SUNDAY, JUNE 6

Rev. S. Conger Hathaway, Pastor-elect

Memorial Day is over and has been fittingly observed. We would condemn ourselves as unpatriotic, as ungrateful, as unfeeling, if we should fail to share in its observance. Do you know there are fifty-two other Memorial days in the year that call upon us for grateful recognition? Every Sunday is a Memorial Day of one who laid down His life for all mankind; a memorial of His resurrection and life. How can you better observe it than in worship and praise?

The Presbyterian church invites you to its morning worship and Sabbath-school. The pastor will preach on the theme, "The Christian Life a Growth."

There will be no further evening service until the pastor becomes a resident of Plymouth.

Morning Service—10:00 O'clock

Sunday-school at the usual hour. W. R. Shaw, Superintendent.

PLYMOUTH OBSERVES MEMORIAL DAY

A SPLENDID PROGRAM AT HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM WAS HEARD BY LARGE ASSEMBLAGE.

Plymouth observed Memorial day in a most fitting manner, last Monday. The weather was all that could have been desired for an occasion of this kind, and there was a large assemblage at the exercises.

In the forenoon forty-three members of the local Post of the Foreign War Veterans and the American Legion marched in a body to Riverside cemetery, where a flag was placed upon each of the five graves of their fallen comrades. Rev. F. M. Field offered a prayer and taps were sounded at each grave by Master Lloyd Lundy.

The parade was formed at Kelllogg Park at 1:30 o'clock, and was composed of the Millard band, G. A. R. and veterans of the World War. The line of march was down Main street to the High School auditorium, where the exercises of the day took place. The exercises were decorated with the national colors.

George A. Smith, superintendent of the Plymouth schools, presided over the exercises at the auditorium. After a selection by the band, Rev. Frank M. Field offered the invocation, which was followed by the singing of "America," led by Calvin Whipple. Mr. Smith then read the general orders of the G. A. R. This was followed with a reading by Miss Alta Hamill, which was nicely rendered and she responded to an encore. A chorus composed of the fourth grade rendered a selection entitled, "The Drum," in a most pleasing manner. Charles Chappel gave "Lincoln's Gettysburg Address," exceedingly well. "Hats Off," a song by the fifth grade, was well rendered. Rev. Frank M. Field of the Methodist church, gave the address of the day. Mr. Field's address was intensely patriotic, and he paid a splendid tribute to the veterans of '61 to '65 and the younger veterans of the World War. His remarks struck a responsive chord in the hearts of all who heard him. It was a splendid address. This was followed by the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner," led by Calvin Whipple.

Supt. Smith then read the names of men who lost their lives during the World War from Plymouth and vicinity, whose nearest relatives were awarded the French Memorial Tablets.

The exercises were brought to a close with another selection by the band.

The procession was reformed and marched to the soldiers' monument in Kelllogg Park, where the G. A. R. had a short service and two selections were rendered by the band. The soldiers' monument was nicely decorated with the national colors, presenting a very pretty appearance, and Commander O. P. Showers of Edley Post, and his daughter, are entitled to each credit therefor.

A detail from Edley Post decorated the graves of ninety-five comrades who are sleeping in Riverside cemetery and several outlying cemeteries, last Saturday.

On Fame's eternal camping-ground Their silent tents are spread, And glory guards, with solemn round, The bivouac of the dead.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McLaren of Edley Post, guests at J. J. McLaren's, Sunday.

Miss Vera Willett was the guest of her cousin, Miss Gladys Herrick, at Northville, Decoration day.

Carl Kaufman and Carl Schmidt of Ann Arbor, visited at Jacob Frick's, last week Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson, son of Howard, and wife of Detroit, were Sunday guests of C. R. Maynard.

A company of Plymouth and Detroit friends gave Albert Schow a pleasant surprise at his home in Northville, last Saturday evening. About fifty guests were present, and dancing was the entertainment of the evening.

MAKING US SMILE

If it wasn't so foolish as to be funny, we'd actually lose patience with the man who turns in an ad for the paper with the announcement that he is giving it to us "just to help us along." And yet every now and then we run across the fellow who has not yet learned that advertising is the best protection he can have against failure in business.

Take any prosperous retail concern in this country as an example and ask the proprietor if he advertises to help the editor or himself. Take the merchant who is content to go ahead selling the same amount of goods today he did ten years ago, and you'll find he is standing still, simply because he is too shallow to see that advertising helps the advertiser far more than the publisher. If advertising only helped the publishers, then American merchants are the most charitable people on earth, for they maintain thousands of newspapers and magazines and let millions of millions of dollars annually they could keep in their pockets otherwise.

The day when that old question, "does it pay to advertise," was sprung, has passed with the stage coach and five-cent sugar. Today the sensible man asks himself, "does it pay to advertise in every issue of the paper that goes to the people upon whom I must depend for trade." No sane man advertises today in a newspaper just to help somebody out, but to keep his business out of the hands of the sheriff. The truth was never more plainly spoken than when someone said, there is only one business in the United States that can get along without advertising, and make money without advertising—and that is the United States mint.

THE SUSPICIOUS

Every time a man undertakes some worthy project in the community, there are the suspicious ones who ask: "What does he get out of it?" Just as if nobody ever did anything without an ulterior or selfish motive. A public improvement of some kind is proposed and a certain element sets up the cry, "Somebody is going to get something out of it." A man accepts an office at a sacrifice, thinking he can help the people of the community, and some fellow speaks up and says, "Oh, well, he'll get a good deal more out of it in some way than the salary." And when a fellow makes a donation to some worthy cause, his motive is questioned and questioned.

The suspicious—the ones who do the questioning—are the ones who deserve to be suspected, not the one they are "knocking." Where a man suspects selfish motives in another, he knows deep down in his own heart that he has selfish motives in most things that he does. There are a lot of righteous people in this old world doing all they can for the betterment of the human race—helping all of us in every way they can. Money is not their main object in life—which cannot be understood by those whose object in life is money. There are public officials as honest as anybody else, and doctors who do more charity work than they do work for which they are paid—and lawyers and merchants and manufacturers who have other things in view than piling up wealth for themselves, notwithstanding the great number of people of this kind there are still those who are always ready with that suspicious question, "What does he get out of it?"

Charles Pitcher of this village, has an interesting relic and souvenir in the shape of an invitation to the inaugural ball and concert given in honor of President James A. Garfield and Vice-President Chester A. Arthur, which took place at Washington, D. C., March 4, 1881. The invitation is finely engraved and very artistic. The invitation was sent to Mr. Pitcher by Major E. W. Tyler, of the U. S. Army, and a cousin of Mrs. Pitcher.

Best Remedy for Stomach Trouble
"I am pleased to have the opportunity to say a good word for Chamberlain's Tablets," writes Mrs. Mamie Burtel of Roberts, Mo. "I think they are the best remedy for stomach troubles, indigestion and constipation I have ever used. I have taken them off and on for two or three years and they always relieve indigestion. I use one with the liver and make me feel fine."—Adv.

PLYMOUTH LOSES A CLOSE ONE

THE BUICKS LOST TO FRIENDSHIP LODGE TEAM OF DETROIT BY A SCORE OF 3 TO 2.

A BIG CROWD WITNESSED THE GAME.

The ball game between the Plymouth Buicks and Friendship Lodge team of Detroit, on the home diamond, last Monday afternoon, was largely attended, and those who were there saw a mighty interesting contest. From start to finish the game was close with the result in doubt until the last man was out. The game ended with the score 3 to 2 in favor of the Detroiters. The visiting team was managed by Montie Wood, a former Plymouth boy and well known ball player.

German pitched splendid ball for five innings, when he was relieved by Hutchins, allowing the visitors but one hit. Although the locals gathered six hits off Hinkson, he kept them well scattered. In the eighth inning the locals staged a batting rally and it looked as if they might tie the score, but the inning ended with only one tally crossing the rubber. The score:

FOUL TIPS

It was a big crowd. Some ball game, some ball game. It was a pretty contest from start to finish.

Oh, well, we can't win 'em all, you know. The large number of foul tips by the locals was a feature of the game.

It looked like we were going "over the top" in the eighth, but—

Base ball is coming into its own in Plymouth again.

You put one over on us this time, Montie, but you can't do it again.

The crowd really ginged up in the eighth inning.

Secretary and Treasurer William Peltz and his assistants had a busy time gathering in the coin.

Manager Bentley is putting on a fine article of base ball. "Atta boy," Clyde.

It looked like rain in the eighth. Hammerschmidt is some catcher, and how he does "peg" them down to second. Manager Bentley made no mistake in signing him up.

Manager Clyde Bentley of the local team and Manager Montie Wood of Friendship team, were once upon a time the star pitchers of Plymouth teams.

Booze Is Not a Good Care

From the Ames, Iowa, Intelligencer
"When a man comes to you all dosed up with pain and declares he will die in your presence unless you procure him a drink of whiskey, send him to a doctor or else give him a dose of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. There is a mistake in action among a whole lot of people that booze is the best remedy for colic and stomach ache."—Adv.

SCHOOL NOTES

Vaulting standards for the athletic field are being constructed by the boys in farm carpentry.

Miss Ruth A. McIntyre, community nurse for the townships of Plymouth and Northville, is making a survey of the children of the lower grades of our school. Miss McIntyre reports that she is finding the physical conditions up to or above the average. She is, however, finding minor irregularities among the younger children, which, if corrected now, will mean health and strength for them in the future.

"The Wild Rose," an operetta given by girls selected from the Glee Club and various choruses of the High school, proved to be a decided success. Sixty-one dollars was cleared, which will be used for musical purposes, buying some new records for the Edison debt. Each member of the cast interpreted their parts well and are deserving of much praise. Bobbie was a regular boy, up to all the boyish tricks and causing Mrs. Fussy and Rose a great deal of uneasiness.

A CARD—O. P. Showers and daughter wish to extend a vote of thanks to Rev. Field, Lady Rebekah, Singer Calvin Whipple, Ladies' Aid of Newburg, W. C. T. U., also friends and neighbors.

O. P. Showers, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Keays, Harold Amaon.

Commissioners.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

There are fifteen members in the graduating class of the Northville High school this year.

The village tax rate in Northville for 1920 will be $1.18 on each one hundred dollars valuation. In 1919 it was $1.51.

Ypsilanti is already planning for a big celebration in 1923 or 1924, to mark the one hundredth anniversary of that city.

Plymouth seems to have a ball team to be proud of this season. It won its opening game against Roma by a score of 4 to 2.—South Lyon Herald.

Enterprising Northville citizens have formed a company to build homes in that village. N. C. Schrader, a former Plymouth citizen, is a member of the company. G. B. Crumble, contractor and builder of Plymouth, has been awarded the contract for four houses to be built at once.

Milford will vote June 7th on the proposition of establishing a sewer system in that village. It is proposed to build the first unit of a trunk sewer, which will form the nucleus for additional extensions to be made each year. This is a good idea, which might well be followed out in Plymouth.

The new car storage plant of the Grand Motor Company at Pontiac is being rushed to completion and is already partly in use. The warehouse is 150x200 feet, four stories and basement, with floor space of 150,000 square feet. Four large elevators will facilitate the movement of cars and material from one floor to another. Constructed of reinforced concrete, the building will be absolutely fireproof. Six railroad tracks run to the building, affording unusual trackage for loading and unloading cars.

According to available statistics at least 10 per cent of Washtenaw county's productive land will remain idle this year. In normal years there are 15,000 dairy cows in the county. This year there will be a probable decrease of 15 per cent in dairy cows. There are probably 1,000 fewer farm hands and farmers in 1920 than in 1915. There are at least 2,000 men needed to get the maximum cultivated acreage and production from the farms, and the county faces today a shortage of one-half the men sever each. If Washtenaw's quota of food is to be produced.

In addition to Ann Arbor's population of nearly 20,000, as shown by the recent census, the city has 9,401 students registered at the University of Michigan this year, or almost 3,000 higher than the enrollment in any normal year. There are students from every one of the 48 states and from the District of Columbia, and those of the United States possessions, the Philippines, Porto Rico and Hawaii. There are 34 foreign countries represented by 256 students. Michigan leads with 5,793 students. Of the foreign countries, Ontario leads with 70 students. Other countries following in order of representation, are: China, 53; South Africa, 35; Japan, 29; Argentina, Mexico, Australia, five; Brazil, Chile and Turkey, three each; Alberta, British West Indies, Manchuria, Nova Scotia, Peru, Poland, Russia, Saskatchewan, Spain two each, and one each from British Columbia, France, Honduras, Hungary, Java, New Brunswick, Nicaragua, Norway, Quebec, Straits Settlements, Sumatra and Sweden.

NEWBURG

A converted criminal in the pluperit at the Newburg church, speaking out of the experience of his own life, on the subject, "Crime As I Knew It—Its Cause and Cure," is the special treat, which will be furnished the people of this vicinity, next Sunday afternoon, June 6th.

Robert W. Fen-ton of Chicago, one time yeggman, safe-blower and international crook, will speak at the Newburg church, Sunday afternoon at two o'clock.

Every man, woman and child in the community ought to hear him. He has a thrilling story to tell of the twenty years of his life spent in crime, during which time fully $50,000 passed through his dishonest hands.

Mr. Fen-ton was converted less than three years ago, just after being released from prison, where he had been serving time, and since then has been doing all he can to undo the wrong of his previous record.

He is an interesting, forceful speaker, keen and witty, and all who hear him are much interested in his message. He is at present conducting an anti-crime crusade in Detroit, speaking in the shops during the week, and in the largest churches Sunday evenings.

Memorial day was observed at Newburg, Sunday afternoon. The church was prettily decorated with the stars and stripes and beautiful flowers. Never was there a finer day for Decoration day. Consequently there was a large attendance, every seat being taken in the main room and chapel.

The program by the children and pianologue by Gladys Smith were excellent, and we also the singing by Mr. Tracey and marches played by Miss Anna Youngs. Rev. Whitney's subject was, "A Better Country." The old boys in blue surely enjoyed, as well as everyone else, his reminiscences of former days and talk on conditions of the present time.

The four old veterans present were: Mr. Youngs, Charles Westfall, Chauncey Buaya, James King and the three soldiers of the world war were, Henry Grimm, Donald Ryder and Lee Fisher. There were three day schools represented, Newburg, King and Stark. They made a pretty appearance, marching into church and then to the cemetery, carrying flags and flowers, headed by four girls acting as color bearers. There are over fifty soldiers' graves to put flags and flowers on in Newburg cemetery.

The G. A. R. and Patriotic society wish to thank all who so kindly assisted in making this Memorial day a success.

Those from away who attended the funeral of Mr. and Mrs. Gunsolly's little daughter, Gwendolyn, last Friday were: Mrs. White, Mrs. Condon, Harry Booth and son, Oswald, of Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. Gunsolly have the sympathy of everyone in their sad bereavement.

The L. A. S. will hold their regular meeting at Newburg hall, Friday afternoon, June 11. Picnic supper will be served. Everyone cordially invited.

Several from here attended the funeral of Mrs. O. P. Showers, Tuesday afternoon. She was a member of the L. A. S. and Patriotic society. Mr. Showers has the sympathy of Newburg friends.

Mr. Taylor has purchased a new Oakland touring car.

Mr. Elliott has been appointed as school director, in place of Mr. Farley, who has moved from the district.

Mrs. Blanche LeVan Cline and sisters, Helen and Syble, with their families, motored out from Detroit, Monday, and had a picnic on the LeVan lawn.

Mrs. Charles Ryder called on Mrs. Emily LeVan, Monday afternoon. They, together with Mrs. Minnie Hilliker, motored to Ann Arbor with Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Woods.

Mrs. Emily LeVan spent Wednesday at the Ryder homestead.

DEATH OF A LITTLE GIRL

Gwendolyn, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Gunsolly, passed away at the age of ten years, seven months and one day at Ann Arbor, May 27. Some three weeks previous she was taken sick with measles, when diphtheria and later pneumonia developed, as a last resort she was taken to the hospital, where skilled physicians and nurses did everything in their power to help her in her struggle for life.

During all this time, she was not able to speak above a whisper, but would always insist that she was better, showing a patient, cheerful spirit through it all.

She will be greatly missed by her schoolmates and in the Sunday-school, where she was a regular attendant, but most of all in the home, where she was so full of life and happiness.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Field, Friday afternoon, at 2:00 o'clock in Riverside cemetery, where a number of friends and schoolmates gathered to pay their last tribute of love.

The little casket was covered with beautiful flowers. Rev. Field spoke comforting words to the bereaved parents and sorrowing friends. Misses Anna and Ada Youngs sang songs of the heavenly home, where she has gone to be with the One who said, "Suffer little children to come unto Me, for of such is the kingdom of Heaven."

And the mother gave, in tears and pain.

The flowers she most did love; She knew she would find them all again.

In the fields of light above, Oh! not in cruelty, not in wrath, The Reaper came that day; 'Twas an angel visited the green earth And took that flower away.

The Most Welcome Tire That Ever Came to Market

Men Who Appreciate Superlative Values Prefer The Brunswick

In every great tire factory, the chief question is: "How much can we give for the money?" And the product depends on the policy adopted.

Every man who has become acquainted with Brunswick Tires knows that Brunswick standards are again evident. This famous concern—noted as a leader in every line it entered since 1845—has once more proved that its policy is right.

A perfect tire is simply a matter of knowledge and standards and skill. No secrets nor patents prevent making an ideal tire.

But standards come first. For in tire making there is vast room for skimping, for subtle economies, for hidden shortcomings. Makers without the highest standards don't build high-grade tires.

The Brunswick organization of tire makers includes a brilliant staff of technical experts. Not a man among them has spent less than 20 years in handling rubber.

Each is a master of his craft. And the new ideas they bring to the attention of Brunswick directors receive sincere consideration.

Every proved betterment is adopted unanimously.

The Brunswick Tire is a combination of acknowledged features—plus Brunswick standards of manufacture.

The result is a super-tire, the like of which you have never known before. The kind of a tire you will gladly join in welcoming.

Yet Brunswicks cost no more than like-type tires.

Try ONE Brunswick. We promise a surprise. And we feel certain that you will want ALL Brunswicks.

Then good tires will have a new meaning to you.

Hear the phonograph that baffled James Montgomery Flagg

Come in and test its marvelous realism for yourself

An audience of 2800 New Yorkers completely baffled! An Official Laboratory Model did it—actually rivalled Anna Case, one of the world's most brilliant sopranos, in a startling test at Carnegie Hall, on March 10th, 1920.

In our store, you can hear an instrument exactly like this famous Official Laboratory Model. You can test it for yourself—and see what a truly perfect realism it attains. We have equipped ourselves to give Mr. Edison's unique Realism Test.

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

The instrument used on March 10th, 1920, in Carnegie Hall, New York, was an exact duplicate of the original Official Laboratory Model on which Mr. Edison spent three million dollars in research work.

We, too, have an exact duplicate of this three million dollar original. We guarantee that it is capable of sustaining precisely the same test made on March 10th, in Carnegie Hall, New York City.

This guarantee will be given in writing,—if you wish.

Our Biggest Plan puts this guaranteed Official Laboratory Model within your reach. It's a thrifty way of buying. Ask about it when you come to hear the Realism Test.

Mr. Flagg's Story of the Miraculous Proof given at Carnegie Hall, New York, on March 10th, 1920.

"Miss Case draped her beautiful self against the phonograph. One of her song recordings was put on the instrument, and they, Miss Case and the phonograph, sang together. Then she stopped, and her other self continued. Then together again. 'I looked away and then back again,—and it puzzled me to determine which was at the bat.

The Pianist

"Then the tallest pianist in the civilized world played a charming thing, accompanied by himself via the phonograph,—lifting his fingers away from the keys now and again. I could see him stop playing,—but I couldn't hear him stop.

The Dark Scene

"Then the big stunt of the recital. 'Miss Case began singing with the phonograph. At a certain stanza the house was suddenly darkened. The song went on. I was shooting my eyes out like periscopes to detect the second when she would stop. I was sure I got it. Then she seemed to be back again. The flood of light came on,—but no Anna! Only the phonograph singing away.

It was quite wonderful,—and the audience applauded and laughed. Two girls behind me said 'Googracious!'

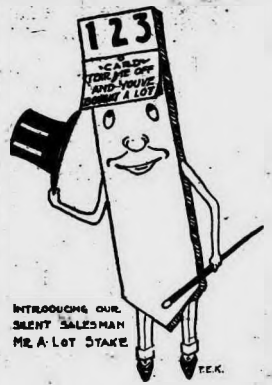

Read what the New York papers say:

"The twin-ship between Miss Case's singing, and the reproduction thereof, proved so close as to be often indistinguishable."
—New York Globe.

"When the lights were lowered, it was impossible to tell when it was Anna Case, and when it was only her voice that was singing."
—New York Evening Sun.

"The voice in the fluff pink desperation and the voice in the mahogany box seemed one and the same."
—New York Evening Mail.

Moline Wide Spread Spreader

The Moline is a practical, low down, endless apron wide spreader. It is low enough for easy loading, just high enough for clearance, runs easy and lasts long. Moline Spreaders have given perfect satisfaction in all parts of the country with all kinds of manure.

Very little draft is added in operating the spiral beater, as it runs on roller bearings and does not have a retarding device of any kind to hold the manure, but acts on the manure when it is in motion and revolves in the same direction it is moving.

The even distribution and wide spread is a very great advantage when top dressing small grain or grass land.

Today's Reflections

If the average Plymouth girl had but two wishes one of them would be for a husband, and she'd save the other one until she saw how he turned out.

One advantage about late garden planting is it's awfully disappointing to the weeds.

Personally, we've about decided to vote for the candidate who is for cheaper sugar at the ratio of two spoons to one cup of coffee.

If you think there isn't anything impossible, just try to prevent a Plymouth girl parting her hair when she is about to meet a stranger.

It's a pretty good idea never to boast of what you can do unless you are willing to take off your coat and make good.

We have also reached the stage where no Plymouth man can with a clear conscience tell an innocent girl that it is impossible for two live as cheaply as one.

If the price of sugar would only feel all run down, how gladly we would grant it a day off.

Speaking of foolish things, have you found anyone in Plymouth so foolish as to believe all this talk that germs in kisses will stop kissing?

We have always noticed that the men who allow their wives to choose their office help usually get the most work done.

The old-fashioned farmer who used to break a colt, now has a son who spends his time breaking up an automobile.

Maybe the chief reason most Plymouth people like to talk about the high cost of living is because talk is cheap.

There's no danger of this country going to the dogs so long as we still have a few old-fashioned wives who are still willing to get their husband's breakfast.

Maybe the overall movement in this country would amount to more if the people donning them would get out and do a little work.

Another thing we can't understand is why a Plymouth woman will write a ten-page letter, and then proceed to tell what she wants you to know in a three-line postscript.

It has about gotten so you can say anything you please about a man's wife or family, as long as you don't knock the make of automobile he drives.

FARM PRODUCE BUYING POWER SHOWS DECLINE

WHEAT AT THREE DOLLARS EXCHANGES FOR LESS GOODS THAN DID OLD DOLLAR-FIFTY CROP.

The exchange value of farm crops for manufactured goods is less today than it was before the war, declares Prof. J. F. Cox, head of the farm crops department at the Michigan Agricultural College. Wheat at $3.00 a bushel will trade for less things which a farmer must have than did the old $1.50 crop, and the same is true of beans and other crops. While the actual price that the farmer receives has increased from 50 to 100 per cent, this increase has just about kept pace with the decreased purchasing power of a dollar, whereas clothing and other manufactured goods have increased in many cases several hundred per cent.

"The serious labor shortage existing on Michigan farms and the alarming rate at which farm homes are being vacated, and lands allowed to lie uncultivated, are facts which demand the careful attention of all who eat food in Michigan, as well as those who produce and handle food products," says Prof. Cox. "Manufacturers must do all in their power to facilitate the release of labor for work on the farms during planting and harvesting times."

"Conditions in the country must be placed on such a basis as to make the farmer, his family and his helper's desire to stay on the land and bring back enough of those who have already left to insure adequate handling of our farm lands. Farm life must be bettered, and farming as a business must be established. The welfare of the entire state demands that this problem be met. Michigan Farm Bureau is one of the most powerful influences working toward a stabilizing of farming as a business. In some cases the Farm Bureau engages in certain lines of business, such as the handling of wool, the seed business, the co-operative grain business, etc. It does this in the interest of the producers and handles the business in such a way that the result should be a less number of middlemen, and a better regulation of production and distribution. All interests in the state, including manufacturers, professional men and others of the city should be in sympathy with this new Farm Bureau movement."

MEMORIAL SUNDAY

Memorial Sunday was appropriately observed in the High school auditorium last Sunday morning, the auditorium being filled for the occasion. Before the beginning of the service ten members of Eddy Post, G. A. R., with a company of young veterans of the late war, were ushered to the front and given seats of honor. The service opened with an instrumental solo, "The Star Spangled Banner," by Miss Evelyn Thomas. A pretty and impressive feature of the service was the saluting of the colors during the rendering of this solo. The colors were carried by Orin Brown and the guard of honor composed of Ralph Ryder, Harold Daggett, Harry Mumby and Harold Stuart in uniform, marched in and stood at attention.

Rev. S. Conger Hathaway delivered the sermon of the morning, taking for his subject, "The Great Deliverance." It was a splendid sermon that held the closest attention of his hearers throughout. He was assisted in the service by Rev. C. H. Whitney and Rev. F. A. Lankin. Special music was rendered by the Presbyterian quartet and a solo, "In My Father's House," Stephen Ward, sung by Mrs. R. E. Cooper added much to the impressiveness of the service.

The stage in the auditorium was beautifully decorated for the occasion with a huge cross of purple lilies in the center of the platform in front of which, was an open bible crossed by a sword. On either side of the cross were stacked guns, surmounted with a white dove of peace. Bush honeysuckle and flags formed the other decorations, with pictures of George Washington and Abraham Lincoln near the front of the stage. The woodland scene was used and the background, with a river flowing along a hilly bank, and overhead the clouds reflecting the setting sun made most appropriate setting. Much credit is due H. J. Green for the artistic effect of the decorations, and C. H. Baugh for furnishing the flowers.

FARM WOMEN ADOPT BUSINESS METHODS

HOME ACCOUNT BOOKS SOLVE HOUSEHOLD PROBLEMS; MORE MONEY LEFT FOR PLEASURE.

More than a thousand Michigan farm women have made their husbands in the great movement toward business methods in the country, by starting to keep definite records of all their household transactions and expenses. Home account books prepared by the extension specialists at the Michigan Agricultural College are being used for the records.

By means of the account books these farm leaders in home management are able to keep track of every dollar that passes through the household, with the result that great savings are made possible. The income for the upkeep of the house is spread out over a budget, items covering food, clothing, shelter, operating expenses, and general advancement being included. In this way the "head of the house" knows just where the money goes, and is able to regulate the family budget to best advantage.

"The need for a larger budget for recreation and general advancement is one of the things brought out by the average woman's account book," says Edna V. Smith, household management specialist at M. A. C., who is in direct charge of the home account book work. "Also the fact that the farm home realizes large decreases in operating costs because of the amount of foodstuffs produced on the farm, is made clear."

Although the first home account books were printed only a little more than a year ago, the work has proved so popular with Michigan farm women that a second edition of the books has already had to be printed. Those who have studied them point out that the account books are fully as valuable for city women as they are for their farm sisters.

The books may be had at cost from county home demonstration agents or directly from the Extension Division, M. A. C., East Lansing.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucas are spending a few days at William Cole's.
Ruth Smith and Harold and May Mager motored to Ann Arbor, Monday evening.
Interest in public health nursing is wide-spread throughout the country. In the cities public and private agencies have been for some years developing various phases of the work, but until very recently these efforts have been confined almost entirely to the cities.
A common belief has prevailed that the people of the small towns and rural communities were physically superior to the people of the cities. This has been disproven. The country boys figured more largely in the army rejections than did boys from the large cities. The death rate of rural New York is greater than that of New York City.
The Red Cross, recognizing these facts and believing that with health supervision the country can possess a higher standard of health than the overcrowded cities, is trying as an aid in this direction, to extend to the small towns and rural communities the benefits of the Public Health Nursing Service.
Much of the work is accomplished through the public schools. In Wayne county, under the direction of Mr. Yost, commissioner of schools, nurses are examining school children, with the object of encouraging correction of all defects, which might tend to lower their physical resistance. The nurses under the Red Cross do not, however, confine their work to children of school age. We are still shocked by the thought of the deaths of 50,000 American soldiers, killed in our late war, but it is generally known that last year there were 600,000 deaths among children under school age. Furthermore that there will be 600,000 deaths this year unless something is done to prevent this slaughter. Where intensive infant welfare work is carried on it has been proven that many of these deaths are preventable. If babies were well born and well cared for the death rate would be very low. Public health nurses are by instructions to mothers helping to decrease this death rate all over the country.

One out of ten deaths in the United States is from tuberculosis, which is now recognized as a preventable disease. Public health nurses by discovering and bringing under treatment cases in early stages are doing much to effect cures and prevent the spread of this disease.
In every community there are people ill who cannot afford or do not require the full time services of a nurse, but who do need some professional care in addition to that given by the family. Among these are chronic conditions or accident cases, where the patient is in bed for months, typhoid, children with pneumonia or other acute troubles, maternity cases, minor operations, etc. While public health work is mainly preventative, yet by arranging the work on a visit basis many of these cases can be cared for.
The nurse does not in any sense take the place of the doctor, and gives nursing care only under a doctor's orders. She frequently can induce patients to consult a doctor who would not otherwise realize their need of medical care.
In beginning this work in the townships of Plymouth and Northville, I take this opportunity of asking for the interested active co-operation of every member of the community. I am here to be of service, and wish you to feel at liberty to call to my attention any matter in your own home or any case known to you where I might be of help. With your knowledge of local conditions and people, you can acquaint me with many opportunities which might otherwise never come to my attention.
Anyone desiring to reach me can do so by calling Northville 73W.

What's become of the prejudice against automobiles because they frightened the horses

NOW cars are everywhere. The horses have gotten used to them—and so has everybody else. Think of it! This year the American people will spend nearly a billion dollars on tires alone.

Tires are one of the biggest items on the car owner's bills.

Hardly a Saturday, when you motorists drop in to "tune up" for a Sunday trip, that one or more of you doesn't tell us something of value to our business. Sooner or later it comes back to you in Service.

Service is what the car owners of this community are looking for nowadays.

And especially the small car owners, who put service first in figuring their motor-ing expenditures.

Just because a man has a moderate-price car is no reason why he should get any less service out of his tires.

We believe that the man with the small car is entitled to just as good tire service as the man with the big car—and both are entitled to the best tire service they can get.

That's why we represent U. S. Tires in this community.

And why more car owners—large and small—are coming to us every day for U. S. Tires.

Come in and talk to us about tires. We're here to help you get the kind of tires you want.

The "Mothers' Day" meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held in the kindergarten room at the school house, and while not so largely attended as should have been, was a very enjoyable meeting. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Sheldon Gale on West Ann Arbor street, June 10th, and is Flower Mission Day, so if those who have flowers to spare will bring some with them it will be a help in decorating the rooms in accordance with the day. And those who have not yet paid their dues please come prepared to do so, as the annual state dues must be sent in in June.

Something That is Impossible

You know it is impossible to climb a tall stack with a short step-ladder. The ladder must reach to the top.

It is just the same with your telephone company. Our ladder, which is our income, is far too short to enable us to climb to the top of the growing stack of expense. If receipts do not cover the cost of service to you what must you expect? The ladder does not reach, for service is being maintained at a loss.

Costs of labor and equipment have jumped all the way from 40 to 200 per cent above what they were only five years ago and are still going up. Growth of income has not measured up to the increase of expense.

Cut This Out and Take It With You. A man often forgets the exact name of the article he wishes to purchase, and as a last resort takes something else instead. That is always disappointing and unsatisfactory. The safe way is to cut this out and take it with you, so as to make sure of getting Chamberlain's Tablets. You will find nothing quite so satisfactory for constipation and indigestion.—Adv't.
