BE A LEADER OF MEN

A negative man is seldom constructive. The men who are ready to make mistakes, if necessary, men who without noise are working their way along new paths in education, religion and business, become the real leaders of men.

Regular church attendance deepens the springs of life and strengthens one's character to resist temptation and to come out victorious over evil. Come to church next Sunday and hear the sermon on,

NOVEMBER WEDDINGS

DREWS-STRASEN
 The marriage of Clara L. Strasen to Edward C. Drews took place at St. Peter's Lutheran church at six o'clock, Wednesday evening, Nov. 30th, the father of the bride, Rev. Charles Strasen officiating. It was private for the two families and a few intimate friends of the bride. The church was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and cut flowers. The bride carried a bouquet of white bridal roses, and was attended by her sister, Miss Cordula Strasen, who carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. George Strasen acted as best man to the groom. The couples entered the church as Hannah Strasen played the wedding march on the organ, accompanied by Alfred Strasen on the clarinet. After a brief wedding discourse on Psalms 115:11, the double ring ceremony being used, the couple were made man and wife. As a splendid conclusion of the solemn service, Prof. Held of Detroit, sang a beautiful baritone solo. The parsonage was nicely decorated in orange and white. A dainty wedding dinner was served for the members of the families, after which the bridal couple left for Chester, Illinois, to spend their honeymoon. Clara Strasen is the third daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Charles Strasen, and is well known to all as the clerk in Pinckney's Pharmacy. The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Christ Drews of Starkweather avenue, is a clerk in the office of the local railroad yards.

McKinney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McKinney, of Livonia, and Miss Alice Larden, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Larden, of Stark, were quietly married at the Presbyterian manse, Wednesday evening, Nov. 23, by the pastor, Rev. S. Conger Hathaway. Miss Isolene McKinney, sister of the groom, acted as bridesmaid, and George Fisher as best man. Thursday, Thanksgiving dinner was given in their honor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Larden. Mr. McKinney is in the employ of the Bell Telephone Co., and for the present, they will reside with the bride's parents. Friends extend best wishes for happiness and prosperity.

DEATH OF HARRY C. BENNETT

A LIFE-LONG RESIDENT OF PLYMOUTH PASSED AWAY AT HARPER HOSPITAL LAST SUNDAY MORNING.

In the death of Harry C. Bennett, which occurred at Harper hospital, last Sunday morning, Plymouth lost one of her best known and most prominent citizens. The funeral services were held from Schrader Bros. Funeral Home, Tuesday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. Interment in Riverside cemetery.
 Harry C. Bennett was born Nov. 20, 1860, just two doors from the home where he lived when he passed away, Nov. 27, 1921, having lived his eventual life of 61 years and 7 days in the same place where he was born. He was married February 27, 1890, to Anna Sloss of Dearborn, who early preceded him in death, having died August 31, 1897, seven years after their marriage. To this union was born one son, Pierre, who was five years old when his mother died. Soon after his wife died, Mr. Bennett went to live with his mother, to whom he gave his devoted care and attention until her death in March of the present year. Mr. Bennett was in active business here in Plymouth for a number of years, having conducted a grocery and several other lines. He was active in county work, having been deputy sheriff for a number of years, and also being deputy county clerk. He was a member of the local order of Knights of Pythias. The immediate cause of his death was heart trouble and the hardening of the arteries, as a culmination of several months of suffering and weakening. He leaves to mourn their loss, one son, Pierre, an only brother, Charles, of this village, and a number of other relatives and many friends.

PIANO RECITAL - A GREAT SUCCESS
 The piano recital given by Miss Juanita Coe in the Penniman Allen theatre, last Monday evening, was greatly enjoyed by all who attended. Miss Coe played her program of six selections without notes, and with grace and ease, bespeaking of many hours of hard work and diligent study. She is fourteen years of age, and has been studying music for the past four years under the direction of Miss Czarina Penney, Mrs. Bac., and during that time she has worked hard and made advancement which gives promise of a brilliant future. The opening and closing numbers on the program were two-piano duets, with Miss Penney presiding at the second piano. J. Parre, violinist, accompanied on the piano by his wife, delighted the company with several selections. The stage was attractive with flower baskets and ferns. During the evening, Miss Coe was presented with beautiful flowers from admiring friends.

Especially when the Christian Church stands for the best interests of his community, his home, his state and nation.

PLAIN FOOD

Prosperity has ruined many a stomach. When money was flush, along in wartime and for a year or so after, people slipped away from plain food and bought lobsters, fancy jellies, candied fruits and high-priced canned meats. Now comes a big Ohio grocer—he has over 700 retail stores—and he tells a national convention of canners that fancy food is going out, and plain, old-fashioned staples—like canned tomatoes, and corned beef and cabbage—are coming back. This is bad news for those who deal in such things, and its bad for stomach specialists, but it's fortunate for national health. Most of us dig our graves with our teeth. Business depression occasionally is a blessing in disguise, for it starves some people into good health. More people right here in Plymouth commit suicide with their teeth than with poison or a pistol. So maybe a little touch of hard times is going to be worth a lot to them, after all.

MR. AND MRS.

What wonderful thoughts come up when those two abbreviations are printed in a news item—what intense human interest they portray. In papers printed in towns like Plymouth they take the one big place in all items, from the simple visit to relatives to the larger matters of human life. "Mr. and Mrs."—the great news item of the universe, the bringer of recollections to the man far away from home, who takes his old home-paper, and reads the items of Mr. and Mrs., and lets his mind wander back to the days when he knew the Mr. in knee pants and the Mrs. in short skirts—even shorter than fashion has decreed for her in recent years. It's the home-town paper where the real Mr. and Mrs. items are printed—and to receive the home-town paper week in and week out is to know the great happiness of those you wouldn't forget for all the world—the boys and the girls you now know as Mr. and Mrs.

LOCAL BANK STARTS CHRISTMAS CLUB

The Christmas Club which the Plymouth United Savings Bank has just installed, is worthy of the attention of every man, woman and child in our community.

It affords a systematic method for saving money. It is surprising how a start with these four amounts will count up to a nice tidy sum in 50 weeks.

You can start with ten cents and increase your payments of 10 cents per week for 50 weeks. The largest payment is only $5.00, yet next Christmas you will have $127.50.

Start with 5c—increase 5c each week—next Christmas you will have $63.75.

Then there is the club for the little folks and the baby. Start with 2c, increasing the payment 2c each week and you have, at the end of 50 weeks—$25.50.

Start with 1c—you will have $12.75.

Or you can start with the largest deposit and decrease your payments each week.

Then there are the "even amount or fixed sum" Clubs. Start with 25c, 50c, $1.00, $2.00, $5.00, $10.00 or $20.00. Deposit this same amount each week, and at the end of 50 weeks, you will have from $12.50 to $1,000. Figure this out for yourself.

The Christmas Club is a good thing for everyone in our community, from baby up.

All or a part of this money can be drawn out of the bank next Christmas, or all or part of it can remain on deposit in the bank to start a regular account.

The Plymouth United Savings Bank will be very glad to have any one come in and receive a Christmas Club bank book, which shows how much is to be deposited and how much the various Clubs will amount to.

This campaign for thrift is certainly to be commended and the Plymouth United Savings Bank is to be congratulated for offering such an attractive system to every one for saving money.

RECEPTION AT METHODIST CHURCH

One of the unique social occasions of the year at the local Methodist church occurred last Wednesday night when a public reception was held in honor of Dr. H. A. Leeson and wife, Ann Arbor. Dr. Leeson is the new District Superintendent of the Ann Arbor district, of which the Plymouth church is a part. After an informal social greeting and fellowship hour, the following pleasing program was presented: A get-together song by all present; Recitation by Dorothy Hillman; Greetings to Dr. Leeson from the men of the church by W. B. Lombard; Greetings from the women by Mrs. F. W. Hillman; Duet by Fester and Corinne Howell; Greetings from the Young Folks by Kenneth Bartlett; Cornet solo by Philip Millard at the piano; Response by Dr. Leeson. In closing, while a song was being sung, the ladies brought refreshments which consisted of pickles, sandwiches, coffee, cake. The consensus of opinion favored the conclusion that it was a very happy occasion.

A PLEASING ENTERTAINMENT

A most pleasing and successful entertainment was given at the Methodist church last Friday night by the Misses Dorothy Hillman and Virginia Giles under the auspices of Mrs. White's division of the Ladies Aid Society. These two delightful little ladies rendered a most entertaining program for about an hour and a half of readings and musical selections. Both of them show remarkable talent that speaks well for their future. Their parents are to be congratulated. They were assisted by Miss Carmina Penney, who played their musical accompaniments, and by Mr. Stuart McMillan, who rendered several pleasing solos, and also by a small orchestra. Those who were not there missed a real treat.

TAX NOTICE

I will be at the main office of the Plymouth United Savings Bank, during banking hours, every Thursday during December, and at my residence, 260 Spring street, every Friday for the collection of taxes. I now have 1922 dog tags and licenses.

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE

PLYMOUTH'S PART IN THE WAYNE COUNTY TUBERCULOSIS RELIEF.

The gratifying news has reached us that one year ago, in the annual sale of Christmas Seals, Plymouth was first among the districts of Wayne county. This is especially encouraging to the workers who did the actual soliciting in the Plymouth territory.

These are difficult times for everybody, especially for the sick and poor. It is not in line with our American spirit and our prevailing feeling of brotherhood to allow any of these to be neglected and uncared for, even if it means considerable sacrifice on our part. Certainly the tubercular poor will need assistance more this year than ever before, and it is so easy to render our individual share of help through the purchase of Christmas Seals at one cent each. Then too, these very attractive seals are so useful to use on Christmas packages and letters.

Once again, Mrs. Charles Bennett has been appointed general chairman for the Plymouth territory, and with her enthusiasm and intense interest in the welfare of all the people to be benefited, Plymouth will most surely make another splendid showing. Lawrence Samsen and Evedred Jolliffe have been placed in charge of publicity for the Plymouth territory. It is understood that other chairmen will also be appointed. The particular time for the sale of the seals is the week beginning Monday, Dec. 6th.

Through the courtesy and kindly interest of Superintendent George A. Smith, the co-operation of Plymouth schools has been offered. Other schools in the vicinity of Plymouth are also expected to take part in the drive.

Practical aid to tuberculosis sufferers in Plymouth and vicinity is available through the free clinic conducted at Wayne county in co-ordination with that in Detroit for the Detroit Tuberculosis Sanatorium.

Plymouth headquarters will be in the Red Cross room at the High School building. Of course, solicitors will cover the territory thoroughly, but many are not waiting to be called upon. One of Plymouth's leading enterprises has already ordered 2500 of these stamps already ordered 2500.

The Plymouth Mail is lending enthusiastic co-operation by having placed on each and every one of the papers mailed out this week one of the tuberculosis seals. See how attractive it is.

Plymouth's two drug stores and other places of business are assisting by keeping the seals for sale. Automobile wind shield stickers are being distributed. They can also be obtained at headquarters.

Once again, Plymouth will see to it that humanity's call is not in vain.

DEATH OF FORMER PLYMOUTH CITIZEN

We take the following from the Stockton, California, Record of Friday, November 19th, relative to the death of John M. Eddy, a former resident of Plymouth, and a brother of J. O. Eddy, of this village:

John Mathewson Eddy, former secretary of the chamber of commerce and for years a newspaperman in Stockton, passed away this morning following an illness that had its inception several years ago. Mr. Eddy was born in the old family homestead at Richfield, N. Y., June 16, 1851. He came to California when he was 24 years old and entered newspaper work in the political campaign of 1888, writing editorials for the Humboldt Times of Eureka. In 1892, he was elected secretary of the Humboldt chamber of commerce of which he had previously been a trustee and which he helped to establish.

He was owner of a weekly paper called "The Nerve" which he edited. It gained wide popularity at once and moved to San Francisco, where it was short-lived. Mr. Eddy came to Stockton in 1898 to join the staff of the Stockton Record and later joined the staff of the Independent to write editorials for that publication. He left the Independent in 1906 to accept the position of secretary of the Stockton chamber of commerce, in which position he helped organize the Chamber of Commerce in 1901 and was a member of the first board of directors. When Colvin E. Brown was called east to accept a high position, Mr. Eddy was chosen as his successor. The late D. A. Guernsey was then president of the chamber. The other directors were M. J. Gardner, W. P. Steinback, Fred M. West, George W. Tattersall, S. V. Ryland, A. C. Oullahan, E. W. S. Woods, Richard Lauxen, Pliny E. Holt, J. K. Wagner, C. D. Clarke, John M. Perry, Ralph P. Lane and George E. Wilhoit.

Mr. Eddy's career as secretary of the chamber of commerce was one of notable successes. He was the directing force in the campaign which resulted in bonding San Joaquin county for good roads in March 1909, and thereafter he became known as "The Father of Good Roads," for San Joaquin pioneered the way in matters of highway improvements in the west. As a speaker and an organizer, Mr. Eddy's services became very much in demand in other counties and he aided many in their successful highway bond campaigns.

Stockton attained many achievements during Mr. Eddy's term as secretary of the chamber. Mr. Eddy understood as no other Stocktonian the value of statistics and he made good use of them in furthering campaigns. Among those most closely associated with Mr. Eddy in his work for the chamber were the following who served as presidents of that body while he was secretary: D. A. Guernsey, John M. Perry, George F. Hudson, F. B. Nims, L. S. Wetmore and George E. Catts.

In July, 1913, he became manager of the Delta Canning company, of which he was one of the principal stockholders. In December of that year, he and his family moved to San Francisco and in February, 1914, accepted a position with the Panama-Pacific Exposition, where he remained until its close.

At the close of the exposition, Mr. Eddy returned to Stockton to re-enter the employ of the Record as editorial writer. Later failing health forced him to give up his active work and he moved to Whidby Island, near Seattle, where he lived for two years. A few months ago, Mr. and Mrs. Eddy returned to Stockton that Mr. Eddy might spend his last days in the home city that he loved so well.

While in Stockton, engaged in newspaper work, he married Clara Melvina Roberts in San Francisco. Besides his widow, he leaves a daughter, Mrs. W. N. Gilliam, of Fresno, a sister, Mrs. Sarah Nelson, of San Francisco, a brother, J. O. Eddy of Plymouth, Mich., a sister, Miss Anna B. Eddy, of Wickliffe-on-the-Lake, Ohio, Mrs. Richard A. Rea, of Stockton, and Miss Jessie Roberts of San Francisco, nieces of Mrs. Eddy, lived with the Eddys for 20 years and Mr. Eddy considered them as his daughters and frequently spoke of them as such. Mr. Eddy was a member of the Masonic lodge for nearly half a century.

The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock from the chapel of B. C. Wallace, and will be private.

John M. Perry Pays Tribute

On learning of the death of Mr. Eddy, John M. Perry, who was president of the chamber of commerce for two terms while Mr. Eddy was secretary, said:

"In the passing of J. M. Eddy this community has lost one of its most valued citizens. Mr. Eddy was a man of clear vision, untiring energy and unexcelled in the execution of details.

"It was he who originated the idea of conserving waters of the Calaveras river to protect the city from flood and the silting of the San Joaquin river from this source.

"It was he who fostered the good roads movement, not only in San Joaquin county, but in the entire state. He was one of the charter members of the Good Roads Club of California.

"During the time he was secretary of the Stockton Chamber of Commerce, the United States Department of Agriculture was interested in our good roads movement, and sent Engineer Morton and Mr. Cooley from Washington to construct the object lesson road to demonstrate to the people the advantages of good highways, and, as a direct result, our splendid system of highways was constructed.

"To Mr. Eddy more than any other is due the credit for the many improvements in the course and the deepening of the San Joaquin river. His memorial to Congress at the time Congress approved the nine-foot project and appropriated approximately $250,000 for the construction of this nine-foot channel was a masterpiece.

"Personally, I was a director of the Stockton Chamber of Commerce when Mr. Eddy was elected secretary in 1902, and served in 1908 and 1909 as its president. In all that time, Mr. Eddy's one thought was for the improvement and betterment of the community in which he lived.

"He was a true and trusted friend, and his passing will be mourned by the entire community."

"Max of Genias," Says Oullahan

"Secretary-Manager A. C. Oullahan, of the Stockton Chamber of Commerce, was a member of the board of directors of that body when Mr. Eddy was secretary. He paid Mr. Eddy this tribute:

"The death of J. M. Eddy marks the passing of one whose days of usefulness were days of helpfulness to the people of the community.

"He was secretary of the Stockton Chamber of Commerce in an earlier decade. He was a good and faithful official. His works live to give testimony of his zeal and ability and industry. He was deprived of the full measure of appreciation which was justly due him. This was because while he worked to uncover the commendable things of Stockton and San Joaquin county, he modestly kept covered the commendable things of his own personality and his important part in the accomplishments of that period. J. M. Eddy was like a miner who works long hours and works hard down in the bowels of the earth, away from the eyes of men, and takes out the gold that makes the world richer. Those who were associated with him in activities and chamber of commerce activities and those who can recall the creative and constructive program of his genius and the achievements under his regime will join today in paying affectionate tribute to his memory."

Water—When and How Much

Hundreds of batteries die of thirst every year.

Not because their owners didn't know water was necessary.

Not because they didn't know the neglect was shortening battery life and costing them money.

But simply because they overlooked it—hadn't the distilled water handy or didn't know just how much to put in.

We can't do your remembering, but we can take all the rest of the job off your hands. Drive around anytime and ask us to see if your battery needs water.

COUNTY ROADS ADD 50 MILES

WORK IN 1921 RECOUNTED IN COMMISSIONER'S REPORT—MUCH WORK TO BE DONE.

More than 500,000 square yards of concrete, corresponding to nearly 50 miles of 18-foot roadway, were laid in 1921 by the county road commission, according to its fifteenth annual report just issued. The widening of Michigan avenue to 100 feet wide through Springwells township is termed perhaps the most important achievement of the year.

Work completed included 12.64 miles of the Warren road, Livernois road from Fenkell avenue to Eight Mile road; 8.84 miles of Sumpter road; 4.54 miles of Oakwood boulevard, and the Fishery and Seven Mile roads. Expenditures for the Dix avenue, Jefferson avenue and Fort street bridges were listed at approximately $425,000.

The present program includes: Building of 350 miles more of concrete road outside incorporated villages and cities so that no section of Wayne County will be more than three miles from a first-class concrete road.

Further connecting up of villages and cities by first class highways. This has been largely completed.

Encircling the county with three belt lines, an outer, inner and middle belt. The outer belt has been completed and a goodly start has been made on the other two, the commission reports.

Paralleling of the main routes of travel out of Detroit and widening of those already built.

There are approximately 1,370 miles of public wagon roads in the county, the commissioners say, and to continue the work of improvement a road tax of one-half mill is recommended.—Detroit News.

Episcopal Notes

Last week the members of St. John's Sunday-school distributed Thanksgiving baskets.

Representatives from St. John's mission attended the union service at the Baptist church on Thanksgiving morning.

On Friday evening of last week, a meeting was held in the church for the purpose of organizing a junior chapter in Plymouth of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew's. This was duly organized and the following young people were voted for the officers: Franklin L. Gibson, director; Daniel Murphy, vice director; George Mersyweather, secretary; Ernest Henry, treasurer. Any young man who wishes to know more of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew's, its principles and object, can have full particulars by applying to Daniel Murphy, vice director, either by letter or personally at the church any Sunday morning.

Franklin Gibson gave an excellent address last Sunday morning, explaining shortly the principles of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew's and the first organization of that noble society, which is now distributed all over the world.

As the Sunday-school is growing each week, it was found necessary to have a superintendent. Mrs. Murphy has come forward and offered herself as superintendent, and she commenced her duties last Sunday. We also had three new pupils and one new teacher, last Sunday.

On Sunday, December 11th, at four o'clock in the afternoon, the Rev. J. G. Widdifield, the new archdeacon of Detroit, will hold a baptism service and will give an address. As this is our new archdeacon's first visit to Plymouth, it is hoped there will be a large congregation of members and friends to welcome him.

On Wednesday, December 14th, Bishop Williams will visit Plymouth and confirm a class of nine candidates for confirmation, and deliver the address. The service will take place in the evening. Full details will be announced later.

Sunday-school members, remember our motto this week, "I Am Third!"

The motorist who has driven a Buick longest is the one who appreciates Buick most

W. C. Jessup, President and General Manager of the E. H. Hotchkiss Company, Norwalk, Conn., is a staunch admirer of Buick. He tells why:

"My Model 29 Buick, purchased in 1911, has now run 150,000 miles.

"Winter and summer, it has traveled over every kind and condition of road. It has gone through miles of mud at a stretch. It has traveled for hours over Florida sands. It has plowed through snow drifts. Yet in all these years I have never had to get out of my car except for tire trouble. It always keeps going.

"The same clutch, cylinders, transmission, differential, etc., that were in the car when it was delivered are still in perfect working order."

Mr. Jessup's account of his Buick's performance is characteristic of the service given by Buicks everywhere, and accounts for the overwhelming sentiment—You can always depend on Buick.

Owing to the busy time of the year, it has been deemed advisable to close the Red Cross work room for a few weeks vacation. The room has been open and work has been carried on there since early summer. Many garments have been made ready for the suffering children over seas. Although the work room will be closed for the present, the work is not completed, for if there is anyone who can spare a few hours each week for Red Cross work, material can be furnished them by the following chairmen: Mrs. C. Thanksgiving Day a pleasant family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gates on York street, forty-one relatives being present. It has been the custom to hold these family gatherings for several years, and they are always enjoyable occasions, but two incidents rendered this day especially enjoyable, namely the presence of Mr. Gates' mother, Mrs. William Gates, who is nearing ninety years of age, but is very keen of mind and active; also the unexpected arrival of Mr. Gates' brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Gates of Eaton, Colorado, who came especially for the occasion. Other guests were present from Detroit, Pontiac, Novi, Northville, Ann Arbor and Plymouth.

Taking Desperate Chances.

It is true that many contract severe colds and recover from them without taking any precaution or treatment, and a knowledge of this fact leads others to take their chances instead of giving their colds the needed attention. It should be borne in mind that every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality, makes the system less able to withstand the more serious diseases. Can you afford to take desperate chances when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of bad colds may be had for a trifle?—Advertisement.

Mrs. Frank Peck and son, Harry, attended the funeral of the former's uncle, near Whitmore lake on Wednesday, Nov. 23. The deceased was a native of Providence, Rhode Island, and came to Michigan with his parents when a small boy. He has lived 85 years on the same farm where he died. He was wearing the century mark, and had lived to see a wild country turned to a well developed farming community. He was the last of the family of five children.

WAYNE DEFEATS PLYMOUTH HIGH

The P. H. S. foot ball team for 1921 closed its season at Wayne on Thanksgiving Day. This close was very auspicious—from the Wayne standpoint only. From Plymouth's, the chief reason for rejoicing was that there are no more games to be played with only a part of the regular line-up. Doudt was out of the game on account of illness; Seger was injured on the very first play, and Sutherland and Norgrove were later forced out by injuries. The mud favored the far heavier Wayne team at every point, and the advantages materialized in a touchdown the first quarter, won through sheer weight.

The second and third quarters each yielded two more touchdowns, but the lighter Plymouth team showed their gameness by holding the home team scoreless the last quarter.

From the spectators' standpoint, the game was one of the least interesting of the season. The nearest to a thrill came from Wayne's forward-passes, whose ambition seemed to be to throw the ball out of everyone's reach. Plymouth's fumbles were frequent, and Wayne's split plays caught them off guard repeatedly. The result leaves a triple tie for first place in the league, Wayne, Farmington and Dearborn being undefeated. The line-up was as follows:

- I. E.—Sayles
- I. T.—M. Strasen
- L. G.—Schoof
- C.—T. Strasen
- R. G.—Williams, Chappel
- R. T.—Norgrove, Williams
- R. E.—Sutherland, Richwine
- Qr.—Seger, Bartlett
- P. H.—Bartlett, I. Doudt
- L. H.—Millard
- F. B.—Stevens

PLYMOUTH TEACHER WEDS

We take the following from the Ypsilanti Daily Ypsilantian-Press of Friday, November 25th, relative to the marriage of Miss Hazel Alban, teacher in the kindergarten department of the Plymouth public schools:

A very beautiful and impressive wedding took place at the Methodist Episcopal church on Thursday at 4 p. m. when Miss Hazel Marguerite Alban became the bride of Walter Carl Sturm, Rev. Idle performing the ceremony amid a profusion of palms, ferns and cut flowers.

The bride was charming in a gown of ivory satin and veil of tulle caught and held in place by orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Chester G. Alban, and attended by two bridesmaids, Miss Dorothy Alban, cousin of the bride, and Miss Luella Sturm, niece of the groom, both gowned in pink and carrying bouquets of pink roses, daisies and lilies of the valley.

Clayton Alban, brother of the bride, and Arthur Nissly, cousin of the groom, acted as best men, and Jesse Miller, Russell Watts, Seward Horner and Lloyd Alban, were the efficient ushers. Miss Dickinson presided at the organ in her usual artistic manner.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the bride's home for relatives and the bridal party, a color scheme of green and white prevailed throughout the home and refreshments were served to about seventy.

The bride is an Ypsilanti girl, having lived nearly her entire life here, and a graduate of the city high school and Normal college, having entered her third year of teaching and will continue her work in the Plymouth school.

The groom is a Saline man, but better known in Ypsilanti, having been employed 11 years in the First National bank. He now holds the position of state bank inspector.

The couple will be at home for the present at 506 Emmet street, the home of the bride's parents.

When You Are Constipated.

To insure a healthy action of the bowels and correct disorder of the liver, take two of Chamberlain's Tablets immediately after supper. They will not only cause a gentle movement of the bowels, without unpleasant effects, but banish that dull, stupid feeling, that often accompanies constipation.—Advertisement.

W. C. T. U.

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will meet Thursday at 2:00 p. m., at the home of Mrs. Wymann Bartlett. Mrs. Arthur White and Mrs. Charles Draper have arranged a Christmas program for the day. As this is the last meeting of the year, it is hoped there will be a good attendance. Everyone welcome at this meeting.

From the Michigan Union of October: A Milwaukee brewery has abandoned its pre-prohibition business and its plant is to be used as a dyeing concern. Breweries used to be "dying" concerns to those who imbibed.

Today's Reflections

Nothing seems to please some Plymouth women more than to be able to say to their husbands "I told you so."

They weren't all forced into the army of unemployed. Some of them volunteered.

We have also noticed that the Plymouth man who takes his hometown paper is not the one who is always having to ask, "What's new?"

Compared with what that apple cost Adam, the price of fruit today is comparatively cheap.

When you hear a Plymouth man bragging about what he is going to do, it won't take long for you to enumerate the things he hasn't done.

Leave it to the average Plymouth man and he'll tell you that there are a great many worse and few better than he is.

What's the use of going out of your way to borrow trouble when you can get it given to you by the ton.

Wouldn't Plymouth be an ideal place to live in if our hens could lay as many eggs as Babe Ruth hits home-runs.

There are two things in life that a man has to acquire a love for. Babies are one thing and olives the other.

We have also noticed that many a man earns his living by the sweat from the hired man's brow.

Our idea of an "easy mark" is the Plymouth man who believes the mail order ad with a picture of a watch and a chain and the words: "Pay no money down."

Baptist Notes

The young people's meeting, Sunday evening, was led by Olivia Williams, and was very well attended. The subject was, "Adventurers." He gave men like Moses and Paul of the bible as examples in this work of exploration, going into places where the gospel had not been preached, and thus opening the way for the good news of salvation. Others named men like Livingston, Stanley and Judson.

The Sunday-school hovered right around the one hundred mark, and a good interest was shown in all the classes. Mr. Alenbaugh and class have arranged a room down stairs, the work being done by the boys of the class. The room looks neat, and they have a large blackboard—it's great.

The morning service was well attended, and some old-time friends were present at the service, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Daggett of Holly.

In the evening, the platform was well filled with young people, and the chorus sang with a vim, the congregation joining in all the songs. At the close of the evening service, the ordinance of baptism was again administered and six more young people were baptized. The pastor spoke a few minutes from Acts 2:41, "And they that gladly received His word were baptized." Still others expect to be baptized in the near future.

Thanksgiving Service

The Thanksgiving service at the Baptist church was a union service of the churches and people of Plymouth, and a very good congregation assembled. The service was opened by singing the Doxology. Invocation by Rev. H. E. Sayles. Reading of the Proclamation of the President of the United States by Rev. S. Conger Hathaway of the Presbyterian church. The Scripture, by Rev. H. E. Sayles. Prayer, by Rev. Frank M. Field of Detroit, former pastor of the M. E. church.

The sermon by Rev. D. D. Nagle, pastor of the M. E. church, a timely theme on "Faith," in the Christ we love and serve, looking forward to better things as a people and nation because our trust is in one supreme and unchangeable person, even God manifest in Jesus Christ. His text was taken from Hebrews 13:8, and was a fitting subject for the day, and as he brought to us God's constant care, we as a congregation thanked God for one more year of blessing, and pray for His continued favor.

The choir and men's quartet gave some splendid selections during the service. The audience arose and sang for the closing song, "America the Beautiful." Rev. Hathaway pronounced the benediction.

SCHOOL NOTES

Under the supervision of Miss Anna Smith, the first six grades made a total of 749 calls at the library for books during the last month.

Do not forget the debate with Northville to be held in the high school auditorium, Friday evening, Dec. 9th.

With the close of the foot ball season, attention now turns to the basket ball teams. Class games were played Wednesday and Thursday after school, a team from each class having played this week in the boys' and girls' contests for class champions. Prospects are very encouraging this year. With Doudt and Stevens back at forward, Martin and Ted Strasen for center and guard, and Alton Sayles for the other guard, it will require real class for a new player to get on the squad. Nevertheless, many are waiting for a chance to try.

With the girls' team there is more competition. Marion Kiely, Bonnie Mueller, Wanda Shuts are back and are, of course, expected to make the team. But the work of Fay and Grace Herrick, Dorothy Freydl, Dorothy Hinnau, Gladys Schrader, Margaret Amrhein, Gladys Hake and Ruth Kidder indicates that the veterans will have to get down to real practice to keep their jobs. Plymouth is assured of teams at least as good as last year's.
