FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Rev. S. Conger Hathaway, Pastor

A PERFECTLY GOOD ELECTRIC MOTOR

stands in a certain print shop, yet it earns not a dollar for the owner. It stands there in absolute idleness, accumulating only dust.

Why? It is not connected with the source of power, the electric generating plant.

There is many a life just so. Nothing to be said against it—it is a perfectly good life, but like the motor, good for nothing because not connected with the source of power.

The Church seeks to help folks make that connection with Him, who is all powerful.

COMMUNITY BANQUET NEXT THURSDAY NIGHT

Dr. Hugh Cabot of the University of Michigan Among the Speakers for the Occasion.

Next Thursday evening is to be a red letter event in the history of the local Chamber of Commerce, for this is the time set for the big Chamber of Commerce Community Banquet. It is expected that the high school auditorium will be taxed to its utmost capacity to accommodate the large number who will want to attend. Tickets are now on sale among the C. of C. members and at several of the business places.

The committee on speakers has been fortunate in securing Dr. Hugh Cabot, dean of the medical department of the University of Michigan, as the principle speaker of the evening. Dr. Cabot is a speaker of exceptional ability and will bring a message of interest to every man and woman in Plymouth. Another speaker will be Edward N. Hines, chairman of the county road commission. Mr. Hines is an entertaining speaker and will have something of interest to say to the citizens of Plymouth. Capt. Edward Denniston, president of the Chamber of Commerce, will preside over the gathering.

A fine program is being prepared, and there is going to be all kinds of eats. The price of the banquet tickets has been placed at 50c each. Get your ticket early, and be sure of a seat. Remember, this is a community affair, everybody in Plymouth and vicinity is cordially invited, and the Chamber of Commerce wants your co-operation to make it a huge success. A special invitation is extended to the ladies to attend this banquet. Banquet at 6:30.

BIG BARGAIN DAY, TUESDAY, JAN. 30

The community banquet next Thursday night will usher in Chamber of Commerce week. Another feature planned for C. of C. week will be a big sale day, Tuesday, January 30th. On that day the business men of Plymouth will offer some real bargains in almost every line of good staple merchandise. There is also going to be free entertainment for everybody, and everybody is cordially invited to share in these bargains, and enjoy the free entertainment that will be provided. Bills will be distributed early next week, announcing the many bargains that will be offered on bargain day, January 30. Watch next week's Mail for bargain day advertisements and program of free entertainment. Tell your neighbors and friends about this big sale day.

NUTRITION GROUP MEETING

On Thursday, January 11, at the Plymouth High school, was held the second of the four Nutrition Group meetings, under the leadership of Miss Bernice Woodworth, home demonstration agent of Wayne County, and was addressed and tutored by Miss Koch, assistant nutrition specialist from M. A. C., whose talk was very interesting as well as instructive. Malnutrition was the topic as applied to the child from 2 to 6 years, called, "The Pre-school Age." But two communities were represented, the Cady school by Mrs. Gillies, and the Canton Community Club by Mrs. Frank Hank and Mrs. Lily M. Root. All interested in this important phase of home extension work are urged to attend these meetings, as the welfare of all is largely dependent on the value of nutrition. The February meeting is looked forward to by those present at this one, with the hope that many may be there to share its benefits.

NOMINATIONS FOR VILLAGE COMMISSIONERS FILED

There was a total of eight nominating petitions filed with the village clerk, Monday, the last day for filing petitions, for the nomination of three village commissioners to be elected at the annual village election, which will be held Monday, March 12. Henderson, R. R. Parrott, W. T. Pettingill, Frank Rambo, Henry J. Fisher and D. F. Murray. See notice of primary election and registration in this paper.

DEATH OF FORMER RESIDENT

We take the following from a Yale, Michigan, paper regarding the death of Mrs. Wm. J. Whittaker of that village, and a former resident of Plymouth:

Mrs. Wm. J. Whittaker died in Yale, Monday evening, Jan. 8, 1923, after a lingering illness, from tuberculosis.

May Barr was born on a farm in Brockway township May 30, 1885, and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Barr. She married Wm. J. Whittaker several years ago, and one son was born to them, who with her father and mother and five brothers, Edgar, Edwin, Bert, Will and Charley, survive to mourn the loss of a loving wife, mother, daughter and sister.

DEATH OF MRS. THOMAS FINN

Mrs. Thomas Finn passed away at Grace hospital, Detroit, Saturday, January 13th, aged 44 years. Mrs. Finn had undergone a serious operation the Tuesday previous to her death. The remains were taken to Schrader Bros. Funeral Home, and Monday were taken to Manitou Beach, Mich., where funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon, at 2:00 o'clock. Interment was also at that place. Mrs. Finn was a lady highly esteemed by all who knew her. Besides the husband, she leaves one son, Angus Finn, of this place, and one daughter, Mr. Glenn Bradway of New Castle, Indiana. The family have the sympathy of the community in their sorrow.

PARENT-TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION

On Friday evening at 7:30, in the High school auditorium, will occur a meeting of great interest to parents of school children. Mrs. Stringer of Redford, will give an address. There will also be music and readings. It is hoped the outcome of this meeting will be the organization of a Parent-Teachers' Association in Plymouth. Everyone interested in this movement be sure and be on hand, Friday evening, January 19.

The Meaning of Saving

Saving does not mean hoarding; it means wise spending.

Before one can spend wisely, he must accumulate enough to get that which is worth while and that which will fill his need.

While getting this amount together, it is a good plan to leave your savings in the bank, where they will be safe and where you can get them any time.

This bank welcomes all deposits whether large or small, whether for a long time or a short time.

ANOTHER WAY TO HELP

The holidays are over, you've got more time on your hands now than you have had for a good many weeks, so why not resolve to use an hour or so of it to good advantage? Take an hour sometime during the afternoon and drop into the schoolhouse. Explain to the teacher that you are always interested in the welfare of the children, but that this is the first opportunity you have had to make a personal call, and to show by that call that you are anxious to be of still greater aid in the school affairs if it is possible for you to do so.

The children will be glad to have you call while they are at work. The child is a good deal like the man in one respect—he likes to have people see how well he can do the tasks put before him. The teacher will be pleased to have you call, for while the teacher knows that he or she has the co-operation of the entire neighborhood in their work, they realize it more fully when you show enough interest to call at the school house and note the work that is being done. Don't get the idea you'll be in the way. It's your institution, and you ought to go around occasionally and see how it is progressing, or if there is any way you can better it. It will be an hour well spent.

BANQUET AT M. E. CHURCH

An affair of unusual interest occurred at the M. E. church on Tuesday evening, January 14th. At the hour of seven, about 150 people sat down to a sumptuous banquet served by the Ladies' Aid society. After partaking of this wonderfully fine meal, all listened with great interest to a splendid program.

Prof. Ross acted as toastmaster in his usual genial manner. He introduced each speaker in turn with, as a rule, a pleasing jest at their expense.

The first number was given by Mrs. Thoms. With her quiet voice and pleasing way she ably handled the subject, "Eyes, Front," and kept all her hearers interested to the finish. Her ruling thought forced home to each, was that all the means used to interest folks in the church was but to bring them in the end, to be servants of Jesus Christ. World christianity would settle all moral, social and political questions.

Next on the program was Perry Richwine, who spoke on "Visions and Dreams." His visions of youth left much for the older people to think of about how the younger people were watching them as patterns.

The main speaker of the evening, Dr. West of Birmingham, was then introduced, and held his listeners spell-bound while he delivered a most interesting and scholarly address.

W. B. Lombard finished the program by a right to the point speech on "Partners," with a right practical illustration that he meant what he said.

After a few pleasing remarks by the pastor on the different subjects pertaining to church life, especially the new pipe organ, which has recently been purchased, the company was dismissed.

Great credit is due Mrs. Burton, under whose leadership the banquet was served. During the banquet the guests were pleasingly entertained by a three-piece orchestra, consisting of Gertrude and Pierre Kenyon and Harry Gebhardt.

Good Resolutions

This is the time of year to be shaping up good resolutions for the next twelve months. Your first resolution should be that you will keep all the good resolutions you make.

Among the good resolutions for 1923, include this, "RESOLVED, I shall listen attentively to the advice of insurance representatives I know are dependable and up in their line."

Among the good resolutions WE long ago made is this, "RESOLVED, That we shall represent only companies we know are sound, and that we shall thoroughly post ourselves on all kinds of insurance which we sell."

That resolution of yours and this resolution of ours make it easy for us to do business during 1923 to our mutual advantage. We wish you a very prosperous and happy New Year.

SCHOOL NOTES

Reporter, Ruth Wilkin.
Bernice Holtz of the first grade, has moved to Northville.

The children of the first grade are making winter postcards. Marie Darby of Ypsilanti, and Theo Swegles visited the high school last Wednesday.

The eighth grade are now learning the Irish Lilt, in folk dancing. Marian Kieley was elected captain of the basket ball team for the year 1923.

The high school girls have started the formal work in physical training. Edward Henry and Charles Root of the fifth grade have been neither absent nor tardy this semester.

The school lunch room is now open. One hot dish is being served each day to those who come in from the country or bring their lunch.

The play, entitled "The Land of Lollypop," which is to be given by the sixth grade, will be held Jan. 23. The gavel used by the debaters Thursday night, was made by Perin Hauk of the manual training department.

In a recent rapid calculation contest, the arithmetic eighth grade classes averaged seven minutes; the time allowed was ten minutes. The contest was won in the first section, by Alice Hathaway who completed the work in five minutes; in the second section, Kenneth Rathburn was the winner, completing the assignment in six minutes and fifteen seconds.

Several estimations were made recently concerning the number of new volumes acquired by the library in the last four months. The highest guess was six hundred. By examining the accession book, it is found that approximately 2000 books have been placed on the shelves since September. These are not all fiction. A large number consists of supplementary and reference books. The juvenile department has received several hundred new story books.

Walter Scanlan, the young Irish singer and actor, who shattered all records in the field of Irish song plays last season, will be the attraction at the Wuerth theatre, Ypsilanti, on Friday, January 26th, in a new comedy from the pen of the American author, Edward E. Ross, entitled, "Maytime in Erin." Mr. Scanlan's tour last season was a remarkable financial and artistic success in spite of the fact that it was the worst year in theatrical history, and there is a strong demand for all from all sections of the country for his appearance this season. It is an impossibility to fill all requests received by Manager George M. Gatts, and so many cities will have to be overlooked, but the manager of this theatre is very pleased to assure that he has Mr. Scanlan's signed contract for this season and he will positively appear here on Friday, January 26, in his new play, "Maytime in Erin," and from reports it is said to eclipse all Irish attractions ever presented in this city. The scenes are laid in County Kilkenny, one of Erin's beauty spots. The story is a love one, mingling melody and song, incidentally Mr. Scanlan's six new numbers are: "Puff O' My Pipe," "Mother's Paisley Shawl," "Pilgrim in Loveland," "Old Irish Air," "Some Day," and "Jolly Bachelors."

SEEKING NEW YORK

William J. Boyer, who has spent the last month in New York, investigating some business propositions, has returned home, giving a very satisfactory report of his trip. As to New York, he says it sure is some city. As to size and population there sure is no comparison to Detroit, but Detroit is a model to New York, as far as living conditions are concerned, but if you want a gay life, go to New York; also for sights, Broadway is a wonder at night. Then if you want to see people in a mad rush, you want to go to Wall street and the stock exchanges. People seem to be money mad.

Then take the elevated car lines and subways—you are either thirty to forty feet up in the air, or that many feet below the surface. They run a train every one and one-half minutes and from six to ten cars on a train, and during the rush hours they crowd in and out like cattle. It seems that seventy-five per cent of the people travel either in the air or down in the ground. And the subways run at passenger train speed—the dome lights go by like so many red hot bullets. Then the subways underneath the Hudson river to Jersey City are wonderful things—possibly several hundred feet beneath the water's surface. There are two to Jersey City and one to Brooklyn, also two more under construction, also the wonderful Brooklyn and Manhattan bridges crossing the East River to Brooklyn.

Then a trip to Coney Island by subway. It takes one and one-half hours and never sees daylight once while crossing Manhattan bridge. A trip to the top of the Woolworth building, fifty-eight stories; 792 feet and one inch high; first stop of elevator is at forty-eighth story, and takes one minute to go to the top. I dare say it is one of the most wonderful observation stations in the world, and should not be overlooked by anyone if ever in New York. Also they have one of the most complete zoos at Bronx Park I have ever seen.

The art museum is a most wonderful place to go—every imaginable creeping, walking, swimming and flying object is there.

Oh, yes, and baby carriages—sometimes you have to step off into the street to let them go by. Sometimes they come three abreast, and two of them may be twin carriages at that. I have seen as high as fifteen in one cluster and ninety per cent are Jews.

Chinatown is also a sight. About two blocks are all Chinamen, and all seem to be busy.

Whole blocks—block after block—are fine stone apartment houses. Five rooms rent for $55.00 to $125.00. I don't see how they can pay it. Would I want to live in New York? No, not within a twelve-mile distance from the battery, at least.

This they have divided into 29,000 town people, 13,500 students and 1,750 suburbanites. The telephone company is planning to make improvements based on these figures.—Ann Arbor Washtenaw Post.

WOMEN TO HAVE OWN FARM WEEK PROGRAM

Matching the men with exhibit for exhibit and meeting for meeting, women who "come along with Dad" for the annual Farmers' Week and Housewives Congress at the Michigan Agricultural College, from January 29 to February 2 this year, will have a complete program of their own all through the big conference.

The college Woman's Building will serve as headquarters for the women during the week. Exhibits will be on display, and informal conferences will be held there, while the special home economics meetings are scheduled for the auditorium of the East Lansing People's Church.

Leaders in the home economics world, including several of the specialists on the M. A. C. staff, are listed for talks during the various women's meetings. Mrs. Dora H. Stockman, only woman member of the State of Agriculture, and Mrs. Louise H. Campbell, dean of Home Economics at M. A. C., will preside at several of the sessions.

Everything from "Types and Powers of Washing Machines" to "Hygienic Requirements in Clothing" is included in the various subjects which will be up for discussion before the assembled women, while exhibits and demonstrations will cover a wide range of household and home-life questions.

In addition to their own program, women visitors will attend all of the Farmers' Week general sessions, at which national leaders in agricultural, political, and business matters are to speak. Moving pictures, music, and other entertainment features will be scattered through the week's program.

SCHOOL NOTES

Reporter, Ruth Wilkin.

Bernice Holtz of the first grade has moved to Northville.

The children of the first grade are making winter posters.

Marie Darby of Ypsilanti, and Theo Swegles visited the high school last Wednesday.

The eighth grade are now learning the Irish Lilt, in folk dancing.

The high school girls have started the formal work in physical training. Edward Henry and Charles Root of the fifth grade have been neither absent nor tardy this semester.

The school lunch room is now open. One hot dish is being served each day to those who come in from the country or bring their lunch.

The play entitled "The Land of Lollypop," which is to be given by the sixth grade, will be held Jan. 23.

The gavel used by the debaters Thursday night, was made by Perin Hauk of the manual training department.

In a recent rapid calculation contest, the arithmetic eighth grade classes averaged seven minutes; the time allowed was ten minutes. The contest was won in the first section, by Alice Hathaway who completed the work in five minutes; in the second section, Kenneth Rathburn was the winner, completing the assignment in six minutes and fifteen seconds.

Several estimations were made recently concerning the number of new volumes acquired by the library in the last four months. The highest guess was six hundred. By examining the accession book, it is found that approximately 2000 books have been placed on the shelves since September. These are not all fiction; a large number consists of supplementary and reference books. The juvenile department has received several hundred new story books.

Walter Scanlan, the young Irish singer and actor, who shattered all records in the field of Irish song plays last season, will be the attraction at the Wuerth theatre, Ypsilanti, on Friday, January 26th, in a new comedy from the pen of the American author, Edward E. Ross, entitled, "Maytime in Erin." Mr. Scanlan's tour last season was a remarkable financial and artistic success in spite of the fact that it was the worst year in theatrical history, and there is a strong demand for all from all sections of the country for his appearance this season. It is an impossibility to fill all requests received by Manager George M. Gatta, and so many cities will have to be overlooked, but the manager of this theatre is very pleased to assure that he has Mr. Scanlan's signed contract for this season and he will positively appear here on Friday, January 26th, in his new play, "Maytime in Erin," and it is reported that it will eclipse all Irish attractions ever presented in this city. The scenes are laid in County Kilkenny, one of Erin's beauty spots. The story is a love one, mingling melody and song, incidentally Mr. Scanlan's six new numbers are: "Puff O' My Pipe," "Mother's Paisley Shawl," "I Was a Pilgrim in Loveland," "Old Irish Air," "Some Day," and "Jolly Bachelors."

BASKET BALL

The first game of the Four-Square League this season, was played Friday evening, Jan. 12th, on the Plymouth floor, with Northville. The girls' game started at 7:30, and both sides started in fighting hard and playing fast. The ball was kept in the Plymouth end the majority of the time, but in spite of this, at the end of the first half the score was 16 to 14 in favor of Northville. After the intermission of ten minutes, the Plymouth girls came back to win, and succeeded in doing so after some really hard work and fast passing, making the final score 29 to 23, in favor of Plymouth. The Northville forwards were very good on their free throws and field shooting, and most of their field throws were two-point baskets, while the Plymouth forwards, making mostly one-point baskets, would have nearly doubled their score if the two-point baskets could have been made. This game was very interesting and exciting, and one of the fastest girls' games played here in some time, and a very good spirit by both the players and spectators continued throughout the game.

NORTHVILLE
H. VanAtta, r. f., 2 free throws, 3 2-point baskets, 2 technical fouls.
V. Smith, l. f., 3 free throws, 6 2-point baskets, 2 technical fouls.
Thompson, j. c., 1 personal and 3 technical fouls.
M. Moran, 2 technical fouls.
V. Parmenter, r. g., 2 technical and 2 personal fouls.
G. Young, r. g., 1 technical and 1 personal foul.
M. Lauran, l. g., 1 personal and 3 technical fouls.

PLYMOUTH
M. Kiely (Capt.), r. f., 5 2-point baskets, 3 1-point baskets, 1 free throw, 1 technical foul.
M. Amrhein, l. f., 2 2-point baskets, 7 free throws, 4 1-point baskets, 1 personal and 2 technical fouls.
D. Freydl, j. c., 3 technical fouls.
J. Whipple, r. c., 1 technical foul.
B. Mueller, r. g., 2 technical fouls.
G. Hake, l. g., 1 technical foul.
I. Bird, l. g., 2 technical fouls.
M. Bolton, l. g., 1 personal and 1 technical foul.

EPISCOPAL NOTES

Although we had a very fair congregation last Sunday, some were compelled to be away owing to the state of the weather they certainly missed a most inspiring address by Franklin L. Gibson, who spoke on "Lukewarmness." Next Sunday, Mr. Gibson will speak on the subject of "The Accepted Time," and we invite our friends to hear him.

The Ladies' Guild met last week, at the home of Mrs. Paul Ware, and the following officers were elected: Mrs. Wm. Bakewell, president; Mrs. Geo. Wilcox, vice-president; Mrs. Annie Henderson, treasurer. Mrs. George Wilcox was chosen delegate to the House of Church Women at the Diocesan Annual Convention, which is to be held this year, at Adrian, Mich.

Last Wednesday evening, the joint vestries of St. John's, Wayne, and St. John's, Plymouth, met in the church, and the meeting of a general exchange of social and business ideas to further the work of the church in these parishes. The Plymouth secretary offered plans and ideas in connection with social service, and the Plymouth treasurer explained his system of keeping the church accounts and records to simplify the rendering of the annual report and statement to the Bishop's office, at the end of the year for the general convention. Archdeacon Widdifield, Maben and Ford represented Wayne, Strong, Jennings and Torre represented Plymouth. At the end of the most interesting meeting, three of the ladies of the congregation, Mrs. George Wilcox, Mrs. Jennings and Mrs. Henderson served coffee, cakes and sandwiches.

Tomorrow evening, Saturday, Mrs. Wm. Bakewell will have a book society at her home on the Plymouth road. Automobiles will be at the D. U. R. waiting room from 7:00 to 8:00 o'clock to take out those who have no car, and any who wish to go. Everybody is welcome, and we are promised a good time there. Let's go!

Next Wednesday, the 24th, the Ladies' Guild will meet at the home of Mrs. Annie Henderson, on Wing street, at 2:00 o'clock. As this is the first meeting of the Guild under the new officers, every member is requested to be present.

The annual meeting of the parishioners will take place next Thursday evening, the 25th. There is to be a pot-luck supper, after which the business will be discussed, and the following reports will be given: "Are we growing?" "Finances;" "Sunday-school;" "Ladies' Guild;" "Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrew's;" and the election of members for the vestry for 1923. We are prepared for a large crowd on this occasion.

The secretary of the vestry has received a letter from the Department of Social Service in Detroit, thanking the members of St. John's for their generous contribution of jellies, preserves, clothing and magazines at Christmas time. The workers of this society in Detroit, very much appreciate the interest we take in their social work.

Bible Students

Ezek. 28 for Sunday, January 21. The Finished Mystery denominates this chapter as the destruction of the devil. Hear cheering, indeed! The quicker the better for all concerned. But there is a just cause for some misgivings on our part, that up until a decade or so ago our forefathers overlooked such monitors as Ezek. 28:15, 16, 19; Isaiah 14; Heb 2:14. After this demise there is a new glad song for earth. See Isa. 14:7. That hell and grave in the bible are interchangeable, please note marginal readings for I Cor. 15:55; Rev. 20:13; Isa. 14:9. Always welcome to study with us.

OBITUARY

Forest Adelbert Rohde, a resident of Livonia township for many years, later of Plymouth village, passed this life, January 10, 1923, at Harper hospital, after an illness of but one week. Mr. Rohde was born at Elm in Livonia township, September 9, 1883, where he attended the public school and later becoming a farmer, at which occupation he has spent most of his life. In December, 1905, he was united in marriage to Nellie Sherman of Perrineville. To this union were born two children, Guilford Forest, aged sixteen years, and Gilbert Bredin, aged five months. He leaves to mourn their loss his wife, two sons, his mother and father, two brothers, Earl and Clayton, and a host of relatives and friends.

Mrs. L. B. Samsen and little daughter, Phyllis Jean, returned from the hospital, Tuesday.
Rev. H. E. Sayles was in Pontiac, Monday, on the promotion committee program of the Baptist church.

Don't Let Children Cough at Night

It is hard on both parents and children and quite unnecessary.
"Ours baby had a bad cough, was hoarse and didn't sleep any more. I got Foley's Honey and Tar and he was all right in a few days. It's the best cough medicine I ever used, and I can't say enough for it."

URGES FEEDING OF SURPLUS POTATOES

Utilization of cull and surplus potatoes as livestock feed, especially in years of over-production such as the present, is the subject of a bulletin just published at the Michigan Agricultural College under the title, "Feeding Cull and Surplus Potatoes." The big potato crop in 1922, with its estimated surplus of one hundred million bushels above normal consumption of the country, has made the question of using potatoes as a livestock feed a vital one at the present time, according to J. W. Weston, potato specialist at M. A. C., and editor of the new bulletin. Michigan, as a leading potato producing state, is especially interested in the tuber utilization question.

Caution against over-feeding of potatoes to livestock is given by Mr. Weston in his pamphlet. The practice many farmers follow of holding large stocks until spring, and then trying to feed the potatoes in large quantities, and in a short space of time if they find that they cannot market them profitably, is frequently disastrous. The maximum amounts which can be fed with safety are given in the bulletin. The suggestion is made that the grower start using his small and cull tubers early in the year, especially in seasons of large production, in order to avoid this congestion in the spring.

The Bulletin may be had by writing to R. J. Baldwin, Director Extension, M. A. C., East Lansing, and requesting Extension Bulletin No. 25, "Feeding Cull and Surplus Potatoes."

PRESBYTERIAN NOTES

The Ready Service class met last Monday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. W. L. Freyman. The Busy Woman's Bible Class met Tuesday, at the home of Mrs. Phoebe Patterson. A pot-luck dinner was served, followed by a business session.

The young ladies have "a bee in their bonnets." When it begins to make honey, they will let you know.

The Week Day Bible Classes have resumed their sessions.

Mr. Burden has been busy with a brush. He keeps the building bright and shining, and you should help him keep it so. Articles left in the church are placed in the closet off the interior hall. Look there for your umbrellas and gloves.

There is plenty of coal now, and the church is comfortably warmed.

Each church in Detroit Presbytery is sending a trustee to represent it on the Evangelistic Committee, which meets in the Fort Street Presbyterian church, January 19 (tonight). D. Gilbert Brown is our representative.

We congratulate the ladies on their good attendance at Northville, and on their excellent program. Really they can "go like sixty."

W. R. Shaw will be ordained as an elder next Sunday morning, and will be installed, with several others, as a member of the Session.

METHODIST NOTES

All aboard to hear Bishop Hughes at North Woodward Tabernacle, next Monday evening. Get there early to avoid the rush.

We wonder if there are any who did not have a good time at the supper, Tuesday night. Will any such please report?

A delightful time was also had at the Ladies' Aid gathering on Wednesday. The little play given by some of the ladies was a huge success.

Beginning next Thursday night, at the mid-week service hour, the study classes that were started in December and discontinued on account of the sickness, will be resumed. Get in line again, and join the happy crowd. Every member of the church should be in one of these study classes, if we expect to be real, wide-awake Christians.

Unless sick in bed, plan to attend church next Sunday. If company comes, bring them along. If you are a stranger in town come and join us. If you see a stranger at church, or one whom you have never met, forget social customs, and step up and introduce yourself, and make him feel at home. We want our church to be known as "The Friendly Church."

Buy on Oakland's "Milage-Basis" Plan--and Know In Advance!

WHEN YOU GO TO THE SHOW judge the cars you see on the basis of the actual mileage they will deliver!

YOU HAVE PROBABLY OWNED one car, perhaps more--you're motor-wise! Look for power, beauty, economy--look for a body that pleases the eye and a price that fits your purse--but look beyond these things!

MAKE SURE--IN ADVANCE--OF the quality built into the car, and of the satisfying mileage it will deliver!

FOR THE FIRST TIME IN MOTOR car history, you can do this!

UNDER OAKLAND'S "MILEAGE-Basis" plan you can know, before you buy, those things you have hitherto, perhaps, learned only by experience. OAKLAND WILL TELL YOU, FOR instance, that its valves will function properly for 15,000 miles or more before requiring grinding!

OAKLAND WILL TELL YOU THAT its main crank shaft bearings and connecting rod bearings will require no attention or adjustment under 10,000 miles or more!

AN OAKLAND SIX WILL DELIVER 20 to 25 miles per gallon of gasoline--15,000 to 25,000 miles per set of tires!

AND THE MAJOR PARTS OF AN Oakland Six (axles, frames, bodies, etc.) will endure throughout the life of the car.

WHEN YOU WEIGH THESE FIGURES in the light of your own personal experience as a motorist with cars of various makes--you will appreciate how remarkable they are.

AND WHEN YOU REMEMBER that Oakland last year guaranteed the performance of its engine for 15,000 miles, and that it cost Oakland only a fraction of a cent per car to make good this guarantee--then you will appreciate how certain Oakland is of its ground and how accurate these figures are!

SEE ALL THE CARS AT THE show! Judge them all on Oakland's "mileage-basis" plan--and only a car with Oakland quality (which will be way above Oakland in price) will satisfy you!

KNEW GREAT MEN

Veteran Doorkeeper Familiar With Giants of Finance.

In Fifty Years of Service, Wall Street Employee Has Watched Them Come and Go.

John P. Burnes, who has just completed his fiftieth year as a doorkeeper in the service of the New York Stock exchange, enjoys vivid reminiscences of the days when Commodore Vanderbilt, Cyrus Field, Jay Gould, James R. Keene and Russell Sage were the predominating figures in Wall street. He has witnessed intimately a greater number of stupendous financial deals, perhaps, than any other man in the United States. He has seen mammoth fortunes piled up in brief spaces of time, and he has seen men who were millionaires one moment go to their graves the next, practically penniless.

Commodore Vanderbilt was in the height of his power when Burnes, then twenty years old, began his service at the exchange as a page. Although the commodore was not a member he was a frequent visitor on the floor and Burnes recalls him and his great financial coups with admiration.

Of Jay Gould, Burnes says: "No one could cross his path and not suffer. Gould always avenged all interference with his plans. To obstruct any of his schemes was fatal financially." A phase of Wall street life on which Burnes likes to dwell is the "fun-making." Big Christmas parties in which all of the brokers and their families participated were a feature of the old days, and at these parties it was the custom, according to Mr. Burnes, to present each broker with a gift which was supposed to typify his outstanding characteristics. Great indeed was the hilarity. Burnes said, when "Caulfield Bill" was presented with a map of Greenwood cemetery, and the well-known "houquet gentleman" of the street drew out of the fourth box which he unpacked, the usual violet bouquet.

Methods have changed radically in the 50 years of Burnes' experience. Pages and clerks in the early days of the exchange were required to know not only the names of every man on the floor, but his initials as well, because business was conducted in those days by calling each individual personally. Today all transactions are done by the aid of the telephone, the telegraph, and signals, and men are called mechanically by numbers. All traders have definite locations on the floor in booths from A to Z, and each trader has a number. He is called by placing his number on a centrally located board. With the aid of colored disks he can be summoned mechanically to five different parts of the room.

Tree Fertilizing a Success. Fertilization of forests, hitherto considered a fallacious theory even by some of the world's leading foresters, has been proved successful at the close of a ten-year experiment by the German government. The experiments were carried out at Owingen, County Sigmaringen, southern Germany.

A comparatively barren slope of black Jurassic soil was chosen. It has been used for pasture land and bore a growth of stunted pines and juniper bushes. Two experimental rows of trees were planted, the soil for one having been first prepared with a clover crop and nitro-oxygen for fertilizer. The second was planted without any preparatory crop. Various sections of each row then were fertilized with different materials.

Greatest successes were recorded by the trees fertilized with Thomas slag and kainite. Next to these flourished the trees fertilized with slag alone. The slag and kainite nourished trees registered a growth of 523 centimeters against 408 centimeters by those in unfertilized sections. Those with slag grew but 513 centimeters between 1906 and 1920. The trees treated only with slaked lime showed little progress.

Fossils Valued by Chinese. Fossils of all sorts have a high commercial value to the Chinese. They are called "dragon bones," and when powdered, dissolved in acid and mixed with a liberal quantity of native super-phosphate, are of undoubted efficacy as a medicine for every kind of illness, from rheumatism to gunshot wounds.

The apothecary shops naturally carry on a considerable trade in fossils, and if a Chinese finds a fossil bearing locality, he guards it as if it were a gold mine.

Foreigners find it tedious and often impossible to obtain permission to examine some of the long worked beds that for centuries have been bequeathed by one generation to another.—North China Herald.

Laws Regulate Air Lanes. Forty countries have national air laws regulating the operation of civilian aircraft and designed to decrease flying accidents, due to reckless piloting, according to a survey which the Aeronautical Chamber of Commerce of America forwarded to the Department of Commerce the other day.

"Twenty-six nations which ratified the international air convention, drawn up following the armistice, have established national legislation providing for safe borders," the chamber finds. Fourteen other nations have various kinds of national air law.

Constipation. Constipation of the bowels is a stoppage of the sewerage system that removes waste matter from the body. It is as necessary that your bowels move regularly each day, to carry off this waste, as it is that the waste pipes of your home be kept open and carry off the waste from the house. If you would enjoy good health, keep your bowels regular by taking Chamberlain's Tablets when needed.—Advertisement.

WOMAN'S CLUB

Day by day, in every way, the Woman's Club is getting better and better. Friday, fifty members had a very enthusiastic meeting, Mrs. George Robinson, president, presiding, and Mrs. D. F. Murray elected to fill secretary's chair. The business session touched upon many questions and produced much fine and friendly discussion. For the present, they decided to withdraw from the State Federation for one nearer home.

A communication from the music division of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, asks members who have radios and can get station W. M. A. G. (The Chicago Daily News), to write a report of the music messages to Mrs. Marx E. Oberdorfer, 520 Fine Arts Bldg., Chicago.

This Friday afternoon members are going to give the new club rooms a kitchen shower, hoping a social hour may bring added zeal.

Next Friday afternoon, January 26, occurs an event that no member of the club can afford to miss--the opportunity of meeting an aged and very wonderful woman, Mrs. Maria B. Ferrey, Michigan Historical Commission, of Lansing. No member of this club will be true to her sex if she does not bring two friends to help her enthuse and become richer by hearing this dear old lady. By way of emphasis, so that all may know, each member should use Mrs. Ferrey's own words to get the crowd, "telegram, telephone or tellawoman." She asks that at roll call a prize be given for best answer to something new, something true, something old and unique about Plymouth.

Names of Arctic explorers were used at roll call, and the program was given by Division VI, with Mrs. H. B. Darggett as leader, the subject being "Polar Regions."

The pride of the club, the ladies' quartette, Mrs. Maxwell Moon, Mrs. William Bake, Mrs. John Olaver, Mrs. Roderick Cassidy, with Mrs. Gilbert Brown as pianist, sang, "Will of the Wisp," Spruce, and "Mammy's Song," Gail. A most interesting paper on the history of the Antarctic explorers, Raol Amundsen and Capt. Robert F. Scott, was given by Mrs. E. E. Champe. Robert Service, the poet, loved by men, wrote vivid truths of the north, several of which, "The Spell of the Yukon," "The Law of the Yukon," "The Creation of Sam McGee," were read by Mrs. Robert Chappel. Then followed another very instructive paper, "The Experiences of Vilhjalms Stefansson," by Mrs. Harold Darggett, thus giving the audience a good afternoon in Pole traveling. The program was concluded by two more beautiful numbers by the quartette, "From the Land of Sky Blue Water," Cadman, and "Lassie O' Mine," Walt.

Today's Reflections

Maybe the groundhog will get a chance this year to make up for several mistakes he has made in the past.

The clever Plymouth woman is the one who makes her husband believe he knows more than she does.

We can't help feeling that if European nations would quit holding conferences, it wouldn't be long until they could get together.

Our idea of poor advice is that given by the Plymouth man who tells you what to do with your money after you've done something else with it.

From all reports, the building of hospitals isn't progressing as rapidly as the building of automobiles.

"Can a poet make a living?" asks the editor of an Ohio paper. Yes. He can get a job hauling coal.

The women are now wearing their skirts longer. And if wool prices continue to advance, we are going to have to wear our pants longer.

We see where an Iowa hen broke the egg record. And we suppose the rooster is still crowing about it.

It has been our observation that 90 per cent of the men around Plymouth who hunt for trouble are single men. The married ones know where they can find it.

One reason we have for remembering February is because it's the month you pay for 30 days rent and only get 28.

What this grand and glorious old country of ours needs is more spunk and less bunk.

We've also noticed that when a Plymouth woman gets her husband up a tree, she proceeds to make a monkey of him.

Our first paper money was issued almost 150 years ago. And some of it hasn't found its way into a collection plate yet.

Statistics show the average American farmer made $495 last year. But that's about $2,000 more than a lot of them got.

Often when a Plymouth man tells you he married the girl of his choice, the dear neighbor women will tell you that she was the one who did the choosing.

WHAT IS THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE DOING?

At this writing every member of the board is busy at formulating plans for the ensuing year. We would like to announce a platform on which we stand, but as we are not running for public office, we cannot announce our plans in advance. It is our intention of taking up work for the betterment of conditions as a whole for the community at large, by co-operating with the powers that be. This co-operation also means for any individual, who may have a good proposition, or even an idea for the good of the community, to bring it before the members of your C. of C. at any time of their meeting, in person. You are also invited to attend these meetings, even though you may not have a subject for discussion, you will be informed on the workings and possibilities of the C. of C. Don't fail to read the annual report of the C. of C. in next week's issue.

A gentle reminder, secure your tickets for the Community Banquet early, for we feel every body will want to hear Dr. Cabot, and sorry to say we are limited for space in putting on this feed.

WILLIAM B. PETZ, Sec'y.

British Ban on War Badges.
The war office is following the admiralty and the admiralty in banning service chevrons, wound stripes and silver badges.

Hitherto, since the end of the war, it has been the rule for members of the army, navy or air force to wear on their left sleeves chevrons of red or blue to denote the period of their service overseas during the war and a stripe of gold braid for each recorded wound received on active service.

The crop of "other little wars" since the great war is responsible for the decision, as men wounded on active service since November, 1918, have been put on a different level from casualties before the armistice.

A referendum on the subject was taken by the war office from all units, so that the decision is in keeping with the general wishes of rank and file.—Continental Edition of the London Mail.

Making Dead Coyote Worth Dead Wolf.

The opportunity for dishonest practice under the bounty system is well illustrated by a case that came to the attention of the predatory animal inspector of the biological survey stationed at Olympia, Washington.

The auditor for Grant county, after paying out much money for "timber wolves" decided to send one of the "wolf" pelts to the district inspector of the biological survey for identification. It was pronounced a coyote pelt, although somewhat darker and larger than the average. The hunter who brought in the pelt claimed that the animals were driven down from the timber to the lowlands by forest fires. The local coyote bounty is $1 while that of the wolf is $15.

Oil in Newly Found Plant.
A plant that belongs to the lettuce family, and that is now cultivated in upper Egypt and can be grown with profit in certain parts of the Sudan, is a new source of edible oil. The seed yields, under pressure, from 37 to 38 per cent of oil, and certain specimens of fresh seed from the Sudan, which contained less than 4 per cent of water, yielded more than 44 per cent. The oil is odorless, of a light yellow color, and without disagreeable taste. The seed is so small that it cannot be handled with ordinary equipment, but the oil product is so valuable that new machinery will no doubt be built to do the work.

Viking Warship.
A warship of the Vikings, dating back to about 800 B. C., will soon be on view at the national museum at Copenhagen. It was found in the bog of Hjortspring, in Slesvig. Shields, spears and swords, found with the vessel, also will be on view.

The ship is built of elm, is 42½ feet long, 6½ feet wide, and was propelled by ten oars. On arrival it will be assembled and exhibited in the state in which it sailed the seas.

Jug Imbedded in Tree.
Workmen of the Manchester Ship Canal company at Weaste, Eng., while sawing a big old elm tree into baulks found a brown earthenware jug entirely imbedded in the very heart of the tree. It is thought that more than a hundred years ago a forester put the jug in the fork of the tree after a meal and forgot it. The jug during many years was grown over and became imbedded in the tree.

She Knew Who Wrote It.

Nancy, who is in the first grade of school No. 14, came home the other day all excited. "Oh, mother," she said, "teacher is teaching us a poem, called 'There, Little Girl, Don't Cry.'"

"That's fine," said her mother. "It was written by James Whitcomb Riley, who wrote the bumble bee poem that Sue Anna taught you."

"Oh, no, mother," Mr. Riley didn't write the bumble bee poem. Sue Anna wrote that for me. I saw her do it."

Forgets Dignity of Program.

At a recent Nature Study club meeting at which Dr. C. H. Eigenmann was a guest he told the following story:

Pat and Mike were section employees. Mike was made superintendent. Pat went into his office one day and said: "Hello, Mike, give me a railroad pass."

Mike, feeling the importance of his promotion over his old friend, said: "That's no way for you to do. About ten o'clock tomorrow morning you come to the door, knock, take off your hat, scrape your feet and say: 'Good morning, Mr. Murphy.' I'll say 'Good morning, Pat, and what can I do for you?' Then you state your business in a dignified manner, and I'll take it under advisement."

The next morning Pat came, knocked at the door, and followed directions explicitly. When he said "Good morning, Mr. Murphy," Mike said: "Now, that's more like it. What can I do for you, Pat?"

"You can go to the devil. I got a pass over the B. & O.," Pat responded.

"But I thought they didn't give passes any more," the English woman in the crowd said.—Indianapolis News.

An Inspection.

"Were you looking at the clock?" he said.

"Yes," she answered with a faint smile.

Then he got up and went over to the mantelpiece and looked at the clock for fully half a minute.

"I don't see anything the matter with it," he said, and returned to his seat.

Houses From Cartridges Boxes.

Houses which contain cartridges for infantry are perhaps the last by-products of war to be put to a useful purpose in Berlin. Because of the shortage of housing, the small boxes, which are lying about in thousands, are being filled with clay and laid into walls with mortar as ordinary bricks would be laid. The houses are small, consist of only one floor, but give room for one family only.
