A Guaranteed Laxative Rexall Orderlies

We honestly believe that we have the best bowel remedy ever made—the most pleasant to take, most permanently beneficial laxative for relief from the miseries and dangers arising from constipation.

REXALL ORDERLIES

taste like candy. They are soothing and very easy in action. They do not cause griping, nausea, purging or excessive looseness. They tend to tone and strengthen intestinal nerves and muscles. They promptly relieve constipation, and help to permanently overcome it.

Rexall Orderlies promote better spirits and better health. In all of these things they are vastly superior to old-fashioned, harsh salts and other purgatives, which are not only unpleasant to take, but which usually leave the bowels in worse condition than before.

We particularly recommend Rexall Orderlies for children, aged and delicate persons.

BE A SUNDAY-SCHOOL BOOSTER

RESOLVED, That I will be in my Sunday-school class, next Sunday and every Sunday. The Bible says that we should "KEEP THE SABBATH HOLY," and attending Sunday-school is certainly a mighty good way of doing this. Some of us have made a dismal failure in keeping the Sabbath Day as we should, but it is no use to worry over past failures. One good resolve is worth a thousand regrets. From now on I will be a Sunday-school BOOSTER.

WILL YOU? LET'S WORK FOR A GREAT RALLY DAY. Topic, next Sunday, "The Holy Scriptures."

Have you joined the T. F. S. class?

TEN O'CLOCK

MASS MEETING TONIGHT

THE PLYMOUTH IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION HAS CALLED A MEETING OF CITIZENS AT THE HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM TONIGHT, FRIDAY, SEPT. 19.

EVERY CITIZEN IS URGED TO ATTEND THIS MEETING AND HELP BOOST PLYMOUTH.

At a meeting of the Plymouth Improvement Association held Tuesday evening for the purpose of seeing what could be done to promote the building of more houses in Plymouth, and other matters that are of vital importance to the progress and welfare of the village right now, it was decided to call a mass meeting of the citizens at the High school auditorium, this Friday evening, Sept. 19th, at 7:30 o'clock, at which time it is hoped that every man and woman in Plymouth, who wants to see Plymouth go ahead, will be present. It is a point to be present. Opportunity is knocking at our door and it is time for us to get busy while we have a chance and leave no stone unturned to become a larger and better Plymouth. Don't stay away thinking that the other fellow will be there and you won't be needed. We will never get anywhere with that kind of a spirit, but make yourself a committee of one to come and bring your neighbor with you.

Remember, Mr. Citizen and property owner, that if you have got the best interests of Plymouth at heart, it is your duty to attend this meeting. It's going to be worth while. You are going to hear of one of the best propositions to boost Plymouth that has yet been uncorked. Come and see what it is. Don't forget that the place is the High school auditorium and that the time is tonight, Friday, September 19th.

DELPHIAN CHAPTER MEET

The Plymouth Delphian chapter held its first meeting for the year Wednesday evening, September 17th, at the home of Mrs. Luther Peck. One new member was admitted to the chapter. The next regular meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. George Howland, 633 Shawwassee avenue, Wednesday, October 1st, at 7:00 p. m. sharp. The topic will be Persians and Phoenicians. All Delphians are cordially invited.

PLYMOUTH'S PORTIA DIS- PENSES JUSTICE IN ROBES OF WHITE

MRS. MELVIN A. PATTERSON, ONLY MICHIGAN, J. P. ASSUMES JUDICIAL DUTIES NON-CHALANTLY, FLOWERS ADORN BENCH.

The following article appeared in Tuesday morning's Detroit Free Press:

"Plymouth, Mich., Sept. 15.—This meeting—er court—will come to order," suggested the lady judge with judicial urbanity. She pushed to one side a vase of full-blossomed gladioli. With another dexterous motion she disposed of a woman's magazine on an under shelf of the desk.

"Detectives placed the two Negro prisoners in front of an old organ in the living room. Its music rack held two volumes, one 'The White Ribbon Symphonies' and the other 'Temperance Songs.'

"This was the setting in which Plymouth's Portia, Mrs. Melvin A. Patterson, the only woman justice of the peace in Michigan, held court this afternoon. That it was her fiftieth case may have been the reason that she was all in white, from her that had turned to that color, to shoes.

"The Patterson home on Ann Arbor street was her court room, and it had a softness in noticeable contrast to the usual severity of court rooms.

"A former justice put the thought of candidacy in Mrs. Patterson's head last April. She snowed under her rival.

"Like it? I should say I do," said Mrs. Patterson today, after she had bound over the two confessed burglars to the Wayne circuit court.

"The hardest thing for me to say is 90 days. I'd rather be known as too lenient than too harsh."

"Why they got her up at 11 o'clock, the other might to try a needer," said a relative with indignation. "She fined them $5, didn't you? Believe me, if they had got me out of bed, I'd have made it $25 at least."

The lady judge laughed. "She never was in a court room until she ran for office. Then she came to Detroit and spent a whole half-day listening to the city judges in full Monday night. That showed her the trick, she says. She also has assimilated a lot of valuable points, she believes, by reading cases reported in the newspapers. Only last week she nixed a county highway commissioner $10 for speeding.

A laughless was reading aloud to a little girl on her lap as Mrs. Patterson talked.

"Listen to this," she said. "You can see this about her, 'Grandmother's face was wrinkled and her eyes were like blue stars.'"

"No, cut that out," remonstrated her niece, smilingly.

"The burglary case heard today involved Calvin Redford and Eugene Jones, both 19 years old, who broke into the home of Fred Bible last week and stole all the silver and other valuables worth about $175. He was taken to the county jail and held at the Detroit district house."

Mrs. Patterson has been an active champion of public health measures. She was president of a party of 100 at the T. F. S. ...

THE THIRD NORTHVILLE FAIR

The third annual Wayne County Fair at Northville, dated for Sept. 24-27, inclusive, has every indication of being a greater success than the two preceding ones, which is certainly saying much. There are many reasons for this belief. More permanent improvements have been made this year, including the erection of a large main building, in place of several of the big tents used to house former exhibits, new grandstand, etc.

Practically all the live stock exhibition space has already been taken, insuring an especially fine show along that line. The entries will embrace some of the finest dairy and breeding stock in this part of the state.

The poultry and pet stock section, under the supervision of A. E. Fuller, one of the foremost poultry prize takers of the state, has been a feature formerly, and it is expected to be better, if possible, this time, and the same is true of the agricultural and horticultural exhibits which won unqualified praise last year.

The Woman's department, which was pronounced by many to be actually superior to that of the state fair, promises also to be even better this time.

The four-day program includes a registered shooting tournament, put on under the auspices of the Deep Springs Shooting Club, for the Michigan Handicap Three-Win trophy, valued at $100, with $50 added money. A baby show with a long list of special prizes; ball games for every day; and a fine list of horse-racing events scheduled for three of the four days, with purses aggregating $1,100.

Numerous free special attractions have been secured, including a drill by the famous Moslem Patrol and Band of Detroit, 100 strong, Saturday, and Sam Carruthers' colored quartette and dancers from Chicago, every day. The shooting tournament, baby show and a ball game, are to be on the opening day—Wednesday, Thursday, horse races; ball game—Plymouth vs. Wayne, Friday, horse racing events; ball game, winners of Wednesday's and Thursday's game, Saturday—Detroit Day—Moslem Patrol; horse races, automobile races.

Also the world famous guideless wonder, Ana Wilkes, who trots a mile alone at a 2:16 clip every afternoon. This horse was one of the leading attractions at the state fair this year.

The officers and committees are sparing no possible effort to outdo their creditable past achievements and make "the only fair in Wayne county (state fair excepted) more than ever worthy that honor.

Mass meeting tonight.

George L. Stoffet of Romulus, had his Ford touring car stolen Tuesday evening, while it was standing on South Main street.

RELIGION IS NOT DEAD

Some people think that religion is dead, but it is not. It is still alive and well, and it is the only thing that can give us true happiness and peace of mind.

Religion is the foundation of all true civilization, and it is the only way to reach the Kingdom of God.

Let us turn to God and His Word, and we shall find the answer to all our problems.

Religion is not dead, it is only sleeping. Let us wake it up and let it live in our hearts.

HOT LUNCHES AT COMMAND

Device That Combines Dinner Pail and Stove is Recent Invention Put on the Market.

No more cold lunches for the workman with this latest invention of an Indiana man. This unique dinner pail carries its own heating apparatus, and in a few minutes can be set up and the dinner set "a-cooking." Using the standard dinner pail as a basis, this inventor has merely altered the lid so that it includes a burner arrangement, while on the side of the pail is a holder for the bottle of alcohol, says the Philadelphia North American. When meal time comes around the cup is removed from the lid, and the lid is removed from the pail and inverted. A tablespoonful of denatured alcohol is poured into the holder and placed under the dinner pail. A groove in the bottom of the pail fastens with the edge of the perforated wall of the lid so that the stove is fairly firm. In five minutes a pint and a half of liquid can be heated to the proper degree. The bottle is large enough to hold a week's supply of alcohol, and the extra fixtures cost but a trifle more than an ordinary pail, but the amount of comfort derived is worth the slight increase in cost.

Today's Reflections

Speaking of waste, what's the use of his day in time in equipping a pair of pants with more than one pocket.

The Plymouth man who would rather lose a friend than a dollar may eventually lose both.

We'll admit that feed for the cows is higher, but the man who has to buy milk, is also of the opinion that someone has rung in a double price for the cud.

It has also been our observation that a man can mislead people by being honest with some of them.

By stopping to think, said one Plymouth man yesterday, a woman gives her tongue a chance to rest.

Prices have certainly got around to the point where it is keeping some of us guessing which side, if any, our butter is on.

We have this advice for the young men of Plymouth—unless you have money to burn, don't try to keep the pot boiling in a poker game.

You've doubtless noticed in your day that many a good man's worth is unknown until his will is read.

Take a trip to any large city, and you'll come back wondering what the newspapers mean when they say: "Since the United States went dry."

When one Plymouth girl read that "we need laws with teeth," she wondered if it wouldn't be a good idea to send a few dentists to congress.

If old Jack Frost is not in league with the profiteers he will stay off the road every nickel's worth of garden and farm truck is harvested.

Ask any boy in Plymouth, and he'll quickly tell you that he likes three hours out of school better than he likes three R's in it.

The run-down appearance of the white shoe and the straw hat, tells us unmistakably that this thing we call the good old summer time is on its last legs.

The best suggestion we've heard to cut the high cost of living, came from the lips of a well-known Plymouth woman. She says what needed is more thrifty spenders and fewer spend-thrifts.

The packers have always said they utilized every bit of hog except the squeal. And now Uncle Sam is hot on their trail, they seem to have found use for the squeal.

RESOLUTIONS

Resolved, adopted by Plymouth Local Lodge, No. 132, I. O. O. F. WHEREAS in the divine wisdom, it has pleased our Heavenly Father to remove from the public eye a beloved sister, Jennie, we do hereby

RESOLVED, that Plymouth Rebekah Lodge, No. 132, I. O. O. F. was lost a member, one for whom we mourn, who was in every way worthy our respect and regard. We extend to her husband, son and brother our deepest sympathies. And out of the darkness and sorrow may God's richest blessing shine as a comfort to those who remain to mourn her departure. Therefore be it

RESOLVED, that a copy of these resolutions be read at the meeting of the deceased, that they be published in the Plymouth Mail, and that they be placed upon the minutes of this lodge, and the charges be draped for a period of sixty days.

Her noble soul, and work is done. And she has found the victory won. And entered her rest.

Wm. C. Johnson, Secretary.

Methodist Mention

The closing Sunday of the conference year was marked with splendid congregations and a spirit of helpfulness and victory. Thirteen people were received into full membership, seven of them from other churches. An unusually large number of communicants received the sacrament of the Lord's Supper in the morning service.

At the Sunday-school hour a real treat was enjoyed, J. C. Field of Buenos Aires, Argentina, giving an interesting address on religious conditions in South America. Mr. Field is a brother of Rev. F. M. Field, and for the past six years has been a Y. M. C. A. secretary at Buenos Aires. He has spent ten years in South America, being for four years in Christian educational work in Bolivia. We hope to have him again for a public address.

Egbert Isbell, whose boyhood days were spent in Plymouth, delighted a large congregation, last Sunday evening, with his straightforward, manly message on religious morality, and showed clearly some grave wrongs which the church must solve in winning these splendid "our" fellows to lives of christian service.

The pastor, Rev. F. M. Field, is attending the annual conference at Owosso, this week, leaving Tuesday morning and expecting to return not earlier than next Monday or Tuesday. The appointments for the new year will be read probably late on Monday. The conference will last seven days instead of six, the usual time, on account of a very full program in planning for the fullest possible conservation of the results of the great Centenary campaign and preparation for the most intensive evangelistic program in the history of the church. Two bishops, E. I. Hughes of Boston, and Theodore S. Henderson of the Detroit Area, will participate, the latter presiding. Evered V. Jolliffe is the lay delegate from Plymouth for the lay electoral conference on Friday, where eight laymen will be elected to the general conference, which meets in Des Moines, Iowa, next May.

One preaching service will be held in the Methodist church, next Sunday. Howard Burden, recently licensed as a local preacher, will occupy the pulpit next Sunday morning. The Sunday-school will follow at 11:30, but there will be no services in the evening.

Mass meeting at school auditorium, tonight, Friday, September 19th, at 7:30 o'clock. Come.

Doing Your Best With What You Have

"Your paper," said a man with a little place over back of town, "ain't for me and my kind—the fellows with small farms. It's all for the big, successful men."
"That," I replied, "is where you're wrong."

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

is just as much for the small farmer as it is for the big man—it's for every man who is doing the best he can with what he has. It believes in the small farmer; it looks upon him as the man who did most to keep the fighting world from starving.

"And it is trying in every possible way to help the small farmer to make a success—to do the best he can with what he has." Just to emphasize this very point, THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN is planning a new series of articles, to begin some time this fall, about small farmers in all parts of the country who are fighting the battle and doing the best they can with what they have. It will be a bully series, written by some of THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN'S best men, and no farmer, however small his place, can afford to miss it. There are more than 3,000,000 Ford Cars in daily operation in America. This is a little better than half of all the motor cars in use in the country. There is a very potent and profitable reason in this why you should buy Ford cars for your business and for your personal use. It is a demonstrated fact that Ford cars have, in every line of human desire so far as motor cars are concerned, best satisfied their owners with the service given. They must be safe; they must be comfortable; they must be always reliable; they must be convenient and they must be economical, or they wouldn't be so tremendously popular with all classes of people. The big Ford Factory has not yet reached normal production, but the war is over, and it is getting back as fast as possible. We are getting a few cars in right along, and we will do the best possible to give you early delivery.

THIRTY-NINTH REUNION
SIXTEENTH MICHIGAN INFANTRY ASSO.

The thirty-ninth annual reunion of the Sixteenth Michigan Infantry Association was held in Plymouth, yesterday. Only a handful of the gallant Sixteenth were able to be present at the reunion. A business meeting with election of officers was held in the parlors of the Presbyterian church at 1:30 o'clock. A dinner was served to the veterans by the ladies of the church at six o'clock, after which an informal program of music and speech-making was carried out. The mail goes to press too early to give any particulars of the afternoon's program in this issue, but a complete report will be made in next week's paper.

The Sixteenth Michigan Infantry has special interest in Plymouth, from the fact that F Company of that splendid regiment was composed almost entirely of Plymouth men. It was distinctively a Plymouth company, and they were known as the Plymouth Rangers. The company was recruited by James DeFoe, who went out as its captain. William B. Roe was first lieutenant, and Solomon P. Brockway was second lieutenant. Captain DeFoe and Lieutenant Roe were both Plymouth men, while Lieutenant Brockway was an Albion citizen. During the war the Plymouth company had its share of the severe losses that the regiment sustained in the many battles in which it participated, and many of the brave lads from old Plymouth found their last resting place upon southern battlefields or died in the camps of wounds or disease. Out of that whole band of men who served in the Plymouth company, only two are living here today, Charles P. Pritchard and William B. Roe. There are two other men residing in the village who were members of the Sixteenth, Oliver P. Showers and Chas. Bunney. Mr. Showers served with Company A, while Mr. Bunney served with Company K. Both were veteran members of the regiment and saw much service.

A brief history of the organization, and the achievements of the Sixteenth, would not be out of place at this time and will prove interesting to the younger generation especially.

The Sixteenth was organized at Detroit, and was originally known as "Stockton's Independent Regiment," as it was organized by Colonel Thomas B. Stockton, of Flint, but it was afterward given the numerical number of the Sixteenth. It was mustered into service September 8, 1861, with the enrollment of 761 officers and men.

The Sixteenth took part in the Peninsular campaign under General McClellan and formed a part of the Third Regiment, First Division, Fifth Corps, then commanded by Fitz John Porter and remained a part of the corps during its term of service.

The regiment was at the siege of Yorktown in April, 1862, and participated in the engagement at Hanover Court House, Va., May 27.

June 27th it fought in one of the most desperate battles of the war at Gaines Mills, Va., where it gallantly contested with the enemy for the possession of the field.

The stubborn resistance by the Sixteenth is forcibly illustrated by the casualties, as the regiment lost three officers and 46 men killed, six officers and 110 men wounded, and two officers and 53 men missing.

Colonel Stockton's horse was shot under him, and he was taken prisoner and sent to Richmond, Va., where he remained until the following August before he was exchanged. The regiment under the command of Lieutenant Colonel Welch, was engaged at Malvern Hill, July 1, and August 30 participated in the battle of Manassas, where it was exposed to a destructive fire, and gallantly fought heavy masses of the enemy with no thought of yielding the field to the Confederates. In this action the Sixteenth met with the loss of three officers and thirteen men killed, four officers and 59 men wounded.

The regiment in command of Lieutenant Colonel Welch, Colonel Stockton having been exchanged and assigned to the command of a brigade, entered the Maryland campaign, and was at Antietam, Maryland, August 17, though not engaged. Immediately after the battle the Sixteenth joined in the pursuit of the retreating Confederates and pushed them across the Potomac.

The regiment was at Harper's Ferry, November 1st, and marched to the Rappahannock and crossed the river at Falmouth, and participated in the battle of Fredericksburg, where it met with considerable loss. After a series of marches it was engaged at Chancellorsville, and took an important part in that disastrous battle, but held the ground it was assigned to hold though repeatedly charged by the enemy.

At Middleburg, Va., June 21st, the regiment fought a spirited engagement, following and driving the enemy for thirteen miles, and went into camp at the close of the day's operations near Upperville.

Colonel Stockton resigned May 8, 1863, and Lieutenant Colonel Welch was commissioned Colonel, May 18. Under his command the regiment entered upon the Pennsylvania campaign and fought in the historic battle of Gettysburg, adding a worldwide fame to its laurels in the defense of Little Round Top. This important position was considered by the commanders of both armies to be one of vital importance, and was unoccupied until General Warren detached Vincent's brigade, which was marching with division to the support of Birney in the Peach Orchard.

The Sixteenth was in Vincent's brigade, and at once commenced the ascent of the rocky mount at the same time Hood's Texas troops commenced the ascent of the opposite side. With almost superhuman efforts Hood's lancers were hurled by hand up the rugged side of Round Top. On the bare summit detached rocks were thrown together for protection against the storm of shot and shell that was crashing with awful destruction in and around the four segments that had gained the Presbyterian Notes

Rev. Eicknell attended the sessions of Presbytery in Detroit on Monday and Tuesday. A most interesting and helpful discussion of the problems of the educational work of the church was held on Monday evening. Mr. Eicknell represented the church here and reported for the work. The raise in the pastor's salary and the plans for constructive education in the church school were reported and gratefully received by the Presbytery. The Presbytery was invited to hold its spring meeting here, and it is hoped the plans can be perfected to do so.

The Sunday-school is growing nicely. The work is being slowly organized and the old and new teachers are taking hold of the work with new zeal and earnestness. The pastor's T. F. S. class was organized on Sunday, and over a dozen have already lined up for the course. It is hoped that the High school credit course can be started next Sunday, and if sufficient High school students seek the credits, a special class will be organized for them. Mrs. George Smith and Miss Ellen Gardiner have taken the primary department.

Some real work must be done by every member of the church, and Sunday-school to boost the school, and make it the asset we desire it to be.

A large group of Sunday-school people went out last Saturday to the Waterford Park, and enjoyed a most delightful picnic. The day was ideal, and everyone had the best time possible. The water in the creek was warm enough for wading, even for the older folks, and the picnickers enjoyed every minute of the day. A big dinner was served and all had plenty to eat. During the afternoon, after games and contests were over, ice cream and cake were served, much to the enjoyment of all the kiddies. The picnic was a splendid starter for the work of the school and put a deal of pep and enthusiasm in all the workers. It is hoped that another good time can be had down there before it gets too cold.

Michigan Happenings

Coldwater—W. G. Cowell, city attorney, has resigned in favor of Stanley Weaga, former attorney, who has just returned from the Army.

Holland—The arrest of two engineers for speeding Pare Marquette trains through Holland has resulted in slackening the speed of trains entering the city.

Coldwater—Automobile thieves stole two-thirds of Manuel Willis' flock of chickens, leaving their automobile in front of the house while they picked the hens off the roost.

Petokey—Charles and Dwain, sons of Mrs. Charles Lee, of Curtis, were both fatally scalded when the mother, while carrying a pan of hot water, tripped on the former.

Reed City—B. F. Jones, of Lansing, and A. D. Jones, consins of this place, met for the first time in 50 years. The latter recognized the former by a picture that had been sent him.

Flint—Robbers, who broke into the garage at the home of Matthew Davidson, automobile dealer, stole his two cars and a pocketbook with $60 which he had left in one of the machines.

Kalamazoo—Wages of teamsters employed by the city have been boosted to $1 an hour by action of the city commission. Teamsters whose wagons are furnished by the city will be paid only 85 cents an hour.

Big Rapids—Announcement is made here that Harry Wildcomb is to reforest a 20-acre farm west of Highland View and give it to the city as a municipal forest. White and red pine will be planted on 10 acres this fall.

Adrian—The road program for next year will be the heaviest ever undertaken in Lenawee County. The county road commissioners hope to sell from 80 to 40 miles of road this winter, if enough contractors can be found.

Sturgis—A will depositing the estate of William Grobisher, directs that $250,000 be expended for the erection of a memorial hospital. Patients will be given free treatment if unable to pay and the profits, if any, will be used for improvements.

Coldwater—Mrs. Dulce Keene, of this city, with other passengers, was turned off her train in the middle of a desert 80 miles from San Bernardino, Calif., during the recent railroad strike. The trip to that city was made overland without food.

Grand Rapids—Alexander Delinger, 13 years old, of Grandville, was seriously injured at Elmbrook, when a tube of dynamite with which he was trying to make a whistle, exploded in his hand, lacerating the hand and his face and burning his body.

Petokey—Brother Christopher, of St. Frances Monastery, sustained a broken leg and internal injuries and Otis Annabel, a carpenter, two broken legs and internal injuries when a scaffold collapsed while they were shingling the Sisters' house. They fell 25 feet.

Redford—Mrs. Dolly Anton, of Milford, died on the way to Receiving hospital after being injured in an automobile accident on Grand River avenue, in Redford. Mrs. Anton, with her daughter, Elizabeth, 15, was on her way to visit friends in Detroit when the automobile in which she was riding turned over and fell into a ditch.

Detroit—Louis Zellman, proprietor of a jewelry store at 234 Randolph street, petitioned Justice Marschner for an order to restrain Mayor Couzens from refusing him a jewelry license under the new city ordinance framed to eliminate fake jewelry salesmen. His place is closed now, he says, because the Mayor refused him a license.

Albion—The three-story Singer & Son's furniture store, whose stock was damaged over $10,000 worth from water in a fire in the Ealow block, next door, Aug. 31, completely collapsed when a portion of the fourth-story wall of the Ealow building crashed over upon it. The roof, three floors and the large furniture stock fell through into the basement, leaving only the brick walls standing. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Singer and Paul Burns, in the building at the time, narrowly escaped by a rear door.

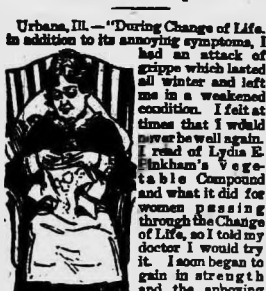

Bepton/Harbor—Abraham Getz, 66, Michigan's only leper, is dead, after three years of intense and pitiful suffering. The case has attracted wide attention, as the victim tried to conceal his affliction. That he was not allowed to spread the contagion was due to prompt action on the part of Dr. E. R. Taylor, now city health officer, who discovered the case two years ago while serving on the draft exemption board. Getz came to ask exemption for one of his sons, and Dr. Taylor noted his condition.

Grand Rapids—Col. John Berney, adjutant general, has signified he will appoint Maj. Earl R. Need Help to Pass the Crisis Safely—Proof that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Can be Relied Upon.

Urbana, Ill.—"During Change of Life, in addition to its annoying symptoms, I had an attack of grippe which lasted all winter and left me in a weakened condition. I felt at times that I would never be well again. I read of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what it did for women passing through the Change of Life, so I took it. "I'd like to know where are those groceries I sent you for." Snapping his fingers as one who lapses mentis, Earle replied, sobbingly: "Danged if this H. O. L. thing isn't getting my goat! I stopped at the bank and left 'em in the safe deposit box!"—Richmond Times-Dispatch.

Important to all Women Readers of this Paper

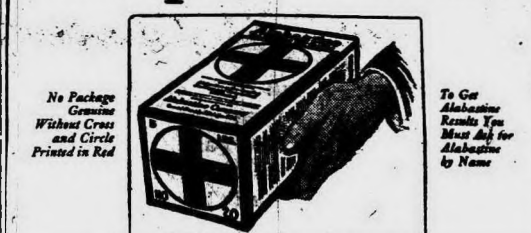

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney or bladder trouble and never suspect it. Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease. If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased. You may suffer pain in the back, headache and loss of ambition. Poor health makes you nervous, irritable and may be dependent; it makes you see so.

But hundreds of women claim that Dr. Kessler's Kidney-Root, has restored health to the kidneys, proved to be the remedy needed to overcome such conditions. Many send for a sample bottle to see what Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder medicine, will do for them. By enclosing ten cents to Dr. Kessler & Co., Hingham, N. Y., you may receive sample size bottle by Express Post. You can purchase medium and large size bottles at all drug stores.—Adv.

OLD-TIME RULES OF CIVILITY

Undoubtedly Were Taken Seriously in 1875, but Would Seem Somewhat Elementary Today.

There was published in 1875 a civil-ious book called "The Rules of Civility," and one of the things impressed upon the reader is that "being in discourse with a man, 'tis no less than ridiculous to pull him by the buttons, to play with the bandstrings, belt or cloak; or to punch him now and then in the stomach; 'tis a pleasant sight, and well worthy of laughter to see him that is so punched, fall back, and retire, whilst the other, insensible of his absurdity, pursues and presses him in to some corner, where he is at last glad to cry quarter before his comrade perceives he is in danger." Further, the reader is informed that "it argues neglect, and to under-value a man, to sleep when he is discoursing or reading; therefore good manners command it to be forbid; besides, something there may happen in the act that may offend, an snoring, sweating, snoring or dribbling."

Giving It Wings. Redd—Why all this fuss about the aeroplanes, blimps and other air conveyors making trips across the Atlantic? Greene—Well, you know the war is over.

SOLDIERS TO GRAND RAPIDS

AMERICAN LEGION STATE CONVENTION TO BE HELD OCT. 13, 14 AND 15.

The state convention of the American Legion will be held at Grand Rapids, October 13, 14 and 15. All ex-service men of the world war are invited to this gathering, regardless of whether they are members of the legion. At least 3,000 men who wore the uniform during the late war are expected at Grand Rapids at this, the first state-wide reunion of the soldiers. Matters of interest and of importance to every soldier will be discussed. At the same time there will be many entertaining features during the three days. Special provisions have been made for accommodation of all visitors. Among the speakers expected are Theodore Roosevelt and others of national reputation.

The American Legion already has become a tremendous factor in the nation. Local organizations are being formed everywhere. The state convention at Grand Rapids will be one of the biggest held anywhere this fall. All local associations of soldiers who have not yet arranged to attend this convention are asked to get into communication with Howard C. Brink, Grand Rapids.

We are always glad to have our friends send in news items, but please send them in while it is news. People want to know what has been going on the past week, not what happened three or four weeks ago.

The head of the business here, Lawrence Johnson is coming "back home," as he is a Northville boy, and Mr. Murdock, who will remain in the store has a host of friends who are glad to know he is to stay in Northville. The new business will start with excellent prospects for success, toward which the good wishes of the community will be no small factor.—Northville Record.

Even the boast of pay for circuit court jurors to a $5-a-day rate does not serve to bring the farmers flocking to the court house for jury service—especially at the time when they are most sorely needed at home. Out of 175 names drawn by the jury commission for service in the September-October term as jurors, 90 men came into court to ask Judge Ira W. Jayne to excuse them because they were unable to give the time to serve. Most of them were farmers from different points of the country, who explained that their enforced absence for four months from their farms would entail serious loss to them. They were excused, and the judge ordered an additional panel of 40 names drawn to fill up the gap.—Detroit Courier.

SCHOOL NOTES

This week will see the completion of plans for the organizing of a Plymouth High School Athletic Association, whose aim will be to promote clean athletics, to give an opportunity for physical development to the largest possible number of students, and to provide financial support for the various teams to be organized.

The labor shortage is affecting the schools in an unexpected way. Books are difficult to obtain, the publishers having more orders than they can fill promptly.

Asa Wilson and Elsie Hartung were High school callers this week. Both were graduated last June.

Next year's senior class numbers twenty-three at present.

The third grade are competing for the most stars in spelling and at present Doris Field, Ruth Hamilton and Margaret Schaufele are ahead.

The fifth grade language class are dramatizing "Harmosin."

The first has begun reading from the Aldino Chart.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

This is not only one of the best and most efficient medicines for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough, but it is also pleasant to take, which is important when a medicine must be given to young children. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been in use for many years, and has met with much favor wherever its good qualities have become known. Many mothers have given it their unqualified endorsement. William Scully, Chillsnoth, N. Y., writes: "I have raised three children, and always used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and found it to be the best for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. It is a safe and reliable remedy for all these ailments, and I can truly say that it has saved my children from many a severe attack of these ailments."—Advertisement.

"The Thorobred"

Having set the pace in the pioneering of the lightweight "EIGHT," it remained for the Oldsmobile engineers to evolve the mechanical refinements that spell the utmost in performance. Theirs also was the task of producing a seven-passenger touring model that would set the pace in style and comfort. "The Thorobred" is the result, and thorobred it is.

Consider first its style—it possesses the distinction extraordinary of lines that are beautifully trimmed—smartly suggestive of speed. This without the slightest trace of freakishness.

But performance is the most important gauge of an automobile's worth. Finally by this standard, measure "The Thorobred."

A demonstration is necessary to a full understanding of the rare measure of lasting satisfaction to be derived through the ownership of an

Oldsmobile Eight

Such a demonstration may be arranged at your convenience.

How We Go At It

First we look into the battery to see if you put water in it.
Then we use the hydrometer which is the one reliable way of knowing the condition of its charge.
Then, if no special cause of trouble appears we put it on the line to see if it will take a charge.

But if there is plain indication of serious trouble we open the battery up and find out exactly what's what.

Don't trust your battery to amateurs or artists in guesswork, who claim they can tell inside condition by outside inspection.

Come here where you find adequate machines and apparatus to really inspect, charge and repair any battery.
