FRUIT—IN THE STORE WINDOW

"A man need not go to church if he is honest," says the man on the street.

Why not as well say that we do not need fruit trees, because the stores are full of fruit?

It requires a man of keen perception to realize that civilization is built entirely upon those moral and spiritual qualities which the church fosters and cultivates.

Chamber of Commerce Community Banquet

Thursday, January 25th Is the Date For the Big Event

At a meeting of the directors of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce, held Tuesday evening, it was decided to hold a community banquet on Thursday evening, January 25th, at 6:30, at the High school auditorium. Arrangements are already under way for one of the biggest banquets of the kind that has ever been held in Plymouth. Good speakers will be present to talk on subjects of importance to everyone who has the best interests of Plymouth at heart, and everybody is invited to co-operate with the C. C. to make this big get-together event the success that it should be.

The price of the banquet tickets has been placed at 50c each, and there is going to be plenty of eats, too. Members of the C. C. will have these tickets for sale. Every person in Plymouth and surrounding country is most cordially invited to attend this banquet. Watch next week's paper for particulars.

HOME BUILDING ASSO. HAS GOOD YEAR

The annual meeting of the Plymouth Home Building Association was held at the village hall, Monday evening. In the election of three directors for the ensuing three years, R. R. Parrott, William Sutherland and Claude Verkirk were re-elected to succeed themselves.

Since its organization the Plymouth Home Building Association has helped to finance the building of thirty-seven houses in Plymouth, has paid regular dividends of 5 per cent per annum to all its members, and in other ways has shown itself to be worthy of the support of every citizen of Plymouth who is interested in the growth and prosperity of our home town.

The annual report of the Secretary of State, Charles J. DeLand, covering the work of the Building and Loan Associations of Michigan, for the year ending June 30, 1922, is just out.

The report covers the work of eighty-one associations with combined assets of $58,546,236.79. Very few people seem to appreciate or understand the work that the Building and Loan Associations are doing in the state to promote the idea of systematic thrift and home-ownership. The secretary closes his report as follows: "The state must give all encouragement possible to those expedients that make for the contentment and financial competence of its citizens, and no expedient functions to this end more directly and more practically than do building and loan associations."

It is gratifying to note that our own local association, the Plymouth Home Building Association, stands well to the front in its growth for the year, showing an increase in assets of 61 per cent, which is exceeded by only one other association, incorporated the same year as our local association, 1919, and only by two associations that have been incorporated since that date.

DEATH OF FOREST ROHDE

Forest Rohde, aged 39 years, died at Harper hospital, January 10th. Mr. Rohde was taken to the hospital for an operation for appendicitis a week previous to his death, but peritonitis developed. He leaves his wife; two sons, Clifford and Gilbert; his mother, Mrs. Jane Rohde of Elm, and two brothers, Earl and Clayton, besides more distant relatives and friends. For several months, Mr. and Mrs. Rohde and family have resided with Mrs. Rohde's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Sherman, on Penniman avenue, and the funeral services will be held from their home, Saturday afternoon at two o'clock. Many friends extend sympathy to the bereaved family.

LADIES' AUXILIARY OF PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH VISIT NORTHVILLE AUXILIARY.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church were pleasantly entertained by the Northville Auxiliary at the Northville Presbyterian church, last Wednesday afternoon. About sixty ladies from here attended the meeting. The program was in charge of the Plymouth Auxiliary. In the absence of the newly elected president of Plymouth Auxiliary, Mrs. William Shaw, the retiring president, Mrs. F. D. Schrader, filled the office, and responded to the address of welcome. The program was in charge of Mrs. Charles Humphries, with Mrs. John Patterson in charge of music, and Mrs. Phoebe Patterson of the devotional exercises. Piano selections were rendered by Miss Olive Merz, vocal numbers by Miss Marjorie Pollock, and violin selections by Mr. and Mrs. Parre of Wayne. Miss Ellen Gardiner pleased the company with several musical readings, and an interesting paper on "Mountaineers" was read by Mrs. D. F. Murray, while Mrs. George A. Smith gave Current Events. At the conclusion of the program, dainty refreshments were served by the Northville ladies. All report a delightful afternoon.

POULTRY SHOW HAS SOME FINE BIRDS

The best poultry show ever held in Plymouth, is the verdict of those who have seen the big exhibit of birds at the show being held in Penniman hall, under the auspices of the Plymouth Poultry Association. The show opened Wednesday, and will continue today and tomorrow, January 12 and 13. There are about four hundred of the various breeds of chickens on exhibition, and poultry fanciers say they are the classiest bunch of birds they have seen at any of the shows this winter. Wm. A. Wise judged the birds Wednesday, and the ribbons are all up. The grand prize of the show, a beautiful silver trophy cup, donated by the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce, went to A. E. Fuller of Northville, on his wonderful display of White Rocks. The list of prize winners will be given next week.

Everybody is urged to attend the show today and tomorrow. Show room is open from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m. of each day. Admission, adults 25c and children, 15c.

DEATH OF E. K. MANNING

Edward K. Manning, a pioneer resident of Plymouth and vicinity, passed away at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Loomis on West Ann Arbor street, with whom he resided, Wednesday afternoon, January 10th. Mr. Manning was ninety-one years old last September, and was born in Connecticut, but when a boy came to Michigan, and for many years resided on a farm south of town, now owned by Raphael Metcalf. In early life, he was united in marriage to Miss Mary Safford, who with two children, a son and daughter, preceded him to the higher life a number of years ago. He is survived by one son, Edward, Jr., and two grandchildren, who live in Los Angeles, California; also several nieces and nephews. The funeral will be held this (Friday) afternoon, from Schrader Bros. Funeral Home, at 2:30 o'clock. B. B. Bennett, reader in First Church of Christ, Scientist, will conduct the services. Burial in Riverside cemetery.

THE COUNTRY BOY
Judge E. H. Gary believes every young man should get his start in the country. He is not alone in that belief. We can find hundreds right around Plymouth who believe that the boy who gets his start in the country starts out better equipped to face life's battles, and history proves that the majority of successful men were reared in rural districts. The country boy has to think for himself, and he has more opportunities for work and fun for play. Consequently, when he goes to the city, if he is going to amount to anything at all, he regulates his life by what he has learned out in the open spaces.
There is something in the city that stimulates new blood, but eventually creates a stereotyped character. So always there must be new blood—the freshness and enthusiasm for tasks old to the city boy but new to the country boy. This brings up a new problem. About half of the people of America live in the cities now, and presumably more than half hereafter will be born in the cities. Commerce, industry and business consequently will draw less and less upon the countryside for their new leaders, and more and more upon the cities. But here another factor enters. The present tendency is back to the country. It has been said of the average business man that he wants to make enough money to go back to the country and live a life of ease. If this is true, the country will continue to furnish the leaders, for youth will spend much of its time away from the hustle and turmoil of the cities. To grow up in the suburbs is not the real thing in country life, but it is vastly better, for the future citizen and his generation than to grow up without any of the experience and environment which created the sturdy stock which is still the backbone of America.

PAYING MOTHER'S BILL
A ten-year-old lad overheard a conversation about certain bills to be paid and conceived the idea of making out a bill for his own services. So next morning he laid this statement of account on his mother's breakfast plate:
"Mother owes Willie for carrying coal six times, 20c; for bringing water lots of times, 30c; for going 10 errands, 15c."
His mother read the bill, but said nothing about it. That evening Willie found on his plate the 75 cents and also another bill, which read as follows: "Willie owes mother for his happy home of ten years, nothing; for nursing him through a long illness, nothing; total, nothing."
When Willie saw the 75 cents he was pleased, but when he read his mother's bill his eyes grew dim and his lips quivered. Then he took the money to his mother, threw his arms about her neck and begged that she would let him do lots of things for her.
Mother's bill is rarely presented, but it will pay each one of us to think it over for ourselves and then settle in love and service.

Miss Lillian Lancaster, who stays at the home of Mrs. Arthur Tiltonson, was called to Alpena, last Saturday, on account of the death of her sister.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schaufele pleasantly entertained the members of their pedro club, at their home on South Main street, last Tuesday evening.
Miss Madeline Thomas, who resides at the home of Mrs. Selders on Holbrook avenue, went to her home at Jackson, last Tuesday, on account of illness.
C. V. Chambers and son, Stanley, who attended the dealers convention at the Willys-Knight Overland factory at Toledo, Ohio, last week Thursday, report a fine time.
Plymouth friends will be interested to hear of the birth of a little daughter, Virginia Irene, Tuesday, December 12th, to Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Shaw, who reside near Ann Arbor. Mrs. Shaw will be remembered as Miss Irene Lyndon of this place.
The annual meeting and election of officers of the Plymouth United Savings Bank was held Tuesday afternoon. All the old board of directors and officers were re-elected for the ensuing year. The business of the bank for the past year has been most satisfactory.

Large audiences saw the great picture film, "Burning Sands," at the Penniman Allen theatre, Wednesday and Thursday evenings. One of the pleasing features of the evening's entertainment was the personal appearance of little Dodo Reid, niece of Wallie Reid. This little Miss is only six years of age, but she sings, dances and can answer a multitude of questions far beyond her age, that is truly wonderful. She possesses a loveable and charming personage and easily captured the hearts of her audience.

RECEIVE PRIZES FOR BEST ESSAYS ON "LORNA DOONE"

When the film, "Lorna Doone," was shown here, Mr. Lush offered prizes to school children, who should write the best paragraph on, "Why is Lorna Doone a Good Film?" This contest was thrown open to all grades, and the following were successful: First prize, a two-volume edition of "Lorna Doone," in leather, won by Alice Hathaway. Second prize, a Burt Howe Library leather edition of "The Three Musketeers," won by Clara Hauk. Third prize, a "Modern Student's Library" edition of "Friede and Prejudice," won by Blanche Freeman. Fourth prize, a leather bound copy of "Bob, Son of Battle," won by Perry Richwine. Fifth prize, a leather bound copy of "The Tale of Two Cities," won by Ione Bird. The judges were Mrs. Dibble, Mrs. Ella Chaffee and Miss Allen, the winner getting all three first places.

WHY LORNA DOONE IS A GOOD FILM

By Alice Hathaway
The customs and dress of the English people were clearly revealed in the presentation of this master film. All kinds of life from the murdering thief to the peaceful life of the peasant and the royal life of the palace were shown. The meeting of the later hero and heroine in their childhood and the separation for a period after the girl was captured by the robbers makes the story much more fascinating. The hero, in later years a master of strength, performed many daring feats to save her. The ruler of the robber gang, and the heroine become fast friends, which shows how a kind person influences the life of a cruel one. Sacrifices and suffering were bravely endured by both the lovers. Finding that she is to live in a palace as designated by the dying nobleman, realizing that true love overpowers the lure of riches and the honor of a high name in society, and sacrificing her high position in the land to go back and live as a peasant with her true friend makes the story and picture a very worth while one.

GRANGE NOTES

At the regular meeting, Jan. 4th, a pot-luck dinner was served, and after the business meeting, the officers were installed, S. W. Spicer acting as master of ceremonies, assisted by Mrs. S. W. Spicer. The work was done in a creditable manner. The lateness of the hour cut short the lecturer's program to a reading by Miss Chloe Powell, as regards our New Year's resolutions, "They Don't Last," and a few items from a paper printed in York state, January 4th, 1869, in which was chronicled the death of Washington, was read by J. F. Root.
The exchange of gifts proved a delightful little diversion.
Miss Woodworth and Mr. Carr being present, made a few kindly remarks. Mr. Carr called attention to some of the things in store for those privileged to attend Farmers' Week at the M. A. C., January 29 to February 2.
The next regular meeting will be January 13. All members are urged to be on hand for a pot-luck dinner promptly at noon, thus making it possible to close earlier. Ladies please bring spoons, cups, knives, forks and plates so as to save caring for the Grange dishes. Our state delegates will be present to bring the report of state Grange.

HARD TO GET BACK AT HIM

Editor Seemingly Had Maneuvered Himself Into a Position That Was Impracticable.

Back in the days of personal journalism the talent of the editorial writer was devoted not so much to the discussion of the merits of public questions as to vituperation of the leaders of the opposing party, particularly the editor of the vile opposition newspaper, writes Russell M. Seeds in the Indianapolis Star. In those days William E. Nelson, who later built up the Kansas City Star into a great property, and Samuel E. Morse, well remembered as editor of the Indianapolis Sentinel, were partners, publishing the Fort Wayne Sentinel. The Fort Wayne Gazette, the Republican morning paper, had recently been purchased by one Beecham, who, being of an inquisitive turn of mind, hunted up the private history and peculiarities of Messrs. Nelson and Morse and stuck the data in his safe for a rainy day. It came right soon for the fall campaign opened with an attack on him in the Sentinel. He came back with a broadside that was a scorcher.
Morse had got down to the office early that morning and was in such a hurry to get some early copy on the look that he had deferred reading the Gazette. But in a few minutes Nelson came in in a towering rage and threw the paper down on the desk.
"Sam, look here at what that vile and dirty wretch has printed about us! It's the most outrageously scoundrelous stuff you ever read!"
"What's the use of getting excited over a pack of lies!"
"Lies, ha! It's worse than that! That villain has told the truth!"

TEXAS TOWN CENTURIES OLD

Ysleta, Now El Paso, Has Tradition It Was Founded in 1540 by Spanish Explorer.
A tradition which has been handed down through many generations of West Texas and New Mexico pioneers has it that the little town of Ysleta, Texas, 18 miles southeast of El Paso, is the oldest settlement in the United States.
According to this tradition, Ysleta was founded in 1540 by Don Francisco Vasquez Coronado, famed Spanish explorer. This would make Ysleta twenty-five years older than St. Augustine, Florida, which is accredited as being the oldest city in this country.
Yet there are no official records to substantiate the theory of Ysleta's antiquity. It is old, the oldest town in Texas, no doubt, but its origin is traceable only as far back as 1682, authoritatively.
According to church records at Ysleta, the town was founded by Antonio Oremín, Spanish governor of New Mexico, about the year 1682.—Detroit News.

Eclipse Aided Columbus.

An eclipse is said to have aided Columbus on the Island of Jamaica a few years after he discovered America. The savages had taken Columbus and his companions prisoners and would give them no food. By his reckonings Columbus knew that an eclipse of the moon was coming. He called the Indian chiefs to him and told them that if they did not bring him and his companions food that very night he would take from them the light of the moon. At first they laughed at him, but when the dark shadow began to creep over the face of the moon they ran to him with all the food they could get together, beseeching him to forgive them and to order the moon to shed its light again.
This happened March 1, 1504, a date by which, according to modern tables of eclipses, there would have been an eclipse.

Masterpieces of Wood Carving.

In the Italian Renaissance masterpieces in wood carving were elaborate choir stalls, elaborately carved ceilings and minor works of industrial art, such as carved wedding chests. In Spain wood carving flourished to a still greater extent. Here the art first showed Moorish influence, but during the late Gothic period French, and in the Sixteenth century Italian influence. During the Seventeenth century polychrome sculpture in wood was perhaps the most characteristic form of Spanish sculpture. The masterpieces in the art were choir stalls and screens.

Chinese "Devil Drive."

Once in every 12 years the Chinese residents in the little city of Kuching, in the island of Borneo, exert themselves strenuously in a devil drive.
The devil driving is a beautiful affair in magnificent dresses and designs, for the devils are hunted by a great procession of floats carrying beautiful dressed young girls, loaded with gold ornaments and jewels. Other floats are adorned with vicious-looking paper dragons scattered through out the mile-long procession are men carrying silk banners with threatening words written upon them to frighten the devils.

Modern Youth.

In front of a Broadway restaurant a ragged urchin was observed by a kindly disposed and prosperous individual who thought the youngster looked wistfully at the batter caker being baked by the girl in the window.
"Hungry, kid?" he asked.
"Naw!" came the scornful reply. "Can't a fellow look at a swell dame without drawin' a crowd?"

BAPTIST NOTES

New faces in the choir last Sunday morning—glad to see them.
The Sunday-school was in good trim. Sunday, and Joe Stanley, assistant superintendent, presided. Mr. Allenbaugh was away at Harper hospital, caring for his wife, who is very ill. We missed them both very much, and many prayers ascended for her speedy recovery.
Miss Gertrude Grainger and Miss Irene Swikert led the B. Y. P. U. Sunday night. A goodly number were in attendance.
The pastor and wife were in Pontiac, Monday and Tuesday, attending the conference and missionary rally.

LADIES' AID SOCIETY

The Ladies' Aid society met Wednesday afternoon, January 10th, at the home of Mrs. Alisa Estep, 156 Liberty street. It was a very large meeting, and the ladies gave a good report. The amount they have received this year from all work, viz., suppers, bazaars, quilting, bake sales, etc., was over $500—about $100 more than last year, besides painting and varnishing the woodwork in the basement of the church. It has been a marvelous year for the ladies.
The officers elected for this year are as follows: Mrs. George Wilskie, president; Mrs. Joseph Stanley, first vice president; Mrs. H. E. Sayles, second vice president; Mrs. Florence Beale, secretary; Mrs. Hugh Daly, treasurer; Mrs. Lucy Smith, flower committee.

The retiring president, Mrs. John Murray, who for many years has been untiring energy, has led the women in their work, felt she would be obliged to discontinue her office this year. She was given a hearty vote of thanks for her faithful leadership in all these years.
The secretary, Mrs. Florence Beale, and Mrs. Hugh Daly, treasurer, and Mrs. Lucy Smith each gave a report of their department and work, and each was accepted by a rising vote of thanks.

At the close of the meeting, a splendid supper was served. The house was full of members of the church and congregation, and all had a splendid evening. At an opportune moment, Mr. Hamill stepped forward and addressed the pastor. He said the friends had desired to remember the pastor and wife at the beginning of this new year, and presented them with a very nice leather upholstered rocking chair. It was a great surprise to both pastor and wife. Mr. Sayles made a few remarks, and thanked the church and congregation for their kindness and good will.
