

Board calls it 'evidence of good faith'

Canton taxpayers get millage cut

BY DICK BROWN

Canton township taxpayers will pay taxes for next year based on a general fund millage of 2.32 mills ($2.32 per $1,000 of state equalized valuation).

Canton Township trustees pared the 1982 township millage last Tuesday night by .07 of a mill but the decrease from last year's millage won't put any spending money in the pockets of township taxpayers.

Trustee Robert Padget, who proposed cutting the millage, labeled the decrease from last year's millage as a "good faith gesture."

The proposed Canton budget for 1982 had called for keeping the millage at 2.39.

In spite of the slight millage decrease homeowners will find their tax bills higher. The actual dollar increase comes from the county mandated state equalized valuation factor. With the .07 drop in millage the homeowner will have the motion to keep the millage the same as last year. Voting for the 2.39 millage rate were Supervisor Jim Poole, Clerk John Flodin and Trustee Carol Bodenmiller. Voting against the 2.39 mills were Trustees Padget, Steve Larson and Loren Bennett. Treasurer Maria Falkiewicz was absent from Tuesday night's meeting.

The board voted 5-1 in favor of the 2.32 millage with Bodenmiller casting the lone no vote.

jump due to the SEV factor pared by $6.50.

The general operating fund budget for Canton next year will be $4.1 million, according to Finance Director Mike Gorman. That fund provides the cash to operate the township with the exception of the police and fire departments. These two departments are funded by special voted millage.

The slight drop in millage for the general fund came after the original

One dead in Canton crash

An accident Saturday night at Geddes and Denton Roads in Canton resulted in the death of Merita Stratton, 30, of Ypsilanti, and injuries to her daughters, Lisa, 11, and Sheila, 8.

Canton police say Donald Sherman, 30, of Canton, was driving a 1979 Chevrolet van northbound on Denton and failed to stop at Geddes, and struck Stratton's westbound 1978 Pontiac. The van ended up on top of the Pontiac in a ditch, police said. Sherman and a passenger in the van, Willard Eldred, 38, were also both injured.

All survivors of the incident were treated and released from Wayne County General Hospital.

A warrant for Sherman's arrest on a charge of negligent homicide was handed down yesterday in 35th District Court.

Chief Tim Ford to retire, Berry in line for post

BY KEN VOYLES

Chief Timothy Ford will retire from the Plymouth Police Department on Oct. 15, and Inspector Carl Berry will assume the helm.

City Manager Henry Graper met with Ford, 55, on Monday. Ford's short term disability ends Thursday. He will retire Oct. 15, officially, said Graper.

Ford, the 10-year boss of the city's biggest department, had gone on disability leave at the beginning of April due to heart conditions which cut into his work effectiveness.

Graper also announced that he is recommending that Berry, acting chief for Ford since April, become the new head of the police department.

Said Ford of the city's choice for the new chief, "This should be a proper decision of the city manager as consented to by the city commission. Whomever he chooses I will support."

Ford came to Plymouth in 1971 from Gibraltar where he worked as the Director of Safety for seven years. Before that the Detroit-born Ford worked in the City candidate nights set

Plymouth Jaycees are offering the Plymouth City Commission candidates a chance to present their positions at a city candidates night scheduled for Thursday night, October 8, at Plymouth Cultural Center, starting at 7:30.

Candidates will be offered an opportunity to speak for three minutes. Then they will field questions from the audience and will also be allotted a two-minute wrap-up.

Jaycees have issued an invitation for the general public to attend.

Seven candidates will battle it out on the Nov. 3 ballot for the four seats to be filled at the election. Incumbents Davis Pugh, Ralph Kenyon and Mark Wehmeyer and William Robinson, Gregory Green, Dorothy Frid and Marda Benson will have their names on the ballot.

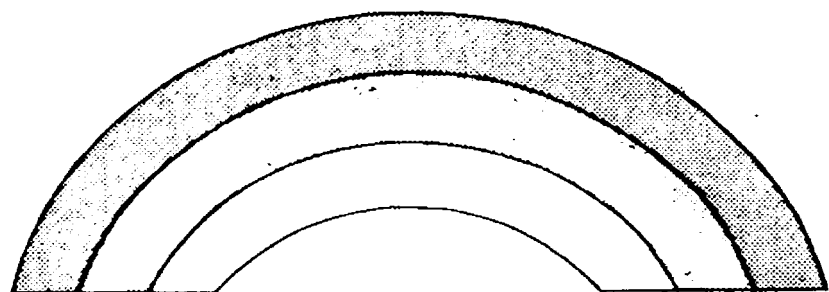

On Oct. 20 the Plymouth, Canton, Northville and Novi branches of the League of Women Voters will conduct another candidates forum.

The meeting will be held in the city commission chambers on the second floor of City Hall and will start at 7:30 p.m.

Fire departments plan open house festivities

Here's your chance to visit a real fire station and talk shop with firefighters.

It's Fire Prevention Week Oct. 4-10 and both the Plymouth and Plymouth Township Fire Departments will be available during the week, both at their stations and around the school district, to provide residents with fire prevention information.

The city fire station and both the township fire stations will be having open house through that entire week for individuals or groups wishing to stop by and discuss fire prevention. Captain Tom Lenaghan of the Plymouth department said it will be more of an informational open house than a showing of equipment.

Chief Larry Groth's township department will have open house also and a showing of equipment when members of the department travel to five local schools in the Plymouth-Canton School District.

Groth said his department will be talking to students about home safety and at the same time showing off a pumper unit and rescue unit.

Plymouth's department will also be at various schools during the week. Lenaghan said the department will use a pair of films to show students at any schools that wish the department to stop by during the week. A listing of schools was not available at press time.

Besides the open house Plymouth's department is currently seeking out a downtown merchant for use of a display window. Lenaghan said the department would like to put in a display of new and old equipment used by firefighters, pictures of past vehicles and information on home safety and the EDITH (home evacuation) program.

Starkweather parents and faculty protest staff cuts

Starkweather School parents and staff turned out at Monday's Board of Education meeting to protest a change in the school's teacher-pupil ratio, which they said would substantially disrupt classes.

Starkweather is facing the loss of .5 teachers due to the district's declining enrollment and budget cutbacks according to Norm Kee, assistant superintendent for employee relations.

Possible solutions to the problem have been discussed, including combining kindergarten and first grade classes as is done in many other district elementary schools, said Kee. The final plan is up to Starkweather principal John Howe, he added.

At the board meeting Howe said he "questioned the wisdom of the solution to a financial problem" by reducing the teacher-student ratio. Starkweather's situation is unique among district elementary schools, he said, due to its Title I status, special education classrooms and number of economically and socially deprived students.

"We've been penalized enough by the loss of .5 (teachers) already," said Howe. "Please look elsewhere for cuts."

Helen Kelly, a first grade teacher at Starkweather, said, "Our school is definitely different. We have more problems per square inch than any other school, I think. Don't make us put five more kids in each classroom."

Many parents also protested the teacher reduction, noting that kindergartners and first grade students who are most likely to be affected have already had to make a major adjustment to school, and another class reshuffling would disrupt them unnecessarily.

School administrators, however, contend that the staffing reduction is necessary due to the first-ever declining enrollment and budget cuts, some already made and others still pending.

"Nobody wanted to cut ratios," said Superintendent John Hoben. "We have already had to cut $3.5 million from the budget."

Hoben also said the district will lose another $42,900 in state school aid due to an executive cutback, and another is expected later in the year due to a property tax cut proposal pending in the state legislature.

Kee said that Howe was advised of the pending change in teacher ratios in May, and again in memos on Sept. 2, 5 and 11. "He had all summer to work out a plan," said Kee.

Hartwig trial postponed

The trial of Ronald Hartwig, 32, accused killer of Stacey Hurrelbrink on Aug. 22, has been moved back at least two months, according to John Thompson of the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office.

Hartwig, is was revealed last week, is slated for forensic tests in Ann Arbor starting this week, according to the prosecutor's office.

The forensic tests will reveal whether or not Hartwig is competent to stand trial on a second degree murder charge. Hartwig may plea "insanity", depending on the results of the tests, according to the prosecutor's office.

In a related note the Michigan State

Police Crime Lab report came in late last week. No latent finger prints were found on the claw hammer recovered from Wilcox Lake two weeks ago. However, lab specialists removed the head of the hammer for detailed examination and microscopically found hairs that belonged to the victim, Hurrelbrink.

Hartwig's defense attorney, Patrick Devine would not comment on any aspect of the case by press time.

Plymouth Police would still not comment on where they got their lead on the location of the apparent murder weapon.

Family dispute results in death

A SHOOTING took place at Honeytree Apartments in Canton in front of several children waiting for school early yesterday, leaving a man dead and a woman injured. Canton police theorize that Thomas Campbell, 32, of Detroit, shot his estranged wife Donna, 31, of Canton, and then shot himself. Although the exact circumstances of the incident are not yet known, police offered the following theory as to what happened: At approximately 8 a.m. Thomas Campbell took several shots with a 22-caliber derringer at his wife in the parking lot near the apartment complex's office-clubhouse as she was running toward the office door, which was locked. Witnesses later reported the man then ran to his wife, scuffled with her and knocked her down. At that point another pistol which was in the woman's possession was produced, although police do not know who brought it out. The second weapon, a 22-caliber automatic (top), apparently jammed immediately, and the man tried to unjam it as he held his wife down. He also threatened a Honeytree security guard, Paul Anderson, who tried to break up the argument. Campbell then produced the derringer (above) again and shot his wife in the face. Apparently thinking her dead, say police, the man walked across the parking lot to the fence bordering the property along I-275 and shot himself in the temple. He was later pronounced dead at St. Mary Hospital, where his wife is now listed in "guarded" condition, according to a hospital spokesman. The couple's four year old child, who also witnessed the shooting, is now staying with family friends. (Crier photos by Dan Bodene)

Prison location mulled in Northville Twp.

An informational meeting on the construction of a 548-bed prison for men on state-owned land in Northville Township will be held at 7:30 p.m. Oct. 1 at the Northville Township Hall, 41600 Six Mile.

The proposed facility would be on 38 acres bounded by Beck Road on the east and Five Mile Road on the south, near the northwest corner of Plymouth Township.

The proposed prison is expected to cost $35 million and employ over 250 people. It will take three years to build.

Citizens are invited to ask questions and express their concerns about the facility so that their comments may be added to an environmental impact statement written about the site by the Michigan Department of Corrections.

Noise barriers coming

Canton Township may not be on the Wayne County and State Department of Transportation priority list for rebuilding some of the main township roads, but Canton will be getting some more of those precast noise barriers.

The state has awarded the contract for erecting the barriers on the west side of I-275 from the Penn Central tracks north to Michigan Ave. and along I-275 from Palmer road north almost to Cherry Hill.

Union dispute temporarily halts Mayflower addition

BY KEN VOYLES and W. EDWARD WENDOVER

Phase II of The Mayflower Hotel and the Wiedman Parking Lot deck will be delayed at least one week thus far because of union problems with the construction companies.

Pickets from Plumbers Union Local No. 98 closed down work at the site Thursday and Monday in their protest against Long Plumbing of Northville. The other contractors on the job are union and their crews declined to cross the plumbers picket lines.

A flier distributed by the picketing plumbers said Long did not pay wages and fringe benefits established by the union and asked the public to boycott the hotel.

Jim Long, owner of the plumbing company which was low bidder on the job and has been the Mayflower Hotel's house plumber for several years, denied the union charge. "If my men were not happy and making union scale or more, they'd go somewhere else," Long said.

He said his workers voted on unionizing two years ago and voted not to unionize. "Our men are happy and we're happy," he added.

Bill Haxton, secretary of the plumbers union, said, "We can't seem to get to the workers at Long."

"We have kind of a Mexican standoff right now."

The general contractor on the job, Don Bidwell of Mardon Construction, criticized the plumbing union for causing "lost wages for the other people. The pickets are there because they're all out of work." He said the union problem would mean at least a one-week delay in completing the project.

Scheduled to open by the holidays, the hotel addition includes parking and 39 additional units.

Ralph Lorenz, of Lorenz Enterprises which owns the hotel, said "This is a typical example of what's going on in this state. Instead of supporting a major project like this, we get fancy games."

Lorenz said the interest on the project cost $1,000 per day even while it was shut down. A flier distributed by the hotel entitled, "Unions should not have a monopoly on all jobs," said, "As American citizens we have the right and should continue to exercise our right to freedom of choice."

Twp. budget adopted with rising expenditures cited

Plymouth Township Board of Trustees voted to adopt the 1982 budget for the township at its regular meeting last week.

The trustees also adopted the millage rate for the year. That rate was increased from 4.3954 to 4.8615 for this year.

The township expects to generate $2,349,520 in revenues for 1982. Of that almost $2.1 million will come from millages for fire and police protection and a millage for general administration. Other areas of revenue include the building department, planning and appeals and rentals ($110,000 from golf course rentals, for example). The township will also receive $106,000 in block grant funds.

The township will also receive state shared revenues, but not until the first quarter or second quarter of 1982.

Major expenditures for the township budget, as prepared by Supervisor Maurice Breen, are $580,000 for fire, $319,700 for police, $111,000 for general administration, and $100,000 for building.

Other areas of increased expenditures include the clerk's office, $97,544, the treasurer's office, $79,044, funding for the Dunning-Hough Library, $90,000, the supervisor's office $65,000, and $54,700 for streets and highways.

Canton board okays recreational facility

BY DICK BROWN

Canton's revenue sharing hearing last Tuesday night brought out soccer enthusiasts only. They got results.

Canton trustees voted to proceed with Phase I of the recreational facility plan to develop the 42 acres behind the Canton Administration Building on Canton Center Road, using $175,000 in revenue sharing funds.

Included in Phase I will be the construction of four soccer fields, two softball diamonds and a parking lot.

The revenue sharing action came after officials and members of the Canton Soccer Club presented their case. They called attention to the massive growth of soccer in the township, citing their own membership of 800 Canton youngsters in the club and pointing out that soccer facilities at Griffin Park, and at some of the Plymouth-Canton Community Schools are overtaxed and inadequate to handle the Canton teams.

The recreation facility plans call for mass grading, placing topsoil and seeding of 30 acres, providing storm sewers, property line fence, surveying, engineering and engineering for the project.

Construction of 10 tennis courts originally planned for the recreation complex was eliminated.

Plans call for construction to start in 1982 so as to have the facilities available for 1983.

Athletic boosters

get Great Scott help

Plymouth-Canton Community residents will have a chance to show their support for the athletes and athletic booster clubs of Canton and Salem High Schools all day long today at the Great Scott store at Ann Arbor and Sheldon Roads.

Five per cent of the store's gross sales will be donated to the booster clubs, who in turn donate funds to the various athletic teams at the two schools.

The store will be open from 8 a.m. to 11 p.m. and decorated in red and blue. Booster parents and athletes will be on hand all day to help shoppers transport groceries.

There will also be a drawing for a color TV set and a raffle for other gifts. The athletes will also sell hot dogs and coke.

Based on the latest word out of Washington, Canton is anticipating $230,000 to $256,000 in new revenue sharing money for 1982, according to Canton Finance Director Mike Gorman.

The township has already set aside $130,000 in revenue sharing funds which were to be used as the township's matching funds in a grant application for 1982 Land and Water Conservation Funds to develop the recreation area. Receiving that grant was called doubtful.

Gorman pointed out that if the grant did come through, the expenditure of the $130,000 toward the recreation plan would still count toward the township's matching fund share.

Leaving Canton off map brings objection from Supervisor Poole

There is at least one Michigan resident who is upset over the the new official Michigan highway map.

Canton Township Supervisor Jim Poole let his feeling be known over leaving Canton and its 48,000 residents off the map in a letter to John P. Woodford, director of the state department of transportation.

His letter to the state officials reads:

"I am writing to express my concern over the failure of having the Canton community identified on the official state highway map.

"Canton, the third most populous township in the state with over 48,000 residents, does not appear on the map. Yet, so-called "settlement communities" with no organized government are found on the map, e.g. (Denton, Salem, Dixboro and Waltz in our vicinity.)

"Many times Canton residents and businesses have related to me instances where travelers and-or deliveries had great difficulty reaching their destination in Canton utilizing the state map.

"I would support the policy of placing townships or communities on the map upon reaching some threshold population level, such as 25,000.

"I firmly believe that persons utilizing state transportation maps, be they travelers or truck drivers, deserve to have major population centers identified. Canton is a complete community with our own police, fire, administration building, interstate interchanges, zip code and more. General law or charter townships should not be penalized because of the form of government they have chosen to serve their residents.

I would appreciate any and all efforts in assisting Canton and similar communities in achieving our (their) much needed and deserved identity."

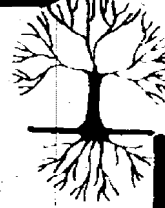

Kozusko is selected

Canton Township trustees named Steve Kozusko to fill a vacancy on the Canton Township Recreation Advisory Committee last Tuesday night caused by the resignation of Dan Baldrice.

Kozusko will serve the balance of the term which will expire December 31, 1983.

A resident of Canton for six years, Kozusko has been active in the Canton Soccer Club as a coach and club registrar.

Super sewer impact on area discussed

BY KEN VOYLES

According to a representative of an outside research firm from Cambridge, Mass., Arthur D. Little, the proposed "super sewer" for the North Huron Valley Service Area is quite modest in terms of its potential impact upon the communities involved.

Allen Sloan, of Arthur Little, explained the socio-economic implications and impacts upon the 10 Wayne and Oakland County cities and townships. After examining population trends and figures for the area and for the "core" Detroit area, Sloan revealed that "there will be no noticeable impact trends from the core area in terms of population" because of the sewer. In other words the building of the sewer will not spur huge growth.

The proposed sewer is still in the discussion stage.

The Wayne County Board of Public Works, the leading agency involved in the project, had narrowed down 32 sewer alternatives for Plymouth Township, Plymouth, Northville, Northville Township, Novi Township, Novi, Walled Lake, Commerce Township and White Lake Township, at a public hearing earlier this summer.

The final six choices from that meeting were discussed Wednesday night at Northville Township Hall. A final alternate will be selected by Nov. 1 and a cost breakdown per capita will be available at that time, according to officials of the Public Works Board.

Sloan's agency had been called in as part of the needed process if the project is to receive federal funds. His group's socio-economic impact report was ordered by the EPA (Environmental Protection Agency).

No decision on any of the six alternates was made at Wednesday's meeting. However, public input was asked for by the board as to which of the six alternates would be best to fulfill the sewer needs of the area for the next 40 years.

"The build options on all of these alternates are quite modest," said Sloan. "The net effect of the building options would be the increase in population from 25,000 to 35,000 in the north service area."

Sloan added, however, that his group is still studying the effects this project would have on the pocketbooks of the individual residents and communities. Cost estimates for the six projects range from $164 million for the no action alternate to $362 million for a complete sewer package.

Essentially the project for the north service area is to tie in the cities and townships of Plymouth, Northville and Novi into a sewer system and complete their growth patterns, while at the same time starting the sewer line process throughout the other communities in the area.

According to Sloan the project will "basically complete the growth trend of Northville and Plymouth and complete their transition from rural type to metropolitan type communities."

Plymouth is currently tied into Detroit's Oakwood interceptor sewer. Under the six alternates Plymouth would either stay with the Oakwood connection or be tied to the Brownstown sewage treatment facility currently under construction.

In all six alternates the communities of Plymouth, Northville and Novi (both cities and townships) would receive the burden of construction, including a possible "north arm" interceptor between Northville and Plymouth to connect them with Oakwood or Brownstown.

According to Plymouth City Engineer Kenneth West previous studies done have shown that the sewer project could have a socio-economic impact on Detroit. He added that federal regulations say there will be no federal funds for projects that have major impact against the "core" city.

Plymouth Township Supervisor Maurice Breen said the board of trustees authorized involvement in the study process of the project, but added that up to now "we've had no opportunity to comment on the possible recommendations."

'Eyes and Ears' organization aims at October start

Aiming to add 60 pairs of eyes and ears to the Plymouth police department, Plymouth Area Citizens Teams (PACT) organized Tuesday night in a meeting at Plymouth City Hall.

PACT is the neighborhood watch group which will assist Plymouth police in making Plymouth and Plymouth Township safer. Sponsored jointly by the police department and REACT CB'ers, PACT will initially start patrol duty in the community on Friday and Saturday nights between 9 p.m. and 1 a.m.

Plans are being made to start the auxiliary patrol on October 30, Devil's Night, just in time for Halloween.

As presented at the Tuesday night organizational meeting, the basic function of the unarmed patrol will be to observe and report by way of CB radio and the REACT base station, any incidents. The base station will use the telephone to pass the calls to the Plymouth police department.

Each volunteer is expected to attend the required training sessions which will include radio procedure, first aid, CPR and police training. Members will be expected to volunteer a minimum of 12 hours per month at PACT training and patrolling.

Patrolling will be done in vehicles of PACT members equipped with CB radios. Payment for fuel will be worked out as the operation becomes established. Cars will be identified with magnetic door signs.

Those entering the patrol program will be run through a police file check.

There will be some benefits to members of PACT in the form of liability insurance, a nationally recognized uniform, a national logo, national newsletter and local team newsletter.

Each patrol shift will be manned by 13 people with two per car plus an officer of the day to supervise the shift.

Patrol cars will be equipped with flares, first aid kit, dry chemical fire extinguisher, map of the area, flashlight with directing cone and a clip board.

The base station will be located in the Plymouth Township Park area where each shift will assemble for briefing before starting a patrol.

PACT patrols will work closely with subdivision eyes and ears neighborhood watch organizations already established and with the Plymouth Community Police and City and Township fire departments.

At last you're free from federal or state income taxes! The first $2,000 of interest you earn annually from the certificate is tax-free on a joint return. ($1,000 on an individual tax return.) These are once-in-a-lifetime exemptions, regardless of your total investment in the certificate or the amount earned.

THE ONE YEAR ALL SAVERS TAX-FREE CERTIFICATE IS AFFORDABLE FOR EVERYONE.

The certificates are available for as little as $500 or in any larger denomination of your choice. And, your money is safe. Certificates are insured up to $100,000 by the FSLIC, a U.S. Government agency. Money Market Certificates may be converted into a All Savers Certificate without an early withdrawal penalty. Stop in at any Down River Federal Savings office and find out how to take full advantage of this new tax break.

The chart below shows how the All Savers Tax-Free Certificate will perform compared to ordinary taxable investments.

EQUIVALENT TAXABLE RATE FOR TAXABLE INCOME

The current All Savers Tax Free yield is	TAXABLE INCOME		EQUIVALENT TAXABLE INTEREST RATE (%)
	SINGLE	JOINT
12.61* PERCENT	$10,000		15.96
		$20,000	16.59
	$20,000		19.11

State highway map according to Poole

CANTON SUPERVISOR JIM POOLE is unhappy over the new 1982 Michigan state highway map. It again left Canton off the map and he calls it discrimination in a letter he sent to the State Department of Transportation. The letter appears on Page 5 of this week's Crier. To help placate the Canton supervisor, The Crier is offering its own state map pictured above with Canton located with 18-point type and Detroit and the rest of the state's major cities shown in six-point type. The Crier agrees that the state erred in leaving Canton, a community of 48,000 people, off the map.

Mother doesn't like safety busing plan

EDITOR:

As a parent concerned for the safety of my children and all children, I feel I have to write this letter.

I have two children. One attends Plymouth Canton and one West Middle. Both are denied "busing privileges." The reasons given are that we are within the area of walking and it is considered "safe."

My main concern is for the kids who have to walk to the high schools. The two main roads are McClumpha and Canton Center. How anyone could consider these two roads safe at 6:40 a.m. is beyond me. My daughter and her friend tried walking from school one afternoon and were almost run over by kids in cars. They were trying to swerve into the girls as they were walking.

In another incident, a kid tried grabbing one of the girl's arms as she was walking—he being in a car.

Safe, as described by Mr. Webster is "out of danger, not involving risk, protected, etc." I would like to suggest that the entire school board and Mr. Dobry walk these two roads. It would give the kids confidence that they are "safe" when walking to and from school.

When the question was put to Mr. Dobry by a neighbor of mine about these two roads not having sidewalks, his response was that it was the township's problem. That was a very intelligent answer for a concerned parent.

Also, until this day, the measuring of the distance between West and Quail Hollow Subdivision is not accurate. Half-filled buses travel by our subdivision every day.

We pay high taxes and most of us are fighting to have millages passed so that our kids will not have to do without. We parents realize that there have to be budgets and cuts but please, not at the expense of our kids.

Basically
by Ken Voyles

What's in a name?

Every since I began covering the two high school sports programs for the Plymouth-Canton Community I've been in a dilemma.

Just about everywhere you look you see the two schools referred to as Plymouth Canton and Plymouth Salem. At first the logic of this name arrangement makes sense. Plymouth has the longer tradition, had the first high school, and is the first name in the Plymouth-Canton School District.

But then you realize there might be those who resent the Plymouth before the Canton and the Plymouth before the Salem.

Centennial Education Park is built in Canton as a part of the Plymouth-Canton School District. The original area high school was Plymouth High on Main Street in Plymouth. But now there are two high schools, separated by a ditch. Are they supposed to represent a school for Plymouth and a school for Canton? If so why were they not termed Plymouth High and Canton High instead of the ungainly Plymouth Canton, Plymouth Salem?

Surely Canton residents must resent the fact that the school district decided upon those names even after the school was constructed on Canton Township property.

And yet authorities say the right way to refer to the two schools is with the Plymouth before the other names. It must have something to do with Canton and Salem Townships being offshoots of Plymouth.

Anyway, I've tried a new approach in the sports pages at The Crier by using just Canton High or Salem High when referring to a team. I've had no heavy handed comments about this being wrong during the entire time I've been sports editor so I assume the simplicity of my version has not offended the athletes or school administration.

When school board members finally set out to name the high schools at Centennial Education Park, which was to have been an eight building complex, the sessions were long and stormy.

A decision was made to name the high schools after the community townships, Canton, Salem, Northville, Superior, etc. with the prefix of Plymouth.

Since just the two schools have been built and it is unlikely that more will ever be added, unless The Community growth patterns change for the better, now would be a good time to look into adopting simplified names.

CEP is built on Canton Township soil, but Plymouth has the long standing tradition of the original Plymouth High. Canton and Plymouth Highs are my choice for the names. If not that just Canton and Salem without the Plymouth prefix.

So what's in a name anyway? There must be past tradition and future tradition. The tradition of both schools is to field competitive athletic teams. That's all that counts, says the sports editor.

Journalism books don't teach it all

In my Board of Education meeting packet this week, I noted with some interest a copy of the editorial policy for the Centennial Education Park "Perspective" school paper.

And I would agree with Supt. John Hoben that the policy is extremely well done. It has been in effect, operationally, since September, 1980.

The document takes into particular account the rights and privileges, under the law, of student journalists even though student press law is admittedly still developing.

However, along with those freedoms granted under the First Amendment and upheld in several court cases is an admonition that the CEP Perspective "will uphold all journalistic responsibilities to print fair and accurate articles and provide space for conflicting opinions or rebuttals."

Also, "libelous or obscene material or articles that would cause 'a substantial disruption of school activities' as defined by the courts will not be printed."

Back in the stone age of high school journalism, the school paper's editorial

In addition

by Dan Bodene

policy was often little more than an extension of that of the advisor or school administration.

Nowadays, birth control information may be printed in the school paper, occasional use of "four letter words" is allowed, and student journalists are free to write opinions (as long as they are clearly labeled that) 'criticizing performances of instructors, administrators, school officials and other school employees.

Student journalists may also protect their sources and "may demand admittance to all meetings not otherwise restricted by provisions of the Sunshine Laws..."

God, what heady stuff. The trouble is, all the laws and editorial policies in the world don't spare some of the tough times that come with the business of reporting the news. In their coming experience, CEP journalists may see some of that side of it.

In all my years in journalism schools, no one told me that realistically, the first aim of any publication is to make money. No one told me about editors with heavy blue pencils, or about having to check stories with advertisers. No one told me I'd someday have to spike stories I really wanted to print. No one told me about the wage scale.

There are a lot of things about this business I don't like, but there are a lot I do like. No one ever told me about complete strangers thanking me when I do a good job. No one told me about what it feels like to do one of those stories I really wanted to do, and have it come out just right. No one told me what I write sometimes helps people. No one told me about expense accounts.

CEP journalists have a particularly good policy to work under. I hope that with things like it, the ones who really want to write are encouraged to stay with it and the ones who really don't want to write get out fast, because it's crowded out here.

After pounding out a particularly tough column one day, Horace Greeley observed, "Journalism will kill you, but it will keep you alive while you're at it."

Farm preservation challenged

EDITOR:

I was pleased to see the letter from Planning Commissioner Robert Shefferly in the paper recently, regarding the upcoming election on the purchase of "Farmland" in Canton.

This issue has been around for several years now and only continues to cost us taxpayers money—hidden tax dollars, because of all the "small" studies conducted by the Township Board to see if it is "feasible" to purchase farmland.

Many, many hours have been spent on this topic. There was a deadline on May 31, 1981, for the people to give "another" indication (vote), which is now several months past deadline. The Township Board is finally responsible for giving the people another chance. Who wants another chance?

Why does the amount of "Farmland Acreage" keep changing? The first amount was over 7,000 acres. Then 5,000 acres and now, who knows? The first cost determinations were over $20 million. Now we are down to $5 million.

When will the government wake up? It is sure nice to see open fields of corn and wheat. Many people moved here to share in the openness of Canton's natural surroundings. As long as someone else owns the property, we will look at its beauty. Is there a disguised plot here? Are you ready to pay to preserve these open areas?

This "Farmland" issue started out as a means of "Growth Control," many people will argue this point. Then, things were changed. The people involved disquised the issue as a means to help the farmer with his taxes and to insure no growth west of Canton Center Road. At the same time they are saying we, here in Canton, should be the pioneers in saving Farmland.

Many Canton homeowners cannot sell their homes today if they wanted to. Inflation, high interest rates and an ever-increasing tax base face all of us. There will be very little building of homes west of Canton Center Road because of sewer capacity. We are limited. Just ask.

Just ask why the commercial and industrial tax base is anywhere near 50 percent? An ideal split should be 50 percent residential, not 90 percent. Ask why your roads are not improved? Ask yourself if the government should be allowed to proceed with buying Farmland? An ad says, "Pay me now or pay me later."

It is my opinion that many other priorities should be considered first, and as much time and money should be spent in improving your tax base, not further spending.

What do you think?

Coloring It Brown

By Dick Brown

There are some things newspaper people like to cover more than others.

Over 30 plus years my favorites boil down to high school athletic events where enthusiasm runs at fever pitch, perfection comes as a surprise and the results are final. I also like covering local government activities where there sometimes isn't quite as much enthusiasm, perfection is hardly ever present and the end results often never materializes.

I also like to write about the accomplishments of youths, the good deeds of the average citizen, the fun times of community endeavors such as festivals and local talent shows.

Then there are the times when newspaper people have to report fatal accidents, deaths, violent damaging storms, misfeasance and malfeasance on the part of public officials, long school board meetings and city and township meetings which accomplish little with four to five hours of words coupled with 15 minutes of actual business.

You have to take the good with the bad.

Also on my list of good times in the reporting business is attending social functions related to politics. I enjoy people watching when politicians get together.

One of these types of happy events came up last Wednesday when County Commissioner Bill Joyner had his birthday bash. It was a gathering of local politicians with a few state politicians also making their appearance.

It was people watching at its best. It was fun to see office holders who jockey and maneuver in the conduct of the day to day operations of government, back slap, laugh and pass pleasantries at such a social function.

It's particularly amusing at this time of the elective office cycle when the grass always looks greener in someone else's playing field.

At the Joyner birthday party there were state senators eye balling the possibility of making a possible run for the proposed county chief executive post. There was State Representative Roy Smith who has announced he is hanging it up after many years of service in Lansing. Then there were the county commissioners, township officials and others who openly or secretly covet the state legislative post or other elective post.

Looking around the room Wednesday night the only ones not looking like potential candidates were Crier Managing Editor Dan Bodene, Crier Production Manager Nancy Hayes, Joyner's young son and myself—and I'm not too sure of Bodene and Hayes.

What makes it even more interesting as the 1982 election wars heat up is that with the reapportionment process barely initiated no one at last week's social event really knows where the legislative and county commissioner district boundaries are going to be. There are as yet no programs to tell who the opponents may or may not be.

Local politics is great to watch from the outside. After last week's Joyner party I would have to rate the sport of politics watching slightly above football and basketball as a spectator sport.

Canton Rotary variety show stars

PLUS 10 OR MINUS 10? Whatever the ratings of these beauties, they will be performing again at the Canton Rotary's Third Annual Variety Show which will take over the stage at the Canton High School Auditorium for an 8 p.m. performance this Saturday. All the chorus line in the picture above aren't minus 10. In the front row the minus ratings go to Carl Schultz on the left and Bill Tesen on the right with two of the real Plus 10s in the middle. In the back row are Lee Halseid, Rotary President Chuck Bares, Chuck Ten Broeck, Rick Nadeau and Roger Haslick. All proceeds from the variety show will go toward the purchase of a bus for use by Canton Township's three senior citizen organizations and the township's Parks and Recreation Department. Advance tickets sales at $3 are being handled by all Rotary members and several Canton businesses. Tickets will be available at the door priced at $4.

Plymouth Community Y fall program is ready

Sign up now for the Plymouth Community Family Y Fall 1981 programs - the second of two sessions will fill rapidly, according to organizers.

The Plymouth Y is offering many special interest, health and fitness, sports and pre-school programs in sessions from Sept. 21 through Oct. 26, and from Nov. 2 to Dec. 14. The first session is now in progress, but there's still time to sign up for the second session.

Special interest programs include dog obedience classes, lasting eight weeks; a hair care clinic, for three weeks; group piano lessons, for six weeks for ages six and up; an investment class for four weeks; a babysitting workshop for four weeks for ages 10 to 13; and beginning carpentry, for four weeks for ages seven to 12 years.

Health and fitness programs include early bird, morning and evening aerobic fitness classes for six weeks each, with health screening periods also available; dynamic aerobics classes for five weeks; karate classes for six weeks for ages eight years and up and adults; and dance classes for jazz, tap and ballet.

Sports programs featured are soccer skills for four weeks; fall tennis lessons for four weeks; floor gymnastics classes on Saturdays for six weeks; floor hockey programs at a variety of Plymouth-Canton schools; and football skills for kids in kindergarten through 5th grade.

Pre-school programs include pre-school fitness classes for six weeks; fall Kreatives for three to five year olds for six weeks; and creative movement classes.

For a list of starting times and dates, locations and fees, write to the Plymouth YMCA at P.O. Box 134, Plymouth 48170. For more information, call 453-2904.

In addition, a special Plymouth Y-Hillside Second Annual Fall Run will be held Sept. 26, featuring one, three and five mile fun runs.

The one mile event, which is first, will begin at 10 a.m., followed by the three and five-milers at 10:30 a.m. All runs will begin at Kellogg Park in Plymouth, and end at the Hillside Restaurant.

Entry fee is $8, and includes a t-shirt, trophies to the first three places, medals to the first places in age divisions, a team trophy (for teams with a minimum of six people), and refreshments.

Nankin Transit survives SEMTA takeover bid

Nankin Transit, which serves Canton Township, along with the cities of Wayne, Westland, Inkster and Garden City, apparently has a new lease on life.

The small bus system stands a good chance of remaining under local control, at least until June 30, 1982.

Nankin Transit was being eyed by Southeast Michigan Transit Authority (SEMTA) for takeover—a prospect that upset many of the Nankin senior citizen and handicapped users. Over 2,000 petition signatures were collected protesting the takeover.

Nankin Transit operates under the SEMTA umbrella with SEMTA providing more than 80 percent of the operating budget.

The small bus service, with its headquarters in cramped space at Westland's DPW building, provides a more individualized service while SEMTA is a curb to curb operation. Nankin drivers also assist senior citizens and handicapped passengers with their packages, help them in and out of the bus and assist with wheel chairs.

SEMTA provides the 18 buses in the Nankin fleet.

SEMTA officials have proposed that the contracted mini-bus services in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties be brought directly under the SEMTA control. SEMTA has called the Nankin system the busiest of its contracted mini-bus operations.

Canton township offices relocate in building

Canton Township's Parks and Recreation Department has been on the move—from the second floor of the Canton Administration Building on Canton Center Road to the basement of the administration building.

The parks and recreation department has taken over the office space previously occupied by the 35th District Court, now located in the new Dunbar Davis Hall on Plymouth Road west of Haggerty in Plymouth Township.

Canton's Community Development Department has moved into the former second floor quarters of the parks and recreation department. All phone extensions will remain the same.

The shift in offices will provide the recreation department with much more space and will allow for expanding recreational services, particularly in the areas of exercise and dance, according to township officials.

Plymouth duo receives thanks for MD efforts

Special thanks to a pair of Plymouth youngsters came from Tom DeGrave, district director of the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

Sharlene Climie and Shella Climie raised $797 and $786, respectively, in the 1981 Riverside Arena Skate-A-Thon to defeat muscular dystrophy.

The fund drive organization also offered thanks to all the other participants and businesses in the Plymouth Community who assisted in raising $11,800 to be used in the battle against the disease.

371 compete in three races

Fall Run brings out the best area runners

Three foot races were run Saturday in Plymouth in the 2nd Annual YMCA Fall Run. Some 371 runners took the streets to compete in five, three and one mile races.

Peter Hallop of Ann Arbor won the five mile race, 24:21, while Gary Wolfram of Canton was second, 24:44 and Richard Wilson was third, 25:30. Karen Holappa of Plymouth was first for the women in that race, 32:12, while Kathleen Saloman was second, 33:45, and Robin Austin was third overall, 34:51.

Medalists in that race were Bill Boyd and Katie Vesnaugh, 13 year old and under; Peter Ross and Tammy Cundarie, 14-16 year old; Steve McGee and Besty McHugh, 16-20; Terry Elsey and Susie Gray, 20-29; Michael Lutz and Renne Maranian, 30-39; and Bill Boyds and Susan Clark, 40-49.

Frank Brosnan of Plymouth won the three mile race, 15:39.5, while Dave Ciaverella of Belleville was second, 16:17.7, and Bill Whitson third, 17:16.5. Jennifer Melvik of S. Lyon was first for the women, 21:29, while Rachelle Simons of Plymouth was second, 21:40 and Susan Balconi of Plymouth third, 22:07.

Medalists included John Pustell and Jenny Kincer, 13 and under; Karl Gansler and Laura MacIntyre, 14-16; Chris Albaugh and Lori Grissom, 16-20; Tom Truszkowski and Linda Jones, 20-29; Bill Huppenbauer and Kathie Simmons, 30-39; Larry Mishler and Pat Greytok, 40-49; and Charlie Weimer and Rose Grisa, 50 and older.

Michael Jones of Kalamazoo won the one mile fun run, 4:48, while Bert Lopez was second, 4:48.8 and Bill Whitson third, 5:13. Jamie Lamb of Canton paced the women, 6:38, while Hope Buchan of Plymouth was second, 6:39, and Karen Boluch was third, 6:42.

Medalists were Kevin Jones and Robin Stuber, 13 and under; Eric Pedersen, 14-16; Peter Settles and Linda Bernhardt, 20-29; David Susman and Florence Banners, 30-39; Joseph Kafta and Harriet Kafta, 40-49; and June Byrne, 50 and older.

Salem High's cross country team, winner of the three mile race and Peter Hallop of Ann Arbor winner of the five miler. Runners started at Kellogg Park and finished at the Hillside Inn on Plymouth Road after a circuit through the city streets. (Crier photos by Robert Cameron)

tell it to Phyllis

Replacing a major appliance at home or a piece of office equipment at work is almost always a pain in the neck. Machines seem to pick the worst possible time to fall apart. I sometimes wonder if there is something inside these machines that knows when we have to rely on them the most, don't have time to fool with them, or money to replace them.

A couple of months ago the copier at work died. It went out with a flourish by managing to produce one of the biggest paper jams known to modern man - not bad considering I thought of selling the thing as an antique. It couldn't have happened at a worst time, since we were in the midst of Fall Festival production.

I've wanted to replace that copier for years, but I never quite realized what a hassle it was to shop around for a new one. Believe me it doesn't take long for the word to get around that you're looking for a new machine, and suddenly every salesperson in the state is calling or "just dropping by."

Sales people come in all sizes and shapes with a variety of personalities. Some are aggressive, some pushy, a few don't know what they're talking about, some are words you can't use in print, and I admit I met a lot of nice salespeople too.

After sorting through the companies and the different copiers they sell, I decided on four to try as demonstrators. Everyone in the office fell in love with the first one, but I wasn't sure if they really liked the machine or were simply ecstatic about having a working copier in the office again.

The second demonstrator model almost went sailing out the window the first time I tried to use it, then wouldn't cooperate when I tried to change the cartridge. Maybe we had a personality conflict, but it was soon ruled out.

Now the third copier wasn't bad. The fact that I had to have the sales representative return 10 minutes after he dropped it off because I had already managed to jam the machine was an operator problem - I think.

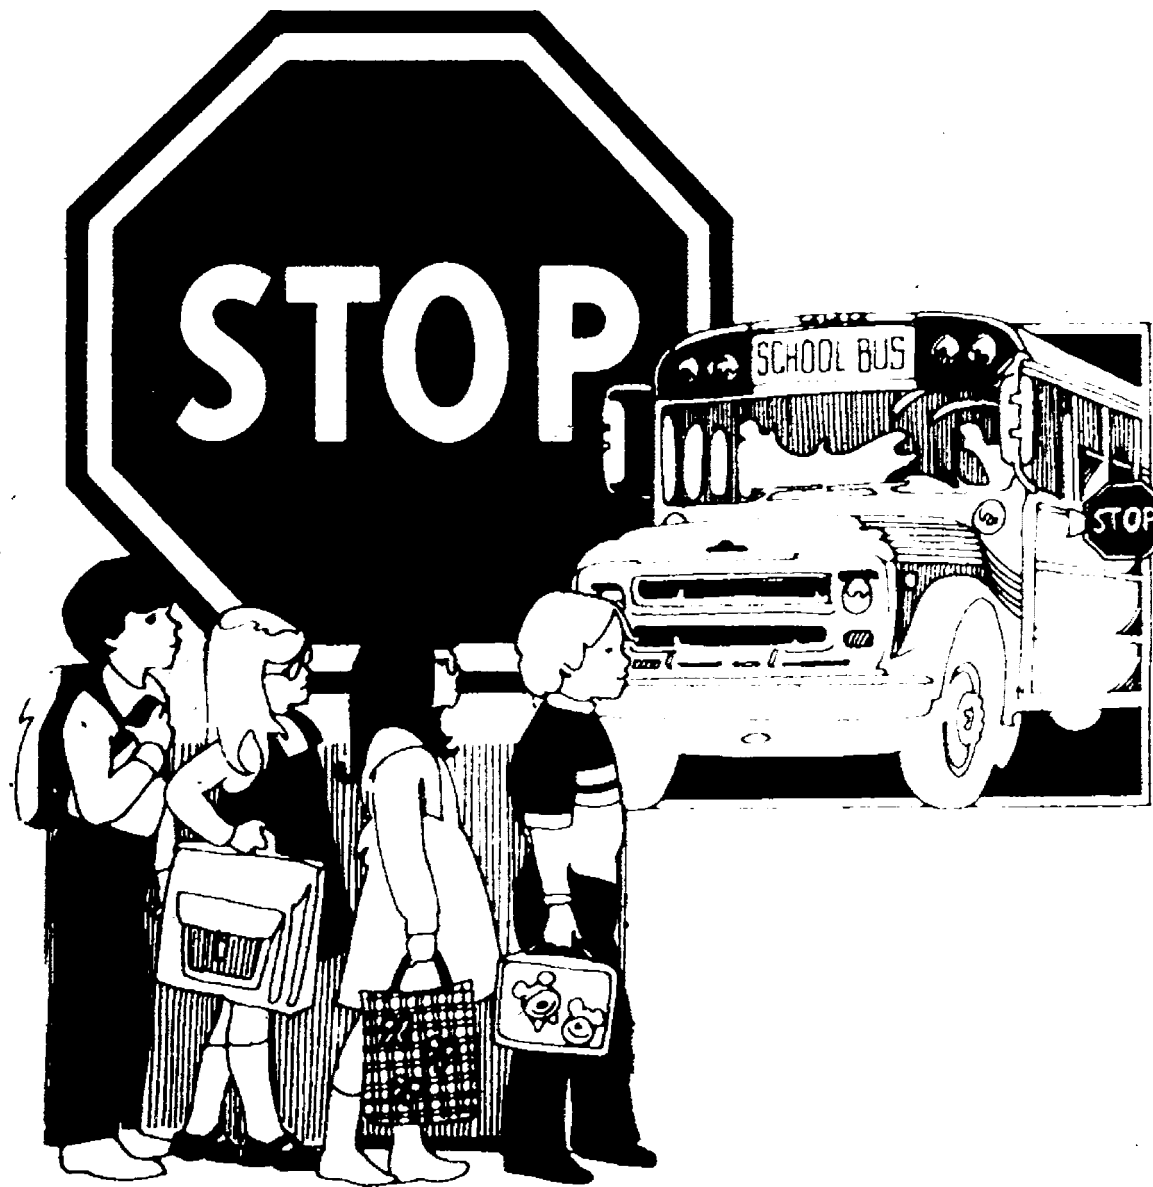

Then came the fourth copier. It seemed to work okay, but I had a few doubts as I watched the sales representative dump toner all over the machine as well as herself. However, she lost the sale when she wanted to talk to my "man boss". (Women wonder why they have trouble getting ahead in the business world).

With copiers two and four ruled out, I had to make a decision between the other two. After re-evaluating the good and bad points of each machine and talking to people who had them, I finally made a decision, only to have my "man boss" question it. (There are days I think the world would be a better place if men didn't exist). Oh well, I ordered the copier and it had better do everything it is supposed to do. I think I'll have a little chat with it when it arrives so that we both understand each other.

Thomas Coleman of Canton received a second place and two honorable mentions for his bisque stain ceramics at the State Ceramic Show put on by the Michigan Ceramic Dealers Association.

Jean A. Rosbolt, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Rosbolt of Plymouth was commissioned in the U.S. Navy Nurse's Care. She will receive six weeks of training in Rhode Island before going to San Diego, Calif.

It's 'Skatin' Station'

WINNERS OF THE CONTEST to name Plymouth-Canton's new roller rink are Janice Thumm, of Plymouth, and Tom Bankowski, of Canton, shown here being congratulated by Austin Lynch, (left) owner of the rink. Judges in the contest picked "Skatin' Station" from the more than 800 entries. The co-winners both submitted that name and will split the $500 prize. (Crier photo)

Plymouth Hilton ready for big birthday bash

Doing anything Sunday? You can help others while enjoying a whole day of fun at Entertainment Festival '81 at the Plymouth Hilton.

Hilton staffers are putting the final touches on their birthday party, celebrating the sixth anniversary of the hotel in Plymouth. The event also serves a greater purpose, however, by aiding the City of Hope National Medical Center in Los Angeles.

The outdoor festival will begin at 11 a.m. and last until 6 p.m. and feature arts and crafts booths, rides, shows and musical entertainment provided by a number of bands and groups. A concert featuring The Dittilies will be held beginning at 9 p.m., with proceeds going to the City of Hope. Don Platte Liquor Marketing of Northville has donated a number of door prizes for the concert, which will cost $5 admission.

Several local notables will be present at the festivities, including Plymouth Mayor Mary Childs, City Manager Henry Graper, Canton Supervisor James Poole, State Senator Robert Geake, Judges Dunbar Davis and James Garber, Chamber of Commerce President Betty Stremich, Miss Michigan United Teenager Becci Minges and Ronald McDonald.

A pumpkin painting contest will also be held for the younger crowd, featuring first, second and third place ribbons in each age group from ages five to 12. Pumpkins are available from the Hilton before Oct. 4. Entries will be accepted from 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., with registration forms available at the Hilton.

For those who would rather enjoy the Festival from a comfortable seat, the entire event will be video taped by Advanced Media Services and shown at the Dittilies concert during breaks. The concert itself will also be shown on a screen in the Hilton ballroom.

Transportation to and from the Festival has been donated by The City of Plymouth. The city's double-decker bus will run continuously to the event, with pick-up and drop points at Kellogg Park at the bulletin board; the Hillside Inn; and at the bus stop in Old Village on Liberty Street between Starkweather and Mill.

Mike Haggerty of the Hilton is urging everyone "to come out and have a good time and benefit a worthy cause at the same time."

FANCY LANDSCAPING IT'S NOT. Backyards in Park Gardens Sub-division on the north side of Five Mile have lots of problems with septic tank effluent bubbling out of the ground. Backyards are soggy messes. This homeowner placed chunks of concrete on top of the quagmire.

WHEN THE RAINS COME, the Park Garden subdivision homeowners have even more problems as storm water mixed with sewage covers yards and roads. The long-running problem has been in the discussion stage for several years with no quick end in site for the Northville Township residents.

Park Gardens homeowners seeking fast sewer action

BY DICK BROWN

Homeowners in Park Gardens of Northville Township just across the line from Plymouth Township are getting lots of sympathy but little action in solving a bad health situation. The subdivision, composed of 130 homes, has been living with a nightmare which has been getting worse.

There is no sewer service in the subdivision and septic effluent is oozing out of the ground in just about every direction. The effluent not only bubbles out of the ground around septic tanks and tile fields, it is also finding its way into roadside ditches, through storm drainage structures and into Tanger pond, close by Plymouth-Canton School District's Tanger School.

All the proposed solutions carry big price tags.

The current plan on the drawing board takes the western route. Cost estimates on the western plan are set at $1.2 million.

Park Gardens property owners will be footing some of the costs, when a plan is finally decided upon, and the homeowner share will be going up as chances for federal funding participation decline.

Officials at all levels of government agree on one point—development in Park Gardens should have been curtailed long ago until a sewer solution was put together.

Improving the Park Gardens situation has long been recognized as a high priority and has been used to obtain grants for sewer improvement work, according to some of the residents, but nothing seems to get done.

The Michigan DNR environmental officials as well as county and township officials are concerned but there is no quick-fix solution. After meetings with Plymouth and Livonia officials, negotiations broke down when it came to "technical difficulties and dollars."

Northville Township has received five grants since 1977 totaling $452,434 but cost of planning and inflation plus withdrawal of some of the funding because it hadn't been used, has left a shortage.

The plan currently under consideration is a costly one calling for a lift station at Park Lane, sewer lines routing the sewerage from the homes on Marilyn, Maxwell, Fry and Park Lane to Five Mile Road and then either east to Haggerty Road and Livonia, south to Plymouth Township or west uphill to tap into a county interceptor in Northville Township.

Now being considered is a method of financing the Park Gardens cleanup through the township's own water and sewer fund but township officials are quick to point out that Park Gardens homeowners are still going to have to pay through a special drainage district.

Plymouth boy's balloon gets to Ohio quickly

Tom Stout, 545 Herald, Plymouth, has a better idea for the United States Postal Service. They should move the mail with balloons.

On Friday, Sept. 4, the Plymouth youth received a helium-filled balloon when he went to the Ann Arbor Road Burger Chef.

When he got home he wrote a note with his name and address and attached it to the balloon and cut it loose.

A few days later he received a letter and his balloon from the Reagan family—not the one in the White House but the one in Lorain, Ohio, near Cleveland. They reported that the balloon landed in their front yard on Sept. 5, just a few hours after Tom cut it loose.

It took three days for the Reagan letter and the balloon to get back to Plymouth using the United States mail. The Reagan note said they were particularly pleased to get the balloon message from Plymouth inasmuch as they were familiar with the community and had good friends living here.

Plymouth C of C ballots mailed to membership

Ballots for election of the 1982 Board of Directors of the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce have gone out to Chamber members.

Vacancies exist on the board for retail, industrial, education, professional and at-large board members.

Each Chamber member is accorded one ballot for each five full time employees, not to exceed five ballots. Ballots must be received by the Chamber no later than Oct. 7.

Seeking the board seat in the retail category are Tom Bohlander, owner and president of Sunshine Honda; and Amy Gunter, a partner in New Gal in Town

Sorority to meet

Sigma Kappa Sorority Alumnae Chapter of Western Wayne County will meet at the Hearthside-Ethan Allen furniture store in Livonia for a tour of the facility and its monthly meeting on Oct. 5 at 7 p.m. Those planning to attend should contact Sandy Beecher at 326-0406.

and president of the Old Village Association.

The industrial board vacancy is being sought by Bob Walker, general manager of Packaging Corporation of America in Plymouth; and John Kim, president of Auto Plas, Inc.

Education board seat candidates are Mary Childs, a substitute teacher in the Plymouth-Canton Schools, member of the advisory committee for elementary curriculum and present Mayor of Plymouth; and Richard Egli, administrative assistant for community relations for Plymouth-Canton Schools.

Professional persons seeking a board seat are Mike Pollard, an attorney with Draugelis, Ashton and Scully; and Roger Haslick, an attorney and counselor.

At-large members seeking election are John Dithmer, general manager of the Plymouth Hilton; and Margaret Slezak, assistant treasurer of the Community Federal Credit Union.

The newly-elected Board of Directors will convene on Oct. 15 at 8 a.m. to select the officers for the 1982 year.

Vapor street lighting project set for Main St.

Main Street in Plymouth will soon have its street lights replaced with 358 vapor lights from Detroit Edison.

Edison workers have already installed the poles for the completed section of the parking mall on Forest Avenue and have started the digging and wiring of the first lights along the northern section of Main.

According to City Manager Henry Graper Jr., the lights are being funded completely by Edison. Edison had made promises of the lights over a year ago.

Graper expects the lights to be in and ready within the next month and a half. The lights will extend from Mill Street in Old Village to Ann Arbor Road.

Vapor lights are high frequency lights. They give off an orange glow that is not as harsh to the eye as normal street lighting.

In a related development note for downtown Plymouth, Penniman Avenue between Harvey Street and Ann Arbor Trail will soon become one-way parking malls on the same line as the Forest project just recently finished.

Penniman from Main to Harvey will become one-way heading west with angular parking, while Penniman from Main to the Trail will become one way heading east.

Cost for the projected parking malls is $15,000.

Graper said Monday that bids have already gone out on the project and the city expects the tabulations before next Monday's (Oct. 5) City Commission meeting.

Woody Lynch named as C of C director

The Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce has a new member of the board of directors.

Woody Lynch has been named to fill the vacancy on the board caused by the resignation of Harold Guenther. He resigned because of illness.

Lynch was named as director Sept. 17.

Rocks stumble through homecoming, fall 28-14

BY KEN VOYLES

For three quarters Friday night Salem High's football team had no fire in its gridiron engines against Suburban Eight League opponent Dearborn Edsel Ford.

In three quarters the Thundebirds put four touchdowns on the board. The Rocks built steam in the final quarter and collected two touchdowns of their own, but it wasn't the way the Rocks would have liked the homecoming to end, as they fell 28-14.

Returning home after two road games, including last week's tough loss to Trenton, the Rocks lacked punch and desire in the early going.

"The number one difference is they have a great quarterback. He had time to pass all through the early part of the game. Number two we made a lot of foolish mistakes," said Salem coach Tom Moshimer, "but I take blame for that. I guess I didn't prepare the team well enough.

"I thought we moved the football on the ground. They just big played us. They also controlled the football most of the first half," Moshimer continued.

Edsel Ford started the game with a big kickoff run that ended at Salem's 44-yard line. From there the Thunderbirds moved in to score by the 10:28 mark, but the kick was no good.

Salem's first drive started at its own 34-yard line. From there the Rocks running game moved the ball to the Edsel 35-yard line. On a fourth and two the Edsel defense held and Salem gave up the ball.

Edsel drove to Salem's five yard line on the next series before a fumble stopped the drive.

Early in the second quarter, Rock back Dave Slavin fumbled a pitch and Edsel took over at Salem's 19-yard line. Two plays later the Thunderbirds scored again. A faked kick led to a successful two point conversion and Edsel was ahead 14-0.

Edsel scored again at the 2:11 mark of the third quarter. Edsel had started their drive at its own 43-yard mark.

Early in the fourth quarter, the Thunderbirds tallied their fourth TD after driving from their own 38-yard line. The score read 28-0.

On the ensuing kickoff Salem back Ken Harmon ran from his own 18 to his own 34-yard mark. A Jeff Hubert pass to David Houle put the ball on the Edsel 33-yard line. Darryl Bartkowiak moved it to the 28-yard line and Hubert passed to Bob DeBenedet to the Edsel 20.

Hubert then ran to the Edsel 14-yard mark and Bartkowiak took it to the nine yard mark for a first down. On a third down play at the five yard line Hubert passed to halfback Mickey Madsen for the touchdown. Time was 8:39 left in the game. Mark Blaesser's kick was good.

The Rocks then successfully attempted an on sides kick and moved the football to the Edsel 10-yard line. On a third down and two Hubert rolled right and tried to pass but was intercepted.

Edsel then drove to its own 35-yard line before punting, Salem took the ball at its won 24-yard line.

Madsen, on a first down from that mark, took a Hubert pitch to the left side of the line, broke a tackle, cut up the middle part of the field before heading right and out running Edsel defenders. His touchdown run covered 64 yards. The extra point was good and the score was 28-14.

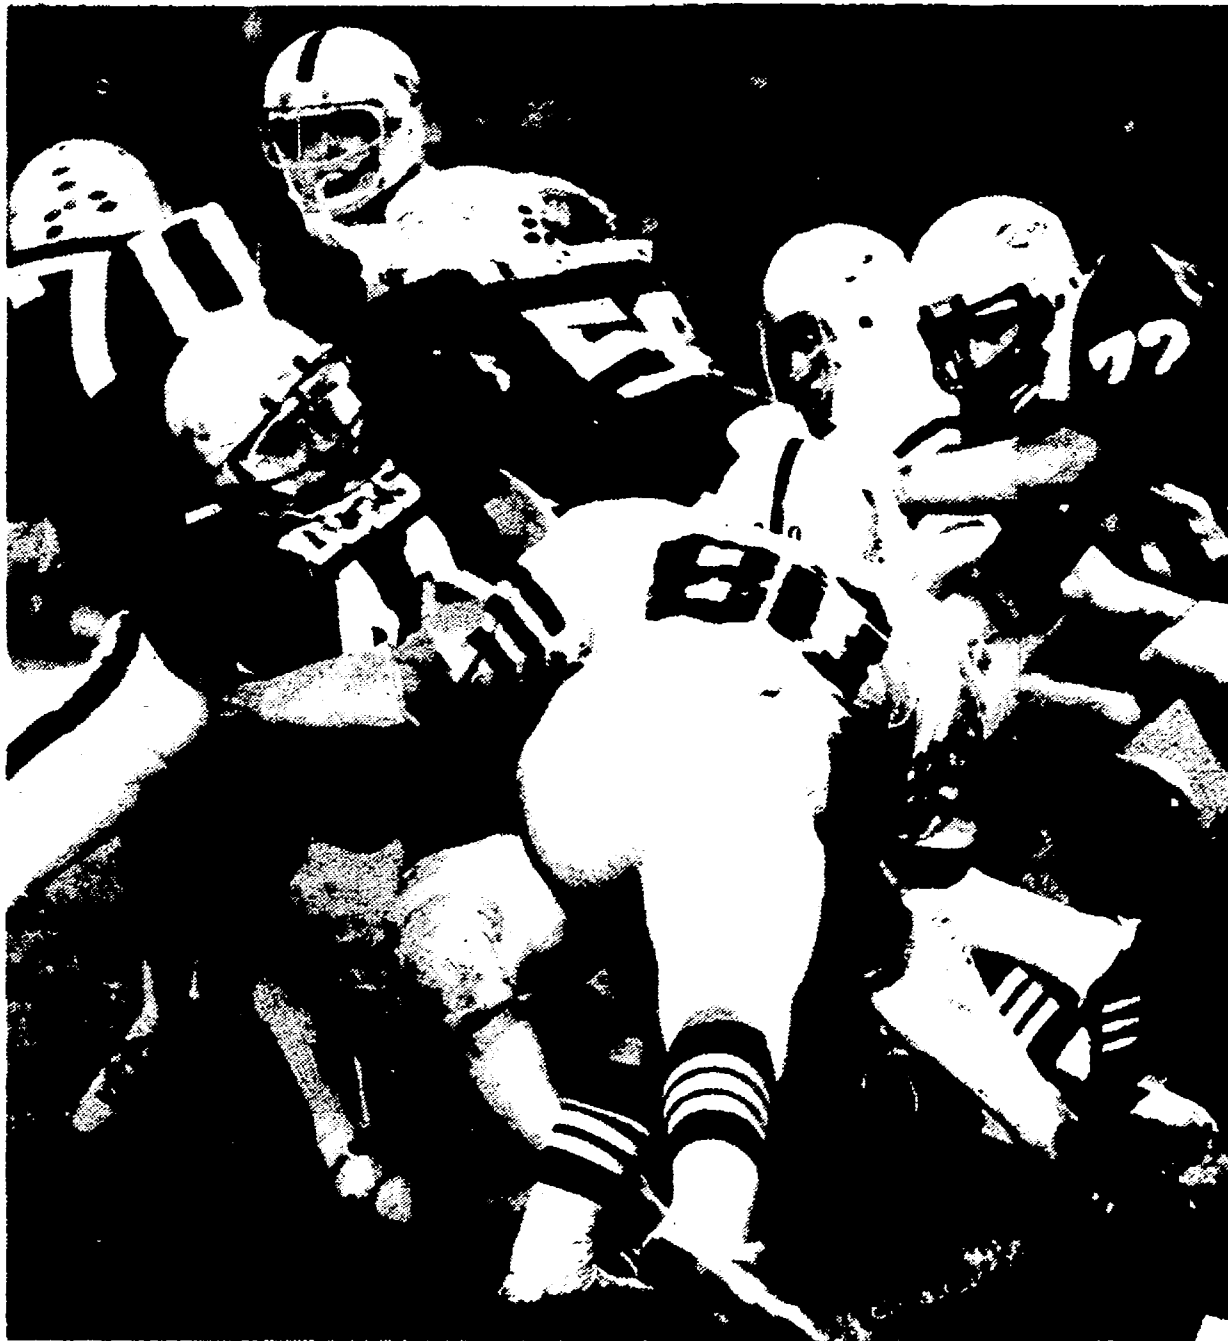

The Rocks tried another on sides kick but were unsuccessful.

Salem did get the ball one more time but three incomplete passes stalled the final chance.

"We were flat in the first half. The trouble with Edsel is they can break a game wide open on you with the big plays," said Moshimer. "I think the inadvertent whistle call in the first quarter hurt our first drive. It took something out of us.

"Our attitude is still there. I can say that in spite of this game. We didn't quit but we were not sharp at all at the beginning," he concluded.

The Rocks will travel to Livonia Bentley Friday night for a 7:30 p.m. Suburban Eight League game. Salem is 1-2.

Basketball sign up for PCJBA

The Plymouth-Canton Junior Basketball Association will conduct its annual registration days for interested boys and girls wishing to play in the program this winter.

The first of two dates will be this Saturday, Oct. 3, from 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. at Canton High's Phase III building on Canton Center Road at Joy Road.

The second date will be Oct. 10 at the same time and place.

Cost is $15 for C League, girls third and fourth grades and boys third grade; $18 for B, A and AA Leagues, girls fifth through 12th grades and boys fourth through 10th grades; and $23 for AAA League, boys 11 and 12th grades.

Each player is required to buy $5 worth of raffle tickets to support the annual PCJBA fund raiser or a $70 maximum per family including raffle tickets.

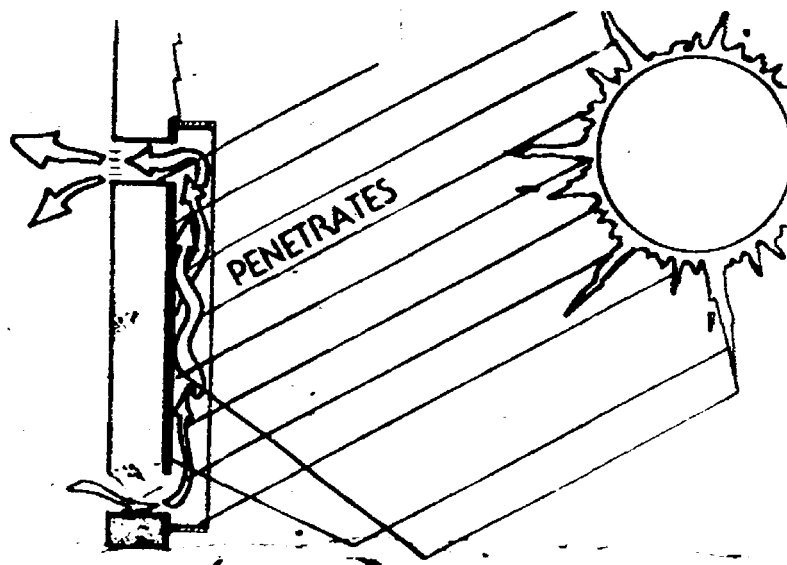

Practice for the league will be scheduled for one and two week sessions of one and half hours. Games are scheduled for Saturday, except certain AA and AAA games. The season starts Oct. 15 and ends March 6.

All players are placed on a team. They do not have to make a team on their ability.

The league is also looking for referees to sign up during the registration period.

The program accepts children from the Plymouth-Canton School District including, all of Canton, Plymouth and Plymouth Township.

Chief grid team falls to Stevenson, 16-0

One week Canton High's football team looks like a full fledged gridiron squad, disciplined and not prone to making mistakes, while the next week the Chiefs wallow in mistakes and a lose a football game they could have won.

Friday night Canton was edged by non-league foe Livonia Stevenson, 16-0, dropping its record to 1-2. Last week the Chiefs had beaten Dearborn Annapolis, 21-0.

Canton coach Richard Barr was glum in the defeat, realizing that his squad had controlled much of the first half and parts of the second, moving the ball into Stevenson territory time and time again only to be stopped by a mixed bag of penalties, turnovers, and incomplete passes.

Stevenson scored two touchdowns off Canton and picked up a safety. The Chiefs put one tally on the scoreboard but had it called back due to an illegal block block.

"I think it really hurt that we didn't get that called back touchdown," said Barr, who added that his team's momentum stalled after that called-back touchdown and the Chiefs never seemed to pick it up again.

The Spartans stalled their first drive and kicked to Canton. The Chiefs moved the ball to their 27-yard mark but also stalled. On the punt attempt the Stevenson line partially blocked the kick and Stevenson took control of the ball at the 27-yard mark.

From there the Spartans moved to the 10-yard line and then to the three before tailback Scott Haeger scored from that point. Time was 4:08. The kick was good.

Two plays following the ensuing kick Canton back David Simms took the ball at his own 22-yard line and ran to the 40-yard mark. On the following first down Chief quarterback Pat Murphy went left on a sweep play 60 yards for a touchdown. But there was a flag on Canton.

The Chiefs continued the drive to Stevenson's 42-yard mark before kicking. Then the first quarter ended.

Stevenson stalled and kicked to Canton's four yard line where the Chiefs took over. The Chiefs moved the ball to the 19-yard mark but then Simms was tagged for a 15-yard loss back to the four. Two plays later halfback Mike Clayton fumbled the football in Canton's end zone and was tackled for a safety. Stevenson led 9-0.

Mike Perrot recovered a Stevenson fumble for Canton three plays later and the squad moved into Stevenson territory. A flag on the Spartans on fourth down pushed the Chiefs to Stevenson's 20-yard mark. A pass put the ball on the five yard line. Two runs moved it to the one yard line before a flag on Canton moved the ball back to the six. Clayton lost two more yards on the next play and Murphy's pass fell incomplete as the first half ended.

Stevenson picked up its second touchdown near the end of the third quarter. The Spartans started at their own 13-yard line. They moved up field to Canton's two-yard line before Mike Arakelian dove into the end zone. The kick was good and Stevenson was ahead 16-0.

Salem cagers turnover to 2 league victories

BY KEN VOYLES

"We haven't committed that many turnovers in two years," said Salem girls basketball coach Bob Blohm after his squad ran rags around Suburban Eight League foe Dearborn Thursday night and won, 54-34.

Blohm wasn't at all pleased with the 19 recorded turnovers his squad made. "The pitiful thing about those turnovers is there was no defensive pressure there to create them," he said.

"I consider our team a good ball handling team, but they didn't show it tonight. Dearborn played hard and with a look of intensity and we didn't," Blohm continued.

The Rocks climbed to a 12-4 lead at the end of the first quarter using a tough defense to keep Dearborn at bay. Offensively, the Rocks missed many scoring opportunities but Jacque Merrifield still scored two baskets, while Eileen Moore, Pam McBride, Ann Glomski and Jan MacKenzie had a bucket each.

MacKenzie and Carol Ross sparked the Rocks through the second quarter scoring four points each, while Glomski, McBride, and Dawn Johnson added two points each. Salem led 26-10 at the intermission.

Moore had eight points, Merrifield six, and Ross five to pace the Rocks through the third period. By the end of the quarter Salem was in front for good, 45-18.

The Rocks scored nine more points in the final eight minutes of action. MacKenzie had a basket, as did Sue Remer and Johnson. Remer also hit one of two free throws and Glomski hit four of four free throws.

"We played some hard defense but we weren't very smart of defense. I guess that's my fault, I kept them in their defensive pressure too long and it may have hampered them," said Blohm.

Earlier in the week, the Rocks dumped conference foe Allen Park, 53-18.

Salem will face league opponent Belleville tomorrow at home. Game time for varsity is 7:30 p.m. "Belleville has been scoring a tremendous amount of points in losing efforts," said Blohm.

Chiefs win x-country dual Canton High's cross country team picked up its first dual win last week. The Chiefs also fell, however, to league opponent Walled Lake Central on Thursday, 24-31.

Against Central, Dan Henry was Canton's best finisher in third place, 18:17, while Tim Collins was 4th, 18:28, Tom Pasley seventh, 18:41, Brian Lee eighth, 18:43, Todd Gattoni ninth, 18:41, Chris Albaugh 14th, 19:24 and Kevin Biddinger 18th, 19:51.

Earlier in the week Canton edged Livonia Bentley, 27-29.

Henry won the course that day with a time of 17:22. Collins was fifth, followed by Pasley, Lee, Gattoni, Albaugh and Bill Reed.

Rock netters win a pair

Salem High's womens tennis team reaped two more dual wins last week defeating Livonia Franklin in non-league action and beating Dearborn in Suburban eight League play.

Against Franklin on Thursday, the Rocks won 6-1. Chris Gilles won No. 1 singles, 6-0 and 6-0, over Dvorak, while Salem's No. 2 singles Carol Hathaway knocked off McCalla, 6-2 and 6-2.

Lisa Maggio won No. 3 singles for the Rocks, 5-7, 6-0 and 6-1, over Solowjow and Julie Taylor lost at No. 4 singles, 6-3 and 6-4, to Bigham.

Kristy Brandenburg and Beth Miller teamed to win No.1 doubles for Salem, 6-3 and 6-2, over Hay and Carlton, while Chris Koridick and Jane Ploughman beat Mejers and Maglia, 6-3, and 6-4, at No. 2 doubles.

Kathy Graham and Kathy Pursell won No. 3 doubles for Salem, 6-4 and 6-1, over Matuszewsk and Mejers.

The Rocks also dumped Dearborn, last Tuesday, 5-2.

Salem's four singles players, Gilles, Hathaway, Maggio and Carol Gillispie all won as did the doubles team of Brandenburg and Miller.

"We really haven't had a true test yet," said Salem coach Judy Braun after her squad upped its record to 6-0.

Salem will travel to Livonia Bentley today for a league match at that school. Match time is 4 p.m. Tomorrow the Rocks face Kingswood at home at 4 p.m. Braun said that match might make for some good competition for the unbeaten Rocks.

Salem golfers fall to Dearborn, win Scramble

Salem High's mens golf team had its Monday match with league foe Allen Park called off until Oct. 14. Last week the Rocks fell to Dearborn, 211-214, in Suburban Eight League play.

The Rocks also won the annual "Scramble" match between Salem and Canton. Salem shot a 149 and Canton a 151. Each squad had two two-man teams, a three-man team and a four-man team.

The Rocks also hosted the Best Ball competition earlier in the week where they were 14th out of 24 teams. The Rocks had a 163 tally.

Jeff Trim and Nunzio Marino shot an 80, while Rob Zeigler and Rob Rowland had an 83.

The Rocks next match will be Oct. 5 when they travel to Dearborn Edsel Ford at 3 p.m.

Rock soccer team wins 4th Monday

Salem High's soccer squad upped its record to 4-0 with a three wins. The Rocks knocked off Farmington Harrison Monday night, 4-2, and earlier beat Northville, 2-1, and Ypsilanti, 8-1.

Chief golfers drop dual Canton golfers dropped a dual match to Western Six League foe Northville Thursday. The Chiefs carded a score of 231 and Northville had 208.

Earlier in the week the Chiefs were 13th at the Plymouth Best Ball competition with a total score of 162. Salem was 14th with 163.

In best ball each of the 24 teams involved had two teams of two players. The best score from each two-man team were counted and totaled.

Canton's Paul Phillip and Dave Musch had a 77, while Eric Popp and Tim McManaman had an 85. Popp and McManaman are sophomores as is Musch. Phillips is a junior.

"They're a young team. I know they can play better than this, it's just going to take time," said Canton coach Cassey Cavell. "Just now they are building confidence and team spirit. I'm still looking for improvement."

The Chiefs next match will be tomorrow against Western Six League opponent Walled Lake Western at Western. Match time is 3:30 p.m.

Salem x-country swept by EF

Salem was swept by Dearborn Edsel Ford last week in a Suburban Eight League cross country competition. Edsel Ford collected the first six places for 15 points, while the Rocks had 48 points.

Salem's top finish in the meet was Frank Brosnan with a time of 17:29 over the 5,000 meter course. He was seventh. Brad Hartell was eighth with an effort of 17:47.

Skip Whittaker was 12th for Salem, 18:31, Mike McBride was 14th, 18:34, and Paul Mills was 17th, 18:54.

"My first reaction was disappointment that they beat us so badly," said Salem coach Scott Dunson. "Some of our kids ran really well. McBride will be under 18 minutes for three miles (the normal cross country distance) maybe by the end of this week."

The Rocks will face Livonia Bentley tomorrow at their home course at Cass Benton. Meet time is 4 p.m. "We shouldn't have any problems with them, but you can never tell what a team is going to do on any given day," said Dunson.

Canton swimming

The Canton swim team defeated Redford Thurston last week 106-46 in non-league swim competition.

The Chiefs will face Northville in tomorrow at Northville in a big Western Six League meet for the squad. Meet time is 7 p.m.

"The Northville meet should be real close. They only have 12 swimmers, but they're really good ones," said Canton coach Hooker Wellman. "If we beat them it will be on our depth. It should be a good meet, we're starting to come around as a team."

Against Harrison Scott Shwartz and Paul Neschich each scored two goals. Neschich picked up one of his on a free kick.

"It was a very windy game. We kind of dominated the game," said Salem coach Ken Johnson. "I was pleased with the win."

Against Northville Keith Reynolds got Salem's first tally while Matt Crook got the winner. Bob Bowling had a fine defensive game, said Johnson.

"Canton can be pesty. When the kids are neighbors like this all form is thrown out the window," said Johnson about today's 4 p.m. game with Canton at Centennial Education Park's soccer field.

Chief netters win 2

Canton High's womens tennis team evened its overall record to 3-3, and 3-0 in the Western Six League with a conference win over Livonia Churchill Monday night, 7-0.

Kris Harrison win No. 1 singles, 6-1 and 6-2, over Julie Roman, while Lori Smith won No. 2 singles, 6-2 and 6-4, over Elise Cameron.

Julie Swain captured No. 3 singles with a 6-2 and 6-0 win over Abbie Ahern, while Lisa Schlotz beat Kelly O'Shea, 6-0 and 6-1, at No. 4 singles.

Julie Lloyd and Cheryl Smith knocked off Pat Menon and Kathy Bowen at No. 1 doubles, 6-4 and 6-0, while Jan McKinstry and Julie Gustafsen defeated Donna Risiott and MaryJo Ebmonds, 6-2 and 6-2, at No. 2 doubles.

Nancy Warkentin and Kristin Smith won No. 3 doubles, 6-1 and 6-2, over Sheri Clark and Carla Dye.

The Chiefs also defeated Farmington Harrison last Wednesday, 4-3.

Canton plays again today hosting Livonia Stevenson. Match time is 4 p.m.

Jr. football results

The Lions, Steelers and Warriors of the Plymouth-Canton Junior Football League came out on top in all but two of their games this past weekend.

The Lions freshmen defeated Northville, 12-0, while the junior varsity won, 7-0. The varsity fell to Northville 15-0.

The Steelers freshmen won, 10-0, over Westland, while the JV lost, 13-12, and the varsity won, 6-0.

The Warriors knocked off Southgate, 43-13.

The Lions will play Belleville this Sunday at home. Game time at Central Middle School is 1 p.m. The Warriors will also be home Sunday at 7:30 p.m. against the Taylor Cobras. The Steelers drew a bye for this week.

Flip Rowdies win tourney

The Flip Rowdies of the Bonanza-Express Womens Soccer League won the Friendship Tournament for women in Toronto, Canada over the weekend.

The Rowdies defeated Ottawa, 6-0, in the only game they played. There were some 90 mens and womens teams from the U.S. and Canada at the event.

The Rowdies came home on Sunday and knocked off the Warren Rowdies 2-0. Kim Reeves of Plymouth tallied both Rowdies goals.

Chief cagers demolish Livonia Stevenson, 43-34

BY DAVE CALLAHAN

Canton High's women's basketball team upped its record to 4-1 Thursday night, with a 43-34 win over Livonia Stevenson, in what Canton coach Mike McCauley called a "keep away" game.

The Chiefs pulled out the victory against the Spartans despite the fact they shot only 33 per cent from the free throw line and had two of their top players foul out, along with committing countless turnovers.

Stevenson set the tempo of the game early in the first quarter as it went into a stall offense to try to limit the Chiefs scoring chances.

Rock swim team falls to Redford

Salem High girls swimmers knocked off Redford Union in non-league swimming dual action last Tuesday, 107-64.

"We did some switching this meet. A lot of girls had personal bests and even those they didn't improve were at their times. All in all it wasn't a bad meet," said Salem coach Chuck Olson.

The Rocks won the 400-yard medley relay as the foursome of Debbie Darlington, Corinne Cabadas, Terri Eudy, and Amy Dunn clocked 2:02.6. Robin Cummings, Kim Nelson B.J. Bing and Renee Rudin were third in that race for the Rocks.

Kelly Brandt won the 200-yard freestyle with a time of 2:14.6. Sallie Weimer was third in that race with an effort of 2:19.8.

Brandt also won the 500-yard freestyle clocking 6:04.6. Cumings was third in that race, 6:27.8.

Eudy was first in the 200-yard individual medley with a time of 2:19.7. Bing finished third for the Rocks, 2:36. Eudy also won the 100-yard backstroke, 1:06.4. Darlington was third, 1:12.

Dunn was first in the 50-yard freestyle, 26.8 seconds and first in the 100-yard freestyle, 59.6 seconds. Lisa Trahey was third in that race, 1:05.

Cindy McSurely scored 210.5 points to win the diving competition for the Rocks.

Bing won the 100-yard butterfly with an effort of 1:10.2.

Cabadas was second in the 100-yard breaststroke with a time of 1:16.4, while Nelson was third in that race, 1:20.4.

The freestyle relay of Trahey, Ruth Ettinger, Kim Leesch, and Pam Rode were first for Salem, 4:19.2. Siwaem was also third in that event.

The Rocks will swim Livonia Stevenson next Tuesday at 7 p.m. at Stevenson. "We've always had good meets with Stevenson. This year should be no different," said Olson.

Salem cage clinic

The Salem girls basketball squad will offer a free basketball clinic for seventh through ninth grade middle school girls interested in the sport.

Coach Bob Blohm and his varsity team will conduct the clinic starting Oct. 6 at 5:30 p.m. in the Salem gym. Players are asked to wear workout clothes.

The four-week program will be held once a week at the gym. For further information call Blohm at 459-1763 or Salem boys varsity coach Fred Thomann at 453-3100 ext. 247.

McCauley said the reason Stevenson elected to play a stall game was "they just don't have as much talent as we do." He also admitted that "it was good strategy on their part. We might have scored 80 points if they hadn't."

In spite of the stall, Canton was able to jump out to an early lead, when two quick steals led to lay-ups for Reggie Ruggerio and Colleen Crissey. With Stevenson limiting their chances to score, the Chiefs were able to build an 8-2 first quarter margin.

Early in the second quarter, it looked as if the Chiefs would run away with the game, as they kept the Spartans from scoring for the first three minutes of the quarter, while taking a 12-2 lead.

The Chiefs got into foul trouble, however, and allowed Stevenson to pull within four, cutting Canton's lead to 16-12 at the end of the half.

The Chiefs began the second half much like they had begun the first, scoring 10 unanswered points to take a 14-point margin, their biggest for the night. Stevenson could not keep up and after three quarters of play the Chiefs led, 29-17.

Canton took control over the ball in the first minutes of the final quarter. Stevenson had one chance to pull it out, when in the space of less than a minute, Canton lost both Pearly Cunningham and Robyn Hudgins to fouls. Stevenson hit four consecutive free throws and added two baskets on Canton turnovers to cut the lead to 31-25.

Cindy Sovine proved to be the game saver for Canton, as she hit 10 of her 12 points that night in the final four minutes of play to hold off the Spartans.

Canton takes on Northville tomorrow night at 7:30 p.m. at Northville.

Canton soccer

Tom Wright scored the only goal of the game last week as the Canton soccer team defeated Northville 1-0.

"Most of the game was played on their side of the field. We dominated the game and had plenty of chances to score, maybe seven or eight but we just couldn't put the ball in," said Canton coach Tony Lonirgo. The win evened his squad's record to 1-1.

Wright, a center forward, took a pass from Eddie Hintz, another center forward, and put the ball by the Northville goalie six minutes into the second half of play.

The Chiefs will face Salem today at 4 p.m. Canton had beaten the Rocks in a previous meeting before the season started. The Chiefs won a scrimmage match, 1-0.

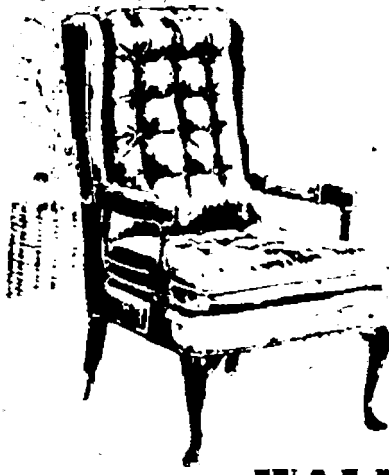

"Let's hope we can keep up our play and beat Salem. Our guys are fired up about this game. It should be a good game," said Lonirgo.

Soccer car wash

The Salem High varsity soccer team will hold a fund raising car wash this Sunday at Dalys Restaurant at the corner of Main Street and Ann Arbor Road in Plymouth.

The wash will be open from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Old Village plans festival

The 50 plus shops in Plymouth's Old Village are polishing plans for the Old Village Apple Festival scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 10, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Set in a country theme of apples, animals and amusements, the festival will offer apples by the basket, in the hand, baked, candied and caramelled, hot cider, apple pizza and strudel. There will be opportunities at a petting farm of ducks, sheep, rabbits and a llama. There will be pony rides, hayrides, carriage rides and a mechanical bull.

Other features include country singers, bluegrass band, clowns selling balloons, clown face painting and a gypsy fortune teller with proceeds going to Muscular Dystrophy fund. There will also be booths featuring arts and crafts and antiques and a flea market.

Chief Ford retires

candidates and won the top spot. He also has a degree from Blackstone College in Chicago, Ill.

Before that he served in the U.S. Navy during World War II and with the U.S. Army in the Korean conflict. He officially retired from military duty in 1975 as a full colonel.

As for his current health, Ford said, "The doctor tells me I'm as good as I'm going to get. I am doing everything I possibly can to get in good shape but it's not coming around as well as I would like."

Ford said he currently walks at least four miles daily and does a lot of work around his home in Plymouth.

Ford said his only regret was that he couldn't achieve his goal of five more years with the force. "I had goals to do certain things with the department, but actually we made some of those changes I intended," he said.

"I think the department is far more stable now than before I came. The department has done a lot of good things over the years. I like to think those things were done for me," Ford added.

Ford said he would like to continue to contribute to his profession, maybe with a book. Already a music buff and a writer of comedy fiction, Ford will add a zest for exercise to his leisure time.

Berry, a 20 year veteran of the department, came up through the ranks of the Plymouth department. He started as a patrol officer, became a sergeant in the detective bureau, a lieutenant working the road, and finally Inspector two years ago. He was named acting chief in April.

Berry, 41, was born in Detroit but came to Plymouth in the 40s. His grandfather was an automobile dealer in the community.

"I think it's exciting. I've always wanted to be the head of the department in the community where I was raised. I'll do my best to be an asset to the community," said Berry.

"We'll be sorry to see Chief Ford leaving. He's done a lot for the community. I hope he goes into teaching, I hear he is quite good at that," said Mayor Mary Childs. "Carl Berry grew up with the force. He is aware of community, his men respect him, and that will do very well for the man coming up."

Berry currently lives in Plymouth Township but the city charter requires department heads to live in the city.

Plymouth Newcomers club to have tea

Dorothy Hennis, membership chairwoman of Plymouth Newcomers Club, will host a tea for all prospective members on Wednesday, Oct. 7, at 8 p.m.

Membership in the club is open to all new residents in the city and township who have lived in the area less than two years.

The hostess will introduce guests to the club's many activities.

For more information call 459-8017.

BUT AS MY PAL KARL MALDEN JUST HAPPENED TO MENTION THE OTHER DAY....

"TIM, DON'T BE CAUGHT WITHOUT IT!

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?!"

RETIRING POLICE CHIEF Timothy C. Ford had many high points in his 10 years with the Plymouth Police Dept. but his most memorable was his scene in the national TV movie, "Word of Honor" which was filmed in town a year ago. Crier cartoonist Charlie Yerkes rendered this version of Ford's role in the movie which starred Karl Malden.

Happy Anniversary Dave & Karen -- its nice to see such a happy family -- you're an important part of this community.

Heartfelt thanks to Betty Stremich from Hillside Inn by The Plymouth Hilton Entertainment Festival '81 Committee!

Mary -- How about your new address.

Joyce

Jackie you're just soooooo short!!! Your favorite co-worker.

Hi Mary!

Vicky

(Sorry Joanna, stole your line)

That's OK! Vicky

Fender, remember that baboon with the colors on its face? I liked it the best. It reminded me of you. Vloed

To the best LITTLE cheerleader at Ladywood High. Keep your shish-boom-bass up. Love ya, Shannon.

EYE CATCHERS

Misties, candlelights, environmental, and so much more to add that special touch to your wedding photography. Rawlinson Photography, 453-8872.

Only a Has-Been would fall off the track (at Vic Tanny's) and break her ankle. Clutz of the Year award goes to Sue McElroy.

Watch it Donny, you're going to beat me out of the Plymie.

Marie

It's the Dan & Denny Show!

Tina

Mike, thanks for finding my keys. I don't understand why they always turn up right where I left them.

Lost Again

Mary, the kitchen is overflowing. Can't you come back just for a day to take the bottles back? There's almost enough to pay your way.

New man in town Fred Pappalardo of Interiors by Frederick has jumped right in to help out with Apple Festival '81 Oct. 10th. He is the Chairman - so many great new ideas will be added to an already super day for the family -- don't forget Old Village Apple Festival Sat. Oct. 10th.

Guess who is having a Special Birthday, our friend Dolly -- how can she for she looks younger & better every year.

Love, XXXX

Desperado. You better let somebody love you, before it's too late.

The Queen of Hearts

Don and Julie: Thanks so much for the great dinner and the laughter that went with it.
