VOLUME X, NO. 2.

PLYMOUTH, MICH., SEPTEMBER 18, 1896.

WHOLE NO. 471

A Man of Taste and Good Clothes :-: :-:

Have an affinity for each other. This is a fitting simile; (at least clothes ought to be fitting) and if a multitude of witnesses can be believed, there is a certain line of clothes that is always eminently fitting; and now while we have this clothes-line in hand, we may say—not for the purpose of "roping" anybody in, but simply as a legitimate business hint—that

The Royal Tailors

Are Famous Clothes Makers.

They are tailors to the trade, and are the most extensive house in their line in the United States.

They make clothes at close prices, and by reason of the high quality of their workmanship, coupled with their straightforward methods, they have left old-time houses far in the background.

JUST A WORD and we have done—Do you want clothes made to order, Equal in Material and Workmanship to the best your local tailor can give you, but at prices which he positively cannot afford to offer you—at prices in fact 25 to 33 per cent. below the best he can do for you? If so, come to us and look over our extensive line of samples, tell us just what you want, just how you want it—and you'll get it. We are agents for this famous house. They do not handle ready-made clothing. Come to us and you will get what you want made to order.

Hats! Hats!

While we have been talking to you about clothing we want to call your attention to our new line of Hats just received, if you want anything in that line it will cost you nothing to look our line over and get our prices. Also our new line of NECKWEAR. Our line in Gents' Furnishing Goods is more complete than ever before.

Fancy Goods! Dry Goods! Ladies' Furnishing Goods!

In these lines we are continually adding new designs, new patterns and better goods. We have just received a fine line of HAND-MADE Knit Goods, such as

Infant's Sacques and Hoods, Ladies' Hand Made Ice Wool Shawls and Fascinators

Which are exceedingly Low in Price for the quality and style.

Crockery.

We are over stocked in this line and must make room for a large line of Fancy Crockery soon to arrive. For the next 30 days we will sell you FOR CASH a Beautiful Decorated Semi Porcelain 100 piece Dinner Set for only $11.00, former price $15.00. A 100 piece Semi Porcelain Plain White Dinner Set for $10.00. This sale only lasts 30 days.

Groceries.

We have only space to say our line is always Complete and Fresh, and especially call your attention to our Coffee. If you once use our Gilt Edge Mocha and Java 35c and 40c, Gilt Edge Cafe Brand 30c, Gilt Edge Golden Rio 28c you will use no other.

THE PLYMOUTH FAIR

ADDS ANOTHER SUCCESS TO THE LIST—THIS YEAR ECLIPSES ALL OTHERS IN MANY RESPECTS.

Every Department Was Well Filled and the Exhibits Were Fine.

The fair of 1896 has come and gone and the result this year is just as satisfactory, and even more so, than any previous year in the history of the association. The attendance Thursday was not quite up to the standard on account of the threatening weather, but the number of visitors on the other days was as large as usual.

With a few exceptions the different departments were well filled. The exhibits and displays were tastefully arranged and presented a very attractive appearance.

Although the space in floral hall was all utilized, yet there were several who did not have all the room they desired. The White Sewing Machine Co., represented by Mrs. Allen, of Detroit, and Grinnell Bros., with a display of pianos and organs occupied the center of the hall.

Mabley & Co. had a varied exhibit of clothing, shoes, draperies, curtains, etc. This was in charge of W. F. Schmeltz, who has attended the Plymouth fair in the same capacity for the past seven years.

Newcomb, Eudett & Co. draped the second story of floral hall with a fine array of rugs and chenille curtains.

E. L. Riggs had a very nicely arranged display of clothing, shoes, capes, cloaks, etc., of the latest styles.

T. G. Richardson and Holmes & Dancer, the two leading dry goods houses of Northville, had very rich looking displays of clothing, dress goods, cloaks, capes and other articles of wearing apparel.

J. R. Rauch & Son had the finest exhibit of crockery, decorated china, porcelain and glassware ever seen on the grounds.

F. E. Lamphere had the only display of harness, robes and horse findings, and M. Conner & Son showed some very fine Garland stoves, ranges, heaters, etc.

Nellie Steele & Co. had a small, but very pretty display of trimmed hats.

The art department seemed more attractive than usual. The arrangement of the oil paintings and decorated ware showed good taste and judgment. Mrs. F. S. Neal and Mrs. Dr. Collier both assisted in this department by exhibiting a case each of hand-painted china.

The fruit and vegetable department came in for a good share of notice. The fruit was luscious and the vegetables of all kinds and a number of our local growers exhibited specimens.

Just outside the floral hall, John Hirsch, of Northville, had an elegant line of surreys, carriages and road wagons.

The entries in the poultry department were numerous, E. W. Owen, of Ypsilanti, having the greatest number and variety. The other exhibitors in this department were L. Brunson, M. Willett, Mr. Kelly, of Ypsilanti, J. C. Stellwagen, of Wayne, Al Eckles and Delos Harlow.

We heard it remarked that J. C. Stellwagen, of Wayne, probably had the most valuable poultry on the grounds.

W. N. Wherry took 2nd premium on his tumbler pigeons.

The stock did not seem to be up to the standard generally speaking. The following is a list of the exhibitors in the different departments:

Sheep—Chas. Forshee, Merino; Norman Miller, Lester; Benjamin Kelly, of Ypsilanti, Shropshire; E. M. Starkweather, of Northville, Hampshire; J. J. Shearer, Lester; T. V. Quackenbush, American Merino.

Hogs—Wm. Truesdell, of Canton, Jersey Red; A. M. Eckles, Chester White; Harry Purdy, Poland China; E. M. Starkweather, of Northville, Poland China and Chester White; J. C. Chilson, of Livonia, Berkshire; Theodora Chilson, Victoria; M. R. Seeley, of Farmington, Victoria; C. C. Chadwick, of Northville, Chester White.

Cattle—A. C. Sherwood, Aberdeen Angus; M. R. Seeley, of Farmington, Holstein and Jersey; Matt Greene, of Farmington, Jersey; R. G. Hart, of Lapeer, Devonshire; J. J. Shearer, Shorthorn Durham; C. C. Chadwick, of Northville, Holstein; N. A. Sly, Grade cattle; L. C. Hough, Jersey.

The race program was the best ever given on the Plymouth track. The races were well filled and fast time was made. The following is a summary of the three day's races:

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 16.

2:30 pace—Edgar H. 1st; Sparkle, 2nd; Nellie Nuttingham, 3rd. Best time, 2:25.

2:27 trot—Big Phoebe, 1st; Flashlight, 2nd; Willie Moss, 3rd; Knoxona, 4th. Best time, 2:23 1/2.

Running, 5 furlongs—Buttrick, 1st; Fred T. 2nd. Time 1:36 1/2.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 17.

2:40 trotting—Allen, 1st; Maj. Moreland, 2nd; Avonier, 3rd; Cruiser, 4th. Time 2:35.

2:40 Pacing—Sparkle, 1st; Gray Fred, 2nd; Black Roy, 3rd; Dick Jerome, 4th. Time 2:30.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 18.

Free-for-all-trot—Stanton W. 1st; Russellmoor, 2nd; Repeat, 3rd. Best time 2:17 1/2.

Free-for-all pace—Bulmont, 1st; Watch Eye, 2nd. Best time 2:18.

One mile run—Buttrick, 1st; Rosa Bell, 2nd. Best time 1:52.

Unfinished Col't race—Jack Wilks, 1st; Sixteen, 2nd; Ollie, 3rd; Sam B., 4th. Best time 2:37.

Taken altogether our fair was a success. The weather for the most part has been fine, and the attendance, considering the threatening weather Thursday morning, and the hard times in general, was as large as could be expected.

ACROSS THE SEA.

The Deserted Wife Won the Race by Four Hours.

A race across 2,000 miles of water for a husband has just ended at Ellis Island, says an exchange. The race was between Mrs. Franz Molineux, a deserted wife, and a young girl, Bertha Neibling, the husband's sweet heart. The wife won the race by four hours, and, incidentally, the erring husband, Molineux had been wealthy in Berlin. He had married the daughter of a rich grain merchant. When he failed in business, he quarreled with his wife, for she made some remark about his poverty which angered him. He left her, saying that he would go to America and begin life over again. They were proud and she permitted him to go alone, although in her heart she loved him. The man came over here and by hard work established himself and was in receipt of a good salary. He thought sometimes of the woman in Berlin. She was living with her wealthy father, who was very fond of her. In a spirit of pique the husband sent across the sea for another woman to share the home he had made here at 1860 Lexington avenue. Mrs. Molineux heard of the other woman and embarked in all haste on the steamer Lahn, bound for New York. The other one, Bertha Neibling, was a stowaway passenger on the Venetia, from Hamburg. The Venetia sailed first, yet the fast steamer Lahn beat her into port by four hours, with Mrs. Molineux in the first cabin. She had little difficulty in interesting the authorities in her case. Detective Peter Groden found her husband and informed him that a woman was at Ellis Island waiting to see him. Molineux was taken there and the commissioner of immigration asked him some very searching questions. Then he dismissed him to another room and talked to Mrs. Molineux. Neither husband nor wife knew of the presence of the other on the island. They were brought into the same room. The wife at the sight of her husband threw her arms about his neck and then fainted. She recovered opportunely and told him how cruelly she had misunderstood him and that she would willingly share poverty and a crust of bread with him. No man could resist talk like that. Molineux kissed her on the forehead and vowed he would be true to her to the end of time. So they went to 1860 Lexington avenue together, where they will dwell. The other woman? The story is practically finished as far as she is concerned. The immigration authorities came to the conclusion that as she had no friends here now and was likely to become a public charge the best thing they could do would be to send her back to Germany. She will go back in the steamer at once.

An Original Cur-Or.

The Washington gossip is telling a good story on Senator Marion Butler of North Carolina. When he made his speech on his bond sale bill he invited his wife up to the senate to watch his effort from the gallery. It was so long that she went to sleep, leaning on the front rail of the gallery, not caring to go out, and in that way make folks think she was uninterested in what her better half was saying. Some senator went and told Butler that L's speech had put his own wife to sleep. The senator saw the point, and wound up his brilliant remarks a good deal sooner than he expected to.

The Corbin Buffalo.

The son of the late Austin Corbin has notified the New York Park Commissioners that he will carry out the intention of his father to send a herd of buffalo to Central Park. The Corbin herd, which is now in Vermont, is composed of some of the finest specimens in existence. These animals were captured in the southwest in their infancy by a celebrated western buffalo hunter known as "Buffalo Jones," and are superior to those bred in captivity. The gift will be appreciated by frequenters of Central Park.—Rochester Union Advertiser.

Cures Talk

"Cures talk" in favor of Hood's Sarsaparilla, as for no other medicine. Its great cures recorded in truthful, convincing language of grateful men and women, constitute its most effective advertising. Many of these cures are marvelous. They have won the confidence of the people; have given Hood's Sarsaparilla the largest sales in the world, and have made necessary for its manufacture the greatest laboratory on earth. Hood's Sarsaparilla is known by the cures it has made—cures of scrofula, salt rheum and eczema, cures of rheumatism, neuralgia and weak nerves, cures of dyspepsia, liver troubles, catarrh—cures which prove

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is the best—in fact the One True Blood Purifier. Hood's Pills cure liver ills; easy to take, easy to operate. 25c.

H. D. Cooper, alias "Railroad Jack," the hammock rider, who has been the object of considerable attention and talk during the last few weeks, was in town Friday night cracking jokes and giving his opinions on the currency question. This man, who has ridden thousands of miles in a hammock stretched under a Pullman sleeper, is by no means a fool. He has good ideas, is a clever talker, and it's as good as a circus to listen to him relate his experiences.

A passenger from Pittsburg, by name of Adolph Phall, bound for Bay City on the F. & P. M. train, when near Flint walked off the platform of the smoking car while the train was running at high rate of speed. The man struck on his head and rolled over several times. The train was backed up and the man put aboard. Dr. Oliver, a physician, from Plymouth, who was on the train, dressed the injured man's wounds, the worst being about the head and arms. A stretcher was produced and in this way the man was permitted to continue his journey to Sterling, where he has a sister. The injured man was intoxicated and could not be induced to remain in his seat while the train was in motion.—Flint News.
