And the Other Man Said: "Isn't That Too Bad?"

Both saw the accident. Both saw the bruised victim lying stunned upon the ground. The first man, without a second's hesitation, rushed to help—devoted every thought and every energy to that one object.

The other man said, "Isn't That Too Bad?"

What Do You Say?

—and what do you do—when an opportunity that is at the same time an obligation presents itself? Does the attitude of the "other man" satisfy you.

Next Monday will reveal the attitude of the voters of Plymouth on the "wet" and "dry" issue. What will YOU say and do? Which man will you represent?

Next Sunday morning the pastor of the FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH preaches on the theme: "Loyalty to Opportunities."

Couple Celebrate Long Wedded Life

Mr. and Mrs. James LeVan Were Married Just 60 Years Ago

Mr. and Mrs. James LeVan last Saturday celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of their marriage by entertaining their relatives and friends at their farm home near this village.

They were wedded in Washtenaw county near Ann Arbor, February 28, 1855, and now, after three-score years, are looking forward to years more of happiness. Mr. LeVan is 81, but still attends to the duties of his farm, as well as taking a keen interest in the political and civic affairs of the community. Mrs. LeVan is 78 and is still most active.

Both Mr. and Mrs. LeVan have been life-long residents of the state. Mr. LeVan's father came to Michigan in 1823. Mrs. LeVan was Emily Caroline Peebles before her marriage and her parents came to the state in 1827.

For the last 32 years Mr. and Mrs. LeVan have lived on the farm near this village. Mr. LeVan is well known in Detroit and also in Plymouth. He served as health officer of the township for eight years, was treasurer and also justice of the peace.

ter of Holly, Mrs. Gay Casterlin and daughter of Saginaw, Mrs. Geo. Griffin and Mrs. George Oles of Mason, Mrs. Annie Ellis of South Lyon, Mrs. Anna Thompson and Mrs. Amanda Waldron of Salem, Miss Flora Millard of Detroit, and Plymouth friends.

A Pretty Home Wedding

A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Welcome Rosenberg on Maple avenue last Wednesday evening at six o'clock, when Miss Myrtle White of this place, and William Bauman, brother of Mrs. Rosenberg, were united in marriage. Rev. O. Peters of Wayne, performed the ceremony in the presence of about twenty friends and relatives. The bride was daintily gowned in white voile and net and carried white roses. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Zaida White, who was becomingly dressed in white and carried pink carnations. George Gorton acted as best man. The house was tastefully decorated in pink and white. After the ceremony the guests were invited into the dining room, where a fine supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Bauman left that evening for the groom's farm home in Livonia, where they will reside. The happy couple received many handsome and useful gifts, and have the best wishes of many friends for their wedded life.

Death of a Former Resident

The remains of Mrs. Julia Hargenberg, aged 88 years, was brought here from Detroit last Friday and the funeral was held in the Presbyterian church Friday morning at ten o'clock, the pastor, Rev. B. F. Farber, conducting the services. Mrs. Hargenberg was a sister of Asa Joy of this place and widow of the late Samuel Hargenberg, who for many years operated what is now the Wilcox mill. She was laid to rest in the family lot in the Baptist cemetery, beside her husband and several children, who had preceded her to the higher life.

If you want "Vinol"—Pinckney's Pharmacy, of course.

Miss Ruth Gilis of Northville, is assisting at the Mail office.

Charles Themm and family are moving here from Farmington Junction and will reside in the Bennett house on Depot street.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Morgan have moved from the Bennett house on Depot street into the rooms over H. C. Robinson's livery barn. Mr. Morgan is now in the employ of Mr. Robinson.

On Tuesday afternoon, March 20, Harry King and Mrs. Julia Hanchett were quietly married in Detroit. On their return to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hix, they were given a hearty reception by a few of the bride's immediate relatives. Mr. and Mrs. King are well and favorably known in Plymouth and have the best wishes of their many friends. They will reside at the groom's home just north of town.

Handkerchief Bazaar and Supper

"Sing a song of a handkerchief With simp to hem or lace. In the hands of each of us It holds an important place."

The 1st Division of the Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church will hold a Handkerchief Bazaar in the dining room of the church Friday, March 12, at 2:30 p. m. Handkerchiefs from all parts of the county will be on sale. In connection with the bazaar a three-course supper will be served from 5:30 till all are served. Seven cents per course.

MASS MEETING

VILLAGE HALL
Sunday, 7 p. m.

In the interest of a DRY VILLAGE
SPEAKER
MELLY S. ...

A Serious Accident

Mrs. Henry Anderson, who lives a few miles southeast of town, met with a painful accident last Friday evening. She and her son had attended the entertainment at the opera house and had gone to the Presbyterian church sheds for their horse. Just as she was getting into the carriage another rig backed into theirs, throwing Mrs. Anderson to the ground. She was immediately taken to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Robinson, on Maple avenue where Dr. Peck was called and found that she had sustained a fractured hip. However, she is very comfortable at this writing and hopes are entertained for a speedy recovery.

Plymouth Builder Gets Contract for New School House

The board of education of the village of South Lyon awarded the contract for the building of a new modern brick school house to John H. Patterson of this village, Tuesday. The new building will cost $15,000. There were several bidders for the contract. The board made no mistake in awarding the contract to Mr. Patterson and they will be more than pleased with his work when the building is completed.

The Ever Hungry Girl

Last week Susie was fed $400, most of the money being given by the boys and girls. This week we make a special appeal to the adults of Plymouth to feed Susie money for the playground material. You will find her at the United Savings bank on Saturday, Feb. 6. Don't forget Susie, lest she might starve.

Announcement

H. E. Newhouse has rented the building formerly occupied by L. P. Jackson in the upholstery business. Mr. Newhouse will use the new office as a show room only, and will put in a line of the Detroit Jewel stores, bath fixtures, thermostats and gas appliances. Show room will be open Friday afternoon and evening, March 5th.

MRS. JAMES LEVAN

When they were married they lived on a farm near Ann Arbor. Later they moved to that city and resided there for several years, Mr. LeVan being engaged in business there.

Mr. and Mrs. LeVan had five children, two of whom are still living. They are Mrs. Minnie A. Hilkner, of Ann Arbor, and Walter LeVan, who lives with his mother and father. At the anniversary were seven or eight grandchildren. There are also four great-grandchildren.

Mrs. James LeVan

The celebration of the sixtieth anniversary was held in the form of a reception, which was attended by several guests. As their wedding day passed they were 60 years old. They have three sons, only one now living, and several grand children. Mrs. LeVan is still most active.

Impossible for you to have money in the bank? Fiddlesticks!

"Impossibility is now an old-fashioned word with a definition but not a meaning. Almost every dream of the past is a reality today. Sewing machines had eleven parts—ten fingers and a needle. Impossibilities are merely the half-hearted efforts of quitters." —Herbert Kaufman

2-1/2 caliper, 4 to 5 ft., $2.00 per doz. or $15.00 per 100.

Plums, extra fine trees, 11-16 caliper,
5 to 7 ft., $3.50 per doz. or $30.00 per
100. 5-8 caliper, 4 to 6 ft. $25.00 per 100.

Why pay more when you can buy from the Pontiac Nursery Co. dependable high grade trees at the above prices? Their motto is quality first. It is practically a home company. Buy from them and save useless handling, expense and agents profit.

FARMERS!

I have the agency for

"Tiger Brand" Ground Lime
for Plymouth and vicinity. It is the highest test lime in the United States. Nothing better to keep your cow barns dry and sanitary at a normal cost—$4.00 per ton or $3.50 per ton in ten ton lots. Also

"Smith Brand" of Fertilizers
Nothing better on the market. I am also state representative of the

UNADILLA SILO
Let us demonstrate to you the finest Door on the market and save you agents profits.
