On Nov. 4 ballot

School board opposes 3 tax proposals

BY PATRICIA BARTOLD

Passage of the Tisch Proposal on the Nov. 4 ballot would be "financially disastrous" for the Plymouth-Canton schools, said Supt. John M. Hoben Monday night.

If voters approve the Tisch Proposal (Proposal D), the school district's budget will be slashed by $15.9 million -- which represents about 40 per cent of the district's operating budget, said Hoben.

These estimations were made as the Plymouth-Canton Board of Education considered its stance on the three tax propositions on the Nov. 4 general ballot in Michigan.

The school board came out in opposition to all three tax measures, the Smith-Bullard Proposal (Proposal A); the Legislative-Executive Tax Plan (Proposal C); and, the Tisch Plan (Proposal D).

The Tisch Proposal, named after Shiawassee County Drain Commissioner Robert Tisch, calls for assessing property at 1978 levels and then reducing the assessments to 25 per cent of the SEV (State Equalized Value). Currently assessments are made by using 50 per cent of the market value of homes.

In addition to an estimated 60 per cent cut in local property taxes, Proposal D calls for the state to make up the lost revenues to local governments, including schools. It also stipulates that all new or increased taxes be approved by 60 per cent of the voters.

"It's an irresponsible proposal," said Hoben Monday night. Furthermore, he added that if passed, Plymouth-Canton schools would be drastically affected by the loss in revenues and would have to consider employee lay-offs.

Proposal A, the Smith-Bullard Plan, calls for shifting the burden of education support from local property tax to some state tax, most likely the income tax. Its purpose is to equalize educational opportunities for students in districts throughout Michigan.

According to a memo from Ray Hoedel, assistant superintendent for business in the district, projected revenues would not keep pace with expenditures, if voters approved this plan.

"The district would still be required to cut program and services each year in order to

Chickens fly friendly skies

BY EGGMAR BIRDMAN

Once again it's time for Plymouth to lay an egg, during the Chicken Flying Contest and Parade Oct. 4 and 5.

That's egg-zactly right, the Fowl Festival has been extended into Saturday so the Chamber of Commerce, sponsor of the event, could "add a few more things for the kids," according to Executive Secretary Diane Williams.

This year, on Saturday there will be a trike and costume contest for kids up to 12 years old. Beginning at 11 a.m., entrants will form a procession around Kellogg Park to strut their stuff for the judges.

At noon, an egg walk (or run) will be held, also in the park, for those who can most

Local candidates' voting histories reviewed

1 flawless record in Twp.

BY PATRICIA BARTOLD

Only one candidate in the Plymouth Township races for supervisor and the Board of Trustees has a flawless voting record.

A review of past voting histories in Plymouth Township shows that Carol A. Levitte, a Democratic supervisor candidate, has not missed an election since registering to vote on Jan. 28, 1972. Since then, Plymouth Township voters have gone to the polls 20 times.

Her opponent, Republican Maurice Breen, a former township supervisor, has not voted in eight of the 41 elections held since he registered Sept. 29, 1962.

Breen did not vote in elections held on July 9, 1963; Nov. 2, 1965; Nov. 8, 1966; March 25, 1969; May 6, 1970; May 16, 1972; Sept. 4, 1973; and, May 20, 1980.

These voting performances were compiled from public records on file at the township clerk's office.

Further reviews reveal that:
*Incumbent Republican Gerald Law, a trustee candidate, has missed voting in one election since he registered to vote on Aug. 4, 1976. He did not vote on the Feb. 23, 1977 ballot; a total of 10 elections have been held since he registered to vote.

*Republican Andy Pruner has missed one election out of the 16 that were held in Plymouth Township since he registered to vote on Dec. 20, 1972. Pruner did not vote on Sept. 4, 1973. He is a candidate for the Board of Trustees.

Canton records good overall

BY DAN BODENE

Only two candidates for public office in Canton this year have missed voting in more than three elections in which they were eligible to vote.

Overall voting records for candidates in this year's election in Canton are good -- five of 12 candidates have perfect records.

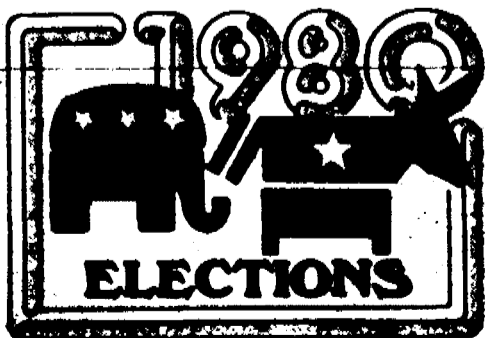

In the supervisor's race, Republican candidate James Poole and Democratic incumbent Noel Culbert both have perfect records. Poole has voted in all 14 elections since he registered to vote in March, 1972, while Culbert has voted in all nine he has been eligible to vote in since March, 1976.

Treasurer candidate James Kearney, a Republican, also came close to the perfect mark, voting in eight of nine elections held since he registered in June, 1975. The only poll he missed was held on May 9, 1979. Democratic incumbent Maria Falkiewicz, however, has the worst voting record of the candidates this year. Voting in half the elections held since she registered in May, 1974, she missed four consecutive elections, on May 18, 1976; Aug. 3, 1976; Nov. 2, 1976 and Aug. 27, 1977. She also missed the May 20 primary this year.

Trustee candidates in Canton fared better, statistically. On the Republican side, candidate Robert Padget has a perfect record, voting in all 14 elections he has been registered for since April, 1972. Incumbent Stephen Larson managed six out of seven possible elections since he registered in July, 1976.

LWV, Lake Pointe set Twp. candidates' night

Plymouth Township candidates' night will be held Tuesday, Oct. 21 at 8 p.m. at St. Kenneth's Catholic Church, 14951 Haggerty Rd.

Also included in the question-and-answer session will be candidates for the 27th district Wayne County Board of Commissioners and Charter Commission races as well as candidates for races in the 2nd district for U.S. Congress and the 52nd district for the state House of Representatives.

The candidates' night is co-sponsored by the local League of Women Voters and homeowners in the Lake Pointe subdivision.

The session is open to the public.

School officials get pay hike

Salary increases were approved for top school administrators by the Plymouth-Canton Board of Education Monday night.

Supt. John M. Hoben will be paid $54,000 for the 1980-81 school year compared to $50,000 last year; Asst. Supt. for Business, Ray Hoedel, will earn $45,500 this year compared to $41,353 last year.

Also, Mike Homes, asst. supt. for instruction, will earn $44,700 this year compared to $41,353 last year and Norm Kee, the assistant superintendent for employe relations, will earn $44,250. His salary was also $41,353 last year.

Considering these administrators are responsible for more than 17,000 students in the district, they deserve these increases, said School Board President Carol Davis.

Trustee Glenn Schroeder agreed. Compared to salaries in Livonia and other districts, "theirs are probably not as high," he said.

The increases were approved, 5-0, with Trustees Steve Harper and Tom Yack absent.

Community Fund announces goal of $318,000

THE COMMUNITY CRIER: September 24, 1980

ROGER HASLICK

The goal for the 1981 Plymouth Community Fund Drive is $318,000, it was announced last Wednesday.

Last night scores of fund supporters gathered at the Mayflower Hotel to attend the kick-off dinner for the 1981 fund drive.

Fund organizers attended a breakfast meeting last Wednesday morning to set the 1981 goal. Last year, more than $317,000 was given to the fund. This money is used to support various organizations in the Plymouth Community such as Plymouth Opportunity House, YMCA, YWCA, Girl and Boy Scouts, and the Plymouth Dental Fund.

General chairman for the 1981 drive is Gerald Triplett and Roger Haslick is the co-chairman.

This year's committee leaders are: Claude Cornwall, business/residential, with Daisy Proctor, co-chairperson; John Behman, Tom Fidge, Mary Brooks, government chairpersons; Paul D. Pietila, industrial and commuters, with Chris Peterson, co-chairperson; Lolly Buikema, educational chairperson with Carroll Nichols, co-chairperson; Henry Salla, professionals; and, Daisy Proctor, special gift chairperson.

Greenstein, Stein bow out of Canton politics

Greenstein to stay involved

BY CHAS CHILD

Canton politics will enter a new phase after the November election, now less than six weeks away: Trustee Robert Greenstein, for six years a potent force in township politics, will pass from the scene.

At least Greenstein, who held the supervisor's chair from 1974-76, will lose a seat on the Board of Trustees, which he has held for four of the last six years.

And now that all terms on the board are four years, which run concurrently, it won't be until 1984 that he has a chance for re-election to the township's governing body.

The feisty lawyer, known for his confrontation style of politics, though, still plans to stay involved in township affairs. "I would like to stay active in the township, but, no, I'm not interested now staying involved in politics," he said.

He said he would like to keep working on Canton's efforts to preserve farmland, which has been one of his main goals for the township. Also, he is interested in zoning, zoning enforcement, and law enforcement.

He added that he would accept a seat on the Zoning Board of Appeals, if offered by Supervisor Noel Culbert, who beat Greenstein and two other candidates in the Aug. 5 primary. "The Zoning Board has been far too lenient in the past," Greenstein said.

A seat on the Planning Commission, generally considered more influential than the ZBA, does not interest him, however. "My forte is action," he said, "and that's not the Planning Commission's forte."

Does Greenstein have any regrets, as he looks back over the last six years?

A few, he said. First, he believes the farmland-preservation effort took a wrong turn about three or four years ago, which led the township into a bind.

A few persons like Bart Berg, a former planning commissioner, and former Supervisor Harold Stein persuaded most Canton leaders that the landowners in farmland-preservation district should be compensated or paid for permanently restricting their property to farm uses, said Greenstein.

"This wasn't necessary, particularly from a legal standpoint," he said. "And now we're in a corner. The economy is bad and there's no money (to pay the landowners)."

Greenstein is not supporting Culbert or his Republican challenger, James Poole, for supervisor. The only two candidates he is actively supporting are James Kearney, running for treasurer, and Trustee Stephen Larson, seeking to retain his seat on the board.

He added that his supporters, called in their heyday the Greenstein Machine, apparently became complacent after many of his goals were enacted, particularly the Master Land Use Plan, passed by the board early this year.

"There were about 200 people who you just didn't have to ask to come out to help me (at election time)," he said. "But they were satisfied with the zoning ordinance -- prematurely I might add. And I'm the kind of guy who is unable to ask people to come out and help. Before, they just did."

Greenstein also regrets that the press and the public seemed in his eyes to pay more attention to his admittedly contentious style than to his abilities and achievements. "There's a big game in politics today -- and that's to act so no one can criticize you," he said. "If I'd conformed to the image required of most politicians, I'd still be in office today."

"It's too bad personality is such a big deal," he said. "Nixon is the best example of this. Results and competence are what should be looked at. You don't always have to be polite."

The press coverage of Canton politics, especially the newspaper endorsements before the August primary, also left a bad taste in his mouth, Greenstein said.

Stein is disillusioned

BY CHAS CHILD

Harold Stein, defeated in his second attempt to regain the supervisor's chair, which he held from 1976-78, is disillusioned with local politics.

His house is for sale, he's out of work, and he's not sure even if he'll stay in the township.

Moreover, he questions whether Canton citizens understand or care what's happening in local government.

"Nobody cares about the issues. I laid it all out to them, I wrote it down, I said it all," he said. "But the election's over. I did the best I could. I'm not making any excuses. I'm content."

For example, Stein said he doubts whether the public cares about the issue of Treasurer James Donahue's salary and finances. (A story on this appears in last week's Crier). "Will anything be done? How are you going to build a community if nobody cares?"

Stein also believes he was mistreated by the press, but refused to give any examples. "I don't want to go into it," he said.

Looking back over the past years, Stein said he regrets that nothing has been done to alleviate residents' tax burdens. "They must do something to help these people live here.

They've got to wake up," he said. Stein was chairman of Canton's Economic Development Corporation until November, 1979, and worked to improve the township's industrial and commercial tax base.

The former supervisor believes the farmland-preservation effort is still unresolved. And that township politicians are putting it off so they won't have to address its thorny issues.

"Too much has been spent on it already and nothing's been done," said Stein. "I think the people spoke (when they defeated a four-mill proposal in 1978 to pay for the program)."

As for the upcoming election, Stein said he supports neither Democrat Noel Culbert nor Republican James Poole. "I'm staying neutral," he said.

There's a possibility, said Stein, that he may not remain in Canton. He is looking for a smaller house, now that his children have moved out of his present one. Also, his car wash in Westland was flattened by the summer storm that cut-off electricity to many Cantonites.

Does he prefer to stay in the township? "I haven't made up my mind," he said. "I have no real plans."

Boys and girls soccer teams OKd at CEP

BY PATRICIA BARTOLD

"It looks like it will be a class operation all the way."

That's the way in which John Sandmann, Plymouth-Canton's athletic director for the schools, described the new varsity soccer program to be started next fall.

Sandmann has recommended starting boys' and girls' varsity soccer teams after parents approached him with the idea in July. The Plymouth-Canton Board of Education OKd his recommendation at its meeting Monday night.

The boys' team will be started in the fall; the girls' team will compete in the spring. At this time, there aren't any plans for a junior varsity team, but "looking down the road, we'll very definitely have to consider starting a junior varsity program," said Sandmann Monday.

Parents had stumped for soccer as a varsity sport recently to the school board. In July, Dave Monk and Dan Lee talked to the school board again about its inclusion; they were directed to meet with Sandmann to discuss the proposal. In the past, the school board had said that no new teams were being started at the high schools in order to keep expenses curtailed.

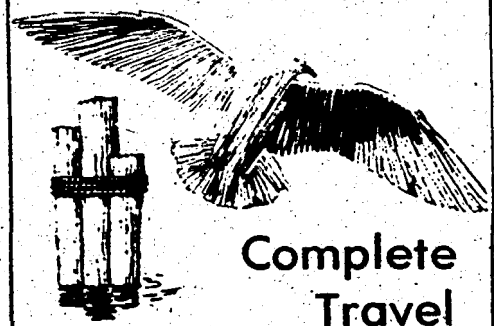

When asked Monday night the price tag for operating a program, Sandmann wasn't specific, although he said he will be working on a budget for soccer over the coming months.

According to Sandmann's memo on soccer, the responsibility for getting uniforms, fields, officials, coaches, etc. will be the athletic department's responsibility.

Many classes, activities yours at Y

Fall classes, sponsored by the Plymouth Community Family YMCA will soon begin, featuring a lineup of both older and brand-new offerings.

Many of the established Y classes are back again, including youth activities such as football and soccer skills, beginning folk guitar and creative drama. Crafts classes will feature silk flower making, Chinese cooking, supervised bridge and Kreatives for pre-schoolers.

Several ballet classes are also offered, grouping students according to age and ability.

Some of the newer activities this fall include one, three and five mile runs on Oct. 11, adult finger calculating (also known as Chisanbop), and evening aerobics classes.

In addition, a year-round after school day camp for Plymouth and Plymouth Township students will begin this school year.

A limited attendance workshop for women will begin Oct. 25 featuring a wholistic approach to physical fitness. Health, Exercise, Appearance and Diet (HEAD) classes will be taught by Sharon Wells, certified health instructor and women's editor for "Muscle Digest."

Along with fitness, crafts and youth classes, the YMCA will continue to offer Indian Guides, Indian Maidens, Princesses, Trailettes and Trail Blazers. Encouraging closer relationship between parents and offspring, the YMCA Indian programs feature both regular meetings and special activities. YMCA classes are held in various locations in the area, with classes beginning on several different dates. In addition, many have registration deadlines. For help in locating classes and information on the full range of YMCA classes and activities, contact the Y at 453-2904.

Auto bowler strikes Hoben

Early Saturday morning an unknown person decided to "strike" against John Hoben of Plymouth, superintendent of the Plymouth-Canton Schools.

Sometime between 1 a.m. and approximately 8 a.m., a bowling ball was thrown through the rear window of Hoben's leased 1979 Buick, according to a Plymouth police report. The ball was inscribed with three white dots and the name "Dale," said police.

The incident is still under investigation, they reported.

KARL HAAS

PCAC to host Karl Haas

Karl Haas will present "An Evening with Karl Haas" on Saturday, Oct. 18, at the Canton High School Little Theatre at 8 p.m.

The musical evening is intended as a "thank you" to the community from the Plymouth Community Arts Council.

Tickets will be available Oct. 1 at me and mr. Jones. All seats will be $3. A reception will immediately follow the performance.

The "Evening with Karl Haas" will follow a similar format to that of Haas' afternoon program on WJR -- a combination of fine music and conversation about the music, sprinkled with his own wit.

Haas has been director of fine arts for WJR radio, Detroit, as well as author and host of "Adventures in Good Music" since 1959. This series of daily, hour-long broadcasts are well-known both in North America and around the world. The series is syndicated nationally over 80 stations and heard world-wide over 320 stations of the American Forces Radio. He has been the recipient of the George Foster Peabody Award, the "Emmy" Award of Broadcasting, a rare national professional honor.

Fiegel parents ask for portable classroom

Objecting to overcrowded conditions, parents of students at Fiegel School asked the school board to put up a portable classroom Monday night.

Currently one fifth-grade class is housed in the Fiegel School commons area. Parents said that creates a safety hazard for students during fire emergencies as well as jeopardizes their education.

A petition with about 60 signatures was presented to the Plymouth-Canton Board of Education at its meeting Monday night.

Parents called the commons classroom "a fire hazard."

"(Students) have no outside access door, and to use the outside door of another classroom would cause undue confusion to two classes in time of danger," said a letter from the Executive Board of the Fiegel School Parent-Teacher Organization.

In response, school officials said they are reviewing the situation with the state fire marshal. Ray Hoedel, assistant superintendent for business, planned to meet with a representative yesterday. "We're looking for a good solution for the children in regards to the exits," he said.

In addition, parents said there was inadequate storage room for coats, particularly in winter, and that some activities have had to be curtailed because there's inadequate space. "Movies, music, team-teaching and the fifth-grade play will have to be disbanded for the year. It is grossly unfair to deprive these older students of activities to which they are entitled," said the parents' letter.

Currently there are 708 students at Fiegel, according to an unofficial fourth Friday count on enrollment. Last year, 685 students were enrolled at Fiegel.

School Board President Carol Davis said other similarly designed schools have used common areas as classrooms in efforts to relieve the district's housing crunch.

Church St. group petitions

Several residents of Plymouth living on Church Street between Harvey and Penniman will petition the city for limited parking restrictions.

Philip K. Hazlett, chairman of a group of Church Street residents, listed six reasons for the petition.

According to Hazlett, Church Street is being used by postal workers for parking; traffic has increased and speed limits go unenforced; the number of small children in the neighborhood has increased; problems with parking and traffic go unheeded by the police; the street is used as an emergency vehicle route; and due to the angle of many driveways, parking on both sides of the street causes obstructions.

City Manager Henry Graper, Jr. states that Police Chief Tim Ford is currently studying the situation, and city commissioners have been appraised of the problem. The item is scheduled for consideration at the Oct. 6 commission meeting.

Graper said also "The initial feeling is that it (parking restrictions) will just push traffic further and further into the residential area. We have to go to the root of the problem -- that there is not enough parking for post office employees." Graper added that no decisions have been made, and the matter will be investigated further before the next commission meeting.

PCAC classes for kids, adults

Fall art classes sponsored by the Plymouth Community Arts Council will begin in October, featuring a selection from basketry to watercolors.

Classes range from one to six weeks in length, and cost from $3 to $14. Both adult and children's art classes are scheduled.

Adult classes include macrame and basketry; photography; stenciling; Christmas workshop series; quilting and embroidery.

Instruction is held at various times during the day, Monday through Thursday.

Children's classes include Paint, Paper and Me; Fantasy Drawing; Creative Space Workshop and Junior Watercolor Studio. Held on Tuesday, Friday and Saturday depending on the class, instruction will be for children ages three to 12 and up.

For a complete listing of classes, times and costs, contact the Arts Council at 455-5260 between 9 a.m. and noon.

Drunken rowdies at Inn disturb neighborhood

EDITOR:

We were pleased to see your piece on the Manor and the Old Village Inn (Hotel Nelson). We applaud the thought and effort yet were disheartened by the lack of depth in the article and the absence of any follow-up. This is considered to be the main problem in this neighborhood and we feel it should be regarded as seriously by City Hall and The Crier.

Being a homeowner in the shadows of the Nelson can be a trying experience. The constant parade of disreputable characters not only disrupts my family's life-style but everyone else's within a couple blocks of the aging structure.

Most summer nights there is a drunken group of people around back playing loud music until the wee hours with only a rare appearance from the police. The main form of entertainment is the cracking of a bull-whip accompanied by a bond fire.

'One Saturday night a person passed out on his car horn with all the doors locked!'

Daytime activities for teenagers and adults involves drinking, cracking the whip, and scuffling in the dirt in the presence of very small children who live at the Inn. The parking lot is also a place for non-residents to park their cars and drink.

One Saturday night a person passed out on his car horn with all of the doors locked!

It seems as though every car and motorcycle that pulls in or out of the Nelson's parking lot is in serious need of a new exhaust system. Very few residents can resist squealing their tires upon exiting or entering the lot. Some do nothing else but pull in and out. Any requests to curtail these activities are greeted with (expletive deleted) type responses.

The parking lot has been built over the top of a basement of a factory that was never built. Consequently, when it rains the lot fills up and spills into the yards of the adjacent homes. The interior of the building is unbelievable, it may be up to code, but I'm sure that any visitor would be repulsed by the odor and the general deterioration.

We have a variety of other gripes but at this time we'd like to make a few suggestions on how to enhance the quality of life in this neighborhood and possibly the owner's investment.

1. Fill in the parking lot and install speed bumps.
2. Remodel the interior completely and increase the rent in order to attract a more upscale clientele.

The Old Village Inn, as it has been so quaintly renamed, seems to attract the neighborhood youth. This is very distressing in light of the activities undertaken in the parking lot not to mention those undertaken inside of the building. We would like to restate our hope that City Hall will take this problem as seriously as we do.

Community depends on it

Fund needs your help

Give to the Plymouth Community Fund Drive this year.

Last year, folks throughout the Plymouth Community topped the fund goal of $315,000 by contributing $317,119, which set a record.

This year's goal is $318,000. Money donated to the fund drive helps support organizations such as Plymouth Family Service, Growth Works, Plymouth Senior Citizens, Salvation Army and many other worthwhile groups.

The contributions of these organizations to the Plymouth Community are too numerous to name. We support these groups and others which are benefitted through donations given to the fund.

We urge citizens from and throughout the community -- business, industry, government, education, homeowners, and professionals -- to dig into their pockets and give again this year.

The longstanding contributions of these organizations and groups merit our support. To continue their roles in the Plymouth Community, we urge you to make your contribution to the Community Fund during the coming weeks.

Residents ask city to limit parking on Church Street

EDITOR:

Due to the increased parking and traffic problems on Church Street in Plymouth, the residents between Harvey and Penniman have petitioned the City of Plymouth for a limited parking situation. This petition by the residents has been drafted because of the following reasons:

- a.) Church Street being used by the postal workers as a parking lot;
- b.) Increased traffic and unenforced speed limits;
- c.) Increased number of small children in the recent years.

d.) The lack of co-operation with the Plymouth Police concerning parking and traffic problems; e.) Church Street is a main fire and emergency vehicle route; and f.) Many driveways are at an angle to Church Street and the width of the street is not compatible to parking on both sides of the street.

Don't mess with the IRS

Confirmation that I was panic-stricken came at 3:45 a.m. when I was jarred from sound slumber by one disturbing thought: The IRS is after me.

It's true. The feds want me.

Visions of men in dark suits armed with briefcases bulging with well-documented evidence jarred me from sleep. Now full-awake, I chuckled at my images.

However, having the IRS in pursuit is no laughing matter. I was admittedly perturbed.

Arriving home the night before, I'd found a thick, brown envelope awaiting me. It looked official. Eyeing the return address, I sighed, fingering it with skepticism. I was in no mood for a hassle with the feds.

Inside was a computer print-out, stretching out to a full two-and-one-half feet long. No letter of explanation, only a hotline number to call. I went to the fridge for a beer.

Though the jargon was thick, one idea was clear: I supposedly owed them $344.

Inside was a computer print-out, stretching out to a full two-and-one-half feet long. No letter of explanation, only a hotline number to call. I went to the fridge for a beer.

My first impulse was to write a check and forget it; I have no patience for dealing with the federal bureaucracy.

Gut feelings told me, though, such a move was stupid, simply dumb. I savored the beer, while examining the print-out more closely. It was beyond my ability to translate, though I could conjure second guesses.

The next day, I tried to call the IRS hotline. Little relief there. After many moments, the phone was answered, but, after explaining the situation, I was told "Special Services" would have to deal with my problem.

"No lines are available now. Please wait until one is," I was told. After awhile, I hung up. I decided that I needed to understand everything on that computer print-out before tackling the IRS.

Tax records in hand, I sought advice from friends and relatives. Underneath my feelings of frustrations were feelings of anger.

First, I had never knowingly cheated the IRS out of its portion of my hard-earned bucks. Second, I had oodles of work to do during work hours and no time to unravel the IRS' mistakes. Third, who needs such grief? "Not me," I told my buddies. "I am a voting, law-abiding, TAX-PAYING citizen trying to put in my time on this planet without too many uncalled-for hassles."

My tirades fell on deaf ears. Though they offered solace, sympathy, and tips on dealing with the feds, their pep talks couldn't waylay my anger. I was outraged.

So, we started to unravel the mess. And, it has started to fall into place.

For openers, the IRS claims I didn't pay taxes on slightly more than $3,500 in 1978. Within those wages is the bulk of the money I supposedly owe them.

Holy Moses! My younger sister worked there; I didn't. It jelled into place when I remembered my 1978 tax refund check had been mailed to me, at my address, but with her Social Security number on it. I had called the IRS, driven to the Ann Arbor office, and was issued a new check. Funny how the past repeats itself.

Poor sister, though. I called her, proceeded to accuse her of filling in the wrong Social Security number where she worked in '78. She claims she's been falsely accused. Where does the error lie? For the sake of family relations, it must be in IRS computers.

Poor father, too. I called him, asking for other explanations. He apologized profusely for getting all five Bartold kids their Social Security numbers, one right after the other.

Documentation from banks and relatives is on the way, they've all assured me. With counsel and support, I've managed. Hopefully, the whole mess -- minus a $344 check from me -- will be sorted out soon.

Still, nagging questions resurface. I've been victimized by this ordeal; I didn't have anything to do with it.

I'm left wondering. Now that my sister's Social Security number and mine are switched, will I receive a computer print-out every September? Perhaps just to keep me on the straight and narrow?

And, are all those long-distance calls tax deductible? What about the gas to get to the IRS office when I finally go plead my case?

Mon Dieu! It takes more than courage and guts to live in such a complex world. You need friends and relatives with plenty of savvy, too. Thanks.

Art instruction means more than finger paints

BY DAN BODENE

Although the basement is cluttered, you wouldn't want to throw any of it away -- each bit of paper, scrap of metal or dab of color is a part of someone's imagination.

Imagination is a big part of what goes on in Sandy Daly's basement. Just ask someone who goes down there weekday afternoons.

On this particular afternoon, six children are paired off to work with paper, color and their imaginations. Although the boy-girl partner arrangement elicits the usual response from nine and ten-year-olds -- "OH, NO!" soon they are at work.

Daly conducts art classes in her basement on weekday afternoons. Three of the classes are for children, another for adults. "It's a very specific fine arts program -- not a crafts class," she explains.

'We have kids here who have done some pretty impressive work...pieces done by 10 year-olds would make college students' work look sick.'

The basement is outfitted with many of the things one would expect a professional studio to have. Easels, canvases in various stages of completion, racks of supplies and the odds and ends that might eventually become finished pieces fill the rooms.

Right now, the class works at tables soon overflowing with bits of paper. Each student has been assigned to do a collage of whoever is sitting directly opposite. As if by magic, the scraps mount up until they begin spilling onto the floor.

As they work, Daly walks around, encouraging and counseling but never directing or ordering. It is part of the way she teaches, refined from years of public and private lessons she has supervised over the years.

The group she is working with now is largely composed of beginners, although advanced classes are given equal attention. "The advanced class members are both people who were with me last year, and some new," she says. "They are doing much more complicated work -- problem solving in an art way. Younger students are given more direction."

Right now, the younger students making their collages are directed to stop throwing paper.

It is the younger students who most often find that art class is not, after all, what they need or want. "There is a very high attrition rate," admits Daly.

But, the ones who stay benefit all the more. "My classes are intended to be a building group," says Daly. "Hopefully, they will build on what they learned previously. We have kids here who have done some pretty impressive work -- there are pieces done by 10-year-olds that would make college student's work look sick."

The collages are progressing more quickly, as each student works to exaggerate physical details of their subjects. The collages are not what anyone would typically expect of students of that age, however. There is detail, detail, detail in each one. Teeth, eyebrows, curls in hair and other facial characteristics all receive attention. And the scraps continue to mount up.

Soon enough, the collages are finished. Each is discussed and critiqued before going into the box each student has to store finished work. The new assignment is made -- charcoal portraits will be started next week. Daly explains she wants to see how each student does without help, before another portrait is done after some drawing instruction.

After class, Daly explains what made her want to teach art to so young a group. "I've found the younger students are much more open to suggestion -- they grasp the work much easier." She also shows some examples of students' work, hanging across the wall near the ceiling.

Many of the perceptions the younger artists have of their world is evident in their work. Family, friends, and inanimate objects are blended into the scenes in a definite order. Favorite things, for example, are frequently portrayed larger than less important items. The fascination with what is revealed by children's art may encourage work on another master's degree for Daly, in addition to the one in art she holds now.

It has been a long afternoon, as was the day before and most probably will be tomorrow. But Daly still smiles, thinking about her kids.

Organization is the key

A key is a small metal object. Although the basic shapes are similar, all keys vary somewhat (no two keys are exactly alike, unless they're made for the same lock).

The main purpose of a key is to lock or unlock something (to keep people or objects in or out of a certain place). These little metal objects have become a part of our lives. Everyone has a key to the house, car, office, desk, diary, or safe deposit box.

Keys are usually found on a key ring -- it's the key ring containing the keys that is impossible to find. Everyone from time to time loses their keys. It is one of those frustrating experiences in life that you have to endure.

Usually searching pockets or dumping a purse upside down will reveal the lost keys. However, when that fails, it's time to enlist the forces (anyone around) and plan a strategy to search everywhere. It is important that you remember every move you made that day, so you can retrace your steps. That's not an easy task for someone who runs on automatic pilot the first couple of hours of each day.

As you and your helpers start tearing a place apart, looking over, under, and in between everything, you gain attention from onlookers who haven't quite figured out what you're trying to do. A simple mention of the word keys and they start looking too (they know what it's like to lose keys).

If you haven't done so by now, it is time to panic. Everyone you know has searched everyplace in the world and you still don't have your keys. Keys do not have legs; therefore they could not run and hide by themselves. Someone must be playing a mean joke on you. Things just don't disappear into thin air.

Knowing someone must have taken the keys by mistake, you call off the search and go on about your business, hoping they'll turn up. It only takes approximately two hours for the light to click on in your brain and suddenly you remember what you did with your keys.

How do you explain that the fairy godmother just appeared with your keys -- or was it the friendly locksmith where you dropped off your keys to have a duplicate made?

Plymouth-Canton Girl Scouts participated in a day camp program at Maybury State Park in Northville. Jeanette Smith was camp director, and assistant director was Judy Parker, both of Plymouth.

Campcrafts were taught by Cathy Lynch and Barb Houser taught crafts. They were assisted by Marla Rice, Barb Pint, and Esther Brain.

Archery instruction was given by Pam Van DerWheele, with silk-screening lessons given by Sally Johns. The singing Tree group was led by Marian West.

A total of 103 brownies and 52 junior scouts attended the programs including the Chippewa troop, led by Ann Koehl and Carol Symanns; Sioux troop, led by Candy Jackson and Jackie Mathis; Osage group, led by Tony Meyers and Happy Merritt.

Also included were the Commanche troop, led by Ailene Burchman and Diane Smith, with Ann O'Riely as the senior scout; and the Cherokee troop, led by Brenda Krackenber and Judith Fallon.

Lollie McLean and Jan Samarzia led the Arapaho Junior troop; Ann Fowler, Angie Clifford, and Ann Spencer led the Apache Junior troop.

A boys' unit, called Mohawk for boys seven to 13 years old, was led by Ann Shear-down and Tom Tucker. They are sons of adult volunteers.

At the camp, Jo Morse provided first aid; Barb Wernimont was in charge of supplies; the budget was handled by Cynde Laramie and Judy Williams took registration.

The theme of the day camp was learning about American Indians. Brownies made necklaces from paperclips and ribbons, drums from coffee cans, and worked on leather bracelets.

Junior craft activities included making coil baskets and macrame necklaces. All the campers make owner poles to identify their property as the Indians did, totem poles, plaster castings, insect cages and studied Indian burial grounds.

Michelle Seelhoff of Canton is a member of the Ferris State College Marching Band. She along with other band members attended band camp at Big Rapids the week before classes started.

Cheryl and Keith to marry

Cheryl Marie Signorelli of Plymouth will be married to Keith Edward Geisler of Dearborn Heights June 27 next year.

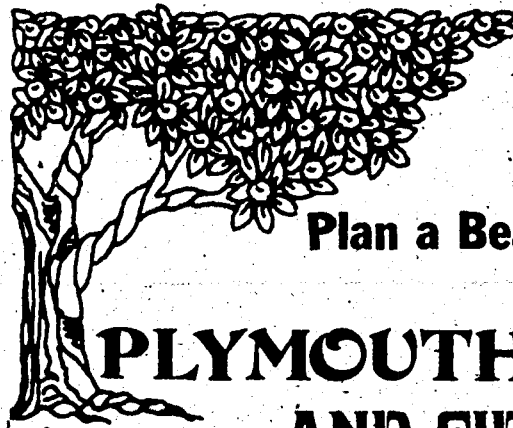

Cheryl is the daughter of Beverly Signorelli of Plymouth and Joseph Signorelli of Canton. A 1979 graduate of Salem High School, she is currently employed by K-Mart in Canton.

The prospective groom is the son of Yvonne Connely of Manchester and Ralph Geisler of Dearborn Heights. He was graduated from Crestwood High in 1976 and is now employed with Ford Motor Co.

Symphony reception scheduled

An elegant reception of champagne and hors d'oeuvres to be held at the Plymouth Historical Museum will follow the Oct. 12 opening concert for the 1980-81 season of the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra.

The reception will offer the opportunity to meet, Johan van der Merwe, the new conductor of the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra, and to preview a unique display of musical instruments that depicts the history, development and design of musical instruments throughout the world. These instruments are on loan from private collections, including that of Dr. Robert Eliason, curator of Musical Instruments, Henry Ford Museum; the Leroy Bennett family of Plymouth; the Louis Stout family; and Ron Semak.

The museum will feature four refreshment areas: Williamsburg, Victorian, Patriotic, and Roaring 20s, with decorations and foods representative of each table theme. Larry Janes is catering the event and he has planned hors d'oeuvres ranging from breads and cakes to escargot and a five-foot-long Poor Boy sandwich.

The reception will be held on Sunday, Oct. 12, from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. at the Plymouth Historical Museum. The $10 ticket price includes a complimentary ticket to the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra concert earlier that afternoon. For further ticket information, call 459-6134 or 455-0343 by Oct. 1.

Thomas arrives

Thomas Edward Hanson was born Sept. 1 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, weighing seven pounds, 15 ounces. Arriving on his sister's birthday, Thomas was 21 and one-quarter inches long at birth.

Thomas is the son of Sandra and Leon Hanson of Plymouth. He also has a sister, Christie, age 7, and a brother, Karl, age 5.

He is the grandchild of Fred and Margaret Hanson of Canton, and Glen and Clara-Belle Hartwick of Flint.

Nicholas J. Tedesco born September 11

Nicholas James Tedesco was born Sept. 11 at Annapolis Hospital, weighing six pounds, 11 and one-half ounces.

He is the son of Andrea and James Tedesco of Canton, and the grandson of Sue Tedesco of Olmstead Township, Ohio, and Gerri and Andy McIlveen of Cleveland, Ohio.

Welcome, Nicole

Nicole Mechigian was born Sept. 15 at Beaumont Hospital, weighing eight pounds, two ounces.

She is the daughter of Kathy and Aram Mechigian of Plymouth.

Handicapped children discussed

"Alphabet Soup" is how Carol Bollman, Plymouth mother and executive secretary for the Michigan Association for Children with Learning Disabilities (M.A.C.L.D.), describes the varied types of school programs aimed at the handicapped child.

There's E.I. (emotionally impaired), L.D. (learning disabled), E.M.I. (educationally impaired), M.I. (mentally impaired), P.I. (physically impaired), deaf and/or blind; each is a specific program classification for the handicapped child. The Plymouth-Canton-Northville chapter of the MACLD held a public meeting at Pioneer Middle School, featuring Nora Martin, professor of special education at Eastern Michigan University, last Wednesday.

Thirty-five parents and teachers of learning disabled children attended the meeting aimed at creating a better understanding of the legal and educational alternatives open to children with learning disabilities. Martin, who as well as teaching special education also operates a Clinic for Learning Disabled Teenagers, spoke of the many different approaches to reaching a learning disabled child.

She referred to the "six hour retarded child," who, she defined as a child retarded only for the six hours spent in school each day.

Because it's easier to get by, little is expected of the retarded child, she said. Many L.D. programs are geared toward showing the student alternative ways of acting to a frustrating situation; this is called "affective education". The MACLD is sponsoring a state-wide conference at the Troy Hilton on November 7 and 8, which is geared to increase the awareness concerning the education of the L.D. child.

Berlins welcome son Kurt Allen

Kurt Alan Berlin was born July 26 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor, weighing 10 pounds, 10 and one-half ounces.

He is the son of Linda and Ed Berlin of Canton. Kurt also has a brother, Kevin, three and one-half years old.

Kurt is the grandchild of Arthur and Virginia Sohlich of Farmington Hills, and Harold and Thelma Berlin of Alpena.

Kyle Helland arrives

Kyle Allen Helland was born Sept. 25 at St. Joseph Hospital, weighing seven pounds, four ounces.

He is the son of Cheryl and Lynn Helland of Plymouth, and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Helland of Livonia and Mr. and Mrs. John Huckins of Grosse Pointe.

Welcome, Mark

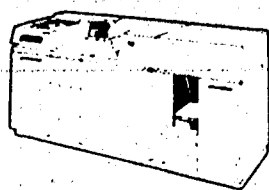

Mark Alan Stewart was born Aug. 29 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, weighing in at nine pounds, 12 and one-half ounces.

He is the son of Barb and Al Stewart of Plymouth, and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard V. Hart of Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. Alan Stewart of Ypsilanti.

BURN UP TO 2/3 LESS WOOD. DO LESS WORK. GET MORE HEAT.

Add a Fuego to your home. Because the fire burns behind glass doors and with the damper 92% closed, it burns more slowly, consumes less wood.

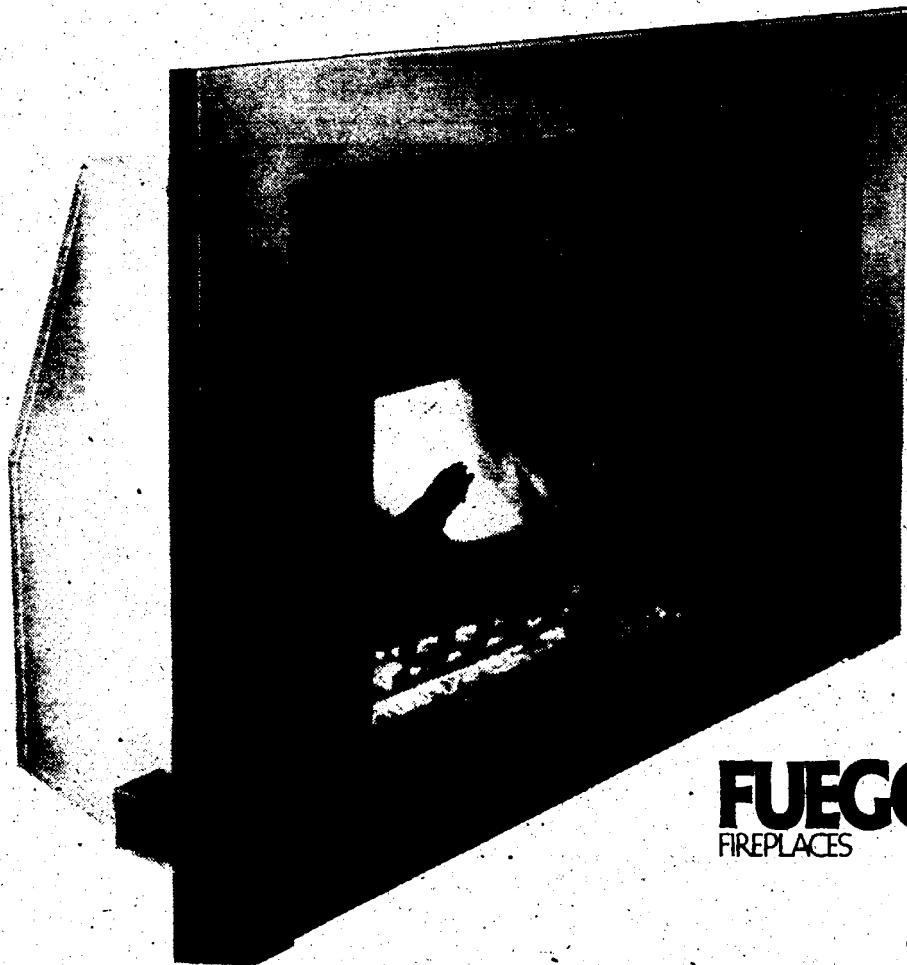

So instead of working at your fire, you can relax and enjoy your fire.

But there's even a more important reason to add a Fuego: it's an efficient heater capable of adding so much heat to your home that you can substantially reduce fuel bills.

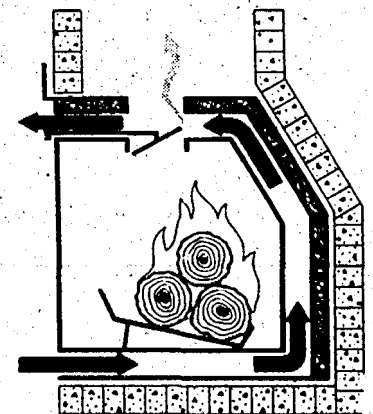

Relax. Enjoy your fire. And save money.

"WORD OF HONOR" star Karl Malden (left) confers with director Mel Damski while waiting for a start in the filming at Kellogg Park Saturday morning.

Tinsel Town fever: star-struck Plymouthites gawk at movie-making

BY DAN BODENE

Plymouth may yet recover from the instant-stardom status it gained last Friday and Saturday.

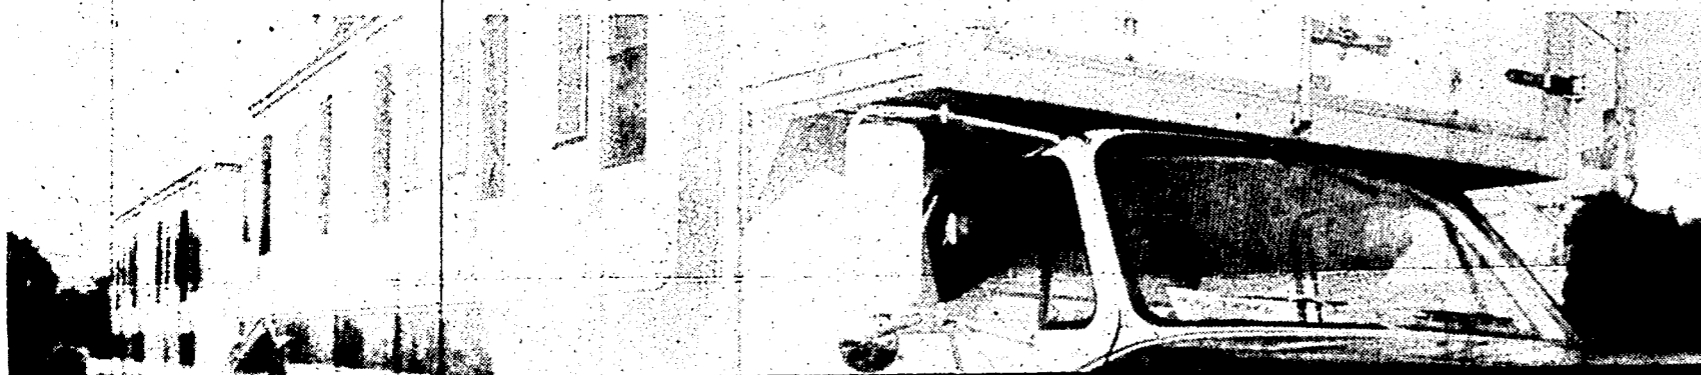

Location to many of the key scenes in the Georgian Bay Productions' movie, "Word of Honor," the city was originally sought for its Midwest-typified atmosphere.

Co-producers Alex Karras and his wife Susan Clark and their crews moved in their equipment early Friday morning, blocking Penniman Avenue off to use for a scene. Many local residents were tapped for the scene, which required the look of a rained-on town. Filters and watered streets provided that look in the absence of Mother Nature's cooperation.

Other scenes shot included footage of Kellogg Park and City Hall. The biggest step, however, was a scaled-down recreation of Plymouth's Fall Festival.

Erecting once again the bandshell and moving in the hot dog stands, the crew was faced with the complicated logistics of crowd control.

Director Mel Damski worked with hundreds of local residents recruited from the ranks of local community organizations. Each organization had a group leader, responsible for submitting lists of names, addresses, phone and social

PORTABLE DRESSING ROOMS from California were trucked in to provide facilities for the actors appearing in the film.

SPECTATORS at the filming almost outnumbered the participants in the crowd scene, shot Saturday.

Director Mel Damski worked with hundreds of local residents recruited from the ranks of local community organizations. Each organization had a group leader, responsible for submitting lists of names, addresses, phone and social security numbers.

Two of the many "extras" were Carolyn Dew and Carol Bumstead, both from the Plymouth City Manager's office. Beginning at 7:30 a.m., "It was cold, then hot, then totally exhausting," recalled Bumstead. Dew added, "About the sixth time we sang the National Anthem, it got old."

Not all the day was that discouraging, however. Mayor Mary Childs, who played a role during a beauty contest scene in the movie, remembers, "Karl Malden (star of the film) was listening to the orchestra, and went aside and asked if he could conduct. Carl (Battishill) said he could, and all of a sudden Karl walked out front and began conducting the orchestra. It was the highlight of the whole day." Malden, with the aid of a regulation baton he had hidden in his coat, received a standing ovation from the whole assembly.

Karras and his company raffled off a TV, radio, can opener, confection oven and other prizes to the crowd at the conclusion of the park scenes.

Childs summed up the experience, recalling, "They told me everything went so well that they wished they had shot the whole thing in Plymouth."

rapidly carry the fruits of the working chicken. An obstacle course will be set up for the difficulty factor.

Sunday's activities will form the nucleus of the festival, however, and every fowl worth his or her weight in Chicken Chow will get a chance to flaunt their feathers during the parade, starting at 1 p.m.

Beginning at the Cultural Center, this year's parade should be worth more than a passing scratch -- the Chamber's Williams says that out of almost 70 entrants already registered, only two aren't entering floats. The procession will begin down Theodore Street to Main, then up to Ann Arbor Trail, left on Harvey to Penniman, where the conglomeration can park for the afternoon.

For the main course, flying heats will begin at about 2:30 on Main in front of Kellogg Park. For the unsuspecting who choose to place their stakes on a city-provided entrant, rumor has it that Plymouth has ordered Battle Creek bantams for soaring stock. Williams adds, "They won't be like the chickens we had last year, which were half way to Colonel Sanders when we got

"The endorsement of one paper was a Chinese interpolation. I can't understand them saying I'm the best but vote for mediocrity because he doesn't get anybody mad."

Greenstein will continue to practice law in Canton. He says he's glad that the press has less influence in the legal and business world, where personality means less than ability. "Maybe my personality is more suited to my profession (than politics), anyway," he said.

'em."

Private entrants won't egg-zactly be ready for the stock pot either. General Motors Hydra-Matic Division from Ypsilanti has such faith in their poultrified palookas that they have even sold stock at 25 cents a share in three of the beasts -- "J.R. Stewing," "Hydraski" and "Wanda Wishbone." Don't laugh, GM's President White bought a share. The banner of Hydramatic's Chicken Flying Enterprises flies just below that of our country at the plant in Ypsi.

Possibly even more egg-citing is the entry of the First National Bank of Plymouth, who will rely on a farm-bred screamer from Wadsworth, Ohio. Courtesy of Woody Lynch and Austin Airlines, Ltd., a team from First National will fly to Ohio to choose the contestant from among a pack of tree-roosting country cousins.

Bill Graham, from Team First National, explains, "My sister and brother-in-law said I ought to use one of these birds -- they're kind of wild, I guess. We're going to use a rooster, definitely a flying bird." Hope the strategy isn't out of the bag.

To bless the newly-found Michigan-bound entry, the residents of Wadsworth will have a champagne and chicken buffet. Real southern hospitality.

Not only that, but negotiations are underway for a special membership in the upcoming Vic Tanny in Plymouth Township. For the final touch, Graham admitted that Security Corp., makers of bank vaults, will construct a special model to transport the Wadsworth Wonder in the parade. For all that, he better taste good.

Williams of the Plymouth Chamber also listed entries from Western Electric, Westinghouse Electric from Southfield, and car dealers Dick Scott Buick and Don Massey Cadillac.

Other noted combatants include entries from Ford Motor Co., both the Sheldon plant's "Barnyard Bomber III" and the Saline plant's "Billy-Bird I." GM, get ready. Both the Mayflower Hotel and the Plymouth Hilton will compete for their respective hostelry honors with high-flying hens.

Valenti's Mens Wear will enter the "After Five Chicken," which may see action against Merrill Lynch's "Over the Counter Chicken." Hmmmm.

Budweiser's plant in Taylor will field a bird, effectively issuing the challenge to Stroh's. Other notables include entries from Ma Bell of Plymouth, and the City of Huntington Woods entry, "Twiggy."

Winners of the battle of the birds will win the use of a chauffeured Lincoln Continental limousine for a week, dinners at the Mayflower, and more.

Summing up the whole event, Williams says, "It's a fun thing for everybody -- a real community-spirit type of activity." For more information on the festival, call the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce at 453-1540.

Voting records of Canton candidates revealed

He failed to vote in only the May 9, 1979 election.

Loren Bennett, another Republican hopeful, has missed three of eight possible elections. Registering to vote on June 18, 1976 (10 days after Larson), he voted in the first two polls, but missed the next two, held on Aug. 27, 1977 and again on Aug. 8, 1978. He also missed the May 9, 1979 election.

Candidate Duane Bordine has also garnered a perfect voting record, but he registered to vote on May 6 of this year. He voted in the Aug. 5 election, the only election for which he was eligible.

Democratic candidates fared equally as well, with four of the five hopefuls voting at 80 per cent or better.

Incumbent Carol Bodenmiller has a perfect record, voting in all eight elections she has been eligible for since registering in April, 1976. Candidate Gary Roberts has voted in four of a possible five elections since he registered in August, 1977. His only delinquency was during the May 20 primary election this year.

Mary Dingeldey, Democratic trustee hopeful, easily has the longest voting record of all the candidates except John Flodin. Since Flodin is unopposed in the clerk's race this November, his voting history was not researched.

Dingeldey, who registered to vote in February, 1968, has missed four of a possible 19 elections. She didn't vote in the first election she was eligible to vote in, on May 20, 1968; on two consecutive elections on Nov. 7, 1972 and Aug. 6, 1974; and on the May 20 primary this year.

The last Democratic candidate, Larry Bowerman, has missed one of a possible 11 elections he has been eligible for since registering to vote in May, 1974. He failed to vote in the May 20 primary this year, while voting in every other election since the Aug. 6, 1974 poll.

Information on candidates' voting records was researched from public information available at the clerk's office at Canton Township Hall. For more information on elections and voting, call the clerk's office at 397-1000.

Hudson honored for books

Sam Hudson, noted local historian and author of two books on Plymouth's history, will be presented with an Award of Merit next month by the Historical Society of Michigan.

The award will be made in recognition of his books, "The Story of Plymouth, Michigan: A Midwest Microcosm" and "Pictures of Plymouth, Past and Present."

A luncheon will be held in Marshall in Hudson's honor on Oct. 4, when he will be presented with the award. "It is interesting every once in awhile to see your efforts rewarded," remarked Hudson. "It takes quite a bit of time to do things like my books. Research comes from several sources."

Both of Hudson's books are currently on sale at the Plymouth Historical Museum on Main Street. All of the proceeds from the sale go to the Plymouth Historical Society.

Firefighters give to Burn Center

Canton Firefighters Local 2289 recently donated more than $1,000 to the Ann Arbor Burn Center, compliments of a successful spaghetti dinner at the Canton Country Festival, held in August.

Jim Davison, vice president of the union, said the money was designated for research at the burn center. He added that more than 600 dinners were sold at the Country Fest, many more than was originally expected.

Davison gave much of the credit to the Roman Forum restaurant, especially Greg Gatto. "He helped out a lot -- the Roman Forum furnished all the spaghetti and cole slaw," said Davison. "He was really on his toes, and kept the spaghetti coming."

Davison also said the firefighters were also appreciative of donations of several items for the dinner from Burger King and McDonalds restaurants, and Meijer Thrifty Acres.

Twp. voting records

*Likewise, Democrat Donald Skinner, also a trustee candidate has missed one election since he registered to vote on Dec. 12, 1973. Skinner did not vote on Nov. 5, 1974. Fifteen elections have been held since he registered to vote.

*F. Patrick Downes, a Democratic trustee candidate, hasn't voted in half of the elections held since he registered to vote on Aug. 25, 1977. Of the six elections held, he did not vote on three ballots, those on Nov. 7, 1978; Sept. 11, 1979; and, May 20, 1980.

*Republican incumbent Barbara Lynch did not vote in four of the 23 elections held since she registered to vote on July 11, 1969.

A trustee candidate, Lynch did not vote on May 6, 1970; March 14, 1972; May 16, 1972; and, Sept. 13, 1977.

*Also, Republican incumbent Lee Fidge, who's running for the Board of Trustees, missed voting in five of the elections held since she registered on Feb. 10, 1968. She did not vote on March 18, 1968; March 25, 1969; May 6, 1970; March 14, 1972; and, Nov. 5, 1974.

The voting records of Esther Hulsing, clerk, and Joseph West, treasurer, were not reviewed since both are Republican incumbents running unopposed on the Nov. 4 ballot.

Schools oppose tax plans

balance the budget," it says. "Projected revenues would increase 5.5 to 6.8 per cent while projected expenditures would increase from 10 to 20 per cent, based on past experience and continued inflation."

The third tax proposal, the Legislative-Executive Tax Plan, is designed to provide property tax relief while preserving state and local tax bases. Backed by Gov. William Milliken and the majorities of both houses of the state legislature, the plan calls for a shift from local property taxes to a 1.5 cent increase in the state's current four-cents-per-dollar sales tax.

The decrease in local property taxes would mean a $157,000 loss in net revenue for the Plymouth-Canton schools, said Hoben. It specifically calls for reducing the SEV by $7,100 for every home in the district.

Of the three proposals, the Legislative-Executive Plan (Proposal C) is probably the least harmful to the school district, said Hoben Monday night.

The school board passed a resolution opposing all three proposals, 5-0, with board trustees Steve Harper and Tom Yack absent.

Learn dance in Canton

Canton's Parks and Recreation Department will soon offer ballet and tap dancing lessons for children.

Beginning Thursday, Oct. 2 and Monday, Oct. 6, each class will be limited to 12 children. Cost is $8 to register for the year and $1.50 per person per class, paid on a monthly basis.

Classes are arranged by age and experience. Monday classes include: five and six year olds in second year dance experience, from 4 to 5 p.m.; eight year olds in second year dance experience, from 5 to 6 p.m.; eight year olds in third year dance experience, from 6 to 7 p.m.; and 10 year olds in fourth year dance experience, from 7 to 8 p.m.

Thursday classes are: beginners from four to five years old, from 3 to 4 p.m.; four year olds in second year dance experience, from 5 to 6 p.m.; nine and 10 year olds in fourth year dance experience, from 6 to 7 p.m.; and third year pointe students from 7 to 8 p.m.

Classes will be held at the Canton Recreation Center, Michigan Ave. at Sheldon, and are continuous until the recital in May. Register at the Canton Parks and Recreation Department, 1150 S. Canton Center Rd., phone 397-1000.

Tooth polishing, flouride offered

In-school tooth polishing and flouride application will again be available in seven area schools, sponsored by the Plymouth Dental Group.

Schedule of the program is approximately in conjunction with the school lunch program. A tentative arrangement is as follows: Sept. 17 through 25 at Miller School; Sept. 29 through Oct. 2 at Smith School; Oct. 8 through 16 at Eriksson School; Oct. 20 through 28 at Fiegel School; Oct. 29 through Nov. 12 at Gallimore School and Christian Academy; and Nov. 17 through 25 at Field School.

Northville 10,000 meter run set Oct. 12

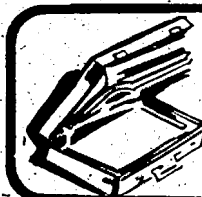

Plymouth-Canton runners who want to compete one more time before winter sets in can race in the first annual Northville Rotary Discover Northville 10,000-meter run.

The race will be held Sunday, Oct. 12, starting at 11 a.m. The start and finish will be at Northville downs, Seven Mile and Sheldon roads.

For more information, call 348-1509 or 420-2777.

PLYMOUTH's Fife and Drum Corps assembled to salute the old schoolhouse on the day of its 100th birthday.

GETTING A BIRD'S-EYE VIEW of the celebration is Robert Blechschmidt. When asked his opinion of centennial celebrations in general, Robert replied, "I'd rather climb a tree."

Geer folks gather to fete school's 100th birthday

Geer School celebrated its 100th birthday Sunday. The red brick, originally one-room, school house located on Ann Arbor Road at Gotfredson Rd. in Washtenaw County, drew old friends and neighbors from near and far for the occasion.

Students and teachers donned old-time costumes and the old-fashioned school bell rang to the tune of the celebration.

The Plymouth Fife & Drum Corp was on hand as Geer students read happy birthday messages from President Jimmy Carter, Presidential Candidate Ronald Reagan, Governor William Milliken, Senator Donald Riegle, and Senator Carl Levin.

Carol Davis, president of the Plymouth-Canton School Board, and John M. Hoben, superintendent, addressed the audience gathered in the 100-year old schoolyard. Members of the Geer Community baked a birthday cake for the school; flags were raised; children petted horses tethered in the school yard; and, families enjoyed the school which has educated their children for more than 100 years.

Geer School, named after William Geer who with his brother, Watson, migrated to Superior Township in 1855 from New York State, was built and operated by the School District Fractional No. 6, later changed to No. 4, of Salem-Superior Township. It was annexed into the Plymouth-Canton Schools in 1965.

Originally the school had an average enrollment of 35 students, ages 7-21, in grades 1-8. An extra room was added on the schoolhouse in 1960 and now the school has an enrollment of 43 students in grades 1-5.

Along with the present students some old students came such as James Walker, now 83 years old. He first attended Geer School in 1903 when he began first grade. Also, Roy Geer and his family came to the school, their Great Uncle William had built in 1880, a "happy birthday."

JULIE PRINCE, a Geer School second-grader, liked only one thing better than the centennial party -- petting the horses the Cowmeadow family brought to the school.

JAMES WALKER, who preferred not to reveal his age, was one of the earlier students at Geer, attending first grade there in 1903.

community deaths

Clarke, Plymouth businessman

William V. Clarke, 66, of Plymouth, died Sept. 18 in Plymouth Township. Funeral arrangements were made by Schrader Funeral Home.

He is survived by his wife, Jane Stover; daughters, Carol Clark of Los Angeles, Cal. and Jill Stander of West Chester, Ohio; brother, Donald W. of Hastings, Neb.; and two grandchildren, Laura and Jeffrey Stander.

A resident of Plymouth for 42 years, Mr. Clarke was owner of the Culligan Soft Water Service in Plymouth for 25 years. He was a member of the First United Presbyterian Church. Memorial contributions can be sent to the American Cancer Society.

Strausbaugh, accident victim

Dennis Allen Strausbaugh, 24, of Plymouth, died Sept. 21 in a motorcycle accident in Ann Arbor Township. Funeral services were held Sept. 24 at Schrader Funeral Home, with The Rev. Fr. Kenneth MacKinnon officiating. Burial was at Riverside Cemetery.

According to a State Police report, Mr. Strausbaugh was traveling southbound on U.S. 23 approximately 130 feet north of M-14 at 12:30 a.m. when he left the road and hit a guardrail. A witness said Mr. Strausbaugh did not apply the brakes before hitting the guardrail, said police.

He is survived by his parents, Dennis and Louise Strausbaugh of Plymouth; sister, Deborah Schmitt of Belleville; grandparents, Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Harrison of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Yorch of Melbourne Beach, Fla.; and several aunts and uncles.

Memorial contributions can be sent to the American Diabetes Association.

Lietz, member of Goodfellows

John Joseph Lietz, 67, formerly of Plymouth, died Sept. 21 in Sebring, Fla. Funeral services were held Sept. 24 at the First Presbyterian Church of Lake Placid, Fla. with The Rev. B.E. Dewitt officiating. Arrangements were made by Scott Funeral Home of Lake Placid. Burial was at Lake Placid.

He is survived by his wife, Doris; daughters, Elaine Grote of Howell, Gayle Campbell of Portland, Ore. and Faye Rickert of Bradenton, Fla.; sister, Catherine Stevens of Malibu, Cal.; and seven grandchildren.

Mr. Lietz was a member and past president of the Shrine, a member of the HI-12 Club, a 32nd-Degree Mason, a Past Worthy Patron of the Eastern Star and a member of Goodfellows, all in Plymouth; and a member of the Elks of Howell.

Register to vote by Oct. 6 for Nov. 4 elections

Monday, Oct. 6 is the deadline to register to vote if you want to cast a ballot in the Nov. 4 general election.

Residents who are 18 years of age or older can register at the office of the city or township where they live or at a local Secretary of State branch office. Plymouth Township Hall is located at 42350 Ann Arbor Rd.; City of Plymouth offices are at 201 S. Main St., and Canton Township offices are located at 1150 S. Canton Center Rd.

And, if your 18th birthday falls on the day after the Nov. 4 election, you can still vote.

A little-known interpretation of Michigan election laws permits an individual who becomes 18 on Nov. 5 to vote on Nov. 4. The theory behind the interpretation, says Secretary of State Richard Austin, is that on Nov. 4 the person lived exactly 18 years to the day -- enough to fulfill Michigan's legal requirement to be 18 years old to vote.

NOW kicks off membership drive

With the Sept. 24 meeting of Northwest Wayne County NOW the chapter will kick off a membership drive which it is hoped will double its membership by Nov. 1. Currently Northwest Wayne County NOW has 70 dues-paying members which are drawn from the eight suburban communities including Plymouth-Canton.

Barbara Miyata of Berrien Springs, newly elected Michigan state president of NOW, will be present to challenge the group to extend their outreach, and to translate state and national goals into local, grass-roots efforts to achieve the priorities set by the National Organization for Women.

The Little Theater of Hoover Elementary School, located at 15900 Levan which is between Five and Six Mile Roads, will be the meeting place for NOW meetings this year. Interested area women are invited to attend the Sept. 24 general membership meeting, which is open to the public. Anyone needing further information or transportation, may call Janet Evans at 476-3352.

Hunting class set

The Michigan State Police, along with the Western Wayne County Conservation Association, is sponsoring a hunter safety course.

To be held Oct. 14 through 18, the course is for youngsters from 11 to 15 years old. On Oct. 14 through 17, classes will be at the Michigan State Police Post in Northville from 7 to 9 p.m. On Saturday morning, Oct. 18, the class will be at the Western Wayne County Conservation Association grounds.

Cost is $2 per student. To register, call the Northville Post at 348-1505.

Canton runners 2nd at SC cross country invit

Canton's cross country team wrapped up a second-place finish at the Schoolcraft College Invitational last Saturday. The Chiefs totaled 117 points behind North Farmington in first with 114 points.

Wayne Memorial's Chris Stropm was the top runner in the race with a time of 15:38.5.

Brian Jones, a Canton freshman, recorded the Chiefs best time, clocking 16:29, good for 14th place.

Other Chief scorers were Steve West (18), Dan Inloes (26), Jack Pacente (29), Scott Hand (30), Mike Talaga (38), and Barron Smith (67).

Despite the fact that Canton failed to reach the top 10 runners, coach Jim Hayes said that consistent finishes provided the Chiefs with an excellent score.

"We finished with five runners within 20 seconds of each other," said Hayes. "We ran as a team, and that's what you need to win races."

"We don't worry if another team has several runners faster than one of ours."

Rock runners 14th at SC

BY KEN VOYLES

Salem has a very young cross country team. The squad's core of runners is broken down to three sophomores, one freshman, one senior and a senior that has missed the first week of action due to illness.

"We've obviously got a lot of young kids. We are looking for them to run well this year and improve their times," said Salem Coach Scott Dunson. "I think we have quite a bit of potential, but we are really looking at this group for next year."

The Rocks most recent effort was running at last weekend's Schoolcraft College High School Invitational.

The 20-team field consisted of 121 varsity boys, and a girls' race and junior varsity competition.

Salem finished 14th out of the field and although far back in the pack, coach Dunson felt that his squad had shown definite improvement.

"As a team we ran very well. I was pleased with our running and saw our times drop," said Dunson.

As for the Rock individuals, sophomore Frank Brosnan was the best finisher with a 33rd place. Brosnan clocked 16:52 over the course.

"Senior Dave Kobach had been our No. 1 runner but he has been sick the last week so Frank has stepped into the No. 1 spot for us," said Dunson.

Brosnan's time at Schoolcraft was an individual best. He is now in his second year of cross country at Salem.

Chris Whittaker, the senior captain of the team, was 48th at the invitational with an effort of 17:02. This will be the runner's fourth year in a Salem cross country uniform.

Skip Whittaker, a sophomore, finished well behind his brother Chris with an 88th position at Schoolcraft. His time was 18:14.

Brad Hartell and Ken Legoualt rounded out Salem's effort at the meet with 92nd and 97th finishes, respectively. Hartell clocked 18:28 and Legoualt, 18:46.

Hartell is a sophomore and in his first season with the Rocks. Legoualt is the team's lone freshman.

In the girls' race at Schoolcraft, Salem's lone girl runner finished third out of 48 girl competitors. Sample's time was 19:25.

She was also chosen for the all-invitational team. An honor regulated to 10 runners.

The junior runner is considered by Dunson to be in the top three in the area, as proved at Schoolcraft.

It's finishing together that helps make us a good team. As for individual runners, we're not outstanding, but we have a very deep team and a lot of good performers."

In the girls' meet, Ladywood dominated the proceedings with 34 points.

Kathy Brophy had the Chiefs best time at 21:07, for a 21st place finish. Charlotte Thomas followed at 41st with a time of 23:42.

Last Thursday, the Chiefs won their first Western Six League meet by trouncing Waterford Mott 16-44.

Scott Hand paced Canton with a first-place with a time of 16:59.

Other scorers for the Chiefs included Brian Jones (20), Dan Inloes (3), Steve West (4), Mike Talaga (6), Jack Pacente (8), Barron Smith (10), George Kasic (15), Dave Bennett (16), and Mark Bennett (17).

Earlier in the week, Canton defeated Allen Park 15-50. Hand led the Chiefs with a 16:50 for first place.

Canton's next meet will be tomorrow at Northville. Match time is 4 p.m.

"She has a good shot at qualifying for the state meet," Dunson said.

Last week, the Rocks dropped a dual meet to Suburban Eight League foe Dearborn Edsel Ford. Dearborn scored the first five places and had 15 points, while the Rocks tallied 48.

Brosnan was sixth for Salem, 17:33, Chris Whittaker was ninth, 18:19, Skip Whittaker was 10th, 18:35, Hartell was 11th, 18:42, and Legoualt was 13th, 19:12.

"Edsel Ford is a very strong league team," said Dunson.

The Rocks will run tomorrow at Belleville against Belleville and Allen Park. Meet time is 4 p.m.

Salem golfers win individual title at Best Ball

West Bloomfield won the team title at the Plymouth Best Ball Golf Tournament yesterday, but the Salem Rocks came through with the best finish among the individual two-man teams.

Bloomfield was tied with Ypsilanti for the team title forcing a playoff. Both teams were tied with 146 scores. Bloomfield won the playoff on the second hole.

Jeff Trimm and Jon Vives teamed for Salem and won the individual title after a playoff with Ann Arbor Pioneer. Trimm and Vives had a combined score of 71 and they won their title on the second hole of playoff action.

John Paulowit and Pete Metroff, also for Salem, had a combined score of 79. The Rocks finished third in the team race with a total of 150.

Bloomfield had a 146 and Ypsilanti a 147 for the first two positions.

Canton was 22nd out of the 24 teams with a combined score of 171. Doug Moffatt and Kevin Morton had an 86, while Ken Morton and Sean McManaman had an 85.

"From the Salem standpoint it was an excellent day considering three of our team had never been in a major high school tournament before and we came away with that individual title," said Salem coach Bob Waters. "We are exactly where we want to be right now."

Monday sports results...

Salem's golf squad, paced by senior Jeff Trim, dumped Dearborn Monday in a Suburban Eight League golf outing. The Rocks carded a 194 score and Dearborn had a 210.

Trimm was the match medalist (lowest score) with a 36.

"Jeff is a coaches dream. He's been coming through for us every match," said Salem Coach Bob Waters.

Salem's other scores included John Paulowit with a 38, Pete Metroff and John Uekert with 39s and Nunzio Marino with a 42.

Salem is now 8-1 overall.

Salem tennis

"We probably had our best match of the season because we had some real close games and each of the matches lasted a long time," said Salem tennis Coach Judy Braun after her charges dumped Dearborn 6-1 in a Suburban Eight League tussle on Monday.

Chris Gilles won No. 1 singles for Salem beating Altenburger 6-2 and 6-1. Carol Gillespie defeated Altenburger at No. 2 singles 6-4 and 6-3.

Carol Hathaway won No. 3 singles over Tominak 6-4, 3-6 and 6-1, while Sue Dobel suffered the only Salem loss at No. 4 singles, 6-0 and 6-2 to Verdbar.

Renee Braun and Betsy Moon defeated Bageris and Kunzman 6-3 and 6-4 at No. 1 doubles, while Lisa Maggio and Vickie Sterling dumped Kunzman and Vantilburg 6-4 and 6-1 at No. 2 doubles.

Beth Baker and Lynn Hathaway won No. 3 doubles 6-1 and 6-4 over Vankirk and Smutek.

Salem is now 5-0 overall.

The Rocks face Livonia Bentley today at home and coach Braun anticipates a tough match. "Bentley is supposed to have an excellent team," said Braun.

Live sports coverage from WSDP

WSDP (88.1 FM) will broadcast live coverage of all the Salem and Canton high schools football games and girls' basketball contests. The student operated station will cover each home contest during the fall season.

Tomorrow, the station will air the Canton-

Northville girls' basketball game, and on Friday, the station will cover Salem football when the Rocks face Dearborn.

Air time for both games is 7:30 p.m. Janet Markovits and Jim Heller will do the play-by-play for the Chief's cage contest and Ross Rhinehart and Jeff Schmidt will go on the air for the gridiron clash.

Salem dumps Bentley in football

BY KEN VOYLES

For three quarters, the Salem football team looked like a powerhouse. Its offense controlled the game and its defense stopped Livonia Bentley repeatedly.

Salem came away from the Suburban Eight League clash as victors last Saturday 28-0 over the Bulldogs.

"I would say we played a half," said Salem Coach Tom Moshimer. "On our first drive we looked very powerful but we didn't come back strong in the second quarter.

"We came to play tonight. I was still disappointed that we let them control the second quarter," Moshimer continued.

Bentley may have controlled the second period, but the Rocks did all of the scoring and they did it with more precision than they had in their first two contests.

Considering the Bulldogs past three seasons, the team looked much improved. They repeatedly tried to score on Salem and came close on half a dozen occasions.

Salem started its scoring with 5:56 left in the first quarter when quarterback Joe Garcia hit Mark Kitz on a 19-yard pass play. Kitz' pattern was straight along the left sideline and Garcia tossed the ball over the defender's head hitting Kitz in the endzone.

Brian Lewandowski attempted the extra point, but it was blocked by Bentley's interior line.

Bentley then took over and drove to the Salem 49-yard line before Salem safety Kirk Soluk intercepted his first of two passes during the game.

The Rocks, however, gave up the ball on their first play on a fumble, and the first quarter ended with Bentley on the Salem 25-yard line.

The Bulldogs were stopped and Salem took the ball on downs. Soluk again made the defensive play as he stopped Bentley receiver from gaining the needed first down.

The rest of the second quarter was see-saw as both teams took turns controlling the football. Bentley dominated the quarter but could not score. With 17 seconds left in the half, Soluk stopped another Bentley drive with an interception.

On its first drive in the second half, Salem went the distance for the second touchdown. The drive started at the Rocks 40-yard line.

Jeff Hubert sparked the drive with a 35-yard run on a quarterback keeper around left end. From there, running backs Lewandowski, Dave Skone and Darrel Bartkowiak pushed the ball to the Bentley two-yard line.

Lewandowski finally scored on a two-yard off-tackle charge. The touchdown came with 7:33 remaining in the quarter. The extra point attempt was botched when the snap was fumbled. The score was 12-0.

Salem got the ball again in the third quarter and started another scoring drive from its own 46-yard line.

Bob Pittaway, Dave Slavin and Bartkowiak paced the ground attack as Salem slowly pushed up the field. Pittaway's 20-yard run around right end on a pitch-out gave the Rocks a first down at the Bentley 23-yard line.

With 59 seconds remaining in the quarter, Slavin ran for five yards, then Pittaway ran for eight yards, and by the end of the quarter the Rocks were on the Bentley nine-yard line.

Slavin then ran for eight yards on the first play of the fourth quarter. The ball was short of a first down at the Bentley one-yard by inches.

On fourth down, quarterback Hubert kept the football and drove through the middle for the touchdown. Time remaining in the game was 11:48.

Hubert then hit Kitz in the endzone on a two-point conversion and Salem led 20-0.

The Rocks scored one more time when Geoff Baker intercepted a Bentley pass and Salem got the ball at its own nine-yard line.

From there, the Rocks drove up the field behind the running of Skone. Skone's big play came when he broke off-tackle and scampered 41 yards to the Bentley 16-yard line.

Pittaway finally capped the drive with a six-yard run over left end for the touchdown. Time remaining was 2:55. Again the two-point conversion, a pass from Hubert to Jim Spooner, was good and Salem had its 28 points.

"We lost our momentum in the second quarter but then we got it back in the second half. Outside of that quarter, our defense did a good job," said Moshimer.

Local pair win doubles title

Vickie Sterling, of Canton, and Marnie Dillow, of Northville, teamed up last weekend to win the women's doubles title at the Northville Rotary tennis tourney. The pair defeated Marilyn Boland and Mary Whiteside of Northville in straight sets 6-0 and 6-3.

Stening is a senior with the Salem girls' tennis team and Dillow is a sophomore netter with Northville.

Salem cagers win a pair jump to 3-0

Salem's girls' basketball squad upped its record to 3-0 last week with a non-conference victory and a Suburban Eight League win.

The Rocks literally rolled over league opponent Allen Park at the end of the week winning, 54-17.

"Allen Park didn't have a girls' basketball program last year and they are down to a Class B school," said Salem Coach Bob Blohm. "They tried to get something going against us but everytime they tried they couldn't put it together."

"We had a very good second half, but we were flat in the first half," Blohm continued. "In a lot of ways we looked at the game as another practice. Those kind of games are always hard because you wonder if your incentive is going to be there."

Salem started slowly scoring 10 points in the first quarter and adding 11 in the second. Allen Park had five and six, respectively.

In the third quarter, however, the Rocks put together 22 points as compared to Allen Park's two and the game became a rout.

Salem added 11 points in the last quarter and Allen Park had four.

Eileen Moore paced the offense with 12 points while Cheryl Sobkow had nine. Jan Mackenzie had eight points, Jeanine Papa had six and Carol Ross had six.

"We used all our people in that game and nine of those 11 scored," said Blohm. "In the second half we extended our pressure to third-quarters of the court and we were able to play good position."

Against Dearborn Fordson, earlier in the week, the Rocks had strong first and last quarters but only fair second and third periods. Salem still won the game by nine points, 33-24.

"We had a tremendous first quarter. Then we got into foul trouble and we struggled through the next three quarters," said Blohm.

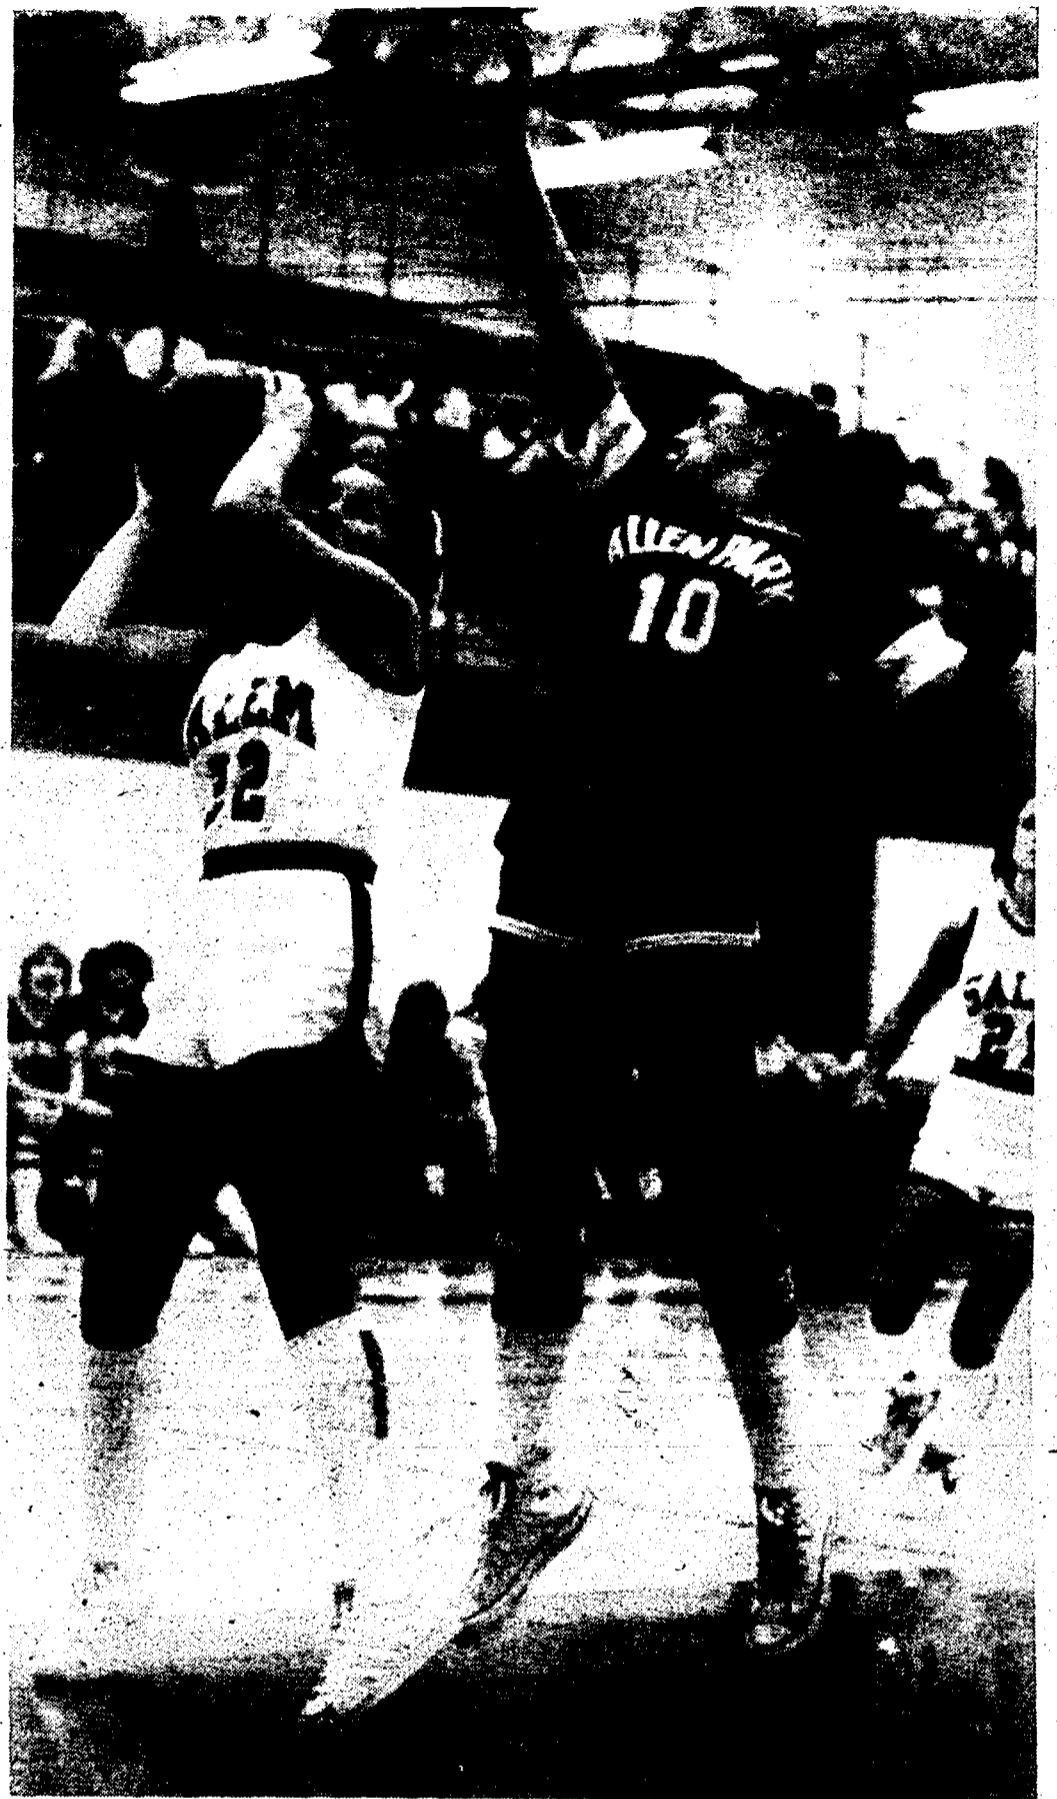

The Rocks scored 16 points in that first period compared to Fordson's six. Fordson came back with eight in the second period and Salem could only add four more points. The score at the half was 20-14, Salem.

The Rocks were then outscored in third period as Fordson added six and Salem four. In the final period the Rocks got back on track with nine points compared to Fordson's four.

"They had two really excellent players and we were able to shut them down effectively. Defensively, we had a fine game, but we couldn't hold any consistency after the first quarter," said Blohm.

Sobkow paced the offense with 13 points, while Mackenzie had 10 points. Sobkow also grabbed 15 rebounds.

"I am pleased with some of the things we are doing right now. It's good to be 3-0 with this basketball team," said Blohm. "We are an excellent defensive team and we have to be because we are not big like we were last year and we don't rebound as well."

Salem's junior varsity also had two wins in the week. The Rocks beat Allen Park, 43-21, and knocked off Fordson, 43-17.

Salem takes to the court tomorrow at

Chief cagers even record

The Canton girls' basketball team won its second game of the season by defeating John Glenn, 65-58, in non-league action Thursday night. The victory moved the Chiefs record to 2-2 on the season.

John Glenn jumped off to an early 18-15 lead over Canton after the first period. The yards. Pittaway had 51 yards, Batkowiak had 44, Slavin had 34, Lewandowski had 20, and Ron Brewer had five yards.

Defensively, Steve Szilagyi, Gary Workman, John Penders, Skone, Garcia, Soluk and Kitz had strong games.

The Rocks will battle Dearborn this Friday at home. Game time is 7:30 for the league contest.

"Dearborn is much bigger than we are. We'll just have to have a super effort from our team," said Moshimer. "We've got a lot of little hurts after the Bentley game and we need to do some recovering physically or we may be in trouble."

Canton golfers defeated by Mott

Canton dropped another golf match last week falling to Western Six League foe Waterford Mott. The Chiefs carded a 244 score, while Mott had a 211.

Doug Moffatt shot a 44 for Canton, while Sean McManaman had a 47 and Paul Phillips a 49. The rest of Canton's scores were in the 50s.

"The other three scores were not good. They just didn't play well at all. We don't seem to be playing up to our potential,"

Chief swimmers drop meet

The Canton girls' swim team lost its second straight meet of the past week falling to Livonia Stevenson Thursday, 115-55.

The Chiefs only first-place finish was recorded by Ellie Wagner in the diving category with 165.75 points. Shaun Neville and Cindy Sherwood followed with second- and third-place finishes, scoring 127-10, and 117.4 points respectively.

The 400-yard freestyle relay squad, of Missy McMurray, Debbie Dickinson, Kim Massey, and Mary Reardon finished second with a time of 4:15.2.

Canton's medley relay squad of McMurray, Kris Burns, and Kathy Stern took a third-place finish at 2:12.5.

Other second place finishes for Canton were recorded by Massey in the 100-yard butterfly 1:10.0 and McMurray in the 100-yard freestyle 1:01.0.

In the 200-yard freestyle, Reardon finished third with an effort of 2:24.6.

Burns placed third in the backstroke at 1:18.4, while Brownwyn Fitzgerald also took Chiefs then took command of the second quarter as they pulled ahead with a 33-30 margin at the close of the first half.

Pearly Cunningham's 20 points led the Chiefs to their six point triumph. Reggie Ruggiero added 13 points to the Canton total.

"I think we had greater team support with everybody, and a whole lot more enthusiasm than we did the night before (against Thurston)," said Canton Coach Mike McCauley. "We moved the ball a lot better, and played a lot better team defense. We also shot a little better on the foul line."

"In the first three games I don't think there was a lot of team activity. It was mostly individual players doing their own thing."

Last Tuesday Redford Thurston knocked off the Chiefs, 61-55, in another non-league duel. Jean Timlin was Canton's high scorer with 14 points and was followed by Cunningham with 12.

The Chiefs will begin Western Six competition tomorrow night against Northville at Canton beginning at 6 p.m.

said Canton Coach Casey Cavell. "We are looking for some improvement in the next two weeks."

Canton also dropped a scramble meet with Salem by just one stroke, 103-104. "That match picked the team up and I think it will help us next week," said Cavell.

Canton will play Walled Lake Western today at Western. Match time is 3:30 p.m. The Chiefs will then face Farmington Harrison tomorrow in a Western Six League match. The away match will start at 3:30 p.m. a third in the meet in the breaststroke clocking 1:25.1.

"Stevenson is pretty much a state power," said Canton Coach Mark Griffith. "They have a real good swim program for A.A.U. and they have good swimmers."

"We're basically working on strokes and getting people in the right positions. We're also working on our endurance which is probably the most important, along with our team spirit."

Last Tuesday, the Chiefs were downed by Redford Union by a 91-81 margin.

First place finishes for Canton were by Massey in the 200-yard individual medley 2:29.0, McMurray in the 200-yard and 100-yard freestyles at 2:15.0 and 1:12.0 and Ellie Wagner in the diving category with 154 points.

"With Redford Union, both teams were fairly equal but they had a little more depth than we did," said Griffith. "They didn't graduate any swimmers last year so everyone came back to their team."

The Chiefs next meet is tomorrow against Northville at the Canton pool starting at 7 p.m.

Salem golfers rebound with victory over Bentley

The Salem golf team rebounded after a loss at the beginning of last week and defeated Livonia Bentley in a Suburban Eight League golf outing.

Salem carded 199 and Bentley had a 216.

Jeff Trimm was the meet medalist with a 36. Nunzio Marino had a 39, while John Paulowit and Jon Vives had 41s and John Uekert a 42.

"We played a little better against Bentley than we had against Trenton. Bentley has always been one of our close rivals and it's always good to beat them," said Salem Coach Bob Waters.

"Jeff Trimm is really doing the job for us.

His play has been good and consistent," Waters continued.

Also last week, the Rocks battled Canton in a first annual scramble meet. Each school used two, two-man teams and one, three-man team in the competition. Salem won the event by one stroke, 103-104.

"The scramble is sort of a fun way of having our meets with Canton. We try to do different things when the two schools meet," said Waters. "We are just trying to build good feelings between Salem and Canton."

The Rocks will face Allen Park tomorrow in a conference match. The home match will start at 3 p.m. at Brae-Burn Golf Course.

Chief gridgers rally but still come up short

BY JAY KEENAN

Farmington Harrison tailback Ken Kopko scored on a three-yard plunge with 4:54 left in the game to hand the Canton football team a 22-16 Western Six loss Friday night.

The Chiefs, who were down 16-0 through the first quarter, tried to make comeback by tying the game in the final minutes of the first half. The victory, however, couldn't be salvaged as Canton Coach Richard Barr saw his season record fall to 1-2.

"We did our best and we didn't quit," said Barr. "These kids aren't quitters. They didn't quit when they were 16 points down and came back to tie it."

"We'll be back. We have six more games and we're going to win some. Farmington Harrison is damn lucky to get out of here with a win."

The Hawks opened the scoring midway through the first quarter on a 72-yard drive.

After Harrison moved the ball to the Chiefs 47-yard line, Kopko carried the ball to the Canton 25. Two plays later from the Chief 21, Hawks windback Steve Sweeney scampered the Canton two-yard mark.

On the next play, Harrison quarterback Jim Macielak marched into the endzone for a touchdown. The extra point was good and the Hawks led 7-0.

The Chiefs ran into more problems on the first play after the kickoff. With Canton at their own 17, junior halfback Dave Simms fumbled a pitch from senior quarterback Bill Childs on an option run, over Harrison at the Chiefs 12 yard-line.

The Hawks then took advantage of the field position and on the next play, Macielak ran the ball in the endzone for another Harrison touchdown. The extra point attempt was successful and the Hawks led 14-0 with 3:49 remaining in the first quarter.

Four plays after the kickoff, Harrison added two more points when Canton junior punter Mike Clayton kicking deep in Chief territory, saw a bad snap from his center sail over his head, and roll out of the endzone. The first quarter came to an end with the Hawks leading 16-0.

As the second quarter got started, the Chiefs began to trigger their offense with an 80-yard scoring drive.

After several plays, Canton's offense rushed their way to the Harrison 41-yard line.

On a second and three situation, Simms broke through Hawk tacklers and ran the ball to the Harrison 26-yard mark.

Several plays later, with the Chiefs at the Hawks 10, Childs carried the ball along the Canton sideline and ran in for a touchdown. The Chiefs made a two-point conversion on the extra point attempt when Childs

Rock swimmers open duel season with 2 victories

Salem's girls' swimming squad opened its dual season last week with two victories over Ypsilanti and Farmington Harrison.

The Rocks snubbed Ypsilanti 94-78. In that meet, Terri Eudy won the 200-yard freestyle with a time of 2:07.9, while Kelly Brandt was second at 2:18.6. Eudy was also first in the 100-yard freestyle with a time of 57.9 seconds.

Nancy Lazarus was second in that race, 1:03.5, and Amy Dunn was third, 1:04.8.

Linda Wochna won the 100-yard backstroke with a time of 1:12.3 and Debbie Darlington was second, 1:13.3.

Cindy McSurely captured the diving competition with 171.8 points and Patti Larson was third with 154 points.

The foursome of Brandt, Dunn, Lazarus and Eudy clocked 4:10 to win the event.

Salem took second and third in the medley relay. Wochna, Corinne Cabadas, B.J. Ping and Julie Cabadas combined for second with an effort of 2:09.5, and the foursome of Darlington, Kim Nelson, Ruth Ettinger and Lisa Trahey were third with a time of 2:14.0.

Ping was second in the 200-yard individual medley with a time of 2:42.6, while Corinne Cabadas was second in the 50-yard freestyle, 27.9 seconds, and Dunn was third, 28.4 seconds.

Ping was also third in the 100-yard butterfly with an effort of 1:14.7 and Brandt was second in the 500-yard freestyle, with a time of 6:22.7.

Corinne Cabadas was second and Nelson was third in the 100-yard breaststroke. Cabadas clocked 1:18.0 and Nelson clocked 1:20.7.

Against Harrison, the Rocks tallied 103 points to Harrison's 68 points.

Salem was first and third in the medley relay. The team of Wochna, Ping, and the Cabadas sisters clocked 2:10.4 to win, while Darlington, Karen Kohler, Nelson and Julie Kenney were third at 2:20.5.

Corinne Cabadas won the 50-yard freestyle, 28.8 seconds, while Dunn was second, 29 seconds, and Julie Cabadas third, 29.6 seconds.

Larson won the diving and McSurely was third.

Dunn was first in the 100-yard freestyle, 1:03.4, while Lazarus was second, 1:04.0.

Brandt won the 500-yard freestyle, 6:32.9 and Sally Weimer was third, 6:44.3.

Canton netters even mark to 1-1

The Canton girls' tennis team raised its league record to 1-1 by defeating Walled Lake Western last Wednesday, 4-3.

Eileen McGlenn, at No. 1 singles, lost for the Chiefs to Jane Neville 6-0 and 6-1.

Lori Smith lost to Holly Spencer at No. 2 singles 6-1 and 6-0.

Marianne Pink defeated Colleen Itchue at No. 3 singles 6-1 and 6-0.

Chris Harrison won at No. 4 singles 6-3 and 6-1.

Julie Swain and Cheryl Smith knocked off Bordman and Bryant at the No. 1 doubles 6-4 and 6-2.

Lisa Scholtz and Heather Hawkins beat Bryant and Rosellie at No. 2 doubles 6-3 and 7-6.

Kristin Smith and Jane McKinstry fell to Humble and Jenkins at No. 3 doubles 6-3 and 6-4.

"We're doing pretty well and doing what's expected," said Canton Coach Cyndi Burnstein. "Some of the matches have been close, but we're pulling off enough victories to win the matches."

"We're pretty much in the Western Six race and we've made a lot of improvement in the doubles. We have a way to go, but we're getting there and our players are going to be tough."

Last Saturday, the Chiefs doubles teams participated in the Westland John Glenn Invitational.

Scholtz and McKinstry were victorious over John Glenn in the third doubles championship, 6-1, 2-6, and 6-4.

In the second doubles Barb Prick and Lori Smith were downed by Lake Orion in the finals 6-1, 1-6, and 6-3.

Third doubles was bested in the opening round.

The Chief netters face Livonia Churchill today at home. Match time is 4 p.m. carried the ball over the line for the score, cutting the Harrison lead to 16-8.

With two minutes left in the first half, Canton tied it up on a 44-yard scoring drive following a Hawk punt.

On first and 10, Childs carried the ball downfield until driven out of bounds at the Harrison 17-yard line on a 27 yard run.

Five plays later, with the Chiefs at the Hawks 3-yard mark, junior halfback Steve Hamblin went over the goal line on forward progress for the touchdown with 56 seconds remaining in the half. Canton was successful on another two-point conversion scored by Childs, and the half ended in a 16-16 tie.

Several minutes after the final quarter got underway, the Chiefs found themselves in poor field position. On third and 26, from the Canton 37, Childs tried to pass under pressure, but his throw was intercepted by Harrison's Matt Stifter at the Canton 45 and run back to the Chief 36.

After a series of plays brought the Hawks to the Canton 3, Kopko ran through the middle on a fourth down situation for a touchdown. The extra point was good, giving Harrison a 23-16 winning margin.

The Chiefs made a last ditch scoring

Eudy was first in the 100-yard backstroke, 1:09.8, and Wochna was third, 1:12.7.

Nelson won the 100-yard breaststroke, 1:21.9, and Kohler was second at 1:22.5.

Brandt was second in the 200-yard freestyle, 2:24.6, and Lazarus was third, 2:25.2. Weimer was second in the individual medley, 2:45.3, Ping was second in the 100-yard butterfly, 1:14.5, and Ettinger was third, 1:19.8.

Salem was also second in the 400-yard freestyle relay. The foursome of Kenney, Trahey, Robin Cummings and Julie Cabadas clocked 4:32.3 for second.

"We swam very well in both meets. We were able to move people around in different events," said Salem Coach Chuck Olson. "Our freshman Ping and Dunn did real well for us."

"I was a little nervous about the Ypsilanti meet," continued the coach, "but we swam aggressively and did a good job."

Salem had opened its season with the Plymouth Rotary Invitational two weekends ago. The Rocks face Allen Park tomorrow in a Suburban Eight League meet at Allen Park. Meet time is 7 p.m. effort late in the fourth quarter after returning a Hawk kickoff to their own 15-yard line.

Canton's final chance to score ended when on fourth down from the Hawks 25-yard line Childs failed to find an open Chief receiver, and was sacked at the 30-yard line in the closing seconds of the game.

"I really feel bad," said Barr. "We gave them 16 points in the beginning, and we came back and tied it."

"I guess the pass interception and the fumble in the first half killed us. I guess it gave them a couple of touchdowns and the ball in good position. Other than that, we played a pretty good game."

"It's just our lack of experience. These are young kids that have never played varsity football before, but I thought they played rather well. I'm very proud of them. Last year this team scored 49 points on them and blew Canton right off."

Childs was Canton's lead rusher, collecting 80 yards on 25 carries, while Hamblin picked up 33 yards on 8 attempts. As a team, the Chiefs totaled 149 yards rushing.

The Chiefs next game is against Walled Lake Western on Friday at Walled Lake. Kickoff time will be at 7:30 p.m.

Salem netters beat AP

Salem's tennis team had an easy week last week as the Rocks faced Allen Park in a Suburban Eight League match and won 7-0. It was Salems only meet of the week.

Chris Gilles won No. 1 singles for Salem defeating Sue Burke 6-0 and 6-0.

Carol Gillespies won No. 2 singles 6-0 and 6-0 over Gloria Leibold.

Carol Hathaway defeated Christin Johnson 6-2 and 6-2 to win No. 3 singles and Sue Dobel won No. 4 singles with a 6-3 and 6-0 win over Janet Kovacs.

Renee Braun and Betsy Moon teamed to win No. 1 doubles over Rita Bizar and Kim Pink, 6-0 and 6-0.

Lisa Maggio and Vicki Sterling knocked off Jill Mittatsch and Patty Varady 6-1 and 6-0 to win No. 2 doubles and Beth Baker and Lynn Hathaway defeated Jan Finch and Linda Run 6-0 and 6-1 to win No. 3 doubles for Salem.

The Rocks are home today against Livonia Bentley. The match time is 4 p.m. The Rocks will then travel to Ypsilanti tomorrow for a non-league match. Match time is 4 p.m.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS CITY OF PLYMOUTH, MICHIGAN

At a meeting of the Zoning Board of Appeals to be held in the Commission Chamber of the City Hall on Thursday, October 2, 1980 at 7:30 p.m., a public hearing will be held to consider the following:
Appeal Case No. 80-18 Charles Miller, 1361 Beech, requesting permission to erect a 22 x 22-foot garage and an 8 x 22 open patio with common garage roof, located in an R-1 (Single Family Residential) District, with a total square footage of 660 square feet for an accessory building, which is in conflict with Section 5.194 (3), Article XV of Chapter 52, Zoning, of the Plymouth City Code.

Section 5.194 (3) states that "An accessory building may occupy not more than 25 percent of a required rear yard, plus 20 percent of any non-required rear yard. However, the area of such a structure shall not exceed 624 square feet."

All interested parties will be given an ample opportunity to participate in the hearing and, at the close of said hearing, all comments and suggestions of those citizens participating will be considered by the Zoning Board of Appeals, prior to rendering its decision.

TOWNSHIP OF PLYMOUTH
ADVERTISEMENT FOR BIDS
The Charter Township of Plymouth is inviting bids on the construction of a new Water and Sewer Building. This will be a Design-Build, Turn-Key Operation. Specifications may be obtained at the Clerk's Office, Monday thru Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., 42350 Ann Arbor Road, Plymouth, MI. Phone number is 453-3840.
Publish: September 10, 17, 24, 1980.

CHARTER TOWNSHIP OF PLYMOUTH
BOARD OF TRUSTEES -- REGULAR MEETING
TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16, 1980

The meeting was called to order by Supervisor Notebaert at 7:32 p.m. followed by the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag. All members were present.

Mrs. Fidge moved approval of the minutes of the regular meeting of Tuesday, September 9, 1980 of the Board of Trustees of the Charter Township of Plymouth with the clarification of Mr. Law's arrival time and also asked the Clerk to check into Block Grant Funds and how they should be credited to bills. Supported by Mrs. Lynch. Ayes all.

Mr. Breen moved approval of the agenda as amended. Supported by Mr. Law. Ayes all. Mr. Loren Gould, Gould Development Co. requested that he be placed on the agenda to ask for acceptance by the Township Board of the 70 ft. of sewer that was just installed next to the Township Park on Ann Arbor Trail. Mr. Notebaert suggested that this item be put under Michael Bailey, Township Engineer, New Business, 5b. There were no objections.

Mrs. Fidge reviewed the Planning Commission recommendations for the application of Singh Development Company. Application 504 to develop under R.U.D. 48 acres west of Ridgewood Drive and North of North Territorial Road with the Board. Mr. Leonard Siegel, Architect and Planner discussed the reasons to only develop 48 acres and answered questions.

Mr. Breen moved that the Board of Trustees of the Charter Township of Plymouth approve the recommendations of the Planning Commission to approve the Singh Development Company -- Application No. 504 including in that approval under R.U.D. the two following statements: The applicant and property owners were requested to submit for R.U.D. approval the entire 72+ acres (48.47 acres under current application and 23+ acres excluded from the current application) in order to permit development of the properties in question in compliance with the existing zoning of the properties and the Comprehensive Development Plan for the Community without placing undue hardship on the property owner. It was at the sole discretion of the property owner not to amend the R.U.D. application to include the 23+ acres. (2) The existing pond found on the remaining 23+ acre parcel is a man made pond which was constructed by the property owner in an area which would have been considered buildable prior to the construction of the pond; the net effect of the pond construction being the reduction of the productivity of the parcel under the current zoning classification. Furthermore, every opportunity was offered to the Applicants and the owner to include the remaining 23+ acres as part of this application, but they showed no interest in doing so at this point of time. Supported by Mrs. Fidge. Ayes all.

Mr. Law moved that the Board of Trustees of the Charter Township of Plymouth accept the recommendation of the Planning Commission to approve the Tentative Preliminary Plat for Application No. 504. Supported by Mrs. Hulsing. Ayes all.

Mr. Law moved that the Board of Trustees of the Charter Township of Plymouth accept the recommendation of the Planning Commission and approve the land split for Application No. 5-6, at 41560 Schoolcraft Road. Supported by Mr. West. Ayes all.

Mrs. Fidge moved that the Board of Trustees of the Charter Township of Plymouth accept the easement for this land split as submitted to be signed by the Clerk. Supported by Mr. West. Ayes all.

Mr. Breen moved that the Board of Trustees of the Charter Township of Plymouth approve the recommendation of the Engineer, Michael Bailey for the bid specifications as submitted for the fencing at the Hilltop Golf Course and Recreation Site and authorize the advertisement for bids, return date established as 11:00 a.m., October 6, 1980. (a copy of the bid specification is on file in the Clerk's Office). Supported by Mr. West. Roll Call Vote: Ayes: Lynch, West, Law, Breen, Hulsing, Notebaert. Nays: Fidge. Motion passed.

Mr. Breen moved that a Public Hearing be called for October 28, 1980 published in the paper and also the Board ask The Clerk to send notices to certain homeowners groups that are listed with the Township. Supported by Mrs. Lynch. Ayes all.

Mr. Breen moved that this item be put over until the Board has had a chance to have thorough review by the Accountants. Supported by Mrs. Fidge.

Roll Call Vote: Ayes: Hulsing, Law, Lynch, Breen, Fidge, Notebaert. Nays: West. Motion passed.

Mr. Breen moved that the Board of Trustees of the Charter Township of Plymouth adopt the Resolution as presented by the Clerk. The resolution requested the Congressman and Senators to review the procedures of HUD with a view to making them more sensitive to the needs of local communities and their unrealistic stipulation for aid. Supported by Mrs. Fidge. Roll Call Vote: Ayes: Law, Breen, West, Hulsing, Fidge, Lynch, Notebaert. Nays: None. Resolution adopted.

Mrs. Fidge moved that the Board of Trustees offer the availability of all Planning Commission Members, Board Members, Mr. Thomas Hollis and his secretary and the Building Official to attend this meeting at a cost of $12,000 per registration which includes the work book and lunch; respective members let the Clerk's office know by October 7, 1980; monies to come from EP-10 Fund Account for Storm Water Management Plan. Supported by Mr. Law. Ayes all.

Mrs. Lynch moved that the Board of Trustees table the request of the firemen for cable television at both station for 60 days.

Mrs. Fidge moved that the Supervisor check with the Building Department and also discuss with the Clerk and come back to the Board with a recommendation as to whose office should handle the preparation of complaints and warrants for prosecution in the 35th District Court. Supported by Mr. West. Ayes all.

Mr. Breen moved that the Planning Commission be requested to hold a Public Hearing for the proposed amendment excluding land splits from the provisions of Ordinance No. 47 and that the Township Attorney draft the proper amendment in time for publication of Public Hearing. Supported by Mr. West. Motion passed with Mrs. Fidge voting "no."

Mrs. Fidge moved approval of the recommendation of Thomas Hollis, water and Sewer Superintendent for a pay increase for Carl Anderson from Step 2-$6.21 per hour to Step 3 $6.44 per hour per union contract. Supported by Mr. West. Ayes all.

Mrs. Fidge moved acceptance by the Charter Township of Plymouth Board of Trustees of the Water System Controls installed by Hubbs Electric. Supported by Mr. West. Ayes all.

Mr. West moved approval of the acceptance of the Sanitary Sewer subject to the as-built plans to Mr. Bailey and letter from Mr. Bailey affirming their acceptability. Supported by Mrs. Hulsing. Roll Call Vote: Ayes: Hulsing, West, Notebaert. Nays: Law, Breen, Fidge, Lynch. Motion failed.

Mrs. Lynch moved that the assignment of the C.E.T.A. Allocation be tabled to September 23, 1980. Supported by Mrs. Fidge. Motion passed with Mr. Notebaert voting "no."

Mrs. Lynch moved that the agreement for use of C.E.T.A. Personnel on loan from Growth Works be tabled to September 23, 1980. Supported by Mrs. Fidge. Motion passed with Mr. Notebaert voting "No."

Mr. Breen moved approval of the Transfer of Funds as presented by the Clerk. Transfer from Water and Sewer Contingency 957 the following amount: to Account #838-Maintenance of Mains - $5,000.00; to Account #94 Paying Agent Fee $1,000.00; From General Fund Contingency 941 the following amounts: 265-931 Township Hall and Grounds Building Maintenance $1,000.00; 446-818 Highways and Streets-Contracted Services $4,939.44; 449-820 Township Engineer-Engineering $2,500.00; 691-921 Parks and Recreation - Electricity $500.00. Transfer $94.00 from Clerk's Account 215-977 Equipment to Accounting 201-977 Equipment. Transfer $100,000 from General Fund 067.9 to Statutory Public Improvement Fund 245 to Statutory Public Improvement Fund-Land Improvements 245.1-353. Supported by Mr. West. Ayes all.

Mrs. Fidge moved approval to adopt the resolution for Volunteer Firefighter Orville Henning as submitted by the Clerk commending both Orville and Pearl Henning for their loyalty and service for twenty years. Supported by Mrs. Lynch. Roll Call Vote: Ayes: Lynch, Fidge, West, Hulsing, Breen, Law, Notebaert. Nays: None. Resolution declared adopted.

Mrs. Lynch moved that the Board of Trustees of the Charter Township of Plymouth accept the recommendation of Mr. West for the Integrated Salary Schedule Increase for Mrs. Kathy Bigelow from Level 1-six months $10,368.00 to Level 1-1 Year $10,692.00. Supported by Mr. Law. Ayes all.

Mr. Breen moved that the Board of Trustees of the Charter Township of Plymouth designate the Supervisor in accordance with the request as the Local agent for the purpose of obtaining Financial Disaster Assistance through the Department of Housing and Urban Development for the monies expended on the damage incurred in the storm of July, 1980. Supported by Mrs. Fidge. Roll call vote: Ayes: Law, Breen, Hulsing, Fidge, West, Lynch, Notebaert. Nays: None. Resolution declared adopted.

Mrs. Lynch moved that the Board of Trustees of the Charter Township of Plymouth go into Executive Session for the purpose of discussing the report of the Negotiating Team. Supported by Mrs. Fidge. Ayes all.

The Board of Trustees of the Charter Township of Plymouth went into Executive Session at 9:46 p.m.

Supervisor Notebaert opened the public meeting at 10:08 p.m.

It was moved by Mr. Breen and supported by Mr. West that the negotiating team is empowered to accept the last offer of the firefighters. Ayes all.
