Schools put scaled-down bond issue on ballot

BY PATRICIA BARTOLD

Plymouth-Canton voters will be given a second chance to approve a bond issue for the school district.

By a 6-1 vote Monday night, the Board of Education took first steps toward placing an $11 million bond proposal before the voters on the June 9 ballot.

The board OK'd submitting preliminary bond forms to the Michigan Department of Education for its approval. Trustee Elaine Kirchgatter dissented in the decision, saying, "I feel uncomfortable bringing this back to the voters now." She has favored returning to the voters later in the year. Two bond propositions, totalling $21.9 million, were defeated at the polls on March 27.

Meanwhile the school board did not act Monday night on a second proposition recommended by school administrators. According to Supt. John M. Hoben, the second proposition, which would allow the district to levy its fully-authorized millage rate without the 1.32 mill rollback imposed by the Headlee Amendment, will be considered at the next school board meeting, Monday, May 12.

At the May 12 meeting, the board will adopt the formal wording of both bond proposals after state officials have reviewed the preliminary bond applications.

How much will an $11 million bond, if OK'd, cost the taxpayer? Estimated at about 1.1 mills, the issue would cost a homeowner with an $80,000 house (assessed at $40,000) about $45 during the first year of the proposal. Because the debt levy is reduced each successive year, it would cost about $25 during its second year, said Ray Hoedel, assistant superintendent for business. The proposed bond would be sold over a 17-year span at a 10 per cent interest rate.

In essence, the $11 million bond is a trimmed-down version of the $14 million bond proposal brought before voters in June. About $3 million was taken off Proposition I which met defeat by 560 votes in March. Buses have been excluded from the $11 million proposal and renovation costs for Central Middle School have been cut back.

The bulk of the bond money would go toward two projects: renovation of Central Middle School and installing an energy management system. Central's costs would include: replacing the roof; adding an elevator; replacing the electrical, plumbing, and mechanical systems to meet state-code requirements; and, renovating and refurbishing some classrooms including furniture, equipment, and floors.

An energy management system would regulate cooling and heating systems district-wide.

Other costs in the $11 million bond proposal are scattered in projects at nearly all the schools in the district. For example, one project is the construction of a new state addition at East Middle School. A second project calls for replacing existing furniture at Irbister School.

Depending on the outcome of the two proposals in the June election, Hoben said the school district will face a $300,000 to $2 million deficit in the 1980-81 year.

The school district is preparing to face a cutback in state aid next year, said Hoben. "The revenue picture at the state level is, at best, devastating," he said Monday night.

Unified 35th District court may be built

BY CHAS CHILD

A plan to build a unified courthouse in the 35th District may not be dead after all.

Even though Canton's Board of Trustees decided not to join the effort, the four other municipalities in the district, the City of Plymouth, Plymouth Township, Northville Township, and the City of Northville, may proceed, said 35th District Judge James Garber.

Next Wednesday, an advisory committee will meet to discuss pushing ahead with the unified courthouses without Canton.

Canton's Board of Trustees said the township would not save any money by joining the effort. Proponents of the plan, however, say that the court will save money in clerical, telephone, and administrative costs, by putting the court under one roof.

Currently, the 35th District has three courthouses, in Canton, and the cities of Plymouth and Northville. The district has two judges, Garber and Dunbar Davis.

The advisory committee is composed of members from all five communities.

Officer scolded for shooting bird

BY CHAS CHILD

A Canton Township ordinance officer Fred Baker, has been reprimanded for shooting a pheasant with his duty pistol.

Ordinance officers were permitted to carry guns recently by the Board of Trustees, but only after pointed debate.

Ordinance Director Bruce Phillips told the board that his staff needed pistols to protect themselves from irate citizens who might be angered by the ordinance officers carrying out their duties.

Supervisor Noel Culbert said Baker has been reprimanded. The township's gun policy for ordinance officers states that they should be used only in self-defense, he said.

The ordinance department is charged with enforcing township laws not enforced by the police. These include laws that regulate such things as abandoned cars, fences, and signs.

According to Clerk John Flodin, the shooting occurred like this: Baker, driving along Cherry Hill Road west of Canton Center, about a week ago, saw the male pheasant flopping on the side of the road.

"Apparently either he hit it or another car did," said Flodin. Baker stopped, got out of his vehicle, and shot the bird, Flodin said.

Then, he brought the pheasant back to Township Hall and showed it to Flodin, said the clerk.

Baker declined to comment on the incident, except to say that he believed he did not err in judgment by shooting the bird.

Trustee Carol Bodenmiller, who supported arming the ordinance officers, described the incident as a "small infraction." She added: "There are certain procedures (you follow) when you have a gun and this wasn't one of them.

"It is nothing of great magnitude," she said. "And I still support letting ordinance officers carry guns."

The director of the ordinance department, Bruce Phillips, declined to comment on the matter. "It's a personnel matter, he said.

"No one was endangered, but there is a question of the propriety of what he did," said Flodin. "I'm sure he regrets having done it. It was an error in judgment.

Flodin said he voted against permitting ordinance officers to carry guns and is still opposed to the policy.

"It was clearly an unwarranted discharge," Culbert said. "We've instructed Fred that if he sees another wounded animal by the road to put it in his trunk and take it to a vet.

"He said it was for humanitarian reasons," the supervisor said. "You can't fault him too much, but you can't overlook it."

Culbert added that he opposed giving guns to ordinance officers. "This shows that if you give people guns, it becomes a lot easier to use them," he said.

State seeks to revoke Canton cemetery license

BY W. EDWARD WENDOVER

The attorney general's office expects to file in Wayne County Circuit Court this week to revoke the license of Knollwood Cemetery, according to Ron Styka, assistant to the attorney general.

In court, the Michigan Cemetery Commission will ask Knollwood to enforce an agreement made out of court last November, said Styka. The judge could suspend or revoke Knollwood's license or the judge could disagree with the commission's case entirely, said Styka. The cemetery is located at 1299 Ridge Rd., Canton.

Meanwhile, an attorney for Knollwood, Elliott R. Perlman, said he was not aware of any new action on the case. "I don't know anything about it," he said.

Knollwood, according to the Cemetery Commission, is some $390,434 short in trust funds as required by law to cover the advance sale of merchandise and maintenance of gravesites.

In an out-of-court settlement signed by Knollwood's owner, Sam Tocco, and the state, last November, Knollwood's deficits were to be gradually repaid. If Knollwood failed to repay and to stay current, said that settlement, the cemetery's license would be suspended or revoked and a receiver would be appointed to take over operations.

According to George Bruce, executive secretary of the cemetery commission, audits of Knollwood have shown that the past shortages were not repaid and that the cemetery has fallen even further behind.

Bruce said Knollwood has taken in $919,962 from sales of burial lots since it was established in 1968 and has sold $620,652 in cemetery merchandise since 1972. Based on those sales, he said, the cemetery should have $433,834 in its trust funds, but has only $43,400.

The state has been attempting to correct Knollwood's trust fund shortages since 1976.

But the state's actions have not been the only problems facing Tocco.

His mortgage on Knollwood was being contested in Macomb County Circuit Court by Manufacturers Bank of Southfield for default.

City seeks tax decrease

BY DAN BODENE

A possible millage decrease was discussed by Plymouth City Manager Henry Graper at an informal public hearing on the proposed 1980-81 city budget Monday.

Mayor Pro Tem Eldon Martin opened the meeting, saying "I think we have a good budget, and I'm sorry we don't have more people to see it and appreciate it."

Graper added his own remarks, explaining that although decreases in state revenues were anticipated, an increase of 16 and one-half to 17 and one-half per cent in real and personal property values (SEV) was expected to offset them. In addition, with a substantial contingency fund brought forward from the previous year to offset other costs, a millage rollback could be possible.

Graper also added that he intends to present a balanced budget to the commission for adoption at its meeting this Monday night.

"It is an austere budget. It does not call for doomsday measures, but places on us the responsibility for watching it closely from month to month," he said.

Graper also fielded questions from the audience on allocation requests and budget format.

Stating that "forty per cent of the budget is controlled by formal contract," Graper said many figures listed in the proposed budget are subject to change according to union contracts and other expenses.

Earlier this year, Graper asked city department heads to cut back on travel and personnel costs. At Monday's meeting, he said again that in the event of necessary personnel cuts or restructuring, the present level of city services would be maintained.

Twp. opposes low-income apt. complex at M-14

BY PATRICIA BARTOLD

Plymouth Township trustees oppose construction of a 128-unit apartment building because the developer is asking the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) to back his loan for the project. The proposed complex would be located north of M-14 and east of Ridge Road.

They came out against the proposal at last Tuesday night's board meeting. The vote was 5-2 with Trustee Lee Fidge and Supervisor Tom Notebaert dissenting.

If the HUD-backed loan was secured, 20 per cent of the units would house moderate-or-low income families.

The housing plan "doesn't agree with the community," said Trustee Maurice Breen, who led the opposition. Furthermore, he said the history of HUD programs has shown they aren't reliable. "I don't agree with the project so I don't agree with the project."

Clerk Esther Hulsing also opposed the plan. The board was uncertain as to whether 26 units (for low-income families) would be used by Plymouth Township residents, she said.

Ben Marks of Michigan Co-Partnership of Farmington is the developer of Bramblewood, the proposed complex. The site is zoned for multiple-family use, however the Plymouth Township Planning Commission has not given tentative preliminary site plan approval for the project.

Cost of the project is estimated at $4,097,000. Marks has asked HUD to back a $3,800,000 loan for it in order to get lower interest rates on the mortgage.

The project would have 128 units including 32 one-bedroom apartments and 96 two-bedroom apartments. Twenty-six of those units would be for moderate-or-low income dwellers.

Even though Plymouth Township has come out in opposition to the project, trustees are uncertain about how their opposition will impact the project.

"I don't know if our opposition will mean block grants will be cut in the future or if the proposed complex won't be built," said Hulsing.

One argument in support of the project was voiced at Tuesday night's meeting by a representative from the Wayne County Block Grant Program. Because the township has accepted block grant money, he said it has committed itself to accepting low-and-moderate-income family housing.

Plymouth Township has been given block grant funds ranging from about $90,000 to $120,000 annually for the past several years. Money has been used to replace sewer lines and for other projects.

Although most trustees didn't agree with that argument, Notebaert approved of the Canton passes ordinance to regulate massage shops

BY CHAS CHILD

Canton's Board of Trustees passed an ordinance last Tuesday to regulate massage parlors in the township.

The new law prohibits sexual acts at massage establishments, and regulates many aspects of the massage business, including licensing of masseuses.

Trustee Robert Greenstein, a lawyer, voted for the ordinance, although reluctantly, saying it could be better written. Massage parlor operators are "expert at getting around ordinances that are poorly written," he said.

In fact, said Greenstein, the law could help protect some massage parlors. "We're very close to establishing a bad ordinance that can be used as a shield by some persons," he said. "But I'm willing to vote 'yes' and take that chance."

Supervisor Noel Culbert, who helped prepare the ordinance, said it was important to get a massage-parlor law on the books as soon as possible.

Culbert said it's impossible to know if the ordinance is perfect. But the owner of a parlor that recently moved into Canton, Charlie's Spa, told him that the lack of an ordinance was one reason why he opened in Canton, he said.

An earlier version of the ordinance contained a clause calling for massage parlors to erect a sign in front of the establishment which contains the word "massage." After objections from some trustees, this was removed.

Schools OK students' transfer

A request to transfer nine students from Tanger to Farrand School was OK'd by the Plymouth-Canton Board of Education Monday night.

The transfer was OK'd by a 5-2 vote under conditions that the transfer is effective for one year, no additional busing is required, and there's available space at Farrand School. Board President Tom Yack and Trustee Flossie Tonda dissented in the vote. Parents of the children, who came to the board meeting, listed 10 reasons for the transfer. Because of the small number of students involved, the transfer would not place a burden on Farrand School, they said. In addition, Farrand is located closer to their homes. The families live on Finch Street and Lakeland Court in Plymouth Township.

"In all-fairness, I can't vote 'yes' because I wouldn't be fair to others (who may want to request transfers), if I change your children," said Tonda.

Plymouth Twp. has lowest salaries in community

Officials' pay compared

BY CHAS CHILD

Plymouth Township appears to have the thriftiest government in the Plymouth-Canton Community, a review of salaries of major elected and appointed officials shows.

Supervisor Thomas Notebaert has the lowest salary -- $20,800 -- of all the chief administrators in the community.

Canton Supervisor Noel Culbert, on the other hand, earns $29,500, almost 50 per cent more than Notebaert. Plymouth City Manager Henry Graper, the city's appointed chief executive, is paid $37,500 per year, while John M. Hoben, superintendent of the Plymouth-Canton Community School District, earns $50,000 per year.

Not only is Notebaert's salary relatively low, but Plymouth Township has six elected administrators and department heads. Canton, meanwhile, has 13 equivalent positions. The City of Plymouth has 10 such positions.

For comparison, the City of Plymouth has about 12,000 residents. Plymouth Township's population is about 22,000, while Canton's is estimated about 48,000. The 1979 revenue of each government unit looks like this:

City of Plymouth, $6.2 million; Plymouth Township, $4.7 million; Canton Township, $8.1 million; Plymouth-Canton school district, $34.8 million.

Beneath the superintendents of schools are three assistant superintendents: Norm Kee, asst. supt. for employe relations; Mike Homes, asst. supt. for instruction; and Ray Hoedel, asst. supt. for business. All three earn $41,353, the top of their salary range, which starts at $34,628.

Filling out the rest of the major school staff are four executive directors, four supervisors/special education, four directors, nine high school area coordinators, two high school principals, four middle school principals, five middle school assistant principals (Pioneer has two), 13 elementary school principals, and six elementary school assistant principals. See the accompanying table for their salary ranges.

As for the elected trustees and commissioners, those who sit on the Canton Board of Trustees are the highest paid, followed by Plymouth Township. Canton trustees Robert Greenstein, Carol Bodenmiller, Stephen Larson, and Eugene Daley earn $75 per meeting.

Plymouth Township trustees Gerald Law, Lee Fidge, Maurice Breen, and Barb Lynch earn $70 per meeting, with a minimum of 33 meetings per year.

The Plymouth-Canton Board of Education members are paid $30 per meeting, with a maximum of 52 meetings per year. And Plymouth City Commissioners Karl Gansler, Ron Loiselle, Ralph Kenyon, Bud Martin, Mark Wehmeyer, and David Pugh earn $10 per meeting. Mayor Mary Childs is paid $475 per year beyond the $10 per meeting.

The salaries of Canton's administrators were roughly equivalent to Plymouth Township's until the Canton Board of Trustees abolished last year its Compensation Ordinance.

This ordinance established an independent Compensation Commission, which set the administrators' salaries. The salaries of Plymouth Township's administrators are set by a Compensation Commission.

Judges get raises

The two judges of the 35th district court have received pay raises of $6,000 apiece.

The raises, which will bring Judge James Garber's and Judge Dunbar Davis's salaries up to $42,298 per year, will be shared by the cities of Northville and Plymouth, and Canton Township, which support courthouses in the district, which also includes Plymouth and Northville townships.

Last Tuesday, Canton's Board of Trustees approved the pay hikes, which had been approved by the two other municipalities earlier.

The three municipalities will share the raises according to the number of court cases generated by each.

The bulk of the two judges salaries -- $29,950 per judge -- is paid by the state of Michigan.

Renovation of City Hall may start in August

Plans for renovation of Plymouth City Hall will soon be finalized and construction may begin in August, said Henry Graper, city manager.

At a special meeting of the Municipal Building Authority (MBA) Thursday, Graper said approval for the bond issue to fund the project was expected within 30 days. In addition, the City Commission has approved architectural fees so that preliminary engineering drawings for the renovation can be completed.

Although a specific plan for the project has not been adopted, Graper told the MBA state requirements must be met which will affect its design. Barrier-free requirements will mean constructing an elevator as well as adapting rest rooms. A detoxification cell is needed, and existing cells must be remodeled to include provisions for natural sunlight, he said.

Foremost on the priority list for renovation are expanded facilities for the Fire and Police departments. Graper said a new building could be added to the present fire department garage.

Proposed as a 50-foot-square steel-framed structure, the new garage would include 3 equipment stalls and a large training area. An important aspect of the design will change the direction of the garage door openings to the west, facing the Historical Museum. One of the doors would open front and back, allowing larger fire trucks to drive through to eliminate difficult parking.

The present fire department garage would be remodeled for administrative and living space, with a portion to be used by the police department. The police, in turn, would be able to use much of the building space currently taken by the firefighters.

Other building modifications would include a better air-transfer system, permanent room partitions and possible relocation of departmental and court facilities.

Graper said that the major work could be completed within four to six months beginning in August, with further interior modifications taking another few months.

SIXTY-ONE students from Bird School enrolled in the Junior Great Books class were given tags in recognition of their efforts last week. The program is designed to teach critical reading and analysis. Participating in the program were: (from left to right) Tony Sayers, Junior Great Books leader; Daren Boluch, a fourth grader; Stuart Richeson, a fourth grader; Molly Reichenbach, a fourth grader; and Janet Crook, a Junior Great Books leader. Self-serve gas delayed

BY CHAS CHILD

A proposal to permit self-serve gasoline pumps in the Canton Township was delayed again by the Board of Trustees last Tuesday night.

Currently, a local Canton ordinance prohibits self-serve pumps. A new law proposed by Supervisor Noel Culbert would permit stations to offer self-serve, but also require them to have attendants to pump gas if the customer wants.

Trustee Robert Greenstein opposed Culbert's proposed ordinance. He said if it were passed, every station in Canton would switch to self-serve.

Moreover, the oil companies would "thumb their noses" at the new law and offer self-serve only, without an attendant, he said. "They would take this ordinance to court forever," he added.

If it goes to court, the new law will be overturned, said Greenstein. "It is ill-conceived and ill-thought out."

Culbert, however, maintains that his ordinance will hold up in court. In fact, he said, it stands a better chance of being sustained than the present ordinance, which bans self-serve.

During his term as supervisor, from 1974-76, Greenstein helped pass the current ordinance.

The board of trustees tabled the proposal and referred it to township attorneys. The board will reconsider the ordinance after the attorneys write an opinion on two questions: whether the current ordinance will hold up in court; and whether permitting both self-serve and attendant-serve pumps at the same stations will be sustained in court.

Chamber chooses new manager

Diane Williams has been selected as the executive director of the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce.

Her appointment was announced Monday night at the chamber's executive board meeting. Williams, a Canton resident, was an executive secretary with the Plymouth-Canton schools for four years. Prior to that, she worked in the Wayne-Westland school district for seven years, also as an executive secretary.

She is past president of the Wayne County Association of Educational Secretaries and has been on the executive board of the organization for five years.

She will begin her post at the chamber May 1. The Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce is located at 188 N. Main St.

Negotiations between local governmental units and their employes do not always go smoothly, but the current City of Plymouth stalemate with its police officers is really getting out of hand.

Both sides can be said to be playing for public sympathy by parading their statements before the media. This, in itself, has rarely proven a sound approach to obtaining a good contract.

But in addition, the behind-the-scenes games between the city and its policemen are now affecting the welfare of the public.

If indeed, as City Hall claims, Plymouth policemen have slowed down on writing tickets or otherwise enforcing laws and aiding citizens, that is less than professional on their part.

And on the part of City Manager Henry Graper, a harrangue calling the policemen's tactics "immature" will do little to restore the necessary working relationship between the management and workers once a contract is settled.

The best step possible, given the deteriorating situation, is to bring in an arbitrator to settle the contract dispute without further direct discord.

'Publish an apology'

Crash story was erroneous

EDITOR:

You published a story in your April 16 issue involving an accident which occurred on Northville Road during the rain storm on Tuesday, April 8. In this article it was said that the driver of a Chevrolet struck a car pulling into a driveway. I am the driver of that Chevrolet and I feel that your coverage of this event insinuated that the accident was my fault.

In reality, I was traveling down Northville Road towards Edward Hines Drive when a car traveling down the same road, toward Five Mile Road, turned left into the Plymouth Hilton driveway. This driver made an improper left turn into my lane! My car has been estimated as totaled by the insurance company and I suffered lacerations across my face as a result of his error in judgement.

I was informed by Wayne County Sheriff's deputies that citations to the other driver were not issued because he was from out of town and the court appearance required with a citation would be to inconvenient.

I feel your handling of this report was totally erroneous. It has caused me great embarrassment in addition to the damages I have suffered. If your newspaper has a need for such stories to fill space, I would like to suggest you publish an apology to me the same size of the article you previously published.

ELLEN K. THOMAS

Editor's note: We are sorry that the writer was injured, but we do not believe there was anything wrong with our reporting of the writer's accident. The caption under the photo of the accident read, "During last Tuesday's storm, the Mercury at right was struck broadside by the Chevrolet, left, according to the Wayne County Sheriff's Department, at Northville Road near the Plymouth Hilton. Roland Mancini, of Norristown, Pa., was turning into a driveway when his car was struck by the Chevy, driven by Ellen K. Thomas, 14596 Shadywood, Plymouth, said police. No citations were issued in connection with the accident, said police."

No one was ticketed by the police, which we reported, thereby taking the writer out from under the implications of guilt which the word "struck" seems to suggest. Why no one was ticketed is hard to understand, if the writer's version of the accident is correct, and we have no reason to suspect it isn't. Det. Sue Murray, of the Wayne County Sheriff's Department, Plymouth Township's new Law Enforcement Coordinator, said the decision to issue a ticket is left to the judgment of the officers on the scene. And why do we publish car-accident photos in the first place? We believe traffic safety is a very important issue of public concern. If just a few people drive more safely after seeing accident photos in The Crier, we believe the space devoted to them is well used.

TOM AND CORINNE BOYLE

Notebaert's fine

EDITOR:

I think residents of Plymouth Township are a little bit lucky to have Tom Notebaert as our supervisor. He has a calm and organized way of managing the financial and other administrative matters of the township.

We tend not to notice the job of a township supervisor until something goes wrong. I wanted to take a minute to notice it when everything is going nicely, even in these terrible economic times, and express thanks from me and my family for Tom's service to the community.

Schools need repeal of Headlee limitations

community opinions

Plymouth-Canton school officials want the 1.32-mill rollback rolled back.

Sounds confusing, doesn't it? Here's the story: It looks like the school district's June 9 ballot will have a proposition to allow the district to levy its total authorized millage rate for operating expenses.

If voters OK it, the district can levy 35.26 mills for operating expenses. If it's defeated, then the schools will reduce that levy by 1.32 mills so that it will be authorized to levy 33.94 mills.

All this confusion is the fault of the Headlee Amendment. Last year, the district levied 35.26 mills; however, the Headlee forces a rollback this year. While aiming to relieve the burden on the taxpayer, it has hog-tied the Plymouth-Canton school district as it tries to cope with the rapidly expanding student population.

While designed to save the taxpayer money, the Headlee Amendment has created a new scapegoat. That is a tough position for public officials to explain to taxpayers who are struggling to keep their heads above the rising waters of inflation.

THE COMMUNITY CRIER

Child's play

by Chas Child

It's not often that local government can step in and save residents' money in one easy stroke.

So it's a shame that Canton's Board of Trustees doesn't once and for all adopt an ordinance that would permit self-serve gasoline pumps in the township.

Everywhere I've been self-serve gas is cheaper than attendant-pumped gas. For a board that often harps about saving the public its tax dollars, it's hard to understand why it continues to keep the price high.

Self-serve gas is now banned by a Canton ordinance, passed by then-supervisor, now-trustee, Robert Greenstein. Oddly enough, Greenstein is the one speaking the loudest about cutting expenditures in township government, and delaying the new ordinance proposed by Supervisor Noel Culbert.

Besides lowering the price of gas in Canton, providing self-serve may also increase the supply. I'm no expert on how the oil companies work, but it seems logical that fewer restrictions will prompt oil executives to open more stations in Canton.

In the coming energy crunch, a few extra stations in the township could go a long way.

Greenstein should practice what he preaches: Save the average resident a buck. Adopt a self-serve gasoline ordinance.

Auction was local fun

Last weekend's first annual radiothon for WSDP -- the Plymouth-Canton School District's radio station -- was a triumph in local broadcasting.

Not only did the WSDP students and advisors organize and carry through a weekend of good local programming, which helped raise funds for their continued coverage betterment, but the community's participation and support showed the generosity of our community.

Our hats are off to all those who participated, contributed and bid during the radiothon. The event showed the community benefit derived from providing such an educational opportunity for our students.

Congratulations to the station and all who helped!

THE COMMUNITY CRIER

Long may flags wave in Canton

EDITOR:

I read it, but I still do not believe it. On April 23, The Crier printed an article from an interview with Bruce Phillips about our American flag. The township and Ordinance Department have pushed far too far where I am concerned. I am sure we have all seen "Old Glory" flying in front of the Pizza Hut on Ford Road. In fact, I missed her when she was gone for awhile.

If you can drive by that flag and never feel a little twinge of "God Bless America" then I think you could be in the wrong country.

It appears that our chief ordinance officer comrade Bruce Phillips resents seeing our American flag flying because he feels it might cause a rash of American flags to be flown. Well, let me tell you, my friend, let them fly and be bigger.

The day you and your bunch of gestapo-type personnel can tell anyone to cease flying the flag of our country are numbering their days in this township. Thousands of brave men and women gave their lives for the privilege of flying our flag, and I will be damned, Mr. Phillips, if you or anyone like you will presume to tell them to remove them.

I have been a resident of Canton for 20 years. I have served four years in the U.S. Air Force during the Korean War. I have seen boards come and go with their political pets. Today, I feel we have reached an all-time low in the history of Canton.

If our board feels people like this should be interpreting our ordinances, in the manner in which they have been, it is time for a good house cleaning!

I hope enough citizens who read this letter will take time to call or write your papers and township officials to let them know their feelings toward this.

I am sure that organizations like the VFW, American Legion and any other American organization that flies our flag would like to comment on the removal of our flag for any reason. Keep 'em flying.

Everybody's a winner at these Olympics

BY DAN BODENE

Marching to the Olympic anthem, athletes from Canada, Wayne-Westland, Dearborn, Plymouth-Canton and Our Lady of Providence paraded behind handmade banners into the Canton High School auditorium Saturday, signalling the beginning of the 1980 Wayne County Special Olympics.

The games span two days, Saturday activities included gymnastics and bowling. Swimming, track and field will be held this Friday at Canton High School. They begin at 8:30 a.m.

Led by the Livonia Bentley High School Drill Team, the competitors gathered to participate, in the words of Edwin Page of Plymouth-Canton Schools, "in the only activity where there are no losers."

After placing American and Canadian flags on stage, both national anthems were sung by vocalist Kathy Benson. Speakers for the official welcome included: John M. Hoben, superintendent of Plymouth-Canton schools; Edwin Page, executive director of pupil personnel services for Plymouth-Canton schools; Kent Buikema, principal of Canton High School; Mary Childs, mayor of Plymouth; John Flodin, Canton clerk and, Thomas Notebaert, supervisor of Plymouth Township. Dick Clark, president of the board of directors of Michigan Special Olympics, ended the introductions with the traditional "Let the games begin!"

Gymnastics were classed by event and age group, with several different activities being contested at once. There was no evidence of the usual moodiness of most sporting events, and with non-stop competition, the auditorium was soon filled with cheers, encouraging shouts and triumphant congratulations.

Two Plymouth-Canton athletes competed in gymnastics; both were members of a Harrison School team, the Hurricanes. Beth Covington, 14, and Greg Neschich, 16 participated in balance beam events, both winning first place in their age groups. Their performances, as well as all others, were capped by congratulations from "huggers," volunteers who provided a reward every contestant looked forward to.

Certainly the crowd favorite of the games was Mike Baker, who attends the Northwest Wayne Skill Center. A one-legged gymnast, Baker dazzled the audience with his performances in floor exercises and the balance beam, topped by a perfect dismount which brought applause from the entire house.

Scores of volunteers assisted with every part of the competition, and it was to their credit that there were no injuries or sad faces during the afternoon. It was apparent they enjoyed what they were doing as much as any of the competitors.

Nancy Fialka, a coach of the Wayne-Westland team, summed it up when she said, "These kids need gymnastics because it makes them slow down and use their bodies. They need to improve their self-concept and this is a terrific way for them to do it."

The Special Olympics oath states, "Let me win, but if I cannot win, let me be brave in the attempt." Anyone in the auditorium Saturday could see there was never any lack of that kind of courage.

SHOWING THE FORM that won her a gold medal, Beth Covington, 14, concentrates on her performance on the balance beam during Saturday's gymnastics competition at the Special Olympics. Beth was one of two Plymouth area Olympians who competed and won the gold in their events.

Photos by Rick Smith

MIKE BAKER, 16, of Inkster, competed in both floor exercises and the balance beam, turning in a performance worthy of any Olympian. A gymnast for six years, Mike said the only thing he felt at Saturday's competition was "butterflies." Mike's wish is to teach gymnastics someday, and after his Special Olympics performance, no one can doubt his credentials.

PLYMOUTH OLYMPIAN GREG NESCHICH, 16, with volunteer Hayze Wilson, is all smiles just before his turn on the balance beam. Greg, one of two Plymouth competitors, went on to take first prize in the event within his age bracket.

April's taxing season

April means many things -- spring showers, daylight savings time, and income tax deadline.

Daylight savings time is something we all get used to eventually. It's one of those facts of life you can't do anything about so you roll with it. I like having longer days, but I'm not sure where I gain or lose by having to remember to change the clocks twice a year. Of course, I never remember to change the clock, which means that I'm always an hour late or early for two days. Then it takes my body another week to get used to the new schedule. I'm either hungry or tired at the wrong time. If daylight savings time is so great, why can't we have it all year round?

Besides the irritation of being rained on in April, there's the annual hassle of trying to deal with the stupid government, as you wait until the last minutes to file the income tax. Other than the few receipts I have stuffed in the bottom of my purse or the back of some drawer, I have everything filed in an envelope. That special envelope is in a very special place, and if you'd quit bugging me, maybe I could remember where that special place is.

Collecting all the information is just half the battle of filling out tax forms. Next you have to try to interpret what the government wants (I'm convinced it wants everything).

After paying an accountant to act as translator between you and the government, you receive the good news that Uncle Sam actually owes you a little money for a change.

Now the real fun begins. So far we have decided to spend the money on new carpeting for the living room and dining room, buy a chair for the family room, pay off the car, get braces for the kid, and buy a few new clothes. Unfortunately, that $20 check we're expecting is going to have a slight problem covering all our dreams.

I wonder if the government could make a mistake and add a few extra zeros to the check. Well, if you're going to dream, you might as well make it big.

Shirley Kinsler of Southworth in Plymouth has accomplished what many women talk of doing, but few actually follow through with. She earned a bachelor of science degree in business administration from Madonna College.

During the past few years, the mother of nine children not only spent many hours raising her family, doing volunteer work and going to school, but she also worked part-time at a local bank. Last fall she quit working to go to school full time.

Her family, friends, and former co-workers join together to wish a very special person the best of luck in her future accomplishments.

The friends of Rose and Charlie Schroeder of Lakeland Court in Plymouth announce the arrival of Terry, delivered by Dr. Delta, at 2:30 a.m. on Sunday, April 20. Awaiting at home were two younger sisters, Jodi, 11, and Jenny, six. Friends and relatives wish Terry the best of luck in her new home.

Mark Richter, son of Don and Pat Richter of Kingsbridge in Canton recently graduated with a Doctor of Medicine from Wayne State University. He worked as an intern at Sparrow Hospital in Lansing.

James Kabel of McClumpha Road in Plymouth received a bachelor of science degree in law enforcement from Northern Michigan University in Marquette.

In the 33d annual commencement at Madonna College, several Canton residents received their degrees.

Recipients of bachelor of science degrees in criminal justice were Marc Davis, Randy Hutchinson, and Allen Cox. Other bachelor of science degrees were awarded to: Jane Franko, business administration; Sharon Graves, allied health management; Denise Chapman, legal assistance/administrator; Sharon Rintz, marketing; Erwin Abbott, business; and Raymond Sturdy, legal assistance administrator.

Bachelor of arts degrees were awarded to: Mary Clauser, gerontology; Verne Kirby, social science; Linda Spinner, social science; and Karen Paquette, learning disabilities.

Associate degrees were awarded to: JoAnne Pelchat, business; Mabel Perski, computer science; and Geraldine Gorecki, gerontology.

Five Plymouth residents also received degrees from Madonna.

Recipients of bachelor of science degrees were Sally Wright, criminal justice; Shirley Kinsler, business administration; and Linda Barnes, social work and gerontology.

Janet McCue received a bachelor of science degree in nursing and Frances Yoakham, gerontology with honors. Frances was also nominated for membership to Kappa Gamma Pi, a national women's leadership and scholastic honor society of Catholic colleges.

Jill Hochlowski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hochlowski of Amelia Street in Plymouth, is working on her doctoral degree in Chemistry at Scripps University of Oceanography in La Jolla, California. The 1974 graduate of Salem High School recently was awarded a government "sea" grant. Next month she is going to Baja, as a scientist and a diver, for further research.

Symphony chooses conductor

Johan van der Merwe, a professor of music at the University of Michigan, has been selected as the conductor of the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra for the 1980-81 season.

The announcement was made at Monday night's Board of Directors meeting. He was the guest conductor of the March Symphony concert in which John Mohler was the featured soloist.

Van der Mewe was the first-prize winner in an international conductors' competition in Liverpool, England. He has studied and conducted in several European countries as well as in his native South Africa. This summer he will be the director of the University Orchestra at Interlochen. He lives in Toledo.

Seniors and First-Class scouts honored

Girl Scouts of the Plymouth-Canton-Northville Area Association are invited to attend the Adult Recognition meeting May 7 at West Middle School, Ann Arbor Trail and Sheldon Road, beginning at 7 p.m. Honored will be first class scouts Lisa Kiel, Susan Morse, Amy Knickerbocker, Karen Mosti, Melinda Paul, Chris Ringes and Laurie Taylor.

Also to be recognized are out-going seniors Katie Brink, Leanne Wheeler, Janet Roberts, Cindy Paul, Linda Skruggs and Rosemary McGettigan.

Guest speaker will be Marilyn Berar, a member of Wider Opportunities, a girl scout adult-level program. In addition to old business, plans for the Memorial Day Parade will also be discussed.

Try judo, dance lessons this spring

The City of Plymouth Parks and Recreation Department is offering a wide variety of classes in dance, judo, golf, and other leisure activities. They begin the week of May 5.

Classes are available in pre-school ballet, and ballet for children ages six through 13, as well as classes in tap dance for children. A disco-jazz class is offered for children ages seven through 12. This class is an introduction to basic techniques in modern jazz, with today's disco steps.

For teens and adults the Recreation Department offers classes in jazz exercise, disco dance, and ballroom dance.

Three classes of yoga are being offered. They will be held at the Cultural Center. Yoga can help you slow down and release tension and improve energy and stamina.

There are classes for beginners and advanced students, and the cost for city residents is $15.

Here's your chance to learn judo and karate, one of the oldest forms of self-defense. This class should help build self-confidence for children and adults. The class costs $15 for residents of the City of Plymouth, slightly higher for township residents.

The department is also offering two different golf classes. One class is open to young persons 14 and under. This class will meet on Monday afternoons at 4:30 at the Oasis Golf Center.

The classes for older teens and adults will be held on Mondays at 10 a.m., 6:30 p.m., and 7:30 p.m. Each class will teach the basics of the game and run for six weeks. The cost is $18 per student, the fee being slightly higher for people living outside of the city.

Also offered is an Arts and Crafts class for children ages four through 12. This class teaches the child a variety of crafts to do at home. The cost for this class is $10 for city residents.

Class registration is taking place at the Plymouth Recreation office, 525 Farmer St. For more details about the classes, call 455-6620.

'Don't take barricades away'

Scores of homeowners from the Mayflower subdivision complained to the Plymouth Township Board of Trustees last Tuesday night.

They came in response to the removal of temporary barricades at Mayflower and Albert drives in Plymouth Township. The Wayne County Road Commission, which is responsible for roads throughout the county, has OK'd removal of the barricades. It will put up 'no-left-turn' signs at various intersections to regulate the traffic flow.

About eight months ago, both drives were temporarily barricaded in order to determine how heavy traffic was and if drivers were cutting through the subdivision from the nearby high schools.

Many residents said putting up traffic signs wouldn't be effective. "Signs just don't work," said one homeowner, "they're meaningless to a young kid with a license."

Jim Akhtar, a representative of the Wayne County Sheriff's Department, said deputies would "enforce what the signs say with extra patrols."

"With proper enforcement, we hope (these measures) will work," he added. The Wayne County Sheriff's Department will begin patrolling Plymouth Township in May.

First Step hosts benefit

Highlights of "For Colored Girls Who Have Considered Suicide/When the Rainbow is Enuf," a long running Broadway play, will be presented at the Clarenceville High School Auditorium in Livonia on Saturday, May 17 at 8 p.m. The play will be performed by the Wayne State Student Stage.

The program, a benefit performance for First Step: The Western Wayne County Project on Domestic Assault, will also feature the music and dance of Women in the Arts. First Step is supported in part by a grant from Plymouth Township.

Tickets are $5 for adults and $2 for children under 12, and include refreshments. Tickets may be purchased at First Step and at the door. Clarenceville High School is located at 20155 Middlebelt Road between 7 and 8 mile roads, just north of Livonia Mall.

First Step is located in Westland. It offers information and referral services to battered women.

Law Week probes issues

A talk on "Jolt: Juvenile Delinquents and Prisons" will be presented by Robert Smith at the Canton High School Little Theatre Thursday, May 1 at 8:15 a.m.

The speech is a part of a broad range of topics to be explored during Law Week Activities at the Centennial Educational Park this week. The activities began Monday and continue through tomorrow.

In addition to special discussions on law enforcement and its issues, the classic films "Twelve Angry Men" with Henry Fonda and "Inherent in the Wind" with Spencer Tracy are being shown both today and tomorrow. The events are open to the public at no charge.

Today, Wednesday, April 30, a member of the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) and a representative of the Oakland County Prosecutor's Office will debate the death penalty. Howard Simon from the ACLU will debate Larry Bunting, assistant to the Oakland County Prosecutor, at 9:15 a.m. at the Little Theatre.

In addition, other topics included in the four-day program were "How to Face Criminal Prosecution" by attorney Ron Grossman, "The Law and Traffic Offenses" by 35th District Judge James Garber, and "Search and Seizure Precedents" by Steve Boak from the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office. He is also a resident to Plymouth Township.

Members of the Law Week Committee were Audrey Etienne, Cheryl Elliott, Bob Thams, and Denise Gimpel, teachers at the CEP.

Fire vols get new home

THE COMMUNITY CRIER: April 30, 1980

Plymouth Fire Chief Roy Hall has announced that the city's volunteer firefighters will once again have a place to call their own.

Fire Station No. 2 will be the new home to the volunteers, although Hall said, "Really, we're just giving them back something they had before. The volunteers used to meet there, but the privilege was taken away for some reason."

Currently, the firehouse is used to house the department's back-up engine and other spare equipment. In return for using the building, the volunteers will perform maintenance and protect the equipment. "It's an advantage to me to know somebody is over there taking care of the place, and it's an advantage to the city to have a place the volunteer firefighters can meet," said Hall.

Under an agreement with the department, the volunteers will call City Hall whenever a firefighter is in Firehouse No. 2. Unlike the city department, the volunteers will not occupy the station overnight.

Dog tags on sale

Dog licenses are now on sale in Plymouth Township Hall from the treasurer's office, 42350 Ann Arbor Rd.

Licenses purchased before May 31 are $3. After May 31, they cost $5. The licenses must be purchased by June 1, according to township ordinance.

Dogs must have a current rabies vaccination and owners must show proof of vaccination. Owners of dogs not vaccinated and licensed are subject to violations tickets after June 1, say officials.

Harvey. The dinner dance will be held Saturday, May 10 at Win Schuler's in Ann Arbor. (Crier photo by Robert Cameron)

Three Cities Art Club to exhibit work

Three Cities Art Club's judged art show will be on exhibit April 30 through May 3 at Westchester Square, 550 Forest, Plymouth.

Lincoln Lao, art instructor at Schoolcraft College, will act as jurist. Lao has a Master of Science and Master of Fine Arts degrees with one year of post graduate special research at the University of Oregon. He taught painting and design for two years at the university before coming to the Schoolcraft College Art Department in 1968.

Twenty-seven local artists have entered this show. From Plymouth will be Jean Bologna, Frances Bowlby, John Davison, Jackie Daniel, Linda Akhtar, Joyce Frederick, Florence Hirschmann, Ellen Kenney, Dorothy Koliba, Okema Lee, Betty Manthey, Kathleen Montgomery, Audrey Paul, Hazel Rogers and Stewart Jones.

Members from Canton are: David Lamb, Doreen Lawton, Nicanor Lopez and Lorene Vives. From Northville will be: Martha Barnes, Margaret Lambert, Fifi McCutchen and Cuyler McCutchen.

A club member will be at the show to give information about the purchase of paintings which will be for sale after the show.

Viewers have a chance to cast a ballot for artwork they consider to be the best of the show.

Jaycees launch July 4th planning

The 4th of July parade and other related activities are in the early planning stages by the Plymouth Jaycees. Solicitation of contributions from the Plymouth business community will start this week and run thru May.

Jaycees ask businesses to be as generous as they have been in the past to make this year's parade the best ever. For information about the parade, float applications, or contributions, contact Harold Jacobs at 455-8874.

Aging council gets grant

A $2,000 grant has been given to the Plymouth Council on Aging by Plymouth Township.

Approved unanimously last Tuesday night, the money comes from interest earned by the township over past years from the federal revenue sharing program. Plymouth Township was given $94,000 last year in revenue sharing funds and $98,000 in 1978, said Clerk Esther Hulsing.

In addition, she said the township has earned almost $25,000 in interest from those funds in past years. About $23,000 remains in the account, she said.

THIS IS LAW WEEK

A time to reflect upon a system of laws which guarantees our liberty
...a Constitution to be defended

Law Week Events

A talk on "Jolt: Juvenile-Delinquents and Prisons" will be presented by Robert Smith at the Canton High School Little Theatre Thursday, May 1 at 8:15 a.m.

The speech is a part of a broad range of topics to be explored during Law Week Activities at the Centennial Educational Park this week. The activities began Monday and continue through tomorrow.

In addition to special discussions on law enforcement and its issues, the classic films "Twelve Angry Men" with Henry Fonda and "Inherent the Wind" with Spencer Tracy are being shown both today and tomorrow. The events are open to the public at no charge.

Today, Wednesday, April 30, a member of the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU) and a representative of the Oakland County Prosecutor's Office will debate the death penalty.

Howard Simon from the ACLU will debate Larry Bunting, assistant to the Oakland County Prosecutor, at 9:15 a.m. at the Little Theatre.

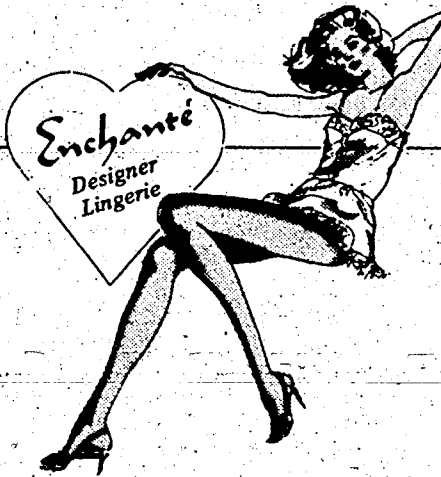

In addition, other topics included in the four-day program were "How to Face Criminal Prosecution" by attorney Ron Grossman, "The Law and Traffic Offenses" by 35th District Judge James Garber, and "Search and Seizure Precendents" by Steve Boak from the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office. He is also a resident to Plymouth Township.

Members of the Law Week Committee were Audrey Etienne, Cheryl Elliott, Bob Thams, and Denise Gimpel, teachers at the CEP.

He remembers Geer the way it was

(Editor's note: Prompted by memories of his days at Geer School, Howard Kenneth Walker of Plymouth Township wrote this article and sent it to The Crier. "The school's very dear to me," he said. After attending Geer School and then acquiring a teacher's certificate, he taught at Plymouth High School for two years during his 41 years as a teacher.)

The Geer School seen today is not the original one I am told. The original was built just north of the present one. It was made of wood and where my father attended classes there. He completed the seventh grade but had to work on the farm as students from many large families were compelled to do.

In those early days, Indians traveled the trail from Detroit to Ann Arbor. The Indian trail is now known as Ann Arbor Road. It pretty much follows the trail made by the Indians.

As a young lad, I began my education at Geer School. My first assignment when I entered school was to sew with needle and thread the entire alphabet from A to Z. Each individual letter was drawn upon a small card by the teacher with holes in the letters through which I could sew with the needle and thread.

When completed, I had the entire alphabet and then the cards were fastened together so that I could hang them on the wall. I was very proud of my accomplishment.

There were two entrances to the school room; the girls used one and the boys used the other. Wooden dividers on the shelves provided a place where we could keep our lunch boxes. During the winter we often found our sandwiches frozen. We would sit around the pot-bellied stove to partake of our frozen dinner.

There were two long recitation seats at the front where the teacher heard pupils. During a history class a book was thrown at one of the pupils who was unable to answer the question asked by the teacher. He told me later that he had all of the knowledge of history knocked out of him and became a failure in the subject.

We had no gym classes and the only exercise we got was playing baseball in the spring, fox and geese if we had enough snow on the ground in the winter, and pom-pom-pull-away between the four maple trees in the school yard.

We had one bucket containing the drinking water and a dipper from which to drink. It was used by all the pupils. It was supposed to be free of all germs but we seemed to come down with all of the usual diseases such as mumps, chicken-pox, whooping cough, measles and colds.

There were two outhouses at the back of the school, separated by the wood shed which contained wood and coal to heat the school during the school hours in the winter.

A hand raised meant the pupil had a question to ask the teacher but when one finger was raised it was asking for a trip outdoors. Oh boy, on winter days with the extremely cold weather, it was a very unpleasant trip to make. We hurried back to our lessons.

I walked one and one-quarter miles every day to attend classes but I was taken by one of my parents if the weather was bad. They had a horse and buggy because cars were little known then.

The day after Halloween we always looked for the wagon that was always placed on top of the school building by goblins. How they ever got it up there and then down was always a mystery to me.

This building has always been very dear to me and I hope that it will become a memory from out of the past. There are very few one-room schools left in Michigan today.

In 1916 I said good bye to Geer School and entered the ninth grade at Salem and then the next three years were spent at Plymouth High School which later became the middle school. After graduating from the Normal School at Ypsilanti, I came back to teach. Let's keep Geer school as a reminder of the past.

Cantonites hailed as heroes

Three Cantonites have been awarded the Medal of Merit for Outstanding Youth.

Kevin Juergans, 17, and Susan Minar, 18, were both cited for their single humanitarian acts. Juergans rescued a woman whose car was engulfed in flames after she had been in a multiple-car accident.

Minar, a freshman at Eastern Michigan University, stopped a 1,500-gallon fuel oil truck from rolling backwards and downhill toward a busy intersection last summer.

Glen Adsit, 16, was also given a medal. He has "shown maturity far beyond his age in his service as the first and only teen to serve on the Canton Recreation Advisory Committee. He also helped form and lead the Canton Youth Advisory Committee," said Congressman William Ford in announcing the awards.

A total of 34 winners were chosen from among 70 nominations in the 15th Congressional District.

Doug Ritter of Canton served on the citizens' committee which reviewed the nominations.

City readies for fire inspection

Business people in the City of Plymouth should be prepared to see a fire truck and an ambulance pull up outside some afternoon soon.

Fire Chief Roy Hall said the city will soon begin conducting inspections of commercial buildings throughout the city. Instead of just the chief making the inspections, he said, the entire fire staff will be involved.

"We're trying to get more of our people inside and active in inspections so they have a better knowledge of the buildings," Hall said.

Salvation Army to expand

To report to the community on its various services and activities, the Salvation Army held its annual civic dinner Monday at 6:30 p.m. at the Mayflower Meeting House.

Several items were presented at the dinner, including recognition of service by persons through the Salvation Army, a report on community activities and the official kick off of a building project.

Proposed as an addition to the Main Street Baptist Church, the structure will eventually become the new home of the Plymouth Salvation Army. A total of $590,00 is needed to completely fund the project.

At the dinner, a slide presentation, explanation of goals and progress report on the fund drive for the new building were scheduled.

MRS. RUBEN KALLUNKI of Plymouth Township showed her support for both Marshall and the American hostages in Iran last week when she tied her own yellow ribbon 'round the old lamp post. Hearing that officials of Marshall tied a 50 foot ribbon around their town fountain to show they're still thinking for the captives, Mrs. Kallunki added her own contribution to the sentiment, adding that "people should tie a ribbon around the fountain in Kellogg Park, too." Softball tourney postponed

The Plymouth-Canton Jaycees have pushed back the dates on their up coming softball tournament which was to help raise funds to resod Massey Field.

The original date was set for this weekend but will now be contested on May 16, 17 and 18 with all games to be played at Massey Field.

The tournament has 18 teams from Class B and C recreation teams and will be double-elimination. There will be no admission charge.

According to Jim Owens, incoming Jaycees' president, the decision was to either tear up Massey Field and reseed it, leaving the field unusable during the summer or resod it. The Jaycees decided to front the cost and to raise such funds through two softball tournaments.

This will be the first tourney with the second coming in August.

Teacher submits plan to handle student growth

BY PATRICIA BARTOLD

Another plan for housing the school district's burgeoning population was unveiled at a Plymouth-Canton Board of Education workshop last Monday night.

Proposed by Bill Bartlett, a teacher at East Middle School, the plan calls for three steps:

*Removing the fifth grade from elementary schools so that elementaries would house K-4 grades, thus putting all elementary schools on a traditional calendar;

*Placing all middle schools on split or extended day sessions with seventh and eighth graders attending school for five and one-half hours in the morning and sixth graders attending an equivalent session in the afternoon;

*Placing both high schools on split or extended day sessions with junior and seniors attending the morning session.

Although Bartlett has been a negotiator for the Plymouth-Canton teachers' union, he said his proposal was his individual idea and not representative of the union's official position.

Speaking to board members informally last Monday night, he said his plan was "one alternative" for board consideration.

"This grade arrangement would give the taxpayers a clear choice. They could opt for the status quo by voting no bond money, and the district would continue the split sessions as long as necessary to accommodate the student population," said his proposal.

In reaction to his proposal, some administrators said split sessions would shorten the students' day at school. Placing the high schools on a split session would reduce efficiency there, commented Supt. John M. Hoben.

"I shudder to think of the busing (problems)," said Board Member Steve Harper.

Bartlett made his proposal, in large part, to eliminate the ESY (Extended School Year) program and its expense. "Continuing this trend (of expanding ESY) would create a far more disruptive circumstance than we have now," said his proposal. His recommendations were designed "to increase classroom space and to save the taxpayer money."

Classes out early

On Friday, May 2, students at the Centennial Educational Park will be dismissed at 10:18 a.m. Buses will be running; the classes will not be in operation on that day.

The purpose of the early dismissal is to provide staff time to work on the North Central Association Self-Evaluation. The study, done every seven years, reviews the school's program and operations for accreditation purposes.

plan. "It's only 20 per cent of the housing," he said. "I don't have much objection to it."

"I do think we've got some obligation (to both low-income families in Plymouth Township and to the government for block grant money), but I'm not sure this is the way to attack the problem," said Hulsing.

Chiefs rally to beat Livonia Churchill, 3-1

BY MIKE HENSHAW

Canton split a double-header with non-league foe Wayne Memorial Saturday, but the most important game last week was a 3-1 Western Six baseball victory over Livonia Churchill Wednesday afternoon.

Last year Churchill was the undefeated champion of the Western Six, earning the title by knocking off second-place Canton twice, making the two team's first encounter of this year one the Chiefs really wanted to win.

Canton pitcher Al Lipinski and Churchill hurler Gene Medrea engaged in a pitchers' duel throughout the game, with the Chargers taking the lead 1-0 in the fourth inning on a home run by Bill Gavin.

The lead held up until the bottom of the fifth when Canton finally got the big hit they needed, off the bat of third baseman Jeff Stemberger.

Steve Schumacher opened the inning with a double, followed by a walk to Keith Stone. Stemberger then sent a Medrea pitch over the right centerfield fence for his third home run of the year to give the Chiefs their victory margin.

Lipinski managed to complete the game for the win, but had to survive a last-inning rally attempt by Churchill to do so.

With runners on first and second with two outs, Lipinski gave up a single to center that threatened to narrow the score to 3-2 as Gavin circled third base and headed home.

Canton catcher Frank McMurray blocked the plate as he received the throw and he and Gavin collided, jarring the ball from McMurray's glove. Gavin's momentum carried

Salem runners place 9th

The Salem girls track team turned in one of its best performances at the Stafford Relays last weekend held at Walled Lake Western. The Rocks were ninth out of 18 teams with 21 points.

Brighton won the competition with 102 points.

"It was the best showing we've had that I can remember," said Salem coach Scott Kurtz.

Ann Meixner was fourth in the 220-yard low hurdles. She clocked 31.1 seconds, setting a new Salem record.

"Meixner can be considered one of the top people in the state in the 220-hurdle event," said Kurtz.

Meixner also ran a leg of Salem's fourth-place mile relay team. Carol Lindsay, Lori Grissom and Linda Lybarger also ran the relay and they turned in an effort of 4:19.

"That has to be one of our best times in the mile relay," said Kurtz.

The high jump relay of Jeanne Gray, Diane Perpich and Cindy McSurely were sixth overall while the sprint medley team was fifth.

In that sprint event, Ruth Sample ran the half mile for the Rocks, while McSurely and Gray ran the 220-yard sprints and Lybarger ran the quarter-mile. Their overall time was 4:39.

The Rocks were also fifth in the distance medley relay with a time of 14:02. Sample, Beth Hoerner, Marcy Granger and Lybarger combined in that race for Salem.

The Rocks were also sixth in the shuttle hurdle relay. The foursome of Meixner, Lindsay, Perpich and McSurely ran that event for Salem.

Rocks split doubleheader with Royal Oak

Salem split a non-league baseball doubleheader last weekend with Royal Oak Kimball. The Rocks lost the first game 6-5 but came back with a 6-0 victory in the second.

In that first contest, relief pitcher Jim Jimmerson was pegged with the loss. He hurled the final four and 1/3 innings. Paul Stevenson was Salem's starter.

Salem scored three runs in the first inning, one in the sixth and one in the seventh.

Jim Anderson, Mike Woodard and Brian Lewandowski each clubbed two hits for the Rocks.

"We didn't play sharp defensively in that first game," said Salem coach Brian Gilles. "We were disappointed not to take both games but we played well in the second game anyway."

Jeff Primeau went the distance on the mound for Salem in that 6-0 win. He struck out six batters and walked four.

The Rocks tallied three runs in each of the second and sixth frames on six hits.

Dave Slavin blasted a three-run homer in the second inning with Anderson and Woodard on base then added another RBI in the sixth inning when he hit into a force play.

Joe Gracia smacked a double in that inning to account for the other two runs.

Earlier in the week, Salem defeated Suburban eight League foe Allen Park 11-9. The Rocks had nine hits and one error, while Allen Park had eight hits and four errors.

Jimmerson was the winning pitcher for Salem. He relieved starter Pat McNamara in the fourth inning and pitched two and 1/3 innings. Jimmerson had four strikeouts while McNamara had seven.

Paul Stevenson was the final Salem hurler. He pitched the last inning.

Lewandowski had two hits and two RBIs for the Rocks, while John Hetkowski had one hit, one RBI and scored three runs.

Slavin also had two hits and scored two runs and Woodard added one hit and two RBIs. Slavin also had two hits and scored two runs and Woodard added one hit and two RBIs.

"We were hitting the ball alright in that game. We were on the road and we're happy to win," said Gilles.

On Thursday, the rocks and Mustangs of Northville battled to a 4-4 tie before the rain halted the contest.

The rocks also gained a big league win over Livonia Bentley at the start of the week behind the outstanding pitching of McNamara who went the entire seven innings. He struck out 11 batters in the process.

Woodard was 2-3 at the plate, while Slavin was 2-2 to lead the Rocks' offense. Salem scored one run in the first inning and two in the fourth.

Try hockey

It doesn't seem like winter sports would still be sticking around with the slow change of weather, but the Plymouth Parks and Recreation is sponsoring a Drop-In hockey program at the Plymouth Cultural Center ice arena.

The program will be held Sunday nights from 7 to 9 p.m. and continue through May.

Contact the Recreation Department at 455-6620 for further details.

Hungarian Tokay Aszu wines are known for their sweetness. The grapes are left on the vine to develop the "noble rot". The resulting shriveled grapes have a high concentration of sugar known as "aszu". These grapes are placed in containers called "butts" or "puttonys". A certain number of "puttonys" are added to normally ripened grapes and fermented together. The more puttonys that are added, the sweeter and richer the wine. The wine labels indicate how many puttonys have been added. Five puttonys is the highest grade available in the United States.

Tokay Essence is made entirely from aszu grapes (those which have achieved the noble rot). Consequently, it is a rare and expensive wine. It is available here. We can order it for you at the CHEESE and WINE BARN, 515 Forest, Tel. 453-1700. Open daily 10-6, Friday til 9.

Chiefs score 2 wins and one defeat

BY MIKE HENSHAW

Walks were the name of the game last week during the Canton softball team's three contests, with the Chiefs winning two of them, including a Western Six league victory over Livonia Churchill.

The Churchill pitcher gave up a total of 24 walks in seven innings, which, combined with only six hits, totaled 23 runs for the Chiefs as they crunched the Chargers 23-4 last Wednesday.

Canton struck for seven runs in both the second and fifth innings and added three runs in the first, third and sixth to give winning pitcher Marianna Pink more than enough runs to gain the decision.

"They were not that good of a team and we really didn't have to much of a chance to swing the bat with all the walks," said Canton coach Max Sommerville. "Their starting pitcher stayed in the whole game for some reason, and with the amount of pitches she had to throw she had to be tired."

Saturday afternoon the tables turned on the Chiefs as Pink and Cindy Sovine's wildness on the mound in the seventh inning of both games against Livonia Franklin cost the Chiefs one game and almost the other.

Canton won the first game 8-6, but lead 8-1 going into the seventh and almost allowed the Patriots to comeback.

Six walks by Pink and reliever Sovine helped Franklin score five runs before the side was finally retired.

The second game was a disaster for the Chiefs. Canton lead 12-4 going into the final inning only to have Livonia strike for nine runs and win 13-12.

Once again walks were the downfall as a total of seven were issued in the seventh and 18 through the course of the game by Canton.

"We had a bad day pitching, giving up to many walks," said Sommerville. "A lot of that had to do with the umpiring, however, as there was only one and he was very inconsistent as to where the strike zone was. I always thought that right down the middle was a strike."

Canton travels to Walled Lake Western this afternoon beginning at 4 p.m.

"We're playing fairly well defensively and at the plate, although we didn't have to swing the bat that much," said Sommerville. "We will have to work on our pitching problems."

Canton girls' track team now 1-1 in league

BY MIKE HENSHAW

The Canton girls' track team's Western Six league record currently stands at 1-1 after losing a close meet to Waterford Mott last Tuesday and defeating Northville Thursday.

The Chiefs shut out the Mustangs in the shot put and discus events in edging Northville 64-59 in the rain Thursday at Northville.

Liz Gorecki won both the shot (30-1) and discus (95-5.5) events for Canton, with ample support in the events from teammates Lisa Bundarin, Diane Durocher, and Jill Pedersen.

Bundarin was second in the shot with a toss of 29-2 and Durocher was second in the discus (88-8.5) and third in the shot (26-5). Pedersen rounded off the sweep with a third place finish in the discus event (71-4).

"We did a great job in those two events," said Canton coach Bob Richardson. "It probably made the difference in the meet."

Northville's strongest events were the relay races, as the Mustangs won all three, but Canton dominated the individual events to win the meet.

Brenda Bigelow, back on the team after originally deciding not to come out, captured first place in the high jump by clearing 4-8.

Mary Fideler won the 110-yard hurdle event with a time of :18.8 and placed third in the 220-yard hurdles at :27.7.

Michelle Perrot came in first in the mile run (6:04.5) and tied with teammate Collene Crissey for first in the two mile event with a time of 13:36.7.

Crissey also placed second in the long jump with a leap of 13-6 and Perrot was third in the 440-yard dash with a 1:10.6 clocking.

Geri Shufeldt placed second in the mile run for Canton with a time of 6:14 and Leeann Wheeler finished second in the 100-yard dash (:13.1).

Additional third place finishes for the Chiefs were recorded by Kathy Brophy in the long jump (13 ft), Charlotte Thomas in the 110-yard hurdles (:20.4) and Wheeler in the 220-yard dash (:29.9).

"It was a good meet for us," said Richardson. "We had some people out and a few girls were hurting and we were able to overcome it and win the meet."

Last Tuesday Canton lost a heartbreaking close meet to Mott on the last race of the day.

Mott won the mile relay race at the close of the meet, edging the Chief team by less than one second, 4:35.5 to 4:36.4.

Gorecki lead Canton in first place finishes, winning the discus and shot put events. Gorecki was also a member of the winning 880-yard relay team of Crissey, Durocher and Brophy.

Crissey won the two-mile run and teamed with Wheeler, Pedersen, and Durocher to place first in the 440-yard relay.

Lori Shufeldt was Canton's other first-place finisher, winning the 440-yard dash.

Canton, 1-2 overall, travels to Livonia Churchill Thursday for a Western Six meet beginning at 4 p.m.

Chiefs fumble through doubleheader match-up him past the plate, however, and McMurray picked up the ball and tagged him out to end the game.

"It was a real heads up play by McMurray," said Canton coach Fred Crissey. "This was an important game and Al Lipinski has been just great on the mound for us. When you consider we asked our starting shortstop to come in and pitch against the league champions and he does the job, you have to be happy."

The Chiefs suffered through a number of defensive and mental errors in their doubleheader with Wayne, winning the first game, 12-8, and dropping the second, 5-4.

Canton jumped off to a 6-0 lead in the second inning of the opener, and led 11-3 after three innings of play.

Dave Meador drove in three of the runs on a double and McMurray, Stemberger, and Schumacher had two runs batted in each to power the way offensively.

Dan Funkhouser started the game on the mound and pitched the first four innings to pick up the win before being relieved by Dave Malek in the fifth and Lipinski in the seventh.

"We'll take the win but we didn't play that well," said Crissey. "Our defense was horrible and we really didn't hit the ball hard at all, it was mostly Punch and Judy stuff."

In the nightcap, Canton pitcher Dan Smith gave up three runs in the opening inning, hurting himself by issuing two walks in between three Wayne hits.

Canton got two runs back in its half of the first.

With two out, Lipinski and Carl Lambert both walked. Smith then followed with a single that scored Lipinski and John Matthews singled home Lambert.

Mental miscues in the second inning by the Chief defense gave Wayne two runs, which proved to be the difference.

With two out and a man on third, Wayne's Gary Mazurek struck out, seemingly ending the inning. The ball got away from Canton catcher Tim Racer, however, and instead of easily throwing out Mazurek at first, Racer threw to third where he caught Jeff Auer in a rundown.

Auer managed to slip away from the trap and score, however, and during the play Mazurek advanced all the way to third base.

After Dan Perusse walked, Mazurek scored on a successful double steal play to make it 5-2.

Lipinski drove in Racer and McMurray to score the final runs of the game in the bottom of the second.

"Smith settled down to pitch a pretty good game. We just cannot get ourselves ready to play mentally," said Crissey. "I was very disappointed with our mental mistakes."

Going into Monday's game against Farmington Harrison, Canton's record stood at 4-5 on the year, and 2-0 in the Western Six.

Golfers downed

The Canton girls' golf team saw it's record drop to 1-1 last Tuesday with a 223-233 loss to Pinckney in Central Six league action at the Hilltop golf course.

Janis McGlone was the Chiefs' top finisher for the second match in a row with a total of 54 over nine holes. Debbie Nurmi carded a 55, Karen Mullen a 58, and Cindy Sochacki a 66 to round off the Canton scoring.

Canton runners experience banner day in Western Six

BY MIKE HENSHAW

Thursday certainly was a banner day for the boys' track team of Canton.

The Chiefs won their first Western Six league meet in the team's history with a 72-60 victory over Northville in the rain at the CEP track.

John Tarr and Dan McGlenn lead Canton by winning two individual events and teaming with two other Chief runners to win the 880-yard relay event.

Tarr placed first in the 100-yard dash with a time of :11.1 and was clocked at :24.5 in the 220-yard dash, also good for first place.

McGlenn won both of the hurdle events, finishing the 120-yard high hurdles in :16.5 and setting the pace in the 330-yard low hurdles with a time of :41.5.

Tarr and McGlenn, the two Canton co-captains, also teamed with Randy Lee and Mike Knierim to win the 880-yard relay.

The Chiefs 440-yard relay team of Ken Jayroe, Frank Asis, Lee and Knierim also finished first, as did Jack Pacente in the two mile run, Ted Toll in the discus, Keith Vitoratis in the shot put, Lee in the pole vault.

Second place finishers for Canton included Jayroe (100-yard dash), Dan Malin (330-yard low hurdles), and Dan Inloes (880-yard run). Also, Malin and Ron Reinas tied for second in the high jump.

Placing third for the Chiefs were; Scott Hand in the mile run, Mark Bennett in the pole vault, Vitoratis in the discus, Toll in the shot, and Steve West in the 880-yard run.

Canton is now 1-1 in the Western Six, and will try to make it two in a row in the league next Thursday when they face Farmington Harrison at Harrison.

Last Tuesday Canton placed second in a tri-meet, at Thurston, finishing behind Salem (97) and ahead of Thurston (34) with a total of 34 points.

Lee (pole vault), McGlenn (300-meter hurdles), and Pacente (mile run) were the Chiefs' first place finishers. Canton is 2-2 overall.

Salem netters victorious again

Two strong performances highlighted the week for the Salem tennis team as the Rocks defeated Allen Park and Livonia Stevenson.

Against Allen Park, a Suburban Eight League team, the Rocks were perfect, winning 7-0. Against the Spartans, Salem had a tougher time winning 4-3.

Dick Cooke defeated Pizkos 4-6, 6-1, and 6-1 to start Salem's meet with Allen Park. Scott Crispo then defeated Frosheiser in straight sets, 6-4 and 6-4, to win second singles.

In third singles for Salem, Jeff Howell won in straight sets, 6-2 and 6-3, against Johnson of Allen Park. Dave Goodsir completed the singles for Salem with a 6-3 and 6-4 win over Harris of Allen Park.

The pair of Blake Lundberg and Craig Baker defeated Green and Green at first double for Salem. They won in straight sets 6-4 and 6-1.

Bob Jarvis and Doug Baker defeated Donovan and Dedrick 6-3 and 6-1 at second Salem used its bats and pitching last Friday to overpower Allen Park in a Suburban Eight League softball tussle.

The Rocks collected their runs on 14 hits and had one error.

Hurler Jill Goodrich completed the game and picked up the win for the rocks. Goodrich also struck out five batters and walked three while on the mound.

Patty Weidman led the hitting charge with three hits and one RBI, while Kathy Gardner had two hits and Nan Horwood had one. Horwood also scored three times.

"Allen Park has a weak defense and it was more errors on their part than anything else. In addition to the fact that my girls hit the ball very hard," said Salem coach Livi Way. "Their pitching was so-so but their defense was really weak."

Earlier, the rocks were bombed by Livonia Bentley 11-1 also a Suburban eight game. Salem had six hits and Bentley had three.

"We made quite a few errors—more than I want to count. We had some passed balls some overthrows, some mistakes on the base pads and just a lot of mistakes," said Way.

Goodrich suffered the pitching defeat, while Gardner produced Salem's lone run with a single in the third inning.

Chief netters even record

The Canton tennis team evened its Western Six tennis record to 1-1 last Wednesday with a 7-0 sweep of Livonia Churchill.

The Chief's Bob Young ousted Churchill's Dean Nasciben in straight sets, 6-4, 6-0 in the number one singles match.

At number two singles, Kreg Kinnel remained undefeated on the year with an easy 6-2, 6-1 win over the Charger's Craig Bramble.

Kevin Johnston of Canton defeated Jamil Monsour 6-2, 6-1 at number three singles and at the number four singles position Bom Adams knocked off Churchill's Pete Diamond, also in straight sets, 6-2, 6-2.

Canton's number one doubles team of Jeff Garrity and Curt Crocker beat Tim Irons and Tom Wise of the Chargers 6-2, 6-2.

The Chiefs Steve Jones and Mark Roberts shutout John Gallagan and John Gothard 6-0, 6-0 in the number two doubles match and at the number three doubles position Crant Crago and Tom Pasely from Canton did away with Ed Brambs and Don Yaske 6-4, 6-1.

The Chiefs are now 3-1 overall, and will resume action today at 4 p.m. at Farmington Harrison before returning home Monday for a match against Walled Lake Western.

doubles and Jack Thomas and John Wimmer knocked off Burke and Kitzenberger, 6-1 and 6-1, at third double.

Against Stevenson, Cooke lost to Glenn Gwarda 6-3 and 6-1, while Crispo defeated Larry Schott, 6-4, 4-6, and 6-1.

Howell lost to Tim Ninomiya, 6-0 and 6-2, while Goodsir defeated Jeff Dowd, 6-4 and 6-3.

Lundberg and Craig Baker won first double over Zebranek and Crapper 6-3, 3-6, and 6-3.

Jarvis and Doug Baker defeated Milek and Kleev 6-2 and 6-3 at second doubles and Paul Horton and Thomas lost third doubles to Wagnen and Price of Stevenson 6-2 and 6-2.

"It was just a super win for us. We knew that Stevenson had an extended streak and I guess we broke it," said Salem coach Tom Williams. "Stevenson has a fine team but we were better on that day."

The Rocks take to the court today at Redford Thurston. Game time is 4 p.m.
