Reserved Seat Sale.

As stated in last week's Mail the reserved seat sale for the business men's entertainment course opens tomorrow (Saturday) at 9 o'clock. The attractiveness of this year's high class course has already sold a large number of tickets. By painstaking attention to every detail the committee has provided comfortable sittings for all persons who may avail themselves of the privilege of hearing the five numbers. Secure tickets from any member of the committee, or at the Wolverine Drug Store.

The first entertainment is by the Italian Boys, Tuesday, Oct. 25, at 8 p. m. No ticket holder should miss this number, "A Night in Venice," a musical and literary fantasy telling the story of an American's life in the city of art and music. Delightful instrumental and vocal music interspersed with comic true-to-life impersonations. The musical instruments used will be—solo violin, second violin, flute, harp and clarinet. These instruments in the hands of the dusky sons of sunny Italy will be a delight to every patron of the course.

From the many press comments concerning this company we take the following:

Everybody was charmed beyond expression at the grand concert given Thursday evening by The Italian Boys, under the auspices of the Shakespeare Club. The hearty applause, which was showered upon the musicians, was alike bestowed upon the reader, Elbert Foland, who gained instant popularity with our people before he had finished his first number. The five musicians, typical sons of "Sunny Italy" where music is inborn, gave a number of selections rendered with the soul and spirit of true artists. The National Medley, the airs from Martha, in brief, all the numbers will haunt the ear of the Celina public with their entrancing strains. The Shakespeare Course as a whole has been a splendid series of entertainments, but the concert Thursday night, was beyond all odds the crowning number.—Celina, Ohio.

Is Out His Watch.

Merle Murray mislaid a watch last Friday that was later found by a stranger who gave his name as John Garling of Lansing, at least it was supposed he found it and that he transferred it to a woman friend, Eva Vivian. Marshal VanDeCar got an inkling of the alleged facts and Saturday morning went after the pair. The man was found sleeping off a drunk in Mrs. Nichols' yard and the woman was walking the streets. Both were taken to the lock-up, where they denied all connection with the watch, the woman being especially profane and abusive in her talk. Young Murray would not make a complaint against the pair or either of them and later they were released by the Marshal on promise of leaving the village immediately. The marshal believes the watch was sold by the woman for $2.00 to a young man in town.

Teachers' Association.

Upwards of 4,000 school teachers in Michigan will be interested in an announcement made by the executive committee having in charge the arrangements for the fifty-eighth annual meeting of the state teachers' association in Bay City, October 27 and 28. Arrangements are now complete for entertaining all who go. The new Bay City armory, in which the three Campanari concerts and the Robert E. Peary lecture is to be given, is finished and ready for the chairs. Responses that have been received from citizens who will throw open their homes to the teachers indicate over 3,500 reservations.

Many of our residents will remember the Crouch murder which took place in Summit township, Jackson county, about thirty years ago. Four people were killed by unknown assassins. It will be remembered that L. T. Bowles, the colored boy who was at that time employed by Mr. Crouch on the farm, was sleeping in a remote part of the house, and was so frightened by the pistol shots that he hid himself in an old trunk. Mr. Bowles has since risen to the responsible position of president of a college in Kentucky and carries a degree at the end of his name.—Ex.

Plymouth Progress

Look Out For Him.

The cheerful and busy mail-order house agent is abroad in this state, with a record of fruitful visits to the rural communities and many dissatisfied customers behind him. Most of the victims are keeping quiet, as they don't want to advertise their gullibility, so the agent continues to do well. Here is the plan of operations:

He calls, introduces himself as an agent of a Chicago mail-order house, and exhibits a gripful of very attractive samples of shoes and clothing, which he offers at a very low price, though he refuses to sell the samples. The goods are "just like the samples," and the verdant ones order shoes, suits and overcoats therefrom. As an added inducement for community buying, the agent declares that to each of the first 15 purchasers in a township $4 worth of coupons, redeemable in trade at their face value will be given. The farmers make their selections and execute a short form contract which is cleverly though obscurely worded, and which affords sufficient loopholes to allow the agent to escape criminal prosecution. One of these loopholes specifies that the linings, buttons, etc., of any suit or overcoat ordered shall be extra.

Another man comes to take the measurements for the clothing. When the goods come, express collect, the purchasers find that there are a dozen charges of which they knew nothing, but which bring the total cost of the garment or suit to a point far above what the average small town merchant would ask. Linings and buttons prove to be alarmingly expensive. Besides, the much-advertised trade coupons prove to be worth only 10 per cent, instead of their full face value.

SCHOOL NOTES.

Editors: Sadie Paulger, Margaret Brems, Ida Spietz and Earl Grey.

The editing corps for this year consists of sixteen members, four chosen from each grade of the H. S. This corps is divided into four committees, each committee acting as editors for one week.

The English II. class is soon to begin reading "Ivanhoe."

Visitors of the H. S. this week were: Laurena Love, Roy Mott, Iva Hench and Norma Best.

The second grade is becoming noted for its regular attendance. A good example for the H. S.

The Kindergarten children are studying grain, and Friday they took a walk to the elevator to see the granaries.

The Physics class have begun experiments in the laboratory.

Judging from the fine music we have heard during the noon hours lately, the boys' glee club will be a great success this year.

Some one is inquiring of Claude the identity of the "Misses Williams."

Our new Coda "Revel of the Leaves" is very pretty and quite appropriate.

Miss Scott was a visitor in the fifth grade one day last week.

The basement has been freshened up by a coat of whitewash and paint.

English III. have finished Chaucer's "Prologue" and have started their study of Spencer's "Fairie Queen."

The German II. students are laboriously learning German script.

The foot-ball game last Friday between Monroe H. S. and our team was one of the finest we have had in recent years, not only for the fine playing on both sides, but for the true sportsman's spirit shown by both teams. Last year at Monroe our team was beaten 33 to 0; this year the score was 9 to 6 in the visitors' favor. This week Friday our team meets its old antagonist, Wayne, on the grounds here.

The Latin III. class has finished Cicero's "First Oration against Catiline."

Do not fail to attend the Teachers' Association meeting in the H. S. room Saturday, Oct. 22. Two fine speakers will each give addresses in both forenoon and afternoon sessions, which begin at 9:30 a. m. and 2 p. m. It is hoped that many school patrons will be present.

Some facetious postmaster has promulgated the following rules for post-office patrons: No letters given out until they are received. If you don't get a letter or paper on the day you expect it have the postmaster look through all the boxes and down cellar. It ought to be there somewhere and he likes to hunt for it just to please you. If your friends don't write rave at the postmaster. He is to blame. If he tells you no, put on a grieved look and say there ought to be some. He is probably hiding your mail for the sake of having you call for it. Ask him to look again. If you are buying stamps make him look them and put them on. That's his business.

Don't trifle with a cold is good advice for prudent men and women. It may be vital in case of a child. There is nothing better than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs and colds in children. It is safe and sure. For sale by all dealers.

Church Rally and Supper

The church rally held in connection with the second monthly supper of the ladies' aid at the M. E. church Wednesday evening was largely attended, about two hundred partaking of the excellent menu, which was served on the self-serve plan inaugurated by the ladies.

A brief session of the quarterly conference was conducted by District Superintendent Allen, among the most important items of business transacted being a raise of $150 on the salary of Rev. King, $75 from Plymouth charge and $75 from Tonquish. The brief addresses by the different heads of departments showed that the church was in the most prosperous condition. An organ solo by Miss Elsie Eddy and several selections by the male quartette were enjoyed by all.

Reception to Rev. Farber

On Tuesday evening last the ladies of the First Presbyterian Church held a reception for Mr. Farber. A cordial invitation had been extended to the other churches and the public in general. The beautiful weather made it possible for young and old to attend and there was a large gathering. The evening was spent in visiting and getting acquainted. All the churches were well represented and there was a spirit of harmony and good feeling that prevailed throughout the evening. The ladies had decorated the church very tastily and this added to the pleasure of the occasion. At the proper time light refreshments were served. All expressed themselves as having enjoyed the evening and grateful to the ladies for their kind hospitality.

"Baby Show."

Remember the date, Wednesday, October 26, at 2 p. m. General admission 10 cents. Mothers whose babies compete for prizes will be admitted free. It is expected that the Joy triplets will be present.

County Drain Commissioner Fallister let the job last Monday for constructing the Harvey street tile drain. The drain is almost a good sized sewer, nearly half the length being 2-foot tile and the balance 18-inch. The job was let for $4025, or at the rate of $2.50 per foot. It will be quite a tax, but it was the only thing to do to get the water from the Harvey street lots on the north side. With the construction of this sewer owners of vacant lots will begin building houses upon them next spring.

QUIT

We want everybody to quit judging the looks of Furniture, and the comparative price incident thereto, by the pictures published in newspapers, trade journals or circulars. Remember a $15 Sideboard or a $10 Bedstead may look like a $25 article in a picture. The right way is to examine the goods. That can best be done at home.

We guarantee every piece of goods we sell. That means the price is guaranteed as well as the quality and stability of the goods. This, together with the fact that we deliver goods at your home free of expense and free from mar or breakage, ought to be an additional feature worth considering.

Just received a large Fall Line of Goods. New Bed Couches and Davenport, New Sideboards, New Rockers, New Room-sized Rugs, New Carpet Selections and in fact something NEW in about every line carried.

Come in and at least let us show and price this line to you. No matter whether you buy or not—we will be pleased to have you just look at the goods. That's a favor to us—call at least.

The meeting next week Thursday, Oct. 27, will be a mother's meeting and will be in charge of Mrs. Wyman Bartlett and Mrs. I. Gunsolly. There is no doubt but that it will be an interesting meeting.

The First District convention is to be held at Wyandotte Nov. 3d and 4th. All that can should plan to attend.

Remember! That the Christian churches and good citizens everywhere in Michigan are arrayed as never before in solid phalanx against the saloon and saloon politics, also. That the majority of good men and women everywhere are praying for the time to come and are willing to help it on by deeds.—Supt. Press.

Mr. Editor: Please allow me a kindly word in The Mail. I am not, as some have supposed, a retired minister. Was never more vigorous than now, but I am in position to command my time more fully than heretofore, and if at any time one of our pastors shall need pithy supply, I can arrange to help. So, too, in the matter of funerals and weddings; it sometimes occurs that the pastors are absent or otherwise occupied when needed. I am familiar with these functions and can serve if desired. I have conducted over 900 of the former and celebrated more than 500 of the latter. E. E. CASTER.

Wayne, the old time antagonist in the foot ball field, will again meet Plymouth H. S. this afternoon at 3:30 at Athletic park. The Plymouth boys put up a very fine game with Monroe last Friday afternoon and may be expected to improve upon the same this afternoon and give Wayne a beating. Come out and see them do it.

Miss C. B. Shortman has resigned her position as treasurer of the Markham Air Rifle Co. and will soon leave for California, where she is having a home built. She will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sprague and W. F. Markham. Mr. Markham and Mr. Sprague will make an extended trip through old Mexico the coming winter.

Mr. Glen Smith of Detroit and Miss Luree L. Weeks were married at the home of the bride on South Main street last Saturday afternoon, Rev. E. King performing the ceremony. The immediate friends of both young people were present, and the bride received quite a number of useful and handsome gifts. After a few days' trip to Toledo they will move to Detroit, where Glen has a good position. Their friends extend congratulations.

We know all about other sewing machines, from treadle to spool pin; we know them all, the cheapest and the highest price. We have investigated them all—Everyone of them has been found lacking some real essential; every one of them has had some glaring faults—but in which you hear and read so much about, we offer a machine that is perfected, absolutely perfect, a machine in which not the smallest detail can be improved.

And in order to get you to realize this superiority as we do, we have decided three things.

First, that we cannot afford to advertise its low price—you would never imagine that you could get so perfect a machine for so little money. To appreciate its price, you must come to the store and see the machine first.

Second, we will offer you the chance to test The FREE, from treadle to spool pin, in your own home. This best way for you to become enthusiastic over its one point of superiority after another is to actually sew on The FREE for 30 days. We want you to keep it in your home—to sew on it as if it were your own—to test it in any way you choose—in compare it with any other sewing machine you know of and then make your decision. Unless you are fully satisfied—never than satisfied—send it back to us—it will not cost you a cent, we will refund all you have paid on it.

But there will be at least 53 reasons why you will want to keep The FREE when the 30 days are over.

—There is the rare beauty of its French-ling design and the improved dash which never shows dirt.

—There's the 8 set of Ball-Bearings which make it the lightest running sewing machine in the world.

—There's the "Rotocillo" movement—Mr. Free's own invention which makes The FREE faster than the fastest Rotary and absolutely perfect.

—There is the Shuttle Ejector, the Automatic Locking Drawers, the Rotary Spool Pin, the Improved Feed Latch, the Automatic Tension Release, the Automatic L.H. its Reinforced Shanks which never wear out, the built in sewer comes off, the remarkably strong Insurance Policy number in kind of accidents—and everything else you could ever imagine to make a sewing machine absolutely perfect.

THE PRESENT is one of the most interesting periods in the history of lawn tennis in America for the reason that it is believed to mark the passing of the men who have for some years past held all the places of pre-eminence in the Yankee tennis world and the advent of a coterie of younger players—comparative newcomers in the game—who will be the champions of tomorrow. When William A. Larned in the annual tournament at Newport this autumn won, for the sixth time, the coveted title of champion of America the prediction was made by his friends that it would be his last defense of the post of honor he has successfully held against all comers for more than half a decade. If Larned does decide next year voluntarily to hand over the championship to the man who in the preliminary contests wins the right to challenge him, he will but be following in the footsteps of one or two of his famous predecessors who retired unbeaten after attaining the highest position in the game. That Larned should think of retiring is by no means strange. Indeed, the wonder is that he has been able to defend his title successfully against the young blood that has appeared in the game. For, be it known, the redoubtable Larned is more than forty years of age and has been playing tennis steadily for more than twenty years.

That Larned at the age of two score years is yet America's best player, and quite possibly the best player in the world, is the more notable when it is taken into consideration that tennis, for all that it "looks easy" to the uninitiated, is in literal truth one of the most strenuous games in the whole category of outdoor athletics. Moreover, it is an all-around game. Not only does it call into play every muscle in the body to an extent unequalled by any other exercise, unless it be rowing, but it requires the nimblest brain work. To be a successful racketeer a player must think quickly as well as act quickly.

Another veteran American player who stands behind Larned in skill and who ranks with him as affording evidence that youth is not the requisite in tennis that it is in some other sports is Beals Wright, former national champion. As long ago as 1901 Wright had the national championship almost in his grasp and in 1905 he captured the coveted title. Latterly he has been in a sense eclipsed by Larned, but is yet a splendid and spectacular player. Only a few months ago Wright went abroad and won all the best players of Europe and Great Britain, only meeting defeat at the hands of A. F. Wilding, the Australian player, and that in a contest that cannot be regarded as wholly conclusive.

For all the splendid achievements, however, of the older tennis players experts who are yet very much in the game, there is ample evidence that the time is almost at hand when they must step aside for the group of younger men who have been forging ahead of late in a most determined manner. Oddly enough, almost all of these new stars of the tennis firmament are westerners. Very much in the public eye just at present is Bundy, the whirlwind player from California, who this year defeated "all comers" and only met his Waterloo when he faced Larned. Even at that the outcome might have been different had the lad from the Golden Gate state not been exhausted by a long series of contests.

Even more interesting is the future of Maurice E. McLaughlin, the "boy wonder" from California, whom Larned has lately taken up as his protégé and upon whose shoulders it is removed he proposes to let fall the mantle of the champion. McLaughlin, who is yet in his teens, is a dashing player, with terrific strength behind his strokes and with a deadly "serve" that is calculated to disconcert any player in the world. It is now the hope of all American tennis enthusiasts that Larned, Wright and McLaughlin can be induced to form a team that will go to Australia and attempt to recover the Davis cup—the great international blue ribbon trophy of the tennis world—which was won by Australian players some years ago and which neither American nor English players have ever been able to wrest from their grasp.

BEALS WRIGHT ONE OF AMERICA'S GREATEST TENNIS PLAYERS

It is the hopelessly classical name of "Sphairistikos." Under the auspices of the Marylebone club rules were formulated the following year for what was then definitely known as tennis. The "hour glass" court was retained, with the net five feet high at the posts and four feet in the center, and the service lines 25 feet from the net. The ball used was covered, and weighed 1½ ounces and was 2½ inches in diameter. The earliest form of tennis was replaced in 1876 by a rectangular court.

In 1879, when volleying was introduced by the Renshaw brothers, the service line was brought one foot nearer the center and the height of the line was raised again to three feet six inches, making the advantages of the different styles of play more equal. Eight years later the English National Lawn Tennis association was formed. Ever since then it has been the governing body for England and the surrounding countries, in which the game has since spread. The courts of all countries have the same dimensions. The following is the official description of the American court: The court is 78 feet long and 27 feet wide. It is divided across the middle by a net, the ends of which are attached to two posts, standing three feet outside of the court on either side. The height of the net is three feet six inches at the post and three feet in the middle half way between the side lines and parallel with them is drawn the court line, dividing the space on each side of the net into two equal parts, the right and left courts. On each side of the net, at a distance of 21 feet from it are drawn the service lines. Two kinds of game are played, "singles" and "doubles," two partners on each side. The choice of sides of the court and the right to serve first are decided by the toss of a coin. The players stand on opposite sides of the net, the player who first delivers the ball being called the server and the other the striker-out. At the end of the first game the striker-out becomes the server, and so on alternately. The server delivers the ball, or service, from the right to the left courts. It must drop between the service line, half court line and side line of the court, diagonally opposite to that which is being served.

The system of scoring is framed on a basis of 15 for each stroke won; but the third stroke is called 40 instead of 45. If both players win three strokes, the score is called "deuce" instead of "forty all." The winner of the next stroke scores "advantage," and if he also scores the following stroke, he wins the game. If the stroke falls to the opposite side the score goes back to "deuce." Similarly the player who first scores six games wins the set, unless he should have won five, when a player must win two consecutive games to score the set. If he fails to do this the score is once more called "games all" and the same conditions prevail at every set. The players change sides at the end of every set.

All championship matches have since 1885 been determined by the winning of three sets out of five; but since 1897 the English system of handicapping occasionally has been employed, but without the use of differential tables. Briefly, a player is benefited by giving or owing strokes or giving strokes. A blaque is one point which can be taken by the receiver of the odds at any time in the set, except after a service is delivered or by the server after a fault.

The game was played in America within a year of its adoption in England, at Nahant, near Boston. The next year a court was laid out at Newport, R. I., which has since been the American headquarters of the game, although it has grown to such an extent that, in addition to the national championships there are held every year 26 or more championship contests by single states or groups of states. The first open championship game was held on the grounds of the Staten Island Cricket club in 1880. The next year the United States National Lawn Tennis association was formed, and rules adopted, which have, however, been modified and altered from time to time, and since then the national championships have always been played at Newport, R. I. A number of English players have frequently taken part in these championship games, with marked success at first, which gradually diminished as the American play developed along national lines. These may be summed up under these heads: The screw service, whereby the ball is made to curve in its downward flight, like the "out drop" of a baseball pitcher, imparting a double and most baffling motion; the practise of volleying from a position so close to the net that these strokes can kill the ball; the development of the "stop" volley, whereby the ball is simply stopped with a loosely held racket and falls over the net "dead," lobbing very high with a slight cut that gives the ball a back twist. The American association has recently modified one of the two important differences between the rules of play in England and America by limiting the rests to which players were entitled between sets, to one rest after the third set and no more. The other difference, the foot-fault rule, remains.

Professional Eaters

Many striking customs of their past are still preserved by the Indians of the northwest, and of these none is more interesting than a peculiar practise yet followed by the Sioux of the Devils Lake reservation. It appears, on competent authority, that from time immemorial these Sioux have adhered to an etiquette whereby it is the bounden duty of the host to supply his guest with all the food he may desire, and as a rule the apportionment set before the visiting Indian is in excess of the capacity of a single man. On the other hand, by the same custom, the guest is obliged to eat all that is placed before him, else he grossly insults his entertainer. Now, it was found that this practise would work a hardship, but instead of dispensing with the custom the Indian method of reasoning was applied and what is known as the professional eater was brought to the front. While the guest is supposed to eat all that is placed before him, it serves the same purpose if his neighbor assists in devouring the bountiful repast, the main object being to have the plate clean when the meal shall be finished. It is not always practicable to depend upon a neighbor at table to assist in getting away with a large dinner, and in order to insure the final consumption of the allotted portion visiting Indians call upon these professional eaters, whose duty it is to sit beside them through a meal and eat what the guest eats. The professional eaters are never looked upon in the light of guests but more as traveling companions with a particular duty to perform. These eaters receive from $1 to $2 and even $3 for each meal where they assist. It is stated that one of the professional eaters was known to have disposed of some seven pounds of beef at a sitting.—New York Herald.

CYCLONE SWEEPS OVER FLORIDA

40,000 SQUARE MILES OF TERRITORY SOUTH OF JACKSONVILLE CUT OFF FROM WORLD.

MILLIONS OF DOLLARS OF DAMAGE DONE, BUT FEW LIVES ARE LOST.

Southern Orange - Crop Reported Ruined; St. Augustine Inundated; Many Boats Lost.

More than 40,000 square miles of territory south of Jacksonville have been damaged to the extent of millions of dollars. Savannah, Ga., has been shattered; St. Augustine is inundated; boats are reported in distress; the entire southern orange crop is believed ruined. But the loss of life in the record hurricane which has been playing havoc along the coast has been remarkably small, in so far as indicated by reports up to now.

Several ships are known to be in distress, and several more are feared for, but the timely warning served to keep most of the sea-going craft in the harbors. Buildings are being razed.

Wind 70 Miles An Hour. The maximum wind velocity, 70 miles an hour, was recorded, when the center of the disturbance appeared to have passed up the Atlantic coast toward Savannah. The wind velocity along the coast was greater than in the city. Mayport, at the mouth of the St. Johns river, experienced a wind of 80 to 90 miles an hour and one-half the houses there were wrecked.

Julia Ward Howe Dead. Julia Ward Howe is dead. Bowed under the weight of her 91 years, the noted philanthropist and authoress succumbed to an attack of pneumonia. She died peacefully in her summer home in Middletown, R. I. Her three daughters were at the bedside when Mrs. Howe passed away, but her son was absent. The funeral was held at the Church of the Disciples, Unitarian, in Boston.

Europe's Wheat Crop Second Best. Reviewing the condition of the foreign wheat crops, the United States department of agriculture in its monthly Crop Reporter announces the promise of good yields in the southern hemisphere. Although a deficiency of about 95,000,000 bushels is reported for Europe in comparison with the highest record, still the crop promises to be the second largest the continent has produced.

French Railway Strike Settled. The strike committee of the Rail-roads' union, in Paris, has formally called off the strike of the railroad employes, which has extended over several of the most important systems in France.

Over 4,000,000 cords of wood were used in the manufacture of wood pulp for paper making in the United States in 1909, as shown by the annual report on the industry, issued at Washington by the census bureau.

Chicago takes second place again in the tables of business transacted through the United States mails. The tables were issued by the postoffice of New York. Chicago recently claimed first place, on the strength of returns for the month of August.

In accordance with a petition filed last spring the supreme court of the United States directed the court of claims to show cause why it should not distribute the $4,000,000 Cherokee Indian fund in accordance with a recent decision of the supreme court.

The main building of the Winnipeg exposition, which was used temporarily for the housing of 44 children, suffering of scarlet fever, was burned. The patients were removed safely during a heavy rain and placed under a grandstand. The loss is $75,000.

As indicating the postoffice department is fast approaching the state of self-support. Postmaster-General Hitchcock announced that the deficit for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1910, amounted to only $2,881,482, as compared with $17,479,770 for the preceding year.

An inquiry into the mental condition of Mrs. Caroline B. Martin, one of the Wardlaw sisters, accused of murdering Oney W. H. Smead, the East Orange, N. J., bathtub victim, has been ordered by Justice Ten Eyck in Newark, and Nov. 2 was set for the hearing.

"Tag Day" netted $65,000 for the Children's Charitable association of Chicago. The day was the greatest ever known in the history of charitable events in that city. "Tag Day," if three years old, this is the financial history of "Tag Day" in Chicago: 1908, $20,000; 1909, $42,000; 1910, $65,000.

Prudent Bridegroom. "The uncertainties of life in New York are reflected in wedding rings," said the jeweler. "Of all the wedding rings I have sold this season more than half were brought back after the ceremony to have the date put on. The rest of the inscription was engraved when the ring was purchased, but in order that the date might be correct it was cautiously omitted until after the knot was tied."

Just Guessed. "Mrs. Wadsworth, I am very glad, indeed, to meet you. But, haven't I had the honor of being introduced to you before? What was your name formerly, if I may ask?" "My maiden name?" "No; your name before you were divorced?" "How did you know I had been divorced?" "Why, hasn't everybody?"

Slightly Mixed. Two Englishmen were resting at the Red Home Inn at Stratford-on-Avon. One of them discovered a print picturing a low, tumbling building underneath which was printed: "The House in Which Shakespeare Was Born." Turning to his friend in mild surprise he pointed to the print. His friend exhibited equal surprise and called a waiter, who assured them of the accuracy of the inscription. "Pon my word," said the observing Englishman, shaking his head dubiously, "I thought he was born in a manger!"

Popularity of Thais. "Every other young actress is calling herself Thais," said Henry E. Dixey at a dinner at Maquinn's. "Thais McGinnis, Thais Endicott, Thais Schmidt—the thing is universal." "Universal and ridiculous; for they who have read Anatole France's story of 'Thais' know that she was a very naughty little girl, indeed. I am quite sure that no real reader of 'Thais' would ever, under any circumstances, consent to be called such a name." "It makes me think of a man who, taking his infant daughter to be baptized, told the clergyman to call her Venus." "But I refuse to call her Venus," said the clergyman, indignantly. "Venus is the name of a pagan goddess." "Well, how about your own girl, Diana?" "That's the man."

COFFEE WAS IT. People Slowly Learn the Facts.

"All my life I have been such a slave to coffee that the very aroma of it was enough to set my nerves quivering. I kept gradually losing my health but I used to say 'Nonsense, it don't hurt me.' "Slowly I was forced to admit the truth and the final result was that my whole nervous force was shattered. "My heart became weak and uncertain in its action and that frightened me. Finally my physician told me, about a year ago, that I must stop drinking coffee or I could never expect to be well again. "I was in despair, for the very thought of the medicines I had tried so many times nauseated me. I thought of Postum but could hardly bring myself to give up the coffee. "Finally I concluded that I owed it to myself to give Postum a trial. So I got a package and carefully followed the directions, and what a delicious, nourishing, rich drink it was! Do you know I found it very easy to shift from coffee to Postum and not mind the change at all? "Almost immediately after I made the change I found myself better, and as the days went by I kept on improving. My nerves grew sound and steady, I slept well and felt strong and well-balanced all the time. "Now I am completely cured, with the old nervousness and sickness all gone. In every way I am well once more." "It pays to give up the drink that acts on some like a poison, for health is the greatest fortune one can have. Read the little book, 'The Road to Wellville,' in page 'There's a New son.'"

NATIONAL CAPITAL

Large Cities Show a Healthy Growth

WASHINGTON.—The census returns on the large cities of the country are now complete. The figures show that most of them have had a healthy growth during the ten years since the last count was made, but some of them have fallen out of the places they occupied then and their places have been taken by other cities.

Of the many that have tried, in the past ten years, to climb into the 100,000 class, only five have succeeded. Among the ten largest cities there has been only one important change of position. Baltimore has lost sixth place to Cleveland. Baltimore's population, as officially stated, is 568,485, while Cleveland has 660,663. The gain in Baltimore over 1900 was 9.7 per cent.

A comparison of 29 cities in the 100,000 class shows that the aggregate population is 13,596,819, as against 10,376,012 in 1900 and 7,904,140 in 1890.

The fact is noted that the high rate of increase is not confined to any one geographical section. Of seven cities whose rate exceeded 40 per cent., two, Newark, N. J., and Bridgeport, Conn., are eastern; one, Atlanta, is southern, and four, Detroit, Denver, Kansas City and Columbus, are western. Of the two cities with the lowest rate, one is eastern and the other is western.

The rates of increase for Atlanta, Detroit, Denver and Kansas City are phenomenally high, but most extraordinary is the high percentage for New York, which exceeds the average of 28 cities by 11.4 per cent., and is itself exceeded only by the rates of seven cities.

Fifty-four cities of between 25,000 and 100,000 show an aggregate population of 2,723,498, as against 1,901,766 in 1900, a gain of 43.2 per cent., which the census bureau pronounces "phenomenally high." Thirty-one of these cities show a higher rate of increase for the past decade than for the previous one. No decrease is noted in any one of the cities.

Of the larger cities the gain of St. Louis during the decade was greater proportionately than that of Boston, its nearest competitor, while Kansas City is in twentieth place on the face of the returns. Kansas City has jumped ahead of Providence, R. I., and Indianapolis, Ind., Providence falling behind Indianapolis, which led in 1900.

Uncle Sam's Health Zone Far Spread

THE activities of the public health and marine hospital service, to which is intrusted most of the general work of guarding the country against contagion from abroad and preventing its spread at home, form the topic of a paper by Surgeon General Wyman in the public health report.

The document was prepared for the American Public Health association which recently met at Milwaukee. This organization is composed of representatives from Canada, Mexico and Cuba, as well as from the United States, and the paper was regarded as of especial interest to them.

Beginning with "the utmost circumference" of the influence of the organization," Doctor Wyman tells of the protective measures at foreign ports. He shows that medical officers of the bureau are located in most of the seacoast cities of Asia and South and Central America, and at some of those of Europe. The service also is liberally represented in Hawaii, Porto Rico and the Philippines.

In addition to keeping themselves and the home office informed regarding the prevalence of cholera, yellow fever, smallpox, typhus and plague, these officials are required to inspect American-bound vessels and to issue bills of health, without which the vessels might not enter American ports.

During the last fiscal year they inspected 16,766 vessels and examined 1,433,134 passengers. On board ship the regulations of these officials follow the immigrant, requiring proper cleanliness and ventilation, and when the vessel arrives in the United States it is met by another set of health service officers on duty either to enforce quarantine rules or to assist the immigration officials in their work.

In the latter capacity the public health men last year examined 1,280,000 immigrants, certifying 30,000 of them as defective either mentally or physically.

The paper also abounds in facts relative to the work of the bureau in preventing the spread of infectious diseases from one state to another under the quarantine law, making special reference to the work in connection with recent yellow-fever epidemics and the plague infection on the Pacific coast of a few years ago.

The maintenance of the service costs the United States $2,000,000 annually.

Political Pot Is Boiling Furiously

REPORTS coming into Washington from all over the country tell how the seething political pot is furiously boiling. In New York, Indiana, Nebraska and Missouri the politicians are especially busy.

The New York state Republican convention was a triumph for Colonel Roosevelt. He was the temporary chairman, defeating Vice-President Sherman. That was the first rout of the regulars. He won a spectacular fight for the adoption of the platform of the progressives; he put through his slate and the close of the convention found the Roosevelt forces in complete control of the situation. Henry L. Stimson of New York city, Roosevelt's man, was nominated for governor.

In his speech distinguishing between a leader and a boss, he said "a boss drives, while a leader leads." He then proceeded to "lead" the convention to do everything that he wanted it to do.

The platform as adopted contained a plank endorsing the administration of President Taft and that of Govern-nor Hughes and commending the wisdom of the president in choosing Hughes for the supreme court bench.

The keynote of the Indiana campaign was sounded by Senator Beveridge in a speech at Indianapolis. He was merciless to the interests, which he says have been controlling legislation for years. He defied the corporate interests to pollute the voters of Indiana. He favored the revision of the tariff by a genuine tariff commission. He gave Roosevelt credit for inaugurating the conservation movement.

Mayor J. C. Dahlman of Omaha, candidate for governor of Nebraska, responding to rumors about his early career, gave out a statement that he shot his brother-in-law in Texas for deserting his sister, fled the state and assumed the name in Nebraska of Jim Murray. The man he shot did not die. The only law he knew, he says, was the law of the pistol and the quick hand. "I got to be pretty tough, I admit it," he says. "The country was full of maverick cattle and no one was a better hand with the rope, chasing down these strays and putting the branding iron on them."

Missouri Democrats opened their campaign at Joplin, with Bryan, Folk, Francis, Reed and Stone as leaders and orators. Addresses were delivered afternoon and evening and the crowds were greater than the capacity of the meeting places.

Our Wood Fuel Bill Is $250,000,000

FIREWOOD valued at $250,000,000 is used every year by the people of the United States, according to the latest estimate of the forestry service. Our foresters used considerably more wood, but coal to a great extent has supplanted it as a fuel.

Little attention has been paid to the amount of wood used for fuel purposes. In 1880 the census estimated that at that time there were nearly 146,000,000 cords, valued at approximately $222,000,000, or $2.21 a cord, used for fuel annually.

The population then was a little over 50,000,000. Since then the population has increased to over 86,000,000, but the use of wood for fuel has decreased not only in per capita consumption, but also in total quantity. A little more than 20,000,000,000 cubic feet of wood in all forms is used in the United States each year, and of this 7,000,000,000 cubic feet, or about 86,000,000 cords, is firewood.

Of the total estimated consumption of firewood 70,000,000 cords, or 81.4 per cent., was used in towns and cities with a population of from 1,000 to 30,000; 1,615,000 cords, or 1.9 per cent., in cities of over 30,000 population, and the remainder, or 2 per cent., in mineral operations. In these four classes of consumption the average value per cord ranged from $2.61 for the firewood used on the farms to $6.88 for that used in the cities.

TERRIBLE SUFFERING ENDED.

How An Allegan, Mich., Woman Regained Her Health.

Mrs. Robert Schwabe, R. F. D. No. 3, Allegan, Mich., says: "Doctors could not cure me and I was rapidly running into Bright's disease. Kidney secretions were like blood and I arose 8 to 10 times at night to void them. I became frightened at my condition. My sight began to fail and pains in my back were like knife-thrusts. I cried for hours, unable to control my nerves. After I started using Doan's Kidney Pills, I began to feel better and soon I was cured. I am a living testimonial of their merit." HIS HANDS CRACKED OPEN

"I am a man seventy years old. My hands were very sore and cracked open on the insides for over a year with large sores. They would crack open and bleed, itch, burn and ache so that I could not sleep and could do but little work. They were so bad that I could not dress myself in the morning. They would bleed and the blood dropped on the floor. I called on two doctors, but they did me no good. I could get nothing to do any good till I got the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment. About a year ago my daughter got a cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment and in one week from the time I began to use them my hands were all healed up and they have not been a mite sore since. I would not be without the Cuticura Remedies.

"They also cured a bad sore on the hand of one of my neighbor's children, and they think very highly of the Cuticura Remedies. John W. Hasty, So. Effingham, N. H., Mar. 5, and Apr. 11, '09."

Childlike Ignorance.
Laura Jean Libbey, discussing in Brooklyn her successful appearance on the stage, said:
"I talk in my monologue about love, marriage and the other interests of the heart. On these subjects women, especially young women, are strangely ignorant."
"They really make me think you know, of the little girl who was asked by her teacher:
"What can you tell us about Solomon?"
"Solomon," replied the little girl, "was very fond of animals."
"And how, my dear," said the teacher, "do you make that out?"
"Because," answered the little girl, "the Bible says he had 500 porcupines."

He Knew.
A small boy brought up by a freighting father to hate anything connected with England or the English was consigned recently to eat dinner with the nurse while the family entertained a genuine English lord in the dining room. The grown-ups' meal had come to that "twenty minutes past" stage where conversation halts directly, when a childish treble fell upon the dumb-waiter shaft from the kitchen. This is what the astonished nobleman heard:
"Fe, fi, fo, fum,
"I smell the blood of an Englishman."—Wasp.

Dynamiter, Himself a Married Man, Knew What Awaited Forgetful Husband.

The business man was sitting in his office, thinking of starting for home, when a suspicious looking person came in with a leather bag in his hand.
"If you don't give me $25," said the visitor, coming at once to the point, "I will drop this on the floor."
The business man was cool. "What is in it?" he asked.
"Dynamite," was the brief reply.
"What will it do if you drop it?"
"Blow you up."
"Drop it!" was the instant command. "My wife told me when I left home this morning to be sure and send up a bag of flour, and I forgot it. I guess it will take just about as much dynamite as you have there to prepare me for the blowing up I'll get when she sees me!"
He threw himself back in his chair and waited for the explosion, but it did not come.
"I'm a married man myself," said the dynamiter, and quietly slipped out.—Illustrated Bits.

May Sell 100,000,000 Red Cross Seals.
Twenty-five million Red Cross Christmas seals have been printed and are being distributed by the American Red Cross, and arrangements have been made to print 100,000,000 if necessary. It is expected that this number will be needed. While the sticker is perforated like those used last year, it is intended for use only as a seal on the back of letters. The seal is one inch square with the conventional Red Cross in the center and the words, "Merry Christmas, Happy New Year, American Red Cross" in a circle about it. The colors are red and green. The design is by Mrs. Gulon Thompson, of Waterbury, Conn., who received $100 as a prize for her sketch.

The Place of Honor.
Farmer Hodge was of the good, old-fashioned school, and he always gave a feast to his hands at harvest time. It was harvest time and the feast was about to commence.

Giles was the oldest hand and the hostess, with beaming cordiality, motioned him to the seat by her right hand. But Giles remained silently unresponsive.
"Come," said the hostess, "don't be bashful, Mr. Giles"—he was just Giles on ordinary occasions—"you're right to the place of honor, you know."
Giles deliberated a moment, then spoke.

"Thank you kindly, Mrs. Hodge," he said, "but if it's all the same to you, I'd rather sit opposite this pudding!"

Like the Other Kind.
It was in a "down east" village that the young man met his sweetheart, a charming country beauty. When he returned to the city he sent her a jar of cold cream to keep her cheeks as fresh as the budding rose.
On his next visit he asked her how she liked his little gift.
"The taste was very nice," she said, with a rather sickly smile, "but I think that I like the other kind of cream best, dear."—Lippincott's.

Poor Prospects.
"Yes," said Miss Passay, "I found a very nice boarding house today, but the only room they had to offer me had a folding bed in it, and I detest those things."

"Of course," remarked Miss Pert, "one can never hope to find a man under a folding bed."—Catholic Standard and Times.

OF THE VIRTUE OF

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

What is the use of procrastinating in the face of such evidence as the following letters represent? If you are a sick woman or know one who is, what sensible reason have you for not giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial? For 30 years we have been publishing such testimonial letters as these—thousands of them—they are genuine and honest, too, every one of them.

Mrs. S. J. Barber says:
"I think Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the best medicine in the world for women—and I feel it my duty to let others know the good it has done for me."
Three years ago I had a tumor which the doctor said would have to be removed by an operation or I could not live more than a year, or two, at most. I wrote Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., for advice, and took 14 bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and today the tumor is gone and I am a perfectly well woman. I hope my testimonial will be of benefit to others."
—Mrs. S. J. BARBER, Scott, N. Y.

Mrs. George May says:
"No one knows what I have suffered from female troubles, neuralgia pains, and backache. My doctor said he could not give me anything to cure it. Through the advice of a friend I began to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and the pain soon disappeared. I continued its use and am now in perfect health. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been a God-send to me as I believe I should have been in my grave if it had not been for Mrs. Pinkham's advice and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."
—Mrs. GEORGE MAY, 86 4th Ave., Paterson, N. J.

"I was under the doctor's treatment for a fibroid tumor. I suffered with pain, soreness, bloating, and could not walk or stand on my feet a very length of time. I wrote to Mrs. Pinkham for advice, followed her directions and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. To-day I am a well woman, the tumor was expelled and my whole system strengthened. I advise all women who are afflicted with tumors or female troubles to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."
—Mrs. E. F. HAYES, 1890 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

Mrs. W. K. Housh says:
"I have been completely cured of a severe female trouble by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and want to recommend it to all suffering women."
—Mrs. W. K. HOUSH, 7 Eastview Ave., Cincinnati, Ohio.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.

Because your case is a difficult one, doctors having done you no good, do not continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It surely has cured many cases of female ills, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, etc.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

THIS A MOST UNHAPPY CAT

Everything and Everybody Seemed in Conspiracy to Make the Unfortunate Feline Miserable.

Nebuchadnezzar was the unhappiest cat in Christendom, and there was some reason for it. He felt very much as if he were imprisoned in a wire cage, just like the fool canary bird—

And that bird was part of it. Having an acute sense of hearing, the song of this feathered nuisance disturbed Nebuchadnezzar to the bottom of his being. In plain, unvarnished, up-to-date English, it made him sore.

Time after time he'd tried to get that bird, but they'd made the cage strong enough to keep a tiger out, and the last time some one caught him climbing up, and wailed him with a barrel stave.

Then grandma was so blamed deaf that it was an outrage. Nebuchadnezzar raged about it. She had slammed the pantry door on his tail, and when he remarked bitterly about it she thought some one was calling her and left him there.

Then underneath the refrigerator was the nicest place to sleep. They had a dishpan put under the refrigerator to catch the dripping ice water, and in summertime all a cat had to do was to curl right up against it and sleep in peace.

Then they got careless about the pan, and one night it overflowed and deluged him, giving him a bad cold, and making him so hoarse he couldn't attend the annual concert of the Nocturnal Felines' Back-Fence Joy club. And he had been counting on going.

Nebuchadnezzar had other griefs, too. How was he to know that milk in a crock on the table was different from milk in a saucer on the floor? It wasn't right to hit him with a pan when he made such a mistake.

Altogether, Nebuchadnezzar was unhappy. He sneaked. He loafed about and got stepped upon, and was generally so disagreeable that they decided he needed a tablespoonful of castor oil. And he got.

But they paid for it, confound them! Nebuchadnezzar bit and scratched, and the man who had the spoon said things he ought never have said in the presence of children, and wiped the blood off his hand on his best trousers.

But even this didn't make Nebuchadnezzar happy. He went back in the yard and lay down under the gooseberry bush and wished he were dead.

But shucks! What's the use of a cat wishing that? If he got his wish, he'd have to get eight more.—Galveston News.

Old Virginia Hospitality. Virginia hospitality is a byword. The old-time country house, says Mrs. Robert A. Fryer in "My Day," was built of elastic material, capable of sheltering any number of guests, many of whom remained all summer. Indeed, this was expected of them.

"My dear sir," said the master of Westover to a departing guest, who had sought shelter from a rainstorm. "My dear sir, do stay and pay us a visit."

The guest pleaded business that forbade his compliance. "Well, well," said Major Drewry, "if you can't pay us a visit, come for two or three weeks at least."

"Week ends" were unknown in Virginia, and equally out of the question an invitation limited by the host to prescribed days and hours. Sometimes a happy guest would ignore three altogether, and stay along from season to season. I cannot remember a parallel case to that of Isaac Watts, who, invited by Sir Thomas Abney to spend a night at Stoke Newington, accepted with great cheerfulness, and stayed the rest of his life, nearly forty years, but I do remember that an invitation for one night brought to a member of our family a pleasant couple who remained for years.

Some English Country Names. Sussex can produce queer names in plenty, for example, Replenished Fryor, a damsel who dwelt at Heathfield; Mr. Stand-fast-on-high Stringer; Mr. Ales Cressel and Master Perform-thy-Vows Soers. The county archives also yield unusual family names, such as Pitchfork, Devil, Loper, Juglery, Beat-up, Breathing, Whisky, Wildgeese and Lies.

Dorset can hold her own tolerably well with villages named Ryne in-trinsea and Toller Popcorum; rivers called Wriggle river and Devil's brook; common christened Giddy green and God's Blessing green, and heights called Hungry down, Mount Ararat, Grammars hill and Dancing hill.

A prospective tenant might well hesitate before signing the lease of Wood-en Cabbage farm, Labor in Vain farm, Poor Lot farm and Charity bottom, even though he should hail from Kent, which owns two Starvecrow farms within a ride of each other.—London Chronicle.

An Original Thinker. A studious person can, by thinking long enough, find reasons for almost anything. They will not be necessarily good reasons, but they may be presentable—like those of the young man who, in an examination, was asked: "Why will not a pin stand on its point?"

He considered the proposition a time, and then answered: "In the first place, a point is defined by Euclid as that which has no parts and no magnitude, and how can a pin stand on that which has no parts and no magnitude?"

"In the second place, a pin will not stand on its head, much less, therefore, will it stand on its point."

"Thirdly and lastly, it will, if you stick it in hard enough."—Pittsburgh.

HON. JOHN V. SHEEHAN.

John V. Sheehan, of Ann Arbor, Democratic candidate for Congress in the Second Congressional District of Michigan, was born in Ann Arbor, Mich., 55 years ago. He is a graduate of the Ann Arbor high school, and of the law department of the University, and has been a constant student of economics and of government all his life.

Having finished his collegiate life Mr. Sheehan entered upon a business career. He established the University bookstore at Ann Arbor in 1873, which was the leading bookstore for many years for the students attending the University.

In 1896, Mr. Sheehan founded, in connection with the above, J. V. Sheehan & Co., at Detroit, which is today one of the half dozen largest retail bookstores in the United States.

Mr. Sheehan has always been a consistent tariff reformer, and if elected to Congress, he will cast his vote with the Democrats, for tariff reform, for the conservation of our national resources, for an income tax on incomes exceeding $10,000; and in the matter of a United States bank of issue, he will stand for government control, and the profits thereof accruing thereto going to the people instead of to special interests.

He has never held a political office, and upon the earnest solicitation of his numerous friends, he finally consented to become a candidate for Congress.

Mr. Sheehan insists that nothing but a Democratic Congress can destroy the system known as Cannonism; a system devised by the interests and trusts to defeat any legislation proposed for the benefit of the people, and which must be destroyed by the aroused conscience and wrath of the people.

In a recent speech by Mr. Sheehan among other things he said: "It is the high tariff that has led the nation into the byways and boulevards of extravagance and profligacy. It is the high tariff that has filled the coffers of the trusts with the money by which they corrupt courts, defeat justice and debauch legislators. It is the tariff that has made 95 per cent of our people groan under the advanced cost of living. It is the tariff that compels a poor man to pay $6 for a woolen blanket that he can buy for $3 in Germany or England. It is the tariff that compels every family of five persons to pay $25 more annually for the sugar they consume than they would have to pay for the same amount of sugar in Europe. It is the tariff that takes $100 a year extra out of a skilled mechanic to clothe himself and family. It is the tariff that takes from 4,000 families in Ann Arbor $100 yearly in excessive profits and high prices that should remain in the pockets of the people, or be deposited in our banks. Think of it, bankers; think of it, merchants; think of it, everybody. What $400,000 would do yearly for the prosperity of this community."

Not Effaced. "The defendant in that breach of promise case manages to be cheerful."

"Yes," replied Miss Cayenne. "He has at least the satisfaction of knowing that in his present position he would have as a bridegroom."

Solid Comfort. "What do you find most enjoyable about life on the farm?"

"Well," replied Mr. Cornmeal, "I don't calculate on much real enjoyment myself. But what Mandy and the girls look forward to is the time when the summer boarders take their knittin' needles out on the porch and talk about one another."

Lucky Jack. Nan (at lake resort)—Yes, Jack has been teaching me how to swim. It's great fun.

Fan—The rascal! He's been pretending to me that he can't swim a stroke, and I put in nearly all of yesterday teaching him!

Charge of the Fish Brigade. A curious scene was witnessed at Bexhill-on-Sea (Eng.) one afternoon lately when a stretch of water close to the shore suddenly became dark and cloudy for some hundreds of yards. Upon inspection the patch was seen to consist of myriads of tiny fish and a little further from the shore were shoals of mackerel. The smaller fish apparently were fleeing from the mackerel and from time to time, as the mackerel charged the smaller fry, many of the latter got among the tiny breakers and were thrown in hundreds upon the shore. This went on for several hours in the view of many spectators.

It has a membership of 154,000 women in 54 states and provinces of the United States and Canada.

It is further distinguished from other orders by the fact that it is the original woman's order on adequate rates. The Ladies of the Maccabees of the World is not raising its rates, nor making any change or re-adjustment. It has been on an adequate rate basis for many years. Its members, both old and new, are and have been paying rates recommended as adequate by a competent actuary, Mr. Abb Landis.

Although established in 1892, this order did not begin to work in Michigan until 1904. Its growth here has been steady, and it now has in this state a large number of members, all of whom are paying rates based on the National Fraternal Congress Mortality table. These rates provide for a reserve fund for the safe protection of the home without increased cost to the members. This fund, which now amounts to $4,512,561.64, is safely invested in municipal bonds, and draws interest annually of $175,000 and over.

Women who join the Ladies of the Maccabees of the World need not fear any increase in cost in years to come as they advance in years or possibly fail in health. Each member pays the cost of her own protection.

The following figures, taken from the Report for 1909 of the Michigan Insurance Department, and from published official reports of the Order, show its splendid financial condition and substantial growth:

Total Membership, Dec. 31, 1909	153,878

The association is widely known among business men from coast to coast as a responsible business institution with a high standing as to financial stability and fair dealing.

Hon. James V. Barry, insurance commissioner for Michigan, writes in reply to an inquiry from a member:

Dear Madam: Answering your inquiry of the 3rd inst. permit me to say that the Ladies of the Maccabees of the World is financially one of the strongest fraternal societies doing business in this state. December 31 last this society had admitted assets of $4,316,911 and liabilities of $130,022. The larger proportion of the society's invested assets is in high grade municipal bonds. Very respectfully, JAMES V. BARRY, Michigan Commissioner of Insurance.

The headquarters are at Port Huron, in the World's Maccabee Temple. Mrs. Lillian M. Hollister is Supreme Commander, and Miss Bina M. West is Supreme Record Keeper of the Ladies of the Maccabees of the World.

Mrs. Alberta Droelle, of 411 St. Aubin Avenue, Detroit, is the State Commander for the Ladies of the Maccabees of the World for Michigan, and will gladly give any further information desired about the standing of this Order, and its insurance, social and fraternal advantages, or this may be secured from the headquarters of the Order at Port Huron, Mich.

A New Wedding-Cake Superstition. The debutantes of the season will have no difficulty in getting together the coveted six boxes of wedding cake, which means that the seventh will be their own, for the list of brides-to-be is long, and wedding receptions are in plenty, accordingly. The superstition holds that no box must be opened. Each one must be tied to its predecessor in order of date, and each one must be legitimately given to the owner as an invited guest—no cards transferable, so to speak. This charm never fails, it is said.—New York Tribune.

Warm Floors and Healthy Children Make Happy Homes

There is no better way for you to avoid worry and expense than by insuring your children's health. Warm floors in the home, which is the children's play house in winter, are assured when using Cole's Original Hot Blast Heater. The steel base and body construction allows the heat to be radiated to the floor keeping it warm during the coldest weather.

Cole's Original Hot Blast Heater

The Cleanest—Easiest to Care For

Burns Soft Coal, Lignite, Hard Coal, Crushed Coke, Wood and Cobs. Users of coal must remember that the ordinary heater is a big care to operate. That its smoke and ashes entail dusting, curtain washing and carpet sweeping. Think then of the ease of operation and the cleanliness of Cole's Hot Blast.

Cole's Hot Blast has a guaranteed smoke-proof feed door—open the feed door and the current of air draws the smoke directly across the top of stove to the stove pipe—away from the opening. Contrast this simple, cleanly feed with the side door in an ordinary heater. The side door used on other stoves permits escape of dirty smoke, unpleasant gas and accumulated soot drops from it. If you overfill a side door stove, coal falls to the floor. And note this, you cannot make a side door heater air-tight—an everlasting advantage in favor of Cole's Hot Blast which is air-tight and guaranteed to remain so always.

No fires to build—the fire is never out in this remarkable heater from fall until taken down in the spring. Better select one today—surely it is the heater you need—
