FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Rev. S. Conger Hathaway, Pastor

THE CHURCH has TEACHING FUNCTIONS as WELL AS preaching FUNCTIONS. Consider the GREAT COMMISSION in MATTHEW 28:18-20; where JESUS SAID, "go YE THEREFORE and TEACH ALL nations BAPTISING THEM IN THIS passage OUR LORD said NOTHING FURTHER about GOING OR about BAPTISING BUT he SPOKE TWICE therein ABOUT TEACHING; and ALL PERSONS should THINK TWICE before THEY LET anything INTERFERE WITH their ATTENDANCE UPON the TEACHING SERVICE OF THE CHURCH. This FOLLOWS THE hour OF WORSHIP and WE CALL it THE SUNDAY school.

Daniel Webster said: "There is more valuable truth yet to be gleaned from the sacred writers than from all other sources of human knowledge combined."

WOMAN'S CLUB HELD INTERESTING MEETING

A regular meeting of the Woman's Club was held in the kindergarten room at the school building, last Friday afternoon. The president, Mrs. D. F. Murray, presided over the business session. About twenty-five members were in attendance. One new name was received into membership. The roll call was responded to by each member giving a name of a book recently read. The program in charge of the first division, with Mrs. George Wilcox, leader, was presented as follows: Book Review—Mrs. Coello Hamilton. Mrs. Hamilton selected for the review, "The Great Hunger," written by Johan Bojer, a Norwegian writer of considerable note. She reviewed the plot and story of the book in a concise and interesting manner. This was followed by a sketch of Johan Bojer's life, by Mrs. J. W. Blickestaff. The program concluded with a discussion on this book and a brief comparison of other books by the same writer, read by Mrs. E. R. Daggett. Mrs. William R. Alvord will address the club this (Friday) afternoon at 8 o'clock in the same meeting place. All members of the club are urged to attend this meeting, and give the president of the State Federation a cordial welcome.

ORDAINED AS MINISTER

Arnold H. Kehrl, 451 Starkweather avenue, who is known to many people here because of his evangelistic work, and who returned to Chicago last September to finish his degree work and studies, was ordained into the ministry, Tuesday evening, Jan. 18th. The service was held at his church at Lake Zurich, Illinois, under the direction of the Chicago Baptist Association. Dr. G. W. Taft, president of the Northern Baptist Theological Seminary, presided, and gave the charge to the church. The Rev. Joseph Croft Dent, district superintendent of Illinois, preached the ordination sermon. Dr. C. S. Carmen, president of the Chicago Baptist Association, gave the charge and hand of fellowship to the candidate. The Rev. Kehrl will complete his work at the Northern Baptist Theological Seminary.

LYKE-FISHER

Announcement of the marriage of Miss Ethel Fisher, daughter of William Fisher of this place and Alex Lyke, also of Plymouth, came as quite a surprise to Plymouth friends a few days ago. The marriage was quietly solemnized Thursday, December 2, 1920. The bride is well and favorably known here, having been a pupil of the Plymouth High school, but for the past few months has held a position in the office of the Ypsilanti Electric Co., of Ypsilanti. The groom has resided in Plymouth for the past two years, having been in the employ of the Daisy Manufacturing Co. Mr. and Mrs. Lyke expect to soon go on a farm near Northville, and the best wishes of Plymouth friends go with them for a happy wedded life.

Members of Plymouth Hive, L. O. T. M., are invited to attend a meeting of Wayne Hive at Wayne, next Wednesday afternoon, February 2nd. In order to reach there in time, members must leave here on the 2:45 car. Supper will be served at six o'clock. In the evening, husbands and escorts of members are invited to attend a dancing party in Masonic hall. Bill, 76c.

PLYMOUTH WINS AT YPSILANTI

PLYMOUTH DEBATORS GET A TWO TO ONE DECISION OVER THE YPSILANTI TEAM.

Plymouth High school's third debate took place at Ypsilanti Normal High school auditorium, Saturday evening, January 22. The chairman for the evening was Prof. F. B. McKay of the department of expression, Michigan State Normal College. The affirmative or Ypsilanti team, which consisted of Florence Reid, Eloise Trimble and Edward Heyman, based their case entirely on the technical interpretation of the word, arbitration, instead of upon the principle of governmental endorsement of a no-strike law. The Ypsilanti team had pleasing personalities, and were extremely courteous. They failed to approach our team in delivery or in the scoring of points. The Ypsilanti team had for almost their only point, the technical interpretation of the question. Two of the speakers answered that technically in rebuttal. Nevertheless, on the basis of the "technicality in wording" the judges voted against us. The judges were Harold Hathaway of the oratory faculty of the University of Michigan; Prof. Holmes of the sociology department of the University of Michigan, and Principal Pralcken of Highland Park High school. The team was much inspired by the presence of forty Plymouth people in the audience. Those who heard the debate maintain that Lyman Judson never did so well in delivery before, and that Charles Chapel and Etha Wisley had both improved very much since the last debate.

After the debate Ypsilanti Normal High entertained the team at an informal party, at the end of which our team gave three rousing cheers for Ypsilanti, to which Ypsi responded. The next debate takes place at Ecorse, Friday evening, February 4.

"EVANGELINE" IN MOTION PICTURES

WILLIAM FOX LOVE EPIC FOR OPENING NIGHT OF MOTION PICTURE PROGRAMS IN METHODIST CHURCH.

The screen version of "Evangeline," Longfellow's well known heart poem, and considered by many the masterpiece of American literature, has been chosen for the opening night of the motion picture programs in the local Methodist church. This classic picture, produced by William Fox, who puts out one such picture each year, will be shown next Monday evening at seven o'clock. For this one picture, which costs three times as much as the ordinary film, an admission of twenty cents will be charged, fifteen cents for school students, but for most of the programs no admission will be asked, the expense being provided by an offering. One educational magazine says of this picture: "Evangeline," made by William Fox, will take rank as one of the best pictures produced in this country. Its appeal goes direct to the heart. "Evangeline" is in our opinion William Fox's masterpiece, and he has spent millions of dollars producing films." Another says: "It is truly a work of art in film, and every High school student ought to see it. It is poetry in motion, poetry in action. We want more pictures like it." About one hundred people witnessed the demonstration of the new "Zenith" safety projector at the Methodist church, last Monday evening, and at the close the picture committee unanimously decided on its purchase. The funds have been provided by the sale of the old machine and booth and voluntary subscription by those interested.

Claude Hanks, who was seriously injured when a D. U. R. car of which he was the motorman, left the track, when rounding a curve near Farmington, last Monday night, died Thursday morning of his injuries, in Harper hospital, Detroit. Mr. Hanks was married at Christmas time to Miss Hazel Fuller of Gady's Corners, who was the local agent of the D. U. R. at Plymouth for several months. Mrs. C. R. Carson taking her place.

BENEFIT MATINEE SATURDAY JAN. 29

PENNIMAN ALLEN THEATRE WILL GIVE BENEFIT MATINEE TOMORROW, AFTERNOON, SATURDAY, JANUARY 29TH, FOR THE STARVING CHILDREN OF EUROPE.

The motion picture industry of the United States has been asked by Herbert Hoover to save 250,000 starving children of Europe. The motion picture theatres of Michigan are co-operating in this great humanitarian work, and the Penniman Allen theatre of Plymouth, has arranged for a matinee to be given tomorrow, Saturday afternoon, at 2:00 o'clock. Every penny of the proceeds of this entertainment will go to the Hoover fund, which is being raised to save the lives of the starving children of Europe. Remember, ten dollars will save a life, and unless aid is rushed to these starving people, thousands of lives will be snuffed out before another harvest is garnered. The local theatre should be asked by the donors. "It is an opportunity for everybody to stretch out a helping hand to innocent sufferers in these stricken countries across the seas. Plymouth will do her bit there is not a doubt. The management of the local theatre have arranged for a most pleasing picture program, featuring William Russell in "Live Wire Hick" Admission, 10c. Make plans now to attend, Saturday afternoon, at two o'clock.

DEATH OF MRS. MAUDE HARPER

Mrs. Maude Harper, aged forty-six years, daughter of W. P. Holmes of this place, and sister of Mrs. Fred Williams and Mrs. Charles Tait also of Plymouth, died at the home of her brother, Ed. Holmes, at Ortonville, last Tuesday morning, January 25th. Mrs. Harper had been in failing health for the past two or three years, and was ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. Fred Williams, the greater part of last summer. In the fall she went to the home of her brother in Ortonville, where she has since resided. Her death was due to valvular heart trouble. The deceased is also survived by one other brother, Cecil Holmes, of Grand Rapids. The remains were brought to Plymouth, Tuesday, and the funeral will be held this (Friday) afternoon from the home of her sister, Mrs. Fred Williams, at two o'clock. Rev. H. E. Bayles, pastor of the Baptist church, will officiate. Burial at Salem. The family have the sympathy of many friends in their bereavement.

Mrs. Henry Genter and daughter, Elvora of Buffalo, New York, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Beyer and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Eberts, the first of the week.

IT TAKES NERVE

Scores of Plymouth people seem to realize that the chief source of income to the newspaper is its space. There is no hesitancy on the part of many in asking the editor to publish an item in his paper without charge, which is more of an advertisement than a piece of news. On the other hand, it is seldom customary to ask the merchant to give away one of the many articles on his shelf. Nobody thinks of walking into a store, pointing out something and saying, "Please give me that for nothing." Yet they go right around to the newspaper office with an article, they know will bring them in money, and they coolly and deliberately say to the editor, "Please give us space for this."

Should you ask the merchant for free goods you'd be refused, and, further, he'd accuse you of wanting something for nothing. And yet you will find many who can't see it in the same light when it comes to asking the newspaper man to give away his stock in trade—his space. The newspaper does more to advertise the community and forward public movements than any other institution. There is no question about that, and even people who do not take a paper and pay for it know something about the power of the press. Yet the newspaper is asked for more free things than is asked of any other institution. The duty of the paper is to conform to the needs, ideals and tastes of the community and to serve as a medium of information. It was never intended to be run in the interest of any business or any individual who hopes to get through the world on a something for nothing platform.

LAND VALUES

Among the residents of Plymouth community, who are always predicting calamity for the farming industry of this country, it has been the practice of late to lament the rapid rise in sale value of farm lands. The purpose seems to be to convey the impression that the farms are getting too expensive for the farmers to own. And yet, what other use could be made of the vast acre of tillable soil to be found all over this nation, we are at a loss to imagine.

But statistics produced by the Department of Agriculture through an investigation conducted in Iowa, arrive at the sober truth. The farmers are selling their lands at remarkably high prices, and in hundreds of instances are realizing handsomely on their investments made in pre-war times. But the buyers are farmers. The real estate dealer hardly figures in the transaction. Fewer than seven per cent of the buyers, and but a little over eleven per cent of the sellers were real state agents. From the fact, that of course, the greater number of sales thus credited may have been in the interests of farmers, it is seen that the element of pure speculation scarcely is to be considered. It is a great tribute to the profitability of the agricultural industry in the state of Iowa, that the average value of farm lands increased $121 per acre in the five years from 1915 to 1920. No other reason is assigned than the high price of farm products, and the promise of unusual profits. The same laws apply to farming as to all other industries—stocks go up when dividends increase.

PLYMOUTH WINS AND LOSES A GAME

GIRLS' BASKET BALL TEAM WINS FROM THE NORTHVILLE GIRLS WHILE THE BOYS' TEAM LOSES TO THE NORTHVILLE BOYS IN A CLOSE GAME.

The girls' basket ball team played the Northville girls' basket ball team, last Friday night. At the beginning of the game it looked as though it would be an easy one for the Plymouth girls, as at the end of the first half the score was 19 to 6, but in the second half the visitors put up a harder fight, and added 9 more points to their score, making the final score 27 to 15 in our favor. No substitutions were used during the game on the Plymouth team, while Northville used one of hers. Lenore Wright and Marion Kieley played forward; Edith Pierce and Merle Roe, centers; Bonnie Mueller and Wanda Shutta, guards; Baskets for Plymouth: Wright 6 and 3 free throws and Kieley 6. Baskets for Northville: Dodge 4 and 2 free throws; Balch 2 and 1 free throw.

In the boys' game defense was better than offense, on the part of both teams, and the first quarter was half over before either side scored. Walker got one from out of bounds that did not count, and Cook and Tait each followed with good ones. Stilwell counted for Northville, and the quarter ended 4-2. He tied the score to start the next quarter, but after Chapman got a free throw, Doudt scored a field goal, making it 6-5 for Plymouth. Here Northville tightened up, and through the rest of the half allowed only one more point, while Chapman scored twice for Northville, making it 9-7 in their favor.

The second half saw even less scoring. Hall led off with two points for Northville on a lucky shot from the middle of the floor, then Tait got a free throw and a field goal, bringing the score to 11-10. Then Chapman, after missing some easy ones, got a pretty one, and the visitors 3-point lead looked like a mountain. Here Wilcox replaced Doudt, who had been hurt, and Plymouth's defense in turn was stiffened, the game going for over five minutes without a goal from the field. Tait and Stilwell each got one from the foul line, and the quarter ended 14-11.

It was anybody's game in the fourth quarter, and when another from the foul line put the home team up to 12, the crowd were brought to their feet. With the quarter nearly up, Stevens was put in for Wilcox to take a long chance in the basket and to tie, but his eye was no better, and Buckley at last broke through with the final count of the game for Northville, making it 16-12.

Northville, in spite of poor basket shooting, deserved to win, as their speed and teamwork were far better than the home team's. Tait's foul shooting was the best yet seen on Plymouth's floor, and Walker's defensive work was excellent. Practice has been lighter for the Redford games this week, and Coaches Holcomb and Millard hope the comparative rest will put the team in their best shape for tonight's games.

The line-up follows:
Plymouth—R. F. Tait; L. F. Walker; C. Cook; R. G. Doudt; L. G. Miller.

Northville—R. F. Stilwell; L. F. Hall; C. Chapman; R. G. German; L. G. Buckley.

Goals—Cook, Doudt, Tait 2, Hall, Buckley Chapman 3, Stilwell 2.
Free throws—Tait 4 of 6; Chapman 1 of 2; Stilwell 1 of 4.

Substitutions—Wilcox for Doudt, Stevens for Wilcox, Freydl for Hall. Referee—Calder. Hamtramck.

WINTER GOOSE FEEDS OF MUCH IMPORTANCE

Oats Are Considered Superior to Corn for Grain.

Like Cows the Fowls Need Plenty of Fodder and They Will Eat Silage and Gather Considerable Food From Corn Fodder.

Oats are a better grain feed than corn for carrying the geese through the winter. Corn should be used sparingly as geese fatten easily and if the birds are overfat the eggs will show a low percentage of fertility.

Geese are much like cows in needing plenty of fodder. The clover chaff gathered from around the mangers is relished by geese. They will eat silage and gather considerable food from corn fodder. In fact, any good food that is suitable for dairy cows helps out in the winter ration of the flock. A flock of geese can stand much cold and they will often range on stormy days when it would be unsafe to allow the hens out. But at night a dry roosting place is needed that is free from draughts.

It pays to cull the geese in the fall and keep only the best for breeding stock. The money from geese seems to come from raising a large number while the grass is plentiful and their cashing in on the bulk of the flock before winter increases the work of caring for them. A small flock of breeders will annually produce a large flock of market geese if they are so managed that the eggs are strongly fertile and plenty of setting hens are available for brooding the first eggs.

In the winter the geese will be healthier if they are held in moderate flesh and not overfat. They cannot be neglected one day and then stuffed the next day if the best results are expected. Examine the birds every few weeks and note the condition of the body. Because of the heavy plumage it is sometimes difficult to tell the condition without handling.

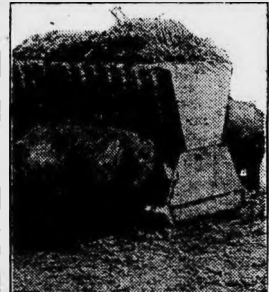

EXERCISE FOR SOWS OF BIG IMPORTANCE

Necessary to Use Good Judgment in Management.

Corn Alone is Very Poor Feed for Pregnant Animals Because It Lacks in Essential Protein and Mineral Matter.

E. F. Ferrin, in charge of swine production at University Farm, St. Paul, Minn., believes that good judgment in the care and handling of brood sows during the winter is as necessary as good feed in making a success with the pig crop.

"The cheapest grain for brood sows," he says, "is corn, but this feed alone is a very poor one for pregnant sows or gilts. Corn lacks in protein and mineral matter, each of which is essential if strong pigs are to be produced. Oats will supplement corn fairly well, and a ration of two-thirds corn and one-third oats is reasonably good. One of the best feeds to be used with corn is meat meal or tankage, the proportion of one part to nine or ten of corn. Alfalfa or clover hay is an excellent addition to the grain ration, and will reduce the cost of the winter's feed if used.

"Amounts of feed to be given can well be governed by the gains made by the sows. Yearling, or older sows, need not gain more than a half pound daily during pregnancy, unless they are very thin in the fall. Gilts have growth to make as well as litter to produce, and consequently should increase more in weight than mature sows; from one-half to three-fourths of a pound is a reasonable amount.

"Exercise is one of the important factors in producing strong pigs. When the snow is not too deep, it is a good plan to feed ear corn some distance from the house or shed so that the sows will have to exercise to get their feed. It is probable that exercise is a big factor in avoiding hairless pigs."

PROPER SIZE OF CONTAINERS

Dissatisfaction Caused by Use of Receptacles Not Sufficiently Strong Enough

Much dissatisfaction with direct marketing has been caused by using containers that were not sufficiently strong. That is especially true when containers are used more than once, says the United States Department of Agriculture. Shipping containers should be light in weight but sufficiently durable to carry the produce safely.

The proper size of a container depends upon the desires of the customers. Most persons wish to obtain small quantities of each product at a time. Containers should be just large enough for the produce shipped. If the carton is too large or too small, both the produce and the container are likely to be damaged, for the produce will not be kept in place, and the container will be crushed.

The larger the quantity of produce shipped in one parcel the lower will be the cost per pound for transportation, and the lower the container cost per pound.

PREPARE GARDEN SOIL EARLY

"Planting Over" May Be Necessary Sometimes, but Labor Is Always Well Rewarded.

An early beginning in preparing the land and planting gardens is of much importance. Regardless of the seasons, it is well to get an early start. That "planting over" may sometimes be necessary cannot be denied. But little is lost when garden land must be planted over, for the labor necessary to prepare the land is always well-employed. Much is lost if early maturing vegetables are planted too late. Get your garden land ready and plant on time.

BE CAREFUL WITH LANTERNS

Little Flickering Flame Has It In Its Power to Destroy Anything of Inflammable Character.

These are the days of lanterns in the barn night and morning. It is well to remember that this little, flickering flame has in it the power to destroy your home and all you have brought together in a lifetime. So never set it down in the barn, but hang it up securely. A wire running the length of the barn with a common harness snap on it, makes a safe holder. Better still, is an electric light system.

OFFICIAL PROCEEDINGS OF THE VILLAGE COMMISSION

Plymouth, Mich., Jan. 3, 1921

Regular meeting of the commission of the village of Plymouth, called to order by the president on the above date.

Present, Commissioners, Burrows, Daggett, Henderson, Robinson, Nays: Absent, Commissioner Goyer.

Minutes of the meeting of December 20th, were read and approved. The following resolution was offered by Commissioner Henderson, who moved its adoption, and supported by Commissioner Daggett.

RESOLVED, by the Commission of the Village of Plymouth, State of Michigan, that there shall be levied and collected upon all taxable property of the village, beginning with the year 1921, an annual tax sufficient to pay the principal and interest of the $75,000.00 Water Works Improvement Bonds, as authorized by the electors at the special election held on the 4th day of November, 1920. Such tax shall be assessed and collected in the same manner as other general village taxes. The proceeds of such tax shall be deposited by the village treasurer in a fund separate from all other moneys, which fund shall be designated the Water Works Improvement Bonds Sinking Fund. The moneys from such sinking funds shall be used only for the purpose of paying the principal and interest of said bonds. Provided, however, that if any year there shall be transferred from the Water Works Funds to the Water Works Improvement Bonds Sinking Fund from the earnings of the water works, a sufficient amount to meet the requirements of the above resolution, that it shall not be necessary for that year to levy the annual tax upon the taxable property of the village as above specified.

RESOLVED FURTHER, that by a majority vote of its members the village commission may at any time direct the investment of the moneys constituting such sinking fund in such manner as may be provided by law.

Ayes—Commissioners Burrows, Daggett, Henderson, Robinson, Nays: None. Carried.

Moved by Henderson, supported by Daggett, that as Mr. Frank Shattuck had accepted the village offer from compromise in the matter of payment for the use of the flats for the season of 1920, that the village clerk be authorized to send Mr. Shattuck a check for $75.00 in full payment for such use of the flats. Carried.

By petition of Mr. L. F. Vickery and others it was moved by Henderson, supported by Robinson, that the Detroit Edison Co. be ordered to place a light on the corner of Pine and Wing streets. Carried.

A plat of Nash's Plymouth Sub-division being submitted, was referred to the village manager for examination and report, on motion of Henderson, supported by Robinson.

Moved by Henderson, supported by Robinson, that the provisions of ordinance 44 as it effects the licenses of pool rooms in the village be enforced. Carried.

Moved by Henderson, supported by Daggett, that the following bills be allowed. Carried.

SURGERY NEEDED FOR TREES

Most Persons With Little Practice Can Undertake Ordinary Repair Work Necessary.

The best, safest and most economical plan to prevent future extensive injury and decay, or to prevent the early disfigurement or death of the tree, is to attend to all injuries as soon as they occur, say specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture. This kind of work is comparatively simple and inexpensive. Tree surgery has become an established industry in all cities, and it is often profitable to employ the services of those trained in this work, but most persons can, with a little preliminary practice on the simpler types of work, undertake ordinary tree repair provided they are familiar with the use of the gouge and mallet, a saw, and a paintbrush. A steady hand and ability to climb will be necessary for work in the top of a tree.

WINTER SAID TIME FOR FARM INVENTORY

WORK LIGHTER AND FEED SUPPLIES LOWER AT THIS SEASON—M. A. C. FURNISHES BLANKS.

The late winter is the best time of the year for taking farm inventories, the first of February, March or April, being given as exact dates, is the statement of H. M. Eliot, farm management specialist at the Michigan Agricultural College.

"The farmer's field work has not yet begun at this season," says Mr. Eliot, "and he has more time for inventory taking than at any other period. Another factor that makes it advisable to inventory at this time is the fact that feed and grain supplies are relatively low, making it easier to figure the supplies on hand. For these reasons I would advise February, March or April first as the date upon which to take the annual inventory."

The practice of checking all farm equipment by the inventory system is becoming more and more common in Michigan. In this way a farmer can find out not only the total value of his farm plant, but also the increase from year to year in the value of equipment, etc. Often much of a farmer's savings and profit go into added equipment, live stock or payments, and are not easily determined without a careful inventory each year.

Farm account books, containing complete inventory blanks, are distributed by the Farm Management Department at M. A. C., East Lansing, at cost, which is forty-five cents a copy.

PROPER RECORDS WILL AID FARMERS

Both Happenings and Money Affairs Should Be Carefully Kept During Year.

SIMPLE SYSTEM IS FAVORED

Accurately Kept Accounts and Intelligently Utilized Are of Great Assistance in Showing Where Money Can Be Made.

Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture. In order to know what progress is being made in farm operations and to determine what crops or branches of farming are producing the greatest profits, it is necessary for the farmer to keep a system of accounts, say specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture. The practice will not of itself turn a poor farm into a rich one, a poor farmer into a good one, or losses into profits, but farm records, if accurately kept and intelligently utilized, are an aid to a better understanding and insight into the farming business.

The keeping of accounts need not take a great amount of time nor is it necessary to use an elaborate system.

Two Kinds Advisable. Farm records may be roughly divided into two heads—records of happenings and records of money transactions. The former proves useful when memory fails. Among the happenings that should be recorded are the dates when animals are bred, men hired or discharged, accidents occur, pasture season begins and ends, first and last frosts occur, incubators are set, spring work begins and fall work ends, seed time and harvest occur, etc. Such notes as these, when systematically recorded and constantly referred to, are of much value.

The most important use many farmers make of the records of cash received and paid out is as a means of checking up bills when sent in to see whether all payments have been duly credited. While this alone is only a small part of the value which can be derived from such records, it will frequently justify the time required to keep them.

When the year's record is made the cash account can be assembled under headings that will show exactly what each branch of the farm activities returned in cash and what each required to keep it going. Some farmers are apt to judge the importance of the

It Pays to Keep a Farm Inventory. Various farm projects by the time required to put them through. To such a complete cash record for a year, properly assembled, will be an eye opener. Often seemingly unimportant things, such as the stock of poultry or the orchard, produce nearly as much net cash as the obviously important.

At some regular time each year—usually about the first of the calendar year—a farm inventory should be made. In any system of accounting the inventory is absolutely essential, as upon it is based the division of one year's business from another. The inventory is simply a list of farm property and farm debts, and corresponds to the "stock taking" which every merchant does periodically.

An Aid to Credit. Taken alone, the inventory will show a farmer the exact net value of his property, and will be a guaranty of solvency and an aid in securing credits and loans from the bank in time of need. The inventories of two dates, a year apart, show whether progress or retrogression has occurred during the year and definitely measure the degree of change.

Taken in conjunction with a cash account for the year, the inventory shows how much has been made by farming and to what extent the personal and household expenses have offset profits. It also gives a much better insight into the income produced by each farm department, as a decrease in inventory value of hogs, for instance, may offset to some extent what from the cash account looks like a very large income from that source.

Many small-scale hog raisers and a few who raise hogs on a large scale do not vaccinate. A few general rules must be observed by such stock raisers or cholera will get into their herd.

NEWBURG

There were thirty in attendance at the Men's Bible Class meeting and social time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ryder, last Friday evening. Rev. Raycraft and wife were present. The men served the refreshments. A short program with humorous stories and a talk setting forth their aim in organizing a men's class by the pastor and readings by the hostess and Mrs. Smith. Miss Ada Youngs played the guitar. They will meet again next month.

There was quite a delegation of ladies from Newburg who attended the W. C. T. U. meeting at the home of Mrs. E. Woods in Plymouth, last week Thursday. All report a fine time.

Mrs. I. Gunsolly, who has been quite sick the past week with quinsy, is better at this writing.

Charles Duryee has been under the doctor's care this week.

There was a large attendance at church last Sunday. After Sunday-school, Rev. Raycraft asked everyone that was interested in an Epworth League to remain. Quite a number responded, with the result that Harold Cochran was elected president and Beulah Ryder, secretary pro tem. It was decided to meet and organize an Epworth League, Wednesday evening in the church class room. A church choir is also to be organized, meeting to be held at Mr. Cochran's, Thursday evening.

Mrs. Frank Brown and Mrs. Albert Stevens and Mr. and Mrs. Meeker of Plymouth, attended church, at Newburg, Sunday.

Mrs. George Henry of South Lyon, who has been in Harper hospital recently, spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. John Thompson.

TONQUISH

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Otis Rowe, January 21, a girl. Everyone in the family wears a smile. Grandpa Rowe's can be heard a half a mile.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kerl of Plymouth spent Sunday at George Warner's.

Friends of Lieut. Russell A. Warner will be interested to know that he has returned to Schenectady, N. Y., after five years sojourn in Washington, D. C. (with the exception of time spent in Uncle Sam's service.)

While in Washington he was employed in the Patent department of the General Electric Co., and also attended law school. He now has a position as assistant patent attorney for the G. E. company, at their main office and his family are located at the Fosces at Schenectady. At present he is in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Reid of Detroit, motored out to Otis Rowe's Saturday. Mrs. Reid is staying to help her aunt, Mrs. Rowe for a short time.

Baptist Notes

The pastor spoke on Sunday morning from the text in Rom. 2:15, "Conscience," comparing it to a seismograph, and as this instrument registers every earthquake, so the conscience calls attention at once to anything in our lives whether good or bad that has to be settled, and helps us to say yes at the right time or no as it may require. Conscience—First, A safe guide if obeyed always; second, It may become seared; 3rd, It may be educated; 4th, If not thoughtful of our friends, who have a weak conscience it will wound them. 1 Cor. 8:12.

In the evening the pastor spoke on excuses. The young people's choir gave some good music.

A goodly number of young people met at six o'clock, last Sunday night to discuss the subject of a young people's society. They meet again next Sunday evening to perfect the organization.

Quite a number of our people, who have been away from church on account of sickness for some weeks, came for the first time on Sunday—the Swegle family and Sewell Bennett.

The pastor's Sunday-school class met for their first class social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sewell Ekman, Friday evening. It is expected every member will be there. The young people's class report a very nice time at their social, last Saturday evening in the church parlor.

Presbyterian Notes

Rev. H. R. Chapman, student pastor of the Baptist church of Ann Arbor, gave an inspiring address on, "Religious Education," last Monday night, before the members of the Ready Service class. A business session and social hour was also held during which the Misses Hall furnished music, vocal and instrumental, and Mrs. Humphries, Virginia Giles and Mrs. L. Hillmer gave readings, light refreshments were served, and about forty enjoyed the good time.

Over a hundred came last Sunday night to hear Messrs. Lu and Shen, Chinese students of Ann Arbor, who addressed the young people at the Christian Endeavor meeting and at the evening service of the church. These young men are being educated by the Chinese government, and will without question, become leaders among their people. It is worth while to hear these intelligent, refined and well educated members of foreign races, which the Christian Endeavor society is bringing from time to time to Plymouth. It is in such ways that a world consciousness is created appropriate to a Christian people.

Rev. H. R. Chapman returned to Ann Arbor, Tuesday morning. Rev. and Mrs. S. Conger Hathaway and George A. Smith accompanied him, the latter having business at the University.

A committee consisting of the pastors and two laymen from each of the following churches: Baptist, Episcopal, Methodist and Presbyterian, met at the pastor's study in the Presbyterian church, last Tuesday night, to consider plans for holding a community banquet some time next month. The committee will meet again next Tuesday night.

Howell won the debate against Flushing last Friday night. The judges were from Ann Arbor, Fowlerville and Plymouth, and were unanimous in their decision.

Rev. and Mrs. S. Conger Hathaway and family were entertained at a six o'clock dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gardiner, Wednesday. The Christian Endeavor topic cards have arrived, and are being distributed.

Today's Reflections

We have also noticed that some advocates of home industries are not always as industrious when at home as they should be.

Still another pretty good way for a fellow to keep himself broke is to try to live up to the reputation of a "good fellow."

Many a Plymouth man who professes to be sharp knows that a "cut-in" remark does not pay.

One Arkansas town has a stone pile for prisoners right out on the street. That's about the only way to put a profiteer on the "square."

As one Plymouth citizen said yesterday, the danger of kissing lies not so much in contracting disease as in contracting a lawsuit.

The worst part of making a mistake is to have to listen to your wife remind you that she advised you not to do what you did.

Kentucky farmers threaten not to raise tobacco next year, but that won't have any effect on cigarettes.

When you pick up a paper and see where two women are claiming to be the "widow," you can bet the deceased didn't die bankrupt.

The average Plymouth man doesn't feel that he gets value received when he gives to charity, unless someone comes along and pats him on the back.

An eastern man has invented a new kind of pitchfork. The nice thing about it is it won't leave the farm when wages go up in town.

You have probably noticed that chronic kickers soon develop a whine that won't wear off.

Once in a while a Plymouth boy gets punished for imprudence, but most times it is because his mother has a headache.

One-man government will never be popular in America, except among married women.

Pontiac Masons have plans laid for a half-million dollar temple to be erected the coming year.

The Milford Masonic Lodge observed the fiftieth anniversary of its organization, last Tuesday evening. None remain of the eleven original members who constituted the first corps of officers.

For a Persistent Cough
Some years ago H. P. Burbage, a student at law in Greenville, S. C., had been troubled for a long while with a persistent cough, which he says, "truly alarmed me, causing me to fear that I was in the first stage of consumption." Having seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised, he concluded to try it. "I soon felt a remarkable change, and after using four bottles of the small size was permanently cured."—Adv.

STAGE SET FOR BIG FARM MEETINGS

EXPECT 5,000 AT ANNUAL M. A. C. GATHERING JANUARY 31 TO FEBRUARY 4—WOMEN HAVE SPECIAL PROGRAM.

With exhibits rapidly assuming final form and speakers definitely scheduled for all meetings, the finishing touches of preparation for Farmers' Week at M. A. C., are being taken care of at East Lansing. Nearly 5,000 farmers are expected to gather for the annual congress this year, if weather conditions are at all favorable, and plans are being made to accommodate a crowd of this size.

The greatest list of speakers ever assembled for a Michigan farm gathering, is the claim being made for the general program by the college committee in charge of arrangements for the week. A. F. Lever, member Federal Farm Loan Board; Dean Eugene Davenport, of Illinois University; Gov. W. L. Harding of Iowa; S. S. McClure, founder of McClure's Magazine; Pres. M. L. Burton of the U. of M.; Miss Alma Binzel, vice president of the International Kindergarten Union; and many other famous speakers will address the various meetings.

Last minute additions bring the list of special state agricultural association meetings and conferences up to sixteen, the greatest number ever gotten together at one time in the state. The Farm Bureau, the Michigan Horticultural society, the Michigan Crop Improvement Association, the Agricultural Section of the Michigan Bankers' Association, the Michigan Sugar Beet Growers' Association, state associations of poultry, potato, and muck farm men, and conferences on wood lot conservation, country life, and county agent work are prominent among the special groups holding their own meetings.

Special meetings for women are to be held at the Woman's Building all during the week, and hundreds of state housewives will be on hand for the annual Housewives' Congress.

Methodist Matters

The missionary supper at the Methodist church, last Friday evening, was a most delightful affair enjoyed by about sixty people. Miss Bertha Creek, a returned missionary from China, was the honor guest and gave a thoroughly interesting address to those present. New interest was awakened by the gathering, and several new members added to the Woman's Foreign Missionary society.

Rev. Frank M. Field has been preaching in revival meetings at Walled Lake, Thursday and Friday evenings this week. The Methodist and Baptist churches have been cooperating in the meetings, which have continued for two weeks.

Two bars on the Fred Geers farm near Farmington Junction were destroyed by fire early last week Thursday morning.

THE THEATRE

Mother Goose has gotten into the movies. Do you recall the verse: "Needles and pins, needles and pins, When a man marries his troubles begins."

Edgar Franklin, the humorist, so well known to magazine readers, took up the theme where the verse ends and wrote, "Don't Ever Marry." Marshall Neilan took Mr. Franklin's story and transferred all of the absorbing interest into a motion picture production under the same title. "Don't Ever Marry" will be the attraction at the Pennington Allen Theatre, Saturday evening, January 29.

Lenore J. Coffey, author of "The Forbidden Woman," which is soon to show here as the second Equity vehicle with Clara Kimball Young as the star, was formerly a newspaper woman at San Francisco, and before writing her famous book or becoming interested in film doings wrote an interview with Miss Youngs, which so attracted the star that Miss Coffey was immediately signed up to a long contract to write exclusively for the Garson Studios. Miss Young will be seen in "The Forbidden Woman" at the Pennington Allen theatre on Tuesday evening, February 1.

Life on a dilapidated shanty boat along the banks of the Mississippi River, and the adventures of its humble owner, is the unique theme used by Ellis Parker Butler in his story of "The Jack-Knife Man," the latest picture to be released by King Vidor through the First National Exhibitors Circuit. This delightful little tale of the love for fellow man is announced by the Pennington Allen as its attraction for Thursday evening, February 3. In "The Jack-Knife Man," Mr. Butler, who has been accorded the best humorist since Mark Twain, has given us a locale little known to the great body of Americans. And he has drawn all of his characters in the picture from real life, which adds greatly to their attractiveness.

ELM

Mrs. Mott and Alice.

GRANGE NOTES

Wayne County Pomona Grange held a very interesting meeting in the Grange hall, Saturday, January 22, with a good attendance. The afternoon session was an open meeting, the officers being installed by Rev. Blake of Romulus, assisted by his wife. A piano solo, beautifully rendered by Blanche Hutton, opened the lecturer's program.

Mrs. Brotherton of Detroit, gave an inspiring and instructive talk on the aim of the League of Women Voters, as to aid women to vote intelligently, not striving for new laws, but patching up the old ones to meet the present conditions, and aid in their enforcement; the law governing the age of consent to be considered and the term common law marriage done away with entirely; bills concerning illegitimacy, mothers' pension, parents to act jointly as guardians, also the Shepherd Turner bill were explained.

N. I. Moore delivered an interesting talk on "Present Legislation," and explained the bill for home rule for cities as a proposition to be voted down, and the retention of the state police as a vital question to all law-abiding citizens. Whereupon the Wayne County Pomona Grange took action favoring the retention of the state police.

The regular meeting of the Plymouth Grange will be held Thursday, February 3rd, at 1:00 p. m. The State Grange report, deferred on account of Pomona, is expected at this meeting.

WATER RATES

The water tax for the first half of 1921 is now due, and should be paid to Mr. Richwine, village treasurer. Bring with you the statement which has been mailed to you.

It Is Easy To Imitate Names

The public is constantly being swindled by imitations, counterfeiters and substitutes that resemble in name and appearance Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. It is because the original is so good, so reliable and so well known that these frauds find sale.

Always Has It In His Home
T. J. McCall, Athens, Ga., writes: "We have used Foley's Honey and Tar in our home for several years and find it almost invaluable for colds and coughs, and especially for croup for our children. We are never without it and cannot too highly recommend it for the cough, cold, or croup for either grown-up people or children."

Foley's Honey and Tar Compound
IS PLEASANT TO TAKE, and soothes the raw, inflamed surfaces; stops the rasping, straggling feeling in the throat. It is made of the purest, freshest and finest ingredients to be had, contains no opiates or other harmful drugs, and costs twice as much to make as any imitation of it.

For more than thirty years Foley's Honey and Tar has been used with satisfaction and success. Sold Everywhere in Plymouth

W. C. T. U.

The meeting held on January 20th with Mrs. W. LeVan as hostess, was an unusually pleasant meeting. The Newburg ladies were in charge of the program and gave a pleasing entertainment.

The next meeting will be on Feb. 3, at the home of Mrs. William Tait on North Harvey street. Come and bring your friends. Maybe they will join us—who knows?

Both services will be at the residence of David Birch, 592 South Mill street. Other meetings of the week as usual. Welcome.

THE UNITED GUN CLUB

Ten nimrods lined up at the United Gun Club traps, Sunday. A stiff, 60-mile wind tore across the shooting grounds and many zeros were chalked up on the score sheets. In the second event, Harry Passage of Plymouth, turned in the first and only perfect score. Bill Cavers of Detroit, noted rifle and pitol expert proved his ability as an all around shot by smashing 45 out of 50 and winning high average in the chief event. Frank Hills followed closely with a score of 42. Vallaux and Evans of Detroit, two newcomers in the game, made a creditable showing. The next shoot will be held Sunday, January 30.

Following was the score:
H. Hall 38 out of 50
C. Merritt 40 out of 50
F. Hills 42 out of 50
H. Passage 42 out of 50
A. Evans 35 out of 50
W. Cavers 45 out of 50
R. Vallaux 21 out of 50
W. Murray 31 out of 50
C. Rathburn 38 out of 50
F. G. Hall, Secy.

"THAT GRAND AND GLORIOUS FEELING"
Members of the P. H. S. Alumni Association will be joyful when they know that the old debt is no more. Now for the future, which has so many possibilities. It will be forty years in June since Plymouth High had its first class. The seven members are alive, also Superintendent Grawn; principal, Mrs. Ella Chaffee; two teachers, Miss Smith and Miss Enticane. They must be our honored guests this June.

A five-dollar check and a letter just came from Paul W. Voorhies. He says, "I note that you are planning for an exceptionally fine reunion June next. Allow me to suggest that inasmuch as I understand Miss Smith is to stop teaching in Plymouth at the end of this school year, it would be a fine thing to make the June reunion in her special honor. I am sure that if all her old pupils were asked to come back for such an occasion, that there would not be many who would not make it a point to be there."

We agree. Then, too, those veteran teachers quit too modestly, and also that first class have waited forty years for their "chance." We owe so much to them, and their memories will be worth hearing. Then, too, the thirty-year, twenty-year and ten-year responses will have their thrills. Several of the new "class" have parents who are alumni; they will be proud to talk. Every member has some good suggestion to contribute, and can be the means of persuading distant members to "come home" this June. Invite them now, and tell them what a fine school and town we have. Let's coax the High school orchestra to begin preparing music to surprise and welcome them. The Warrens sent a check from Washington, yet a few forgot to pay dues. This is our opportunity. Co-operation must be the key-note. Will you find out at once where your old classmates are and notify

SCHOOL NOTES

In assembly during the past three weeks, the Junior and Senior High school people have been doing some splendid group singing. Singing of this sort will be continued through the remainder of the year, using old well-known songs, together with some rollicking college songs. The need of old songs, which may be used in community singing at any time, is keenly felt by us all, and we hope that more of that sort of thing can be done in the future. We feel that it can be brought about best by first introducing it into the school.

The report cards for the High school will be out Wednesday, Feb. 2nd. This date marks the end of the first semester, and parents should be sure to study the school reports presented to them for the first half year's work. Your assistance and co-operation is asked for that the utmost possible may be done for the pupils.

Team No. 3 of the fifth grade and team No. 4 of the sixth grade played soccer, Monday morning at their usual time for physical training. The score was 1-0 in favor of Team No. 4.

During the past week the girls of Junior and Senior High have been playing newcomb in their physical training class. Newcomb is played with the basket ball, and is a very lively and interesting game.

LEGAL NOTICE

No. 82731
STATE OF MICHIGAN—The Circuit Court for the County of Wayne, in Chancery.

In the Matter of the Petition of Julius A. Harmon for Leave to Sell Real Estate.

At a session of said Court held at the Court House in the City of Detroit, in said County, on the seventeenth day of January, 1921.

Present, The Honorable Clyde I. Webster, Circuit Judge.

The petition of Julius A. Harmon representing, among other things, that he has a life estate in certain lands, tenements and hereditaments, in the Township of Canton, Wayne County, Michigan, known and described as the east half of the southeast quarter of the northeast quarter of Section Nine, Town Two South of Range Eight East, Michigan, containing twenty acres, more or less and said petitioner therein praying that the said premises be sold and the proceeds of said sale be held in trust therefor under the order of the court and thereafter treated as real property and subject to the same disposition as would have been made of said property had the same not been sold, having been filed in this court, and it satisfactorily appearing to this court that it is for the best interest of all persons interested in said premises that the prayer of said petitioner be granted, on motion of John S. Dayton, attorney for petitioner, it is ordered that all persons interested in said property do appear before this court on the third day of March, 1921, at the opening of court on said day and show cause, if any exist why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted.

It is further ordered that a copy of this order shall be published once each week for three successive weeks preceding the third day of March, 1921, in the Plymouth Mail a newspaper printed and circulated in Wayne County, Michigan, that being the county in which the petition is filed and where said property is situated, and that a copy of this order be served on Lee R. Harmon, Paul K. Harmon, John G. Harmon and Eliza R. Harmon, persons interested in said premises.

CLYDE I. WEBSTER, Circuit Judge.

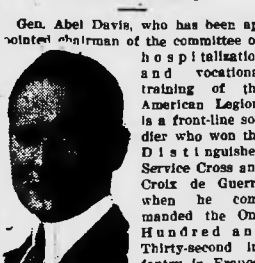

Countersigned:
O. Binzham, Deputy Clerk.

John S. Dayton, Attorney for Petitioner. Business Address, Plymouth, Michigan.

DAVIS FACES IMPORTANT JOB

Prominent Illinois Legion Man Heads Committee on Hospitalization and Vocational Training.

Gen. Abel Davis, who has been appointed chairman of the committee on hospitalization and vocational training of the American Legion, is a front-line soldier who won the Distinguished Service Cross and Croix de Guerre when he commanded the One Hundred and Thirty-second Infantry in France.

General Davis was born in Chicago and received his education in Chicago schools. He attended Northwestern university, and served as a member of the Illinois legislature and also held the position of recorder of deeds of Cook county, Illinois. He is now vice president and trust officer of the Chicago Title and Trust company.

The military career of General Davis dates back to 1897, when he enlisted in the Illinois National Guard. He served as a private in the Spanish-American war and remained in the army afterwards. He attained the rank of major, and served for some time on the Mexican border. After a short period at Camp Logan with the One Hundred and Thirty-first Infantry, he was promoted to colonel and given command of the One Hundred and Thirty-second Infantry, which participated in a number of major offensives in France. He has received the rank of brigadier general in the Illinois National Guard.

PEOPLE FAVOR BONUS BILLS

New York, New Jersey, Washington and South Dakota Sanction the Proposition.

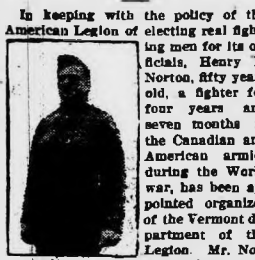

The passage of soldier bonus bills in New York, New Jersey, Washington and South Dakota by overwhelming majorities at the November elections is unquestionable proof of the public recognition of veterans' claims, is the opinion advanced in an editorial which appeared recently in the American Legion Weekly.

"One-fourth of the five million men who served in the army and navy live in states which have shown their sense of justice by awarding compensation," the writer says. "Three-fourths of the veterans of the World War live in thirty-six states which have not faced the issue—in most of them because there have been no recent sessions of state legislatures."

"The United States senate will soon pass on the question of national compensation for World War veterans. Facing them squarely is the Fordney bill, adopted by the lower house. This bill will meet every test of justice. It is in accord with the sentiment of the people of the country as attested by the state bonus elections. Its passage by the senate will mark the fulfillment of a national obligation. The state bonuses are the expressions of a desire by the people to give a square deal. They do not lessen in any degree the federal responsibility, which cannot be avoided on the plea of state generosity."

NORTON IS NAMED ORGANIZER

World War Fighter Appointed Organizer of the Vermont Department of the Legion.

In keeping with the policy of the American Legion of electing real fighting men for its officials, Henry L. Norton, fifty years old, a fighter for four years and seven months in the Canadian and American armies during the World War, has been appointed organizer of the Vermont department of the Legion. Mr. Norton enlisted in the Canadian engineers in 1914, and served with them in France until 1917, when he received a commission in the American army. He served with the Three Hundred and Seventy-second Infantry, attached to the One Hundred and Fifty-seventh French brigade from its arrival in France March 13, 1918, until he was discharged in February, 1919.

FIVE BILLS UP TO CONGRESS

Legion Legislative Committee is Pressing Passage of Measures Important to World War Men.

Five bills are being pressed by the legislative committee of the American Legion at the present session of congress. Foremost among those in public interest is the Fordney bill, that provides adjusted compensation for all ex-service men, but more important in the eyes of Legion men are the Watson bill, the Rogers bill, the Stevenson bill and a sundry appropriation bill allowing $10,000,000 for hospital construction.

The Fordney, or "bonus" bill, passed the house in the last days of the last session of the Sixty-sixth congress. It then was referred to the senate finance committee, of which Senator Boies Penrose of Pennsylvania is chairman. Assurances were given that early hearings would be held on the bill.

The Fordney bill, as it stands now, provides a cash payment for all veterans up to and including the grade of captain, of one dollar a day for each day of home service, and $1.25 a day for foreign service, with a limit of $500 and $625, respectively. Or, the option of the same amount, plus 40 per cent if taken in the form of government certificates, assistance in the purchase of a home or farm or vocational training.

The Fordney bill, however, will be subordinated to the other four pet Legion measures, all of which aim at the improvement of the condition of the disabled. In this the legislative committee is following the mandate of the second national Legion convention, which went on record that "matters for the benefit of the sick and disabled are of first importance and are to be given preference over all other legislation affecting the welfare of the service men."

The Watson bill provides for 14 regional branches of the bureau of war risk insurance, as many sub-offices as may be necessary, and would make it possible for ex-service men to pay government insurance premiums at any post office. It relieves from the payment of premiums disabled men in hospitals or taking vocational training and men temporarily disabled. It extends the time in which ex-service men may apply for hospitalization. It is a bill that would improve the efficiency of the war risk bureau and would give justice to the disabled. The Watson bill passed the house unanimously at the last session. It then was referred to a sub-committee of the senate finance committee.

The Rogers bill represents the efforts of the American Legion to obtain cooperation between the bureau functioning for the benefit of disabled ex-service men. It provides for the transfer of the rehabilitation section of the federal board of vocational training and of the public health service to the jurisdiction of the war risk bureau. The plan is to have all the bureaus under one directing and responsible head, preferably a new cabinet officer.

The Stevenson bill would establish the same privilege of retirement for disabled officers of the emergency forces as is now enjoyed by officers of the regular army, a privilege already accorded by congress to emergency officers of the navy.

WELL KNOWN TO LEGION MEN

Gilbert Bettman, Chairman of the National Legislative Committee of the American Legion.

Gilbert Bettman, who was recently appointed chairman of the national legislative committee of the American Legion, is well known to many Legion members because he helped to draft the four-fold optional plan of adjusted compensation and, with James G. Scrugham, new assistant vice commander, presented it before the ways and means committee of the house of representatives.

Mr. Bettman was graduated from Harvard college and the Harvard law school with three degrees, and practiced law in Cincinnati until a short time after the outbreak of the war.

Appointed as assistant to the director of the bureau of war risk insurance, Mr. Bettman served in that capacity until the German offensive of March 21, when he was commissioned captain in the military intelligence division of the general staff.

Mr. Bettman attended the St. Louis caucus of the American Legion and the Minneapolis and Cleveland conventions. He has served as chairman of the war risk committee and as a member of the national beneficial legislative committee.

General Sherman Staff. It was a perfect French night. In other words, the rain was coming down steadily and the mud was at its stickiest. In "squad" formation—two, three, five and sixes—a regiment of Buffaloes was moving into an alleged rest camp. The accent was on the camp.

The most forlorn of all the forlorn crew staggered against a barracks doorway where he was accosted by a white non-com.

"Well, Sam, whaddya think of this war now? Pretty good war?"

"Boss, dis yeah war bever was a good war—and dis last day practically done ruined it completely."—American Legion Weekly.

WEST PLYMOUTH

John Wells of Detroit, was a weekend visitor of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wells. George Cook, Mr. and Mrs. John Schoeb and children of Detroit, were guests of Mrs. Schoeb's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Rice and family. Miss Gertrude Widmaier, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Widmaier and Richard Durling were married in Detroit the fifteenth of this month. They will reside in Detroit. Miss Marion Butler was a weekend guest of Miss Lillian Lundy in Plymouth. Saturday they attended the Plymouth-Ypsilanti debate at Ypsilanti.

SOUTH FREE CHURCH

The L. A. S. met Thursday with Mrs. E. L. Strang, with a good crowd out. Proceeds, $28.00. The lecture at the church, Friday evening, was well worth the large attendance, the church being well filled. The L. A. S. will hold their next meeting on February 10th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clark. Everybody welcome. Kurry Miller of Caro, was calling upon "old Superior" friends living in Ypsilanti Tuesday. He is about 80 years old, and smart for his age. Mr. and Mrs. John Forshee of Ypsilanti; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Forshee and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Humm of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Philo Galpin of Ann Arbor, were dinner guests, Tuesday, of Miss Lizzie Dunn in Ann Arbor. Mr. and Mrs. Perry Townsend of Dixboro, have rented their farm, and will move to Ypsilanti in the near future. Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Lyke were Sunday visitors at the home of their son, Ralph, in Ypsilanti. Robert Clark was a Detroit shopper Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Stuart and Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Partridge of Plymouth, were Ypsilanti shoppers, last week. Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Geer attended the L. A. S. at Mrs. Strang's, Thursday. Glad to have the old neighbors from Ypsilanti present. Isaac Lafurge, who recently died at Bayer hospital in Ypsilanti, was well known to Free Church people.

FARMERETTE MAKES RECORD IN TRIP UP MONTANA MOUNTAIN

MISS ELLEN BERNHARDT, who is shown in the photograph at work on the May-Gallivan ranch at Helena, Montana, is probably one of the busiest farmer girls in America. She takes part in practically every phase of the work on the big ranch, and has time besides to participate in various kinds of farm contests. Recently she made herself famous throughout the middle west by driving the heavy tractor shown, on a trip up Mt. Helena, 5,642 feet, and back in three hours and four minutes without any kind of a trail to follow. This was the first time that such a trip had been made by tractor. On reaching level ground again, Miss Bernhardt took part in a plowing demonstration without stopping to make adjustments to her tractor, or even to powder her own nose. The insert photograph is that of E. E. Whaley, the manager of the sixth National Tractor Show, to which Miss Bernhardt and a big group of Montana farmers are expected to come. The exposition will be at Columbus, O. Feb. 7 to 12, and it is estimated that over a million dollars' worth of power farming machinery and accessories will be exhibited, and that every problem of the farmer to-day will be discussed in the splendid educational program arranged for the daily meetings.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bider and Mrs. George Roberts and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. George Foreman spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. David Duke of South Lyon. Newton Smith was a Detroit visitor, Monday. Mrs. Erwin of Northville, spent Thursday with her daughter, Mrs. Charles McLaren. Little Sammy Wheeler came home with his grandmother, Mrs. Mary Wheeler, Sunday and stayed until Tuesday when his mother, Mrs. C. L. Wheeler came after him. Herschel Munn, F. J. Whitaker and son, Clyde, were Detroit visitors, Monday. Mrs. Charles McLaren visited Mrs. W. Hastings of South Lyon, Friday. Mr. Stalker was in town, Wednesday. George Roberts and wife were in Northville, Monday. John VanSickle of Ionia, has moved into the Bert Stanbro house. Coe Bennett was in Ann Arbor, Tuesday.

FREE CHURCH

The Missionary society of Free and Dixboro churches will hold an all-day meeting next Thursday, February 2nd, at the home of Mrs. Charles Root. Baptist Sunday-School Notes Mrs. Say's class entertained Mr. Allenbaugh's class, Thursday evening, at 7:00 p. m., in the church parlor. Teachers' meeting was started Wednesday evening at the church. We were all pleased to welcome the Swegles family back, after their long quarantine. We hope those at Sunday-school last Sunday will not forget that they promised to raise the attendance eleven for next Sunday.

CITY MAIL CARRIER SERVICE EXTENDED

POSTMASTER M. G. HILL SECURES ADDITIONAL TERRITORY TO BE SERVED BY CITY MAIL CARRIERS.

Through the efforts of Postmaster M. G. Hill there is to be an extension of service, beginning February 1st, on city carrier routes, if all the requirements, such as houses being numbered and proper receptacles provided for receiving mail are complied with by the patrons to be served. The following described territory will be included in the extension of mail service:

Route No. 2 Fair street, south side only, two blocks, 6 residences. Fairground avenue, west side only, one block, 5 residences. Adams street, east side to Farmer street, and both sides north of Farmer street, 1 1/2 blocks, 5 residences. Harvey street, north of Farmer street, both sides, 1 block, 4 residences. Blunk avenue, east side only, 1/4 block, 2 residences. Williams street, Blunk avenue to Arthur avenue, 2 blocks, 5 residences. Lincoln avenue, east side only, 1 block, 2 residences. Sheridan avenue, both sides, Lincoln avenue to second house west of Garfield avenue, 1 1/2 blocks, 12 residences. Mill street, from present delivery limits to Lee Foundry, about 1/4 block, west side only, 4 residences.

Route No. 1 Amelia street, west side only, from Rose street to bend in street, 1 block, 6 residences. Rose street, from Amelia street to bend in street, 1 block, 5 residences. Patrons desiring any further information regarding this matter can apply to Postmaster Hill, who will be glad to furnish the same. It is need- less to say that the patrons of this local office, who have not heretofore received their mail by carrier, will be much pleased with Postmaster Hill's efforts in securing this additional service. Beginning February 1st, special delivery mail will be delivered without receipts, and will be left in regular mail receptacles, when personal delivery cannot be effected at the same time emphasizing the fact that the special delivery system is designed to expedite and not to safeguard mail, and that the registry system is provided to insure safety, and that mail containing currency or other articles of value should invariably be registered.

JOHNSON-HUSTON

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Huston in Canton, last Wednesday afternoon, January 26th, when their eldest daughter, Iva, was united in marriage to Lee H. Johnson of Detroit. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Victor Brown, pastor of the Congregational church of Wayne, in the presence of only the immediate families, the beautiful ring service being used. Late in the afternoon the happy couple left for a few days' trip to Cleveland and other eastern points. The bride is a graduate of the Plymouth High school, being a member of the 1819 class, and also spent one year at Cleary's business college in Ypsilanti. For the past few months she has held a position in the office of the general manager of the Crowley Miner Co., resigning that position at the time of her marriage. The groom is buyer for the Edward J. Hickey Co., Detroit and after February 1st, they will be at home to their friends in that city. Plymouth friends extend best wishes for happiness and prosperity.

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Hoffis, William Lombard, Miss Vera W. Black and Olive Reame, of Detroit, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Keke, and attended the recital here, Wednesday evening.

A MOST PLEASING RECITAL

The recital given by Barbara Bake, assisted by Miss Lucile Lincoln of Detroit, in the Penniman Allen theatre, last Wednesday evening, was attended by an interested and appreciative company of friends, about four hundred in number. Having committed her five solo selections, Miss Barbara, who is only twenty-two years of age, played the several selections with the dignity and ease of a much older person, reflecting great credit upon herself and upon her teacher, Miss Czarina Penney. The opening and closing numbers on the program were piano duets played by Miss Barbara and Miss Penney. Miss Lincoln sang several selections during the evening and was repeatedly encored. She is not a stranger to Plymouth, and as usual charmed her hearers with her pleasing voice.

STIMPSON-MEYERS

George Stimpson of this place, and Mrs. Abi Meyers of Northville, were lately married in Detroit, Wednesday afternoon, January 26th, by the pastor of the Woodward Avenue Presbyterian church of that city. The groom is in the employ of the Jais Manufacturing Co., and after a few days' visit in Dundee, Chicago and other places enroute, they will reside in their home on Kellogg street. The Mail extends best wishes.

LAPHAM'S CORNERS

The social at Harold Davey's was a decided success in every way. It netted $71 for the school. Mrs. Stanley Cline-Smith spent several days last week with her son and family in Royal Oak. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Newton of Ann Arbor, spent the week-end at William Jager's. The Misses Dorcas and Bertha still have been spending a few days with their sister, Mrs. Clement Zanger, in Ann Arbor. Bert Nelson and family entertained a number of their friends with a domino party at their home, Saturday evening. There will be a dance at the Emery hall, Friday night, February 4th, given by Bert and Richard Wilson and Luther Slabaugh. Everyone welcome. Mr. Writington was in Ann Arbor, Friday. Walter Richter has a new Ford touring car. Mr. and Mrs. Code Savery, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Whittaker, Mr. and Mrs. Will Cole, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gale, Floy Jarvis and Floyd Perkins spent Wednesday evening at Kenneth Rich's. Mr. Lucas expects to go to Ohio, Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Jarvis and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Glen Whittaker. Mrs. Abba Striker of Ohio, is spending some time with her brother, Mr. Lucas. Charles Lucas, who is in the marines, is now stationed in Haiti. Helen and Louise Korbacher of Ypsilanti, spent the week-end at their home here. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Newton and Miss Mae Carraber of Ann Arbor, spent Thursday evening at Wm. Mager's in Ann Arbor, Thursday. Mrs. Edith Haddock spent the week-end in Detroit, with friends.

Subscribe for the Mail. Chauncey Pitcher and family of Detroit, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pitcher, and other relatives here, Sunday. Miss Edna Mather and Miss Mildred Bennett had the pleasure of helping to initiate Miss Marie Palmer into the membership of the Delta Phi Society at Ypsilanti, Saturday, January 15th, the initiation taking place at the Masonic temple. A four-course banquet was served. Miss Alvina Strong of Plymouth, responded to a toast, "Delta Phi After Graduation." A dance at the Country Club was given in the evening.

STARK

Aaron Gumore is spending a few weeks in Detroit. The Pedro party given at Mrs. William Johnson's, Saturday evening, was largely attended. At twelve o'clock Mrs. Johnson served a dainty lunch, and at a late hour all departed, saying they had a very fine time. Mrs. Emil Larden and daughter, Alice, and Georgia Fisher spent Sunday at Mr. and Mrs. Dick Fisher's in Belleville. Delbert Maynard is enjoying a new Ford touring car. Leo Cook spent Saturday and Sunday at Mr. and Mrs. Emil Larden's. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bentley and children of Detroit, were Saturday and Sunday visitors at Mrs. William Johnson's in Stark. Mrs. William Dethloff was called to the hospital, Friday morning, on account of the sudden death of her brother Henry Hopp. Little Mina VanTassel has been sick for a few weeks, but is on the gain at this writing. Mrs. William Johnson, Mrs. Mary Henson and Mrs. Hazel Fisher and daughter called on Mrs. Jas. Cousins, last week Thursday. Walter Dethloff and friends of Plymouth, visited Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dethloff and family of Stark, Sunday. Carl Dethloff has quit working on the road for the winter. He is now in Belle Fisher of Newburg, visited her son, Dick and family at Belleville, Saturday and Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Hazel Fisher and daughter and Carl Dethloff and Arlene Johnson visited at Mr. and Mrs. Mack Cook's in Plymouth, Friday evening.

guests of Mr. and Mrs. Volney Gun- ning, Thursday. Mrs. Frank Peck was the guest of her son, Harry and family, Thurs- day. Fred Lee and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lee were Detroit visitors, Saturday, and the latter called upon her sister, Mrs. Harry Brown, at Harper hospi- tal. Louis Wolfmont of Detroit is visit- ing his mother, Mrs. David Wolfmont, and was calling upon Center friends, Sunday. Mrs. Fred Lee was the recipient of an interesting letter from Mrs. Chas. Weaver. In the letter, Mrs. Weaver states that they are located at Oak- land, California, for the winter, but are not as enthusiastic over Cali- fornia climate as some people. They have frosts every night and ice fre- quently. Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Peters and son, Alton, of Northville, and Mrs. Orton Smith of Redford, were callers at the Palmer Chilson home last week Thursday.
