NEWBURG.

The Social held at the Hall Friday evening was not the success it might have been. No doubt the chilly night had something to do with it. However those that were present had a very pleasant time.

Mrs. Wm. Farley spent the latter part of last week visiting friends in Ypsilanti.

Reuben Barnes, who has been quite ill is somewhat improved at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ryder and family also Mrs. C. D. Paddock and daughter Florence of Detroit, had a very pleasant time at Belle Isle Wednesday of last week.

Miss Mabel Steven has returned from a week's outing at Island Lake.

Will Lawry of Rochester, Minn., is visiting his mother, Mrs. J. Jewell. He is a trained nurse in a leading hospital of that city.

Miss Altha Woodruff went to Ann Arbor Saturday to see her brother Archie, who has been quite sick, but is now convalescent.

Mrs. Elmer Cline and daughter Dorothy of Detroit are enjoying a week's outing at W. R. LeVan's.

We are glad to see Mabel Gottschalk out after her recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rutter and family of Detroit spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Albert Stevens.

Miss Margaret LeVan has been spending a few days in Ann Arbor.

The L. A. S. will hold their regular meeting at the Hall Friday afternoon, Sept. 9. Supper will be served. Every one invited to attend.

Mrs. Eva Schroeder of Farmington visited her aunt, Mrs. Ann Farwell, last Sabbath.

The people who are acquainted with Miss Emma Johns will be interested to know that she leaves California for Hilo, Hawaii, the 10th of September, making a seven days' trip on the Pacific Ocean. She expects to make her home with an old friend, Mrs. Barron—formerly Irene Allen, of Newburg.

A much needed rain came Tuesday night, which makes everything look fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Mackinder and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stevens went on the excursion to Island Lake last week Thursday. The only drawback to an otherwise pleasant occasion was the lateness of the hour when they reached Newburg.

Donald Ryder returned to Chicago last Sunday, after a week's visit with his parents Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ryder.

They accompanied him as far as Ann Arbor, where they visited Mr. and Mrs. James Cook, also calling on Arthur LeVan at the hospital. They found him doing nicely.

School bells will soon be ringing. School opens next week Tuesday. Miss Carrie Baker has been engaged to teach the coming year.

The L. A. S. would be glad to have any one having old papers or cardboard to bring it to the next meeting at the hall Sept. 9th. Also if any of the ladies will kindly furnish a ball of carpet rags for rugs it will be greatly appreciated. They expect to tie two com-forts. Come prepared to help.

Edward Vanaken of Pell City, Ind., spent a few days with his mother, Mrs. R. Barnes, returning to his home Tuesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Grow and family visited at C. Mackinder's and James Norris' Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Norris of Wayne spent Tuesday with Mrs. James Norris.

Mrs. Porter Grow is spending a few days with Mrs. C. McKinder. Mr. Grow is at the homeopathic hospital for treatment of the eyes.

WEST PLYMOUTH.

Mrs. Geo. Innis has been on the sick list. Be it to the credit of our modern conveniences that the doctor was at Mrs. Innis' bedside twenty-two minutes after he was called and that was at one o'clock in the morning.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. O'Bryan and children were Detroit visitors Sunday. Lyman remained for a week's visit with his aunt.

Grange met in the I. O. O. F. hall Thursday.

School begins in District No. 7 Tuesday. Miss Brown of Plymouth will teach.

J. J. Lucas has an unusual product growing in his garden. The old time sugar cane towers above all else.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. O'Bryan and Helen visited in Ypsilanti Wednesday.

Chas. Smith made a business trip to the city the first of the week.

The Misses Woodard of Ypsilanti visited Mrs. A. Stout Sunday.

PIKE'S PEAK.

Mrs. Rogers of Flint is visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. S. Cummings.

Sunday visitors at Henry Klatt's were Mr. and Mrs. Parker of St. Clair Heights, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Klatt and daughters of Wayne, Mr. and Mrs. John Houk and son Alvin and Miss Lela Klatt of East Nankin.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Richardson of New Boston visited Mrs. S. Cummings Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bridge of Maple Road visited the former's mother and sister, Mrs. James Bridge and Miss Lena Bridge Monday.

Mrs. Charles Wright and daughter Clara were Plymouth callers last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Outwaite of Wayne visited Mrs. S. Cummings last Sunday.

John Marke made a business trip to Detroit last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Tait of Salem visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wright and family last Thursday.

Mrs. Cummings and Mrs. Rogers were Wayne callers last Saturday.

LIVONIA CENTER.

The ladies of the German church will serve ice cream at the town hall Saturday evening, Sept. 10. Don't miss it, as it will probably be the last social of the season. Come one, come all. Ladies, please bring cake.

Mrs. Paul Helm entertained her father and mother, her brother, Walter and wife, Mrs. Wolfson, son and two grandchildren, on Sunday. Mrs. Walter Kingsley remained over a couple of days with her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Wolf visited friends in Livonia Saturday and Sunday. Hugh Peters and family entertained company from Plymouth Sunday.

Fred Lee is visiting his people in Ohio this week.

E. C. Leach, wife and friends were on our street Tuesday.

Miss Etoll Cook returned to her home in Plymouth Monday evening, together with the friends that went up to surprise her mother. All report a very nice time.

It was reported here the first of the week that the doctors would have to amputate Rose Gumore's foot at once, but further particulars were not learned.

Judge Durfee Explains

To the Editor:

There appears to be a misunderstanding among the voters of Wayne County as to the powers and duties of the Associate Judge of Probate to be nominated and elected this fall, which is augmented by Mr. George H. Carlisle's campaign card in which he gives the title of the office as "Associate Judge of Probate (Juvenile Court Division)."

This is undoubtedly through ignorance on Mr. Carlisle's part as to the duties of the office, and not with the intent to deceive the voter.

Henry S. Hulbert, who had been Register of the Probate Court of this County for nine years, was appointed to the office by the Governor on September 1st, 1909, upon a petition presented to him signed by nearly every attorney in the County. To him was assigned not only the work in the juvenile division of the Probate Court, but more work in the other division of the court than falls to the judge of probate of any other County in the State and includes the examining and passing upon all accounts filed in the probate court by executors, administrators, guardians and trustees; hearing of all petitions for the appointment of guardians of insane and mentally incompetent persons, spendthrifts, and minors where notice is required; hearing of all petitions for the commitment of insane persons to asylums and for commitment of feeble minded and epileptic persons to the Michigan Home at Leapeer; and determining the inheritance tax in all estates. Many of these matters are bitterly contested.

In the absence or illness of one of the judges the duties of both divisions falls to the other judge.

Judge Henry S. Hulbert now for one year has conscientiously and ably performed the duties assigned him.

A Bank's Surplus—What is it?

This bank pays its stockholders each year dividends that are consistent with a safe, well-managed business.

The money earned on our capital, above the dividend paid to shareholders, is put back into the business. We have now a surplus of $15,000 and undivided profits of $15,000, every cent of which has been earned, and which with our capital represents $105,000 of actual working capital.

A growing surplus makes a prosperous business; it also gives to depositors increasing safe-for funds each year.

Become a customer of the bank with ample capital and a growing surplus; this kind of a bank meets the demands of its customers in a satisfactory manner.

WOMEN WORKING NEW ONE

Have Old Rings and Other Junk Received From Various Sweethearts Melted Into One Ring.

"Here is a new one the women seem to be working a good deal lately," remarked a local jeweler the other day. "They bring in all the old rings, stickpins and other junk of that sort that they have received since they were kids from their various sweethearts, and have the gold melted up into one ring."

"Some of them have this set with a small stone of some kind, and others just have them plain. Of course a married woman does not like to wear a ring that has been given to her by one of her earlier sweethearts, and lots of them have rings of that sort lying about in their jewelry cases. By having them all melted up into a composite souvenir the rings all lose their identity, and the husband can have no reason for even a tinge of jealousy. In fact, one woman came in recently and had all the rings she had collected from her old sweethearts melted up and made into a ring to give to her husband for his birthday present."

"Now whenever I sell a lady's ring to a young chap I wonder where it will finally end up. But if every young fellow stopped to think of such a contingency I am afraid there would be considerable falling off in the jewelry business."

NAMES TO GO ON PRIMARY BALLOT

DEMOCRATS SHY ON LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR.

ALL ARE ASSURED OF CHANCE

Some Candidates of the Small Parties May Have to Be Denied Having Their Names on the Official Ballot.

Lansing.—Practically every candidate in the two major parties who sought a place on the primary election ballot for the state, congressional, senatorial or representative nominations is assured of his chance. It is announced at the office of the secretary of state.

Some candidates of some of the small parties may have to be denied having their names printed on the ballot. The checking and counting of primary petitions will probably be completed in time to allow for the certificates to be sent out tomorrow morning.

The count and check of petitions show the following candidates entitled to places on the primary election ballot, all being Republicans except as noted:

Governor—Patrick H. Kelley, Chase S. Osborn, Amos S. Musselman; Lawton T. Hemans, Democrat.

Lieutenant-Governor—Loren D. Dickinson, Nelson C. Rice, John Q. Ross.

United States Senator—Julius C. Burrows, Charles E. Townsend.

Congressional, second district—Wm. W. Wedemeyer, Ann, Arbor; Henry C. Smith, Adrian.

Third district—Washington Gardner, Albion; John M. C. Smith, Charlotte; Chas. H. Price, Socialist, Kalamazoo.

Fourth district—Edwin L. Hamilton, Niles.

Fifth district—G. J. Diekema, Holland; Geo. E. Ellis, Grand Rapids.

Sixth district—Samuel W. Smith, Pontiac.

Seventh district—Henry McMorran, Port Huron; Louis C. Cranston, Leapeer.

Eighth district—James C. McLaughlin, Muskegon.

Ninth district—Joseph W. Fordney, Saginaw; Emory Townsend, Saginaw.

Tenth district—George A. Loud, Au Sable; Frank Buell, Bay City.

Eleventh district—F. H. Dodds, Mount Pleasant.

Twelfth district—H. Olin Young, Ishpeming; Angus W. Kerr, Laurium.

Michigan Patents.

Michigan patents were issued as follows: Arthur L. Brown, Muskegon, combined soap stick and brush; Fremont H. Buckingham, Detroit, platform lever mechanism; Albert L. Davis, Grand Rapids, slicing machine; Joseph E. Earnest, Reed City, apparatus for making tie-plate; Walter Johnson, Clio, cement tile machine; Jay A. Monroe, Otsego, paper-making machine; Henry Post, Escanaba, broom handle; S. A. Quinn, Kalamazoo, water closet; Fred B. Raymond, Sault Ste. Marie, washing machine; Henry D. Steator, Galesburg, mold; August F. Tank, Sandusky, holdback; Bartholomew T. Treahy, Detroit, pneumatic action; John G. Utz, Detroit, induction conduct for explosion engines; Charles B. Van Camp, Atkins, railway switch; Jesse G. Vincent, Detroit, adding machine, also adding and listing machine; Floyd Webb, Detroit, lamp; Fred E. Young, Detroit, gas controller.

State Hibernians Elect.

The Michigan Hibernians in session elected the following officers:

Chaplain, Rt. Rev. John Foley, Detroit; president, Michael F. Powers, Grand Rapids; vice-president, James Clancy, Ishpeming; treasurer, Frank P. McQuillon, Jackson; secretary, Eneas McCauley, Hancock; medical examiner, J. S. McLaughlin, Wyandotte.

A few minor changes were made in the by-laws, including an increase in the per capita tax from 20 to 25 cents.

May Loss by Late Census.

Unless the figures on the population of this state are received by September 1 the military department will be a loser financially. The militia is entitled to six cents for every person in the state and the naval reserves one cent. The state has grown considerably since the state census was taken in 1904, the last prior to the federal census taken this spring. The auditor general's department must have the figures of the last census in order to base the apportionment for the military department of the state. If this year's federal census cannot be secured in time, then the apportionment will have to be made from the state census taken in 1904.

Suicide is Smith Verdict.

The coroner's inquest into the suicide of A. W. Smith, former state politician, at the Newberry hospital for insane resulted in a verdict of suicide. Superintendent Campbell declares that there is no evidence to convict anyone of providing Smith with the revolver, but an effort is being made to trace its ownership. Smith was insured for $19,000, of which $4,000 ran to his wife, $10,000 to his children and $5,000 to his estate.

Leave Rates Out, Advise Board.

Chairman C. L. Glasgow of the state railroad commission, which has been conducting a hearing of a number of power companies about the state, sounds a warning to the citizens of this state relative to the granting of franchises by small cities and villages to power corporations. Many towns have already granted long franchises, which they now deeply regret, for the reason that under the franchises they have had to pay higher rates for electricity than some of their neighbors. Chairman Glasgow said in discussing the matter:

"We desire to caution the people of the state, especially in small towns where applications are made by parties asking for franchises for the furnishing of electricity for lighting or power purposes, not to include in the terms of such franchise anything in regard to the rate to be charged, but leave that part to the state, in order that the general public may get the benefit of the lowest rate made possible by the use of the latest and most improved methods. This warning is based upon developments which show that many towns have named rates in franchises granted during recent years, which are much higher than those being named in present franchises, the franchises having usually been given for a term of 30 years."

Many things have developed since the hearings of some of the power companies that have caused the commission to endeavor doubly to safeguard the interests of the people of this state. The commission is aided considerably by the fact that the attorney general ruled a short time ago that the commission had the power to fix rates of power companies.

Winship Falls to Qualify.

John Winship of Saginaw failed to secure enough signatures to his petitions to land him a place on the ballot as the Democratic candidate for the nomination of United States senator, and the members of the Democratic party who wish to vote for Winship will have to write his name on the ticket.

Fred W. Corbett of Lansing will be given a place on the primary ballot as the Prohibition candidate for governor. William A. Taylor of Battle Creek is entitled to have his name printed on the Prohibition ballot as a candidate for the nomination for United States senator.

Few candidates on the Socialist ticket had enough signers to qualify, but Joseph Warnott of Harbor Springs came under the wire with enough names, and Secretary of State Martindale stated that Warnott's name will be placed at the top of the Socialist ballot as candidate for governor.

Big Enrollment Corrected List.

From the upper peninsula is coming the "explanation" that the enormous enrollment figure up there is to be accounted for by the "fact that the lists have not been revised, and includes dead men and men who have moved away."

Deputy Secretary of State Mills thus explains the explanation: "The 58,000 enrollment given out here is a corrected enrollment. We take great pains to keep the figures straight. When we have reason to believe that the township clerks are not taking proper care of the rolls in striking out the names of the dead or those who have moved from the territory, we call their attention to this in a letter. In this manner we are enabled to keep a fairly accurate list."

Say Osborn Plans to Dump Fuller.

From numerous sections of the state it has been called to the attention of Auditor-General Fuller's friends that Osborn workers are attempting to secure control of county conventions in order that their favorites may draw the seats in the state convention in Detroit October 6. It is alleged that Osborn, if nominated, will do everything in his power to ditch Auditor-General Fuller and nominate "Puss" Palmer for the position, and it is said that there are other state officials who will feel the axe if Osborn is able to turn the trick.

Upper-peninsula property holders realize that the auditor-general is a member of the state board of equalization, which meets in this city in August, 1911, and that the governor has no voice in the workings of this important body. A majority are of the opinion that it would be better to sacrifice Osborn than Fuller, as the auditor-general will be in a position to do more real good for the northern part of the state than the governor.

Michigan Pensions.

The following Michigan pensions have been granted: Seth Davis, $15; Robt. G. Eaton, $15; Chas. Hays, $24; John Keeling, $17; Wm. Paterson, $15; John Philbrook, $24; John Rents, $15; Wm. L. Stearns, $24; Harry H. Van Dyne, $17.

Names to Go on Primary Ballot.

Practically every one of the candidates in the two major parties who sought a place on the primary election ballot for the state, congressional, senatorial or representative nominations is assured of his chance. It is announced at the office of the secretary of state.

The count and check of petitions show the following candidates entitled to places on the primary election ballot, all being Republicans except as noted:

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF

Houghton.—Severe electrical storms accompanied by heavy hail prevailed in the copper country. Mrs. W. M. Sewell of Hancock was struck by lightning and her left side paralyzed. Several small buildings were burned.

Lansing.—Included in the new course in journalism that will be offered in the University of Michigan this coming year there will be a series of lectures by prominent newspaper men. Mr. Kirk B. Alexander of the Detroit Journal will give a course of twelve lectures dealing in a systematic way with all the important features of newspaper method and procedure, such as news gathering, copy reading, editorial writing, newspaper management, and the like.

The widespread interest that has been awakened by the announcement that this course was to be offered at the university this year is best evidenced by the many letters of inquiry that come pouring into the office of Dean Reed daily from prospective students.

Prescott.—David A. Stouthenburg, a general merchant of this place, is dead. He had been in business here 12 years. He was a leading Mason and Oddfellow and was prominent in business circles over the entire county. He leaves a widow and two small children.

Lansing.—Chief of Police Behrendt has received a letter from Reinhardt Rasmussen of Negaunee, asking the force here to assist in locating his 17-year-old son who left home a year ago. A few days ago the parents received a letter saying that he was traveling with a show that was performing at Waverly park, at this place.

Owosso.—The Alma Sugar company leased four acres of ground at New Haven, six miles southeast of here, and will erect a weighing station to handle the crop of sugar beets. This is the second competitor to the Owosso Sugar company, who up to one year ago had the entire field to themselves. Last year the Mount Clemens Sugar company put in a weighing station at New Haven. This makes three stations within a radius of three-quarters of a mile.

Detroit.—Detroit has been consuming poisonous ice cream cones by the thousands, according to the analysis of several samples that the Detroit office of the state pure food department sent to Lansing some time ago. About half of the cones consumed in Detroit are made in other cities, mostly in the east, and they contain saccharine and boric acid. Those made in Detroit do not, and are in no way injurious to health.

Grand Rapids.—Judge Dennison in the United States court, has referred the suit of the city of Kalamazoo against the Michigan United Railway Co., to a master to take testimony within 60 days and file a report in 30 days after the testimony is taken, and trustee of the Knickerbocker Trust Co., trustee of the railway company, to file a bond of $50,000 "to secure street repairs and paving." In the meantime the city is enjoined from forfeiting the company's franchise.

Lansing.—John T. Winship of Saginaw, Democratic candidate for United States senator, failed to land for the ballot, his petitions not carrying the required number of names, as was found when the count was completed. He was the only candidate for important office who failed to land. William C. Taylor of Battle Creek, Prohibition candidate for United States senator; Fred W. Corbett of Lansing, Prohibition candidate for governor; Joseph Warnock of Harbor Springs, Socialist candidate for governor, had qualifying petitions.

Monroe.—John J. McCormick, 67, one of Monroe's best known citizens, died at his residence. He was especially well known in railroad circles, having worked for the Lake Shore for 35 years, both in Monroe and Toledo. He leaves one son, C. J. McCormick, of the McCormick Nursery company, and one daughter, r. Cora.

Port Huron.—The second day of the thirteenth annual convention of the Michigan Hibernians opened with a few more delegates in attendance. The real business of the convention begins. Port Huron has arranged many amusements for the visiting delegates.

Port Huron.—The body of George Fralick, who was sucked under the wheel of the steamer Joseph Butler, was taken from St. Clair river. He leaves a widow and five children in Sarnia, Ont.

Chelsea.—Benji Risto, 18 years old, employed as a section hand by the Michigan Central, was struck by an express freight and instantly killed, near here. All of Risto's relatives live in Italy, but friends have taken charge of the remains. The funeral will be held from the Catholic church here.

Lansing.—The police are of the opinion that the fire in the store room of George Deck, a few days ago, was set by his enemies, and they claim to have enough evidence to warrant an arrest.

Lansing.—W. G. Kerns, proprietor of the Hotel Wentworth, has caused the arrest of his chef, Teddy Conover. Kerns says the chef drove him out of the hotel with a large knife, when he expostulated about the quality of biscuits that were being served.

SPARKS FROM LIVE WIRES

The whirlpool inclined railway at Niagara Falls, N. Y., was destroyed by fire.

G. W. Merchant, Jr., a wealthy stockman near Carlisle, N. M., was killed with an ax by a negro ranch hand.

Census Director Durand, in a rough estimate at Washington, says the population of the United States is nearly 90,000,000.

The Roosevelt, Commander Robert E. Peary's ship of discovery, narrowly escaped serious injury from fire at Weehawken, N. J.

Harry M. Daugherty of Columbus issued a formal statement declaring his candidacy for the United States senatorship from Ohio.

A clean towel and a wash cloth for each patron were advocated at a meeting in Pittsburg of the National League of Barbers.

The audit of the $42,500 election expense account of Joseph C. Sibley, Republican nominee for congress from Pennsylvania, has been postponed until September 13.

Officials of the department of justice at Washington announced that the government will sue 40 members of a kindling-wood trust, doing a business of $25,000,000 a year.

Salt Palace, a structure built on salt, and one of the scenic features of Salt Lake City, Utah, was destroyed by fire, entailing an uninsured loss of $25,000. Defective wiring was the cause of the blaze.

Neighbors discovered that burglars had ransacked the home of Harry Morris, in Putnam avenue, Brooklyn, while he was on vacation. One of the thieves wore a silk hat and frock coat. The police were notified.

Israel Brandt, an engineer on the Pennsylvania railroad, saved his trainload of sleeping passengers as he was entering Pittsburg, when he stuck to his post and closed the throttle after a cap in a steam pipe had blown off. He suffered burns.

When Miss Marguerite Barbey of New York becomes the wife of Gilbert Compton Elliott, near Geneva, Switzerland, she will display among her wedding presents a Farman airplane. This was sent by Miss Barbey's sister, the Baroness Andre de Neufville.

New York police are searching for two young women who attacked Michael Plunkett, broker, as he sat on the porch of his uptown home at midnight. With umbrellas the women beat their victim until he was unconscious. One of the umbrellas gouged out his right eye.

MICHIGAN GAINS 389,191

State's Population Grows 389,191 in Decade, or 16.1 Per Cent., Census Figures Show.

Washington, Aug. 29.—The state of Michigan has a population of 2,810,173, according to the figures for the thirteenth census, given out. The returns are made known in advance of the regular order, so as to permit arrangements for the elections, which are dependent on the number of inhabitants in the various cities and counties.

Ten years ago the population of Michigan was 2,420,982, the gain shown being 389,191, or 16.1 per cent. During the preceding decade the gain was 327,093, or 15.6 per cent. The greatest gain has been in the cities.

New Military Rifle Champion.

Camp Perry, O., Aug. 27.—Corporal George W. Farnham, U. S. Marine corps, is new military rifle champion of the United States. His score of 266 in the national individual match, with the 281 he scored in the president's match, gives him one point more than Corporal Adams of the U. S. Army.

Heinze Gets License to Wed.

New York, Aug. 30.—Visitors to the marriage license bureau in the city hall included Mrs. Bernice Golden Henderson, the actress, and F. Augustus Heinze, the Montana copper man, whose engagement was recently announced.

Lemons Cure Malaria. Lemons are said to be an infallible cure for malaria. This is the method of preparation: Take one lemon, wash thoroughly with a brush and hot water till all germs are gone, cut in very small pieces, using skin, seeds and all; cook in three glasses of water till reduced to one, and take this while fasting. A cure is generally effected within a week.

A Wise Old Owl. In her trim little bathing suit she sat on the white sand. "I adore intelligence," she cried. "So do I," said he. "All the same, though, beauty and intellect never go together." "And do you think me intellectual?" she faltered. "No," he confessed, frankly. "With a faint blush she murmured, 'Flatterer!'"

OF COURSE.

The Friend—Your new patent medicine seems to have gained a great reputation for curing people. To what do you attribute its great curative powers? The Boss—To extensive and judicious advertising.

LACK OF MONEY

Was a Godsend in This Case.

It is not always that a lack of money is a benefit. A lady of Green Forest, Ark., owes her health to the fact that she could not pay in advance the fee demanded by a specialist to treat her for stomach trouble. In talking of her case she says: "I had been treated by four different physicians during 10 years of stomach trouble. Lately I called on another who told me he could not cure me; that I had neuralgia of the stomach. Then I went to a specialist who told me I had catarrh of the stomach and said he could cure me in four months but would have to have his money down. I could not raise the necessary sum and in my extremity I was led to quit coffee and try Postum. "So I stopped coffee and gave Postum a thorough trial and the results have been magical. I now sleep well at night, something I had not done for a long time; the pain in my stomach is gone and I am a different woman."

"I dreaded to quit coffee, because every time I had tried to stop it I suffered from severe headaches, so I continued to drink it, although I had reason to believe it was injurious to me, and was the cause of my stomach trouble and extreme nervousness. But when I had Postum to shift to it was different. "To my surprise I did not miss coffee when I began to drink Postum. "Coffee had been steadily and surely killing me and I didn't fully realize what was doing it until I quit and changed to Postum."

TROOPS CLUB CAR RIOTERS

TROOPS PURSUE COLUMBUS MOB MEMBERS INTO HOUSES AND FELL TWENTY.

NO MERCY WAS SHOWN THOSE WITHIN REACH OF THE OFFICERS' CLUBS.

In No Cases Were Serious Injuries Sustained, Although the Soldiers Fired a Number of Shots.

Rioting broke out anew in Columbus, O., in the street car strike and police soldiers and deputy sheriffs arrested 23 persons. Following an unsuccessful attempt to dynamite an east side car, a large crowd gathered, extending for several squares. They were stoning all passing cars when the police and a detachment of soldiers reached the scene.

The soldiers, with riot clubs, in a number of cases struck down men in the streets and they also entered houses in which refuge has been taken. No mercy was shown those within reach of their clubs. It is believed that 20 persons were struck by the clubs.

A police chauffeur was hit by a brick thrown from the sidewalk. In no cases, so far as the police learned, were serious injuries sustained, although the soldiers fired a number of shots. This is the first time that the militia has used firearms. A deputy sheriff was mistaken for a letterer and clubbed over the head.

Among those arrested were several members of the Pennsylvania railroad car crews who, officials of the road say, were simply passing through the troubled district, going to their work when arrested. New crews for these trains had to be secured.

President Mahon and Chairman Pratt of the carmen's international union, are in for a conference with state labor leaders. The union officials say a resolution will be adopted asking Gov. Harmon to call upon the company in a formal public statement to arbitrate the strike differences.

Leprosy Cure Is Near.

Experiments being made on Molokai, the leper island, are likely to lead to the discovery of a serum which will cure the malady.

Three surgeons of the United States public health and marine hospital service, after months of unremitting toil, have grown lepra bacilli in pure culture outside the human body and in tiny glass tubes in the laboratory the loathsome germs are now growing in their third generation.

This achievement of the scientists at the government's leprosy investigation station is the first step in the production of a vaccine or a serum for the cure or prevention of leprosy. Dr. Donald H. Currie, director of the station; Dr. Walter R. Brinkerhoff and Dr. H. T. Hollmann are the men who have grown the cultures.

Mayor Gaynor Is Out Again.

Mayor Gaynor was taken from St. Mary's hospital, in Hoboken, shortly after breakfast Sunday morning to Deepwells, his country home in St. James, L. I., and spent a great deal of the afternoon sitting on the piazza of his home, receiving neighbors and fondling his favorite dogs.

The mayor's insistent plea to be allowed to walk unaided resulted in three distressing incidents.

Once he sank to his knees as he tried to enter an automobile, and in ascending the steps of his home, he fell on all fours from over-exertion. Despite his weakness, however, he maintained his cheerful mood, and once more at Deepwells spent the afternoon reclining on a chair on the veranda.

The mayor left the hospital at 9:30 o'clock Sunday morning. He had been there since Tuesday, August 9, the day he was shot by James J. Gallagher, a discharged city employe, on the deck of the steamship Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse. Drawn up in the court yard of the hospital to give him a final salute were 50 orphan children, cared for by the institution. Mayor Gaynor insisted on stopping to speak to each one, and several he patted on the head.

A clean towel and wash rag for each patron, the elimination of the sponge, dread carrier of loathsome germs, and the enactment of laws to bring about these reforms are among the demands made at the gathering of the National League of Barbers, which opened a three days' convention at Pittsburg, Pa.

Timothy L. Woodruff, chairman of the Republican state committee, will have an opportunity to testify concerning Adirondack land purchases before the commission conducting an investigation into forestry affairs by direction of Gov. Hughes.

MOTHER BATTLES WITH TWO DOGS TO RESCUE HER SON

AIDED BY NEIGHBORS, SHE ROUTS ANIMALS WHICH ATTACKED THE BOY.

New York.—Armed with a club, Mrs. W. E. Miller of Brooklyn engaged in a furious battle with two dogs to save her son, who had been thrown to the ground and was being attacked by both animals. Mrs. Miller was assisted by one of her woman neighbors, and the two were victorious in their struggle with the dogs. Young Miller was severely bitten, but will recover. The affair occurred almost in front of the Miller home. Miller was just returning from a walk with the family bulldog when another dog dashed up. Immediately the two animals began a fierce fight. Although young Miller's dog was having the best of the alteration, he determined to stop the battle, fearing the other animal would be killed. He seized the strange dog and started to pull him away.

As the boy did so the struggle of the animal threw him to the ground, and both canines renewed their battle over his body. They also bestowed many bites on the prostrate youth in their rage.

Attracted by the cries of the prone lad, Mrs. Miller rushed from the house. She seized a club and belabored the infuriated beasts. She was joined by her neighbor, but it was almost five minutes before the two women could separate the combatants.

ALICE SMOKE; WHAT OF IT?

Much Ado in Soot City Society Over Mrs. Longworth's Alleged Love of Weed.

Pittsburg, Pa.—Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth's cigarettes have caused a great "to do" in society here. The questions agitating Pittsburg's fair leaders of the local "400" are: Does Mrs. Longworth smoke cigarettes?

If she does, is there any harm in it provided she doesn't do it in the street and scare the horses?

The matter aroused a lively discussion among Pittsburg clubwomen.

"I look upon a woman who smokes cigarettes as I do one who bleaches her hair—with suspicion," was the statement of Mrs. J. H. Armstrong.

Mrs. Minnie O. Roberts and Mrs. George Kramer took leading parts in the discussion, which was listened to by members of the Wimodauss club of Pittsburg, the Sorosis club, the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Daughters of 1812, the Daughters of Pioneers, and the Women's Southern society.

"The higher the position a woman holds the more womanly she should be," asserted Mrs. Roberts, and a number of others said they thought Mrs. Longworth should not set such an example to the young women.

One dissenter, a member of the Wimodauss club, said:

"Any woman has a right to smoke cigarettes if she wants to, so long as she doesn't tread on anybody's toes."

Boy Is Healed by Prayer.

Kansas City, Mo.—For more than a week Eugene Bell and his wife prayed night and day that their boy, Paul, helpless with infantile paralysis, might be healed. Then, one morning the boy rose from the bed at seven o'clock and walked to the breakfast table and ate. He raised his arms almost as freely as before the dread malady attacked him, and the right leg, useless for ten days and nights, supported him and moved as he willed it to do.

AS IT APPEARED TO HER

Mrs. Oelrichs Evidently Didn't Think Much of Mr. Blank's Earning Capacity.

Mrs. Herman Oelrichs, the best-dressed woman in Newport, criticized very pertinently, at a recent dinner, the new dinner gowns of Paquin and Callot.

These clinging and filmy gowns are chiefly remarkable for the V-shaped back that they possess. The V—it is incredible, but it is true—opens all the Divining Rod 200 Years Old.

Wimlow W. Fifield of Medford, Mass., owns a metallic divining rod brought from England more than two hundred years ago by one of his ancestors. The rod, says Mr. Fifield, has been used successfully all over New England and in the western mining districts. It is attached to whalebone handles 12 inches long and weighs two ounces. The handles have inscriptions on them which are almost obliterated by age.

The person who brought the rod to America was Isaac Greenleaf, who settled in Massachusetts. The rod became famous as a finder of water. After marking the place of many springs the rod was used in California, Colorado and North Carolina for locating by men in quest of gold mines and other metals. One person who used it with par-way down to the waist Mrs. At a gala performance in Paris given by the Metropolitan Opera company of New York—the most successful performance Paris ever saw, and one whereat $40,000 was gained for the Fluviose victims—many of the beautiful Americans in the $40 orchestra seats wore these daring gowns, and now at Newport they are often to be seen.

Mrs. Oelrichs stared at one with astounded eyes at a dinner, and her neighbor said:

"Isn't that new gown of Mrs. Blank's a dream? Old Mr. Blank is so de-licular success was a blind man, in whose hands the rod is said to have done marvels.

A Strong Preacher.

The minister's eight-year-old daughter was returning with her parents from church, where the district superintendent had that morning occupied the pulpit.

"Oh, father," asked the little girl, her face alive with enthusiasm, "don't you think Brother C. is a very strong preacher? I do."

Gratified by this evidence of unusual intelligence on the part of his offspring, the minister eagerly inquired into her reasons for her statement.

"Oh," replied the little miss, artlessly, "didn't you see how the dust rose when he stamped his feet?"—Judge.

voted. They say that everything he makes goes on his wife's back."

Mrs. Oelrichs, her eye fixed on the gown's tarrible V, said with a smile: "Well, he must be making very little, then."

Practical Matching.

What the little girl with the 16 cents in pennies wanted was some red ribbon of a particular shade for her mother. She knew the shade, but she couldn't explain it and all she could say was, it wasn't that, no, nor that; it was deeper than that, and not so

The Counterfeit Southerner.

Of course, there are many counterfeits. A most amusing imitation is one that often passes for the typical southerner in New York. This satchel-mouthed braggart infests the cafes and demands attention by his abusing the waiter for offending his delicate sense of honor. "I hate a nigger, suh," he loudly proclaims, which is a sentiment that one never hears from those to the manner born. He haunts the theaters and parades the streets, since it is poor fun to practise his gentility in private.

He wears a wide black hat, mounts the table and yells whenever the band plays a southern melody. Such a pretentious caricature would be harmless enough, but for the ridicule he brings upon the south. Unfortunately, popular authors seem to accept him at face deep as that, and an em.

The mission was looking hopeless when suddenly she darted from the shop and seized a passing gentleman by the hand.

"Will you please come into this shop with me?" she asked innocently. "Certainly, my chickabiddy," he replied, "if I can be of any use. What is it?"

The little girl replied not, but led the wondering stranger to the counter. "There, miss!" she said, triumphantly. "Mother wants some ribbon the color of this gentleman's nose."

value and exploit him in novels or plays where a "southerner" is a necessary part of the stage machinery.—Everybody's Magazine.

Wanted Sarcasm.

The Philadelphia milk dealers who recently raised the price of their product to nine cents a quart and then lowered it again to eight appear to have been the subjects of a great deal of unjust censure. They announced at the time of the raise that milk could not be sold at eight cents without loss. Finding that the consumers would not pay the new price, however, they are continuing to sell at the old, thereby qualifying as genuine philanthropists. Every purchaser of milk at eight cents a quart will doubtless hereafter feel that he is an object of charity.

Hoodwinking Clergymen

When a small clique of men put up a scheme to harness the clergy of America and induce the ministers to, in turn "hitch up" the members of the churches, we should all take notice.

They couldn't harness the preachers in a bad cause except by deceiving them.

Ministers of the gospel are essentially and fundamentally honest but, like all men who work for the public good, they are at times misled by false statements.

Trust them when they have exact truth to speak from.

Now for the story which should interest every one for we are all either receivers of wages or we pay to wage earners and the freedom of each individual is at issue.

In various papers the following statement has been printed. Read it carefully at least twice.

"Interest in Labor Sunday.

"Labor Sunday—the Sunday preceding Labor day—will be observed generally this year and in future years throughout the United States. This because of the American Federation of Labor declaration for the observance of that day. The numerous letters recently received at American Federation of Labor headquarters from ministers is an assurance that interest in the idea of giving special attention to the cause of labor from the pulpit one day in the twelve months is widespread. Our readers are urged to try to bring about an understanding in their respective districts with representatives of the church so that ministers will make addresses that may attract trade unionists to the churches in large numbers for the day. Ministers should say what they think on the occasion in order that their trade union hearers may put the right estimate as to where the church stands on the question of the organization of labor. The more the subject is discussed the better will it be for labor. Union ethics are sound.—American Federationist."

Observe that "Labor Union" men "are urged" to induce ministers to make addresses that will attract trade unionists to the churches "for the day." "Ministers should say," etc., and winds up with "Union ethics are sound;" observe the hidden threat.

This is clipped from the American Federationist the organ of Sam Gompers, et al.

This clipping has been sent to papers throughout the country and the Typographical Union men in the newspaper offices instructed to "urge" that it be printed.

That is one of the ways of the "machine."

It looks harmless so the papers print it.

But! Let's lift the cover and look under.

The hidden motive is as dangerous to the peace and liberty of the citizens as a coiled rattlesnake in the grass.

Organization by workmen to peacefully and successfully present their side is necessary and most commendable.

There are such organizations now rapidly winning their way to public confidence without strikes, dynamite or killing fellow workmen.

(Some facts on this matter a little further along in this article.)

We see here a demand on the ministers of God, that they endorse and help build up the strike-producing, boycotting and violent American Federation of Labor.

Think of the man of God who teaches brotherly love being covertly ordered to praise and help get new members for an organization with a record for violence, crime and murder done by its members the like of which the world has never seen.

Think of the thousands of women made widows and the increasing thousands of children left fatherless by the pistol, club, dynamite and boot heel of members of this Labor Trust.

Any one who recalls the countless murders done in the multitude of strikes in the past few years will agree this is no exaggeration.

Take just one as an illustration:

There were some thirty men murdered and over 8000 bruised and maimed in the Chicago teamster's strike.

There is seldom a day passes but somewhere in our country from one to a score of our fellow men are assaulted or murdered by members of this band.

Then remember the homes blown up or burned. The families hounded, the rioting, burning of street cars, wrecking of trains and attempted or successful killing of passengers.

The general disturbance of industry and the thousands of dollars forced from tax payers to pay extra police, sheriffs and militia to protect, even in a feeble way, the citizens from the mobs of members of the American Federation of Labor.

Then you will realize why the great peace-loving majority of over 80 million Americans protest against the growth of this crime-tainted organization comprising perhaps one and one-half million men, of which it is estimated at least seven-tenths are peace-loving citizens and are members by coercion and are not in sympathy with the three-tenths who have gained control and force their methods.

We find that a few designing men have seized control of the American Federation of Labor, just as some shrewd capitalists have secured control of some railroads and other interests and are now twisting and turning them into machines for personal profit and fame.

These men cunningly plan to force workmen to join and pay 25 to 75 cents a month in fees.

Various methods are used to "induce" workmen to join.

First, they talk of the "tyranny of capital" making slaves of workmen.

Then they work up enthusiasm about the "brotherhood of man" and other talk which experience has shown excites the emotions of workmen and they are induced to join and pay fees to the leaders.

The 5000 workmen in Battle Creek are, as a rule, free from the dictates of the great Labor Trust and still get the highest wages in Michigan. If they had yielded to the smooth talk of the agents of the trust and joined, they would pay in fees from $1250.00 to $2000.00 a month to the big trust and be subject to strike orders any time.

Now they save that and put the money into homes and family comforts.

But the managers of the American Federation of Labor have worked hard and long to harness them.

The trust has sent small bales of money and last winter 18 "organizers" to tie up Battle Creek. They hired hall agents, gave picture shows, smokers, etc., as an investment, looking to rich returns when they succeeded in having them tied hand and foot.

But they failed and the last of these "organizers" left Battle Creek on May 1st saying "It's no use."

The workmen knew the record of this great trust and formed their own association to protect their rights and also to protect them from the big Labor Trust.

In Philadelphia some 4000 independent street car men, who mainly had families, had their own union and refused to join the big trust, preferring to be free to work or not as they pleased.

But the trust planned to force them into the fee-paying ranks, so a strike was ordered to compel the traction company to kick out these men and hire only Labor Trust members.

It was not a question of wages or hours but to push the free men out of their positions where they were earning good money to support their families. The strike was ordered, not to raise wages or reduce hours, remember, but solely to throw out members of an independent union and make places only for Labor Trust members, and thus show the independent men they could not earn a living unless they first paid fees to the trust managers.

Incidentally the people of Philadelphia must submit to no car service, rioting and bloodshed with millions in losses while these fee-hunting, notoriety seeking trust leaders were teaching the world that industry cannot be carried on except by workmen who first bend the knee, bow the head and pay fees.

How these men as strike leaders love to see their names in the papers each morning! It's meat and bread to their souls.

Then think of the lordly power, and don't forget the steady flow of money squeezed from the workman's hard earned pay envelope.

But when these leaders "tie up" any industry no man can hold a job who refuses to pay fines even on trumped up charges, and steadily pay fees whatever they are.

The workman is absolutely at the mercy of this band of men who have secured and hold control.

Many and many an honest workman has raised his voice and appealed to his fellows to rise and throw off the yoke of Gompers, et al. But, as one writes, "At every convention of the American Federation of Labor, strong opposition comes up but at the critical moment the impassioned orator appears and most dramatically puts the spot light on the leader and covers him with a mawkish film of 'martyrdom' and the emotional delegates yell in delight, forgetting the instructions of the peaceful workmen at home who desire to free themselves from the odium of membership under the great advocates of strike, boycott, violence and hate."

So we see the unequalled insolence with which these trust leaders propose to "induce" ministers to pull their chestnuts from the fire by preaching modern aggressive and violent labor trust methods.

There is a better way to secure justice for workers, as will appear further along.

Just a little diversion here.

I am charged with having first brought to the attention of the public some years ago, the name "Labor Trust."

A trust is a combination of men or organizations for the purpose of selling their product at a profit and restricting production to effect it.

We will say a large Oil Company gathers in smaller ones and thus controls production.

The Labor Trust "gathers in" local trade organizations, and thus has power to say how much work each man shall do.

The Oil Company then fixes prices. The Labor Trust does likewise.

The Oil Company may "use methods" to force an unwilling dealer to join.

The Labor Trust men go further and slug the independent man if he tries to sell his labor without paying fees and "obeying orders." They are both exactly alike in purpose, which, in both cases is entirely selfish to gain power and money for the leaders.

Certain Labor Trust members do not hesitate to use violence, dynamiting of property, burning homes of independent men and even murder to force obedience.

The Oil Company doesn't go so far. Both are extremely dangerous to the welfare of people and communities, for power placed in the hands of a few men either representing Capital or Labor is almost always abused and the public suffers.

Remember, reader, that your safety lies in strenuous opposition to all trusts which try to ride over and dictate to the people.

Only by opposing their growth can you retain your personal liberty.

Now to ministers.

The average congregation is made up of about 90 per cent of free citizens and much less than 10 per cent of members of the Labor Trust.

The free citizen wants to hear words defending the rights and independence of the common man, free from the arbitrary dictates of any self-seeking organization either of Capital or Labor.

The merchant, lawyer, school teacher, doctor, clerk, farmer and workman rebels against any forcible stopping of trains, boats, street cars, or factories, for the prosperity of the community is entirely dependent on steady continuance of these things.

Men don't like strikes, boycotts, injured workmen or burned cars and factories.

A famous divine says: "These men may hate capitalists but their hate for other laboring men burns like a flame, eats like nitric acid, is malignant beyond all description."

Then we remember cases of acid throwing, eyes gouged out, children pursued, women stripped, homes destroyed, men murdered and the long, long list of atrocities practised by Labor Trust members on other human beings who cannot agree with the trust methods.

Now for the better way.

Workmen are now organizing in the old fashioned trades union or "guild" way, affiliated with the National Trades and Workers Association whose constitution provides arbitration of differences with agreement for no strikes, boycott, picketing or hateful coercion of any kind.

This Trade Association has evolved from the experience of the past and is the highest order of Trades Unionism at the present day.

Under its laws it is not possible for the Hod Carriers Union or the Street Sweepers Union to order the school teachers or locomotive engineers to quit work in a "sympathetic strike."

If any craft finds injustice, the case is presented to properly selected arbitrators, testimony taken and the case presented to the public through the press. Thereupon public opinion, that greatest of all powers, makes itself felt and curiously enough a fair settlement is generally the result.

There is no strike, no loss of wages, no loss to the community and yet the faithful workers get their just treatment.

There are many details which have been worked out by men skilled in labor matters.

It will recompense any interested man to know these details which can be secured by a postal request for constitution and by-laws written to the National Trades and Workers Association, Kingman Block, Battle Creek, Mich.

Reader, look carefully into this great question of the relations of Capital and Labor and its successful solution. The new plan works and brings results for the members.

"I became so favorably impressed with the trustworthiness and practicality of the leaders of this new labor movement that I gave the Association a sanatorium at Battle Creek worth about $400,000 and with about 300 rooms, to be used as a home for their old members and the helpless babies, sometimes made fatherless by the pistol, club or boot heel of some member of the violent "Labor Trust."

Suppose you attend church Labor Sunday and hear what your minister has to say in defense of the safety and rights of the common, everyday man.

Let me ask you to read again a portion of one of my public articles printed a few years ago.

"The people of the world have given me money enough to spend in these talks through the papers in trying to make better and safer conditions for the common people, whether the Postum business runs or not."

Scores of letters have come to me from work-people and others, some from union men recounting their sufferings from union domination and urging that their cases be laid before the public.

It will not answer for us to only sympathize with the poor, the oppressed, those who haven't power enough to drive off tyrants and resent oppression, we must help them (ie the hands of the oppressors. Americans must act.

Some of my forebears in New England left comfortable homes, took with them the old flint locks, slept on the ground in rain and frost; hungry, footsore, and half clothed they grimly pushed on where the Eternal God of Human Liberty urged them. They wove for me and for you a mantle of freedom, woven in a loom where the shuttles were cannon balls and bullets and where swords were used to pick out the tangles in the yarn.

These old, sturdy granddads of ours stood by that loom until the mantle was finished, then, stained with their life blood it was handed down to us. Shall I refuse to bear it on my shoulders because the wearing costs me a few dollars, and are you cowardly enough to hide yours because some foreign labor union anarchist orders you to strip it off?

I have faith that the blood of 1776 still coursing in your veins will tingle and call until you waken. Then Americans will act. "There's a God in it."

TRIBUTE TO HON. CHASE S. OSBORN

(From One Who Knows Him).

To My Friends in Hillsdale County:

I have felt that I wanted to say a few words to you, giving my opinion of Chase S. Osborn's qualifications for governor of this state, and take this way of doing so. My reason for this feeling is that Mr. Osborn has been my close friend for many years, and I have great admiration for him as a marked character. He is so pre-eminently fitted for the duties of chief executive of our state that I am confident if you all knew him as I do you would at once be his loyal friends and supporters—that the dignity of his character would commend him to you. He is a man of wide sympathies and is a deep and conscientious student of civic and social problems; in this particular he has few equals. He is honest with himself and all others. In any position of trust which he has held he has never been swayed or influenced by personal consideration, but has had an eye single to his duty and responsibility to do the best possible as he understood it. He is a thoroughly trained statesman, an educated gentleman, a graceful, polished orator, a successful man of affairs, and, above and beyond all, he is true to himself and, as Shakespeare says: "This above all: To thine own self be true, And it must follow, as the night the day, Thou canst not then be false to any man."

I take much pleasure in saying this to you because it comes from the heart. Hoping that in the interest of good government you may give to him your support, I am,

Yours sincerely,
WALTER H. SAWYER,
—Hillsdale Standard-Herald.

It appears to be true that the leading Grangers of the state, those most prominent in the direction of the order's affairs, have decided that Chase S. Osborn is just as desirable for the interests of that organization as in other respects for Michigan's good as the next governor. In Muskegon county Mr. Osborn was introduced to several large gatherings by the members of the State Grange, who prepared and presented the tonnage tax resolution. He is an earnest supporter of Mr. Osborn. It is true, of course, that the interests of any great body of Michigan people in the movement and direction of state affairs are identical with general interests. Chase Osborn's candidacy is favored in all sections of the state by those best informed as to the present needs of Michigan.—Cadillac News.
