To landfill ordinance changes

Canton Board says 'no'

BY DICK BROWN

Canton Township Trustees demonstrated a great reluctance to changing height requirements called for in the township's landfill ordinance.

The board turned down a request by Denski Bros., operators of a Canton landfill and holders of the contract to pick up trash in Canton as well as Plymouth Township, Romulus and Allen Park.

The landfill firm wanted the ordinance changed to allow the landfill to change the height limitation from 10 feet to 30 feet.

Denski Bros. has an applications pending for a 46-acre expansion at Lilley Road south of Michigan Avenue.

The landfill operators also requested ordinance revisions concerning landfill fencing requirements, water and sewer service to the maintenance building, road access and fire equipment requirements.

The Denskis currently operate a 55-acre landfill east of Lilley and south of Michigan Avenue in Canton which is almost completely filled.

At the June 1 Canton meeting H. Charles Cremin of Midwestern Consulting, Inc. presented the Denski arguments for changes in the ordinance. He cited the excessive costs to landfill operators in limiting the height to 10 feet.

"Limiting the height to 10 feet would mean that more land would be needed for landfills," he said.

Jim Kosteva, Canton planner, challenged the increase in the height requirement. He cited the esthetics of higher limits and pointed out that future use of the land for other purposes once landfills are filled would be limited.

Kosteva urged that the board make no changes in the township's ordinance until the Wayne County Solid Waste Management Committee comes up with its recommendations. Under Michigan Act 641 the recommendations from this committee will overrule local ordinance regulations, according to Kosteva.

Memorial Day keeps police on the move

BY REBECCA ROWAND

It was a lovely Memorial Day weekend in Plymouth, with a parade, picnics, relaxing and 13 cases of breaking and entering.

That many instances of burglary are not unusual, according Plymouth Police Chief Carl Berry, citing a recent wave of local crimes. But the record shows an alarming pattern.

Most of the weekend's thieves that were successful apparently took advantage of the warm weather and a city full of trusting residents and open doors and windows.

Police say in one case, a family was in the backyard, unaware of a thief entering the house through the open front door. In another report, it was cited that a dog with a habit of barking in the middle of the night failed to alert a sleeping family to an intruder that walked in through open doors.

Berry offers some advice: "Keep those glass doorwalls closed and locked," he says, "and pin the door so it can't be lifted out. If people are occupied in the back yard, they should be sure that the front door or the screen is locked."

Lezlie Luceus and Ruth Sample were co-winners of the award, given to an outstanding senior high school graduate who has already been accepted to an institution for higher learning. Scholastic achievement, feminist involvement and leadership ability were the most important qualifications for the award, according to a NOW spokesperson.

Luceus, a Canton High senior, is features editor for the CEP Perspective newspaper and a newscaster for WSDP radio, in addition to working in the Plymouth-Canton Board of Education offices. A musician, she has also performed a piano recital at Henry Ford Mansion. Her plans are to attend Earlham College in Richmond, Ind.

Sample, a Salem High senior, is a member of the editorial board of the CEP Perspective and recently won an award at the Schoolcraft College High School Journalism Contest. ### Set fire destroys Canton barn

A BARN on the Huebler Farm in Canton, located on Haggerty Road across from the Canton Commons, was nearly destroyed last Thursday when a fire set by two youth apparently got out of hand, according to Canton Fire Chief Mel Paulun. The only injuries in the incident were sustained by Mrs. Huebler, who rescued 6 horses from the burning structure. She was treated for smoke inhalation and second degree burns at Oakwood Hospital, and released. No charges have been filed against the youths, say Canton police. (Crier photo by Robert Cameron)

Canton Board okays Flodin Park project

BY DICK BROWN

Flodin Park is due for some needed improvements. At the June 1 meeting of the Canton Township Board trustees approved spending up to $36,500 for park improvements and park equipment with the cash to come from the township's revenue from Fellows Creek Golf Course.

The improvements will include a handicapped-accessible play center and asphalt walkway, two youth ball field backstops, infield dressing for ball fields, landscaping and sign and protective fencing bumpers for parking lot.

The project was recommended by the Canton Recreation Advisory Committee but the vote on the recommendation wasn't unanimous. Trustee Carol Bodenmiller voiced her objections for spending the money, even though township revenues from the golf course are earmarked for park purposes.

"Taking money from all these separate funds that we might possibly need for an emergency bothers me," she said, "After all, if it's gone, it's gone."

Parks and Recreation Director Mike Gouin urged the improvements be made. "After all," he said, "All we have now is 15 acres of grass and weeds."

Trustee Steve Larson said that the golf course operation makes a good deal of money for the township. "I would have great difficulty in voting to use that money for the police or fire departments," he added. "I can't see changing the logic and reasoning behind our original purchase of the golf course."

"I am not suggesting changing the logic," Bodenmiller countered. "I just think it would be nice to have that money as a cushion."

When it came to a vote, Bodenmiller cast the only no vote.

County seeks release of HUD block funds

Projects expected to be funded by the U.S. Housing and Urban Development under Title I of HUD Act of 1974 in the City of Plymouth, Plymouth Township and Canton Township moved one step closer to reality.

Wayne County Board of Commissioners will request release of the funds the first week in July. The action came after review of the projects for environmental impact.

The City of Plymouth is seeking $70,000 in block grant funds for resurfacing six blocks of Mill Street from Main to Wilcox and $10,000 for installation of a school crossing signal at Simpson and Main Streets.

Plymouth Township is asking for block grant funds in the amount of $108,000 for improvement of storm drainage system in Metro West Industrial Park at Five Mile and Sheldon Roads.

Canton Township's request covers grants of $80,000 for acquisition of two single family residences in Dye Bros. Subdivision, $34,400 for relocation of two homeowners in Dye Brothers Subdivision and $40,000 for storm drainage improvements to Fisher-Leng and McKinstry Drains serving the Dye Brothers Subdivision. Canton is in the process of developing the Dye Brothers Subdivision for an industrial park.

The property is located south of Michigan Avenue.

C.E.P. earns another U of M accreditation

Centennial Education Park, recently accredited by the University of Michigan Bureau of School Services, has received its own favorable report card.

CEP received a total of 11 commendations from G. Sutherland Hayden, the university consultant responsible for the accreditation visit.

Hayden cited the high school complex for its nature trail, use of electronic aids, pupil personnel services, energy conservation program, area coordinator system, libraries and Special Education Instructional Materials Center.

Other commendations were awarded for CEP's program to carry out recommendations from last year's evaluation, new job descriptions for librarians and the regularly scheduled discussions between school administrators and parents and other citizens.

Hayden also cited CEP for its wide range of subject offerings, noting, "The needs of a broad range of students are met, from the emotionally impaired to the talented and gifted."

The only suggestion on the accreditation report was one for the use of a full time library secretary. Raymond Hoedel, assistant superintendent for business for Plymouth-Canton Schools, says the addition of such a secretary is unlikely due to current budget restrictions.

It's sign-up time for C.E.P. summer school program

Registration for high school academic classes at Centennial Education Park begins June 14 and will last until June 21.

Sponsored by the Plymouth-Canton Board of Education, the classes include algebra, geometry, math, grammar, writing, reading, public speaking, interpersonal communications, U.S. government and history, physical education, typing, bookkeeping, speed-writing, personal law, engineering drawing and co-op.

Registration will be held in Room 1000 at Salem High, from 2 to 4 p.m.

Ma Bell plans to close Canton PhoneCenter

BY DAN BODENE

Another casualty of the construction slump in the area has appeared -- the Michigan Bell PhoneCenter in New Towne Plaza in Canton will close June 18.

Hayze Wilson, Michigan Bell corporate affairs manager, says the closing is due to decreased traffic through the store in recent months. "What we found is that business dropped off terribly. That store was never as busy as we had hoped it would be, though."

Wilson adds that a complicating issue was a recent Federal Communications Commission ruling that will force Bell Telephone to reorganize. "One of the original concepts was to keep the phone stores right in the Bell Telephone buildings," he says. "But the FCC ruled against that."

The Canton PhoneCenter closing is one of many statewide, Wilson says, and is mainly due to the economics of its location. "We tried many ways to get people into the Canton store," he explains. "But we just opened a new store in the Westland Shopping Mall, for example, and it's already twice as busy."

Wilson says Canton PhoneCenter employes will be transferred to other stores in the area.

Canton senior party has river boat theme

Graduating seniors from Canton High have been invited to join the maiden voyage of the S.S. Canton "River Queen."

On June 16 the River Queen will depart from the dock at the south end of Phase III to begin the 1982 Canton High senior party. Round trip tickets are still available for $8 in advance or $10 on the night of the party -- and parents organizing the bash say it will be quite an affair.

Among the amusements will be magician Karrell Fox, an auction featuring prizes donated by Plymouth-Canton businesses, gambling in the casino, handwriting analysis, palm reading and horoscopes reading. Also available will be a caricature artist.

But that's not all. Food will be served in the "Scalawag Saloon" on board as well as at the "Bayou Cove" dockside restaurant.

Musical entertainment will also be on board in the Scalawag, which will be graced with a bevy of dancing girls.

The River Queen will put into port at Baton Rouge, Jackson, Greenville, Clarksdale and Memphis, returning to home port at 3 a.m. The organizing committee, however, states that due to aritime law there will be "no guns, no booze, no dogs, no loose women, no loose men and no spitting on the deck."

Parents who wish to participate in the preparation of the voyage or on the trip itself can contact the following chairpersons: food - Nancy Aylsworth, 453-4838; chaperones - Bob and Shirley Kinsler, 455-2676; entertainment - Dorothy and Dave Wright, 420-2126; prizes - Dorothy McCormick, 459-9078; decorations - Sharon Davy or Joellen Odom, 453-3079; or tickets - Carlene Stoner, 453-5595. Donations may also be sent to Barbara Schendel, 9250 Oakcliffe, Plymouth 48170.

Leukemia Foundation seeks Western Wayne funding

The Dingelley family of Canton and the Western Wayne County Chapter of the Children's Leukemia Foundation is seeking local, community support for research and service programs of the Foundation.

The Dingelleys organized the local chapter last December after Mary Dingelley, former Canton Chamber of Commerce manager, was diagnosed as a leukemia patient back in November of 1980.

She underwent successful bone marrow transplant at the University of Minnesota last July and now oversees the leukemia chapter.

President of the chapter is Frank Chakrabarty, also of Canton.

The chapter seeks to provide services to persons suffering from leukemia and allied blood diseases, increase community awareness and raise money to support further research.

Patients or families of patients seeking the supportive services of the chapter are encouraged to call Mary Dingelley at 459-0509 or Chakrabarty at 455-1007. Persons wishing to join the chapter may also call either of these numbers.

Donations to the chapter may be made by mail to Western Wayne County Chapter, 6810 Bunker Hill Lane, Canton.

Thomas or McClendon recommended for second seat

Hoehn gets endorsement

Of the 10 candidates for two positions on the Plymouth-Canton Board of Education, the best choices are Lynn Hoehn and either Roland Thomas or E.J. McClendon.

Hoehn has clearly shown her potential for school board service. Her involvement in school and district PTO activities, advisory councils and committees shows a willingness to become involved with a wide range of district issues. She actively supports increased citizen-parent involvement in the schools. She also has had teaching experience, which may be a valuable credential in a year with employe negotiations in progress.

We hope that Hoehn can put her experience with district activities to the best possible use, representing not just select groups of constituents, but a broad population of parents and residents. And while we aren't completely comfortable with her decision to send one of her children to a school out of the district for a different ninth grade program, her integrity in making such a difficult decision is to be commended.

The other choice for school board member is between Roland Thomas and E.J. McClendon. We feel either would be a good choice.

Thomas has a long history with the Plymouth-Canton district - he is a graduate of Plymouth High. Like Hoehn, he has also become involved with a number of school committees and has faithfully attended school board meetings. He has displayed an interest in curriculum issues and a willingness to proceed with an examination of them. In addition, his professional experience includes valuable knowledge of finance and production scheduling.

McClendon may be familiar to a great many district voters, having served on the board four years. His academic credentials are very impressive, as is his familiarity with district-related concerns such as legislation, finance and employe negotiations. His past experience on the board is a tremendous asset and would contribute greatly to his effectiveness during another term.

There are other considerations with both candidates. We hope that Thomas will not limit himself to a few specific issues, and will seek to apply his efforts to the whole scope of school board activities. McClendon's overall qualifications are excellent, but we feel his record of attendance at school board meetings needs improvement.

Elaine Kirchgatter, the incumbent board candidate, has both the experience and knowledge of current district issues in her favor. Her participation in school-related activities, voting record and attendance at board meetings is nothing short of outstanding.

However, her lack of an aggressive voice in shaping district policy raises questions. Although she can certainly provide valuable continuity to the board, it must be weighed against her hesitancy to vote and lobby against the majority.

Marilyn Rickard is also familiar to many parents, through her active participation in a number of district activities and her attendance at school board meetings. She, too, has shown a willingness and ability to get involved in the administrative direction of Plymouth-Canton Schools. As an obvious colleague of Hoehn in the school board race, however, we must give the nod to Hoehn in the final evaluation.

David Artley has long provided a voice for selected organizations and issues facing the board over the last 18 months. An outspoken advocate of citizen access to the board, Artley has also demonstrated an increased ability to work for change within the system.

Although we feel his scope of representation may be somewhat narrow at the present, we encourage him in his pledge of continued participation in district issues.

Rodney Hosman and Arthur Leib are both newcomers to involvement with the Plymouth-Canton Board of Education and may still lack the in-depth knowledge of specific issues facing district administrators.

Although they have the talent and credentials for board service (Hosman is an assistant principal in the Van Buren district, Leib has teaching experience), we feel they are still too new to help effectively provide policy direction.

We hope that in the coming year both will make their talent and experience available to the district.

Over the last year Ernest Rumsby has obviously come a long way in terms of his viability as a school board candidate. He has shown an increased involvement in community activities, a greater accessibility to residents and an outspoken manner in representing them. A more in-depth knowledge of district issues would greatly benefit his efforts, and we defer our endorsement on that basis as well as on the strengths of other candidates.

Janis Draper, although praiseworthy for her sincerity in running for office and support for traditional values, does not present a good choice for the school board. We feel her representation will not encompass a wide enough base to effectively assist the board through the district's uncertain future.

ROLAND J. THOMAS, JR.

E.J. MCCLENDON

How Crier reached decision

Candidate endorsements in The Community Crier are made by a vote of those staff members listed on these opinion pages.

After evaluating candidates' statements posed by the newspaper and the League of Women Voters, following public forums at which the candidates are invited to speak and based upon personal contacts and observations made by Crier staffers. The staff members are invited to participate in the endorsement debate and selection process.

PUBLISHER'S NOTE: One of the Plymouth-Canton School Board candidates, Incumbent Elaine Kirchgatter, is a former minority stockholder in the corporation which publishes The Community Crier. She is also a current member of the newspaper's advisory board and former member of the company's board of directors which are not, nor ever have been, involved in the endorsement process. Please see the editorial note above explaining how the Crier staff endorses candidates.

Closing Geer School called wrong

EDITOR:

At this time I wish to extend my heartfelt sympathy to the parents of the children who have been attending the Geer School. I graduated from this school at the end of my eighty year and continued my education, teaching for 41 years in the public schools of Detroit and Michigan.

By W. Edward WENDOVER

With Malice Toward None

It's unfortunate that the race for the two seats on the Plymouth-Canton Community Schools board of education has been less than clean.

Rumors and innuendoes have surfaced more frequently than in past races.

Regrettably, one of them got into print in The Crier and elsewhere.

This newspaper tries to encourage letters to the editor and to be solicitous to various points of view and in so doing, accepts letters on their face value. Recently, someone wrongfully took advantage of that.

As a result, we formally apologize here to School Superintendent John M. Hoben, School Board Member Elaine Kirchgatter and Candidate E. J. McClendon. The Crier and another paper published a letter claiming that Hoben was endorsing Kirchgatter's reelection, McClendon's election and said the three belong to the same bridge club. (It also claimed that Hoben endorsed the election of Bill Decker to the board last year.)

While we did not agree with the letter's proposition, we printed it in good faith.

It turns out the letter was written under someone else's name and address.

Investigation into the letter's charges reaffirmed our disagreement with it as well. Hoben hasn't endorsed anybody, doesn't play bridge with either McClendon or Kirchgatter (although he had some years ago and has more recently played in a bridge club with yet another board member) but of course knows some of the 10 candidates in the race personally. We found nothing wrong in the relationships and are satisfied nothing is amiss.

Except with this particular letter-writer.

We resent the falsification on this person's part and believe we owe you, our readers and the electors in next Monday's school election, this explanation.

Now you can weigh the charge about Kirchgatter and McClendon against the veracity of whoever made the deceptive claim. We waited until we were able to track down the letter's falsification to air this matter.

Our apologies to those accused and our regrets to our readers. To the author of the fictitious letter, well... if he or she will present themselves in our office (clearly this spineless person is unlikely to do so), we'll offer our opinion of the charade.

Coloring it Brown

By Dick Brown

Too often those of us who are forced to stick close to Southeastern Michigan and have a hard time finding an opportunity to get away to see other sections of the country get the idea that all of the problems of the economy, local governments, schools, crime, urban blight is unique to southeastern Michigan.

It just isn't so. This past week end I tooted in the family bus down to the Chicago area, confined my reading to Chicago newspapers and watched Chicago TV news programs.

All those problems, plus some added ones, were evident in the news about the windy city and its environs.

If Chicago's problems aren't depressing enough, then take a side trip to the Benton Harbor area to see a city rocking on its heels, or stop by and visit with a clerk at the Paka Plaza Sears store in Jackson who was looking out over an empty parking lot on a what should have been a busy Friday evening for shoppers.

Then there are the northwestern Indiana towns which had empty retail stores showing on most every block and in those that still had their doors open, the windows were plastered with inventory clearance and going out of business signs.

Those of us in southeastern Michigan who think that finding the cash to keep schools open, police departments running and firemen on the job are the unique problems of our locality would do well to visit other sections of the midwest. The scourge of the depressed economy is evident just about everywhere in the midwest.

I have never seen such a mess as we have in some of our schools today. Many of these pupils graduating from these schools, and this includes the high schools, can hardly write their names and still they are given a diploma.

At the time I finished my education at the Geer School I am sure that I knew more than many of the students graduating from the high schools today. In order to produce a better and more highly educated student we must have smaller classes and the little country schools had just that.

Mr. Board of Education and Mr. Superintendent, you are denying these pupils of the Geer School the right to a better education. You are taking them from a better learning institution and placing them elsewhere. Do you think they will be better educated or don't you care? You can spend the taxpayers' hard earned money on frivolous things. Why not use it to provide the needs of these pupils in this little country school and keep the doors open?

You are taking these children out of their own environment and placing them elsewhere and some of them may never adjust to this situation.

Many years ago, Mr. Isabell, then superintendent of Plymouth Schools, made this statement and I quote, "The students from the neighboring country schools had a higher learning skill than those in the city." What is your answer to this?

I sincerely hope that you will open your minds and the door of the Geer School so that these children may have the opportunity to get a better start in their early education.

I am sure you have all kinds of excuses but may I ask you, "Are they legitimate?"

Are you leaving this one-hundred-year-old building to the four winds of Heaven, only to be destroyed by vandals or left to rot?

Lilley-Ford intersection needs re-surfacing job

EDITOR:

Those people who drive Ford Road are finally seeing some action from the state and county on widening and improving Ford between the Westland City Hall and I-275.

That's good.

Then there are those people who must drive Ford Road west from I-275 through Canton. This section of widening and improvements is not scheduled for another year or longer.

That's bad.

Immediate attention should be given the Ford-Lilley intersection. Drivers using Lilley need ORV transportation to traverse the rough intersection.

School vote important

Whether or not you agree with how Plymouth-Canton Community Schools are being run, you owe it to yourself and the community at large to get out and vote Monday.

Two positions on the Board of Education will be decided at the polls, and it is important that every registered voter pitches in to help make those decisions.

The operation of the school district comprises the single greatest share of how each resident's tax dollars are spent - it only makes sense that taxpayers should take the opportunity to have a say how they will be represented when it comes time to deciding how those dollars will be spent.

This year there are 10 candidates vying for those two board seats, and that says a lot about citizen involvement in the electoral process. And a large measure of credit for making electoral information more accessible to the public should go to the League of Women Voters of Plymouth-Canton-Northville-Novis, who did an excellent job with their questionnaires and well-attended candidates night.

There are 10 choices for two school board members.

On Monday, get out and vote: help make those choices.

Wayne realtor to seek 15th Congressional seat

Glen Kassel, realtor in City of Wayne, has tossed his hat into the 15th District congressional race. He has announced that he will seek the Republican nomination.

In making his announcement, Kassel said, "I am tired of being dictated to by our so-called establishment. These people have got to realize that working people are human beings. What good is all the rhetoric the politicians lay on us through the media if it is not backed up by actions? My theme throughout my campaign will be action—not slogans."

Kassel was born in Hamtramck and has been a resident of the Wayne-Westland area for the past 30 years. He and his wife, Winifred, have raised seven children.

Dunning-Hough, Canton libraries go to computer

The Plymouth Dunning-Hough and Canton Public Libraries, in cooperation with the Wayne Oakland Library Federation, will soon use a computer to check out library books to patrons. An automated circulation system, purchased from Cincinnati Electronics, will enable the two libraries to rapidly check items out and in.

Each library book will be assigned its own computer bar-code (similar to those used on grocery store products) and each patron will have a library card with a unique bar-code. Patrons will receive the library cards from the library in the community in which they reside. Each patron will have only one library card, valid at any Wayne Oakland Library Federation member library. The libraries will begin issuing cards in June.

Plymouth Family Y Town Hall series ticket sales continue

Ticket applications are still being accepted for the Friends of the Plymouth Y Town Hall Series scheduled for Oct. 6, Nov. 3, Feb. 2 and March 2.

The four series will feature Kitty Carlisle, Irene Kampen, Bill Schustic, and Jack Reynolds.

Season ticket for the series is $25. Sustaining tickets are available at $30 and patron tickets are $35.

Ticket chairwoman is Mrs. Janet McKelvey.

Celebrity luncheon tickets for the series are being sold for $30.

For luncheon tickets contact Mrs. Carol Lewis.

More information can be obtained by calling 453-2904.

preparation for entering data into the computer.

Patrons must show valid identification with current address in order to receive a card. Driver license, voter registration, utility bills or other items with address are useful. Persons under 18 years old must have a parent's signature on the application form.

When an item is borrowed, the computer will scan the library card and the items to be borrowed and will link them together in the computer.

Benefits of this system include greater speed and accuracy in the circulation procedure. It will reduce staff time required to process overdue notices. It will end time-consuming searches of the shelves for books patrons have requested. The computer will prevent unauthorized use of a lost or stolen card. When a patron wishes to borrow materials which are checked out, the librarian will be able to tell the patron the date the desired materials will be due in the library. Overall efficiency and knowledge of the status of materials will be increased.

In addition, each library will have knowledge of the status of the books owned by the other library. Via the terminal, the librarian will ascertain whether books owned by the other library or are checked out. In addition to having access to each other's collections, the two libraries will also have access to eight other libraries with their 350,000 books. Sharing the cost of the central computer enables the Canton Public and Plymouth Dunning-Hough Libraries to save tax dollars while providing more efficient library service. The cost of this system is shared by participating libraries so that it is cost effective for each community. The staff time saved by the computer will be utilized to provide more effective library service.

KELLOGG PARK was jammed with art exhibits and art lovers on Saturday, just before an annoying drizzle dampened the festivities.

JIN SHIN, 6, from Gallimore School, showed her talents at Artfest '82.

Student Artfest '82 wins over weather

Student Artfest '82 organizers say that the event was a smashing success, despite Mother Nature's refusal to comply with a City of Plymouth proclamation for good weather.

Artfest chairpersons Mike Homes and Cathy Seibert, both of whom spent untold hours planning for the student art show in Kellogg Park on Saturday, agree that this year's crowd surpassed that of the inaugural Artfest last year. "There was a very steady flow of people through the park all day," says Homes. "But we finally had to call it at about 2:30 p.m. because of rain."

Artfest '82 featured a kickoff ceremony on Friday evening with performances by the Middle School All-Star

Band and CEP Symphony Band.

The main event on Saturday consisted of art exhibits representing every school in the Plymouth-Canton district as well as five non-public schools and the Plymouth Community Arts Council.

Homes says he was pleased with the way the event came together this year. "It was our second time through, so everybody had a good idea how to set up," he says. "I was amazed at how the city DPW and our maintenance crews set up the booths and tables. They worked hard, spent a long day and helped things go over very smoothly."

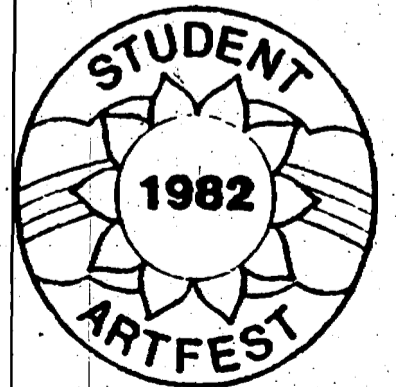

Homes also credited Margaret Wilson of the Penn Theatre for her contribution to the effort. "Margaret again allowed the use of the Penn for some of the performing groups," Homes said. "That made a lot of difference for some groups. Margaret added a lot of class to the whole thing."

And next year, Homes says, Artfest will be even better.

MIDDLE SCHOOL ALL-STAR BAND members under the direction of Carl Battishill were part of the Friday night Artfest kickoff. The band performed an original composition commissioned by the Plymouth Community Arts Council, written by Anthony Iannaccone of Eastern Michigan University.

Plymouth Twp. seniors plan anniversary party

The Plymouth Township senior citizens group is getting ready to kick up its collective heels in celebration of the organization's first anniversary. The event will be celebrated at a pot-luck dinner-dance on Sunday, June 13, at 1 p.m. at Friendship Station located at 42375 Schoolcraft at Bradner.

Dinner will be served at 2 p.m. and will be followed by the dance. Music for dancing will be provided by Jim Kipp who played at the group's Valentine's Day party.

New tile and carpeting were installed last week. The new tables and chairs are already in use and new draperies are being put up this week, thus completing the decoration plans for the building.

These are all part of the "new look" given to Friendship Station since the Plymouth Township Board purchased the building for the senior citizens.

According to Carl Peterson, the club president, "Anyone 55 years old or older is invited to join."

Peterson said, "The seniors of Plymouth Township are fortunate to have such a nice place to gather for fun and good times."

The monthly membership meeting will be Friday, June 11, at 1 p.m. At this time the seniors will finalize plans for the dinner-dance. Members are asked to bring own table service for the pot-luck, along with a dish to pass. Tea and coffee will be available.

Additional information can be obtained by calling Bertha Peterson at 455-3422.

It is suggested that a wide variety of hot dishes, salads and desserts will be needed to complete the menu.

Canton Country Fest schedule filling in rapidly

As August gets nearer and nearer, the pieces are beginning to fall in place for the 1982 Canton Country Festival set to run Aug. 6, 7 and 8.

There will be things to do, lots of chances to eat, games and entertainment plus the big Canton Country Fest parade set for Saturday.

A new feature added this year to go along with the booths operated by non-profit organizations will be a retail-wholesale booth operated by Canton businesses which will display items produced in or manufactured in Canton.

Saturday the U.S. Army will be offering free helicopter rides, taking off from Griffin Park, center of activities for the Country Fest.

A Sunday attraction will be the Canton Cow Chip Fling in which challengers will be attempting to dethrone last year's champion, Canton Clerk John Flodin.

Along with all the meals to eat and booths to visit, there will be lots of live entertainment at the band shell to be set up in Griffin Park. Manny Berez's band will provide country music for dancing Friday night while the Business and Professional Women of Canton are serving the barbecue dinner. Saturday after the parade the Windsor Scarlet Brigade with 300 members and the First Michigan Fife and Drum Corps from Troy will be performing at the park.

The parade itself is shaping up to be bigger and better than last year's initial offering. Well over 80 units have signed up for this year's parade.

Another annual attraction is the Canton Rotary pancakes and sausage eating extravaganza. The Canton Firefighters will again be on hand Saturday to provide their annual spaghetti dinner.

Sunday will wind up the festival. The day will start with a sunrise service sponsored by Canton United Council of Churches at the park grounds.

The Canton Chamber of Commerce "pit crew" will start at 6 a.m. getting the fire ready for the annual barbecued chicken dinner.

More entertainment is scheduled at the band shell all through Sunday. Another Sunday event will be "beeper ball," a contest between the vision impaired and township officials.

Flossie Tonda, president of the Canton Country Festival Corporation, said, "Plan to come for the three days of fun. There will be free parking, lots of food, music, games and prizes."

Canton issues call for 4th rotten sneaker contest

The 4th Annual Rotten Sneaker Contest for Canton residents is scheduled for Saturday July 24 at 10 a.m. in the Canton Township Administration Building, 1150 S. Canton Center.

Contestant's sneakers must be worn out from use, not abuse. All contestants will also have to perform during a talent section of the competition to show the shoe is usable.

Jim Kosteva announces run for state legislature

JIM KOSTEVA

After serving local governments in western Wayne County for eight years, Jim Kosteva announced that he is a Democratic candidate for the State Representative seat from the 37th district.

Kosteva, current planning director for Canton Township, said his experience at the local level and his positive attitude about Michigan are his greatest assets over those of his competitors. "I spend every day working on the issues that are important to the people of western Wayne County: taxes and assessments, landfills, roads, mobile homes and job creation," he said.

If elected, Kosteva said his priorities would include: utilizing the existing skilled labor force and other state resources to diversify Michigan's economy; committing funds to ensure our educational system is second to none; and, making sure that the proposed 'New Federalism' provides a 'fair shake' to local governments and the people in the street.

Kosteva, a resident of the area for 26 years, received his bachelors degree in 'metropolitan studies' from North Central College in Naperville, Illinois. His recent study has included masters coursework at the University of Michigan. While in college, Kosteva was selected to participate in the Washington Urban Semester at the American University in Washington, D.C. He also served a term in Lansing as a legislative analyst.

In recent months, he has served on the Wayne County Planning Committee determining landfill policy. He has also worked on the Transportation Systems Management Committee, which helps determine road improvement priorities.

Plymouth Y offers program in networking

The Plymouth Community Family Y has developed a network for men and women who wish to meet monthly to exchange resources and experiences in order to support their career or business.

The network meets on the second Thursday of each month at 7:30 p.m. in the Jacob Room of the Hillside Inn in Plymouth.

At each meeting time is designated for socializing, a keynote speaker, a short talk by a local business person and networking.

A nominal fee of $1 per person is charged for the use of the room plus $2.50 for registration. Annual network dues are $22 which include a YMCA membership and negates the monthly registration fee. Snacks are provided by the Hillside and a cash bar is available.

Since the network began meeting in February, guest speakers have covered topics such as the Process of Networking, Marketing Yourself, Career Planning and Financing and Credit. Other topics the group plans to address includes Business Trends, Job Availability, Goal Assessment and Goal Setting, various jobs and careers, Stress Management, Financial Planning, Marketing Yourself and Your Business, Fitness and Travel.

Network members also welcome the opportunity to meet other people in the area, to promote their businesses and to meet people in businesses and professions other than their own.

Jack Bologna, president of Computer Protection Systems, Inc., a Plymouth consulting firm specializing in computer security, will speaking to the network on June 10 at 7:30 p.m.

Local businessman, Bill Armbruster, will also speak to the group about the success of his business, Armbruster's Bootery. Time will be allotted for each speaker to answer questions.

Anyone interested is encouraged to attend and bring a friend. To make reservations call the YMCA at 453-2904.

Salem graduate at MSU honored for interior design

Sharon I., a Michigan State University junior from Plymouth, was one of 10 interior design students at MSU whose class project rug design was critiqued by a major custom rug firm in Chicago.

Bell created a red, black and white floral design meshed into a geometric grid. Edward Fields, Inc. said "Bell's adaption of the plaid from fabric makes a very attractive border" and "the flowers are dramatic."

"I was very proud of my design when it was chosen as one of the top 10 in the class of 40," Bell said.

An experienced fashion model and a candidate for Miss Michigan-USA 1982, Bell is planning a career in interior design. She is a member of the MSU chapter of the American Society of Interior Designers.

Daughter of Marion and Leonard Bell, 7650 Sussex Court, Bell is a 1979 graduate of Salem High School.

A wedding gown that spans the generations

BEAMING BEAUTIFULLY in her husband's great-grandmother's wedding dress is Mrs. Mary Shellito of Ann Arbor. The gown was reburnished by Geneva's Bridal Salon of Plymouth. Made in Chicago in 1884 of heavy, cream-colored silk brocade, it features Belgian lace at the throat, a detachable court train and laced basque waist. The dress has been worn four times in 98 years, in 1884, 1941, 1975 and last Friday. (Crier photo by Robert Cameron)

And continues a family tradition of nearly a hundred years

Mary Blaza of Ann Arbor married Dr. John L. Shellito Friday, and carried on a tradition that is almost one hundred years old.

With the help of a local expert in antique wedding dresses, she wore the heavy silk brocade that her husband's great-grandmother wore when she married her Dr. Shellito in 1884.

When Nellie Campbell married Dr. A. G. Shellito in Iowa in 1884, she wore a fashionable wedding dress she had made in Chicago. When Jean Lawman married Dr. John G. Shellito in 1941, she pulled the dress out of storage and wore it down the aisle. Even after Barbara Pike married Dr. Paul C. Shellito in 1975, the dress, after 91 years, was wearing very well. "It had been wrapped in linen," Mary said, "maybe that helped preserve it."

Mary knew the dress had to be cleaned and some minor repairs done, so she took it to the experts at Geneva's Bridal Salon in Plymouth. "We do lots of antique gowns," owner Geneva Salyer explained.

The dress was taken apart at the seams to be cleaned and pressed, a delicate job when working with 98-year-old material. Then Liz Sickels, coordinator of Geneva's alterations department, took over. She put it back together and made the repairs along the sleeves, patched the train and rebuilt the waistband. "It was exciting because this was really a historical gown," Liz said.

On her wedding day, Mary wore both heirlooms with pride. Both heirlooms? Her headpiece, first worn by husband's grandmother, is 75 years old and frames the face of yet one more lovely Mrs. Shellito.

He was nominated by his professors to the Crimson Society, and was an officer of the Student Senate and a member of the men's varsity tennis team.

Jabara plans to attend graduate school.

VANDALS who ranged through Starkweather not only turned over tables, bookcases and desks, but also used baseball bats to ruin equipment and school facilities. Every room and hallway in the building was damaged.

JUST ONE of the rooms at Starkweather trashed by an unknown group of vandals.

DAMAGE wasn't limited to ground level.

Starkweather School is target of vandals; damage estimates high

Starkweather Elementary School in Plymouth was ravaged Sunday afternoon by an unknown number of vandals, in what police say is one of the worst cases of such destruction in the city's history.

Plymouth Police Chief Carl Berry says the school was broken into on Sunday afternoon, but added that the number of vandals who trashed the building is unknown. "It's such an old school, and insulated so well, that I doubt if anybody heard anything," Berry said.

Every room in the building was visited by vandals. Berry estimates the damage at nearly $50,000 by says he could be "way off" on that figure.

Starkweather Principal John Howe says he cannot comprehend why the vandalism occurred, adding that "The damage was just unbelievable. There wasn't a room untouched."

Howe credits a combined group of building maintenance people, teachers, students and volunteers for helping to put the school in order enough so that it could re-open yesterday morning. "They did just a fantastic job," he said.

 Berry says a reward of $1,000 is being offered for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the vandals. A tipline has been set up for information regarding the vandalism, he adds, and anyone with information can call 453-8603. Callers will be given a number, which must be presented upon the vandals' conviction. Berry also says callers' names and phone numbers are appreciated, but not necessary.

COMING ACROSS with the winning run in Saturday's Salem-Canton district baseball clash is Canton's Marty Mc-Carthy (18). Above, McCarthy begins his headfirst dive into home plate as Salem catcher Dave Slavin readies for the catch..

and narrowly avoids Slavin's tag in the second.

Chiefs beat Rocks, 6-4, in district final

BY DAVID CALLAHAN

Canton High's men's baseball team captured the Class A baseball district crown Saturday, in the district held at Salem High, but by no means did the Chiefs have an easy time of it.

Canton ran into a tough Walled Lake Western in the first contest, and narrowly escaped with a 1-0 victory.

In the second game, Bill Culver led his Salem High teammates to a 8-0 blanking of Northville High, and set up a classic district final.

In the final contest, Canton prevailed, 6-1, but not before Salem pitcher Joe Humphries had given the Chiefs just about all that they could handle.

"We got down early," said Canton coach Fred Crissey. "The key was that we didn't quit. Humphries pitched a what I thought was a very intelligent game."

Salem coach Brian Gilles, who saw his team bow out with a record of 21-4 said "The game could have gone either way. I guess we just didn't get the breaks.

After Mike Battaglia started the first game for the Chiefs, he was relieved by Jamie Chilcoff, who also started the second contest.

But Chilcoff, who one-hit the Warriors during the four innings he pitched, couldn't find the groove against the hard-hitting Rocks.

Chilcoff hit Mickey Madsen to lead off the game, then walked Dave Slavin after Todd Reidel had bunted Madsen to second. Humphries' single to right field scored Madsen, and John Blanchard then walked, loading the bases. Jeff Hubert hit a deep fly to center field to score Slavin, before Chilcoff retired the side.

Canton fought right back in the bottom of the first, as back-to-back doubles from Steve Johnson and Bryan Capnerhurst scored one run. After Bill Hanis grounded out, Marty McCarthy hit a 1-1 pitch from Humphries over the right field fence to give Canton a 3-2 lead.

Dan Smith replaced Chilcoff in the second inning, but his luck against the Rocks was no better. After walking Dan Carlson, Slavin made the score 4-3 with a single, but from then on, the game turned into a pitchers battle.

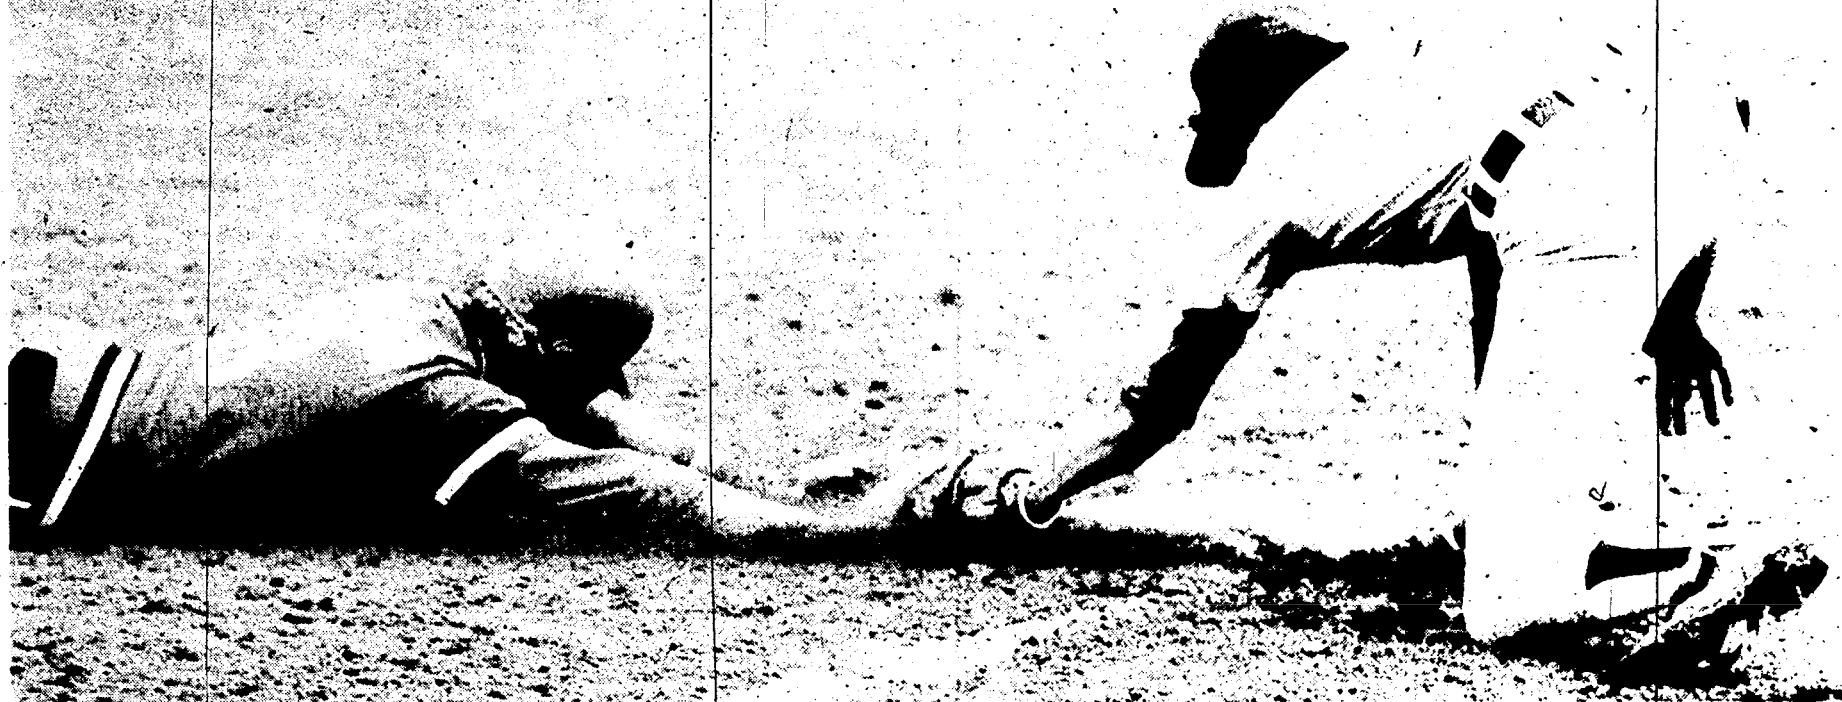

Humphries retired Canton in the second, third, and fourth innings, but walked Johnson in the fifth, after Scott Bricker had led off the inning by grounding out.

Capnerhurst hit an 0-2 pitch for a single, and Hanis lined out deep to center field, allowing the runners to advance.

Johnson came into third after the throw from center, but was ruled safe, apparently having gotten underneath the tag. Both Gilles and the Salem infielders protested the call, but to no avail.

HEADFIRST INTO THIRD BASE goes Canton High's Steve Johnson, as Barry McNamara puts on the tag. Johnson was ruled safe on the play and scored on the next play, tying the district final at 4-4. Canton went on to win the game 6-4. (Crier photo by Robert Cameron)

Regionals ahead for Chiefs

McCarthy then sliced a grounder down the third base line, where Barry McNamara couldn't come up with the ball. His throw to first was wild, and allowed both runs to score.

McCarthy had advanced to second during the confusion, and scored on Smith's single to left field, to make the score 6-4.

Salem went down in order in the sixth, and Tom Wennerberg dealt with a Salem threat in the seventh, as he pulled in a deep fly for the second out, and grabbed Dave Haut's sinking liner for the final out.

For Smith, the win was his eighth this season, against one loss, and raises his career record to 26-4. Smith is now tied for career wins with ex-Chief Brian James.

Canton now advances to regional competition Saturday, at Wyandotte High. The Chiefs will also, according to Crissey, meet one of the Class B district winners for a doubleheader today. Details of the game, and location were unavailable at press time.

Canton trackmen finish third

BY DAVID CALLAHAN

Canton High's men's track team closed out its best season ever last Wednesday, finishing third at the Western Six League meet.

Although the Chiefs, who scored 45 points, were far behind league champs Livonia Churchill, with 102, they were a scant two points behind runner-up Walled Lake Western, who tallied 47 points.

"I was real pleased," said Canton coach Mike Spitz, "this was the best we've ever done at a league meet. As far as quality of performance goes, this has been our best season ever."

Canton's 1600-meter relay squad led the way for the Chiefs, as the foursome of David Simms, Brian and Elijah Rodgers, and Frank Asis won the event with a time of 3:30.1. The Chiefs 800-meter relay, comprised of Simms, Brian Rodgers, Tommy Harris, and Mark Ritchey took a second place in the league, clocking 1:33.4.

The Chiefs also won the 400-meter relay, but the squad was disqualified for a faulty handoff.

Simms led individual winners, with firsts in the 100-meter dash, clocking 11.2 seconds, and in the 400-meter dash, with a time of 50.7 seconds. Ritchey was second in the 100-meters, 11.4 seconds, and Brian Rodgers third in the 400-meters, 52.0 seconds.

Ritchey was the final individual winner, clocking 22.8 seconds in the 200-meter dash, 22.8 seconds.

Asis took a second in the long jump, with a leap of 18 feet, 10 and three-quarters inches. Rich Tarr set a personal best in the pole vault, and captured fourth place in the league, clearing the bar at 11 feet, six inches. Rich Place was fifth in the pole vault, 10 feet, 10 inches.

In the 100-meter high hurdles, Jin Kim took third, 15.9 seconds, and Butch Steele sixth, 16.5 seconds.

Asis gathered Canton's final place, scoring sixth in the 300-meter low hurdles with a time of 42.4 seconds, his personal best.

Spitz was also happy to see that his team was in top form, as several Chiefs had personal records at the meet. "We did an excellent job," he said. "A lot of PR's (personal records) were set."

Sub. Eight fourth place goes to Salem trackmen

The track season drew to a close for the Salem men's track team as they pulled down a fourth place at the Suburban Eight League meet last Wednesday night. The Rocks, with a score of 71, followed third place Belleville's score of 76 and Eisel Ford's of 81. First place went to Dearborn, Salem's perennial conference foe, with a score of 132.

"Dearborn was very, very impressive," Salem coach Gary Balconi said after it was all over. "They were in a class by themselves."

Nevertheless, Salem pumped some serious competition into the meet. Two school records were set by Scott Buhlin, the 120-yard high hurdles in 14.4 and the 100-yard dash in 10.0, firsts in both events.

Danny Lingg sailed to first place in the pole vault with 13 feet, 6 inches and Salem's Mike Perkowski was second in the event at 13 feet, three inches.

The Rocks grabbed second in the 440-yard relay with a time of 44.76 and the team of Scott Buhlin, Marc Tindel, Mark Davis and Scott Smith. Salem also showed well in the 880-yard relay with the team of Mark Davis, Marc Tindel, Scott Smith and Mike McBride running to a third place time of 3:34.11.

Mike McBride won a solo score, dashing 440 yards to a third place time of 57.97 and the team of Marv Zurek, Marc Tindel, Scott Smith and Mike McBride did the mile relay in 3:37.56 for third place.

Sixth places went to Darrell Bartkowiak in the shot put with 45 feet, 6 and three-quarter inches and Marv Zurek in the 330-yard low hurdles with 41.09.

Rocks set two school records at state meet

Salem High set two school records in state meet competition, Scott Fuller, who placed fourth in the high jump with a height of six feet, six inches and Danny Lingg who placed seventh in the pole vault with 13 feet, one inch.

Salem's 440-relay team of Danny Lingg, Marc Tindel, Mark Davis and anchor Scott Smith ran it in 44.3 seconds, thier best time of the season. Lingg also showed well in the long jump with a distance of 20 feet.

Of the winning team, Detroit Central,

Salem Coach Gary Balconi said, "they were absolutely head and shoulders above everybody else in the state."

Coach Balconi then summed up the meet when he said, "The state meet is an attempt to perform better than you ever have, and I feel we did."

Canton High's lone qualifiers, the 1600-meter relay of Mark Ritchey, Elijah Rodgers, Brian Rodgers, and David Simms did not place at the state meet.

Rocks go to women's softball regionals after 6-3 win

BY REBECCA ROWAND

The Salem girls softball team moves on to regional championship games after Saturday afternoon's 6-3 victory over Belleville.

Salem scored six runs on five hits and two errors. Belleville scored three runs on eight hits and four errors, giving pitcher Diane Murphy the win. The game was scoreless until the bottom of the third, when Rock Dawn Henning scored on a hit by Mary Pryzlak that forced a fielder's choice. Kelly Strantz singled, bringing Mundinger home.

Three more were scored in the fourth by Cheryl Viele, Dawn Henning and Kelly Strantz. Belleville walked Viele before Henning doubled and Amy Sidorski walked, loading the bases. Mundinger was walked, pushing Viele home. Bonnie Southerland then brought Henning home on a single. Strantz scored on a throwing error by the Belleville shortstop.

Belleville scored two runs on five hits in the fifth.

Salem scored again in the bottom of the sixth. Pryzlak singled. Strantz was safe on an error and Jenny Papa singled Pryzlak home.

Belleville dumped what could have been the tying inning with loaded bases in the seventh when Jenny Papa caught a line drive and burned the ball into third, throwing the runner out.

Coach Rob Willette praised his team's performance. "Belleville has beat us twice before, we played well against a good team."

Salem played Ann Arbor Pioneer earlier in the day, winning that game 3-1.

The Rocks play their regional game Saturday, June 12 at noon at Quandt Park in Lincoln Park, Southfield and Dix against Monroe.

Canton women's softballers flub state tourney, 7-1

BY DAVID CALLAHAN

A fine season ended with a disappointing loss Tuesday.

Canton High's women's softball squad dropped out of the state tournament with a 7-1 loss to Ann Arbor Pioneer in the two teams pre-district game.

Janine Carpenter pitched the entire game for the Chiefs, and "pitched quite well," according to Canton coach Max Sommerville.

"She did a good job," said Sommerville, "but we just didn't get behind her."

Of Pioneer's seven runs, only three were earned due to any of what were numerous errors by the Chiefs.

Canton allowed Pioneer to get out to an early lead, as Pioneer scored one run in the first inning, and three more in the third, all due to errors.

Pioneer increased its lead to 6-0 in the fifth with a pair of runs, before Canton got its lone score in the sixth, thanks to two walks, and error, and a baserun, which allowed Louann Hamblin to cross the plate.

Sommerville was pleased with the team's overall season, as Canton finished 12-6, and captured a share of the Western Six League title with Walled Lake Western.

He did have some regrets though, saying "We were playing really well for a while, but we never hit as well as I thought we could. We never really broke loose."

With five returning starters, Sommerville is looking forward to next year's squad as well. Both Carpenter, who was 6-2, and Missy Aiken, who finished at 5-1, will return to the mound. With a good hitting attack, the Chiefs will return next season strong as ever.

Four generations of Plymouth grads

BY REBECCA ROWAND

Mark Gorchow and his cousin, Cheryl VanValkenburg, will graduate from high school with more than just memories to spur them on. Mark will graduate from Salem and Cheryl will graduate from Canton, both with three generations of Plymouth High School graduates behind them, dating back to their great-grandmother, Vivian Wingard.

Vivian Wingard, nee Daggot, graduated from Plymouth High, now Central Middle School, in 1910, with a graduating class of 17 students. She is now 89 and is retired from the insurance business her husband started in Plymouth.

Her sons, Edwin and Robert, graduated in '35 and '36. Edwin celebrated his 66th birthday Tuesday and is semi-retired in Bradenton, Florida, where he works part-time. "He couldn't just not work," his daughter Peggy said.

Peggy, Mark's mother, graduated in 1955. She is the comptroller at the 35th District Court in Plymouth Township.

Mark will receive his diploma June 16 and is eager to get on with a new phase of his life.

Vivian Wingard's other son, Robert, 63, is retired from Ford Motor Company. His daughter, Virginia, graduated in 1961. She and her husband own the Ann Arbor Road-275 Shell station.

Virginia VanValkenburg's daughter, Cheryl, receives her diploma June 17, 1981. She is an honor student and is active in the school music program. A college career is in her plans, at Ferris State... named after the governor who spoke at her great-grandmother's graduation ceremony that warm day in 1910.
