

Convention fever infects Plymouth-Canton folks

The hoopla associated with the 1980 Republican National Convention underway in Detroit has touched the lives of many Plymouth-Canton folks.

From stuffing welcome bags for delegates, to entertaining visiting press members and to actually being at the convention, many local residents got into the spirit of the coronation of Ronald Reagan.

Foremost of the involvement here centered around the Massachusetts GOP delegation being housed at the Plymouth Hilton. Preparations for their welcome began several months ago for the hotel staff and the Plymouth Host Committee - a group organized by the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce.

The Plymouth Chamber prepared a welcome kit packet for the Bay Staters and arranged for many local families to each "adopt" a visitor as hosts.

Then, Sunday evening, a gala dinner was held at the Mayflower Meeting House in honor of the visiting Republicans. That event was attended by some 250 dignitaries, luminaries, plain folks and press.

Features of the dinner included the Bunyea Farms steam engine cooking corn on the cob, two elephants bearing welcome banners and the explosion of the Mayflower Hotel's antique cannon.

Following the dinner, a concert by the Plymouth Fife and Drum Corps and the Plymouth Community Chorus was held in Kellogg Park. The gathering included official recognition for many of the visiting dignitaries.

At the convention itself, many local residents took part in the ancillary activities as service personnel, press representatives, pages, and drivers. Additionally, many local residents obtained hard-to-find guest passes into the Louis Arena from old time friends in the Michigan Republican party and the new-found Massachusetts GOPers.

VIP visit planned

Nancy Reagan here

Nancy Reagan, wife of the likely presidential nominee of the Republican National Convention, was expected to visit Plymouth this morning.

Although specific details were unavailable at press time, the Republican National Convention had asked for VIP arrangements to be made at the Plymouth Hilton, according to the hotel's general manager, John Dithmer, and sales manager Kaaren McNulty.

A speaking room, equipped for the national news media was being prepared in preparation for the visit to the Hilton where the Massachusetts GOP delegation is staying during the national convention.

Early reports had suggested that Reagan himself might be coming to the Hilton to woo backers of the Equal Rights Amendment or of independent candidate John Anderson into the Republican unity fold. The Massachusetts delegation includes a large number of delegates pledged to either the ERA and/or Anderson.

Also mentioned as a possible visitor at the hotel was John Connally, of Texas.

Sheriff's deputy stabbed in Hines Park incident

BY CHAS CHILD

A Wayne County Sheriff's deputy, apparently trying to break up a fight in Hines Park, was stabbed in the abdomen last Tuesday.

Charged with the stabbing was Donald Ray Hunter, 32, of Plymouth, police report. He was arraigned in 35th District Court last Wednesday, charged with assault with attempt to murder, and released on a $3,000 bond.

The incident started at McAllister's Party Store in Plymouth Township when cadets at the Sheriff's Department academy at Madonna College apparently failed to pay $2 for ice, said owner Bill McAllister.

Realizing that he was short $2, store employe Ted Byers stopped the seven cadets in the parking lot and asked for the money, said McAllister.

One of the cadets refused, saying they had already paid for the ice, McAllister said. This started an argument, which a number of store customers joined on behalf of Byers, the store owner said.

In fact, one customer threw a punch at one of the cadets sitting in his car, according to McAllister.

A cadet finally dropped $2 in the parking lot before leaving, said the store owner, but they returned later and threatened to "tear the store apart, using Byers' head as a battering ram."

After a McAllister employe threatened to call the Michigan State Police, however, the cadets left, said McAllister.

Later, though, the cadets met in Hines Park the party-store customers with whom they had argued in the parking lot and a fight ensued, said Det. Ed Lindberg of the sheriff's department. About 20-30 persons eventually became involved, he said.

A deputy who reponded to the break-up of the fracas, Tony Shannon, was allegedly stabbed by Hunter, who apparently happened to be passing by at that time and saw a friend of his involved in the fight, said Lindberg.

Shannon was stabbed through the belt, limiting the stab to a straight-in puncture wound, said Lindberg. "This probably saved his life," he said.

"It was something that was blown all out of proportion," said McAllister. "All they had to do was pay for the ice."

"The cadets told me they didn't steal the ice," said Lindberg. He tentatively confirmed McAllister's version of the incident, but added that he was still investigating. "There still might be more arrests, including the cadets if we find anything."

Hunter's pre-trial examination is scheduled on July 24, 1:30 p.m., at the 35th District Court.

DEMOLITION OF THE PENNIMAN MALL was begun this week in preparation for rebuilding the structure, after engineering tests showed the east wall of the burned shops could be scraped and rebricked. The mall was struck by an unknown arsonist in February. David Pugh, Plymouth city commissioner who co-owns the property where the mall stood, said he plans to rebuild. The controversial east wall, which held up restoration of the shops while its fate was decided, was decided to the the accounting firm of Morrison, Stanwood and Polack. # Four contests highlight Dearie Days festivities

To sweep the available contest awards at the Old Village Dearie Days celebration, simply enter as a mustacioed kite-flying cowboy in a bathing suit....

6th grade band fee still $20 for '80-'81

Plymouth-Canton sixth graders who play in the school band will continue to pay a $20 "use" fee for their instruments - at least for one more year.

A continuation of the current policy on band instruments for sixth graders was ok'd by the Board of Education Monday night.

The $20 fee is designed to pay for instrument repair and replacement, but "it doesn't begin to cover costs," said Norm Kee, acting superintendent Monday night.

Meanwhile the school board didn't act on a suggestion from administrators which would have meant students would become responsible for providing their own instruments (except larger "color" instruments) in the 1981-82 school year.

Four separate contests - kite-flying, bathing suit, cowboy, and mustache - will be held at Dearie Days beginning with a cowboy contest at the bandstand at 5 p.m. on Saturday, July 19.

Best dressed cowboy, cowgirl and cow-kid will be awarded, chosen by a judging staff.

At 5:30 on Saturday, a kite-flying contest will be held, judged on originality, eye appeal, and enthusiasm. Prizes will be awarded to age groups seven and under, eight to 11 and 12 to 16. Each group will have a winner in "all original" and "modified-store bought" categories.

On Sunday, an event tentatively billed as the First Annual Dearie Days Lip Fuzz Extravaganza is scheduled for 3 p.m. at the bandstand. With no entry fee requirement, the only equipment needed is "a little hair on your upper lip...and the courage to have it rated in public," say its organizers. Organizers say that only one entry per contestant will be accepted.

Last of the contests is the Hide It All Bathing Suit Contest, open to all who arrive at the bandstand at 3:30 p.m. on Sunday. Meant to revive the esthetic pleasures of wool bathing suits that hid more than they bared, the contest has no formal wear or talent requirements. If you dare, there's no need to be bare.

WORLD RECORD HOPEFULS Jim Purol and Mike Pappas will attempt the new Guinness Book record for kissing at the Plymouth Old Village Dearie Days celebration, July 19 and 20. The pair will have 15 minutes to try to double the current record of 500.

Two pucker for kissing title

One thousand kisses in fifteen minutes! Casanova? No, Jim Purol and Mike Pappas.

As part of the Dearie Days celebration, Purol and Pappas will attempt to break a Guinness World Record for kissing. Attempting 1,000 kisses in just 15 minutes, the pair will try to best the current record by 500 kisses. Proceeds of the record try will be turned over to the Plymouth Clothing Bank shoe fund.

Purol and Pappas are no strangers to the Guinness records, having crawled 25 miles, smoked 27 cigars at one time, smoked 34 pipes at one time and smoked 135 cigarettes at one time. In addition, Purol has drummed underwater for 30 minutes and for two weeks on dry land. His activities have already earned him a "Real People" TV spot this fall.

The kissing contest will be held Saturday, July 19 at 3:30 p.m. For more information, call Larry Hart or Gene Villeauve at 453-4500. Information on registration as a "Kissee" is provided at shops throughout Old Village.

Canton stages Country Festival Aug. 8, 9, 10

How quickly can you gobble up a buttery ear of corn?

That question will be answered by hungry Cantonites who line up to satisfy their appetites and compete against each other in the corn eating contest Sunday, Aug. 10.

A highlight of the three-day Canton Country Festival, the corn-eating contest will take place at 3:30 p.m. at Griffin Park. This year marks the first time the contest has been organized for the festival, formerly known as the Canton Corn Festival.

A chicken barbecue dinner will be served Sunday, Aug. 10 from noon until 6 p.m. at Griffin Park. Tickets for the dinner, sponsored by the Canton Chamber of Commerce, are $3.50 and sold at the Chamber of Commerce office, 5773 Canton Center Rd., Wayne Bank, 41652 Ford Rd., Schwartz Greenhouse, 8201 Lilley Rd., and by other Canton merchants.

The three-day festival will include a pet show, softball tournament, pancake breakfast, spaghetti supper, hay rides, celebrity homerun derby, and various stage shows. The events will be held at Canton's Griffin Park on Canton Center near Cherry Hill roads.

Kicking off Friday's events will be the Muscular Dystrophy Tournament which will continue throughout the weekend with about 30 teams competing. Men's teams with a .500 record or less can register for the tournament; registration for women's teams is open, said Dr. Jack Falvo, an organizer of the tournament.

Teams interested in registering can call 453-9149 or 453-8637.

At 3:30 p.m. Saturday, Aug. 9, the Detroit Red Wings will play a charity game. Admission to the game will be by donation with proceeds of the softball tournament to be contributed to the muscular dystrophy drive.

In conjunction with the festival, Canton merchants are sponsoring midnight madness and sidewalk sales on both Friday and Saturday.

The Canton Rotary pancake breakfast will start off Saturday's events. Rotarians will be serving pancakes from 7 a.m. until noon at Griffin Park.

On Saturday evening from 4 until 8 p.m., the Canton Fire Department will dish out plates of spaghetti. Proceeds from the dinner will be given to the Burn Center.

Other highlights of Saturday's events include the pet show at 2 p.m. at Griffin Park, a five-mile run starting at 10 a.m. from Canton Township Hall, a tug-of-war, and hot air balloon rides.

The run winds down Beck Road, to Cherry Hill and then onto Canton Center Road for the last leg of the footrace, that will end at Griffin Park. There are seven categories that runners can enter and trophies and prizes will be awarded to the runners in various categories.

A series of stage shows will be held Saturday and Sunday afternoons. On Sunday at 2 p.m., the Senior Citizens Kitchen Band will perform. The Canton Wheels of Michigan square dancers will also perform on Saturday from 3 to 4 p.m. and on Sunday from 1:15 to 2 p.m.

Also, the Canton Masters of Dance Arts and the Wayne-Wonderland Chorus may perform at Griffin Park during the weekends festivities.

Meanwhile, the Canton Chamber is seeking support from doctors, attorneys, and non-retail persons in Canton for hot-air balloons. "The more ($20) contributions we have, the longer we can have the balloon at the festival," said Jack Koers, advertising chairperson of the festival.

To help in organizing the festival or to contribute to it, call the Canton Chamber of Commerce at 453-4040.

CANTON COUNTRY FESTIVAL organizers (from left) Frank McMurray, Mary Catherine Tortora and Jack Koers are shown posting a banner promoting the event. The fest, scheduled Friday, Saturday and Sunday August 8 to 10, features a variety of sales, food and special activities to appeal to everyone. ## Cable TV plans Aug. debut

Omnicom, the Plymouth-Canton Community's cable television company, will be on the air in parts of the City of Plymouth and Plymouth Township on Aug. 1, say company officials.

Wiring of the community has gone "very smoothly," said Omnicom spokesperson Patricia Byrne. The rest of the Plymouth area will be available for cable service as cable construction continues, she added. Between 1,000 and 1,500 homes will comprise the original service area, she said.

Service in parts of Canton Township will start in November, Byrne said. Meanwhile, Omnicom's public-access studio will probably be ready in about one month, she said.

The studio will be open to anyone in the community to produce their own television show. A neighborhood skit, gripe, or comment — anything in good taste is permitted, said Byrne. Technical assistance will be available to help residents, she said.

"We're hoping to get as many people involved as possible," she said. "People shouldn't be afraid."

Omnicom is also forming a Cable Television Advisory Committee, composed of local residents. The committee will "keep us abreast of the local needs of the community," said Byrne.

Hilltop expansion halted, 18-hole plans uncertain

BY PATRICIA BARTOLD

Complaining that the construction of the projected new nine holes is "tearing into the existing course," John Jawor, who leases the Hilltop Golf Course from Plymouth Township, has filed a temporary restraining order.

The order, issued in Wayne County Circuit Court Thursday, prevents Plymouth Township from continuing expansion work which interferes with golfing on the existing nine holes.

Several weeks ago, Plymouth Township's Board of Trustees signed up three contractors to work on expanding the course from nine to 18 holes. The township has set aside more than $350,000 for the work, which includes grading, setting up irrigation systems, and seeding the area. Architectural plans for the expansion were drawn up this spring.

Last summer Plymouth Township purchased the adjacent 33 acres of land in order to expand the Hilltop's present nine holes into an 18-hole golf course.

Jawor leases the course from Plymouth Township for $35,000 per year or one-half of the green fees, whichever is greater. Since expansion work has started, Jawor said fewer golfers have come to the course, play is interrupted on some of the fairways because of heavy equipment crossing the course, and golf course revenues have decreased.

"I'm 100 per cent in favor of the township getting the golf course completed," he said, "but I should be treated as well as I treat the township. They're (the township) not being considerate to golfers."

"Frankly, he's blackmailing us, I think," said Esther Hulsing, township clerk.

"I do feel sorry for Mr. Jawor...he's in a real bind, but I think it would have been smarter for him not to lease the golf course this year. We can't really expand the present nine holes without interrupted play," she said.

"It was really totally unexpected," she added.

Jawor is currently in the second year of a five-year contract with another five year option. In addition to the problems he said he's encountered due to the expansion, he also listed various problems since he was hired by the township.

"I lease the golf course," he said, "At least they should give me consideration."

Jawor wrote a letter outlining some of those problems to the board of trustees in June. They included: watering problems; no air conditioning in the clubhouse; the late arrival of a new clubhouse in June after the old clubhouse had burned down last spring; and, malfunctioning burglar and fire alarm systems.

Play on the course has also been interrupted because of the construction of the Byron Creek Sewer, said Jawor.

"But to expect to operate a business under the circumstances is not fair to the lessee. I am only to maintain, cut, and fertilize — my hands are tied," Jawor's letter said.

To settle the dispute, Wayne County Circuit Court Judge Harold Hood set a hearing date of July 25. "We need to get all these problems ironed out," said Jawor. "They should have been worked out prior to the construction."

A PHOTOGRAPHIC ESSAY on Plymouth's many facets has been prepared by city photographer Ed Ochal and is on display this week in the windows of the Wayside Gift Shop on Ann Arbor Trail just west of Main Street. The exhibition is sponsored by the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce for the visiting conventioners. Ochal's 17 photographs were commissioned by a private collector. These two examples show the Old Village and a restored historic home.

EXPANSION WORK on the additional nine holes to be added to the Hilltop Golf Course has interfered with normal play, says John Jawor who leases the course from Plymouth Township. Above, mounds of dirt are piled along the fairway near the green. The construction work has reduced the number of golfing patrons on the course this season, says Jawor. (Crier photo by James Keenan)

Why Be Sick, When You Can Be Well

With today's methods of chiropractic care, there leaves little room for any reason to be sick.

In order to be sick or diseased, in all or a portion of your body, it must first become weak. In other words, to have a kidney disease the tissue must first become weak. In order to do this it must have its nerve supply from the brain decreased.

Each individual part of your body is controlled by a corresponding part in your brain called a brain center (or nerve nuclei.) A nerve fiber runs between each brain center and its corresponding part in the body. (See example at left.)

DR. MASHIKE

Your kidney does not run itself, the brain does. This holds true for all parts within the body. In order for signals to travel over these fibers, they must not be compressed. They travel from the brain down the cord, then out from between the vertebrae to the organ or part they correspond with.

The picture below shows the nerve exiting from between these vertebrae, one normally (shown on left) and the other abnormally. The abnormal vertebrae has received a force, such as a fall or auto accident which has caused it to move and pinch the nerve fibers exiting from it.

If you are sick and have not had your spine examined by a Chiropractor then you are not receiving every possible chance of getting well.

Many times "pinching" can't be felt, you may not know they even exist.

Only your chiropractor can find them. When they are found the Chiropractor then precisely adjusts the vertebrae into its original position thus taking pressure off the pinched nerve fiber.

After the pressure is removed impulses from the brain will start coursing through the fibers again and the organ will start to be repaired. AND YOUR HEALTH WILL THEN RETURN.

COME IN, BE EXAMINED, WHY BE SICK WHEN YOU CAN BE WELL

AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT CARE

Our special care facility is equipped to handle the common type injuries to neck and spine. Chiropractic care is quick to locate vertebral injuries. If not corrected they can lead to more serious bodily disfunction.

Insurance reports indicate accident victims recover quicker and at lower costs under chiropractic care.

Caution should be taken after an accident in the form of immediate examination, delays only hinder quick correction.

Pain can subside quickly in auto type injuries but the results to the spine will remain, grow worse, and then surface years later.

NORMAL

AFTER WHIPLASH

Whiplash - a common injury can lead to many body disfunctions such as headaches or migranes, thyroid, shoulder, troat and voice.

WORKMAN'S COMPENSATION

On the job injuries are rising every day, millions of dollars are lost by workers from long weeks and months being incapacitated. Thousands of these injuries are spinal related.

We are specilaists in spinal correction and find it unnecessary in many instances for surgery when it has been indicated to the victim from an outside source.

Most spinal injuries are in the form of displaced vertebrae, disc problems or pinched nerves. Correctly diagnosed, proper adjustments made to the spine, rest and proper rehilitative exercise result in normal and longlasting correction. Workers are back on the job, receiving full pay and feeling good resulting in the growth of America.

My daughter and her children have been under chiropractic care for years. When my accident happened, at work, I naturally went to Dr. Mashike.

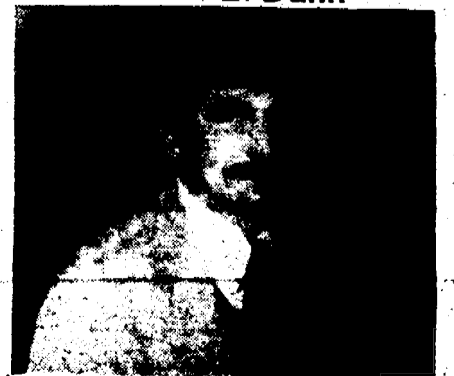

He examined me, took x-rays and found the problem. Dr. Mashike adjusted the problem area of my spine that was caused by my accident. Dr. Mashike took me off work and within days I began to improve, I was adjusted twice a day everyday for a week.

I only missed three weeks. Other men at work had been off much longer and some had surgery. I believe if I hadn't had chiropractic care, my problem would have lasted a lot longer and been much more serious.

I now am a regular patient, my back doesn't give me any more trouble but I use chiropractic care for health preventive measures.

Ronald E. Dunn

SUFFERING NEEDLESSLY?

Millions are turning to chiropractic because they are recognizing the scientific principles of nature that have made spinal adjustments effective for many conditions where other methods have failed. The chart below shows the lateral view of the spinal column and indicates in section "A" names of the spinal nerves as they branch from the spinal cord and exit through openings between the vertebrae. All tissues, glands and organs supplied with life energy by these nerves are shown in the section marked "B" in the chart. The section marked "C" describes a partial list of the conditions and symptoms that can result when there is an absence of life in the nerves.

SPINAL NERVE INVOLVEMENT CAUSES MANY CONDITIONS

The spinal chart shown above is directed especially to those people who have tried to regain their health through methods other than chiropractic and have failed. That failure should not lead to discouragement, but to greater determination to discover the fundamental cause of all disease. Since the discovery of chiropractic, no one needs to feel that he or she is destined to be sick all their life. Remember, "Where there is life there is hope and he who has hope has everything."

New laws puts fence OK in neighbors' hands

BY DAN BODENE

Canton Township still has not adopted a satisfactory amendment to its fence ordinance and discussion at last Tuesday's board meeting further intensified the issue.

Resident David McDonald questioned the intent of the ordinance amendment at the board meeting, asking why residents must have the permission of neighbors to erect fences. This sentiment was affirmed by other homeowners in attendance.

Treasurer James Donahue stated, "The document is meant, through my interpretation, to take the burden of enforcement off homeowners' associations." Bruce Phillips, ordinance department director, added, "The staff agrees that residents must maintain setback requirements and must maintain visibility."

The controversy dealt mostly with fence requirements on corner lots. Many residents apparently believe fences could be legal even if erected all the way to a sidewalk on the side lot. Under the ordinance, fences cannot extend to a sidewalk on a side yard within a residential lot on a corner location without the approval of the next-door neighbor.

A fence extending to the sidewalk in such a situation effectively blocks the lateral view of residences not on a corner lot.

We are trying to take out restrictive language'
-- Bruce Phillips

Phillips also said the side fences are contradictory to the township zoning ordinance. He added that "The present ordinance is very restrictive. This (amendment) is less restrictive -- we are trying to take out restrictive language."

After a motion to table the issue was voted down, Trustee Robert Greenstein commented, "No one wants to go out on a political hook because they might lose a vote or two."

After another short discussion, the item was tabled pending investigation of the ordinance in a study session. Trustee Carol Bodenmiller said, "We live on 60 by 120 foot lots, and it is unfortunate that living in such close proximity sometimes breeds discontent."

Anti-draft rally planned

An anti-draft rally will be held Monday, July 21 at 6 p.m. in Plymouth's Kellogg Park.

Sponsored by the Plymouth-Canton Committee Against Registration and the Draft (CARD), the rally will "inform persons about draft registration and its consequences," says the committee.

Currently, 19-and-20 year old men are scheduled to register for the draft at their post offices from July 21 to Aug. 1.

A public debate on the necessity of draft registration is set for July 24 and July 27. Further details about the time and place will be available in next week's Crier.

CARD members believe that registration is unnecessary and that the information about the draft and registration provided by the government is "questionable."

"When an administration has started registration, the draft has followed -- which has led to war. Why should the Carter administration be different from any other administration?"

Members of CARD include Cheryl Pijanowsky, Fred Andres, Karla Karinen, Paul Hess and Lynn Cousinou. For more information about CARD, call 455-5437 or write CARD, P.O. Box 256, Plymouth, MI 48170.

TWO INTERSECTIONS, at Joy-Canton Center and Joy-Sheldon, need to be improved by the Wayne County Road Commission. Because the intersections are poorly designed and need to be made wider, homeowners in Parklane Meadows and Mayflower Village, two adjacent subdivisions, have had bitter squabbles over traffic patterns. The solutions to their problems ultimately lie in the hands of road commission which has jurisdiction over the roadways. These intersections are dangerous and neglected. Township residents must continually remind the road commission of its responsibility to maintain safe, passable roadways throughout Wayne County -- and including Plymouth Township. ## Twp. learns its lesson on roads

Plymouth Township has demonstrated that it has finally learned its lesson: Stay out of disputes over which the township has no jurisdiction.

The case in point concerns the battle between residents in the Mayflower Village and Parklane Meadows subdivisions. Months ago, township trustees placed themselves smack dab in the middle of the tug-of-war when they passed a resolution, which, in effect, placed the township on the side of residents from Mayflower Village.

Homeowners from Parklane Meadows were furious and rightly so.

After realizing their mistake, Plymouth Township trustees OK'd writing a letter to the Wayne County Road Commission telling it to find a solution to the problem. Such action was appropriate because the county has jurisdiction over township roads and streets. Furthermore, the township rescinded any previous stances it had taken on the issue.

Hopefully township trustees will remember this lesson that was so painfully learned. Hopefully, too, township trustees will continue to seek a solution to the real culprit in this traffic problem: the Joy-Sheldon roads intersection which badly needs to be redesigned and made wider.

Township trustees must apply pressure to the road commission to improve that crossroad along with the Canton Center-Joy roads intersection. Improving these intersections would ease the traffic problems which have pitted the two subdivisions in Plymouth Township against each other.

The road commission must be held responsible for completing these road improvements. Township taxpayers have paid for these services and must demand them.

Party was delight

EDITOR:
I wish to publicly thank each and every person who did so much to make my retirement party such a delightful experience.

The expression of friendship by your presence; the hard work that went into the preparation; the selection of the beautiful gifts made possible by many generous contributions; the lovely cards, flowers and individual gifts all made it absolute perfection.

And for all these, I can only say thank you.

Thanks for tour

Thank you and everyone at The Crier office who took the time to show our class how The Crier newspaper is put together each week.

They were particularly impressed when they saw the pictures of the play they had seen at school the week before.

In Pioneer band

Daughter's grade lowered unfairly

EDITOR:

I am writing to complain about the treatment given to my daughter as a result of her missing a band concert scheduled for Wednesday, July 2. She is a student at Pioneer Middle School.

She was told that if she missed this concert, her grade will be lowered two full grades because she did not give four weeks notice.

I realize that because of too many students missing concerts without valid excuses, the four week notice was a necessity. However, it is not always possible to give a four week notice, especially when both parents work. I just found out at the last possible moment that I could have the time off.

We have always tried to rearrange our schedules and work around these activities, and in four years of being in the band, none of my children have ever missed a concert.

She has already performed in numerous concerts this year. Besides performing in the concerts, she also walked all the way to school when she was off track, just so that she wouldn't miss practice. I think it should be evident that she is a responsible band student, and as her parents, we have been supportive of the band in years past.

We were told that we had to give four weeks notice before we left on vacation. Our vacation plans, which came up quite suddenly, are not a good enough excuse for her to miss this concert, and she is being penalized for missing just this one concert by lowering her final grade for the semester. I find it rather strange that when Mr. Baer, her music teacher, had to suddenly call off a concert because of illness, he was not penalized in a similar manner. Why wasn't his total salary decreased in the same way that her grade was lowered?

community opinions

I can understand that some measure of discipline may be needed, but to drop a student's grade two full grades is ridiculous. A more appropriate measure might be to give her an F for the day, but to completely disregard an entire semester of work for one missed concert is completely uncalled for.

If she were sick, she would be excused from the concert with no penalty. As parents, we try to set an example for her. We do our best to teach her right from wrong, and we have always taught her that lying is wrong. As the situation stands, she is being punished for telling the truth about her vacation, whereas she could easily lie and say she was sick. This is an unusual lesson for her to be taught by her teachers: that telling the truth brings punishment and lying does not.

The most ridiculous part of this whole situation is that her flute is broken and could not have been fixed by the time of the concert. Even if she would have been here for the concert, she could not have participated.

I was told that if I was unhappy with Pioneer Middle School, I had the option of withdrawing her from the 45-15 track and placing her in another school. This cannot even be considered as a logical alternative, because we would have to provide transportation for her to and from school. With my husband and me both working, this would be impossible.

I am furious with the situation because as a taxpayer who is paying the teachers' salaries, I feel they have no right to dictate when my vacation will be, and they cannot punish my daughter because we have chosen to "disobey" them. She had no control over these events, and she should not be disciplined so severely for something she did not do directly.

Very truly yours,
DONNA RAYMOND

Board of Education double talk

Educators are often the worst offenders of double talk and the Plymouth-Canton Board of Education even double talks about what it's going to talk about.

At a workshop session last week, the board spent two hours alone on hashing over its goals and objectives. Board members wondered why they had problems communicating with the community and why folks didn't flock to the board meetings.

Had the school officials taken a step backwards to look at how silly their whole discussion sounded, they'd have seen the answer to why nobody wants to or can communicate with them.

In addition to the fact that they never can hold to their own "time parameters" (the two-hour session was listed as a 45-minute item on the agenda), the board members confuse even themselves by their own double talk and educationalese.

It's no wonder they can't communicate. And these are the folks in charge of teaching our children?

Save Canton's farmland

EDITOR:

In 1973 Robert Greenstein organized disgruntled homeowners into homeowners associations. We wanted to be heard above Dingledey Administration's rapid-growth policies for developers and business people.

The biggest investment of our lives is our homes, and we work from January through May, just to pay taxes.

These homeowners, successfully, campaigned to get Robert Greenstein elected supervisor of Canton. In office, he fulfilled his campaign promises, but in doing so antagonized: Rapid-growth promoting business community with strict sign and burn ordinances; developers with strict building ordinances; farmers with development rights program to save farmland; and Wayne County Sheriff's Patrol with formation of our own police department.

These people successfully formed a coalition in the 1976 primary election to remove him from office. It doesn't take much, considering August primaries are well-known to have low voter/homeowner turnout. They organized crossover of Republican voters and distributed unsigned smear fliers throughout the township. In 1978, the homeowners again successfully campaigned to put him back in office as a trustee, as he was unable to take on full-time responsibilities of supervisor's position at that time.

As longtime residents of Canton, our family has greatly admired Greenstein's continuing efforts to pursue development rights funding from state, federal, and philanthropic sources, in order to preserve Canton's rapidly disappearing farmland.

During this depressed economy, I can understand the philanthropic organizations' rejection of his plea on behalf of Canton's application for farmland preservation funding.

But, what I can not understand is: How can our legislators rationalize their rejection?

Government is constantly reminding us through the media of the vital need to save our rapidly disappearing, valuable, and irreplaceable farmland, for human-existence as world-food demands increase.

Canton's residents have consistently shown support for farmland preservation programs: By donating their time in Citizen Advisory capacities; by their May 1976, landslide (3-1) "YES" vote for the concept of saving farmland; by extremely narrow defeat of 4-mill tax increase to cover costs, during a tax-revolt period of 1978; by their 97% approval to save farmland in 1975 Census; by 72% approval given in Poll taken by the Chamber of Commerce in 1979.

Government is spending at least $200 million of our tax dollars to build Super Sewer, which promotes further loss of farmland, with no public support; rather than, $16 million for preservation of farmland, for which the public has shown tremendous support. Water bills will also increase substantially to retire sewer bonds, plus maintenance. Trustees Steve Larsen and Robert Greenstein are the only Canton Township Board members who voted "NO" on Super Sewer.

If some of our tax dollars were used for development rights purchase, it would: encourage farmers to continue farming, and not sell their land to developers; promote stabilization of Canton's too-rapid growth, thereby stabilizing property taxes required for full development (schools, roads, police, fire & sewers).

Canton's excellent dairy, corn, and soybean land is still not ruined with toxic chemicals (PBB, PBC, industrial wastes), which are known causes of chromosome abnormalities (birth defects, cancer). It would seem, therefore, more practical for farmers to remain here rather than migrating and investing in unknown farmland further west or north.

A proverb quoted by Robert Greenstein sticks in my mind. "We did not inherit the land from our parents — We have only borrowed the land from our children."

In my opinion, the fate of Canton's farmland preservation depends on who the voters elect for this next four year term. The voters should select candidates that hold a strong position with our State and Federal legislators.

Many people ignore Holly Drive traffic safety laws

Editor:

In regards to a letter written by Mrs. Pierja Smith who stated her views on Holly Drive —

First of all a few facts.

- 1) Holly Drive is the only street in and out of the subdivision. It is used by the entire sub.
- 2) There are over 60 children on this street from one stop sign to another.
- 3) Within four days time three children were nearly hit. One was not a resident of Holly Drive.
- 4) The rest of the streets in the subdivision have parking on both sides, with the exception of John Dr..

- 5) Traffic safety laws are not obeyed by many people. By 10:30 a.m. one morning a police officer had issued over 30 tickets (all residents of Holiday Park Subdivision).
- 6) Most people do maintain the 25 M.P.H. speed limit, but it's still too fast for the safety of our children and also their children.

When the State of Michigan issues a driver's license, it is because they feel the person is mature and responsible. However, when one lady stopped and asked me why we don't teach the children to play in the backyard and as she drove away her son gave me the finger, I really wonder.

I have received worse than that, but we just consider the source.

If there were no parking on either side, what would keep these people from speeding even faster?

For all of those who do drive safely, we thank you for your support, cooperation and maturity.

TAG artist finds book a comic project

BY DAN BODENE

Steve Culver is not an ordinary eighth grader anyway - he's been involved in the Talented and Gifted (TAG) student program since sixth grade.

But his class project is one that took two years to complete, which is no easy feat even for experienced writers and illustrators.

Steve's project is a comic book he designed and completed from a story idea he began working on two years ago. Last year, the actual drawing was started in Steve's TAG class.

The book was drawn on scribble pad paper, "in crayon with pen outlines because that was the only thing that would not bleed into the paper," says Steve. The cover is protected with a coating of laminating film.

Drawn in the one-hour time blocks in the TAG program at Pioneer Middle School where Steve attends school, the book was Steve's individual project. Collectively, the Pioneer TAG students will also produce a unit work.

Bob Waters, a counselor at Pioneer, explains, "The TAG program allows talented and gifted students to pursue ideas of interest to them - they can pick their own projects and spend class time working on them."

According to Waters, the TAG concept is beginning to expand dramatically, even reaching into elementary grade levels.

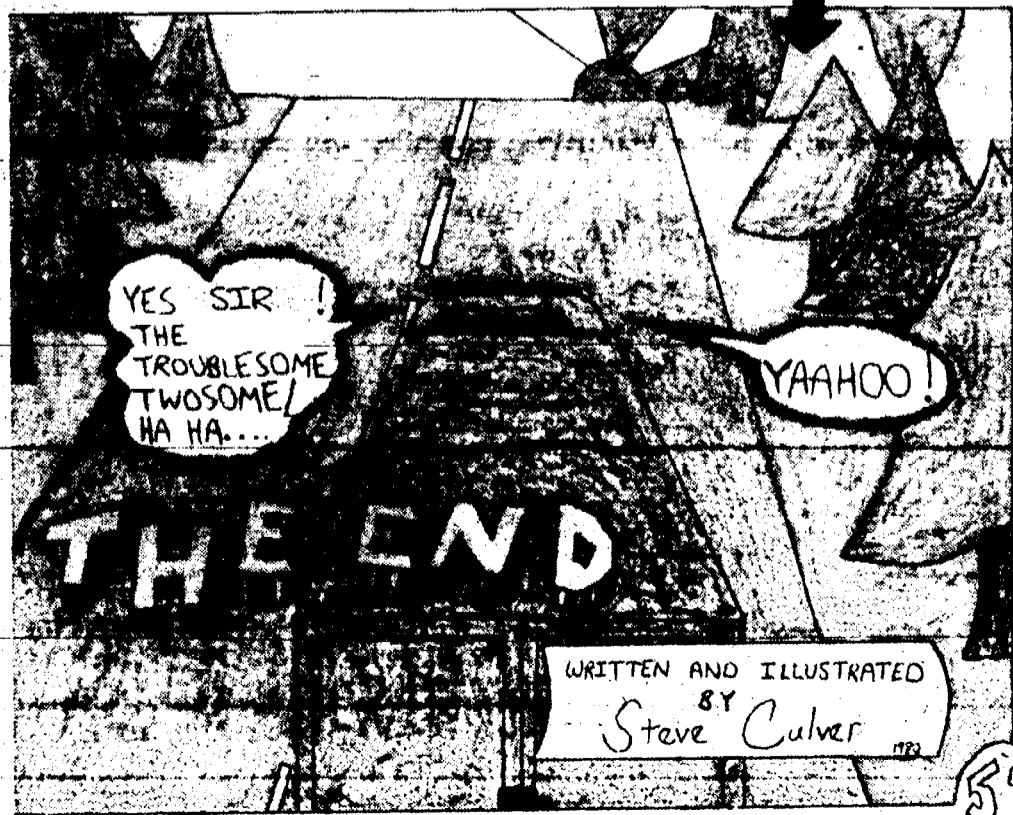

Steve, starting the program two years ago, has also used other outlets for his talents. "I do bulletin boards, posters and a lot of little projects for teachers at Pioneer," he adds. Other works-in-progress include the Pioneer School yearbook and illustrations for the TAG literary magazine, soon to be completed.

The Plymouth Community Arts Council also recently awarded Steve a $75 award for one of his pieces. He has been named one of two outstanding art students at Pioneer School in addition.

Any plans to publish the comic book? "Maybe," Steve smiles.

BUT, THE PAIR may yet get away from the sheriff's helicopter, flying in hot pursuit.

REACHING THEIR TRUCK, G.J. and Jake take to the road, leaving the disgruntled pursuers to rue the day the "troublesome twosome" ever came to town.

tell it to Phyllis

The extended school year (ESY) program offers many disadvantages as well as advantages. The biggest problem is simply getting used to the schedule.

Going to school in the summer isn't all that bad (a pain in the neck, but something you can live with). However, the moron who came up with the idea of starting school an hour early in the summer has obviously never tried to separate a child from his bed at some ungodly hour in the morning.

As hard as it is to haul the little darlings out of bed in the morning, it's just as hard to push them into bed at night when it is still light outside. The whole world knows what happens to boys and girls (of all ages) when they don't get enough sleep. The sweet innocent creatures sprout horns and turn into monsters.

Take one or two tired kids on a hot summer day, add a few household chores with the fact that your friends are playing out in the park, stir in some homework, then top it off when mom comes home from work tired because she also had to wake up early. The combination can stir up enough friction to ignite any fuse.

Did you know there is a 5:30 a.m. as well as a p.m.? It comes shortly after you've finally gone to sleep and are dozing peacefully. Anyone who thinks the world belongs to him and the chirping birds at that hour is mistaken. There are dozens of teenagers wandering around with their eyes closed trying to find the way to the shower. I learned a long time ago that it is better to stay in bed and let the kid find her own way around in the morning. She needs her independence and I need my sleep.

People who don't have to get up with their kids have it made. About five minutes after the alarm goes off you hear the shower water and shortly after that you hear the hair dryer. Then if you have any ideas of trying to drift off to sleep, the kid comes in steals your comb, and whatever else she thinks she needs, and asks you some important question. You have no idea the panic that hits a mother about two in the afternoon when she suddenly remembers the kid asking a question but has no idea what her answer was.

People who don't have kids going to school in the summer cannot comprehend what it's truly like. I think a shorter lunch hour is a great way to shorten the school day, but the idea of getting up early is strictly for the birds. Give us a break - we parents are exhausted from trying to reason with tired kids.

Farm market subsidy hiked

More expense money was approved last Tuesday night by the Canton Board of Trustees to help establish and advertise the Canton Farm Market.

After a decision was rendered by Finance Director Mike Gorman that township financial support of the project was "totally proper", $500 was granted to pay for bumper stickers and t-shirts.

Diane Neihengen, secretary of the Farmland Preservation Committee, said artwork for the shirts was donated by a Canton artist and printing would also be done by a local resident.

Trustee Carol Bodenmiller said the committee did not want to come before the board for money, but expenses had to be met before the market could open.

Tentatively scheduled for a July 19 opening, due to unfavorable growing weather during June and July, the market's opening date has been moved up to Aug. 2. Hours of operation will be from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

For more information on the market, or to reserve booth space, call Diane Neihengen at 981-1037.

Overcharged hotel cannon knocks down photographer

A too-large charge in the Mayflower Hotel's ceremonial cannon knocked a photographer to the ground at the welcoming ceremonies for the Massachusetts Republican delegates in Plymouth Sunday.

The shock wave from the cannon sent Gary Caskey, photographer for a Livonia-based regional news conglomerate, which rents an office in Plymouth, to the ground when it was fired in the Mayflower Meeting House parking lot.

"They put too much powder in, that's all," said Ralph Lorenz, owner of the Mayflower. "But there was no danger of the cannon exploding."

Windows rattled and glasses in the bar of the Mayflower Hotel across the street shook when the cannon went off. The cannon itself, which usually sits in the Mayflower Hotel lobby, was knocked off its carriage, also.

Plymouth Police Chief Timothy Ford said he did not believe the firing of the cannon was restricted by city ordinance. "Obviously it's a potential hazard, but I don't know what the limits are," Ford said. "It might disturb the peace a little bit like it did last night."

"I guess it's fairly safe."
"We'll use less powder next time," said Lorenz.

Volunteers reach out to nursing-home shut-ins

BY DAN BODENE

Of 91 patients in the Dion Nursing Home in Canton, more than half have little or no contact with the outside world.

Flossie Tonda, a member of the Plymouth-Canton School Board, knows what must be done. "The only way to make things better is to get more people involved," she says.

Tonda is a member of the Dion Nursing Home Community Council, one of six such groups in Oakland, Wayne, Washtenaw and Livingston counties. The councils were established under the guidance of Jane Neubig of the University of Michigan-Wayne State University Institute of Gerontology.

Consisting of volunteers from local governments, churches, area residences and nursing homes, the councils sponsor activities and educational events in addition to working on projects identified by the patients.

The councils are the result of an idea by Jane L. Barney, also of the Institute of Gerontology. She wrote a proposal two years ago to the federal Administration on Aging asking for support to organize nursing home community councils. The proposal was accepted by the administration and funding in the form of a grant was approved.

However, the grant will run out in September. A proposal for a one-year extension to the program has been sent to Washington, according to Barney, suggesting integration with the Nursing Home Ombudsman Program. The ombudsman program is an ongoing federal project consisting of one volunteer in each nursing home. Barney feels the community council idea is compatible with the existing ombudsman program, and if the proposal is accepted, federal funding for local community councils might become permanent.

"We feel it's a good idea to get some community involvement in the homes - many are too private and too isolated," stresses Barney. She added that the councils receive support from the Institute, but are not tied to it. "We try to form (councils) as independently as possible. When the funding runs out, the councils will have to go on."

One volunteer working toward that goal is Tonda, who acts as a liaison between the Dion council and Canton's Board of Trustees. "I more or less represent the township in letting them (nursing home residents) know that they are part of the township and that the township cares," she says. She also reports to the board on council activities.

The council works to involve patients in activities and to assist in problems within the nursing home. "They're residents, and if there is anything we can do to make them happier or to help them, we try to do it," adds Tonda.

If Barney's new proposal receives federal support, the councils will continue to have access to grant money for support. But without funding, the councils will hopefully continue to aid nursing home patients.

Barney is pleased with the progress of the groups so far. "Community presence in nursing homes helps upgrade care and focus community attention on the homes. I think the program has been a remarkably good idea in finding what works and what doesn't in local involvement in nursing homes."

Canton business panel formed

Canton will soon have a group to advise the Board of Trustees on local business concerns and problems.

The board approved formation of a business task force last Tuesday. According to a memo from Noel Culbert, township supervisor, "Our businesses are a vital part of our local society and they have needs we should address."

Culbert suggested several steps the task force could take. Before any decisions are made, he wrote, problems of the small businesses must be identified. Solutions to the problems could then be discussed, and how the township board might be able to assist in them. Agreement between the task force and board would be needed before any solutions could be implemented.

According to Culbert, "The task force's main function is to clearly define the issues and make recommendations." Canton Chamber of Commerce President Frank A. McMurray commented at the board meeting, "I hope the board will adopt the attitude that such a vehicle is available."

Membership in the task force will be decided at the next regular board meeting, scheduled July 22.

Twp. heads get raises

Plymouth Township's three administrators received eight per cent pay raises, effective Jan. 1, 1981, at last Tuesday's Board of Trustees meeting.

The raises were recommended by the township's Compensation Commission, which reviews elected officials' salaries.

The board voted 5-1 to approve the raises. Trustee Gerald Law cast the lone "No" vote. "I wish the compensation commission had looked at each job, instead of granting across-the-board increases," he said.

The raises will raise Clerk Esther Hulsing's and Treasurer Joe West's salaries from $19,300 to $20,394. Supervisor Thomas Notebaert's pay will go from the current $20,800 to $22,464.

Sitting on the compensation commission are Jack Bologna, Frank Millington, Nancy Grawe, Tom O'Connell, and Bob Barbour.

It is a good idea to have a few extra bottles of wine around. They come in handy on many occasions and are especially valuable when someone drops by unexpectedly. Wine can be served almost anytime of the day and with almost any meal or snack. With a few extra bottles of different varieties pick out whatever you want to have with your own meal or for a pleasant evening beverage. An entire wine cellar is not needed, but a small, convenient supply will hold you in good stead to entertain yourself and friends.

A good evening's entertainment is a wine tasting party. ## Twp. postpones hiring

Plymouth Township's Board of Trustees decided to delay the hiring of three firemen at last Tuesday's meeting.

The hiring was expected to be approved by the board, but the item was dropped from the agenda when Fire Chief Larry Groth discovered he was about $6,000 shy in his employe-salary account.

Moreover, Groth said he understands Governor Milliken has cut the state's firemen-training courses. Therefore, if the township hired the three firemen, they would not be able to work for as much as six months until they received their training, he said.

The three men are needed to ensure that both township fire stations are manned during rescue runs and fire calls, said Groth. The extra firefighters will also ease the department's overtime costs, he said.

"We will now try to hire the men in the first part of January, if all goes well," said Groth.

Spaniel appointed

Shirley Spaniel, principal at Miller Elementary School, has been selected as the Executive Director of Elementary Education for the Plymouth-Canton schools.

Her appointment was approved by the Board of Education Monday night. She will replace Barbara Bowman who recently resigned to work at a school system in Illinois.

Spaniel has been a reading specialist and coordinator of reading and language arts in the school district. Her post will start at the beginning of the 1980-81 school year.

Have you the world's rottenest sneakers?

The Canton Township Parks and Recreation Department's "Rotten Sneaker" Contest, which drew so much attention last year in its first year, is scheduled again for Saturday, July 26.

The contest is open to all ages and is set up similar to a beauty pageant. All contestants will be asked to "model" their sneakers in front of a panel of "celebrity" judges. The winners will carry the title of "Rotten Sneakers of the Year" in Canton and will receive a new pair of shoes and other prizes.

It is important to remember the judges are searching for the worst-looking pair of sneakers in Canton. Sneakers should be worn from use, not abuse. Call the recreation department at 397-1000 for further details.

The rules are as follows: anyone is eligible to enter; contestants must be wearing their sneakers; sneakers can be any age; one pair of sneakers per contestant; sneakers must fit the foot of the wearer.

Register on the day of the event, 9:30 a.m. on Saturday, July 26 at the recreation center, 44237 Michigan Avenue at Sheldon, or in advance by phone to the recreation department, 397-1000.

"We'll (the school board) have to decide if we'll keep programs such as sixth grade band and take it to elementary level or not," she said.

There are sixth grade band programs in all four Plymouth-Canton middle schools, although school officials didn't know the number of students enrolled in them.

Debbie McMullen, 12, of Plymouth, said police. Suffering cuts were Pat Gillespie, 27, Kerry Gillespie, 8, and James Gillespie, 5, all of Detroit, police said.

The owner of the car, Nadeem R. Mallad, of Canton, left his auto running while he stopped at the coffee shop, said police. While inside, his 18-month old son pulled the gear shift into "drive" and the car rammed the store, according to the report.

Mallad was ticketed for leaving the motor running in an unattended car, said police.

Local architect to design court

Erick Carne, architect of Plymouth, was awarded the bid to design the 35th District unified courthouse.

The new court will be built on City of Plymouth property on Plymouth Road east of Cemetery Drive. Joining with the city to construct the courthouse are Plymouth Township, Northville Township, and the City of Northville.

Canton Township, the other municipality in 35th District, declined to join the effort to build the courthouse, which supporters say will save money by consolidating the three current courthouses under one roof.

Canton has a courthouse branch now in its township hall and will keep it.

Carne said the preliminary drawings of the new building are due July 23.

GOP convention activities lure political observers

(I drew opening day duties at the convention - a small-town boy at a national media event. I tried to write this piece as it happened - things just got more hectic. My disclaimer is that this was written under pressure -- Dan Bodene)

***THE FLOOR - 9 A.M.***

In the center of the pad below the speakers' rostrum, David Hartman and Sandy Hill of "Good Morning, America" are doing their final sound check. Pages, all young and mostly female wearing slit skirts are placing delegate listings and order of business pamphlets on every delegate's chair. Cops are covering stairways, all wearing green blazers. Tanya Tucker and Glen Campbell sit in the Illinois section almost behind a photographers' platform. Except for a few convention managers the floor is quiet and not crowded.

9:30 A.M. - Police security teams are congregating for their final briefings, and teams of technicians are giving final instructions on the package scanners at every gate. Fifteen minutes later the Secret Service conducts the last sweep of the rostrum with dogs. Delegates are already beginning to arrive and the police are nervously pacing. Assignments are made for usher duties and the commandant of the usher corps and her assistant make a last uniform check, removing pens and lapel buttons while greeting the youngsters who will guide seat assignments ("Take the literature to your left, please.").

9:45 A.M. - Camera crew teams begin jockeying for floor position, one with the camera balanced on a shoulder, another trailing by electrical umbilical, battery pack mounted on a modified backpack frame. Most carry shotgun microphones on poles. The hall is filling, increasing the cops' nervousness factor on a one-to-one ratio.

9:50 A.M. - The house band is warming up with the National Anthem and a few hometown delegate tunes. Bill Bonds is spotted in a TV booth adjusting his tie. Radio crews are doing final sound checks. Action is picking up.

10 A.M. - Delegates are beginning to pour in. The rush is on. Nothing is done slowly anymore - everyone is in a terrific hurry. Rhode Island delegates in sailor hats, an alternate in an elephant head hat. One floor sweeper to another - "They let anybody in this place, don't they?" Party flacks with more medals than McArthur.

10:15 A.M. - The Mad Hatter cruises in, cops wondering whether to search his topper. Souvenir ladies in the pro shop - "So far so good!" Best business is in mugs...

10:30 A.M. - Sideshow program hawkers "Business is grrreat!" Delegate button shufflers and white linen cowboy hats...ABC news camera No. 6 focused solidly on the chairman's gavel...

10:40 A.M. - T-shirt seen on a Louisiana alternate, "This Cajun Loves Reagan" while Maine supporters cruise by in yellow sou'westers...

11:10 A.M. - Bill Brock's gavel falls - IT'S OFFICIAL!! Boy Scouts troop in the colors, Pat Boone leads the Pledge, Glen and Tanya sing the Anthem... "Who Are The Delegates?" in technicolor over the podium...Coleman is introduced, speaks and departs to an ovation...The convention is called to order... "Louder, louder, louder" from the bleachers, Brock pounding, "I'll have to ask the galleries to keep quiet - the delegates can't hear the rules for nomination..."

11:30 A.M. - Badges, badges, badges. Press pass etiquette: floor passes on bottom of stringer, general passes overlapping. Secret Services pass on top, displayed backwards...Delegates - "What county ya from?" Lines for half-hour media floor passes 50 deep...

NOON - Cops have relaxed, some are drinking coffee and one or two even smile...Girls standing near the gates are propositioned every two minutes... An Iowa alternate likes Detroit - "Oh yeah, it's got Kansas City beat to heck. Saw the fireworks down at the river last night - Whoop de Doodle! Those things never quit! Pop, pop, pop! They got a machine to fire 'em!" Button traders doing a cottage industry...

***THE PRESS CENTER - 12:30 P.M.***

David Brinkley - the other three TV's are showing soap operas...It's Jerry Ford's birthday...Harry Reasoner seen in the hall, dragging on a cigarette, deep in strategic thought with his producer...Food is good in the Railroad Lounge - "Pop or beer, pop or beer!" The pros complaining about their editors...Half the press corps look like senior editors, half like kids...Major TV networks have cities built in Cobo, tech trailers separate...Offices as nice as downtown...

Caesars triumph in league games

BY MIKE HENSHAW

The Canton Caesars, powered by the shutout pitching of Al Lipinski and Dan Funkhouser, rolled to a pair of Connie Mack league wins last week to raise their league-leading record to 10-2.

Canton knocked off Southfield Lathrup 11-0 Thursday night in a game that ended in the sixth because of the mercy rule and tripped up Southfield 9-0 Saturday.

The second game of Saturday's scheduled double header was rained out.

Against Lathrup, Lipinski was in control all the way, giving up seven hits and walking only one batter while striking out seven.

Lipinski also accounted for four runs, driving in and scoring two, while collecting three hits on the day.

Don Dreher and Frank McMurray each knocked in a pair of runs also, McMurray's RBI's coming on a two-run homer in the sixth inning that warranted the mercy ruling.

Salem Elks stay in Connie Mack race with win

Over the weekend the Salem Elks were rained out of a Connie Mack League baseball doubleheader with Bishop Borgess, but earlier in the week the Elks slipped past Southfield 6-5 to put their record at 7-5.

In the rain out, the two squads battled through four innings and had one run apiece before the rain fell.

John Penders was on the mound for the Elks and left fielder Greg Etienne contributed the lone Salem run with a solo home run.

Against Southfield, Jim Jimmerson hurled the entire seven innings, held Southfield to five hits, struck out two, and walked two, to gain the pitching win.

Salem turned on the offense with 13 hits as five hitters put up two or more hits. John Hetkowski led the pace with three hits, while Hsiao Peng, Mitch Wilcox, Etienne and Jimmerson added two hits a piece.

Salem broke down defensively in the first two innings as they were charged with five errors. Southfield tallied two runs off the errors and then added one run in the fourth inning.

Salem scored two runs each in the fourth, sixth and seventh frames to win.

In the fourth inning, Dave Slavin singled and Peng doubled to produce one

IT WAS ALL Bill's Market last weekend as the Plymouth team slugged its way to the Plymouth Modified Softball title. (Crier photo by Jay Keenan)

Bill's Market wins tourney

Due to rain during the earlier hours of last Saturday, the Plymouth Modified Softball Tournament got behind schedule and was forced to play long into Saturday night and the early hours of Sunday.

The competition finally ended late Sunday as Bill's Market of Plymouth battled Morrell's in the championship game. The final score was 8-5.

Bill's Market went ahead 2-0 early in the game and pitcher Gary Staszal was in command for the entire contest. Al White took the defeat for Morrell's.

Bobby Ridling was voted the most valuable player of the tournament as he tallied an .800 batting clip including a 2-4 effort at the plate in the final game.

Morrells reached the finals after being sent into the losers bracket by none other than Bill's Market. A 7-6 victory over Bill's Market forced just before the championship tussle forced the third match to decide the winner.

In that victory, Mark Crawford smacked a two-run single in the seventh inning to give Morrell's the victory. White was the winning pitcher.

In their first match-up, Bill's Market clubbed Morrells 10-5 to send them into the loser's bracket. From there, Morrells defeated Mason's Lounge of Livonia to get a shot at the championship.

Bill's Market started the tournament with a 16-0 victory over Cavellis of Li-vonias as Staszal hurled the victory. The squad then knocked off St. Gerald's 7-6 when Bobby Duman clubbed a three-run single with two outs in the seventh inning. The squad had been down 6-4 before Duman's game winning hit.

Bill's Market also defeated Mason's during the weekend, 16-7.

Funkhouser stymied the Southfield batters Saturday, allowing his opposition only three hits during the course of the game.

Steve Schumacher and Billy Hanis, a pair of infielders, gave Funkhouser all the support he needed by bringing home three Caesar runs each.

Canton broke open a scoreless game in the fourth inning by tall scoring four runs and scored twice more in the fifth and finishing off with three runs in the top of the sixth.

The Caesars, who faced Salem last night, resume action tomorrow night at home against Bishop Borgess, beginning at 6:15 p.m.

EXTERIOR PAINT PROBLEMS

Paint peeling is quite common on window sills. Their relatively flat sections are subjected to standing water, snow and ice. Sometimes leaves or other absorbent material collect on sills. All of these conditions tend to wet the paint and the wood underneath. Even if only sun and temperature changes are present, the paint on sills will weather much faster than on vertical surfaces. When cracks develop in paint, water has an easy path to the wood.

The application of a water repellent solution to bare wood will reduce future peeling. Allow 24 hours for repellent to dry before using primer and top coat.

Pitch, Hit and Run results

The Canton Parks and Recreation Department, in cooperation with Burger King Restaurants, sponsored the area's first Pitch, Hit and Run competition last weekend at Griffin Park.

More than 150 youngsters between the ages of eight to 13 years participated in the event and six first-place winners have a chance to continue the competition as they go on to district competition in Warren on July 26.

The Bozyk brothers, Keith and Scott, won the eight-year-old and 12-year-old divisions, respectively, as Scott tallied the highest point total of all the participants with 394. His hit of 194 feet was also the longest of the day.

Chris Johnston was perfect in the pitching phase of the contest en route to a first place in the nine-year-old division with 352 points. Mark Munto was second in that age group with 202 points. Eric Mayer was second in the eight year old group with 229 points.

Jeff Beard captured the 10-year-old division with 255 points, while Bob Files tallied 249 for second position.

Tim Dowd raced around the bases pads in 12.8 seconds for 100 points as he won the 11-year-old division with 295 points. Steve Bennett was second with 282.

Christopher La Bond finished second behind Scott Bozyk in the 12-year-old division with 244 points.

Richard Curtis also had a fine effort in the hitting and running department to gain first place in the 13-year-old class. He tallied 295 points, while Dave Knapp was second with 286 points.

Canton Elks roll to 15th straight victory

BY MIKE HENSHAW

The Canton Elks rolled to their 15th straight Mickey Mantle League victory without a loss Thursday night, trouncing Riverview 13-2.

Canton's scheduled game with Garden City Saturday was postponed because of rain.

Jack Ford, making his first start of the season, held Riverview to just five hits and three walks while striking out four batters to pick up the win.

The Elks scored four runs in the first inning to set the pace of the game.

After Keith Stone was safe on an error and Billy Hannis walked, Don Dombey brought home both with a double.

Dan Smith then walked and Dave Malek, after both runners moved up on a passed ball, scored Dombey and Smith with a single.

After recording a single tally in the fifth, Canton put the game away with four runs in both the sixth and seventh.

Dombey scored three runs, going 2 for 5 on the day, and Stone crossed the plate twice, also, pounding out two hits, in four attempts.

"We're playing well," said Canton coach Dave Racer. "Both our pitching and hitting has been very consistent so far, as our team average is .324."

In 15 games the Elks have outscored their opponents 122-30.

Canton hosts Taylor tonight at 6:15 p.m. before facing the Michigan Stars Saturday afternoon at 4 p.m.

Two-way golf tie continues

Two weeks into action in the Canton Recreation Fox Hills Men's Golf League and a two-way battle for first place has emerged.

Mike Wesner and Sherman Moore picked up three out of five points from the team of Mike Ryan and Bob White to move into a tie for first place with Jim Canning and Jim Young.

Canning and Young swept five points from Jack Demers and Jim Martin in their week's round.

The teams of Bob Koers and Jack Koers along with Merph Eminger and Charlie Sheets scored four and a half points for a league total of seven and half points, which puts them into second position, just a half point behind the leaders.

Soccer Saints drop 2 games

The last few weeks for the Saints soccer team have not been very good. The club has lost four games in a row and is battling to improve on their 1-4-1 record in the Great Lakes Women's Soccer League.

Last weekend, the club suffered an 8-0 loss to Ann Arbor and in midweek they lost to the Farmington Angels, 15-1. Chris Trompley picked up the lone Saints goal.

"Those losses of course were to the best four teams in the league. We are now entering the easier part of the season; hopefully we can get back into the swing of winning," said Saints coach John Snyder.

The Saints will play home this Sunday against Dearborn. Game time is 11 a.m. for the game scheduled for East Middle School.

Enter Canton's marathon

For those runners that enjoyed the July 4 marathon, Canton Township will be offering a similar foot race August 9th.

The Country Festival Five-Mile Run will be open to both men and women and will be divided into six age brackets.

The race will start at the Township Administration Building and finish at Griffin Park. Entry cost is $5 and is due by the end of the business day on Aug. 7.

The Canton Parks and Recreation Department is sponsoring the event and is accepting registrations at the Recreation Office at 1550 South Canton Center or by mail to the same address.

Race time will be 10 a.m., but runners should arrive at 9:30 a.m.

The age brackets will include 10-13 year olds, 14-18 years, 19-25 years, 26-34, 35-45 and over 45. There will be trophies and medals in all age groups, plus a T-shirt to the first 150 participants.

Salem diamondmen suffer 2 knocks

Salem's Mickey Mantle squad suffered two defeats over the weekend as they ended up playing two games last Sunday instead of one on Saturday and one on Sunday.

The Saturday game scheduled for Dearborn Fairlane was rained out, so the squads faced each other the next day. Salem lost the contest 6-4 and fell to South Lyon in the other game 5-2.

Against Dearborn, Dave Hoaut was the losing pitcher as he relieved starter John Blanchard after two innings. Bill Cluber also pitched two innings for Salem.

Dearborn scored four runs in the second inning and two in the fifth, while Salem scored one in the first, one in the fourth and two in the fifth.

In the first inning, Blanchard singled, stole second base and scored when Joe Humphries singled.

Humphries started the fourth inning with a single. He moved to third on a single by Danny Carlson and scored on a sacrifice fly by Culver.

In the fifth inning, both Hoaut and Humphries scored on a triple error made by Dearborn's outfield.

Humphries was the losing pitcher against South Lyon. He relieved starter Ken Vermeulen in the second and received relief himself in the fourth from Culver.

Salem scored one run in the first inning when Mickey Madsen singled, Bill Steryart singled and Blanchard hit a ground out, brining Madsen home.

In the third frame, Salem added one run when John Woodchuck walked, Steryart singled, Blanchard walked to load the bases and Humphries walked forcing in a run.

Steryart and Humphries had two hits each in that contest.

Salem is now 7-8-1 in the Mickey Mantle League and 9-8-1 overall. Their next games will be at Riverview on Thursday and at Allen Park on Saturday.

Sports potpourri

The Canton Township Parks and Recreation is sponsoring its second Youth Fitness Meet Saturday, July 19, from 9 a.m. through 1:30 p.m.

The competition is a part of a state-wide program with local winners eligible to represent Canton at the State Youth Fitness Meet to be held at Belle Isle.

The meet, run like the Olympics, features running events, long jump, triple jump, softball throw, chinning and more.

Participants may sign up at the nearest playground with a supervised program in Canton.

The age groups include 7-9 year olds, 10-11 year olds, 12-13 year olds and 14-15 year olds. The youngest athletes will start at 8 a.m., while the 12-13 and 14-15 year olds will start at 1:30 p.m.

The competition is to be conducted at the high school track and field and there will be medals for first, second and third places in all age groups.

For further details, call 397-1000.

Hockey sign-up

The Plymouth-Canton Hockey Association will hold registration for the coming season on July 17 from 6-8 p.m. at the Cultural Center.

The cost is $25 for each child.

Additional information can be obtained by calling Jack Erps at 453-1763.

Express cancelled

For area soccer fans the long awaited soccer game between the Detroit Express of the North American Soccer League and Nottingham of England, featuring Trevor Francis, has been cancelled.

The contest, scheduled for July 21, was called for two reasons: Francis has not recovered from an injury sustained two months ago and the fact that the Express must play Dallas in an NASL game just one day before the exhibition game was to have taken place.

Six-way golf tie

After one week of league action in the Canton Fellows Creek Men's Golf League, there is a six-way tie for first position.

Brian Hayes, winner of the first eight-week session at Fellows Creek, Jim May, Gerald Reinke, Dan Winninger, Joe Argonis and Ed Robinson all swept four points from their opponents to tie for the top spot.

Hayes had the best round of the night as he carded a 36. Winner posted a 39, while May and Reinke shot 42's.

Pair win doubles

Chris Gilles of Plymouth and Ken Corba of Ann Arbor won the professional mixed doubles title in Automobile Club of Michigan's first Independence Day Open, 6-4, 0-6, 7-6, over Mark Simcina of Romeo and Cassie Pluymers of Bloomfield Hills in the finals at Beverly Hills Racquet Club.

Canton Tournament

The Canton Open Tennis Championship has been scheduled for the first weekend of August (Aug. 1-3) at the Canton High tennis courts.

Events will include men's and women's singles and doubles and mixed doubles.

Register for the tournament at the Township Office at 1150 S. Canton Center Rd. Entry deadline is July 29 at 5 p.m.

run. Hetkowski then singled home Peng for the second run.

Peng doubled to start the sixth. Hetkowski then doubled for one RBI, Wilcox singled and Jimmerson hit a sacrifice fly for the fourth Elks' run.

Brian Lewandowski started the seventh with a double followed by a walk to Mark Kitz and a walk to Hetkowski to load the bases. Wilcox then walked to score one run and Jimmerson knocked in the winning run with a single.

"Jimmerson had a good solid performance. They hit the ball but we caused our own problems in the first and second innings. After that we settled down and played steady baseball," said Salem coach Ben Wilcox. "Our hitting was also a definite help."

Salem is currently third in the Connie Mack League but still has a chance to catch league leading Canton. There are two weeks left in regular games and the two teams meet several more times in that time.

Salem's next home game will be Saturday at Salem High starting at 10:30 a.m. Lathrup will be the opponent in the doubleheader clash.
