NOTED SINGER COMING

MARIE MORRISEY, CONTRALTO, TO SING IN PLYMOUTH, WEDNESDAY EVENING, APRIL 6.

Announcement is made to Plymouth music lovers that Miss Marie Morrisey will give a concert in Plymouth, Wednesday night, April 6th, at the High school auditorium.

Marie Morrisey is one of our real American singers. Her family has been in this country as long as anybody else's. And she has a strictly American education. She is a pupil of Dudley Buck, under whom she studied for four years. She proves in convincing fashion that a singer can reach a high degree of development under American tutelage.

Miss Morrisey has made a specialty of songs sung in English. And that meant studying English diction with special care, for one of the reasons English is not so melodious as some other languages, in Miss Morrisey's opinion, is because we are careless in our speech. Mr. Dudley Buck did more than teach Miss Morrisey how to sing her voice correctly. He also taught her to treat her own language "respectfully," as she herself puts it.

"The English language may not be so soft and melodious as some other languages," declares Miss Morrisey, "but it suits me," and she says this with the pride befitting a true Daughter of the American Revolution, which she is.

Residents of Plymouth will agree with Miss Morrisey when they hear her sing some of the American songs. She is particularly enthusiastic about songs of American composers, and no recital of hers is complete without some of them.

April 6th's concert promises to be a splendid addition to the list of treats the music "fans" of Plymouth have enjoyed in the past. Miss Morrisey's voice is finer than ever—a rich, sweet contralto. And the long and arduous training it has received in the concerts Miss Morrisey has given to the soldiers in hospitals and camps, has added a new power to her voice.

This concert will be an invitation affair, but musically inclined Plymouth is sure to be fully represented.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS

A regular meeting of the Woman's Club was held in the basement of the Methodist church, last Friday afternoon, March 18th. A business meeting with the president presiding, preceded the program of the afternoon. Three new names were received into membership.

Arts and Crafts and their Nationality was the response given to roll call.

The program was in charge of the fifth division, with Mrs. F. A. Campbell, leader.

Miss Coral B. Hagen of the M. A. C. was present, and gave a short talk on the value of milk as a food product. She cited several instances of weight gained by school children where a milk campaign was carried on, and the children had been given a certain amount of milk daily for several days.

Mrs. Ederick Casady delighted the company with two vocal selections, "Fleeting," by Edward Elgar, and "The Morning Wind," by Gena Brainerd. Mrs. William Wood accompanied her on the piano.

The one paper of the afternoon was given by Mrs. F. M. Field on "American Marine Painters." Mrs. Field gave a brief sketch of the lives and paintings of several well known marine painters, and also added to the interest of her paper by having copies of their paintings shown on the screen, after which Mr. Field presented a beautiful motion picture, entitled, "The Tempest." At the close of the meeting a rising vote of thanks was extended Mr. and Mrs. Field for the pleasant afternoon which they had given the club.

This Friday evening Professor Herbert Richard Cross of the University of Michigan, will give an illustrated lecture in the Presbyterian church, entitled, "The Story of American Art." Many of the club members heard Mr. Cross at Northville, last year, and he comes very highly recommended. This lecture will commence at eight o'clock, and is free to the public. Come and bring your friends.

Miss Nellie Borschbacher of Ypsilanti, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Borschbacher on South Main street, Monday.

PROMINENT PLYMOUTH LADY DIES

MRS. S. E. CAMPBELL, STRICKEN WITH PARALYSIS WHILE AT BAPTIST CHURCH LAST SUNDAY MORNING.

This community was greatly shocked Sunday to hear that Mrs. Jennie Campbell, wife of Dr. S. E. Campbell of this place, had suffered a stroke of paralysis while attending Sunday school at the Baptist church. She was immediately taken to her home, where medical aid was given, and everything possible done for her, but she never regained consciousness, passing away Thursday morning, March 24th.

The passing of this good woman is indeed a loss to the community, as she was always interested in everything that pertained to the improvement of the town or the betterment of society. She was a former president of the Woman's Club from 1912 to 1914; an active worker in the Woman's Christian Temperance Union; the Baptist church of which she has been a member for many years, and for several years has been a member of the school board.

The deceased leaves to mourn her loss, her husband, three sons, Eugene of Chicago; Maurice of Detroit, and Fletcher of Wayne, and one daughter, Mrs. Grace Brown of Greenville; three grandchildren and other more distant relatives.

The funeral services will be held this (Friday) afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Baptist church. Burial at Bay City, Mich. Plymouth friends extend sympathy to the bereaved family.

CELEBRATED THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Ryder were agreeably surprised at their home on Ann street, last Friday evening, March 18th, when about forty relatives and friends gathered there to remind them that it was their fiftieth wedding anniversary. The guests brought with them well filled lunch baskets and a fine supper was served.

One pleasant feature of the occasion was the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Ryder's seven children: Mrs. Seward Rolf and husband of Grand Rapids; Mrs. Clay Kingsley and family of Ann Arbor; Mrs. Roy P. Woodworth and husband of Northville; Ralph Ryder of Birmingham; Mrs. Fred Orr and family, Earl and Gladys Ryder of this place.

Other out of town guests were Frank Ryder, only brother of Mr. Ryder, wife and son, Bert, of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ryder and daughter, Beulah, of Newburg, and Mr. and Mrs. James Woodworth and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woodworth of Northville. During the evening, music was enjoyed, also a short talk by Rev. F. M. Field. The host and hostess received many lovely gifts in remembrance of the occasion, and at a late hour the guests departed, wishing them many happy returns of the day.

COMMISSION AWARD CONTRACT TO DETROIT CONCERN

At a meeting of the village commission held Monday evening, the contract for the improvements to the village water system was awarded to the Cooper-Widemann Construction Co. of Detroit, for the sum of $35,578. The contract calls for the construction of a well, house over the well, installation of pumps and machinery, and the reservoir, but does not include pipe line, pumps and machinery. The above price is about $16,000 under the estimated cost.

A petition, signed by about forty citizens, was presented to the commission by Attorney J. S. Dayton on behalf of the petitioners, protesting against the building of the proposed convenience station in Kellogg Park. The matter was discussed at some length, and the petition laid upon the table for further consideration.

Mr. and Mrs. Seward Rolf of Grand Rapids, were in Plymouth over the week-end to attend the wedding of Mrs. Rolf's sister and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Ryder.

"THE CLIMAX" NEXT NUMBER

Dorothy Seegar, who takes the part of Adeline VanHagen, in "The Climax," which will be presented here on the Citizens' Entertainment course next Wednesday evening, March 30, was selected for this part, not only because of her ability to act, but also because of her capacity as a singer. Enthusiastic comments upon her rendition of "The Song of the Soul," in "The Climax," prove conclusively that her selection was a wise one.

The other three members of the cast, who will appear here are: Walter Dale, who takes the part of Pietro; Paul Atherton, playing the part of the doctor, and Charles Fleming, the father.

Walter Dale was in the original company that played in Chicago. Charles Fleming is an actor of experience and ability. He was a member of the 1920 Chicago Redpath Chautauqua "Nothing But the Truth" company.

Paul Atherton is another actor of experience and is peculiarly well cast.

Following are a number of press comments showing the excellence of "The Climax" as a play.

Washington Herald—"There are a few comedies so worthy of revival as 'The Climax,' few which give such rich enjoyment."

New York Herald—"There are several theatres in New York which might profitably discard their present plays for 'The Climax.'"

Boston Advertiser—"Edward Lock's comedy, 'The Climax,' is the most popular production of the newer type of drama that Boston has yet seen."

The entertainment will be held at the Penniman Allen theatre. Single admission, 50c.

MASONS WIN FINAL GAME

The Masons again conquered their Odd Fellows opponents in one of the hardest fought basket ball games seen on the local floor. The improvement in team work shown by the Odd Fellows made the contest close from start to finish. The final score was 16 to 10. The line-up was as follows:

Masons—Champe, f.; Millard, f.; Finn, c.; Jewell, Soth, Todd, g. Odd Fellows—Compton, Wheeler, f.; Schrader, c.; Cooper, Jewell, Gray, Wollgast, g.

WILL REPEAT PLAY

In response to the request of many friends, the home-talent play, "Mrs. Tubbs of Shantytown," will be repeated in the Penniman Allen theatre, Friday evening, April 1st, by the third division of the Woman's Club. The Ladies' orchestra will furnish the music. Admission, 50c; children, 25c. The proceeds will go toward the building fund for a new club home. Come and help this worthy cause.

WHAT MAKES PROSPERITY

Prosperity means good business, and good business means active buying. Buying moves in a circle. It must begin with you—and in the end it comes back to you. There are four factors in the circle of buying—the manufacturer, the jobber, the retailer and you, the buyer. Together these factors constitute the public. The manufacturer, jobber or retailer is in a separate class from you only so far as his business is concerned. In every other relation of life he is one small individual in the great mass we call the public, and he is affected by the same living conditions that affect you. Outside his own business he, too, is a buyer, so he joins with you, therefore, in starting the buying impulse that sweeps the circle. He buys, like you, the comforts and necessities of life, and he wants reasonable prices the same as you do. Prices were high—but they're lower now, and as low right in Plymouth as you'll find them anywhere else. But if they are to be brought still lower, you will have to buy. That creates a demand for production, and production is bound to mean more men at work, more men with money to buy, and more prosperity. Not all of our local merchants are using this paper to unload their shelves, but you can depend upon it that the ones who are are the ones who are anxious to join hands with you in bringing about prosperity and keeping the community prosperous. We urge you to buy what you need now—the time when we must buy if we keep prices dropping—and in doing so we urge you to buy from those who advertise in your home paper—the merchants who appreciate your trade enough to ask for it.

OUR ANNUAL HINT

Somehow we don't feel we would be doing our duty by citizens of Plymouth, unless we devoted a little space along about this time each year to calling their attention to the need of a general housecleaning. It is an old story, but one that means so much to every resident that it always deserves attention.

This country is just reaching the end of one of the most remarkable winters it ever experienced. Everywhere it has been milder than for many years past. While physicians expected this unseasonable temperature to bring a great deal of sickness, reports indicate that on the whole every section has been normal in health. But now they expect the turn in the road to be reached—they look for considerable illness during the spring by reason of unusual climatic conditions. Maybe their prediction will come true—maybe not. But whether it does or not there is no excuse for taking chances.

We owe it not only to ourselves but to the town as a whole to get out with the rake, the paint and line, and clean up and paint up and fumigate a little. The rubbish that has accumulated during the winter should be cleared away before the weather warms up sufficiently to make it a breeding place for flies and mosquitoes—and we still recognize these two as the greatest germ carriers on earth. So let's start cleaning up and not wait to see if our neighbor is going to do so. Just as charity begins at home, so let spring cleaning start there. It beats paying doctor bills, and it's far more pleasant than attending funerals.

OBITUARY

Henry M. Merritt, son of the late Joseph and Martha Merritt, was born February 28, 1857, four miles west of Northville, Michigan, in Salem township, Washtenaw county, and lived practically his entire life in this vicinity, with the exception of a few years which he spent in Bay City, Michigan. He lived the latter part of his life with his sister, Mrs. Ella Rathburn, and the last three years with his brother, John Merritt, west of Northville. He was a good, conscientious man, of quiet nature, and although he had been in slightly failing health for some time, he never complained, and was active until the last. He was engaged in building a house on Harvey street for his nieces, Mrs. John Herrick of Salem, and Mrs. Wm. McCullough of this place, and was suddenly stricken with apoplexy, March 15th, while at his work, never regaining consciousness, and died one hour later at the home of Mrs. W. D. McCullough, where he had been living during the winter. He was one of a family of twelve children, six boys and six girls, of whom only one survives him. Those left to mourn their loss are Mrs. Ella Rathburn, Mrs. G. B. Crumie, Mrs. William Verkirk and C. V. Merritt of this place; Mrs. T. B. Wood of Northville; Mrs. John Weir of Ortonville; Mrs. Barney Taylor of Flint; Ernest Merritt and Claude Merritt of Detroit; Will Merritt of Bay City, and John Merritt of Salem township, besides several nieces and nephews. Funeral services were held from Schrader Bros. Funeral Home, Friday afternoon, Rev. F. M. Field officiating. Interment in Thayer cemetery near Salem.

OIL IN SUPERIOR TOWNSHIP

Farmers living near the farms of Walter Lingham and R. J. Bird stated Sunday that an effort is being made to have all of the farmers in that vicinity get together and secure a drill to test for oil. While digging a well on the farm of Walter Lingham, in Superior township, oil was discovered at a depth of 150 feet. A well was also sunk on the R. J. Bird farm and oil was also found there. It was sent to Detroit for analysis, and it proved to be crude oil. It is not known in what quantity oil exists on these farms, but it is believed here that this vein may have some connection between the oil fields of Canada and those in Ohio, Pennsylvania and adjoining states. Natural gas was discovered here several years ago at the Occidental hotel property in this city in quantities large enough to heat the building.—Ypsilanti Record.

Real Bargain Days for the Man Who Builds

Rents are high as ever, yet lumber and building materials have come down with a crash.

In many cases our prices are 40 per cent lower than those of a year ago.

For the man who plans to build, repair or remodel, this is certainly a favorable time.

The country as a whole is four years behind in its building program. Our city needs a large number of homes to bring conditions back to normal.

People must build soon, and increased building is sure to bring higher prices. The present situation is the result of forced selling by manufacturers who are overstocked.

These manufacturers were caught by the lull in buying and they must convert their stocks into ready money. In many cases they are selling at cost. When building begins again they will be quick to ask their legitimate profits once more.

We have a big stock of building materials, including all kinds of lumber, Vulcanite roofing and Beaver Board, which we secured at favorable prices and which we will sell at a bargain.

Take advantage of the opportunity. Come in and see us today.

THE THEATRE

Norma Talmadge, her leading man, Percy Marmot, and the rest of her company, which engaged in filming "The Branded Woman," Norma Talmadge's latest First National picture, which will be shown at the Pennington Allen theatre, Saturday evening March 26, spent an entire night working on board the ocean liner, Kaiserin Augusta Victoria, at its Hoboken pier. Another interesting trip took the star, Marmot and Charles Lane down to Washington Square with Director Albert Parker and his staff to film a short series of shots of the Greenwich village section. The picture, which is adapted from Oliver D. Bailey's famous stage play, "Branded," has been produced on an elaborate scale, and is declared to be the most pretentious starring vehicle thus far given to Miss Talmadge.

An unusually appealing story and beautiful settings feature Dorothy Dalton's new picture, "Guilty of Love," which will be on view at the Pennington Allen theatre, Tuesday evening, March 29. Miss Dalton has the role of a young New England woman, who, left impoverished by the death of her father, becomes governess in the home of a rich New York society dowager. She becomes involved in an unfortunate love affair with her employer's brother, which results in a forced marriage between the two. "Guilty of Love" was adapted from Avery Hopwood's early stage success, "This Woman—This Man." Charles Langford is Miss Dalton's leading man, and the supporting cast also includes Augusta Anderson and Charles Lane. The picture, which is a Paramount Art-craft, was directed by Harley Knoles.

"Twin Beds" is the screen version of the stage success of the same name by Margaret Mayo and Salisbury Field. The play, a bedroom farce comedy, was extremely popular and enjoyed a long run on Broadway, and with companies on the road, over a period of two years. Mr. and Mrs. DeHaven are starred in the piece, which adapts itself admirably to their talents, and, in the supporting cast besides William Desmond, are Helen Raymond, who created the role of Signora Monti in the original production, Katharine Lewis, William J. Irving and Lottie Williams. The plot of the picture revolves about the marital relations of a flirtatious Italian tenor, and the complications ensuing when he gets in the wrong apartment and sleeps in another man's bed. There is an abundance of clean, wholesome comedy in the farce, which is the First National attraction, at the Pennington Allen theatre, Thursday evening, March 31. As an added attraction for this evening there will be a Harold Lloyd comedy, entitled, "High and Dizzy."

Today's Reflections

After all a shortage of white paper doesn't bother some of us as much as a shortage of the long green.

We suppose the Plymouth man who hasn't been to tell us about seeing the first robin, is busy framing up a fish story for later on.

The money Europe is spending to try and persuade America to cancel war debts, would go a long way toward paying off some of them.

These world problems are important, but the big question just now is, "Will the coal pile last?"

The old-fashioned Plymouth man who used to eat cloves to avoid suspicion now knows all the patent medicines by heart.

The man who buys his clothing from a mail order house need not tell anyone where he got it. The clothing speaks for itself.

If Edison succeeds in communicating with the dead, he may be able to find out what became of the five-cent cigar.

One thing every Plymouth citizen finds out early in life is that a grouch is like a baby—the longer you nurse it, the bigger it grows.

We've also discovered that for every man who can talk intelligently on "mandates," there are ninety-nine who can't.

The fellow who does the most talking about how little sense the women have, isn't thinking about running for office.

Here's gardening season right around the corner, and we suppose there are still some Plymouth people willing to waste time on parsnips.

We see a poem in an exchange, headed, "Roaring Highways." The poet must have had in mind some of the roads in this community.

A woman may go to church because she has a new hat, but a man generally accompanies her because he's ashamed not to.

All Plymouth men are not alike. The ones who don't help their wives wash the dishes are usually pretty good at providing something to put in the dishes.

About the only time we envy the Plymouth man with a large family is when we recall that on an income tax blank each child means an exemption of two hundred good American dollars.

The more we reflect on it the more certain are we that heaven is a place where every fellow minds his own business.

If you know an item of news, phone or send it to the Mail office.

THE BASKET BALL GAMES

Plymouth High school played three games at Redford, last Friday night. The second team leading off with a game that was fast and scrappy from start to finish. Fifteen personal fouls were scored, but as neither team seemed to have an efficient foul shooter, this made little difference with the score. Stevens made Plymouth's two points by this route in the second half, while Redford got two from the field, the final score being 29-19. Chases were frequent but no one "had his eye on the basket."
In the first team game, Reid, Redford's lanky center, did better, getting five baskets from the field, and Merritt, who scored so easily here, came next with one field basket and three fouls out of ten chances. The game was a tight one, with twenty-four fouls due to the strict refereeing of Coach Drew of the Detroit Eastern. Sayles was high scoring man for Plymouth with two baskets. The score of the first half was 15-1, but Plymouth came back strong in the second and almost held them even, the final score being 25-8.
The line-up was as follows:
SECOND TEAM
Plymouth—Stevens, T. Strasen, M. Strasen, Amrhein, Sayles.
Redford—Miller, Robinet, Dennis, Grey, Proctor.
FIRST TEAM
Plymouth—Tait, Walker, Wiseley, Sayles, Wilcox.
Redford—Lusher, Reid, Merritt, Bowles, Burt.
Baskets—Reid, 5; Merritt, 1; Bowles, 2; Sawyer, 2; Dennis, 1; Sayles, 2; Tait, 1.
Fouls—Merritt, 3 of 9; Tait, 1 of 8; Wilcox, 2 of 2.
Substitutions—M. Strasen for Wiseley; Wiseley for Walker; T. Strasen for M. Strasen; Sawyer for Lusher; Dennis for Merritt.
The Plymouth girls' basket ball team played at Redford, last Friday night. It was a hard fight for victory, but we came out ahead by four points with a score of 12-8. Four of the points were made by Lenore Wright and eight by Marion Kieley. The centers did not shirk their duty, but worked with all their might.

game. But these shall be the first to drop out when rotation or substitution becomes necessary or possible; and during the time of play they shall be subject to the general rules.
8. At four o'clock all shall leave the premises promptly and in good order.
9. The trustees shall have power to change these rules from time to time as the occasion may require.

SCHOOL NOTES

The High school class in manual training have recently repaired twenty chairs belonging in the High school auditorium.
Howell plays here tonight for the last basket ball game of the season. Admission is regular price. This is the first time that Howell has been seen on the local floor. The expense of the trip has kept the teams apart until this year. Plymouth girls won by a narrow margin at Howell, and the boys, while they lost at Howell, will make a good show on the home floor.
The eighth grade English classes are studying Longfellow's "Evangeline."
Grant Miller returned to the first grade, after spending the winter in Florida.
Plymouth's debating team, Lyman Judson, Etha Wiseley and Charles Chappell, went to Bad Axe, yesterday, under the chaperonage of their coach, Miss Ruth E. Huston. This is the seventh debate in the state series. Of course Plymouth wants to win it, because if we can beat Bad Axe, there will be only one more debate between us and the state championship contest. The team will return to Plymouth, Saturday afternoon, and we trust they will return as victors.

We take the following article from the Twin Falls, Idaho, Daily Times, relative to former residents of this place:

Mr. and Mrs. George Wilcox gave a six-course dinner, Friday evening, March 11th, in honor of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Wilcox, it being Mr. John E. Wilcox's 76th birthday. Mr. Wilcox found waiting him there about thirty friends and neighbors, invited by Mrs. Wilcox to surprise him on his birthday. Mr. Wilcox received many presents, among which was a nice leather hunting coat presented by the guests. At a late hour luncheon was served by Mrs. Wilcox. He was born in New York state, and came to Michigan with his parents when he was a year and a half old, where he has always resided until a year ago, when they built their home in Twin Falls. NEWBURG

Next Sabbath the pastor will preach an Easter sermon and Easter exercises will be conducted by the Sunday-school. The Epworth League will also have an Easter service, led by Miss Beulah Ryder. The special meetings are being fairly well attended this week.

Miss Clara Grimm entertained the members of her class in Sunday-school, last Saturday evening. The usual good time was had by all.

Mrs. Donald Ryder's class met with Leona Joy. Needless to say the youngsters always have the best time ever at these parties.

Clare Chilson has recovered from his recent illness, and is able to be out again.

Mrs. Selly Thomas, who has been spending some time at the parental home has returned to Detroit.

Sylvester Defer, who had a stroke of apoplexy some time ago, has been removed to Ford hospital. Mrs. Defer is very ill at this writing. They have the sympathy of their many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Youngs and family and Misses Anna and Ada Youngs on Wednesday attended the funeral of Mrs. Ed. Youngs' mother, who died suddenly of heart disease, last Sunday at her home in Detroit.

At a meeting held in Newburg school house, Monday afternoon, in the interest of the public health work, Mrs. Emma Cochran was chosen to present the matter to the township board. Representatives of the Detroit Chapter, A. E. C., were present to help in considering steps necessary for continuing it. The Red Cross has financed the plan since last summer in the hopes that the communities would now be ready to take it over. They have used the funds so freely in this demonstration, that it will be impossible for them to continue, and it is now necessary for the township to take action. The very nature of the work, and the size of the territory covered by one nurse are such that no one person can have a complete idea of the good work done through the service. On the other hand, the possibilities are evident when one considers the lines of work included. Some parts of the field have scarcely been touched, but when the townships are paying for the service, a fairly definite schedule of time could be made to give a sense of fairness. The community nurse is here, not to dictate, but to help you solve your health problems. Your child who is slow in school should not be blamed, but let the nurse help you consider whether there are ways in which he could be helped to better progress. Your baby or small child that does not make its proper growth, is of real interest to the nurse. Let her help you. If you are losing weight yourself, tell her about it, she likes to be asked and will make all haste possible to respond. Bedside care is a service the nurse is willing to give when it has been necessary and limit it to those emergency cases in which no one else is available who could give the proper care. Let those who are interested be on hand town meeting day, Monday, April 4, immediately after dinner, when such matters are brought up and voted on.

The name of William Shields has been substituted in place of Harmon Gates on the Livonia township Democrat ticket, as printed in last week's Mail, for the office of highway overseer.

Miss Beatrice Davey's Sunday-school class met with Virgil Dunn, last Saturday afternoon. Games and music were enjoyed, after which lunch was served. All report a fine time.

Mrs. Selly Thomas, who has been spending some time at the parental home has returned to Detroit.

Sylvester Defer, who had a stroke of apoplexy some time ago, has been removed to Ford hospital. Mrs. Defer is very ill at this writing. They have the sympathy of their many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Youngs and family and Misses Anna and Ada Youngs on Wednesday attended the funeral of Mrs. Ed. Youngs' mother, who died suddenly of heart disease, last Sunday at her home in Detroit.

At a meeting held in Newburg school house, Monday afternoon, in the interest of the public health work, Mrs. Emma Cochran was chosen to present the matter to the township board. Representatives of the Detroit Chapter, A. E. C., were present to help in considering steps necessary for continuing it. The Red Cross has financed the plan since last summer in the hopes that the communities would now be ready to take it over. They have used the funds so freely in this demonstration, that it will be impossible for them to continue, and it is now necessary for the township to take action. The very nature of the work, and the size of the territory covered by one nurse are such that no one person can have a complete idea of the good work done through the service. On the other hand, the possibilities are evident when one considers the lines of work included. Some parts of the field have scarcely been touched, but when the townships are paying for the service, a fairly definite schedule of time could be made to give a sense of fairness. The community nurse is here, not to dictate, but to help you solve your health problems. Your child who is slow in school should not be blamed, but let the nurse help you consider whether there are ways in which he could be helped to better progress. Your baby or small child that does not make its proper growth, is of real interest to the nurse. Let her help you. If you are losing weight yourself, tell her about it, she likes to be asked and will make all haste possible to respond. Bedside care is a service the nurse is willing to give when it has been necessary and limit it to those emergency cases in which no one else is available who could give the proper care. Let those who are interested be on hand town meeting day, Monday, April 4, immediately after dinner, when such matters are brought up and voted on.

The name of William Shields has been substituted in place of Harmon Gates on the Livonia township Democrat ticket, as printed in last week's Mail, for the office of highway overseer.

Miss Beatrice Davey's Sunday-school class met with Virgil Dunn, last Saturday afternoon. Games and music were enjoyed, after which lunch was served. All report a fine time.

Next Sabbath the pastor will preach an Easter sermon and Easter exercises will be conducted by the Sunday-school. The Epworth League will also have an Easter service, led by Miss Beulah Ryder. The special meetings are being fairly well attended this week.

Miss Clara Grimm entertained the members of her class in Sunday-school, last Saturday evening. The usual good time was had by all.

Mrs. Donald Ryder's class met with Leona Joy. Needless to say the youngsters always have the best time ever at these parties.

Clare Chilson has recovered from his recent illness, and is able to be out again.

Mrs. Selly Thomas, who has been spending some time at the parental home has returned to Detroit.

Sylvester Defer, who had a stroke of apoplexy some time ago, has been removed to Ford hospital. Mrs. Defer is very ill at this writing. They have the sympathy of their many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Youngs and family and Misses Anna and Ada Youngs on Wednesday attended the funeral of Mrs. Ed. Youngs' mother, who died suddenly of heart disease, last Sunday at her home in Detroit.

THE AMERICAN LEGION

(Copy for this Department Supplied by the American Legion News Service)

WELL KNOWN IN HOME STATE

James T. Duane, Commander of Massachusetts Department, Known to Many of His Buddies.

James T. Duane, commander of the Massachusetts department of the American Legion, is perhaps better known to the Legionnaires in his state than any other Legion official. He is said to have met more than 50,000 former service men and women during the time he was head of the military division of the Massachusetts state treasury department, which had charge of the distribution of the state bonus.

When Mr. Duane sailed for France with the Twenty-sixth division, he was a private; when he returned to America after participation in almost every major offensive of the war, he was the captain in command of the company with which he went overseas as a private. He had also served as a battalion commander for a time during the Argonne-Meuse drive.

Mr. Duane has been a retail salesman in Massachusetts and New York, a member of the theatrical profession and assistant manager for an electric and gas company. During his career as a state official, he was in charge of the disbursement of $20,000,000 in gratuities to veterans of the war.

As a member of the state welfare and post activities and state executive committees of the Massachusetts department of the Legion, Mr. Duane was instrumental in blocking the proposed transfer of ex-servicemen mental patients to the old State Insane asylum at Worcester, Mass., and in the establishment of a permanent staff of teachers in the various Public Health Service hospitals.

RULES IN SOUTH CAROLINA

G. Howard Mahan, Jr., Elevated to Department Commander of Legion in Home State.

Although G. Howard Mahan, Jr., of Greenville, S. C., commander of the South Carolina department of the American Legion, was severely wounded in action, spent long months in French, English and American hospitals and was discharged with disability, he has taken on a prominent part in the organization of the Legion and in civic affairs of his state.

Mr. Mahan is now president of the Young Men's Business League of Greenville. Following his discharge from the hospital, which did not occur until April 3, 1920, he was elected commander of his home-town post and later department commander of the Legion.

Having attended the "Citadel" military school, Mr. Mahan developed an interest in military affairs at an early age. He was in command of the First battalion, 118th Infantry from the time it was organized until he was wounded when the Thirtieth division routed the Boches at Bellecourt.

TO HOLD CORDIAL RELATIONS

Legion Representatives in Attendance at Recent Formation of Inter-Alleed Veterans' Association.

American Legion representatives took an active part in the formation of the Inter-Alleed Veterans' Association in Paris recently. The association is composed of delegates from the Union Nationale des Combattants de France, the Comrades of the Great War of Great Britain, the Federation Nationale des Combattants de Belgique, the Associazione Nazionale Combattenti d'Italia, Druzina of Czechoslovakia and the American Legion.

The primary purpose of the organization is to preserve the cordial relations between the nations associated in the war on the allied side. As one means of accomplishing this it is proposed that the membership card of each society shall be recognized by the societies in all the nations represented in the association.

The delegates who attended the Paris conference have been instructed to report back to their respective organizations the details of the amalgamation. Paris was merely the starting point, from which veterans of the World War may form their own League of Nations.

The committee which represented the American Legion at the Paris conference included Cabot Ward and Arthur W. Kipling of Paris Post No. 1; Norman C. Coster, department adjutant of France; E. Sadler and W. H. A. Coleman of London post; Edmond L. Gros, George A. Dunagin and E. J. Bellman.

She States It Mildly While suffering with a severe attack of grip and threatened with pneumonia, Mrs. Annie H. Cooley of Middlefield, Conn., began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and was very much benefited by its use. The pains in the chest soon disappeared, the cough came loose, expectoration stopped, and in a short time she was as well as ever. Mrs. Cooley says she cannot speak too highly of this remedy.—Adv.

Baptist Notes

The pastor spoke on "The Cross of Christ," last Sunday. The choir gave us a fine anthem. Everyone enjoys this good music.

The Sunday-school elected Mrs. Daly to act as delegate to the young people's and Sunday-school convention at Bay City, next week.

The B. Y. P. U. have their new topic cards, and the assignments will be made by the devotional committee at once.

The church is in sorrow over the severe illness of Mrs. S. E. Campbell, which came to her at the close of the Sunday-school hour, last Sunday. Special meetings of prayer have been called, asking for her recovery "if the Lord wills."

The bazaar and supper has been postponed until some later date. Announcements will be made later.

The service of the church for the evening after April 1st, will be one-half hour later. Also the prayer meeting will occur on Thursday evening, instead of Wednesday, as it has seemed best to make the change.

For the aches and pains of rheumatism, Chamberlain's Liniment is excellent. Massage the parts thoroughly twice a day with the liniment, and you will be surprised at the relief which it affords.—Adv.

Coughing at Night Can Be Checked

Bronchial coughs, coughs that hang on after recovery from influenza or grip, asthmatic coughs, coughs caused by a distressing tickling in the throat—coughs that cause one not only to lose sleep but to disturb the rest of others—all such coughs can be relieved by Foley's Honey and Tar.

The Experience of Two Men
L. W. Day, 85 Campbell Ave., E. Detroit, Mich., writes: "Foley's Honey and Tar is great. I can hardly recommend it highly enough. My completion in that line has almost gone and I hope never to have it again."

Chas. Hoffman, Eagle Hotel, Ossida, N. Y., writes: "I have been troubled with tickling in my throat a good deal for the past three months. I can hardly recommend Foley's Honey and Tar as a 50¢ and 25¢ bottle gave me relief."

Foley's Honey and Tar Compound

Children like Foley's Honey and Tar. It contains no opiates, and will not injure a delicate stomach. Sold Everywhere in Plymouth

CHILDREN HEAR

VALUE OF MILK

One thousand school children were reached in the first week of the Wayne County Milk Campaign, March 14th to 26th. Many rural schools in Nankin, Canton, Livonia, Romulus, Mongaugon and Huron townships were visited by Miss Coral Havens, nutrition specialist; Miss Rogers, County home demonstration agent, and the public health nurses, Miss Ada Safford, Miss Ellen Peterson, Miss Lydia Olsen, Miss Ruth McIntyre and Miss Elizabeth Wheat were the nurses who took part in the campaign as it touched their respective territories.

The school children listened intently to the story of the body houses they were building, and the part milk would play in making strong bones and muscles. The use of vegetables, fruits and cereals were also emphasized.

The gains made by the children at French Landing, who were drinking a pint of milk at school each day, were told to the children. Many of them are planning to follow this example by bringing milk to school with their lunches. At the Sibley school a picture was taken of the milk bottles brought by the children. There were twenty-one in all, due to the teaching of the public health nurse, Miss Ellen Peterson and the nutrition classes of Miss Iva M. Church, supervisor of Red Cross nutrition work.

Many of the schools are planning to join in the milk poster contest, a part of the campaign. All the rural schools are asked to send the three best posters made by the school to the Farm Bureau office at Dearborn. Prizes will be awarded for the best posters made in the county by rural schools.

Local contests will be held in the Trenton, Dearborn and Plymouth schools. Two prizes will be awarded each school, and exhibits will be made of the best posters.

The best posters made in the county will be sent to the National Dairy show, next fall, to show what Wayne county children can do.
