Vorva resigns City Commission

BY ROBERT PARKER AND MIKE MCGLINNEN

City of Plymouth Commissioner Jerry Vorva made a surprise announcement Monday that he will resign from office, effective Sept. 30.

Vorva, 40, defeated Georgina Goss in the Aug. 4 primary by 666 votes for 20th State House District representative.

He faces no opposition in November. "I have given long consideration as to the timing of my resignation and I feel that by doing so now will better facilitate the new commissioner's speedy indoctrination," said Vorva as he held back tears while reading a letter he wrote to the Commission Monday night.

City of Plymouth Mayor Robert Jones presented Vorva with a plaque for his 13 years of service to the Plymouth community.

Vorva was visibly moved as he accepted the plaque, thanking the commission and community for supporting him.

Jones said that applications are now being accepted for Vorva's vacated position at Monday night's meeting.

Vorva, a longtime Plymouth resident, has served on the commission since 1989, and was a City of Plymouth police officer for 10 years prior to that.

The City of Plymouth Charter covers such a situation. Jones selects a person from among the applicants and then the commissioners vote on it within 30 days of any resignation.

Jones expects the vote to take place at the Oct. 19 meeting.

The energetic Vorva will now concentrate on serving a much larger area than the City of Plymouth.

"I look forward to my new responsibility of service to the public," he wrote.

The 20th District consists of the City of Plymouth, Plymouth Township, Northville Township, the City of Northville and a portion of Livonia.

President Bush rolls into Plymouth

BY ROBERT PARKER

The City of Plymouth will play host to President George Bush when he makes a stop here Saturday night, wrapping up a two-day train campaign trip through Ohio and Michigan.

Although details are still being ironed out, Bush is scheduled to roll into town around 7 p.m. Saturday night in Old Village, near the Station 885 restaurant, where he will give a campaign speech from the train-track area.

His arrival in Plymouth will mark the finale of the 10-stop campaign trip, according to White House officials.

The Plymouth City Commission approved two resolutions Monday night regarding the visit, including a proposal to have a brief fireworks display after Bush's speech.

Assistant City Manager Paul Sincock said some safety and legal issues are still being worked out regarding the fireworks display. An area near Wilcox Lake is being considered as a possible launching site for the fireworks.

police officers will help out with security for the event.

Bush's recent campaign stop in Canton saw the township open its wallet to put on the event, spending close to $9,000, with more bills coming in.

City Commissioner Dennis Shrewsbury said that all precautions should be taken to keep expenses down for the event.

In addition to the Secret Service and U.S. Military Personnel, City of Plymouth and Plymouth Township

Considering possibilities Board has no hidden agenda

BY MIKE MCGLINNEN

The Plymouth-Canton Community Schools Board of Education does not have a hidden agenda to push for a new millage, according to John M. Hoben, superintendent of schools.

"I think this is a case of a new reporter going with something before they had all the facts," Hoben said.

A report in the Sept. 17 Plymouth Observer claimed that the school board was already pushing for a new millage and preparing a timetable for discussions.

In reality, board members discussed possible scenarios that might develop if the "Cut and Cap" plan or the House Joint Resolution "H" tax plans are approved in November.

However, there are no definite battle plans right now, Hoben said.

"What happened was that we outlined a time schedule for what might happen, but until the November election, we won't know what we are dealing with. We won't begin the budget process until after the election," said Hoben.

Hoben claimed the board's discussion took place just in case the proposals passed. If that occurs, the district would stand to lose $34 million under the "Cut and Cap" and $500,000 under the "H" plan.

Raymond Hoedel, associate superintendent for business and operations explained the discussion.

This was just an estimate for the board and ourselves. After we find out about the state funding, we will decide what we will do," Hoedel said.

The school board has an Oct. 17 workshop planned to discuss the November ballot issues along with residents.

Also last week, the board approved the levy of 33.8721 mills for operating purposes during the 1992-93 school year last week. This includes an additional millage rate of .0121.

There was a public hearing on the increased property taxes before the last board meeting, Sept. 14.

The increase will provide an additional $24,000 to the school district, which is not a very significant amount for a school district the size of the Plymouth-Canton district, according to Hoedel.

Canton nears settlement on ex-clerk's lawsuit

BY MIKE MCGLINNEN

Canton Township officials may finally be close to reaching an agreement with disgruntled former clerk Linda Chuhran, although they are keeping their mouths shut on the matter at the moment.

Chuhran brought a lawsuit against the Canton Township board in 1985 after many run-ins with other board members. The case has been on the docket for many years now and has been delayed numerous times, but it is now scheduled for an Oct. 1 trial.

"There have been some negotiations that have gone on in the judge's chambers regarding a settlement, but I really can't comment on the matter at this time," said Loren Bennett, Canton's present clerk.

Bennett defeated Chuhran in a 1988 Republican primary before he ultimately won the post by beating Democratic candidate Cynthia Burgess in the Nov. 1988 general election.

"I really don't want to talk about this at this time because any publicity might jeopardize a possible settlement," Bennett said.

Plymouth man charged with breaking and entering

BY ROBERT PARKER

A 32-year-old City of Plymouth resident was arraigned in 35th District Court last week, charged with one count of felony breaking and entering of an occupied dwelling.

Michael Wells was arrested Thursday by City police after someone called and reported that a man was apparently running around the streets naked, said Detective Sargent Wayne Carroll.

Bond was set at $10,000, and Wells is expected to be back in court at the end of the month.

Wells' arrest followed a long investigation by city police starting in July of this year.

Carroll said calls from residents of Roe Street had been coming into the police department, complaining that various articles of clothing were missing from their homes.

"We had numerous complaints of missing underwear garments from residents on or around Roe Street," Carroll said.

After the investigation by city police, Carroll said that Wells has apparently broken into at least four homes on Roe Street.

Carroll said that numerous personal items were recovered after Wells was arrested.

A 24-year-old resident of Roe Street, who asked that her name not be used, said she noticed something was wrong at the beginning of July.

"Some of my clothes were missing," she said. "One of my good dresses was rolled up on the floor in a ball."

A Plymouth resident for more than a year, she reported the incident to the police, and said she talked to other people living on Roe Street who said the same thing was happening to them.

Carroll said that two more felony breaking-and-entering charges are pending against Wells.

Less roadwork planned

Canton millage rates will remain similar to last year

BY MIKE McGLINNEN

Canton residents may potholes and fading road strips, as the township's declining revenues will make many road improvements a thing of the past.

The millage rates for the Dec. 1 tax levy were expected to be set at the board meeting last night.

"Revenues are down, so one result in the budget is that we will be doing less road projects. The county is running out of money and so are we," said Canton's chief financial officer John Spencer.

A preliminary copy of the 1992-93 Canton budget has been submitted to the township board and a public hearing was held on the matter recently.

The Dec. 1 millage rates must be set and submitted to Wayne County by Oct. 1.

The rates proposed by Spencer include 1.11 mills for the general fund, 2.94 mills for the fire special assessment and 4.96 mills for the police special assessment.

The "special assessments" for the fire and police budgets are actually the normal manner in which Canton handles the budgets for public safety, Spencer said.

The fire department special assessment was approved in 1976 and the police assessment was approved in 1977. They are redone each year.

The preliminary copy of the budget is approximately 500 pages long.

Other than the declining revenues set aside for road improvements, Spencer said there are no major changes with the 1992-93 budget as compared with last year's budget.

"Everything else is pretty much status quo," Spencer said.

Twp. church work continues

BY AMY KIDWELL

A new church has almost completed construction on Five Mile Road near Haggerty, in Plymouth Township.

The Nativity of the Virgin Mary Greek Orthodox Church has been under construction since November 10 of last year.

Fr. Michael Varlamos, a parish priest, said the outside of the building should be completed by Christmas.

On July 12, several hundred church members gathered to watch

Bishop Timothy, Bishop of the Detroit Diocese of the Greek Orthodox church, and Varlamos bless the new church building and pray that it will be open in time for Easter ceremonies.

The Nativity Church was founded 17 years ago by a small group of Greek Orthodox families. Today it consists of more than 225 families.

To raise money for this new building, the church has participated in the Plymouth Fall Festival for the past several years.

Canton's 1st female firefighter goes with the flow

BY MIKE McGLINNEN

Wendy Cobb, Canton's first female firefighter has no trouble fitting in and being "one of the guys" at the Canton Fire Department -- the only problems she has encountered are those any rookie on the department runs into.

Cobb is from Flat Rock and served as a volunteer in the Flat Rock Fire Department for three years before she decided to go full-time as a firefighter.

The ability to help out those less fortunate than her he'ped Cobb decide to become a firefighter.

"If you know you're healthy, you want to do something to help out. This is my way of helping out people," Cobb said.

The different challenges and rewards of firefighting also drew Cobb away from her former office-bound job.

"When I used to work in a 'regular' job, there was no physical gratification. Now I am gratified both physically and mentally by all the training and study that I do," Cobb said.

Cobb has only had one incident where a member of the public gave her a hard time for being a female in what is traditionally a male-oriented job.

"The funny thing was, it was a woman. I thought if I had any problems it might be with a man making some comment," she said, "I just laughed about it and continued doing my job."

Cobb and the other firefighters go through constant training each day, to sharpen their skills in order to guarantee they are prepared for any problems that may arise.

"You never have enough training. We at least need a working knowledge of all the stuff," said Lieutenant Donald Adams.

"We always work in teams. The police officers work independently quite a lot, but we are always together," Adams said.

Wendy Cobb's training as a Canton firefighter stresses strengthening both body and mind. Each rookie on the force receives daily feedback from their superior

"This is a much more relaxed atmosphere here -- it's kind of like a submarine, where you have to get along with everyone else."

Cobb described the differences between the training she received as a volunteer and the training she receives now with the Canton Fire Department.

"As a volunteer there was more time set aside for training, because they weren't that many fires. Here you get more on-the-job training because there are so many incidents," she said.

Cobb and other rookies receive a review with their supervisor each day to work out any problems they may be having and to allow the rookie to know how he or she is standing, Adams said.

"Each day we bring that individual in and sit them down to discuss any problems they may be having. We bring them out in the open that way. The program is specifically designed to see if that person fit into the department," Adams said.

The daily evaluation is designed to provide firefighters with feedback on their progress with the training program itself and to gauge the attitude and motivation of the firefighter, which is also very important to the "team" atmosphere of the station, said the lieutenant.

"Wendy is doing fine, she is doing a good job and has had no problems so far," Adams said.

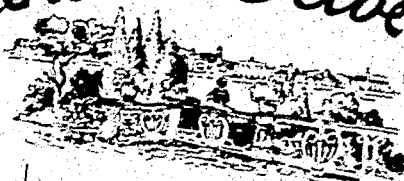

Cobb likes having the evaluations, because it allows her to know where she stands.

"You can see your weak spots -- the feedback you receive is excellent. It's not like your sitting around biting your nails or anything. You hear how you are doing everyday," Cobb said.

"They will take you aside and offer you constructive criticism, which is also something you are evaluated on -- how well you take the criticism," she added. "this kind of system really builds your confidence."

Northville drug bust Police find drugs, goods

BY MIKE McGLINNEN

Officers of the Northville Township police department made a massive drug bust last week, confiscating nearly 32 pounds of marijuana, with a street value of nearly $55,000, according to Captain Phil Presnell of the Northville Township police department.

The raid occurred at a house on Seven Mile Road in Northville Township at approximately 6 a.m. Thursday.

The officers also found a computer, three handguns, eight rifles, a crossbow, scales, rolling papers, beepers, pagers, a briefcase, several items of gold jewelry and nearly $6,000 in cash from the house.

The police were tipped off to the house's location after stopping a resident of the home for a routine traffic violation at the intersection of Eight Mile and Beck roads at 10:45 p.m. last Wednesday.

The officers seized a "sizable quantity" of marijuana and drug paraphernalia from the vehicle. The man's 1988 Pontiac Grand Prix has been taken into custody by police.

Three people were arrested so far, although only one was held in custody, Presnell said.

The police only offered vague information about the suspects: the men's ages are 32, 23 and 20 years old; two of the men are from communities in Wayne County in addition to the one Northville Township resident.

Chrysler's Viper made appearance

BY ROBERT PARKER

Chrysler's new muscle car, the Viper RT/10, slithered into the City of Plymouth last week.

Dick Scott Dodge, on Ann Arbor Road, was selected as one of the first dealerships to sell one of the 200 Vipers distributed to dealerships nationwide this year.

It will only be there for a while since the vehicle was sold before it was even delivered to the dealership.

Dealership owner Dick Scott said he expects delivery of the car sometime this week.

Chrysler picked Dick Scott Dodge to sell the Viper because of its location, retail sales performance and sales and service training requirements, according to Dodge Public Relations Manager Tom Houtman.

"We need to watch our costs," he said. The owner of Station 885 restaurant addressed the Commission Monday, and said that he had asked C & O Railroad to clean up the area near the tracks.

He also said the restaurant would remain open for business during the event, although motor traffic would be restricted from the parking area.

A media trailer will be stationed in front of the restaurant, which is expected to accommodate more than 300 people.

Other residents living near the area expressed their concern over how the clean up after the president's visit would be handled.

Sheldon School will soon be an attractive landmark

BY MIKE McGLINNEN

The Sheldon School site in Canton will transform from an eyesore into an attractive landmark at the corner of Michigan Avenue and Sheldon Road in when work is completed at the site.

The Canton Historic District Commission received $56,000 to complete the work on the site.

The money comes from a transfer of funds originally intended for another historic site in the township, the Travis House, which is presently dormant.

The Sheldon and the Cherry Hill Village settlements were the first in Canton, which increases the need to preserve the Sheldon site, according to Melissa McLaughlin, secretary of the Historic District Commission.

The project is considered very important to the revitalization of the Michigan Avenue corridor, according to McLaughlin.

"We have received real good support from the people in the area. This is an eyesore removal. We really think it will help with the area," McLaughlin said.

"This is not being preserved just as a landmark, hopefully it will spur growth toward Michigan Avenue," she added. "We are saying that Canton cares about Michigan Avenue -- we think this will prod others into keeping up their properties. Sheldon School can be such a catalyst for the area."

Work on the site is nearing completion, according to Kim Scherschligt, manager of resource development for Canton.

"They are just finishing up some site work now. The parking lot, sidewalks and some landscaping are about the only things that have to be completed," Scherschligt said.

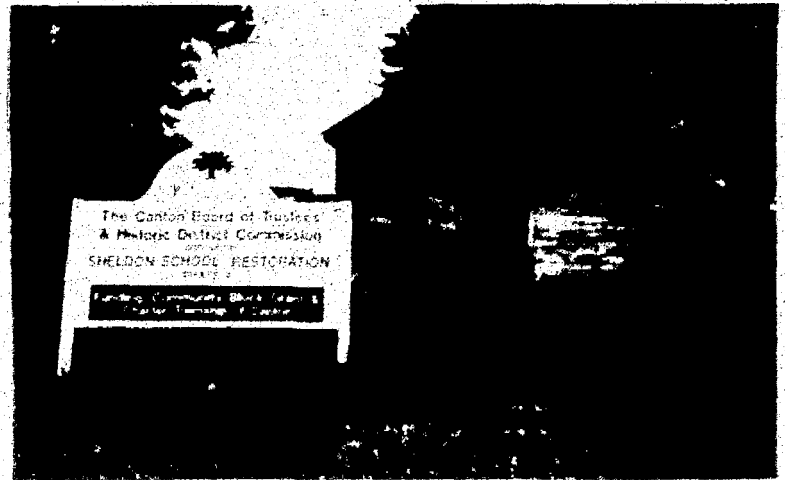

Several non-profit organizations are considering the site for office space, according to McLaughlin.

"We have no firm commitments at this point but some non-profit groups have shown interest in it. They have been very receptive to the site so far," McLaughlin said. "As with all non-profit organizations, it takes a while to get approval. They have to get approval from about 90 people.

McLaughlin is looking forward to the day when the project is completed and the commission members will be able to see the results of their actions.

"It will be a big relief to have this running -- the sooner we get it open and running, the better. It's kind of like sending a kid through college," said McLaughlin. "You do all the work, get a car and get going and then you can rest your brain a little bit."

Renovations of the Sheldon School site in Canton are nearing completion. The next money injected into the project will enable the site to be completed by next year. (Crier photo)

Chiefs win meet

BY ANNE SULLIVAN

It was an exiting meet Thursday for the Canton girls swim team as the tankers took first place in nine swimming events and diving against Farmington Harrison.

"It was a great meet for us," said Canton coach Hooker Wellman. "Jenny Warnke did a great job in the 100 yard butterfly and the 100 yard backstroke. Jennifer Barnes and Laura Popejoy did great job in the 500 yard freestyle and are coming along. I'm finding they can swim different things."

The Chiefs are 2-0 overall.

Sara Larson took two first place finishes for the Chiefs, completing the 200 yard individual medley in 2:25.63, and the 100 yard breaststroke in 1:14.95.

Jill Barnes and Pam Pritchard each took an individual first place and a first place as part of the 200 yard medley relay team.

Barnes took first in the 100 yard butterfly with a time of 1:09.57. Pam

Salem girl hoopsters win for first time this season

The Salem girls basketball team dominated Churchill last week for their first win of the season. (Crier photo by Tim Shuller)

BY ANNE SULLIVAN

Salem's girls basketball team took to the courts twice last week, and split the week, gaining their first win of the season.

The Rocks record is now 1-5 overall.

Salem's first win was its league opener against Livonia Churchill, Thursday night. The Rocks dominated the game from tip off, and beat the Chargers 65-30. They are 1-0 in league competition.

"Our first quarter was awesome," said Fred Thomann, Salem coach. In its highest scoring quarter of the game, Salem tossed in 26 points and held Churchill to four.

In the second quarter, Salem added 13 points to its score and Churchill 10, to end the half with Salem leading 39-14.

When the teams came back after halftime, the Rocks outscored the Chargers by one, tossing in 10 points, to Churchill's nine, ending the quarter with Salem ahead 49-23.

In the final quarter, Salem tossed in 16 and held Churchill to seven.

Cyndi Platter and Leslie Gotts were leading scorers for the Rocks, with 15 points each.

"We totally controlled the first quarter, and that put us in position to win the game," said Thomann.

The Rocks were defeated 60-39 Saturday by Harper Woods Regina.

Cyndi Platter led the team in scoring, tossing in 21 points. "Cyndi had a great game against the number one ranked team in the state," said Thomann.

Salem scored eight points in the first three quarters of the game. Regina scored nine in the first. In the second quarter, Regina scored 16, to end the half 25-16. The third quarter was Regina's highest scoring, with 21, to end the quarter ahead of Salem 46-24.

In the fourth quarter, Salem outscored Regina by one, 15-14.

"I'd like to stress that we play a highly competitive schedule," said Thomann. "Hopefully will be in a position to be ahead in the fourth quarter in all but one of the games. We work hard to get to a level to allow us to compete with the best teams in the state."

Rock defense leads to win

BY ANNE SULLIVAN

It was good team defense and eliminating the turnovers that plagued the team last week, led the Salem football team to victory over Walled Lake Central Friday night. The Rocks defeated Central 35-14, and improved their record to 2-1.

"The defense played well the entire evening," said Salem coach Tom Moshimer. "It was a good team defense effort."

Salem's defense kept Central scoreless until early in the third quarter.

Rob Shepley was the leading tackler for the Rocks with nine tackles Friday night, three unassisted.

Offensively, Salem gained 434 yards. Rob Kenney gained 150 yard in seven carries for the Rocks, and Andy Szydlowski gained 100 yards in 14 carries.

Salem scored a touchdown in the first quarter on an 18-yard run by Szydlowski. Early in the second quarter, the Rocks scored on a four-yard run by Brandon Walton, and scored again later in the quarter on a 42-yard pass from Rob Kenney to Szydlowski, to lead Central 21-0 at half time.

Kenney scored on a 74-yard run in the third quarter, and Central got on the board, to end the third 29-6.

In the fourth quarter, Kenney scored for Canton on a 42-yard run, and Central added eight points to its score.

"We had eight penalties (Friday), I would like to eliminate those," said Moshimer. "We're showing improvement, and we're getting better. If we continue to get better, we'll be o.k."

Turnovers are critical Chiefs shut down at home

BY ANNE SULLIVAN

Friday night's football game is one the Canton football squad would like to put behind them. The team suffered a disappointing loss as they were shutout by Walled Lake Western, 38-0, at home.

The Chiefs started some potential plays, but nothing seemed to go right for the boys in red as they moved the ball toward the goal. The Chiefs suffered four turnovers, giving their opponents excellent field position, and Western was able to score.

"We'd get back offensively, move the ball, then we'd fumble," said Bob Khoenle, Canton coach. "We'd punt, it was a bad snap, and they blocked it and gained good field position. They're a good team, and they took advantage of it."

The Chiefs play Northville on Friday at home.

"We need to win to get the kids' confidence up a little."

New Towne Plaza plans major facelift, expansion in '93

BY MIKE McGLINNEN

Canton's New Towne Plaza will soon be more appealing to shoppers when an addition and new renovations are completed next spring.

The Canton Board of Trustees was expected to approve the site plan alteration for the shopping center at its Sept. 22 meeting. New Towne Plaza is located on Ford Road between Canton Center and Sheldon roads.

The new addition will consist of 20,700 square feet of retail space to the west of the present structure and will allow JoAnn Fabrics and Cargo Express to locate within the center.

New landscaping and parking will be constructed and the entire facade of the structure will be updated.

Joe Suttschek, representing the project's sponsors Ramco-Gershenson, Inc. has expressed a desire to emulate the features requested in Canton's proposed DDA Streetscape Plan, according to Aaron Machnik, Canton municipal services director

"I don't think this will have any problems being approved by the board. This is a good, well-thought-out plan. The planning commission is in favor of it," said Judy Bocklage, associate planner.

"I suspect it will be spring before we see all the renovations," Bocklage added.

In-house celebration

Ford Sheldon plant turns 25!

BY MIKE McGLINNEN

The Ford Motor Company celebrated the 25th anniversary of Plymouth Township's Sheldon Road plant last Saturday with a festive event for plant employees, retirees and their families.

The plant is the township's largest taxpayer and greatest employer with 1,328 hourly and 210 salaried employees.

The event featured wandering singers, a magician and several activities for children, such as face painting.

Historical information about the plant was disseminated after being collected by Ginney Teehey, who produces the plant's "Our World" newsletter.

The plant opened on Feb. 5, 1967 but did not become fully operational until the fall of 1967.

Before the property became the site of the Ford plant, it had been farmland rented and farmed by the Rossow family since 1934.

The Sheldon Road plant makes air conditioners, heaters, radiators and the various components to run these instruments. It is the only plant to supply Ford heaters and air conditioning.

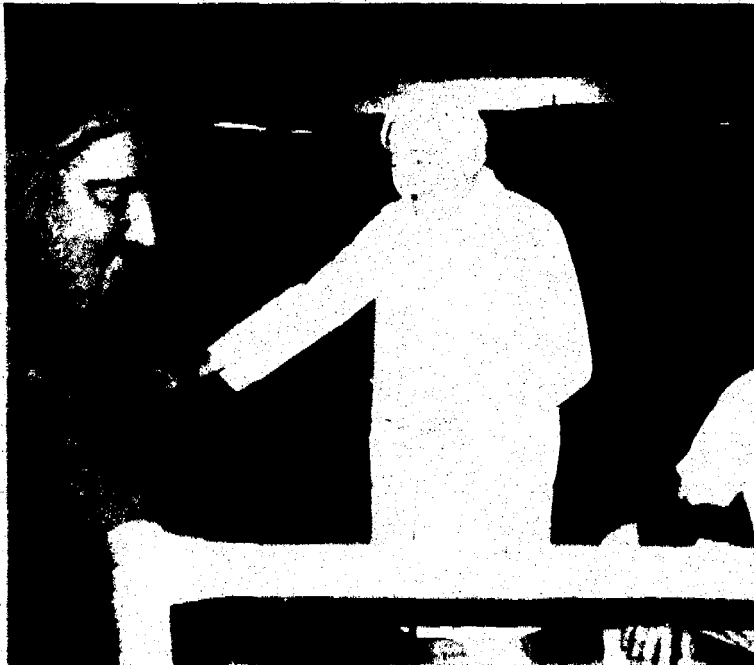

Many of the workers at the plant have spent a long time at the site. For example, Ted Brosch was the first hourly employe hired and is still working at the plant. Pipe-fitter Virgil Norgrove has worked for 23 years at the plant.

Ford employes spent much time this summer researching the plant's history, as they had to dig through many piles of information to discover the early history of the plant, according to John Lankford, training specialist for the Sheldon Road Plant.

"We sent a person to the company headquarters to dig through all the stuff and find some old pictures and so forth, but it is quite time-consuming. There are not many pictures of the site before the plant was here," Lankford said.

Ford officials downplayed the event beforehand, as they did not want the public to think the event was a carnival that everyone could participate in.

"At least prior to the event, we are downplaying it. We do not want too much publicity, this is more of an inside the plant celebration for our employes," Lankford said before the festivities took place.

Will positive aspects of Bush visit linger on?

A campaign visit by President Bush — Is that what it takes to get things done quickly in the City of Plymouth?

Monday night's announcement at the Plymouth City Commission that Bush will visit the City Saturday sure got people hopping.

Commissioner Doug Miller said jokingly about preparations for the event, "is there anything else we need fixed while we're at it."

That would be a good thing, but why does it take a visit by the president to get the ball rolling?

For example, the owner of Station 885 restaurant, Jerry Costanza, which is next to where Bush will give his speech, asked the Commission last night if there was anything that could be done to clean up the area near and around the train tracks, like trimming the grass and picking up trash.

In addition, City Engineer Ken West said he called the County Road Commission to ask for its cooperation in alleviating expected traffic problems due to some ongoing construction in the area.

Things like this should be done, especially when the City is going to be in the national spotlight. But, these things should be done on a regular basis.

Residents living near the area Bush is expected make his speech made their pitches to the Commission Monday night, expressing concerns over traffic, litter and crowds — all legitimate.

Shouldn't these by ongoing concerns no matter who is coming to town.

Commissioner Shrewsbury had a wary eye at Monday night's meeting, and said that a visit to the City of Plymouth by the president is important, but every effort must be taken to keep costs to the City down.

Bush's decision to stop in Plymouth is a great thing for the City.

It will give it national recognition, and a chance for the nation to see this great community.

Hopefully after all the cameras are turned off and the elections are over, when John Doe is driving through the City, he or she will get the same great impression that the world will see Saturday.

Unabridged . . .

The trains don't stop here any more . . . the historic train depot in Old Village — once Plymouth's downtown area — boasted passenger and freight service into the 1970's. With President and Mrs. Bush's campaign train stop Saturday, the Old Village community will see national attention.

Kudos to all who helped with and supported 'Great Sit-In'

EDITOR:

On behalf of the Hospice Services and the Literacy Council, please accept our gratitude to the citizens of Plymouth and Canton and visitors from all over the area for their help and support during the "Great Sit-In."

For over 50 consecutive hours, Jeff Counts and I sat in the window of the Little Professor store during Fall Festival weekend. During that time, hundreds of people came in to chat and give donations which totaled over $600 for these two worthy causes.

We are very grateful to Jackie Powers and all of the wonderful staff at Little Professor for their hospitality and help.

Thanks, also to the Box Bar and the Mayflower for supplying our food and beverage needs for the weekend Great Sit-in.

Thank you to Steve Petrix men's wear for the loan of a tuxedo for the weekend.

Thanks to all the Celebrity Guests who participated to make this event a success: Bob Talbert, Kathleen Keen-McCarthy, Jerry Vorva, Loren Bennett, Phil Lajoy, Jim Kostiva, Chuck Curmie, Barbara Graham, David Artley and many, many others.

Thanks to Judge Bob Ziolkowski and Wayne County Prosecutor Nancy Diehl for their generous donations.

And especially, thanks to the Chamber of Commerce, the Fall Festival Committee and the employees of the City of Plymouth who all worked so hard to make the entire weekend a wonderful success for the Plymouth Community.

Isn't this a great place to live?

DENNIS F. SHREWSBURY

Vote for Kathleen

EDITOR:

I wish to extend my heartfelt gratitude to all who participated in advocating my candidacy. Your efforts on my behalf were instrumental in effectively disseminating our positive and issue oriented campaign to the citizens of Plymouth Township.

Even though the primary election is over, the challenges that face Plymouth Township remain. I believe it is imperative that we unite to effectively address these changes. In this regard, I hope you will join me in supporting Kathleen A. Keen-McCarthy.

Plymouth is 'swinging'

EDITOR:

The Fall Festival--Wow!! There can be no disputing the fact. The community of Plymouth knows how to throw a party. I've had the distinct opportunity to have played at the Plymouth Arts festival of '91, '92 and most recently the Fall festival '92. It has been such a great joy for me to perform at these events that I wanted to write a thank you note.

I have never known a community to get such an overwhelmingly positive response to their events. But the very best part is that you are able to have all ages enjoying the festivities together. This should be a model for other communities, cities, countries and the world at large. Thank you Plymouth, for inviting me to these wonderful events.

Keep Swingin'

Fest had one bad act

EDITOR:

Congratulations on a wonderful 1992 Fall Fest -- the weather was great, food was good and lines were short. In my opinion, the Fest was only marred by one event -- the entertainment provided on Sunday Afternoon.

While standing in line for a refreshment, my ears perked up as I heard a woman's voice on the loud speaker discussing her husband's affairs (as in extramarital). At first I thought that maybe a comedian from Joey's Comedy Club of Chaplains had made a wrong turn and somehow ended up on the Fall Fest stage. The off-color and sexually suggestive renditions from her mouth were broadcast around small town Plymouth loud and clear for approximately 15 minutes. This was not the impression of the Plymouth community I wished leave with my guests nor did I feel it was appropriate entertainment for my children.

Fall Festival has always meant family fun for me -- I trust that others feel the same and will make their opinions known to the Board.

PCAC thanks supporters

EDITOR:

Plymouth businesses helping Plymouth organizations!! The success of the 1992 Artists and Craftsmen Show sponsored by the Plymouth Community Arts Council was in large part due to the support of our local community businesses caring about the non-profit organizations.

We wish to thank the following businesses for their support: Reliable Moving & Storage-loaned a ramp, Laird's Auto Glass/Upholstering-transporting the ramp, The Porter House, Wiltse's Pharmacy-their display windows for advertisement, Good's Nursery-loaned flowers, Penniman Deli-supplied food for the crafters, Remerica Hometown Realtors-paid for program printing, Crier newspaper-articles promoting the show and Plymouth/Canton Community Schools-use of Central Middle School.

Plymouth people to Plymouth people is what makes this community special and why it will always be just that.

CAROLYN SIMONS

Who gets Vorva's seat:

Who should get Jerry Vorva's seat on the City Commission?

Now that Jerry's headed to Lansing on his second try, he resigned early from his commission seat Monday.

Since, when the current commission was formed a year ago, a narrow four-three split held sway -- electing Doug Miller as mayor pro tem at his first-ever meeting -- Jerry's early departure could trigger political upheaval.

But to the credit of the commissioners, although they saw some bitter contests and some bitter words between them over such issues as Mettetal Airport, they have since formed a fairly congenial working relationship.

However, appointments have a way of stirring things up.

The Good Ole Boy Crowd would love to see Ron Loiselle back on their side. Until he lost in the Dennis Shrewsbury-Bill McAninch turnout, he was thought to be next mayor.

The Loyal Opposition Crowd would hold forth for Rosita Smith, a long-time citizen-fighter-of-City-Hall and now planning commissioner.

But there are plenty others out there.

Stella Green, a DDA member, gives the commission the "gender option," as does Rosita.

With a rich history of Mayors Ruth Huston Whipple, Beverly McAninch and Mary Childs, plus Commissioner Mary Ellen Mc Kercher, the all-male current commission looks out of place, some say.

This is especially notable compared to the new Plymouth Township Board which will have at least four women out of seven members, and be chaired by a woman, Kathleen Keen-McCarthy, if she defeats independent

A skewed view

By Mike McGlinnen

What Plymouth needs (?!)

Here are 10 of the things sorely lacking in the Plymouth community.

This is only referring to Plymouth, not "Plymouth-Canton", since many of these Plymouth "deficiencies" could be resolved by including Canton. But Plymouth needs these things on its own.

Proving how cheezie this idea is, we will be stealing David Letterman's countdown format.

10. A first-run movie theater. The Penn is nice, but if you really want to see a movie when it first comes out, the six or seven mile drive can be rather inconvenient.

9. Several 7-11s. There are no Plymouth-area homes of Big Gulps, MSG-laden snacks and furry hot dogs at all hours of the day and night. Sorry, Dairy Mart.

8. Batting cages. What better activity to take out your psychotic aggressions while allegedly practicing for "the big game"?

7. An authentic, delicatessen, not a "sandwich shop." Places like Maya's and the Penniman Deli don't cut the mustard, so to speak. And no mayonnaise on those sandwiches!

6. More pay phones for Plymouth Township. If you have ever been stranded with a flat tire at 3 a.m. out on North Territorial, you will understand this need.

5. A tattoo parlor, an Oriental spa and a chain-wallet store. Oh, I thought this was a Westland list for a minute.

4. More gas stations that are open past midnight. It is quite difficult to function past 11 p.m. around here.

3. Another book store or two. Little Professor is pretty good, but there are better stores out there, i.e. Border's. And how about a real record/CD store -- not another pseudo Harmony House!

2. Minorities.

1. More flop houses like "Inn on the Trail" to take care of the homeless and transients like the edit staff's mascot, Dave.

Once Plymouth acquires these things we will be stylin' and no one will be able to stop us from world domination.

By the way, keep those stern letters flowing in.

Canton, you are next.

With malice toward none

By W. EDWARD WENDOVER

candidate Ron Edwards in November -- a potential five of seven. Canton's board could have three of seven members come November, or go all-male. There's one woman, Barbara Graham, on the Plymouth-Canton School Board.

Gender, will not, of itself, be the deciding factor for the city seat.

Politics will begin to pull Mayor Bob Jones a dozen ways now that Jerry's on his way out.

Does the city seek a "caretaker"? (i.e. Someone not interested in running, but will just fill out the term.)

Do all the former commissioners out there get a "look see"? There's Dave Pugh, Jack Kenyon, Jack Wilcox, Dennis Bila, Bud Martin, and Mary Childs to name a few.

And how about other city board members like Fred Hill, Bob Mundt, Russ Webster, Lita Popke, Steve Ragan, Larry Bird, Barry Simescu, Sally Repeck, Fred Hadley, Fred Beitner or Bill Leonard?

Former candidate Jean Morrow has stayed interested. How about citizen-watchdog Paul Nastoff? Then there are former City Hall folks: Ken Way or Ken Vogras.

The commission is taking applications. To apply (or nominate someone else), write to: Mayor Robert Jones, City Hall, 201 S. Main St., Plymouth, MI, 48170. Include a resume.

Continue your pledges to these worthy causes

The Plymouth Community United Way and Canton Community Foundation are two highly deserving charities and it is great to see the massive support these two charities annually receive from this area.

It is encouraging to see the outpouring of assistance during these tough economic times.

Remember that caring and assistance start with the individual. No matter how small the effort may seem, any effort will help people who truly need it.

People should also keep in mind that no matter how difficult the times may be for them, there are always others who are worse off, and these are the kinds of programs that benefit from donations.

The American Red Cross, Growth Works, the Michigan Cancer Foundation, Community Literacy Council, Growth Works, Canton Family Services and the Salvation Army are among the many worthy programs to benefit from these fundraisers.

Keep on donating -- as the ads say, thanks to you it works for all of us.
