The best and most economical paint for you to use is that which will produce the best results in proportion to the cost. Poor paints cost almost as much per gallon as Peninsular Paints and they do not wear so long, nor cover so much surface.

Peninsular Paints

are economical. They save you money because they wear longer and cover more service per gallon. It doesn't take so many gallons of paint for the job. We have Peninsular for every purpose—houses, barns, roofs, floors, implements, etc. If it's a paint for the outside or inside, we have it and will be glad to show you colors and estimate quantities you require.

Earl Hoodmaker, 14 years old, was instantly killed shortly before noon Sunday while hunting, five miles south of South Lyon. The charge struck Earl in the face, tearing away half the side of his head.

A copy of the Detroit Advertiser and Tribune, issued August 8, 1862 was found one day this week by Frank Butler in the garret of the Orange Butler homestead west of this village. An account is also given of a meeting held in Plymouth, Mich., on August 5 of that year, for the purpose of raising subscriptions to help the Wayne county regiment. Three thousand dollars is named as the sum given, with the names and amounts subscribed.—Northville Record.

Working under directions of the Commercial club, the people of Howell raised $15,000 three years ago and secured the Ewer Wrench & Tool Manufacturing company. The directors have now called a meeting of stockholders to vote on a proposition to offer the whole property for sale to the highest bidder on May 8.

Experimental Station for Plymouth

George W. Hood of the horticultural department of the M. A. It was decided to establish a branch experimental station here for tomato culture, on the farm of George A. Raviller on the Plymouth road. One acre will be divided into plots of 1/2 acre each and will be devoted to fertilizer experiments, while another acre will be divided into plots of 1/2 acre each and devoted to spraying experiments for the control of the blight, which has caused considerable trouble to growers of tomatoes here. The experiments will be watched with considerable interest by the growers of this vicinity, and there is little doubt but what the establishing of the branch station here will be of great benefit to those interested in tomato culture.

NEWS FROM THE STATE CAPITOL

WAYS AND MEANS COMMITTEE TURNS DOWN INCREASE FOR COLLEGE

BOTH HOUSES WILL FINALLY ADJOURN APRIL 25

Measure Providing for Double Award for Counties Building Roads Along the Trunk Line Plan is Reported Out

By Gurd M. Hayes

The ways and means committee of the house has refused to increase the appropriation of the Michigan Agricultural College and as a result the institution will have to worry along on $250,000 per year. However, Senator Fred Woodworth, of Huron, who has always been a warm friend of the institution, but is opposed to President J. L. Snyder and his policies, has introduced another bill to give the college $300,000 and he says that there is some chance that he will be able to get it through.

Both houses of the legislature will formally adjourn April 25 and the date of the final adjournment has been set for May 10. With the date of adjournment fixed, the house has the main work of the session to handle in the remaining few days.

Only a few appropriation bills have been reported out and there is the biggest mass of undigested legislation stacked around, in the history of the house. Two years ago the house fixed a date for adjournment under similar circumstances and then, while the senate chucked, worked in a frenzy to get through. In consequence many bills were enacted into law with practically no attention paid to their terms. The reappointment of congressional districts is an unsolved problem; the revision of the primary system has not been considered; the laws necessary to put into effect the initiative, referendum and recall, and other important matters are still in the air.

In the substitute bill reported out by the house committee on roads and bridges, the state trunk line highway plan of Senator Aldrich's bill is abandoned for a system based upon double award.

The measure is based upon the idea that where counties construct state trunk line roads along the plan of the trunk line highway system outlined in the Alliswade bill they will be entitled to double the reward that would be paid for ordinary good road work. In this way development of the trunk lines is to be stimulated. In the original bill the auto tax was to be divided and half to go to repay a bond issue which was to be authorized for the trunk line highway building.

Under the substitute bill any county that builds two miles or more on the trunk line plan will be entitled to double award. In counties where three or more miles are built by the county, the state will pay half the expense of erecting bridges and all bridges and culverts will be designed by the state.

Following are the routes prescribed by the bill:

to be specified by the highway department to the Soo.

Beginning at Escanaba running north through Marquette, Soudan, Ishpeming, Michigan Lake, L'Anse and Baraga to Calumet.

Governor Ferris has sent a message to the legislature urging the acceptance of the offer of R. Hansan, of Grayling, who would present to the state 15,000 acres of land in Crawford county as a permanent camp site for the Michigan National Guard.

Deer hunters may kill two deer in the woods of Michigan under a bill which passed the house, but one of the deer must be a buck. The bill had passed the senate limiting the number to one horned deer. The house first amended the bill to eliminate the prohibition of does and then added an amendment allowing hunters two deer. Later an amendment was made requiring that one of the deer must have horns.

The Whelan bill providing for the pensioning of school teachers has been approved by the house in committee of the whole and is expected to pass on third reading. After the house ascertained that the teachers themselves propose to furnish most of the funds, there was no concerted opposition to the measure.

Rep. E. T. Middleton, who attacked the committee on ways and means and handed some hot shot to Rep. D. G. F. Warner, made a complete apology for his rash statement and the house immediately rescinded its resolution calling for an investigation of Middleton's charges.

Speaker Currie acted as one of the peacemakers in the controversy and friends of Rep. Middleton urged him to accept the earliest way out of a bad situation.

It is understood that some of the suffrage supporters in the legislature are already planning to introduce another resolution which they hope will pass in order that the suffrage amendment may be submitted again in 1914. However, many members of the house and senate who voted to submit the suffrage question this spring declare that the people have emphatically declared against it, the second time by an overwhelming majority and they refuse to consider the question again during the present session.

Through its convenience in the amendments attached by the house, the senate has virtually made the Verdier leaders pivot a law it now only requires the signature of the governor. This is the bill providing the $1 fee for resident hunters and a $25 fee for non-resident hunters.

The house amended the measure to exempt those who confine their hunting to their own counties. Senator Verdier said to the senate when the bill was returned from the house that while the amendment was not satisfactory and unquestionably affects the breadth and intent of the proposal, he was convinced it was the best measure the people could expect from the house and recommended that the amendments be concurred in. The senate concurred by unanimous vote.

The senate has passed the Santo bill providing for changes in the fire insurance law to permit companies to accept risks of greater value than 10 per cent of the capital stock of the insuring company providing the excess risk is re-insured.

This bill is to take care of the big industrial concerns in Michigan who object to distributing fire insurance, but are so large as to be beyond the 10 per cent limitation prescribed by law. Senator Woodcock, of Saginaw, voiced his opposition to the law, but no one stood with him. The vote was 20 to 1.

Senator King's bill providing that boards of education may have the authority to proceed in case of violation of the anti-high school secret society law was passed by the senate. The Crasper bill, already passed in the house prohibiting fraud and deception in the manufacture of cheese was passed by the senate. This is one of State Dairy and Food Commissioner Helme's bills.

In committee of the whole the senate agreed to the bill providing for the licensing of itinerant and transient vendors. The interests of the local retail dealers were strenuously supported by several of the senators. Senator Woodworth, of Huron, suggested that the interests of the consumer might better be given a little thought and Senator McGregor adds that anything tending to decrease the cost of living was worthy of consideration.

Rep. Dunn's uniform text book bill which had reposed on the table since it was defeated by the tie vote of 42 to 42, gained three more votes on a test of strength when it was taken up again, but now it is hopelessly buried and will not come up for consideration again this session. Rep. Young had it taken from the table and attempted to have it amended to take in cities of 5,000 or more. The amendment was promptly beaten and before anyone could enter into a lengthy discussion, the previous question was moved. The bill failed, the vote being 45 to 41.

Woman Who Can Do Things.

Gen. Sir Robert Baden-Powell believes in the woman who can do things, and the other day he held up Lady Baden-Powell as an exponent of this much-desired art. The chief and founder of the Boy Scout movement was describing a tour that his wife and he recently made in Algeria. "I saw Lady Baden-Powell," he said, "not so long ago in—what is the feminine for shirt sleeves?—scrubbing out a sauceman. We were living the simple life in the desert. We had only one pan, and that was a sauceman. It had to do for frying our fish in the morning and also for boiling our coffee in. After the lady had done the fried fish she had to get some grass roots and sand and scrub the pot out so that we could make our coffee in it. The lady was quite able to do it, and she did it well. She also did the washing. But," General Baden-Powell added, "I must stand up for the Scouts and the mere man—she had to fall back upon me to do the ironing."

PIMPLES COVERED FACE

1613 Dayton St., Chicago, Ill.—"My face was very red and irritated and was covered with pimples. The pimples festered and came to a head. They itched and burned, and when I scratched them became sore. I tried soaps and they would not stop the itching and burning of the skin. This lasted for a month or more. At last I tried Cuticura Ointment and Soap. They took out the burning and itching of the skin, soothing it very much and giving the relief that the others failed to give me. I used the Cuticura Soap and Ointment about three weeks and was completely cured." (Signed) Miss Clara Mueller, Mar. 16, 1912.

Soda Lake in Africa.

In English East Africa is the richest bed of soda in the world. Engineers say that it contains 200,000,000 tons. The lake has a surface of more than fifty square kilometers. During the rainy season, which in this locality is short, its surface is covered with a shallow layer of water. When a block of soda is taken out, another forms, and the natives say that this occurs so quickly that an equal amount of soda may be abstracted for a number of years from the same place.—Harper's Weekly.

Dayton Has Had Six Floods.

Dayton, O., has stood in the shadow of disaster from flood ever since its foundation. No less than six times previous to the present inundation have the rivers which flow through it left their accustomed courses and brought death and destruction of property upon the town. The first of these floods occurred in 1805, the very year that Dayton was incorporated as a town. The sixth was in 1898 and the others in the years 1847, 1863, 1868 and 1886.

"Oh, So Sudden."

He was not a rapid wooer, and she was getting somewhat anxious. A persistent rug came at the front door. "Oh, bother!" she said. "Who can be calling?"

"Say you're out," he suggested.

"Oh, no, that would be untrue," she protested.

"Then say you are engaged," he urged.

"Oh, may I, Charlie?" she cried, as she fell into his arms.

And the man kept on ringing the front door bell.

Land Value Almost Doubled

HEN a Lee county, Illinois, farmer bought a run down 400-acre farm, his neighbors thought he had made a bad bargain. After three years' soil treatment by scientific methods, he raised more than eighty bushels of corn to the acre on land that produced less than thirty bushels the first year he farmed it.

It is no longer unusual for us to get reports from farmers who have been using manure spreaders consistently for periods ranging from three to five years, to the effect that their land is regularly raising so much more produce that the value of the land is almost doubled.

I H C Manure Spreaders are made in various styles and sizes to meet all conditions. The low machines are not too low to be hauled, loaded, through deep mud or snow. I H C spreaders are made with trussed steel frames in wide, medium and narrow styles; all of guaranteed capacity. There are both return and endless aprons. In short, there is an I H C spreader built to meet your conditions and made to spread manure, straw, lime, or ashes as required.

I H C spreaders will spread manure evenly on the level, going up hill, or down. The wheel rims are wide and equipped with Z-shaped lugs, which provide ample tractive power. The rear axle is located well under the body and carries most of the load. The apron moves on large rollers. The beater drive is positive, but the chain wears only one side. The I H C dealer will show you the most effective machine for your work. You can get catalogues from him, or, if you prefer, write

Rain! It surely did, but the annual meeting was held last Thursday with 65 in attendance, which included members and visitors, which made it evident that the interest in our work was by no means declining. We were disappointed in not seeing our Northville friends, but the District President, Mrs. Jones was there and gave us a very interesting address. Among other good things she said was that the women of Detroit were very active and they had succeeded in getting liquors banished from Belle Isle, which was certainly encouraging. The reports of our work here were cheering and we had an excellent meeting. Those who furnished the music are deserving of a great deal of credit. The following officers were elected for the coming year:

President—Mrs. Jennie Voorhies
Cor. Sec.—Mrs. M. A. Patterson
Rec. Sec.—Mrs. S. E. Campbell
Treasurer—Mrs. Frank Shattuck

A pleasant social hour followed and those who went home in the rain did not find their spirits dampened if their clothing was, but will go on with the work as before. The next meeting, April 21, will be held with Mrs. C. A. Bunyee and the leaders are Mrs. M. A. Patterson and Mrs. R. Lane. They will tell us why a campaign should cost money and all about the tariff. Current events will also be given.—Supt. Pres.

The Reo Auto Trucks

Does the Work of three Horses
Cuts Delivery Cost in two

What R. E. Olds the designer says:

Model J Truck, Price $1,950

Right opposite my factory is a milling concern. One of the first that I made was put into use there, right where I could watch its performance. I now have a year's record on it. The repair cost in that time was exactly $50.42.

At my request they made an 18-day test, comparing the truck with horses. The results were these. The truck that time made 418 deliveries; the horses made 131. The truck covered 580 miles; the horses covered 110. I then in put these trucks into use here in Lansing in 11 different lines of business. I sent some more to a hilly country. I put forty into use in Portland, Oregon. I put some into rural delivery in sections where the roads were abominable. And I asked the users to watch and report the costs and result as compared with a horse. About two thousand have been thus tested out, and the tests have covered over a year. The following figures show the average conclusion on cost and result as nearly as I can obtain it.

Cost per Month for Delivery by Reo Truck
Amount of investment	$750.00
One driver one month	50.00
Gasoline and oil	13.15
Tire allowance	2.40
Interest on $750 at 6%	3.75
Depreciation at 20% per year	12.50
Painting and repairing at $50.42 per year	4.20
Total cost per month	$86.10
Possible per diem mileage Reo truck	70 mi.
Possible per diem mileage horse drawn wagon	25 mi.

Cost per month for Two Horse-Drawn Trucks
Amount of investment	$650.00
That's for two horses, two wagons and two sets of harness
Two drivers one month	100.00
Feeding two horses at $9.50 each	19.00
Shoeing two horses at $1.50 each	3.00
Setting tires, repairing and painting two wagons at $15 each per year	2.50
Repairing harness, two sets at $5 per year	.83
Interest on $650 at 6%	3.25
Depreciation and loss on two horses at $2.50 each	5.00
Depreciation on wagons and harnesses	2.00
Total cost per month	$135.58

Reo Light Delivery Truck, Express Body—Price, $750
Too $50 extra

Those figures mean this: Two horse-drawn wagons cost $49.48 per month more—which is 60% more than a Reo truck. Yet the truck can cover almost as much mileage as three horse-drawn wagons together. Delivering by horse costs, on the average, about 2 1/2 times what it costs with a Reo truck. In addition to that one must consider the very hot days when horses are almost helpless. The deep snow days when wagon traffic is blocked. The bad-road sections where full loads are impossible. No such conditions face a Reo truck. One must also consider the good-will which comes from making quick deliveries. The wider field—the larger trade—which a Reo truck can cover. The difference is so great too be disregarded. The dollars-and-cents arguments in favor of the truck are simply overwhelming.

Reo Light Delivery Truck, Stake Body—Price, $750

HAPPENINGS IN THE CITIES

Desperate Criminal Record at Eight Years of Age

KANSAS CITY, MO.—They call him "Old Man." His age is 8 years. He has a desperate criminal record.

In fact, he has been stealing horses since he was 4 years old.

He is 3 feet 6 inches tall and his complete name is R. B. Grant. When he isn't called "Old Man," he is known as "R. B." He was arrested the other morning near the city market by a policeman almost twice as tall as himself, for his fourth or fifth venture in horse stealing.

With him was a partner in crime. A small, brunette partner—a negro boy, Roy Warren, 6 years old, escaped from St. Simon's Home.

William Mertz did the arresting and he had to stoop over to collar the malefactor properly.

After the youngsters had been held up in front of the desk so the desk sergeant could "book" them they were taken over to the Detention Home.

And there Doctor Mathias doesn't know what to do with them. Particularly with "Old Man" Grant. St. Simon's will take the dusky Roy back again.

But "Old Man"—
Take a look at his juvenile court record.

First charge, pouring coal oil on kiltens.

Second, hitting a woman in the eye with a ball and malice aforethought.

Third, fourth, fifth and several more times, throwing stones through the windows of passenger trains.

Quarrelling with the neighbors and cursing dreadfully.

Stealing a baseball glove from a drug store; also balls and tops.

"And he's been at headquarters four times for stealing horses," Capt. Thomas Flahive said. "Horses and wagons. He stole a horse and wagon when he was only 4 years old, and drove it away. He hasn't started selling 'em yet. Just drives around until he gets tired and then gets out and leaves 'em wherever they happen to be."

Speaking further, Captain Flahive said "Old Man" Grant was the most amazing liar he ever had met, and he had met quite a few liars.

"He has a wonderful imagination," he said, "and when it comes to making up explanations he's a wonder."

"Old Man" Grant lives with his granny at Third and Campbell streets. She is 80 years old, and "Old Man" is too many for her. It seems the authorities tried to wish him on Marshall, Mo., some time ago. They sent him to relatives there. But "Old Man" plied for an urban life, and when he plied, he just got on a train and came back here.

Woman Knocks a Pipe From Car Smoker's Mouth

NEW YORK.—Street car conductors in New York who do not know how to make a man quit smoking on the platform of their cars in violation of the rules of the company should apply to Mrs. Sidney de Kay for instruction. Mrs. de Kay lives at No. 50 West Ninth street and is the mother of Eckford C. de Kay, who was military secretary to Governor Dix. The other night she caused the arrest of Robert Leslie, who said he was a carpenter, thirty-three years old, living at No. 316 West Twenty-Eighth street. Mrs. de Kay assured the police she would be on hand to press the complaint when Leslie was brought into police court.

black smoke," but used language which Mrs. de Kay considered improper. Without apparent cause for assistance from the conductor or others, she thereupon knocked the pipe from Leslie's mouth.

In the hubbub that followed, Police man Dusan of the Charles street station appeared and arrested Leslie and took him to the police station. Mrs. de Kay was only too glad to follow. Leslie insisted that he had been assaulted and wanted Lieutenant Lyon to entertain such a charge against Mrs. de Kay. The lieutenant heard Mrs. de Kay's version of the incident and refused to enter any charge against her.

Later, it was said, Leslie was found to be suffering from "asthma" and was sent to St. Vincent's hospital, but soon afterward he was locked up.

Desecrate the Graves of Cyrtoceras Nashvillense

INDIANAPOLIS, IND.—Hist, thou! Step not on that cyrtoceras nashvillense.

Be careful there! You are about to place your foot on that pteroceras corymbosus, and do not step to the right or your No. 10 will cover that cyrtoceras benedict.

There are all kinds of animals imbedded in Indianapolis sidewalks, and pedestrians step on them every day without the interference of the Indianapolis Humane society. The Humane society, perhaps does not know that these animals are the targets for hundreds of thousands of feet, and it really makes no difference, for they have been dead these many years—1,000 years perhaps, or even 100,000 or 1,000,000 years, for no one knows and few will dispute the statement.

Again the Humane society is excused for inactivity because these animals are not present in living form, but as fossils and they really form a part of the flag stones on which the pavements are constructed.

Flag stones of Niagara limestone were placed in front of the building occupied by the Fletcher Trust company a score of years ago and since that time countless feet have passed over the pavements. Countless eyes have scanned the smooth surfaces for chance to catch a glimpse of a lost, strayed or stolen coin, but few persons have observed the fossils lying imbedded in the rock.

What many have considered ridges in the stone are said by scientists to be fossils or prehistoric animals or plants. One of the common types found in Niagara limestone is the fossil of the cyrtoceras benedict, named in honor of A. C. Benedict of Indianapolis because he first discovered the species.

"Slim's Most Drastic Treatment for a Balky Mule

ST. LOUIS.—A courteous and obliging young man who acknowledged to the soubriquet of "Slim" showed John Hofferin, a teamster, of 723 Easton avenue, how to imbue a balky mule with an ambition to proceed—and keep proceeding.

Hofferin was driving a team of mules to a load of gravel, when at Chouteau and Rankin avenues, one of the Missouri's prides, evidenced a desire to sit down and rest.

At this juncture "Slim" hove into view, announced his monicker and confided that persuading balky mules to resume their mission in life was about the longest suit he boasted of. Hofferin breathed a sigh of relief, looked incredulous, but mounted the wagon and waited.

"Slim" stepped to the mule's side, spoke something about the necessity of Democrats sticking together and pulling for the common cause, and gave it four resounding smacks on the flank with his hand.

The mule immediately started away in an excited trot and Hofferin was so surprised he nearly fell off the wagon. Ten blocks farther he noticed the mule moving queerly and noticed a red stain along the pavement. He investigated and found the animal had been stabbed four times in the flank and was bleeding profusely.

The police are inquiring for "Slim" in order to learn more about his persuasive methods.

Trawlers Hurt the Telephone.

Some difficulty is being experienced by the Japanese telegraph service owing to the damage caused to the submarine cables off the coast of Japan by fishing trawlers. Owing to the profitable nature of the business, there has recently been a large increase in the number of trawlers, with the result that an interruption of the cable service is frequently caused. The authorities of the government telegraphs and agricultural departments are at present conferring as to the steps to be taken to overcome the difficulty.

Thomas Jefferson's Inventions.

Thomas Jefferson invented the folding camp stool, the revolving office chair, the two-wheeled sulky, the copying press, the pedometer, a hemp lamp and a very convenient improvement on the plows used in his day. Of all these ingenious contrivances the plow received the greatest notice—a gold medal having been awarded it in Paris in 1790. Eighteen years later the Royal Agricultural Society, of the Seine, to which he had presented the original plow, sent him a superb, up-to-date plow containing his improvement.

Kingly Life.

And so the kingly life is a life in quest of big things. Everyone is painfully familiar with the temptation to fritter away life in interests that are small and mean. There are those who spend their strength in seeking money. The concentrated purpose of their days is a quest for gold. They are zealous for artificial gems and they miss the goodly pearls.—J. H. Lowett, D.D.

Why should we be in such desperate haste to succeed, and in such desperate enterprises? If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Queen Victoria Detected Tobacco.

The number of smoking rooms now distributed over Windsor castle would considerably astonish Queen Victoria could she but see them. Her late majesty could never bring herself to do more than tolerate the weed in any form, and the smoking room was always relegated to a very distant part of her various residences. Nor were the guests permitted to smoke themselves with a quiet smoke in their own apartments, as on their arrival they were specially warned not to do so.

Tut! Tut!

"Milligan's back from the cure. I saw him this morning and he looked as though he had a dash of spirit in him." "Yes, I saw him this afternoon, and he looked as though it was a quart."

Frightened by Meteor's Fall.

The flash of a ten-ton meteor, its tail seemingly hundreds of yards long, lighted up the Allegheny Valley for three miles, the other day, just above Pittsburgh, as it fell. Residents of nearby hamlets ran from their homes in fright. The next day the mass of substance was smoking hot and incandescent in places.

Still, As Servants Go, Old.

Mrs. Heath sniffed sardoniously when her sister happened to mention, with considerable awe, a certain neighbor. "Daisy!" the married woman exclaimed. "Why Daisy should speak of her help as 'old family servants' I can't imagine!" "But why shouldn't she, if she wants to?" inquired the sister. "Because the one she's had longest is her cook, and so far, she's stayed six months!"—Youth's Companion.

Cross Section of the Wilson Tire and Demountable Rim

This cut is reduced to one-half actual size. The tire cannot be punctured because there are 3 1/2 inches of the flexible rubber tread between the ground and the inner air tube. Illustration: The dark portion is the Flexible Rubber Tread, made all in one piece. The light portion is the ordinary inner Air Tube, now in common use in other pneumatic tires. The outer tread surrounds the inner tube and both are held in place by steel rims. These rims are made of Vanadium steel and are attached to the felloe of the wheel by a quick demountable device. They are firmly held in their relative positions with double shouldered steel pins passing through steel lined openings in the tread, near the periphery, shouldering against the steel rims and being held rigid by a round nut on the outside. Note where the shoulders on the rubber tread, seat against the inward curve of the rim, thus preventing the air pressure from forcing the tread outwardly beyond a certain point. It is impossible to throw this tread off the wheel.

BABY KIDNAPS HER GREAT-GRANDMA

"Billie" Harvey Gives 72-Year-Old Relative Trip on a Chicago Boulevard.

HURLS "COP" ASIDE

Two-Year-Old Girl, Who Had Ridden Before, Starts Electric Machine That Never Stops Until it Dashes into Plate Glass Window.

Chicago.—Miss Billie Harvey, who is the daughter of Mrs. W. F. Harvey, and who is one year and eleven months old, took her great-grandmother, Mrs. Mary Harrison, who is seventy-two, out joy riding the other day. It was an exceedingly exciting occasion for Mrs. Harrison. Billie herself didn't notice the excitement until afterward. That was when her mother got her home. If one is to judge merely from sounds Billie was considerably excited.

The net results of the excursion were as follows:

- One family trunk chaise longue.
- One highly damaged electric auto.
- One broken plate glass window.
- One badly damaged pack policeman.
- One case of hysterics, acquired by Billie's mother.
- One case of hysterics, acquired by Billie's grandmother.
- One badly frightened and much shaken great-grandmother.

There were four in the party when Billie started out for the joy ride. They included Miss Billie, Miss Billie's mother, who is Mrs. Harvey; her grandmother, who is Mrs. William D. McJunkin, and her great-grandmother, who is Mrs. Harrison. You see there were four generations, all seated quietly together in an electric runabout. The party left the McJunkin residence at 932 Margate terrace and set forth down Sheridan road to do a little shopping.

At Irving Park boulevard Grandmother McJunkin and Mother Harvey got out. Theoretically that left Great-Grandmother Harrison in charge of the auto. The theory, however, was fallacious. As a matter of fact Great-Grandmother Harrison knew nothing whatever about an automobile. With Miss Billie it was different. She had been riding with her mother many times. She had watched her mother operate the car. She knew just how her mother pulled the pearl handled dials on the thingamabob attached to the fiver mounted what-you-call-it. Billie didn't know much about an auto but that, but she knew that thoroughly.

So while great-grandmother sat blissfully unconscious of the impending catastrophe Miss Billie proceeded to toy artfully with the thingamabob and the what-you-call-it. Her operations brought prompt results. The car started with a jerk. Great-grandmother woke up with a scream. Miss Billie gulped. But the auto kept on. Meanwhile mother and grandmother had heard great-grandmother's screams. They were in the street in an instant. They saw the runabout careening down Sheridan road. They raised frenzied outcries. But the auto kept right on going.

It was at this point that Park Policeman Coleman projected himself into the scene. Calmly and bravely he confronted the oncoming auto. Calmly and imperiously the auto-skated Policeman Coleman spoke.

The car passed on. Policeman Coleman picked himself up, mother and grandmother followed, screaming. The procession had moved down Sheridan road for some distance when the car suddenly swerved to the curb. It mounted the curb, crossed the sidewalk, and headed for a plate glass window. It went through the plate glass window and encountered the showcase. There it stopped.

Miss Billie was found to be highly delighted with her experience when they lifted her out of the car. Great-grandmother had to be lifted out for other reasons. She was badly scared. The car was extricated from the window and found to be practically unhurt. The four generations entered and moved in good order back to the McJunkin residence.

Meat-Eating Nations.
Australians and New Zealanders are the greatest meat eaters in the world. The former eat 262 pounds of meat a year each and the latter 212 pounds. Americans eat 185 pounds and the British only 130 pounds.

Hopeful.
"Bobby," said Mr. Tadley to his young son, angrily, "my father always whipped me when I behaved as badly as you are doing." "Well," answered Bobby, thoughtfully, "I hope I'll never have to tell my little boy that."

Beyond All Hope.
There is hope for the man with unsettled opinions about settled subjects; none for the man with settled opinions about unsettled subjects.

Soaking Sapleigh.
Sapleigh—"Clever? Oh, very! Why, she has brains enough for two." Miss Keen—"Then she's just the girl you ought to marry."

Too Late Now.
"They say Blunderby fell in love with his wife at first sight." "Yes, and only the other day I heard him wish that he had been gifted with second sight."

Bringing Him to the Point.
His Father—Look here, young man, you've been hanging about here long enough; choose quickly—either my daughter's hand or her father's foot.

First-Be-Sure-You-Are-Right.
Do not exchange a sure thing for a gamble. Never change your employers or your business unless you are sure your choice was a mistake.—A. C. Bartlett.

Bricks Without Straw.
Editor (to artist who hasn't had a square meal in a month)—"Your cartoons are too serious; we want pictures that make people laugh."—Life.

Accepted.
"Dearest," ecstatically murmured the enamoured poet, "don't you think we would make a good couplet?" "Ah," sighed the dear girl, nestling still closer, "I am not averse."

Big Letters on Green Paper.
Griggs—"Say, did your wife ever find any letters in your pocket and raise a row?" Briggs—"She found X's and Y's there, but she always kept quiet about it."

Impossibility.
Dr. Grabbe had almost succeeded in dismissing Mrs. Gersoway when she stopped in the doorway, exclaiming: "Why, doctor, you didn't look to see if my tongue was coated." "I know it isn't," said the doctor wearily. "You never find grass on a race track."

Progress.
Every particle of progress that has ever been made has been the product of people who have love for their work and who by loving their work, have climbed above the mass and, by climbing themselves have developed power to stand.—James Logan.

Meaning of Silver Potato Ring.
A silver potato ring was among the gifts at a recent prominent wedding in Ireland. The potato ring, it is said, was commonly used on the Irish dinner table in the eighteenth century as a support for the big wooden bowl which held the piece de resistance of the family dinner—the potato.

To Restore Wet Shoes.
Wet shoes may be prevented from becoming hard by rubbing them with vaseline after cleaning them and setting them away for a day. This also prevents the leather from cracking.

Stumbling Block for Artists.
You cannot be affected by beauty and goodness and unaffected by ugliness and sin. That is why artists are apt to sink so low—ugliness and sin are so obstructive.

Awkward Compliment.
She—"I envy Miss Payne. She plays so well that one forgets how she looks." He—"But you look so well that one forgets how you play."

Volunteer Aid.
"James, there's a burglar downstairs. I'm going for help." "Wait a minute. I'll go with you."—Harper's Magazine.

The Better Man.
I would rather have a man who sometimes caught fire at the wrong time than one so damp and lumpy that you could never get a spark of enthusiasm out of him.—Henry Van Dyke.

When to Judge a Man.
There is an ancient saying, famous among men, that thou shouldst not judge fully of a man's life before he die, whether it should be called blest or wretched.—Sophocles.

Simple Remedy for Burns.
Common whitening, mixed with water to the consistency of a thick cream spread on linen, forms an excellent local application to burns and scalds. The whole burnt surface should be covered, thus excluding the action of the air. The ease it affords is instantaneous, and it only requires to be kept moist by occasional sprinkling of cold water.

Why He Was Glad.
The man with the long beard stood pensively at the curbing gazing at the passing traffic in the street. "I hail with delight the advent of the automobile," he muttered aloud, "for no longer need I fear crossing the street lest some hungry horse mistake me for a walking bale of hay."

Immense Auto Industry.
Few persons, however well they may be informed about the vast extent of the automobile industry, would estimate the consumption of cotton in making fabrics for motor vehicle tops and tires at anything like the true figures, which are about 1,500,000 bales.

Use Sea Water in Baking.
The local papers are complaining about the size of the bread sold by the froggish bakers, who, besides charging two and one-half cents for a loaf of bread of 22 grams weight, it is said are using sea water in their bakeries.—From the West Coast Leader, Lima, Peru.

When the Sun Will Die.
It may be said unqualifiedly that the sun, like every other thing connected with the present order, will finally cease to be what it is today. The time will most surely come when the sun will have ceased to throw off light and heat. Long before that happens, however, the earth and other planets will have become "dead worlds," like the moon—no life of any sort upon them. It has been calculated that the sun will cease to throw out its heat somewhere about seven million of years from now.

Delicately Expressed.
Charley had never seen his Aunt Ellen before. She had lived several years in England, and had returned to Boston an ardent suffragette. "Well, Charley, how do you like Aunt Ellen?" asked his mother. "Oh, I like her all right," he answered, "but I think she's an awfully gentlemanly lady—don't you?"—Youth's Companion.

Briga-Brac.
One charming housewife has in her parlor a little cabinet with leaded glass doors, in which she keeps extra vases for flowers, photographs of friends, interesting postcards, and the keepsakes that too frequently litter the living rooms of the family. Here they are close at hand, and free from dust, while her rooms are doubly attractive because of their absence. Some such plan is practicable in every house.

Available Womanhood.
"The American nation will have lost considerably by having utilized in the production a mere material wealth the best years of a great part of its available womanhood, when the nation itself is so much in need of sons and daughters born under the flag and reared in the traditions of all that has made the United States progressive, powerful and enduring."—Sir Thomas Oliver.

Animals Hate Solitude.
In all the animal world there is no voluntary recluse or hermit. No animal, whether wild or domestic, ever likes to be alone for very long at a time. Even the birds, of all kinds and species, hate solitude. Parrots, particularly, and all gregarious birds of the tropics begin to mope and pine away if kept in solitary captivity.—St. Nicholas.

Musical Criticism.
A western musical critic thus speaks of a prima donna: "She had, and we suppose, still retains, a magnificent voice for a fog whistle. Its compass was perfectly surprising. She would shake the chandelier with a wild whoop that made every man instinctively feel for his scalp, and follow it up with a roar that would shame a bassoon."

Knew What He Was Doing.
"I do not see that you are practicing economy by buying a fifteen-dollar handbag for your wife." "Its interior is so complex that by the time she finds money for street car fare her companion will have paid for her."—Buffalo Express.

For Cane Seats.
When cane bottomed seats sag, sponge both sides of the cane with hot soapuds in which a handful of salt has been dissolved, then stand the chair in the open air. Treated like this, the seats will become as firm as when new, shrinking into place.

Appreciate Your Blessings.
Don't kick because you have to button your wife's waist. Be glad your wife has a waist, and doubly glad you have a wife to button a waist for. Some men's wives' waists have no buttons on to button. Some men's wives' waists who have buttons on to button don't care a continental whether they are buttoned or not. Some men don't have any wives with waists with buttons on to button.—Teague (Tex.) Chronicle.

Gigantic Bog Oak Tree.
Twenty tons of bog oak were recently unearthed at Llanwrtyd Wells, Wales. It measured 48 feet long with a diameter of 2 feet 9 inches. This giant oak tree is by far the largest which has been found within memory on the peat land near Llanwrtyd. Portions of it have been exposed for some years, but no one thought of such dimensions and no interest was taken in it until a few days ago.

May Ward Off Pneumonia.
Here is a recipe which a physician gave me several years ago, says a writer, and I have used it in my family ever since. For coughs, colds or any bronchial trouble saturate a flannel cloth and apply to chest: Turpentine liniment—Take a pint bottle, put in white of one egg, shake well, add four tablespoonfuls turpentine, shake till foamy, then fill with oil and shake well.

All things come to him who waits, including invitations to his best girl's wedding.—Puck.

How Paris Helps Poor.
The fact that the receipts of Paris theaters have more than doubled in the last twenty years is a good thing for the Paris poor, since every buyer of a theater ticket in Paris has to pay a ten per cent tax for the poor, the total amount of which for the last year was $1,500,000.

What Luck!
Fond Mama—"What have you in your apron?" Daughter (breathlessly)—"O, mama, such good luck! Clara Gray's cat had six kittens and her mama would only let her keep one, so she gave me the other five!"—Judge.

Call for Men of High Ideals.
Let us devote ourselves to those great objects that are fit for our consideration and our action; let us raise our conceptions to the magnitude and the importance of the duties that devolve upon us; let our comprehension be as broad as the country for which we act, our aspirations as high as its certain destiny; let us not be pygmies in a case that calls for men.—Daniel Webster.

Work, or You're Nobody.
A young Englishman who came to this country to enter business wrote to his father that he was making good in his work, and that America was a remarkably bustling and progressive place. "You simply must work or you're not in it," he wrote. "You must be busy, if you want to win out. It doesn't matter so much what you work at, but you must work."

Shorthand Not Modern Invention.
Shorthand was in use centuries before Pittman. In the fourth century "Acis of St. Callistratus," the compiler states: "There is a certain scribe of the law courts who listened to the discourses of Callistratus and wrote them down in shorthand on paper, and gave us, and we set in order with all accuracy his record outlined."

Included Them All.
A pair of mules, driven by a lout, accompanied a crossing copper. The driver did not understand the traffic signals and soon was causing a congestion. The copper walked up, grabbed a bridge and exclaimed: "Come on here, the three of you!"

Personal Interest.
Let your customer know that a personal interest attaches to him—a real personal interest that is not measured wholly by his orders and his dollars—and you will win in return that close personal association and active support that builds up business.—Exchange.

As a Last Resort.
"Should a girl propose to a bashful suitor?" "Not until she has tried everything else. Ask him if he is going to invite you to his wedding. That usually starts something."

German Use of Potatoes.
Potatoes are dried in slices, chips and flakes in Germany for feeding to cattle, swine and sheep and hundreds of thousands of tons are consumed in that way.

Studebaker

“Such shipments mean Studebaker has the confidence of the farmer”

Every year over one hundred thousand horse-drawn vehicles are sold by Studebaker. Over a million Studebaker vehicles are always in use. Stop and think what that means.

This enormous output means that Farmers—the men who know—depend upon Studebaker wagons to do their work.

And a Studebaker wagon never fails. It is always ready to do a big day's work—and to keep on doing it. There are thousands of Studebaker wagons that have been in service from 20 to 40 years.

A Studebaker wagon is a real business asset. Wheels, body, frame, axles and running gear have been tested and rested by experts. You can buy cheaper wagons but they're not Studebakers, nor will they last like Studebaker wagons.

Whether in city, town or country, for business or pleasure, there is a Studebaker vehicle to meet your requirements. Farm wagons, trucks, contractors' wagons, buggies, surreys, ramboulets, pony carriages, business and delivery wagons—each the best of its kind. Studebaker harness also, of every description.

Microbes in Your Scalp

Authorities say that a microbe causes baldness. If you are losing hair try our remedy at our risk.

Professor Dana, of Germany, and Dr. Sabouraud, the great French Dermatologist, claim that a microbe causes baldness, and their theory has been verified by eminent scientists. This microbe destroys the hair follicles, thus causing the scalp pores to close and the scalp to become shiny. Then, it is believed nothing will revive the growth. If treated before this occurs, baldness may be overcome.

We know of nothing that has given such universal satisfaction in treating the scalp and hair as Rexall's "93" Hair Tonic. It has been designed after long study to overcome the cause of falling hair as discovered by Prof. Dana, Dr. Sabouraud and other scalp and hair specialists, and we believe it will do more than anything else—an to remove dandruff and stop falling hair, and if any human agency can promote a new growth of hair it will do that, too.

We want you to make us prove it. We will pay for a month's treatment of Rexall's "93" Hair Tonic used during a trial, if you will use it according to directions, and are not thoroughly satisfied. When we will do this, you surely should not hesitate to at least try it.

Start the treatment today. Your mere request will get your money back if you want it. Two sizes: 50c and $1.00.

You can buy Rexall's "93" Hair Tonic in this community only at our store:

NEWBURG.

The Sunday-school convention held at Newburg hall Sunday was a decided success. There was four Sunday-schools represented, the Peiron, Livonia, Elm and Newburg. The subjects taken up by the different speakers were interesting and right to the point. The singing in charge of C. Millard was fine, accompanied on the violin by Harvey Meldrum of Perrinville. The free-lunch at noon was enjoyed by all, about 65 being served. One of the speakers from Detroit was delayed at Wayne and arrived just as the convention was over.

The L. A. S. met at the hall last week Friday and elected the following officers:

Pres.—Mrs. Ada LeVan
Vice Pres.—Miss Youngs
Sec.—Mrs. M. Eva Smith
Treas.—Mrs. G. Wegeoner

The following trustees were elected: Mrs. Harlow, chairman; Miss Hattie Hoisington, secretary; Mrs. Emma L. Ryder, Mrs. J. Jewel and Mrs. Alma Stevens. Refreshments were served consisting of ice cream and cake. The society is in a most prosperous condition and the outlook good for the new year, having thirty members now enrolled. In the last four years, the church has been carpeted all over, also papered, new outside doors, roof repaired besides extensive repairs on the hall. The L. A. S. is a hard working band of women.

Still, As Servants Go, Old.

Mrs. Heath snifled audibly when her sister happened to mention, with considerable awe, a certain neighbor. "Daisy!" the married woman exclaimed. "Why Daisy should speak of her help as 'old family servants' I can't imagine!" "But why shouldn't she, if she wants to?" inquired the sister. "Because the one she's had longest is her cook, and so far, she's stayed six months!"—Youth's Companion.

Spread Dread Plague.

In the days of King Charles II. never traveled slowly in England and before the people of Cornwall knew about the terrible plague in London there came to Bodmin itinerant traders with pack mules laden with silks, satin gowns, rich robes, plumed hats and expensive lace, which were offered for sale at ridiculous prices. The country-side rushed to purchase, and the merchants, having disposed of all their stock, departed. Then within a day or two the purchasers were attacked by a strange sickness, and died by scores. The gaudy clothes had been striped from the bodies of those who had died of plague in London.

Parents of young men who are leaving home to go to Detroit will be interested to know of a new department that has recently been installed by the Detroit Young Men's Christian Association. It is called the Inter-City Work Department and its purpose is to get in touch with young men immediately upon their arrival in Detroit and see that they are comfortably located in proper boarding houses—that they receive all the assistance possible in obtaining positions and that they get in touch with the right kind of friends and companions. It is a recognized fact that many young men are led astray on their arrival in the city, due to their not knowing where to locate and with whom to associate.

It is the desire of the Young Men's Christian Association to see that these young men secure boarding and rooming places of the proper character and that they are lined up with fellows who will be a benefit rather than a menace; fellows who will take a friendly interest in seeing that these strangers are made to feel at home in the city. Also that invitations are given and accepted to attend church and sessions of the Sunday-school of their religious belief.

An organized force of seventy-seven fine young men in Detroit are ready and willing to call upon the strangers and render the service needed. It is desired that it be thoroughly understood that this is purely a plan of helpfulness and friendliness, with not the slightest obligation placed upon the recipient, either as to fee or membership.

Quick action is impressed upon the "Key Men" who do the visiting in Detroit, for it is recognized that far more lasting benefit can accrue to the party called upon within forty-eight hours after he reaches the city.

All young men are made most welcome and they will find those whose pleasure it will be to serve. Parents and friends are invited to send notice of the coming of their sons, giving Detroit address, and they may be assured that prompt attention will be given to all requests.

It is the desire of this department to establish "Key Men" in every town or hamlet within at least a hundred miles of Detroit or in those places where the trend of travel is towards that city. Two hundred such "Key Men" are now appointed and the names of seven hundred young men leaving for Detroit have been sent in.

The Detroit Young Men's Christian Association is never too busy to endeavor to locate your son and render every possible service within its power.

Comparative Digestibility of Food

Made with different Baking Powders

From a Series of Elaborate Chemical Tests:

An equal quantity of bread (biscuit) was made with each of three different kinds of baking powder—cream of tartar, phosphate, and alum—and submitted separately to the action of the digestive fluid, each for the same length of time.

The relative percentage of the food digested is shown as follows:

Bread made with Royal Cream of Tartar Powder: 100 Per Cent. Digested

Bread made with phosphate powder: 68 1/2 Per Cent. Digested

Bread made with alum powder: 67 1/2 Per Cent. Digested

These tests, which are absolutely reliable and unprejudiced, make plain a fact of great importance to everyone: Food raised with Royal, a cream of tartar Baking Powder, is shown to be entirely digestible, while the alum and phosphate powders are found to largely retard the digestion of the food made from them.

Undigested food is not only wasted food, but it is the source of very many bodily ailments.
