FINE PROGRAM FOR CHAUTAUQUA

Plymouth's coming chautauqua, July 30, 31, and August 1, 2, 3, is drawing near, and the interest of our citizens is becoming more apparent every day, as they look forward to a week of programs combining education, inspiration and entertainment. The chautauqua this year provides a most unusual program of music, entertainment and lectures and the local committee, who are back of the chautauqua, are looking forward to a large sale of season tickets and a record breaking attendance. We give below a synopsis of the several entertainments that make up the week's attractions:

The Junior Chautauqua
One of the features of the Chautauqua this year is the Junior Department, conducted for the boys and girls. The forenoon Junior sessions and the story hour in the afternoon are conducted by a trained supervisor who, in co-operation with the parents, endeavors to instill into the young lives ideals making for better and more useful citizens. This year the organization of the Junior Town will be taken up, electing the Mayor, Councilmen, etc., and the Pageant staged at one of the regular sessions of the last day. The Junior Chautauqua is free to all children and juvenile season tickets to the regular sessions may be obtained for $1 each. "It Pays to Advertise"

To furnish clean, wholesome entertainment is a part of the mission of Chautauqua. For that purpose the Misner Players, a carefully coached professional cast, have been secured to present that inimitable comedy, "IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE." This play will be presented on the opening night, and should serve well to create an atmosphere that will enable the patrons to enjoy more thoroughly the heavier things which are to follow. It is a play that enjoyed long runs in New York and Chicago, and all other large cities of the country.

Cleavers Operatic Quintet
A quartet of mixed voices, with pianist-accompanist, in programs of exceptional merit. These people are all soloists, and they vary their programs with duets, trios and quartets. The afternoon program consists of selections of the semi-classical and lighter character, but all worth while music. The evening program, given in costume, with special stage setting, consists chiefly of selections from the operas with which the average audience is familiar. You will like "The Cleavers."

Prof. M. H. Jackson
Prof. M. H. Jackson discusses a few of our social and economic problems. Aided by a keen sense of humor he enlivens his discourses with apt illustrations, with the result they are both popular and instructive.

The Artist Trio
In Margaret Freck Brown, pianist, reader and whistler. Louise C. Lee, violinist, and George H. Weber, bass, we are fortunate in having a group of musical artists who will interpret in solos, duets and trios the music of the masters as well as other selections you will be delighted to hear. The offerings of these artists will be a real treat to the music lovers, and will help many others to a keener appreciation of the finer arts. The musical numbers will be interspersed with readings by Mrs. Brown in a way that will make the whole program more enjoyable.

Colonel Lindsey Blayney
In Col. Blayney, equally celebrated as a soldier, world traveler, diplomat, and scholar, Chautauqua is to be congratulated upon securing another of America's distinguished sons. This brilliant speaker of the South will bring Mutual Assemblies addresses freighted with thought, lightened by wit, and pungent with the spirit of true Americanism. As a volunteer officer in the World War he participated in three major campaigns, finishing the war as Lieutenant-Colonel of Infantry with wound chevrons and eight decorations, four being for conspicuous gallantry, among them the Croix de Guerre with Palm. He is a member of the National Americanization Commission of the American Legion.

Landis Intercollegiate Band
To supply a popular demand of many patrons, the management takes a great deal of pride in presenting the Landis Intercollegiate Band. This organization is composed of a group of fine, clean-cut American young men selected from several of our middle western college bands, and will present two concerts, which we anticipate will be among the most popular features of the entire assembly.

A. T. Powell
"The Call of the Wild," by Mr. A. T. Powell, of Missouri, is a message that every boy and girl, young or old, in every community should hear. The type of message that makes the individual feel that life is more worth living.

Concert Entertainers
Among the members of the Concert Entertainers are Miss Lucille Dunbar, an accomplished violinist, who will also star in the production of "HAPPINESS," and Mr. Ben Crow, a splendid baritone.

"Happiness"
Hartley Manners' play "HAPPINESS" stands almost unique among the successes of recent years in its treatment of a simple but delightful plot, with an idealism seldom found in even great masterpieces. It ran for a long period in New York and Chicago with Laurette Taylor as "Jenny," but until Elias Day secured the chautauqua rights from Mr. Manners it has not been seen outside the great theatrical centers. There are many delightful situations, much comedy and laughter; but the wonderful message of hope and cheer makes this splendid production a "wonderful sermon" as well as an entertainment "de luxe."

CHASE FAMILY REUNION

On Sunday, July 15, occurred the reunion of the Chase family, at the pleasant Maple Ridge home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Eckles. The occasion was the birthdays of Mrs. Frank Whittaker of Salem, and Mrs. A. L. Miller of Milford, and these two members of the family acted as hostesses to the pleasant family party. A pot-luck dinner and supper were enjoyed by about forty relatives. Those present were from Plymouth, Cherry Hill, Chelsea, Salem, Detroit, Milford, and Toledo, Ohio.

PASSING AWAY

Credit still another good thing to the automobile. Before it came no one objected to signs stuck along the road. People drove by at a leisurely pace and sometimes they read them—generally they didn't—but either way they never considered the signs from the standpoint of danger. Today autoists see but one thing about the sign along the road—and that is the danger it creates by blocking his vision. He wants to see what is on both sides of him, and especially ahead of him, and that is why he objects to signs. That is also why the auto clubs of many states are now making a concerted fight on the hillside and road signs, and they are winning out.

In many states today road signs are not permitted. Other states are falling in line. It is generally realized that as an ad they are worth very little now. People are riding in autos—and autos go too fast to make sign-reading satisfactory. The Plymouth merchant who once believed in road signs possibly has an auto of his own now—and he knows that the road sign is a nuisance. He, too, is going to use the same good judgment that millions of others are using, and help to put the billboard and the road sign out of business. He isn't going to spend his money for any kind of advertising that is objectionable to others. And the road sign has certainly come into that class.

NEWBURG SCHOOL LAWN SOCIAL

A lawn social will be held on the lawn at Harmon Gates, on Ann Arbor road, at Newburg, on Wednesday evening, July 25th, under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers' Association, this being the first of a series of affairs to be given for the purpose of equipping the new school. Ice cream and cake, sandwiches, soft drinks and cigars will be served. There will also be a fish pond and other entertainment. A good time is assured and all are invited to attend. Anyone with talent for entertaining and could donate their services for this cause, would surely be appreciated. Kindly notify Mrs. H. Gates, president, or Mrs. Morrow, chairman of social committee.

TRIM THE TREES

The village manager has been asked numerous times about trimming trees, which are between the sidewalk and the roadway. On several streets the lower branches of the young trees are not high enough to allow pedestrians enough clearance to walk comfortably or even safely. There are some places where trees inside the walk on private property are in the same condition. Now since the trees are as much belonging to the property as to the village, it seems as if there should be more cooperation on the part of the property owners in keeping these trees trimmed up high enough to be out of the way. The village has no one who can be spared for this work, and it would take each person only a short time to care for the trees on his lot. The manager hopes that each property owner will have enough public spirit to help in this matter and make the sidewalks safer to walk on.

NOTICE

The village now has an ideal spot for a public play ground and park, easily accessible from a main highway that can be developed into one of the finest municipal parks to be found anywhere. The village commission have acted wisely in the purchase of this property.

THE THEATRE

"PENROD AND SAM"

What does a "real kid" hate most of all?

Right. It's a "sissey."

There's a "sissey" in "Penrod and Sam," a First National picture which comes to the Penniman Allen theatre, Sunday, July 22, who incurred the enmity of the rest of the boys in the neighborhood and was ostracized by them because he "didn't belong." His father took a hand in the matter and through his intercession "the gang" reluctantly agreed to allow him to join their "In Or In Club."

But to join the club necessitated an initiation. George Bassett, the sissy, went through the initiation ceremonies. When they had ended he was decidedly "second hand" and even his mother had difficulty recognizing him. And then trouble with a capital T loomed up for the "initiators."

This is one of the many delightfully funny situations in "Penrod and Sam," which is from the pen of Booth Tarkington, the famous writer of "kid" stories, and which has been directed by William Beaudine.

"Penrod and Sam" has been characterized a classic of American boyhood. Benny Alexander plays Penrod with a felicity and finish that are striking, and Joe Butterworth is no less a success as the "Sam" of the combination. Others in the cast are Rockliffe Fellows, Gladys Brockwell, William V. Mong and Buddy Messinger.

"THE HEART RAIDER"

Filled with thrills from start to finish, Agnes Ayres' new Paramount star picture, "The Heart Raider," will be shown at the Penniman Allen theatre, Saturday, July 21. Mahlon Hamilton, a popular screen and stage player, is leading man and heads an excellent supporting cast.

The story deals with a headstrong young woman of wealth who has advanced ideas and rather too much independence. She boasts that she will cause a rich bachelor and woman hater to take her in his arms, and she has a difficult time in making good her boast. Before the bachelor realizes that he loves the girl, there is an exciting runaway, a thrilling pageant, a night swim to a yacht, a storm and exciting rescue at sea. Of course, all ends happily, but until the final climax, the fate of the heroine, played by Miss Ayres, is in doubt. It is just such a picture as the average screen fan will enjoy. The supporting cast is excellent.

CLUB WEEK AT M. A. C. GREAT SUCCESS

ABOUT 240 CHAMPIONS AND LEADERS REPRESENTING 27 COUNTIES IN THE LOWER PENINSULA VISITED M. A. C. JULY 9-13.

J. W. Wagner, Wayne County club leader; Miss Bernice Woodworth, Home Demonstration agent, and Miss Louise Spicer, drove to Lansing, July 9th, accompanied by ten Wayne County club champions in their particular lines of club work. However, there were several other Wayne County champions, who for various reasons, were unable to attend.

Monday afternoon was set aside for the arrival and registration of leaders and champions. Supper was served at 6:00 o'clock, after which was a "get-acquainted" party at the armory, where games were played and the various champions were introduced.

Tuesday morning, breakfast was served at 7:00 o'clock, and from 8:00 to 9:00, the entire group held assembly in one of the large rooms of the agricultural building. At assembly there was community singing, led by R. A. Turner, state club leader. Announcements concerning the various meetings of the day were also given. At this time, President Shaw and Mr. Baldwin, State Extension Director, each gave a short talk.

From 9:00 o'clock to 11:00 o'clock, the girls listened to a talk on music appreciation, while the boys had a lesson in handicraft. From 11:00 o'clock to 12:00 o'clock was a meeting of both boys and girls, during which a demonstration of club organization under the management of Mr. Pearson, assistant state club leader, was given.

Dinner was served at noon, and from 1:30 to 5:00 the girls had art work and swimming. The art work was led by Miss Robb, assistant State Club leader. During this time the boys had a lecture on birds, which was followed by games.

In the evening from 7:00 to 9:00, a picnic at Pinetum was planned, but on account of the rain, which seems to be an annual event along with this picnic, it had to be held in the pavilion of the agricultural building.

Wednesday morning after assembly, the girls had a lesson in cooking, given by Miss Wilder, assistant state club leader, followed by a lecture on birds. During this time the boys had a lesson in stock fitting by Mr. Pearson. At 11:00 o'clock the boys and girls met together for another demonstration of club organization, which showed the electing of officers.

In the afternoon all attended Barnum & Bailey and Ringling Bros. circus, which happened to be in Lansing at that time. After the circus, were games and swimming for the boys.

In the evening was club movies, and as it was stunt night, each county was called upon for a stunt. Also Miss Warren, national club leader, from Washington, D. C., gave a short talk.

Thursday morning after assembly, the girls had art work, led by Miss Osborn, Branch county club leader, followed by canning judging. During this time the boys had poultry work, led by Mr. Foreman, poultry specialist of M. A. C., followed by stock judging.

At 11:00 o'clock another general meeting was held, and the club organization work was continued, giving a demonstration of a club meeting with a program.

Thursday afternoon, the girls listened to a clothing demonstration, given by two garment-making club girls. This was followed by a general track meet. After the track meet was a ball game between the champions and the leaders. The score was 10 to 5 in favor of the leaders. During this time many of the girls went swimming, after which the boys had a chance at the pool.

In the evening came the banquet, given by the state board of agriculture. This is an annual event, which is always greatly enjoyed and appreciated.

Friday morning all had a trip through the state capital, which was another outstanding event of the week. Friday afternoon all said good-bye to M. A. C., and left for home.

Cause of Appendicitis. When the bowels are constipated, the lower bowels or large intestines become packed with refuse matter, that is made up largely of germs. These germs enter the vermiform appendix and set up inflammation, which is commonly known as appendicitis. Take Chamberlain's Tablets when needed and keep your bowels regular and you have little to fear from appendicitis.—Advertisement.

Why Dread Wash Day?

If you still use old-fashioned tubs, and have to lift and lug gallons of water; wash days are hard, back-breaking days, of course.

A set of modern laundry tubs, with hot and cold water service, ends that, and lots of other wash day trouble and work.

The cost of this convenience is moderate.

The death of the young girl, who was only thirteen years of age, was exceedingly sad on account of the unusual circumstances and cause of her death.

It is conceded that everyone living in the vicinity of Detroit knows of the existence of Brightmoor, one of B. E. Taylor's subdivisions, but no one can realize that a group of 3,000 homes can be constructed and occupied within a period of sixteen months unless they see this place of interest. It is located on the five mile road, extending from Bell Branch to Evergreen road, and is an enterprising place, with stores of all kinds, churches, schools and everything that goes to make up a thriving city. It is well worth anyone's time to drive through this place.

The entire Farmington-Wayne road is open to traffic now, the last mile being opened last Saturday. The cement mixer is making good progress on the Five Mile road, and it is expected that road will be completed to the township line this week.

FORD LEADS IN CONSERVING OF LUMBER SUPPLY
EVERY SCRAP UTILIZED IN 100 PER CENT PROGRAM EXTENDING TO ALL UNITS OF HUGE ORGANIZATION.

Salvaging of approximately 90,000,000 feet of lumber annually at its Highland Park plant is the Ford Motor Company's contribution to national forestry conservation. Aside from the wood used in manufacturing automobiles, the company's requirements for packing and shipping run into enormous figures and to provide lumber for this purpose every bit of scrap is utilized through the salvage department, even to the smallest possible pieces. The little that cannot be salvaged is used for fuel.

The department, formed principally as a means of reducing waste, is conducted purely as a conservation agency. While it was not the intention of the company to make it profit-producing, yet by putting it on an efficient basis, it has progressed to a point where it is now self-sustaining.

An average of 800 men are employed, working twenty-four hours a day in three eight-hour shifts, and the work includes the operation of the lumber yard, saw mills and the handling of all new and old lumber for shipping.

While every day the Highland Park plant uses more than 200,000 feet of new lumber in making shipments, the salvage department daily re-claims nearly 300,000 feet of old lumber and converts it into boxes, crates, cleats, braces and other pieces. Every factory unit in the Ford organization constantly strives for 100 per cent lumber salvage. At the River Rouge plant, the Lincoln plant and at all branch plants throughout the country, every bit of lumber possible is used for shipping and what remains is sent by the carload and the truck load to Highland Park where facilities permit the utilization of smaller pieces than at any other place and where salvaging is carried to the extreme limit.

Employees engaged in unpacking incoming shipments are instructed to carefully remove all boards with as little damage as possible, thus permitting the salvage department to utilize them to the utmost. Lumber from more than 1,500 worn-out box cars from the D. T. & I. has found its way to the salvage mill to be converted into boxes and crates, and other pieces needed for shipping.

Only the other day a Ford foreman visiting some company work at Flat Rock, Mich., found a great pile of old logs which had been used as piling for a temporary bridge. These were immediately shipped to the salvage department and sawed into usable boards along with the old lumber used in construction work there. Standardization of shipping packages has done much to bring greater efficiency in the lumber conservation program.

Three years ago the company was using 600 different sized boxes and crates for shipping. Today 95 per cent of the same shipments are being made in boxes of 14 different sizes, some filling as many as 100 different needs, and 45 boxes and crates of different sizes meet all the other shipping requirements. At present the salvage department is turning out an average of 15,000 boxes and crates a day, and it is not uncommon for a box or crate to have three or four kinds of wood in its make-up. Recent introduction of burlap bags for making certain shipments cut the box requirements down about 5,000 a day.

Salvaging proceeds, in a building 80 feet wide by 700 feet long, or the well-known Ford continuous production system. As the old lumber salvaged from boxes, barrels, boards and scrap wood of every imaginable kind comes in, it is sorted and placed on a continuous conveyor which carries it past various sawing stations. Workmen on the line pick out boards of most desirable size for their needs, the aim being to always saw the longest piece from the available boards.

Scraps move on to the end and into great shredders where they are cut into small pieces, then caught up in a suction tube and blown over to the furnace rooms to be used as fuel. Completed boxes move on to departments requiring them.

Crates, cleats and braces are sorted to proper sizes and are sent to the several departments, each assembling its own crates. Two departments may be used to illustrate the great daily requirements for this kind of lumber. The radiator assembly department utilizes twenty-two pieces of wood in every shipping crate, and an average of 2,200 of these crates are sent out every day.

In the carload shipment of 100 motors, 750 feet of heavy lumber is required for proper bracing and packing. With more than sixty-four of these cars going out daily, a total of over 50,000 feet of lumber is required every day for the shipment of motors alone.

Lumber conservation, as practiced by the Ford Motor Company, has proved a practical business investment, but of far greater significance is the saving of forestry it makes possible, and the example it sets for private and public enterprise throughout the country.

Today's Reflections
It may be as exciting as a joy-ride in an auto, yet we never found it so. But the old porch swing is safer.

Ever would have had a hard time tempting Adam if the price of apples had been as high then as it is now.

You don't hear much about the good old water wagon being in many traffic accidents.

No matter how well bred he may be, any Plymouth man is apt to forget it when a fat woman steps on his corn.

The only thing that works 24 hours on a stretch these soft times is a rubber band.

Somebody has invented a gun-powder that is flashless as well as smokeless and waterproof. Now make it non-explosive and we'll have something to be thankful for.

One time when a Plymouth man doesn't believe in heredity is when his own son is making a fool of himself.

COMMUNITY HAPPENINGS

The meeting of the Community Club, which was held June 27th, with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Stuart, was a delightful success and instructive in many ways. Mr. Lewis' talk being especially good. The music and recitations were gratifying, indeed. An equally good time is looked forward to at West hall, Cherry Hill, July 25th. Remember the date, and be with us at 8:00 o'clock. Ladies bring cake and dishes, as ice cream will be served.

The sewing group held a most instructive meeting at the pleasant home of Mrs. C. W. Root, Friday, June 22. The colors and blending of the same, also their effect and harmony, was beautifully demonstrated by Miss Woodworth. The afternoon lesson was alteration and method of cutting patterns to fit different forms. Mrs. Ed. Haak will entertain the group this Friday, July 20, which is the last meeting.

Today's Reflections

It may be as exciting as a joy-ride in an auto, yet we never found it so. But the old porch swing is safer.

Ever would have had a hard time tempting Adam if the price of apples had been as high then as it is now.

You don't hear much about the good old water wagon being in many traffic accidents.

No matter how well bred he may be, any Plymouth man is apt to forget it when a fat woman steps on his corn.

The only thing that works 24 hours on a stretch these soft times is a rubber band.

Somebody has invented a gun-powder that is flashless as well as smokeless and waterproof. Now make it non-explosive and we'll have something to be thankful for.

One time when a Plymouth man doesn't believe in heredity is when his own son is making a fool of himself.

The average roll of Lastile Roofing is from 75% to 80% mineral matter.

The surface is protected with crushed slate, which, of course, is spark-proof.

You can have Lastile finished with red or green slate. Besides being safe and extremely durable, Lastile is the most attractive kind of roll roofing you can lay. It is low in cost, easy to apply and requires no painting. Let us know how much surface you have to cover.

Professor M. H. Jackson

Professor M. H. Jackson of Wisconsin has a happy way of talking to his audiences without seeming to preach or exhort that the people like; they seem to feel that he is one of their own number, skillfully leading them in the discussion of a few of our economic and social problems. With the aid of a keen sense of humor he enlivens his discourses with apt illustrations drawn mainly from his European travels, with the result that they are both popular and instructive. He is the type of lecturer that you wish would come again.

STUDEBAKER BIG-SIX FIVE-PASSENGER COUPE $2550

The Big-Six Coupe Offers a Rare Combination of Elegance and Utility

Into the Studebaker Big-Six five-passenger Coupe have gone, without compromise, the finest design, materials, workmanship and the best of Studebaker's 71 years' experience.

Nothing has been left undone to make this big, roomy coupe as fine an enclosed car as can be built.

Certainly no car performs more brilliantly or is more reliable. None possesses greater beauty or is more luxuriously comfortable. None is more enjoyable to drive—and no other make of car is more completely equipped.

You will appreciate the generous roominess of this Big-Six Coupe, its sterling quality of body and chassis and its wealth of refinements—including the large trunk; extra disc wheel complete with tire, tube and tire cover; handsome nickel-plated bumpers front and rear; courtesy light; motometer; flower vase; clock; aluminum-bound running boards with corrugated rubber mats and step pads; rear-view mirror, automatic windshield cleaner, glare-proof visor, and many others.

Its low price is due to large volume and to the fact that Studebaker overhead is shared by three models—all sixes. Then, too, only one manufacturing profit is included in the Big-Six price because all vital parts are manufactured in Studebaker plants.

Studebaker has been building quality vehicles for more than two generations.

Meeting was called to order by Pres. John W. Henderson. The Secretary read the minutes of the last meeting and upon motion of Mr. William Hoyt, seconded by Mr. A. Eckles, the minutes were accepted and approved.

The Secretary then read the financial report for the year. Motion made by Mr. William Hoyt, seconded by Mr. William Shaw, that the report be accepted. Motion carried.

Upon request of the President, the Secretary then presented the budget figures as outlined by the Board showing the need of raising by taxation for the ensuing year a total of $41,000.00, as compared with $40,000.00 a year ago and $45,360.00 two years ago.

Motion made by Mr. William Hoyt, seconded by Mr. A. Eckles, that the taxpayers approve the budget and that the figures be spread on the tax roll. Motion carried.

Pres. Henderson then called for nominations for a board member to succeed Mr. Charles H. Bennett, whose term had expired. Mr. William Hoyt nominated Mr. Bennett to succeed himself. There being no further nominations, the President declared the nominations closed and appointed Mr. George Wilcox and Mr. Myron Willett as tellers. The result of the ballot showed a total number of votes cast 69, of which Mr. Bennett received 68. He was then declared elected to succeed himself.

Pres. Henderson then called on Supt. Smith, who talked on the congested situation the Plymouth schools are now facing, and recommended that early action be taken on the purchase of sites for ward schools in both the north and south ends of the village. The question was discussed pro and con by the following different taxpayers: Mr. William Hoyt, Mr. Walter Postiff, Mrs. L. Hillmer, Mr. C. H. Bennett, Mrs. Robert Chappel, Mr. Gilbert Brown, Mrs. R. Cassidy, Mrs. Ada Murray, Rev. Hathaway, Mr. Albert Eckles, Mr. George Richwine, Mr. B. J. Holcomb, Mrs. Hattie Baker, Mr. R. R. Parrott.

On motion of Mr. R. R. Parrott, seconded by Mrs. Hattie Baker, the Board was authorized to secure option on sites for ward schools at both the north and south ends of the village and submit their findings, together with any other necessary data, at a special meeting of the taxpayers to be called later. Motion carried.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

Secretary.

The old home of Henry Ford on the Ford road and Town Line has been selected as one of the landmarks of the country in a national contest which is to preserve them for future generations. Same Old Story But a Good One.
Mrs. Mahala Burns, Savanna, Mo., relates an experience, the like of which has happened in almost every neighborhood in this country, and has been told and related by thousands of others, as follows: "I used a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy about nine years ago and it cured me of flux (dysentery). I had another attack of the same complaint three or four years ago and a few doses of this remedy cured me. I have recommended it to dozens of people since I first used it and shall continue to do so for I know it is a quick and positive cure for bowel troubles."—Advertisement.

COMPLETE PLANS FOR M. A. C. FARMERS DAY

LIVESTOCK GROOMED, EXHIBITS PREPARED, AND LATCH-STRING HUNG OUTSIDE FOR BIG CONFERENCE.

With final details of the program announced, and all livestock and special exhibit booths ready for inspection, the stage is set for the sixth annual summer Farmers' Day at M. A. C., to be held on Friday, July 27th.

Dr. Eben Mumford, one of the best known and most talented speakers on agricultural subjects in the state, has been added to the speakers program for the afternoon meeting, along with O. E. Bradfute, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation. President R. S. Shaw of M. A. C., will preside; there will be a full-fledged band concert, and the annual livestock "style review" and other features will mark the program.

Livestock in the college herds is receiving a final grooming for the day in order to be all "dressed up" for the visitors. Special exhibit booths, each covering some timely agricultural subject, are being erected on the campus near the meeting ground, and arrangements are being made to have experts from the various farm departments at M. A. C. on the job at these booths to answer questions and be ready for conferences.

The extensive acreage of experimental plots is being mapped out, so that guides can lead parties on inspection trips during the day. There are more than 150 acres of farm crops test plots alone on the college farm, but the guide system will make it possible to take in most of the sections easily.

Hundreds of automobiles from all parts of the state are expected to drive in for the day, and special parking accommodations have been provided on the college campus.

The real country clubs of this nation are the hoe, the spade, the rake and the shovel.
