When Wood Seems to Live and Breath

The effect is almost uncanny. It reminds one of "The Unknown Purple," one of the season's hits in New York. In the play, the hero, who has discovered how to become invisible at will, vanishes into thin air while in full view of the audience. And still his voice can be heard issuing from a purple ray.

That is how the New Edison impresses people. They feel that the artist must be there in flesh, concealed somewhere in the room. With such complete fidelity is the singer's voice or instrumental interpreted.

Call at our store the next time you're in the vicinity and prove to yourself that the claims you've heard made for the New Edison are not too strong.

COMMUNITY BANQUET BIG SUCCESS

OVER TWO HUNDRED BANQUETTERS PARTAKE OF DELECTABLE DINNER AND LISTEN TO A PLEASING PROGRAM OF SPEECHES AND MUSIC.

One of the most delightful events of the season was the Community banquet, held in the Presbyterian church banquet room, last Friday evening. About two hundred guests sat down at 6:30 o'clock to the tables beautifully laid and artistically decorated in spring colors of pink and white. The windows of the hall were very prettily decorated with artificial window boxes, from which there seemed to grow in blooming profusion spring blossoms and budding stems of apple and pussy willow. The covers were carried out on the tables in pink and white carnations and pink lamp shades. The pretty work of decorating was suggested and the hand painting of the programs was done by Mrs. H. C. Robinson.

An elegant menu was served with turkey and all the "fixins" as a basis. Fifteen chosen men carved the birds, and bountifully supplied the plates of the eager guests. The dining room looked beautiful as the guests came marching in with Rev. and Mrs. Bicknell leading the way, to the delightful and most pleasing music of the High School orchestra. The orchestra played during the serving of the banquet, and delighted the guests with their well chosen and well executed program. The orchestra deserves highest praise and congratulations for the splendid work they are doing.

Mrs. F. D. Schrader, as matron of the dining room, together with her thirty helpers, so planned and regulated the serving of the banquet that everything moved like well oiled machinery, and everyone felt the charm, which the splendid order and arrangement of the banquet gave to the evening. Mrs. Kate E. Allen graciously loaned her dishes, and assisted in making the evening a most pleasant and delightful occasion. Everyone who helped or assisted in any way to make the banquet a success manifested the finest spirit that can dominate a community, and that is the spirit of willingness to sink self in the large need and service of the community. The success of the banquet as a community affair was the splendid spirit of co-operation and good will manifested by everyone who had anything to do with its prosecution. The banquet struck a high note in the community and civic life of our town, and we need to cultivate just such fellowship that such events afford.

It is needless to go into details about the menu. Suffice to say that the ladies of the Presbyterian church cooked and served it, and that it was well enough. We all know what that means. The visitors from Detroit testified that they had never enjoyed a more delectable dinner. So say we all.

After the dinner, Rev. Bicknell welcomed the guests and visitors and introduced the toastmaster, Rev. W. H. McClelland, D. D., pastor of St. Mark's E. church, Detroit. Dr. McClelland did not disappoint his many friends and admirers here, and at once put the assembled guests in a good humor by his wise and interesting remarks. He was very witty and his co-leader, Rev. Frank H. Field, pastor of the New M. E. church, his field delighted the crowd and gave them a real message to consider as he spoke a few moments on "The Church and the Community."

Rev. H. M. Bunker, who chaired the banquet, with his beautiful voice, in the face of Dr. Bicknell, gave a most interesting and inspiring address on "The Church and the Community."

Rev. C. W. Lewis, D. D., pastor of Bethany church, Detroit, delivered a more serious and thoughtful message on "The Church and the New Era," and aroused our minds to the great task and message of the church in these days.

Mr. James Schermerhorn, editor of the Detroit Times, pleased the company with his brilliant wit and humor, and the charming message of his address, "This Side of Over There." Mr. Schermerhorn is always a treat, and he did not disappoint his hearers.

Miss Evangeline Foster delighted her many friends and won many more by her beautiful voice and charming personality during her generous numbers.

It is always a pleasure to see the faces of old friends. Rev. B. F. Farber was greeted by his many friends, and greatly enjoyed as he spoke on "A Community of Commandments."

Rev. R. M. Huston, D. D., pastor of Trumbull Avenue Presbyterian church, delivered a most pleasing and beautiful message on "The House You Live In." He spoke of the various windows we need in our houses and the message and lesson each should bring, as we look out upon life from the various sides of the house.

The guests were rested and prepared for successive courses during the banquet by singing old popular songs, led by Mr. Calvin Whipple. The most delightful evening was ended and the guests bidden good night as all sang as most heartily as full stomachs and glad hearts would permit, the old song, "Auld Lang Syne." Everyone expressed his delight and satisfaction with the banquet, and the universal opinion seemed to be that it was a success from the point of view of the purpose and object of the entertainment, and from any other point of view one would care to take. We only hope that the community is better for it and hearts are closed together, and greater good will and kindness obtains in every heart.

SCHOOL ORCHESTRA MAKES APPEARANCE

YOUNG MUSICIANS WILL PLAY BEFORE DR. BRADLEY'S LECTURE TUESDAY EVENING.

The Plymouth High school orchestra, which has been in training for many weeks under the leadership of Miss Helen Shear, has made great progress and are now able to acquit themselves with great credit to themselves and their leader. Next Tuesday evening, February 18th, the people of Plymouth are to have the opportunity of hearing these young musicians at the High School auditorium, when they will give a concert preceding the regular number of the Citizens' Entertainment Course. The orchestra will begin about 7:30.

Dr. Preston Bradley, the noted orator and lecturer, who will appear here on the Lyceum course, next Tuesday evening, preaches each Sunday in Chicago in the beautiful new Pentecost Theatre, which has been leased by his congregation for the season. This theatre has 3,000 seats and a $75,000 pipe organ.

The Wilson theatre, formerly used by Dr. Bradley, has not been large enough to hold the crowds during the past three years. Hundreds of people had to be turned away every Sunday.

This is Dr. Bradley's seventh season as a pastor in Chicago, and in that time he has made a remarkable record as an orator. He preaches every Sunday morning to a congregation made up in a large degree of practical every-day business men. His ability to hold these men Sunday after Sunday is the surest possible test of his ability as an orator.

Dr. Bradley is always in great demand before clubs and special gatherings. Last year he filled more than 85 engagements of this character in Chicago. Recently the Tuesday Art and Travel Club of Chicago, engaged him for his twenty first lecture before that organization. He is also to speak before the Chicago Rotary Club and the Chicago Association of Commerce again this year. The secret of his success is that he always talks on live topics. His subject here will be the "United States of Tomorrow."

Rev. and Mrs. C. Strasen entertained a company of friends at dinner at their home in north village, last Wednesday evening, in honor of the Misses Lena and Ida Bertram of Detroit.

The remains of Edgar Jolliffe were brought here the first of the week for burial from Sylvania, Marquette, where he died the first of November. Mrs. Jolliffe accompanied the remains here, and will stay with her husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Eddy, for a while.

HOW TO WIN FRIENDS

We all want friends.

A worried expression will not win them. A face free from strain and worry is usually the first step toward winning them.

When you are getting ahead, the place it shows first is in your face.

If a bank account does nothing else, it will change a face of worry to one of smiles, and the unworried look and smile means strength and friends to the possessor.

CUTTING THE COST
All indications are that the cost of living is shrinking. Time, it is very plain in Plymouth, yet, but reports from many sections of the country are that food prices are being adjusted to new conditions.

Just when costs will stop falling no one can predict. It is the usual experience that an extreme plunge results in a rebound. The situation is largely in the hands of the ultimate consumer, and the man or woman with the market basket can exert powerful influence by guarding their purchases.

OUR P. M. STATION
At the last meeting of the village commission, a report, calling attention to the unsanitary condition of the local station of the Pere Marquette Ry., was received from the village health officer, who also recommended that the commission institute condemnation proceedings.

It begins to look as if the women were going to play an important part in politics after all. Plymouth is just now in great need of more renting houses.

Commandery Will Celebrate

Today's Reflections
It looks as though we were not going to have peace with Germany until the interested nation gets a piece of Germany.

When you say you can't believe half some Plymouth men tell you, be sure that you are not putting the average too high.

One Plymouth man stated yesterday that he is glad to note Uncle Sam is going in strong for government ownership of the water wagon.

Wonder what ever became of all the fellows who have been introduced by speakers as "our next president."

As far as we've been able to learn nobody in this country has made the cables with communications to the ex-Kaiser on his 69th birthday.

FROM OUR BOYS

Dec. 10, 1918. Miss Ada M. Safford, Dear Friend:

Last night on my return from the front I was greatly pleased to have two letters waiting for me and from Plymouth. It sure makes a boy pleased to get mail from his home town...

We are on the Archangel and Volgodra railroad—have advanced a distance of about one hundred miles, and never retreated one foot. We live on wheels. The fighting is on each side of the track for the country...

We have had several issues of Red Cross gifts. I always think of you women in Plymouth working at all spare moments for the boys who have fought for our country...

Well, I suppose you people at home wonder if we are warm and how we are fed. Well, our clothing is very warm; eats a fairly good diet; we can not expect to live like at home...

Yours truly, HARRY MUMBY, Co. A, 310th Engineers, 1st Bn.

TELLS OF WESTERN TRIP

After leaving the Garden of the Gods with its wonderful freaks of nature, we went by the Temple Drive to the Cave of the Winds. This drive, after leaving Manitou, traverses beautiful William's Canon with its side walls 200 to 500 feet high, for about a mile...

At last we came to the Cave of the Winds—not one large bare cavern, but some seventeen rooms, connected by narrow passages, brilliantly lighted by electricity. The decorations range from flowing stalactites to immense carbonate stalactites (formations growing downward) six feet long. As it takes a hundred years to form one inch of a stalactite, you can imagine something of the age of the cave...

We next passed Glen Eyrie, the four mill dollar home of the late General William J. Palmer. The estate comprises 2225 acres. The road took us to the Woodman's sanatorium, some twenty miles out. I went to the office and tried to find William Beyer, but found that he checked out January 3rd, and had gone back to Michigan. The scenery is beautiful in all directions, but to think of living alone for months in one of those individual houses about ten feet square with cloth sides. I can imagine how pleased I would be to see someone from home.

No matter where you go in this region, far above all directions, Pike's Peak covered with some fifteen feet of snow. Will not be opened before June 1st. They told me the double track boulevard, which runs to its summit, is eighteen miles long. The grade averages about 10 per cent. The boulevard is twenty to fifty feet wide. Some walk up beside the cog road, which is but half as long with a twenty per cent grade. Many are inclined, "Pike's Peak or bust," start in to walk up at night to get there to see the sunrise above the clouds. Autos charge $6.48 for round trip. The cog road slightly less—each. From this summit can be seen 41 of the 54 peaks of the Rockies, over 14,000 feet, the great Pike national forest of a million and a quarter acres—some of this almost unexplored and the homes of wild cats, bears, etc., and a dozen cities and towns. We missed this feature, but as there was very little snow, except on the peaks, which we saw, was almost as beautiful as in summer.

We visited the Seven Falls, where we climbed steps up 300 feet. This climbing soon reminds you of the altitude—once soon faint for breath. Coming down we met a couple. The man had consumption. The lady told Mrs. Hamill if her husband clung to the top her tears would be at an end—she would know he could get well. When last seen, he looked in a fair way to fulfill her hopes.

Obituary: Alfred Gust was born in Detroit, November 13, 1860, and departed this life Tuesday, February 4, 1919. He was united in marriage to Miss Mary Schaufele of this place, August 15, 1910. Three children were born to this union, Margaret, aged 7 years, Kenneth, aged 5 years, and little Alfred, aged 4 years. Mr. Gust had an attack of influenza the latter part of November, and never recovered from the effects of it, the disease settling in his throat. He was taken to Ann Arbor hospital about four weeks ago for the removal of his tonsils, but in such a weakened condition that the operation could not be performed, and he grew gradually weaker and passed away at that place, Tuesday, February 4th. The deceased was confirmed in the Lutheran church at Wayne when sixteen years of age, and had always retained a faithful membership of that church. He is survived by his wife and three children; father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Gust of Nankin; two brothers, Richard of Canton, and Charles of Nankin; four sisters, Mrs. Thomas Cost of Nankin, Mrs. Ed. Knapp of Detroit, Mrs. Wm. Knapp of Lulu who reside at home besides many more distant relatives. The funeral was held from his late home on South Main street, Thursday afternoon, February 6th, Rev. O. Peters of Wayne, conducting the services. Interment in Riverside cemetery.

Some day, some time, our eyes shall see the face we loved so well; Some day our hands shall clasp in his And never say farewell.

The Anderson Way

LIKE TIRES ARE BUILT

Our system of Real Vulcanizing is what it is, and has made the name it has, and is winning the patronage it is winning because we vulcanize the part needing repair in the same way that tires are built in the factory—same principle and same pressure. Ours is not heat-dried patching, but guaranteed vulcanizing—the real cure inside and outside, at one operation.

NO AIR BAGS USED

We do not use air bags, because they admit of only 70 to 90 pounds pressure, and vulcanizing cannot be done with less than tons of pressure. And it is safe to say that, with air bags, never for once was the cement and rubber forced into the fabric, but merely stuck on—and this is not vulcanizing.

CANNOT LUMP BLISTER OR PULL LOOSE

The liquidized rubber and superheated cement are forced into the fabric with our tons of pressure and cooked in, firmly uniting them. Thus it is our work never lumps, blisters or pulls apart.

BRANDING OUR WORK

We brand all our work because we guarantee it to outwear the tire. We put the brand on the inside of the tire. This is the Anderson—the only one of its kind—the only one that cures successfully and permanently.

OUR NEIGHBORS

The Milford Fair will be held this year, September 16 to 19.

The village of Wayne has purchased a motor hose and chemical fire truck.

Howell has purchased a machine for flushing and cleaning its pavements at a cost of $2,000.

The Dearborn Board of Commerce played host to nearly 400 banqueters at their annual banquet last week.

The Northville O. E. S. will hold their annual ball in the High school gymnasium, Friday evening, February 21. A number of Plymouthites will attend this party.

The P. M. Ry. has its new depot at Fowlerville completed and the citizens of that village are very proud of its new building. Don't blame them, Plymouth would be too.

The local milk producers will receive $3.70 per hundred during February, Detroit delivery. A little better price is expected in March unless there is a material drop in feed prices.

The citizens of Belleville want a factory in that town, and have organized a chamber of commerce, and are preparing to invite various manufacturers to look into a proposition they are ready to make.

The Detroit common council has authorized the expenditure by the board of $100,000 for the purchase of a site for a tuberculosis sanitarium to be located between the U. S. Fishery road and Base Line road west of Northville.

The Milford Times celebrated its forty-ninth birthday last week. The Times is one of our most valued exchanges, and its weekly visits are always looked forward to with much pleasure. Many more years of continued prosperity is our wish.

The South Lyon Herald was 38 years old last Friday. The Herald is one of the best country papers in the state, and is always a welcome visitor to the exchange table of this office. Here's hoping you have many more years of prosperity Bro. Pierce.

The way for any merchant to increase his business is to advertise it. Waiting for the goods on the shelves to disappear without printers' ink pushing them is like waiting for the girl to propose—it sometimes happens but not often.—Oxford Leader.

Five carloads of Holsteins were shipped from Howell to the Panama canal zone to be used for a foundation herd in that district; quite a compliment to Michigan. This state expects to furnish a lot of blooded cattle to aid in rebuilding the depleted herds of Europe.

David Warren, who has been working in Plymouth, came home Saturday having met with an accident that morning in which he came out with a broken great toe on his right foot. He will be laid up for about two weeks.—South Lyon Herald.

Mrs. L. H. Bradley has five hens which she thinks are very patriotic and doing all they can to reduce the high cost of living. Since October 6, these five hens have laid 12 dozen or 144 eggs. This is some record, we'd say.—South Lyon Herald.

Howell has purchased a new fire truck for $1,650. It is to be delivered in about sixty days and is to be equipped with 200 feet of chemical hose, 450 feet of regular fire hose, hook and ladders and the usual equipment for such outfits.

Milford relatives of Rev. Alfred Bourne have received news of the sudden death of his wife at their home in Seattle, Wash. She retired in her usual health, but in the morning was found to have passed away in the night. Mrs. Bourne was born June 20, 1841, at Plymouth, and was married to Rev. Alfred Bourne in 1864. For many years he was prominent in the Methodist ministry of Michigan, holding some of its best pastorates, and was also president of the Michigan W. C. T. U. For about fourteen years Mr. and Mrs. Bourne have lived in Seattle. She leaves the husband, one son and two daughters.—Milford Times.

School Notes

Boys' Basket Ball Game
Last Friday Plymouth played their second game of basket ball at Wayne. Our line up was: Bennett Wilson, center; Clarence Wilson and Ann Wilson, forwards; Howard Kirk and Donald Hanchett, guards. "Shorty" Kirk had played about four minutes when he got four teeth knocked loose, and Henry Root took his place for the rest of the game. The referee for the first half was Ed Wayne coach, while Fred Trucks from the U. of M., refereed the last half. The Plymouth boys fought very hard to win, but Wayne was too strong for them; the final score was 54 to 3 in favor of Wayne. Plymouth has the honor of playing a clean game.

Girls' Basket Ball Game
The girls of Plymouth High school played their second game of basket ball at Wayne, last Friday. There were about a hundred and fifty spectators, a third of whom were Plymouth people. The referee was Miss Leach, and the umpire was Miss Gill, both Plymouth High school teachers. Our girls played a fine game, the score being 11 to 12 in favor of Wayne at the end of the first half. At the beginning of the second half the score was a tie. Wayne gradually began to creep ahead of us until at the end the score of 28 to 17 in favor of Wayne.

Mrs. Jasper Michael visited the third grade, last Wednesday.

The children of the first grade are busy making valentines. They have made some very pretty ones, many being original and made without the aid of a valentine book. Friday afternoon the children of Mrs. Michael visited the first grade.

The ball game between the first and second grades was held at Wayne last Friday.

EVERYBODY KNOWS VALVE-IN-HEAD MEANS BUICK

THE BUICK FIVE-PASSENGER CAR

The Buick Model H-Six-45 is a very capable open car for five persons, designed to cover the multitude of uses to which such a car is put. It differs from the big seven-passenger model only in tonneau and chassis length, possessing the same degree of ruggedness, easy-flowing power and mechanical excellence.

There is far more comfort in the driving compartment than is usually found in cars of this type. The floor space is uncluttered and the seat is of great depth.

The tonneau is even more liberally proportioned. The seat is full three-passenger capacity, set at a comfortable angle. The sides are upholstered clear to the doors with the same French pleated leather used on the cushions and seat backs. Each of the four doors is equipped with a side pocket for storing small parcels. The instrument board is illuminated by a dash lamp and the sloping windshield does away with the annoying reflections so frequently encountered at night.

The hair in Buick upholstery is pressed into pads and cannot spread.

Let us demonstrate to you the many good qualities of the Buick line. It will not place you under the slightest obligation to buy. A phone or a card will bring the Buick to your door.
