THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BANQUET

The Chamber of Commerce banquet, held at Ye Old Plymouth Inn, Tuesday evening, proved to be one of the very best that has yet been given by the C. of C. About one hundred members sat down to the well appointed tables, at 8:30 o'clock. After the invocation by Rev. Fr. Schuler, F. B. Wiseman, the new manager of Ye Old Plymouth Inn, served a most appetizing and satisfying menu of roast beef, brown gravy, mashed potatoes, spinach, rolls, coffee and apple pie. The service was all that could have been desired in every way.

After the eats had been stowed away, President Denniston announced a surprise to the guests in the way of a vaudeville program, which had been provided by the entertainment committee, who, by the way, are entitled to a lot of credit for the splendid program of the evening and the success of the banquet. Five high-class vaudeville acts, consisting of dancing, singing and monologues, filled in a most pleasant hour. The entertainers were all artists of ability, and judging from the hearty applause that was accorded every number, their efforts were fully appreciated.

Following the vaudeville entertainment, President Denniston introduced the speaker of the evening, Olin Eckley, secretary of the Ypsilanti Board of Commerce. Mr. Eckley made the best talk that has been heard at an event of this kind, since the organization of the local C. of C. His talk was along the line of work that the Chamber of Commerce is primarily intended for. He handed out some pertinent facts that certainly "hit the nail on the head." He told what the Ypsilanti Board of Commerce had accomplished in the three years he had been its secretary. During his remarks he gave out some ideas that will prove of great benefit to the local organization if they are put into practice. At the conclusion of his talk, Mr. Eckley was given a rising vote of thanks by the members present. It is the hope of everyone who heard this splendid talk, that Mr. Eckley will come again at some future time.

After a few remarks by F. D. Schrader, Karl W. Hillmer and P. B. Whitbeck, the program was brought to a close.

LAST NUMBER ON LECTURE COURSE

The next and last number on the Citizens' Entertainment Course will take place at the Penniman Allen theatre, Wednesday evening, March 28th. Hon. Webster Davis, statesman, orator and lecturer will give one of his splendid lectures. Mr. Davis is a lecturer of wide experience, and brings to the platform his dynamic personality and enthusiasm, and he gets results as few speakers do. His eloquence is inspiring in the highest degree. He is a man of exceeding charm of manner, splendid appearance, and possesses oratorical and platform gifts second to no man in the country today.

Webster Davis was Assistant Secretary of the Interior in the Cabinet of President McKinley. At 28 years of age he was Mayor of Kansas City and is even yet referred to as the best mayor that Kansas City ever had.

WELL KNOWN CITIZEN AND CIVIL WAR VETERAN DIES

W. H. COATS, ONE OF PLYMOUTH'S OLDEST CITIZENS, PASSED AWAY, FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 16TH.

In the death of William H. Coats, which occurred at his home in this village, Friday morning, March 16th, Plymouth loses another of her oldest citizens and Civil War veterans. Mr. Coats was most highly esteemed by all who knew him. The funeral was held from the home, 195 Rose street, last Sunday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. King of the M. E. church of Detroit, officiating. Mr. Coats selected the hymns "Abide With Me," and "Going Down the Valley," which were read at the funeral services. The Masonic order had charge of the services at the grave. Interment at Riverside cemetery.

William H. Coats was born October 20, 1841, at Redford, Wayne county, Michigan. He was the son of Lyman Coats. In 1871, he was united in marriage to Louise Bucklin of Flint, Michigan, who passed away January 29, 1903. May 30, 1905, he was married to Mrs. Catherine Coats, who survives him; besides he leaves many nieces and nephews, and a host of friends. He was a good husband and a kind neighbor—never too busy to do a kind deed for his fellowman. Those who knew him best, loved him most. He was always ready with sympathy and an open hand. When only fifteen years of age, he enlisted in the marines, and after serving his enlistment, later enlisted in the regular army, serving until the close of the Civil war. He has been a member of the Plymouth Masonic lodge since he was twenty-one years of age. He was also a member of the G. A. R. Post of Newburg. In politics he was a Democrat, having filled the offices of notary public and justice of the peace, and was familiarly known as "Judge Coats," by the people of this vicinity.

The following out of town friends attended the funeral: Mrs. George Russell and Mrs. Samuel Jamison of Eaton Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. George A. Cresser of Grand Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brown of Farwell; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coats and Mrs. Potter of Saginaw; Samuel Ballow, Mrs. Sarah Ballow and son, Mr. and Mrs. Hess and daughter of Owosso; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Brown of Milford; Mrs. W. Brodie, Mr. and Mrs. George Hebert, Mrs. Robert Alexander, John G. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Jamison of Detroit; Mrs. Katie Johnson of Willow; Mrs. Charles Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bredin of Redford; Frank Brown and Charles Thumme of Farmington.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Buffett and small son of Milford, spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. William Johnston on Starkweather avenue.

NEW WATER ORDINANCE

At the regular meeting of the village commission, Monday evening, a new water rate ordinance was adopted. The ordinance provides for the equalization of rates between meter and flat rate users. Flat rate users have been paying $10.00 per year for ordinary house use, and under the new ordinance the rate will be about $11.00, if the discount of 10 per cent is taken before the fifteenth of each month. Meter users will pay about the same. A provision in the new ordinance provides that $10.00 per year for each fire hydrant be charged against the village and credited to the water department. The flat rates go into effect July 1st, and the meter rates April 1st. There are now 270 meters in use out of 1000 water users. The tapping fee has been raised from $10.00 to $20.00.

A new garbage ordinance was given its first and second readings.

This was followed by a humorous one-act play by Mrs. Charles Humphries and Miss Ellen Tardner, assisted by Elizabeth Murray. WAYNE COUNTY LIBRARY SERVICE FOR PLYMOUTH

Efforts are being made to establish a Wayne county library branch in Plymouth. Representatives from the Wayne County Library office were in Plymouth, Tuesday, and have taken up the matter through the Woman's Club, who will make efforts to interest the village commission and the Chamber of Commerce in establishing the service here. Branches of the library have been established in all parts of the county. The cost of maintaining a branch of the library in Plymouth will be $250 per year, and this sum will have to be provided before the branch can be established here. It is not anticipated that there will be any difficulty in getting this sum pledged for this important service, which is much to be desired in any community.

"AN OLD SETTLER"

Out on East Ann Arbor street there stands a large cottonwood tree that always draws the attention of a passing traveler, especially if it be the first time that he passes by it. The tree we refer to is the one that stands on the Micol place. One of our subscribers has written the Mail the following bit of interesting history of the old tree:

"The late William N. Wherry told the writer that he first saw the tree in 1830. It was then the size of a man's arm, and perhaps fifteen feet in height. There used to be a well near where the tree now stands, and the story goes that a man on horseback dismounted one day to get a drink at the well, and stuck a switch which he carried, into the ground, and it grew from this small beginning to the giant that it now is. The tree measures fifteen feet in circumference. The ice storm a year ago, was pretty rough on the old landmark, but it still stands as a silent reminder of the early pioneer days of Plymouth."

Today's Reflections

The Plymouth girl with a mole on her nose can't understand why anybody should worry about a little thing like hardening of the arteries or appendicitis.

We heard one Plymouth woman tell another that eating pickles makes people beautiful. But getting into one doesn't.

We'll bet the fellow who invented kissing was surprised at the result.

Another difference between death and taxes is that you can do all your dying at one time and get through with it.

There's one secret that a Plymouth woman can and will keep. That is when she has had her last year's hat made to wear over again.

As a rule the Plymouth man who fails to chip in when the plate is passed is first to criticize the sermon.

There were more pleasant days, however, when ladies didn't stand up for their rights, and men did stand up for the ladies.

A Plymouth doctor told us recently that it's best to smoke only after a meal. But who wants to run home and get a meal every time he wants to smoke.

OBITUARY

George Bridger was born in Sumner, Michigan, November 23, 1863, and departed this life March 7, 1923, from his farm home in Plymouth township, aged 59 years, 3 months and 14 days. March 20, 1887, he was married to Myrtle Pullen of Romulus. Four children were born of this union, three sons and a daughter, Claude, of California; George and Henry of this place, and Mrs. Floyd Wilson, also of this place; three grandchildren, Donna Ruth Bridger, Ruth Marie Wilson and George Bridger, Jr., who with his wife and one sister, Mrs. Fred Bovee of Plymouth, many nieces and nephews and a host of sorrowing friends survive him.

The most of his life had been spent in and around Sumner, Romulus and Plymouth, with the exception of a few years at Hamburg and Mooreville. He was a good husband and father and a kind neighbor. Never too busy to do a kindness for his fellowman. Those who knew him best loved him most. The one in trouble found in him a ready sympathy and an open hand and heart.

The first link has been broken. How it rends our hearts to know: How we'll miss his loving presence, As in and out we go.

But in our memory lingers, We who knew and loved him best, Thoughts of many kind deeds rendered.

And we know he is at rest. Funeral occurred Saturday from the funeral home, Rev. D. D. Nagie officiating. Burial at Riverside.

A BIT OF EARLY HISTORY

Out where Golden street crosses South Main street, there was quite a flourishing settlement in the early days of Plymouth. There were thirteen dwelling houses and a grocery store clustered about the corners, and the place was called South Plymouth. One of the houses which stood there in those early days, is still standing, and in a good state of preservation, and is now the home of William Lyndon. The building in 1837 stood across the road from where it now stands, and at one time was used as a farming mill shop.

THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE BANQUET

The Chamber of Commerce banquet, held at Ye Old Plymouth Inn, Tuesday evening, proved to be one of the very best that has yet been given by the C. of C. About one hundred members sat down to the well appointed tables, at 6:30 o'clock. After the invocation by Rev. Fr. Schuler, F. B. Wiseman, the new manager of Ye Old Plymouth Inn, served a most appetizing and satisfying menu of roast beef, brown gravy, mashed potatoes, spinach, rolls, coffee and apple pie. The service was all that could have been desired in every way.

After the eats had been stowed away, President Edward Denniston announced a surprise to the guests in the way of a vaudeville program, which had been provided by the entertainment committee, who, by the way, are entitled to a lot of credit for the splendid program of the evening and the success of the banquet. Five high-class vaudeville acts, consisting of dancing, singing and monologues, filled in a most pleasant hour. The entertainers were all artists of ability, and judging from the hearty applause that was accorded every number, their efforts were fully appreciated.

Following the vaudeville entertainment, President Denniston introduced the speaker of the evening, Olin Eckley, secretary of the Ypsilanti Board of Commerce. Mr. Eckley made the best talk that has been heard at an event of this kind, since the organization of the local C. of C. His talk was along the line of work that the Chamber of Commerce is primarily intended for. He handed out some pertinent facts that certainly "hit the nail on the head." He told what the Ypsilanti Board of Commerce had accomplished in the three years he had been its secretary. During his remarks he gave out some ideas that will prove of great benefit to the local organization if they are put into practice. At the conclusion of his talk, Mr. Eckley was given a rising vote of thanks by the members present. It is the hope of everyone who heard this splendid talk, that Mr. Eckley will come again at some future time.

After a few remarks by F. D. Schrader, Karl W. Hillmer and P. B. Whitebeck, the program was brought to a close.

Webster Davis was Assistant Secretary of the Interior in the Cabinet of President McKinley. At 28 years of age he was Mayor of Kansas City and is even yet referred to as the best mayor that Kansas City ever had.

WELL KNOWN CITIZEN AND CIVIL WAR VETERAN DIES

W. H. COATS, ONE OF PLYMOUTH'S OLDEST CITIZENS, PASSED AWAY, FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 16TH.

In the death of William H. Coats, which occurred at his home in this village, Friday morning, March 16th, Plymouth loses another of her oldest citizens and Civil War veterans. Mr. Coats was most highly esteemed by all who knew him. The funeral was held from the home, 195 Rose street, last Sunday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. King of the M. E. church of Detroit, officiating. Mr. Coats selected the hymns, "Abide With Me," and "Going Down the Valley," which were read at the funeral services. The Masonic order had charge of the services at the grave. Interment at Riverside cemetery.

William H. Coats was born October 20, 1841, at Redford, Wayne county, Michigan. He was the son of Lyman Coats. In 1871, he was united in marriage to Louise Bucklin of Flint, Michigan, who passed away January 29, 1905. May 30, 1905, he was married to Mrs. Catherine Coats, who survives him; besides he leaves many nieces and nephews, and a host of friends. He was a good husband and a kind neighbor—never too busy to do a kind deed for his fellowman. Those who knew him best, loved him most. He was always ready with sympathy and an open hand. When only fifteen years of age, he enlisted in the marines, and after serving his enlistment, later enlisted in the regular army, serving until the close of the Civil war. He has been a member of the Plymouth Masonic lodge since he was twenty-one years of age. He was also a member of the G. A. R. Post of Newburg. In politics he was a Democrat, having filled the office of notary public and justice of the peace, and was familiarly known as "Judge Coats," by the people of this vicinity.

The following out of town friends attended the funeral: Mrs. George Russell and Mrs. Samuel Jamison of Easton Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. George A. Cresser of Grand Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brown of Farewell; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coats and Mrs. Potter of Saginaw; Samuel Ballow, Mrs. Sarah Ballow and son, Mr. and Mrs. Hess and daughter of Owosso; Mr. and Mrs. Warren Brown of Milford; Mrs. W. Brodie, Mr. and Mrs. George Hebert, Mrs. Robert Alexander, John G. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jamison of Detroit; Mrs. Katie Johnson of Willow; Mrs. Charles Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bredin of Redford; Frank Brown and Charles Thumme of Farmington.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Buffett and small son of Milford, spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. William Johnston on Starkweather avenue.

WAYNE COUNTY LIBRARY SERVICE FOR PLYMOUTH

Efforts are being made to establish a Wayne county library service branch in Plymouth. Representatives from the Wayne County Library office were in Plymouth, Tuesday, and have taken up the matter through the Woman's Club, who will make efforts to interest the village commission and the Chamber of Commerce in establishing the service here. Branches of the library have been established in all parts of the county. The cost of maintaining a branch of the library in Plymouth will be $250 per year, and this sum will have to be provided before the branch can be established here. It is not anticipated that there will be any difficulty in getting this sum pledged for this important service, which is much to be desired in any community.

"AN OLD SETTLER"

Out on East Ann Arbor street there stands a large cottonwood tree that always draws the attention of a passing traveler, especially if it be the first time that he passes by it. The tree we refer to is the one that stands on the Micol place. One of our subscribers has written the Mail the following bit of interesting history of the old tree:

"The late William N. Wherry told the writer that he first saw the tree in 1830. It was then the size of a man's arm and perhaps fifteen feet in height. There used to be a well near where the tree now stands, and the story goes that a man on horseback dismounted one day to get a drink at the well, and stuck a switch which he carried, into the ground, and it grew from this small beginning to the giant that it now is. The tree measures fifteen feet in circumference. The ice storm a year ago, was pretty rough on the old landmark, but it still stands as a silent reminder of the early pioneer days of Plymouth."

WOMAN'S CLUB ANNIVERSARY

The thirtieth anniversary of the Woman's Club was celebrated Friday evening, March 9th, at the club rooms. About eighty-five members and guests were present. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. George Robinson. The first number on the program consisted of two vocal solos by Mrs. William Bake, "Heart of Mine" and "Snow Flakes," with Mrs. J. T. Chapman at the piano. This was followed by a humorous one-act play by Mrs. Charles Humphries and Miss Ellen Gardner, assisted by Elizabeth Murray. At the conclusion of the program, the social committee under the leadership of Mrs. Albert Gayde served ice cream and wafers.

LAST-ENGEL

Howard Last, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Last, was married to Miss Dora Engel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Engel of Ypsilanti, at the Lutheran church in that city, Wednesday, March 21st, at 11 o'clock a. m. The young couple were attended by Miss Ola Last, sister of the groom, and Leonard Engel, brother of the bride. A wedding dinner at the home of the bride's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Blasey, followed the ceremony. After a wedding trip to several points in Ohio, the happy young couple will make their home with the groom's parents on the farm west of the village. Plymouth friends extend congratulations and best wishes.

THIS IS GOOD NEWS

It may mean nothing to the average Plymouth citizen to learn from the U. S. census bureau that the death rate in this country last year was 11.6 per 1,000. Mr. Citizen, however, begins to take notice when informed that this is a record. He becomes interested when he finds out that 20 years ago it was the regular thing for 17.6 persons out of every 1,000 to die during the year. Here is a saving of six lives in every 1,000. Apply that to the entire population and you have something else to think about. There are more than 100,000,000 people in this country, but call it that number. Then last year there were 600,000 lives saved that would have passed out in 1900. That means a saving of 18,000,000 lives in a generation of thirty years.

Doesn't it show that the American people are taking better care of their health? We sometimes complain that this age is "living too fast," and yet on the fact of government figures deaths are fewer than at any time in our history. We are evidently coming to realize that safeguarding our health, improving our surroundings, and giving closer attention to sanitation is worth while. In the matter of rearing children, too, we believe greater care is shown than in former years—either that, or the children are learning earlier the value of good health. Any way you look at it the figures are interesting, for somehow any report on a decrease in the general death rate is of vital importance and brings with it a good measure of comfort.

NO LONGER A JOKE

Everyone around Plymouth recalls how a few years ago the funny men of the city newspapers were all the time laughing about the country folks. "Farmer Cornassel," "Uncle Reuben" and other alleged rustic characters were the subject for many a joke and cartoon. But you do not see much of that cheap wit now. The country residents and the country itself have been too popular. Many of the brightest people are settling in rural surroundings. The man with bushy whiskers is no more common in the country than in the cities. Everywhere you find folks who do not use the tooth brush and razor as they ought to, but the cities have quite as many of them as the country. It is hard to tell a city crowd from a country bunch in these times. No, there isn't so much "kidding" of the rural resident in the city papers now. That's largely due to the fact that the city newspaper men have come to realize where their bread and meat comes from.

PASSION WEEK SERVICES

BIG COMMUNITY SING SUNDAY NIGHT.

PROF. H. HEARD OF DETROIT, COMING TO PLYMOUTH.

A one-week's campaign of pre-Easter services begins next Sunday night, at the local Methodist church, with Prof. Harry Heard of Detroit, an instructor of music, and a popular chorus leader, present at the opening service. Also some new song books will be used. It will be one of the peppiest, most worth-while religious services the folks of this community have had the privilege of attending in many a month. Prof. Heard both sings and leads in singing. "A Young People's chorus will assist in the singing, and the pastor will preach on the topic, "All Run Down at the Heel." 7:30 Sunday evening.

Thus will open a short, snappy, decisive campaign to enlist folks in the service of Christ, closing the following Sunday. A bright, happy, joyous, heart-warming week. No wheedling, coaxing or trick methods of any kind, such as have often accompanied revival meetings, but just a warm, personal, heart-searching sermon by the pastor, closing with an earnest invitation to accept Christ. And lots of good music. The public is invited to come and join in these services of worship preceding Easter Sunday.

Following is the series of topics to be presented under the heading, "The Joy of Living." Service each night, except Saturday, at 7:30. Monday—"Camouflage." Junior Chorus. Tuesday—"Style-Plus." Special feature. Wednesday—"The Town Flirt." Women's Chorus. Thursday—"Autumn-ations or Christians." Men's chorus. Friday—"The Divine Friendship." Another special community sing.

EPISCOPAL NOTES

The Rev. A. M. McEvoy of the Church of the Ascension, Detroit, was with us last Sunday morning, and administered the holy communion. He preached a most inspiring sermon, and there was a good congregation.

Next Sunday will be Palm Sunday, and Franklin Gibson will have charge of the service. The subject of his address will be, "Rejected," Luke 19:41, 42.

Last week at our mid-week Lenten service, Mr. Gibson's subject was, "Jesus—His Holiness." Next week, the mid-week service will be held on Friday evening, Good Friday, at 7:30, and will give the address, the subject of which will be, "The Hill Called Calvary," Luke 22:23. We have certainly had good congregations at these mid-week services. They have been most helpful, and Mr. Gibson is glad to have welcomed friends and strangers to worship with us.

Next week, on Good Friday night, we should all make a special endeavor to attend, as this will be the last of our special devotional services before Easter.

The church-school was larger than usual, last Sunday, and Mrs. Murphy was glad to see some of those pupils who have been sick, back in their places again. The subject of the essay given by Mrs. Murphy, last Sunday, was, "The Children's Hospital in China," and the work of the Episcopal church workers in that country. Next Sunday will be the last essay before Easter.

We were glad to welcome Mrs. Bloomfield of the Ladies' Guild of Grace church, Detroit, at our church-school session, last Sunday morning. Mrs. Bloomfield, who was on a visit to Mrs. Murphy, also a member of Grace church, is taking a great interest in the work of the church in Plymouth, and she, with some of the ladies of Grace church, have donated some splendid articles of work towards our bazaar, to be held after Easter.

We want three additional teachers in our church-school—two ladies and one man. Those who realize the importance and privilege of service in this branch of church work, of training up our future church members, cannot conscientiously hold back from offering themselves for this important service. We believe one young man will offer himself as a teacher within the next two Sundays.

Advertise your auction in the Mail. It reaches the rural districts in all directions from Plymouth.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The horticultural class trimmed grape vines and a few raspberry bushes for Mr. Holcomb and Mr. Murray, last week. They spent a part of their trip in observing Mr. Gayle's properly trimmed grape vines and some rose bushes. This week the class is planning to become thoroughly acquainted with the methods of grafting and budding. The Girl Scouts hiked to Northville, last Tuesday evening, to attend the first team basketball games, but they took the car home. Library books may be kept for two weeks. If the holders do not wish to renew them at the end of this period, they must return the books to the library. A fine of two cents is imposed for every day the books are overdue. Since September the librarians have succeeded in collecting $22 from this source. Students may have a reference book and a novel out of the library; however, they are not permitted to have more than one book of fiction at a time. There are six hundred volumes in circulation every day. This includes reference material, adult fiction and juvenile books. The Aggie Club cleared $17.60 from their pot-luck shadow social, which was held last Saturday night, at the home of Clara Hauk, who is a member of the club.

The tournament at Ypsilanti for 1923 started last week. The schools in class C, those having under 175 students took part. Holly took first place; Dearborn, second, and Farmington, got the consolation. Plymouth takes part in the one beginning Friday morning at Ypsilanti. We are in class B, that is a school must have from 175 to 500 students. The schools in class A must have over 500 students. Their tournament starts Thursday night at M. A. C.

Mrs. William Taylor visited the third grade, last Friday. The Inspector contest between the "A" and second "B," was won for the month of February by Emerson Robinson's row. The purpose of this contest is to help to promote cleanliness among the pupils. Ralph Lorenz of the fourth grade, is leading in the Curtiss arithmetic contests. He has just finished his thirty-third lesson. Last fall, civic organizations were asked to "adopt" children who could not afford milk and to set aside a certain sum to pay for the milk for these children. The Woman's Club has adopted three children for this semester.

OBITUARY

Kenneth Darwin, infant son of Carl and Flora Rorabacher, was born March 3, 1922, and returned unto his Heavenly Father, March 15, 1923, having lived to brighten and cheer this world for just one year and twelve days. "The Lord hath given and the Lord hath taken away. Blessed be the name of the Lord." His bright and happy ways will always be missed by those who had grown to love him so much. And now his sweet, tender young life has gone to brighten heaven, where he is one of God's little angels. METHODIST NOTES

Delay in shipping the pipe organ material necessitates a postponement of our special dedication program for Easter Sunday. Our disappointment is very keen indeed. Further announcements will be made later as to the date of dedication.

However, we will have a very fine program Easter Sunday. Special sermon by the pastor in the morning, and reception of new members, and christening of children. In the evening, our quartette will render a very beautiful cantata entitled, "The First Easter."

Our committees who were out calling last Sunday, report a very happy time and a splendid reception. Nearly the whole town was covered. However, in some instances, the committees were not able to reach all on their lists owing to lack of time. Some were not at home when they called. Only one street was missed. One committee failed to function. However, an endeavor will be made to reach all those who were not reached last Sunday, sometime this week or next Sunday.

We are sorry, indeed, to lose this week, one of our most faithful, loyal and trusted families, Brother Wellington Newell and his family, who have moved to their former home at Yale. We will miss them greatly. They were all active in the various departments of the church. Brother Newell was a member of our official board, and also a most faithful usher in the church. May God richly bless them in their new home and fields of labor.

If you know of an item of news, send it to the Mail office.

THE THEATRE

"When Knighthood was in Flower," the elaborate Cosmopolitan Production starring Marion Davies which has been the talk of motion picture circles for months, will be shown Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, April 1, 2, and 3, at the Penniman Allen Theatre. The picture is said to mark an epoch in screen production. Not only has more money been spent on it than on any picture ever made—a million and a half dollars—but the settings, designed by Joseph Urban, are said to be the most faithful reproductions of gorgeous court life ever made, and the quality of the big cast out-rank anything yet seen on the screen.

The picture is said to follow very closely the colorful romantic tale which had its foundation in real history and the rustle of silk and brocades, the glint of swords and all the pomp and ceremony of court life are faithfully reflected on the screen. No less an authority than Sir Joseph Duveen, eminent art collector of London, states that the court scene of King Henry VIII are the most authentic ever made.

When they started making the picture Cosmopolitan Production decided that everything in a setting must be a real antique or a perfect reproduction of the period. Dr. Bashford Dean, foremost authority in this country on ancient armor and for five years curator of this department in the Metropolitan Museum of Art was commissioned to secure suits of armor which could be used in actual combat as well as for ornamental purposes. He secured from the collection of the former Emperor of Germany genuine suits of tilting armor valued at $100,000. Rare tapestries valued at as high as $125,000 pieces were secured from Mr. Joseph Duveen of London, and other private collectors.

Marion Davies as Princess Mary Tudor has by far the most important role of her screen career. Fifteen different costumes designed after careful study of costumes actually worn by Princess Mary, are worn by Miss Davies. Each has its own set of specially designed jewelry. The wedding dress of ermine, pearls and cloth of silver is one of the most elaborate creations of all and weighs twenty-five pounds.

Among the thrilling scenes of the production is a thirty foot leap on horseback off a bridge into the river below made by Princess Mary and Charles Brandon. Another is the combat engaged in by twenty swordsmen and in which Miss Davies, skillfully handling a sword plays a lively part.

BASKET BALL

PLYMOUTH CHAMPIONS

Plymouth basket ball girls are champions of the Four-square League. In the last basket ball game of this season, Friday, March 16, Plymouth girls won over Redford girls with a final score of 16 to 14. This gives them the championship.

At the end of the first half, the score was 12 to 5, with Plymouth leading. Kiely and Amrhein, Plymouth's forwards, made 5 field baskets and 6 free throws. Plymouth started with a fast, peppy game, and excellent teamwork, but in the second half the girls became over-confident and the game slowed down greatly. The Redford girls played much better in the second half, making the score 16 to 14, Plymouth still leading.

Both teams were well supported by their home crowds. As soon as one crowd would stop yelling, the other crowd would begin. This encouraged the teams greatly.

Plymouth line-up—Kiely, r. f., 2 2-point baskets; Amrhein, l. f., 3 2-point baskets, 6 free throws, 1 p.; Freydl, l. c., 3 t.; Whipple, s. c., 1 t., 1 p.; Mueller, r. g., 3 p., 2 t.; Hake, l. g., 2 t., 2 p. Shogren was substituted for Mueller, 1 p.; Bolton was substituted for Hake, 1 p.; Mueller was substituted for Bolton.

Redford line-up—Welsky, r. f., 1 2-point basket, 4 free throws, 3 1-point baskets; Wellard, l. f., 4 t.; Dicks, j. c., 2 t.; Costello, s. c.; Kinkle, r. g., 3 p., 1 t.; DePotty, l. g., 1 p.; Crawford substituted for Wellard, 2 t., 1 free throw, 2 2-point baskets.

PLYMOUTH WINS FROM REDFORD

When Plymouth's basket ball team is right, they look like a million dollars. When they are wrong they look worse than a German mark. Last Friday night Plymouth looked like a million dollars—they defeated Redford 16 to 14, in the final regular scheduled game of the year.

By winning this game, the "Rocks" will have the confidence that is necessary for any team to enter the class B tournament which starts at Ypsilanti Normal gymnasium this morning.

Line-up—Sutherland, r. f.; Stevens, l. f.; Strassen, c.; Bartlett, r. g.; Holmes, l. g. Substitutions—Birch, Palmer, Richwine, Cline, Kenyon.

PLYMOUTH HIGH LOSES TWO GAMES

Our boys' luck had changed when they lost their return game with Northville, last week Tuesday evening, March 20th, with a score of 23 to 7. But they were saving all the strength and vim until Friday with the hopes of defeating Redford in the final game of the season.

The line-up was—Cline, r. f.; Stevens, l. f.; Sutherland, c.; Birch, r. g.; Holmes, l. g. Substitutions—Williams for Cline, Palmer for Stevens, Strassen for Sutherland, Bartlett for Birch.

GIRLS' GAME

At the final whistle blow at Northville last week Tuesday evening, a gloom fell upon the Plymouth crowd when the referee announced that the score was 26 to 21 in favor of the Northville girls. For only the second time in this season has this gloom been allowed to appear in the Plymouth bunch. But, nevertheless, this feeling soon disappeared when it was remembered that our girls were champions of the four square league this year even though they were the losers at Northville.

The line-up was—Kiely, r. f.; Amrhein, l. f.; Freydl, j. c.; Whipple, r. c.; Mueller, r. g.; Hake, l. g. Substitutes—Shogren for Mueller, Bolton for Hake.

SECOND TEAM GIRLS WIN, AND BOYS LOSE.

A good fast game with a close score, and with our girls always in the lead, was played here Wednesday, March 14th, between the Northville and Plymouth second teams. The quick and able teamwork on the part of the Plymouth girls resulted in a score of 9 to 6 for Plymouth High school.

Line-up—L. Bird, r. f.; D. Hinnau, l. f.; G. Bird, j. c.; G. Herrick, j. c.; E. White, s. c.; M. Shogren, r. g.; M. Bolton, l. g.; M. Griffith, l. g.

Poor playing on the part of both of the boys' teams resulted in a score of 13 to 4 for Northville. The game was dead, and was made more so by Northville's poor work on making baskets.

Line-up—Cline, r. f.; Taylor, l. f.; Hickey, r. f.; Draper, l. g.; Sayles, sub.; Millard, sub.

The Pneumonia Month.

March is a typical pneumonia month and usually gives a high rate of mortality for the disease. After a long and hard winter, the system loses much of its resistance and people grow careless. When every cold, no matter how slight, is given prompt and intelligent attention, there is much less danger of pneumonia. It should be borne in mind that pneumonia is a germ disease and breeds in the throat. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in an expectorant and cleans out the germ laden mucus and not only cures a cold, but prevents its resulting in pneumonia. It is pleasant to take. Children take it willingly.—Advertisement.

PRESBYTERIAN NOTES

Last Sunday the superintendent was ill, so James Stephens and Walter Nisley took charge of the Sunday-school.

Miss Marjorie Pullock's solos are being received with much appreciation.

The Easter and running sale is on today in the basement of the church. Take sale tomorrow. Open Saturday evening.

After "The Womanless Wedding," comes "The Broom-Handle Route," but there is really no connection between these two projects.

We congratulate the Methodist church upon their requirement of a new organ. The session voted at its last meeting to take up our evening service on Easter Sunday, that Presbyterians may join and rejoice with the members of this neighboring church. The pastor regrets that he cannot be present, too, but he goes to Battle Creek that afternoon to officiate at a wedding. Altogether it will be a great day—with a trinity of gladness: Immortality, music and marriage.

The advance agent of "The Broom-Handle Route" was in town, last Saturday, to look the ground over, and find a proper site for a union depot. The blue-prints are already prepared, and constructive work will begin at once.

COMMUNITY HAPPENINGS

The Home Economics group will meet Tuesday, March 27, at 2 p. m., with Mrs. Fred Palmer. The last of Miss Rogers' talks with us. Let us try to be there.

Wednesday evening, March 28, a good time is promised all who can be at Mr. and Mrs. Perry Campbell's, for the annual meeting of the Canton Community Club. A program, besides the election of officers and put-luck refreshments. Ladies bring dishes.

LIVONIA LUTHERAN CHURCH

There will be services at the Livonia Center Lutheran church on Good Friday, at 2:30 in the afternoon. Also on Easter Sunday there will be services at 2:30 in the afternoon in the English language. Everybody welcome to these services.

DOGS AND CHICKENS
Every day this time of the year, the manager and the marshal get from one to several calls, concerning dogs and chickens running at large through the streets and over private property. Now that spring is nearly here, and people's thoughts turn to gardens, they especially do not want their neighbors' hens rooting up the garden spot and digging up the seeds and young plants. There is an ordinance covering this point, and poultry owners are asked to take particular pains to see that their chickens are confined to their own premises. They should have no kick coming concerning what happens if the chickens are caught out of bounds. The same applies to dogs. They are a particular nuisance at this period, and owners should take every precaution that their pets do not trespass. The village is getting rather tired of these continued complaints, and will be compelled to take severe action unless the co-operation of the villagers is assured.
Sidney D. Strong,
Village Manager.

Just to remind you of the great event of the season, Plymouth is to have a real wedding. All those who are contemplating such a step should be on hand to get pointers, for this is going to be done up in real style. It will probably interest Plymouth to know that while the idea of a "Womanless Wedding" originated elsewhere, the greater part of the dialogue and several additional scenes originated in Plymouth, and were written by Miss Nettie Pelham, who has distinguished herself in the past as a playwright. Plymouth friends will not be disappointed, for Miss Pelham is still as clever as she was in days gone by. The cast requires 45 people. They are being directed by Miss Pelham and Harry Green. Tickets on sale at Whipple's, Draper's, Merz's, Gayde Bros.' Admission—Children, 25c; adults, 35c. March 23rd.

Our store is one example of the fact that High Quality and Low Prices can go together. You will find our line of Aprons very attractive, and we call your attention to our Serge Dresses at $7.75. Beautiful Cretonnes and a fine selection of Curtain Material, now in stock. Now is the time to buy, and be ready for Spring cleaning.

23 SERIES STUDEBAKER LIGHT-SIX SEDAN $1550
Hidden qualities largely determine the value and life of a closed car. Beauty of line and finish and refinements are surface indications and important ones. But your satisfaction with a closed car depends to a great degree upon factors that are unseen—the in-built qualities that come from correct design, use of highest grade materials and careful workmanship.
The 23 Series Studebaker Light-Six Sedan is a quality car. It is built to endure—to give lasting satisfaction.
The Sedan body is substantially built. It will last for years and retain its beauty and comfort. Evidence of its hidden goodness lies in the fact that down under the paint and varnish, the pillars, roof rails and supporting members are made from specially selected ash.
Four wide-opening doors make it easy for all passengers to get in or out without inconvenience to each other. A high-grade heater affords summer warmth on cold, damp days. The wide windows give broad vision in every direction.
Studebaker quality is traditional.
