IT'S NOT TOO LATE

You still have time to fortify yourself against the winter's cold!

The seemingly little bit of cold air that seeps in through the tiny cracks around your doors and windows does more harm than possibly you think. A few cubic inches of cold air can add a great deal to a fuel bill, in addition to creating cold drafts that endanger the health of the family—especially if there are children.

Why not let us give you an estimate of cost of fitting your house with

WILL BANQUET FOOT BALL TEAM

On Thursday evening, December 7th, the Plymouth High school foot ball team and Coach Walker will be the guests at a complimentary dinner, to be given in the High school auditorium at 6:30 p. m., under the auspices of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce. The committee has arranged for strong speakers and a big feed, and feel that the splendid efforts of the team are worthy of this recognition. Every man who is interested in promoting clean high school athletics, whether a member of the Chamber of Commerce or not, is requested to make reservations with Edward Gayde, Max Moon or Frank Barrows.

WOMAN'S CLUB BAZAAR A SUCCESS

The bazaar given by the Woman's Club of Plymouth, in the High school auditorium, last Friday afternoon and evening, was well attended, and a success in every way. The auditorium was handsomely decorated in white and green crepe paper, the club colors, with here and there a bunch of red tag-alder berries. The several booths formed a semi-circle around the room, and as a whole presented a very attractive appearance. The bazaar is indebted to the chairman of the bazaar, Mrs. F. A. Campbell, who was ably assisted by H. J. Green and F. A. Campbell, for the beautiful decorations. Many dainty and practical gifts were on sale in the various booths, as well as the candy and baked goods. During the afternoon and evening, ice cream sandwiches and light lunches found ready sale. The new recipe books, containing tested recipes for many dainty dishes, were sold from the kitchen booth, and at 7:30 o'clock a handsome hand-made bedspread and other articles were sold at auction, thanks for which is due Harry C. Robinson, auctioneer. The exact amount cleared from the bazaar is not yet known, but a nice sum was netted the society.

A BIRTHDAY SURPRISE PARTY

Several members of the Patriarch's Militant of Detroit, and their wives, with a company of Plymouth friends, gave Chevalier Archie Meddaugh of this place, a very agreeable birthday surprise at his home on Blunk avenue, last Saturday evening. Among the guests from Detroit were D. P. Henwood, pianist, and Fred A. Eberlein, vocalist, who delightfully entertained the company with excellent music. The Detroit friends brought with them baskets of appetizing food, and a fine supper was served, while the Plymouth friends brought gifts to their host in remembrance of the occasion. At a late hour the guests departed, declaring the evening a most enjoyable one, and wishing their host many happy returns of the day. Besides the Plymouth friends present, the following from Detroit were in attendance, General Frank Bailey and wife, Major Sam Sowden, Captain H. H. Dykeman, Lieut. Joe Mattson, Ensign Joe Gill and wife, Sergeant D. Lageman and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Eberlein, Mr. and Mrs. Fred White, Mrs. Alice Clark, George Reddeman, son, George Jr., and daughter, Irene, W. H. Shiek and D. P. Henwood.

DEATH OF EMMA L. STRONG

Mrs. Emma L. Strong of Kalamazoo, aged 77 years, passed away at the home of her son, Sidney D. Strong, on Penniman avenue, early Sunday morning, after a two weeks' illness from apoplexy. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Marian Baker of Washington, D. C., and one son, Sidney D. Strong of this place. Brief services were held from the Schrader Bros. Funeral Home, late Sunday afternoon. Archdeacon Widdifield of Detroit, and Rev. S. Conger Hathaway of this place, officiating. Monday morning, the remains, accompanied by Mr. Strong and Mrs. Baker, were taken to Kalamazoo, where the funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock. Burial at Kalamazoo. Plymouth friends extend sympathy.

PLYMOUTH HIGH WINS FROM YPSILANTI

The game here Friday with Ypsilanti Central High was probably the best game played on the local field in several years. You will agree with us if you ask the person who saw the game. Ypsilanti came expecting an easy game, but when the game was over they realized their big mistake. Ypsi won the toss and Plymouth kicked to start the game. On the first few plays it looked as though Ypsi would win by a big score. The "Rocks" showed their stuff when the ball came within scoring distance and held the big team for downs. During the rest of the game, Plymouth's goal line was not in serious danger. Neither team was able to score in the first quarter. In the second quarter the "Rocks" began a march from the center of the field, which ended when they crossed Ypsi's goal line. The try for point failed. Score 6 to 0.

In the third quarter neither team could score. Plymouth had the ball in Ypsilanti territory all the time, and missed a couple of chances to score. In the fourth period the "Rocks" clearly demonstrated their superior ability, and by a series of line smashes carried the ball over the goal for another touchdown. Again the try for point failed. Score 12 to 6. During the rest of the game most of the playing was in the middle of the field.

CLARENCE WESTFALL DIES IN DETROIT

Clarence Westfall, aged 53 years, son of Oliver Westfall of this place, died suddenly in the Evangelical Deaconess hospital, Jefferson avenue, Detroit, Monday afternoon, November 27th, after only a few days' illness. Besides his father, he leaves a son and daughter, Oliver B. Westfall of Detroit, and Mrs. Margaret Sibert of Ann Arbor; one sister, Mrs. Fred Wheeler, also of Ann Arbor, and many other more distant relatives. The funeral services were held from Schrader Bros. Funeral Home, Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock. Rev. D. D. Nogle, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church of this place, officiating. Burial in Riverside cemetery. Mr. Westfall spent his boyhood days in Plymouth. Friends here deeply sympathize with the family in their bereavement.

PLYMOUTH HIGH DEBATING TEAM

Plymouth High school has always been enthusiastic in its support of debating. The teams of past years have stood high in the debating league of the state. The team this year is worthy of its predecessors. A slight change has been made in the method of carrying on debates. Formerly the team consisted of three members and one alternate. This year there are two teams, the second team acting as alternates of the first. The members of the first team this year are: Kenneth Bartlett, Eva Griffith and Perry Richwine. The second team is composed of Frances Pierce, Alta Hamill and Juanita Coe.

The question for debate is as follows: Resolved, That the United States and Canada jointly should construct the deep-waterways to the Atlantic by way of the St. Lawrence river, as proposed in the report of the International Joint Commission, submitted to congress, January, 1922. The first of the series of debates will be held Friday night, December 8th, at Howell, where the Plymouth team will uphold the affirmative. Every effort is being made by the team to defeat Howell at that time.

BAZAAR AND BAKE SALE

The Lutheran Ladies' Aid will hold their annual bazaar and bake sale in the hall over the Beyer Pharmacy, next Wednesday afternoon and evening, December 6th. The proceeds will be used for the purchase of a new piano for the church during the year.

CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE

The Christmas Seal sale for 1922, will begin in Plymouth on Monday next, December 4th, and will continue one week. This great philanthropic work is of equal importance to each and every one of us, as from the sale of these Christmas Seals are derived the funds used to fight that most dreaded of all diseases—tuberculosis. It is to be hoped that the response from our community will measure up to the high standard Plymouth citizens have set in previous years. Every person in our community should see to it that from now on all their letters and Christmas packages are sealed with these Christmas seals. The Plymouth High school will have charge of this Christmas seal campaign, and in addition to personal solicitation, these stamps will be on sale at Pinckney's Pharmacy and Beyer's Pharmacy, and if each of us will give our aid to this splendid work, Plymouth will again go over the top. Mrs. C. H. Bennett has again been appointed general chairman for Plymouth.

INFANT BROUGHT HERE FOR BURIAL

Margaret Elaine, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bolton of Smith's Creek, was brought here for burial, the latter part of last week. The funeral was held from the home of the former's father, Ben Bolton, on South Main street, Saturday afternoon, at one-thirty o'clock. Rev. S. Conger Hathaway officiating. Burial in Riverside cemetery.

ENTERTAINMENT AT BAPTIST CHURCH

There will be an entertainment given at the Baptist church, Friday, December 8th, at 7:30 p. m., for the benefit of the Baptist Sunday-school. Admission, 25c. This will be a first-class entertainment, consisting of readings, musical and in dialect; monologues and a play, "The Other Woman," by Miss Lila Davidson Humphries and Miss Ellen Agnes Gardiner. They will be assisted by Miss Zerepha Blunk, Miss Muriel Bovee and Miss Olive Merz at the piano.

WHEN WE PULL TOGETHER

Maybe one of the reasons we don't get more needed improvements in Plymouth is that too many of us are quick to jump at the conclusion that it is going to benefit the other fellow more than it will him or that it will enhance the value of property in which he is not directly interested.

No matter what part of the town we may live in, we are benefited by the improvement of any street or alley or sidewalk in any other part of town—and the better the town, the more valuable our own property becomes. If a street light is needed in a distant part of town from that in which we live, it is an improvement deserving our support, whether we ever see it lighted or not. Maybe someone in that very part of town needs that particular light to enable him to get down town and transact business. And maybe the dollar he spends when he does get down town will be handed us in payment of a debt owed by the man he spent it with.

There's no living man who can figure the value of town improvement, because improvement benefits work around in a wide circle, and value comes from so many sources that we are unable to trace them all. The sensible thing is to understand that every improvement makes for a better town, and that if we confined our improvements to favored sections we would quickly have a citizenship so dissatisfied that the town would fall into a rut from which it would never climb. Put your shoulder to the wheel every time a public improvement is launched. You'll be helping yourself by helping the town. And when you need something in your own square you'll find your neighbor more willing to help you get it.

THE GIFT THAT LASTS

We are glad to note that more and more people around Plymouth are coming to realize that a Christmas present that lasts all the year around is the most profitable. Almost every family in this section has some member or a very dear friend who is acquainted here, but whose residence is now so far removed that they are out of touch with happenings in this community. For them there is no present that will give as much genuine satisfaction, and last as long, as a year's subscription to the home-town paper. We are carrying quite a few subscriptions on our books that were sent as Christmas presents, and paid for by relatives and friends of the party to whom the paper is going. Instead of one present, given at one time and which gives joy for but a single period, the home-town paper is the same as fifty-two presents a year, with new joy, new pleasure each time the mail brings it. Think it over. Figure out the cost as compared with the cost of any other present. Then come in and arrange to have some relative or friend receive a Christmas gift a weekly "letter from home."

WE HAVEN'T CHANGED

If you'll stir around over Plymouth a bit and talk to some of our older citizens we venture to say nine out of ten of them will openly declare that "boys don't have the good times we did when we were young." It's a common belief among those whose hair has commenced to silver around the edges that the present-day youth is more intent on chasing around and money-spending than was the case twenty, thirty or forty years ago.

and that the real, downright fun boys once enjoyed is a thing of the past.

We can't always agree with this argument, because we are forced to consider that conditions have changed, and naturally our growing boys and girls are only meeting these conditions. We are not satisfied today with the same things our fathers were satisfied with, such as a horse and buggy instead of an auto; a gang-plow instead of a tractor; a tallow candle instead of a modern lamp or an electric light. So why should we expect a boy to be satisfied with what we had to put up with when something more modern is right at his finger-tips? And it's true of our girls, too. Mother used to be satisfied with candy hearts with reading on them or a sack of stick candy. That was because she didn't know anything about chocolates and ice cream soda and nut sundaes. We used to get a lot of joy out of a home-made kite. Today it takes a miniature airplane to please a boy of like age. When mother was a girl she joyed in the possession of a bright-colored yarn shawl. Daughter can't feel hardly happy in anything but an expensive wool sweater. And so it goes. We haven't changed—it's the times that have changed. And the same thing that youth now calls upon for amusement will probably seem mighty common-place and crude to his boys twenty or thirty years from now.

A GREAT BUILDING YEAR

We note in a metropolitan paper that records compiled by the government up to the middle of October show the greatest number of residences erected in this country during 1922 of any year since 1913. Along with this statement is another to the effect that banks and building associations have loaned more money for home-building this year than ever before. And the building operations appear to have been general, not confined to any particular section. The prediction is made, too, that the coming year will eclipse the one just closing; that more people will build homes than ever before in a similar period. There will be little if any change in lumber or hardware prices, according to the report. If any special change comes in the cost of building a home, it will have to be in the labor end of it. This sounds good, all of it, and should be encouraging to the Plymouth man who has delayed the erection of a home long planned and hoped for.

PROPOSITION TO ACQUIRE GAS PLANT BY VILLAGE

The following petition is being circulated relative to a proposition to purchase the Plymouth and Northville Gas Co. plant by the village of Plymouth:

To the Village Commission, Plymouth, Michigan.

WHEREAS, It seems desirable that the Village of Plymouth should own and control its gas plant, and it is understood, by the investigations of the Chamber of Commerce, that the gas plant now owned by the Plymouth & Northville Gas Company, may be acquired at a price to be fixed by appraisers, or at a price mutually agreed upon, and if purchased, that the cost could be defrayed by the sale of bonds secured by a mortgage on the gas plant without being a general obligation upon the Village, and

WHEREAS, The Village Commission, before taking action in the matter, has expressed a willingness to be advised as to the wishes of the electors thereof, therefore:

We, the undersigned, do respectfully petition the Commission that it take such action as may be necessary to submit to the electors of the Village the question of purchasing said gas plant.

W. C. T. U. ENJOY BIRTHDAY PARTY

On Thursday afternoon, November 23rd, the pretty home of Mrs. Charles Draper was the scene of a pleasant gathering, when the Woman's Christian Temperance Union gave a birthday party for Mrs. Esther Hillman, ex-secretary of the society. An interesting program of readings was given by the members, and piano solos by the Misses Evelyn Thomas and Olive Merz, were greatly enjoyed.

A poem entitled, "Everybody Has a Birthday," written by Miss Nettie Pelham and dedicated to Mrs. Esther Hillman, was then read, to which the guest of honor graciously responded.
As Members had been asked to contribute a penny for each year of their age, a goodly sum was collected. A letter from one of the oldest members, Mrs. R. C. Safford, was read, and a vote of thanks was given for her generous contribution. Several donations from other absent members were also received.

After the program the guests were ushered into the dining room, where a table, beautifully decorated with tiny candles, and loaded with dainties, offered a charming invitation to all.
It was much regretted that the president, Mrs. E. R. Daggett, had been called away on account of sickness, and was unable to be present. The time and place of next meeting will be announced later.

AROUND ABOUT US

The village of Redford contemplates the purchase of a fire truck.

A plan is under consideration to widen Grand River road to a width of 100 feet, from Detroit to Lansing.

Junius Mayer of Superior, and Guy Rorabacher of Salem, have been drawn as jurors for the December term of circuit court in Washtenaw county.
It now looks as if Williamston will again have an active coal mine. The mine at Williamston used to yield a lot of fuel, and there is no question but what there is still a large quantity of soft coal in that vicinity.—Brighton Argus.

H. E. Haines has in his possession a number of "wild cat" bills, which date back before the civil war. In the collection are two two-dollar bills on the bank of Ypsilanti, dated 1859, a five-dollar bill on the bank of Washtenaw county, dated 1854, a bill on the bank of Marshall dated 1863, one fifty-dollar bill and four one hundred-dollar bills in confederate money dated 1862, 1860 and 1863.—Daily Ypsilanti-Press.

Many kindly disposed citizens of Ypsilanti, have recently been contributing money to an old woman, who sat at the intersection of two of the city's most traveled streets with a little hand organ. The old woman was poorly clad, wore large dark goggles and had a most pathetic appearance. To look at her one would naturally be led to believe she was only one jump ahead of the poorhouse. The police department here made an investigation and learned upon reliable authority that the "beggar woman" owned at least three flats in Detroit. The last time she came here, the police told her to take the next car back to Detroit. She did.—Ypsilanti Record.

MORTGAGE SALE

Whereas default has been made in the conditions of a certain mortgage made and executed by George A. Taylor, a widower, of the Village of Plymouth, County of Wayne and State of Michigan, as mortgagor, to Amendt Milling Company, a Michigan Corporation, of Monroe, Michigan, as mortgagee, dated the twenty-first day of December, 1921, and recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds in and for the County of Wayne and State of Michigan, in Liber 1076 of Mortgages, on page 224, on the twenty-ninth day of December, 1921, on which said mortgage there is claimed to be due and unpaid at the date of this notice, for principal and interest, the sum of Two Hundred Seventy-four and 75/100 Dollars ($274.75), and no suit or proceeding at law or in equity has been instituted to recover said money on any part thereof.

NOW THEREFORE, by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage, and the statute in such case made and provided, notice is hereby given that on Saturday, the sixteenth day of December, 1922, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, Eastern Standard Time, the undersigned, or the sheriff, under sheriff or a deputy sheriff of said Wayne County, will sell, at public auction, to the highest bidder, at the southerly, or Congress street entrance to the Wayne County Building, in the City of Detroit, County of Wayne and State of Michigan, (that being the building where the Circuit Court for the said County of Wayne is held), the premises described in said mortgage, or so much thereof as may be necessary to realize the amount due, together with any additional sum, or sums, mortgagee may pay under the terms of said mortgage, with seven per cent interest and all legal costs allowed by law and provided for in said mortgage, including an attorney's fee, which said premises to be sold as aforesaid are situated in the Village of Plymouth, County of Wayne and State of Michigan, and described as follows, to-wit:

Commencing at a point about one and one-half rods south of the stake in the center of Penniman Avenue, formerly known as Sutton Street, which stake is nine rods three feet and four inches westerly from a stone at the intersection of Penniman Avenue and Main Street in said Village and running thence southerly to the north line of land formerly owned by Thomas P. May, now deceased; thence westerly along the north line of the said Thomas P. May's land ten feet; thence northerly to a point in Penniman Avenue west of the point of commencement; thence easterly ten feet along Penniman Avenue to the place of beginning.

Also commencing at the northwest corner of land heretofore conveyed to Henry Dohmatrich by deed dated November 11th, 1889, and recorded in Liber 320 of Deeds on Page 262, Wayne County records, and later owned by Caroline Webber, running thence, that is from said point of commencement, westerly along the middle of Penniman Avenue ten feet; thence southerly in a direct line, parallel with the west line of lands as aforesaid owned by Caroline Webber, one hundred feet, more or less, to land formerly owned by Thomas P. May, Jr., and later by Kate E. Penniman; thence easterly along the north line of said land so owned by Kate E. Penniman ten feet to the southwest corner of said land formerly owned by said Caroline Webber; thence northerly along the west line of the said land owned by the said Caroline Webber one hundred feet to the place of beginning, containing three and three-fourths square rods of land, more or less.

NEWBURG

The Thanksgiving program Sunday morning was nicely carried out by those taking part. The anthem by the girls' choir, assisted by Rev. Wise and Mr. Meeker presiding at the piano and who also trained the young people. Rev. Wise spoke from the first chapter of James, seventeenth verse. Miss Gladys Horton sang a beautiful solo. Reading, "The Pilgrims," by Marion Taylor. Miss Alta Hamill of Plymouth, gave the story of Pollyanna, which was delightful to listen to. Reading, "Unto

These Give Thanks," was nicely rendered by Mrs. Donald Ryder. Mrs. Jesse Jewell presented a beautiful basket containing a large bouquet of winter flowers to the church, which will help brighten the church during the winter. There was also a lovely bouquet of pink chrysanthemums donated by Mrs. Emily LeVan, and fern baskets by Mrs. Mackinder. Services at usual next Sunday, with Sunday-school afterward. Christmas is in the air, so be on hand to help out in any way you can. The Epworth League held a Thanksgiving service, Sunday evening.

ing, Miss Beulah Ryder acting as leader. Mrs. M. Eva Smith will lead the meeting next Sabbath evening. All invited. Don't forget the day school entertainment to be held in our fine new school building, Friday evening, December 1st. Mrs. Jesse Jewell was called to the city, Sunday morning, on account of the death of her friend, Mrs. Donaldson. Mr. and Mrs. Clark of Detroit spent Sunday at the LeVan home. Mr. and Mrs. Adams of Stoney Creek, have moved into the Kramer house on Plymouth road. Mrs. L. Clemens and Mrs. W. R. LeVan attended the W. C. T. U. meeting at Mrs. Charles Draper's in Plymouth, last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Emily LeVan and Mrs. C. E. Ryder took dinner with Mrs. H. Grimm, last week, Thursday. Mrs. Bert Kahrl and two children, Phyllis and Kenneth, spent from Wednesday until Sunday visiting relatives in Detroit, while Mr. Kahrl and several others were on a hunting trip near Bay City. He brought back a number of rabbits. The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

Fred Knickerbocker has been quite sick the past week. Word has been received that Charles Dunning of Redford, who has been in Harper hospital for the past few months, is somewhat improved. I. Gunsoll has bought a barn on the old Spicer farm, and is tearing it down and moving it onto his place south of Newburg. A meeting of the officers and teachers of the Sunday-school will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ryder, Friday evening at 7:00 o'clock.

SALEM

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lapham, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sessions, and Will and Elsie Brossow visited Mr. and Mrs. Sessions, Tuesday evening. The Boy Scouts have rented the Durrow house and fixed it up very conveniently for their scout meeting, which occur every Tuesday evening. Friday evening, they will give a social at the Hall. Everyone is cordially invited to attend and encourage our Boy Scouts. The proceeds of the social are to pay the rent for their house. Whether your boy is a scout or not, encourage those who are by your hearty co-operation. Mrs. Rosh Clark of Rushton, visited Miss Nettie Martin, Tuesday afternoon. Her nephew, Earl Burdick, was a business caller in Salem, the same afternoon. Born, to Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Vici of Detroit, Thursday, November 23, an eight pound boy, Frederick Jeness. Mrs. Rathburn of Plymouth, visited her sister, Mrs. J. Herrick, Friday and Saturday, returning to her home, Sunday morning, accompanied by the Herrick family who spent the day in Plymouth. John Herrick and family expect to spend Thanksgiving with F. B. Herrick and family at South Lyon. Mrs. Stroh and Miss Wittich went to Detroit Sunday afternoon and returned Monday evening. F. Huff and family were in Birmingham, Sunday, guests of D. B. Waterman and family. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Groth were in South Lyon Sunday morning, attending worship at the Presbyterian church, and spending the rest of the day with Joe Groth and family. Joseph Beach of Ypsilanti, entertained about thirty guests, Wednesday evening, to a venison roast. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Groth were among the guests. Florence Rider was home from Northville, Sunday and Monday, on account of illness. Mrs. Hinman of Northville, died in Detroit, late last week, and the funeral was held from the home in Northville, Monday afternoon. Mrs. Hinman leaves a husband, four sons and one daughter, Miss Irene Hinman, who taught last year and a part of this in the lower room of the Salem school. Frank Carey and wife have moved back to Salem, and occupy the lower flat in the Nollar house. Mrs. Frank Biers was in Northville, Monday, attending Mrs. Hinman's funeral. The Ladies' Aid of the Federated church will hold their annual bazaar and dinner at the Town Hall, Friday, December 8th. Articles will be for sale that will make lovely Christmas presents. A very cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.

PERRINSVILLE
Rev. Wise preached a very fine sermon Sunday. New members were taken into the church. Everyone welcome to our church service at 9:30; Sunday-school at 11:00.
Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hierpe of Detroit, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Baehr.
The community was saddened by the death of Mrs. William Baehr, who passed away, November 21, after an illness of five weeks. She had lived in this community almost all of her 80 years. The funeral services were held at the M. E. church at two o'clock, Friday, Rev. Wise officiating. Interment at Maple Grove cemetery.
Don't forget the party for the young folks at Mrs. Arthur Hanchett's, Friday evening, December 1. Mrs. Albert Tait and daughter, Dorothy, were Detroit callers, Saturday.
Mrs. Ed. Erwin visited relatives in Canada, last week-end.

EPISCOPAL NOTES
Archdeacon Widdfield was with us, last Sunday, and as that day was set apart for our Special Conference day, he remained all day in Plymouth. In the morning he gave a most inspiring address, taking his text from the last two verses of St. Matthew's gospel. "Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost and lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." In the afternoon, there was a meeting of the women, and Mrs. McDonald, president of the House of Church Women, gave an address on, "Women's Work in the Church." In the evening, Charles O. Ford, the bishop's secretary, gave a splendid instructive address on, "The Work of the Church Throughout the World," illustrated with lantern slides. These views showed the people of the world where our American Episcopal church is sending missionaries, doctors, nurses, laymen, and besides our own possessions, included China, Japan, Africa and India. There was a good representative gathering present at the meeting, and all expressed their appreciation and thanks to Mr. Ford for his address.
Another of those very enjoyable parties was held, last Thursday evening, when the church-school met for a social evening. The first part of the evening took the form of a box social, after which there were songs and recitations by the children of the school. There were over forty present, and everyone certainly spent a very happy time.
On Friday (today) the boys and young men of St. John's, Plymouth, will go to Wayne in the evening, where they will hold a meeting, with a view to getting the boys and young men of Wayne interested and to take an active part in the work of the church in that town. They will also see what progress at the meeting, and lay the foundation of a chapter of the Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew there. All the boys and young men are asked to try and go over to this meeting. Address by Rev. C. H. McCurdy, rector of Birmingham.
The girls of our congregation are seriously considering petitioning the diocese for permission to form a chapter of the Girls' Friendly Society in Plymouth. This is a noble organization, and they are doing fine work for the church, not only in Detroit and large cities, but in many of the smaller towns in the diocese, and we think with the willing and earnest little band of girl workers here, the time is now ripe for such an organization in Plymouth, under the leadership of a Detroit member.
Last Sunday morning another beautiful life ceased her work here on earth, and was called away to that eternal rest. Mrs. Strone, mother of our church secretary, passed peacefully away. The sympathy and prayers of St. John's are with Sidney Strong and his family in this their hour of trial. A short service was held in the afternoon at Mr. Strong's home, and an address by Rev. Hathaway. Archdeacon Widdfield also spoke a few words of consolation.
The Ladies' Guild will meet next Wednesday, December 6th, at the home of Mrs. Arthur Tarr, East Ann Arbor road at 2:00 o'clock. All members are asked to be present.
On Friday, December 15th, the members of the Ladies' Guild will hold a sale of work and baked goods at the gas company's office.

GAYDE BROS.

Tommy Smiles

Tommy is by turns the delight and the bane of his teacher's life; but even when he has pulled Frances Mary's pig-tail and "lost" three marbles down the centre aisle, she wouldn't trade him, not for fifty straight-spined little boys.

It isn't quite an ordinary school-room where Tommy goes. Sometimes there are twenty boys and girls there; sometimes almost twice as many; but afternoons, half of them, perhaps, must rest on their cots; and never do any of them miss taking "temp" twice a day.

They are all pupils in the school at the state tuberculosis sanatorium at Howell, and each of them must fight months or years for his chance of life and strength and future usefulness.

Tommy, for instance, has bone tuberculosis, and his head is sunken between his shoulders, and his twisted little body crooked for all time. Nine years old, he is scarcely the size of a well-developed youngster of six.

But sympathy? Not for Tommy, who smiles at the world all day long! He hasn't a home, hasn't had one for years, but since he has come to Howell, he has made friends in every department of the sanatorium. He is happiest of all in the school-room, for he has never before been able to go to a real school with desks and black-boards, and classmates to play with, and a teacher to love and torment.

Sympathy for Tommy, who must pay in suffering and deformity for the ignorance and neglect of the grown-up world?

They do not ask for sympathy, Tommy and his schoolfellows, and the less fortunate youngsters in Michigan, for whom, tuberculous though they are, room cannot be made in the overcrowded sanatoria. All of them front disease and deformity with a smile. But can you and I and the rest of us comfortable people, who let them contract a cruel and preventable malady, smile too?

Christmas Seals Fight Tuberculosis.

After-Care Needed to Bring Permanent T.B. Recoveries

"Rest and good food, fresh air and freedom from worry", the sanatorium superintendent told John Reilly, when he gave him his final chest examination.

John was not cured, of course, but he was so much improved that the superintendent believed that he might complete the cure in his own home.

But at home John Reilly had three children and a frail wife, and rest, on which the doctor had laid so much emphasis, was a prescription he could not follow except at their expense. Ten days after he left the sanatorium he went to work at his old job on the section.

Last week, in answer to a letter of inquiry, he wrote this account of himself to the Michigan Tuberculosis Association.

"We were laying rails this summer and the boss put me to flagging or I couldn't have stood it.

"I haven't had any examination since I left the sanatorium. I have lost some in weight and I have been having some pleurisy pains in my right lung for the last month."

Pitifully little is the Michigan Tuberculosis Association able to do for him. He is not a pauper; he told with pride that he had a house and lot on which he had paid six hundred dollars.

Given a chance to take proper care of himself for a few months longer, he might reasonably look forward to a normal life-span. But if he must struggle through days of pain and weakness now, in the hopeless effort to do the work of a well man, the end of John Reilly's story is certain and near at hand.

After-care of consumptives should be provided in Michigan. Tuberculosis Christmas seals will help to meet the need.

The Sanatorium Graduate Speaks

Had the con? You bet, and beat it.
You can, too, so don't you worry;
Takes some grit, I'll grant, to meet it,
And you won't win in a hurry.

But old Doctor Rest will do it,
Rest and air and food, I'll say;
Lie by now; you'll never see it,
You'll get life and health for pay.

And a curious thing about it,
Just because it lets you feel
Other folks'll help you rout it,
When your lesion's slow to heal,
You'll go: courage—never doubt it,
Looking at the Christmas seal.

Today's Reflections

Of all the words in the English language none are sweeter than these three—"Dinner is ready."

If both the wife and boys think they have gained a victory, why everybody ought to be happy.

It isn't hard to remember the time when the average Plymouth family considered mother's hair brush very useful in bringing up the children in the way they should go.

Don't forget to do your Christmas mailing early—so you can get an answer to each package you mail out.

When you see a Plymouth man going along with his nose turned up, don't think he is hungry. Maybe someone is cooking cabbage.

One pretty good way to relieve traffic congestion would be to sell automobiles for cash only.

Lots of fellows save up something for a rainy day, and then give it all to a bootlegger for a wet night.

Sometimes it's so hard for a Plymouth father to give up his daughter in marriage, that he almost gives up trying.

After a Plymouth man acquires an auto and has to buy license tags, he can tell you how much faster the years now roll around.

Still another thing the average Plymouth housewife has to be thankful for is that moths don't eat as much as elephants.

PROLONGS LIFE OF RIBBON

Correspondent of Eastern Periodical Gives Valuable Hint That Makes for Typewriter Economy.

Some time ago I saw on the household page directions for prolonging the usefulness of a typewriter ribbon by brushing it with typewriter or machine oil, and allowing the oil to soak into the ribbon over night. I tried it, but had difficulty in getting the oil on evenly. Then I tried removing the old ribbon, packing it in the little tin box the new ribbon came out of, and soaking it thoroughly with oil—maybe 20 drops of oil. The other ribbon went into a desk drawer and stayed there until the new ribbon was worn out, when the old ribbon was put back on the machine, and was as good as new.

The little metal spools which carry the typewriter ribbon have a number of openings at the top and bottom through which the oil can be applied. The ribbon with which this is being written had had its third span of usefulness made possible by the 20 drops of oil. The luxury of having a new—or newly oiled—ribbon at hand, when it is needed, is beyond words.

This typewriter, which is a family possession and usually runs about ten hours a day, used to need two ribbons a month. Since the oiling process was begun, two ribbons have lasted three months, with frequent oilings, which takes less time than telling about it.—Christian Science Monitor.

EVEN THE TINY ARE STRONG

Shetland Ponies Willing and Able to Do Good Work Under the Right Conditions.

There is something startling about seeing Shetland ponies working. At least, two of them have regular jobs. They do not serve as mounts for children, nor do they pull pony pleasure cars around the block. They put in the day at hard labor.

One of them pulls an express wagon, the other a small-sized garbage cart. To see them trudging along under the tracks of the elevated trains, pulling a load among truck horses that seem three times their size, is apt to give a soft-hearted citizen a jolt and make him wonder in a vague disconnected manner about the child labor law, remarks the New York Sun.

At his well-meaning notions of protect those who know Shetlands will laugh. Few horses are as strong for their size as a full-grown Shetland. When a vehicle is built to suit their size they are perfectly able to work and are, moreover, most of them, endowed with a temper that makes it virtually impossible to impose upon them or to force them to do any more work than they want to.

Jinx Phone Numbers Shunned.

The Japanese believe that there are lucky and unlucky numbers. In this respect they are not unlike many Americans, but their belief is much more deeply rooted, as is shown by the extreme care with which the Japanese select their telephone numbers, according to the Telephone Press service. The Japanese government, which operates the service and has been unable to meet the demand for telephones, permits the buying and selling of telephone subscriptions and the corresponding numbers, and frequently very substantial sums are paid for numbers that are reputed to be particularly lucky. It is said that the luckiest number for business purposes is eight, because the shape of the Japanese character for eight in some way suggests the idea of prosperity. The most unlucky numbers are 42 and 49, because the former is pronounced "shini," which means "to die," and the latter "shiku," which means "death" or "suffering."

Kings Who Never Grow Old.

A curious custom of a pastoral people of Uganda, known as the Banyoro, is related by the Rev. John Roscoe.

He said that when once a king was enthroned his person became sacred, and his food was restricted to milk and beef from a sacred herd of cows.

The Banyoro monarch never allowed himself to grow old nor his faculties to become impaired. When he thought he was going to be seriously ill he called a council, arranged state affairs with the principal chiefs without giving them any reason for thinking that he was about to die, and dismissed them to carry out his instructions.

Then he returned to his private house, summoned his chief wife, and ordered her to bring him a cup of poison. He drank the contents, and in a few minutes was dead.

What's Inside the Sun?

Carbon has been subjected to fierce heat energy and to very high pressure at the same time to be formed into a rigid solid, the diamond. Carbon in the central region of giant stars is subjected to an intensity of energy at least far greater than any that can be achieved by electro-chemists in laboratories in either highly condensed spheres between metallic terminals or arcs. It is not known what effect such intense energy of heat has on the atoms of elements, for none so intense is available to science. Atoms in the spectrum of highly incandescent stars may be torn back to primordial elements; or elements may never have reached an end state in form at all. These other questions would be also answered by this hypothesis.—Seattle Times-Examiner.

WORSHIPED THE GOLDEN ORB

Ancient People of Peru Made the Sun an Object of Particular Veneration.

The most complete system of sun worship was practiced by the ancient tribe of Incas of Peru, South America. Its existence was first discovered by the Spaniards who visited Peru in 1524. The Incas, chief of the Peruvian ruling house, claimed to be children of the sun and the sun's representatives on earth.

The government was a despotic Ner-craer of which the Inca was both high priest and king.

In Cuzco, the capital, stood the wonderful temple of the sun, in which all the implements were of solid gold. On the west end of the interior was a representation of the sun's disk and rays in the same precious metal, so placed that the rising sun, shining in at the open east end, fell full upon the image, and was reflected with dazzling splendor. In the plaza, or square of the temple, a great annual festival was held during the summer solstice. Huge multitudes assembled from all parts of the empire, and, presided over by the Inca, awaited in breathless solemnity the first rays of their deity to strike the golden image in the temple, when they immediately prostrated themselves in adoration.

Sacrifices, similar to those of the Jews, were offered on the occasion, and bread and wine were partaken of in a manner strikingly resembling the Christian sacrament.

The moon was the spouse of the sun, the planet Venus was his page. The Pleiades, and the remarkable constellation of the Southern Cross were also worshiped as servants of the sun. Fire, air and earth were adored, but in a lesser degree. The lightning and the rainbow were also worshiped as servants of the sun, in fact all nature was embraced in the wonderful religion of the early and now extinct Incas. Their wealth and glory is departed and they live only in history and in the wonderful carved memorials they left behind for modern savants to study.

Chicago Gets Prehistoric Monster.

Eight million years ago a dinosaur crawled into a depression in a torrid equatorial belt in Alberta, Can., and died.

For eight million years his grave was unmolested. His kind became extinct, glaciers swept down, mountains formed over his resting place.

When the old dinosaur—50 feet long and 30 tons in weight—died the equator was due north of Chicago and the Mississippi waterway was an actuality, with the Gulf of Mexico stretching to the North pole, scientists say.

Recently, however, the elements had so worn down the mountain near Red Deer river, 125 miles west of Calgary, that the last layer of soil was swept away and the dinosaur bones were bared.

Prof. E. S. Higgs, associate curator of geology for the Field Museum of Natural History, Chicago, with five companions, stumbled across the huge bones. Now they'll go to the Field museum to be stared at by city folks.

Getting out the dinosaur bones—many of which weighed 2,500 pounds or more—was a tremendous task. It was necessary to build roads in some places.

Colors in the Fall.

A desirable tree for brilliant fall color is the sour gum or tupelo. This makes a large almost round-headed tree with very dark green foliage in the summer and brilliant red leaves in the autumn. Even as early as August there may be a few scattered leaves that change color, giving promise of the brilliancy that is to follow. The tree is common in New England and the northern and eastern states.

The scarlet oak is even brighter than the red oak in its fall colors and is equally as brilliant as the gums, says the American Forestry Magazine. Its foliage being more finely divided than that of the red oak gives it a lighter, more airy appearance, while the red of its leaves is most emphatic. It is widely distributed throughout the eastern half of the country.

In marked contrast to the brilliant reds of some trees in the fall is the yellow of the sugar or hard maple. This is a native of gravelly and other well-drained soils of the northern states and southward in and near the mountains. It reaches its greatest perfection in western New England, New York, Ohio and Kentucky.

With a Preview.

Mary had been frightened by a large dog barking at her while she was walking with her mother. From that time all dogs that approached within a few feet of her caused her to cry and run to her parents for protection.

A few evenings ago some friends called at the home, bringing with them a puppy. Like all dogs of that age, he was playful, cute, and friendly.

Mary, safe in her mother's lap, gazed at the puppy for a moment as he stood looking at her, and then said, "Don't bark, doggie, 'n' I like you."

In Cages, Not in Demand.

Buddy, age three, was making his daily call, when Mr. H— asked him whether he was going to work in his father's grocery store and whether he was going to cut the meat or put the sugar in packages.

Buddy said that he intended to help the butcher by cutting up the chickens. He was asked whether chickens were in demand.

The little caller then answered very quickly that the chickens were not in demand but that they were in back of the store in cages.

When You Are Constipated
To insure a healthy action of the bowels and correct disorders of the liver, take two of Chamberlain's Tablets immediately after supper. They will not only cause a gentle movement of the bowels, without unpleasant effects, but banish that dull, stupid feeling that often accompanies constipation.—Advertisement.

SCHOOL NOTES

Catherine Compston, Evelyn Fisher, Catherine Dunn, Coraline Rathburn and Geneva Robinson of the first grade, have been neither absent nor tardy during this semester.

Lola Mae Barlow, Catherine Compston, Albertina Drews, Catherine Dunn, Evelyn Fisher, Kathleen Ford, Alexander Kronoziski, Mary Kronoziski, Johnny Kuhn, Edna LaFave, Berhold Lemley, Mildred Mault, Raymond Pelkey, Coraline Rathburn, Geneva Robinson, Walter Taylor, Edwin Wingard and Forbes Smith of the same grade, were neither absent nor tardy during the month of November.

Mrs. Charles M. Mather and Mrs. Perry Woodworth visited the first grade, last Friday.

The children of the first grade provided a basket of good things as a surprise Thanksgiving dinner for a needy family.

Alberta Marron, Margaret Stoneburner and Marjorie Russell are confined at home on account of sickness.

The fifth and sixth grade girls are divided into three groups, with Helen Beyer as captain of team number one, Doris Whipple of team number two, and Vera Stoneburner of team number three. They played a series of circle dodge ball and rope jumping. Vera Stoneburner's team being the champions.

The domestic art classes are about to start their Christmas articles.

The seniors are canvassing the town for subscriptions to the Ladies' Home Journal, for the benefit of the Washington trip fund.

The first debate of the season is to be held at Howell, Friday, December 8th. Our team is working very faithfully. They could be repaid for their work in no better way than to have a large showing of Plymouth people attend.

A description of a baby, in rhyme, written for English by Beulah Fisher, eighth grade:

Her eyes are brown and twinkling,
Just like the stars at night;
Her tiny teeth just coming through,
Are ready now to bite.

Her little lips like roses red,
Are now curved in a smile;
Her little toes are nice and pink,
And wiggle all the while.

Those tiny hands that try to grasp,
At everything they see;
And little hairs just seeing through,
Make a baby dear to me.

METHODIST NOTES

Monthly official board meeting next Tuesday night at 8:00.

The Win-My-Chum meetings, last week were well attended by the young folks, and thoroughly enjoyed. Each leader had a vital personal message of helpfulness for all.

The University team present for the social on Saturday night and for the services on Sunday brought inspiration and uplift by their youthful christian leadership. We trust the influences of the week will live on in the lives of all who attended the meetings.

Our sympathies and prayers go out to those who have met with sickness and sorrow during the past week.

We congratulate our Brother and Sister Spicer, who celebrated their golden wedding anniversary, last week. May we all be so fortunate.

The art of living well together is one of the finest of all arts.

"The prayers of a righteous man availeth much." Try it.

Next Wednesday is the day scheduled for the various meetings of the Ladies' Aid companies. Places of meeting will be announced later. Plan to attend.

The pastor wishes to announce that the sermon topics for the next three Sunday nights will be as follows: "Saved from Sin," "Saved by Christ" and "Saved for Service."

The personal work campaign will be continued next week by an effort to enlist those in the Sunday-school who are not already members of the church to join on Christmas Sunday.

PRESBYTERIAN NOTES

Plymouth was proud to have the largest delegation of any society in Detroit Presbytery at the Thanksgiving party given at the Fort Street Presbyterian church, last Friday night, by the Young People's Council of Detroit. We had twelve there.

NEWBURG SCHOOL NOTES

The following were neither absent nor tardy in Miss Reddeman's room: Clarence Levandowski, Harold Stevens, Gladys Allen, Sarah Jane Allen, Louis Norman, Russell Stevens, John Adams, Donald Dunn, Eida Foerster and Thomas Levandowski.
The following have been neither absent nor tardy during November: Frank Clemens, Erwin Deja, Lena Schultz, Arthur Brady, Marion Taylor.
The eighth grade has an excellent record for attendance, although not for tardiness. Not including the first week, when we did not have regular classes, the eighth grade altogether has been absent only two and a half days.

BAPTIST NOTES

The ministers' conference, which met at the Baptist church, last Monday and Tuesday, will be reported next week.
The Ladies' Aid will hold their bazaar, December 15th. See other notice.

Alton Sayles led the B. Y. P. U. last Sunday evening. The subject was "Thanksgiving," and many of the young people took part. Henry Holcomb is leader for next Sunday evening. Every young person invite some one else.
Miss Gardiner and Mrs. Humphries will give their fine entertainment at the Baptist church, next Friday evening, December 8. Make your plans to come.
Baptismal service for next Sunday night is postponed for one week, on account of sickness.

IN MEMORY OF OVID HOWARD KINCAID

Ovid Howard Kincaid, eldest son of J. E. and Minnie Kincaid of Ingram Branch, West Virginia, was born at Ingram Branch, Fayette county, West Virginia, April 30, 1892, and died October 26, 1922, aged 30 years, 6 months and 26 days. He was united in marriage to Ethel S. Decker of Plymouth, Michigan, February 1, 1911, and to this union was born one daughter, little Virginia, aged five years. He is survived by his widow and daughter, father, mother and six brothers, Virgil and Emmett of Plymouth, Mich., Dewey, Willis, Hollis and Glenn of Ingram Branch, West Virginia, and four sisters, Bessie, Dessie, Garnet and Viola, also of Ingram Branch, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Deceased was well known by the people of Fayette county, and also of Plymouth, Mich., the latter having been his home for the past twelve years. He came to Plymouth in 1910, where he was employed by the Huston Hardware Co. for five years; later he was engaged in garage work and he also served as a member of the police force for three years. He drove through from Plymouth, to his father's at Ingram Branch, arriving Saturday afternoon, October 21, 1922, to be at home on Sunday for a family reunion, where the family were all at home together for the first time. The following Thursday, as he and his brother Emmett, were driving to Kincaid, the car struck a rock, causing Mr. Kincaid to lose control of the machine. The car and occupants rolled over the steep embankment. Emmett was uninjured, but Ovid's skull was fractured. He lived about two hours, but never regained consciousness. Two doctors were at the scene of the accident, and nothing was left undone, but he was called to the Great Beyond.

The funeral services were held at the Kincaid Tabernacle, Sunday, October 29, 1922, at 11:00 a. m., Rev. Brackett officiating, and his body laid to rest in the family lot in the Johnson cemetery. His casket was adorned with many beautiful flowers, carried and placed by a number of his most intimate friends, as a token of the high esteem in which he was held in the community.

Taking Desperate Chances

It is true that many contract severe colds and recover from them without taking any precaution or treatment, and a knowledge of this fact leads others to take their chances instead of giving their colds the needed attention. It should be borne in mind that every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality, makes the system less able to withstand each succeeding attack and paves the way for the more serious diseases. Can you afford to take such desperate chances when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of bad colds may be had for a trifle?—Advertisement.

ADDITIONS TO FRUIT SUPPLY

Belief That Central and South American Products Might Be Grown In This Country.

Green olives, grapefruit, tomatoes, the banana—these were once practically unknown to Americans, whose taste for them had slowly to be cultivated.

"In 'Food Products From Afar.'" E. H. S. and H. S. Bailey suggest that several other fruits from Central and South America may yet become well known. One is the white sapone, which has a sour-bitter flavor, like grapefruit, but a smooth, custard-like texture, and is enthusiastically liked by many northern visitors. Experiments indicate that Florida and California can produce it. The chayaote is immensely liked in South America and the West Indies, while in Brazil the grape-like fruit of the Jabotoban tree is a favorite.

But it would appear that Americans miss more to not knowing the Brazilian custard-apple or sugar-apple than anything else. "It occurs in creamy flakes," say the authors, "which seem to separate into segments. When eaten it melts in the mouth and carries the flavor both of the pineapple and the banana. Some varieties have a flavor suggesting clotted cream with sugar, and the odor of rose-water."

NO PLAYTIME FOR IDLE MAN

Philosophical Reasoning on the Subject, That It Is Impossible to Satisfactorily Refute.

In a quaint volume published some fifty years ago, occurs the following, credited to "James of Nayland":

"The words commonly used to signify 'play' are these four: relaxation, diversion, amusement, recreation. The idea of relaxation is taken from a bow, which to retain its springiness must be unbent when not in use. Diversion signifies a turning aside from the main purpose of a journey to see something that is curious or out of the common. Amusement means an occasional forsaking of the Muses, as when a student lays aside his book. Recreation is the refreshing of the spirits when they are exhausted by labor so that they may be ready in due time to resume it again.

"From these considerations it follows that the idle man who has no work can have no play; for how can he be relaxed who never is bent? How can he turn out of a road who is never in it? How can he leave the Muses who is never with them? How can play refresh one who has never been exhausted?"—Cincinnati Enquirer.

First View of Ships.

One of the great disappointments to tourists from the middle west or other inland sections on their first visit to New York is the size of ocean-going vessels. The ships are exceedingly small to them, remarks a New York Sun writer.

A trip to the waterfront and harbor generally is the first on the itinerary of a visitor who is paying his initial visit to a seaport. If the first ship encountered happens to be a loaded freighter of 10,000 to 14,000 tons, with its top deck scarcely more than six or eight feet above the water they register amazement that such a craft could negotiate the open sea.
Even a close-up view of a 22,000-ton passenger liner fails to come up to their idea of what a real ship should look like. The ships don't measure up to the impressions first gained through the pictures and lithographs back home.

Nail Facts.

Finger nails grow faster in summer than in winter.
This is only one of many curious facts about nails. For instance, the nails on your right hand grow faster than those on your left, and no two nails grow at the same speed.
The average time each nail takes to reach its full length is four and a half months, and at this rate a man of seventy will have renewed his nails one hundred and eighty-six times.
Taking the length of each nail as half an inch, he will have grown 7 feet 9 inches of nail on each finger, and on all his fingers and thumbs the total growth will be 77 feet 6 inches.
