STABILIZERS

Many of the stable citizens of this community belong to some church. They are folk not often in the public eye—but they give our town its highest character.

Why not link your life with theirs and let it count for the best and highest things?

A special invitation is extended all this month. Tell the pastor or any officer that you desire more information as to what church membership implies.

A representative from the company who furnish the fireworks will be here to touch them off. Several beautiful set pieces will be the features of the display.
An aviator has been secured to give airplane flights during the day. He will give a thrilling exhibition of flying stunts.
The Millard band will furnish music all day.

BANDITS ROB RESTAURANT

FOUR MEN TAKE $90 FROM DYE RESTAURANT EARLY MONDAY MORNING.

About two o'clock Monday morning, four armed bandits in an automobile held up the Dye restaurant near the Pere Marquette depot in north village, and escaped with $90. The bandits drove up to the restaurant in a large car, and while one of them remained with the car, three of them entered the restaurant and at the point of a gun ordered George Hance, who was in charge, to hand over the cash in the cash register. Chief of Police Springer was notified of the robbery and although he called up the Detroit police and officers in neighboring towns, no trace of the bandits has been discovered.

HARTUNG-CLINE

Miss Marian Cline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cline of this place, and Richard Hartung, only son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Hartung, also of Plymouth, were quietly married in Detroit last Monday afternoon, June 20th, at the First Presbyterian church, Grand River Ave. The pastor, Rev. Henderson, performed the ceremony in the presence of the groom's two sisters, the Misses Irene and Elsie Hartung, Miss Florence Grainger, Ralph Cole and Russell Cook. Both young people are well and favorably known here, where the groom is in the employ of the Beyer Motor Sales Co. After a short wedding trip they will reside with the groom's parents on Maple Ave. Plymouth friends extend best wishes for a happy wedded life.

Mrs. Oscar Matts pleasantly entertained a company of friends at her home on York street, last Monday evening in honor of her birthday. The degree team of the Grange, neighbors, relatives and friends numbering about forty were present. Music and songs furnished the entertainment of the evening, after which a delicious refreshment luncheon was served.

BACCALAUREATE SERMON

The Baccalaureate service was held in the High school auditorium last Sunday evening and was well attended. Just before the opening of the service, the twenty-eight members of the 1921 graduating class marched in and took their seats. The pastor of the Baptist church, Rev. H. E. Sayles, gave the sermon of the evening, taking for his subject, "The Regions Beyond." Mr. Sayles offered many helpful suggestions to the young people, who are about to take up a new line of work in the field of life. His talk was both interesting and instructive. Revs. F. M. Field and S. Conger Hathaway assisted in the service and music was furnished by the Methodist church choir with Miss Winifred Jolliffe at the piano. The stage was prettily decorated for the occasion with the class colors, blue and white.

CLASS DAY EXERCISES

The Class Day exercises of the 1921 graduating class were held in the High school auditorium, last Tuesday evening, and were attended by a large crowd, every seat in the auditorium being taken. The stage presented a very pretty appearance, decorated with the class colors, blue and white, the color scheme being carried out with white daisies and blue jarkspur. The class of twenty-eight boys and girls presented a fine appearance. The fifteen young lady members of the class were attractively gowned in white and wore corsage bouquets of sweet peas, the class flower.

The opening number on the program was music by the High school orchestra, after which the following program was exceedingly well rendered:

Song—Senior Mixed Octette—Norma Hake, Elsie Staman, Hanna Strasen, Margaret Taylor, Arnold Freydl, Duane Sayles, Russell VanGilder, Ward Walker.
President's Address—David Hinnau.

PEARSOLL-MASTIC

A pretty home wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Mastic, Sunday afternoon, at 7:30, when their daughter, Hazel, was united in marriage to Allen Pearsoll of Detroit. The house was decorated with pink roses, and the ceremony took place under an arch of roses. Rev. F. M. Field officiating. Light refreshments were served, the table color scheme being pink and blue. The bride was dressed in white organdie and carried a beautiful bouquet of flowers. The guests consisted of Plymouth friends and neighbors, and Miss Gladys Shock of Ypsilanti, and Walter Bartell of Northville. The bride is a well known Plymouth girl, and her many friends wish them life-long happiness. Mr. and Mrs. Pearsoll will reside in Detroit.

JOHNSTON-JUBENVILLE

Mildred Jubenville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Jubenville, was united in marriage to Robert Johnston of Franklin, Mich., at the home of the bride, near King's Corner, on Saturday, June 18. The Rev. Dr. Dure of Dearborn, who performed the ceremony, officiated at the marriage of the bride's parents, thirty-six years ago in Detroit.

Among the guests were: James A. Burns and Mrs. Edith Burns of Memphis, Tenn.; Mrs. Theo Hart, Mrs. E. A. Dey, Mrs. Edw. Hotchkiss, R. J. Hotchkiss and Henry Johnston of Detroit; Dr. D. M. Johnston and family and F. D. German of Birmingham; Charles Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Krueger of Franklin; Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Jubenville and family of Royal Oak; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Rosinger and family of Southfield; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lockhart and family.

CELEBRATED 59TH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. William Bishy celebrated their fifty-ninth wedding anniversary at their beautiful home on the Plymouth road, near Rough and Ready corners, last Friday evening. Their children and grandchildren were present for the occasion, and at eight o'clock a sumptuous supper was served. During the evening, Rev. Charles Strasen gave a fine talk, using as his subject, "The Lord is My Shepherd, I shall Not Want." A quartette composed of the children of Mr. and Mrs. Bishy, sang several selections, and their granddaughter, Miss Olive Merz, played several piano solos. It was a most enjoyable occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Bishy are both enjoying good health.

COUNTY MACCABEE ASSOCIATION MET HERE

The Wayne County Association of the Ladies of the Maccabees, last Thursday, was largely attended, about 150 ladies being present. The morning session was given over to the business part of the association; also the initiation of three candidates. They also listened to a talk by the guest of honor, Great Medical Examiner, Dr. Blanche Haines. At 12:30 dinner was served. The afternoon session was called about 1:30. After listening to short talks by the deputies, the Commander of the association introduced Mrs. Shepherd, a Salvation Army lady, who talked for one and one-half hours on her experiences in France with the boys during the war. Everyone present thoroughly enjoyed her talk, and it is hoped she may come to us again sometime in the future. About four o'clock the ladies left for home, all declaring the day had been a most pleasant and profitable one.

PLYMOUTH PASTOR HONORED

Rev. Frank M. Field is now the proud possessor of the Delta Sigma Rho key, the emblem of the national honorary fraternity, open only to those who have achieved distinction in college oratory and debating. He received his initiation at Albion, last week, in connection with the Albion college commencement. While there, he also learned that within the next year, a charter of Phi Beta Kappa, the national honorary fraternity of scholarship, will most likely be granted to Albion college, and that he will be one of the first to receive the Phi Beta Kappa key by virtue of having been valedictorian of his graduating class.

Donald Hanchett and A. E. Kieft of M. A. C. spent the week-end at the former's home on Maple avenue, returning Monday morning to attend summer school.

CHASING RAINBOWS

There are those who left the old home town to go chasing a rainbow, but after years of struggle through misty swamps of trials, they fail to find the pot of gold. After all, the opportunity is right in front of these fellows. All they have to do is reach out and grab it. The man in a rural community is the fortunate victim of circumstances. He has the edge on the other fellow, and just why so many should rush away from the farm to seek fame and fortune cannot be explained. The cry of back to the country and back to the small town is growing stronger, because more and more people are coming to realize, just as many of us in Plymouth have long known, that it's the only place to live. How much surplus has the city man now on hand who was boasting a year or so ago of his dollar or more per hour? And how much will he be in the hole if present conditions continue another year? Answer these questions before you start out to chase a rainbow.

WHY NOT TRY IT?

All over the country merchants are adopting the three per cent method of advertising, and it is proving so profitable and satisfactory to them that we believe our Plymouth merchants would do well to give it attention. Actual tests in hundreds of cases have proved that an advertising appropriation of three per cent of the previous year's gross sales have increased the business 33 1/3 per cent. This increase doesn't happen the first week after the advertising starts, but in the cumulative effect of a campaign carried on regularly each week for a whole year. If the three per cent were all spent in one grand blow-out it would be wasted. But distributed over an entire year, it is the surest business builder in the world. Big City stores spend 5 and 7 per cent, but in towns like this three per cent will do as much, and even more on the capital invested. There is one sure way to prove this, and you can't lose either. And that is to try it out.

L. B. Langs spent a few days last week with his son, Frank, on the farm at Romeo.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Frosser and daughter, Mildred, and Mrs. Lida Macomber of Detroit, and Mrs. S. F. Croft and two sons, Lloyd and Stanley of Beech, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Rattenbury.

Louis Hillmer returned home from the Ford hospital, Monday, where he has been under treatment for the past five weeks, and recently underwent an operation. Mr. Hillmer's many friends will be pleased to know that he is much improved in health.

An Isolated People.

How much remains to be done before we shall have a complete knowledge of the inhabitants of our planet is indicated by the failure of an expedition from the American Museum of Natural History to get into communication with the Naskapi Indians of Labrador. The summer expedition, was undertaken it was supposed that these natives could be reached by way of the west coast of Labrador, but it was found to be impossible. In winter they go to Nissequon, in the interior, 55 days' journey by canoe from Rupert's house on East Main river.

Tastes Much the Same.

"How's business?"
"Pretty fair," said the pressing club proprietor who deals in "moonshine" as a side line, "but I had a vexatious experience this morning."
"What was it?"
"I sold a customer of mine a quart of gasoline instead of the stuff he wanted."
"He soon found out the difference, didn't he?"
"No. He didn't know he was drinking gasoline, and I didn't know I'd sold him any until I noticed that my supply for cleaning purposes was running low."—Birmingham Age Herald.

THE THEATRE

In all the length and breadth of fiction there is no more picturesque character than Hajj, the beggar of Bagdad. Edward Knoblock, the playwright, made Hajj famous in the stage version of "Kismet," and Otis Skinner, perhaps the best known and most popular actor in the country, immortalized Hajj during the years he gave life to this characterization on the stage. The Robertson-Cole Company has filmed the famous play, which will be at the Penniman Allen theatre, Saturday, June 25, and hundreds of people in this city are going to have an opportunity of seeing Hajj, the beggar portrayed by no less a person than Otis Skinner himself. It is a safe prediction that the swagging, crafty, adventure loving and amusing old Bagdad vagabond will win everyone's heart, and in the years to come when old plays are discussed, his memory will be green.

E. Mason Hopper, famous for his production of the Booth Tarkington "Edgar" comedies, was chosen to direct "It's a Great Life," because of his profound knowledge of that mysterious creature, the American boy. He found in "It's a Great Life" ample opportunity to exercise his talent for picturing the boyish imagination of Mrs. Rinehart's youthful heroes. The picture abounds in gorgeous views of a tropical island kingdom, where oysters pave the sands and every oyster bears a pearl. Waving palms, dusky maidens dancing a jungle jazz for their white conquerors, row upon row of giant warriors in full war paint, cannibal cookery, savage battles—scenes portrayed with a thrilling realism that will gladden the heart of everyone who has ever allowed his imagination to go roaming. This extraordinary picture will be seen at the Penniman Allen theatre, Tuesday evening, June 28th. As an extra attraction there will be Mulligan's minstrels of Northville.

There is not a weak moment in "The First Born," the new Robertson-Cole super-special release, starring Sessue Hayakawa, which will be shown Thursday evening, June 30th, at the Penniman Allen theatre. The entire production represents par excellence in story, cast and settings. Never before had this illustrious Japanese actor had such a bright vehicle in which to display his versatility. The story leads the audience from the banks of the Hoang-Ho river in China to the Chinatown of the old days in San Francisco and back again. While a drama, it is not a thriller, but a picture chock full of heart interest.

DAIRY DEMONSTRATION TRAIN TO RUN IN AUGUST

"BETTER SIRE" SPECIAL WILL COVER MANY MICHIGAN COUNTIES—UNDER CO-OPERATIVE MANAGEMENT.

A dairy demonstration train to be known as the "Better Sires" special, will run in Michigan during the month of August, according to announcement of O. E. Reed, head of the dairy department at the Michigan Agricultural College.

Several organizations are co-operating in "putting on" the train. The Michigan Holstein-Friesian association is furnishing the cattle to be carried on the special; the New York Central railroad, through its agricultural division, is furnishing the rolling stock; M. A. C. is routing the tour and furnishing lecturers and specialists to handle the work of the demonstrations; and local development bureaus and county farm bureaus are handling local arrangements.

About twenty counties will be covered according to tentative plans of the committee in charge. The train will be made up at East Lansing, swinging up the eastern side of the state and coming back down the west side. Two demonstration cars of dairy products and feeding stuffs; two carloads of purebred stock for demonstration and exchange purposes; a flat car for lecture and show work, and a special women's car of milk products will be included in the train.

Methodist Matters

Rev. Frank M. Field has been getting about this week on crutches, having sustained a badly sprained ankle while playing tennis, last Monday morning.

The friends of Rev. Frank M. Field in Plymouth will be interested to know that the new director of athletics in the Highland Park High school, whose appointment was announced this week in the paper, is his younger brother, Paul Field, who has been coach of Albion college for the past two years. Mr. Field was in one of the interurban cars wrecked near Chelsea, last Saturday, when five people were killed and more than a score injured, but he escaped with minor injuries.

Next Sunday morning at least a dozen and perhaps thirteen or fourteen Plymouth young people will be on their way to Albion for a week at the big Epworth League Institute. Rev. and Mrs. Frank M. Field will be in the party, with others as follows: Hazel Hill, Lorena Terry, Eva Griffith, Minnie Curtis, Lyman Judson, Charles Sedley, Albert Kinyon, Lloyd Lundy, Donald Sutherland and Floyd Huston. Other names may be added to the list. More than one thousand young people are expected to be there, making it the largest institute ever held anywhere. Bishop Handerson and other notable church leaders will be there throughout the week. Rev. and Mrs. Field will also remain in Albion for two weeks of the summer school of theology.

Last Sunday morning service at the Methodist church presented a beautiful sight, when nineteen babies and small children were baptized by the pastor. Following the beautiful sacrament of dedication, Rev. Field gave a short address especially to the parents of little children.

NEWBURG

The church was well filled last Sunday. The Children's Day exercises were given mostly by the primary department, in charge of Miss Beulah Ryder, Margaret Clemens and Leona Joy. The little folks did exceptionally well with their songs and recitations. Some of the older girls gave the books of the bible, ten commandments, with several readings on the boys of the bible. Raymond Grimm played a violin solo, accompanied by his sister, Clara, on the piano. Rev. Rycraft explained the use the offering is made of, for educating young men for the ministry; also gave a fine talk on the two ladders, which our boys and girls cannot help but treasure up. There is nothing too good for them. Parents should see that the influence of the community is of the best possible. Two babies were baptized, Dorothy Evelyn Knickerbocker and Virginia Fay Grimm. The church was beautifully decorated with red and pink roses and white daisies.

Rev. Rycraft will conduct the Epworth League service, next Sunday night. A good meeting is promised, with something special. Everyone welcome. Morning church service at ten o'clock.

George and Clarence Clemens are home from the U. of M. They will return to Ann Arbor for the commencement next week.

Farmers from this vicinity are commencing to draw cabbage to market.

The Epworth League social was well attended, last Friday night, $11.75 being cleared from the sale of ice cream, candy and popcorn.

The Plymouth W. C. T. U. ladies will meet with the Newburg ladies next week Thursday afternoon, at the hall. This will be a tea meeting. Mrs. Henry Elliott arrived home from the city, last week, where she has been staying with her mother since leaving the hospital some time ago.

Taps have again been sounded for another old veteran of the Grand Army of the Republic, in the death of Comrade Willard Sherman, whose funeral occurred Saturday last at Perrinsville. For a number of years, he was a member of the Newburg G. A. R. until the Post disbanded. Mrs. Sarah Hoisington and family and Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Gonsolly attended the funeral.

Mrs. Ward Lyons of Detroit, came last Thursday to visit her friend, Mrs. Donald Ryder, Mr. Lyons coming for the week-end.

Claud Wagoner of Detroit, attended the social last Friday evening, and spent the night at William Smith's.

Miss Margaret Clemens is spending ten days in Canada, attending the Clemens family reunion.

GRANGE NOTES

June 3, a goodly number were present and enjoyed an especially fine talk by Rev. Edwards of Dixboro, on "Christianized Agriculture." Attention was called to the improved conditions for brotherly love and scientific education, coupled with practical efficiency, efficiency being the ability to produce the best results with the least possible outlay. The refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake were served by the members of the degree team. Much appreciation was felt for the flowers given by Mrs. Allen and Mr. Green for decorations.

The next meeting will be a basket picnic at Walled Lake, Saturday, July 2nd, for all who may wish to join us in a day of merry-making.

LIVONIA CENTER

Mr. and Mrs. Revard Chilson and son, Harold, of Detroit, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Chilson, Tuesday.

Mrs. Frank Peck was a week-end guest of her sister, Mrs. Cahill at Lansing. Another sister, Mrs. Nellie Eagan of Grand Rapids, was also a guest at the same place, and the old homestead at Portland was visited by them on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Baldasser of Attica, Ohio, were guests at the Fred Lee home, last week.

About fifty neighbors and friends of Mrs. William Garchow took possession of her house, Friday evening, during her absence from home, and upon her return reminded her of her birthday. A pleasant evening was spent socially, and an excellent lunch was served. Mrs. Garchow was remembered with a number of useful gifts.

Miss Lizzie Hewitt has returned home after spending the past three months caring for her sister, in Detroit, who is slowly recovering from a prolonged illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Livrance were callers at the Palmer Chilson home, Tuesday evening.

Robert Lee and Scott Davis were Sunday guests of friends at Petersburg.

The funeral services of Mrs. Phebe Wolfrom, which were held at her late home, Saturday afternoon, were largely attended, and the expressions of sympathy and the profusion of flowers, bore tribute to the esteem in which she was held in the community. Mrs. Wolfrom was a charter member of the Ladies' Aid of this place, during its existence, and was always willing to assist in any good cause as far as her health would permit. Although she had been a great sufferer from asthma for a number of years, she was always cheerful and uncomplaining, and won many friends by her lovable disposition. The family have the sympathy of the community in their loss.

The six members of the eighth grade are to be congratulated upon their success at the recent examination—each one receiving a diploma.

Work upon the church roof was commenced last week, and will be continued until completed, and anyone desiring to assist will be given an opportunity.

A CARD—Mrs. Gardner Kent wishes to thank all the friends who sent her letters and cards of cheer and good wishes while she was in the hospital.

The work of the flower mission department of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union was well carried out, under the direction of the superintendent, Mrs. Ada LeVan, at the meeting held Thursday afternoon, June 16th, at the home of Mrs. Hulda Knapp. Pleading selections were read by several of the members, and in conclusion, Miss Elizabeth Matheson entertained the ladies with a very interesting talk on the flowers and trees of Colorado, Oregon and California, showing many beautiful floral views and also some fine specimens of agates, cones and shell fish. A number of pretty bouquets were sent to the sick and shut-ins.

Curtailment of factory operations in Detroit has thrown many men out of work. Many of these who have had farming experience have come to the Agricultural Division of the Board of Commerce, asking help in finding places on farms. The Board of Commerce Agricultural Division wants to help as many of these men as possible. Farmers needing either permanent or temporary help are asked to inform the Agricultural Division of the Board of Commerce or the County Farm Bureau office.

The Nash Six Leads in Value Because It Leads in Superior Qualities

A greater value in more points of superiority is inherent in the Nash Six than in any other high grade motor car at from $100 to $300 more than the Nash price.

The sheer beauty of its long, low-hung, double-cowled body of deep, glistening blue with cream wheels commands approval even in the society of the country's fine automobiles.

Comfort so pronounced as to be remarked by those accustomed to travel in much more expensive cars of longer wheel-base is contributed by perfected balance, unusually long springs, thick upholstery, deep seats and spacious compartments.

The great power developed at all speeds by the Nash Perfected Valve-in-Head Motor is distinctively a Nash characteristic.

These and many other pronounced attributes create a value in the Nash Six, which has made it a sales leader here as in other communities throughout the country. We can make immediate deliveries.

Mr. Sherman was born in Wayne county, New York, June 26, 1838, and had nearly reached his 83rd birthday. At the age of six years, he migrated to Michigan with his parents, who settled on what is now known as the Hoisington farm. He was married in 1864 to Angeline Meldrum and shortly thereafter answered President Lincoln's call and served in the 22nd Michigan Infantry till the end of the war. After being mustered out of the service, he established his residence in this vicinity, acquiring his late home site, 39 years ago. In October 1919, his companion of more than half a century was taken, and he has since longed to follow. "Pa" Sherman as he was affectionately called by many, was well known for his honesty and integrity. His pledged word was never broken, and his cheerfulness, even in his last affliction was an inspiration to all who came in contact with him.

The young folks of Dixboro and Frain's Lake made a fine showing Achievement night, at the church, when they had on display their work, which they had completed in the Handicraft Club work for boys and the Sewing Club for girls. William Lyke and wife, Mrs. Bessie Geer, Willard Geer and Theda Lyke returned home, Saturday, after spending one week at Port Austin Beach, Huron county. The G. R. O. W. will be entertained, tonight, at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Martin. C. H. Freeman was a caller at Cherry Hill, Sunday. KING'S CORNERS
The Helping Hand society will meet the first Wednesday in July at the home of Mrs. David McCracken in the afternoon. All should be present who can. Cady Hix, who intended to start for the west for his health last week, was taken suddenly ill at the home of his brother, Ben., and at this writing is very ill. James Burns and sister, Ruth, of Memphis, Tenn., were here to attend the wedding of their cousin, Mildred Jubenville. They will make an extended visit here and with friends in Detroit.

OBITUARY
Phebe Etta Millard, daughter of Samuel and Lucinda Millard, was born in the township of Livonia, Wayne county, September 20, 1843, and died at her home and last residence, Livonia township, June 16, 1921, aged 77 years, 8 months and 16 days. She was united in marriage to David Wolfson, January 1, 1866, and to this union there were born seven children, six sons and one daughter. Two sons having died in infancy, there remain four sons, Lewis, of Redford; Riley, Harry and Charles, all of Livonia, and one daughter, Grace B. Kingsley of Plymouth; also seven grandchildren and six great grandchildren. She leaves besides her children, two sisters, Mrs. Harriet Blue of Elm and Mrs. Loretta Millard of Detroit; also a large number of friends to mourn their loss. She has always been a devoted and loving mother, always having the interest and welfare of her family nearest to her heart. To give the best guidance and advice was her aim, and to be upright and live and act in a christian spirit was her motto through all her life. Though unable for many years to attend church, she was very much of her time devoted to reading the christian bible, and was a close bible student through all her life, and in her earlier years united with the First Baptist church at Bell Branch from which she never lost faith. She has gone, gone to her reward, her Heavenly home, and for the time being, a short space of time, her children have lost a true christian mother, but hope to meet again.

Baptist Notes
Children's Day exercises at the Baptist church, next Sunday evening. The morning service at the Baptist church was very well attended. The pastor spoke on vacation and what we would do with Christ this summer. Shall we take Him with us in all the places we go so as to make the vacation not only profitable to us, but prove a blessing wherever we may go? We were glad to see some of the members of the church at home once more, as they have been in California for a year, we welcome George Wilkie and family. At the close of the morning service, the pastor extended the right hand of fellowship to several young people, welcoming them into the church.
No B. Y. P. U. last Sunday evening on account of the union meeting at the High school auditorium. The benediction service was preached by the pastor of this church.
Miss Edith Scott and Miss Marie Brown of this place, and Miss Cora Sloan of Northville, left last Saturday for Indian Garden, Walloon Lake. Mrs. William Kal, daughter, Dorothy, and son, William, of Vero, Florida, are spending the summer months with Mrs. Kal's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Delor.
With all sincerity and appreciation, we wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their assistance, and sympathy in the loss of our mother; for the many floral offerings and the consoling words of Rev. Davis; also for the beautiful singing by Miss Edith Scott, Mrs. Marie Brown, Harry Wolfson, Charles Wolfson, Mrs. Grace Kingsley.

Redford has a new band. Wixom is another town that will celebrate the Fourth.

Northville High school graduated a class of nineteen members Wednesday evening.

Redford's tax rate will be $12 for $1,000 assessed valuation for the coming year.

A class of forty-eight graduated from the Howell High school, this year.

Jewell, Blaisch & McCardle have taken the contract for the plumbing work on the new Northville Golf and Riding club, on the Seven Mile road.—Northville Record.

One day last week representatives from the Ford Motor Company were at Pinckney taking up options on land required for the factory to be established there. Henry Ford now owns a strip of land in that village about two blocks wide and over half a mile long.—South Lyon Herald.

For the first time in history, so far as we know, the aeroplane was used for the purpose of commerce in Brighton, this week. Claude Rolison notified a customer in Pinckney by phone that he would deliver a gallon of paint to him immediately, and that he would land in a certain field. The customer started immediately for the field, and arrived just in time to see Kyle Pinney's plane appear on the horizon. Claude descended, delivered his paint, and was back in Brighton again in ten minutes. They went over in twelve minutes. We wonder if the fact that the paint "went up" effected the price any.

Mrs. L. Wolfe is visiting her sister in Detroit, this week.

Miss Maude Gates of Detroit, spent the week-end as the guest of Mrs. Kal at Joseph Delors's.

Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy

Every family should keep this preparation at hand ready for instant use when needed. Severe attacks of colic and cholera morbus often prove fatal before medicine can be procured or a physician summoned. The uniform success that has attended the use of this remedy and the prompt cures which it has effected have made it a staple article of trade.—Adv't.

Today's Reflections

Wouldn't Plymouth be a glorious old town if every married man could draw the salary his wife thinks he earns?

We've also noticed that the world is full of people who insist that their children go to church, but who fail to set them an example.

We sometimes wonder if freckles will ever become as popular as the blush, so the girls will paint them on.

Maybe you've also noticed that we have in Plymouth a few people who seem to think the world enjoys listening to their tales of woe.

Some fellows congratulate themselves on their ability to fool their wives, as though their wives couldn't play the same game.

We have it on good authority that the first time a fellow kisses a pretty girl, she looks at him in a way that makes him sorry he didn't try it sooner.

The average Plymouth man's idea of the end of a perfect day is a cool night.

We are here to tell you that some of these eggs they call "strictly fresh," are more than that—they're actually impudent.

The grandmother who had pillow shams and throws in the house, now has a granddaughter who has a lamp shade in the parlor as big as a wagon umbrella.

The Plymouth woman who is continually lecturing her husband considers him a fool or else she has forgotten that a word to the wise is sufficient.

A Canadian says he has a liquid that will make a man tell all his secrets. We had the same kind until it was voted out.

It has about gotten so now that they figure half of the fun in a wedding is in counting the presents.

Some Plymouth men would get along faster if they didn't lose so much time telling other people how smart they are.

It has been our observation that there has been many a June bride who ought to be a June graduate.

It isn't working for a living that hurts the average Plymouth man, but the kind of living he gets for his work.

In one way an editor and a convict are very much alike—neither of them spends much time figuring on a vacation.

We've heard it said that there are quite a few women in Plymouth who never do any sewing until company comes.

God's Best Medicine.
"Mirth is God's medicine," says a noted writer. "Everybody ought to bathe in it. Grim care, moroseness, anxiety, all the rust of life, ought to be scoured off by the oil of mirth. It is better than emery. Every man ought to rub himself with it. A man without mirth is like a wagon without springs, but a man who laughs and causes others to laugh, even though the days are dark and the causes for laughter are few, is like a chariot with springs to which one may ride over the rough roads and feel nothing but a pleasant motion."

The Model.
"I don't understand," said Mrs. Mullins. "I remember very well that you used to point out your Dick as a model husband. Yet now you contend that he is lazy."
"Well," said Mrs. Boggs, "he's a model right enough—only he isn't a working model."
