"Endurance Required of Christians as Well as Activity"

It is easier oftentimes to do good things than it is to be patient in adverse or obscure circumstances. Fiedick tells how, "the story of Prescott, the historian, accidentally blinded in a college frolic at Harvard, when he was fifteen years old, and still going on with his life work, refusing to be discouraged, stirs us with admiration for his pluck." "Sir Walter Scott's early life was exceedingly prosperous. He was an eminent poet; his novels were successful in an unprecedented way; he grew wealthy; he built Abbotsford and was knighted by the King. Then the storm came. First his publishers failed, involving him in a personal debt of 130,000 pounds; then his wife died; then his health broke. Yet in these days of failure, Sir Walter's bravery was revealed in his refusal to take advantage of a legal technicality to escape his debt; his patience, good cheer, unshaken faith in God, and undiminished work, showed plainly the deep quality of his character." Think of the amazing hardihood and faith Jesus showed in launching His great plan under utterly discouraging circumstances. "The Blessing of Adversity" will be the theme of Rev. Miller's last sermon, Sunday morning, at the

Rev. Farber Gives Splendid Lecture

A Large Crowd Hear Former Plymouth Pastor, Just Returned From France, at High School Auditorium, Last Friday Evening.

The lecture given by Rev. B. F. Farber, who has just recently returned from France, where he has been in active service with the Y. M. C. A., last Friday evening, at the High School auditorium, was largely attended, and was one of the very best lectures of the kind that has yet been given here.

Rev. Earl P. Miller, pastor of the local Presbyterian church, made a few introductory remarks, in which he expressed the sentiment of the whole community in the satisfaction and pleasure that all felt in having Rev. Farber with us again, and hearing from the lips of one of our own boys, who had been "over there," something of the great events that are taking place on the battle front.

Rev. Farber is delivering a series of lectures in his Woodward Avenue church, and he chose for his lecture here a little of each one of these subjects, which are upon the following themes: "The Spirit of Our Enemy," "The Spirit of Our Allies," "The Spirit of Our Soldiers," "What Should be the Spirit of America?" The grouping of these subjects formed an interesting and stirring message, which the speaker drove home in a manner that held the breathless attention of his hearers to the very finish. The personal experiences of Rev. Farber and his work among the soldiers of our army, and particularly of seeing our own Plymouth boys at the front, touched the heart interest of everyone present. The speaker told of many atrocities committed by the Hunns that brought a shudder of horror to his hearers. His stories of life in the trenches and camps were very entertaining and elicited much laughter. Rev. Farber told of the splendid work of the Y. M. C. A., Red Cross and other similar organizations. He complimented the local branch of the Red Cross on the splendid work they were doing under their efficient leaders, and urged upon them the necessity of keeping on with the work with even greater activity.

At the conclusion of the lecture, Rev. Farber gave the audience an opportunity of asking any questions they might wish to ask. He also exhibited a number of things he had brought home with him that proved an interesting feature of the evening. He showed and explained the use of the hand grenade, the gas helmet and other equipment of the soldier.

A male quartette, composed of Messrs. Edith A. Smith and Calvin Whipple and E. V. Jolliffe rendered a selection.

Veterans Meet Here for Annual Reunion

The Gallant Sixteenth Michigan Volunteer Infantry Association Met Here Wednesday for Thirty-eighth Annual Reunion.

Twenty-four Veterans Were Present; Plymouth Chosen Again for Reunion Next Year.

The thirty-eighth annual reunion of the Sixteenth Michigan Volunteer Infantry Association was held in this village, Wednesday. Twenty-four members of this famous regiment were present. At the business meeting held at the village hall at 2:00 o'clock p. m., the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—John Barry, Gaylord
Vice President—O. P. Showers, Plymouth
Sec. Treas.—Thomas Davey, Detroit

It was unanimously voted to hold the reunion in Plymouth again next year.

Following the business meeting, the veterans were given an auto ride to Belleville, which proved for them a most delightful trip. At six o'clock a banquet was served in the dining room of the Methodist church by the ladies of the Missionary society. A most tempting menu was served by the ladies. The dining room and tables were decorated with the national colors, and presented a very pretty appearance.

After the banquet, the retiring president of the association, O. P. Showers, of this village, introduced Village President W. J. Gomer, who welcomed the visitors to Plymouth and expressed the pleasure of our citizens in having the gallant Sixteenth City Men, D. G. Brown was also called upon for a few remarks. Comrades Nesbitt, Sanborn and Davey related some war reminiscences that were very interesting. Rev. Earl P. Miller made a short talk that had the deep attention of his hearers. During the evening Mrs. Anna Baker read several selections with guitar accompaniment and other entertainments that were very pleasing. The retiring members of the association, who were accompanied by their wives, presented a most interesting and profitable evening.

The officers of the association of the Sixteenth Michigan Volunteer Infantry Association were elected for the ensuing year. The officers are: President, John Barry, Gaylord; Vice President, O. P. Showers, Plymouth; Sec. Treas., Thomas Davey, Detroit.

No Bunk Promises Necessary

Joseph M. Weiss Has Always Been True

Today when certain Detroit interests are seeking to dictate the new Circuit Judges of this county to the people, it does seem good to see a man like Joseph M. Weiss running for this office, standing alone and unafraid, while he is clawed at from every quarter by those "higher up." Mr. Weiss is an able lawyer, sensible, practical and ever mindful of the best interests of the people of the townships. He has never been weak-kneed, and past record and character are good reasons why he should be entitled to our vote on August 27th.

Supply of Sugar is Sufficient

F. S. Neal, of Northville, assistant Food Administrator, says: "There is a sufficient supply of sugar available for all necessary purposes. Because of certain restrictions people are sometimes unnecessarily alarmed. These restrictions are however for the purpose of insuring a sufficient supply of sugar at all times for everyone."

Canning and Preserving. "For canning and preserving purposes there is a plentiful supply and the local Food representative has authority to approve of purchase for as much as required to an amount not exceeding 75 lbs. in lots of 25 lbs. or less. The restrictions are, the sugar is solely for canning or preserving purposes and for immediate use (within one week). The government is urging every family to can and preserve as much food as possible."

For Home Use. "For Home use, the requirements are 2 lbs. per person per month. This is in addition to the canning sugar. In this requirement householders may take into consideration visitors, travelers, extra help, etc. "The purpose of the government is not only to conserve the sugar just at this time but also to insure an equal distribution. It is not a shortage of sugar so much as it is a shortage of means of transporting the raw material from other countries, Cuba, Jamaica, etc. In the meantime can all you can."

A. M. Bosworth & Son of Redford, who have been advertising the Ford tractors in this paper, have been obliged to discontinue the agency on account of the younger member of the firm having entered the government service. This makes three sons Mr. Bosworth has in the service.

UNITED STATE FOOD ADMINISTRATION FOOD CONTROL IN AMERICA

By willing service of a free people to do these things:

To feed the Allies that they may continue to fight.

To feed the hungry in Belgium and other lands that they may continue to live.

To feed our own soldiers overseas that they may want nothing.

To keep prices steady and the flow of distribution even that the poor at home may be fed.

To make everyone's effort count its utmost for winning the war for freedom.

FOOD CONTROL IN AMERICA IS FOR AND FOR THE PEOPLE

Saving Sugar Saves Shipping

AMERICAN families would have less sugar than the people of war torn France, if we depended entirely on our home-grown sugar stocks.

Approximately 75 per cent. of our sugar is shipped to our shores. We produce about 1,000,000 tons of sugar a year. Our imports from abroad amount to over 3,000,000 tons a year in normal times.

The United States Food Administration asks each family to limit its use of sugar to two pounds per month per person for household use. The military situation demands that every available ship be placed at the disposal of the Army or Navy. When we save sugar, we save shipping.

SHORT PARAGRAPHS

Congregational Meeting.— There will be a congregational meeting at the Presbyterian church, Monday evening, at 7:30 o'clock.

Men Had Picnic.— Eighteen members of the Plymouth Fire Department enjoyed a picnic at Silver Lake, near South Lyon, last Sunday. A basket dinner with plenty of ice cream and lemonade was the big feature of the day's outing. The boys had a fine time.

Beekeepers to Have Basket Picnic.— The Wayne, Oakland and Washtenaw County Beekeepers' Association will hold a basket picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Markham, five miles north of Ypsilanti, Friday, August 23. Anyone interested in bees will be welcome.

A Painful Injury.— Irving Ray, who had the misfortune to lose the end of his index finger on his left hand while working at the Ford tractor plant at Dearborn, several days ago, has since been nursing a very sore and painful finger.

Private Archie Collins came home Monday on a few days' furlough from Camp Wheeler, Macon, Georgia. Archie has been in the hospital and is recovering from an operation which he underwent several weeks ago. He is in the artillery branch of the service.

A Correction.— In the Red Cross notes in last week's issue of the Mail, through an error in print, the quota for knitted garments for the month of August read three hundred pairs of socks and three helmets, but should have read three hundred pairs of socks and seventy-five helmets.

Spoke Highly of Plymouth.— Col. O. A. Jaynes, Charles and Edward Everett and William Mitchell, all of Detroit Post 84 G. A. R., visited their comrade, C. O. Scovill, at his home, 209 Ann street, Tuesday. They were all pleased and spoke highly of what they saw of Plymouth.

Struck by Lightning.— Last Sunday afternoon about four o'clock, during the severe electrical storm, a barn on the farm of William Reddeman, Sr., a few miles south of town, was struck by lightning and burned to the ground. Some tools, a quantity of grain and hay were lost, and one horse was seriously burned, but it is thought it will recover. The loss is partially covered by insurance.

More War Contracts.— The F. Millard Co. Inc., have recently secured additional war contracts that will keep their plant busy for one year at least.

Getting Sorghum Mill Ready.— Theodore Chilson is fast getting his new sorghum mill ready for operation this fall. New machinery is being installed and everything will be in readiness for the season's run. Mr. Chilson has an acreage of about thirty-three acres of sugar cane contracted for.

Missing Word Contest.— In the word contest last week, the words omitted in the advertisements were as follows: "Your" in the first line of H. C. Robinson's ad; "more" in the second line of Pettingill & Campbell's; "all" in the third line of Schrader Bros. None of the answers received happened to be correct.

Rev. Field Takes Vacation.— Rev. Frank M. Field left Monday for Indianapolis, Indiana, where he goes to take a temporary position as superintendent for the Lincoln Chautauque Bureau. This is Mr. Field's vacation period from his duties as pastor of the local Methodist church, and he decided to spend it in the Chautauque work. He will be gone several weeks before returning to his pastoral work here.

Grocers Using Sugar Cards.— In accordance with the ruling of the U. S. food administration, local grocers began August 8, using a card system for sugar selling, and the limit of two pounds per month for each person will be strictly observed. In fact, the dealers have no alternative. Where the card system is not used, a book record of each sale must be kept, and in readiness for inspection at any time. According to the regulations a dealer should sell only to regular customers, and the dealer can obtain only a specified allotment.

Recreation Park and Picnic Ground.— Why would it not be a good idea to use the park in the rear of the Presbyterian church on Church street, for a sort of public recreation park and picnic ground. For a nominal expense this could be done, and it would prove a most welcome addition to the attractions of our village. The grounds need grading anyway to put the place in a presentable condition. Swings should be provided as well as plenty of seats. Stationary tables and seats for picnic parties could be placed in the park at a very little expense, and it would be a convenient and pleasant place for picnic parties. Many smaller cities and villages are doing this very thing and it is proving a good investment.

Sixteenth Michigan Infantry

(Continued from First Page) authority of Secretary Stanton. Col. Stockton was a West Pointer, and had served with credit in the Mexican war. The Sixteenth in point of time was ahead even of the Eight, which started for the south eleven days later. The Sixteenth was not numbered until Michigan was anxious to get all the credit she could for the regiments she furnished.

This regiment went into the field on the 16th of September, 1861, with an aggregate of 761 men. On the first of July its records had borne the names of 1,002 officers and enlisted men. Encamped during the winter at Hall's Hill, Va., it moved to the Peninsula, under McClellan, and participated in the severe engagements of Hanover Court House, Gaines' Mill and Malvern Hill.

Afterwards it fought at the battle of Bull Run and was posted in support of the line of artillery at Antietam. Then the regiment took part in the battles of Fredericksburg in 1862 and Chancellorsville and Gettysburg in 1863.

Having re-enlisted, the regiment was again mustered into service on December 24, 1863, and started for Michigan, January 2, 1864. It was here furloughed for thirty days. On February 17th, the regiment left for the Army of the Potomac, going into winter quarters at Beaker Station.

While it remained until May 1, when it marched to Brandy Station. The Sixteenth participated in the battle of the Wilderness, afterwards going into the neighborhood of Spottsylvania C. H. After minor engagements the regiment finally reached Follydam Creek, near which an engagement took place in which Major Robert T. Elliott was killed while leading the regiment. Finally the Sixteenth arrived in front of Petersburg on June 17, where it was employed in the trenches until August 18th. It participated in the movement on the Weldon Railroad on August 18th, and remained in this vicinity until September 30, when it took part in the engagement at Peeble's Farm, Va., forming part of the storming party which drove the enemy from their works.

During this engagement Col. Norvell E. Welch, the commander of the regiment, was killed. As he led the attack he said, "Here goes for a star," by which he meant that he hoped to be promoted. However, the ambition of the brave soldier was never to be realized. The regiment lay in the trenches before Peeble's farm for a time. Afterwards, in January, 1865, it was in the trenches before Petersburg. It was subsequently engaged in the battles of Dabney's Mill, Hatcher's Run, White Oak Swamp, Quaker Run, and Five Forks. Following Lee's army until its surrender, it was engaged with the enemy at Amelia Court House, High Bridge and Appomattox Court House; and after the surrender it marched to Sutherland's Station, where it was disbanded during the remainder of the month. In May the regiment marched to Washington, D. C., arriving there on the 12th, where, on the 23rd, it participated in the grand review of the Army of the Potomac. Remaining in camp near Washington until June 16, it was ordered to Louisville, Kentucky, where it arrived on the 21st, and crossed the river to Jeffersonville, Indiana, and was mustered out of service July 8. It left on the 10th for Michigan, arriving on the 12th at Jackson, and on the 25th was paid off and disbanded.

America Deeper in This War Than Any Other Nation By President Ray Lyman Wilbur, of Stanford University. We must realize that we are deeper in this war than any other nation, for we have said, through our President, that our peace is to be with the Hohenzollerns. We have then the problem of providing the additional offensive strength needed to defeat the greatest war lord in history with millions of trained veterans under his control. To do this, we must see the issues clearly and back up those at the front by our actions each hour of each day. The morale of the fighting armies will settle this war. We must see that the morale of our men and that of those who fight with us is kept at high tide. We can do so if they can feel our support all of the time. Now is the great opportunity of the American people to demonstrate that our form of government is a success. If we do not all of us, at once, voluntarily and willingly get behind those who fight and die for us, in every phase of our life, and now particularly realize that food is better to win the war, then we are going to win in this our immediate pressing duty, and be a despoiled and humiliated nation. We must be a great united democracy fighting our way forward toward a real victory. There can be but one outcome of this war and we must meet our enemies for any misunderstanding, for any success with our allies and our kind upon the idea of a real victory. Wayne County Supervisors, Circuit Judges, Lawyers and Abstract Makers

Commend THOMAS F. FARRELL'S Services as COUNTY CLERK

On October 26, 1915, Wayne County Board of Supervisors unanimously adopted a formal resolution complimenting County Clerk Farrell as follows:

For having made the naturalization records readily accessible "for the first time in the history of the office." This work involved the records of 26,176 proceedings affecting the citizenship of foreign born citizens, of whom the names of 1,978 citizens appeared on no earlier index.

For having revised and re-indexed all corporation and association records in his office since 1884, covering 72 years of these important events.

For having revised the index to plaintiffs in cases in the Wayne County Circuit Court, from 1898 to 1908, involving 10,080 law suits, references to which were exceedingly difficult by reason of the bad condition of the indexes.

For having established a complete bond record in the office of the County Clerk, enabling immediate reference to these important documents.

For having done this work without increased cost to the county and with an actually lessened appropriation for the more useful work.

In a formal communication to Mr. Farrell, dated June 16, 1916, signed by Judges VanZile, Hally, Homer, Murphy and Mandell, said:

"The business of the office, with the great growth of the city and litigation that necessarily follows, has increased until today the demand for careful, systematic conduct of the business of the office is important. No one could ask for better work than is done by you and your efficient staff. The records are strictly up-to-date and correct in every detail.

Mr. C. M. Burton, of the Burton Abstract Offices, and J. C. Cowles, manager of the abstract department of the Union Trust Company, who know that upon the accuracy of the records depend the integrity of the title of every piece of real estate affected by any legal proceedings, endorse the efficient manner in which Thomas F. Farrell conducted the office of County Clerk.

Scores of attorneys of Wayne County Bar signed a statement which says:

We do hereby express our hearty approval of the efficiency and courtesy which has marked the administration of County Clerk Thomas F. Farrell, and endorse his candidacy for renomination and re-election.

War Time Sweeteners

MERCA has several excellent war time sweeteners that will be used largely during the shortage in the sugar supply.

They are maple sugar, syrups, honey and molasses and may be used in preparing desserts and other dishes requiring sweetening.

When a cup of syrup or honey is used to replace a cup of sugar the liquid in the recipe should be decreased one-fourth. One-third of a cupful of sugar is equivalent to one-third of a cup of honey, about one-half cup of syrup and about one-half cup of corn sugar.

One-fourth of a cup of sugar is equal to about one-half cup of syrup or one-third cup of corn sugar. One tablespoon of sugar is equal to one tablespoon of honey, about one and one-half tablespoons of syrup and one and one-third tablespoons of corn sugar.

Sugar may be saved by the use of raisins, dates, figs, dried pears and fruit pastes used on the breakfast cereals. Fruit marmalades, butters and jellies should be used to take the place of the ordinary sweetening at a meal and not as accessories to it. Fruits may be preserved without sugar. It may be added when sugar is more plentiful.

Preserving demands this year a thin syrup instead of a heavy syrup.

If sugar is used one-half of the amount may be replaced by another sweetener.

Drying is a means of preserving (without sugar) apples, cherries, strawberries and black caps.

When ready to use they may have added the needed sugar in the form of a syrup. When sugar is more plentiful fruit juices may be made into jellies or may be used as fruit juices with or without sugar, as beverages, fruit gelatin and frozen desserts.

Fresh fruits supply the place of sugar in the diet. They should be used freely. Desserts where sugar is scarce may be made of gelatins, junkets, custards, puddings and cakes.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

South Lyon barbers will charge 35 cents for hair cuts after August 10th.

The annual Belleville home-coming celebration will take place, Friday, August 23.

Belleville automobile owners have organized an auto club. The main object of the organization is to further the building of good roads.

The long-talked-of bridge over the Michigan Central tracks at the east approach of Michigan avenue, Ypsilanti, will be built at once. A number of automobile accidents have taken place at the present bridge, which was condemned by the state railroad commissioners several years ago.

N. C. Schrader and wife returned from a northern auto trip, Saturday. Schrader says that of all the bad roads he struck through the jack pines and by ways of Michigan's forests included, none were in worse condition than the Novi-Northville road, except a 30-mile stretch from Rose City to Standish.—Northville Record.

The crops on the Ford farm are breaking all records this year, and Ray Dahlinger reports the following acreage with great promises: 850 acres fall wheat, 375 acres spring wheat, 300 acres barley, 200 acres oats, 100 acres buckwheat, 100 acres corn, 10 acres beans, 10 acres potatoes. Six hundred tons of hay have been harvested to date, and the alfalfa crop, etc., promise abundant yields.—Dearborn Press.

The letting of the contract for the assembly plant at Hamilton, Ohio, for Fordson tractors is but another link in the chain of tractor plants that will soon be springing up all over the United States. That the demand for Fordson tractors is not as great at this time as it was expected, is certain, but war conditions of course, are wholly to blame. However, when a re-adjustment comes, the local plant will be inadequate to supply the tremendous demand that will be made for the marvelous little Fordsons, and the erection of the plants at Hamilton and at Nankin Mills are but the foretaste of a system of production plants that can supply the demands of prospective tractor users. The plant on the Miami river will cover an acre area, and the Nankin Mills plant on the Rouge river will be of greater extent. With the foundry at Fordsonville, the plant here and the Nankin Mills tractor plant, Ford's little old Rouge will be the scene of activities that will make its name historic in tractor-making annals.—Dearborn Press.

Bands, Bands, Bands and More Bands to Saturate Air at Mich. State Fair

Bands, bands, bands and more bands with their blare of trumpets will over-run the fair grounds during the 1918 Michigan State Fair at Detroit, August 30 to September 8. G. W. Dickinson, Secretary-Manager of the fair association, believes there is nothing like martial music to stir up the patriotism of the people, and he declares that, if this is true, no visitor will leave the exposition without his patriotic spirit running riot.

This musical organization will be headed by Cavallo and his renowned band of 60 pieces. This company of instrument players will render a patriotic concert of popular and classical music every afternoon and evening. Dunbar's White Hussars, dressed in their gaily white uniforms will furnish the music for the festive entertainments around the grounds. This organization can be stopped at a visitor's notice, into two bands.

STATE FAIR TICKETS

The Mail has made arrangements to sell State Fair tickets at its office, 112 N. Harvey St., Detroit, Mich. Tickets are on sale at the rate of $1.00 for a single day, $2.00 for a two-day ticket, and $3.00 for a three-day ticket. The tickets are on sale at the rate of $1.00 for a single day, $2.00 for a two-day ticket, and $3.00 for a three-day ticket.

New Passenger Rate on D. J. & C. Ry.

The Detroit, Jackson & Chicago Ry. announces that it has filed with the Michigan Railroad Commission new passenger rates effective Friday, August 9. These rates are according to the various franchise terms, and result in some increases in the fare to and from Detroit and other points along the line.

Under the new tariff the rate of fare between Detroit and Plymouth will be 35 cents in addition to the Detroit city fare.

"The additional revenues coming to the company through these changes will go only a small way towards meeting the additional costs of operation incurred through the war labor boards award," states A. D. B. Van Zandt, publicity agent of the Van United Lines. "We feel sure that the patrons of this line, just as do the people of Detroit, fully realize the absolute necessity of the company increasing its revenues because of the greatly increased cost of doing business."

Supply of Sugar is Sufficient

F. S. Neal, of Northville, assistant Food Administrator, says: "There is a sufficient supply of sugar available for all necessary purposes. Because of certain restrictions people are sometimes unnecessarily alarmed. These restrictions are however for the purpose of insuring a sufficient supply of sugar at all times for everyone's use."

Canning and Preserving. "For canning and preserving purposes there is a plentiful supply and the local Food representative has authority to approve of purchase for as much as required to an amount not exceeding 75 lbs. in lots of 25 lbs. or less. The restrictions are, the sugar is solely for canning or preserving purposes and for immediate use (within one week). The government is urging every family to can and preserve as much food as possible."

For Home Use. "For home use, the requirements are 2 lbs. per person per month. This is in addition to the canning sugar. In this requirement householders may take into consideration visitors, thrashers, extra help, etc."

"The purpose of the government is not only to conserve the sugar just at this time but also to insure an equal distribution. It is not a shortage of sugar so much as it is a shortage of means of transporting the raw material from other countries, Cuba, Jamaica, etc. In the meantime can all you can."

A. M. Bosworth & Son of Redford, who have been advertising the Ford tractor in this paper, have been obliged to discontinue the agency on account of the younger member of the firm having entered the government service. This makes three sons Mr. Bosworth has in the service.

Every time you stick a Thrift or War Savings Stamp on your card you are mailing money to yourself to be received later with interest. Cashing in these stamps is going to be better than "getting money from home," for with the money comes the reminder that you contributed to the great victory which then will have been completely won.

UNITED STATES FOOD ADMINISTRATION FOOD CONTROL IN AMERICA

By willing service of a free people to do these things:
To feed the Allies that they may continue to fight.
To feed the hungry in Belgium and other lands that they may continue to live.
To feed our own soldiers overseas that they may want nothing.
To keep prices steady and the flow of distribution even that the poor at home may be fed.
To make everyone's effort count its at most for winning the war for freedom.

FOOD CONTROL IN AMERICA IS OF AND FOR THE PEOPLE

Saving Sugar Saves Shipping

AMERICAN families would have less sugar than the people of war torn France, if we depended entirely on our home-grown sugar stocks. Approximately 75 per cent. of our sugar is shipped to our shores. We produce about 1,000,000 tons of sugar a year. Our imports from abroad amount to over 3,000,000 tons a year in normal times. The United States Food Administration asks each family to limit its use of sugar to two pounds per month per person for household use. The military situation demands that every available ship be placed at the disposal of the Army or Navy. When we save sugar, we save shipping.

SHORT PARAGRAPHS

Congregational Meeting— There will be a congregational meeting at the Presbyterian church, Monday evening, at 7:30 o'clock.

Eighteen Had Picnic— Eighteen members of the Plymouth Fire Department enjoyed a picnic at Silver Lake, near South Lyon, last Sunday. A basket dinner with plenty of ice cream and lemonade was the big feature of the day's outing. The boys had a fine time.

Beekeepers to Have Basket Picnic— The Wayne, Oakland and Washtenaw County Beekeepers' Association will hold a basket picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Markham, five miles north of Ypsilanti, Friday, August 23. Anyone interested in bees will be welcome.

A Painful Injury— Irving Ray, who had the misfortune to lose the end of his index finger on his left hand while working at the Ford tractor plant at Dearborn, several days ago, has since been nursing a very sore and painful finger.

Private Archie Collins came home Monday on a few days' furlough from Camp Wheeler, Macon, Georgia. Archie has been in the hospital and is recovering from an operation which he underwent several weeks ago. He is in the artillery branch of the service.

A Correction— In the Red Cross notes in last week's issue of the Mail, through an error in print, the quota for knitted garments for the month of August read three hundred pairs of socks and three helmets, but should have read three hundred pairs of socks and seventy-five helmets.

Spoke Highly of Plymouth— Col. O. A. Jaynes, Charles and Edward Everett and William Mitchell, all of Detroit Post 384 G. A. R., visited their comrade, C. O. Scovill, at his home, 209 Ann street, Tuesday. They were all pleased and spoke highly of what they saw of Plymouth.

Man Struck by Lightning— Last Sunday afternoon about four o'clock, during the severe electrical storm, a barn on the farm of William Redeman, Sr., a few miles south of town, was struck by lightning and burned to the ground. Some tools, a quantity of grain and hay were lost, and one horse was seriously burned, but it is thought it will recover. The loss is partially covered by insurance.

More War Contracts— The F. Millard Co. Inc., have recently secured additional war contracts that will keep their plant busy for one year at least.

Getting Sorghum Mill Ready— Theodore Chilson is fast getting his new sorghum mill ready for operation this fall. New machinery is being installed and everything will be in readiness for the season's run. Mr. Chilson has an acreage of about thirty-three acres of sugar cane contracted for.

Missing Word Contest— In the word contest last week, the words omitted in the advertisements were as follows: "You" in the first line of H. C. Robinsons ad; "more" in the second line of Pettinill & Campbell; "all" in the third line of Schrader Bros. None of the answers received happened to be correct.

Rev. Field Takes Vacation— Rev. Frank M. Field left Monday for Indianapolis, Indiana, where he goes to take a temporary position as superintendent for the Lincoln Chautauque Bureau. This is Mr. Field's vacation period from his duties as pastor of the local Methodist church, and he decided to spend it in the Chautauque work. He will be gone several weeks before returning to his pastoral work here.

Grocers Using Sugar Cards— In accordance with the ruling of the U. S. food administration, local grocers began August 8, using a card system for sugar selling, and the limit of two pounds per month for each person will be strictly observed. In where the card system is not used, a book record of each sale must be kept, and in readiness for inspection at any time. According to the regulations a dealer should sell only to regular customers, and the dealer can obtain only a specified allotment.

Recreation Park and Picnic Ground— Why would it not be a good idea to use the park in the rear of the Presbyterian church on Church street, for a sort of public recreation park and picnic ground. For a nominal expense this could be done, and it would prove a most welcome addition to the attractions of our village. The grounds need grading anyway to put the place in a presentable condition. Swings should be provided as well as plenty of seats. Stationary tables and seats for picnic parties could be placed in the park at a very little expense, and it would be a convenient and pleasant place for picnic parties. Many smaller cities and villages are doing this very thing and it is proving a good investment.

authority of Secretary Stanton. Col. Stockton was a West Pointer, and had served with credit in the Mexican war. The Sixteenth in point of time was ahead even of the Eight, which started for the south eleven days later. The Sixteenth was not numbered until Michigan was anxious to get all the credit she could for the regiments she furnished.

This regiment went into the field on the 16th of September, 1861, with an aggregate of 761 men. On the first of July its records had borne the names of 1,002 officers and enlisted men. Encamped during the winter at Hall's Hill, Va., it moved to the Peninsula, under the command of McClellan, and participated in the severe engagements of Hanover Court House, Gaines' Mill and Malvern Hill. Afterwards it fought at the battle of Bull Run, and was posted in support of the line of artillery at Antietam. The regiment took part in the battles of Fredericksburg in 1862 and Chancellorsville and Gettysburg in 1863.

Having re-enlisted, the regiment was again mustered into service on December 24, 1863, and started for Michigan in the engagement at Pelee's Farm, Va., forming part of the storming party which drove the enemy from their works. During this engagement Col. Norvell E. Welch, the commander of the regiment, was killed. As he led the attack he said, "Here goes for a star," by which he meant that he hoped to be promoted. However, the ambition of the brave soldier was never to be realized.

The regiment lay in the trenches before Pelee's farm for a time. Afterwards, in January, 1865, it was in the trenches before Petersburg. It was subsequently engaged in the battles of Dabney's Mill, Hatcher's Run, White Oak Swamp, Quaker Run and Five Forks. Following Lee's army until its surrender, it was engaged with the enemy at Amelia Court House, High Bridge and Appomattox Court House; and after the surrender it marched to Sutherland's Station, where it was stationed during the remainder of the month. In May the regiment marched to Washington, D. C., arriving there on the 12th, where, on the 23rd, it participated in the grand review of the Army of the Potomac. Remaining in camp near Washington until June 16, it was ordered to Louisville, Kentucky, where it arrived on the 21st, and crossed the river to Jeffersonville, Indiana, and was mustered out of service July 8. It left on the 10th for Michigan, arriving on the 12th at Jackson, and on the 25th was paid off and disbanded. The percentage of mortality of this regiment from wounds received in service was among the highest, indeed it is claimed to be the highest by some good authorities. At Bull Run the decimation was terrible, and at Gettysburg twenty men were buried in a single grave. The loss was terrible also in the Seven Days' fight before Richmond.

DOING WITHOUT WHEAT Bread and milk make a meal; so will mush and milk. Bread and gravy go together; potatoes and gravy are just as nourishing. Toast and fruit are fine for breakfast; but any other cereal with fruit will stay the stomach as effectively. Griddle cakes, muffins, all sort of quick breads, can be filling and appetizing without any wheat. There is one test. Wherever bread is used for convenience, that is the place to leave it out.

America Deeper in This War Than Any Other Nation

By President Ray Lyman Wilbur, of Stanford University.

We must realize that we are deeper in this war than any other nation, for we have said, through our President, that our peace is to be with the German people, not with the Hohenzollerns. We have then the problem of providing the additional offensive strength needed to defeat the greatest year lord in history with millions of trained veterans under his control. To do this, we must see the issues clearly and back up those at the front by our actions each hour of each day. The morale of the fighting armies will settle this war. We must see that the morale of our men and that of those who fight with us is kept at high tide. We can do so if they can feel our support all the time.

Now is the great opportunity of the American people to demonstrate that our form of government is superior. If we do not all of us, at once, voluntarily and willingly get behind those who fight and die for us, in every phase of our life, and now particularly realize that food is powder to win the war, then we are going to fail in this our immediate pressing duty, and be a depleted and humiliated nation. We must be a great united democracy fighting our way forward toward a real victory. There can be but one outcome of this war and we must meet ourselves for any misgivings, for any doubts, with our united and undivided support upon the idea of a full victory.

"JUSTICE FOR ALL" Will be his motto if elected E. H. SELLERS FOR CIRCUIT JUDGE Primaries August 27th, 1918

Edward J. McCarthy Republican Candidate for STATE SENATOR First District Primaries, Tuesday August 27.

Choice of the Detroit Bar Association For the Four New Circuit Judgeships These are the ONLY candidates for the Circuit Bench announced by the Detroit Bar Association. The members of the Detroit Bar Association require that names of the four men who received the highest number of votes in the bar primary be made known to the public. This tremendously important endorsement of an associated group of practically all the active lawyers of Detroit should be taken as a welcome suggestion by all thinking voters. The lawyers KNOW who are the best qualified for the high office of circuit judge. They selected Goff, Hunt, Voorhies and Webster on merit only. Politics and personality did not enter into consideration. The voters of Wayne County will do well to prevent the re-nomination of the Bar Association and vote for every one of these four candidates at the primary on August 27. They are all eminently qualified for the place. Detroit Bar Association Campaign Committee Allan H. France, Chairman Frank D. Evans Sanford W. Ladd George E. Perry William C. Gray Louis W. Wayne County Supervisors, Circuit Judges, Lawyers and Abstract Makers

Commend THOMAS F. FARRELL'S Services as COUNTY CLERK

On October 26, 1915, Wayne County Board of Supervisors unanimously adopted a formal resolution complimenting County Clerk Farrell as follows:

For having made the naturalization records readily accessible "for the first time in the history of the office." This work involved the records of 26,176 proceedings affecting the citizenship of foreign born citizens, of whom the names of 1,978 citizens appeared on no earlier index.

For having revised and re-indexed all corporation and association records in his office since 1884, covering 72 years of these important events.

For having revised the index to plaintiffs in cases in the Wayne County Circuit Court, from 1898 to 1908, involving 10,088 law suits, references to which were exceedingly difficult by reason of the bad condition of the indexes.

For having established a complete bond record in the office of the County Clerk, enabling immediate reference to these important documents.

For having done this work without increased cost to the county and with an actually lessened appropriation for doing the more useful work.

In a formal communication to Mr. Farrell, dated June 16, 1916, signed by Judges VanZile, Hally, Hoemer, Murphy and Mandell, said:

"The business of the office, with the great growth of the city and litigation that necessarily follows, has increased until today the demand for careful, systematic conduct of the business of the office is important. No one could ask for better work than is done by you and your efficient staff. The records are strictly up-to-date and correct in every detail.

Mr. C. M. Burton, of the Burton Abstract offices, and J. C. Cowles, manager of the abstract department of the Union Trust Company, who know that upon the accuracy of the records depend the integrity of the title of every piece of real estate affected by any legal proceedings, endorse the efficient manner in which Thomas F. Farrell conducted the office of County Clerk.

Scores of attorneys of Wayne County Bar signed a statement which says:

We do hereby express our hearty approval of the efficiency and courtesy which has marked the administration of County Clerk Thomas F. Farrell, and endorse his candidacy for renomination and re-election.

War Time Sweeteners

MERCA has several excellent war time sweeteners that will be used largely during the shortage in the sugar supply.

They are maple sugar, syrups, honey and molasses and may be used in preparing desserts and other dishes requiring sweetening.

When a cup of syrup or honey is used to replace a cup of sugar the liquid in the recipes should be decreased one-fourth. One-third of a cupful of sugar is equivalent to one-third of a cup of honey; about one-half cup of syrup and about one-half cup of corn sugar. One-fourth of a cup of sugar is equal to about one-half cup of syrup or one-third cup of corn sugar. One tablespoon of sugar is equal to one tablespoon of honey, about one and one-half tablespoons of syrup and one and one-third tablespoons of corn sugar.

Sugar may be saved by the use of raisins, dates, figs, dried pears and fruit pastes used on the breakfast cereals.

Fruit marmalades, butters and jellies should be used to take the place of the ordinary sweetening at a meal and not as accessories to it. Fruits may be preserved without sugar. It may be added when sugar is more plentiful.

Preserving demands this year a thin syrup instead of a heavy syrup.

If sugar is used one-half of the amount may be replaced by another sweetener.

Drying is a means of preserving (without sugar) apples, cherries, strawberries and black caps.

When ready to use they may have added the needed sugar in the form of a syrup. When sugar is more plentiful fruit juices may be made into jellies or may be used as fruit juices with or without sugar, as beverages, fruit gelatins and frozen desserts.

Fresh fruits supply the place of sugar in the diet. They should be used freely. Desserts where sugar is scarce may be made of gelatins, junkets, custards, puddings and cakes.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

South Lyon barbers will charge 35 cents for hair cuts after August 10th.

The annual Belleville home-coming celebration will take place, Friday, August 23.

Belleville automobile owners have organized an auto club. The main object of the organization is to further the building of good roads.

The long-talked-of bridge over the Michigan Central tracks at the east approach of Michigan avenue, Ypsilanti, will be built at once. A number of automobile accidents have taken place at the present bridge, which was condemned by the state railroad commissioners several years ago.

N. C. Schrader and wife returned from a northern auto trip, Saturday. Schrader says that of all the bad roads he struck through the jack pines and by ways of Michigan's forests, included, none were in worse condition than the Novi-Northville road, except a 30-mile stretch from Rose City to Standish.—Northville Record.

The crops on the Ford farm are breaking all records this year, and Ray Dahlinger reports the following acreage with great promises: 850 acres fall wheat, 375 acres spring wheat, 300 acres barley, 200 acres oats, 100 acres buckwheat, 100 acres corn, 10 acres beans, 10 acres potatoes. Six hundred tons of hay have been harvested to date, and the alfalfa crop, etc., promise abundant yields.—Dearborn Press.

The letting of the contract for the assembly plant at Hamilton, Ohio, for Fordson tractors is but another link in the chain of tractor plants that will soon be springing up all over the United States. That the demand for Fordson tractors is not as great at this time as it was expected, is certain, but war conditions of course, are wholly to blame. However, when a re-adjustment comes, the local plant will be inadequate to supply the tremendous demand that will be made for the marvelous little Fordsons, and the erection of the plants at Epsom and at Nankin Mills are but the forerunners of a system of production plants that can supply the demands of prospective tractor users. The plant on the Miami river will cover an acre area, and the Nankin Mills plant on the Rouge river will be of greater extent. With the foundry at Fordsonville, the plant here and the Nankin Mills project going full blast, the little old Rouge will be the scene of activities that will make its name historic in tractor-making annals.—Dearborn Press.

Bands, Bands, Bands and More Bands to Celebrate Air at Mich. State Fair

Bands, bands, bands and more bands with their blare of trumpets will overrun the fair grounds during the 1918 Michigan State Fair at Detroit, August 30 to September 2. G. W. Dickinson, Secretary-Manager of the fair association, believes there is nothing like martial music to stir up the patriotism of the people, and he declares that it is true, no visitor will leave the exposition without his patriotic spirit running riot.

The musical organization will be headed by Cavallo and his renowned band of 80 pieces. This company of instrument players will render a patriotic concert of popular and classical music every afternoon and evening. Dunbar's White Hussars, dressed in their gaudy white uniforms will furnish the music for the festive entertainments around the grounds. This organization can be stopped at a motorist's notice, into two bands.

New Passenger Rate on D. J. & C. Ry.

The Detroit, Jackson & Chicago Ry. announces that it has filed with the Michigan Railroad Commission new passenger rates effective Friday, August 9. These rates are according to the various franchise terms, and result in some increases in the fare to and from Detroit and other points along the line.

Under the new tariff the rate of fare between Detroit and Plymouth will be 35 cents in addition to the Detroit city fare.

"The additional revenues coming to the company through these changes will go only a small way towards meeting the additional costs of operation incurred through the war labor boards award," states A. D. B. Van Zandt, publicity agent of the Detroit United Lines. "We feel sure that the patrons of this line, just as do the people of Detroit, fully realize the absolute necessity of the company increasing its revenues because of the greatly increased cost of doing business."

BRITISH AND FRENCH CUT 11 MILES AHEAD IN NEW OFFENSIVE BY FOCH

British Armored Cars and Tanks Lead the Advance of Allied Troops Over Wide Front—Thousands Taken Prisoners.

POWERFUL CAVALRY FORCES ARE IN ACTION

The Allied Losses Thus Far Have Been Slight and the Germans Are Slow and Weak in Counter-attacking.

London—The Franco-British advance on the battlefield south of the Somme has reached a maximum depth of 11 miles, according to news received here shortly after noon Friday.

Advices from the battlefield south of the Somme say British armored cars and tanks, in advance of the infantry, have reached within a mile of the Chaumes railway junction.

The cavalry, tanks and armored cars, it is indicated, have gone ahead to the line running from Framerville to Libons.

The total of prisoners captured is reported to have reached 10,000.

London—Fourteen thousand prisoners and guns too numerous to mention have been taken in the British drive on the front south of the Somme, says Friday's war office report. The cavalry is still pursuing the enemy.

Paris—The battle on the front south of the Somme was resumed early Friday morning and the Franco-British forces made favorable progress from the start, reaching various selected objectives.

Powerful cavalry forces are in action. The reports received up to 11:30 o'clock show the attack developing victoriously on a great scale.

Latest reports received by the Havas agency from the battlefield are that the fighting continues fiercely along the entire Anglo-French attacking front.

The war office report of Friday morning is guarded, merely saying that the situation on the battlefield south of the Somme is unchanged. (This report evidently covers the lull during the night and probably was issued before the battle was resumed Friday morning.)

French Advance Four Miles. On the French front in France—French troops on a front of six miles southwest of Montdidier have advanced to a depth of four miles and captured nearly 3,000 prisoners.

Important material also was captured. The advance was carried out with extremely light losses. The French front runs from the Avre north to a point just south of the Amiens-Roye road where it joins up with the British.

The attention of the Germans was fixed on the Vesle attack when the new offensive was opened. There was no reply to the French artillery preparation, which lasted 45 minutes.

German soldiers were captured while harvesting grain in the fields, so complete was the surprise. Moreau and Moriset were carried by assault. The difficulties of crossing the Avre were overcome rapidly, the French using hastily constructed foot bridges.

After taking Braches, the French captured La Neuville and the series of hills dominating the plain beyond.

Pressing the advance already gained in a series of smashing attacks are forcing the Germans back toward the important Peronne-Roye road. The advance Thursday was probably the greatest in territorial extent by the Allies in one day since 1916.

Amiens, as a result of the fighting up to the present, has been almost entirely relieved of the German menace and even the German artillery will have difficulty in reaching it. The important railway running north from Paris through Amiens and paralleling the Allied battle front can now be used again after being under the fire of German guns four months.

eral villages and in rounding up scores of prisoners. Field Marshal Haig has not definitely reported on the captures of guns and prisoners, but an announcement has been made officially in London that early Thursday 7,000 Germans and 100 guns had been taken by the British and French. Later official reports bring the total of prisoners to more than 10,000, the French alone taking 3,000.

Penetration of the enemy positions has been greatest south of the Somme to Plessiers. This is directly east of Amiens and Framerville. The farthest east reached by the British up to late Thursday is seven miles from the Peronne-Roye road. North of the Somme the British have had to fight hard for their gains and the same has been true of the French advance across the Avre. Once across the Avre, however, the French moved forward rapidly.

The Peronne-Roye road with its parallel line of railroad. It is the main communication line. With this in Allied hands, or even under short artillery range, the German positions north of Arras and south and east almost to Rheims would be in great danger. Montdidier, the pillar of the German positions where the battlefield swings toward the east, is invested on three sides.

Should Montdidier fall or the Peronne-Roye road be cut the German situation between Arras and Rheims would be most difficult, military observers believe. The first result probably would be a withdrawal from Montdidier to Rheims to the line of the Oise and the Aisne or perhaps to part of the old Hindenburg line.

The terrain before the Allies is rolling and rather difficult of defense except north of the Somme. Important results already have been achieved about the Peronne-Roye road not reached at once. Marshal Foch has shown he retains the initiative and the forces to take the offensive. Also Amiens and the northern roads are no longer under easy artillery range. The present Allied line tends to form two pockets—one to the north and one to the south—both of which become more insecure as the advance continues. In air fighting which preceded the drive British airmen accounted for 22 German machines, 15 of which were destroyed.

Berlin says the British have forced their way into the German position between the Aisne and the Avre, but gives no details. German counterattacks probably will be stronger now that the enemy knows where he is being menaced.

Allies Hold Archangel. London—There is once more an Allied "eastern front." The British war office issued an official statement of the fighting which followed the landing of Allied detachments at Archangel. It shows that "the opposing forces, supported by Germans," has been driven back 70 miles south of Archangel, which port is firmly held by the Allies. Character and nationality of the "opposing force" is not defined by the official statement.

HOSPITAL SHIP SUNK BY U-BOAT

Torpedo Struck the Afterpart of the Engineering Killing Many.

A British Port—Torpedoing of the British ship Warilda was one of the most harrowing disasters in the history of submarine warfare. The number of dead is variously estimated from 105 to 130 and upward and includes several women nurses.

The ship carried 600 sick and wounded. Among them were seven Americans, two officers and five enlisted men, all of whom have been accounted for except one private.

There were aboard 89 nurses and members of the Voluntary Aid department, and the crew comprised about 300 men.

Stories of the fearful struggle in the darkness to rescue the helpless invalids are told by survivors.

KING FERDINAND FINDS REFUGE IN GERMANY

London—King Ferdinand of Bulgaria, and the Crown Princess and the Princesses Eugenia and Nadescha arrived unexpectedly recently at Naumburg, Germany, as an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen says. King Ferdinand apparently intends to remain a long time at Naumburg. He is in complete contact with his wife, the crown princess, who is in the city of Naumburg. It is believed in Copenhagen that King Ferdinand left Bulgaria because of internal conditions there. German newspapers merely say that the king and his wife have fled to Naumburg. It is known to be a responsible source.

WHAT WOMEN CAN DO TO WIN THE WAR

Conserve Food and Buy Liberty Bonds—Two Ways They Can Help.

WOMEN OF AMERICA, WAKEUP!

Pour All Your Savings Into Uncle Sam's Lap—Keep on Saving and Pouring Until the World Is Free.

By INEZ HAYNES IRWIN.

What can the women of America do to help win this war? Two things are certain; one that they can do a great deal and another that, unless they can do so much as the French, English and Italian women have done, they can never suffer so much as the French, English and Italian women have suffered.

To me, returning to America after two years in the war countries, the untouched gaiety of the American people came as a terrific shock. I had left a world as black and silent as night; a world in which I had heard no spontaneous laughter or—except in the case of military bands—no music. At first the atmosphere of America was almost unbearable. I was obsessed with the desire to get back to the allied countries, to suffer with them, rather than enjoy the comparative comfort of a comparatively unwarmed America.

The luxury everywhere appalled me. Those hundreds of motors gliding through our streets for instance! Private motors have long ago disappeared from allied Europe. The beautiful fabrics, the furs and laces, the gorgeous sport clothes and the dazzling evening dresses which still distinguish the women of America.

Ban on Evening Clothes. The first time I was invited to a dinner party on my return, I wore a long-sleeved high-necked gray-and-black gown and found myself a wron among birds of paradise. No woman of France would think of wearing evening clothes. Indeed, both men and women are prohibited by law from appearing in evening dress.

It is the geographical misfortune of us women of America that we cannot possibly give the personal service that the women of Europe have given. They are near and we are far. They, so to speak, are in the front trenches and we have not entered the war zone. Only a very few of us, in proportion to our numbers, can work in the hospitals or canteens there. Only a few more in proportion to our numbers can do Red Cross work or Y. M. C. A. work here. There are, however, two things we can do all the time and with all the strength that is in us. One is to conserve food. The other is to buy Liberty bonds. We can help the government by buying bonds. Yes, our peculiar misfortune that most of us can help the government only by helping ourselves. For the purchase of Liberty bonds at the generous rate of interest which the government grants is not self-denial but in line with self-interest—legitimate of course, but still self-interest.

Women of America, wakeup! Pour all your savings into Uncle Sam's lap. Then save more, and pour them into his lap. Keep on saving and pouring, pouring and saving, until the world is free. You have given generously of the sinews of war in those magnificent boys you have sent to France. Give as generously in the money which will keep them well and happy there.

EXIT THE GERMAN DACHSHUND

Marine Patrol Causes German Dog to Be Driven From Streets of Cincinnati.

Cincinnati—Exit the German dachshund from the society of Cincinnati dogdom. A United States marine corps poster was responsible for the German dog's social demise here. The poster depicts an American bulldog chasing a German dachshund with the words: "Futzel hund (devil dog), German nickname for U. S. marines." Since the appearance of the poster the local dachshunds, of which there are a great number, have led a miserable existence, as small boys have "sicked" bulldogs, terriers, hounds and every other canine breed on the poor "Futzel," until at last they have been virtually driven off the streets of Cincinnati.

Navy Seen Lauded.

The navy has, besides being plentiful in that branch of the war service which bears its name, is also well-stocked in the army. It follows its flag to the front and Chicago food administrators say it should be used liberally at home to save other foods for the soldier boys.

Queen Provides Own Signal.

When Queen Mary visited at Atotonilco, she was met by the king and queen of Mexico. A two-page paper printed in each country carried the news that the queen had been met by the king and queen of Mexico.

TO USE PREPARED STEEL

Manufacture of the number of steel rails for the construction of the new railway line in the state of Mexico is being pushed forward by the government.

MICHIGAN BREVITIES

Hudson—The Rev. L. R. Gryce has been granted leave of absence and will enlist in the navy.

Algonac—Dr. W. E. Bostwick, a physician here for 20 years, has been commissioned a captain in the Medical Reserve Corps.

Muskegon—Fred S. Tuxbury, local druggist, was arrested, charged with selling Jamaica ginger in violation of the state prohibition laws.

Olivet—Among the war courses to be offered by Olivet College next year will be instruction in methods of training wounded men to do useful work.

Petroskey—Vice-president Thomas R. Marshall, who with Mrs. Marshall, is spending the summer here, has gone to deliver addresses in Dayton, O., and Dixon, Ill.

Grand Rapids—Voters at the primaries here August 27 will wear tags as they leave the polls. It is believed the tagging of voters will bring more citizens to the polls.

Pom Huron—John Gillesby has been awarded a free ticket and expenses to the state fair as the result of his winning the highest standing in school work last year.

Manistee—John Anderson, son of Charles Anderson, Western Michigan contractor, is the first Manistee soldier to receive the coveted Croix de Guerre for bravery under fire.

Grand Rapids—The city commission will not allow Mormons to preach their doctrines on the streets of Grand Rapids nor their missionaries to visit homes here and pray with families.

The Citizens Mutual Automobile Insurance Company

Howell, Michigan

WILLIAM E. ROBB, Secretary. The Man Who Fined the Shot That Brought Down the Price of Automobile Insurance to $7.25 on the Average Car Which Stock Companies Were Charging about $20.00 Per Year For.

The farmers, business men, lawyers and bankers in the small cities and country districts of the State gave their support to the Citizens Mutual Automobile Insurance Company, of Howell, from the beginning.

The Company is now starting its fourth season and has written over 35,000 policies. Over 940 claims have been promptly paid and over $130,000 paid which covers fire claims, theft losses, and claims brought against the owner of the car due to injury to persons or property.

The Company has been well managed, and has been in good financial standing at all times. It has a new office building completed and paid for, with a surplus of about $70,000. The members join on the mutual plan, and payments are made twelve months from the date of last assessment.

The wonderful growth of this Company enables the payment of from 40-50 claims per month. Over 940 claims have been promptly paid and over $130,000 paid which covers fire claims, theft losses, and claims brought against the owner of the car due to injury to persons or property.

But few owners of automobiles will drive a single day without automobile insurance. Bankers and lawyers tell their clients to insure in the Citizens Mutual Automobile Insurance Company, of Howell, as the Company is well established and strong enough to meet the shock of serious losses, and the rate is only $1.00 for policy and 25c per H. P.

DOOMED TO OUTER DARKNESS

Forgetful Youngster Could Only Stand at School Gate and Mourn His Hard Position.

One of the Western towns where there is a large per cent of foreign population considerable difficulty was experienced in getting the registration of alien women. An instructor in the playground in the foreign district offered her assistance, and in order to gain a better knowledge of the community gave out printed slips to the children on which they were to write their names, ages and places of birth, and the same of their fathers and mothers. She told all the youngsters explicitly that they must bring the papers back with them in the afternoon.

When the children returned one little fellow stood forlornly at the gate. To all invitations to enter he shook his head stubbornly. One of the assistants finally went to him. "Come on in," she coaxed. "We are going to learn a wonderful new game this afternoon. Don't you want to help us?"

"No, ma'am, teacher," he said, and big tears rolled down his cheeks. "No, ma'am, I darsent even come in, 'cause I ain't got my excuse for being borned."

The Low 20th Century Manure Spreaders

PAY THEIR WAY

In actual dollars and cents, Low 20th Century manure spreaders pay their way—and then some. On a central Illinois farm, half a field was covered with manure properly applied by means of a spreader, the other half of the field was left bare. The field was planted to corn. As soon as the corn became a few inches high, it was apparent that the manured half of the field would yield more than the unmanured half. As the corn grew, the difference rapidly became apparent. When the corn was husked, the manured half of the field averaged 32.6 bushels per acre more than the unmanured half of the field. At the market price of $0.50 per bushel, the spreader paid the farmer the sum of $16.30 per acre. Ten acres would total $163. There is no question in this farmer's mind about the Low 20th Century spreader paying its own way. A good spreader has more good reasons for being a part of the farmer's equipment than any other implement. It makes money, saves labor, increases production, pays debts, and accomplishes a much dreaded job easily. It is more essential than a grain binder; the one produces, the other reaps; it works more days and saves more hard work than the binder. No matter what the size of your farm, there's a Low Century manure spreader for it.

The Workingman for NEWBERRY

The Michigan Workingman will support Truman H. Newberry for United States Senator

BECAUSE—

- First. He is splendidly qualified. His Americanism, his ability, his experience, his high character, his good judgment and his knowledge of the war make him the strong man for senator.
- Second. He has always been a laborer. While Secretary of the Navy he came into daily contact with labor and labor leaders and his course of that time met with the unqualified approval. He made it possible for men to hold meetings and participate in the making of laws.
- Third. He is a friend of labor. He favors an eight-hour day, with extra pay for over-time.
- Fourth. He stands and will continue to stand for the protection of the working-man's wage. He believes in and fights for the great principle of Protection.
- Fifth. The laboring man will vote for Truman H. Newberry because he can be relied upon to be a strong and able champion of the laboring man.

Phil G. Forshes has enlisted in the navy and will go to the Great Lakes Training Camp, near Chicago, when called. He spent last week with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Forshes; also a few days with his parents, near Plymouth. The city of Detroit has found civil service so successful that its officials, let alone the people, would not think of a return to the old plan, he says. "As well as protection to the men and women holding positions, civil service is an economical and efficient system, the need of which is apparent. There is no justice in the system which dismisses an employe because there is a change in the administration of any office, neither to the employe nor to the position itself. Every time a new employe goes to work he must spend some time learning his duties, and this takes time as well as causing expense. The only time an employe should be dismissed is for dishonesty, incompetence or disobedience, not merely because a new boss takes charge. Civil service would, of course, automatically apply to all present employes, improve their working conditions and make their positions secure and dependent on their own ability to do the work their jobs demand."

Mr. McCarthy three years with the auditor general's office in Lansing, and for that reason many facilities with the methods of the civil service department. He lives at 251 South Main street and has an office in the Mack building.—Adv.

McCarthy for State Senator

All state and county employes should be put under civil service, Edward J. McCarthy, attorney, declares. Demand for efficiency and economy makes such a measure imperative, he points out, saying he will submit a bill in Lansing providing this if successful in his campaign for state senator. Mr. McCarthy is seeking the Republican nomination, in the first-district. "The city of Detroit has found civil service so successful that its officials, let alone the people, would not think of a return to the old plan," he says. "As well as protection to the men and women holding positions, civil service is an economical and efficient system, the need of which is apparent. There is no justice in the system which dismisses an employe because there is a change in the administration of any office, neither to the employe nor to the position itself. Every time a new employe goes to work he must spend some time learning his duties, and this takes time as well as causing expense. The only time an employe should be dismissed is for dishonesty, incompetence or disobedience, not merely because a new boss takes charge. Civil service would, of course, automatically apply to all present employes, improve their working conditions and make their positions secure and dependent on their own ability to do the work their jobs demand."

Mr. McCarthy three years with the auditor general's office in Lansing, and for that reason many facilities with the methods of the civil service department. He lives at 251 South Main street and has an office in the Mack building.—Adv.
