Vote early on Tuesday. That's the word from election official in the City of Plymouth, Plymouth Township and Canton Township.

Long lines are expected at all precincts in the community as voters go to the polls to elect officials from Michigan's Governor to local township trustee.

All polls open at 7 a.m. and close at 8 p.m. Plymouth City Clerk Paul Brumfield asked voters to avoid, if possible, the rush times at the polls: early morning, lunch-time, and about 5 p.m.

He expects a very high turnout, about 65 per cent. "We have twice as many absentee ballots as we did in the last mid-term election four years ago," said Brumfield.

Voters have been encouraged to use absentee ballots if they're eligible, because of the long lines expected on election day and the complicated ballot.

Canton Clerk John Flodin also predicted a high turnout, somewhere between 60 and 70 per cent. "I think the three tax proposals are doing it," he said.

Citizens may familiarize themselves with the ballot by looking at samples printed on page 27.

Leading the local portion of the long ballot is the race to fill a new seat on the 35th District Court bench. James Garber of Plymouth Township faces Philip Ogilvie of Northville for the four-year term. Incumbent Judge Dunbar Davis is running unopposed for the original seat.

In Canton, the supervisor's seat is up for grabs, as incumbent Harold Stein tries to stay in office with a write-in campaign. Democrat Noel Culbert and Republican John Longridge are also campaigning for the job.

Three candidates are also vying for the treasurer position in Canton: Democrat Maria Falkiewicz, Republican Jim Donahue, and write-in candidate Anne Bradley.

For two trustee seats on Canton's Board of Trustees, the hopefuls are: Democrats Robert Greenstein and Carol Bodenmiller, and Republican Gary Roberts.

Canton voters will also decide on the Farmland Preservation proposal which asks residents to raise the tax limitation by four mills to pay for the purchase of development rights of about 5,000 acres in the western half of the township.

In Plymouth Township, no Democrats ran in the primary, so the Republican candidates are assured of victory. These include: Trustees Barb Lynch and Gerald Law, Clerk Esther Hulsing, Supervisor Tom Notebaert, and Treasurer Joe West.

In the leading race for national office, Republican incumbent Carl Pursell of Plymouth Township is being challenged by two hopefuls: Democrat Earle Greene and Henry Kroes of the American Independent Party.

The 15th U.S. Congressional District, which includes Canton, sees incumbent William Ford facing Republican challenger Edgar Nieten.

The Plymouth-Canton Community will also send a pair of candidates to Michigan's State Senate. Paul Kadish, a Democrat, is hoping to unseat Republican incumbent Bob Geake in the 14th District (Plymouth Township and the City of Plymouth), while District to build three new schools?

BY PATRICIA BARTOLD

Voters may be asked to approve two separate bond issues totalling $23 million for school renovation and the construction of additional classrooms perhaps as early as next spring.

In a Board of Education workshop on Monday night, school officials discussed soaring student populations and alternatives for dealing with that growth.

One idea proposed by Asst. Supt. Ray Hoedel was to split a bond request into two questions: Proposal A for $10 million would include the installation of ramps, restroom facilities, elevators and lifts for the handicapped, as well as roof repairs and insulation for present schools.

Proposal B for $13 million would cover construction costs for three proposed new buildings.

Those schools would include: a school for kindergarten through eighth grades located south of Warren Road, between Beck and Canton Center Roads; an elementary school on Saltz Road, which is located south of Ford and north of Cherry Hill roads; and up to 40 additional classrooms to be built at Canton High School.

Supt. Mike Hoben pinpointed two areas of growth in the district — the Sunflower subdivision, south of Warren road between Beck and Canton Center Roads, and the Saltz Road area.

Furthermore, Hoedel said construction costs have risen 17 per cent since last year and he urged board members to decide soon if the construction of new buildings would be considered in the district.

Responding to that urgency, President Tom Yack proposed direct citizen involvement through the formation of a Blue Ribbon Committee to make recommendations to the board.

Yack asked board members to come to the next workshop on Monday, Nov. 6 with the names of citizens who

City hires assistant

John J. Zech, 29, a planner working in Columbus, Ohio, has been hired as Plymouth's Assistant to the City Manager.

He will replace Mark Wollenweber, who was recently hired as City Manager of Huntington Woods.

A community development co-ordinator of the Mid-Ohio Regional Planning Commission, Zech holds a BA from the University of Detroit and has 50 credit hours towards a masters degree from Ohio State University.

His duties at Mid-Ohio include working for the Franklin County Housing and Community Development Program

"where he serves some 45 cities," wrote City Manager Fred Yockey in a letter to the City Commission.

Yockey hired Zech after a talent search by the City Manager which narrowed the field to Zech and another candidate.

He will start his new job, which pays $18,000 per year, on Nov. 20. Wollenweber is scheduled to leave Plymouth Nov. 3.

In Plymouth, Zech will work on federal program negotiations, the annual report and numerous other staff duties, said Yockey.

Hilltop gets new operator

A bid to lease the Plymouth Township Hilltop Golf Course for $35,000 or 50 per cent of the green fees, whichever is greater, was approved by township trustees at their board meeting on Tuesday night.

The bid, made by John Jawor of Farmington, was the lowest of five bids ranging from seven to 10 per cent of the gross income or about $8,400 to $18,000 yearly.

The five-year lease must be drafted by township attorney Donald Morgan.

Former Hilltop manager Dan Ross did not bid on the project.

Schools, PCEA can't agree in starting-time dispute

BY PATRICIA BARTOLD

After negotiations, no agreement was reached between the Plymouth-Canton Education Association and the Board of Education to settle the dispute about the starting times of schools.

That means the case will be turned back over to arbitrator Nathan Lipson for final settlement.

Originally, Lipson gave both sides 20 calendar days to settle the conflict after ruling the school board must negotiate changes in the schedule.

Asst. Supt. for Employee Relations Norm Kee said they negotiated, but were unable to resolve the problems.

Meanwhile, John Ryder, president of the PCEA, said, "Some outside force, other than negotiations, is needed to make them think we're serious."

Neither Kee nor Ryder

knew when a final settlement would be announced in the case.

Teachers filed suit against the board at the end of August for grievances which included: staggering the starting and closing times of schools and delaying the opening of elementary schools by one hour one day per week; shortening the lunch period; changing the planning-time periods of elementary teachers; excessive classes being assigned to art, music, and physical education teachers; and, the involuntary transfer of some teachers.

Error may stall new sign ordinance

BY CHAS CHILD

A technical error in publication of legal notices will probably delay the adoption of Canton Township's new sign ordinance by about two months.

The delays mean the ordinance, which permits free-standing ground signs, will not be before the board until two and possibly four seats are changed after the election.

The error came in the publication dates of the proposed law prior to the township Planning Commission's hearing on May 22, 1978.

Under the law governing publication of legal notices, the proposed changes must be printed twice in the legal newspaper of the township (The Community Crier): The first between 30 and 20 days before the hearing and a second time no more than eight days before the hearing.

On instructions from the township, The Crier published the changes for the first time on April 26, which met the provisions of the statute. However, it was printed the second time two weeks later on May 10, which was 12 days before the hearing and obviously not according to the eight day limit.

Although the township attorney has not officially released an opinion, Clerk John Flodin said it looks like the Planning Commission will have to republish the proposed changes and hold another hearing.

Only after this process, can the Board of Trustees receive the document for possible adoption.

Robert Greenstein, candidate for trustee in the upcoming election, discovered the error. Earlier he had charged that the present board, led by Supervisor Harold Stein, was trying to ramrod the proposed sign law through before the election.

Furthermore, it was during the administration of Greenstein, who was supervisor from 1974-76, that the present sign ordinance, which prohibits free-standing ground signs for businesses was passed.

However, Trustee Eugene Daley, a supporter of Stein, further muddled the sign-ordinance waters through his research. He said Monday that when the present ordinance was enacted in 1975, that it too had been improperly published in the newspapers.

Greenstein, said that since the present law has been in force for three years, improper publication may not necessarily make it invalid.

Besides permitting free-standing ground signs, the proposed ordinance allows billboards along I-275 and large signs on Michigan Avenue and Ford Road near I-275.

Canton OKs liquor license for Palace

The Palace Restaurant on Ford Road in Canton received a liquor license from the Board of Trustees last Tuesday.

The presentation was criticized by some persons who said that the township's liquor licenses should be given to larger, "fancier," restaurants that will provide a substantial tax base for the community.

"Giving liquor licenses to truck stops is ridiculous," said former Supervisor Robert Greenstein.

Clerk John Flodin defended the action: "The owner has a 15-year lease which indicates permanence," and fancy restaurants "aren't exactly beating a path to our door," he said.

Canton candidates support saving farmland

BY PHYLLIS REDFERN

The seven candidates who attended the Canton candidates night support a tax increase to preserve farmland in the township. Although they're pessimistic about the voter's response to the land use issue, the candidates all agree something should be done now.

The only other question that a majority of the candidates agreed on was: "Do you favor liquor licenses being given to fast food restaurants?"

Jim Donahue, Maria Falkiewicz, (candidates for treasurer) and Carol Bodenmiller (candidate for trustee) all said "no." In agreeing with them, Noel Culbert, (candidate for supervisor) said "they should be used to attract good business," and Robert Greenstein, (candidate for trustee) said "anyone who voted for giving the Palace one last night is an idiot." (The Palace restaurant, located on Ford Road was granted a liquor license the preceding night, by the Canton Township Board.)

John Flodin, (candidate for clerk) said each business should be decided individually. Gary Roberts (candidate for trustee) said the licenses should go to family restaurants, but "when you turn someone down, you should have a legal reason."

Homeowners rights versus the rights of business was another issue discussed in dealing with the sign ordinance. Greenstein said the community should be run by homeowners not business, while Roberts disagreed, saying many taxes are being paid by businesses. Donahue said "businesses need signs — yes, monsters — no. Let's reach a happy medium."

Bodenmiller and Culbert both suggested that maybe it was possible for the business people and residents to work together. In agreeing with them, Flodin said, "Canton must be a pretty good place, or all these people wouldn't be moving out here."

Falkiewicz and Donahue agree that the current budget process is satisfactory, however

Donahue said he was against spending the surplus now. Falkiewicz said, "I'm for common sense spending, I will not act quickly, but will seek out more information on issues."

Bodenmiller said she was "against the expense of buying the recreation building and remodeling the old meeting hall while the new hall sits half empty. I don't understand this unnecessary spending."

On the question of modifying or changing existing building zoning in the future, Culbert responded, "I'm for strict zoning." Flodin said he would consider it if it's needed by the community.

Donahue agreed saying, "if it's pleasing to the people around there." Falkiewicz said, "you have to consider each request individually."

Greenstein disagreed with the majority saying "you don't modify the zoning once you have a master plan."

The candidates night was held last Wednesday night at the new Canton Administration Hall on Canton Center Road. It was sponsored by the League of Women Voters and The American Association of University Women. The only candidate not in attendance was John Longridge, candidate for supervisor.

3 held in string of local heists

Police have arrested and charged one man from Canton and two area residents in connection with thefts in Plymouth and Canton in early October.

Charged with larceny from a person was 20-year old Jeffrey Woods, 43166 Fernwood, Canton; 20-year old Keith McKenna, 31446 Palmer, Westland; and 18-year old Robert Bendoian, 29728 Buckingham, Livonia.

At approximately 1:25 a.m. on Oct. 6, two men approached the window of the Speedway gas station, Main and Mill Streets, Plymouth, asking for $1 change, reported Sgt. Dan Carpenter of the Plymouth Police.

When the attendant opened the cash box, the men reached in and grabbed about $70, said Carpenter. The men escaped with a third man waiting in a car, said Carpenter.

The three suspects are also charged in connection with a robbery occurring at the Quik Pik store on Lilley Road in Canton on Oct. 7.

Woods and Bendoian are charged with larceny from a building, and McKenna is charged with armed robbery in that case.

According to Canton Police Sgt. Dennis Joker, two men confronted the cashier at Quik Pik with a long-bladed knife at about 7:30 a.m. After taking about $63, they escaped with a third man posted as a look-out outside, said Joker.

The three suspects were also charged with a third robbery in Westland about two weeks ago, said Carpenter.

Wild costumes win

Charter seeks place on ballot

When will the next Plymouth Heights election be held?

That question, as yet unanswered, is one of the many unresolved issues facing retiring Plymouth Township Clerk Helen Richardson.

A charter for the election has been sitting in Lansing for some time awaiting Governor William Milliken's signature.

Originally, the Plymouth Heights charter commission hoped to include the issue on the August primary ballot but opted against that because of the number of issues facing voters then. The November ballot, with its host of statewide proposals, was also out of the question.

It is likely, now, said Richardson, that a special election will be held in January to put the matter before the voters for the eighth time.

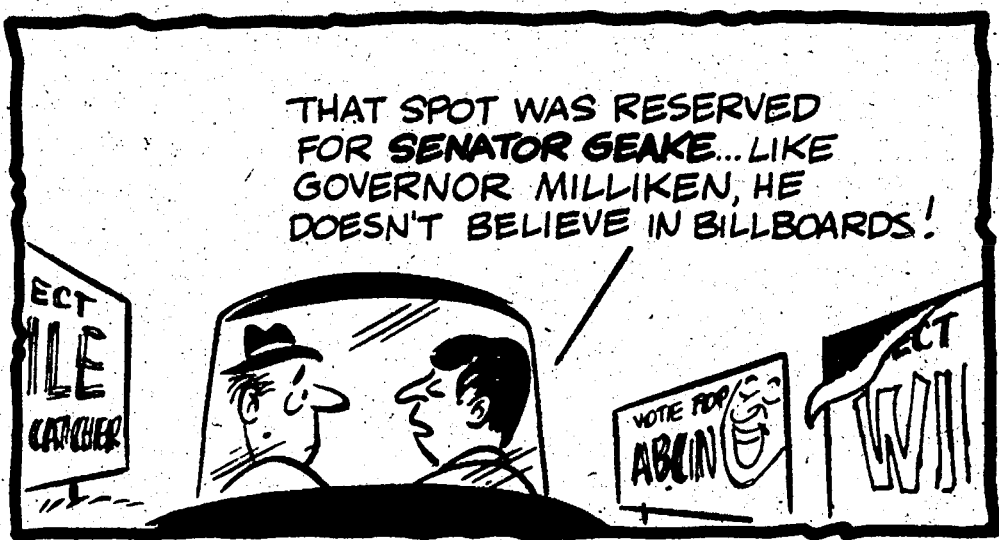

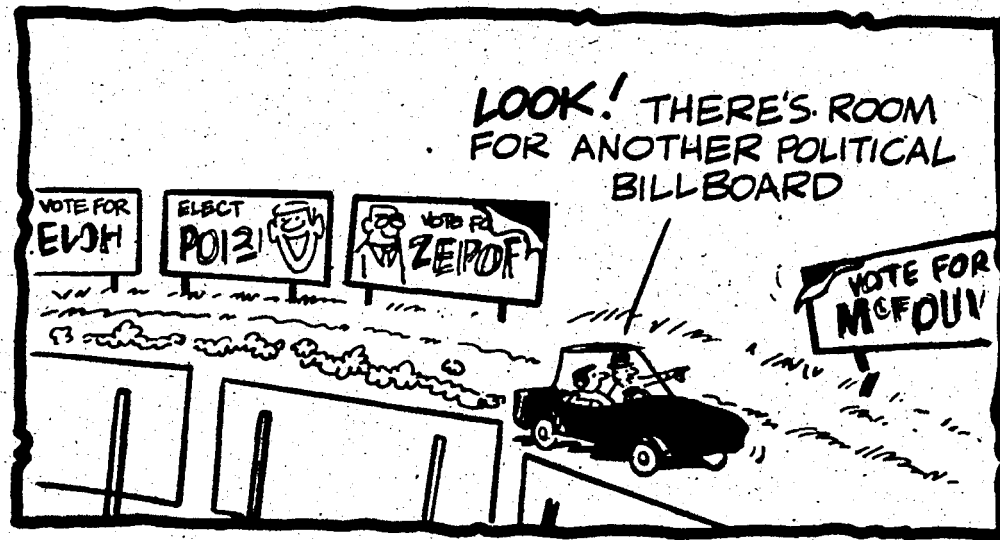

Plymouth Heights is the area of Plymouth Township east of McClumpha Road which voted for incorporation as a city on Feb. 16, 1959, but has never approved a charter in seven subsequent elections.

Twp. buys machines

Plymouth Township Trustees approved the purchase of seven used voting machines during last Tuesday night's meeting, but denied a request to replace a second rescue unit.

Acting on the recommendation of Clerk Helen Richardson, seven used Shoup voting machines will be bought from Northville for $2,800. Since the price tag on a new machine is $3,000, the $400 per unit cost "is too good a buy to pass up," said Richardson.

In other action, Supervisor Thomas Notebaert requested approval for the purchase of a 1978 rescue unit to replace a 1973 vehicle. Trustees denied the motion, 6-1, because a replacement vehicle was bought 30-45 days ago, for the first rescue unit," said Richardson.

"We can't replace both in one year," she said.

Trustee Richard Gornick responded by asking, "Why should we replace it when we don't have the evidence to support the need for a new one?"

Notebaert said he recommended the purchase to save considerable money later after the new models came out at higher prices. Notebaert cast the only dissenting vote.

Finder is keeper too

Honesty is not its only reward, at least for Dale Christofferson of Hay Springs, Neb.

For his honest efforts to return $875 he and his wife found in a Canton motel on Michigan Avenue last year, Christofferson will receive two-thirds of the cash.

Under a tentative settlement with Wayne County officials, keepers of the cash since Christofferson gave the money to the Sheriff's Department, the owners of the motel, Christofferson and Canton Township would each receive one-third of the sum.

Citing his honesty, however, the Board of Trustees voted last Tuesday to give the township's share to Christofferson.

"I'd like to meet that man," said Clerk John Flodin.

Democrat William Faust is running against Republican Coleman Flaskamp II in the 13th District (Canton).

The State Representative races look like this: In the 37th District, which includes most of Plymouth Township and all of the City of Plymouth, Republican incumbent Roy Smith of Saline faces challenger Thomas Kaas, supervisor of Augusta Township in southeast Washtenaw County.

In the 37th State Representative District, Thomas Brown, Democrat of Westland is running against Thomas Sullivan, also of Westland. The 37th District includes all of Canton and a portion of Plymouth Township.

Finally, William Joyner, Democrat of Plymouth Township, hopes to retain his seat on the Wayne County Commission against Republican Frank Yonish of Wayne.

Hoben said the discussion of a bond issue was "purely speculative" and said the committee would discuss various alternatives for dealing with the student growth.

According to enrollment projections released from Hoben's office, student enrollment may soar to 19,444 by 1983-84.

VOTE CULBERT for CANTON TWP. SUPERVISOR

★ DEMOCRAT ★

PG. 7
THE COMMUNITY CRIER: November 1, 1978

CULBERT, a hardworking practicing attorney and life-long resident of this area, possesses all the intellectual integrity and practical experience needed to understand the complex problems facing the township.

CANTON NEIGHBORS FOR CULBERT

HOMEOWNERS SUPPORT CULBERT

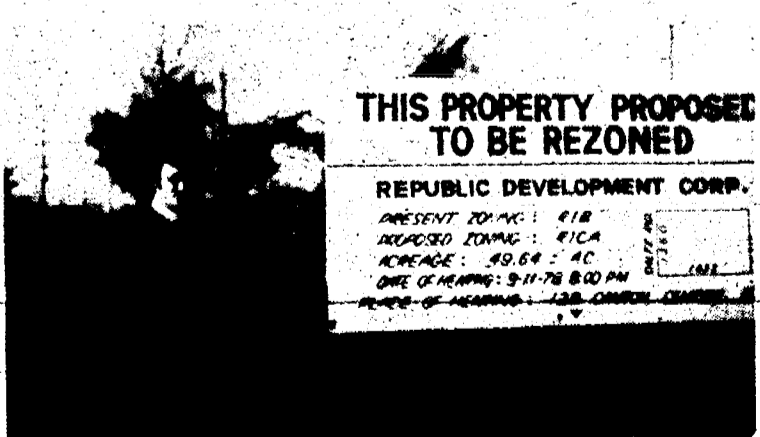

Homeowners Mr. & Mrs. D. Farmer

PROFESSIONALS SUPPORT CULBERT

Dr. Dennis Gut

The immense number of rezonings by developers in recent years has dramatically demonstrated the need for Growth Control.

CULBERT ON THE ISSUES

★ Homeowner Protection

NOEL D. CULBERT believes the homeowners in the area are being victimized by unscrupulous builders. CULBERT has proposed an ordinance which penalizes builders for bad workmanship and the creation of an escrow fund guaranteeing satisfactory completion of homes.

★ Growth Control

In a time of rampant growth and development, the township is suffering growing pains. The present administration has proposed nothing to ease this pain. CULBERT is for controlled growth so that our Township services and your dollars will not be overtaxed.

★ Cut Taxes & Spending

The Township budget has doubled within the past two years. CULBERT pledges to cut wasteful spending and eliminate imprudent purchases such as the golf course and helicopters. CULBERT believes that by eliminating waste he will be able to cut taxes without affecting township services.

★ Citizen Security

CULBERT believes that Canton Township citizens deserve the peace of mind that results from an expanded police force. CULBERT is willing to work hard to insure the safety of all the citizens of Canton Township.

★ Independent Leadership

CULBERT is his own man. CULBERT is not a product of any machine, slate or special interest group. CULBERT is committed to fair, sincere and honest government for the people. Once elected CULBERT will only be indebted to YOU the VOTERS!

According to Mr. James Uchart, Noel Culbert was instrumental in uncovering builder's fraud and resolving construction defects in their new home.

The intersection at Ford and Lilley is a prime example of the problems produced by the uncontrolled growth of the Township.

CULBERT CARES ABOUT CANTON

Paid for by Committee to elect Noel D. Culbert Canton Supervisor, 1706 Woodbridge Ct., Canton.

Canton OKs more time for 'Center'

The Center, a large indoor recreation complex planned for Haggerty Road near Ford Road, was granted a one-year extension of its site plan approval last Tuesday by Canton's Board of Trustees.

The extension depended upon whether the township's Zoning Board of Appeals would grant a similar extension to the project's variances from the zoning ordinance.

The developers of the project must re-earn permission to exceed height restrictions and to build closer to residentially zoned parcels than the present ordinance provides.

The site-plan extension is automatically granted once the ZBA grants these variances.

Ned Apigian, asked the ZBA to hold a special meeting on Nov. 9 to re-hear his requests. The ZBA was not scheduled to meet until Nov. 26. The meeting starts at 7:30 p.m. at Township Hall.

New Canton Hall dedicated

TO DEDICATE Canton's new Township Hall, Supervisor Harold Stein presents a plaque which certifies that the flag flying at the hall flew over the U.S. Capitol in Washington D.C. on Oct. 19. The reading of the plaque was one ceremony in the grand opening of the hall held Saturday morning. (Crier photo by Chas Child.)

Brownie Bee Day

More reserve cops coming

A Canton police reserve force of up to 30 officers was approved by the Board of Trustees last Tuesday.

The reserves would "take up the slack" in time of need, said Police Chief Walter MacGregor. On a voluntary basis, the part-time officers would perform clerical chores, answer telephones and help patrolmen according to their abilities, said MacGregor.

After selection by an oral exam given by two Canton sergeants, each reserve will probably work around 16 hours per month, said the chief.

Trustee Lynne Goldsmith objected to an oral-board selection of the officers. "We should hire reserves and train them through an official school and pay them. I want a more professional department and it's worth paying for" she said.

4. If elected, would you try to continue the present township administration's effort to attract industry into Canton? And overall, how would you balance residential and commercial interests in the township?
5. Would you make any major changes in Canton's budget? For example, is the township overspending or underspending in some areas?

certain defeat on this issue. However, I must favor it. I agree with the concept of preserving the open spaces. The taxpayers must be given this program at the lowest possible cost. Every other alternative funding source for the program must be used before local taxes. Such alternatives haven't been examined thoroughly.

2. This ordinance doesn't carry out the original intent of the sign committee which recommended "low profile" signs. Further, it has 13 separate errors, omissions, and contradictions in it. The signs allowed will be too big, too high, and have too few restrictions on them in residential areas. This ordinance has been written with very little of the residents' wishes addressed.

Canton candidates answer

3. I am unhappy with the direction our township is taking. It must be changed. It would not be right for me to shift that responsibility to someone else. I want to help change Canton's image. Many people perceive Canton as a playground for little politicians who need to grow up. We must set our course of action for the future, and start working so that we get there!

4. Yes, however, I would not attract industry so that we will have to forfeit our pleasant surroundings and clean environment. We should not force ourselves into terrible debt purchasing land that businesses should buy for themselves. Our responsibility is to provide the proper climate that will nurture and encourage industry. We cannot continue "giving away the cookie jar" just to get a few businesses.

5. Yes, we are overspending for: secretarial services; maintenance, dog warden salary, land purchases, and some equipment investments. We are underspending for: salaries for supervisor and clerk (many good people don't run for office as they cannot afford a cut in wages) and the trustees ought to receive an annual stipend because of the many hours of work required outside the weekly meetings.

MARIA FALKIEWICZ

1. Yes. I believe if handled efficiently it will be a great accomplishment for the good of all. My reservations are because of the many unanswered questions. The Board & Commissioners obligation will be, keep the people of Canton informed on the progression of this program. Also, I'm hoping "Politics" will not blind the important decisions that must be made. When all the questions can be answered and all information is complete, it will then be the responsibility of Canton Officials to insure that we are proceeding in the right direction.

2. No. Not unless you want another Westland. Although I can appreciate the concerns of our businessmen, at this time, I feel that the committees involved have come up with the best solution. I am completely against billboard signs on 275. The only signs allowed should be for travelers, and safety (Hospitals, Police, gas stations, food, and emergency services).

3. I have sat back long enough and complained. I felt that it was time to take the initiative and get involved to have a real voice in our government. I feel that with diversified experience, you are able to see many issues clearly where others are blinded by "Political Games". I would like to see more community involvement; Youth Programs, Police 911, a vocal point of Canton, Annual Summer Festival.

4. As long as it isn't a long term tax loss for Canton. An actual, not imaginary, land use plan must be developed

In good education through good schools and good teachers. That the school is a focal point in the community.

In a sound mental health program to end overcrowding and understaffing of mental institutions.

That through legislation fair to both industry and labor, we can bring about a partnership between labor and industry which will make Michigan foremost as a good state for both.

In a sound program supporting the farmer and adhered to. Changing the zoning ordinances upon every request can only lead to sporadic development of our community and reduce our capacity to provide necessary services.

5. $500,000 of our surplus funds was included in our 1979 budget. 1979 $3,284,000, 1978 $2,539,954. Attorney's fees went over our budget. Capital improvements such as the courtroom renovation, recreation center, golf course, other purchases were misrepresented to the people on costs factors. Eliminate the 1 per cent property tax collection fee. This is one way of getting extra revenue without voter preference of a millage. I spoke out against the purchase of surplus helicopters and will continue to do so against misappropriation of our funds.

Trustee

CAROL BODENMILLER

1. Yes, I am in favor of preserving the farmland and believe the majority of new board members would go along with the idea to levy not more than two mills for the first year. The overall view nationwide is to preserve "open space." Federal and State agencies are very interested in what we are trying to accomplish and I believe additional outside funding will be forthcoming.

2. No, I believe the original intent was for a compromise. After studying the proposed ordinance I do not feel this is the case. Since the new board will take office on Nov. 20 and would have to implement this ordinance I feel they should have the opportunity to evaluate its merits and shortcomings.

As trustee, I would be concerned with our "quality of life." Under the present administration there is no direction, no clear idea of where we want to go or what we want to become. This is evidenced by our overcrowded schools and subdivisions springing up in a haphazard pattern throughout the township. I will push for a definite written plan and the hiring of a growth control expert.

4. Enticing industry although very important would not be one of my foremost goals. The township's present program is to buy industrial land and put in the necessary facilities for them such as roads and sewage. We are spending a tremendous amount of money right now gambling we will make it up in years to come. I have very serious reservations concerning this approach to attracting industry.

5. The township is involved in many land purchase speculations. Such as the purchase of the Fellows Creek Golf Course, recreation hall, areas of industrial land plus various acres of recreational land. My concern is the large amount of monies going into land which may cause us to spread our finances too thin. The township had a surplus of money in 1976 and now in 1978 where are we?

ROBERT GREENSTEIN

1. Since I designed the Farmland Preservation Program four years ago, I am obviously its strongest supporter. It will ultimately reduce Canton property and school taxes from the high levels that full development would cost, and make homes in Canton very valuable for resale while preserving our ecology and open space and helping to guarantee our food supply. Millage is not my idea, but I shall vote for it.

2. The Sign Ordinance should not be approved! It was designed by a business dominated Planning Commission and supported by the business and builder dominated Stein Administration. It is incomplete, sloppy and ignores completely the question of berms and allows Canton to become like every other community where business instead of homeowners control the governmental process. Adoption of any Sign Ordinance should not be by a Lame Duck outgoing Board. The Canton Planning Commission public hearing was illegal.

3. I am a candidate for Trustee because I have been able to establish a fairly substantial record of accomplishments as a previously elected Canton Supervisor and do not appreciate seeing all those advances going down the drain. Our 1975 Census, greatly criticized, now earns Canton an extra $500,000 yearly in revenue sharing; $2,700,000 federal funds for new township building; little or no township debt and many others.

4. Industry should be attracted to Canton, and if the present Industrial Commission is doing a good job, they should be given more Board encouragement and assistance and then leave them alone to do the job. Residential interests since it is the function of business to service the residents — not residents to service the businesses.

5. The huge budget for Stein's pet new planning department has grown to an unbelievable amount and must be closely examined. Legal fees have been excessive and must be strictly controlled. The crazy spending by the township, (in the millions) to buy golf courses and other lands must stop, and Stop Now!!

GARY ROBERTS

1. No. I feel four mills is too high, but if the program is going to be successful, its

Art auction to raise funds for cancer society here

An auction, prize drawings, and a cash bar will be featured on Saturday, Nov. 4 at the Canton Recreation Hall, southeast corner of Sheldon Road and Michigan Avenue in Canton Township. The benefit is sponsored by the American Cancer Society.

Pre-auction viewing is scheduled from 11 to 1 p.m. with the auction and prize drawings to follow. Cash Bar will open at 7 p.m.

Items to be auctioned vary from an original sketch, "The Mystery Woman," donated by Zubeil Kachadoorian, whose works hang in the Detroit Institute of Art, Chicago's Art Institute, the Smithsonian, and the Renaissance Center, to a genuine plastic rainbonnet autographed by Weatherman Sonny Eliot, and a necklace replica of King Tut's coronation pectoral.

Donations from merchants and individuals make up the prizes for the drawings and include gift certificates, complimentary brunches, lunches, dinners, hand-crafted works, plants, and personalized stationary made to the winner's order. Tickets for the prize drawings are available from local merchants and will also be on sale at the door.

"Ticket holders need not be present to win," benefit coordinator Ruth Rockwell said adding "But we do hope people will come. A cash bar will open at 7 p.m. and the munchies are free. Help us in our fight to beat cancer."

For further information, contact Ruth Rockwell, evenings at 459-7288.

going to be needed.

If the residents of Canton vote "yes" for the farmland preservation, I will support the program and put out 100 per cent effort to make the program successful.

2. Yes. Business and industrial parks need exposure. Business is the No. 1 tax base. We lost the Ramada Inn, Holiday Inn and Massey Cadillac, because of the present sign ordinance, not allowing free-standing signs.

In 1978, Canton took in $740,000 approximately in business taxes. If we lose 30 per cent of our business in Canton (which is possible because of the present sign ordinance) we will lose $247,000 approximately annually.

3. Residents of Canton need representation, and I feel they have not been getting it from the trustee seat. I've been labeled as the consumer activist by the Canton Observer, this is true.

I want to help improve the relationship with the homeowner on warranty problems, and start a program on educating the people on how to protect themselves in purchasing a new home.

4. Yes. I would use industry as a major tax base. If growth continues within the residents, then so should industry to help relieve the tax burden that growth creates.

5. I have reviewed the new budget, it is very tight. I would rather just answer its a very tight budget. To make any major changes would be very difficult to do after it had been accepted. I hope to get elected where I can have more involved information. It makes it easier to deal with.

Your vote counts

THE COMMUNITY CRIER

Say 'yes' to farm plan

For long-range impact on Canton, no issue before the township's voters rivals the Farmland Preservation proposal. Whether it passes or fails is far more important than who wins the supervisor's chair.

We recommend a "yes" vote on the plan.

Under the program, the township would buy the development rights (similar to mineral rights) of about 5,000 acres in western Canton. The farmers would still own the land, but simply could not develop it or sell to a developer.

The cost of the program is $16 million over 20 years, and the ballot proposal extends the township's taxing limit by four mills to pay for it.

Although four mills is a lot of money ($100 per year on a $50,000 house), taxpayers would be paying lower taxes within seven or eight years, township planners estimate. The reason: Residents would not have to pay for schools, roads, sewers, and other facilities in the undeveloped area.

It's an investment. But not just in lower tax bills, but in a well-rounded, balanced community. Canton is a fine bedroom suburb now, but this proposal provides a unique opportunity to create a diverse community in which to live and raise a family.

Voters should keep in mind, however, that it will not be easy to carry out the plan. It will probably be challenged in court, and changes in state bonding law may be necessary.

We believe these obstacles can be overcome.

Robert Hotaling, Professor of Urban Planning at Michigan State University, said it best: "If we truly believe in the involvement and control of government at the local level, where people can be more self-determinant about their neighborhoods, communities, and taxes, then the support for and adoption of proposed . . . program should become a reality."

Garber's best for judge

By far, the two-way race for the new judgeship in the 35th District Court is the most important local contest and the most difficult in which to make a choice.

Both Jim Garber and Phil Ogilvie are excellent candidates and either one would provide the necessary knowledge and leadership which our growing area needs in its court.

The two candidates cannot be separated on the issues. Garber and Ogilvie see eye to eye on the major decisions which must be faced by our district judges. And they both appear to have excellent backgrounds of service to the community.

With Judge Dunbar Davis running unopposed for re-election (and therefore virtually assured of another term), the new judge must be able to mesh well with the existing

Joyner is choice for county post

One of the most eager, yet polished, young politicians in the Plymouth-Canton Community - Bill Joyner - is running to retain his seat on the Wayne County Commission.

Joyner has logged many hours learning the problems facing the county government since his appointment to the job earlier this year, and we endorse his election. Joyner's support for a County Executive is a sensible solution to the lack of leadership in the county government.

His opponent, Frank Yonish, a student at the University of Michigan, does not appear to be a serious candidate.

If elected, we hope Joyner can take a cue from his predecessor, Royce Smith, and learn to wade into the political battles which is necessary to get things done in the county government.

Vote for Joyner.

THE COMMUNITY CRIER

Keep Smith as state rep

An experienced legislator, Republican Roy Smith of Saline, is seeking re-election against a solid challenger in the 52nd State Representative District, which includes all of the City of Plymouth and most of Plymouth Township.

His opponent, Thomas Kaas, is supervisor of Augusta Township in southeastern Washtenaw County. He is well-qualified but Smith's experience and his work on property-tax equality, for example, give the incumbent the nod.

THE COMMUNITY CRIER

court personnel and leadership - and either Garber or Ogilvie would score well on this point.

But however difficult it may be, a choice must be made.

We endorse Jim Garber on the basis that being the younger of the two candidates, he offers a greater likelihood of continued service to the local bench.

Congressional endorsements

Pursell is pick in 2nd

We have frequently disagreed with the stands taken by Congressman Carl Pursell, whose 2nd District includes Plymouth and Plymouth Township.

Despite that, we find that Pursell's two years of experience in Washington and his past legislative duties in Lansing and in Wayne County, provide our district with the leadership necessary to represent us.

Therefore, we endorse our hometown boy - Carl Pursell.

His opponent, Earl Greene, an Ann Arbor City Councilman, seems well intentioned, Additionally, Garber offers more background in administration which will be one of the new judge's most critical functions since a new Canton court operation must be established.

Plymouth - Canton voters can't go wrong in this race - either candidate would make a fine judge. But our support goes to Garber.

THE COMMUNITY CRIER

but he never really succeeded in becoming a viable candidate. This was not entirely his fault, we admit, since he spent much of his energies just fighting to get on the ballot.

But those problems kept Greene from developing a complete platform adequately. Maybe in two years he would have more success at convincing voters why he should be elected.

Pursell, although often waffling from one side of an issue to the other, has represented our district adequately.

We urge his reelection.

THE COMMUNITY CRIER

15th District deserves better

In the 15th U.S. Congressional District, which includes Canton, William Ford rules the roost. While he attends to the business of our district in Washington adequately (he helped get U.S. funding for Canton's new hall), Ford is sadly lacking in communicating with his constituency.

We cannot, in good conscience, endorse a candidate who rarely, if ever, visits his district and who never responds to candidate forums or questionnaires. Every incumbent, no matter how good or bad, must justify being re-elected.

His opponent, Edgar Nieten, means well. He is motivated primarily by the scandals and inefficiencies of our federal government - certainly a justifiable motive.

However, he fails to offer the background (he has no experience in public office) or the knowledge of the legislative process required of a Congressman.

We feel our district deserves better representation in Washington than either candidate offers. We make no endorsement in this race.

THE COMMUNITY CRIER

Send Kadish to state senate

Bob Geake and Paul Kadish are squaring off for the 14th District State Senate seat.

Geake, the Republican incumbent, won the job in a special election last year. Kadish, chairman of the Schoolcraft College Board of Trustees, ran in the Senate seat special election as well, but was defeated in the primary.

Although both men have solid qualifications for the office, we give the edge to Kadish.

Geake has provided little leadership on issues like the Plymouth Center for Human Development uproar even though it's in his district and he once served as a psychologist there.

The new judgeship for our court is another case in point. Geake pushed through legislation creating the sorely needed additional seat on our district bench. That was great. But he bungled the legislation in that there was only five-days notice to file for election to the newly created position.

Kadish holds a much broader outlook on the problems facing our district and our state as a whole. Although Kadish did not run a particularly effective campaign (often a good indicator of a candidate's performance in Lansing), we still favor him over Geake.

Canton '78: No choice for executive

THE COMMUNITY CRIER: November 1, 1978

Perhaps no other public position in the Plymouth-Canton Community requires a statesman as much as the supervisor's chair in Canton. In a township with severe growing pains and a master land use plan still in limbo in the Planning Commission, a leader is needed who can stand above the fray, bring opposing factions together, and plot a reasonable path for the future.

Unfortunately, none of the three candidates for the job — Harold Stein, Noel Culbert and John Longridge — possess these qualities.

Stein, the incumbent trying to stay in office with a write-in campaign, is a hardworker who can claim a number of accomplishments such as starting a senior citizen dial-a-ride service and putting the Farmland Preservation program before the voters.

However, his major blunders in office outweigh these assets. For example, he delayed the start-up of a full-time police department for nine months after the voters approved the funds; he undercut his employes by launching a phoney investigation of the building department; and his helicopter plans were unwise and unfeasible.

Overall, Stein's biggest drawback is his unwillingness to compromise and work with all persons of the community.

Longridge and Culbert, though, are not strong nor even weak alternatives. Long-ridge, a design engineer for Ford Motor Co., has some budget and administrative expertise but with no political experience would be lost in the political pressure cooker of the supervisor's chair.

Likewise, Culbert seems only marginally qualified for the job.

An attorney who won the Democratic nomination via a backlash to Stein's policies, has not shown himself capable of leading the township. He, too, has never held political office and seems unlikely to be able to grow into the job.

Therefore, we offer no endorsement in this race.
THE COMMUNITY CRIER

Bodenmiller best for trustee

A familiar name in Canton politics is attempting to regain a seat on the Board of Trustees which he lost two years ago: Former Supervisor Bob Greenstein.

Two other candidates, Carol Bodenmiller and Gary Roberts, oppose Greenstein for the pair of trustee seats on the board. Bodenmiller, with a solid record of interest in the township's affairs, is the best candidate of the three and earns our lone endorsement. She is open-minded and has backed up her stands with facts.

By virtue of his two years as supervisor (1974-76), Greenstein is the most knowledgeable of the three candidates. A leader of the township's anti-growth movement, he is well versed in every major area of public policy and administration.

His contentious style of politics has done the township little good, however. Unless you always admit he's right, he's very hard to work with.

Gary Roberts, the only Republican running for a trustee seat, has shown a greater interest in campaign grandstanding than talking facts and issues.

THE COMMUNITY CRIER

In the race for the treasurer job in Canton, Republican Jim Donahue faces Democrat Maria Falkiewicz and write-in candidate Anne Bradley, the incumbent.

We endorse Donahue. He has shown a long-term interest in Canton's public affairs and possesses a strong ability to analyze township spending and help create financial policy.

However, we have some reservations. He occasionally tends to go off half-cocked and does not seem independent of former Supervisor Bob Greenstein, who is running for trustee.

If elected, we hope he would leave his partisanship behind and take all viewpoints into account.

Since her primary victory, Falkiewicz has proven herself a hard worker and a good digger of facts. However, she was not actively interested in public affairs before her current run for office, and her voting record is poor.

The third hopeful, Anne Bradley, is unqualified for the position. She has shown limited understanding of financial policy and as a highly partisan follower of Supervisor Harold Stein, seemingly has less feel for the numerous constituencies she should represent on the Board of Trustees.

Vote for Donahue.
THE COMMUNITY CRIER

Rep hopefuls offer little

The race for State Representative in the 37th District, which includes all of Canton and part of Plymouth Township, presents a difficult choice for voters. Neither Democrat Tom Brown nor Thomas Sullivan seems capable of representing the district well.

Brown, the incumbent, has shown little leadership or legislative talents while in office. Thomas Sullivan, his Republican challenger has run a virtual non-campaign to unseat him.

We make no endorsement in this contest.

THE COMMUNITY CRIER

Faust's best

William Faust faces Republican challenger Coleman Flaskamp in the 13th District State Senate race, which includes Canton.

Faust, majority leader of the senate, represents his district well.

Little has been heard from his opponent, Flaskamp.

We endorse Faust.

Farmland approval saves tax dollars

EDITOR:

In recent weeks, several people have commented that they would definitely support the Farmland Preservation Proposal if it were for two mills. They seem hesitant about four mills.

This is similar to the person who wanted to buy a Cadillac or Lincoln but would only pay $3,000 for it. Later, when he decided to pay a regular price, the car had already been sold. He was angered that he had missed the first six to eight years, a legitimate objective in terms his opportunity. The farmland question is the same: It's a four mill issue and we have to decide whether we want it or not. If we come back later, it may be gone.

Each voter must decide his or her position on the merits of the issue, consider carefully the pros and cons. The millage level is not an option.

Let's assume that $16 million in bonds are issued over of completing the development rights purchases. The payments needed to pay off the bonds, after full issuance, would be about $1.7 or $1.8 million annually.

The annual revenues from four mills seven or eight years from now, taking into account the growth assessed township valuation, would only be about $1.3 or $1.4 million. This would mean a shortage in revenues of about $400,000 annually.

As assessed values grow, however, the annual shortage will be reduced. In the 10th to 12th year, annual income will approximately equal the annual payments required. After 12 years, revenues will exceed payments and the millage level would be gradually reduced to zero by the end of 20 years.

In the early years, before all bonds are actually issued, the revenues would exceed bond payments substantially. However, the full millage is required to create a cash reserve to cover the period of four or five years when annual payments will be greater than annual incomes. Also, the levy must be adequate to cover administrative costs, legal fees, and appraisal costs during the early years.

From a financial standpoint, however, the real question is not two or four mills but what would the program cost in dollars and cents. The average homeowner would pay out a total of about $200 to $400 in extra taxes spread over the first six to eight years. After that, a taxpayer would be paying less taxes each year than he would if development of the area is permitted to continue. He would save a total of about $1,500 to $1,700 during the ensuing 12 to 14 years.

The result is a net tax savings of about $1,300 for the average homeowner in just the first 20 years.

I hope this will eliminate some of the confusion.

Saving land costs less than development

Editor:

The League of Women Voters, Plymouth-Canton-Novi-Northville, urges you to vote "Yes" on the Canton Township Ballot Proposal to preserve farmland on Nov. 7, for the following reasons:

Michigan voters are faced with many tax proposals on the November ballot. The majority of these propositions deal with tax limitation or tax reduction. The voters of Canton Township, however, have the opportunity to vote for a tax increase by voting "yes" on the Canton Township Ballot Proposal to preserve farmland. The uniqueness of this ballot proposal lies in the fact that increasing taxes now will limit future taxes.

The cost of four mills on a $50,000 home is $100 per year (36½ cents per day). Accounting studies based on conservation estimates have shown this amount to be considerably less than the taxation that would occur in the future if the proposed 5,000 acres were developed. Undeveloped land does not require services such as fire and police protection, new school buildings, teachers' salaries and operating costs, sewers, garbage collection and recreational facilities to name a few.

While future tax savings are reason enough to vote "yes" on this proposal, Canton residents will also receive other benefits by not developing this acreage: 1) Agriculture is Michigan's third largest industry and its presence in Canton will be an economic asset; 2) Prohibiting the building of homes will substantially reduce Canton's overall population and maintain the rural character of the community; 3) The residents of Canton can enjoy the atmosphere afforded by a partially rural community.

For all these reasons, we urge the people of Canton to vote "yes" on the Canton Ballot Proposal to preserve farmland on Nov. 7.

The purpose of the League of Women Voters is to promote political responsibility through informed and active participation of citizens in government.

Poison pens thrive

EDITOR:

It is appalling that the editors of our local newspapers have taken on the poison pen campaign for the political hopefuls and they no longer have to sign their names. Viciousness and poison are still the tools of our political hopefuls. Gutter journalism has joined forces with gutter politicians and is attempting to render our officials helpless.

It probably never occurred to you our supervisor has been very open and honest with his supporters. He has never tried to hide the fact that he has remortgaged his home nor that his business was suffering in his absence. He does not own the flower shop nor is he related to any one in this community other than his immediate family. He is an only child of a coffee salesman.

Anyone out there who thinks politics just happens "when crooks get their heads together" might try getting involved. You will learn it takes a lot of hard work. Getting involved is the only way to learn what is really going on. If you believe something is right for our country, work to make it happen! Cynicism is not the solution!

Diminishing public confidence in journalism is endangering our democracy. The recent Harris Poll reports that only 18 per cent of the public believed what they read in newspapers in 1977. As for our local papers the best word to express them is tragic! The professionalism in journalism sags lower with every paper you publish. What do you see when you look in the mirror?

League takes stands on proposals

Con-con unnneeded

EDITOR:

Should a convention be called for the purpose of general revision of Michigan's constitution? The current constitution, adopted by the voters of the state in 1963 to replace one written in 1908, mandates that this question be put to the people for a vote every 16 years.

The League of Women Voters of Plymouth-Canton-Novi-Northville opposes Proposal A, the calling of a constitutional convention. We believe that the current constitution has yet to mature legally — 16 years is not a particularly long time in terms of a constitution.

Cost to taxpayers is a concern. In 1961-63, the costs for the constitutional convention were approximately $3 million. Estimates are that that amount would be at least tripled in 1978-79.

The League's major goal in 1961-63 was to obtain a constitution free-of-statutory detail. Participants in that effort feel that that goal was achieved. The amendment process can be used for changes in specific issues.

The League, a nonpartisan organization encouraging active participation of citizens in government, takes action on selected governmental issues following study and consensus. We urge a "no" vote on Proposal A.

EDITOR:

One evening last month as I and my friends were going into the clubhouse for a game of cards, we were approached by a gentleman who asked us if we would like to have our picture in a private paper. We all complied and the group picture was taken in front of the clubhouse.

To my surprise the picture was published in a political paper with the caption, "long-time residents support Culbert" "Your Neighbors".

I for one didn't endorse Mr. Culbert and neither did some of the others. We thought it would be announced as our card group.

Mr. Culbert had no business using our pictures as an endorsement without our knowledge!

Vote 'no' on Tisch, Headlee, voucher

EDITOR:

At its board meeting Oct. 25, the League of Women Voters of Plymouth-Canton-Novi-Northville reaffirmed its opposition to Proposals E, H and J as none of the proposals eliminate the inequities in the present taxing system and therefore none constitute tax reform. Proposals E and J will hamper the efforts of the legislature and the governor, representatives of the people of Michigan, to adjust revenue and expenditure over the years in order to meet changing conditions as they arise and to continue to provide needed state services.

Proposals E and J conflict with long standing League positions for 1) adequacy, equity and flexibility in the state's tax system and 2) against constitutional restrictions on the legislature's power to tax. Both proposals will reduce the flexibility needed to provide services in both good and poor economic times.

Proposal J will cause serious problems to state and local governments in funding necessary services no matter what economic conditions prevail. To provide the necessary funding, alternative sources of revenue such as increased fees, user charges, increased business taxes and nuisance taxes will be necessary because of the inadequacy of the 1 per cent additional limit placed on the income tax to replace necessary revenue. Both proposals lock into place existing fiscal relations between state and local governments, reducing the flexibility to adjust service costs between local and state government levels as resources and needs change.

League opposition to Proposal H is based on member agreement throughout the state that public funds should not be used for non-public education except for shared time, auxiliary services and transportation. League members believe that all three levels of government should share in the funding of public education with the state bearing greatest responsibility. However, to shift total operating costs to the state threatens local school district's ability to retain control of spending of the educational dollar. There is nothing in Proposal H which protects local control, since implementation of the proposal will be left to the legislature and vouchers can only be used in state approved schools. New legislation will have to be written defining state-approved schools.

The voucher system would require an increase in total taxes because of the added cost of vouchers for the approximately 200,000 private school pupils.

The League recognizes that citizens feel burdened by taxes although the percentage of personal income in Michigan paid in state-local taxes is lower than in 32 of the 50 states. What is needed is true reform in the area of property tax assessments and a better sharing of costs of public education between local property tax and state income tax. None of the three proposals solve these problems.

The League of Women Voters is a nonpartisan organization whose purpose is to promote informed and active participation of citizens in government. Following study and consensus, the League takes action on selected governmental issues. The League is concerned with the problems and costs of financing government services and is in the midst of a two year state-wide study on this subject. The League believes that none of these proposals address the problem of tax reform in a responsible manner and urges a "no" vote on all three.

Support transit, vote 'yes' on M

EDITOR:

The League of Women Voters of Plymouth-Canton-Novi-Northville supports Proposal M, the transportation proposal. This support is based on the League of Women Voters of the United States transportation position which calls for alternate forms of transportation to be developed into comprehensive transit systems.

This proposal would require that 90 per cent of highway user fees (motor fuel and vehicle registration taxes) be used for highways, roads, streets and bridges. The remaining 10 per cent could be spent on all other forms of transportation, such as local bus systems, passenger and freight rail programs, intercity buses, waterway and port and airport improvement programs. In addition, 100 per cent of taxes on aviation registration and aviation fuel and up to 25 per cent of the sales tax on motor fuels, motor vehicles, parts and accessories would also be used for comprehensive transportation.

This proposal would also change the names of the State Highway Commission and the State Highway Department to Transportation Commission and Transportation Department. The Commission would be enlarged to six members appointed by the governor for three-year terms and the director of the State Transportation Department would be appointed as provided by law.

Energy conservation, the decline and proposed abandonment of parts of the state's rail system and the physical and financial barriers to automobile ownership for some segments of the population who need transportation services have led to demands for comprehensive planning and funding of a more diversified transportation system including public transit.

The League is a nonpartisan organization which, after study and consensus, takes action on selected governmental issues. We urge a "yes" vote on Proposal M.

Security officers don't enforce CEP rules

EDITOR:

I am a student at Canton High School. I think it is about time that someone started to enforce the rules at CEP and not one of the five does the job that they are supposed to do.

The lack of enforcement of the rules at CEP was probably one of the major reasons that led to the switch to traditional scheduling.

The traditional schedule probably cut down on the number of students who skip class but there are a lot of students who still get away with this. I don't know where they go but someplace on the CEP grounds there is an area where these students find refuge.

The rules of smoking are not being enforced at all. The rules allow smoking in certain places (the smoking of cigarettes). Students are not following these rules and the security people do nothing to help. Some members of security personnel set bad examples by smoking in front of the students.

Students are also smoking marijuana on school grounds as well as at the bus stops and are getting away with it.

Loitering is another problem at CEP. With traditional scheduling all the students are in the halls at the same time. The rules state that if students want to converse, they should do so in special areas. Again students do not follow the rules. They jam the halls by stopping in the middle of the hall and talking to their friends.

The biggest loitering problem is at the intersection of the two busiest hallways. Nobody is doing anything about this. We only get eight minutes to move between classes and if a student has to get between buildings for a class the jammed halls will make that student late. The student has an unexcused tardiness on his/her record because of this.

I think that the school board better crack down on the security personnel so that they may start doing what they are paid to do. An alternative might be to hire new security who wants to do a job but hire them in larger quantities. Five people aren't enough to handle over 3,000 students.

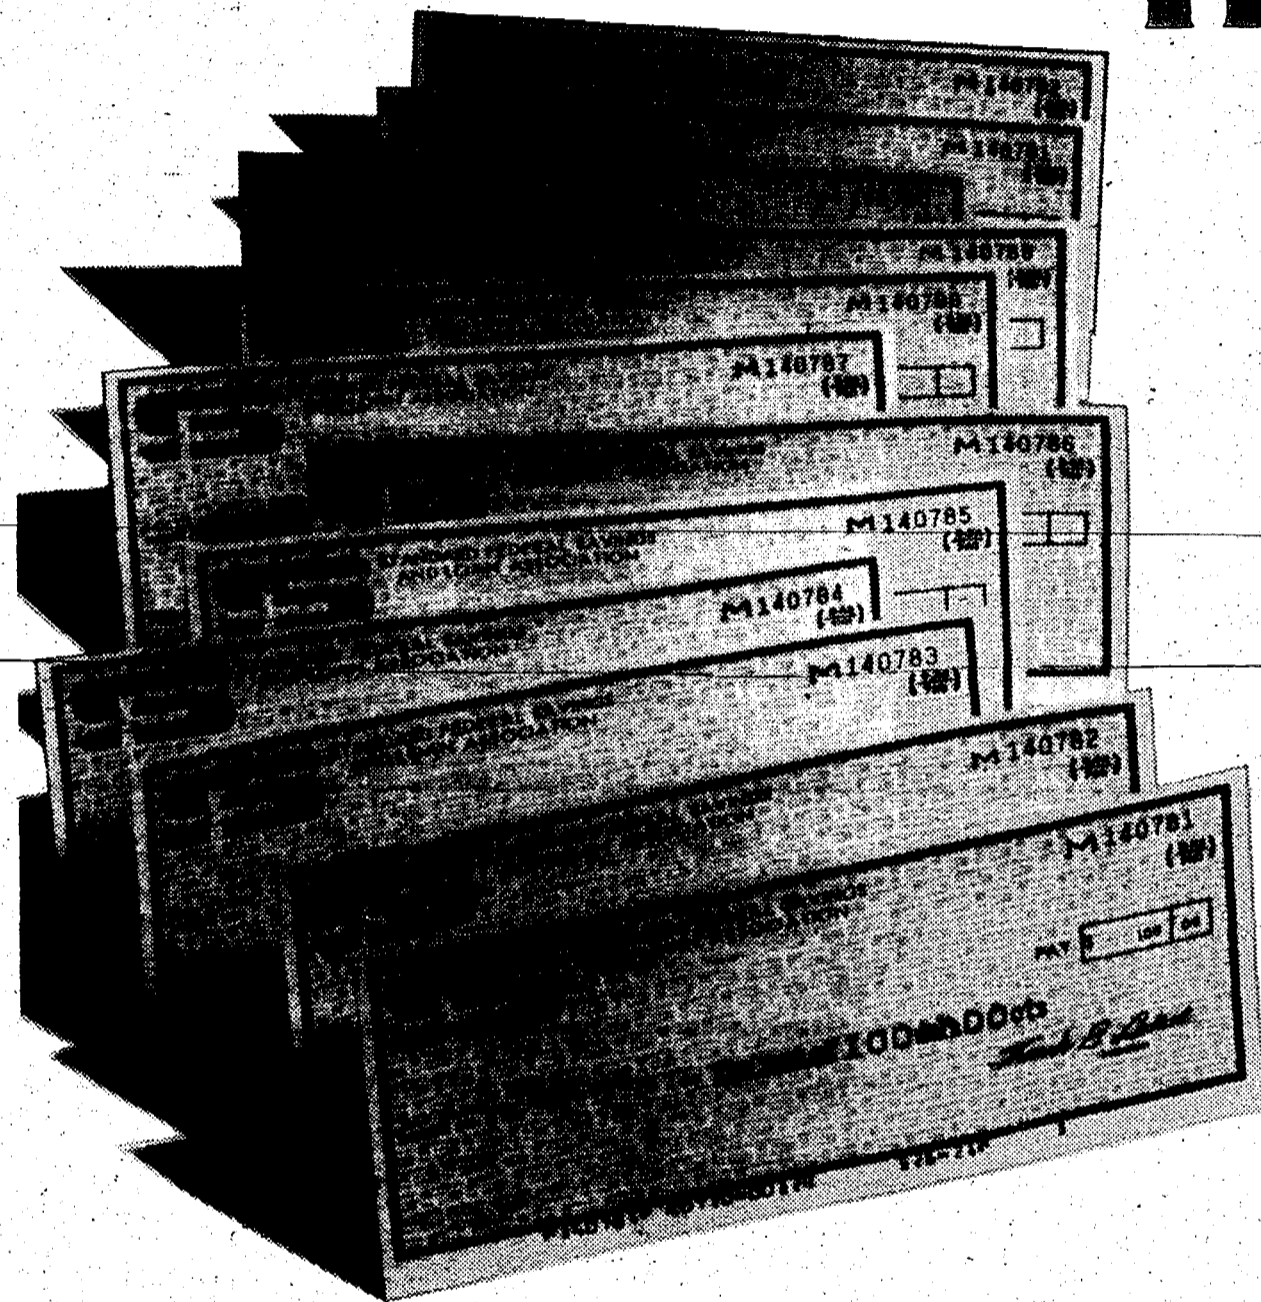

J.B.

P.S.
Please withhold my full name for this article because I don't want any trouble from fellow students.

Most of the parents in this city are not aware of the problems at CEP.

Your aid benefits YMCA

If you give to the Plymouth Community Fund, where does your money go?

From its pre-schoolers "kreatives" class to its in-home support program for the elderly, the "Y" services Plymouth residents of all ages.

The phrase "Young Men's Christian Association" no longer describes the wide range of family-oriented activities now operating from the Y's second story offices at 292 S. Main Street.

"Our classes continue to be our mainstay," says Program Director Janet E. Luce. "Besides the customary exercise and sports skills classes, there are personal enrichment classes, like plant care, guitar and practical courses like home finances.

Improved human relationships are also the goal of the Y Indian Maidens program for mothers and daughters and Indian Guides for fathers and sons. Gra-Y continues to draw hundreds of third, fourth and fifth graders to its after school activities, while Hi-Y gives teenagers an opportunity to earn their way to Youth in Legislature events.

One of the Y's most ambitious service projects has been the in-home support program for the elderly, said Luce. Again this year, under a Title III federal grant, the Y provides daily transportation to area retired persons for doctors appointments, shopping and other activities.

A measure of the program's success says Luce has been its growth from an original 30 clients to more than 420.

Area seniors are also involved in the Y's Crediters, a social organization co-sponsored by the Plymouth Community Federal Credit Union. The group meets weekly for fellowship, craft and service activities, lectures, parties and other events.

Flu shots will be offered to seniors 65 and older free of charge at the Wayne County Health Dept. starting now.

The clinic will be open from 8:30-11 a.m. and 1:30-3:30 p.m. from Monday through Friday. On Wednesdays, hours have been extended from 1-8 p.m.

If seniors need transportation to the clinic, call Jean Campeau at 453-2968 on Monday or Tuesday from 9-11 a.m. through the month of November.

The clinic is located on Merriman Road north of Ford Road.

16 phones taken

Sixteen telephones plus other office equipment was stolen Oct. 20 from Century 21 Real Estate, 48275 5 Mile Rd., State Police report.

The telephones were estimated to be worth $2,451.

Isabelle Maurer, president of the Senior Citizens Club, points out that although the members pay for the popular trips sponsored by these groups, they are only possible through the coordinating efforts provided by the Community Fund. Recent outings have included the Traverse City Cherry Festival, a tour through the Pennsylvania Dutch Country and a Tiffin, Ohio, glass factory as well as an upcoming trip to Bermuda.

Activities and services for older people are provided by many other Community Fund agencies, such as the American Red Cross, the Salvation Army, the Michigan Cancer Foundation and the Visiting Nurse Association.

Older people, in return, are among the most active volunteers in such activities as the Salvation Army's League of Mercy, the Red Cross Blood Drives and the sewing groups which prepare free medical dressings for area cancer patients.

All of these agencies benefit from the single annual fundraising drive now being conducted by the Plymouth Community Fund. Donations may be sent now to the PFC, Box 356, Plymouth, or made through payroll deduction. Persons who work outside the area are reminded to designate their contribution to the Plymouth Community Fund.

 REALTOR

HOME SELLING QUIZ
 If you are thinking of selling your home and have not decided whether to use the services of a REALTOR, answer these questions.
 Do you have sufficient data to price your property realistically? Can you draw proper contracts, recognize insincere offers, inadequate deposits, unreasonable contingencies? Do you have a complete understanding of real estate marketing and are you able to disseminate your property through the widest channels? Do you have expert knowledge of the current mortgage situation . . . FHA/VA . . . assumptions . . . second mortgages?

Are you willing to have your wife and children exposed to any and all strangers who knock? Can you handle the natural conflict of interest with the direct buyer . . . trying to protect your own interest versus your desire to accommodate his?

If your answer to any ONE of these questions is NO, then I suggest you drop into our office. You'll end up with the best possible price plus peace of mind.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at REALTY WORLD, Wm. Decker, Inc. Realtors, 670 S. Main St. Plymouth. Phone: 455-8400. We're here to help!

Greene, Pursell argue U.S. Congress issues

EARL GREENE

"Progressive but sensible," is how Earl Greene, Democratic candidate for U.S. Congress, describes his political philosophy.

An Ann Arbor city councilman, Greene said he wants to provide leadership to balance the federal budget, create jobs, and search for alternative energy sources.

"My opponent (Carl Pursell) has a business-as-usual attitude and he is influenced by special interests. Forty-eight per cent of his campaign funds come from outside the 2nd District."

On the economy, Greene said he wants to cut deficit spending and balance the budget. "We need a cap on federal spending and we should reduce taxes," he said.

Greene sees a five to 10 per cent waste in federal spending. "We need to eliminate duplication of services in the military and other bureaucracies in Washington," he said.

To slow down inflation, the Democrat said the United States should reduce its dependence of foreign oil to slow the flow of dollars overseas. Energy conservation should be a top priority to stop this outflow, he said.

Other inflation fighters listed by Greene include: presidential jawboning to fight hikes in prices and wages; eliminate telephone excise taxes; index prices and wages to cost of living; and take a look at monopolies in some industries.

Inflation would be made worse by the Kemp-Roth bill which Pursell supported. "You can't cut taxes by one-third, but not reduce deficit spending. That makes inflation worse," he said. "You have to balance the budget moderately. It's a long-range problem. One in four people directly or indirectly depend on the federal government for a job."

Greene criticized Pursell for his inconsistent stands on issues. "He calls himself pro-consumer and pro-environment, yet he voted to weaken the Alaska lands protection bill and the immediate de-regulation of natural gas which is a $75 billion rip-off of the American people," said the Democrat.

Pursell's vote against raising the minimum wage from $2.30 to $2.65 was also hit by Greene. "It's unfair for people to work at that level," he said.

On a national health care program, Greene said he supports the idea but said Sen. Edward Kennedy's $80-100 billion program is too expensive. "I don't see a national consensus on what kind of program we want," he said.

CARL PURSELL

"You can't represent a certain segment of society," said Plymouth's U.S. Congressman, Carl Pursell. "I try to be a constructive problem solver, not a constant critic."

Running for his second term in Washington, Pursell is fighting a challenge from Ann Arbor City Councilman Earl Greene to represent the 2nd District.

Pursell said that the Democrats are johnny-come-latelies in the issues of tax cutting and balanced budget. However, he said the tax revolt perhaps has the wrong target: "They're taking it out on the local governments while they should be after Carter's deficit in Congress," he said.

On energy, the Republican said the country's goal should be a research and development program similar to our billion-dollar effort to fly to the moon.

"The sooner we get an alternative energy source, the better off we'll be," he said. "I think the administration and Congress has ignored that issue."

One of two bills which Pursell guided through Congress provided aid to KMS Fusion of Ann Arbor which does fusions-energy research.

Pursell said the Kennedy health care plan was too expensive, adding that he would like to see emphasis put on preventive medicine like physical development. "We need broad intramural programs in the schools, not just the variety sports," he said.

Greene has criticized Pursell's vote against raising the minimum wage, but the incumbent said youths are blocked out of the labor market by the higher wage. "It's also inflationary," he said.

On defense spending, Pursell voted against the neutron bomb and the B-1 bomber, but supported the construction of a new nuclear carrier to deter the Soviet Union.

Pursell lists his role as co-founder of the Suburban Caucus as one of his main accomplishments in Congress. "A suburban policy is just as important as an urban policy," he said.

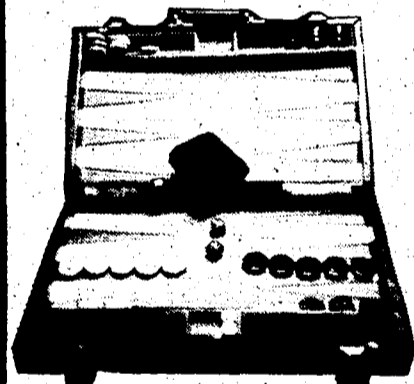

Overall, he said the role of the federal government should not be to administer many and more programs. "The government should provide research and development for pilot programs, but let the local governments run them."

Apples go chocolate

With the red and gold leaves blowing through the air, fall is definitely the most beautiful season of the year. It's a great feeling to walk down the street listening to the crunch of dry leaves under your feet, smelling the smoke from a distant bonfire (or perhaps fireplace), and feel the warm sun blow the last of the summer breezes against your face.

Fall is also the time of year for pumpkins, a trip to the cider mill and making carmel apples. For many families or school students making carmel apples is a highlight of Halloween.

However, in our family carmel apples are forbidden, due to two kids with caps on their front teeth. Every year there is an argument because all their friends get to eat carmel apples and they don't.

This year in order to get ahead of the argument, I decided to make chocolate apples. No one ever told me that the carmel that stuck to your teeth was the same carmel that stuck to the apple, therefore the same chocolate that doesn't stick to your teeth, doesn't stick to the apple either.

Oh well, I now have a chocolate covered kitchen, two plain apples and two children waiting to see what my next brainstorm will be. I suppose I could try making cookies that look like carmel apples, but I'm not very artistic. Come on kids, there's more to life than carmel apples. How about some brownies or a chocolate cake - I've got to do something with all this chocolate.

Bill Heiney, a senior at Salem High School donated his time Sunday night to make Halloween a little more fun for diabetic children. Bill, who has been doing magic acts for about three years performed at the Halloween party of the Mott Hospital for diabetic children.

Ford-foe Nieten hits dishonesty in Congress

Edgar Nieten is campaigning for U.S. Congress because he's tired of dishonest people."

The Republican is hoping to unseat veteran Democrat William Ford in the 15th District, which includes all of Canton.

However, Nieten said he was not running against Ford, per se, rather the whole Congress.

"Congress is not doing its job. For five years since the Arab oil embargo, they've been working on an energy program and all we've gotten is the teachers

Parents of high school students will participate in a unique parent-teacher conference program at Canton High School on Thursday, Nov. 9, from 6:30 to 10 p.m. All teachers from Salem and Canton High Schools will be on hand to meet with the parents of their students.

The main gym in the Phase III wing of the Canton High School will be filled with about 200 teachers, lined up in alphabetical order. Each teacher will have a table and chairs arranged for an individual talk with parents.

Because the entire staff of both high schools will be on hand in one place, parents can confer with all of their son's or daughter's teachers in a short time, perhaps under one hour. The room arrangement will provide both privacy and convenience. Signs will help parents locate any teacher.

Parents are expected to receive their student's report card before Nov. 9, and they should bring the report card with them for their parent-teacher discussions. No appointments are necessary and no time limits are set for conferences during the special evening program Nov. 9.

There will be no school on Friday, Nov. 10, for grades 9-12.

55 mile per hour speed limit and a 10 per cent yearly increase in the price of natural gas," he said.

"We need a crash program to find alternative sources," said the school teacher from Romulus. "I prefer solar energy."

Nieten, who's never held public office, said the Congress has done nothing on inflation, either. "The congressmen gave themselves a pay raise, instead," he said.

Overall, the Republican criticized Congress for merely passing laws without making precise rules for their administration. "There's no monitoring of the programs," he said. "This leads to a lot of misspent money and waste."

Rep. Wm. Ford
did not respond

The lack of integrity in Congress was also hit by Nieten. "Koreagate was a bigger scandal than Watergate," he said. "They were selling our rights of representation."

Also, Nieten believes congressmen are too subject to special interests. "Congress belongs to oil companies and big business," he said.

Is the defense budget too large? "No," said Nieten. "Russia has shown a great willingness to expand and to survive we must defend ourselves. And it'll cost like hell."

To protect the consumer against poorly built products, the candidate said, "people should get their money back if a car's a lemon. No questions asked."

Many of the problems the country faces can't be solved by just passing more laws, he concluded. "The people have the responsibility, and if they don't take it, it's all too easy to be a crook."

Plymouth-Canton Community Schools

Financial Report Year Ended June 30, 1978

TO THE CITIZENS OF PLYMOUTH-CANTON COMMUNITY SCHOOLS

BALANCE SHEET
YEARS ENDING JUNE 30, 1977 and 1978

The statistical report concerning the financial condition of PLYMOUTH-CANTON COMMUNITY SCHOOLS is submitted in accordance with Section 216, Act 269, Public Acts 1965 as amended and is compiled from data submitted to the Michigan Department of Education and from the Annual Audit conducted by the firm of Post, Smythe, Lutz, and Ziel, Certified Public Accountants.

The report substantiates that PLYMOUTH-CANTON COMMUNITY SCHOOLS is continuing to operate on a sound financial basis. In an inflationary economy we continue to work within the framework of a balanced budget.

The immediate future continues to pose real concerns and challenges to your Board of Education as the district's enrollment continues to climb. This year saw the addition of some 820 students over the previous year. Finding classroom space for the growing student enrollment and the escalating costs for providing a sound educational program continues to be the major problems facing this school district.

The Board of Education and Administration are appreciative of the efforts of citizens and staff for their assistance and attendance at the various committees the Board of Education has established. Be assured the Board of Education will join the staff and citizens in the continuous evaluation to determine the extent to which adopted goals and programs are producing the desired educational result and make necessary changes as warranted.

It is our desire to continue to bring the youth of PLYMOUTH-CANTON COMMUNITY SCHOOLS the finest education possible within the framework of existing revenues. Your participation in school activities is welcome, encouraged, and solicited.

The Board of Education meets on the second and fourth Mondays of every month, and a spot on the agenda has been set aside for suggestions from citizens. We encourage you to communicate with the Board of Education in this manner.

Canton pounds Panthers 30-14

BY ERIC OLSON

Rusty Mandle, star quarterback and tailback, almost single handedly beat the Garden City East Panthers as he had a hand in all 30 of Canton's points in the Chiefs 30-14 victory Friday night.

Mandle rushed for two touchdowns, passed for one, pitched for another, and made three two-point conversions.

The Chiefs jumped to an early 14-0 lead capitalizing on Panther fumbles and held a 14-8 halftime advantage, but the score was knotted 14-14 at the end of three quarters.

Canton's winning touchdown came one minute into the fourth period on a 19-yard TD strike from Mandle to splitend Jay McKinley. The six play, 60-yard drive made the score 22-14 after Mandle hit Scott Dawson with a pass for the two-point conversion.

Mandle, who was held to less than 40 yards rushing the game before, gained 118 yards on the ground carrying 31 times and he passed for 102 more yards as he connected on seven of 15 aeri-als.

After receiving the opening kickoff the Chiefs went 62 yards on 11 plays to go up 6-0. Mandle carried the ball nine times during the drive of seven minutes. Dawson passed to Mandle for the conversion.

On their first offensive series Garden City fumbled and Canton recovered. In the first quarter the Panthers had only four offensive plays.

Garden City fumbled on its next possession to set up Canton's next as the Chiefs went 57 yards in five plays after recovering a bad pitch.

The big play on the drive was a 42-yard gallop by half-back Bob Hamblin as he set up a first and goal to go at the Garden City five-yard line.

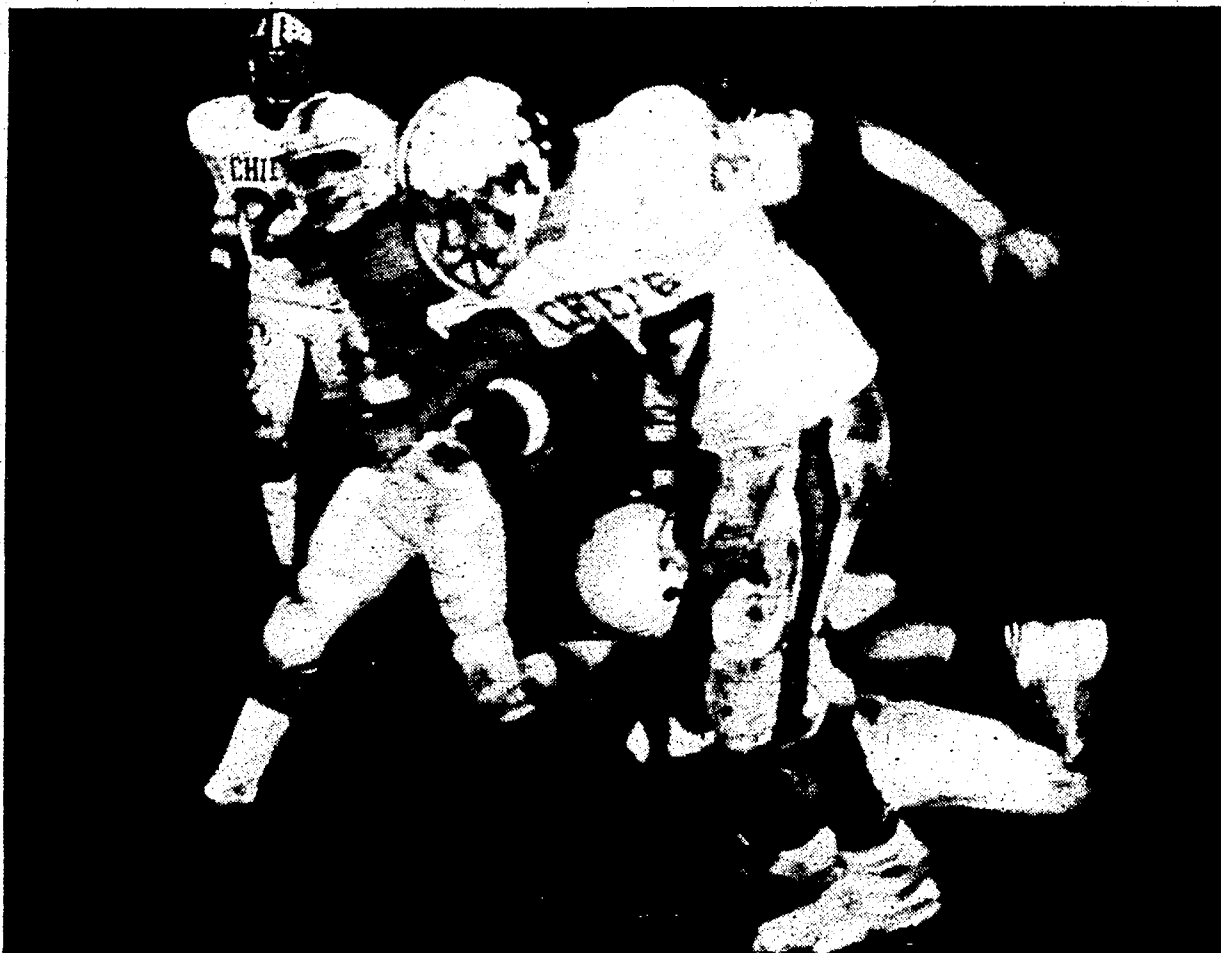

After a running play up-the-middle was stopped for a one-yard loss, Mandle ran wide around the right side, but seeing he would be stopped short of the goal line he pitched the ball to Steve Gray who took it in for six points.

In the third quarter Garden City had a 46-yard TD bomb nullified by a penalty for failure to wear proper equipment — not having a mouthpiece.

However, the Panthers got on the scoreboard later in the period after blocking a Canton punt and taking over at the Chief 17-yard line.

Their touchdown came on a five-yard TD toss from Ron McDonnell to Mike Kossick and they combined again for the conversion.

Rocks romp 49-6

BY PATTY RADZIK

It was a sweet victory for everyone. A sweet one for the parents, students, visiting alumni (one coming all the way home from Los Angeles), and the new homecoming queen.

However, no one enjoyed it more than the football players everyone was watching.

Playing at home for the last time this season, the Salem football team gave its audience one spectacular final show. Scoring seven touchdowns, one or more in each quarter, the Rocks rolled over the Bentley Bulldogs 49-6 Friday night to put the cork in the homecoming bottle.

Three of the scores were pumped in minutes apart in the first quarter. Quarterback Rich Hewlett started things off by scoring two minutes into the game with a 26-yard run over the goal line.

After the Rock defense held Bentley to nine yards, Rich Hanschu caught a pass from Hewlett, who was standing at their 20-yard line. That made it 12-0.

Hewlett then proceeded to complete a two-point conversion, which gave Salem a quick 14-0 lead.

Following a fumble recovery on the Bulldogs 35-yard line, Hewlett handed off to Craig Stack, who went the distance with 5 minutes remaining in the first quarter. Hanschu's extra point gave the Rocks a 20-0 advantage.

Paul Dillon picked up 30 yards off a pass and a hand off, which in turn set up Plymouth's fourth score of the night when Hewlett ran in from 20 yards out. With 10:31 remaining before the half, Salem was out in front, 28-0.

Jim Anderson was sent in for Hewlett to take care of business before the half ended. His appearance made possible score No. 5.

Lance Wilsey caught Anderson's pass, which made it 34-6. A completed extra point kick ended the half.

The Rock's next score came when Dillon crashed over the goal line, via the center of the Bulldog defensive line, to give Salem 42 points.

If that performance by Dillon wasn't enough, minutes later he intercepted new quarterback Dave Cabrera's pass. His spectacular nab put the Rocks' on Bentley's 15, and in scoring position again.

Salem wasted no time, as Anderson gave Sam Merrill the ball, and he trounced in the needed 15, just eight seconds into the fourth quarter.

"How can you tell if the person at your door is really a Michigan Bell Employee?"

As you may have noticed, our employees do not wear uniforms. They dress in the way they think is most appropriate to get their jobs done. While this permits them to look like the individuals they are, it really doesn't help you identify them as Bell employees. But, there is a way. Every Michigan Bell employee is required to carry a Michigan Bell identification card giving his or her name, photograph, and signature. For your protection, be sure to see this card before you admit them into your home. They'll be happy to show it to you.

The Belleville Tigers barely made it into double figures on Thursday night, as the Salem girls basketball team passed the ball around, over and past them to win, 64-18.

In Tuesday night's action, the Rocks also emerged victorious, beating Dearborn, 55-42.

Yet even after these 12th and 13th consecutive victories, Coach Bob Blohm wouldn't speculate about their chances in district competition in early December.

"We play ball well, we shoot well, and we pass well, but we've still got three teams to play against and win - Livonia Bentley, Dearborn, and Redford Union," said Blohm.

He continued saying all three of those contests will be played away from the Rock's home court and that fact may make a difference in the team's performance.

"We can't even think ahead to districts. We play game by game and hope to continue winning until then," said Blohm.

Against Belleville, the Rocks presented a strong defensive floor plan combined with a good passing night with little dribbling and 22 assists.

The Rocks jumped out during the first quarter to lead, 14-4, and managed to hold the Tigers to two points during the second quarter, as they put in 19 points themselves.

During the third quarter, the Tigers didn't score until 4:39 remained in the quarter tallying only three points in that quarter.

Contributing to the Rock's attack on the scoreboard were high-scorers: Peggy Somers, 12 points; Cheryl Sobkow, 11 points; and Erin Moore, 10 points.

In Tuesday's contest against Dearborn, the Rocks plagued with foul troubles as their opponents converted almost half of their 42 points from the foul lines.

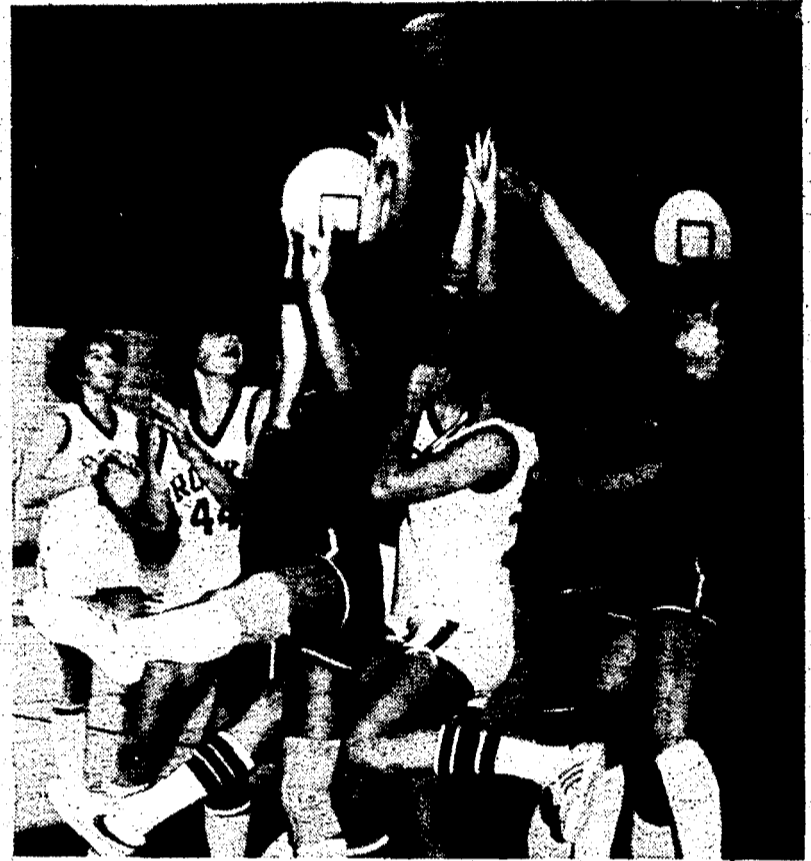

However, after the first quarter, in which the Rocks only lead by five points, 16-11, Dearborn couldn't move out fast enough to pin the Rocks down.

The halftime score was 30-17 and the second quarter was instrumental in enabling the Rocks to move ahead while holding Dearborn to six points.

Forward Doris Hoelscher lead the Rocks with 11 points; guard Peggy Somers and center Patty Weidman contributed 10 points.

The Rocks are looking forward to the return of starter Diane Goodrich after dropping out of the line-up two weeks ago because of knee injuries. She will start with the rest of the Rocks on the court next Tuesday night against Edsel Ford on the Rock court. The action starts at 8 p.m.

Chiefs win 57-37

After playing poorly and losing on Tuesday against Livonia Bentley the Canton girls basketball team rebounded Thursday night to whip Farmington Harrison by twenty points, 57-37.

After leading by a single point at the end of the first quarter the Chiefs got their offense and defense rolling in the second quarter to take a 35-15 halftime advantage.

Canton held Harrison to six points in the second quarter and tallied 27 of their own. Most of the Chief baskets were generated by a pressing defense which caused many turnovers in the form of steals and pass interceptions.

The victory lifted Canton's Western Six League record to a perfect 6-0 and their overall mark to 10-2.

The third period was marked by consistent fouling by both teams and Chief center Kelly Heaton was forced to sit down because of two technical fouls.

In the fourth period the Chiefs moved to a four-corner offense to sit on their lead. The strategy worked as Harrison was forced to gamble on defense which allowed Canton to make several easy baskets.

Kathie Peck topped the Chief scoring with 11 markers and Vickie Cavallaro and Heaton each added eight.

In the loss against Bentley Canton hit on only eight of 32 free throws and just nine of 47 field goal attempts.

Salem swimmers sink

The Salem girls swim team dropped its third meet of the season last Thursday, as Farmington Harrison breezed by with a 97-76 victory over the Rocks.

"Harrison swam their best meet of the year against us," Coach Chuck Olson said. "We lost a lot of points early, then came back, and they got us again."

Sarah Stanwood placed first in both the 200-yard individual medley and the 100 freestyle races. She also contributed her talents to help pace the medley relay team to a first place time of 2:04.6.

Sharon Ross came in first with a time of 1:07.6 in the 100 butterfly. She placed second in the 500 freestyle with a 5:45.0 timing.

Jill McCann placed second in the 50 freestyle race with a time of 27.3. The 100 backstroke found McCann in first with a 1:07.9 time, followed close behind in second and third, by teammates Renee Lakatos and Linda Wochna.

The freestyle relay team, made up of Sue Sparling, Kelly Brandt, Nancy Lazarus and Kim Coates, paced themselves to a second place finish with a 4:24.1 timing.

Canton's Nov. 3 football opponent will be Dearborn Edsel Ford rather than Dearborn High. The home game for the Chiefs will begin at 7:30.

Salem wins Homecoming game

Hansch completed his sixth extra point out of seven tries to give the Rocks a 49-6 lead.

The score remained the same, and as the clock ran down, homecoming became history. Earlier in the day during a school pep assembly, Coach Tom Moshimer said to the congregated students and teachers, "We promise you a win tonight, and that's for sure." He kept his promise.

Bentley came into the game with an embarrassing 0-7 record. Salem had a 6-1 record to boast.

Both squads used two quarterbacks to help finish the game. Bentley's starter, Crowder, completed seven of his 13 tosses, while back-up quarterback Dave Cabrera made useful two of three passes. A total of nine completed passes, added up to 156 yards gained in the air. Crowder made two exceptional passes of 52 and 59 yards.

Hewlett's passing game was near perfect, and he hit three of four receivers. His efforts totaled 108 yards in the air.

Anderson went one for one, gaining only one yard in the air. Fortunately, that one yard pass was a touchdown.

Salem had a total of 336 yards rushed, while Bentley had only 138.

Dillon was the No. 1 rusher of the evening, gaining 108 yards. He was followed by Craig Stack with 65 yards.

Hewlett ran for 62 yards, while Merrill picked up 15.

Salem has only one game left to play before the season officially ends, Saturday, Nov. 4, away against Farmington Harrison. Game time is 2 p.m.

Chiefs even record

Garden City tied the score on their next offensive series as John Lazotte sprinted 45 yards into the end zone to make it 14-14.

After taking a 22-14 lead on the 19-yard pass from Mandle to McKinley the Chiefs stopped a potential scoring drive by Garden City at their own 24-yard line and then drove down field to tally the game's final touchdown.

Mandle capped off the 15-play drive when he dove over from the one-yard line. He carried the pigskin eight times for 41 yards during the drive and after scoring the TD he passed to John Tarr for the conversion.

For the game Canton racked up 16 first downs to the Panthers five and outgained them 282 yards to 173 yards in total offense (unofficially).

Following Mandle in rushing for Canton was Hamblin who had 58 yards on eight tries.

Dawson, who opened the contest at quarterback, grabbed three passes for 62 yards and McKinley caught two for 34 yards.

Canton, now 4-4 on the year, will shoot for a winning season in their last game of the year on Fri., Nov. 3 at home against Dearborn Edsel Ford starting at 7:30.

Cage clinic Nov. 6

A basketball shooting clinic, sponsored by Pro-Keds will be held Mon., Nov. 6 at Salem High School starting at 7:30 p.m.

The clinic will be conducted by former ABA scoring star George Lehman and it is open to the public free of charge.

Harriers fifth

The Canton cross country team finished fifth in the Western Six league championship on Wednesday with 117 points placing ahead of the Walled Lake Western Warriors who had a total of 139 points.

Northville was the winner with 47 points and Waterford Mott took second with a score of 57.

Mike Talaga was the individual winner for the Chiefs as he came in 15th overall in a time of 17:11. Dave Spitz finished 20th as he crossed the finish line in 17:26, while Randy Hennells copped the 25th position with a time of 17:42.

Other scorers for the Chiefs were Dan McGlenn (17:58) and Dan Inoles (18:07).

For the year Canton posted a record four dual meet victories.

Some members of the Plymouth-Canton Swim Club excelled in the freestyle medley races, but overall they failed to win the meet against Chelsea, 389-311.

First-place winners were: Paul Swartzinski, Charlie Triplett, Frank Wisnienski and Greg Wolff swimming the 100-yard freestyle relay in 1:19.6; Tim Collins, Bob Bowling Jeff Hancock and Jim Dillon, 200-yard freestyle in 2:26.9.

In the 200-yard freestyle competition for girls, Stacey Blanchard, Andria Telek, Kathy Prochaska and Diane Tabin swam in 2:30.7 and won a first place.

In the 100-yard relay for nine-and-ten-year-old boys, Greg Wolff, Frank Wisnienski, Paul Swartzinski, and Charlie Triplett took the event in 1:08.

Jim Dillon, Jeff Hancock, Tim Collins, and Bob Bowling splashed to a 2:06.6 time in the 11-and-12-year old boys competition for the 200-yard medley.

In the 50-yard backstroke, Tim Collins took a first-place by swimming the event in 36.4, and Kathy Prochaska took a first-place for 13-and-14 year old girls. Her time was 37.1.

The next meet for the swim club is at Willow Run High School on Nov. 6.

Two sports clinics set

Both are for athletes and coaches as well as for physical education students and teachers.

The volleyball clinic is set for Friday evening and Saturday, Nov. 17-18.

I wonder why Hugs are so out of place?
 A tiny squeeze, a warm embrace, a touch of any kind seems so out of place.
 A warm friendly hug brings a terrible face;
 While a cheery nod on the telephone is quite another case.
 There are countries I've seen where they hug and they kiss;
 And they smile and really look you in the face, time has no meaning for these wonderful folks --
 I wonder what our efficiency has in its place?
