began a career in lecturing and travelogue production in 1954 and has since made six travelogues. A Northwestern University speech school graduate, Butler worked as a Mutual Network broadcaster and was an Assistant Professor of Radio and Television at Northwestern. For two months in 1960, he hosted 30 travel shows for WWJ and WXYZ-TV in Detroit.

His film will trace Hong Kong's history and focus on its contemporary life.

Church begins services

People's Church in Canton will begin holding services of worship this Sunday, April 16, at 10 a.m. The Canton High School cafeteria, located on Canton Center Road near Joy Road, will be used for weekly Sunday morning services.

Rev. Harvey Heneveld, pastor of Canton's newest protestant congregation, has been in the Canton area laying the groundwork for the inaugural service of People's Church since January. "We are excited and very pleased", Rev. Heneveld said, "that we were able to secure the Canton High School cafeteria as a place to meet. It is a beautiful facility and at the same time offers such additional advantages as easy access, ample parking, high visibility as well as room for nursery and future growth."

Tornado watcher to speak at K of C

The Plymouth Area React Team will hold its monthly meeting on April 15 at 1 p.m. at the Daniel A. Lord Council of the Knights of Columbus, 39050 Schoolcraft at Eckles.

A Metro Airport tornado-spotter will be there with films and literature on how to report and protect yourself against severe weather.

React Team members volunteer yearly during tornado season to man watchposts along Wayne County's western border.

All are invited. For more information, call 453-7377.

NURSE Laura Sett and bandaged Lester Foose will be in the senior Canton Capers at Salem High. (Photo by Donna Lomas)

Local Y offers spring fun

The Plymouth-Canton YMCA has announced several new courses for their Spring/Summer program, many available for the first time, according to Janet Luce, program director.

Along with such favorites such as shuffle board, folk guitar, rug-hooking and disco dancing, the YMCA is currently offering a "Behind the Scenes Club," a course for accelerated first-through-fifth grade students. The six-week course is designed to "stimulate learning through interdisciplinary field trips... an opportunity for accelerated students to interact socially."

The course runs six weeks from April 22 through May 27. The fee is $27 for members and $32 for non-members.

New in the program is a "Coping with Older Parents Effectively" class.

The four-week course entails "discussion, and counseling... for the adult child facing responsibility and change for the care of aging parents." The classes meet on April 19 and 26 and on May 3 and 10. Enrollment fees are $10 for members and $12 for non-members. It meets at the Plymouth Credit Union.

The YMCA is also offering a new counseling program for private, individual, group or family, for career guidance, or teen problems. The program meets Monday through Friday, 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. Fees are based on a sliding scale of ability to pay.

Also new for the spring is a class in chair-caning. Caning, or weaving wicker chair seats, is taught at the Plymouth Credit Union May 4 through June 8. Members pay $20. For non-members the fee is $25.

Folk dancing, also new, is an adult class held weekly on Tuesdays at the Central Middle School. The beginner class meets from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. and the intermediate class from 8:30 until 9:30. Each session costs 50 cents.

Further information can be obtained from Janet Luce by writing the Y at Box 134, Plymouth, 48170 or by calling 453-2904.

Remember those dull, boring history books you had to read in school? Ralph Archbald proved that history can be fun as well as interesting when he did his interpretation of Ben Franklin at the Canton Newcomers dinner last Wednesday night.

Dressed in clothes similar to what Ben Franklin wore, Archbald gave a humorous talk on what life was like "back then". He even managed to wink and flirt with some of the women - keeping alive rumors that Franklin was a 'ladies man'.

The women from Apple Run Garden Club received a different kind of attention last week when they presented The Humane Society Kindness Center with a check for $100. The Kindness Center is located on Marquette in Westland yet serves people in Canton. The club is collecting newspapers and will gladly accept donations from anyone in the area.

Shirley Roebuck is one of a group of 20 students from Michigan State University studying during spring term at the University of Merida in Yucatan, Mexico. Shirley, a senior in the School of Landscape Architecture is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Roebuck of Old Salem in Plymouth.

Theodore Kietzman of Dewey Street in Plymouth was named to the dean's list at the University of Connecticut. He is a student in the School of Engineering.

Ronald F. Stiglich, a mechanical engineering junior from Plymouth, is participating in a cooperative education program at Michigan Technological University. The program enables students to obtain practical working experience in an industry which pertains to their major study. Stiglich is employed by the Ford Motor Company in the Central Laboratory Division in Dearborn.

Congratulations to George and Jacquelynne Moore on the birth of their daughter Sarah O'Neill. Sarah was born March 27 at Providence Hospital, weighing eight pounds 12 ounces. The proud grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Burbank of Empire, Mi. and Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Moore of Dickson, Tenn.

A women's golf league is forming in the Plymouth-Canton area for 14 weeks beginning May 24 and running through Aug. 23. They will be golfing on Wednesday mornings at Hilltop Golf Course on Powell Road off Ann Arbor Trail. The league is open to all women including beginning golfers. During the first three weeks they will establish tee off times according to ability. The cost is $3.75 a week. Anyone interested must pay Ann Waite at 455-6430 for the first seven weeks in advance. Reservations close May 3.

Garden soon in Canton

Free garden plots to Canton residents will be available as soon as the gardens are plowed and staked, Canton Recreation coordinator Robert Suggs announced Monday.

Registration this year will be through the Recreation Department only and only one garden plot is allowed, Suggs said. Two registration times are scheduled for evening and daytime; dates will be announced later. Registration is in person only at the Canton Rec Department.

Schools tap Bagon

The Plymouth-Canton School Board Monday approved the nomination of Virginia Bagon to be the district child co-ordinator.

The nomination was made by board member Elaine Kirchgatter.

Glimpse info

In last week's Crier, The Glimpse of Yesterday feature pictured several farmers standing by their International Harvester tractors along Main Street.

Canton Fire Chief Mel Paulun has told us that the farmers were all from Canton and included Spencer Drummel, now living in Fowlerville; the former Perry Hicks, George Longwish (whose '36 Chevy was also in the picture) and Walter Wilkie of Cherry Hill Road.

The Crier welcomes any contributions to Glimpse at Yesterday that depicts life as it used to be here. If you have a photo, please submit them to The Community Crier, 572 S. Harvey Street. We will return photos upon requests.

Blizzard $

While Canton is expecting a check soon from the federal government to reimburse them for clean-up efforts during the 'Blizzard of '78' for almost $17,000, Plymouth Township will receive $4,913.

"We spent more than $20,000," said Canton Finance Director Mike Gorman, saying most of it went to private contractors hired to clear streets.

The co-ordinator's job is to maintain files on adoption and court-placed children, maintain school censuses, draw up boundary and transfer maps, and keep attendance figure tabs.

But more importantly, the co-ordinator position involves public-relations work. Bagon will be the first person whom students new to the district will meet. According to Kirchgatter, she is also responsible for holding the container of red and blue chips that decide which high school Plymouth and Canton students will go to.

In a memo prepared by Kirchgatter, Bagon's new position will involve dealing with "upgraded procedures in child co-ordination in a rapidly-growing district and under more and more stringent state demands."

Bagon has been involved with the Plymouth-Canton Board for nearly eight years.

Canton stalls cop start-up

BY DONNA LOMAS

A kidnapping scare last July prompted Canton officials, after months of discussion, to create a township-wide special assessment district that would finance a full-time Canton police department. Voters approved the proposal at the polls last August, at the same time they rejected a recall drive against the Stein administration.

Canton trustees then agreed to levy two mills for the full-time protection, which netted the township about $450,000.

analysis

In July, a full-time police chief was hired. At that time, residents of the 36-square mile township were relying on two Wayne County Sheriff's Patrol cars and a part-time township police force, with less than half its officers certified.

Today the situation is still the same, except that almost all the original 35 part-time officers have been certified — at township expense. Canton still does not have full-time police protection, and a recent lawsuit brought against the township by Carl Silvers, coordinator of the reserve force, could stall the full-time protection even longer. (Another case brought against the township by four part-time sergeants was dismissed Monday by Wayne County Circuit Court Judge Horace Gilmore.) Those officers may appeal the ruling to the state Court of Appeals, but the township is now able to go ahead with recommendations for hiring its four full-time sergeants.

Supervisor Harold Stein said Monday the township will probably wait until April 18 to recommend the four sergeants, in order to see what happens to the Silvers case in court next Wednesday. Silvers is charging the township breached an oral contract it had with him and "discriminated for political reasons."

The start-up of a full-time department has been stalled since last August for several reasons, but the biggest roadblock has been a controversy over whether the present part-time officers should be hired as full-time police.

The part-time officers say they are fully qualified for the 10 patrol positions created under the millage. They say they have been through "a battery of tests in the last 18 months," including the tests the township wants applicants for the full-time positions to take.

"Why be redundant?" Peter Garber, attorney for the part-time officers, has asked.

The part-time officers also

Sharland tapped

Lloyd Sharland of Plymouth Township has been appointed as one of 24 area representatives to Wayne County's Overall Development Program Committee.

Sharland, a township farmer and member of Wayne County Soil Conservation District, was endorsed by the Wayne County Board of Commissioners at its April 6 meeting.

Chairman of the Wayne

County Board of Commissioners, Jarrette Simmons said, "the formal appointment of the Committee members, who are representative of all segments of Wayne County, is necessary in order to retain the designation of Wayne County by the U.S. Economic Development Administration (EDA) and thus permit local communities to qualify for development funds."

Safety interest down?

The Plymouth-Canton School Safety Board has witnessed a decline interest and membership in the past half-year, according to Board president Thomas Yack.

Yack made the announcement at last Monday's meeting, saying that "some schools have not had the representation that we would like to see."

The Safety Board is a committee of two parents chosen from each school to remedy transportation-related hazards in the district.

Each school is supposed to send its members to a monthly meeting that hears problems with bus service, road conditions, construction sites and the like, along walking routes frequently used by students.

Yack said that the matter would be taken up with School Superintendent Mike Hoben at the next meeting.

What do "approximately" two army cots, a 220-volt wrench, car tires, a fork lift, a pick-up van and a cash register and a 1956 Dodge have in common?

They will all be on the auction block May 27 at "Annie's Auction," Canton's annual ridding itself of junk and assorted white elephant sale.

It was dubbed "Annie's Auction" because Canton Treasurer Anne Bradley is in charge of organizing the sale this year. Thus far, she has collected nails, steel pipes, trucks, vans, fork lifts, old medical supplies, assorted military equipment, tools, old

Record school budget OK'd

BY CHAS CHILD

A record $30,117,000 budget was approved Monday night by the Plymouth-Canton Board of Education for submittal to the Wayne County Tax Allocation Board.

Up 18 per cent from this year, the budget includes funds which will be levied ($2,601,000) if the 4.5 operating mills on the April 27 ballot are passed.

Negotiated wage increases to school employes including the teachers, account for more than half — $2,708,000 — of the 18.0 per cent increase in expenditures over last year. Beyond the wage increases, inflation and growth are the prime reasons cited by school officials behind the increased budget and the 4.5 mill request.

Student enrollment is expected to increase 5.6 per cent (from 15,244 this year to 16,100 in 1978-79) and utilities will probably jump 30 per cent or $350,000, according to school district projections.

The enrollment growth will require 36 new teachers at a cost of $584,000 and hospitalization costs are expected to be up 36 per cent or $350,000.

The proposed budget represents a $428 jump since 1976-77 in the cost to educate each student. In 1976-77, the district spent $1,454 per student. This year it spent $1,675 and the projected figure is $1,882 per student next year.

Preliminary approval of the budget Monday was necessary to send it to the Wayne County Tax Allocation Board which will determine Plymouth-Canton's share of county taxes.

Wayne County funds, however will make up only 1.1 per cent of the revenues in the proposed budget. Local taxes account for the vast majority — 70.1 per cent — of the $29,317,000 income.

The state is expected to contribute 26.9 per cent of the total while federal funds make up the rest, 1.9 per cent.

The difference in the expenditures ($30,117,000) and the revenues is designed to lower the district's fund balance next year.

The 4.5 mills on the April 27 ballot represents 3.0 mills up for renewal and 1.5 extra. A 0.5 mill request for building and site improvement is also on the ballot, and if the two proposals pass, the voters will be levied two total extra mills.

Due to an increase in the debt retirement, however, the voters will be assessed two and one-quarter mills more than last year if the two propositions pass.

What will the total two and one-quarter extra mills add to the home-owner's tax bill?

If you own a $50,000 house, two and one-quarter mills will put an extra $56.25 on your tax bill.

Other increases in the budget include: two additional nurses' positions, $20,000; increases in per-student allocations; $85,000; two additional special education positions, $30,000; asphalt repairs, $42,000; and "other increases throughout budget due to inflation and growth. $178,000.

The Canton Board of Trustees last Tuesday created the position of a township community service and ordinance director to be responsible for enforcing township ordinances.

"It just got to the point where we were not able to do it with all our other duties," said Building Inspector Chuck Thompson. "You can't wear too many hats."

Qualifications for the $17,200 a year job are a: good public relations ability; knowledge of the workings of the court system and a minimum 18 months in ordinance enforcement work, said Thompson.

As of late Monday, only one person had signed for the posted job — township ordinance officer Bruce Phillips. "Bruce would probably be the logical to get it," Thompson said. "He's been here for two years." There are two ordinance officers in the township.

School appeals granted

All but seven of the 70-odd appeals to the random selection process have been granted by the Plymouth-Canton schools.

Of the 65 successful appeals, 43 students were switched from Canton to Salem High School, and 22 went from Salem to Canton. Four appeals received after the March 13 deadline set by the board of education were denied.

Fran-Venske, a secretary at the schools, said that confusion over the policy still exists and her office is still receiving calls and letters inquiring about the appeals process.

The community services director will be responsible for running the ordinance section of the building department, said Thompson. Thompson himself will oversee the new director.

Industrial land

"really a debt because of the continuing revenue arrangement the township has made with the manager.

"It won't hurt us as much now (to purchase) as it will in seven years," Gorman said.

Goldsmith said 25 acres of the land were not useable because it was flood plain.

Stein said the township engineer said only five acres were flood plain. Flodin told Goldsmith that "certainly some acres will be lost, but not entirely. Some of it could be filled, I'm sure."

Canton spending 'in line'

A three-month review of the Canton budget was presented to trustees last week. It showed that some $784,824 has been spent from a $2.5 million budget, while the township has collected about $1.6 million in revenues thus far.

Although $2,000 was allotted for police this year, none has so far been spent. The biggest expenditure for Canton so far, according to the report, are from the capitol outlay fund - $295,969 - (not including the recent land purchase the township made for $850,000) and $142,387 for the fire department. Fire has a total budget of $380,000. Utilities were also costly - $2,565 in bills for three months.

Supervisor Harold Stein has thus far been paid $4,846 from his $21,000 yearly salary and township trustees have been paid $1,440 thus far.

Stein has used $575 of $2,000 allotted for seminars. The township trustees have used $408 of $3,000 for seminars.

Canton has paid $8,864 in legal fees the first three months this year from a total budget of $30,000.

For community development, a category that includes the services of a township planner, engineer, grant coordinator, secretary and other clerical wages - $22,159 has been paid in fees.

Brenda Pollock, who recently resigned from her job as recreation director for the township at $15,000 per year, was paid $4,388 the first three months.

Canton Finance Director Mike Gorman, commenting on the state of the township budget, said "spending on the budget so far is not out of line, "everything is just fine," he said.

Canton to share road fixing?

Canton trustees are studying the possibility of sharing road-improvement costs with Wayne County Road Commission.

Under a program proposed by the Road commission, Canton would pay one third to participate, and the county would pick up the rest of the costs.

Canton would levy one mill the first year to come up with its one third share which the county totalled at $6.5 million.

"We have to have the equipment before we begin this program," said Canton Supervisor Harold Stein.

Roads in the township in the proposed program include Ford, Cherry Hill, Michigan, Geddes, Canton, Center, Sheldon and Haggerty roads.

Teacher to speak

The Canton Historical society will meet next Tuesday evening, April 18 at 8 p.m. at the Canton Recreation Hall on Michigan Avenue and Sheldon roads. The speaker will be a teacher who taught at the Canton Center School.

Cool Canton politics will aid industry

If Canton's political climate doesn't cool down, it could have a negative effect on its power to lure industrial tax base to the township, the chairman of the Canton Industrial Committee told trustees last Tuesday.

Describing Canton as a "slumbering giant" for industry, Robert Schaeztl, industrial committee chairman told members of both the board of trustees and planning commission that industry was necessary in the township to ease the tax burden on residents.

Trustees and commission members were also told that the zoning of land along freeways in Canton was important for industrial location. Canton has no such rezoning now.

"Like Livonia, we could have a similar industrial corridor near the highways and railroads," Schaeztl said. "Without industry, the taxes will come from residents to pay for the schools' new students."

Schaeztl also mentioned that an Economic Development Corporation Act "can make it easier for people to start here."

On the political climate in the township, Schaeztl said "I'd like to see a lot more harmony in the township. We need it. Canton is known as the "trouble township" according to some people. For several years the situation has been disruptive. We've got to get relief to the taxpayers.

"We need $250 million in industrial tax base here between now and 1982 and we should have good diversified industry," Schaeztl added.

Harold Fischer, a member of the committee, said the township needed to make sewer lines available to industry and "need to do it now, not after the next 6,000 homes are built. We must be aggressive," he said.

Members of the Canton Industrial Committee were appointed in January, 1977. They include John Wiltse, Eugene Hammond, Roger Haslich, Robert Bailey, Robert Smith, Richard Kirchgatter and Fischer.

Don't sneeze in ashtray

BY TOM SCHRAM
First of a Series

(Editor's Note: Tom Schram, a "noted" bar connoisseur, has visited nearly 500 drinking establishments in metropolitan Detroit in the past five years. His major work, "Metro Detroit Guide," lists some of the finest in and around Detroit. In this series, Schram will investigate bar hopping in the Plymouth-Canton area.)

In the beginning there was the grape. And the grape was made wine and dwelt among us.

Whether you are a Nehi teetotaler or an Altes addict, almost everyone at some point in his life finds himself headed for the tavern.

Which one to go to and how to act when you get there are critical matters. Wrong decisions can lead to such things as: a) chronic liver disorders; b) broken marriages; c) exhibitions in the manly art of self defense; d) hangovers or e) getting shut out at last call.

Of these, the last two are the most common and the last one by far the worst.

In the area of bar manners, it is important to note that each bar has its own "house rules" which mandate proper behavior.

For example, in certain higher class bars it is impolite to sneeze into the ashtray. At these places, tablecloths are provided for this purpose.

Bravely, then, with critical eye and a 90-day supply of Bromo, we will visit the teeming bistros of Plymouth and Canton, grading both the bar and the barfolk in terms of efficiency, ambience and overall strength of character.

Besides the obvious things (healthy-sized drinks, speedy service to those in need, ridiculously late last calls, the offbeat, bizarre and kinky will rate special notice.

Special features such as the following found in some of Detroit's most popular watering holes are particularly meritorious:

- *Pan handlers.
- *Mannequins.
- *Electrical fires.
- *Restriction or severe censorship women.
- *Physical abnormalities among the help.
- *Waiving the rule excluding pets if the customer pays cash.
- *Television sets which work only during the ballgame.
- *Juke boxes which do not work at all.
- *Pool tables with 14 or fewer object balls.
- *Exclusion of all electronic gadgetry.
- *Drinks on the house following each hold up.
- *Assistance finding the keys, getting to the car, getting into the car and getting the key into the ignition.
- With bonus points given for:
  - *Anything which slants off-center significantly.
  - *Anything which breaks down regularly of its own volition.
  - *Anything which chimes, gongs or explodes at irregular intervals.

Salem edges Thurston in season opener, 4-3

THE COMMUNITY CRIER: April 12, 1978

BY CHAS CHILD

Sparked by a two-run home-run by Catcher Dave Wilcox, the Salem baseball team edged Redford Thurston 4-3 Thursday in the Rocks' season opener at CEP.

Although the cold spring had given Salem few chances to practice outdoors, the team hit the ball hard and played a solid defensive game.

"It was a good opening game," said Salem Coach Brian Gilles. "I was very pleased with the way things went."

After two scoreless innings, Bobby Waite got things started in the bottom of the third with a long double up the right field alley.

Wilcox, the next man up, proceeded to blast a 330-foot homer over the left field fence to draw first blood for Salem.

Joe Goodsir kept the inning alive by stealing second after getting on first by an infield error.

Salem's starting pitcher, Doug Holloway, lined a single to center, but Goodsir was thrown out at the plate by a perfect throw from Thurston's centerfielder.

The visitors from Redford came right back with two of their own in the fourth. Holloway got in trouble and Gilles pulled him with two outs and the bases loaded and put in the Rocks' other starter, Bruce Piper, who had started the game at third base.

"Doug had thrown 51 pitches up to that point and he was getting tired. I had decided before the game to have them split the game, anyway," said Gilles.

Piper put out the fire but only after two runs came in on a fielding error.

The Rocks jumped back out ahead in the next inning when lead-off man Paul Dillon drilled a double over the centerfielder's head driving in John Lewelling from first.

In the fifth inning Goodsir scored the winning run when Lewelling walked with the bases loaded.

Thurston kept in close with a run in the top of the sixth, and Piper got in a little trouble in the seventh when he walked two men after the first batters grounded out. He struck out the next man up, however, to wrap up the victory.

"We only got six hits in the game, but we hit the ball hard at least 11 or 12 times," Gilles said. "We also made a few mental errors, but I think we learned from them. Overall, it was a good opener."

On Friday, Salem takes on last year's Suburban Eight League champion, Livonia Bentley, with Piper on the mound. The game begins at 4 p.m. at Bentley.

Rocks fall to Huron

BY JEFF REY

It was a grim opening day last Friday for the Salem tracksters who were forced to take it on the nose at the hands of Ann Arbor Huron, 103-55.

The Rocks won a total of five events at Friday's meet, which was originally scheduled for Thursday, but was moved up a day due to rain.

Senior Bob Dasher dominated the field events, grabbing a first in the shotput with a 150 feet, 10 inch toss, and then repeating in the discus with a 47' 8.5" toss.

Chris Ritchey finished second behind Dasher in the shotput and Tom Carl took a fourth in the discus.

Rich Hanscus finished fourth in the long jump and third in the high jump recording leaps of 20' 3" and 5'6" respectively.

In the pole vault Scott Kapler grabbed first place honors clearing 13 feet even. Jack Wellman took a second and Dave Skone finished fourth.

The Rocks won only two of 10 running events and still have some gaps in their line-up that need to be filled.

"We're hurting in a couple areas," said coach Gary Balconi, "both the high jump and our hurdles are weak. We also have some key injuries that are killing us."

Seniors Mike Skone, who is in a leg cast, and Mike Christie are both expected to fill the gaps once they recover from their injuries.

"Both Skone and Christie are superb athletes," said Balconi, "I'm hopeful that they'll be back soon."

Tom Rubadue was the lone Rock to win a running event grabbing a first in the two mile with a 10:40.8 finish. Paul Hess took a second in that event.

Salem's 880 relay team of Dave Booker, Ritchey, Carl and Greg Davis finished first with a time of 1:36.5.

In the 330 low hurdles, Mike Cambell took a fourth, and in the 120 high hurdles Phil Anderson placed fourth.

In the 220, Ritchey took a second turning in a 23.7 effort and Booker and Carl tied for fourth with a 24.7 finish.

The Rocks other top performers include Tom Covington with a third in the half mile, Greg Stevens placing second in the 100 yard dash, Scott Kleam finishing third in the mile, and Davis snatching a second in the 440.

"I think our club is real strong this year," said Balconi, "I was pleased with our relays and I expect a lot of personal improvements."

The Rocks open their league competition against Livonia Bentley tomorrow and then travel to Mansfield, Ohio, on Friday where they will compete in the Mansfield relays.

Register for jr. football

Boys aged nine through 13 can register for the Plymouth-Canton Junior Football League on Saturday, April 15, from 9 a.m. until noon at the Canton High School Cafeteria.

The youth's birth certificate and parent's signature are required and the fee is $15 but it can be payed later.

Gymnasts fail to place

The Plymouth JC Stars community gymnastics club competed Saturday at Canton High School for spots in the upcoming AAU national championships but none of the girls on the local team finished in the top two spots to qualify.

Laura Michalik in the 12-14 year old bracket earned Plymouth's highest finish, a seventh in vaulting. She also copped a 14th on the balance beam.

Also in the 12-14 bracket, Cheryl Neupert placed 12th in floor exercise, while Beale copped a 15th in vaulting and 14th on uneven bars.

On April 22 and 23, the Stars will host the club state championships at Canton High School. The girls had to score above 7.0 in the four events to qualify so the competition should be excellent. Lauric, Beale, Michalik, Neupert and Diane Zang will perform for the Stars.

Schultz to lead Salem

BY CHAS CHILD

Led by the team's No. 1 singles player from last year, Curt Schultz, the Salem tennis team is looking forward to improving its fourth place finish in the Suburban Eight League in 1977.

"I'm very optimistic," said Coach Jim Stevens. "The team practiced very hard over the winter and they've been playing much better than last year.

"The Suburban Eight is a tough league, however. But I think we have as good a chance as anybody to win it."

Schultz, a senior and co-captain, will almost certainly start at the No. 1 singles spot again this year.

Vying for the other singles spots Bob Braun, Scott Crespo, Dick Cook and Mark Thomas.

Stevens, a junior, had a sterling 11-4 season and the league crown a year ago at No. 2 doubles. And Crespo's chance to make a singles spot is a pleasant surprise to Stevens, as he is freshman.

At doubles, Stevens has Senior Co-captain Jeff Bearup, juniors Ed Thomas and Phil Coosha, sophomores Bob Jarvis, Larry Kummer, Blake Lundberg and ERick Heidt, as well as freshman Craig Baker.

"We'll be relying a lot on sophomores and juniors this year, but it'll still be a strong squad," said Stevens.

The Rocks open the season tomorrow against Bentley in Livonia. The meet starts at 3:30 p.m.

Chiefs have depth

BY ERIC OLSON

Groundstrokes (forehand and backhand), volleys, overheads, service, and service returns are the shots a tennis player needs to be good and a tennis needs about eight players with the above qualities to be good.

Since the regional format change two years ago which calls for an entire winning team to go to the state tournament rather than the top players teams must have player depth to win.

Canton Tennis Coach Jim Hayes feels he has depth that is needed. "We may not have the player quality at No. 1 and No. 2 singles this year, but we are very deep. And overall we should be very competitive."

In singles Hayes sees five players: Dave Keen, Doug Hetu, Dan Schmidt, Chris Aavio, Thad Louviere, and Bob Young battling for the four open positions.

Doubles players will include Len Webber, Greg Stratton, Steve Jones, Pete Lee, Keith Logsdon, Paul Ardonowski, and Mike Tagge.

"I haven't put together any doubles teams yet because we haven't practiced enough yet," said Hayes. He added, "we have only practiced outside twice so far this year."

Last year the Chief netters posted an 8-8 record and finished third in the Western Six. However, Coach Hayes was pleased with Chiefs season because of the way the team came on towards the end of the year.

"I was happy last year because we showed a lot of improvement at the season's end," explained Hayes.

Attempting to forecast the Western Six title race Hayes said, "Northville has been strong over the last couple of years and they won the regionals two years ago."

The Chief netters face Franklin away on Monday, April 17 and then travel to Harrison for a match on Wednesday, April 19 before their first home match against Stevenson on Friday, April 21 starting at 4 p.m.

Rock girl runners work to rebuild

BY ERIC OLSON

Although the Salem girl's track is in a rebuilding process they may be "Rock" solid this season. Finishing sixth in the Suburban Eight League (which has only seven teams) and recording a 4-6 dual meet mark last season the Rocks have a long way to rebuild.

"Our record and regional performance is a bit deceiving because we should have placed some people (in the regionals), but we didn't," said Salem skipper Scott Kurtz.

"I don't know who will be strong in the Sub-8 this year, but we should be near the top. I'm very optimistic about the upcoming season," added Kurtz.

The short sprints and relays should be the Rocks strengths this year. Ann Meixner and freshmen, Drlyn Sims and Lynn Henry, will compete in the 100 and 220 yard dashes.

The 440 yard dash could be, as described by Kurtz "one of our weak spots." So far Kurtz has been able to come up with only one competitor in the 440 event and that is Beth Hoerner.

In the 110 low hurdles Erin Lucas, Rene Renslavif, and Meixner will carry the torch for the Rocks. Lucas will team with Diane Perpich in the highjump.

Morman excels at Marietta

Marietta College freshman Stephen Morman of Plymouth is an outfielder or pitcher for the college's baseball team this season. A consistent title winner, the MC Pioneers ended their exhibition season with a record of nine wins, three losses.

A 1977 graduate of Plymouth-Canton High School, Stephen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus A. Morman of 14449 Robinwood, Plymouth.

Long jumping are Lisa Morris and Hoerner. Shot putting will be Carin Ford, Sharon Radionoff, and Cindy Nagy. Radionoff and Nagy also double in discus throwing.

Running middle distance, the half-mile, are Kathy Zilky, Sue Stanwood, and Kathy Sample. Anna Gotts and Sara Marks are the milers and they will also run the two mile with Jennifer DeBavey.

"This is another rebuilding group which should be much stronger this year, we have a lot of natural ability," stated Kurtz.

Rome was not built in a day nor in the length of a track season, but maybe Salem can build a winner in that time.

BY ERIC OLSON

This season should be one of vast improvement for the Canton girl's track team, but of course it will not be hard to improve on a 3-5 dual meet record and a fifth place finish in the Western Six conference.

First year assistant coach Scott Denson cites several reasons for this hoped-for improvement. "Basically one reason we'll be better than last year is that we have more experience," said Denson.

"Our sprinters are stronger (than last season) and they should form some very tough relay teams that hopefully can qualify for the state meet," continued Denson. "I think that maybe we can qualify two relay teams for the state meet this year."

Two years ago as a sophomore, Veronica Gray qualified for state competition in 220 yard dash and Coach Denson is hopeful she can repeat that performance.

Gray will serve with Lynn Rudolph and Cheryl Coble as tri-captains for the Chiefs. At this time Coble is injured and her playing status is unknown.

Katy Heaton, Diane Durocher, Lisa Richardson, and Katy Long will leg the 100 yard dash for the Chiefs; while Jan Pederson, Lynn Wheeler and Gray will handle the 220 yard dash.

In the remaining sprints, the 440 and 110 low hurdles, Jenny Tregembo, Laura Butler, and Elaine McGlenn will be tested by the agonizing 440 and Jan and Jill Pederson will compete in the hurdles along with Gretchen Snyder.

The distance events will be run by Jeri Schuafelt, Dawn Malke, and Butler are in the 880.

Putting the shot are Melinda Breen, Brenda Bigelow, Carol Durocher, and Heaton. Breen will also see action in the discus with Judy Purpura, Gray, Malke, and Rudolph.

Canton jumpingjacks include Kathy Sochecki and the Pedersons in the long jump with Heaton, Mallem, Gray, and Tregembo in the highjump!

"Walled Lake Western, which is traditionally strong, along with Waterford Mott will vie for Western Six conference honors," predicts Denson.

Perhaps the Chiefs won't be able to contend for the Western Six title, but they do hope to be a force in the regionals.

Canton Koufax tryouts slated

Tryouts for the Canton High team of the Sandy Koufax League will be held April 21, 22, and 23 at Central Middle School.

Boys 13 and 14 years old on the Canton High freshman team or who will attend Canton are eligible. Our Lady of Good Council students are also welcome to try out.

The practice on Friday, April 21, starts at 6:30 p.m. Saturday's session starts at 9 a.m., while Sunday's begin's at 1 p.m. Players should bring their own gloves and shoes.

For more information, call Gerald Ebmeyer, 729-1370.

Floor Hockey league forming

Applications are now being accepted by the Plymouth Parks and Recreation Department to form a Floor Hockey League - ages 16 to 30. If interested, stop by the Cultural Center at 525 Farmer Street and fill out an application. If enough people register, additional information will be supplied.

Planners see open land dwindling

suburban estates will be built. Doing that, he said, the township would have to ask, "Are we as a community being exclusionary?" If you don't strike a balance between big lots and smaller ones and apartments and mobile home parks, the courts - to which developers often turn if their projects meet resistance from the planners - will be less likely to recognize township decisions to maintain those more expensive and spacious neighborhoods elsewhere where they've been designated as the best use of the land.

You also have to recognize the need for convenient commercial activity" - neighborhood stores - adjoining those subdivisions, the planner said.

Township land is currently 1.5 per cent commercial, under the new plan, it could become 2.4 per cent commercial. Even greater industrial growth is projected, from 6.4 per cent of the land to 13.3 per cent.

But township planning commissioners have decided against encouraging the development of larger, regional shopping malls. In part, because the planners recognize their relationship to the City of Plymouth, which continues to serve as a convenient hub for township residents.

Strip zoning, which leads to the neon corridors like Ann Arbor Road, has been discouraged in planning future township commercial development.

A big question mark - and major influence on the planners' forecast - is the effect of the M-14 Expressway's Beck Road interchange. It is sections of the township northeast and northwest of that exit that the planners suggest as the best place to locate high-density housing, such as small lots or mobile homes. Projected there also is a small shopping area, serving exiting motorists as well as that new population.

The subdivisions to the west are expected, ultimately, to be served by several new roads. Although the county, not the township, has jurisdiction over roads in the township, the planning commission's map does suggest new routes.

County planners already project the extension of Napier Road, which is the township's western boundary, north from North Territorial. Tiny Gotchalk Road east of Napier would also be extended northward from North Territorial to Five Mile. The township foresees a new north-south connector between North Territorial and Powell running parallel to Beck on the east and Ridge on the west, as well as another from Powell south to Joy across Ann Arbor Trail. Also envisioned is a connector farther west of Ridge between Powell and Ann Arbor Road and between Powell east of Napier and Ridge south of North Territorial. And south of Five Mile from Sheldon west to Beck - through areas zoned for industry (north of the Ford plant) and high-density housing - a new east-west road is planned.

Along with expressways, another question in the township's future is the fate of public and institutional lands. If St. John's Seminary at Five Mile and Sheldon were sold, what would happen?

Right now, planning commissioners think the rolling, open parcel could be a logical place for multi-story apartments, because it borders industrial areas and yet is attractive and convenient to the Sheldon Road expressway interchange.

The township's existing mid-rise zoning, which permits taller buildings, will come under scrutiny under the new plan, which is expected to prefer custom-tailored planned unit development (PUDS) for multi-story projects, rather than permitting them under an open mid-rise zoning classification.

Office developments, still a rarity in Plymouth Township, would be encouraged southwest of the I-96 and M-14 interchange along Schoolcraft Road, and on the Burroughs parking lot property on Plymouth Road which the city is hoping to annex.

If the planning commission approves its new land use plan, it goes to the county for evaluation. After county approval, the township can re-examine current zoning to see where it is inconsistent with the kind of growth envisioned in the Future Land Use Plan.

At that time, perhaps months off, the township will begin translating this new use plan, which Anulewicz describes as "where we see we're going," into the concrete definitions of a new zoning map.

Why won't Canton pick part-timers?

contend that the township would treat them unfairly to show preference to outside applicants. The part-timers were granted that point in a recent compromise, and will be given first consideration for patrol officer jobs, but they still have not agreed with the township on three testing procedures: a written exam, a medical exam and an agility test. The current officers say they don't want to take the tests again.

The township, on the other hand, says it wants to hire "the best qualified" police officers and that it is impossible to dispense with those three - or any - tests. They have asked what the part-time officers are "afraid of," since they passed the tests the first time. The township thinks the part-time cops don't meet the established criteria, especially in experience.

"Nobody can tell if those tests bear any relation to whether or not you'll get good police officers," attorney Garber countered.

Canton Police Chief Walter MacGregor said last fall, when he presented the board with his qualifications for four full-time sergeants' positions, that, "in all due respect, I don't think they are qualified." Mac Gregor recommended hiring sergeants with eight years' experience on a police force. None of the part-time patrol officers, including the sergeants, have that much experience.

Clerk John Flodin repeated that argument a few weeks ago, saying, "While we feel they are capable, they don't have the skills we advertised for, like eight year's experience."

Carl Silvers, who was "commander" of the reserves during the Greenstein administration, has never had a written contract with the township, and it is unclear what his duties are since MacGregor was hired. His title is now, and always has been, according to the township, "coordinator of the Canton reserve force." He is under Chief MacGregor's direction and remains on the payroll. MacGregor's duties have been directed towards the establishment of a full-time force.

The part-time officers feel threatened by the township's "clean-slate" attitude. They feel that the time they've spent so far working to become certified and going through tests ought to count in the township's hiring decisions.

They say their scores on the tests were high - significantly above all others," according to John Longridge, part-time officer who is president of the Canton Police Officer's Association. "That's proof we're qualified," Longridge added.

Township officials will continue to insist on hiring the "best qualified" cops according to their newly-established criteria. They say no one is taking away the part-time officers' jobs - they are just trying to create a full-time police department in addition to the reserves. Township officials say they just want the part-time officers to apply and take the tests like anyone else and "prove to the community" they are qualified.

The part-time officers say they have already done that and see no need to repeat their testing.

However, in light of the recent dismissal of the four part-time sergeants case against the township, the court apparently agrees with the township - at least on one case.

Depending on what next Wednesday's ruling of the Silver's case will reveal, Canton residents may have a full-time police department within a month.

of the reserves. He obtained an injunction from the court that barred Police Chief Walter MacGregor and the township board from hiring four full-time sergeants.

The four part-time sergeants, Roger Pearsall,

Donald Tillman, Donald La Framboise and Paul Goff, asked to be part of Silver's suit. All but Pearsall are members of the Canton Police Officer's Association (CPOA) which said it was backing the four. Pearsall, not a member of the CPOA, withdrew from the case "to wait out the storm," his attorney said.

John Collins, attorney for the three part-timers, said they would have to "wait and see" what happens to them when the township goes ahead with its full-time hiring.

"However, there is a voluntary agreement between them and the board that the board won't put new men to work until Silver's case is resolved," Collins said.

"I don't know if we will pursue (a separate case)," Collins said. "They expect to be offered full-time positions as patrol officers — they have accepted the fact that they won't be offered any commanding officer jobs. If not, we'll consider the case again." A hearing on Silver's case is scheduled for next Wednesday.

The township's position is that it wants to hire "the best qualified" officers for its police department. Their qualifications for sergeants include eight years police experience — which none of the part-timers have — and require tests be taken by any candidate for a patrol officer's job. The part-timers have said those tests are "redundant," and that they have already taken tests that qualify them as police officers.

3 file for board seat

gatter filled the seat vacated by George Lawton who resigned in January of this year.

Davis, who lives at 11750 Parkview in Plymouth Township, said she'd like a chance to follow up on the decisions she's helped make on the board. These include getting the gifted and talented program off to a good start, and insuring a good program at the high schools as they grow.

Since her children are on the Extended School Year (ESY) program, Kirchgatter said the board needs her viewpoint. She lives at 48377 Gyde Road in Canton.

William Johnson, of 12065 Tall Tree Drive in Plymouth Township, said he looks forward to the challenge of serving the community. Growth is the biggest problem facing the school district, he said. He is an attorney for Ford Motor Company.

All three candidates have good voting records:

Johnson's record shows he has missed two of the eight school elections since he registered May 11, 1973.

Kirchgatter, on the other hand, has missed only one of 14 school elections since she registered in September of 1969. And Davis, since registering in October, 1973, voted in all six school elections up to now.

Johnson and his wife Teresa have a son Martin, an eighth grader at West Middle School, and a daughter, Lucy, a fifth grader at Bird Elementary School.

Davis and her husband Gary also have two children: Mark, a sixth grader at Central Middle School and Tim, a kindergartner at Allen.

Kirchgatter and her husband Dick have three children: June, seventh grade, Pioneer Middle School; Jill, fourth grade, Gallimore; and Joy, first grade, Gallimore.

CANTON TOWNSHIP PLANNING COMMISSION
CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF CANTON
NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE ZONING ORDINANCE AND FELLOWS CREEK PLANNED UNIT DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT AND CHERRY HILL PLANNED UNIT DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENTS, OF THE CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF CANTON, WAYNE COUNTY, MICHIGAN.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN pursuant to Act 184 of the Public Acts of Michigan as amended, and pursuant to the Zoning Ordinance of the Charter Township of Canton that the Planning Commission of the Charter Township of Canton will hold a Public Hearing on Monday, May 8, 1978, at the Canton Township Hall, 128 Canton Center Road at 8:00 p.m. E.D.T. on the following proposed amendments to the Zoning Ordinance:

Consideration of a proposed amendment to the Fellows Creek Planned Unit Development agreement. This property is located at the southwest corner of Sheldon and Ford Roads. The amendment would allow construction of a fast food variety center, by designating the zoning of the property C-1, Local Business and specifically enumerating the permitted uses for the property. It is the intention of the Planning Commission to hear and consider a proposal that would allow a clustering of restaurant or "fast food" buildings on the property. Further objectives include:

- 1) Retain the property as a single parcel under one ownership.
- 2) Minimize the number of points of ingress and egress onto Ford Road.
- 3) Provide connecting pedestrian linkages.
- 4) Provide a common central court or patio area between separate buildings.
- 5) Encourage consolidation of several eating establishments on one site instead of scattered sites.

HEARING NO. 2

Consideration of a proposed amendment to the Cherry Hill Planned Unit Development agreement. This property is located on the south side of Cherry Hill and east of Sheldon Road in Section 22 of the township. The amendment would allow construction of single family residential homes on the ten acres previously designated as a school site.

Comments on the proposed change may be made in writing prior to the scheduled hearing date, and submitted to the Township's Administrative offices at 44508 Geddes Road and/or comments may be given at the time of the hearing.

Energy Outlook:

Returning to Normal.

The nation's longest coal strike has now become history and shipments of coal are returning to normal. For Detroit Edison customers this means you have all the electricity you need, but we hope you will continue to use it wisely.

Unlike many other states, Michigan was able to avoid mandatory power cutoffs through careful planning and the cooperation of business, government and consumers. By buying electricity from outside sources and by burning alternate fuels like natural gas and oil, Detroit Edison was able to stretch its supply of coal and help avoid shutdowns and layoffs. Of course, this was more expensive and the costs will be reflected in higher electric bills for April, May and June. For the average customer using 500 kilowatt hours, this could amount to between $2 and $3 more than billed in March.

The recent crisis once again points out the need for energy consciousness on the part of everyone. So while coal is beginning to move again, Detroit Edison would like to remind all its customers to use good judgment in their use of electricity. This especially holds true for major energy users like refrigerators, furnace blowers, air conditioners and electric clothes dryers. The more wisely these appliances are used, the more the savings in energy and money will count up.

Detroit Edison thanks you for your cooperation during the coal strike and reminds you to save where it really counts. The power is in your hands.
