CLASS OF TWENTY-EIGHT GRADUATE

THE EXERCISES HELD IN THE HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM LAST THURSDAY EVENING, LARGELY ATTENDED.

On Thursday evening, June 23, occurred the commencement exercises at the school auditorium. The beautiful evening made it possible for a large crowd to be present. At eight o'clock the High school orchestra played a march, and the class filed in upon the beautifully decorated stage.

Rev. F. M. Field then gave the invocation, after which Hanna Strasen gave the salutatory, and Merle Roe the valedictory. Both of the above productions were of exceptionally high standard, and they were rendered in a clear and pleasing manner.

Misses Fern and Glendine Hall and Miss Adah Leach then sang a trio, which was enjoyed by all.

The address of the evening was given by Dr. Vance, pastor of the First Presbyterian church at Detroit. His address, though short, was inspiring, eloquent and helpful to all who heard it.

Harold Jolliffe then, in a very pleasing manner, rendered a whistling solo, after which Supt. G. A. Smith presented diplomas to the twenty-eight members of the graduating class, who are as follows: Harry Gerst, Floyd Miller, Merle Roe, Lyman Judson, Duane Sayles, Margaret Taylor, Robert Randall, Leo Wright, Alita Hearn, Iila Roe, Edith Pierce, Elsie Staman, Ward Walker, Ilene Rattenbury, Clifford Tait, Doris Pfeiffer, Marie Darby, Arnold Freydt, Russell VanGilder, Hanna Strasen, Hazel Hill, David Hinnau, Evelyn Knapp, Norma Hake, Loverne Sty, Bennett Wilcox, Willoughby Wiseley, Elsie Melow.

FORMER PLYMOUTH PASTOR DIES

The Rev. Hiram W. Gifford, 70 years old, a Methodist minister in Michigan for many years, died Thursday evening, June 23, at Lansing, after a long illness. After serving in Canada for ten years, he came to Michigan, and for twenty-seven years preached in many churches of the Detroit Methodist Episcopal conference. He retired twelve years ago.

Rev. Gifford was pastor of the Plymouth Methodist church in 1885-86.

We call the attention of our readers to the half page advertisement of thirty-six of our business men, announcing that during the months of July and August, they will close their places of business at noon on Thursdays, the same as they did last summer.

Frank Morgan, wife and daughter of Racine, spent the week-end with Mrs. Charlotte Passage and daughter, Gladys. Mr. Morgan was the only member of the class of '81 present at the alumni banquet Friday evening. He says he always thought Plymouth pretty, but now he is sure it is the prettiest town in the state.

The 1922 motor licenses will be red and white, and are being manufactured in the Jackson prison, for the first time. The plates will be a brilliant red background with white numerals and letters. They are costing the state six cents a set less than from private manufacturers, which will amount to $30,000 on the 500,000 sets being made—June number of Detroit Motor News.

JAY STIMPSON PASSES AWAY

WELL KNOWN YOUNG MAN DIED AT NORTHVILLE LAST SUNDAY AFTER LONG ILLNESS; FUNERAL HELD TUESDAY AFTERNOON.

Jay Stimpson, youngest son of George Stimpson, was born in Saline, Michigan, August 29, 1896, and reached the age of 24 years, 9 months and 26 days, passing out of this world's activities, June 26, 1921. His mother passed away six years ago.

The greater share of Jay's life was spent in Northville, his people moving there when he was a small child. On October 1, 1918, he was united in marriage with Miss May White of Plymouth, living in Northville a year and a half, then moving to Plymouth.

He was first taken ill a year ago last March, and was a great sufferer from that time to the end of his life. On June 1st, he underwent a surgical operation, after which he fought continuously for his life for more than three weeks, but the end came on Sunday, June 26th, at 2:15, at the hospital in Northville.

Jay's sunny disposition and friendly ways won for him the good will and friendship of all with whom he came in contact, and he will be greatly missed by a large circle of friends. He leaves to mourn their loss, his wife, father and four brothers, Grant, Carl, Earl and Beid, together with other relatives and a host of friends.

Funeral services were held from the home of George White, Plymouth, Tuesday afternoon, and were largely attended, Rev. Belle of Northville, officiating. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. The interment took place in Rural Hill cemetery, Northville.

Clarence Sellsack of Medina, New York, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary Lyon and Mrs. Jennie Chaffee.

The need of capital is felt now more than ever before.

Today the farmer needs it as well as the financier. The wage-earner needs it to better his position. It is the power which moves all things.

To have capital, you must set aside a part of your earnings. The man who sets aside a certain amount regularly is the one who in the end has the most.

LIBRARY CENTER ESTABLISHED IN CANTON

The Wayne County Library Board, in establishing book service throughout this county, has recently placed a collection of books in the home of A. H. Griffin on the Canton Center road, for the use of the community. Mr. and Mrs. Griffin have offered the use of their home, and are donating their services in caring for the books, in order that the people in that vicinity may have the advantages of a public library. The library center will be open Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday evenings, but books may also be obtained at any other time that Mrs. Griffin is at home. The service is free.

The organization of library work by counties is a comparatively new development, and has only been possible in Michigan since 1917, when a county library law was passed. Wayne county is the fourth in the state to establish this service. It began here in January of this year, and since that time nine library loans have been placed throughout the county. Besides the collection at Mr. Griffin's there are library centers now located at Grosse Ile, Flat Rock, Belleville, Redford and Taylor Center, and special loans have been made to the Farm Bureau, the Sumpster Farm Club and the Tau Beta Community House in Hamtramck. In every case the opening of the library centers in this county has met with much enthusiasm and appreciation from the community served.

Today's Reflections

Fashions in hats and neckwear may change, but ham and eggs never go out of style.

Another reason why an editor is sorry he's an editor is Dempsey's share of the big fight purse amounts to $300,000 and Carpenter's to $200,000.

A scientist says volcanic eruptions will increase sunshine. What most fellows want to know is how to increase moonshine.

We've notice that the Plymouth man who works intelligently and honestly never has to explain why luck is against him.

Never count chickens before they hatch, and never buy a cider press until you know the apple crop won't be a failure.

There was a time when the all-important question was how to get the most bushels from an acre. Now it's how to get the most miles out of a gallon of gasoline.

When we figure railroad fare at about four cents a mile, with as much free dust and cinders as ever, a vacation at home looks better than ever.

Some Plymouth men are not henpecked. They just happen to have their nerve in their wife's name.

When a fellow reads out loud and pronounces the names of some of the new countries, it sounds exactly like he was swearing.

Our idea of indiscretion is using the telephone when you want to call a man a liar.

It's just like hunting a needle in a haystack to hunt for a Plymouth boy who doesn't know exactly when school will start again.

We've always noticed that the man who lets his money do the talking, always seems to have a lot of friends.

Say what you will, but the fellow who has a lot of horse-sense seldom makes a donkey of himself.

On some roads around Plymouth a fellow doesn't break his auto as often as he does the second commandment.

They've changed the old saying now to read, "Marry in haste and hunt a house at your leisure."

LAPHAM'S CORNERS

The Lapham Ladies' Aid met last week Thursday with Mrs. Clifford Casterline. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Harmon Gale in two weeks, July 7th. Everyone cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Glen Maddocks was a Northville shopper, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Glinesmith entertained a large number of friends with a dancing party in their new barn Tuesday evening.

Several from here attended the dance at the Salem town hall, last Friday evening, and all report a fine time.

Arthur Lutz of Saline, spent Sunday at Walter Rorabacher's.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Simpson and daughter and Floyd Perkins and sister spent Sunday at Walled Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Coda Savery and daughter, Norma, spent a few days last week visiting relatives in Canada.

THE THEATRE

Mary Pickford's latest United Artist production, "Through the Back Door" will be shown as the feature attraction at the Penniman Allen theatre, Saturday evening, July 2. This picture shows Mary Pickford in a child role, which at the same time is a character part. The story is a combination of comedy and drama punctuated with many of those laughable pranks for which Little Mary is famous when portraying a pig-tailed kiddie. From the farms of Belgium to the mansions of Long Island, the camera follows this clever little actress in "Through the Back Door." Matherlove and the heart-hunger of a child all bound up in the intricate society drama, supply the emotional impulses of the play.

A fictive battle that thrills is that fought between William S. Hart, as "Square" Kelly, a reformed safe-cracker, and Tierney, a gang leader, in Mr. Hart's latest Paramount picture, "The Cradle of Courage," which comes to the Penniman Allen, Monday evening, July 4. This is one of the numerous incidents, which make this film story one of the most powerful in which Mr. Hart has been seen in recent months. Ann Little heads a capable supporting cast of players.

Another popular stage play has been adapted to the screen and will be shown here. "The Prince Chap," Edward Peple's comedy, in which Cyril Scott scored so emphatically for three years, has been filmed by William De Mille. It will be on view at the Penniman Allen theatre, next Thursday evening, July 7th. The picture is an appealing story of artist life in London. Thomas Meighan has the leading role, and the cast includes Lila Lee, Kathlyn Williams and Theodore Kosteroff. It is a Paramount Arctcraft.

PRESBYTERIAN PARAGRAPHS

Miss Lucile Lincoln sang a solo last Sunday in Sunday-school with an accompaniment on the new piano. Both were delightful. Miss Lincoln also sang in her usual charming manner at the morning and afternoon service.

The trustees met Monday night at the church.

The loose collection next Sunday will be turned over to the deaconess fund for local charity.

J. H. Hathaway of Ann Arbor, is spending several days of his vacation at the manse. Thursday he goes to Boston to enter the Emerson School of Expression for the summer session. A number of members will be received into the church next Sunday morning. Those whose names have not yet been acted upon may meet the session next Sunday morning at 9:45.

W. J. Burrows is building a sand table for use in the primary department of the Sunday-school.

STATE FAIR LIKE GREAT UNIVERSITY

HAS SOMETHING TO TEACH ALL BY DISPLAYING BEST OF ALL PRODUCTS.

GIVES TRUE REFLECTION OF MICHIGAN'S PROGRESS

Few universities are enabled to disseminate as much knowledge along the lines of all life's activities as does the Michigan State Fair, which will hold its 72nd annual exhibition in Detroit, Sept. 2-11. For the people of the state generally the annual state fair is a fount of information about the things they are most concerned with in their every-day existence.

The state fair exhibits show the best that is produced in agriculture, livestock, dairying, poultry, automotive trades, machinery, industrial work of varied sorts, road building, arts and sciences, city and country school work, home work, such as needlework, handicraft work, garment-making, canning and numerous other sorts of endeavor. No matter in what line or variety of lines any person is interested he can find much of an instructive nature among the fair exhibits.

Michigan's state fair has taken rank as the best in the whole of America. Its coming show will be greater in scope and size and pay more in premiums than any ever held before. It will be the most instructive exposition of its kind to date.

"More than ever the state fair of today has become a leading educational institution," said Secretary-Manager G. W. Dickinson, of the state fair, discussing this feature. "It shows better than any other way can show how the state is developing and what it is accomplishing. It brings the people of the state together—the farmer, the manufacturer, the business man, the professional man, the woman interested in industrial or domestic matters, and the children who are just becoming interested in some line of life's activities.

"It shows to each one the best that is being accomplished in what he is most concerned with, and it gives to each one the opportunity to see what others are doing. The fair is a great mirror of the state's progress and this year it will have more such progress to reflect than ever before in its history."

DETROIT MERCHANT HEADS STATE FAIR ART EXHIBIT

The state fair as a whole is a work of art. It should be made attractive to all who come to see it, both in its entirety and in all its details. The art department of the fair will encourage the development of artistic displays and aid in making all features artistic in the fair to be held in Detroit, September 2-11.

This is the attitude of Oscar K. Webber, of the J. L. Hudson Co., Detroit, member of the State Fair Board of Managers in charge of the art department of the fair, and of H. M. Kurtzworth, director of the department. Their idea is that everyone should be something of an artist in the things he buys and uses and something of a designer in the things he makes and sells.

Therefore the aim is to have the art department at the fair show how the American home can be made more attractive in its appearance; how the libraries, museums and public buildings may be improved; how raw materials may be made into better designed products; and to enable the department to bring the hundreds of thousands of state fair visitors into contact with artistic displays of makers of fine goods.

Splendid exhibits in the arts and crafts will feature the 1921 fair. There will be daily lectures and demonstrations in both throughout the ten days of the fair. Director Kurtzworth, of the Michigan Art Institute, Paul Honore and other authorities will lecture each day on some definite topic related to art, their talks being illustrated with studio material or live models. In the crafts there will be special lesson lectures on definite topics each day, including stenciling, designing, weaving, carving, enameling, decorating and other subjects.

Mrs. Linda Harrod Endorses Chamberlain's Tablets
"I suffered for years with stomach trouble and tried everything I heard of, but the only relief I got was temporary, until last spring I saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and procured a bottle of them from our druggist. I got immediate relief from that dreadful heaviness and pain in my stomach after eating. Since taking two bottles I can eat anything I want without distress," writes Mrs. Linda Harrod, Ft. Wayne, Ind.—Advertisement.

PLYMOUTH COW MAKES GOOD RECORD

Local Holsteins are continuing to make good milk and butter production records, as is indicated by the official tests reported from the office of Malcolm H. Gardner, Delavan, Wisconsin, superintendent of Advanced Registry of the Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

This week's bulletin reports the pure bred registered Holstein-Friesian cow, Dora Pontiac Segis DeKol, owned by G. E. Bench of Plymouth, Mich., as having made at the age of two years and six months, a record of 373 pounds of milk and fifteen pounds of butter fat in seven days, equivalent to 18 1/2 pounds of butter.

The 36th annual meeting of the Holstein-Friesian Association of America was held at Syracuse, New York, June 1st and 2nd. Ex-Governor Frank O. Lowden of Illinois, was elected president to succeed D. D. Atkin of Flint, Mich. The next meeting of the association will be held at Kansas City, Mo., June 2, 1922.

John Porter of Grand Rapids, has been visiting Chauncey Bunya for a few days.

Work on the water works improvements is progressing nicely. The work at the well is about completed and the work at the reservoir is fast nearing completion.

P. H. S. ALUMNI HELD BANQUET

MORE THAN 200 GRADUATES
WERE HERE FOR THE OCCASION, WHICH WAS THE MOST SUCCESSFUL EVER HELD IN PLYMOUTH.

Several months ago ex-Emperor Charles of Austria, staged "a comeback," but it was a failure. Last Friday evening, June 24th, the Plymouth High School Alumni association staged "a comeback;" theirs was a success. The abandonment of the custom of holding an annual alumni banquet had been regretted by everyone; the revival of the custom could not have been more spirited than was the successful banquet of 1921. Too much credit cannot be given to Mrs. Robert Chappel, acting vice president of the association, for her splendid and untiring efforts to make the alumni comeback the success that it was.

From 6 to 7 o'clock Friday evening, 250 graduates, teachers and friends of Plymouth High school, surged through the halls, meeting and visiting with old associates. At 7 o'clock, the classes were called by Robert Jolliffe, 1906, to the auditorium for the banquet. The class of 1881, with one member present, and the teachers of 1881, which included the guest of honor, Miss Anna Smith, went first. Then followed the other classes of honor, the class of 1921, and the other classes in the chronological order.

The tables were decorated with myrtle and blue larkspur. Music for the entrance of the guests was furnished by Miss Evelyn Thomas, Mrs. B. E. Giles, Miss Anna Baker, 1888, and Mrs. K. W. Hillmer.

After a delightful banquet, Mrs. Chappel conducted the business meeting, at which the following officers were elected for 1921 and 1922:

President—Mrs. Robert Chappel, 1900.
Vice President—Miss Rose Hillmer, 1913.
Secretary-Treasurer—Russell Van-Gilder, 1921.

After this Mrs. Chappel began the program by burning the notes, which signified the end of debt for the association. Then the chairman called for movies, for which the actors were all former teachers of the Plymouth schools, all lawyers, all farmers, housewives, mothers, school teachers, nurses, business men, all former officers of the association, members of the class of 1881, teachers of 1881, the class of 1921, and the largest class ever graduated, 1913.

Then the program was turned over to the toastmaster, Paul W. Voorhies, '93, whom we always expect to be splendid, and who always meets our expectations.

The first toast, which was prepared by Frank Durfee, A. B., class of 1881, and read for him by Miss Lina Durfee, was very splendid in thought.

Then came toasts from Prof. C. T. Grawn on, "A Superintendent of '81;" from Lydia Joy McNabb on, "A Girl of Ten Years Later," and "School Days of 1901," by Miss Bertha Warner. All of these pointed out the differences in our town and school of forty, thirty and twenty years ago and today. Quite the wittiest and most clever toast was given by Helen Smith Gibson, who compared the clothes of the class of 1911 with those of 1921.

The next group of toasts came from an alumna mother, Fanny Spicer Doerr of 1897, and an alumnus father, Norman Miller of 1899, followed by the response of the son, Floyd Miller, who has been an honor in the class of 1921, because of his exceptionally fine work in athletics, and the response of the son, Lyman Judson, who spoke as well as befits one who has honored his class of 1921, and his school in debate and oratory. "On Memory's Wall" was the last formal toast. It was exceedingly beautiful in thought and was given by Mamie Blue Patterson of 1887, in honor of Mr. Agness Ewing Sly, the mother of four Plymouth High school alumni, including Loverne Sly of 1921, and in honor of Mrs. Ernest Roe, the mother of three Plymouth High school alumnae, of whom two, Merle and Lila Roe were in the class of 1921.

The music for the program was a very beautiful vocal solo by Norma Baker Cassidy, 1910, and a violin solo by Miss Anna Baker of 1888.

After the above program the toastmaster called for impromptu toasts from Bertha Shattuck Olney, who was the guest from the longest distance, Miss Isabelle Hanford, Supt. Smith and former Superintendent W. N. Isbell, who spoke fittingly of the great service of Miss Anna Smith to our town and school.

The climax of the evening came when Mr. Voorhies, after an appropriate speech of appreciation of her work, presented Miss Anna Smith with a handsome purse as a token of the gratitude of her former students and friends of the past forty-six years. Then Miss Smith, in the manner which we all love, told us how she hated to come to Plymouth at first, and how happy she had been here ever since she had come.

Following Miss Smith's delightful response, Mr. Voorhies honored Plymouth High School Alumni association by declaring Miss Smith its first honorary member.

After singing a verse of "America," the guests were dismissed with hearts full of happiness for friendships renewed, service honored and loyalties strengthened. Thus the 1921 "comeback" of Plymouth High School Alumni association was a credit to the school and community, and a goal to be reached at future alumni banquets.

PACKARD REUNION

The descendants of the late Orson Packard of Salem township, held their reunion on Saturday, June 25th, at the pleasant farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Lyke, two miles west of Salem. Guests to the number of seventy were in attendance. The day was as perfect as a June day could well be, and everyone did ample justice to the bountiful dinner, which was served at one o'clock p. m., and also to the ice cream and cake served later in the afternoon.

Visiting, games, ball games and a grab bag furnished the amusement of the day.

The oldest member present was Mrs. Louisa Packard of Plymouth, aged eighty years. The youngest, Mary Caroline Tait, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Olin Tait of Dixboro, who lacked one day of being three weeks old. The former was the only one in attendance to bear the Packard name.

Guests were present from Detroit, Lansing, Highland Park, West Branch, Dixboro, Ann Arbor, Plymouth, Adrian, and Salem.

Late in the afternoon they departed for their homes, voting the gathering one of the pleasantest ever attended. The family will meet next year the last Saturday in June at the home of John Quackenbush of Dixboro.

GRANGE NOTES

Saturday, July 2nd, Plymouth Grange and friends will hold the July meeting with a basket picnic dinner at Walled Lake. After possibly a short business session, the remainder of the afternoon will be devoted to games and sports arranged for by a special committee. Everybody welcome. Our slogan for the year, "Every member, one new member, 1921."

Baptist Notes

The pastor spoke Sunday morning especially to those who in these days may find it hard to find employment, a message that Jesus gave in His own life, when he revealed to the multitude that he knew and sympathized with those who were hungry or struggling with disease, or had been disappointed and reversed in life had come, to cast all their cares upon Him, for that was His mission, to bear the burdens and sins of many. After the sermon the communion service was observed.

Henry Holcomb led the B. Y. P. U. The subject was, "Choosing a Vocation." He gave some splendid thoughts, and said we ought to be guided by the spirit of the Lord in all of our plans.

The Children's Day exercises took place, last Saturday evening, and were well carried out. The decorations were a little different from other occasions and were very pretty. The offering was sent to the relief work in the near east.

The Ladies' Missionary society met with Mrs. Beals on Wednesday of this week.

The prayer meeting is always on Thursday evening. You are invited to come.

This week Friday evening an ice cream social will be held on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Compton, Starkweather avenue. The band will furnish music for the occasion. Come and have a good time.

Mr. Allenbaugh and his Sunday-school class spent the afternoon of Saturday at Walled Lake.

Sunday, June 26th, was a great day at the church of Our Lady of Good Counsel of Plymouth, it being the day of first holy communion of the children. Thirty children partook of the first communion. The Rev. Father LaFever officiated at mass and conferred the communion. The church had been newly decorated for the occasion. A fine sermon was delivered. Breakfast was served in the basement of the church, to the class that partook of communion, by the ladies of the parish. There was a large attendance and the ceremony was very impressive. A rectory has been purchased by the parish, and Father LaFever has been installed as pastor, and under his management the church is flourishing. Father LaFever is a pleasing personality, and has won many friends in Plymouth, since his advent here.

Mr. Johnson, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Huston, is still in Harper hospital, Detroit, her illness being caused by an after effect of influenza.

Miss Blanche Hutton attended the Alumni banquet of Plymouth High school, last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. George Maynard's son, Claude, had his tonsils removed at Beyer Memorial hospital, Ypsilanti, and is doing well.

Those who attended the M. A. C. at East Lansing, (Farmer Tourist Camp) from this vicinity, were: Mrs. S. W. Spicer, Mrs. Frank Hawk, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Swegles, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Waggoner. Will say en route that Ingham county is not in it with Canton township on a good hay crop, although the wheat crop looks to exceed Wayne county.

The recent rains have done much good, and was welcomed by all.

Rush work on Warren avenue is now the order of the day, and many are anxiously waiting for its completion.

Mrs. Libbie TenEyck of Milan, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. Zander.

Charles Wilder Zander, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zander, and a pupil of the ninth grade in the Plymouth schools, died of diphtheria at the Ann Arbor hospital, where he had been taken a few days previous, Wednesday evening, June 22nd. The interment took place in the Sheldon cemetery, Friday morning, June 24th. Charles Wilder Zander, was born in Warford county, departing this life at the age of 14 years and nine months. He leaves to mourn their loss the mother and father, one sister and six brothers. The writer had the pleasure of knowing the youth, as having a bright and amiable disposition, and he will be missed by those who knew him.

With the opening of the good roads to Lake Orion and the advent of hot weather, Park Island is again enjoying a very prosperous season. The bathing beach especially is doing a rushing business, and with continued hot weather will break all records. Free advice with assistance will be given this season to all patrons of the Beach.

Fourteen little tots had an enjoyable time at the surprise party given in honor of the fourth birthday of Muriel D. Matts, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Matts, last Saturday. Cupie dolls dressed in green helped to carry out the theme, and the children were pleased to find they might take the little dolls home with them.

NOTICE

THE EFFECT OF RESTRICTED SPRINKLING ON WATER PRESSURE

Since Saturday, June 25, the people of Plymouth have been restricted in their sprinkling to one-half hour a day. I think the majority of the people are conscientious, and are co-operating with the village so that there may be sufficient water throughout the entire village for ordinary domestic usage. In order that the water users may see what the effect of their cooperations in this matter has been, I have been tabulating the results of the pressure gauge readings at the pumping station and at the village hall for the past ten days, the first five days of which were before restrictions were made and the last five after they had been put in force. The table given below shows the average pressure for each hour both at the pump house and at the hall for the "before" and "after taking" conditions. The last two columns give the differences between the first and second periods. Those differences mean a great deal to the people living in the higher parts of the village. In some cases they mean the difference between no water at all and enough for ordinary purposes. In some cases it means the possible use of a water heater; and to all it means much in the way of convenience.

A study of these tables will show to every water user that his personal cooperation in the matter of reasonable use of the village water means a very large direct benefit to the village as a whole. Everyone hopes that the summer rains will come often enough so that the gardens and lawns will not suffer from the lack of water, but if they do not then the sense of having helped in keeping the water supply adequate will have to take the place of one's pride in the appearance of the lawn or garden.

Average pressure in pounds of five days before restrictions were in force:

OBITUARY

Mrs. Martha Messer was born in Germany, June 23, 1844, and came to this country when but two years old, with her parents. She was united in marriage to Philip Messer when twenty-two years old and to this union ten children were born, five boys and five girls. Five having died many years ago, there remain two boys, Henry Messer of Plymouth; Albert Messer of Newburg, and three daughters, Mrs. Margaret Pierce and Catherine Messer of Detroit, and Mrs. Martha C. Wilkie of Plymouth; also seven grandchildren. She leaves besides her husband and children, one sister, Mrs. Amelia Dole of Buffalo, and three brothers, Joseph and Robert Eggart of Buffalo, and Henry Eggart of Omaha.

Catherine Messer was called to Grand Rapids, last Sunday, and remained with her mother until she died, Tuesday at 3:30 p. m. The remains were brought to Plymouth, and taken to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Wilkie, on Main street. The funeral services were held from the Catholic church, Thursday morning at nine o'clock, with burial in Riverside cemetery.

What matter though life be dreary,
And we tread his path alone;
If, when the judge he ends,
In heaven we'll know our own.
'Tis enough to know if we're faithful,
Till the labor of life is done;
In the sweet bye-and-bye in heaven,
We shall meet and know our own.

FOUND VALUABLE WAR RELIC

Oregon Legion Man's Best Trophy of Big Conflict, Is Worth Large Sum.

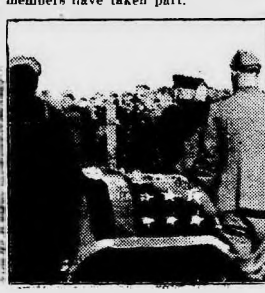

Souvenirs varying from a chip off Eiffel tower to a German beer stein captured in Sedan, were brought back from France by the returning Americans. But few of the mementoes stored in a dough boy's pack are as valuable as that George D. Foster, formerly a corporal of the Fourth Engineers, Fourth Division, who found a rare Roman coin that is perhaps worth several hundred dollars.

While looking for a safe and soft spot in the ruins of an old house near Sergy, France, Corporal Foster, now a peace-loving member of the American Legion in Cottage Grove, Ore., found an old gilt case containing a coin. He thrust it into his pack and recently turned it over to a college professor who pronounced it worth more than its weight in gold. Its date is 306 A. D. On one side it bears the inscription "Magnus," the title given the Emperor Constantine. On the other side are the inscriptions "Votus XX," "Beatus Tranquillus," and "Percusa Treveris." The latter words, the professor declares, indicate that the coin was minted in Trier, Germany, formerly a seat of the Roman empire.

LEGION MEN BURY COMRADES

Organization Officers at Almost Every Reinterment of Men Who Fell on Battlefields.

With the thousands of bodies being returned to the homeland from the battlefields of France, the American Legion has justified its existence if for no other reason than the display of proper respect for the remains of the country's heroes. In almost every instance in which the body of a soldier who died overseas has been reinterred in American soil, Legion members have taken part.

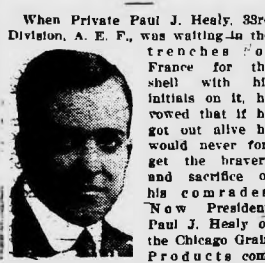

Funeral for Indian Comrade.

The photograph shows the ceremonies of the military funeral held by Carl Anderson Post of the Legion at Cloquet, Minnesota, for John DeLoe, the first American Indian from the state to be killed in action. The tribe to which the dead soldier belonged was glad to allow his white comrades to bury him in a manner befitting his brave career in the service of his country.

EX-SERVICE BOYS GET JOBS

President of Chicago Grain Concern Trench Experienced, Does Not Forget His Suddies.

When Private Paul J. Healy, 33rd Division, A. E. F., was waiting in the trenches of France for the shell with his initials on it, he vowed that if he got out alive he would never forget the bravery and sacrifice of his comrades. Now President Paul J. Healy of the Chicago Grain Products company, Rockford, Ill., is living up to the pledge he took on the field of battle.

The company which Mr. Healy heads recently began the construction of a new distillery. Mr. Healy ordered that none but ex-service men be employed in the construction work, and informed all concerned that when the plant is constructed, veterans of the World war will be shown all the preference on the company's pay roll. "My hope is to build an organization of former soldiers," Mr. Healy announced.

Mr. Healy enlisted as a private in the infantry and was discharged as a sergeant. He was gassed at Albert, on the British front. He is one of the most active workers of Brophy post of the American Legion in Chicago.
