

THE PLYMOUTH MAIL.

VOLUME XXIII, NO 6

PLYMOUTH, MICH., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 28 1910

WHOLE NO. 1209.

Local Correspondence

NEWBURG.

The fair and home-coming held in Newburg last Friday night was a decided success, both socially and financially. Proceeds from the supper and booths were $85.50. Visitors were there from Flint, Ann Arbor, Jackson, Detroit, Lansing, Farmington, Northville, Plymouth and points nearer home. Throughout the fore part of the evening, there was a continual down-pour of rain, keeping a great many away that otherwise would have attended. The L. A. S. wish to thank all those who so kindly assisted them to make the fair a success, especially the girls who decorated the dining room so beautifully with autumn leaves and waited table; also the Lady Bountiful who so kindly contributed.

A very pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smith Saturday evening of last week, when they entertained a large company in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Smith, who were married the preceding week. A miscellaneous shower was given the young couple, consisting of useful and fancy articles. Ice cream and cake was served by the hostess.

C. D. Paddock of Detroit Sundayed at the home of C. E. Ryder.

Mrs. Helen Smith and son Whitney of Lansing spent a few days with Mrs. C. Pickett last week.

Miss Florence Paddock of Detroit was the guest of Mrs. Chas. Ryder the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Porter Grow of Romulus attended the home coming. Mr. Grow has the sympathy of his friends in the loss of his eyesight.

Mrs. Gay Casterlane and daughter Marion of Flint visited at the home of her aunt, Mrs. James Levan, the latter part of the week, also spent Saturday with Mrs. C. E. Ryder.

There was a good attendance at church Sunday. Wm. Farley was elected as superintendent of the Sunday-school in place of James Norris.

Several from here attended the supper and quarterly conference held in Plymouth last week Wednesday.

A number from Newburg attended the birthday party at Mr. Coats' home in Stark last Thursday. All report a fine time.

Mrs. Breckenreed of Birmingham attended the L. A. S. fair.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jewell will move to Gratiot county, where they will work a farm. They will be neighbors to Clark Bassett and wife.

The Sunday-school will give a ten cent entertainment at the hall Halloween, Monday, Oct. 31. Our school-teacher, Miss Baker, is training the children. Come and see the Ghosts and Goblins drill. Lots of fun and a good time.

Biliousness is due to a disordered condition of the stomach. Chamberlain's Tablets are essentially a stomach medicine, intended especially to act on that organ; to cleanse it, strengthen it, tone and invigorate it, to regulate the liver and to banish biliousness positively and effectually. For sale by all dealers.

PERRINSVILLE.

Frank Kubik, Sr., passed away at his home last Saturday evening after a few days' illness of paralysis and typhoid fever. The funeral was held at the house on Tuesday, Rev. Bradley conducting the services. He leaves to mourn his loss a wife, six sons and two daughters and other relatives and friends. Interment at Maple Grove.

Mrs. Mae Winchester and daughter of Detroit have been spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Sherman.

Miss Mae Johnson spent a couple of days this week in Detroit.

Geo. Steinhauer, formerly of this place, but recently of Wayne, passed away at his home last Friday, after several months illness, at the age of 32. The funeral was held from the M. E. church, Mr. Bradley conducting the services. He leaves to mourn his loss, a wife, two sons, an aged mother, two brothers, two sisters and other relatives and friends. He was a member of Perrinsville Arbor, A. O. O. G. The body was placed in the vault at Glenwood. The family have the sympathy of this community.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Jule Provey, Friday, Oct. 21, a daughter. Mother and child doing well.

You are not experimenting on yourself when you take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a cold as that preparation has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of colds, and can always be depended upon. It is equally valuable for adults and children with implicit confidence as it contains no harmful drug. Sold by all dealers.

HON. JOHN V. SHEEHAN.

Of Ann Arbor, Democratic Candidate for Congress for the Second District.

Stands for a revision of the tariff downwards, and a reduced cost of living, for conservation and the "square deal," the separation of big business from politics, and politics from business.

Mr. Sheehan desires to call the attention of his constituency to the following extract from a speech delivered in the United States Senate by Senator Jonathan P. Dolliver of Iowa, Republican, on June 13, 1910:

"What a farce to send men around talking about the rule of majorities, when before the eyes of all men, and with no dispute of the truth of it possible, the most important business of the American people has come down to the bargain counter; and men authorized to say, 'This is the citadel of protection; if any of you have constituents that want anything, come here; we are the dispensing power; support what we want, and take anything you think you need; and the man who does not like it, and has no stomach for the fight, is requested to depart. If that is to be the continued practice of the government of the United States, I think nearly everybody will depart.'

"How long does the Senate of the United States propose that these great interests, affecting every man, woman and child in the nation, shall be managed with brutal tyranny, without debate and without knowledge and without explanation, by the very people that are engaged in monopolizing the great industries of the world that propose to impose intolerable burdens upon the market place of our country?"—Senator Dolliver, Republican, in U. S. Senate, June 13, 1910.

Hot Shot.

The following from the pen of a brilliant Iowa editor is a good thing for some fathers and mothers to read:

"The mother who allows a sixteen-year-old daughter to float around the township in a top buggy with a counterfeit sport of a weak jaw and weaker morals merely opens the door to grief and disgrace. If you don't know what company your girl keeps or what time of the night she turns in, your roar when the gossips get busy will sound about as pathetic as the wheeze from a jewsharp. The girl who insists on spooning with everybody in the corporate limits ought to be backed into the woodshed and relieved of her overflow of affection with a No. 11 slipper laid carelessly across the hipplets. We had sooner see a girl kiss a blind shoat through a barbed wire fence than to have her change partners six nights a week in the front parlor with the lights turned low. It is harder to marry off a girl who has been pawed over by every yap in the community than it is to fatten sheep on pine apple and ice cream. You can't gold brick a sharp-eyed suit-or with second hand goods any more than you can fit a bathrobe on a goat. There are lots of weak minded parents who are going up against the judgement day with about as much show as a cross-eyed girl at a beauty show, and their children will rise up and call them blessed with the enthusiasm of a one-legged man at a club dance."

An Eclipse.

For quick and certain action Renne's Pain-Killing Oil eclipses any and all remedies ever offered to the public. It drives away pain. Just the thing for cramps, colic or diarrhoea. Cures rheumatism, sprains, stiff joints, sores and bruises. It is not a new remedy, but a very old and reliable one, over seventy years on the market. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Pinckney Pharmacy and Beyer's Pharmacy.

Try a want ad. and get results.

"Adventure"

This is a brand-new Fiction Magazine, by THE RIDGWAY PUBLISHING COMPANY, and it's everything that its very appropriate name implies.

Don't miss it if you want something that's full of action, and don't delay, for our Third Shipment is in, and it's doubtful that we shall be able to secure further supplies.

The price is 15 cents, and then we give you a discount of 10% for cash; don't forget that.

THE WOLVERINE DRUG CO.

*Phone No. 5.

J. H. KIMBLE, Ph. B., M. D.

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.

Office at "THE WOLVERINE." Phone No. 5. Office, 2 Rings Residence, 3 Rings

Central Meat Market

Come and try a pound or two of our celebrated

Brookfield Sausage

It is fine and you will be pleased.

BULK OYSTERS

Best Brand.

BARTLETT & RATTENBURY

BOTH PHONES

FREE DELIVERY

Take Care of your Eyes if Want to Be Wise.

Good memory accompanies good eyes or where Eye Glasses are worn. Ever notice forgetfulness where there is poor eyesight? When your children need Glasses, don't blame them for forgetting their lessons. Send your children to me and I will give them my best attention and give them the best Glasses for their comfort and rest. In my Optical Parlor I use the best methods in correcting eyes by scientific sight testing. Lenses replaced and frames adjusted. Prescriptions filled.

We carry in our new location a complete line of Diamonds, Watches and a beautiful line of Jewelry. I will do my best to please every customer. Come in and see me, whether you wish to buy or not. Always welcome to visit our new place. Best line of Post Cards in town.

LEVON J. FATTAL,

JEWELER AND OPTOMETRIST

Next door D. U. R. Waiting Room.

NOT 10% TO SOME,

— BUT —

First Class Goods,

Full Weight,

Full Measure and

A Square Deal to All,

IS OUR WAY.

Pinckney's Pharmacy

ITS ALL GONE!

PUT IT IN THE BANK

Most friendships cease when they cost a man money. Have you ever needed money and asked it of your friends? What did you get? Have money of YOUR OWN safely deposited in our bank and be independent. Make OUR bank YOUR bank. We pay liberal interest consistent with safety, 3 per cent.

The Plymouth United Savings Bank

The butcher boy goes

WE WANT TO MEAT YOU

Free Delivery

Both Phones

Orders Called for and Delivered.

TODD BROS.

Good Enough to Frame

But mighty economical when it comes to quality and price. We are TALKING ABOUT COAL and while on this subject just leave or phone us an order. Your winter supply should be laid in now. Our coal is clean and is the sort that drives out heat.

TRY IT!

J. D. McLAREN CO.

Help Get Good Roads for Wayne County NOW

Vote YES November 8

The present condition of roads throughout Wayne County is a disgrace. Detroit with its population of 500,000 is surrounded by prosperous communities and rich farming lands, yet the roads that connect city and country, and that link one town with another are the the most miserable excuses that an enlightened people were ever asked to look upon as highways.

Do you realize that you are losing money—that everybody is losing—by allowing this condition to exist?

In many parts of the country, fruit, vegetables and other farm produce are rotting on the ground because the roads are too bad to haul them to market.

The farmer loses business and the city man pays high prices because the present miserable condition of the roads makes hauling always costly, and often impossible.

We need good roads NOW, and the plan approved by the Board of Supervisors, is the best and most economical method of getting them.

It is Now Up to You—Vote YES

At the next general election, to be held Tuesday, November 8, you will have the opportunity of settling this question right, and start the building of good roads at once, the whole 200 miles of better highways will be ready for actual use within five years.

The representative business men of the entire county are with you. Do your share.

Show this advertisement to your neighbor, and get him on the side of good roads with you. See that you get his help in voting for this measure that means increased prosperity for every one.

Remember that you vote on a separate ballot and that to have good roads built as fast as possible during the next five years and paid for during the next twenty years, with a lower tax rate than now exists under the old and ineffective plan—YOU MUST MARK YOUR BALLOT YES.

What you have if you Vote YES November 8th

Over 200 miles of perfect highways built within five years.

Low cost of farm products because the cost of bad road hauling will be removed. Farmer and consumer both profit by stopping the wasteful MUD TAX.

Roads on which it is a pleasure to ride.

Roads that any citizen of Wayne County will be proud of.

Good highways RIGHT AWAY.

Increased travel and more business for everybody.

Clear roads the year round.

Quick hauling of perishable fruits and other produce.

Close communication of all local interest.

A road tax of 34 cents per year on every $1,000.

What you have under the present Ineffective System

The most disgraceful roads of any that can be found leading into cities of even half the size of Detroit.

High cost of fruit and vegetables and a scarcity of first-class farm produce in the city markets.

Roads that tire out both horses and driver.

Roads that we are ashamed to have our visitors see.

Good highways many years in the future, nobody knows just when.

Restricted travel, with Wayne County farmers trading in Monroe and Toledo, instead of in Detroit.

Roads constantly blocked in some spot or another.

Produce spoiled before ever being hauled to market over bad roads.

Business, church, school and social relations separated by impassable highways.

A road tax of 50 cents per year on every $1,000.

We Need Good Roads NOW
Vote YES November 8th

ISSUED BY THE
DETROIT BOARD OF COMMERCE

STATE AND COUNTY TAX APPORTIONED

REPORT OF COMMITTEE IS ACCEPTED BY BOARD.

TOWNSHIP AND WARD LIST

Amounts for State and County Taxes Have Been Divided to Various Cities—County $342, State $282.

Lansing.—The report of the committee on apportionment and assessment rules has been accepted by the board of supervisors. The following amounts for state and county taxes have been apportioned to the various townships and wards:

Township	State Tax	County Tax
Abundant	2,079.88	2,011.70
Auribus	1,841.00	2,238.08
Bunkerhill	1,841.00	2,238.08
Delia	1,841.00	2,238.08
Englewood	1,841.00	2,238.08
Lansing Tp	1,841.00	2,238.08
Leroy	1,841.00	2,238.08
Leola	1,841.00	2,238.08
Locke	1,841.00	2,238.08
Mendon	1,841.00	2,238.08
Montezuma	1,841.00	2,238.08
Rockbridge	1,841.00	2,238.08
Verona	1,841.00	2,238.08
White Oak	1,841.00	2,238.08
Williamson	1,841.00	2,238.08
West Lansing	1,841.00	2,238.08
Wheatfield	1,841.00	2,238.08
Willsboro	1,841.00	2,238.08
Windsor	1,841.00	2,238.08
Wrentham	1,841.00	2,238.08
Wrentham-1st ward	1,841.00	2,238.08
Wrentham-2d ward	1,841.00	2,238.08
Lansing	1,841.00	2,238.08
1st ward	1,841.00	2,238.08
2d ward	1,841.00	2,238.08
3d ward	1,841.00	2,238.08
4th ward	1,841.00	2,238.08
5th ward	1,841.00	2,238.08
6th ward	1,841.00	2,238.08

The committee fixed upon the rate of assessment as follows: County, $1.42; state, $2.82.

Officials Busy During Past Year.

The dairy and food department has given out some statistics that will appear in the forthcoming report.

During the year ending July 1, 1910, the department inspectors inspected and reported on 555 creameries, 144 cheese factories, 376 farm dairies and made 431 city milk supply inspections. This does not include the work done by special inspectors during the months of July and August. There were 1,946 samples of food products examined in the department laboratory, 1,285 of which were found to be pure and 661 adulterated. There were 145 prosecutions commenced by the department during the year, resulting in 126 convictions and four acquittals. Under department auspices 51 dairy meetings were held and in their inspections work the inspectors visited 8,435 dealers in food products within the state.

In addition to the above, the service of a chemist was given almost entirely to the analysis of concentrated commercial feeding stuffs, including samples sent to the laboratory by manufacturers and samples taken on the open market. The department conducted a monthly educational scoring contest to which samples of butter and cheese were sent by the various manufacturers in the state. These samples were also analyzed in the laboratory and advice and instructions given to the manufacturer when found necessary.

During the months of July and August, when infant mortality is greatest, special attention and thorough inspection is given to the city milk supply. This work necessitated the employment of extra inspectors during these months.

It should not be inferred from an examination of the figures presented that they represent the actual condition of the food supply of Michigan with reference to adulteration. The experience of the department's inspectors enables them to readily determine as to the purity of many of the different food products suspected by them. Only samples supposed to be adulterated or in which some new form of adulteration is liable to appear are sent to the laboratory for chemical analysis.

In addition to the publication of an annual report, the department publishes a bulletin of which more than 100,000 copies are distributed during the year to the trade, to factories and to others interested.

Loan Associations Enjoy Prosperity.

The annual report of the building and loan associations of Michigan for the year ending June 30, 1910, issued by Secretary of State Martindale, shows an increase in the gross assets of $1,820,348.06, which is the largest gain ever shown in one year in this state.

The number of shares in force at the conclusion of the fiscal year amounted to 485,812, and the capital stock totaled $47,024,293.67. The operating expenses for the year amounted to $294,757.69 or 1.7 per cent. of the gross receipts. The total membership was 14,994. During the past year there was a gain in the gross assets of $1,820,348.06.

D. U. R. Has Big Lead in Accidents.

Of 201 accidents on electric lines in the state in August, 192 occurred on the D. U. R., according to a report just issued by the state railway commission. Seven deaths were reported, of which five were credited to the D. U. R. Reports for the year ending June 30, for three of the largest steam roads show that 148 persons were killed and 115 injured on the three roads in Michigan, divided as follows: Michigan Central, 84 killed and 170 injured; Pere Marquette, 45 killed and 314 injured.

Typical Not All Caused by Milk.

State Analyst Floyd W. Robison and Dairy and Food Inspector Howe have concluded an investigation into the causes of the typhoid epidemic in the city, in an effort to ascertain if possible, just how far it is attributable to the milk supply.

No evidence was found to indicate that the milk supply as now furnished by milkmen is in any way contaminated. Conditions at the Downer farm have been rectified. All the cows have been sold and no milk has been supplied from that source for over a week. The cause of the epidemic, it is said, is not traceable to any one source of milk or food supply. Several cases have been brought to the city by men who have been employed in other places.

Mr. Robison stated that he had not accused local physicians of being dilatory in reporting cases of typhoid or placarding houses where the disease exists. So far as the department knows all cases have been properly reported by the physicians and the department does not feel like assuming the responsibility of unnecessarily arousing the public on the subject. According to the best information available there are about 30 cases all told in the city. One-quarter of these are in the families of people who had used the Downer milk, but that source of contagion is now entirely eliminated.

Dr. M. L. Holm, state bacteriologist, in an interview, expresses some very decided views on the milk supply as a source of disease. Doctor Holm quotes Dr. J. W. Trask of the United States Health and Marine hospital service in saying that 179 epidemics of typhoid fever, 51 epidemics of scarlet fever and 23 epidemics of diphtheria have been definitely traced to public milk supplies. In addition, three-fourths of the cases of fatal diarrhoea in children and at least 20 per cent. of the deaths from tuberculosis occurring before the age of ten may be attributed to milk infection. These are gruesome charges against that article of diet which has been considered an ideal food and they indicate the absolute inadequacy of the measures generally in vogue for the protection of public health.

Baptists Close State Convention.

The Baptist state convention turned down an invitation from the Fountain Street church, Grand Rapids, and decided to hold next year's gathering at Adrian. It endorsed the Anti-Saloon league and repudiated party prohibition.

Delegates elected to represent the Michigan Baptists at the Northern Baptist convention are:

Dr. M. P. Fikes, Woodward Avenue church; A. S. Slocum, president of Kalamazoo college; F. T. Galpin, First Baptist church, Detroit; P. B. Cutler, Fourteenth Avenue church, Detroit; J. W. Hoyt, pastor of the First Baptist church, Jackson; M. A. Graybill, Pay City; W. R. Shoemaker, Manistique; George Laughton, Owosso; B. M. Thomas, Bay City; T. W. Young, North Baptist church, Detroit; Oliver Van Osdel, Wealthy Avenue Baptist church, Grand Rapids; Doctor Wislizenus, Fountain Street church, Grand Rapids.

The convention ended with the following sessions: Reading of minutes and business; report of committee on ministerial training, Rev. Frank Barnett; report of committee on obituaries, Rev. C. M. Velocoe; report of Ministers' Aid society, Rev. J. S. Boyden; address on Northern Baptist convention, Shaller Mathews, D. D., Chicago; report of committee on resolutions; report of committee on convention expense; devotional service conducted by Dr. E. B. Bryan, Laymen's business session, closing convention and banquet; toastmaster, Smith G. Young, Lansing; addresses, "Our Boys," Eugene C. Foster, Detroit; "A Thousand Million Men," E. H. Longber, Jackson.

Clubwomen Vote to Favor Ballot.

Without any discussion whatever, the question of whether the Michigan Federation of Woman's Clubs should support woman suffrage was put to the convention and carried, two to one, by a standing vote. This vote was on a resolution favoring "votes for women," introduced a year ago and each delegate came instructed by her club to vote for or against the "suffragette" movement. The president reminding the convention of this fact, there was no open debate as had been anticipated.

Women's clubs are doing a great work as outlined by Miss Clara Bates of Traverse City before the Michigan Federation. Starting out with the "Culture and uplift of the community," as an aim and object, they have developed into a general benefit to the communities in which they exist. Among recent achievements in Michigan they have done away largely with the sling shot in favor of the bird house, have developed a plan for home and school gardening, have established scholarships and started remedial legislation in industrial and child labor matters, have raised the standard of literary work among women and have taken up other practical work.

Class Gets Degrees.

The one hundred and seventh reunion of Michigan Sovereign Consistory, at which degrees were conferred on the Van Alstyne class, closed with a banquet at Detroit in the Masonic temple.

E. R. Scriver conferred the thirtieth degree and the candidates were obligated for the thirty-second degree. Frank T. Lodge presided over the feast, and among the speakers were Rev. E. R. Shippeh, S. E. Parkhill of Owosso, the last named being valedictorian of the class.

THE SCALES OF JUSTICE

One Old-Fashioned Machine That Columbia Has Not Improved Upon.

CYCLONE KILLS 100

HURRICANE, TIDAL WAVES AND ERUPTIONS WREAK RUIN AND DEATH ON LOWER COAST.

LAVA FLOOD BURIES MANY

Vesuvius and Epomeo Suddenly Spout Forth—Islands of Ischia and Procida Suffer Severely—Beautiful District Is Devastated.

Naples, Italy, Oct. 26.—The extent of the havoc wrought by the strange elemental combination of cyclone, tidal wave and volcanic eruption on the slopes of Vesuvius and on the island of Ischia, has not yet been definitely determined, owing to the interruption of communications.

One hundred persons are said to have been killed. The monetary loss will probably be great.

Cyclone Has Three Centers.

The disaster appears to have come in the form of a cyclone, having three centers, the first over the island of Ischia, the second over the town of Torre del Greco on the east coast of the Bay of Naples, and the third sweeping the gulf of Salerno.

Accompanying the cyclone were a cloudburst, a tidal wave and violent eruptions from Mount Vesuvius and from the crater suddenly opened on the summit of the long extinct Mount Epomeo on the island of Ischia.

Ischia and the adjacent islands suffered most.

Houses Collapse in Rome.

Many houses collapsed in this city, due to the subsidence of the surface of the earth during the recent volcanic eruptions, and 30 feet of mud covered many of the roads in the outlying districts.

Next to the loss at Ischia the greatest damage was done in the towns of Portici, Torre del Greco, Resina, Analfi, Sorrento, Maiori, Ravella, Anagni, Pontecagnano, Cetara and Montecorvino.

When the cyclone was at its height enormous hailstones fell and huge rocks detached from the mountain peaks came tumbling down. Some of these must have weighed several tons. One measured 50 cubic yards.

Nineteen Drown in Ocean Wreck.

St. Johns, N. F., Oct. 25.—News of the wreck of the steamer Regulus, bound from Belle Island to Sydney with the loss of 19 of the crew, was received here. The wreck occurred at Shoal bay, nine miles from this port.

Three Drown; Others Missing.

Cape Town, Union of South Africa, Oct. 25.—The mail steamer Lisbon, with 250 passengers, was wrecked near Paterson Point, on the west coast of Cape Colony. Three persons were drowned by the capsizing of a small boat in which they were attempting to leave the wreck. Three passengers also are missing. The others of the passengers and crew were rescued.

Steamer Lanham Burns.

Houghton, Mich., Oct. 25.—The steamer Lanham, owned by James R. Adams of Detroit, burned to the water's edge and was beached off Bete Gris, Keweenaw Point. The crew came ashore in safety. Loss $150,000.

MINE LEADER LOSES LIFE

Patrick Dolan, Former Union Official, Is Killed While Attempting to Board Train.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 24.—Patrick Dolan, former president of district 5, United Mine Workers of America, was instantly killed while trying to board a moving train at the Fourth avenue station of the Pittsburg, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis railroad. Dolan had fallen asleep waiting for the train and was awakened as it was leaving the station. He leaped for one of the coaches, despite warnings, and was thrown under the wheels.

FURNITURE CONSPIRACY IS BARED IN COURT

Chicago Sales Agent Involves Three Illinois Legislators in Bribery Scandal at Springfield.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 26.—Direct evidence that Senator Stanton C. Pemberton, Senator David W. Holstlaw and Representative Joseph S. Clark wanted money for letting the contract for legislative chamber furniture was brought out in the conspiracy case of Pemberton and Clark in the Sangamon circuit court when J. W. Knox of Chicago, sales agent of the Derby Desk company, testified.

Knox said that he had a conversation with Holstlaw and Clark regarding the letting of the contract and they asked him what there was in it for them if the contract was let to the Derby Desk company. Knox testified that he met Clark in the representatives' hall and that Clark said Pemberton wanted to see him (Knox). "I went over to the senate chamber and talked with Senator Pemberton," testified Knox. "Pemberton said that he, Holstlaw and Clark would vote together on the furniture contract. He asked me what the contract price would be and I said about $23,000. Pemberton said that they ought to get about ten per cent. out of it. Holstlaw later asked me what was in it for him in letting the contract. I asked him if $500 would be satisfactory. He said it was not enough."

PLAN FIGHT ON MANN LAW

Lawyers Seek Clause Whereby Constitutionalality of Railroad Bill May Be Attacked.

New York, Oct. 26.—One hundred or more lawyers, representing every important railroad in the United States, are in secret meeting at the Waldorf-Astoria, discussing the new Mann-Elkins railroad act.

They will not allow newspaper men to hear their speeches, but at the end of the first day's session the chairman, Col. Henry L. Stone of the Louisville & Nashville railroad, sent out this message:

"The legal representatives of the railroads of the United States are convened to go over the Mann-Elkins act thoroughly, and to try and see if there are not points in it against which attacks may legally be made. The lawyers believe the act—which makes a supreme court out of the interstate commerce commission, so far as railroads are concerned—is unconstitutional. They are seeking for some clause which may be attacked on the ground of unconstitutionality."

TWO INDIANA BANKS CLOSED

Lebanon National Goes Into Liquidation—Aided Concern in Charge of State Auditor.

Lebanon, Ind., Oct. 25.—The Lebanon National bank, capital $80,000, has gone into voluntary liquidation by resolution of the board of directors.

Pending the payment of depositors the institution has been placed in the hands of the controller of the currency with Oscar L. Keller, a bank examiner from Washington, in charge.

The American Trust company, an auxiliary organization of the Lebanon National, is temporarily closed and in charge of N. H. Oglesbee, of the bank department of the state auditor's office.

3,015,000 Acres to Be Sold.

Washington, Oct. 26.—All the unallotted lands of the five civilized tribes of Indians in Oklahoma, amounting 1,650,000 acres, and the forested area in the Choctaw nation, amounting to about 1,365,000 acres, are to be sold at public auction, according to a decision reached by Secretary of the Interior Ballinger.

Infantile Paralysis Dooms Family.

Grubly Center, Ia., Oct. 24.—Seven children in the family of Henry Tjepke are sick with infantile paralysis.

IMMENSE LOSS IN QUEER DISASTER

CYCLONE, CLOUDBURSTS, TIDAL WAVE AND MOUNT VESUVIUS COMBINATION OF ELEMENTS.

FOURTEEN CITIES AND NUMEROUS ISLANDS LAID WASTE; LOSS RUNS INTO MILLIONS.

About 100 Bodies Buried in a Stream of Lava From the Burning Volcanoes.

One of the oldest disasters which ever has afflicted a nation has laid waste the beautiful coasts of Italy, the bay of Naples and the Gulf of Salerno with the adjoining islands.

Overwhelmed at the same moment by a cyclone, a cloudburst, a tidal wave, a volcanic eruption and landslides, the inhabitants of the islands of Ischia, Procida and others, with 14 towns and cities in the neighborhood, feel themselves especially singled out as the objects of nature's wrath.

Although the number of the killed does not exceed 100, the monetary loss is immense, a vast tract of fertile and smiling country having been devastated.

The disaster appears to have started in the form of a cyclone having three centers, the first over the island of Ischia, the second over the town of Torre del Greco on the east coast of the Bay of Naples, and the third sweeping the gulf of Salerno.

Accompanying the cyclone were a cloudburst, a tidal wave and violent eruptions from Mount Vesuvius and from a crater suddenly opened on the summit of the long extinct Mount Epomeo, on the island of Ischia.

Ischia and the adjacent islands suffered most. No Americans are reported in the troubled zone, foreigners having recently given that section a wide berth because of the cholera epidemic.

Confessed Killing Seven Women.

Frederick Gebhardt, of Astoria, I. I., who confessed to killing seven women in a "marriage and murder" scheme to get money, was found guilty at Riverhead, I. I., of the murder in April of last year of Anna Luther, a young woman whom he had duped into marrying him.

The case of Anna Luther was selected by the police as the best one on which to arraign the prisoner, as they had clear evidence of one of the most atrocious crimes in criminal trials.

Having married Miss Luther and got her money, Gebhardt lured her to a woods near Islip. Gebhardt told her he was a married man with a family. The girl implored him not to desert her, but Gebhardt whipped out a revolver and, while the girl's arms were still about his neck and her lips pressed to his, shot her dead and then left the body where it had fallen.

China's Senate Turns on Throne.

A surprising revolt has taken place in China against the government. The imperial senate, not yet three weeks old, has voted to memorialize the throne for the early opening of a general parliament. This action appears to indicate that the new senate will not be a submissive or mock institution, but one with which the grand council must reckon.

The imperial senate no sooner assembled on October 3 than the provincial delegates formed an opposition party and arrayed themselves against the throne. The campaign culminated when impassioned speeches were made in which it was pointed out that a change was imperative for the salvation of the country. This plea won over a large majority.

Ten Aeroplanes in a Flock.

Ten aeroplanes in the air all at once—a record flock for American atmosphere—was the sky view offered to the Belmont park grandstands the third day of the international aviation tournament at New York. Following close upon this spectacle, J. Armstrong Drexel climbed in his Blériot until his barograph registered 7,100 feet, which establishes a new American altitude record.

Miss Leneve Not Guilty.

Finding that Ethel Clare Leneve had no guilty knowledge of the murder of Belle Elmore, the actress wife of Dr. Hawley Harvey Crippen, formerly of Detroit, and that she acted throughout under the baleful influence of the condemned murderer, a New Bailey jury at London acquitted the girl of the charge of being an accessory after the fact.

Sanford L. Robison Who, as Attorney for Arthur P. Heinze, Brother of F. Augustus Heinze, was charged in the United States circuit court of New York with resisting and opposing a United States marshal in attempting to serve a subpoena, for which he was sentenced to pay a fine of $500, has been ordered to be suspended from the practice of law for one year by the appellate division of the supreme court.

The damage to the Carolina rice crop as a result of the storm tides last week will amount to at least 50 per cent. according to Capt. Samuel G. Stone, one of the best posted men on the rice situation, after a thorough investigation of conditions in the rice growing sections.

The report of the college entrance examination board, just received at Yale, showed that for the present year 3,731 candidates took the examinations, an increase of nearly 200 over 1909. The board expended $33,221.15 and read a total of 22,139 papers. Examinations were held at 121 places.

An Exacting Personage.
"I suppose you find life easier since the summer boarders have gone?"
"None," replied Farmer Gontossel; "we're workin' an' worryin' just as much as ever tryin' to keep the hired man contented."

REST AND PEACE

Fall Upon Distracted Households When Cuticura Enters.

Sleep for skin tortured babies and rest for tired, fretted mothers is found in a hot bath with Cuticura Soap and a gentle anointing with Cuticura-Ointment. This treatment, in the majority of cases, affords immediate relief in the most distressing forms of itching, burning, scaly, and crusted humors, eczema, rashes, inflammations, irritations, and chafings, of infancy and childhood, permits rest and sleep to both parent and child, and points to a speedy cure, when other remedies fail. Worn-out and worried parents will find this pure, sweet and economical treatment realizes their highest expectations, and may be applied to the youngest infants as well as children of all ages. The Cuticura Remedies are sold by druggists everywhere. Send to Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., sole proprietors, Boston Mass., for their free 32-page Cuticura Book on the care and treatment of skin and scalp of infants, children and adults.

Her Tributes.

Randall—How did you like the military parade, Ida?
Miss Rogers—Glorious! I never saw enough men in all my life before—Harper's Bazar.

"SPOHN'S."

This is the name of the greatest of all remedies for Distemper, Pink Eye, Hoarseness, and the like among all ages of horses. Sold by Druggists, Harness Makers, or sent to the manufacturers, $5.00 and $10.00 a bottle. Agents wanted. Send for free book. Spohn Medical Co., Spec. Contagious Diseases, Goshen, Ind.

Queen's High.

"Does Biggins ever bluff when he plays cards?"
"Never until he gets home and explains where he has been."

Pettit's Eye Salve Restores.

No matter how badly the eyes may be diseased or injured. All druggists or Howard Bros., Buffalo, N. Y.

Both Unpardonable.

"Agnes says she will never have anything more to do with Gladys."
"Which did Gladys recommend? A dressmaker or a summer hotel?"—Harper's Bazar.

Easy for Her.

An extremely corpulent old lady was entertaining her grandchildren at luncheon when she found occasion to remark to the little girl for dropping some food on the tablecloth.

"You don't see grandma dropping anything on the table," she said.
"Of course not," replied the child; "God gave you something in front to stop it."

She Probably Could.

Senator La Follette, apropos of certain scandals, said at a dinner in Madison: "These things recall the legislator who remarked to his wife, with a look of disgust: 'One of those land lobbyists approached me today with another insulting proposition.' 'The wife, a young and pretty woman, clasped her hands. 'Oh, good!' she cried. 'Then I can have that sable stole after all, can't I, dear?'"

Fable of Pan of Biscuits.

A Vassar girl married a Kansas farmer.

Two weeks later a cyclone made the bappy pair a friendly calf.

It cavorted around the premises, ripping up the fences, scattering the haystacks and playing horse with the barn, but when it looked through the open window it drew back in alarm.

There lay the bride's first pan of biscuits.

"I ain't feelin' very strong this morning," murmured the cyclone.

And with another glance at the terrible pan it blew itself away.

WISE WORDS.

A Physician on Food.
A physician, of Portland, Oregon, has views about food. He says:

"I have always believed that the duty of the physician does not cease with treating the sick, but that we owe it to humanity to teach them how to protect their health, especially by hygienic and dietetic laws.

"With such a feeling as to my duty I take great pleasure in saying to the public that in my own experience and also from personal observation I have found no food equal to Grape-Nuts, and that I find there is almost no limit to the great benefits this food will bring when used in all cases of sickness and convalescence.

"It is my experience that no physical condition forbids the use of Grape-Nuts. So persons in health there is nothing so nourishing and acceptable to the stomach, especially at breakfast, to start the machinery of the human system on the day's work.

—BY—
F. W. SAMSEN

SUBSCRIPTION RATES.
One Year, payable in advance..... $1 00
Six months..... .75
Three months..... .50

ADVERTISING RATES.
Business Cards, $5.00 per year.
Resolutions of Respect, $1.00.
Card of Thanks, 25 cents.
All local notices will be charged for at five cents per line or fraction thereof for each insertion. Display advertising rates made known on application. Where no time is specified, all notices and advertisements will be inserted until ordered discontinued.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1910.

"Wm. F. Moeller an Ideal County Treasurer"

After the general audit of the books of the County Treasurer, which has just been completed, the County Auditors have announced to the public that "in Wm. F. Moeller Wayne county has an ideal county treasurer." They continue to state that his books were not only balanced to perfection, but that his book-keeping system is such that no extra expense and no outside accountants were necessary to complete the audit. In view of the natural intense interest in the county treasurer's office, a lengthy inquiry was made into the methods of Mr. Moeller and his "staff," the result of which is a striking list of reforms and improvements in methods which have been installed by Mr. Moeller.

County Treasurer Moeller has been able to handle a business that has been increased 23 per cent without asking for any more clerks. The handling of this great increase in business without more clerical aid shows that a new system has been inaugurated and Mr. Moeller is getting the money due the county and state from the people.

Something Worth Studying

The success of Judge Henry S. Hulbert, Probate Judge, who presides at the sessions of the Juvenile Court, can be best judged by the fact that in the several thousand cases brought before him the percentage of those returning on a second charge is less than nine per cent. Leaders in the child reform movement say that this is a wonderfully small percentage and attribute the fact to Judge Hulbert's personality. The future of every boy who comes before him is taken into account. Judge Hulbert believes that the parent is the proper guardian of the child and conditions must be very bad, indeed, before he saddles the expense of that child's upbringing on the state. Economy has ever been his watchword in his conduct of both private and juvenile matters. As a Probate Judge he insists that families pay as much as possible toward the support of those members of their families because of various infirmities or old age must be placed in state institutions. No boy has ever been sent by him to the reform school until it was utterly impossible for the boy to be dealt with at home, or in the various institutions in which the Judge has a right to place them. He is patient with the children and his first thought is to impress on the minds of the delinquent children the idea that he is not a stern, cold judge, but a well wisher—a friend. Further, he is so constituted that he has ever been able to secure the accused's confidence. He knows boys. This has been proved hundreds of times in cases before him. It can be truthfully said that he is the right man in the right place and the people, the voters and thinkers, should see to it that he is returned as Probate Judge. He has been a capable, conscientious public servant. He has devoted his best thought, long hours and study to his duties, and his record has proved him honest, capable and fearless.

Political Briefs.

Don't worry. Politicians will let you know there is an election in November. Chase Osborn is meeting with a hearty reception throughout the state—even better than before the primary campaign, which is a healthy sign and shows that the republicans of Michigan are united in the case and will give their candidate a big majority in November.

The Republican State Central Committee has absolutely refused to accept money from state employes, even going to the extent of sending it back. Most of the state employes are not lamenting over this fact with the increased cost of living and the papers constantly being circulated throughout the capital for this cause, that and the other thing.

Remember that election day is now but a short time away, and every voter should exercise his right. It is not only a right, but a demand of good government.

With practically full tickets in the field by all political parties, the vote this fall should be a large one. All parties are showing considerable activity this year.

Lame back is one of the most common forms of muscular rheumatism. A few applications of Chamberlain's Liniment will give relief. For sale by all dealers.

First Citizen's Entertainment.

The first number of the Citizens' Entertainment Course occurred Wednesday evening. A large attendance was assured from the fact that the complete lower floor and the first two rows of gallery seats had been sold and reserved. The attendance was unprecedented.

Elbert Foland and his Italian boys opened the course. The four young men are natives of Italy and are artists. The orchestral numbers and solo numbers on the harp, cello and violin were unusually fine, and there is a characteristic mellowness and sweetness in the playing of these musicians. Roy Cropper a boy in his early teens sang with fine expression and in clear tones several numbers. He is a lad of promise in the vocal line. Mr. Foland is a host. His numbers were applauded so that he returned with numerous encores. The closing description, "A Night in Venice," was well executed and concluded an enjoyable entertainment.

Eddy-Jolliffe Wedding.

A leading society event took place Tuesday evening when the marriage of Miss Elsie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Eddy, and Edgar Jolliffe was celebrated at the Eddy home. A company of twenty-five were present and the ceremony, which was the impressive ring service, was performed by Rev. J. E. Mealey of Dixboro, a former teacher of both bride and groom in the public schools here.

Congratulations followed the tying of the nuptial knot, after which a splendid three-course luncheon was served. The bride was dressed in crepe de chene over white silk and was unattended.

Both young people are life-long residents of Plymouth and among the best known and popular young people of the village, and their many friends wish them a long and happy life.

The young people were detained a little too late to catch an evening train for Detroit, but Mr. D. M. Berdan took them at a record pace to Northville where a last car was caught for the city. After a few days' visit in Ann Arbor, the couple will return to Plymouth for a final leave-taking before starting on their journey for Bozeman, Mont., where Mr. Jolliffe has a position as court stenographer and which will be their home.

Those present from out of the village were Miss Waller of Cheboygan, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence of Ann Arbor, Mrs. Dana Sawhill of Mt. Oliver, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Downer and daughter of Chicago, Mr. J. H. Mimmack of Bozeman, Mont.

CHURCH NEWS.

UNIVERSALIST.

Services at 7:00 p. m. Rev. Howard Bingham of Detroit will preach.

BAPTIST.

Rev. W. W. DesAutels, Pastor. Services next Sunday as usual. The pastor preaches in the morning at 10:00 and in the evening at 7:00. The Sunday-school meets at 11:30. The Young Peoples' meeting is at 6:00. Everybody welcome at all of these services.

CHRISTIAN SCIENTIST.

Next Sunday morning at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 10:10 A. M. Subject, "Everlasting Punishment." Sunday-school for children at 11:00 A. M. Wednesday evening testimonial service 7:10. Every one is welcome.

METHODIST.

Rev. E. King, Pastor. Morning service 10 a. m. Preaching by the pastor. Sunday-school at 11:30 a. m. Epworth League at 6 p. m., led by Edgar Jolliffe. Evening service at 7 p. m. Song service. The pastor will preach.

The Epworth League banquet promises to be a great success. A fine list of outside speakers will be on hand, and a good menu will be served. The event takes place at Odd Fellows' hall Nov. 4.

PRESBYTERIAN.

Rev. B. F. Farber, Pastor. Services will be held in the Presbyterian church on Sunday, Oct. 30, as follows: Morning worship at 10 o'clock. Preaching by the pastor. Sunday-school at 11:15. Evening service at 7 o'clock. Congregational singing, led by the chorus choir and preaching by the pastor.

The topic for the Thursday evening prayer meeting next week will be "The Preaching of John the Baptist." A cordial invitation is extended to all these services.

SCHOOL NOTES.

Editors this week: Daryl Downs, Herbert Warner, Clara Reiman and Myron Beals.

The pupils in the kindergarten are making a grain chart.

Mrs. Ben Haverhew was a visitor of the fifth grade last week.

The sixth grade boys are sand papering their desks preparatory to varnishing.

Mary Bradley, a pupil of the eighth grade, accidentally fell over the banisters Thursday afternoon and was injured quite seriously about the head and face.

The new high school song books, "The One Hundred and One Best Songs," have arrived.

Miss Mabelle Newell of Richmond, who is visiting her sister, Miss Florence Newell of our faculty, kindly sang several songs for the High School Monday afternoon, which were heartily appreciated.

There is a general opinion abroad that school hours in the afternoon should be from 12:45 to 3:30 instead of the present time, 1:00 to 3:45.

Dr. Caster kindly gave a very instructive illustrated talk on the Roman Forum and the surrounding buildings, before the Cicero class Friday morning.

The basement playrooms are being remodeled and repainted.

The High School is getting quite a reputation for visitors. Those last week were Carl Stever, '09, Miss Mabel Stif, Mrs. Mary Schaufele Gust, class of '10, Mrs. Burt Robinson, Mrs. L. Passage, Miss Sarah Burten, Helen Baxter of Jackson, class of '10 and Miss Leitha Brown.

Rain spoiled what would undoubtedly have been the best foot ball game of the season last Friday. The contending teams, Wayne and Plymouth, were fairly evenly matched and the result of the game up to the close of the first half, when it was called off, was a tie.

Did you hear the compliment paid our Boys' Glee Club by Prof. Blaisdell at the Institute last Saturday? We have every confidence in his taste.

Wayne County Teachers' Association meetings are always good, often as good as those of the State Association, and the one held here last Saturday was no exception in the quality of the work presented; in the number attending it did not equal previous ones, the threatening weather perhaps keeping many away. The speakers, Prof. Calkins of Central Normal and Prof. Blaisdell of M. A. C. gave most practical and helpful talks. The music was especially good too. It was furnished by Mrs. Maude Newton, our musical director, Miss Caster's girls and the High School Boys' Glee Club.

General Election!

Notice is hereby given to the qualified electors of the township of Plymouth, county of Wayne, state of Michigan, that the next ensuing general election will be held at Village Hall, in the village of Plymouth, on Tuesday, Nov. 8, 1910, at which election the following officers are to be chosen:

State—One Governor, one Lieutenant Governor, one Secretary of State, one State Treasurer, one Auditor General, one Commissioner of the State Land Office, and one Justice of the Supreme Court to fill vacancy for the term ending December 31, 1911.

Congressional—One Representative in Congress for the congressional district of which said township forms a part.

Legislative—One Senator in the state legislature for the senatorial district of which said township forms a part; one Representative in the state legislature for the representative district of which said township forms a part.

County—One Associate Judge of the Probate Court, one Sheriff, one County Clerk, one County Treasurer, one Register of Deeds, one Prosecuting Attorney, two Circuit Court Commissioners, two Coroners, one Surveyor, one Drain Commissioner.

PROPOSITIONS.

The following propositions will also be voted upon at said election, viz:

To amend section 12, article 8 of the Constitution of the State of Michigan, relative to the bonded indebtedness of counties, as provided by Concurrent Resolution No. 4, legislative session of 1909. This amendment, if adopted, will affect only such counties as have an assessed valuation of $5,000,000 or less.

To raise $2,000,000 in bonds for good roads purposes, same to be issued in installments within a period of five years and to be paid in fifteen years from date of issue.

In accordance with the constitution of the State of Michigan and Act 206, of Public Acts of 1909, should there be any proposition or propositions to vote upon at said election involving the direct expenditure of public money, or the issue of bonds, every woman who possesses the qualifications of male electors and owns property assessed for taxes or owns property subject to taxation jointly with her husband or any other person, or who owns property on contract and pays taxes thereon, all such property being located within the district or territory to be affected by the result of said election, will be entitled to vote on such propositions, provided such person has had her name duly registered in accordance with the provisions of said act. The polls of said election will be open at 7 o'clock a. m. and will remain open until 5 o'clock of said day of election. Dated this 25th day of October, 1910. C. A. PINCKNEY, Clerk of said Township.

Registration Notice.

Notice is hereby given to the qualified electors of the township of Plymouth, county of Wayne, Michigan, that a meeting of the Board of Registration of said township will be held at Pinckney's Pharmacy, in the village of Plymouth, on Saturday, Nov. 6, 1910, for the purpose of registering the names of all persons who shall be possessed of the necessary qualifications of electors, who may apply for that purpose. The board of registration will also register the names of all women possessing the qualifications of male electors and who own property assessed for taxes in the county who make personal application for such registration.

Said Board of Registration will be in session on the day and at the place aforesaid from 9 o'clock in the forenoon until 8 o'clock in the afternoon for the purpose aforesaid. Dated this 18th day of October, 1910. C. A. PINCKNEY, Clerk of said Township.

COME IN AND LET US SHOW YOU OUR LINE OF

BRASS AND IRON BEDS

We have a fine stock and can make you very flattering prices. Our line of

Parlor, Library and Dining Furniture was never better, having a very fine selection of all grades and prices.

Carpets, Room Size Rugs and Mattings Window Shades, any Size or Color, READY PUT UP AT YOUR HOME TO ORDER.

SCHRADER BROS.,

Furniture Dealers and Funeral Directors

5A Horse Blankets

WE obtain the famous 5A Blankets direct from the factory and can sell them to you at prices that are right. They are made for warmth and wear, and will last longer than any other blanket.

Buy a 5A Bias Girth for the Stable. Buy a 6A Square for the Street.

We Sell Them

GEO. W. RICHWINE,

Manufacturer of Light and Heavy

HARNESS

and dealer in

HORSE FURNISHING GOODS

Plymouth, Mich.

FRED J.

BURNHAM,

Republican Nominee for

State Representative

Third District (Second Term)

Your vote and support would be appreciated Election Tuesday, Nov. 8. A vote for me is a vote for Chas. E. Townsend in U. S. Senate.

Lawrence W. Snell,

Republican Candidate for

STATE SENATOR

Second Term.

Your vote will be appreciated at the election, Nov. 8th.

TRY MAIL LINERS

Thos. F. Farrell,

Republican Candidate for

County Clerk

Vote for him at the election Tuesday, Nov. 8th. It will be appreciated.

Notice to the Electors of Wayne County.

PROPOSED ISSUE OF $2,000,000 IN BONDS

For the Maintenance of County Roads in Wayne County, Pursuant to the Following Resolutions Adopted by the Board of Supervisors, October 15th, 1910

Be it Resolved, That the county of Wayne contract an indebtedness of two million dollars ($2,000,000) and issue bonds for the same, to be paid within fifteen (15) years from the date of the issues of the same, for the purpose of raising money for the construction and maintenance of county roads in the county of Wayne, and that the said bonds therefor be issued in the following manner:

$200,000 for the first year.

$500,000 for the second year.

$500,000 for the third year.

$500,000 for the fourth year.

$300,000 for the fifth year.

Said bonds to be redeemed serially at the rate of one hundred thousand ($100,000) dollars each year from the date of the first issue, except that $200,000.00 be redeemed fifteen years from the date of the first issue; that said sums be expended under the direction of the board of county road commissioners of said county, in approximately the amounts, each year, for which said bonds are issued for that year; that said bonds shall not be negotiated at less than par and the accrued interest. Be it further

Resolved, That the question of issuing said bonds for the purpose aforesaid be submitted to a vote of the electors of the county of Wayne at the next general election to be held the first Tuesday after the first Monday of November, in the year 1910, and that notice of the submission of said election to a vote of the electors be given in the same manner and for the same length of time as now prescribed by law and that the manner of stating said question upon the ballots at said election shall be as follows:

INSTRUCTIONS TO VOTER.

Mark a cross [X] in the square to the left of the word Yes or No. In favor of issuing bonds of the County of Wayne, in the sum of two million of dollars for the construction and maintenance of county roads outside of the City of Detroit, in Wayne County—Yes, []

In favor of issuing bonds of the County of Wayne, in the sum of two million of dollars for the construction and maintenance of county roads outside of the City of Detroit, in Wayne county—No, []

THOMAS F. FARRELL, County Clerk.

Pere Marquette Trains Enter Union Depot, Toledo

Passenger Trains of the Pere Marquette Railroad at Toledo now arrive at and depart from the Union Depot. This gives patrons direct connection with all lines entering Toledo, without making a transfer of depots, which formerly was necessary. All trains also stop at West Toledo and Wagon Works.

Information as to time of trains will be given by any agent, or by H. F. MOELLER, Gen'l Pass. Agt.

To Dairy Farmers!

The amount we pay to our patrons for milk delivered during September will average to them

42c a pound for Butter Fat Higher Price this month.

If you are in the business to make all you can from your cows, it will pay you to become a regular patron of

The Warner Plymouth Factory

Look for this Can.

Oysters

We are the authorized agents for the

Sealshipt Brand Oysters

Grape Fruit.....10c, 3 for 25c
Oranges.....15c and 35c
Malaga Grapes.....15c per lb
Smoked Ciscros.....16c per lb

CENTRAL GROCERY,

R. G. SAMSEN

Phone 13, 2r

Free Delivery

JUST RECEIVED A CAR OF

Cannel Coal

Try it and it will surprise you.

Best Grades of Hard Coal

ALWAYS ON HAND.

Plymouth Lumber & Coal Co.,

CHAS. MATHER, Sec. & Manager

Local News

For Persian Silks go to Rauch's.

Mrs. H. C. Robinson is seriously ill.

Mrs. L. Burch visited in Ypsilanti this week.

Kayser Cashmere gloves, silk lined, at Rauch's.

Miss Elmira Osborn visited in Detroit over Sunday.

Mrs. Chas. Shattuck is very ill with typhoid fever.

Mrs. Theo. Chaffee of Pontiac visited at A. W. Chaffee's this week.

Walter Coogan of Detroit visited at A. W. Lyon's over Sunday.

Roy Austin of Detroit visited at M. A. Patterson's over Sunday.

John Elmbush who has been very ill with pneumonia is some better.

Miss Stevens of Whitmore Lake visited at Mrs. Ella Safford's last week.

Mrs. J. R. Rauch attended the funeral of her aunt in Jackson Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parks entertained the Whist Club Wednesday evening.

Before buying see the line of ladies' gents' and children's underwear at Rauch's.

Samuel VanVleet and daughter of Ovid, N. Y., visited at J. D. McLaren's this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Eckles and Mr. and Mrs. W. Rosenberg visited in Detroit this week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Riggs and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Riggs visited in Pontiac last Sunday.

Mrs. Geo. Pierson, who has been in Ann Arbor for sometime, returned home this week.

Mrs. John Steers of Northville and Mrs. Cheeney of Detroit visited Mrs. O. A. Fraser this week.

Mrs. James Crawford and daughter Mabel go Saturday for a few days' visit to friends in Milford.

Walter Merritt of Chicago and Ernest Merritt of South Haven visited their brother, Charles, the first of the week.

Mrs. Della Ward, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Chauncey Pitcher, has returned to her home in Chatham, Ont.

Chas. E. Downing, Democratic candidate for State Representative for this district, and other speakers will address a meeting to be held in the opera house Tuesday evening next at 8 o'clock. Music by the band.

The county tax rate, as decided by the board of supervisors Wednesday will be $3.63 a $1,000, as contrasted with the rate of $4.37 last year. The state gets $2.16 of this, the county 94 cents, and 48 cents goes to good roads. The total budget will be $915,912.61, $82,000 less than a year ago. The city will pay 83 1/2 per cent and the townships 16 1/2 per cent of the levy.

Olney Burden, who suddenly jumped the town a few weeks ago when he was under arrest for disturbing the peace, came back Tuesday. When Burden left he had started out of court to secure the means to pay a $5.00 fine. The fine was paid a few days ago by the parents of the young man, when he returned. He says he will give up evil companions and when he "buys" now it will be nothing but candy.

Dr. J. J. Travis started Friday last with his brother to visit relatives at Carbondale, Pa., and intended to also visit New York City. On Saturday morning Mrs. Travis received a telephone message that the Doctor's father had died at his home in Pontiac. A telegram was sent to the Doctor at Carbondale and with his brother, both returned. The funeral of the father occurred on Tuesday. Dr. and Mrs. Travis are remaining the balance of the week with relatives at White Lake.

They are telling this one on Proctor Owens. He approached a prominent business man in Detroit, soliciting his support. "Do you know, Owens," he said, "I think you are rather of a dam fool." "Well, hold on," unabashedly replied Owens. "You've tried a butcher as mayor and let him go after one term. Then you tried a lawyer and he was a one-termer. Then you tried a florist and one term was enough for him. Why not try a dam fool once? Maybe he might make good." And they have it that the business man will vote for Owens.

Republican Meeting.

The Republicans are planning a mass meeting to take place at the opera house on next Thursday evening, Nov. 3rd. Candidate for Congress Wedemeyer, ex-Congressman Henry Smith, Prosecuting Attorney VanZile and Henry Carr of Charlotte will be the speakers. The oratory will begin to flow promptly at eight o'clock and everybody is requested to be on time. Each speaker will discuss different phases of the political situation, State and National. Come out and get posted.

Don't trifle with a cold is good advice for prudent men and women. It may be vital in case of a child. There is nothing better than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs and colds in children. It is safe and sure. For sale by all dealers.

Miss Purdy of Union City visited Mrs. Ellen Nichols last week.

Mrs. Thomas McCluskey of Denver, Col., is visiting her cousin, Mrs. S. M. Reed.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Rathburn spent Tuesday evening with friends in Farmington.

All the teachers are attending the State institute at Bay City, and there is no school.

Rev. J. S. Bridges of Marquette and Rev. J. H. Scott of Grand Rapids visited at Dr. Campbell's last week.

Chas. Fisher, mother and sister and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Draper motored to South Lyons Sunday and visited friends there.

Mrs. H. A. Spicer and Mrs. N. W. Ayers Jr. attended the birthday party of Mrs. John Matthews in Detroit last week.

Despite the stormy weather last Friday evening, quite a number of Plymouthites attended the Newburg supper and fair.

Fred Sump sold his farm to Benj. Baughman of Ohio and Mrs. J. Roach sold her farm near Salem to Edgar Pease. Chas. Decker negotiated both sales.

David Corkins expects to move into his new house on South Main street the first of the week, and Robt. Holmes and family will occupy the rooms vacated by him.

Norman Miller will have an auction sale of seventeen graded dairy cows and twelve heifers on his farm three miles west of Plymouth on Friday, Nov. 4th, at 1 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Rathburn and Miss Lelia Murray went to Ann Arbor the first of the week to visit Mrs. Harvey Meldrum and Mrs. Maude Rooney, who are in the hospital.

College girls do not seem to be popular here, at least not the ones who were billed to give an entertainment at the opera house Monday evening. There were about two dozen people in the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Reed motored over to Lenox last Sunday and it proved to be an all day and all night affair, at least that is what some of Lou's friends say. Lou says the gasoline gave out on the road.

The baby show at the Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon was attended by a large number. Seventy-one babies were present, including the Joy triplets and Schrader twins. Prizes were offered for various qualifications and all visitors were allowed to vote. It was a most successful affair and the ladies are much gratified.

The Alseum Theatre Co. will give a moving picture and illustrated song entertainment at the opera house this evening for the benefit of the Plymouth fire department. Some extra good pictures will be thrown on the canvass and there will be some good singing. Everybody is asked to go and assist the fire lads. The admission is only 15 cents.

Detroit Times:—In a suit for divorce, heard by Judge Donovan, Monday morning, Edward W. Pelton made serious charges against his wife, Beulah. He charged that she had been very friendly with a man while living in Detroit. Later she deserted her husband and he understood that she and this man are now together in the east. A decree was granted.

On the 14th of October, Win Birch lost the following goods from his buggy—1 plush lap robe with fawn head and glass eyes, black on one side, red and green and just a little yellow on other side, one 18-inch pipe wrench, Trimo make, one set of Toledo dies. The parties who took these articles had better return and put them in the wagon, as they are well known and I shall prosecute them unless they do so at once.

WIN. BIRCH.

Her Heart was Broken

Because her complexion was bad and she could find nothing to clear it up. Ladies, a bad complexion is caused by an inactive liver. An inactive liver can be put in perfect condition by taking Dr. Herrick's Sugar-Coated Pills. The unequalled Liver Regulator. Price 25c per box. Ask for a free sample. Sold by Pinckney's Pharmacy and Beyer's Pharmacy.

Wants, For Sale, To Rent, etc.

5c. per Line, One Insertion.

FOR SALE—A good six-octave organ. Enquire of W. Powell. Tel. 920-4r.

FOR SALE—Those wanting cabbage for the winter call or phone William Pfeiffer.

FOR SALE—The W. F. Markham homestead property, located at the corner of N. Main and Welsh streets. P. W. VOORHIES.

THE MARKETS

Wheat, red, $.88; white $.88
Hay, $10.00 to $12.50 No. 1 Timothy.
Oats, 30c.
Rye, 70c.
Beans, basis $1.75
Potatoes, 30c
Butter, 30c.
Eggs, 25c.

Baked Goods

We have arranged to keep on hand at all times Baked Goods of all kinds from the Gerbestadt Bakery of Wayne—as good as the best. Our Lunch Counter is giving great satisfaction.

J. B. PETTINGILL

Take Home the Best

When it comes to staples one cannot afford to buy poor stuff. The health is the main thing to consider. You are not considering it when you buy second and third qualities. Purchase the best procurable, but that does not mean that you must pay ridiculously high prices. Compare our goods with those sold elsewhere at higher prices. Then you'll come back here and stay with us, because you will know that our goods are superior, if not cheaper.

Spanish Pimientos.....12c	Imported Olive Oil.....30c
Capres Capotes.....20c	Lee & Perrine Worcestershire Sauce.....30c
Cross & Blackwell's Pure Malt Vinegar, per qt.....25c	Olives stuffed with Olives.....30c
Baratania Shrimps, wet and dry.....15c	Olives stuffed with Pimientos.....30c
Richie's Fancy Lobsters.....25c	Plain Olives, per qt.....30c
French LaDiane Mushrooms.....30c	White Asparagus Tips.....30c
Delit Peanut Oil.....30c	B. & P. Coffee.....25c

Brown & Pettingill,

THE WHITE FRONT GROCERY

Telephone No. 40.

Free Delivery

Both 'phones. Free Delivery.

D. A. Jolliffe & Son

can satisfy our greatest desires—fill your long felt wants—bring peace in the family—restore lost love between man and wife—start you on the high road to success—and indeed, do many oter things for you by giving you the best therè is in

Dry Goods and Groceries

DARN IT

If you want to, but you are foolish to spend your time and patience mending old stockings. Buy the kind of hose that is guaranteed to wear one month without showing any ill effects. That's the name

HOLE-PROOF.

Just received a fine new line of Sweater Coats for men and ladies. Also a complete line of Men's Fall and Winter Shirts.

DAIRY DISHES

In order to please, must be an A1 quality. No one can eat poor Butter and Eggs. This is the place you can depend upon to have the best in these lines. We can give you Choice Dairy Butter.....32c Creamery Butter.....35c Innis Brand Butter.....35c Fresh Eggs.....25c Powdered Milk, per lb.....15c Include some of these in your next order.

GALE'S.

JUST RECEIVED

New Stock of Dolls

DOLLS at 5c	DOLL HEADS at 10c
" " 10c	" " 15c
" " 25c	" " 25c
" " 50c
" $1.00

Go to Gale's for Groceries.

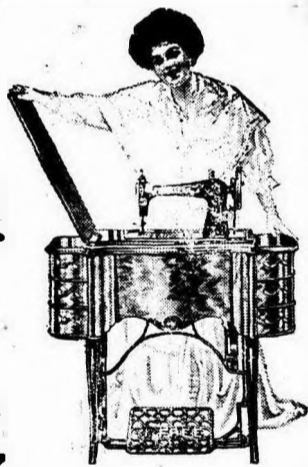

Go to Gale's for China and Glassware.

Go to Gale's for Wall Paper, etc.

Phone 16

JOHN L. GALE

$1 A WEEK Buys The FREE

This is the machine invented by Wm. C. Free of Chicago,—the machine which you have read so much about in the magazines—the machine which has a score of altogether new improvements—and the machine which is sold at a price so much lower than you are accustomed to pay for the highest grade sewing machine, that if we told you what the price was, it would prejudice you against the machine. We insist on showing you the machine and its points of superiority before telling you what a bargain it really is.

And to give you a better chance still of finding out for yourself how perfect it is, and to show you our absolute confidence in The FREE, we want you to give it

30 Days Trial In your Home

Try this machine—test it—sew with it on all kinds of material—if you then are not entirely satisfied—if you are not convinced that it is the best machine you have ever sewed on—the most improved—the most up-to-date—if the low price does not convince you that this is the biggest bargain you have ever bought, return the machine to us and we will refund your deposit so that the trial will cost you a cent.

You haven't any idea how it will surprise you and how delighted you will be to keep it after you have sewed on it for 30 days. We know that you would never think of parting with it. Like all other work you will be in a flutter of excitement and enthusiasm about the many new inventions on The FREE. Our only reason for giving you this fair trial offer, is because we want you to have it 30 days.

—to see the real beauty of its French leg design and dustless jappaning.

—to notice that the "Rotocille" movement, which took Mr. Free 5 years to invent, makes The FREE faster than the fastest rotary and simpler than the simplest shuttle machine.

—to let your feet find out that in 8 sets of Ball bearings have made The FREE the lightest running sewing machine in the world.

—to learn the value of a Rotary Spool Pin, a Shuttle Ejector, an Improved H. & L. Latch, a Square Feed, an Automatic Thread Controller, Automatic Locking Drawers, and scores of other improvements.

Come Tomorrow and See The FREE

and take it home with you for a month's trial

C. G. DRAPER

Subscribe for the Plymouth Mail

NOTABLE NEW MANSIONS AT WASHINGTON

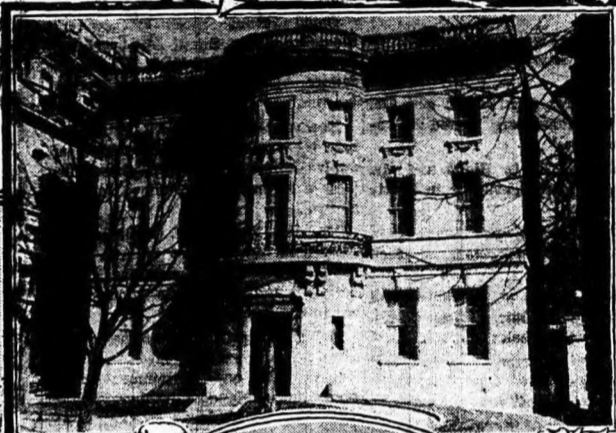

ROM time out of mind the public has been wont to think of the city of Washington as gaining its greatest distinction from being the seat of our national government—certainly honor enough for any community. Within the past few years, however, the city on the Potomac has come to have another significance. It is rapidly taking rank as the foremost residential mecca of the wealthy leisure class in America—even surpassing Newport in that respect. During the past decade wealthy men and women have been flocking to the District of Columbia from all parts of the country, and these wealthy invaders are erecting magnificent mansions that are coming to vie with the government buildings as objects of interest to the tourists and sight-seers who journey to Washington each year.

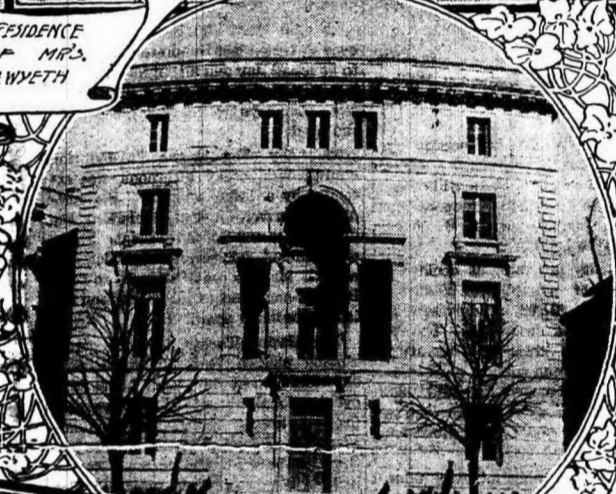

The moneyed folk who are taking up their residence at the capital of the nation are distinctly of the leisure class. No multi-millionaire would think of settling in Washington primarily for business reasons. There is practically no manufacturing and no extensive commercial interests

RESIDENCE OF HENNING JENNINGS

RESIDENCE OF MRS. S.B. WYETH

MANSION OF HERBERT WADSWORTH

RESIDENCE OF GEN. CHARLES L. FITZHUGH

MANSION OF LEUT. BRIG. U.S.N. RETIRED

in the city—none of the ordinary channels of wealth production for Americans. However, it is just this absence of the commercial atmosphere combined with the mild and delightful winter climate of Washington that is attracting so many of the well-to-do newcomers. Having made their fortunes, they are eager to enjoy life in a city where almost everybody has more or less leisure; where there are infinite opportunities for amusement; where the climate is conducive to outdoor sport all the year, and where, finally, there is ever to be witnessed the spectacle of official life with its parades, ceremonies and picturesque social functions.

Whole "colonies" of wealthy folk have migrated from different cities to Washington, notably from Chicago, Philadelphia, New York and Boston, and to some extent these colonies have congregated in certain districts in their adopted city. A most interesting group of multimillionaires the members of which have lately built handsome mansions in Washington is made up of what is known as the "South African millionaires"—men who acquired the bulk of their fortunes in the gold mines and the diamond mines of the Dark Continent. Among these men who are now enjoying life at Washington are Henning Jennings, Gardner Williams, who was for a long time manager of the famous De Beers diamond mines, and John Hays Hammond, chum of President Taft and the highest salaried mining engineer and expert in the world.

Perhaps the most notable feature of the invasion of Washington is found in the number of famous and wealthy widows who have taken up their abode there, most of them purchasing or erecting mansions. Among the well-known widows, who have "adopted" Washington are Mrs. George M. Pullman, widow of the founder of the sleeping car company; Mrs. Mark Hanna, Mrs. John Hay, Mrs. Albert Clifford Barney, Mrs. R. R. Hitt, Mrs. "Phil" Sheridan, Mrs. John A. Logan, Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh, widow of the Colorado mining king; Mrs. Mary Scott Townsend, who inherited many millions made in Pennsylvania coal and oil interests; Mrs. Slater, who requires 18 servants to minister to her lone comfort in a monster mansion and a number of others.

The influx of wealthy householders has caused the price of real estate in Washington to advance in leaps and bounds in those favored sections of the northwest portion of the city which is being to a considerable extent monopolized by the fashionable. Land that a few years ago sold for $1 to $2 per square foot has jumped within a few years to $10 per square foot, and in some exclusive neighborhoods it is almost impossible to secure a large building site for love or money. The mansions which have been erected have cost all the way from $50,000 to $1,000,000 each and some of them have stables and garages that have cost as much as $25,000 each.

The two principal hubs of this new moneyed colonialism of the most beautiful city in the world are found in the two little circular parks or plazas known respectively as Dupont circle and Sheridan circle—so named because statues of these heroes grace these bits of greenward. Around Dupont circle are grouped the stately mansions of Mr. L. Z. Leiter and Mrs. Robert W. Patterson of Chicago, the Herbert Wadsworths of New York, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Boardman, and their daughter, Miss Mabel (of Red Cross fame), formerly of Cleveland. Nearby is the new mansion of Perry Belmont of New York and the home of George Westinghouse, the famous inventor and manufacturer of Pittsburgh. Encircling Sheridan circle are the mansions of Henning Jennings, Mrs. Barney, Mrs. S. B. Wyeth of Philadelphia—another famous widow; Mrs. F. B. Moran, Gen. Charles L. Fitzhugh, Mrs. Sheridan, widow of the general; Lieutenant Beale, a wealthy retired officer of the United States navy, etc. The new mansions in Washington are notable not less for their magnificent architecture than for their spotless appearance. Washington being the cleanest of cities, it has been possible to make use of marble, terra cotta and delicately tinted mosaics on the exteriors of the residences and to have them retain indefinitely their pristine beauty.

Pathetic Case

Not so long ago the writer heard a little parting talk between a married couple. It wasn't a case of eavesdropping, because the conversation was right there to be necessarily overheard. The man was over forty and his wife was pretty close to forty herself.

"Well, you look pretty good to me, now that you're hiking off, young feller," he said to her, sort of sneaking his hand over so's to get hold of hers. "Look pretty middling good to me any old time, when it comes to that. It begins to look to me that I'm mashed on you beyond all redemption. If it does you any good to have your man make that kind of a fool schoolboy speech after all our years at the matrimony thing, why, you're welcome, kid, that's all."

"Well, I'll take mine out in thinking, dear," she replied, "and I'll write all of my foolish things in my letters. Now, you're honestly going to remember to feed the canary every day, aren't you? The maid can attend to cleaning the cage, but you yourself will feed little Dickie every single day, now won't you? Promise me again, so I can feel comfy about it."

"Sure, I'll feed the bird. Say, I've just been noticing those hazel eyes of yours. You've sure got 'em all skinned forty ways from the Jack when it comes to the brown lamps, and—"

"Such stuff!" she interrupted him, looking pleased. "Now, dearie, listen. You won't be getting poor old Melinda to cook you those dreadful messes—things with horrid cheese in them—that you're so crazy over and that make you sick, will you? Promise me solemnly once again, now, won't you?"

"Nix on cheery things, as solemn as you want it," said he. "Going to be a mighty dreary, dismal old imitation of a flat without you in it, sis, and don't you ever forget that. It sure does get me gully around the glue works to see you going off, and I find that it's getting harder every time you go away for a little trip to see your folks. One of these old days I'm going to pour an awful gob of grief all over you by going along with you when you go away."

"Now listen, Jim; I darned up all your socks day before yesterday, but I forgot to put them in your drawer, and you'll find them in my work basket, and my work basket is in the box couch in the sitting room, and for mercy's sake, Jim, please remember this so you won't pull the whole flat to pieces looking for your socks, won't you? Now, there you are, with a faraway look in your eyes, and you're not hearing one single, solitary word that I'm saying to you."

"G'way, I've heard every word you've said. You said you sewed some buttons on the box couch in the spare room, and that—"

"Now, just listen to that! Listen to me, first stop looking at those crazy skylarking dogs on their way to the baggage car, but listen to me. I said socks. Socks in the work basket, in box couch. Repeat the words after me, sir, just like this: Socks in work basket in box couch."

"Wooks in sork basket in cox bouch—say, hun, I haven't time for any such fool things as socks. It's your going away that's got my goat. Doggone it, can't I stand here and mutter my thoughts to you without your ringing in work couches and socks and birds and cheese puddings and such junk on me?"

Most husbands are pretty good fellows, when it comes to all that. Dub along, most of 'em, and do the best they can, considering that they're ornery he-creatures. And most of 'em, despite the old farrago of just actually HATE to see their wives go away.—Washington Star.

THE WORLD'S SERIES.

Connie Mack's Youngsters Win Four Out of Five Games.

After three successive years of defeats and humiliation the American league came into its own at Chicago Sunday. Again it boasts the champion team of the world title that has been vested in the older organization since 1906, when the White Sox whipped the Cubs and thereby surprised themselves and everybody else.

Before the largest crowd that ever saw a world's series battle in Chicago, 27,374 paid, and the saddest that ever saw a game of ball anywhere, Connie Mack's Athletics smothered the Cub machine to bits and scattered the wreckage to the four winds. Reluctantly the score-board boy hung up 7 runs for Mack; joyfully he displayed 2 for Chance. For seven innings it was a close game. Then those gentlemen who represent the City of Brotherly Love in the American league but not in their methods, passed the word to give no quarter. Three doubles, a single and a base on balls were collected in that strenuous eighth and out of the smoke of the battle five Athletic runners wended their way to the final haven.

King of Siam is Dead.

The death of King Chulalongkorn of Siam, which occurred at Bangkok, was due to uraemic poisoning. The king had suffered for years from nephritis. Uraemia developed and the king lapsed into unconsciousness, dying a few hours later.

The crown prince Chovfa Maha Vajiravudh was immediately proclaimed king.

Liabon Soldiers Cause Worry.

The Portuguese government is some what uneasy over the attitude of the regiments which made the revolution possible. Although not openly insubordinate, the soldiers, flushed with victory, are showing extreme independence and are championing the maintenance of strong power in the hands of the military.

U. S. Forest Fires Cost $15,000,000.

Six billion feet of lumber, valued at about $15,000,000, were destroyed in the recent forest fires on the national forests in Montana and northern Idaho. The total area burned over in this one district was put at 1,250,000 acres.

Teach Forestry in All Schools.

The Michigan Federation of Women's clubs is for conservation of natural resources, first and last, according to the evidence introduced at the session held in Battle Creek. So high did enthusiasm run that Prof. Filibert Roth, the University of Michigan forestry expert was invited into the manly convention for a brief address and positively lionized.

James Dunsmuir, former governor of British Columbia, has entered action for $1,000,000 against William Mackenzie, president of the Canadian Northern railway, for an accounting since taking over the Dunsmuir mines on Vancouver Island.

THE MARKETS.

DETROIT—Cattle—Market dull and 10c lower than last week, Thursday at opening. We quote: Best steers and heifers, $5.75; steers and heifers, 1,000 to 1,200, $5.50; steers and heifers, 800 to 1,000, $5.25; steers and heifers, 600 to 800, $5.00; grass steers and heifers that are fat, 500 to 700, $4.75; choice fat cows, $4.50; good fat cows, $4.25; common cows, $3.75; canners, $3.75; $2.50; choice heavy hogs, $3.50; good hogs, $3.25; $2.50; stock hogs, $2.50; $2.00; choice feeding steers, 800 to 1,000, $3.00; fair feeding steers, 800 to 1,000, $2.75; fat stockers, 500 to 700, $4.50; fair stockers, 500 to 700, $4.25; stock hogs, $2.50; $2.00; milkers, large, young, medium age, $1.00; small, $0.75; common milkers, $0.50.

Veal calves—Market steady at Thursday's prices. Best $6.00; others, $4.50; milt cows and springers, steady.

Sheep and lambs—Market 2c lower than last Thursday; dull prospects that will close lower. Best lambs, $8.50; fair to good lambs, $6.00; $5.00; good sheep, $4.50; fair sheep, $4.00; good hogs, $3.50; $3.00; culis and common, $1.50.

Hogs—Market 1c lower than on Wednesday; about steady with last week's close. Range of prices: Light to good hogs, $5.50; pigs, $3.50; $3.00; light hogs, $3.00; $2.50; $2.00.

EAST BUFFALO—Cattle—Dull. Hogs—Market 2c lower all graded, $4.40.

Sheep—Slow, best lambs, $6.75; $6.50; yearlings, $5.50; $5.00; $4.50; $4.00; $3.50; $3.00; $2.50; $2.00.

Calves—$3.00 to $3.50.

Grain, Etc.

DETROIT—Wheat—Cash No. 2 red, 96c; December opened without change at 97c and advanced to 98c. May closed at $1.15 and advanced to $1.07; No. 1 white, 95 1/4.

Corn—Cash No. 2, 51 1/2; No. 2 yellow, 51 1/2; No. 2 white, 51 1/2; No. 2 yellow, 51 1/2.

Oats—Standard, 2 cars at 31 1/2; 1 at 31 1/2; No. 2 white, 1 car at 31 1/2; cutting asked for better prices, 32c; Rye—Cash No. 1, 75c; No. 2, 75c; No. 3, 75c; No. 4, 75c; No. 5, 75c; No. 6, 75c; No. 7, 75c; No. 8, 75c; No. 9, 75c; No. 10, 75c; No. 11, 75c; No. 12, 75c; No. 13, 75c; No. 14, 75c; No. 15, 75c; No. 16, 75c; No. 17, 75c; No. 18, 75c; No. 19, 75c; No. 20, 75c; No. 21, 75c; No. 22, 75c; No. 23, 75c; No. 24, 75c; No. 25, 75c; No. 26, 75c; No. 27, 75c; No. 28, 75c; No. 29, 75c; No. 30, 75c; No. 31, 75c; No. 32, 75c; No. 33, 75c; No. 34, 75c; No. 35, 75c; No. 36, 75c; No. 37, 75c; No. 38, 75c; No. 39, 75c; No. 40, 75c; No. 41, 75c; No. 42, 75c; No. 43, 75c; No. 44, 75c; No. 45, 75c; No. 46, 75c; No. 47, 75c; No. 48, 75c; No. 49, 75c; No. 50, 75c; No. 51, 75c; No. 52, 75c; No. 53, 75c; No. 54, 75c; No. 55, 75c; No. 56, 75c; No. 57, 75c; No. 58, 75c; No. 59, 75c; No. 60, 75c; No. 61, 75c; No. 62, 75c; No. 63, 75c; No. 64, 75c; No. 65, 75c; No. 66, 75c; No. 67, 75c; No. 68, 75c; No. 69, 75c; No. 70, 75c; No. 71, 75c; No. 72, 75c; No. 73, 75c; No. 74, 75c; No. 75, 75c; No. 76, 75c; No. 77, 75c; No. 78, 75c; No. 79, 75c; No. 80, 75c; No. 81, 75c; No. 82, 75c; No. 83, 75c; No. 84, 75c; No. 85, 75c; No. 86, 75c; No. 87, 75c; No. 88, 75c; No. 89, 75c; No. 90, 75c; No. 91, 75c; No. 92, 75c; No. 93, 75c; No. 94, 75c; No. 95, 75c; No. 96, 75c; No. 97, 75c; No. 98, 75c; No. 99, 75c; No. 100, 75c.

RHEUMATISM

I want every chronic rheumatic to throw away all medicines, all ointments, all plasters, and give MURPHY'S RHEUMATISM REMEDY a trial. No matter what your doctor may say, no matter how prejudiced you may be against all advertised remedies, go at once to your druggist and get a bottle of the RHEUMATISM REMEDY. If it fails to give satisfaction, I will refund your money. Remember this remedy contains no salicylic acid, no opium, cocaine, morphine or other harmful drugs. It is put up under the guarantee of the Paro Food and Drug Act.

For sale by all druggists. Price, 25c.

When the Liver is Out of Tune

the whole system is off the key—stomach upset, bowels sluggish, head heavy, skin sallow and the eyes dull. You cannot be right again until the cause of the trouble is removed. Correct the flow of bile, and gently stimulate the liver to healthful action by taking the bile remedy that is safe to use and convenient to take. A dose or two will relieve the nausea and dizziness, operate the bowels, carry new life to the blood, clear the head and improve the digestion.

BEECHAM'S PILLS

These old family pills are the natural remedy for bilious complaints and quickly help the liver to

Strike the Key-note of Health

Sold Everywhere. In boxes 10c. and 25c.

If afflicted with sore eyes, use Thompson's Eye Water

HARDY.

Mr. Heavyweight—Well, Willie, why do you look so studious?

Willie—I was wonderin' if you ever married sis, if I could be able to wear yer cast-off clothes.

So They Say. Stranger—I say, my lad, what is considered a good score on these links?

Caddie—Well, sir, most of the gents here tries to do it in as few strokes as they can, but it generally takes a few more.—Scottish American.

Beware of taking kindness from others as matters of course.—Gladstone.

A stitch today may save a patch tomorrow.

When It's "What for Breakfast?"

Try Post Toasties

Serve with cream or milk and every member of the family will say "ripping" good. And don't be surprised if they want a second helping.

"The Memory Lingers"

Postum Cereal Company, Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich.

SERIAL STORY

The Courage of Captain Plum

By JAMES OLIVER CURWOOD

Illustrations by Magnus C. Kettner

(Copyright, 1916, by Bobbs-Merrill Co.)

SYNOPSIS.

Capt. Nathaniel Plum, of the sloop Typhoon, lands secretly on Beaver Island, stronghold of the Mormons. He is suddenly confronted by Obadiah Price, an eccentric old man and a member of the Mormon council, who tells him that he is expected. Price ignores Nat's protestations that he has not the wrong man, and bargains for the ammunition aboard the sloop. He binds Nat by a solemn oath to deliver a package to Franklin Pierce, president of the United States. Near Price's cabin Nat sees the frightened face of a young woman who disappears in the darkness, leaving an odor of lilacs. It develops that Plum's visit to the island is to demand settlement from the king, Strang, for the looting of his ship some time previously, supposedly by Mormons. Early the next day the king's men descend the sloop with orders to bombard St. James if Nat does not return within a certain time. Price takes Nat to the island in a launch, to the home, and through a window he sees the king and his wives, among whom is the lady of the island, whom Price says is the seventh wife. Plum calls at the king's door, where he is warned by a young woman that his life is in danger. Strang orders Plum cordially, professes indignation when he hears the captain's grievance, and promises to punish the guilty. Plum again receives warning of his danger. He refuses to leave until he has fully whipped. The king orders Arbor Croche, the sheriff and father of Winniesome, the girl who warned Nat, to pursue and kill the two men. Plum and Nat plan to escape on the Typhoon. Plum learns that Marlon, the girl of the lilacs, is in the sloop. She is not yet married to Strang. Plum suggests carrying her off on the sloop. Nat approves. They agree to include Winniesome, with whom Price is in love, in the enterprise. Nat discovers that the sloop is being secretly watched by the king's men. Nat tells Marlon that he has left the island. The thunder of a gun is heard and Marlon tells him his ship has been captured by the Mormons. She pleads with him to leave the island and prevent her brother from returning. She says nothing can save her from Strang.

CHAPTER VII.—Continued.

She surrendered to the determination in his voice and they moved slowly along the path, listening for any sound that might come from ahead of them. Nathaniel had already formed his plan of action. From Marlon's words and the voice in which she had uttered them he knew that it would be useless for him as it had been for Nell to urge her to flee from the island. There remained but one thing for him to do, so he fell back upon the scheme which he had proposed to Marlon's brother. He realized now that he might be compelled to play the game single-handed unless he could secure assistance from Obadiah.

His ship and men were in the hands of the Mormons; Nell, in his search for the captured vessel, stood a large chance of missing him that night, and in that event Marlon's fate would depend on him alone. If he could locate a small boat on the beach back of Obadiah's, if he could in some way lure Marlon to it—He gave an involuntary shudder at the thought of using force upon the girl at his side, at the thought of her terror of those first few moments, her struggles, her broken confidence. She believed in him now. She believed that he loved her. She trusted him. The warm soft pressure of her hand as it clung to his arm in the blackening gloom of the forest was evidence of that trust. She looked into his face anxiously, inquiringly when they stopped to listen, like a child who was sure of a stronger spirit at her side. She held her breath when he held his, she listened when he listened, her feet fell with velvet stillness when he stepped with caution. Her confidence in him was like a beautiful dream to Nathaniel and he trembled when he pictured the destruction of it. After a little he reached over and as if by accident touched the hand that was lying on his arm; he dared more after a moment, and drew the warm little fingers into his great strong palm and held them there, his soul thrilled by their gentle submissiveness. And then in another breath there came to still his joy a thought of the terrible power that chained this girl to the Mormon king. He longed to speak words of encouragement to her, to instill hope in her bosom, to ask her to confide in him the secret of the shadow which hung over her, but the memory of what Nell had said to him held his lips closed.

They had walked in silence for many minutes when the girl stopped. "It is not very far now," she whispered. "You must go."

"Only a little farther," he begged.

She surrendered again, hesitatingly, and they went on, more slowly than before, until they came to where the path met the footway that led to Obadiah's.

"Now you must go," whispered Marlon again.

In this last moment Nathaniel crushed her hand against his breast, his body throbbing with a wild tumult, and a half of what he had meant not to say fell passionately from his lips.

"Forgive me for that—back—there—Marlon," he whispered. "It was because I love you—love you—" He freed her hand and stood back, choking the words that would have revealed his secret. He lied now for the love of this girl. "Nell is out there waiting for me in a small boat," he continued, pointing beyond Obadiah's to the lake. "I will see him soon, and then I will return to Obadiah's to tell you if he has left for the mainland. Will you promise to meet me there—tonight?"

"I will promise."

"At midnight—"

"Yes, at 12 o'clock."

This time it was Marlon who came to him. Her eyes shone like stars.

"And if you make Nell go to the mainland," she said softly, "when I meet you I will—will tell you—something."

The last word came in a breathless sob. As she slipped into the path that led to St. James she paused for a moment and called back, in a low voice: "Tell Nell that he must go for Winniesome's sake. Tell him that her fate is shortly to be as cruel as mine—tell him that Winniesome loves him, and that she will escape and come to him on the mainland. Tell him to go—go!"

She turned again, and Nathaniel stood like a statue, hardly breathing, until the sound of her feet had died away. Then he walked swiftly up the foot path that led to Obadiah's. He forgot his own danger in the excitement that pulsated with every fiber of his being; forgot his old caution and the fears that gave birth to it—forgot everything in those moments but Marlon and his own great happiness. Nell's absence meant nothing to him now. He had held Marlon in his arms, he had told her of his love, and though she had accepted it with gentle unresponsiveness he was thrilled by the memory of that last look in her eyes, which had spoken faith, confidence, and perhaps even more. What was that something she would tell him if he got Nell safely away? It was to be a reward for his own loyalty—he knew that, by the half-fearing tremble of her voice, the sobbing catch of her breath, the strange glow in her eyes. With her brother away she would confide in him? Would she tell him the secret of her slavedom to Strang? Nathaniel was conscious of no madness in the wild hope that filled him; nothing seemed impossible to him now. Marlon would meet him at midnight. She would go with him to the boat, and then—ah, he had solved the problem! He would use no force. He would tell her that Nell was in his canoe half a mile out from the shore and that he had promised to leave the island for good if she would go out to bid him good-by. And once there, a half a mile or a mile away, he would tell her that he had lied to her; and he would give her his heart to trample upon to prove the love that had made him do this thing, and then he would row her to the mainland.

and then beached his boat within a dozen rods of the path that came down from Obadiah's.

It was 10 o'clock. Two more hours! He had tried to suppress his excitement, his apprehension, his eagerness, but now as he went back into the darkness of the forest they burst out anew. What if Marlon should not keep the trust? He thought of the spies whom Nell had said guarded the girl's home—and of Obadiah. Could he trust the old counselor? Should he confide his plot to him and ask his assistance? As the minutes passed and these thoughts recurred again and again in his brain he could not keep the nervousness from growing within him. He was sure now that he would have to fight his battle without Nell. He saw the necessity of coolness, of judgment, and he began to demand these things of himself, struggling sternly against those symptoms of weakness which had replaced his confidence of a short time before. Gradually he fought himself back into his old faith. He would save Marlon—without Nell, without Obadiah. If Marlon did not come to him by midnight it would be because of the guards against whom Nell had warned him, and he would go to her. In some way he would get her to the boat, even if he had to fight his way through Arbor Croche's men.

With this return of confidence Nathaniel's thoughts reverted to his present greatest need, which was food. Since early morning he had eaten nothing and he began to feel the physical want in a craving that was becoming acutely uncomfortable. If Obadiah had not returned to his home he made up his mind that he would find entrance to the cabin and help himself. A sudden turn in the path which he was following, however, revealed one of the councillor's windows aglow with light, and as he pressed quietly around the end of the building the sound of a low voice came to him through the open door. Cautiously he approached and peered in. A large oil lamp, the light of which he had seen in the window, was burning on a table in the big room but the voice came from the little closet into which Obadiah had taken him the preceding night. For several minutes he crouched and listened. He heard the chuckling laugh of the old councillor—and then an incoherent raving that set his blood tingling. There is a horror in the sound of madness, a horror that creeps to the very pit of one's soul, that sends shivering dread from every nerve center, that causes one who is alone with it to sweat with a nameless fear. It was the voice of madness that came from that little room. Before it Nathaniel quailed as if a clammy hand had reached out from the darkness and gripped him by the throat. He drew back shivering in every limb, and the voice followed him, shrieking now in a sudden burst of insane mirth and dying away a moment later in a hollow cackling laugh that seemed to curdle the blood in his veins. Mad! Obadiah Price was mad! Step by step Nathaniel fell back from the door. He felt himself trembling from head to foot. His heart thumped within his breast like the beating of a hammer. For an instant there was silence—a silence in which strange dread held him breathless while he watched the glow in the door and listened. And after that quiet there came suddenly a cry that ended in the exultant chattering of a name.

At the sound of that name Nathaniel sprang forward again. It was Marlon's name and he strained his ears to catch the words that might follow it. As he listened, his head thrust half in at the door, Obadiah's voice became lower and lower, until at last it ceased entirely. Not a step, not a deep breath, not the movement of a hand disturbed the stillness of the little room. By inches Nathaniel drew himself inside the door. His heavy boot caught in a silver on the step but the rending of wood brought no response. It was the quiet of death that pervaded the cabin, it was a strange, growing fear of death that entered Nathaniel as he now hurried across the room and peered through the narrow aperture. The old councillor was half stretched upon the table, his arms reaching out, his long, thin fingers gripping its edges, his face buried under his shoulders. It looked as if death had come suddenly to him during some terrible convulsion, but after a moment Nathaniel saw that he was breathing. He went over and placed a hand on the old man's twisted back.

"Hello, Obadiah! Hello—hello!" he called cheerfully.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

"Hello, Obadiah! Hello—hello!" he called cheerfully.

betray life within. He tried the door and found it locked. He peered in at the windows, listened, and knocked, and at last concealed himself near the path, confident that the little old councillor was still at St. James. For an hour he waited. From the rear of Obadiah's home a narrow footway led toward the lake and Nathaniel followed it, now as warily as an animal in search of prey. For half a mile it took him through the forest and ended at the white sands of the beach. In neither direction could Nathaniel see a light, and keeping close in the shadows of the trees he made his way slowly toward St. James. He had gone but a short distance when he saw a house directly ahead of him, a single gleam of light from a small window telling him that it was inhabited and that its tenants were at home. He circled down close to the water looking for a boat. His heart leaped with sudden exultation when he saw a small skiff drawn upon the beach and his joy was doubled at finding the oars still in the locks. It took him but a moment to shove the light craft into the sea and a minute later he was rowing swiftly away from the land.

Nathaniel was certain that by this time Nell had abandoned his search for the captured Typhoon and was probably paddling in the direction of St. James. With the hope of intercepting him he pulled an eighth of a mile from the shore and rowed slowly toward the head of the island. There was no moon, but countless stars glowed in a clear sky and upon the open lake Nathaniel could see for a considerable distance about him. For another hour he rowed back and forth and then beached his boat within a dozen rods of the path that came down from Obadiah's.

It was 10 o'clock. Two more hours! He had tried to suppress his excitement, his apprehension, his eagerness, but now as he went back into the darkness of the forest they burst out anew. What if Marlon should not keep the trust? He thought of the spies whom Nell had said guarded the girl's home—and of Obadiah. Could he trust the old counselor? Should he confide his plot to him and ask his assistance? As the minutes passed and these thoughts recurred again and again in his brain he could not keep the nervousness from growing within him. He was sure now that he would have to fight his battle without Nell. He saw the necessity of coolness, of judgment, and he began to demand these things of himself, struggling sternly against those symptoms of weakness which had replaced his confidence of a short time before. Gradually he fought himself back into his old faith. He would save Marlon—without Nell, without Obadiah. If Marlon did not come to him by midnight it would be because of the guards against whom Nell had warned him, and he would go to her. In some way he would get her to the boat, even if he had to fight his way through Arbor Croche's men.

With this return of confidence Nathaniel's thoughts reverted to his present greatest need, which was food. Since early morning he had eaten nothing and he began to feel the physical want in a craving that was becoming acutely uncomfortable. If Obadiah had not returned to his home he made up his mind that he would find entrance to the cabin and help himself. A sudden turn in the path which he was following, however, revealed one of the councillor's windows aglow with light, and as he pressed quietly around the end of the building the sound of a low voice came to him through the open door. Cautiously he approached and peered in. A large oil lamp, the light of which he had seen in the window, was burning on a table in the big room but the voice came from the little closet into which Obadiah had taken him the preceding night. For several minutes he crouched and listened. He heard the chuckling laugh of the old councillor—and then an incoherent raving that set his blood tingling. There is a horror in the sound of madness, a horror that creeps to the very pit of one's soul, that sends shivering dread from every nerve center, that causes one who is alone with it to sweat with a nameless fear. It was the voice of madness that came from that little room. Before it Nathaniel quailed as if a clammy hand had reached out from the darkness and gripped him by the throat. He drew back shivering in every limb, and the voice followed him, shrieking now in a sudden burst of insane mirth and dying away a moment later in a hollow cackling laugh that seemed to curdle the blood in his veins. Mad! Obadiah Price was mad! Step by step Nathaniel fell back from the door. He felt himself trembling from head to foot. His heart thumped within his breast like the beating of a hammer. For an instant there was silence—a silence in which strange dread held him breathless while he watched the glow in the door and listened. And after that quiet there came suddenly a cry that ended in the exultant chattering of a name.

At the sound of that name Nathaniel sprang forward again. It was Marlon's name and he strained his ears to catch the words that might follow it. As he listened, his head thrust half in at the door, Obadiah's voice became lower and lower, until at last it ceased entirely. Not a step, not a deep breath, not the movement of a hand disturbed the stillness of the little room. By inches Nathaniel drew himself inside the door. His heavy boot caught in a silver on the step but the rending of wood brought no response. It was the quiet of death that pervaded the cabin, it was a strange, growing fear of death that entered Nathaniel as he now hurried across the room and peered through the narrow aperture. The old councillor was half stretched upon the table, his arms reaching out, his long, thin fingers gripping its edges, his face buried under his shoulders. It looked as if death had come suddenly to him during some terrible convulsion, but after a moment Nathaniel saw that he was breathing. He went over and placed a hand on the old man's twisted back.

"Hello, Obadiah! Hello—hello!" he called cheerfully.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

and then beached his boat within a dozen rods of the path that came down from Obadiah's.

It was 10 o'clock. Two more hours! He had tried to suppress his excitement, his apprehension, his eagerness, but now as he went back into the darkness of the forest they burst out anew. What if Marlon should not keep the trust? He thought of the spies whom Nell had said guarded the girl's home—and of Obadiah. Could he trust the old counselor? Should he confide his plot to him and ask his assistance? As the minutes passed and these thoughts recurred again and again in his brain he could not keep the nervousness from growing within him. He was sure now that he would have to fight his battle without Nell. He saw the necessity of coolness, of judgment, and he began to demand these things of himself, struggling sternly against those symptoms of weakness which had replaced his confidence of a short time before. Gradually he fought himself back into his old faith. He would save Marlon—without Nell, without Obadiah. If Marlon did not come to him by midnight it would be because of the guards against whom Nell had warned him, and he would go to her. In some way he would get her to the boat, even if he had to fight his way through Arbor Croche's men.

With this return of confidence Nathaniel's thoughts reverted to his present greatest need, which was food. Since early morning he had eaten nothing and he began to feel the physical want in a craving that was becoming acutely uncomfortable. If Obadiah had not returned to his home he made up his mind that he would find entrance to the cabin and help himself. A sudden turn in the path which he was following, however, revealed one of the councillor's windows aglow with light, and as he pressed quietly around the end of the building the sound of a low voice came to him through the open door. Cautiously he approached and peered in. A large oil lamp, the light of which he had seen in the window, was burning on a table in the big room but the voice came from the little closet into which Obadiah had taken him the preceding night. For several minutes he crouched and listened. He heard the chuckling laugh of the old councillor—and then an incoherent raving that set his blood tingling. There is a horror in the sound of madness, a horror that creeps to the very pit of one's soul, that sends shivering dread from every nerve center, that causes one who is alone with it to sweat with a nameless fear. It was the voice of madness that came from that little room. Before it Nathaniel quailed as if a clammy hand had reached out from the darkness and gripped him by the throat. He drew back shivering in every limb, and the voice followed him, shrieking now in a sudden burst of insane mirth and dying away a moment later in a hollow cackling laugh that seemed to curdle the blood in his veins. Mad! Obadiah Price was mad! Step by step Nathaniel fell back from the door. He felt himself trembling from head to foot. His heart thumped within his breast like the beating of a hammer. For an instant there was silence—a silence in which strange dread held him breathless while he watched the glow in the door and listened. And after that quiet there came suddenly a cry that ended in the exultant chattering of a name.

At the sound of that name Nathaniel sprang forward again. It was Marlon's name and he strained his ears to catch the words that might follow it. As he listened, his head thrust half in at the door, Obadiah's voice became lower and lower, until at last it ceased entirely. Not a step, not a deep breath, not the movement of a hand disturbed the stillness of the little room. By inches Nathaniel drew himself inside the door. His heavy boot caught in a silver on the step but the rending of wood brought no response. It was the quiet of death that pervaded the cabin, it was a strange, growing fear of death that entered Nathaniel as he now hurried across the room and peered through the narrow aperture. The old councillor was half stretched upon the table, his arms reaching out, his long, thin fingers gripping its edges, his face buried under his shoulders. It looked as if death had come suddenly to him during some terrible convulsion, but after a moment Nathaniel saw that he was breathing. He went over and placed a hand on the old man's twisted back.

"Hello, Obadiah! Hello—hello!" he called cheerfully.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

betray life within. He tried the door and found it locked. He peered in at the windows, listened, and knocked, and at last concealed himself near the path, confident that the little old councillor was still at St. James. For an hour he waited. From the rear of Obadiah's home a narrow footway led toward the lake and Nathaniel followed it, now as warily as an animal in search of prey. For half a mile it took him through the forest and ended at the white sands of the beach. In neither direction could Nathaniel see a light, and keeping close in the shadows of the trees he made his way slowly toward St. James. He had gone but a short distance when he saw a house directly ahead of him, a single gleam of light from a small window telling him that it was inhabited and that its tenants were at home. He circled down close to the water looking for a boat. His heart leaped with sudden exultation when he saw a small skiff drawn upon the beach and his joy was doubled at finding the oars still in the locks. It took him but a moment to shove the light craft into the sea and a minute later he was rowing swiftly away from the land.

Nathaniel was certain that by this time Nell had abandoned his search for the captured Typhoon and was probably paddling in the direction of St. James. With the hope of intercepting him he pulled an eighth of a mile from the shore and rowed slowly toward the head of the island. There was no moon, but countless stars glowed in a clear sky and upon the open lake Nathaniel could see for a considerable distance about him. For another hour he rowed back and forth and then beached his boat within a dozen rods of the path that came down from Obadiah's.

It was 10 o'clock. Two more hours! He had tried to suppress his excitement, his apprehension, his eagerness, but now as he went back into the darkness of the forest they burst out anew. What if Marlon should not keep the trust? He thought of the spies whom Nell had said guarded the girl's home—and of Obadiah. Could he trust the old counselor? Should he confide his plot to him and ask his assistance? As the minutes passed and these thoughts recurred again and again in his brain he could not keep the nervousness from growing within him. He was sure now that he would have to fight his battle without Nell. He saw the necessity of coolness, of judgment, and he began to demand these things of himself, struggling sternly against those symptoms of weakness which had replaced his confidence of a short time before. Gradually he fought himself back into his old faith. He would save Marlon—without Nell, without Obadiah. If Marlon did not come to him by midnight it would be because of the guards against whom Nell had warned him, and he would go to her. In some way he would get her to the boat, even if he had to fight his way through Arbor Croche's men.

With this return of confidence Nathaniel's thoughts reverted to his present greatest need, which was food. Since early morning he had eaten nothing and he began to feel the physical want in a craving that was becoming acutely uncomfortable. If Obadiah had not returned to his home he made up his mind that he would find entrance to the cabin and help himself. A sudden turn in the path which he was following, however, revealed one of the councillor's windows aglow with light, and as he pressed quietly around the end of the building the sound of a low voice came to him through the open door. Cautiously he approached and peered in. A large oil lamp, the light of which he had seen in the window, was burning on a table in the big room but the voice came from the little closet into which Obadiah had taken him the preceding night. For several minutes he crouched and listened. He heard the chuckling laugh of the old councillor—and then an incoherent raving that set his blood tingling. There is a horror in the sound of madness, a horror that creeps to the very pit of one's soul, that sends shivering dread from every nerve center, that causes one who is alone with it to sweat with a nameless fear. It was the voice of madness that came from that little room. Before it Nathaniel quailed as if a clammy hand had reached out from the darkness and gripped him by the throat. He drew back shivering in every limb, and the voice followed him, shrieking now in a sudden burst of insane mirth and dying away a moment later in a hollow cackling laugh that seemed to curdle the blood in his veins. Mad! Obadiah Price was mad! Step by step Nathaniel fell back from the door. He felt himself trembling from head to foot. His heart thumped within his breast like the beating of a hammer. For an instant there was silence—a silence in which strange dread held him breathless while he watched the glow in the door and listened. And after that quiet there came suddenly a cry that ended in the exultant chattering of a name.

At the sound of that name Nathaniel sprang forward again. It was Marlon's name and he strained his ears to catch the words that might follow it. As he listened, his head thrust half in at the door, Obadiah's voice became lower and lower, until at last it ceased entirely. Not a step, not a deep breath, not the movement of a hand disturbed the stillness of the little room. By inches Nathaniel drew himself inside the door. His heavy boot caught in a silver on the step but the rending of wood brought no response. It was the quiet of death that pervaded the cabin, it was a strange, growing fear of death that entered Nathaniel as he now hurried across the room and peered through the narrow aperture. The old councillor was half stretched upon the table, his arms reaching out, his long, thin fingers gripping its edges, his face buried under his shoulders. It looked as if death had come suddenly to him during some terrible convulsion, but after a moment Nathaniel saw that he was breathing. He went over and placed a hand on the old man's twisted back.

"Hello, Obadiah! Hello—hello!" he called cheerfully.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

betray life within. He tried the door and found it locked. He peered in at the windows, listened, and knocked, and at last concealed himself near the path, confident that the little old councillor was still at St. James. For an hour he waited. From the rear of Obadiah's home a narrow footway led toward the lake and Nathaniel followed it, now as warily as an animal in search of prey. For half a mile it took him through the forest and ended at the white sands of the beach. In neither direction could Nathaniel see a light, and keeping close in the shadows of the trees he made his way slowly toward St. James. He had gone but a short distance when he saw a house directly ahead of him, a single gleam of light from a small window telling him that it was inhabited and that its tenants were at home. He circled down close to the water looking for a boat. His heart leaped with sudden exultation when he saw a small skiff drawn upon the beach and his joy was doubled at finding the oars still in the locks. It took him but a moment to shove the light craft into the sea and a minute later he was rowing swiftly away from the land.

Nathaniel was certain that by this time Nell had abandoned his search for the captured Typhoon and was probably paddling in the direction of St. James. With the hope of intercepting him he pulled an eighth of a mile from the shore and rowed slowly toward the head of the island. There was no moon, but countless stars glowed in a clear sky and upon the open lake Nathaniel could see for a considerable distance about him. For another hour he rowed back and forth and then beached his boat within a dozen rods of the path that came down from Obadiah's.

It was 10 o'clock. Two more hours! He had tried to suppress his excitement, his apprehension, his eagerness, but now as he went back into the darkness of the forest they burst out anew. What if Marlon should not keep the trust? He thought of the spies whom Nell had said guarded the girl's home—and of Obadiah. Could he trust the old counselor? Should he confide his plot to him and ask his assistance? As the minutes passed and these thoughts recurred again and again in his brain he could not keep the nervousness from growing within him. He was sure now that he would have to fight his battle without Nell. He saw the necessity of coolness, of judgment, and he began to demand these things of himself, struggling sternly against those symptoms of weakness which had replaced his confidence of a short time before. Gradually he fought himself back into his old faith. He would save Marlon—without Nell, without Obadiah. If Marlon did not come to him by midnight it would be because of the guards against whom Nell had warned him, and he would go to her. In some way he would get her to the boat, even if he had to fight his way through Arbor Croche's men.

With this return of confidence Nathaniel's thoughts reverted to his present greatest need, which was food. Since early morning he had eaten nothing and he began to feel the physical want in a craving that was becoming acutely uncomfortable. If Obadiah had not returned to his home he made up his mind that he would find entrance to the cabin and help himself. A sudden turn in the path which he was following, however, revealed one of the councillor's windows aglow with light, and as he pressed quietly around the end of the building the sound of a low voice came to him through the open door. Cautiously he approached and peered in. A large oil lamp, the light of which he had seen in the window, was burning on a table in the big room but the voice came from the little closet into which Obadiah had taken him the preceding night. For several minutes he crouched and listened. He heard the chuckling laugh of the old councillor—and then an incoherent raving that set his blood tingling. There is a horror in the sound of madness, a horror that creeps to the very pit of one's soul, that sends shivering dread from every nerve center, that causes one who is alone with it to sweat with a nameless fear. It was the voice of madness that came from that little room. Before it Nathaniel quailed as if a clammy hand had reached out from the darkness and gripped him by the throat. He drew back shivering in every limb, and the voice followed him, shrieking now in a sudden burst of insane mirth and dying away a moment later in a hollow cackling laugh that seemed to curdle the blood in his veins. Mad! Obadiah Price was mad! Step by step Nathaniel fell back from the door. He felt himself trembling from head to foot. His heart thumped within his breast like the beating of a hammer. For an instant there was silence—a silence in which strange dread held him breathless while he watched the glow in the door and listened. And after that quiet there came suddenly a cry that ended in the exultant chattering of a name.

At the sound of that name Nathaniel sprang forward again. It was Marlon's name and he strained his ears to catch the words that might follow it. As he listened, his head thrust half in at the door, Obadiah's voice became lower and lower, until at last it ceased entirely. Not a step, not a deep breath, not the movement of a hand disturbed the stillness of the little room. By inches Nathaniel drew himself inside the door. His heavy boot caught in a silver on the step but the rending of wood brought no response. It was the quiet of death that pervaded the cabin, it was a strange, growing fear of death that entered Nathaniel as he now hurried across the room and peered through the narrow aperture. The old councillor was half stretched upon the table, his arms reaching out, his long, thin fingers gripping its edges, his face buried under his shoulders. It looked as if death had come suddenly to him during some terrible convulsion, but after a moment Nathaniel saw that he was breathing. He went over and placed a hand on the old man's twisted back.

"Hello, Obadiah! Hello—hello!" he called cheerfully.

(TO BE CONTINUED.)

MICHIGAN NEWS TERSELY TOLD

Ludington.—Mrs. Addie Smith was awarded damages of $1,000 from George Lettle, a saloonkeeper, who sold her husband liquor which, it was alleged, caused him to go home and threaten the lives of his family. In defending his mother, a son, Henry, fired several shots at his father, some of which inflicted injury on the mother.

Charlotte.—H. C. Carr has been named by J. M. C. Smith as chairman of his congressional committee. The other members are: Fred H. Webb of Battle Creek, W. D. Walkins of Kalamazoo, T. A. Hilton of Coldwater, Frank M. Stewart of Hillsdale. The chairman of the five county committees are also made members of the Smith committee.

Ann Arbor.—"Woolsock" and "Triangles," honorary societies of the U. of M., have elected new members as follows: Woolsocks, George Humphrey, Saginaw; Andrew Kolyn, Grand Rapids; Dean Lucking, Detroit; Albert Meder, Bay City; George E. Brand, Houghton. Triangles, Gage Cooper, Detroit; Rudolph Van Dyke, Lowell; Dale Marshall, Chesaning; Clarence Hannon, Saginaw.

Lansing.—Because there is no money in the county's strong box, the members of the board of supervisors may have to wait for their pay.—A movement is on foot here to have certified milk peddled on the routes. If the deal goes through the price will probably be about 13 cents per quart.

Saginaw.—George Piper, a bookkeeper at the Marquette Motor works, was thrown from an auto when it skidded and sustained a fractured skull. No hopes are entertained for his recovery.—Emmitt L. Beach, a former circuit judge, was nominated for mayor on the Democratic ticket in the city convention. He defeated Ernest A. Snow, who defended the traction company several years ago in the strike suits. The vote was 53 to 47.

Port Huron.—Roy Eades, aged twenty-one, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Eades, and prominent in local society circles, died after an illness of two weeks with typhoid fever.—The board of supervisors has decided to not vote on the good roads proposition this fall.

Marshall.—The M. U. R. will construct an overhead bridge at Guin crossing, east of Battle Creek, where several fatalities have occurred.—Calhoun county officials who have had their bills cut down by the board of supervisors will institute suits against the county.

Battle Creek.—Testimony at the inquest indicated that Anthony De Wolf, whose body was found in Battle Creek recently, was taken to Michigan City and an attempt made to poison him there. Joseph Novack, who is charged with killing him, was accused of enticing De Wolf to the Indiana town.

Flint.—Mrs. Charles Loveless, who is seeking a divorce, testified that her husband, who is seventy-six years old, bought her only one dress in 36 years and "it wasn't a hobbie skirt, either."

Cadillac.—Charles Metro, charged with slaying Frank McConnell, who was shot to death while stealing a cabbage from Metro's patch, was held for trial in the circuit court. Metro's mother-in-law and her husband were also bound over.

Owosso.—The wages of all the telegraph operators on the Ann Arbor railroad will probably be raised, in accordance with a request made by the operators.—Because Adelbert Sampson of Ovid displayed so much zest in serenading newly married couples in the past, his friends laid for him when he married Grace E. Dort and returned from a wedding trip, and exploded dynamite under his house, shattering every window.

Jackson.—When a 22-caliber rifle in the hands of George Clark, a companion, was accidentally discharged, Warren Lane, 17, was shot in the back and perhaps fatally wounded. The bullet passed entirely through the boy's body.

Battle Creek.—The police believe that a quarrel which has broken out among the suspects held for the killing of Anthony De Wolf will result in throwing some light on the mystery surrounding his death.

Albion.—The body of William Trator, a junk dealer, was found in the road a few miles out. He died from a stroke of paralysis while driving a team, which ran away, when he fell from the wagon.

Morrice.—Robert Grubb of this place has fallen heir to considerable real estate at Brighton and Howell through the disappearance of a nephew. This is his second inheritance from nephews in the past few years.

Brown City.—John Tice, twenty-three, of Port Huron, a brakeman on the Pere Marquette railroad, was caught between two freight cars and his foot so badly mangled that it had to be amputated. He is married.

Owosso.—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Neckwell, Slava, who live seven miles from here, drove to the local undertaking rooms, the mother carrying the dead body of her child in her arms. The body was carried on a pillow according to the custom of their native country. Neither parent speaks English and a local Slav acted as interpreter. The body was placed in a casket and buried in the Catholic cemetery, the parents not accompanying the remains to the burying ground.

Adrian.—George Allen, eighty years old, was struck by an auto, knocked down and severely injured.

At the First Try.
"What do you think of my doughnuts, George?"
"Dear, you are a wonder!"
"Do you think so, really, darling?"
"I certainly do. Scientists have been trying for years to produce artificial rubber, and here you do it the first rattle out of the box."

$100 Reward, $100.
The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Dr. HARRIS' CATARRH CURE. This is the only positive cure now known for the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. HARRIS' CATARRH CURE is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and sending the system into its normal state. The proprietor has so much faith in his curative powers that he offers One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.
Address: J. C. HENNEY & CO., Toledo, O.
Sold by all Druggists. Be careful.
This Healthy Family Plan for constipation.

The Family Growler.
"Why are you weeping, little boy?"
"I broke de pitcher."
"Well, there's no use crying over spilt milk."
"G'wan! Dis wuz beer!"—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Important to Mothers
Examine carefully every bottle of CASTORIA, a safe and sure remedy for infants and children, and see that it bears the Signature of J. C. Atkinson.
In Use For Over 30 Years.
The Kind You Have Always Bought.

Now He Knows.
"On what grounds does your father object to me?" he asked.
"On any grounds within a mile of our house," she answered.

TRY MURINE EYE REMEDY for Red, Weak, Watery Eyes and Grated Eyelids. Murine Doesn't Smart—Soothes Eye Pain. Druggists Sell Murine Eye Remedy, Liquid, 25c, 50c, $1.00. Murine Eye Salve in Aspic Tube, 25c, $1.00. Eye Books and Eye Advice Free by Mail. Murine Eye Remedy Co., Chicago.

There are some rich men who have made their fortunes honestly. Also you may have heard of the needle in the haystack.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Infants' Teething, soothes the gums, reduces inflammation, and cures colic. It is a health-giver.

Don't you notice how the man who always wants to bet, and who says he has a roll in his hand, invariably rolls away?

Make the Liver Do its Duty

Nine times in ten when the liver is right the stomach and bowels are right.

CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS

gently but firmly cleans a lazy liver to do its duty.

Costs Constipation, Indigestion, Sick Headache, and Dizziness after Eating.

Small Pill, Small Dose, Small Price.

Genuine with Signature

W. L. Douglas

W. L. DOUGLAS

'3 '3.50 & '34 SHOES FOR WOMEN

Boys' Shoes, $2.00, $2.50 & $3.00. Best in the World.

W. L. Douglas has been making shoes for over 30 years, that I make and sell more $3.50 and $4.00 shoes than any other manufacturer in the U. S., and that DOLLAR FOR DOLLAR, I GUARANTEE MY SHOES to hold their shape, look and fit better, and wear longer than any other $3.50 or $4.00 shoes you can buy? Quality counts. It has made my shoes THE LEADERS OF THE WORLD.

You will be pleased when you buy my shoes because of the fit and appearance, and when it comes time for you to change another pair, you will be more than pleased because the last ones wore so well, and gave you so much comfort.

CAUTION! I use genuine W. L. Douglas shoes. Name and price stamped on the bottom. TAKE NO SUBSTITUTE if your dealer cannot supply you with W. L. Douglas shoes, write for Mail Order Catalogue.

W. L. DOUGLAS, 146 Spark Street, Brockton, Mass.

That Cold Room

on the side of the house where winter blasts strike hardest always has a lower temperature than the rest of the house. There are times when it is necessary to raise the temperature quickly or to keep the temperature up for a long period. That can't be done by the regular method of heating without great trouble and overheating the rest of the house. The only reliable method of heating such a room alone by other means is to use a

PERFECTION

SMOKELESS OIL HEATER

Absolutely smokeless and odorless which can be kept at full or low heat for a short or long time. Four quarts of oil will give a glowing heat for nine hours, without smoke or smell.

An indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font. Filler-cap does not screw on; but is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached by a chain and cannot get lost.

An automatic locking flame spreader prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so that it can be cleaned in an instant.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, and can be unsewed in an instant for reworking. Finished in Japan or nickel, strong, durable, well-made, built for service, and yet light and ornamental. Has a cool handle.

Dealers Everywhere. If not at hand, write for descriptive literature to the nearest agency of the Standard Oil Company

ANOTHER WOMAN CURED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Black Duck, Minn.—"About a year ago I wrote you that I was sick and would not do any of my household work. My sickness was called Retroflexion. When I would sit down I felt as if I could not get up. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and did just as you told me and now I am perfectly cured, and have a big baby boy."

Mrs. ANNA ANDERSON, Box 13, Black Duck, Minn.

Consider This Advice.

No woman should submit to a surgical operation, which may mean death, until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made exclusively from roots and herbs, a fair trial.

This famous medicine for women has for thirty years proved to be the most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female

COMMENT ON WOMEN'S BOOKS

Mere Man Makes Sacrilegious Utterances on What Might Happen in Some Situations.

(Giving Extracts from Some of Their Recent Work, With Comment by Mere Man.)

"Cartwright blew a ring of blue smoke smoke to the ceiling, and then leaned over and knocked the ash from his cigar into the waste basket."

Whereupon the accumulation of waste paper caught fire, spread throughout the room, bringing out the fire department. The irate owner of the building afterward ascertained the cause, swears out a warrant for Cartwright's immediate arrest for incendiarism.

"Reginald took the cigar from his mouth and reflectively contemplated the inch ash."

Which at that reflective second dropped from the cigar and scattered over the front of Reggie's coat and vest. Reggie arose hastily, with an oath, and brushed the accumulation to the floor, the janitress afterward observing that Reggie was the "sloppiest" reuter in the building.

"Arthur took a cigarette from a silver case and touched a lighted match to it."

Arthur did this very thing a half dozen times during what is alleged to have been a ten-minute conversation. Such a smoker as Arthur is! We advise him to consult a physician, and the girl had better refrain from marrying so inveterate a cigarette fiend. Here is a tip from a smoker, sweet beroline. Have your Arthur eat generously of apples. They stifle the appetite.

"Mary stood upon the porch and discerned her lover's approach on the hill a half mile away."

Mary should get a job as a look-out on the Lusitania. Such splendid eyesight! going to waste on a mere lover!

All of which is here recorded to prove that if the ways of women are a mystery to men, equally mysterious are the ways of men to that most intelligent class of the sex—the lady writers.—Judge.

Journalism Abroad.

The journalism of Paris is personal (says Henry Watterson), the journalism of London is impersonal—that is to say, the one illustrates the self-exploiting, individualized star-system, the other the more sedate and orderly yet not less responsible commercial system; and it must be allowed that, in both dignity and usefulness, the English is to be preferred to the French journalism. It is true that English publishers are sometimes elevated to the peerage. But this is no wise worse than French and American editors becoming candidates for office. In either case, the public and the press are losers in the matter of the service rendered, because journalism and office are so antipathetic that their union must be destructive to both.

Origin of Tommy Atkins.

It is a popular notion that the name "Tommy Atkins," as the sobriquet of the British soldier, is peculiarly the idea of Rudyard Kipling, than which nothing could be farther from the truth, although it is not to be denied that Mr. Kipling, more than anybody else, has made the nickname famous. As a matter of fact, the name originated with the British war office issuing pocket manuals, in which the soldier's name, age, date of enlistment, term of service and other details were entered. The method of filling in the form was explained by the employment of a fictitious name, and instead of the legal "John Doe" or "Richard Roe," the combination "Thomas Atkins" was adopted. From this circumstance the name came to be applied to the soldier as a type, very much as during our Civil war the Confederates were commonly addressed by their Union opponents as "Johnnie Reb."

Strawberries All Year.

Strawberry-time is prolonged by European tourists to form a considerable little part of the year, by those who begin in Italy towards the end of April and follow the wild strawberry into South German woods, pausing in Venice on the way. There the half-wild half-cultivated berry arrives in such quantities early in May that it colors the frequent fruit shops and paints the town red. This half wildness makes the charm of the Italian strawberry. For of the quiet wild ones you never—like Doctor Johnson with peaches—get quite enough; and the wholly cultivated has not the distinctive flavor, which is as delicate and intense as the scent of a wild rose lost in the gardens. And in California not only the tourists but all who buy at markets may enjoy the best berry every month in the year.

Held by Her Buttons.

"Why do you have such a hard time to get away when you are wanted?" said the woman who had been told over the telephone to wait awhile. "I thought you have such a good servant that you can go out any time and trust her with everything." "I have," said the other woman. "That is why I cannot leave at a minute's notice. In addition to her other virtues, Mary is a very neat girl. Her best clothes all fasten down the back, and I have to stay to hook them for her. If she is behind-hand with her work I have to wait till she gets ready, that's all. When you get a good girl like Mary it pays to stay home long enough to fasten her clothes."

L. T. HEMANS' OFFICIAL RECORD

Why Nothing Is Being Said of It in This Campaign—Served as State Legislator.

ATTENDED HALF OF SESSIONS

Drew Full Pay, However—Introduced Bill to License Bucketshops in Michigan, and Voted For More Appropriation Bills Than Any Other Member.

It is worthy of note in this campaign that Lawton T. Hemans, the Democratic candidate for governor, is making no reference to his own official record. Not a word has he uttered touching his official performances or attempted accomplishments.

Yet Mr. Hemans was on the salary list through two full terms as a legislator. He was not present at more than half the sessions of the body to which he belonged, but he drew pay for full time.

He introduced a bill to provide for an additional state board. But as a candidate for governor he is now denouncing the existence of so many state boards.

Mr. Hemans introduced a bill to license bucketshops in Michigan. His bill sought to make the pretended sales and purchases through bucketshops "legitimate legal transactions." What the people of Michigan think of the bucketshop business which would have been licensed and legalized if the Democratic candidate for governor had secured the passage of his bill is shown by the fact that at the same session of the legislature following his effort a bill entirely prohibiting the existence of bucketshops in Michigan became a law.

Mr. Hemans is now seemingly distressed over state expenditures, but he voted for more appropriation bills than any other member of the legislature during his terms of service, and afterwards made an address in the constitutional convention declaring that it was not true that Michigan legislators had ever made extravagant appropriations.

As a member of the constitutional convention Mr. Hemans opposed the proposition that the legislature of Michigan should have power to enact laws relative to the hours and conditions under which women and children may be employed.

This proposition was especially urged by the labor organizations of Michigan. They petitioned that the constitution should give this power to the legislature. And the justice of the request was recognized by the majority of the members of the constitutional convention. It was adopted by the constitutional convention and later on was approved by the people, and is now a part of our state constitution.

But Lawton T. Hemans made a speech against it and voted against it, sneeringly referring to it as "a little piece of sentiment." Why is Mr. Hemans not referring to this feature of his official record?

It will be observed that Mr. Hemans has an official record. He was a member of the legislature through four years. Why does he entirely fail to base any claim to favor from the people of Michigan on the work he performed, or attempted to perform, as a supposed representative of the people?

RECORDS COMPARED.

Lawton T. Hemans Did Nothing Himself. Yet Is Finding Fault With Osborn's Accomplishments.

The same exaggerated statements as to expense accounts which are now being made by the Democratic candidate for governor with reference to Chase S. Osborn's expenses as railroad commissioner have been made in connection with every successful effort to compel the railroads of Michigan to reduce their railroad rates and passenger fares and to pay increased taxes.

The expenditures about which Mr. Hemans is finding fault have increased the income of the state of Michigan from railroad sources from less than $1,000,000 to more than $5,000,000.

They have resulted in reduction of railroad fares from three cents to two cents per mile.

They have brought to the people of this state advantages and conveniences and safety appliances in connection with railroad movements hardly equalled in value and desirability by those required in any other state in the union.

As a member of the legislature through two terms Mr. Hemans did nothing and said nothing in the direction of the work successfully accomplished by Mr. Osborn.

Mr. Hemans voted for all appropriation bills. He insisted that Michigan legislators had never been extravagant and exhibited not the least interest or concern in any direction of state need or state economy.

The Men Lift the Mortgage.

Statistics show that the hen is the best paying investment on the farm, when given proper care and attention. If you want to get the best results feed your chickens a little of Harrell's Condition Powders occasionally, it makes the hens lay and this is exactly what you want. No feed stuff mixed with it to make a large package. Nothing but pure drugs. Sold by Pinckney's Pharmacy and Beyer's Pharmacy.

Not An Experiment

Over a million of Cole's Original Hot Blast Heating Stoves used in America today. They have been proven superior to all other heating stoves by years of use by hundreds of thousands of users. They are in use in every state in the Union; in the homes of capitalists and wage earners, and the most enthusiastic testimonials are received at the factory of the Cole Manufacturing Co. at Chicago every day. Cole's Hot Blast is guaranteed to reduce the fuel bill a third over any lower draft stove of the same size. Guaranteed to hold fire from Saturday night until Monday morning. Guaranteed to give uniform heat day and night with soft coal, hard coal or lignite. Let us show you these stoves and demonstrate their marvelous points of superiority. (R-15)

MRS. D. DeWITT NAY, Vocal Teacher of the American Conservatory of Music of Detroit, will receive pupils in Vocal Culture at the residence of Mr. M. H. Ladd on Thursday of each week. Special attention given to correct placing of the voice and perfect breath control. Voices tested free.

DR. S. E. CAMPBELL

Office and Residence, Ann Arbor St. first house west of Main street.

Hours—9 to 9 a. m., 1 to 2 and 7 to 8 p. m. Independent Phone No. 35.

R. E. COOPER, M.D.C.M., Physician & Surgeon.

Office hours—Until 9 A. M., 102 after 1 P. M.

OFFICE OVER RAUCH'S STORE. Bell Phone 36; Local 20.

Dr. A. E. PATTERSON

Office and residence, Main street, next to Express office.

Hours—until 9 a. m., 2 to 4 p. m. and after Telephone 88, Plymouth, Mich.

C. G. DRAPER

JEWELER and OPTOMETRIST... Eyes accurately fitted with Glasses. Prices Reasonable. Give us a trial. Office opposite D. C. K. Waiting Room, Plymouth, Mich.

Robinson's Livery

Sutton Street GOOD STABLING.

Detroit United Lines

Plymouth Time Table EAST BOUND.

For Detroit via Wayne 5:30 a. m. and every hour to 7:30 p. m.; also 9:44 p. m. and 11:33 p. m. changing at Wayne.

NORTH BOUND.

Leave Plymouth for Northville 6:04 a. m., 7:10 a. m. and every hour to 7:10 p. m., 9:10 p. m., 10:36 p. m. and 12:34 a. m.

Leave Detroit for Plymouth 5:44 a. m. (from Michigan car barn); also 6:30 a. m. and every hour to 5:30 p. m.; also 9 p. m. and 11 p. m. changing cars at Wayne.

Leave Wayne for Plymouth 5:34 a. m., 6:39 a. m. and every hour to 6:30 p. m.; also 8:39 p. m.; also 10:10 p. m. and 12 midnight.

Cars connect at Wayne for Ypsilanti and points west to Jackson.

Commissioner's Notice.

In the matter of the estate of Gottlieb Bolgos, deceased. We, the undersigned, having been appointed by the Probate Court for the county of Wayne, State of Michigan, Commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet at the office of E. N. Passage, in the village of Plymouth, in said county, on Wednesday, the 4th day of January, A. D. 1911, and on Tuesday, the 4th day of April, A. D. 1911, at 10 o'clock A. M. of each of said days, for the purpose of examining and allowing said claims, and that six months from the 4th day of October, A. D. 1910, were allowed by said Court for creditors to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.

Dated October 10, 1910. WILLIAM BLUNK, E. N. PASSAGE, Commissioners.

Commissioner's Notice.

In the matter of the estate of Elizabeth Micol, deceased. We, the undersigned, having been appointed by the Probate Court for the county of Wayne, State of Michigan, Commissioners to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against said deceased, do hereby give notice that we will meet at the store of W. W. Murray, in the village of Plymouth, in said county, on Wednesday, the 4th day of January, A. D. 1911, and on Monday, the 10th day of April, A. D. 1911, at ten o'clock A. M. of each of said days, for the purpose of examining and allowing said claims, and that six months from the 4th day of October, A. D. 1910, were allowed by said Court for creditors to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.

Dated October 10, 1910. PRESTON B. WHITEBECK, W. W. MURRAY, Commissioners.

60 YEARS' EXPERIENCE

PATENTS

Anyone sending a sketch and description will promptly ascertain our opinion free whether an invention is probably patentable. Communications strictly confidential. HARRISON & ROSS, Patent Attorneys, 605 Broadway, New York.

Scientific American.

A handsomely illustrated weekly. Largest circulation of any scientific journal. Terms, $5 per annum in advance. Sold by all news-dealers. Special notice, without charge, in the

W. W. Munn & Co. 605 Broadway, New York

R-I-P-A-N-S Tablets

Doctors find A good prescription For mankind

The best patent medicine for nasal, ocular, family bottles (50 cents) and a supply for a year. All druggists sell them.

SOME MAN SOME DAY

May Make a Medicine for Brights Disease, Rheumatism, Stomach and Bladder Trouble the Equal of SAN-JAK, BUT NOT YET.

It is the Only Medicine which Enables You to Keep a Perfect Balance Between the Eliminations and Renewals of the Body.

Decay of the Body in Old Age is Unnatural.

Permanent wastes of the system can be avoided by taking SAN-JAK, making each day a birthday for the person who has a bottle of this great medicine on hand. Read and learn how to cure Bright's Disease, Diabetes, Rheumatism, Lame Back and Stomach Diseases.

When the products of exhaustion reach the brain and deaden the nerve centers, as in the case with all old people, limiting their ability to think and act unless they have the power to oxidize the acids that accumulate during sleep and eliminate them, they had better get a bottle of Dr. Burnham's San-Jak. I am 80 years old and have kept a bottle of this medicine in my home during the past year and take a dose quite often so I know it helps to give strength and activity.—D. O. Kelly, 311 Washtenaw st., Lansing.

Mrs. J. M. Brown, mistress of the Butler House, Lansing, Mich., says: "One year ago I was in very poor health, sick and weak from that much dreaded disease, Kidney trouble, called 'Bright's disease' by physicians. I have been about one dozen bottles of San-Jak and no symptoms of old troubles to annoy me. Please this letter for the benefit it may be to others."

Dr. Burnham: "Your inquiry as to my health, in reply I have taken 8 bottles of your San-Jak and can cheerfully recommend it as the best medicine I ever found and the only one that cured me of diabetes. I am doing harder work than I ever did and I am perfectly well."

J. F. Roe of E. Main st., Battle Creek, says: "I wish to state that your San-Jak cured me of Bright's disease after the local doctors said I could not live."

E. S. Hough, ex-judge of probate of Lapeer county, says: "I bought a bottle of San-Jak of P. P. Shaw, the druggist of Lapeer. I felt I was 100 years old, with great distress of the stomach and a drowsy, sleepy feeling, which the medicine cured. A wonderfully permitted the use of this medicine for the benefit of others."

Lapeer, Mich., March 10, 1908. Mrs. T. S. Curtis, R. F. D. No. 2, Lapeer, says: "I wish to tell you how much your San-Jak has done for me. I have had the rheumatism and liver trouble 17 years. Sometimes my feet and limbs were swollen so I could not wear my shoes. I have taken one and one-half bottles of your remedy. The heat has all gone down. The pain gradually left and the stiff joints are getting more limber. I think 3 or 4 bottles of your San-Jak will cure me completely. Mere thanks in words is a feeble way of telling how grateful I feel for the benefits bestowed upon me by your medicine."

St. John's, Mich., March 12, 08. Mrs. John Fitz says: "I have been in very poor health for the last few years and have since childhood been afflicted with sick headache. I have taken 4 bottles of San-Jak and it has done me a wonderful good. I am now able to do light work and gaining in strength. I wish every lady in Michigan could have a bottle if she is weak and ailing, for I believe it is the greatest medicine in the world for the fact that my case was hopeless and my physicians said I could not be helped by medicine."

It restores the aged to health and youth. No remedy equal to San-Jak as a blood tonic. The tired feeling leaves you like magic.

We will give $100 to any church or charitable institution if these testimonials are not genuine.

Have you Kidney, Liver or Stomach Trouble?

Are you a Rheumatic, with Backache, Varicocele and Swollen Limbs?

Take Dr. Burnham's

San-Jak

Sold in Plymouth by

JOHN L. GALE,

dealer in drugs and groceries, who is reliable and will return the price of one bottle ($1.00) if San-Jak fails to do good. Made by San-Jak Co., Chicago, Illinois.

A Dainty Enameled Bedroom

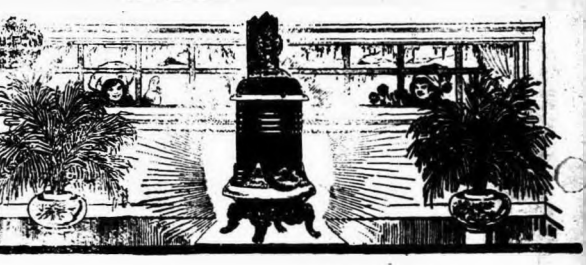

What could be prettier or more inviting than a dainty bedroom with walls, furniture and woodwork all enameled in white or some delicate tint to harmonize nicely with furnishings and draperies? Why not have one?

ACME QUALITY ENAMEL (Neal's)

gives that smooth, beautiful, genuine enamel surface so sanitary and so easy to keep bright and attractive. Anyone can apply it by following the simple directions.

If it's a surface to be painted, enameled, stained, varnished, or finished in any way there's an Acme Quality Kind to fit the purpose.

GAYDEBROS,

Cold Weather Has No Terror For the Children

When zero weather comes and the children return from play to find the home comfortable, that is the time you appreciate

Cole's Hot Blast Heater

It is without question the most economical heater made. The most "stay satisfactory" heater built. The heater you can depend upon to save fuel and give you steady, even heat, (comfort), for less money than any other—sold on a guarantee to save one-third or more fuel over any under-draft stove made—to hold fire from Saturday night until Monday morning with common soft coal—that the rooms can be heated for two hours in the morning with the fuel put in the night before.

Remember—over 60,000 of these heaters are sold every year and the trade is increasing.

Come in and see this best of all heaters. All sizes—price $12.00 and up.

HUSTON & CO.

Guaranteed under all Pure Food Laws

KC BAKING POWDER

Stands for Quality Economy Purity

In providing the family's meals, don't be satisfied with anything but the best. KC is guaranteed perfection at a moderate price. It makes everything better.

Try and see. Perfect or Money back.

Rent Receipt Book

Get them at The Mail Office