FISH LIAR WORKS OVERTIME

Here is One Concerning a Salt Mer-ring That is Challenge to the Imaginative.

That is the worst of those fish stories. Somebody always comes along with a better one.

Recently the Evening News told the V. A. D.'s story of the frozen fish that came to life in the cooking pot. Then a correspondent—a naval officer, it should be said—easily puts that to shame.

"An interesting experiment was tried some little time ago," he writes
to us, "with an ordinary herring.

The fish was put into a large bowl of salt water and every day a small quantity of water was removed and an equal quantity of 'fresh' water substituted, until eventually the fish lived and thrived in purely fresh water.

"The owner was so pleased with the success of his experiment that he then tried removing a very small quantity of water daily until the bowl was empty, and found that the herring did excellently, entirely without water,
and as he was so lively in the empty bowl he had to put him in a cage.

"Here he lived happily, hopping
from perch to perch just like a bird,
until one day some sudden noise startled him and he fell into his water trough and—was drowned!"

Words and Music.

The value of words is going up, at least in Rouen. There the courts have decided that the artistic values of the words and music of a poem are equal. At present in the United States and Canada the writer of the words of a song gets only a pittance
of the royalties or a small sum outright at the start. In England many of the most popular ballads have been written by more than two or three guineas, while the composer goes on cashing his royalty checks for years. What measure publishers apply to the two arts thus combined to make words so much less valuable than music is rather hard to understand. Verse writers might well ask a little gold medal to the just-minded citizens of Rouen who have ruled it a false one.

SHORT PARAGRAPHS

Cotton Plant on Exhibition—Mrs.
Fanny Flick has brought to the office
a cotton plant in full bloom. It has some ripe persimmons, which were sent to her by her son, who resides in Stratford, Oklahoma. These are on exhibition at the Mail office,
and everyone who wishes to is invited to come in and see them.

Will Build New Coal Dock—Work
will soon commence on the new coal dock in the Pere Marquette yards here, to take the place of the old wooden dock that was recently fairly destroyed by fire. The new dock is to be constructed largely of concrete, and is to be modern in every way. It will be built about where the old dock stood. Material is already on the ground.

P. M. Yards a Busy Place—Business is booming in the local yards of the Pere Marquette. The yard office has been remodelled to provide room
for three additional operators there.
Yardmaster E. Astra has also been given two assistants, one in the east yards and one in the west yards.
Freight traffic is exceedingly heavy,
and the local yards are taxed to the limit to handle the business.

Band Highly Complimented—The Millard band gave one of their popular concerts in the M. E. church at Belleville, last Friday evening, for the benefit of the Belleville band. A large crowd was present and Director
Millard and the members of the band
were highly complimented for their splendid concert. Wherever the Millard band appears, they make a decided hit as a high-class musical organization, which of course all goes to advertise Plymouth as the home of one of the best bands in the state.

First Sunday Band Concert—The
first free band concert, at the High school auditorium, last Sunday afternoon, by the Millard band was fairly well attended, although the auditorium and gallery should have been filled to capacity to hear the splendid program. Each and every member was exceptionally well rendered, and reflected much credit upon Director
Millard and the members of the band.
Calvin Whipple sang two selections
in his usual pleasing manner, that added much to the afternoon's program.

EBERT-THOMAS

Miss Frances Thomas of Lake Odeasa, and Edward Ebert of this place, were quietly married at the home of the groom's parents, Mr.
and Mrs. Charles Ebert on Holbrook avenue, last week Thursday evening, at six o'clock. Rev. C. Strasen performed the ceremony in the presence of only the immediate relatives. Mr.
Ebert is in the employ of the Pere Marquette E. R., and they will reside with Mrs. Oliver Wingard on Starkweather avenue. Plymouth friends extend best wishes.

DEATH OF CANTON LADY

Mrs. Mary Conklin died Saturday, November 22nd, 1916, at her old home in Canton township, where she was born, April 7, 1843. She leaves two sons, Harry E. McClumpha of Pittsburg, Pa., and Clifford E. McClumpha, with whom she resided; three grandchildren, Morton, Hurd and Dorothy McClumpha; one sister, Mrs. Effie
A. Howson of Renfrew, Ont., and one brother, Alfred Moore of Traverse City. Mrs. Conklin was a lady most highly esteemed by all who knew her and she will be missed in the community where she has resided so long.
The funeral was held from her late home, Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. L. M. Bicknell, pastor of the Presbyterian church conducting the services. Interment took place in the family lot in Kinyon cemetery.

WELL KNOWN
LADY PASSES AWAY

MRS. ELIZABETH TERRY, A RES-IDENT OF PLYMOUTH FOR MORE THAN FIFTY YEARS.
DIED LAST FRIDAY MORNING.

Mrs. Elizabeth Terry, a resident of Plymouth for 58 years, passed away at her home here, Friday morning, November 21st, after a lingering illness. The funeral was held from the Methodist church, Sunday afternoon at three o'clock, Rev. F. M.
Field, pastor of the church conducting the services. The members of the L. O. T. M. attended the services in a body, and six grandsons of the deceased acted as pallbearers. Miss Leach, with Miss Winnie Joliffe at the piano, sweetly rendered two vocal selections. Interment took place in the family lot in Riverside cemetery.
Elizabeth R. Seeley was born February 25, 1831, in Minisink, Orange county, New York. She was united in marriage to John Johnson, May 10, 1848, at Amaty, New York. Four children were born to this union, one son and three daughters: George Johnson, who died in 1882; Mary E., who died in infancy; Emily T. Shafer,
who passed away January 25, 1917,
and Elizabeth Smith, who resides in Detroit. Her husband departed this life, July 11, 1858. In 1860, the deceased, with three small children came to Michigan and located in Plymouth, where for over half a century she has remained a respected resident. August 2, 1860, she was married to Ralph E. Terry of this place. Two sons and three daughters were born to them, two of whom died in childhood. The surviving children are: Will Terry of this place; Mrs. Sarah Vickery and Mrs.
Mamie Watson of Waterford.
The deceased has been a member of the L. O. T. M. for several years, and attended their meetings regularly, as long as her health would permit. She was always greatly interested in the activities of that order.
For the past five years Mrs. Terry had been in failing health, but was able to get around and was active,
for one of her advanced years, until eleven months ago, since which time
she had been confined to her bed almost constantly. During her long illness she had been a patient sufferer, and bore her ills with great cheerfulness. The tender and loving care during these weary months given by her daughter-in-law, who came into her home a stranger a year ago,
has done much to relieve her suffering.

GRANGE NOTES

A very interesting meeting of Plymouth Grange was held November 20th. The Spillanti degree team conferred the third and fourth degrees on six candidates. The next meeting will be December 4th in the afternoon. The program will be given by the winning side of the Victory contest, with Mrs. Chloa
Powell, captain.

Bible Students
Revelation 7:3 under consideration for November 30. What is meant by the strange statement that a certain agency ("four angels") should not be allowed to "hurt the earth"
(organized society) neither the sea
(disorganized society) nor the trees
(the household of faith) till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads? What is here meant by the sealing process? Is it an intellectual appreciation of a certain fact or facts or a literal mark on the forehead? Have not grave errors been made in the past in holy writing by confounding literal and symbolic statements? How about our Lord's parable of the sheep and the goats? If the sheep represent righteous ones and the goats unrighteous ones, why should we say that the fire is hell? Did not President Wilson say that the world was on fire? What is the meaning?
How about James 3:6. "The tongue is a fire." Did you ever see a literal tongue on fire. What did James mean? Welcome.

Methodist Mention

Thanksgiving was the first of four special ingathering days of the year and eight persons were received into membership in the Plymouth church. At Newburg church fourteen young people publicly confessed their faith by uniting with the church and four of these are high school students in Plymouth. Announcement was made of the transfer of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Nash from the Presbyterian church of Milford.

In spite of the sudden blizzard which came just in time to keep many away from church last Sunday evening, the congregation at the Methodist church numbered a hundred people. Rev. Field's subject for next Sunday evening is "The Common People."

The highwater mark in Sunday-school attendance in recent years was reported by the secretary last Sunday, there having been 231 people present at the previous session. Last Sunday there were more than forty in the primary department, although one class had just been promoted out of this department, and the increased number of children has made necessary the appointment of two additional primary teachers.

The members of the Christmas program committee were entertained at luncheon at the home of the chairman, Mrs. E. T. Cope, last Tuesday, and began plans for the Christmas program. In keeping with the spirit of the White Gifts Christmas, with gifts of self, service and substance, a cantata entitled, "The Sign in the Sky" will be given by a cast of fourteen characters besides the choruses. The little folks will also be given a place on the program before the cantata.

The third division of the Ladies Aid Society are serving dinner on Saturday for the county gathering of the Boys' and Girls' clubs, at the Plymouth school building. The dinner will be served in the church dining room, where the program will also be given, including a moving picture program.

The November meeting of the Ladies Aid Society was entertained at the home of Mrs. E. T. Cope, 1274 Penniman avenue, and a large company of the members and some visitors were present. A miscellaneous program was provided by the First Division and refreshments were served. The December meeting is to be merged into a special Christmas gathering with the other women's societies of the church to be held in the church dining room Wednesday, December 10th. Dinner will be served and the affair will be a Christmas party for all the women of the congregation.

The prayer meeting was not held on Thursday of this week, it being Thanksgiving Day. The union Thanksgiving service was held in the Methodist church at 10 a. m. and Rev. L. M. Bicknell, pastor of the Presbyterian church preached the sermon.

The First Quarterly Conference presided over by the district superintendent, Rev. E. J. Warren of Detroit, was made an informal session to consider the program of the year just beginning. Very encouraging reports were heard, showing the church to be in fine condition for undertaking so great a task as has been laid upon it. The superintendent gave an inspiring address and the conference, by unanimous action, adopted ninety conversions and accessions to the church as the minimum achievement to be striven for by prayer and work by the Plymouth charge.

NEWBURG PATRIOTIC SOCIETY MEET

The Newburg Patriotic society met at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ryder on the Plymouth road, Friday, November 21. There were thirty present, three of whom were old soldiers. Dinner was served at noon, to which all did ample justice. The occasion being near Thanksgiving, the table decorations were pumpkins, the napkins with drawings of turkeys cut out and pasted on held their place of admiration. After dinner a program of readings and recitations appropriate to the occasion was enjoyed, as was also a talk by Mr. Field. The meeting broke up to meet with Mr. and Mrs. Field in February. Everybody on leaving thanked Mrs. Ryder for the good time they had had.

The NEW EDISON

No Needles to Change
Even records of all other makes sound more human when played on The New Edison.

EVERY home should own The New Edison—the wonderful new musical instrument perfected by Thomas A. Edison, the world's greatest inventor. This great genius now offers you real music, life-like music—more than "talking machine" music—just as he gave you electric light, the movies and a host of other human benefits. After years of toil, night and day, after millions of dollars spent in research, Mr. Edison gave his new phonograph to the world and made it possible for you to have the finest music in the world just as it was originally played or sung by the living artist.

Make Your Home a Real Home

A real home is more than a house with a yard or farm around it. A real home is a place where the happy united family gather together for mutual enjoyment and recreation.

And the New Edison makes this possible, for it stands supreme as the greatest home entertainer. It will mean more than entertainment and merriment, more than an hour of amusement, yes, it will mean genuine pleasure of the lasting sort—helpful entertainment and culture of the most beneficial kind. It will mean the family united—a new home.

No Needles to Change.
Even records of all other makes sound more human when played on The New Edison.

Mr. Edison's Wonderful Phonograph
Delivered for only a Small Payment Down

Yes, we will deliver the New Edison, the product of the world's greatest inventor's genius, the phonograph with the genuine diamond point reproducer, and your choice of the latest diamond disc records, and all that you have to do is make a small first payment. Nothing more to pay for 30 days. Then start the easiest kind of monthly terms. No offer that was ever made was more liberal than this. Find out about it at once.

Come In—Select Your Outfit NOW

Come in and hear the New Edison and bring your family with you. Hear your favorite old songs, the latest song hits of the big cities, the delightful dance music that makes it hard for the young folks to sit still, the solos, the quartettes, the crooning brass bands, and the old melodies that you love so well. Then decide for yourself whether you can get along without the New Edison when you can have it so easily on this great offer. Come in at once.

The Spirit of Unrest

Reaction from the stress of war, the High Cost of Living, and the disturbed conditions in industry throughout the world have combined to lower the morale of workers in many lines.

In the factory, in the mill, the high degree of pep and enthusiasm is lacking and production lags. Even domestic service has caught the contagion, as every housewife knows.

We think the claim none too broad that employes of the Bell System have been less affected by the spirit of unrest than the majority of other workers. Yet its effects have been felt and will continue to be felt until the world begins to swing back to normal.

The telephone management is doing all in its power to remedy conditions and restore service to pre-war standards. It asks the patience and co-operation of the telephone users.

FRUIT GROWERS READY FOR CONVENTION

Hundreds of Michigan fruit growers will attend the Annual Convention of the Michigan State Horticultural Society to be held in the Hotel Statler, Detroit, December 2nd, 3rd and 4th. This will be the most important convention from a grower's standpoint and a very strong program has been arranged.

Freight rates and legislation concerning shipping will be discussed by F. B. Coombs, secretary of the Michigan Traffic League, and R. G. Phillips, secretary of the International Apple Shippers' Association, of Rochester, N. Y. E. J. Kraus of Madison, Wis., formerly with the State Experiment Station of Oregon, will discuss the "Relation of Orchard Practices to Fruit-Bud Development," and "When is Pruning Profitable." The society is very fortunate in having as its guest, ex-Governor Charles S. Deneen of Illinois, who will discuss the subject of "Collective Bargaining." Ex-Governor Deneen represented the producers in the recent Chicago Milk Producers' Association, and was largely responsible for the decision which was rendered in their favor. F. E. Beatty of Three Rivers, the best advised authority on commercial strawberry growing in the middle west, will handle the subject, "How to Make Strawberry Growing both Pleasant and Profitable." Ezra Levin, muck specialist of the soils department, M. A. C., will tell of the possibilities of mulching orchards with muck. The subject of spraying will be discussed at length, as well as Michigan's horticultural possibilities, R. H. Pettit, state entomologist, has some new and interesting facts regarding "Some Pests of Prime Importance to the Producer of Food." "The New World Urge," by J. Bradford Fingelly, D. D., will interest everyone who is engaged along both horticultural and agricultural lines.

Growers are especially urged to be present at the business meeting to be held Wednesday forenoon. Programs have already been mailed and extra copies may be received by making application to the secretary, George M. Low, Bangor, Mich.

Michigan growers are considered one of the liveliest bunches that can be brought together, and the convention promises to hum with enthusiasm and pep. Everybody interested in the fruit industry is urged to attend this convention.

SCHOOL NOTES

The third and fifth overflow held a Thanksgiving party, Wednesday afternoon.

The sixth period civics class organized November 24th, with the following students as officers: Dorothy Hinnau, president; Philip Millard, vice president; Wilma Briggs, secretary and treasurer. The class plans to meet every two weeks to discuss topics of Americanism.

The final try-outs for the debating team resulted in the following being chosen: Lyman Judson, Lillian Lundy, Hannah Strasen, and Grace Hawkins as an alterante. The first league debate occurs with Northville on January 8th.

David Hinnau has re-entered school after working for several months in Detroit.

One of the treats at our last week's assembly was the debut of the kindergarten band, which led the singing of America and then rendered several numbers by themselves.

NOTICE

The timber lands owned by Sewell Bennett, E. C. Hough, E. J. Corbett and C. H. Bennett has been declared a State Game Preserve, and any trespassers found on this property will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.

HELLO, CLUB MEMBERS

The following articles are your November message. They tell all about the three projects, which the club members will take up for their work this fall and winter. The Farm Bureau will organize three kinds of clubs this winter. They are: Handicraft clubs, Garment Making clubs, Hot School Lunch clubs. Read about them on this page. Then get into the game.

COLD DAYS AND HOT FOOD

How far do you walk to school? Do you carry your lunch? Wouldn't something hot taste good at school, if it is too far to go home for a hot dinner. You can have it if you want it. Start a Hot Lunch Club.

Boys and girls between the ages of 10 and 18 inclusive, may be active members. Those not within the age limits may be associate members.

The work can be planned so that no time is lost from school work. There are three types of work to do in this club. These are bookkeeping, housekeeping and cooking. The work is planned so that you have a chance to do each kind of work for at least one week.

The cooks plan the lunches, assign to the various members the supplies which they are to bring from home, and prepare the food.

The housekeepers wash the dishes and keep the room clean and orderly. The bookkeepers keep a careful account of provisions furnished by each member, of the number served each day, and of the value of the food served.

An oil stove is most satisfactory for hot lunch work. Some pans and a few other utensils are needed.

Some schools have obtained these things by giving a social or entertainment. "Where there's a will, there's a way."

You can have a Hot Lunch club if you want it. You can be an Achievement member by working one week as a cook, one week as bookkeeper and one week as housekeeper, by filling out a report and writing a story of the work of the club.

Handicraft Makes Boys Handy

We want to tell you about the Handicraft club project. It is one of three projects which will make up the work of the Wayne County Boys' and Girls' clubs this winter. It will especially interest you, boys, because it is really work for junior carpenters—work which teaches how to use carpenters' tools and actually make things. Of course, all boys should do their best to help in case a Hot School Lunch club is organized in their school. But as boys are not included in the Garment Making clubs, we have other work for them—and work which boys like, too.

There are two classes of Handicraft boys. Those 10 to 14 years of age are the junior members. Those 15 to 18 years of age are the senior members.

Junior Handicraft Members

Must first make a bench hook. This is required. Then the junior member has the choice of making any five of the following articles: Seed testing tray, fly trap, sack holder, broom holder, bird house, three garden trellises, two 1-bushel crates, trap nest, egg candier, milk stool, two-horse evener, Ford jack.

Understand, at least five of the above twelve must be completed.

Senior Handicraft Members

Making a bench hook is the first required exercise. The member may select any five of the following exercises: Wagon jack, fly trap, trap nest, sack holder, cultivator, iceless refrigerator, farm gate, book and magazine rack, four crates 1 bushel capacity, farm work bench, hatching and brooding coop, fireless cooker, porch awning, self feeder, combination cold frame and sun dryer.

All Handicraft Members

Must complete all of the required work. Must keep accurate records of their work, such as cost of materials, amount of time used, value of finished articles, etc. Must finally fill out a project report, and also write a story or description of the work. Must make an exhibit at a club fair.

If possible and desirable, a work bench and work room may be installed in the school basement or some other suitable place. Many clubs prefer to do their work together in the same place. Other clubs are not able to have such conveniences, and so each member manufactures his articles at home. Elaborate equipment and lumber is not necessary. The more skill and brains a boy has, the more he can manufacture with limited tools and material.

Plans and descriptions for all of these exercises are furnished through the Farm Bureau. Some men act as a club leader is quite an important part of the club equipment, although not entirely necessary. Shall we count you in?

The Road—In New Overland 4 on Three-Point Cantilever Springs

YOU expect a bad road to ride as it looks. It did, until the introduction of the Overland 4 Springbase.

Overland 4 does not change the road, but it does change the manner in which you can ride on it. It gives you comfort instead of discomfort. It gives you a smooth, sailing sensation instead of bouncing and swaying.

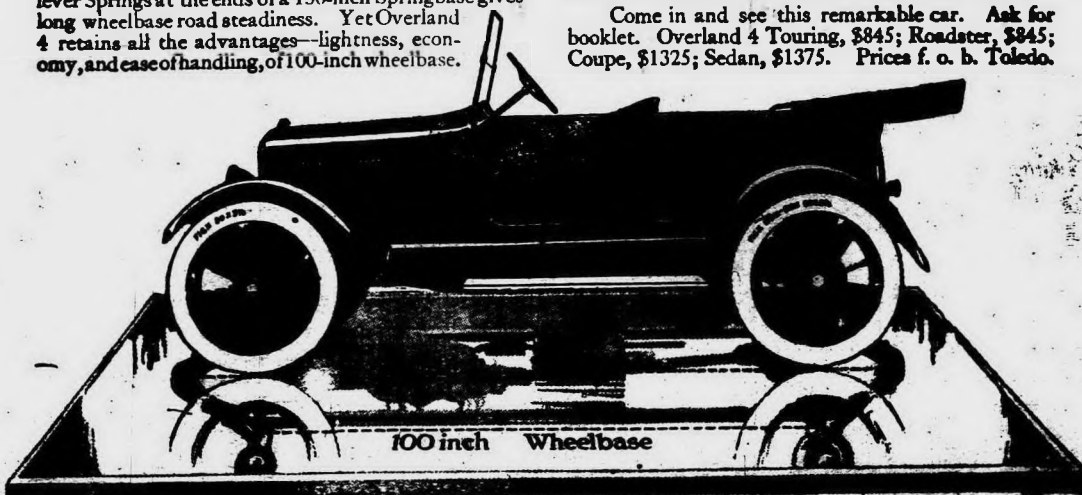

The Diagonal attachment of Three-Point Cantilever Springs at the ends of a 130-inch Springbase gives long wheelbase road steadiness. Yet Overland 4 retains all the advantages—lightness, economy, and ease of handling, of 100-inch wheelbase.

This means an altogether new standard of riding comfort, a noteworthy reduction in the wear and tear which lessens the efficiency of a car. The new springs give longer life to every part and thus minimize upkeep and replacement costs.

Tires wear longer because cushioned against hammering blows. Light weight means marked economy in gas, oil and running expense.

Overland 4's equipment is complete from Auto-Lite Starting and Lighting to Demountable Rims.

Come in and see this remarkable car. Ask for booklet. Overland 4 Touring, $845; Roadster, $845; Coupe, $1325; Sedan, $1375. Prices f. o. b. Toledo.

DRUG OF MARVELOUS POWER

Bayard Taylor's Description of Sensations Under the Influence of Hashish is a Classic.

Hashish may be reckoned one of the most classic of all intoxicants. Herodotus, the "Father of History" speaks of its use among the ancient Scythians, and it was doubtless the drug referred to by Homer as "the assuager of grief" in the house of Menelaus. Bayard Taylor's account of his sensations on first taking it at Damascus is memorable. It put him in a state of mental exaltation where in all sensations as they arose suggested more or less coherent images in a double form, one physical, the other spiritual, and the latter revealing itself in a series of indescribably brilliant metaphors. A few minutes after taking the drug he found himself at the foot of the Great Pyramid. A wish instantly transported him to its summit, far above the palm groves and wheat fields of Egypt. Then, looking down, he observed that the pyramid was not built of stone, but of gigantic blocks of "plug" tobacco! For a moment he writhed in a perfect paroxysm of laughter at this ludicrous discovery. Then his senses were ravished with delicious perfumes, and there came to his ears divine melodies and harmonies such as Beethoven might have dreamed. Time and space seemed vastly extended, so that a minute seemed an hour and an hour a year, while his friends in the same room with him seemed miles away, as though he were viewing them through a reversed telescope.

ANIMALS POINT OUT RICHES

Innumerable Instances Where Prospectors Have Been Aided in Search for Earth's Treasures.

A very large gold nugget is said to have been found the other day in a wild bee's nest in Australia. The story seems likely enough, for Australia has yielded all the really monster nuggets to date—the "Welcome" weighed 2,195 troy ounces and was valued at $43,500—and one of the biggest was discovered by a prospector who stubbed his toe against a projecting angle of it.

On the Wind river Indian reservation, in Wyoming prospectors look for grains of gold brought to the surface of the ground by ants. And in Arizona anthills are a common source of excellent garnets which are fetched to the surface by the industrious insects.

During the war we had grievous need of antimony to harden shrapnel bullets. The latter are of lead, but require the addition of 15 per cent of antimony to enable them to hold their shape when the containing shell explodes.

Accordingly, the government sent out experts to look for deposits of the metal, and the most productive antimony mine that we now have in this country was located by the help of a badger, earth thrown out of the creature's burrow showing a glint of the precious stuff.

TNT Wins Contest With Dynamite.

A contest was recently staged between 40 per cent dynamite and trinitrotoluene, and the latter won, says the Scientific American. Two concrete piers had to be blasted out and this gave an opportunity for a comparative test of the two explosives, with the result that 14.9 cubic feet of concrete were removed per pound of TNT, and only 14.1 per pound of dynamite.

TNT is no doubt destined to be used extensively in engineering work, as it is less sensitive than dynamite, but greater precautions must be taken to ventilate after a shot, owing to the large amount of carbon monoxide which is one of the principal products of combustion.

More Than Master of Languages.

Wilfred Stevens, one of the chief translators of the state department at Washington, speaks 33 languages, although he has never been outside of the United States and has never been to college. One of the languages is an invention of his own, which he says is an improvement over Esperanto. Among his list of languages are Chinese, Japanese, Persian, Turkish, Armenian, Arabian, Bulgarian, Croatian, Russian, German, Portuguese, French, Spanish, Italian, Yiddish, Swedish, Norwegian, Dutch, Hungarian, Finnish, Ancient Greek, Latin, Hebrew, Polish and Rumanian. He has also mastered three so-called universal languages—Esperanto, Ido and Ujono, the latter his own idea.—Detroit News.

For Repairing Punctured Tires.

The cement for repairing apertures in submerged ships of a Cardiff patent consists of five parts by weight of crude rubber dissolved in naphtha, three of rosin, two of white lead, nine of coal pitch, and one-fourth part of shellac. The heated mixture is used for cementing metal surfaces and may be applied to cloth to form an adhesive patch. The material may be thinned with naphtha, when it is suitable for paint.

Placing Blame Where It Belongs.

"H'm, h'm!" grumbled Farmer Hornbeak, gazing down the rows. "So that's the way you planted the corn, eh? Looks like you were staggering full of hard cider when you done it!" "Aw, them rows was straight when I planted 'em," doggedly replied the hired man. "The hot sun has warped 'em; that's all."—Kansas City Star.

A Good Cough Medicine for Children. Mrs. J. W. Phillips, Redon, Ga., phoned to J. M. Floyd, the merchant there, for a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and said she had bought a bottle of it at his store recently, and that it was doing her children so much good that she wanted to keep up the treatment. You will find nothing better for coughs and colds in child's medicine.

TIMES "SURE HAD CHANGED"

Doughboys in France Hailed as Friend Man Whom They Had, When "Kids" Feared Greatly.

The story of how two doughboys found their old enemy in France is told by Bull Nolan, former police lieutenant of New York city, who served as a K. of C. secretary assigned to the Sixteenth infantry, First division. Nolan is fifty-two years old and put in 23 years on the New York police force. When he changed the blue uniform for khaki, he was in charge of the twenty-third precinct, the old Tenderloin.

On his breast is a victory ribbon with two bronze major offensive stars and three silver citation stars. He has been recommended for the D. S. G. by the commanding officer of the Sixteenth infantry.

He had wandered up to a "little bunch" of doughboys who were "shooting craps," and gave each of the boys a pack of K. of C. cigarettes. The game was an exciting one, and a soldier who was about "to roll the ivory" looked up at him and asked him to "kiss 'em for a fire." Nolan did so, and the dice turned up a two and a three.

One of the unlucky boys who had lost on the toss of the dice looked up at Nolan and recognized him as an old enemy.

"Holy cat! Look, it's Tenderloin Bull Nolan!" he said to his pal. "Don't you remember, he's de cop who used to chase us from doorways for shooting craps when we was kids?" "Shure," said the lucky soldier, "and he pulled us once for smoking butts. And here he is shelling out packs of real cigarettes and kissin' de bones for us. Damnd if it ain't right dat de war changes de whole world!"

INSIGNIA OF ANCIENT ORDER

That Now Worn by United States Army Medical Officers Goes Back Four Thousand Years.

The caduceus, which was introduced in 1902 by Col. John Van R. Hoff, M. C., U. S. A., editor of the Military Surgeon, as part of the medical officers' insignia, dates back 4,000 years, according to F. H. Garrison, M. D., U. S. A., writing in the Journal of the American Medical Association. For a number of reasons the serpent was always the symbol of medicine in antiquity. The Babylonians' caduceus, which the insignia shows today—two snakes entwined with wings at the top of the staff—occurs in Hittite remains. It stands for an actual serpent god, Ningishzida, who as the special messenger of Ishtar, was the awakener of life in the springtime, and the Mesopotamian prototype of the Greek Hermes. The Romans had a special functionary, the caduceator, who was a sort of peace commissioner. The caduceus was used on the title pages of books published by the famous medical printer, Frobenius, in 1460 to 1527. The "wand of Mercury," as it is sometimes called, was also carried by merchant traders in ancient times, on excursions where peaceful negotiations were desired and they wanted to be known as neutrals.

Labor Troubles in China.

The $40 a month which the Chinese coolie with his family drew from the Chinese government during his period of enlistment in the army is the basis for the labor disturbance which is rocking China at the present time, says C. C. Thompson of Shanghai in the Seattle Post-Intelligencer. Mr. Thompson explains that prior to the war the average coolie made a monthly wage of $12 to $15, while having become accustomed to the new standards of living made possible by the $40 allotment he declines now to return to the old basis. Even household domestics have become affected by the new unrest and are demanding more money, he says. Recently because of the unsettled conditions there was a strike of dockworkers in Chinese ports which held up all trans-Pacific traffic for a considerable time, Mr. Thompson states.

Owes All to Uncle Sam.

Building upon his past experience as an employee in a shoe factory, the federal board for vocational education placed a young chap of 24, who was disabled at Solonsa, in a shoe manufacturing plant for training. His left hand and arm were severely injured by a high-explosive shell, but he finds he can carry on, in spite of the handicap, and is fast becoming an expert shoe cutter. The management, finding his service valuable, are paying him $1 a day—this, of course, in addition to his training pay, which comes from the board. He is enthusiastic and writes: "This training is great stuff. Everything is going fine. . . . I wouldn't have been able to do anything if the government hadn't given me this chance."

Movies Set Distance Record.

Two moving picture records were broken recently, according to the Popular Mechanics Magazine, at the centenary celebration of the Methodist church in Columbus, O. An ordinary projecting machine, equipped with a special lens, a rapid shutter, and a 150-ampere light, was used to throw pictures 100 by 75 feet, on a screen 350 feet away from the machine. The light employed was three times the strength of those commonly used. It generated so much heat that it was necessary to operate the cinematograph at great speed to prevent burning the film. The screen on which the pictures were thrown was 115 feet square.

FARM BUREAU WILL HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

The farmers' interests are upheld and aided by the Farm Bureau of each county. It is necessary, however, in order for it to be a success, to have a personal interest taken in it by each farmer. To more fully put this before the farmers of Wayne county, the Wayne County Farm Bureau will hold its annual meeting at the Board of Commerce building (near postoffice), in Detroit, Saturday, December 6th. The meeting will start with luncheon at 12:30 p. m., which will be followed by talks by C. A. Bingham, secretary of the State Farm Bureau, who will explain the purposes of that organization; Dr. Eben Mumford, state leader of county agents; Miss Edna V. Smith, state leader of Home Demonstration Agents; and R. A. Turner, state leader of Boys' and Girls' Club Work. The reports of the officers of the Farm Bureau and County Agents of Wayne County will then be given, followed by the election of officers and directors for the coming year. Everyone is earnestly invited to attend whether they are members of the Farm Bureau or not, and as the women should be as much interested in the work as men, it is just as necessary that they be present. In order to arrange for the luncheon, it will be necessary that O. I. Gregg, Dearborn, Mich., be notified as to the number of plates to be reserved.

DEATH LAD TO EVIL SPIRITS

Strange rites and ceremonies still abound in Africa. Most of these have their origin in superstitions instigated by the medicine men or magicians of a tribe for their own betterment, while many are adopted as customs of a tribe. Foremost of the funeral "celebrations" in Africa is that of a tribe called Bangalas, near the Quango river. Here the deceased is asked to state the cause of his death, and is often prosecuted before being buried. The death of an African in these sections is never announced, and, only on inquiry is anyone told of the death of a tribe member. When the death is generally known, the relatives come and fall into a state of excitement and wailing, with frequent interruptions of a hilarious nature. Drums and musical instruments are assembled and the revelry is continued until after sunrise. This ceremony occupies two days. The body is brought out during these ceremonies and fastened in a sitting posture in a chair and placed at the door of his hut. The idea of the natives is that the deceased shall share in the festivities. Only the mother and wife of the deceased show signs of grief. After the "celebrations" the deceased is put under rigid examination as to what or who caused his death. Usually, he is unable to answer, and the crowd abuses him, demanding an answer. At last it is agreed that he was killed through the aid of evil spirits. The body is then taken to the cemetery. The inhabitants do not believe that everyone must die, that evil spirits alone interfere with lives.

ISLAND OF MANY MEMORIES

Visitor to St. Helena Almost Sure to Find Something to Remind Him of Home.

St. Helena, the island where Napoleon Bonaparte spent some six years of exile and where he died in 1821, has one of the most peculiar landscapes in the world, and by reason of the great variety of trees and plants that grow there.

For many years the island was a sort of ocean crossroads where all ships plying between Europe and the East stopped for supplies. It was uninhabited when discovered and most of its population is made up of the descendants of persons who deserted from passing vessels. European, African and Asiatic peoples are all represented.

Nearly all of these settlers of many races and nationalities tried to introduce into the island plants and trees from their home countries, as people are wont to do the world over. Some of these failed to survive, but a surprising variety of crops and trees thrive in the semi-tropical climate and rich soil of the little island. As a result the English oak tree today grows beside bananas and palms. Raising dates is an industry of the valleys, while Scotch pines grow on the uplands, and some of the level land is covered with English gorse. Lemon and orange trees are to be found not far from patches of bramble and groves of willow. A visitor from almost any part of the world may look about and find a bit of landscape to remind him of home.—"Nikshah," in Chicago News.

Electric Lamp Best for Mines.

Nowadays the up-to-date miner carries a package of electricity about with him while underground. It is a small storage battery attached to the back of his belt, and is connected by a cord with a lamp fastened to the front of his cap. The lamp, provided with a reflector, throws a flood of light in front of the miner. But its chief advantage is absolute safety. In olden days miners (who must, of course, have light) carried about with them open-flame lamps. These caused innumerable disastrous accidents through ignition of coal dust or gases. Sir Humphry Davy's invention of a safety lamp whose flame was protected by a wire gauze saved an immense number of lives. It is in common use today, but the electric mine lamp is better and more convenient.

Largest Inland Sea.

The Caspian sea is the largest inland sea in the world. It has an area exceeding 170,000 square miles, and it is situated between Europe and Asia to the southeast of Russia. It lies in a deep depression, and in a past age, geologists tell us, probably formed, with the Black and Aral seas, an inland sea of vast extent. Salmon and sturgeon are abundant and the seal fishery is important. The rivers Ural and Volga flow into it. Astrabad Baku and Astrakhan are its chief ports. Waterways, consisting of rivers and canals, connect it with the Black and Baltic seas. Of its area, 585 square miles belong to the islands. At the present time its surface lies 52 feet below the level of the ocean.—Detroit News.

Sensible Decision.

"Wasn't your new French maid competent?" asked Mrs. Gawber. "Oh, yes," replied Mrs. Bounderby. "Then, why did you discharge her?" "The first time Mr. Bounderby saw her I caught him gazing at himself in a mirror and reflecting. He (he) may have lost my girl's beauty, but, thank heaven, I haven't lost my wits!"—Stratford Herald.

The Ground Hog Tractor Company is the name of a new organization formed at Holly.

The ninetieth anniversary of the Northville Presbyterian church will be celebrated next Sunday.

The Men's Club of the Presbyterian church of Royal Oak, will give a banquet, Friday evening, November 28, for the village president and commissioners.

Harry Atchinson of Salem township, and A. L. Miller of Superior township, have been drawn as jurors for the December term of court in Washtenaw county.

The Mitchell Brothers are feeding about 1,800 head of sheep on their farm north of Holly this season. They recently brought down from their ranch at Prescott 700 head, and put them with the flock they had at home.—Holly Advertiser.

Clyde, the 13-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lovell, living east of Ypsilanti, lost the end of two fingers, last week, while using a corn cutter, his hand slipped, and the ends of the second and third fingers of his right hand were cut off. His index finger also required several stitches.

The John Chellis party of deer hunters blew into town, Saturday morning, to the surprise of every one. It seems they had each secured a deer, and as that is about the only game to be hunted up there they broke camp and returned home, having been gone just one week. This is something of a record.—South Lyon Herald.

The freight wreck at Plymouth, Wednesday morning, was rather disastrous for four cars of live stock, two of which were purchased Tuesday and shipped by L. W. Lovewell of this place. The car of hogs, which was reported to be a total loss, was valued at about $2,200. Mr. Lovewell, however, was fully insured. His total shipment for the day was valued at over $3,500.—South Lyon Herald.

E. C. Smith, who left Dearborn last week, with his son, for a moose hunt in the wilds of Manitoba, writes back and said that he heard that Perry discovered the north pole several years ago. "If he did," he says, "someone moved it since that time, and it is now located on the site of our camp." We expect to see "Cap" return with a couple of polar bears and some wild gumdrops.—Dearborn Press.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Ely and two children, Mildred and James, left Monday for their new home at Riverside, California, where they also purchased a ten acre orange grove on Victoria avenue, one of the show places of that beautiful section, and it is estimated that there are 3,000 boxes of oranges on the trees now. These will soon be picked and marketed. Many friends in Northville will join the Record in wishing the Elys abundant success in their new home.—Northville Record.

Five sheep were killed and seventeen injured on the farm of Andrew Greening of Lyndon, one night recently, and Mr. Greening is now going to kill every dog he finds running at large on his farm. A few days later, on November 10th, early in the morning, four sheep were killed outright by dogs and twelve so badly lacerated that they had to be killed, on the farm of Dr. G. W. Palmer in Lyndon. Neighbors heard the dogs at work among the sheep, but before they could get to them with their guns the dogs disappeared.—Washtenaw Post.

Glenn C. Stewart, leader of the Wayne County Schools club, was a visitor at the DuBois school. Besides visiting the new school house now being built, he addressed the pupils and teachers, urging the establishment of a system for hot lunches for the pupils, each school day, and the development of a school garden next spring. Fortunately the new school grounds provide ample space for the garden project, which was received with enthusiasm by Miss Greening, principle, and Miss Goyce, in charge of grades 1, 2 and 3, as well as by the pupils.—Redford Record.

LAPHAM'S CORNERS

Dwight and Ruth Ballard of Easton Rapids, are visiting W. B. Rorabacher and family.

Baptist Buzzing B's

Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved.

Regarding the work of the present evangelists the subjects were from John 1:1-5, teaching on the "Duty of Jesus." Our morning theme now is "The Kingdom of Jesus," with John 4:1-5 as the text.

Be sure and watch our ad space. Several churches have in a church, and at the Baptist church, on the corner of Grand and Cass streets, a number of copies of our paper are being distributed.

course you will go to your church home first.

Being surprised at the sharp falling off in our Sunday evening congregation, November 16, we inquired and found many had gone to the excellent program at the Methodist church. We are glad to know that the people who come to the Baptist church know a good thing when they see it.

Building up the Kingdom in Plymouth is a most earnest task to which the members and co-operation of every member of the church are invited.

Be at prayer meeting, Thursday evening.

McKINNEY ROAD

Mr. and Mrs. Sam McKinney are spending the week with their son, Charles, at Saginaw.

A very fine surprise was held at Mrs. S. McKinney's last week Thursday evening, it being her birthday. About thirty guests were present, and quite a number were featured.

Mrs. Schafer and Mrs. A. Rohde. Everyone had a fine time.

Mrs. Burk of Elm, called on Mrs. I. T. Richards, Sunday.

William McKinney of Owosso, has been spending a few days with Sam and Dan McKinney.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilson spent Sunday at Roy Olger's.

Will Hawley and family spent Sunday in Detroit.

Harold Douglas is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hestonbury of Northville, spent Sunday at Charles Barnes.

Mr. Haight, who the day before had been hurt by a kick from a horse, and being unable to work had also later than usual. On arising he found his wife dead in the bed beside him. A doctor was hastily summoned, but death preceded him. In the hour, he said—Superior Correspondence, Ypsilanti Record.

The Detroit Creamery company, installing a better cooling system for their milk station at the corner of Grand and Cass streets, is doing a fine job. It is for the benefit of the public.

"Now I Have No More Washdays"

Do you own an Electric Washing Machine? Do you know the joy of facing washday with a smile—realizing your Electric Washer has banished the work and brought an easier way to wash?
Do you know the comfort of putting the clothes into an Electric Washing Machine and having them turned out in a few minutes, clean; then wringing by a power wringer?
An Electric Washing Machine pays for itself by saving you labor, time, expense and clothes.
Come in and allow us to demonstrate.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Spicer entertained at their home west of Plymouth, Sunday, the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Spicer, and Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Doerr and family.
Mr. and Mrs. Harry McClumpha and son, Moore, of Pittsburg, Pa., were called here the first of the week to attend the funeral of the former's mother, Mrs. Mary Conklin.
F. L. Becker was taken to Harper hospital Thursday, where he will undergo an operation for appendicitis today, Friday. Mr. Becker has been in poor health for some time and Plymouth friends hope for a speedy recovery.
An enjoyable dancing party was given by the telephone girls in the Penniman Allen auditorium, last Friday evening. One hundred and one tickets were sold and excellent music was furnished by Fisher's four-piece orchestra of Ann Arbor.
Mr. and Mrs. Albert Trinkaus pleasantly entertained about forty guests at a family reunion and dinner at their home on Holbrook avenue, Thanksgiving day. Guests were present from Pontiac, Detroit, Ann Arbor and Plymouth. For several years past it has been the custom for their families to get together on this day, and the occasion is always an enjoyable one.

What everybody says is not always true, for they say you cannot buy a good building lot in Plymouth at a reasonable price, now what would you call these prices. Beginning November 28th, I shall offer a block of 90 lots, 34-foot building lots, at $100, $125 and $150 per lot. Every lot a good one and well located. Terms are 10 per cent cash, and the balance on easy monthly payments. Get busy for they will not last long at these prices. E. N. Passage.
The opening number of the Citizenship Entertainment Course was given in the Penniman Allen theatre, last Wednesday evening. A large crowd attended, the lower floor being filled, and many seats in the balcony were sold. A concert was given by the High School orchestra from 7:30 to 8:00, and at 8:30 o'clock, Rev. L. W. Bishop introduced the entertainers of the evening. Robert Wassman, magician and juggler, who for an hour delighted the audience with his wonderful tricks, many of which seemed almost supernatural. The next number on the program will be given by the Collegian Concert Company, Friday evening, December 12th.
