39TH ANNUAL REUNION

MEMBERS OF THE SIXTEENTH MICHIGAN VOLUNTEER INFANTRY MET IN PLYMOUTH LAST WEEK THURSDAY.

NINETEEN MEMBERS OF THE REGIMENT RESPONDED TO ROLL CALL.

Nineteen veterans of the Sixteenth Michigan Volunteer Infantry Association registered at the headquarters of the regiment in the Presbyterian church, last Thursday morning. They came from various parts of the state to participate in the program of the reunion and hold fellowship with each other once more, and retell the stories and incidents of their life together as members of the old 16th, during the war of 1861-65. Though few in number, their memories are as clear as though incidents occurred but yesterday, and a deal of pathos attaches to their fellowship as one realizes how their once powerful and vigorous frames are now tottering and bent under the years that have passed over them.

Thomas Davey, the secretary and treasurer of the regiment, was on hand early Thursday morning to meet and register the visiting members. Those registering are as follows: Charles Nesbitt, Pontiac; William Gray, Plymouth; Lorenzo Bayley, Lapeer; Oliver P. Showers, Plymouth; Franklin B. Abbot, Belle Isle; C. J. Bunyca, Plymouth; Thomas Davey, Detroit; Charles Pitcher, Plymouth; Frank D. Keeler, Saginaw; I. G. Ormsbee, Flint; David Scott, Flint; John M. Caldwell, Flushing; Joseph Baker, Bay City; Israel Dibrow, Birmingham; John Wilkinson, Birmingham; William P. Nesbitt, Big Rapids; Benjamin F. Alger, Grass Lake; John G. Berry, Vanderbit; John Northwood, New Lathrop.

After the business session of the regiment, the comrades and their wives and friends were taken for an automobile ride as guests of the village. Upon their return, the ladies of the Presbyterian church served a most delectable banquet in the dining room of the church. The comrades and their wives and friends were invited to sit down as guests of the village. The dinner was thoroughly enjoyed, and the menu was generous and appetizing. The ladies of the church maintained their enviable reputation in the service and menu of this banquet. The dining room was decorated with the national colors and the waitresses wore caps with small American flags as a decoration.

After dinner the president of the association, John G. Berry, conducted the program of the evening. The stringed orchestra, led by Miss Anna Baker, rendered beautiful music during the banquet, and delighted the ladies with a special number during the after dinner program. The president of the village commission, W. J. Burrows, gave an address of welcome to the veterans and their friends and gave some very interesting incidents connected with the life of our country during the war of '61-'65. The president of the regiment responded. A number of the old comrades entertained the guests with their stories and messages from their old comrades. F. D. Schrader and W. E. Shaw were called upon for credits, and they received the honor of being named as members of the regiment.

WILL ORGANIZE HOME AND LOAN ASSO.

LARGE CROWD ATTEND MEETING AT THE HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM LAST FRIDAY NIGHT.

PLYMOUTH HOME AND LOAN ASSOCIATION IS NAME OF NEW ORGANIZATION THAT WILL BE ORGANIZED TO HELP BUILD MORE HOUSES IN PLYMOUTH.

There was a large number of citizens present at the mass meeting held in the High School auditorium, last Friday evening. The meeting was called by the Plymouth Improvement Association for the purpose of bringing before the citizens, the matter of a building and loan association, as a means to get more houses built in Plymouth. The meeting was called to order by President F. D. Schrader, who stated the purpose of the meeting, and then called upon W. E. Shaw, who explained to the citizens, the something of the workings of building and loan associations. C. H. Bennett was also called upon, and gave the meeting an idea of the manner in which the building and loan association in our neighboring town of Northville, which has been a successful institution for thirty years was conducted. Mr. Nichols of Ypsilanti, and one of the officers of the National Foundry & Machine Co., of that city and Plymouth, was present and spoke enthusiastically in favor of a building and loan association for Plymouth. Mr. Nichols explained to the citizens, the matter of a building and loan association, as a means to get more houses built in Plymouth. The meeting was called to order by President F. D. Schrader, who stated the purpose of the meeting, and then called upon W. E. Shaw, who explained to the citizens, the something of the workings of building and loan associations. C. H. Bennett was also called upon, and gave the meeting an idea of the manner in which the building and loan association in our neighboring town of Northville, which has been a successful institution for thirty years was conducted. Mr. Nichols of Ypsilanti, and one of the officers of the National Foundry & Machine Co., of that city and Plymouth, was present and spoke enthusiastically in favor of a building and loan association for Plymouth.

President Schrader called for an expression of the meeting, as to whether they favored the organization of a building and loan association in Plymouth, and it was the sentiment of a large portion of those present that such an association be formed. A paper was circulated through the crowd for the signatures of those who would agree to purchase stock, resulting in fifty-four persons signing the same. A committee was appointed to draft a set of by-laws and look further into the matter of organization, and report at a meeting to be held Tuesday evening of this week.

There were only a few present at the meeting, Tuesday evening, and the committee had not yet completed its work, but it was definitely decided at the committee meeting held on Monday evening, that a building and loan association would be organized in Plymouth. It was decided to apply for a charter with a capitalization of $10,000. The new organization will be known as the Plymouth Home and Loan Association. It is expected that a campaign for selling stock will be made just as soon as the organization is organized, so that the work can go on. Another meeting will be held on Friday evening, October 1st, at 7:30 P. M., at the High School Auditorium. Watch next week's paper for the full particulars. In the meantime be a booster for the Plymouth Home and Loan Association. It means more homes in Plymouth. We need them.

The worst storm of the season occurred Saturday afternoon, about 6:30 o'clock. Thunder, lightning and hail, accompanied by a terrific wind, did a great amount of damage.

Several apple trees in the LeVan orchard were blown down. Windows were smashed in at Alfred Bakewell's.

Isaac Gunsolly arrived home from market just a short time before his barn was struck by lightning.

He had let the horses out, and run the auto into the shed. When the crash came he tried to get the machine out, but the heat was so intense that he jumped through the flames outdoors.

The first ones to arrive found him in a dazed condition and badly burned about the head, neck and arms.

Mrs. Gunsolly was on the street car coming home from Plymouth, when the conductor informed her that their barn was on fire.

Her first thought was for the horses that she had tied in the stables before leaving home. The barn contained 5 acres of hay and 75 bushels of rye. There was a small insurance on the barn and contents, but no insurance on the auto. Everyone sympathizes with him.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

There are more than 3,000,000 Ford Cars in daily operation in America. This is a little better than half of all the motor cars in use in the country. There is a very potent and profitable reason in this why you should buy Ford cars for your business and for your personal use. It is a demonstrated fact that Ford cars have, in every line of human desire so far as motor cars are concerned, best satisfied their owners with the service given. They must be safe; they must be comfortable; they must be always reliable; they must be convenient and they must be economical, or they wouldn't be so tremendously popular with all classes of people. The big Ford Factory has not yet reached normal production, but the war is over, and it is getting back as fast as possible. We are getting a few cars in right along, and we will do the best possible to give you early delivery.

Every Dot represents Ten Satisfied Delco-Light Users

More Than 75,000 Satisfied Users

DELCO-LIGHT was designed and built by men who were raised in farm homes—who experienced the discomforts and inconveniences of farm life—and who set out deliberately years ago to develop an electric plant that would provide city advantages for rural communities.

They were the same men whose engineering talent had made DELCO Starting, Lighting and Ignition Equipment for automobiles the standard of the world.

They knew electricity—and they knew the needs and limitations of farm life.

They knew that an electric plant to give service in a farm home must be simple, so that it would not get out of order and require complicated repairs.

It must be easily operated and require little attention—it must be very economical in operation.

It must be built to stand hard usage and it must last indefinitely.

It required five years to develop a plant that would measure up to these specifications.

There were five years of hard engineering effort back of DELCO-LIGHT before the first plant was put on the market three and a half years ago.

Today DELCO-LIGHT is furnishing the conveniences and comforts of electricity to more than Seventy-five Thousand farm homes.

It is providing an abundance of clean, bright, economical electric light for these homes. It is furnishing power to pump water, operate washing machines, churns, arator, vacuum cleaner, electric iron, sewing machines and other small machinery.

And everywhere it is demonstrating its wonderful efficiency—and actually paying for itself in time and labor saved.

DELCO-LIGHT

A complete electric light and power plant for farm and country homes. Self-running—no oil—no fuel—no labor—only one place to go—Think of it—Low Cost—Buy—RUN ON KEROSENE

WILL BOOST FARM BUREAU

Every farmer in Michigan should be intensely interested in the results of the conference, which was held at Hotel Fort Shelby in Detroit on September 12th.

Representative farmers from various parts of the state were called in conference to devise ways and means of putting the Michigan State Farm Bureau on the same highly efficient plane which it today occupies in other states.

It may not be generally known throughout the State of Michigan that the Farm Bureau idea has assumed tremendous scope, and is gaining headway with amazing rapidity throughout the length and breadth of the country.

In the state of Illinois, during the past six months, while only a portion of the counties have been worked, an average of over 75 per cent of all the farmers in that territory have been enrolled in the state organization. Educational and marketing plans have been carried out in Illinois during this past season, which have been far in advance of anything which has heretofore been attempted.

At a recent meeting of the State Executive Board of the Michigan Farm Bureau, held at Grand Rapids, a resolution was passed putting the Michigan state organization on the same basis which this organization now occupies in other states.

On the former dollar a year basis, funds have not been available for doing the work, which such an organization is capable of accomplishing. This condition has been changed in Illinois and other states by putting the organization on a strong financial basis.

By the action of the State Executive Board, the Michigan State Farm Bureau has gone on the same basis. The dues in the national organizations have been placed at $5 a year, and the same amount recommended to the county organizations as minimum annual dues.

The advertising will begin immediately in the farm press and the newspapers.

Anyone who is interested in learning more details about the plans of this great campaign, is invited to communicate with the state secretary, C. A. Bingham, of Birmingham, Michigan.

October is "Loyalty Month." Nature's leaves may fade and fall, but for the church October is a month of new life for rallying the resources for all the tasks of the year.

BUILDING OPERATIONS IN PLYMOUTH

Building operations have been very active in Plymouth during the past season, and it still continues unabated. Even with all the new houses that have been built, there is an ever increasing demand for more dwellings.

There is not a vacant house or room in the village, and some families are living in garages. Among those who are building or who will build yet this fall are the following:

William Bunk and wife will build three houses on Ann street. Roy Stanley has a new house nearly completed on Harvey street.

Paul Wood is building a new house at the corner of Harvey and Farmer streets. Frank Millard is building a new house on the Northville road.

Harry Northrop is just completing a fine new bungalow on the Northville road. Charles Hubbard has the foundation completed for a new house in Elm Heights.

SCHOOL NOTES

The A class of the first grade have begun to read their primers. The first grade have been dramatizing one or two Mother Goose rhymes this week.

Miss McClumpha's pupils are much interested in making geography note books. Last year's fifth grade have three members, Elsie White, Catherine Bengert and Walter Kinke.

The members of the League met at the Wayne High school, Monday evening, September 22, all schools being represented. The officers for the year were elected as follows: D. C. Bowen, Northville, president, and Mr. Ellsworth, Wayne, secretary-treasurer.

October 3—Plymouth at Dearborn; Farmington at Northville. October 10—Farmington at Wayne; Wyandotte at Plymouth. October 17—Wayne at Dearborn; Plymouth at Northville.

October 24—Northville at Dearborn; Farmington at Plymouth. October 31—Dearborn at Farmington; Plymouth at Wayne. November 7—Northville at Wayne. November 14—Northville at Plymouth.

November 21—Wayne at Plymouth; Northville at Farmington. The social functions of the certain grades are referred to certain subject teachers, known as class patronesses. They are: Seniors—The Misses Huston and Gracen; Juniors—The Misses Gill and Brunson; Sophomores—The Misses Conley and Allen; Freshmen—The Misses Lead and Grant; Eighth grade—Mr. Ross; Seventh grade—Miss Brown.

A new plan is to follow in the teaching of penmanship this year. Heretofore a sample of perfect Palmer or Fisher, or some other method has been set up as a pattern, and the struggling penman has perhaps felt the hopelessness of his ever nearing his ideal.

And the object of a class in penmanship should be the writing of a check or receipt and being able to write legibly and in a neat, businesslike way. The Ayres scale standard for his grade, he is to re-enter the class.

Plymouth Gun Club

It is now over a week since the last "shoot" of the club, and the club is now in the process of organizing for the season. The club is now in the process of organizing for the season.

The members of the League met at the Wayne High school, Monday evening, September 22, all schools being represented. The officers for the year were elected as follows: D. C. Bowen, Northville, president, and Mr. Ellsworth, Wayne, secretary-treasurer.

Today's Reflections

Try and remember that it is a mighty poor policy to believe you can reach a Plymouth man's heart by boring him to death.

There is always one good feature about breaking up housekeeping—it always enables a family to get rid of the old furniture.

Never judge a Plymouth man by the way he acts when he knows he is being watched.

Maybe the reason the railroad engineers are paid more than a lot of statesmen, is because they are worth more to the country than a lot of statesmen.

One of the strange things in this world is how much manly protection a Plymouth girl thinks she needs, and how well a widow gets along without it.

The serpent in the black bottle may have been stepped on, but there are indications here and there that he is still wiggling.

Furthermore, it doesn't make a particle of difference to us how high a thing is priced, if we don't want to buy it.

You have also doubtless noticed that the Plymouth man who is long on words is most generally short on deeds.

Things are going pretty well in Russia now. They let one new leader have control for almost a week before they took him out and killed him.

It has about gotten so in this country that when a woman is dressed comfortably she thinks she is not fit to be seen on the street.

About the rarest thing in Plymouth is the man who can make love to his wife when there is trouble on his mind.

Always put off until tomorrow that little job of "getting even," which you could do today.

The old jingle about four and twenty blackbirds baked into a pie, would be mighty interesting just now, if we could get the blackbirds.

And where there is a will there are usually a lot of lawyers in the way.

REFUSED TO BE MIXED UP

Spectator at Moving Picture Show Saw Trouble Ahead and Didn't Want to Witness It.

"I saw you at the moving picture show last evening," said the fat plumber, "but when I looked for you a little later I missed you."

"When was that?"

"I left when the villain began to lay a snare for the wife of the man who had to stay at his office on account of business."

"Did you see any more of the picture?"

"No."

"And you left at the most interesting part?"

"Yes."

"Why?"

"I knew if things kept on as they were headed there would be a fuss pretty soon between the two men, or between the man and his wife, and I made up my mind I wouldn't be asked up in anybody's domestic troubles."

The Body and the Emotions.

The official pessimist of a small Western city, who had wrestled with chronic dyspepsia for years, stood in front of the post office as the noon whistles sounded.

"Twelve o'clock, eh?" he said, half to an acquaintance. "Well, I'm going home to dinner. If dinner ain't ready, I'm going to raise hell; and if it is ready, I ain't going to eat a bite."—Exchange.

"BIG 5" PACKERS KILL COMPETITION

INDEPENDENT DEALERS TESTIFY THAT BARONS ARE FORCING THEM TO WALL

Witnesses Who Suffered By Alleged Unfair Practices of Big Packers Testify At Lansing.

Lansing.—Alleged efforts of the big meat packers to drive independent operators out of the various Michigan fields were revealed by witnesses in the state inquiry into profiteering, in session before Judge Howard West of the circuit court here.

Evidence given by men who had actually suffered from underselling and other methods of business, claiming to be unfair by the Chicago corporations, was designed to prove that these efforts had, in most cases, been entirely successful.

The "Big Five" tactics followed, according to the testimony, two clearly defined lines. The first was the cutting of prices in the wholesale market to a point where the independents found it impossible to follow and continue in business, and the other was the flooding of specified markets in advance of expected shipments of beef and other meats by the local dealers with the intention of preventing the disposals of stocks by the latter.

The impression gained from the recital of these facts was that such independent competition as exists now in the Michigan field is there on sufferances; that it could be wiped out of existence almost overnight by the use of the weapons said to have been used in the past by the Chicago packers whenever the operations of the independents became bothersome in any serious degree.

George Zimmer, of the Bay City Packing company, told of the gradual reduction of the territory covered by the operations of his business through the underselling of Swift & Co., Schwartz and Sulzberger (now Wilson & Co.) and Hammond, Standish & Co. The final blow came when the three big packers named all cut prices as much as six or seven cents a pound, and Zimmer threw up his hands in despair and retired from the field desired by the "Big Five," never to enter again.

Zimmer also told of the unfair, but effective, tactics of the same competitors in preventing him from buying in markets in which they were interested as purchasers. He had been buying hogs around Bay City for several years and had been practically un molested by the "Big Five." One day, however, he ventured into the Detroit market as a buyer. To his astonishment, by the time he had shipped his Detroit-bought hogs to Bay City and had slaughtered and dressed them and was ready to sell, the "Big Five" operators, he said, had flooded the Bay City market with hogs and had forced prices down so low that Zimmer was compelled to sell at a substantial loss. The experience cured him of his temerity in entering the sacred fields of the big fellows.

But the action of the "Big Five" firms, he continued, did not end with this severe lesson to the man who had dared challenge them. Swift, S. S. and Hammond-Standish began buying in the market around Bay City and from time to time temporarily ran up the prices of cattle and hogs so high that the small operator was unable to get any supplies and suspended operations.

STEEL STRIKERS BLAME GARY

Say Attitude of U. S. Steel Trust Head Forced Action.

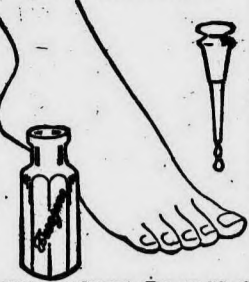

Pittsburgh.—Labor leaders, after a series of conferences last week, sent a letter to President Wilson stating that the strike of steel workers, set for September 22, had to be called principally because of the uncompromising attitude of K. H. Gary, chairman of the U. S. Steel Corporation.

The demands of the men are: Right to collective bargaining. Re-instatement of men discharged for union activities. An eight-hour day. One day's rest in seven. Abolition of the 24-hour shift. Increase in wages sufficient to guarantee American standard of living. Standard scales of wages in all trades and classifications of workers. Double rate of pay for all overtime, holiday and Sunday work. Abolition of company unions. Abolition of physical examination of applicants for employment.

Recent Quiz Reveals Profiteering.—Mt. Clemens.—Prosecuting Attorney Johnson says investigations of profiteering by Michigan County food dealers, conducted by Ernest Quirk, of the fair price committee, shows that a number of the dealers are using short measures. As to food prices, the investigation shows that dealers are not making correct profits, according to Johnson. The most serious case is said to be that of the bakery, but Johnson said that the most profiteers have been prosecuted.
