MUSIC AND SONGS OF FAITH, HOPE AND SERVICE

There is no great song written by an unbeliever. Unbelief has no hymnal. Music will not fit the poetry of an unbeliever. Try this:

"The world rolls round forever like a mill,
It grinds out death and life and good and ill,
It has no purpose, heart or mind or will."

No tune could live bound to such words. Unbelief may sing, mechanically, the optimistic songs of faith, but can't originate a living hymn. To compile a volume of hymns is no task. To grow a hymnal is the achievement of centuries.

The uses of music will be the morning theme, Sunday, and the organ recital, Sunday evening at the

The contingent of thirty-six selected men from District No. 4, left Plymouth, Monday morning, over the Pere Marquette. The men assembled in the village hall, Sunday afternoon, and received their final instructions from the Local Board, after which Rev. Karl P. Miller of the Presbyterian church, gave the boys a short talk that was most appropriate and opportune. He concluded his remarks with an invitation to attend a special service at the Presbyterian church, that evening.

Monday morning the men again assembled at the village hall for the march to the depot. Shortly after seven o'clock the procession, headed by the band, selected men, Chairman Dr. R. E. Cooper and E. C. Hough of the Local Board, and citizens formed in line, and to the stirring music of the band the column moved to the station. Here a great crowd of relatives and friends had gathered to say farewell to sons, brothers and sweethearts. The same touching scenes that has marked the previous events of this kind were enacted as the last farewells were said to friends and loved ones.

Rev. Charles Strasen of the local Lutheran church, gave the boys a splendid talk soon after their arrival at the station. He was followed by Rev. Victor Brown of Wayne.

Each of the recruits was given a lunch box, which had been provided by the ladies of the village. The Plymouth boys were each presented with a soldier's comfort kit from the ladies of the Red Cross, a wrist watch from Mrs. Kate E. Allen and a safety razor from Plymouth township.

The band played a number of selections before the arrival of the train, which helped wonderfully to relieve the tenseness of the occasion, and when at last the train rolled into the station, the boys got aboard the special car on the rear end, and every man got a window or stood on the platform as the train pulled out of the station, and with the band playing the Star Spangled Banner, the large crowd amid tears and cheers bid the boys good-bye and God-speed as they went forth to fight for liberty and democracy.

Craig-Olds

A quiet home wedding took place, Tuesday of this week at high noon, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Olds, north village, when their daughter, Miss Ora Olds, was united in marriage to Mr. J. Archie Craig of Stockbridge, Mich., in the presence of the immediate relatives. Rev. A. L. Bell performed the ceremony. The bride is well and favorably known in Plymouth, while the groom is one of the prosperous farmers of Ingham county. The young couple were the recipients of some beautiful presents, among them being a set of silver tableware given by the members of the Baptist church of which the bride is a member. They left on the evening train for Stockbridge, amid a shower of rice and the hearty good wishes of the community.

Harry Farewell Meets With Fatal Accident

Well Known Plymouth Citizen Hit by Street Car in Detroit, Last Saturday, and Died in St. Mary's Hospital, Tuesday.

Harry Farewell, aged seventy-one years, of this village, met with a sad accident, last Saturday afternoon, which resulted in his death, Tuesday morning. Mr. Farewell left Plymouth for Detroit, Saturday afternoon at one o'clock, and at three o'clock, in some unknown manner, was hit by a street car in that city. He was taken to St. Mary's hospital in an unconscious condition, where it was found that he had a fractured skull. Later he regained consciousness, and was able to tell his name and address, but Mr. and Mrs. Ammon Brown, with whom he made his home here, were not notified of the accident until Monday morning, when they in turn immediately notified his son, George, at Northville, who left at once for his father's bedside, but the injured man grew rapidly worse and passed away at eleven o'clock Tuesday morning. The deceased had been a resident of Plymouth for many years. He was always a man of good habits and sterling qualities, but of a retiring disposition. He is survived by one son, George, of Northville, and one brother, who lives in AuSable. His wife preceded him to the higher life about four years ago.

The remains were brought to Plymouth, Tuesday evening, and the funeral was held from the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ammon Brown on Union street, Thursday afternoon at two o'clock. Rev. Karl P. Miller, pastor of the Presbyterian church, conducting the services. Burial took place in the family lot at Newburg.

Funeral Service for John Barleycorn

A funeral service and burial for the late John Barleycorn of Michigan, who was executed and laid to rest, last Tuesday at midnight, by the previous decree of Michigan voters, will be held in the Methodist church, next Sunday evening. The funeral sermon will be delivered by the pastor, Rev. F. M. Field, who will pay his respects to the late "colonel." In connection with this unique service, there will be a report of the execution and burial of John Barleycorn, which took place before great anti-saloon conference in Lansing, just past midnight, Wednesday morning. Fred Bird, who with Rev. Karl Miller and William Tait, witnessed the thrilling spectacle, will tell of what was done.

Presbyterian Notes

The Ladies' Auxiliary met Wednesday afternoon in the church social rooms, the entertainment committee being Mrs. A. A. Taft and Mrs. Harry J. Green.

The Intermediate Christian Endeavor society enjoyed an afternoon of recreation, Tuesday, in the church house. Mrs. Whipple and Miss Gardner directed the pleasures of the thirty-five young folk, and delicious light refreshments were served for them late in the afternoon.

C. F. Reeb's Sunday-school class will hold its monthly meeting at the church house, Monday evening at 6:30. These events have been largely attended, about fifty being present at the April meeting. The class will dine at 6:30.

Important changes in the auditorium platform have been necessitated by the installing of the new organ, which takes up all the room formerly occupied by both piano and choir. The platform has been extended nearly two feet and lowered more than a foot, and the choir platform separated from the pulpit by handsome paneled effect, all wood, and full length of the organ. The work beautifies the interior of the church, and by careful management the seating capacity of the church has not been reduced. It is believed that all changes made will rather improve the acoustics, as well as the appearance of the auditorium.

The Sunday-school has for several weeks keenly felt the absence of Miss Irene Carr, who has been ill. And we are glad to know of her recovery. She has had for several years a Sunday-school class of over thirty girls, whose attachment to her has been equalled only by her devotion to them.

Children's Day will be the first Sunday in June, exactly one month in the future.

The choir Sunday evening was crippled by the illness of both Miss McClompha and Miss Hales, who therefore could not be present. The congregational singing, however, was far above the average due no doubt to the inspiration of having the patriotic spirit and the sixteen District No. 4 soldiers in the congregation.

A vote will be taken by the congregation Sunday morning on the question of advancing the evening hours of worship to thirty minutes later, that is 7:30.

The monthly meeting of the trustees will be held Tuesday evening at 7:30, at the pastor's study.

Potato Soup
3 cups hot food or mashed potatoes.
1 quart milk.
2 slices onion.
2 tablespoons butter.
2 tablespoons flour (rice flour or corn flour.)
2 1/2 teaspoons salt.
Celery salt.
Pepper.
Cayenne.
1 teaspoon chopped parsley.

Melt butter, add to it the flour and seasoning, stirring the mixture until smooth. Add gradually to this, one cup of milk and boil for one minute. Add the potato, mix thoroughly, then add the rest of the milk and the slice of onion. Heat to boiling. Remove the onion, strain the soup if necessary, add the parsley and serve. Water saved from cooking celery is a good addition to potato soup. Two cups of tomato juice and 1-16 teaspoon of soda may be substituted for two cups of milk.

Potato Puff
Add beaten whites of eggs to mashed potatoes (2 eggs to 6 medium-sized potatoes.) Pipe the mixture lightly in a baking-dish and bake it in the oven until it puffs and browns. The yolks of eggs and one-fourth cup of grated cheese also may be added.

Scalloped Potatoes and Cheese
Arrange a layer of sliced raw or boiled potatoes in a greased baking dish and sprinkle with grated cheese. Repeat until the dish is nearly full. Pour milk over the whole, about one-half cup to every three potatoes. Skim milk may be used. Bake in a moderate oven until done. The length of time required depends upon whether the potatoes are raw or boiled and whether the baking dish used is deep or shallow. Boiled potatoes baked in a shallow dish will take only 20 minutes. Raw potatoes in a deep dish may take as much as 1 1/2 hours.

Potato Leaf
1 cup mashed potatoes.
4 tablespoons minced onion.
2 tablespoons green pepper or pimento pepper.
1/2 cup canned tomatoes.
1 egg.
1 teaspoon salt.
1-3 cup ground peanuts.
Mix the ingredients well together. Turn the mixture into a buttered baking dish. Brush it over with melted butter or drippings. Bake it in a moderate oven for 25 minutes.

Potato Rolls (3 Dozen)
3 cups mashed potatoes.
4 1/4 cups flour.
2 teaspoons salt.
2 tablespoons corn syrup.
1 cake compressed yeast softened in 1/2 cup water.
1/2 cup milk scalded.
2 tablespoons fat.
Add the hot milk to the potato and when the mixture has cooled until it is lukewarm, add the softened yeast and other ingredients. Allow the dough to rise to double its bulk. Work it down and let it rise until it has increased in size by about one-half. Then shape the rolls, let them rise until they are double in size and bake them in a hot oven.

Potato Muffins (Saving a fourth of the Flour.)
1-3 cup liquid.
1 tablespoon fat.
2 tablespoons syrup.
1 egg.
1 cup mashed potatoes.
1 1/2 cups wheat flour.
1 teaspoon salt.
4 teaspoons baking powder.
Add the liquid, melted fat, syrup and beaten egg to the cooked potato. Sift the dry materials together and add to the first mixture. The dough will be too stiff to mix easily with a spoon. Use a knife or a fork. Bake about 20 minutes in a moderately hot oven. (205 degrees C.—400 degrees F.) Make eight large or twelve to sixteen small muffins.

Potato Biscuit
Using 1 2-3 cups instead of 3 cups of flour.
No liquid.
1 1/2 tablespoons fat.
1 teaspoon salt.
5 teaspoons baking powder.
1 2-3 cups wheat flour.
1 1/2 cups mashed potatoes.
Sift dry ingredients, work in fat and add mashed potatoes. This makes a very stiff dough. Roll one-half inch thick and cut into biscuits. Bake 20 to 25 minutes in a moderately hot oven.

Potato Biscuit
Using two cups of flour instead of three.
1 tablespoon liquid.
1 1/2 tablespoons fat.
1 teaspoon salt.
5 teaspoons baking powder.
2 cups flour.
1 1-3 cup mashed potatoes.
Sift together dry ingredients, mix in the fat and add potatoes and liquid. This makes a very stiff dough. Roll one-half inch thick and cut into biscuits. Bake 20 to 25 minutes in a moderately hot oven.

The Passing of the Saloon

Tuesday night, April 30th, marked the close of John Barleycorn's long reign in Michigan. It is entirely fitting that we make note of the event, for it is not so many years ago that such a thing as the passing of the licensed saloon from our midst would have been considered an impossibility. Today, Michigan is a saloonless state, following in the line with many other states, who have taken this step forward.

When Michigan went dry at midnight on April 30, a total of 3,285 saloons in the state went out of business and 62 breweries are prohibited from manufacturing beer or any intoxicating liquor. At the election in November, 1916, the amendment providing for "bone dry" state prohibition, was adopted by a majority of nearly 70,000. Manufacturers and dealers of liquor in Michigan have had eighteen months to dispose of their stock and wind up their business affairs. Michigan breweries employed 2,060 men, while saloons had a total of 6,387 persons.

Take Care of Your Chickens

President W. T. Conner has received the following communication from the United States Food Administration, which explains itself:

Lansing, April 20, 1918, Honorable President:

We are now at the season in which supplies must be taken to provide the staples of food on which we shall depend throughout the year.

The "war garden" movement is one of the activities in which our government is asking all citizens to participate, in order that the staple crops may be reserved insofar as possible for the time when perishable foods are off the market.

We are receiving complaints from all parts of the state that war gardens suffered greatly last year because of the careless habits of people who permit their chickens to run at large. The same conditions prevail this year, and unless immediate steps are taken, many of our citizens will allow their ground to remain idle rather than have their time and money sacrificed to their neighbors' thoughtlessness or indifference.

Our situation is sufficiently serious to demand that every available plot of ground be cultivated and that loss of production and waste of food be absolutely eliminated.

Will you kindly instruct your chief of police or town marshal to see that no chickens or live stock are permitted to run at large, and deal with those who willfully ignore your orders to the full extent of the state laws and your local ordinances.

Very respectfully, GEORGE A. PRESCOTT, Federal Food Administrator.

Former Resident Dies at Milford

We take the following from the Milford Times regarding the death of Miss Lola Brown, who formerly resided near Plymouth:

Lola Alice Brown, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Brown, passed away at the family home in this village, Thursday morning, about one o'clock, following an operation for relief of appendicitis on Monday afternoon. For years in frail health, she had been a sufferer from chronic appendicitis for a year or more. Last Thursday night there was a chronic attack and soon unfavorable symptoms developed. Dr. Baker was called Sunday morning and an operation was decided on which was performed Monday afternoon by Dr. Baker, assisted by Dr. Manly. The patient rallied well, but had not the strength necessary for recovery and gradually grew weaker.

Miss Brown was born November 5, 1885, near Plymouth, Michigan. The family have been residents of Milford since 1904. She leaves besides parents, a sister, Mrs. Glenn Hayes of Leamington, Ont., and a brother, Harold Brown of Detroit. The funeral is announced for Saturday afternoon at three o'clock at the home, conducted by Rev. A. C. Wilson.

Stop the "Snuffles"

If you want to make your distressed babies easy and comfortable, give Foley's Honey and Tar.

It is just what they ought to have for bronchitis, colds, "snuffles," and whooping cough. It stops cough, soothes the throat, and cures the chest.

Foley's Honey and Tar tastes good and the little ones like it. It contains no opiates, chloroform or other drug that you wouldn't like to give to young children. Do not accept a substitute.

Dr. J. E. Green, Schoolcraft, Mich., writes: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar for many years and it has cured my children of all their colds and snuffles."

"Thank God there isn't one!" she muttered. "Ah, well," Bill sighed, "I guess there is no one. I guess we can't get together on anything. There doesn't seem to be any give-and-take between us any longer."

He rose and walked to the door. With his hand on the knob, he turned. "I have fixed things at the bank for you," he said abruptly.

Then he walked out, without waiting for an answer. She heard the soft whirr of the elevator. A minute later she saw him on the sidewalk. He had an overcoat on his arm, a suitcase in his hand.

It seemed incredible that he should go like that. Surely he would come back at noon or at dinner time. She had always felt that under his gentle-

Grand Rapids—Mayor Philo Fuller has ordered the arrest of members of the Liberty committee which painted the homes of alleged pro-Germans here. The last four homes painted were mistaken ones. Legal action rather than mob rule was demanded by the mayor in a proclamation.

Flint—Mike Mehilno, Lapeer fruit dealer, was ordered to leave this city by police. He came here to have a barber remove traces of tar and feather treatment he received in his home city for alleged refusal to support the Red Cross and Liberty loan. He also had an iron cross painted on his forehead.

The boys have left for Camp Merrill, N. J. with the field artillery. The marriages were performed by a minister, who was told the couples were of age.

Detroit—"I must be a Jonah," declared Edward T. Fitzgerald, secretary of Mayor Marx, when he read of the sinking of the American liner St. Paul in her dock at an Atlantic port. Mr. Fitzgerald was a passenger on the torpedoed Tuscania, met with exciting adventures during his recent stay in Europe and came home on the St. Paul. The trip to New York was uneventful and he is of the opinion his "jinx" didn't start to work until after he had left the ship.

Detroit—Application of a new rate on second-class mail matter which would result in increases ranging from 50 to 900 per cent over the present class mail matter rate, is opposed by the World's Citizenship congress. At its annual meeting here the assembly adopted a resolution urging the government to repeal the action of the war revenue act which provides for the new rate before it goes into effect. It was pointed out that increases in the second class mail rate would curtail circulation of national magazines and periodicals.

Flint—As the result of a conference between W. K. Fraden, state oil administrator, and a citizen's committee which has been investigating the Flint fuel situation, Flint fuel dealers were granted an increase from 12.5c to 13.5c per ton, plus profit. Kimmer, a man who is one of Albion's most loyal patriots, a veteran of the Civil war, and giver to all funds here. The men evidently made a mistake in the house.

Camp Custer—Private Alvin Slachowicz, of Detroit, assigned to the 160th depot brigade, has been acquitted of refusing to have an operation for hernia, which interfered with his duties as a soldier. The trial developed, however, that the disorder did not interfere with his work and he was discharged. He was restored to duty with his company.

Hudson—The local schools were temporarily closed following the resignation of every teacher but one following action of the school board in reinstating one of four boys who had been ordered to make up work they had missed when they skipped school. The other three boys were making up their work, the fourth being shown favoritism by the board, according to the teachers.

Owosso—The war department has advised relatives here of the death in France, of Lieutenant Charles S. Williams, of the Flying corps. He was killed in an airplane accident. Lieutenant Williams was a graduate of the University of Michigan engineering department and prior to his enlistment last spring, was employed in Detroit. He sailed for France in January. He was the first Owosso, man to die in France.

Camp Custer—Despite all the publicity given to the discharge of enemy aliens from the national army, local boards in Michigan continue to send Austrian and German citizens to Custer, even when these aliens ask exemption. Hundreds of them sent here in the last quota of the first draft were aliens, and 41 of them were citizens of the two countries, with which the United States is now at war. Some of these 41 men are willing to serve, but make the provision that they will accept service only in this country.

Gadusnet—The Calumet & Hecla mining Co. and two subsidiary corporations have granted a general increase over the present minimum wage of 5 per cent, with increases running up to 25 per cent for some classes of underground work. The contract system remains in force, making even greater earnings possible. It is believed the increase will help solve the present labor shortage, which has seriously affected copper output. Ten thousand, five hundred men benefit from the increase which became effective May 1.

Portland—In settling the estate of John Adams, a 62-year-old pioneer of Portland township, who died recently, it was stated that the aged man was a grand-nephew of John Adams, one of the signers of the declaration of independence and later a president. Few, if any, knew him as a relative of the second president and it is doubtful if the modest old gentleman ever mentioned the fact outside of his immediate family. Despite Mr. Adams' advanced age, he was very active and up until his death conducted his business affairs personally.

Camp Custer—In response to the announcement that soldiers may be transferred to the farm during planting and harvesting seasons, the commanding general of Camp Custer has been advised with more than 300 such applications. They come mostly from various parts of the service. Applicants are making the mistake of regarding war privileges, as it is the privilege of the government to offer them a few weeks on the farm. The government is not bound to accept them. It is the duty of the soldier to accept the government's offer if he wishes to do so.

TREASURED GIFTS TO AID THE WAR

PROCEEDS TO HELP AIRMEN

Work Under Supervision of Aviation Committee—Especially to Equip Boys Who Have Received Commissions.

By ERNEST POOLE.

[From the Committee on Public Information, Washington, D. C.] If war has darkened the world with hate, it has also opened windows in the minds of millions of people whose outlook was once narrow, but whose imaginations now go on wings out over the nations of the earth. And this is especially true among the people of the United States.

In New York the other day I visited a crowded little room upstairs at 259 Fifth avenue. The room was filled with mail packages and with boxes large and small of the trinkets and treasures sent here from homes all over the U. S. A., to be sold in order to help the lads who are going to "over there" in France.

From the window looking down I could see long lines of shops where in the old days "before the war" poured endless crowds of shoppers. I pictured Fifth avenue back through the years, and I thought of countless shopping streets in cities and towns all over the land where in generations gone by people have bought Christmas presents, wedding rings and birthday gifts. I thought of the numberless keepsakes that have been stored up in American homes and that have grown dear and intimate. Now, from these homes in New England and in New York and Chicago, and Galveston, Memphis and New Orleans these same small household treasures have come by thousands every week to this room.

And the busy women of the committee sort them out, and some are sold and the rest are melted up and sold, and with the proceeds clothes and other comforts are bought for the men of our air service. Uncle Sam supplies uniforms to the men, but not to the officers. When a boy gets his commission he must at once get about getting clothes, and for those who cannot raise the price the aviation committee steps in. And also for those privates who are being rushed off to France each week, and who lack many extra things that will make life less arduous, the committee again acts as a kind of a foster mother.

Equipment for an Officer.

Here is the average equipment the committee supplies to an officer: 1 set of underwear. 1 leather helmet. 1 pair aviator's gloves. 1 leather flying coat. 1 trench coat. 1 pair leather breeches. 1 pair aviator's boots. 1 pair woolen socks. 1 pair aviator's goggles. 1 woolen set, sweater, helmet, socks, wristlets and gloves.

The committee has made a splendid start. Formed only a few months ago as a part of the National Special Aid society, it has already collected and sold $23,000 worth of trinkets and has spent that amount on clothes. It is hard to keep up with the growing demands, for the war has gone out among the flyers, and they keep coming to this room. But as the demand is increasing, so is the supply, for the committee has sent its appeal out all over the country.

"Send jewelry, silverware, gold, and odd bits—nothing is too small; nothing too large. From our store of trinkets and treasures let us give help to the wings of the United States. Gold and silver, solid or plate, donated to the committee are melted in the United States assay office and the proceeds used to help the aviators. Send old or new jewelry, watches, chains, table and toilet ware, vases, candlesticks, silverware, spoons, corks, cardcases, umbrellas, tape, eyeglasses, mountings, thimbles, dental gold and platinum. Any broken bits can be melted. Articles in perfect condition will be placed on sale. What will you give? Be patriotic. Open your heart and your treasure box."

Long ago the treasures began to arrive. From New England and all through the East down to the old plantations; from New Orleans and Denver, from mining camps in the mountains and from lonely prairie farms, from Arizona ranches, from booming Oklahoma towns and from forest hamlets in the Northwest the trinkets have come pouring in. And some take the mind far back into years when the nation was thinking of far different things.

Daniel Boone Family Relic.

A set of fine old silver spoons from the family of Daniel Boone; a gold medal prize won by G. R. for election in B. college in 1894; gold wedding rings of every conceivable kind and size; rings with intimate words inside; rings with clasped hands; huge seal and signet rings; old-fashioned linked bracelets; brooches; goggles; grandfathers' glasses; and silver plates from coffins (removed at the time of the funeral and set up over the parlor mantle); pins of all kinds; gold pencils; old earrings of jet and silver and gold, and all kinds of precious stones; queer old pins, whole some of them; a necklace of rupees from India; treasures from China and Japan.

Totting these goods at high prices from the open box in front of me, I looked up and noticed a shadow which looked as if it were looking at me. I looked down and saw a man in a dark suit and a white shirt and a white tie. He was looking at me and I was looking at him. He was looking at me and I was looking at him. He was looking at me and I was looking at him.

and grew absorbed. He is not the only purchaser. Dashing young movie actresses come here to rummage among the old bracelets and earrings to supplement their costumes for scenes of American days gone by.

To go on with my inventory: Here was a set of large gold studs with a dog embossed on each, and next I took out a garnet ring and then a delicate fan of lace, point applique. From the wall near by hung a silver guitar. Underneath was a set of silver egg stands from an old lady in the West, who wrote that she had bought them in China.

Some of these rarer articles are sold to New York merchants. But with the great mass of trinkets there is no time for that, for things come in by the hundreds a day. Over in a corner was another box of coffin plates, one dating back to 1894, when we had another war on our hands with a somewhat similar aim in view. From a box nearby I took out scores of slender, delicate gold chains and lockets of gold and enamel. On the table was a small box full of tiny gold fillings, taken from teeth all over the land. In a corner stood a whole barrel of clocks. I looked into a box of gold spectacles, many of them with gold chains. And here was a silver thimble, worn thin, which came from an elderly lady out in North Dakota. She had put this tiny note inside:

"I have used this thimble all my life, and I never thought anything would induce me to part with it."

Two Tiny Gold Wedding Rings.

Around the room were pitchers and trays of brass and pewter and copper plates. There were heaps of silver knives, forks and spoons and a table of chinaware. There were three more boxes of thimbles. And carefully wrapped in paper were two tiny gold wedding rings sent in by a widge couple on a vaudeville circuit somewhere out West. An old gentleman sent in a heavy watch chain.

"I am so old now," he wrote, "that I guess that I can take a chance on not losing my watch in the years that are left."

"I am sending you today, under separate cover, my treasures and trinkets. For many years I was an actress, and this collection represents the gifts of my professional friends, who, I know, would be delighted if they could only know the final use these were put to. May they help to build an airship that will shine brighter than all the footlights combined that I have ever faced. Wishing you glorious success. We will win!"

And here is another letter:

"Please accept these little trifles, which have been the source of much pleasure to me in past years. Most of them have little romances attached to their being given; several of their givers have been called home, and as I look at the little trifling things I am able to send you I feel proud indeed to think I may do even this bit to help the wings of the United States."

From long stooping over the boxes I kept looking up from time to time as the aviation boys came in to apply for equipment. Now there came three husky lads who were hoping to sail that week, and they seemed crazy to get off. One had come from Illinois, one from Arizona, and the other one from Vermont. I let my mind travel to their home towns and to the towns and villages and teeming cities all over the land, where the vision of the people has been blasted open as in a storm—to widen out and embrace the whole world.

On the wall I saw a poster with airplanes like a flock of geese in black silhouette against a yellow sky, and I thought of the hopes and imaginations that would follow these lads from all over this land—from the people who have sent these things. Their minds will never be the same, for they have glimpsed a wide, wide world which is now swiftly changing.

Dual Character in Men.

Most men are two characters under the same hat. On the outside the one wears a mask of civility, good comradeship and progress. On the inside is the grouch, the scold, the pessimist. Often the opposite is true. The outer man is crusty, exacting and may even be repellent. His other self is the warm, true soul that longs for love and shows up best with a few chosen friends. In either case life is a constant contradiction. The men are real. Each has his followers and each has his special task in the world. The unfortunate thing is we don't always get men at their best and so lose much of the better vision that would help take the world of the harshness from the oft-world.—Pennsylvania Grit.

How He Came Down.

Earl was playing in the yard under a bushy, low-imbred apple tree. Climbing daintily up into the tree, he lost his balance and came crashing down. Startled by the noise, mother ran from the house and perceived her young hopeful sprawled gapping on the ground. Darting quickly to him, she snatched him up into her arms, excitedly screaming even while examining the little body for fatal injuries. "Why! Earlies! How did you fall? Where did it hit you? Where are you hurt?" etc. As soon as the child could get his breath he sobbed, "Oh, I don't know. I des tum down all spraddled out."

How It Happened.

"I see where some abandoned creatures drank wood alcohol and two of them died," remarked Mrs. Dubwatta, who was glancing over the morning paper. "Why will man do such things?" "Oh, they didn't intend to die, they died," replied Mr. Dubwatta. "I dare say they hoped to spend a sociable evening and their trusting nature was betrayed on by a low-down bootlegger!"—Stratford Age-Herald.

Suspense. Janie's brother was, to say the least, bashful, but to propose to his lady friend on a postcard was, to Janie, the very last word in weakness. "My dear," said her girl friend when she heard about it, "how absurd!" "Yes; but that's not all," said Janie. "She replied by letter, and the postmistress is so angry, because she doesn't know whether he's been accepted or not."

Couldn't Tell. Two farmers met at the county seat shortly after a cyclone had visited that neighborhood. "Well, sir," said one of them, "she shook up things out my way, to be sure. By the way, Henry," he added, "did that new barn of yours get hurt any?" "I can't say," replied the second farmer. "I haven't found it yet."

"EAT MORE POTATOES" URGES MR. PRESCOTT

FOOD ADMINISTRATOR APPEALS TO MICHIGAN PEOPLE TO HELP USE UP SURPLUS TUBERS.

BE LOYAL TO OUR FARMERS

"This is the Best Way You Can Show your Patriotism at This Time," Prescott Tells Us.

Lansing—"Eat more potatoes and be sure they're Michigan grown." With that slogan, the United States Food Administration for Michigan has inaugurated a campaign to encourage the free marketing and consumption of the surplus potato stocks in the State. Food Administrator Prescott has enlisted the co-operation of all agencies of the potato trade, state and local authorities, various organizations, and the press. Stimular campaigns are being held in every other section of this country and during the next few weeks the great potato crop of Michigan and America will be moved from producing centers to points of consumption as rapidly as the public will consume the delectable "spuds."

"To eat potatoes is the best kind of local, home grown patriotism," says Mr. Prescott. "The reason for a potato campaign in Michigan is that the food bins are heaped with potatoes as the answer of the farmer to last year's appeal for the bumper war crops. The potato, grown through patriotism, should be eaten through patriotism. With so many other things scarce, potatoes, which are plentiful, should not go to waste. And they will go to waste if they are not eaten in the next few weeks."

"Potatoes are a strictly made-in-America product. They grow on this continent when the Mohawks and the Cherokees ruled it with a tomahawk. They are the gift of America to Europe and Europe has gone us one better. England, France, Germany, Belgium have made the potato a naturalized citizen, while Ireland, God bless her, has almost made it a Patron Saint along with St. Patrick himself."

"In spite of its adoption in other countries, however, the potato proved it was a true American last year when the crops were called in the front for war service. It enlisted in the front ranks of the food forces, with the result that we have such a potato crop as was never known in this country. Europe does not need to share our potatoes. They are too bulky to ship at this time when ships must be saved for troops and for the more essential and concentrated foods. Therefore, the best form of patriotism is to eat our bumper crop and make it help save wheat."

"The situation, in brief, is this," continued Mr. Prescott. "We have not enough wheat for the Allies and ourselves. We have an abundance of potatoes and excess of 90,000,000 bushels over normal times. If we are to win this war the Allies must have wheat. The potato cannot quite come up to wheat in food value but it does come about as close to taking the place of wheat as any other food. Therefore by eating potatoes we can save wheat for the Allies."

"Michigan people should rally to the support of the potato, for it is a native of our State. When it is realized that the potato is one of the chief foods now sustaining Germany and that the other European countries are largely dependent upon it, its importance in the war may readily be seen."

"Americans first realized how important a part in their daily food the potato played when last year a scarcity of this vegetable drove its prices to prohibitive heights. The result of those sky high prices still has its effect this season. When the Spring came, everyone planted potatoes. The farmer was particularly urged to lay out his land in potatoes as a patriotic duty. Accordingly although the average yield per acre was not large, there was an abundance of potatoes produced which have not been sold."

"The farmer had to pay high prices for his seed. It was difficult to obtain labor for tending and digging the crop and what labor he did procure cost him two or three times as much as ordinarily. A large item of expense was the fertilizer which has advanced in price because the acids it contains are being used for munition making."

"As a result, many a potato farmer is not making as much as he did several years ago when potatoes retailed at 50c per bushel and less. They should certainly be encouraged to plant potatoes this year by consumption of the crop they have produced instead of having them rot in their barns, or left to be fed to the hogs."

"Although the potato is a native vegetable, the American per capita consumption is very low, averaging only about one-half that of Europe. This is probably largely due to the fact that bread has always been high priced abroad and low here. The present price of bread in this country will probably make the people turn more to potatoes."

"At a time when the world is so in need of food it would be criminal to waste anything so important as the potato. It becomes the plain duty of the people of Michigan and every other State to eat up their potatoes grown in response to a military necessity," concluded the Michigan food chief.

NEWBURG

The pastor's sermon, last Sunday, on "The Life More Abundantly," was indeed a stirring appeal for everyone to sacrifice and do without the unnecessary things during this great struggle. The beautiful singing by Mr. VanPatten, accompanied by Mr. Carter, both of Detroit, added greatly to the services. There was a fine attendance at Sunday-school. Don't forget the mid-week Bible Study, Wednesday evening, after which is choir practice.

Hurray for a dry Michigan. People living on Plymouth road will certainly appreciate it.

There were several strangers at church, Sunday. They are always welcome at Newburg church.

Mrs. Hattie Ostrander spent over Sunday with her daughter, Mrs. Mark Joy.

Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Kingsley attended church at Newburg, Sunday, bringing Mr. VanPatten and Mr. Carter of Detroit, with them.

The many friends of Miss Lola Brown at this place were shocked to learn of her sudden passing away at the home of her parents in Milford, last week Thursday. She was taken sick Saturday night and was operated upon Monday for appendicitis. She resided here all her life up to fourteen years ago, when her people moved to Milford, where she had been engaged in the millinery business with her mother. She had many warm friends here, who sincerely mourn her early taking away. The family have the deep sympathy of all in their great affliction.

Rev. Withey of Flint, called on his sister, Mrs. M. A. Armstrong, last Friday.

Invitations have been received here from Cincinnati, Ohio, for the marriage of Mary Isabelle Pattulo and Rev. John Horace Cowan on Thursday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock, May 9th. The bride has many friends here, who wish them much happiness in their wedded life. The bridegroom receives his diploma the day of the wedding. They will be at home after June 1st at the manse, Georgetown, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Norris and family and Mrs. Innis of Detroit, visited the parental home, Sunday, and attended church.

News of Our Boys

The following is a part of an interesting letter received from Kenneth Harrison, son of Mrs. Phila Harrison, who is somewhere in France with a medical corps:

April 5, 1918.
By the way, did I tell you that I saw John Bassett about two weeks ago and what a surprise it was? I don't know just where his outfit is located, but I think farther away from the line. Anyway, he said he would keep me posted, so I expect to hear from him soon. "Chick" hasn't been seen around these "yer" diggings as yet, but by post card his mother was kind enough to inform me that he was close by, so expect him to drop in any day. My! wouldn't I be tickled to see him though.

Maybe you would be interested in my new work, so I will endeavor to tell you a little about it. As I am now in the operating room or the O. R. as we call it, it is needless for me to say that I have seen a great many operations of every description, and in fact have done everything except use the knife. I am mighty glad to be doing this work, and it is teaching me a great many things. I am learning the names and uses of all the surgical instruments, how to sterilize and handle them, and how to do all sorts of dressings and bandages, which of course are also very important. This week, as it happens, I am working in the dressing room, which is connected with the O. R., and to which about fifty fellows come to be dressed each morning. It certainly keeps us busy, but it is all for our own good. The O. R. of the eye, ear, nose, throat and mouth specialist is also connected to our O. R., and we boys alternate in spending a week in his office and O. R. We only have to work a half of the day on Sunday and have one afternoon a week off, but the night of the day we have the afternoon off, we have to work up to midnight, consequently as I had this afternoon off, I am on duty at this minute, even though it is after twelve.

So far I have not written mother anything about this work, so if you please, will you tell her; also tell her that the box of Sander's caramels arrived O. K., and aunt's candy came too. I also received the snapshots that both aunt and mother sent. Kindly enlighten them as to that fact.

Well, I commenced this horrible looking affair early in the evening, but I have been interrupted so many times by fellows coming in for treatment, that here I am finishing it at 1:30 in the morning.

Proper Food for Weak Stomachs
The proper food for one man may be all wrong for another. Everyone should adopt a diet suited to his age and occupation. Those who have weak stomachs need to be especially careful and should eat slowly and masticate their food thoroughly. It is also important that they keep their bowels regular. When they become constipated or when they feel dull and stupid after eating, they should take Chamberlain's Tablets to strengthen the stomach and move the bowels. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect.—Adv't.

The board of supervisors of Oakland county have hired four motor cycle officers to gather in the speed fiends on the county roads this summer.

The recent sale of pure bred Holstein-Friesian cattle by George Burt of Redford, was one of the greatest sales of this kind ever held in Wayne county. The herd brought the owner $10,850, or an average of $285 a head.

Holly has bought a municipal street sprinkler, one of those used on Belle Isle before the advent of motor-propelled sprinklers, paying only $150 for the machine. Not a bad stunt considering the fact that it is going to be impossible to secure road oil.

Northville hasn't as yet had any fatal motor accidents, but it is one of the seven wonders that this is the case. About one in ten automobile drivers sound a signal before turning a street corner, and at that those few are the ones who don't fly around the turns at a pace that barely escapes being beyond the speed limit.—Northville Record.

About seven months ago, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Tupper parted with their son, Captain Lewis N. Tupper of the 316th Sanitary Squad, who went to fight for his country. Now, Lieut. R. D. Tupper, the grandson, is about to leave for training at Fort Riley, Kansas, in the same cause. Both were doctors in Redford, and carry the best wishes of the whole community for their future welfare and safe return.—Redford Record.

The work of installing large batteries of machinery in the Harroun plant at Wayne for the purpose of manufacturing shells is about complete, and soon the new crew of munition makers will be on the job. This will not in any way interfere with the regular car manufacturing as the present output of around 25 cars per day will be maintained. The Harroun management expects to secure much of the new labor from towns west of Wayne.

The home of George Rogers on Fairview avenue, was the scene of a very quiet but pretty wedding, when the son, George, Jr., was united in marriage to Miss Zepha M. Jacobs of Vassar, Mich., last Sunday evening at 8:00 o'clock. The ceremony was followed by the wedding supper, after which the young couple went to Detroit and from there will take a short wedding trip including a visit to the bride's parents. There were present at the wedding besides the family: Miss Helen Peterhans of Plymouth, friend of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. George Burgess, Roy H. Burgess and Rev. and Mrs. F. I. Walker. The groom finished his university course at Columbia, Miss., last week, and will receive the degree of Bachelor of Science. As he was leaving Columbia on Friday, he received his call to report for military duty and reported at Plymouth, Monday.—Redford Correspondence, Detroit Courier. The groom's father will be remembered as a former superintendent of the Plymouth schools.

Former Resident Dies at Milford

Mrs. Eliza Ward, aged 90 years, who made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Grierson, in this village, until Mr. and Mrs. Grierson removed to Milford several weeks ago, died in that village, Monday, April 22. She had been fairly well and active for one of her years. She was taken ill the day after her arrival in Milford. She is survived by three sons and three daughters. Thomas Ward of this village is a son. The funeral was held Wednesday, April 24th.

An Interesting Meeting

An enthusiastic patriotic meeting was held in the High school auditorium, last week Thursday afternoon, the purpose of which was to explain to the women of Plymouth and vicinity the registration of women for war service, which is taking place in our state this week.

Every state in the Union will register its women. Twenty-three states have already done so.

The large auditorium was filled to its utmost capacity, and the meeting opened by the entire assembly singing "America" in unison. Then followed a selection by the school chorus under the direction of Miss Shearer, teacher of music. Mrs. R. E. Cooper, chairman of the meeting, in her usual pleasing manner introduced the speakers of the afternoon.

The first speaker on the program was Mrs. T. B. Henry of Northville, chairman of registration for Wayne county. She spoke most earnestly of the work and urged the women present to register.

"Keep the Home Fires Burning" was sweetly sung by Mrs. Cooper, with the school boys and girls joining in the chorus.

The speaker of the afternoon, Mrs. Earl F. Carr of Detroit, chairman of the Bureau of Speakers for Detroit City, stated that this registration was really a census of what loyal women can do and are willing to do to help their country in this time of war. This census will give to the government information as to what women are doing now and every woman should register even though she does not change her present occupation in any way. Registration will continue through today and tomorrow, and if you have not registered be sure and do so before it is too late.

A Child's Savings

May Shorten The War

The war is costing the combined allies more than $30,000,000 an hour. The daily fate of this huge sum is simple waste. A shortening of the war by days or even hours would mean the redemption of colossal waste.

We must bend every financial effort towards shortening the war. Every small amount invested by a child in Thrift Stamps tends towards this end. The influence of every Thrift Stamp purchased is a little momentum toward earlier victory.

Thus a child's savings may be instrumental in definitely shortening this war and in saving many times its own value in money, to say nothing of conserving human life.

Encourage your child to invest in 4% interest-bearing Thrift Stamps instead of merely hoarding his pennies in a tin bank.

Thrift Stamps cost 25 cents each and may be bought at the postoffice, from your mail carrier and at most stores.

DAY AND DELCO LIGHT

INCREASE FARM EFFICIENCY

You do not question the DAY LIGHT for without it you know that farm work would be impossible. You can do more work and do it quicker when Old Sol is on the job.

Now, just you put electricity to work on your farm and you will find that it does many things as well as Old Sol, and then some things that he doesn't attempt; such as pump water to your tank instead of the clouds do the washing and ironing, run the milking machine, separator, churn, grindstone, etc.

Delco-Light is the complete electric plant, which produces this electricity, and does it with about the same amount of the same kerosene oil that you are now using in the lamps which give you only a small amount of light, with their attendant disagreeable heat, smoke and fire risk.

Make this Kerosene do more work for you and DO IT NOW IN YOUR BUSIEST SEASON.

Proper Food for Weak Stomachs

The proper food for one man may be all wrong for another. Everyone should adopt a diet suited to his age and occupation.

Those who have weak stomachs need to be especially careful and should eat slowly and masticate their food thoroughly.

It is also important that they keep their bowels regular. When they become constipated or when they feel dull and tired, it is a sign that their stomachs need to be cleaned.

Small laxatives, such as Chamberlain's Tablets, strengthen the stomach and move the bowels. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect.

The Story of the Trenches

Dr. M. S. Rice Will Give His Famous Lectures in the High School Auditorium, Tuesday Evening, May 14.

"The Story of the Trenches" from the lips of one who has been there and is recognized as one of the most eloquent men in America, is the privilege awaiting Plymouth folks on Tuesday evening, May 14th.

At that time Dr. M. S. Rice, recently returned from France, will speak from the platform of the High school auditorium.

As to the treat in store for Plymouth, eagerly anticipated by all who know of Dr. Rice's magnetic personality and phenomenal drawing power, it is only necessary to state that in Detroit Dr. Rice has an overflowing crowd at any time or place and on any subject for which he is announced.

The North Woodward Methodist church has erected a fine steel tabernacle seating 3,000 people, one of the largest auditoriums in the city, but hundreds and even thousands are unable to get in on Sunday evenings.

People come early and sit for hours to be sure of a seat. Several of Plymouth's leading citizens go in to hear Dr. Rice at every opportunity, and on some occasions have had to come home disappointed, being unable to get inside the door.

A full column write-up in the Detroit News recently, began with this question: "Is Detroit developing the new national pulpitarian for whom America has been waiting since the passing of Henry Ward Beecher, Phillips Brooks and T. D. Talmage?"

Continuing the article said: "Religious observers are asking this question as they contemplate the unprecedented hearing that is being accorded to Rev. Merton S. Rice, D. D., Sunday after Sunday, a hearing surpassing that ever given Beecher, Brooks or Talmage in their own churches.

Seven churches tried to push their church tabernacle. Only 4,000 could get in. The rest were turned away. This is a thing at his church."

It is significant, too, that was one of the three greatest America chosen a year ago for the battle front preparatory work of the American Y. M. C. Those who have heard Dr. Rice's lectures on the war have fifty cents and even as high as a dollar, but the committee has fixed the price at thirty-five and twenty-five cents for students, in order that more may hear him.

Tickets will go on sale the middle of next week and may be reserved, without extra charge, on Thursday.

Soldiers Listen Fine to Sermon

Rev. Miller took for his sermon theme, "Modern Soldier's Religion," presenting an eloquent sermon. It was a timely and interesting discourse, that made a deep and profound impression not only upon the young men who were just entering the military service, but on the large congregation present as well.

Several patriotic songs were sung during the service.
