"HE THAT HATH NO SWORD LET HIM BUY ONE," LUKE 22:36

A few days ago a well known judge of a district court in Iowa, ordered a certain religious periodical to stop coming to his desk. He was an old subscriber. His objection was this:—"you have forsaken your ideals; the war craze has actually infected the religious journals and the clergy until, instead of the gospel of peace and reconciliation, one must continually read and hear words of war and ruin. I hereby register my protest. The church leaders have lost their power to stand out against the multitude." Simultaneously there appeared in the Atlantic Monthly, an article entitled, "Peter Stood by the Fire Warming Himself," by Dr. Joseph H. Odell, of Troy, N. Y. It was a severe arraignment of the church and clergy for not being sufficiently patriotic and sacrificial, doing nothing but repeating soft, enfeebling platitudes while truth is on the scaffold and wrong is on the throne. Thus, again, the church is in the position of "Be damned if you do—and be damned if you don't." The fact is, when Pro-Germans prosper, and Pro-Ally passion have once more subsided, the one impartial judge, and untiring servant, and untrifled witness throughout all the war will be seen to have been the church of the Risen Lord. Will Collect Used and Surplus Clothing

Local Branch Red Cross Will Collect Used and Surplus Clothing for Relief in Belgium.

Committee Have Secured the Store Formerly Occupied by the Davis Grocery as Headquarters.

The American Red Cross has set aside the week of March 18-25 to collect more than 5,000 tons of used and surplus clothing for the commission for relief in Belgium. The Plymouth Branch of the Red Cross have been asked to do their part in this great relief work. This opportunity will demonstrate concretely to the people of this country the efficiency of the Red Cross organization.

As the world is short of so many things it is short of clothing, and of raw materials. We cannot purchase what is needed; we must put our spare garments to the service of the world's measure of pure economics, conservation and patriotism.

One-third of very shipment will go to the people of the north of France, down close behind the German lines; two-third will go to Belgium.

The store room formerly occupied by the Davis grocery on Main street, has been secured by the officers of the local branch as headquarters, where the articles asked for can be brought. Members of the Red Cross will be in charge. The room will be open Saturday morning, March 23, at 9 o'clock and will remain open until 10 o'clock in the evening. The room will be open next Monday and Tuesday, which is the closing day for the collection. The members of the local branch are desirous of making a good showing in the amount of articles collected here, and it is a safe bet that the citizens of Plymouth and vicinity will rally to their support in this matter, as they have done in every patriotic movement in the past, by doing their "bit," and just a little bit more. Here is a list of the garments needed:

Goods containing rubber in any form as: suspenders, garters, etc. As leather goods not in the best condition deteriorate in shipment, kindly see that the shoes you send in are free from mud. Do not send in damp clothing. Do not send notes or messages in the pockets of garments as no written matter can be sent into the occupied territories with the Commission's goods. All undershirts and linen should be well washed before delivery to the commission. For further information regarding this campaign, call Mrs. F. A. Dible, chairman of the receiving committee, phone 54 F-2.

"Inauguration Night"

The Penniman-Allen building being completed, its owner, Mrs. Kate E. Allen, wishes to announce to the people of Plymouth that she is very desirous of having them join with her in an open night dedication of the Auditorium, which is to be something of a social center for the city. The dedication will be held on the evening of April 12th, and all Plymouth people and vicinity are invited by Mrs. Allen to be present at the reception and dancing party to be held that evening, the grand march starting at 8 o'clock. The invitation is also extended to the Plymouth boys now at Camp Custer, and it is expected their presence will lend considerable interest to the evening's pleasures. It is Mrs. Allen's hope that the people of Plymouth will regard this new Auditorium as a municipal social center, and that the possibilities of such a meeting place will be fully realized in the years to come.

Christian Endeavor Will Hold Carnival

The Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church announces a mammoth carnival to be held in the church house, about the middle of April, similar to the carnival given two years ago with such success in Grange hall. There will be many new variations in this event however, not the least of which will be a seasonable "pan-cake and maple syrup" supper, prepared and served by a correct impersonation of "Aunt Jemima." Many attractions are being planned by the "stunt" committee, of which Miss Nellie Rooke is chairman, and by Harry Green, who will direct a play similar to "Mrs. Jolly's Wax-works." Attractive booths are to be prepared under the supervision of Miss Irene Carn, and the refreshment side of the evening is in charge of Mrs. Charles Riggs. At a meeting Tuesday evening, Miss Genevieve McClumpha, president of the society, announced committees and heard many suggestions from the members.

Another Garden Contest Planned

Patriotic Food Supply Club Will Conduct Another Garden Contest the Coming Summer.

A meeting of the Patriotic Food Supply Club was held at Schrader Bros' store Monday evening, for the purpose of electing officers and taking the necessary steps for the promoting of another garden contest in Plymouth the coming season. The garden contest conducted by the club last summer was a decided success and a great deal of interest and enthusiasm was manifested. The obligation of every man, woman and child will be greater in 1918 than in 1917, therefore the home gardening activities of last year must be repeated. This is the message of the United States Department of Agriculture to every family. There must be no "slacking off," and during the summer now approaching more home gardens than ever are now demanded. It was the unanimous opinion of all present that the club should conduct another contest the coming summer. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Chairman—Rev. A. L. Bell. Secretary—Lawrence Johnson. Treasurer—William E. Shaw. Last year there were 84 contestants who competed for the prizes offered. Let's have double that number or more this year.

Another meeting will soon be held and further plans and arrangements will be formulated.

Rev. Field Preaches Excellent Sermon

Rev. F. M. Field of the Methodist Episcopal church, has been taking for his Sunday morning theme for several weeks, the events in the life of Christ during Passion week, which finally terminated in His crucifixion on Friday. Each of these special sermons has been excellent, but the crisis was reached last Sunday morning, when Mr. Field portrayed a large and appreciative congregation the last hours of our Saviour's earthly career, when He, the very personification of innocence and purity, was unreasonably scoffed at, mercilessly persecuted and finally cruelly crucified at the hands of an ignorant, unjust and worldly mob. This, the greatest tragedy the world has ever known, was most forcefully presented, and the service was brought to an impressive close by the singing of the famous hymn, "When I survey the wondrous cross, on which our Prince of Glory died." The next sermon in the series will be given March 31, when Mr. Field preaches on the Easter theme. You are invited.

Dr. Rice on the War

By arrangement just completed the people of Plymouth are to have the privilege which is being eagerly availed of by thousands of people in Detroit, that of hearing Dr. M. S. Rice, in his great lectures on the war.

When war was declared a year ago Dr. Rice was one of three men in the United States, chosen by the general committee of the Y. M. C. A. to go to Europe and survey the field. On his return the largest auditoriums in Detroit were not large enough to hold the crowds, which paid a dollar a seat to hear him tell of his war experiences. For the past few weeks he has been speaking on different phases of the war in the North Woodward tabernacle seating 2500, and from 500 to 1,000 people are turned away every Sunday night. A number of Plymouth people have been to hear him.

Dr. Rice will speak on the war at the High school auditorium, Tuesday evening, May 14th.

H. S. Doerr was in Flint on business, the first of the week. For the first time in many years the O. E. S. at Northville will not hold its annual ball. The school gym could have been had but the hours were restricted from 8 to 12, so it was decided to give it up.

U.S. CONTROLS COAL INDUSTRY APRIL 1

GOVERNMENT WILL LICENSE ALL PRODUCERS, DEALERS ANN JOBBERS.

IS SIMILAR TO FOOD CONTROL

Zones to Be Created Around Mining Districts to Avoid Long Hauls Across Country.

Washington.—The coal industry vital to winning the war will pass under rigid government control April 1. In a proclamation President Wilson ordered the licensing with exceptions, of all producers, jobbers and dealers in coal and coke. The control to be set up is almost identical with that exercised over food. Dealers must do business under government license; and must conduct their profits and practices as the fuel administration says. Offenders may be punished by revocation or suspension of their licenses—as with food dealers.

Besides an iron handed suppression of price juggling and hoarding, elaborate plans for a more systematic distribution of fuel throughout the country have been worked out. Zones will be created about the large producing areas; and surrounding territory sought from within the local zone. This, it is pointed out, will do away with cross country hauling, besides bringing about a direct and speedy distribution straight from the mines to the nearby consumers.

HORSE POISONING STIRS MOB

Man Nearly Lynched for Interrupting Protest Meeting.

Covington, Ky.—A crowd estimated at 10,000, which included men, women and children here Sunday afternoon participated in a remarkable demonstration of patriotic protest against pro-German propaganda in Covington as exemplified by the poisoning of 500 of 728 government artillery horses shipped from Camp Grant, Ill., for an Atlantic seaport.

Emotions of the throng had been aroused to a high pitch of patriotic fervor when an interruption from a man giving the name of Richard Schmidt, 23 years old, nearly brought about his lynching. As it was he was severely beaten before police locked him up.

The mass meeting of protest was held under the auspices of the Citizens' Patriotic league of Covington. It decided to send a memorial to congress calling upon the congressional law makers to enact a law interfering every alien within the borders of the United States and making more stringent laws governing traitorous acts.

DAYLIGHT SAVING BILL PASSED

All Clocks in Country to Be Set Ahead One Hour On March 31.

Washington.—The daylight saving bill has passed both senate and house. Under its terms all time-pieces are to be advanced one hour beginning the last Sunday in March.

The change in time will remain in effect until the last Sunday in October when clocks will be turned back again. Millions of dollars annually will be saved to the country by putting the plan into effect, according to its supporters. Approximately $40,000,000 alone will be saved in the nation's lighting bill, it is said.

The general plan proposed was adopted last year in many European countries with marked success, and has the approval of virtually all industries and commercial establishments in the United States.

SEED CORN AT $5.00 A BUSHEL

State Committee Has Purchased Nearly 100,000 Bushels.

East Lansing.—Almost 100,000 bushels of seed corn, which will be sold at cost to Michigan farmers in districts where a shortage exists, are en route here, or have already arrived, according to an announcement from the governor's seed corn committee.

The announcement, made by the committee through the Michigan Agricultural college, states that the corn, all of which is adapted to Michigan conditions, will be distributed at $5 a bushel on the basis of acreage adaptability and need.

The supply was purchased by trained corn men, under authority of the governor's committee.

See-Overloaded With Hay.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.—Five thousand tons of baled hay are in temporary storage in Chippewa county awaiting cars for transport to market. Every warehouse in the 800 and even a number of empty private residences are being used by dealers and farmers for storing their hay. Farmers are eager to sell now, when hay is quoted at $23 a ton, but dealers are reluctant to buy at anywhere near that figure because of the fear that before cars arrive the market will drop.

U. S. War Depot At Detroit

Washington.—Detroit is certain to be the site of one of the $1 grant war munitions depots to be constructed during the present year at industrial centers of the country, officials here indicated. The plans of the government call for the establishment of just such a depot as Mayor Marx suggested. The construction of the government warehouse is part of a program which proposes the expenditure in the next eight months of $60,000,000 for war industrial purposes.

BRANDED CAPTAIN HAS NAME CLEARED

Army Officer, Once a Convict, Is Restored to Full Citizenship.

Albany, N. Y.—A big, broad-shouldered man, wearing an officer's uniform, with two silver bars on his shoulders, walked into the executive chamber of the capitol here, and stepped manfully to the governor's desk. "Governor, I am a captain in the 4th regiment," he said by way of introduction.

"Sit down, captain," invited the governor. "What can I do for you?" "Your excellency, I am in distress—great distress. I am well beyond the draft age. When the war broke out I entered a training camp and won a first lieutenant. Shortly after I was promoted to captain. I am now recommended for the gold leaf of a major. All my life I have tried to act on the square with all the world.

"But I fell—that was years ago. I was sentenced to state prison. Three years ago you paroled me. When I left Great Meadow prison I thought that your act had restored me to citizenship."

"But I Fell—That Was Years Ago."

I learned that it didn't do a fortnight ago when men of my home town—Brooklyn—threatened to reveal to army authorities that I was an ex-convict. And then they told me that I was still carrying the brand of a felon; that your parole was nothing. I couldn't afford to fight them. I knew I'd get a square deal from you, so I came here to—"

"You came here," interrupted the governor, "to be restored to citizenship. You shall be."

And less than five minutes later Captain—of the 4th regiment held the governor's hand in his right and in the left the governor's pardon restoring him to citizenship.

He is now with his regiment on his way to France.

"HUMAN WOLF" TO BE FREE

Has Four Murders to His Credit and Has Served 51 Years in Prison.

Little Rock, Ark.—Yates Standridge, known as the "Arkansas Human Wolf," who has four murders to his credit and who was serving a term of 52 years to the state penitentiary, will be a free man next year. Governor Brough having reduced the sentence from 52 to 15 years.

Standridge has already served 14 years. Once Standridge escaped from prison and before he was captured he killed a man and a woman and shot another woman's arm off. He also killed a prison guard.

In Newton county, the home of the "Wolf," news that he is to be released has caused fear in the heart of more than one man—especially those who testified against Standridge when he was tried for murder.

CONFISCATED EVIDENCE, BUT LEO BLUSHED NOT

Chicago.—Leo Wright was caught after he had made his way into a sub-post office wearing, it is charged, one pair of trousers when he went in and two when he came out. The order to the police was, "Confiscate the evidence." Wright did not blush.

USE SCREEN FOR DETECTIVES

Cleveland Police Chief Believes His Men Are Becoming Too Well Known to Crooks.

Cleveland.—Chief of Police Smith believes his detective force is becoming entirely too well known in the underworld. They are being spotted, he thinks, so he has made a screen behind which the sleuths camouflage themselves every morning while the night's prisoners pass in review.

The screen is painted on one side and the sleuths are able to look the prisoners over in search of "wanted" criminals, but the prisoners cannot see the detectives.

Wife Beater Reforms. Two Rivers, Wis.—A warning that he might be sentenced to the Thousand Islands and be compelled to spend a year on each, was sufficient to cause Alex Belmont of this city, arrested on the charge of beating and abusing his wife, to reform.

When Self Because of Jealousy. Ben Sanderson, after he had been rejected three times for army service, because of weak ankles and feeble sight, Orville Criss killed Sanderson.

MAY DRIVE FOLLOWS LIBERTY LOAN PLAN

COUNTY AND CITY DIVIDED INTO TEN DISTRICTS FOR GIANT PATRIOTIC FUND CAMPAIGN.

DISTRICT CHAIRMEN APPOINTED

William G. Lerchen Will Have Charge of Wayne County Outside City of Detroit.

County and city will be divided into ten districts for the patriotic fund drive, May 20 to 27, after the plan adopted for the Liberty loan campaign. The districts will be numbered from A to J. Of these only one is located wholly within Detroit. All the others embrace portions of both city and county. In addition there will be a small central district, embracing the large office buildings and the principal retail stores, which will be handled on a different basis than the other districts.

Clark to Direct Drive.

Each district will be in charge of a chairman to direct the work of the various team captains under him. These chairmen will be responsible to the executive committee, which will have general charge of the campaign under the direction of President Emory W. Clark.

Working with the executive committee and the district chairmen will be a number of supervisors. The supervisor appointed for the country outside of Detroit is William G. Lerchen, who has been identified with previous campaigns in a similar capacity and is well known throughout the townships. The other supervisors and district chairmen have been appointed but the latter have not been assigned to districts as yet.

Liberty Loan Workers Enlisted.

Four of the districts will be in charge of the Rotary club, Exchange club, Detroit Life Underwriters' association and the Detroit Real Estate board, respectively, and each of these organizations will name its own chairman.

A large proportion of the Liberty loan workers will be enlisted in the May drive as well, and as far as possible the organization of the former will be preserved intact.

NOTED ADVERTISING MEN TO AID IN DRIVE

Six Experts Will Donate Services to Boost Patriotic Fund Campaign Over the Top.

Six advertising experts of national reputation will aid President Emory W. Clark and the executive committee of the Detroit Patriotic fund in putting Wayne county's first federated war chest drive "over the top" the week of May 20. Harry P. Breitenbach, chairman of the advertising committee, announces the appointment of the following associates:

Theodore F. MacManus, of the Theodore F. MacManus Co., Inc.; W. Haddon Jenkins, of Power, Alexander & Jenkins; Hal C. Smith, of the Carl M. Green Co.; Guy C. Brown, of the Campbell-Ewald Co.; E. LeRoy Pelletier and William A. Pritchard, of Colchfield & Co.

Services Purely Patriotic.

"The entire advertising appropriation for the campaign could not buy the services of these men," said Mr. Breitenbach. "They have consented to serve purely from motives of patriotism and civic pride, and at a real sacrifice to themselves. Their spirit is typical of the whole campaign."

This committee faces one of the biggest advertising problems ever presented in a drive of this kind. The amount to be raised, between $6,000,000 and $8,000,000 sets a new mark in America, for cities in Detroit's class at least. The fact that several organizations are participating presents certain difficulties from an advertising standpoint, and these must be met and overcome.

To Hold Meetings At Night.

To accomplish their task without possibility of other business demands interfering these experts, keen rivals by day, controlling advertising expenditures running into several millions of dollars, will hold their meetings at night. There will be no time limit on these sessions.

The war chest campaign will set an example from an advertising angle in that no donated space will be solicited or accepted. All space will be purchased on a strictly business basis, and because the members of the committee are giving their services without cost, the entire advertising bill of the campaign, and the schedule is ample, will amount to only a small fraction of 1 per cent of the money to be raised.

If there is anything you want to buy or sell, advertise it in the Mail.

SINGING THE WAY TO WAR SAVING

Two Detroiters Create the Official W. S. S. Song in Their "Dress Up Your Dollars in Khaki."

One of the greatest aids in bringing home to the people the necessity for marshaling their small change in the coffers of the government for a successful termination of the war, according to the national war savings committee, is the new war song hit, "Dress up Your Dollars in Khaki and Help Win Democracy's Fight."

Both words and music were written by Detroiters, the lyrics by Lister R. Alwood, and the music by "Dick" Whiting, of Jerome H. Remick & Co., creator of numerous other popular melodies.

The song as originally written was intended to be used only in the state campaign. Copies of it were submitted to other state directors, however, with the result that from Maine to Texas orders for thousands of copies of the song have been sent in to the local committee.

It is planned to have it sung by school children, singing societies and in playhouses and movie theaters throughout the country. In Texas alone, the song will be sung by school children in 39,000 schools.

The song has been written to a snappy march time music, and the lyrics eloquently express the sentiment which is prompting millions of people to buy the thrift stamps. The lyrics follow:

From lowland and highland,
In your land and my land,
Our warbirds are marching away
To join their comrades
In France and in Flanders,
To save the world with in this fray,
But Uncle Sam's calling the stay-at-homes too.
For the highway to freedom is rocky,
No prove you're a soldier by saving—yes
And dress up your dollars in khaki.

Oh, dress up your dollars in khaki a spell
And help win democracy's fight.
With your nickels and dimes and your quarters, as well.
You can set the whole question right
For the lender is Freedom's defender.
But the spender is worst of them all—
Let a War Saving Stamp send your money to camp.
And answer the President's call!

Speaking of loyalty, your money talks, but it shouts through a megaphone when turned into War Saving Stamps.

A Letter From H. C. Hager

Plymouth Man Writes Interestingly of His Trip to Arizona.

The following extracts of a letter from H. C. Hager, describing his journey to Phoenix, Arizona, may be of interest to the readers of the Plymouth Mail. He says:

"I left Detroit at 11 p. m., February 19th, and was due in Chicago at eight o'clock next morning, but owing to a disabled engine, did not arrive until 1:30 p. m., which lost me the connections I had planned on. We remained in Chicago until 10:30, then left for Kansas City. Here the scenery was nothing to speak of, and I was much disappointed to see such tumble down shacks called farm buildings. The corn was standing in shocks and very poor. Crossing the Missouri river, which was full of ice, we encountered some picturesque scenery, following the river for a long way, winding in and out around the hills and gullies. We then struck across the state to Topeka, the capital of Kansas, where we had supper. This is mostly a wheat country, dotted with low farm buildings. Wheat, hogs and cattle seem to be the principal staple of Kansas. Now, we leave Topeka and proceed on west to Newton. This is a night ride. Here we also breakfasted, then left for LaJunta in the corner of Colorado, where we had dinner. Now the mountains commence, as we leave LaJunta, we pass through an irrigated country. Here are some very large orchards; the trees look so fine, one would think they were polished. This is a very fine and rich tract of land under irrigation, and worth from $150 to $300 per acre. It is banked on the east and west by a high range of mountains, running from five to twenty miles on each side of the rail, and can be seen for miles on each side of the car, the hills being invisible, as this cattle country is over 100 miles wide and 400 miles long, with scarcely a bush to be seen. It does not look as though a mouse could subsist on mile square, yet the cattle are in sight all the time. They never feed them at all, but sell the stock off in the fall, as fast as they become two years old. Cattle and sheep graze all over the mountains, but not so many as on these arid plains. As we are traveling, the mountains are in the background, rising all the time, and it takes three locomotives of the heaviest type to push a train to the top of the Divide, which is 11,000 feet high. Now we strike the mountains again, bending around their sides and over anyons hundreds of feet deep, and on the other side of the train it is exactly the opposite, being hundreds of feet high. Now we go through tunnels, then reach the summit, and here for miles and miles there is fine timber with saw mills, planing mills and mines. We cross the Divide, the top of the Rocky mountain and pass out on the desert, and go by rocks and mountains with nothing growing to speak of, until we reach Ash Fork, the junction where we change for Phoenix. This is a rocky country. About forty miles of this road is nothing but rocks and bare mountains. The road is cut through and around the sides and is as crooked as an angleworm, until we strike the valley of Phoenix twenty-five miles north, where there are many rich farms. Arrived here at midnight, February 23rd, and from what I have seen of the city so far, which has a population of 23,000, I think it is a fine place. The pure mountain air is very beneficial to the sick. Temperature today was 32 degrees in the shade, but in the summer months it is hotter, but one only has to go 100 miles higher, and it is cooler and dry. Would like to have you send on the Plymouth Mail, as soon as you read it; also a Detroit paper.

Kindest regards to everybody.
Henry C. Hager.

Is everybody busy? I should say so! With seed corn to test, seeds to order, fertilizer and lime to draw from the freight depot. The farmer is a busy man, but so am I. The more the merrier.

This winter has been so cold, more manure has been left in the barnyard pile than ever before. Let us hope that it can all be spread where it will do the most good. The corn crop, good seed being scarce should be "babied" a little, so let us give it an extra "helping."

Maple sugar weather is here by the "juggful." Let the sweet work go on.

Orders for the "Fordson" tractor are coming in. Is your neighborhood "short" this chance to increase production?

The meetings held the last week have been very successful. It is hoped that a large number will be in attendance at Trenton at 2:00 p. m., eastern time.

The home demonstration agent, Miss Bessie Rogers, will speak to the ladies should bring the men and the men the ladies.

We can supply farm labor now and we may not later. Let us know your needs now.

Buy at least one THRIFT STAMP every day~

Form the habit of thrift. Save something from your income regularly. It is your patriotic duty to help the government finance this war.

Thrift Stamps cost 25c each. When you have pasted sixteen of them on a thrift card as illustrated above, you exchange this and fourteen cents additional in March (fifteen cents in April etc.) for a War Savings Stamp. This bears 4% compound interest, paying you $5 on January 1, 1923.

You can buy Thrift Stamps and War Savings Stamps at any postoffice, any bank, from your postman, or wherever you see the sign "W. S. S. For Sale Here."

WHAT THE PATRIOTIC FAMILY DID WITH $1,000

When the Solicitor approached this Household he was received enthusiastically as a Neighbor who was asking the Householders to join him in the mutual effort to protect their Homes and Families from the cruelties and harsh exactions of Autocracy—and with the True Spirit of those who are saving and buying for Liberty.

Mr. Head-of-the-Household signed a subscription card for 200 War Savings Stamps.

His Wife signed for 40 War Savings Stamps, and she also signed for two of the stamps for Baby Daughter.

They bought the Stamps on the Child's fourth birthday anniversary—the latter part of February—at $4.12 each.

Daddy's 200 Stamps, at $4.12, cost $824.00
Mother's 40 Stamps, at $4.12, cost 164.80
Baby's two Stamps, at $4.12, cost 8.24

Total invested by the Family.... $997.04

Daddy's Stamps had a maturity value of $1,000.00
Mother's were worth, on Jan. 1, 1923, 200.00
Daughter's had a value when she was 3 years old, of..... 10.00

Total value at maturity..... $1,210.00

Now we deduct the cost of the Stamps $997.04

And we find the Family's Net Profit to be $212.96

On an investment of $997.04—and they still have 54 cents left over from their $1,000 with which to buy two Thrift Stamps toward another War Savings Stamp for Daughter, and 4 Cents besides.

Now, let's see what the Percentage of Profit was to this Household:—

We'll assume that Adversity did not overtake the family and that it was not necessary that their money be withdrawn until the due date (although they would have done this if it had been necessary), in which case they would have received the value of the Stamps at the time of withdrawal, with what would be the equivalent of practically 3 per cent interest.

The length of time this Family had its money invested in War Savings Stamps was fifty-eight months,—so we will divide the Family profit of $212.96 by 58, and we find the monthly profit to be $3.67, or $43.56 a year.

The Family invested practically $1,000 and received interest of 4.358 per cent on the investment—free from all Taxes, county, state or federal.

This family subscribed for its Stamps in the True Spirit of Patriotism, and discovered that through purchasing them it had not only done its Duty to its Country, but that it had made a most excellent investment at a remunerative rate of all the wealth and earnings power of the nation.

The Family had done its Full Duty in protecting its Home and that of its Neighbor from Autocratic Rule—and helped the Whole World to achieve Liberty, besides making a Fine Investment for the Family Funds, and laying the Foundation for the Teaching of the Habits of Thrift to the Little Daughters.

The Example set by this Family can—and WILL—be duplicated by many other Families in the state of Michigan.

The War Savings Plan

Is a plan by which you invest your small savings with the United States Government. You do it by buying War Savings Stamps and Thrift Stamps.

A War Savings Stamp cost $4.12 in January, and to this price is added one cent for each month since January. The one cent advance each month is to allow for interest the stamp earns.

These stamps as bought are pasted in a War Savings Certificate, which is a folder with 20 spaces for the Stamps. When these 20 spaces are filled put the Certificate away; it is worth $100, payable Jan. 1, 1923. Then start another.

A United States Thrift Stamp is for investors who want to save but find the War Savings Stamp more than they can spare at one time. The U. S. Thrift Stamp costs 25 cents; you get a Thrift Card from the postoffice or bank, or other authorized agency; no charge for the card. There are 16 spaces on this Card; a place for each 25-cent Thrift Stamp you buy. Sixteen of them make $4. When the card is full, take it to the postoffice, or bank, or other agency and get a War Savings Stamp; you'll pay the difference, 12 cents for January and one cent more each month during 1918. Paste the War Savings Stamp on the Certificate Card you get with it, and start a new 25-cent Thrift Card. The U. S. Thrift Stamps do not bear interest; the War Savings Stamps do—4 per cent, compounded every three months. The interest is in the convenient form of a monthly increase in the face value of the Stamps. The Stamps are redeemable at their full value, $5, on January 1st, 1923.

If you need to draw out the money you have saved (don't do it if you don't have to) go to the postoffice and they will tell you what to do, and what the exact value of your investment is on that date, and give you the money.

To The American People

There is no foundation for the alleged violations of law attributed to our Company by agents of the Federal Trade Commission and I want to say emphatically that Swift & Company is not a party to any conspiracy to defraud the Government. Nor has Swift & Company been guilty of improperly storing foods or of making false entries or reports.

Conferences of packers, where prices have been discussed, have been held at the urgent request and in the presence of representatives of either the Food Administration or the Council of National Defense. And yet the packers have been accused of committing a felony by acting in collusion on Government bids!

We have done our best, with other packers, large and small, to comply with the directions of the United States Food Administration in all particulars, including the furnishing of food supplies for the U. S. Army and Navy and the Allies, now being handled through the Food Administration.

We will continue to do our utmost, under Government direction, to increase our production and assist the Food Administration. We consider that the opportunity to co-operate whole-heartedly and to our fullest powers with this branch of the Government is our plain and most pressing duty.

The Trade Commission Attorney has, by false inference and misplaced emphasis, given to disconnected portions of the correspondence taken from our private files and read into the Record, a false and sinister meaning with the plain purpose of creating antagonistic public opinion.

The services of the packers of the United States are most urgently needed, and I regret exceedingly that we should at this time have to spend our efforts in defending ourselves against unfounded, unproved, and unfair assertions such as are being daily made public.

L. J. Swift, President

Swift & Company, U. S. A.

Win the War by Preparing the Land Sowing the Seed and Producing Bigger Crops

Work in Joint Effort the Soil of the United States and Canada CO-OPERATIVE FARMING IS MAN POWER NECESSARY TO WIN THE BATTLE FOR LIBERTY

The Food Controllers of the United States and Canada are asking for greater food production. Scarcely 100,000,000 bushels of wheat are available to be sent to the allies overseas before the crop harvest. Upon the efforts of the United States and Canada rests the burden of supply.

Every Available Tillable Acre Must Contribute; Every Available Farmer and Farm Hand Must Assist

Western Canada has an enormous acreage to be seeded, but man power is short, and an appeal to the United States allies is for more men for seeding operation.

Canada's Wheat Production Last Year was 228,000,000 Bushels; the Demand From Canada Alone for 1918 is 400,000,000 Bushels

To secure this she must have assistance. She has the land but needs the men. The Government of the United States wants every man who can effectively help, to do farm work this year. It wants the land in the United States developed first of course; but it also wants to help Canada. Whenever we find a man we can spare to Canada's fields after ours are supplied, we want to direct him there.

Apply to our Employment Service, and we will tell you where you can best serve the combined interests.

Western Canada's help will be required not later than April 5th. Wages to competent help, $50.00 a month and up, board and lodging.

Those who respond to this appeal will get a warm welcome, good wages, good board and find comfortable homes. They will get a rate of one cent a mile from Canadian boundary points to destination and return.

"What are you doing?" she demanded in a frankly horrified tone. "Working on a car and no man here!"—Exchange.

MUCH TILE LAID IN STATE DURING YEAR

New Drains, If Laid End to End, Would Reach at Least 2,887 Miles.

IS ROOM FOR MUCH MORE

Lack of Drainage is Still the Chief Drawback to Agriculture in Many Parts of Michigan.

From Department of Farm Mechanics, Michigan Agricultural College, East Lansing, Mich.—Most of us, when we think of reclamation projects nowadays, call to mind the mammoth dams of the middle West and the thousands of acres of once semiarid and nonproductive lands now teeming with bumper crops. Montana, Wyoming, certain districts in Oregon and Utah—these, we would answer, if the question were asked us, are the centers of agricultural reclamation.

Few of us would think of including Michigan in this list, but the facts of the matter are that Michigan really is one of the greatest of these. Forty thousand acres of our hitherto nonproductive lands, or lands which in the past have yielded only a fraction of what they should, have been made available for crops and increased in value in the year 1917 alone.

Our method of reclamation, however, has been directly the opposite of that used by our western neighbors. They have supplied water for the farms—we have drained it from them.

Very recently the department mechanics of the college, for purposes having to do with the present food campaign, set out to ascertain the extent to which drainage is being pushed within the state. The results of these findings were a revelation.

It was learned, for instance, that 12,000,000 feet of drain tile 5 inches in diameter and smaller was manufactured in Michigan in the year 1917, while 3,235,720 feet of drain tile larger than 5 inches in diameter was produced. In addition, 10,000,000 feet of drain tile was shipped into the state, making a total of more than 25,000,000 feet of tile laid in the twelve months ending on January 1, or enough, if set end to end, to reach a distance of 2,887 miles.

The amount of land drained was at least 400,000 acres, which as a reclamation project compares quite favorably with what has been going on at the foot of the Rockies.

An enterprising statistician has figured out what this work means in terms of wheat production. This newly drained land, according to his estimate, is capable of adding at least 700,000 bushels to Michigan's annual yield. In determining this yield, it was assumed that the large tile was used mostly to drain ground that hitherto has not produced crops. Enough of this tile was put in to carry off the water from 16,000 acres of new land. There is reason to believe also that at least 4,000 acres of the 24,000 acres drained by the small tile, was new land, or low spots which no crops were being raised before drainage was attempted. This gives us 20,000 acres of new land drained and a similar amount of land upon which crop production has been increased by drainage. Inasmuch as areas requiring drainage are as a rule some of our most fertile lands, it has been assumed that the new land drained will produce at least 25 bushels of wheat to the acre, or its equivalent, and that on the old land, the yield will be increased at least ten bushels to the acre.

Nor is the work done yet. Already there are evidences that reclamation will go on this year just as briskly, if not more so, than was the case a year ago, and the questions coming up are not so much questions of the project. A temporary commissary building 240 feet long by 90 wide is also now being erected. The permanent commissary will be constructed after the construction of the 1,600 houses is completed. It will be of brick and will cost between $100,000 and $125,000.

Easy to Keep Pledge. "My father signed the Hoover pledge," said George, "and so did I." "So did my father," said Mary. "And we have meatless days," said George. "We never have any other kind," said Mary. "But why?" asked George. "You don't have to go without meat every day." "But we are vegetarians."

Get Wood Now. County and emergency food agents in many of the counties of the state are urging farmers to cut wood before spring comes and to supply their rural schools, churches, creameries, cheese factories and their homes with wood rather than coal.

Waterproof wall coating capable of withstanding the dampness of the rainy season is wanted in India. The coating would be used mostly in buildings of brick construction.

HABITS HARD TO EXPLAIN

Men of Science Can Furnish Little Reason as to Why Female Spider Eats Her Mate.

The snail deserves all that has been said about slowness. It took nine nearly an hour to go 18 inches, says Boys' Life, the Boy Scouts' Magazine, and deposits of little globules were left on the trail.

As to why the female spider eats the male, Prof. John Henry Constock, Ithaca, N. Y., says: "Under ordinary circumstances the predaceous instinct in the female spider is very strong; all prey looks alike to her." The spider is a ferocious animal, and her appetite predominates at most times. The fact is that nobody knows why. Scorpions eat the males; the praying mantis does the same; other insects are similarly guilty. It is a common occurrence, but no one can tell "why."

Toadstools for Cork.

On account of the scarcity of cork in Germany various substitutes for this commodity have been recommended. Says the Druggists' Courier:

"Wohlfart and Sachwitz have worked out a process by which toadstools are converted into a substance which on account of its elasticity can be used not only for making stoppers for bottles, but also gaskets for preserving jars and in making automobile tires, etc. Wessling uses linden and willow wood, from which thin-walled cups are made which fit the neck of the bottle, and so replace stoppers."

Be Kind to Animals Week

Let everyone be ready to observe "Be Kind to Animals Week and Humane Sunday," April 15 to 21. This is the message of the American Humane Association and the Red Star Animal Relief. This is another war measure of great importance. The Red Star is undertaking to do for the horses of war what the Red Cross does for its men. It means to save by care, those horses which are not too seriously injured for the great work of the war. Horses are needed to transport the necessary food supplies and ammunition to the front line trenches, often over rough and muddy roads that the auto is useless. The horses are indispensable. They are not available in anything like the numbers they should be, so conservation, here again, should be written in our minds. Veterinaries, drugs and ambulances must be provided. Besides the war work of the Red Star, there is the more general work of the Humane Association, which includes this and much more. It is principally an organization of peace times, but its work grows more urgent because of war. It deals largely with children and their welfare, as well as the humane treatment of animals in every way, and shows how the humane spirit is a real mark of civilization. Watch for the Red Star next week.

Two Noted Speakers Sunday at M. E. Church

Those who attend services at the Methodist church next Sunday will have the privilege of hearing two speakers of note. At the morning service Miss Clara Merrill, who went from Flint as a missionary to China twenty-two years ago, and is now home on a furlough from Kiuikiang, China, will tell of her interesting experiences, under the auspices of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. An informal reception will be given to Miss Merrill at the church, Saturday afternoon at four o'clock, followed by a pot-luck supper.

Dr. Rev. George F. Durgin, D. D., of Bishop Henderson's area staff and superintendent of young people's work in Michigan will give one of his inspirational addresses at the evening service, to which all are invited. Dr. Durgin will also have charge of a rally service for young people at 6 o'clock, Sunday evening, speaking on "The Job and the Program."

Wayne County Man for U. S. Senator

Truman H. Newberry of Detroit, who is a candidate for United States senator, is leaving his campaign entirely in the hands of his friends. He is going to continue to give his attention to his duties as a Commissioner in the Third Naval District, which includes the port of New York and the Brooklyn Navy Yard. As Secretary of the Navy in the cabinet of President Roosevelt, Mr. Newberry proved himself the Roosevelt type of man, aggressive and efficient. Though Mr. Newberry will not be in Michigan to take part personally in his campaign, his friends throughout the state will work hard in his behalf. They are enthusiastic in their support, declaring that while politics should be kept in the background this year, there is in view of the vital questions arising out of the war, no more important patriotic duty at this time than the selection of the right man for senator. Those who are directing the work of the campaign are: A. A. Templeton, president of the Detroit board of Commerce, general chairman; Paul H. King, former secretary of the Constitutional Convention and ex-clerk of the House of Representatives, executive chairman; Charles A. Floyd, Grand Rapids business man, secretary; and H. A. Hopkins of St. Clair, for 12 years secretary of the Michigan Press Association, director of publicity.

Re-living The Slogan of '76

Remember that cry (deep as the seas, wide as the heavens) which burst from the thirteen American colonies when threatened by unjust taxation! The whole-hearted, fight-to-the-limit, Americanism of it? Listen: "MILLIONS FOR DEFENSE, BUT NOT ONE CENT FOR TRIBUTE." Not one cent for tribute. Yet the question was merely one of those easily-adjusted matters between parent country and child colony which mutual tolerance and mediation might correct. Millions for defense. And our crude Atlantic-coast forefathers hadn't even thousands then, where the wide-fung states and cities of our modern America have hundreds of thousands! Doesn't the character-brave, the sheer brute bravery, of that cry of '76 shock you into admiration—into a pride of race that is beyond all pride of wealth or attainment! Millions for defense! Thank God we have them. For here is no puny point of politics confronting a few infant colonies, but a tremendous, world-epoching struggle of Right against Might, whose stake is—the Tomorrows of the World! Let's coin the courage of our forefathers—"Millions for defense, but not one cent for tribute"—into War Savings Stamps, proving that the slogan of '76 is not a dead, historic memory, but a present, live, indomitable creed of co-operation and of victory! For as we lend to the limit, so America will defend to the limit!

CHARLOTTE FIRST "100%" CITY IN U. S.

MICHIGAN TOWN "GOES OVER THE TOP" IN W. S. S. CAMPAIGN.

"Who Will Be Next?" Is the Query on Every Tongue.

Charlotte, Michigan—After three days of campaigning in behalf of the treasury department's new movement for the sale of thrift stamps and war savings certificates in order to enlist in government financial aid hundreds of thousands of wage earners and small investors who do not find it convenient to absorb Liberty loan issues, Charlotte is now able to point to the fact that there is not a single citizen within her borders who is not the possessor of one or more thrift stamps and war savings certificate, the first town in the nation to make that record. This result was attained only after strenuous activities on the part of practically every inhabitant of the town, from the mayor down to the smallest school boy. "Dress Your Dollar in Khaki." Thrift stamp stations were in a score of drug stores, groceries, the local postoffice, and elsewhere, and over the streets were displayed as "Dress Up Your Dollar in Khaki," "Save and Serve—Buy War Savings Stamps," "Don't Be a Spender, Be a Saver," "Thrive By Thrift, Buy War Savings Stamps," and every occasion was improved by speakers and clubs and musical organizations to spread the gospel of saving in small amounts. The campaign started January 29, and lasted three days. On the twenty-eighth a rousing meeting was held at the Phoenix hotel; speeches were made by Joseph P. Standart, of Detroit, and E. J. Elles, of Charlotte. Tuesday night 28 teams made up of two men each left the bank established at the community association office and started their city-wide campaign. About one-third of the city was covered on the first night. Everything was made as easy as possible by printed forms and advertising in the local newspapers, as well as by banners stretched across the streets, window displays and a series of personal letters to each individual in the city. People Flocked to Pay. One man in each of the selling stations gave practically all his time to taking care of the rush of people who wished to fill up the thrift cards and buy war savings stamps after they had made their family 100 per cent from purchases made from the collectors. The postoffice and the bank did a record business during the three day campaign, many employees working over time checking up returns. During the campaign the headquarters office looked at all times as though some political meeting were in progress, people flocking there by the scores to make their purchases. The spirit of making Charlotte the first 100 per cent city in the nation prevailed throughout the entire community. One practical joker remarked to one of his friends that a new insanity had settled over the city, and called it "Stampitis."

Thrift is Big Lesson.

The national war savings committee is now on the alert to see which of our small towns enrolled in the year-round war savings campaign will be the first to follow Charlotte, and thus be second on the list of 100 per cent cities. The fact of becoming 100 per cent is not considered by the government to be so important financially, much as there is some savings are needed by the treasury department to prosecute the war, but its chief value lies in the lesson of thrift which the great American commonwealth will derive from local drives of this sort and their success. The government has repeatedly gone on record in this war savings movement that the fundamental purpose of it is not only to raise the $2,000,000,000, allotted as the necessary quota, but to inculcate the spirit of saving spending and investment instead of hoarding, which will be one of the biggest constructive lessons of the entire war to this country.

PERRINSVILLE

The St. Patrick's social given by the young ladies of the Perrinsville Sunday-school at Pearl-Wilson's, was certainly a great success. $38.80 was cleared from the sale of post cards and stamps; also the can of corn. Isaac Innis won first prize for guessing the correct number of kernels in the can. The house was very prettily decorated in green and white, with shamrock. A hearty vote of thanks was given Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, not only for being famous entertainers but also for the generous supper and ice cream provided by them; also a vote of thanks is due our young auctioneer, Howard Bridge, who disposed of the post cards to such good advantage. Games and music were indulged in until a late hour, when all left to return to their homes, voting Mr. and Mrs. Wilson capital entertainers. Miss Helen O'Brien spent the week-end with Helen Hanchett. Wedding bells are again ringing in Perrinsville. Miss Elsie Fair and Charles Taylor were quietly married at Dearborn, last Wednesday afternoon. The young couple will reside in Detroit. They have the good wishes of a host of friends for a long and happy wedded life. Hilred Baehr spent Sunday at home. The L. A. S. met in the church last Wednesday to elect their officers for the ensuing year. The following is the result of the election. President—Mae Kubik. Vice Pres.—Mabel Hanchett. Secretary—Emma Steinhauer. Treasurer—Annie Holmes. Organist—Maud Tait. Notice—We, the members of the L. A. S. and M. E. S. do hereby extend hearty vote of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Wilson for the hospitality shown us at the St. Patrick's social at their home, March 16, 1918. (Signed) Emma Steinhauer, Secretary L. A. S. Alma Steinhauer, Secretary M. E. S.

A large crowd attended the dance held at Paul Badelt's, last Tuesday evening. James Odell moved his family to the Vreeland farm, last Thursday. Mr. Badelt is moving his family on the William Beyer farm, this week.

Wayne County Honey Producers Meet

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sharrow attended a meeting of Wayne county honey producers at St. Louis, Tuesday, together with O. J. Gregg, county agent, and B. F. Kindig, state entomologist, who are making an attempt to organize Wayne county honey producers. It is very evident that the honey producers of Wayne county do not realize the benefits to be derived from such an organization, as all the other wide-awake counties are organized and getting results. It is planned to make another attempt, and it is hoped to see every honey producer in our county present. Meeting is expected to be held in Plymouth.
