First to tie knot at Dunbar Davis Hall

BEGINNING a new life and a new tradition at the Dunbar Davis Hall of Justice last week were Karen and Iwan Mich, the first couple married in the new 35th District Court facility. The bride is the daughter of Barbara and Fred Hacker of Plymouth, and the groom is the son of Lois Mich of Waters. The couple, married by Judge James Garber at 12:30 p.m. on Friday, plan to reside in Dearborn, where Iwan is employed by Ford Motor Company. (Crier photo by Robert Cameron)

Mill St. paving project still under consideration

Mill Street in Plymouth's Old Village may yet receive a facelift in terms of a paving package that would revamp the street from North Main to Starkweather.

According to public relations director for Wayne County Road Commission Lou

No lab report yet

Plymouth Police officials said Tuesday afternoon that they have still not received the report from the Michigan State Police Crime Lab proving or disproving that the claw hammer found in Wilcox Lake was the murder weapon used in the Aug. 22 slaying of Stacey Hurrelbrink, 21, of Plymouth.

Ronald Hartwig, 32, accused killer of Hurrelbrink, has an Oct. 13 trial date before Wayne County Circuit Court Judge Michael Connors. He faces a second degree murder rap.

Hurrelbrink was found next to the Old Village Inn in Plymouth. She had died from multiple blows to the head.

Sugo the project could be completed for $107,000 instead of the original proposal that would have cost $150,000.

The city will still have to pay 60 per cent of the costs. City Manager Henry Graper Jr. says the city could complete the project for $30,000 if jurisdiction could be granted from Wayne County.

However, Graper said the city will probably accept the new proposal and go ahead with the project. He added that the city has $40,000 in community funds set aside for the revamping of two intersections, but that project is not set to get started until 1983.

Cost reductions would come from putting down an inch less of asphalt which will also reduce the life expectancy of the improvements.

"They want to do a whole lot more work than we feel is needed," said Graper.

When, and if, the city agrees to the Wayne County proposal the project could be slated to be finished by mid 1982.

Plymouth Community Fund aims for $340,000

Kickoff time is drawing near for the Plymouth Community Fund drive. Plymouth Community Fund officials have set the goal for this year's drive at $340,000. Last year's goal was pegged at $315,000 and the drive went over the top and hit $321,784.

The kickoff dinner will be at the Plymouth Hilton Inn at 7 p.m. on October 1.

That's when this year's fund drive chairman, Roger Haslick, and his co-chairman, Paul Pietila, gear up the troops for the drive which will run through October.

Committee chairmen have been selected with Claude Cornwell chairman of the business and residential portion of the drive and Daisy Proctor as co-chairman; John Behman chairman of government soliciting and Mary Brooks co-chairman; Chris Peterson chairman of industry and commerce and William Johnson, co-chairman; Carroll Nichols, chairman of education fund raising; Henry Salla, chairman of professional portion of the drive; and Daisy Proctor, chairwoman of special gifts.

Money donated through the Plymouth Community fund helps support organizations such as Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Plymouth Family Service, Red Cross, Big Brothers and Sisters, Growth Works, Michigan Cancer Foundation, Plymouth Opportunity House, Salvation Army, Plymouth Senior Citizens, Visiting Nurses Association, YMCA, YWCA, United Way of Michigan, Plymouth Dental Fund, Camp Fire Girls and Plymouth-Canton Junior Athletic Association.

While the fund drive will run through October, the final accounting won't be made until a victory dinner report on December 11.

Haggerty paving project gets Canton scrutiny

BY DICK BROWN

Canton Township trustees wrestled with Haggerty Road improvements and paving last Tuesday night without reaching a firm decision on the extent of the project.

Presented with four alternatives by the Planning Department and Finance Department, the trustees narrowed the choice to paving Haggerty from Warren to Ford or from Koppernick to Ford.

The project is designed to open up township-owned industrial property lying between Haggerty and I-275 as well as privately-owned industrial property in the area.

The township board will reach a final decision after further investigation of costs.

Labeled as too expensive were suggestions to pave Haggerty from Joy to Ford with a penetrator road and drainage improvements included, paving Haggerty from Koppernick to Ford with the penetrator and drainage included and paving Haggerty from Joy to Warren with the penetrator and drain improvements included.

Cost of Warren to Ford segment was estimated at $804,000 and the Koppernick to Ford segment was estimated at $1.5 million.

The decision to further study these alternatives passed on a 6-1 vote with Trustee Carol Bedenmiller voting against the referral.

There was lots of other road discussion centering on priorities in road improvements within the township. Mentioned as top priority by some was the paving of Warren between Canton Center and Lilley.

Trustee Robert Padget pointed out that he considered paving Haggerty an "investment," aimed at opening up the township-owned industrial property for development along with privately-owned property. He labeled paving of roads such as Warren as "spending."

The trustees did not approve another recommendation from the planning and finance department to place a paving proposal on the ballot requesting authorization to sell general obligation bonds for funding the road projects.

In place of financing the project through bonds the board is considering borrowing money from the water and sewer fund reserves to the tune of an estimated $1.4 million and financing the balance of the Haggerty project from the general fund.

Finance Director Mike Gorman estimated that by the end of 1982 he expects a general fund balance of $2 million and pointed out that there is currently a balance of $3 million in the water fund.

Padget led the debate in favor of going ahead with the Haggerty Road paving project.

"If we pave Haggerty, we can attract industry to Canton," Padget said. "The theory is that if the road is improved we can develop lands that, in the long run,

Publication snafu delays Maple street hearing

A "misunderstanding" between the City of Plymouth's Clerk's Office and the Observer and Eccentric Newspaper Plymouth office has delayed the scheduled public hearing to discuss the special assessment roll 336 for the Maple Street paving improvement project from this past Monday to Oct. 5.

Detroit woman killed in M-14 car rollover

A Detroit woman was killed Saturday morning when her car overturned on M-14, according to State Police.

Gladys Lee Thurmon, 44, of Detroit, was found in her overturned car by State Troopers at 8:50 a.m. on westbound M-14 approximately one tenth of a mile west of Beck Road.

Troopers say she apparently ran off the road and rolled the car, as there were no skidmarks on the road surface. There were no witnesses, police added. Thurmon was the only occupant of the car.

Originally scheduled to be discussed at Monday's City Commission gathering the hearing was postponed because the proper notification was not printed prior to the hearing date.

An official of the clerk's office revealed Friday that the error was "half the clerk's and half the newspaper." Scheduled to have been printed in the Sept. 10 edition of that paper the notice was "inadvertently" omitted. The official added that mix ups occur fairly infrequently when attempting to publish government minutes or hearing notices in a local newspaper.

By resolution 81-129, as accepted at the Sept. 8 City Commission meeting, the special assessment was agreed to for improvement of Maple between Hamilton and Fairground. Those improvements include new storm drainage, curb and gutter and bituminous concrete pavement.

The public hearing was to have reviewed the special assessment and entertain public comment on the project.

Plymouth Twp. planners delay Army site plan

BY KEN VOYLES

Plymouth Township Planning Commissioners voted to delay preliminary site plan approval for the proposed Salvation Army church facility along Main Street just south of Ann Arbor Road at last Wednesday's meeting.

Township Planning Consultants Jim Anulewicz and Mike Bailey, of Norman Dietrich and Associates reviewed the architectural designs for the proposed building and parking lot and came up with enough needed revisions in their report to convince the commission to table the item until the Oct. 21 meeting when tentative approval and possible final approval will be sought.

Lee Fidge called for the motion to table the application saying there were "enough loose ends at this time to wait on approval."

The motion called for several things to be accomplished in the mean time by the Army including a review a newly submitted site plan that down sizes the original proposed building, checking with Wayne County Road Commission on the driveway design, which Anulewicz called "awkward," and getting a written statement from township legal consultants concerning having a site that sits on two pieces of zoning.

The commissioners also added that the Salvation Army could go to the Zoning Board of Appeals before the next planning meeting and attempt to get a ruling on the needed size of sideyards around the proposed building. The commissioners also added that "hopefully" a pending legal suit between the Army and S & W Hardware over connecting into a township sewer could be resolved.

Anulewicz also revealed that the sideyards to the north and south of the proposed buildings were not enough to meet township requirements, which call for a 20 foot sideyard to residential property and 25 foot to office property. The Army's plan called for 13 foot sideyards.

Anulewicz's only other question of the plan came over the sweeping curve that drivers would have to negotiate to enter the facility parking lot from Main Street.

"All of these issues need to be resolved before final site plan approval," Anulewicz told the commission.

Township Engineer Bailey talked about the problem of connecting into the sanitary sewer line which currently ends behind the S&W property.

S&W has applied to the township for a proposed expansion of their facility southward over the east-west running sewer line. Bailey said the Army would be unable to hook into the sewer line as it now runs without affecting the possible expansion of S&W.

He suggested re-routing the line through an existing alley behind the store or development as "This is a critical issue," he said.

Roger Haslick, Salvation legal representative, said the Army could accept planner Anulewicz's revisions. He also produced a letter from the Road Commission concerning the future expansion of the Main-Ann Arbor Road intersection which he says will effect the Army's plans for its driveway to the facility. He added that the Army preferred to wait for the future project before revising its driveway design.

Fire Chief Roy Hall undergoes surgery

Plymouth Fire Department Chief Roy Hall was slated for a double by-pass heart operation yesterday morning.

Hall, 49, had entered St. Joseph's Hospital in Ann Arbor two weeks ago after suffering intense chest pains at a conference in Detroit.

Doctors found severe blockage but no actual damage to the heart muscle. Originally Hall was to have waited three weeks before the operation, but doctors found he was not responding to medication so the decision was made to move the date up.

Hall will be away from the department for three to five weeks after the operation. In the mean time Captain Tom Lenaghan will act as chief.

Watch '81 Fall Festival on cable TV

Relive the highlights of Fall Festival '81 this Friday on cable television.

In a special joint production, Eagle-Vision and Cable 13 will air taped highlights of the recent record-setting showcase event of The Plymouth-Canton Community.

The program will be hosted by Denny Campbell and will also feature Dan Bodene, who was editor of The Community Crier's Fall Festival edition.

"Fall Fest '81" will be aired on Cable 13 at 9:30 a.m. and 1, 7 and 8 p.m.

The taped highlights were originally planned to be shown along with live coverage of the festival on both Eagle-Vision (Cable Channel 9) and Omnicom (see on Cable Channel 8) but confusion over permission to set up joint production by those two stations at the fest was not resolved in time to have technical crews install equipment prior to the fest.

Footage of the 1981 festival will also be supplied by the Earl Merriman Insurance Agency which has worked in cooperation with Eagle-Vision on other projects.

Omnicom cable TV plans to air its 1981 Fall Festival video soon but as of presstime had not yet selected a firm date.

Boosters bag for athletics

Plymouth-Canton Community residents will have a chance to show their support for the athletes and athletic booster clubs at Salem and Canton High Schools Sept. 30, at the Great Scott store at Ann Arbor and Sheldon Roads.

On that day five per cent of Great Scott's gross sales will be donated to the booster clubs. The store will be open from 8 a.m. to 11 p.m. and decorated in red and blue. Athletes from all the sports teams at Salem and Canton will be on hand to help shoppers transport groceries.

There will also be a drawing for a color TV set and a raffle for other gifts throughout the day long event. Raffle tickets will cost 50 cents.

Patrick Houle, president of the booster clubs (Red and Blue Chapters) said Friday that this is the second year for the event. Money raised through the five per cent donation will go to the various sports at the two high schools for "items not made available through the regular athletic budget."

The athletes will also be selling a hot dog and a coke from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. for 49 cents.

"We want to get this built up to a community affair. If that happens we think it will be a great way to raise money to support the high school athletes," said

Houle. "Great Scott has to make money on this to have us back so we need community support."

"Come Shopping With Us" day is just one of three ways the Red and Blue Booster Clubs raise money to support the athletic teams. The other two ways are through a published program for home games and by selling "Faithful Fan" memberships to interested residents.

Last year the two clubs gave over $2,000 each to Canton and Salem sports teams.

Verdict returned in aggravated assault case

A jury returned a guilty verdict Thursday night for an employee of the Plymouth Center for Human Development who had been charged with aggravated assault against the Center's personnel director last February.

Found guilty was Victor King Malone of Southfield.

According to testimony in the trial before 35th District Court Judge James Garber, Malone struck and kicked personnel director Jan F. Miller on Feb. 5 following his being told he was being laid off.

Malone awaits sentencing by Garber.

2 more depots added in Plymouth used oil recycling project

The City of Plymouth's used oil recycling program has been such a success that two more drop-off centers have been added.

In addition to existing disposal depots at Doug's Standard, 789 Ann Arbor Trail and Denver's Gulf at 307 Starkweather, residents can transport their oil in a clean container to Fishaw and Sons Service Center at 210 W. Ann Arbor Rd., and B and F Auto Supply at 1100 Starkweather in Old Village.

All drop-off centers are identified by a bright yellow sign in the window reading "Recycle Used Oil Here." Owners or managers of the collection sites have agreed to accept waste oil as part of a community service in cooperation with the city's oil recycling program.

Community provides for own needs

One of the most outstanding differences of The Plymouth-Canton Community is that we take care of our own needs.

Evidence of these efforts can be dramatically seen during the previous and coming months when several new community facilities have begun, or will begin service. Welcome please:

THE CONSOLIDATED 35th DISTRICT COURT which is already in operation serving the cities of Plymouth and Northville and the townships of Canton, Plymouth and Northville at Plymouth Road near Haggerty.

OAKWOOD HOSPITAL'S CENTER FOR EMERGENCY and outpatient services opening soon at Warren and Canton Center roads in Canton. This center will become the 24-hour emergency room for virtually all Plymouth-Canton needs.

TONQUISH CREEK MANOR'S ADDITION for senior citizen housing is already open with a formal dedication Sept. 27 at 2 p.m.

LOWELL JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL, rented from the Livonia School District by Plymouth-Canton Schools, has begun serving students this new school year.

PLYMOUTH TOWNSHIP'S DPW department headquarters and the second nine holes of the Hilltop Golf Course are just opened and formally dedicated.

Other developments, like Plymouth Township's senior citizen center on Schoolcraft, are in the works and there've been additional recent openings, like Canton's DPW department building.

All in all, the coincidental openings of several community service locations in Plymouth-Canton make us proud that we take care of ourselves so well.

Canton needs violations bureau

Second thoughts are often more productive than first thoughts.

Canton Township trustees should rethink their action of a few weeks ago in turning down a plan submitted by the 35th District Court for Canton to set up its own violations bureau as have the other local municipalities in the new unified court organization.

Canton officials, in making their decision not to have its own violations bureau, based their rejection on added costs, lack of personnel and possible hassles which might come from irate violators unhappy with having to settle up.

On the other hand, one of the reasons for government is to provide service and convenience. There is certainly no convenience and very little service in having Canton residents make a round trip of four to 12 miles to pay a traffic ticket.

Obviously there is a cost factor, but weighed against the inconvenience, it is minor and the cost to Canton residents of driving 12 miles to settle a traffic ticket is no small item.

In addition, by having its own violations bureau, fines collected by Canton would be immediately available to the township instead of waiting until the end of the month for the district court to pass through money due Canton from the fines.

Canton officials are concerned over the inconvenience caused by lack of a postoffice for 50,000 people. They ought to be just as concerned over the inconvenience caused by lack of a local violations bureau.

THE COMMUNITY CRIER

Those who stayed home should be counted

The quarter of a million people who marched on Washington Saturday espousing various causes and protesting federal budget cuts was a goodly crowd—a fact undoubtedly noticed by members of congress.

However, in assessing the parading, the fiery speeches, the placards and the slogans, senators and representatives also might consider these amateur observations regarding the people who weren't there.

Traveling up I-75 Saturday morning there were a goodly number of cars, campers and travel trailers, some of which carried bumper stickers proclaiming union solidarity, headed for favorite fishing spots, northern Michigan small game hunting and just plain week end fun.

Add to that the millions of people, some of them with union membership cards, some of them ERA supporters and some of them environmentalists, who packed the nation's college football stadiums yelling "Go team" slogans instead of anti-budget cut phrases.

Coloring It Brown

By Dick Brown

Then throw in the millions of people who spent Saturday putting up storm windows, mowing the lawn, washing the family bus or getting in a Saturday afternoon nap.

There were also the long lines of people in front of me at a local supermarket, the millions of store clerks, bank tellers, bank presidents, police, firemen, gas station attendants and other Americans who stayed away from Washington's big march and stayed on the job.

Crowd numbers at marches of protest can be impressive, but officials who are the targets of such marches and demonstrations, whether they be in Washington, Lansing, at the city-county building in Detroit, Hart Plaza, the Plymouth-Canton School board offices, Plymouth City Hall or Canton or Plymouth Township halls, don't tell the whole story.

If the estimate of 260,000 in Saturday's Washington crowd is correct, it falls far short of the estimated 289 million people in the United States, a fact that the targets of Saturday's march ought to also take into consideration.

It's also a sure bet that a great number of those attending Washington's big march, returned home early Sunday. Most of them were ahead of me in the chow line at the Randy Williams Memorial Golf Tournament.

Carrier responds to letter

Editor

I am writing to you about the article in Sept. 16, 1981's edition entitled "Carriers Mother protests Fall Festival edition size"

As a Crier Carrier I feel that this parents complaints are unjustified. I did not feel that I was being treated unfairly or disrespectfully.

In the 7 years that I have lived in Plymouth I have delivered all 4 local papers News, Free Press Observer and the Crier. Out of all 4 I can honestly say that the Crier is most profitable of all. In my opinion the Crier is a very fine organization to work for that cares about the welfare of its carriers. I am proud to be a Crier Carrier

Sincerely
Steve Broderick
Crier Carrier

THIS CRIER CARRIER appreciated the big Fall Festival edition. Steve Broderick, who comes from a family of newspaper carriers, took exception to a complaint about the size of the Fall Fest edition in last week's paper and put it on paper with his own letter to the left.

Carrier's mother demonstrates symptom of national disease

EDITOR:

It would be humorous if it wasn't so pathetic and so indicative of the sickness pervading America today.

I am referring to the letter to the editor in last week's Crier from the over-protective mamma who was concerned about the number of pages her news carrier daughter had to deliver. She wasn't concerned so much with the heft of the Fall Festival edition as she was of the compensation.

There are hundreds of kids who would love to have a newspaper delivery job, but unfortunately there are not as many as there used to be because such parents as this letter writer have destroyed their own work ethic with such reasoning as used in this particular case.

"What's in it for me" is the caterwauling shriek of modern America and the philosophy which is destroying American production.

And it won't be anything but worse when youngsters of today unleash their philosophies on work learned from such over-protective parents.

BILL JANGLER

Farm preservation needs explaining

EDITOR:

The Canton Board of Trustees voted unanimously last week to place the $5-$7 million farm preservation bond issue on the November ballot. However, the ballot will not advise us voters and taxpayers as to what we will be assessed by the board to pay for the bonds—the bond attorney says that is not permitted.

So, once again, this is to be a "once and for all" vote—just like the one we rejected in 1978.

It is hoped that the board will present us with a resolution either supporting the bond issue or rejecting it. I know that as a subdivision voter on the east side of Canton Center Road, I would like to know how they would vote as individuals.

We subdivision folks east of Canton Center Road only have so much of our hard-earned dollars to spend in township taxes. I guess it becomes a question of priorities.

Do we want those monies to go to a few farmers (about three), some land developers, and lots and lots of people who own a few acres "outback," or would we rather see some parks and recreational facilities we don't have to support directly through mandatory subdivision assessments, better police and fire protection, a sewer system that doesn't tend to back up during those 100-year rains we have in Canton about twice a year, trees for the front of homes, etc., etc. . . . and above all, enough millage to develop and maintain a school system that will give our children every chance we can provide to compete in our society . . . and at the same time increase the value of our property—our home—on the east side of Canton Center

Road?

Who can be against farm preservation? It's on the same plane in America as motherhood and apple pie—but let's take a hard look at tax priorities and help the board decide, once and for all, on where we want to place our tax dollars.

Vote your preference—one way or the other—on Tuesday, Nov. 3. If you don't vote, don't complain for the next 20 years because the $5-$7 million is only the beginning. It was $16 million just three years ago for the same 5,000 acres, but apparently the cost of preserving farm land is declining in spite of high interest rates and inflation. Truly amazing!

Warren Rd. deserves priority attention

EDITOR:

Regarding your front page article this week on "Canton Board Studies Haggerty Road Funding."

More time and energy should be spent by the board to get Warren Road paved. This is a much more used and traveled road that is in constant disrepair.

State business climate must change

Michigan has become a very expensive state in which to do business, or so it would seem. Plymouth is feeling the effects of that, be it really true or not.

First, Burroughs is planning a consolidation by shutting down its Wayne plant and moving operations to Plymouth with fairly solid assurances that the Plymouth plant will stay in operation for 10 years before being phased out. Now Dunn Steel is planning to leave the community.

According to Matt Case, General Supervisor at Dunn, no decision as of yet

Basically by Ken Voyles

has been made on the move. He said that negotiations are currently being carried out between the company and UAW union representing the majority of the 110-115 employes of the plant.

Case said Monday that the plan to among other things, is really hampering the industry, he added.

Dunn steel produces ball studs used in the steering mechanisms for cars and trucks and has been in Plymouth since the 1950s.

"Obviously this is a concern for us," said Plymouth City Manager Henry Graper Jr., "but apparently they have made all the decisions already."

"We think it's unfortunate that they didn't come to us and at least see if there was something we could possibly do to keep them here," Graper continued.

move to Spencer, Tennessee is still "just a plan." He would not comment on employe reaction since discussions are still in the works.

"The reason we are planning this move is the cost of doing business in Michigan," said Case. The cost of labor,

Parents weren't prepared for school board actions

EDITOR:

This letter is to publicly admit to the foolish appearance we, as parents, made at the most recent School Board meeting on Sept. 14, regarding the Safety Busing issue.

We were prepared to deal with professional, caring people, interested in facts, and willing listeners. How wrong we were!

We were not prepared to deal with deceit, lies, edited minutes of public meetings and expert manipulation. The School Board openly refused to sit down and hear our pleas at an informal meeting.

Only would they hear us under their strictly enforced rules in which we are entitled to only five minutes in which to speak. However, they are not timed when they criticize and reprimand us.

The School Board chose to use only the safety studies which are favorable to their decision. No safety studies have been done of the wooded walkways at Field and Eriksson by professionals such as the police.

Canton Police Chief Jerry Cox publicly stated at the Canton Township Board meeting Sept. 1 that busing should be reinstated until the condition is safe, and primarily, the walkway is of valid concern.

The School Board chose to use only AAA traffic study, which Board Members Flossie Tonda pointed out could be questionable.

The School Board keeps saying they are being "fair and equal" across the district. How can they even use that statement when there are no other schools in this district with the combined hazardous conditions of elementary-age children crossing a 45 mph road and walking a half mile wooded walkway?

The School Board, also, only did the AAA study after taking the buses away when parents asked what they were basing their decisions on.

Our School Board holds in its hands a dangerous power when they would not even consider reinstating busing of kindergarten children only one way, at the suggestion of Board Member Elaine Kirchgatter.

Maybe our numbers attending these meetings are not impressive enough to the board, but many of us have responsibilities to jobs and have to pay babysitters in order to attend these meetings.

We are not paid $30 a meeting to plead for the lives of our children who are defenseless against an administration such as ours.

Junior baseball needs help

EDITOR:

This is an open letter to parents whose children have been involved in the Plymouth-Canton Junior Baseball League (PCJBL).

For the past two years, our children have been playing with inadequate equipment and some teams, lack of proper uniforms. Some children had to purchase their own uniforms because the league did not have the proper sizes. (These were not kids who were overweight, too tall or too small.) These were the average kids in the age group.

If you think back, how many tournaments have been held in the Plymouth-Canton community in the past few years? I can tell you—none. The reason is that the fields are in poor condition.

When there is a balance of $18,220.86 left over, I think it is about time we let the people who are running the program know that we want this money to be utilized.

There is an election of officers on October 14 at 7:30 p.m. at Canton High School. I urge all concerned to be there and voice your opinion.

With Malice Toward None

By W. EDWARD WENDOVER

Long-time friend (usually) Ken Vogras finally has a fitting tribute commissioned in his honor.

Ken - you'll probably recognize the name of the City of Plymouth DPW chief - has had his moniker lent to the new 12-hole portable potty which was unveiled at the recent Fall Festival in recognition for his efforts in leading the portable potty movement.

It's certainly long overdue that such a facility be available in The Plymouth-Canton Community and that Ken be memorialized (even though it might go to his head).

Not to let Ken stand alone on all the puns that can find a place in such a facility, The Community Crier, by the way, has offered to supply a free copy for each individual restroom of the facility any time it's in use.

And to pass the matter further up at City Hall, we also propose the city sell 12 memorial plaques to be installed in each unit to raise funds to cover the project cost. Short of that, how about moving the retiring mayors' photo gallery out into the community instead of keeping it on the walls of the commission chambers?

For those of you who missed the first opportunity to sit and ponder the merits of the new city service, we'll try to keep you informed on the next stop for the Ken Vogras Memorial Traveling Restroom.

Merchant makes a friend

EDITOR:

While showing some friends from Florida around Old Village late this summer, we stopped in the corner candy shop, Sweet and Treat, to treat them to an ice cream cone; which, incidentally, are well worth going out of your way for—the best ice cream in town!

After making our purchase we headed for the car. My young nephew had an accident and dropped his. I went back into the store and ordered another. The owner asked me if I had forgotten someone, to which I replied, "No, Danny dropped his."

At this point the gentleman made up a nice big chocolate cone and handed it to him, saying, "This one is on me. Enjoy!"

This gesture was beautiful. Isn't it great to renew faith in people and see these nice things happen?

This, I believe, will always remain in Danny's memory as well as mine.

I just wanted to pass on one of the nice things in life. I am glad to be living in Plymouth.

Fall Fest issue praised

EDITOR:

Congratulations for a great Fall Festival issue of the newspaper.

Contrary to Question No. 3 of your "Train Chronicles" column, I did peruse every page of the edition. And I suspect most people in Plymouth did also. I thought the copy was great and the advertisements were very imaginative.

Best wishes for continued success.

For emergency preparedness

Plymouth Township studies plan

BY KEN VOYLES

Emergency preparedness planning is something the Plymouth Township Board of Trustees doesn't want to be forced to consider when an emergency situation presents itself.

The board would prefer to be on top of the situation, in case an emergency does occur, with an organized preparedness program by the beginning of next year's tornado season in April. That program was discussed at a special workshop meeting of the trustees last week.

The township currently has an Office of Emergency Preparedness headed by Fire Chief Larry Groth. Recently he appointed Sgt. Frederick Honke and Township Firefighter Chuck VanVleck as deputies in the program. The three have been putting together a complete program for the newly created office.

The purpose of their task is to set up procedures that will establish an early warning system, and shelters for citizens in the township, to coordinate the efforts with other communities and agencies, to train and recruit emergency preparedness volunteers and to establish and inspect severe weather drills with community schools, industry and private sectors of the township, said Groth in a Sept. 11 letter to the trustees.

At last week's meeting VanVleck presented a budget for the preparedness program to the trustees. Included in the package were the purchase of four warning sirens, two generators for the township's two fire stations, radio equipment, and the setting up of a command center.

Currently there are two sirens in the township to warn residents of impending tornados, other natural disasters or in event of war. The cost of four additional sirens would be $40,000 when installed. Two generators to give the stations power in case of downed electrical lines would cost $11,000 each, said VanVleck Friday.

The radio equipment, six hand held UHF 2 channel units, not be affected by severe weather, would cost $4,800, while compensation for officers engaged in emergency preparedness pre-planning would run $1,000.

In addition setting up a command center, possibly at the Senior Citizen Center on Five Mile Road, would cost $700. The total budget, not including generators, was estimated at $47,500.

"We have to work together if the township gets devastated," said Van-

Vleck at the meeting. "We need the program so we can be ready and so that we can work together with the city (Plymouth), their police, the Area REACT team, and the fire departments." VanVleck is commander of the local REACT unit.

Township Treasurer Joseph West moved that the board accept the preparedness budget as long as it is worked into the 1982 budget. He was supported by Trustee Gerald Law. The board backed the motion unanimously.

"We are starting at the bottom in this program. There is nothing to start from," said VanVleck.

Township Supervisor Maurice Breen noted that there is an "ancient" ordinance on the township books concerning "civil defense." He added, and the board agreed, that the township attorney will look into drafting an up-to-date ordinance for emergency preparedness.

"One thing we are lacking that I consider a priority item are those generators for our fire stations," said Breen.

The township now has a small generator that could be used at its Fire Station 1, next to Township Hall on Ann Arbor Road, but VanVleck said that would not be enough in time of power outages.

"I have trouble selling something 'it would be nice to have,' not something we desperately need," said VanVleck.

•FREE Consultation •FREE Examination

And Any Necessary Procedure At No Charge

A Special Offer . . . . For One Week Only

Aren't you tired of going from doctor to doctor looking for relief, trying to find someone or something to ease your pain and suffering? Have you been told your pain is just in your head and caused by your nerves (but you know it's real)? Why not try chiropractic care.

Chiropractic is the natural health science. Chiropractors realize that when your body suffers from aches, pains and discomforts these symptoms are actually warning signals of your declining health and not the central underlying problem. Chiropractors are "cause doctors" and seek to locate and correct the cause of your health problems and thereby eliminate your symptoms.

This one week only offer gives you the unique opportunity to find out if your health problem is due to a pinched nerve.

Why be sick when you can be well.

This birthday is a benefit (or, Hilton helps Hope)

BY KEN VOYLES

The Plymouth Hilton will kick off its 6th anniversary celebration Oct. 4 with an all day festival that should provide entertainment for just about everyone of all ages.

There will be music of all types, booths, rides for kids, sports cars, antique cars, a raffle drawing, all on a continuous basis from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. that Sunday. A benefit concert Sunday night in the Hilton Ballroom with the Dittilies, a local band that plays a variety of 50s, 60s and 70s music and performs comedy skits, will climax the "Hilton Entertainment Festival 81."

"Our interest and hope is that this festival event will bind us closer to the community besides benefiting the City of Hope," said Hilton General Manager John Dithmer at a press conference Thursday afternoon. "One of our priorities when we opened up in 1975 was to establish a rewarding relationship with our community."

The beneficiary of the work put in by over 30 staff members of the Hilton and others in planning the one day event, will be the City of Hope National Medical Center in Los Angeles.

The outdoor festival will be free of charge but donations will be welcome. Donation canisters will be available and balloons will be sold for a small donation.

The Dittilies concert that night will cost $5 per person and will start at 9 p.m. in the ballroom. Dithmer said the Hilton hopes to sell 750 tickets to keep the audience at "a comfortable" level. The ballroom seats over 1,000. There will also be a cash bar during the performance.

Money raised from the concert and other donations will be given to the medical center. The facility, begun in 1913, is a "hospital of hospitals" catering to research in all the crippling diseases and helping the sick free of charge. Almost all of the $67 million budget for the hospital is raised through donations and grants from the federal government.

Sunday's outside events will take place in the south parking lot of the Hilton. Parking will be available at the Hilton's lot across the street. Music will kick off at noon with Interiors. Other bands already lined up for the show include, Q.T. Hush, the Plymouth Community Chorus, Salem Witchcraft, Destination Love, Lenore Paxton, Magic, Martini and Mis Behavin. A pair of ethnic bands, Caledonia and Strolling, will also be on hand to increase the variety of music offered during the day.

The City of Plymouth has donated its bandshell, said Mike Haggerty of the Hilton staff, for use by the bands. The city's new double decker bus will be available to shuttle spectators to and from the event.

Other features will include over 25 arts and crafts booths, at least 50 sports and classic cars of all types, a ferris wheel and moon walk for kids, pony rides, and the Hilton Clown team.

Hilton staffers and members of the Central Michigan University Hospitality Club will be on hand to manage the event, help with parking, clean up and provide information for spectators.

"We looked at the obvious charities first, but when we turned to City of Hope we found a very helpful person in Lorriane Schubiner," said Dithmer. Schubiner was at the conference to represent the medical center.

"She was so very helpful in our planning and organizing. This festival gives us a chance to let people know what City of Hope is and that it's available."

"For the first time we have been sought," said Schubiner. "In my 29 years of being a volunteer it has been my experience that as a charity we have always had to seek a donor. Not this time."

Many of the Hilton staff are donating their wages from working that Sunday to the medical center, said Dithmer.

Also on hand will be local dignitaries, Plymouth Mayor Mary Childs and Plymouth City Manager Henry Graper Jr. along with 35th District Court Judge Dunbar Davis and U.S. Congressman Carl Pursell.

Haggerty added that the Hilton has been in touch with the Kronk Boxing team in an attempt to get Thomas Hearn to attend. The Hilton is also considering having WSDP 88.1 FM broadcast the band concerts.

It's time for Fall...already

The fall season is upon us and it seems like only yesterday I was suffering from spring fever. Everyone is asking the same question, "where did summer go?"

It is hard to believe the four seasons are equally divided into three months each. By the time February rolls around it feels like we have endured six months of winter. As a kid I can remember enjoying each season to its fullest, but somehow the idea of driving in snow and walking in slush doesn't appeal to me anymore.

One reason summer goes by quickly is because we have a more relaxed style of living. Routines are altered and for the most part nobody really cares if dinner is an hour late, and consists of hot dogs or hamburgers cooked on the grill. We all tend to enjoy being outside in nice weather and have more of a chance to see neighbors and friends.

Autumn is also a special time of year, in fact it is one of my favorite seasons. I love to go for a walk and feel the crunch of leaves under my feet, or go for a drive in the country, or better yet take a trip up north when all the leaves are turning color. Fall reminds me of apples. I can almost smell mom's apple pies baking in the oven (too bad she never taught me how to make a decent pie crust). It is also the time of year to visit the cider mill for homemade doughnuts and cider.

Fall means the beginning of another school year, and time to get back to some sort of schedule. No more late dinners and bed times, since everyone has to get up and going in the morning. But it is nice to get back to an organized routine after a relaxing summer.

Since football is one of my favorite sports, I love spending a beautiful afternoon surrounded by fans, cheering our team on to victory.

Then there is the warmth and cozy feeling you get from the first fire in the fireplace. Sitting there watching the flames, you can almost picture big white snowflakes falling outside the window. But let's not think about snow yet, now is the time to enjoy autumn and Indian summer.

Bad check team sought by police

Police agencies and area businesses are on the lookout for a slick bad check writing team which have been working the western Wayne county area.

Ernie Latter of Pilgrim Stamp and Coin in Plymouth ended up holding a bogus Ann Arbor Bank & Trust cashier's check for $9,360 in return for selling the check passers 22 ounces of gold.

Police suspect the same people of bilking a woman out of another big take at a Plymouth Restaurant and the same operation is suspected of scoring at three Bloomfield Hills area coin and stamp businesses.

Latter related how a big limosine pulled up to his shop on Ann Arbor Trail with a man and a woman as passengers. They came inside and bought the gold and paid with the cashier's check.

"When the check bounced," Latter said, "The Plymouth police were notified but didn't seem too interested."

Michigan State Police are investigating.

Neighborhood watch meeting scheduled

The organizational meeting for the new Mobile Patrol group called Plymouth Area Citizens Team (PACT), forming to provide a neighborhood watch service to assist in curbing crime in Plymouth and Plymouth Township has been set for Tuesday night, Sept. 29.

The meeting will be in the Plymouth city commission chambers on the second floor of city hall starting at 7:30 p.m.

The project is a joint effort by the Plymouth REACT organization and Plymouth police department.

Haggerty paving studied the township can sell and get the money back," he added.

Padget was supported by Trustee Steve Larson who argued that the township board had the responsibility to develop the potential for new businesses and jobs in Canton.

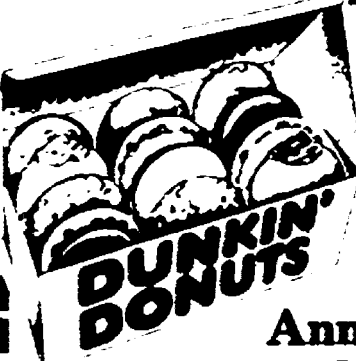

The township owns 126 acres along Haggerty between Joy and Ford and west of I-275. Including privately-owned land in the industrial zoning area adjacent to Haggerty the full Haggerty road improvement project would open up 700 acres.

Trustee Carol Bodenmiller argued against the project.

"Right now, it scares me to death," she said, "that we're talking about borrowing money from the water fund on the gamble that industry is going to come to Canton."

Supervisor Jim Poole also expressed reservations, pointing out that investing is sometimes more costly than spending. He also said he didn't like the idea of borrowing from township funds for the project.

Canton planners offer farmland information

Why is it important to preserve Canton Township farmland?

That's the question Canton voters will be asking over the next six weeks as they consider the proposal they will face when they go to the voting booth on Nov. 3 to decide the Farmland Preservation issue.

After months of study by a special committee and many hours of deliberation by the township board, Canton trustees have called for an election that will ask for bonding authority to finance the township's purchase of development rights to farm acreage west of Canton Center Road.

The proposal, if passed would allow bonding up to $7 million to secure the development rights.

Over the next six weeks the Canton Township Planning Department will be offering its assessment of the need for preserving farmland.

According to the planning department staff, retention of farmland has become an issue of increasing local concern, as well as a concern of national and international importance.

Kathy Martin of the planning staff maintains that farmland is responsible for producing more than food for people. She points out that the agricultural industry produces animal feed, fibre and oilseed crops. In addition farmland provides aesthetic value and maintains the tradition of a rural way of life.

Her report cites that farmland, once considered a limitless commodity, is now viewed as a valuable non-renewable resource.

Martin points out that as a result of lessened agricultural acreage, this country is beginning to face the economic consequences. Domestic food prices will increase as total food supplies become more limited. Adding to the food price factor is the increased transportation cost of getting the food to urban centers from more distant farm centers.

She goes on to say that farming is big business in Michigan—the state's second largest industry.

Losses in farmland have a large impact on the state's economy through loss of jobs.

Martin added that there are costs to taxpayers when agricultural land is turned into developed land. Water and sewer services must be extended to new developments, roads need to be upgraded and maintained to handle increased traffic. Additional community services are required. The bottom line is, according to Martin, that property tax assessments are then increased to pay for these services.

Plymouth Community Y Indian-A-Rama set

The Plymouth Community Family Y parent-child programs will start off the new season on Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 22-23, with Indian-A-Rama. On Sept. 23 the program will be presented at Allen Elementary School gym, 11100 Haggerty Road, Plymouth.

The YMCA Indian program is a parent-child activity. It provides a fun framework for the parent to devote a modest amount of time with his or her child doing such things as tribal meetings, crafts, games, studying Indian lore, campouts, horseback riding, parades, skating parties and other activities.

The program offers Indian Guides for fathers and sons 5-9, Indian Princesses for fathers and daughters 5-9, Indian Maidens for mothers and daughters 5-9, Indian Braves for mothers and sons, 5-9, Trailblazers for fathers and sons nine years and older, Trailmates for fathers and daughters nine years and older and Trailettes for mothers and daughters nine years and older.

Girl Scouts seek adult leaders

Girl Scouts need you. That's the message from the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council, who are now in the last week of their 1981 adult recruitment drive.

Girl Scouts in the Huron Valley Council are looking for program specialists to work with scout troops and volunteers on a limited basis during the year. According to Barbara Radabaugh of the Council, "Work skills, hobbies and special interests can be shared with girls ages six through 17 who are exploring the worlds of technology, the arts, well-being, people and the out-of-doors."

Numerous positions are open for adult volunteers, including volunteer manager, who recruits girls and leaders; troop committee members, who help leaders with troop planning and preparations; troop and assistant troop leaders, who work with scouts on a regular basis; media reps, who serve as promotion and mass media liaison between the Council and communities; and encampment and conference directors.

In addition, training for various positions is offered free, and continuing education units through Washtenaw Community College may be earned for participation in structured learning experiences.

Men and women of all ages who are interested in volunteering are urged to contact the Huron Valley Council at 483-2370 by Sept. 26.

NO IT'S NOT A STAMPEDE, it's the start of a cross country race. On Thursday four teams, Salem-Trenton and Canton-Walled Lake Western invaded the Cass Benton course along Edward Hines Drive for two separate dual meet races. The four teams, however, started the race together in one grand start before rain started falling in a massive wave forcing runners to cover the course under threatening skies. Both Salem and Canton lost their dual meets that day. (Crier photo by Robert Cameron)

Rock x-country team 13th at SC, Chiefs fail to run

Salem High's cross country squad had its worst finish at the Schoolcraft Invitational Cross Country meet Saturday since coach Scott Dunson has headed the team.

"I can't say we were disappointed at Schoolcraft. The course was 5,000 meters, which is longer than three miles by 180 yards and our times weren't too bad considering that," said Dunson.

The Rocks were 13th out of 21 teams involved in the competition. Salem's girls squad finished sixth in the girls event.

The Rocks best finish in the boys race was Frank Brosnan's 25th place. He clocked 17:22 for the course.

Brad Hartell was 50th for Salem, 17:52, while Skip Whittaker was next at 18:33, McBride at 18:51, and Paul Mills at 19:02.

Ruth Sample paced Salem's girls with an eighth place finish and a time of 20:32. Last year she finished third in the running.

Jim Hayes' Canton cross country team did not run in the event this year due to lack of runner interest, according to Hayes. Last year Canton was second overall in the competition.

In dual meet action on Thursday, the Rocks fell to Suburban Eight League foe Trenton, 18-44.

Brosnan was third in the race with a time of 16:54, while Whittaker was seventh at 17:37. Hartell was ninth for Salem, 17:45, Mills was 12th, 18:23, and Jim Zoltowski was 14th, 19 minutes.

On Thursday the Chiefs fell to league foe Walled Lake Western, 15-48.

Dan Henry was Canton's best finish in seventh with an effort of 18:08. Tim Collins was eighth, 18:13, Tom Pasley was 10th, 18:34, Todd Gattoni was 11th, 18:43, and Brian Lee was 12th, 18:52.

Salem, Canton and Livonia Stevenosn battled each other last Tuesday in a double dual cross country meet.

Salem split, beating Canton and losing to Stevenson while the Chiefs fell to both Salem and Stevenson.

Brosnan was the highest finisher for either Salem or Canton in second place with a time of 17:08. Hartell was third, 17:19, while Henry from Canton was sixth, 17:46.

Whittaker took seventh spot for the Rocks with a time of 17:47, while Mills was ninth, 18:04. Collins was 11th for Canton, 18:22, and Lee was 13th, 18:34.

McBride finished 15th for the Rocks, while Gattoni was 18th for the Chiefs and Chris Alboth was 19th.

The Rocks will face Dearborn Edsel Ford tomorrow at Edsel Ford. Meet time is 4 p.m.

The Chiefs will travel to Walled Lake Central tomorrow for a league meet. Start time is 4 p.m.

Fall Run this weekend

Registration is also being held at Armbruster Bootery, 290 S. Main, in Plymouth. Call 453-2904 for further details.

Race time is 10 a.m. for the one mile fun event, and 10:30 a.m. for both the three and five mile races.

Rock golfers win

Salem golf coach Bob Waters picked up his 100th win as a coach Monday night when his squad bested Suburban Eight League foe Livonia Bentley.

Last week the Rocks fell to conference foe Trenton on Thursday, 204-216, and also lost to non-league opponent North Farmington, 228-231.

Nunzio Marino was low shooter for Salem in the Trenton match with a 40, while Pete Mitroff was low against North Farmington when he carded 44.

Chiefs rebound for 2 cage wins

Canton rebounded for a pair of wins last week after splitting two games in its first week of girls basketball action for 1981.

The Chiefs bested Westland John Glenn, 59-50, on Thursday and knocked off Redford Thurston, 56-50, last Tuesday to up their record to 3-1.

Against Glenn, the Chiefs scored 17 points in the first quarter to Glenn's 10. Both squads then tallied 12 points in the second stanza.

Glenn closed the gap in the third quarter when it scored 14 points to Canton's 11, but the Chiefs rallied in the final quarter and collected 19 points as compared with Glenn's 14 to win.

Robyn Hudgins paced Canton's offense with 16 points, while Reggie Ruggiero scored 14 and Pearly Cunningham had 12.

"Glenn was smaller but quicker than we had anticipated," said Canton coach Mike McCauley. "We had two good quarters of defense. I think the difference was they turned over the ball too many times and we dominated the boards."

On Tuesday, the Chiefs scored 11, 16, 14 and 15 points in four quarters, while Thurston had 12, 17, eight and 13.

Cunningham sank 10 of 10 field goal attempts for 20 points, while Sue Gerke had 10 points and Ruggiero six.

"We had good rebounding in that Thurston game, but our defensive effort could have been better," said McCauley. "We shot over 50 per cent in both games last week."

The Chiefs were 24 of 49 against Glenn and 29 of 50 against Thurston.

Canton is now 3-1. The Chiefs take on Livonia Stevenson tomorrow at Stevenson. Varsity game time is 8 p.m.

Chief netters postponed

Canton High's girls tennis match slated for Monday was postponed while the squad's match scheduled for last Wednesday was called off due to rain.

The Chiefs take to the courts again today when they face Farmington Harrison at home. Match time is 4 p.m.

BEST FOOT FORWARD FOOT GADGETS

The only truly effective products for use on the feet are those that have been tested and proven in laboratories, in clinics, and in doctors' offices. The U.S. Food and Drug Administration requires that participating researchers in podiatric investigations be bona fide to conduct such research. Most of the really worthwhile foot-health products on the market today were developed by podiatrists.

Every person who suffers from a foot ailment must decide whether he will call on a professional or whether he will shop around for a gadget that may or may not be effective to use on himself.

Chief football offense sparks 21-0 win

The offense finally came alive for Canton Friday afternoon as the squad toppled Dearborn Heights Annapolis, 21-0 in a non-league football clash.

It was the Chiefs first win in nine games. They had lost the last eight game last year and fell two weeks ago to Livonia Bentley.

"The difference in this game is we put the ball in the endzone when we had the chance. When we got inside their 20-yard line we didn't mistake ourselves out of the scoring chances," said Canton coach Richard Barr. "This was also a good defensive effort for Canton."

Chief quarterback Chris Suscock opened the scoring at the 5:36 mark of the second quarter when he ran into the endzone from four yards out. A pass from Suscock to David Simms set up the touchdown which capped an extended drive.

Canton scored again at the 5:11 mark of the third quarter when halfback Chuck Davis ran into the endzone from five yards out. The effort capped another extended Chief drive.

The Chiefs final points came with 1:56 left in the third quarter when Simms scampered 48 yards into the endzone. Dennis O'Flynn kicked all three extra points and Canton led 21-0.

Annapolis threatened only once in the game, according to coach Barr, and that was stopped when an Annapolis player fumbled inside Canton's 20-yard line.

Annapolis lost the ball on turnovers three times, while the Chiefs executed two turnovers.

Suscock completed three of four passes for 18 yards, while Simms carried the football 11 times for 137 yards. Davis added 11 carries and 43 yards for the Chiefs.

"We had a good offensive effort. Our ground game is coming along. At least we moved the football and didn't make many penalties or turnovers," said Barr. "The kids needed this win and the coaches needed this one."

Friday the Chiefs will travel to Livonia Stevenson for another non-league game. Game time is 7:30 p.m. "Stevenson should be a very good game. They are a lot better than their 0-2 record. I look for a real tough game. I think we can beat them after the win we had over Annapolis."

Canton is now 1-1 for 1981.

Salem netters win

Salem netters kept their win streak alive with a 7-0 dumping of Suburban Eight League opponent Allen Park Monday night.

The Rocks' match against Dearborn Edsel Ford slated for last Wednesday was rained out. Salem is now 4-0 on the season.

The Rocks face Dearborn at home today. Match time is 4 p.m.

Salem falls to Trenton in grid clash

BY KEN VOYLES

Salem High's football squad put up a vicious fight Friday night in its Suburban Eight League opener against powerhouse Trenton but fell short, 14-3.

Highly rated Trenton scored at the end of the first half and in the early minutes of the second half to stop the Rocks and even their record at 1-1.

Salem coach Tom Moshimer, however, was not a bit disappointed with the effort put forth by his squad. "Our defense played a hell of a game. We played a good football game, it's just that we were up against an excellent football team," he said.

"Offensively we mistaked ourselves out of points. We moved the football well and played with intensity but the cause of our failure to score a touchdown was not because we couldn't move the ball, but because we penalized ourselves out of those opportunities," Moshimer continued.

Salem will now ready itself for another tough Suburban Eight League game with Dearborn Edsel Ford this Friday at home. The 7:30 p.m. game is the Rocks homecoming event this year.

The Rocks scored the first-points of the game against Trenton on their fourth possession of the first quarter. Earlier in the quarter Darryl Bartkowiak had intercepted a Trenton pass at Salem's 35-yard line to stop a threat by that team.

Salem took over after the interception but failed to move the ball and punted. Trenton was also unable to move the football on their possession and punted.

The Rocks started their next drive, in the early minutes of the second quarter, from their own 46-yard line. Two plays later halfback Mickey Madsen ran for a first down that was called back. On the next play he exploded on another effort for another first down to the Trenton 26-yard line.

Another first down put the ball at the Trenton 17-yard mark but a three yard run and a pair of incomplete passes stopped the Rocks and the field goal kicking crew was called for.

Mark Blaesser put the boot up from the Trenton 20-yard line with 7:18 showing on the clock in the second quarter. Salem led 3-0.

Salem then kicked to Trenton. The Trojans were downed at their own 17-yard mark but a penalty on Salem moved the ball to Trenton's 31-yard line.

From their the Trojans drove straight to the Rock goal line. Fourteen plays later the Trojans scored from the one foot line. The extra point attempt was blocked by the center of the Salem defensive team. The score was 6-3 with 1:29 left in half.

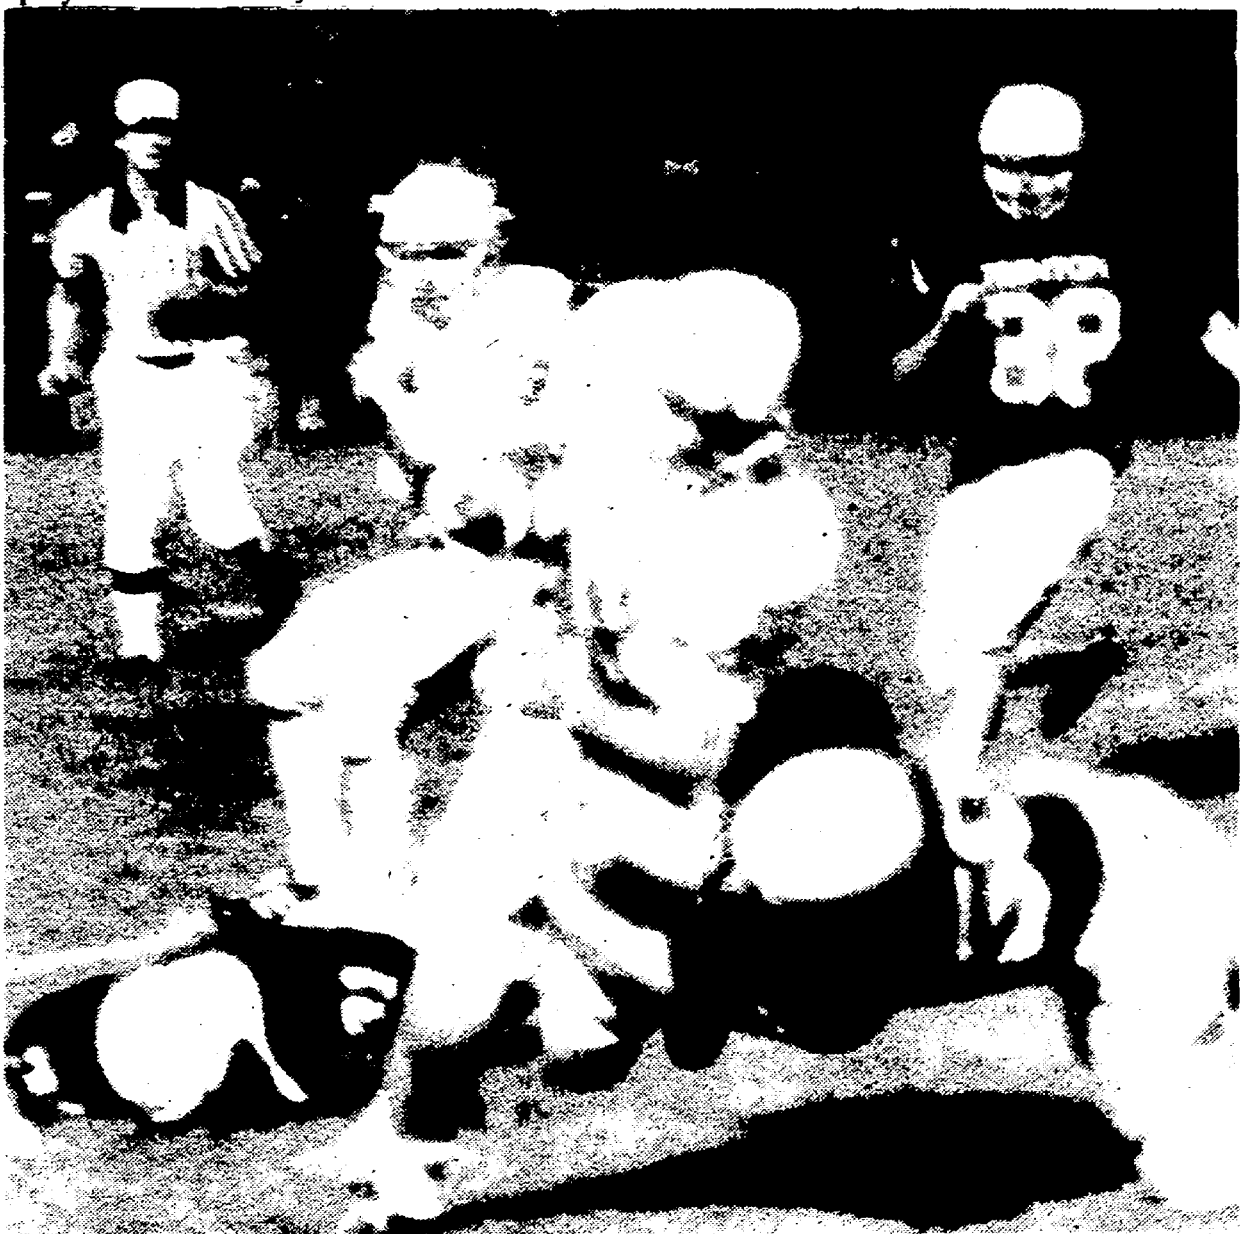

Salem got the football again before the intermission but was stopped and forced to punt.

The Rocks' opening drive of the second half was stopped after five plays at the Salem 45-yard mark. Trenton came back on their first drive of the second half and scored a second touchdown.

In the final quarter Salem got the ball again, this time at its own 45-yard mark. On the fourth play of the drive Rock quarterback Hubert completed a fourth down and five play on a bootleg that pushed the drive to the Trenton 40-yard line.

Hubert completed a pass to Dave Slavin that put the football at the Trenton 29-yard line and another first down. A flag on the next play pushed the ball back to the Trenton 40-yard mark.

On the next play Hubert hit David Houle on a pass. Houle's snag was made between three defenders falling backwards. He was downed at the Trenton five-yard mark. Penalties and a quarterback sack pushed Salem back to Trenton's 20-yard line where the drive faltered to a halt. The Rocks would not get closer again that night.

SALEM RUNNING BACK Dave Slavin gets hit by a Trenton defender as he attempts to cut up field after receiving a handoff from quarterback Jeff Hubert (in background). The Rocks fell to the Trojans 14-3 in the Friday night contest. (Crier photo by Ken Voyles)

Rock girl cagers beat Trenton, Ypsilanti now 4-0

Salem High's girls basketball squad upped its record to 4-0 with a pair of wins in last week's action.

The Rocks defeated a tough Suburban Eight League Trenton squad, 63-41, on Thursday, and knocked off non-league Ypsilanti, 58-29, last Tuesday.

Against Trenton Eileen Moore led the Rock offense with 19 points, while Jacque Merifield had 14 and Carol Ross nine.

"We played eight people in the first half. The game dictated it, Trenton played very hard as did we," said Salem coach Bob Blohm. "We had to play hard basketball to stay with them."

The Rocks went ahead 12-11 at the end of the first quarter, but then Trenton scored 18 points in the second and Salem 16 to led at the intermission 29-28.

Salem came back and scored 16 and 19 points in the final two quarters, while holding Trenton to five and seven points.

"What happened in the second half is they fatigued themselves and our shooting picked up," said Blohm. "We looked very strong in the first minutes of the second half. Trenton never got back in the game after we hit five field goals in a row."

Against Ypsilanti, the Rocks scored 25 points in the first quarter, 20 in the second, 11 in the third and two in the final stanza, while Ypsilanti scored six, seven, four and 12.

"It wasn't much of a game. The key people they needed were not there," said Blohm.
