A Thought for July 4th

Tomorrow is the 4th of July. It is the day when we recall the signing of the Declaration of Independence. Here is something to think about on that day: The church has always stood for all those things that count for true patriotism. She has been a bulwark against those things that are unpatriotic and that are injurious to the best interests of our country and her citizens. And yet there are those who indulge in easy criticism of the church, sneering at the institution, questioning the sincerity of her ministers, and impugning the motives of its members, boasting that they are "as good as the people who go to church," and they do not need the church. For their part, the whole organization of Christianity might be eliminated from society. Those who talk thus do not weigh their words. To take away the church would be to eliminate much that is vital in literature. It would remove the character-shaping part of education. Youth would be robbed of its ideals and old age of its comfort. A thousand benevolent institutions, orphanages, hospitals, asylums, schools, reformatories would be closed straightway.

Plymouth or any other place would not be a fit place to live in without the church. Every patriotic citizen should see to the conservation of that patriotic institution—the church. For is not neglect as unfriendly an attitude as opposition?

Go to church Sunday and give her the support of your presence, at least.

Fourth of July Celebrations

The Fourth will be a very quiet day in Plymouth. Most of the business places will close at 11:30 o'clock for the remainder of the day. Neighboring lakes, Detroit, Wayne, Ypsilanti and Northville will be the mecca for many of our citizens. At Northville there will be a celebration. Street sports are scheduled from 10 to 12 o'clock on Main street. There will be two ball games, horse races and a big dance in the evening. The Northville band will furnish music.

A regular old-fashioned celebration is scheduled to take place at Wayne. Horse races, ball games, sports, dance and parade are among the features.

Ypsilanti has made big preparations to entertain a large crowd at the celebration which commemorates the 90th anniversary of the first celebration ever held there. A spectacular pageant in which over 500 people will participate is one of the features.

Death of Mrs. Benjamin Miller

Mrs. Benjamin Miller, a highly esteemed lady of this vicinity for many years, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. Smith, Friday, June 28. The funeral services were held Sunday afternoon from the home of her daughter, Rev. A. L. Bell officiating. The interment took place in Riverside cemetery. A large number of friends and neighbors were present to pay their last respect to one they loved.

Her mother, Ann Iverson, was born at Andrus, Sept. 3, 1841. At the early age of 18 months, having lost her mother, she went to live with Barbara Thompson, a sister, with whom she spent her girlhood days on a farm near Grand Rapids. In 1860 she was united in marriage to Benjamin Miller of Plymouth, who preceded her to the better world April 25, 1892. To this union were born four children, Mrs. J. Smith and Frank, Harry and Norman Miller.

For over 25 years she has lived in this neighborhood, the last eight of which she has been an invalid, bearing her sufferings with patience and cheerfulness, always having a smile for those around her.

TODAY'S REFLECTIONS

Jack Jonzing is still champion. Many citizens hoped L'il Arthah would get his. June Weddings are now a thing of the past. Girls, girls, beware the low-lying afternoon sun! Gala day, August 20th. The Plymouth Improvement Association ought to have a get-together picnic. Who cares what they have for dinner these days. Well, some weather, eh? Some weather. Sunday was the longest day in the year. Where are you going to celebrate? Melons are coming to town—yum, yum. The strawberries were a bit bashful this year. The passing of the short-cake is always a melancholy time. Got your cherries picked yet? Some one ought to invent a patent picker that would bring them down without labor. Well, well, there is going to be two games of base ball the Fourth. Get so it fans, and turn out and root for the home team. That's what counts. Let the eagle scream. Politics will warm up alright, after the Fourth. A Good Investment. W. D. Maggi, a well known merchant of Whitcomb, Wis., bought a stock of Chamberlain's medicine so as to be able to supply them to his customers. After receiving them he was himself taken sick and says that one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was worth more to him than the cost of his entire stock of these medicines. For sale by all dealers.—Advt.

Under the new order of things the office will have an assistant postmaster and one clerk, the salary of each to be $800 per year. The postmaster will receive a salary of $2,100 per year. Postmaster Ladd has appointed Miss Rose Hawthorne as temporary assistant until the civil service examination is held on July 11. A number have signified their intention of taking the examination for the position.

W. C. T. U. The last meeting before vacation was held June 23, at the pleasant home of Mrs. Arthur Stevens, with 22 in attendance. After the business meeting the president in brief speech, voiced the regret of the society over the expected departure of Mrs. Isbell for her new home, and in conclusion presented to her a silver fern dish as a token of appreciation from Plymouth W. C. T. U. A brief article entitled "Domestic Science versus Medicine," was read by Mrs. Sarah Bartlett, and this was followed by a short discussion. Ice cream and cake were then served and a good time enjoyed by all. No more meetings until September 10.

Will Build New Theatre Here In and Around Plymouth

An article in the Detroit Journal of Wednesday morning states that Mrs. Jones and brother, W. J. Thompson, who under the name of the Alseum Theatre Co. have been giving picture shows weekly in the village hall here for the past three years, will build a new theatre in Plymouth. Several sites have been offered her, and as soon as she makes the selection, ground will be broken and a neat little theatre, 30 by 100 feet, and seating capacity for 500 or 600 people will be erected. This move on the part of the Alseum Co. is the result of the village council refusing to grant their petition to continue its shows in the town hall, and entering into an agreement with local parties for the use of the hall for picture shows on the nights formerly taken by the Alseum Co.

Storm Does Much Damage

A heavy rain and hail storm passed over this village about six o'clock last Saturday evening. While the storm did not do any damage in this vicinity, much havoc was wrought in Livingston county west of here. Many houses and barns were blown down and much stock was killed. Crops and orchards were ruined. At Silver Lake in Washtenaw county, the storm played a peculiar freak when it snatched an infant from the mother's arms and blew it 25 feet. The child was found three hours later absolutely unscathed. Between Pinckney and Stockbridge between 40 and 50 houses were flattened.

The Best Medicine in the World.

"My little girl had dysentery very bad. I thought she would die. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured her, and I can truthfully say that I think it is the best medicine in the world," writes Mrs. William Orvis, Clara, Mich. For sale by all dealers.—Advt.

Former Plymouth Boy Weds

We take the following from the Hillsdale Daily of June 27: As soon today a very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Chestnut when their daughter Margaret was united in matrimony to Frank Allen Spicer, son of Lorraine Chestnut, sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor; and David Chestnut, brother of the bride, was best man. The bride was attired in a beautiful gown of white crepe de chene and Duchess lace, and carried a shower bouquet of white sweet peas. The maid of honor was gowned in white marquisette over pink charmeuse and carried pink roses. The groom and best man wore conventional black. The bridal party passed down an aisle formed of smiling ropes carried by four of the bride's friends, who carried arm bouquets of Easter lilies. Mrs. Walter Kuhl played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, softly during the ceremony and at the conclusion played Mendelssohn's Wedding March. The bride was given away by her father and the ceremony was read by the Rev. W. F. Jerome. After a four course breakfast the bride and groom left amid a shower of rose petals, for an extended tour of the lakes. Mr. and Mrs. Spicer will be at home to their friends at 124 Davidson avenue, Highland Park, after Sept. 1. The bride is a popular girl and has been connected with the local schools for the past two years, while Mr. Spicer, an Ypsilanti State Normal man, is connected with the Detroit schools. Among the many beautiful wedding gifts was a check for five hundred dollars from the bride's father and a chest of silver from the groom's family. The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Brown, Wesley and Esther Bower of Eastland, Mich. and Mrs. Mary Morrow of Port Austin, Miss Hazel Forde of Ann Arbor, Miss Bertha Howard of Albion, Miss Edna York of Grand Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Spicer, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Spicer, Miss Isabel Spicer and Miss Murray of Plymouth; Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Doerf of Albion, and Mrs. N. W. Ayers, Jr. of Detroit. Frank Spicer is a former Plymouth boy and is well and favorably known here. He resided with his parents on their farm east of town all his early life and is a graduate of the Plymouth High school. He has been a successful teacher in the Detroit schools for the past few years and his many friends here wish him happiness in his wedded life.

Surprising Cure of stomach Trouble

When you have trouble with your stomach or digestive system, don't neglect it. Get Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It will cure you. It is a sure relief. Mrs. G. S. Draper, Plymouth, Mich. writes: "I have been troubled with my stomach. Everything I ate upset it terribly. One of Chamberlain's advertisements in the paper caught my eye. I bought a few of the bottles. The first bottle cured me. I have since used several more and have never had any more trouble. It is a great relief. For sale by all dealers.—Advt.

ROCKETS AND CRACKERS.

A wet Fourth makes a lean graveyard. The fool and his dogs are soon parted. The sticks fall alike on the just and the unjust. A thumb on the hand is worth two in the alcohol. It is better not to take a dare than to get your hand scorched. The boy who doesn't get too gay may celebrate another day. It isn't always the firecracker with the longest fuse that makes the most noise. Remember that the giant firecracker is always just getting ready to go off when you bend over it to see what is in the matter. Let us then be up and shooting, with a heart for any fate, lighting fuses and then scooting—learn to stand aside and wait. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gayde were the guests of friends in Detroit last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Beyer and children and Miss Hilda Beyer, visited Fred Beyer at Harper hospital last Sunday.
