DEATH OF MRS. PAUL WOOD

This community was saddened Sunday noon, when it became known that Mrs. Maude Nellie Wood, wife of Paul Wood of this place, had passed away at her home on Ann Arbor street, after only a few days' illness from pneumonia. The deceased was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Northrop of Phoenix, and had attained the age of 29 years, 10 months and 26 days. She had resided in Plymouth township during her entire life, except for one year spent in Wayne and one year in Northville during her early married life. She received her education in the Plymouth High school, and was a member of the 1911 graduating class. June 17, 1913, she was united in marriage to Paul Wood, and two children were born to them, both of whom survive her. She was of a loving disposition, a kind and helpful wife and devoted mother. She leaves to mourn their loss, her husband, one daughter, Ione, aged seven; one little son, Kenneth, aged five; her father and mother; one sister, Mrs. Gladys Bolman of Phoenix, and one brother, Glen Northrop of this place, besides a host of more distant relatives and friends.

The funeral services were held from Schrader Bros. Funeral Home, Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock, Rev. H. E. Sayles, pastor of the Baptist church conducting the services. Burial in Rural Hill cemetery at Northville.

There is no death: the stars go down To rise upon some other shore, And bright in heaven's jeweled crown, They shine forever more.

There is no death: although we grieve When beautiful familiar forms That we have learned to love are torn

From our embracing arms, Although with bowed and breaking hearts,

With sable garb and silent tread, We bear their senseless dust to rest, We say that they are "dead"

They are not dead, they have but pined, Beyond the mists that bind us here, Into the new and larger life Of that serener sphere.

They have but dropped their robes of clay, To put their shining raiment on; They have not wandered far away— They are not "lost" or "gone."

But ever near us though unseen, The dear immortal spirits tread— For all the boundless universe Is life—there are no dead.

—Author, J. L. McCreery.

VILLAGE ELECTION BRINGS OUT LARGE VOTE

Not since the wet and dry election of a number of years ago has so much interest centered around the annual village election as did that of last Monday. The main issue at stake was the passing or rejection of the ordinance licensing and regulating moving picture theatres in Plymouth.

For the past two weeks the question of Sunday movies in Plymouth has been the main topic for discussion everywhere in the village. Sunday, the last day of the campaign, was characterized by great activity on both sides. The churches joined in a mass meeting at the High school auditorium with a union service. Rev. S. Patterson Todd of Milwaukee, was the speaker, and the Hudson male quartet sang. Fintel's orchestra and a male quartet from Detroit, gave a concert before a large audience at the Penniman Allen theatre in the afternoon.

When the polls opened on Monday morning at 8:00 o'clock, there were scores of men and women already in line, and when they closed in the evening, 1290 votes had been cast. The vote on the ordinance resulted as follows:

For the ordinance—507.
Against the ordinance—746.
Spoiled ballots—37.

The vote for the village commissioners resulted as follows:

Karl W. Hillmer—696.
George Wilcox—598.
William B. Wilske—543.
W. J. Burrows—538.

When the result was known, a large crowd, headed by a band, proceeded to the residence of Mrs. Allen and gave her a serenade. Mrs. Allen expressed appreciation for the visit, presented the ladies with a red carnation and the smokers with a cigar, and then told the crowd to go to Hovey's and call for anything they might like.

WOMAN'S CLUB

A regular meeting of the Woman's Club was held Friday afternoon in the parlors of the Presbyterian church, the president, Mrs. D. F. Murray, presiding. Mrs. George Robinson was elected secretary pro tem.

The chairman of the revision committee, Mrs. C. H. Bennett, reminded the members that any suggestions for revision of laws be sent to the committee before March 24.

Mrs. Frank Millard gave a report for the civic committee, explaining results obtained and the satisfaction. One boy (undernourished) gained eight pounds in three weeks. The committee expressed thanks to W. T. Pettingill for giving them the cost price on Graham crackers, and O. F. Meyer for one straw. High school girls are now assisting the committee, and Miss Ellis, Red Cross nurse, they serve over 200 daily.

Roll call was answered by over sixty members, several of whom gave personal experiences with birds.

Many visitors were invited to help celebrate the twenty-ninth birthday of the club, and enjoy the program planned by Miss Ellen Gardiner, leader of division X. Miss Gardiner as Rebecca Sparks Peters, aged eleven, was a very sophisticated entertainer. She first asked Miss Olive Mertz for a piano solo, and the audience was delighted with Mendelssohn's Midsummer Night's Dream. Then Ruth Hamilton, in a charming manner, recited a clever poem written expressly for the party by Miss Nettie Pelham. Rebecca then proceeded to entertain a visitor in her mother's absence, and resorts to the family album. "Kid fashion," she relates all the family history, good and otherwise, with philosophy, sarcasm, short stories, and quotes much of "Pa" Peters' homely but humorous deductions of life. All of the picture mysteriously came to life in a large frame, and much merriment ensued. Miss Mertz rendered, "The Flatterer," by Chamblaine, and thus closed a pleasant afternoon.

March 17th, George A. Walters, deputy police commissioner, will speak, and members may bring guests.

REPUBLICANS NAME TOWNSHIP TICKET

The Republican caucus held at the village hall, last Saturday afternoon, was largely attended. George W. Hunter acted as chairman and J. E. Kaiser, secretary of the caucus. The chairman appointed A. M. Eckles and F. B. Park, tellers. There was no contest for any of the offices with the exception of justice of the peace and one constable, all other nominations being made by acclamation. The following ticket was placed in nomination:

Supervisor—P. B. Whitbeck
Clerk—Miss Lina Durfee
Treasurer—Russell A. Wingard
Justice of Peace (full term)—William G. Jennings
Highway Commissioner—Charles Roberts
Highway Overseer—L. B. Stark
Member Board of Review (2 years)—Oliver H. Loomis
Constables—George W. Springer, Charles Millard, LeRoy Reiman, Lynn Schrader

"THE LAST OF THE MOHICANS"

The picture, "The Last of the Mohicans," which comes to the Penniman Allen theatre, Sunday, March 19th, is a great historical film, and is highly spoken of by all who have seen it. In a letter to the First National Film Co. of Detroit, Lula H. Frye, superintendent of schools at St. Charles, says: "Wish to say the picture, 'Last of the Mohicans,' has been returned and thank you. Was a wonderful success. Had five rural schools represented, including one Indian school."

HELD PLEASANT MEETING

The Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church met on Wednesday of this week with Mrs. Arthur Hanchett of Maple avenue. The day was ideal and the attendance splendid. The plans for a father and son banquet were discussed. The eventful date will be March 28. Mrs. Cook's division had charge of the social hour and a "Pat" contest was held. Each member after being given pencil and paper answered fifteen questions, the answer to each beginning its first three letters with p-a-t. The result was very amusing. A dainty tea was also served by Mrs. Cook's division. Mrs. Hanchett and Mrs. Finnegan were presented, in behalf of the society, with potted ferns. They are both soon to leave town to resume their residence in the country.

DON'TS FOR OUR TOWN
Don't fail to sound the praises of Plymouth wherever you are.
Don't make your money off of your neighbors and then spend it with strangers.
Don't frown on every public improvement simply because it may cost you a dollar or two.
Don't sneer at the efforts of your fellow citizens to build up the town, but lend a hand yourself.
Don't talk a great deal about what should be done and remain on the back seat waiting for someone else to do it.
Don't say the public school is a failure because your boy has been upsetting the school's discipline and has been punished.
Don't forget to drop your dollar in the slot when the committee that is after a new enterprise comes around with the subscription list.
Don't forget that in building up the town hearty co-operation, united endeavor and a spirit of get-there-are-what-win-the-day. There is no pull like a long pull, a strong pull, and a pull altogether.

WHAT IS THRIFT?
In the average Plymouth man's mind thrift means saving money. In theory that is thrift, but in practice it may be the reverse. For thrift means getting the most for your money by investing it in things for which there is a present use or future profit. Putting a padlock on the pocket is not thrift. That's stinginess.
If you can buy a lot worth $300

for $200, it is thrift to buy it. If a suit of clothes which will be needed next fall can be bought now for $20, when it will cost $30 when next fall arrives, then it will be thrift to buy it. Thrift is taking advantage of opportunities in which there is profit. It means keeping your dollars everlastingly on the job. Thrift also means refraining from useless expenditures that keep the pocketbook so thin that investments cannot be taken advantage of when they are offered. Things should be bought from the standpoint of use and profit, and if there is no present use and no profit in sight, don't buy.
No matter what your definition of thrift may be, when it is carefully studied and analyzed and boiled down, it simply means getting ready for a big opportunity, and hoping it will come. And getting ready for the big opportunity is just another definition of laying away for the rainy day. Don't hide or dissipate your savings. Invest them. There are so many fine opportunities open right now, and right around here, that no man, who cares about the future, can afford to neglect them.

MEXICO BEING FLOODED WITH STOLEN AUTOMOBILES

Legitimate Trade Is Seriously Affected by Rush of Cars Over the Border.

American Consul John W. Dye at Juarez, Mexico, has found what becomes of many of the automobiles stolen every month. They go across the International bridge into Mexico in such numbers that the legitimate automobile trade of Mexico has become seriously affected.

According to Mr. Dye, thousands of stolen automobiles are steadily pouring across the boundary. For the most part they come from California and states bordering on the Rio Grande, but many are known to have come from as far away as Chicago.

The cars are sold in Mexico for about half their value. Many are stripped of pieces of any value and abandoned, while others are taken into secret hiding places and new bodies placed on old chassis, or otherwise changed so as to be unrecognizable. The consul cites one case of where a Mexican offered a boy $25 for a "good car." The boy got the car, but was caught before he could deliver it.

Officials are now taking the number of every car crossing the bridge.

DESCENDANT OF HAMILTON TUTOR IN COLLEGE AT 12

Betty Jane Hamilton (known to her chums as "Betts") is only twelve; but she working her way through Westminster college, Wilmington, Pa., by tutoring students almost twice her own age. Betts is a descendant of the great financial-political genius, Alexander Hamilton, and is the fourth in a family of child prodigies—one of her sisters being a noted painter while still a child, and the other as a girl violinist, while her brother entered college at the age of fourteen and astonished educators of the country by getting the highest grade of any American college student in a "general information" test. All four of the children have musical talent, each plays at least two instruments, and they have their family orchestra. None has ever had any tutors or "cramming." Betty Jane entered public school at the age of six, and high school just four years later. She went through high school in half the usual time, always leading her classes. At twenty she expects to be a practicing physician.

WOUNDED DEER FIGHTS

Was Only Killed With Knife After Shots Had Hit It.

That a wounded deer will fight was demonstrated to Albert Stetzer of Tannersville, Pa., when a good-sized buck caught sight of him and declared war while the hunter was out alone. Stetzer shot the animal in a shoulder, but it failed to stop or even turn from its course.

The second bullet struck the deer in the head and the wounded animal, coming at full speed, was stopped so suddenly that it turned a complete somersault and landed on one side, but scrambled to its feet and renewed its efforts to fight the man. Stetzer fired a third shot that struck the deer in a hip, but failed to halt it, and a fourth shot in the head merely put it out of the combat temporarily.

Disregarding its many wounds the plucky buck made a number of attempts to rise and renew the attack, but Stetzer used his hunting knife to bring its struggles to an end.

Motor Truck Drags Woman Two Miles. A motor truck dragged the body of an old woman two miles through the streets of New York City before the driver discovered he had struck her, says a report to police.

Found a Cure for Indigestion "I use Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for indigestion, and find they suit my case better than any dyspepsia remedy I have ever tried, and I have used many different medicines. I am nearly fifty-one years of age and have suffered a great deal from indigestion. I can eat almost anything I want to, now," writes George W. Emory, Rock Mills, Ala. These tablets contain no poison, but strengthen the stomach and enable it to digest the food naturally.

The meeting, Thursday, March 9th, of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, at the home of Mrs. C. F. Smith, was well attended. The topic, "A Backward Glance," was made very interesting by the leader, Mrs. Sarah Bartlett. The life and work of Frances Willard, First National president of the W. C. T. U., was briefly touched upon; also that of Mrs. Mary F. Lathrup, state president, and Neal Don, the pioneer leader of the prohibition movement. A short sketch of the crusade movement in Michigan was read by Miss Cora Pelham. Mrs. Clara Todd read an excellent report of the Plymouth Union, from the time of its organization in 1873, till April of the year 1911. This report was written by the faithful worker, Mrs. E. L. Boals, who had served as president in the earlier years of its organization, and later held the office of treasurer for 25 years, only resigning when forced to do so by failing health. Some reminiscences of earlier methods, used by the Plymouth W. C. T. U., or raising money, were given by Miss Nettie Pelham, who told what she had done for only ten cents, and how pie specials were given, when the hall would be crowded with people, who were given generous pieces of pie for five cents. But that was before the time of high priced food stuffs. A delightful program was then rendered by the young people: Recitations by Winona Kenter, Dorothy Hillman and Doris Hamill were very pleasing. Orchestra selections by Messrs. Elbert Seger, Henry Hutton and Lloyd Lundy and Misses Gertrude and Fannie Grainger were greatly enjoyed; as also were the songs, "Auld Lang Syne" and "Love's Old Sweet Song," by Mrs. H. E. Sayles and Mrs. Charles Grainger. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Harry Green, Union street, Thursday at 2:00 p. m. The topic for the day will be, "Immigration." This will be a tea meeting, and members are requested to bring plate, cup, fork and spoon. Guests will be made very welcome.

BROTHER SPORTSMEN

How many of the trapshooters of North America would like to go back to the days when each individual club made its own rules? To the days when no such thing as organized sport existed, except in a few isolated communities? To the days when a trapshooter visiting a strange town, and attending their local shoot, found that he had to learn the game all over again, in order to take his place in the competition with credit to himself, and justice to those of the locality? Not many of us want that handicap, after having had the privilege and pleasure of shooting as members of an organized trapshooting association, known to all of us as the American Trapshooting Association, through whose efforts a standard set of rules has been formulated, and placed in operation in all trapshooting clubs on the continent. Just think what it really means to be able to go to Maine, California, Florida or even Alaska, or Canal Zone, and find that the rules in operation in any of these places, is the same set that governed the shooting in the old home town. This means that we are able to place each and every shooter in the land, at the proper distance in a handicap shoot, knowing that he expects to be placed just where you put him, and all made possible by the complete organization of the trapshooting game into one great whole. And then think how easily some "dark horse" always got away with the big stakes, when there was no such thing as the American Trapshooting Association safeguarding the individual interests of each and every one of us. Would it be possible to gather all the necessary data, assemble and print it in the form it is now issued in, if there was no head to the trapshooting game? If the bulk of the necessary data was collected, would it be placed in the hands of the individuals at one dollar per copy? And wouldn't there always be a few who felt neglected, if they did not find their own records published therein? Just ask yourself if it would be possible to carry on the game in the present equitable manner if it was not for the organization which weids the whole trapshooting mass into one smooth running organization. Would you like to discard the standardized rules now in effect everywhere for the wild-cat system that originally existed, or would you rather continue to enjoy the present sensible, economical, equitable, and applicable set of rules governing at all competitions?

But just listen to this! A Michigan shooter thinks the prices of shells are too high. I agree with him thus far. But he goes on to offer a remedy for the existing high prices. Listen to it! He suggests that the clubs of Michigan register no tournaments or club shoots during the 1922 season! Can you beat it? Wants to kill the entire trapshooting game just because it is too expensive for his income to support a debenture of the American Trapshooting Association, makes the price of shells? Wonder if he also thinks the association makes the price of guns, shooting jackets, gun cases, shell cases, clothing, hats, etc. And to my positive knowledge, he loves to shoot as much as any man in Michigan. Well, I am from Michigan, too, and desire to see that the old state will stand as squarely back in the past two years, the future, as in the past two years. We enjoy shooting, and the price of shells must find some other remedy, for with the possible exception of the oracle I have just mentioned, we all appreciate the value of the association, and do not mean to let it go to pieces just yet, anyhow. To us, as time will prove to him, the association of the different clubs as an organized whole has a definite value, and that value is far beyond the one small dollar now being paid for a full year's affiliation with the organization.

Why did not Mr. Oracle present some tangible scheme whereby we can, in each state or division, finance our respective state leagues to the extent that they can buy trap loads in car-load lots? It is not impossible, and I think I am safe in saying that the manufacturers of ammunition would quote us a jobbers price on such shipments. The present method of buying shells is a constant trying of the club to buy at wholesale, from some retail establishment. This is quite out of the question, but will answer for the buying methods of four out of five clubs. Occasionally, a club has some member who is willing to buy for them without charge for the service, but this saves but very little over the first named method of buying through the retail establishments. Why doesn't Mr. Oracle write to the shell manufacturers about it? Maybe he could help us all out thereby. At least, it would be much more sensible than asking the members of the Michigan Gun Club League to discontinue the only method we have of getting the boys together for a real honest-to-goodness shoot. He ought to be made to see that the trapshooting game is a man's game, and that there are only judicial and governing powers invested in the association. To add any more to their burden would certainly work a hardship upon them, and they are now working overtime, trying to devise new ways to get more pleasure out of the sport. More general understanding of the purpose of the association would help it to do many things that are now utterly impossible because of the general indifference of a large part of the membership. Many take out cards simply because it is the only way they may enter into tournaments. But by far the larger part take out their cards with not thought of whether or not they will be shooting during the season. That is the spirit. And the registration fees pay very little over the actual cost of recording the scores. So why should we stop it? To bring down the price of shells? Don't make me laugh. Let's all get together and register as many shoots as possible, and register a tournament also. Make 1922 a record breaker. Make the sport so popular that Mr. Oracle will have to get out his gun and follow the boys to the trap grounds.

MANY ENGINEERS SEEK NEW FIELDS

Jobless Trained Men Forced to Ask Work in Other Lines.

EVEN STORE JOBS ARE SOUGHT

Some Employed as Watchmen Till Times Mend—Thousands of Engineers in All Parts of the Country Are Idle—Mining Experts Are the Hardest Hit—Result May Be That Engineering Will Be Extended to New Fields—Mining Relief in Sight.

Forced by the general condition of unemployment to seek new fields, engineers of the metropolitan district of New York have formed a volunteer committee to open up fresh avenues of effort. Department stores, industrial establishments and many branches of trade, commerce and manufacturing are being thoroughly canvassed to uncover hidden jobs, such as watchmen, under unobtrusive methods of organization. It is thought the engineer can be fitted.

Thousands of engineers, mostly graduates of colleges and technical schools, are idle in all parts of the country. It was said by Walter V. Brown, manager of the employment service of the Federated American Engineering societies. The situation is so bad that the service maintained by the societies is being supplemented by volunteer assistance.

Mining Engineers Hit Hard.
The mining engineers are the hardest hit. F. F. Sharpless, secretary of the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers, said that it was impossible to determine the number of such engineers out of employment but he would not be surprised if the number reached 5,000. Mr. Sharpless said that relief would be experienced in the mining industries soon with the resumption of operations in the big copper mines. The institute normally has 10,000 members.

The institute's data on unemployment revealed many cases in which men in normal periods earning from $2,500 to $15,000 a year were driven to accept minor jobs, such as watchmen, or were out of work altogether.

The volunteer committee now at work, principally in the New York district, is composed of thirty men. F. M. Bond of Baltimore, a major in the ordnance department during the war, has been appointed chairman. An executive committee consists of W. N. Gately and George Beavers Jr. of New York and C. B. Good of White Plains. Mr. Gately said that idleness was likely to result in the extension of engineering to new spheres. When the volunteers called on the department stores they were received with skepticism because retelling traditionally has been regarded as foreign to engineering. Now, however, the possibilities of engineering training are beginning to be better understood. Cost methods, simplification of systems and personnel were activities, he said, to which industrial engineers might properly apply their efforts.

Whenever the lad comes to town with his parents he soon becomes the center of interest. He frequently gives exhibitions of his spelling prowess. One of the things the youngsters like to do is to stand on the station platform and when a train stops to take water or wait while baggage is being handled, Fern spells for the passengers.
None of the jawbreakers that so frequently "stump" adults give Fern any trouble. The lad spells all of them with comparative ease.

BASKET BALL GAMES

Girls' Basket Ball Game
Wednesday night, March 8, the Plymouth girls won back their game from Dearborn, 19 to 11. January 27th, the Plymouth team went to Dearborn losing their game 11 to 3. This time winning from them by as many points as they lost in Dearborn. The score at the end of the first half was 11 to 2 in Plymouth's favor. During the last quarter, the Dearborn team played very evenly with the Plymouth girls, making the final score 19 to 11.

Dorothy Freydl outplayed and outjumped the Dearborn jumping center; Ruth Kidder had a very fast side center to play against and they played the ball evenly; Margaret Amrhein picked the ball out of the air several times and outplayed her guard. She did not make as many baskets as Marion Kiely, who outplayed her guard, although her guard overguarded a great deal. The two guards, B. Mueller and W. Shuttles, did some good and fast work in Dearborn's forwards' court, keeping the ball continually in the hands of our centers or forwards. Their work showed up in the fact that Dearborn's scores were made mostly on foul throws from the free throw line. Mena Bolton played good in the last quarter and did very well, holding her own through the entire quarter.

Plymouth lineup and fouls were:
M. Kelly, R. F., 2 technical and 1 personal fouls.
M. Amrhein, L. F., 2 personal fouls.

D. Freydl, J. C.
R. Kidder, S. C.
B. Mueller, R. G., 1 technical and 2 personal t.c.s.
M. Bolton.
W. Shuttles, L. G., 1 personal foul.
Referee, Mr. Deacon of Ypsilanti.

"ROCKS" DEFEAT DEARBORN 14 TO 13

The game here Wednesday night was probably the closest that has been played on the local floor for several years. At no time during the game was the score more than two points difference. During the entire game the score was either tied or Plymouth had the advantage by one or two points.

The score at the end of the first half was 9 to 8, Plymouth. At the end of the game the score was tied at 13 all. In the five minute overtime period, neither team was able to register a field basket. Stevens succeeded in making a free throw which was the point that decided the game.

Dearborn displayed a better brand of basket ball in this game than they did earlier in the season when they defeated the "Rocks" 20 to 10.

Had Sayles and Sutherland fully recovered from injuries and sickness of last week, Plymouth would probably have won by a much greater margin. Hickey and Williams showed much improvement over that of any previous game.

Holmes played his usual good game at guard and is constantly making trouble for the opposing forwards. He is one of the best stationary guards in the League.

Scott starred for Dearborn making seven points. Stevens made twelve of the "Rocks" 14 points.

Line-up:
Pioneers—
McGuigan, F.
Scott, F.
Fey, C.
Webster, G.
Nilland, G.
"Rocks"—
Stevens, F.
Sutherland, F.
Williams, C.
Sayles, G.
Holmes, G.
Substitutions: Hickey for Sutherland; Adams for Fey.

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES

ITEMS GATHERED HERE AND THERE THAT WILL BE OF INTEREST TO OUR READERS.

Ford Motor Co. is operating at the rate of 3,400 cars a day on four-day-a-week schedule. March schedule calls for between 60,000 and 65,000 cars. Michigan distribution now takes 450 cars a day, the remainder being shipped, knocked down, to assembling plants.

The revised highway building program for this year, recently approved by the state administrative board, will give Washtenaw county 17 miles of state reward roads. In the state 995 miles will be built at an estimated cost of $14,410,726. The first program of road building laid down a few weeks ago, called for 934 miles at an estimated cost of $13,137,000.

The privilege of ministering to the spiritual needs of the protestant patients and employes of the Sanatorium has been extended to the pastors of the Northville churches. They will serve in periods of about four months each. The work includes holding Sunday services and the necessary pastoral work during the week. Rev. H. J. B. Marsh will have charge during the first period and take the responsibility for the next four months. The spiritual interests of the Roman Catholic patients will probably be looked after by the Rev. Father Lafave of Plymouth.—Northville Record.

Something like two years ago the Howell Board of Commerce commenced a campaign looking toward lower insurance rates in Howell. The insurance rating bureau gave as their excuse for the high rates, the practice of burning rubbish back of Howell stores and similar practices. The City Council arranged to stop this when their attention was called to it and have also put in the stand-pipe, extra pumping equipment and fire alarm system. As a result of these changes, Howell has been reduced from 8th to 7th class for rating, which puts Howell in the lowest class of any town in Michigan under 10,000 population. Cheaper insurance rates will pay for the improvements in a few years.—Howell Republican.

Excellent Remedy for Constipation

It would be hard to find a better remedy for constipation than Chamberlain's Tablets. They are easy to take and mild and gentle in effect. Give them a trial when you have need.

PRESBYTERIAN PARAGRAPHS

Rev. S. Patterson Todd of Milwaukee, a Presbyterian minister, and a representative of the Lord's Day Alliance, occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church, last Sunday morning, and gave an inspiring sermon, in which he called attention to the fact that Jesus Christ (not "Paul the lawyer apostle") said, "The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath; therefore the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath." Mark 2:27. That is why Sunday is called "The Lord's Day." Jesus, having all authority given unto Him in heaven and in earth, (see Matthew 28:18) claimed the right to control and change the religious institutions of the Jews. He took the Jewish rite of circumcision, which applied to the male only, and converted it into the christian sacrament of baptism, which applies to both male and female, Jew and Gentile. He took the Jewish feast of the Passover, commemorating the release of Israel from Egyptian bondage, and converted it into the christian sacrament of the Lord's supper, commemorating Himself and His death upon the cross. So He took the Jewish institution of the Sabbath (saying that He was Lord of it) and changed it into the Lord's Day, which is observed on Sunday, commemorating His resurrection from the dead. This he verified by calling attention to the fact that in the Greek New Testament Matthew 28:1, reads, "In the end of the Sabbaths (plural) as it began to dawn toward the first of the Sabbaths." The German translation also reads: "Am Abend aber des Sabbaths, welcher anbricht am Morgen des ersten Feiertages der Sabbathen." He verified it also by reading from the church fathers, Ignatius, Justin Martyr, Barnabas and Tertullian. The claim set forth by the Seventh Day Adventists that the Catholic church changed the Sabbath from Saturday to Sunday is without foundation in scripture or in history.

The Busy Women's Bible class held its monthly meeting, Tuesday, at the home of Mrs. Macham on Blunk avenue. After a pot-luck dinner, the business session was followed by a program of music and readings.

The Christian Endeavor society held its monthly supper and business meeting at the church, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. E. J. Alexander and Miss Carrie Partridge are on the sick list.

how much gasoline is left in the tank.
If they cut the standing army too much, it may become too weak to

We overheard a Plymouth boy say yesterday that it's a good thing the soldiers were not as long getting to France as congress is in getting the bonus question ironed out.

No little boy ever got his picture
in the Hall of Fame for saying:
"Mother, I'm sick; please give me a dose of castor oil."
Pretty soon now we'll again hear that story which starts, "I had him to the top of the water and he must have weighed ten pounds and—"
A good many Plymouth people still look on advice as they do on castor oil—it's one thing to prescribe it and another thing to take it.
There is a great field, it would seem, for a new paper which might be called, "The Bandits and Bootleggers News."
Some people keep arguing prices
will fall, and the average Plymouth citizen hopes that when they do they'll be the first one's hit.

Cuban sugar growers are mourning the low price of sugar. And a couple of years ago they had us mourning because they said there was a shortage.
Every time we look at the coal pile
we wonder how many tons it is until spring.
Something also tells us that if there was as much honesty in the world as there should be, peace
treaties would be unknown.

It sort of takes away the sting to receive a bill printed on good paper and a neat and attractive way. And it might not be amiss to add that our job department prints no other kind.
We've never heard of a Plymouth man so put to extremes for a "little nip" that he drained the alcohol out of the thermometer.

Episcopal Notes
We regret that two or three of our active church workers were absent
through sickness last Sunday. Mrs.
Strong was missed from her place at the organ and from her Sunday-school class, and Daniel Murphy from his place in the chancel, where he is such an assistance to Mr. Gibson.
Mrs. Ware presided at the organ.
We hope the sick ones will have efficiently recovered to enable them to be amongst us again next Sunday.
From the text, Luke 18:10, "Two men went up into the temple to pray," Mr. Gibson certainly delivered a very beautiful and impressive sermon, last Sunday morning, modernizing his text to the christian and church member of the present day.
A memorial to those members of the mission and members' families, who have passed away, is to be placed in the church between this and Easter. The memorial is to be a beautiful brass altar cross. This memorial was first started by Miss Ramsey of Detroit, who expressed a wish to donate towards some portion of our church furniture in memory of her sister. This was discussed at the last vestry meeting, and the vestry decided that the memorial should take the form of an altar cross, which is much needed.
The Ladies' Guild will meet next Wednesday afternoon, March 22nd, at the home of Mrs. Paul Ware, the president of the Guild, at two o'clock.
All members are asked to be present.

The Pneumonia Month
March is a typical pneumonia
month and usually gives a high rate of mortality for the disease. After a long and hard winter, the system loses much of its resistance and people grow careless. When every cold, no matter how slight, is given prompt and intelligent attention, there is much less danger of pneumonia. It should be borne in mind that pneumonia is a germ disease and breeds in the throat. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is an expectorant and cleans out the germ laden mucus, and not only cures a cold, but prevents its resulting in pneumonia. It is pleasant to take. Children take it willingly.—Advertisement.

CRUELEST ASSASSIN
KNOWN AS "GOLD TOOTH"
Kin of Sain Portuguese Statesman Tells Court of Sailor's Atrocities.

A sailor, known as "Gold Tooth," is the principal person among the charged with the assassination of Premier Granjo and other Portuguese statesmen in the revolution on October 19.
He admits that he accompanied the other soldiers and sailors in the raids
on the statesmen's homes, but contends that he did so to save the lives of those chosen to be victims of the revolutionaries.
Confronted by the son and the brother of Admiral Machado Santo, founder of the Portuguese republic and one of the assassinated men, he was accused by both of them as one of the most cruel and insolent of the savage group of men who broke into Santo's house and dragged him to his death.
A similar scene occurred when Bertha da Maja, widow of Commander Carlos da Maja, another victim, was brought face to face with this sailor in court. Pointing at him, she burst into sobs and cried:
"There stands my husband's assassina. When the others hesitated, when on my knees before them, holding my baby in my arms, I implored them to spare my husband's life, that wild beast there, seeing they were inclined to mercy, shouted at them and pushed my husband into their midst, asking them if they were going to let live
the man who sent them to Africa four years before. And they took him away and murdered him."

HAS CONTROL STATION FOR AERIAL EXPRESS

Standing high above the buildings of London is a huge tower known as the air traffic control tower of the London air station. From this tower the wireless operator can communicate with any air express flying between England and the coast. The controller in his lofty perch gets a clear view of the aerodrome and surrounding country. He can communicate with the aerodrome on the ground by megaphone and in the air by wireless phone. He can by the use of the wireless guide an express down to safety even though the whole district be enshrouded in fog or mist.
Very lights, which were used to signal with during the war are being put to a new use. This shows the controller on one of the balconies firing a Very light pistol to signal to a passing express.

STEER GOES ON RAMPAGE
Brooklyn Policeman Lassoes Beast In Wild West Fashion.

"I have been attacked by a bull,"
said a feminine voice over the wire to the lieutenant on desk duty at the Greenpoint Avenue station, Brooklyn.
"What do you mean 'bull,' a cop?"
inquired the lieutenant.
"No," she replied, "a kind of cow
with horns."
Patrolman Ellsworth Lloyd, who admitted experience on a Western ranch, was hurried to the foot of Meeker avenue, whence the call came.
One look was enough. There was a steer running wildly about. It had broken from a herd of 60 at the Newton Creek boat landing. Pedestrians were rushing for doorways and all manner of hiding places.
Lloyd got a clothesline, lassoed the steer and tied it to a telegraph pole
until a representative of the Lieberman Brothers, abattoir owners at Johnson and Morgan avenues, claimed the animal and led it away to slaughter.

Boy Dies After Push Out of Bed.
William D. Saunders, fifteen years old, a student in Hamilton college, N.
Y., has died as the result of being pushed out of bed by a fraternity skull. He did not feel the effects of the fall until about two days after the prank. He was the youngest student in the college.

BROTHERS SEEK SPANISH GOLD
Treasure Worth $4,000,000 Hidden by Missionaries.
LOCATED NEAR MEXICAN LINE

Padres, Forced to Flee From Apache Indian Raiders, Hid Gold in Mine
and Then Sealed It—Explorers
Have Been Searching for Treasure
for Last 18 Years—Excavators Find Mine Battered With Heavy Cedar
and Mahogany Timbers.
Five Missouri brothers are searching for the mythical pot of gold at the end of the rainbow, albeit they entertain hopes of finding a treasure estimated to be $4,000,000.
The treasure was said to have been hidden in an old mine more than 200
years ago by Spanish missionaries,
who were forced to flee for their lives
before hordes of Apache Indian raiders.
The location of the mine, according to the tale, lies about fifteen miles south of the Mexican border and up in the mountains. The padres buried their treasure, it is said, and then sealed the mine.
Only one of the five brothers is on the actual scene where the excavation is being conducted. He is Frank P.
Magee, a mining engineer of El Paso,
Tex. He, together with his assistant, Antonio Mendoza, has presented such evidence of success that Magee's brothers and several El Paso business men are pushing the exploration zealously. Mendoza has been searching for the buried treasure for the last 18 years.
Find Mine Battered.
Frank Magee declared in a recent letter written to his brothers, John,
J. A. and Vance Magee, all of Macun, Mo., that as far as the excavation had proceeded they had found the mine battered with heavy cedar and mahogany timbers. Tom Magee of Moberly, another brother, is also interested in the search for gold.
"There is authentic history that the ore from this mine was so valuable that it was carried by pack mules and ox teams to Mexico City, a distance of 1,200 miles, for smelting," wrote Magee. "I'm banking more on that than I am on finding the million-dollar mine. The old padres to keep it from falling into the Indians' hands
so far as our investigations have progressed the stories of the hidden treasure have been borne out, and Senor Mendoza, a capable mining man,
is confident that it is here."
Eighteen years ago Meliton Ordaz
a postmaster at Chihuahua City, gave Mendoza the document describing the location where Magee is now conducting his operations, with the understanding that he was to be a partner in the enterprise. It was Ordaz who related the story of the mine being sealed on the approach of hostile tribes of Indians.
People Agitated.
The mine is known as La Mina
Iberia, and it includes three shafts.
The main shaft is through a fissure
in the rock. Signs of ancient drills can be seen on all sides. In the shafts are numerous well-preserved ladders made from mahogany and cedar. Presumably the miners of olden times used these ladders to take their ore to the surface.
Magee has written that the people
along the border are considerably agitated over their explorations and that several newspapers have sent writers to see how near they are getting to the treasure. He said that they have worked in nearly 900 feet in one of the shafts and that the cedar and mahogany timbering continues all the way.
One theory that is given much credence by several mining engineers has it that the old mine was a rich producer and that a great deal of gold bullion had accumulated and was awaiting shipment to the smelters at Mexico City when news of the raiding Apaches came, and hurried measures were taken to keep the treasure out of the hands of the Indians, who had evidently heard of the contemplated shipment and had made plans to seize it.

Some good bowling again this week.

Next week the Bums and Fish oppose each other. We expect the scales will fly in all directions, if not from the Fish then maybe from the backs of the Bums.

The Rattlers rattled three games off the Ramblers, who seem to ramble along peaceably.

The Moonshiners made a good try to get out of the basement with their goods. They sold two-thirds of their stock to the Dubs this week.

PET DOVE A FIGHTER

With Wing Broken, Was Found in Field by Farmer.

John Burton of Carbon Hill, Ala. has a unique pet, a turtle dove, which he found in his field sometime ago with a broken wing and befriended. The bird was the victim of a hunter's shot. John took the wounded bird to his home and gave it the best of attention and it is now well and able to fly, but has not shown any inclination to leave its benefactor; in fact, it is a great pet.

Burton named the bird "Pete," and when he calls for Pete the said Pete flies down and lights on his shoulder. Pete roosts with Burton's pigeons, and the pigeons cuff it around while its wing was broken, but the dove is now the boss and will not let a pigeon roost close to it, Burton says.

Ingenious Washington Youth.

One small Western boy has solved the fisherman's problem of getting plenty of fishworms without digging for them. He comes them forth from their hiding places through the magic of electricity. This lad, Joe Siegfried of Kennewick, Wash., though only ten years old, has devised with a little help from his father a special apparatus that is the champion fishworm coarser and extractor. The apparatus consists of a telephone magneto, which delivers current at 80 to 90 volts. This magneto is connected to two heavy wires or electrodes set in the ground six or eight inches deep and fifteen to eighteen inches apart. When the magneto is operated the current flows between the electrodes, and many worms in the vicinity receive a sensation which causes them to hurry to the surface at full speed. Joe has counted as many as fifteen worms coming out at one time. He has had inquiries as to the charge for worms if purchased by the gallon for medicinal purposes, but his school work keeps him too busy, and he only uses the apparatus for furnishing fish bait to his many young friends.

DOG MAKES 50-MILE HIKE TO RETURN TO HIS HOME

Didn't Think Much of Folks His Mistress Visited and Ran Away.

"Peko," a reddish brown bound owned by Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Adams, of 15 Saxon road, Newton Highlands, Mass., which disappeared from Fall River, made a journey of fifty miles overland to his old home. His nails were worn by the hike, but otherwise he was in good condition.

Peko's mistress was visiting her father, Philip D. Borden, at No. 669 Rock street, Fall River, and took the dog along with her. The first day at the Borden home was a disappointing one for the dog, and when night came he refused a warm bed in the house, preferring to rest in a snowbank. In the morning he did not answer the call for breakfast.

Mrs. Adams sent out a general alarm to the police of Fall River. She also advertised in the newspaper. Nothing was heard of him until, thirty-nine hours after his disappearance, he appeared at the home in Newton Highlands late at night, and aroused the occupants of the house by whines and barks.

EATS MANY RAW EGGS

Belgian Astonishes a Grocer by His Feat in That Line.

Fifty-two raw eggs provided a supper for Frank Lambrest, a Belgian, which he apparently enjoyed. This is how it came about: Lambrest went into a grocery store in Hollidaysburg, Pa., to make purchases. The owner happened to be opening a crate of eggs, four of which were broken. He offered them to Lambrest, who broke the small ends and quickly drained the shells of their contents.

"If you can eat three dozen eggs raw, I'll not charge you a cent, but if you can't, you pay for the three dozen," said the grocer.

"You're on," replied Lambrest, and he started in. He disposed of the three dozen as fast as he could break the shells.

"I'll bet you cannot eat another dozen," said the astonished grocer.

"Taken," answered Lambrest, who resumed his eating. After swallowing the last egg Lambrest lighted a cigar, thanked his host and departed for home, feeling comfortable.
