MICHIGAN FAIR BIPLANE TO CARRY PASSENGERS

Owing to the unusual advantages of ferred by the Michigan State Fair grounds as an aviation field, "Eddie" Korn, whose great Heaviest tractor biplane will give daily exhibitions during the Fair, has consented to carry a passenger with him on every flight.

Mr. Korn is a firm believer that the public wants to be convinced of the practicability of the modern aeroplane. He is under the impression, and Manager Dickinson quite agrees with him, that a demonstration of the feasibility of the biplane for carrying more than the driver is more appreciated by the onlookers than spirals and volplaning and the like.

The broad level expanse at the Michigan State Fair grounds and the unexcelled opportunities for fluttering to the earth in the case of serious accident makes it an ideal place to give passenger-carrying exhibitions. Then, too, the same level expanse practically eliminates the chances of dangerous air currents interfering with the demonstrations.

On a recent visit to the State Fair offices in Detroit Mr. Korn said: "I want to prove conclusively to the people of Michigan that a tractor biplane is safe under normal conditions. By this I mean merely attempting to navigate the air and not do all sorts of crazy dips and sudden turns.

"You are going to ask how is it that so many aviators are killed every year if a birdman's life is comparatively safe. I'll tell you why. Simply because they were not content with an ordinary flight, and in their confidence they lost control of their machines while executing a fancy spiral of some sort. Carelessness is the cause of two-thirds of the deaths and inferior machines account for a good many of the others.

"I have always maintained that a powerful engine was necessary for successful operation in the air, to overcome any adverse conditions that may arise from changes in consistency of atmosphere. I have an engine in my biplane which almost makes my exhibitions independent of weather conditions. I don't have to wait for a calm day in order to perform."

Memories of the Past The Rural School Fair

In This Paper Twenty-five Years Ago Today.

Vegetation has put forth wonderfully since the rain of the first of the week.

Ernest Hudson and Dennis McNearney left here last Monday, for Grand Rapids, where they will work in a machine shop.

John J. Inglis and family of Northville, have moved into one of John Fuller's houses. He is a painter and paper hanger.

The Plymouth Air Rifle company have commenced the manufacture of their guns and expect to turn out some of the finished article by the first of the week.

Frank Hendrick of Plymouth, Mich., who has been spending the winter with his mother at Orange City, has been at Detweiler's on the Peninsula for the last week, having a fine time hunting, fishing, etc.—New Smyrna (Fla.) Breeze.

August Blom met with a serious mishap Tuesday. While driving across the bridge over the Rouge, near "Nicky" Bovee's, with a load of wood, the bridge gave way, killing one of the horses and injuring him somewhat, although not so severely as was first reported. The fall was about twenty feet, and it seems like a miracle that he escaped with his life. The township of Livonia will be obliged to stand the racket.

During last Friday night burglars entered the hardware store of Anderson & Cable, by prying off the door casing with a bar. They first cut a hole through the panel of the door opposite the bolt, which they pulled without trouble, but they were unable to unlock the door, and so they took off the casing. About forty dollars worth of knives, razors and other show-case goods were taken. It was a rather bold piece of work, as they were obliged to pass right by E. J. Bradner's bedroom window, and the door through which they forced their way is scarcely more than ten feet from where Bradner was sleeping. No clue (we keep these last two words in type.)

The S. G. C. B. society of Cherry Hill, will give their first social party at that place next Friday evening. Hill, fifty cents.

Clean-Up Day

The state fire marshal is sending out a circular to all fire chiefs, presidents of villages, deputy fire marshals and the public in general, stating that it is the desire of the department to have a concentrated, uniform effort on the part of all officials to have the fire marshal law enforced and clean up the state, and to more thoroughly accomplish this have set apart Thursday, May 15, as spring clean-up day. This is the time of year when all the winter's accumulation of rubbish should be taken care of and it would be a good idea for our village dads to do the same as they do in other villages, have the street commissioner out that day and notify all the citizens that if they will get their rubbish where it can be got at handy that the commissioner will gather it up and cart it away free of charge. By doing this all rubbish can be dumped in one place and not scattered all along the river bank.

All rural children attending school below the High School and having a Plymouth Grange member in its district will be offered an opportunity to compete in the following contests. The grading is to be taken at the date of this notice, and not after this spring's promotion.

1. Boys (5th to 8th grade inclusive) peck of pop corn.
2. Boys (4th to 8th grade inclusive) water melon.
3. Boys (5th to 8th grade inclusive) set of book shelves.
4. Girls (5th to 8th grade inclusive) loaf of bread.
5. Girls (4th to 8th grade inclusive) dozen cut asters.
6. Girls 7th and 8th grades: hand made quilt top.
7. Girls 5th and 6th grades: hand made pillow cases.
8. Children below the 5th grade: a pair of hand made sheets and pillow cases for a doll's bed.

To all young people of the Grange under 21, attending higher schools, or at home, the following competitions will be open:

- A. To the girls; fancy pillow tops
- B. To the boys; articles of wood work.
- C. Dr. S. E. Campbell offers a first prize of one dollar to children of the ages, 12 to 16 for the best collection of Michigan's medicinal herbs grown in pots, the collection to consist of not more than twelve and not less than six herbs.

The rural district scoring the most points will receive an especial reward. In order to be eligible for the competition the work must be done entirely by the child in whose name the article is entered. The contestants are expected to grow the corn, melons, asters and herbs. We trust the children will be very conscientious in this direction, presenting only what is strictly their own handiwork.

The Plymouth Grange have appointed the following committee to inspect the gardens within the village: G. A. Raviller, Paul Bennett and Chas. Bradner. The committee desires all Grangers to preserve this notice for future reference. Committee—Mrs. J. C. O'Bryan, Mrs. Will Harmon, Mrs. S. E. Campbell, Miss Bertha Warner and Mrs. Clifford McClumpha.

To Grow Better Crops.

The university has sowed its wheat, oats and barley, and a little later it will also plant its corn, potatoes and peas. The university is farming on a rather modest scale, two towns of potatoes, six of corn, and a handful of the grains on the university farm.

What's it all for? For the summer school students. This year Australian peas are going to be grown, or else the department of Botany will know why, and that's really the reason for all this planting, that the students may learn "why." Australian peas have never done well in Michigan, and there must be a reason for it, as they are known in Wisconsin soil. Same way with potatoes. According to Professor Huse, there is no reason why Michigan soil should not raise as fine potatoes as any other soil, and that's one reason why the university will raise a potato crop.

The United States government has expended $80,000 for the improvement of barley in Wisconsin, and beside that Wisconsin people and the Wisconsin legislature have given freely to the same project. That's why Michigan students are to be given an opportunity this summer to study growing barley, and do a little research work along barley improvement lines.

The Annual Operetta

The annual Operetta given by the Plymouth Public Schools was well attended, every seat in the house was sold, over $100 being cleared.

The program was an excellent one, entitled "The Whole Year Round," and depicted a strife of the four seasons, to see which should rule the whole year. Myron Beals as judge, after each season had exhibited his or her charms and beauties, decreed that each should rule an equal part of the year.

The program was opened by two selections by the High School chorus, both well rendered, followed by the introduction and Winter chorus, Leslie Huddably taking the part of King Winter. This scene closed with a "sleigh ride," the entire chorus acting as passengers and King Winter holding the reins.

A short, comic, Mother Goose selection was next introduced, followed by a selection by the Girls' Glee club, which sang better than ever before.

Summer, Nellie Huger, and her attendants, Gladys Felt, Elizabeth Conner and Marie Powell next appeared, the chorus giving an attractive flower drill. Immediately following this came a number by the first and second grades, called "Boogie Boo." The little ones were dressed in their nighties and with the lights turned low sang a weird song of the "Boogie Man." This took well and was encored.

Spring, Regina Polly and chorus appeared after this, two features of this part being a Maypole drill by some third and fourth grade girls and a fantastic number of five elves. The German Band, a comical contingent of youngsters was introduced here. The Boys' Glee Club, much to the delight of the audience, came next and sang "A Tavern in the Town," with "Boola" as an encore.

Autumn, Harold Jolliffe, and his page, Leo Spencer, both attired in attractive autumnal costumes, appeared last. Myron Beals gave his decision, and the entire chorus concluded a splendid program.

It was too bad that Hilda Smye, who was to have taken the part of queen of the May in the spring scene was compelled to be absent, but her part was ably filled by Miss Blomgren.

Miss Blomgren, musical director, deserves the highest praise for the way the choruses and soloists were trained and for the whole program, in fact. It is a great loss to the school that she does not return next year.

Village Council Met

A regular meeting of the village council was held last Monday evening. The meeting was called to order by E. E. Caster, president pro tem in the absence of President Hillmer. Aside from the regular routine business the council decided to purchase the chemical fire extinguisher which was recently given a trial by the fire department. The apparatus will be mounted on a truck and fully equipped for service. It was also decided to order 350 barrels of oil to be used on the streets. A walk was ordered constructed on the south side of Oak street north of the P. M. tracks. An extension of the walk was also ordered built on the east side of Adams street. A petition asking for the extension of the walk on the north side of West Ann Arbor street was also read. No action was taken in the matter, the petition being laid on the table until another meeting.

High School Athletic Events

The Alpine-Olympian track meet held Saturday resulted in a victory for the Alpines, the final score being 83 to 57. The time on the whole was slow, but some of the boys did fine work. The score:

$2,000,000 Buried

By R. E. Olds, Designer

In Reo the Fifth we bury at least $2,000,000 per year where few men ever see it.

That's somewhere about $200 per car.

But years of use will always show one what this buried money buys.

Not In the Price

This extra hidden cost doesn't show in the price.

We save it by unusual factory economies. By building all our own parts—by not changing models. By carrying efficiency to an extreme.

We save 20 per cent in one way alone—by building a single model. All of those savings go to pay for things like these:

Where They Go

In Reo the Fifth we use 190 drop forgings, to avoid all hidden flaws. Steel castings would cost half as much.

We use 15 roller bearings—11 of them Timken. The common ball bearings cost one-fifth as much.

- 30-35 Horsepower
- Wheel Base 112 inches
- Tires—34x4 inches
- Center Control
- 15 Roller Bearings
- Demountable Rims
- Three Electric Lights
- 190 Drop Forgings
- Made with 5 and 2 Passenger Bodies.

Reo the Fifth, the 1913 Series $1,095

Top and windshield not included in price. We equip this car with mohair top, side curtains and slip cover, windshield, gas tank for headlights, speedometer, self-starter, extra rim and brackets—all for $100 extra (list price $170).

HEMENWAY & WILSON

Call Thomas Hemenway, Plymouth or Ira Wilson, Elm, for Demonstration. Bell Phone.

The leading cars now have left side drive. Also the center control. But in Reo the Fifth all gear shifting is done with one small cane-shaped handle. It is done by moving this handle only three inches in each of four directions.

It is done with right hand, without any reaching. It's as easy as moving the spark lever.

Both brakes are operated by foot pedals, so both front doors are clear. This feature alone—though it costs nothing extra—is worth, I consider, $100 per car.

Parts are ground over and over. Tests and inspections are carried to extremes.

Then we insist on big margins of safety. All vital parts are given at least 50 per cent over-capacity.

And we limit our output to 50 cars daily so no man is ever hurried.

Each Car Perfect

The result is this: Every buyer gets a flawless car. He gets a car fit for any strain. His cost of upkeep is cut to the minimum.

Men are learning the need for a car like this. The demand has grown far beyond our output.

Men who pay $3,000 and over expect a car built like this. But never was a car built better than Reo the Fifth. And the price is $1,095.

Ideal Center Control

The leading cars now have left side drive. Also the center control. But in Reo the Fifth all gear shifting is done with one small cane-shaped handle. It is done by moving this handle only three inches in each of four directions.

It is done with right hand, without any reaching. It's as easy as moving the spark lever.

Both brakes are operated by foot pedals, so both front doors are clear. This feature alone—though it costs nothing extra—is worth, I consider, $100 per car.

MORE THAN EVER Increased Capacity for Mental Labor Since Leaving Off Coffee. Many former coffee drinkers who have mental work to perform, day after day, have found a better capacity and greater endurance by using Postum instead of coffee. An illa. Woman writes: "I had drank coffee for about twenty years, and finally had what the doctor called 'coffee heart.' I was nervous and extremely dependent; had little mental or physical strength left, had kidney trouble and constipation. "The first noticeable benefit derived from the change from coffee to Postum was the natural action of the kidneys and bowels. In two weeks my heart action was greatly improved and my nerves steady. "Then I became less dependent, and the desire to be active again showed proof of renewed physical and mental strength. "I am steadily gaining in physical strength and brain power. I formerly did mental work and had to give it up on account of coffee, but since using Postum I am doing hard mental labor with less fatigue than ever before." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Postum now comes in new concentrated form called Instant Postum. It is regular Postum, so processed at the factory that only the soluble portions are retained. A spoonful of Instant Postum with hot water, and sugar and cream to taste, produce instantly a delicious beverage. Write for the little book, "The Road to Well-Being." "There's a Reason" for Postum.
