COMMENDATION OF BISHOP

LOCAL PASTOR AND CHURCH CONGRATULATED FOR THEIR PART IN CENTENARY VICTORY.

The following letter from Bishop Theodore S. Henderson of the Detroit Area added to the pleasure which the members of the local Methodist congregation felt in the recent victory by which they oversubscribed by more than $2,500 their quota on the Methodist Centenary Mission fund.

My Dear Brother Field:—
Congratulations to you on the fine success you had in Plymouth, last Sunday. This is perfectly wonderful, I can assure you, and it cheers me mightily to know of the success, especially in the light of the fact that you have had some hard experiences with your church buildings there at Plymouth. But the Centenary is God's cause and is making over a new church. The whole Detroit area is moving wonderfully toward the goal. With best wishes, I remain,
Yours very truly,
THEODORE S. HENDERSON.

The quota for the Plymouth and Newburgh churches was $1245.11 a year for five years, but the subscriptions for the Centenary reported at the close of the campaign, last Sunday, had reached the total of $2424.47 for five years.

Pastor Field is saying that a church that can win such a victory can do meet anything that really needs to be done and he feels mighty proud of his folks.

THE JUNIOR CLASS PLAY TAKES PLACE OF SON

"TOMPKINS HIRED MAN" TO BE GIVEN FRIDAY, JUNE 6TH.

The junior class of Plymouth High school will give a three-act drama, called, "Tompkins Hired Man," Friday evening, June 6th, at 8:00 p. m., in the auditorium of the High school.

The juniors have been rehearsing for a number of weeks, under the able direction of Miss Leach, the sixth grade teacher. This play promises to be one of the best ever put on by a High school class. Those attending are promised lots of laughter and enjoyment.

The cast of characters is as follows: Mr. Asa Tompkins—A prosperous farmer who cannot tolerate deceit—Lucius Thomas

Dixey—The hired man; one of nature's noblemen—Lyman Judson John Remington—A fine young man in love with Louise—Floyd Kehrl Jerry—A half-grown, awkward country lad—Vernon Wood

Louise—The daughter whom Mr. Tompkins believes to be his own—Mildred Gates

Julia—The only child born to Mr. and Mrs. Tompkins—Mildred Hood

The juniors will have tickets for sale at any time, and reserved seats are to be obtained at Pinckney's Pharmacy next week. The prices are to be twenty-five and thirty-five cents. Seats in the gallery are twenty-five cents, except the first two rows, which are reserved.

The High school orchestra will furnish the music during the evening.

CANADIAN SOLDIER TAKES SLAIN "BUDDIES" NAME AND BECOMES "BUDDIE'S" PARTNER'S ADOPTED SON.

The following article appeared in the Detroit Times of May 21st, which will be of interest to the readers of the Mail. The Palphreyman's referred to are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Palphreyman of this village:

"Russell J. Hymers, who served in France with a Canadian regiment, came into Judge Command's court, Wednesday morning, and applied for permission to change his name to Russell J. Palphreyman. The request was granted.

"The circumstances leading to the request were dramatic.

"Some months ago the Canadian soldier lay wounded in a French hospital. In another cot close by was an American, also wounded.

"I think I'm going west, Buddy," said the American to the Canadian, "and I want you to go and see my parents if you live. Tell 'em that I died game, and that I wasn't afraid to die. I'm their only boy, you see."

"The American said his name was Ronald Palphreyman, and that his home was in Plymouth, Mich. Then he died. The Canadian fighter recovered, returned to America, and a few days ago kept his promise.

He visited the boy's parents and they asked him to become their son. Hymers ran away as a child and did not know where his own parents were. So he agreed to change his name, though he is past the age of legal adoption.

"The Palphreymans are like their boy, and I want to make as good as their son did," said Hymers.

Mrs. E. Sherman of Detroit, a former resident of this place, is visiting her son, Floyd and family.

The Ladies of the Helping Hand of Cooper's Corner, will hold a business meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Packard, Thursday afternoon, June 6th. All members are cordially invited to attend.

The annual picnic of the Woman's Literary Club will be held on the lawns of Mrs. Ella Chaffee and Mrs. W. S. Thomas on Main street, Friday afternoon, June 6th. All members are invited to attend.

GIRL AVIATION SERGEANT IS YANK'S BRIDE

PLYMOUTH FIGHTER BRINGS NEW WIFE HOME FROM GLASGOW AERO FIELD.

The following article was taken from Monday evening's Detroit Journal:

"Annie Ferguson, formerly of Glasgow, Scotland, an engineer and a sergeant in the British air service, is now living in the quiet little town of Plymouth, Mich., the bride of Octave Burrows, a Detroit soldier, whom she met while both were stationed at the same flying field near Glasgow.

"Events move much more slowly in the pretty village which is her present home, but she has directed the energy which she used to expend on affairs of the nation, on her household duties, and finds her time so taken up she scarcely misses the strenuous old life.

"The wedding took place in Glasgow, September 18th, following a six weeks' romance, the story of which Mrs. Burrows refused to tell.

"I'm not going to talk to reporters or any more," she said, because one newspaper man asked me what my husband and I used to talk about before we were married, and other questions just as ridiculous. Anyone who has been in love knows that we didn't talk about our work all the time, and I told him that when he went and printed everything I said, so I don't want to be interviewed again."

OPEN HOUSE NIGHT DRAWS

TWO AUDIENCES SAW PICTURES AT METHODIST CHURCH LAST TUESDAY NIGHT.

So great an interest was shown in the moving pictures, Life of Christ, "From the Manger to the Cross," shown at the Methodist church, last Tuesday evening, in the Open House program, that all could not be accommodated at one time, and many waited outside until the first showing was completed so that room could be made for them. The picture was a splendid six-reel production and many enthusiastic comments were made concerning it.

A new aluminum coated rolling screen had been installed in the church at considerable expense, but the results demonstrated the worth of the expenditure. With this new metal-coated screen results are obtained equal to those in the first-class picture houses, with clear, sharp delineation of pictures such as cannot be obtained in a cloth curtain. Plans are also being made for installing darkening apparatus for the windows so that day-time projection of pictures will be possible.

Last Tuesday evening a Baby Magic Osborne picture, "Daddy's Vacation," will be the attraction. The picture has been booked for two weeks, the first Tuesday in June being the first date open. The little colored boy and Marie Osborne are at their best in this picture.

"Success of Sunnyside Farm," with Marie Osborne, is booked for Tuesday, June 18th.

BROWN O'BRIEN

The couple will reside at 1011 1/2 Michigan street.

BAYBALL CURTIS

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Curtis, of Mill, Mich., was the scene of a delightful wedding ceremony, which took place at 10:30 o'clock, Wednesday evening, June 19th, 1919. The ceremony was performed at six o'clock in the presence of about thirty guests. The bride was Miss Bayball Curtis, and the groom was Mr. Oscar Curtis. The couple will reside at 1011 1/2 Michigan street.

The Right Amount

If we sift the proposition down to a plain statement, how much ought a person to save?

How much ought he lay aside as a fund that will bring in an income?

Who is there that cannot save one-twentieth of his income, and many can easily save one-tenth. Either will place you on the road to independence.

GOODBY, WOMEN'S TROUBLES

The tired and discomfort of back ache and aching back, swollen feet and limbs, weakness, dizziness, nervousness, as a rule have their origin in kidney trouble, not "female complaints." These general symptoms of kidney and bladder disease are well known—so is the remedy.

Still Human. The new minister was young and full of faith, hope and charity; but he did not always plan his speech with care.

"Let us pray that we may have an attendance of at least fifty at our next young people's service," he said earnestly one Sunday evening. "And remember that the prayer of faith is always answered."

The next service did not bring out fifty persons, or nearly that number, but the minister looked cheerfully down on the faithful few.

"Well, friends," he said briskly, "there aren't fifty of us, but there are sixteen, and that's one or two more than I'd counted on."

Rescued From Kidney Trouble. Doan's Made Me Strong and Well.

"I suffered untold agony with my kidneys for years," says John Barnett, 25 Virginia Place, Buffalo, N. Y. "Sometimes I felt that I would burn up with fever, but every now and then would have severe chills. Often my clothes were wringing wet with perspiration. The kidney secretions were unnatural in color and odor and burned terribly. At night my shoes were so tight I could hardly get them off, and my hands swelled so I couldn't hold a teaspoon. My back, Oh, how it ached! I walked with two canes and was all bent over like an aged man. When the terrible pains shot through my kidneys, my knees would give way and many times I had to be lifted to my feet by people on the street. I didn't care whether I lived or died. I was so miserable. I finally used Doan's Kidney Pills and they cured me of all kidney trouble. Doan's made me strong and well."

MUCH DIFFERENCE IN LAW

Writer Points Out Vagaries of That Most Sacred of all Human Institutions.

Isn't it queer, how stern the law is in some respects and how lenient in others!

Clip a few cents' worth of silver off a quarter dollar and, bang! Uncle Sam locks you up for several years.

Let a butcher cut 20 cents worth of steak off that four-pound order of yours through his swindling scales and perhaps after a thousand similar offenses he may be fined $10, writes "Wizard" in Philadelphia Press.

Cheating a thousand persons out of meat is regarded as a trifle. Cheating your Uncle Samuel out of a nickel is a penitentiary job. Why such a big difference?

I read in the paper that a storekeeper who habitually swindled his customers by short weight has been fined $25.

Every once in a while Philadelphia sends out to see how many crooked scales are in use and finds hundreds.

"Let Us Gather at the River" was reputed to be the favorite hymn of the milk dealers. That was long ago, before we made it a crime to put water in the milk bottle.

Now the pump is no longer the most profitable cow in the dairy. Tens of thousands of purchases made in this town daily are weighed or measured. Could the city do a better service for its 2,000,000 buyers than to see that a yard stick is always thirty-six inches long and that a pound is never fourteen ounces?

EPISODE NO. 5. WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE.

Dick and Polly Van Brunt organize an expedition to get a buried treasure. The only key to whose location is a chart, years before divided among six members of a similar expedition. Polly has one.

Safe behind the partition where they had been swept by the swift mechanism of the idol, Dolly, Chu and Lee confronted each other. So swift had been the rush of events that her mind was in a turmoil, and not knowing whether she faced friend or foe she braced herself for whatever might happen next.

What was the meaning of it all? That she had been saved from the clutch of the outlaws through the cunning of the Oriental she felt assured, yet for what purpose had Chip dragged her into this hidden retreat?

Only his wonderful endurance enabled him to keep his head above the swift current, which finally threw him out into San Francisco bay against a mass of piles. He was only a few hundred yards from the steamship which had brought the Kid and Roper and which was just warping into her pier.

Swimming to the boat, Dick climbed to the deck and was fortunate to find an old friend in the skipper, who furnished him a dry outfit of clothes and a pistol. He ran across the outlaws at the gangplank, but did not recognize them. They, however, knew him and in amazement at his presence on the boat, started to trail him away from the pier.

Dick in a taxi headed at once for Chu's shop and found Lee alone in an outer room. Believing Lee against him, he refused to listen to any explanations, but, drawing his pistol, broke into the room where Scarface and Screwwee were. Expecting their own companions, the men were taken by surprise and held up. A moment later, Teel and Stebbins arrived. Lee then told Dick all that had happened.

"All right, Chu, I am going to trust you. If you are playing fair with us you will never regret it, but if not—well, another day will come."

"You no be afraid. Chu give his word, and Chu's word as good as 'Melican gold.'" He turned away and silently she followed him.

Dick, shooting through the trap door of the floor, found himself plunging down through a semi-darkness and expecting to be dashed to death at the bottom of his fall. Shutting his teeth he braced himself for the shock which must follow his alighting. But instead of crashing upon the bottom of a pit as he imagined in the brief second of his downward plunge, he felt himself strike the surface of water into which he disappeared with a tremendous splash. Down through it he went until his feet struck the hard bottom, then bending his knees he gave a tremendous leap and in an instant was shooting upward again. Another instant and he had regained the surface.

For a moment he threw himself upon his back and floated as he endeavored to collect his thoughts and discover just what stream he had been cast. Gradually his eyes became accustomed to the gloom and he was able to make out his surroundings. About him were walls, low, gray, arched and slimy, and through this subterranean tunnel the stream was rushing with the fury of a mountain torrent. A wave swept over him and for a moment he was dragged beneath the tide, but struggling to the surface again he threw himself upon his side and began swimming vigorously. Beyond all question he was in a sewer of some kind, and also beyond all question this sewer must have its outlet into the sea. Here the entrance of this underground torrent free all might be well and good, but suppose it were not? Suppose at its further end he should find it blocked by a grating such as often terminated the exits of such underground streams! In that event he must be drowned like a rat in a cage, since no man could breast his way against a torrent such as the one that was sweeping him on. Helpless to do more than guide himself he swam on.

Over and again through his mind flashed thoughts of Polly. In whose hands was she now, and what would her fate be if he was doomed to die in this dark vault? The thought gave him renewed strength. If coolness and determination to live were of any avail then he would come out of his desperate plight alive, for thought of death with Polly possibly calling vainly to him for assistance was unendurable. In some way he must pull through to help her if she needed help, or to avenge her should any scoundrel mistreat her. Strongly he swam on.

Only his wonderful endurance enabled him to keep his head above the swift current, which finally threw him out into San Francisco bay against a mass of piles. He was only a few hundred yards from the steamship which had brought the Kid and Roper and which was just warping into her pier.

NOT QUITE TO HIS TASTE

Hunter Liked Bear, All Right, but That Particular One Was Not Done Enough.

Blenkins once joined a bear-hunting expedition. During the hunt, as he was resting by the side of a rock and talking with another hunter he began swanking heavily.

"If there's anything I do not like it's bear. A slice of bear steak nicely done is just perfect!" he said.

"Well," said his companion looking up, "I'm hanged if there isn't a bear now!"

The man who "doted on bear" looked up, saw an immense grizzly on the top of the rock, gave a yell and leaped into the woods and disappeared. His companion soon overtook him and said to the fugitive as he came up:

"I thought you liked bear?" "Well, I do," said the runaway; "but that one wasn't done enough."—London Tit-Bits.

Make This Test For Acid-Stomach

There are millions of people who suffer almost daily from the horrors of an acid-stomach—indigestion; sour, enamed and causes them to decay. Think then of the havoc that must be caused by excess acid in the stomach—heartburn; painful food-repelling; puffed up, bloated, miserable, puffed up, and feeling after eating. Many of these people have tried treatment after treatment; medicine after medicine; others have gone to doctors and stomach specialists and some to hospitals, but in spite of all of their efforts they have obtained no lasting relief or a permanent cure.

These symptoms simply mean acid-stomach. If allowed to run on, they are very likely to cause a lot of serious trouble. Dyspepsia, rheumatism, tooth, lumbago, sciatica, splitting headache, dizzy spells, nervousness, sleeplessness, mental depression, melancholia, a feeling of listlessness and all-goneness—these are just a few of the disorders which can be traced to acid-stomach. As a matter of fact, acid-stomach is often the direct cause of these almost incurable conditions known as catarrh of the stomach, intestinal ulcer, and cancer of the stomach. The lives of those who suffer from these serious troubles are nothing short of daily agony. Surely, cause EATONIC is absolutely guaranteed, you must see how important it is to go at once to the seat of the trouble—acid-stomach. You know that

Let Electricity Do Your Washing

Horses once dragged street cars. They could do it now—but would it pay? No. Electricity is quicker, cheaper and better.

And it's quicker and cheaper and better to own a modern electric washing machine than to have your clothes rubbed and worn by the wash-board way—and more sanitary and thorough too.

Do You Enjoy Life?

A man in good physical condition is almost certain to enjoy life, while the bilious and dyspeptic are despondent, do not enjoy their meals and feel miserable a good share of the time. This ill feeling is nearly always unnecessary. A few doses of Chamberlain's Tablets to tone up the stomach, improve the digestion and regulate the bowels is all that is needed. Try it.—Adv't.
