MANY DELEGATES WERE HERE

DISTRICT MEETING OF THE WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF M. E. CHURCH.

The annual district meeting of W. F. M. S. of Ann Arbor district, was held in the local M. E. church, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. About seventy-five guests from Ypsilanti, Ann Arbor, Morenci, Munith, Milan, Wayne, South Lyon, Dixboro and many other surrounding towns were present. The president, Miss Anna Cady of Wayne, presided. The reports on the different phases of missionary work, the study course for the year, etc., were taken up. At noon, a pot-luck lunch was served the guests by the ladies of the local auxiliary. In the evening, a very beautiful pantomime, under the direction of Mrs. D. D. Nagle, was put on the stage by several young women. It was very ably done, and reflected great credit on the instructor and girls alike.

The main feature of the evening was a talk by Miss Clara Merrill of Flint, who has lately returned from twenty-seven years labor in Kinkiang China. Her talk was both witty and pathetic, and was intensely interesting. This was followed by a younger missionary, Miss Helen Desjardins, who is supported by Central M. E. Church, Detroit. Miss Desjardins, who is located at Sinning, West China, is now home on a furlough, after five years spent in China. Her talk about her work among the girls of China, was listened to by an appreciative audience.

The sessions of Wednesday were filled to the brim with interest and enthusiasm.

At the close of the afternoon session Tuesday, the Chamber of Commerce treated the guests to a very pleasant automobile ride, showing them the points of interest in and about our city. Many and favorable were the remarks heard concerning our fine, beautiful little town; also the courtesy of the Chamber of Commerce in giving them the ride. The members of the local auxiliary feel very grateful to the Chamber of Commerce for this delightful courtesy shown their guests.

At 6:30 Tuesday evening, a delicious banquet was served in the church dining room. Mrs. W. J. Russell, Conference Secretary of young people's work, gave a very pleasing toast at this banquet.

The Best is None too Good

This old adage is especially true with reference to bathing and toilet equipment.

No dwelling is safe that is lacking in sanitation.

The church, theatre, school or office building that does not provide sanitary toilet and wash room facilities menaces health.

The old-fashioned water closet—or the out door privy—wherever found, should be replaced with a modern sanitary fixture. Comfort requires and health demands modern sanitary water closets.

Let Good Health Week, October 21st to 27th, find your property completely equipped for sanitation, ventilation and hygiene.

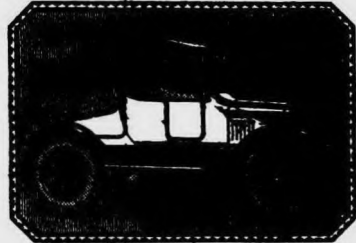

We'll gladly serve you—to your advantage.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

New Roadster

Business men—with whom the roadster has always been very popular—are well pleased with the changes embodied in this model.

Always rugged, the car has been made decidedly trimmer and more comfortable.

This result is obtained by raising the chassis and springing the coil; making a decided improvement in looks and providing more leg room.

A well designed top and sliding windshield do their share toward adding a finished, clean-cut appearance.

Make it a point to see the other new models also on display in our show room.

These cars can be obtained through the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

These High school notes were furnished by Mabel Blackmore.

When the Orion team that had not been defeated, met the Plymouth team that had not won a game, Friday, October 12th, the score ran up to 44 to 0 in the latter's favor, in spite of substitutions in the last half and the apparently equal weight of the opponents. Three minutes after the game began, Kenyon made a touchdown by a long end run. Five of the six touchdowns were made in the first half, which might be due to Plymouth's four substitutions, most of them in the last half. The Plymouth line-up was: L. e. Stevens; L. h. Wilson; I. g. Hienny; c. Reiman; r. g. Mills; I. t. Sayles (Capt.); r. e. Trimble; q. Millard; r. h. Cline; f. b. Mitchell. Substitutions—Hickey for Cline, Cline for Trimble, Palmer for Millard, Ambrus for Hienny.

The Freshmen were proclaimed full-fledged members of the Plymouth High school, at the Senior reception Friday night, October 12th. The Senior president, Clifford Cline, gave them a welcome address, to which Wilbur Murphy, the Freshman president, responded. After this a short play was given, games were played and refreshments served.

Work on the operetta, "The Captain of Plymouth," which will be given in November, has been started by the boys' and girls' glee clubs.

The first Aggie dinner was given Thursday noon in the lunch room. Mr. Smith gave a talk, telling what the Aggie Club should mean to its members, and how to make the club meetings more worth while.

Apples at thirty-two cents each seem expensive to Michigan people, but that is what some prize fruit purchased by the Aggie Club from the Northville Fair exhibitions brought at the auction held Thursday, October 11th. The proceeds of the sale go to fill the Aggie treasury. The advanced cooking classes are preparing lunches, making recipes and figuring their cost. The eighth grade girls are still preparing breakfasts.

GRADE NOTES

The grade notes were furnished by Marian Bennett.

Dewar, Oklahoma, was the former home of Minnie and Mark Vercellona, who have entered the B fifth and B third grades.

Ian McMillan has entered the B third grade, coming from a Canadian school.

The third new pupil in the B third grade is Rudolph Machine, from Dearborn. This makes fifty-two pupils with forty-eight seats in this room.

Owing to the over-crowded conditions in the B first grade, double or half day sessions have been started, that for the forenoon starting at 8:15 and running until 11:30. The afternoon session starts at 12:45 and runs until four o'clock. Before this, Mrs. Root had sixty pupils for all day sessions. As it is now, she will have between thirty and thirty-five both afternoon and morning, enabling her to accomplish more. However, this is a temporary arrangement and will be changed as soon as more room is obtained.

Forty-one arithmetic problems were given the sixth grade. All those who received between ninety and one hundred were the following: Frederick Weigert, 92; Doris Jewell, 92; Clarence Anderson, 96; Sarah Low, 98; Lorine Schmidt, 94; Anthony Sezyreck, 90; Ethel Ford, 100; Vaughn Ford, 100; Thelma Smith, 98; Carrie Gorton, 96; Eileen Arthur, 96; Viola Kincaid, 100; Christie Ross, 90; Mable Fleishman, 90; Ralph Lorenz, 90; Valda Larkins, 100; Lawrence Blunk, 98; Vann Campbell, 100;

Wallace Polmenter, 98; Hazel Rathburn, 100; Dora Gallimore, 96; Lucille Ebert, 98; Winona Kenter, 100; Elton Knapp, 92; Marian Shackleton, 94; Clarice Hamilton, 100; Kenneth Gust, 100; Gayland Doudt, 100; Dorothy Wagenschultz, 100; Margaret Sackett, 96; LeVerne Birch, 100; Evelyn Stanible, 94; Lillian Brown, 90; Lillian Oldenburg, 98; Ruth Soth, 90.

GRANGE NOTES

Pomona Grange met at Belleville, Saturday, October 13, with a fair attendance, though Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Spicer were the only representatives from Plymouth to hear Mr. Munford's talk touching the foresightedness of Mr. Kelley, the father of the Grange idea, in perfecting the organization "for promoting the welfare of our country and mankind, by advancing the interest, elevating the character, and increasing the influence of all patrons of husbandry, by properly transacting all business and exemplifying our principals" in our dealings with our fellowmen. Some of the achievements were mentioned, and the co-operation of all farmers' organizations urged that greater benefit may be derived.

Let us not lose sight of the fair at the hall November 9th, and watch for announcements.

PRESBYTERIAN NOTES

Some temporary changes were necessary in the evangelistic committee, on account of the absence or preoccupation of the members originally appointed. At the banquet last Monday night in the Scovel Memorial Presbyterian Church, M. G. Hill took the place of W. R. Shaw; Miss Genevieve McClumpha took the place of Mrs. Maxwell Moon, and Mrs. W. H. Weeks took the place of Mrs. George Cramer. Other members of the committee are H. J. Green and D. G. Brown.

At the communion service last Sunday, the following persons were received into church membership: Carlton S. Blake, Lillian M. Blake, Charles Stevens Bichy, Mary Adeline Bichy, Dr. Carl F. January, Mrs. J. M. Bennett and Mrs. E. L. Thrall. A dozen more will make just an even hundred received into the church during the present pastorate. A cordial welcome is extended to all new comers.

Gifts for the missionary boxes should be brought to the church tomorrow, Saturday, October 20.

Several have responded to the pastor's request for Japanese Relief offerings, by handing him substantial gifts. How about yours?

Many have expressed their appreciation of the solo selection given by Joseph Tracey, at the service last Sunday evening. That amounts to the same thing as "encore."

A detailed announcement of a Halloween social for Christian Endeavorers will be forthcoming soon. The attendance has doubled during the last two weeks, at the six-thirty o'clock service. Some "come back."

Elder A. D. Stevens led the mid-week meeting during the absence of the pastor this week.

PEOPLE only build once or twice in a life-time; naturally they face the business of making selections with very little knowledge on the subject.

Ask advice about building from contractors, architects and anyone who might be informed on the topic. Ask them incidentally, what they think about the idea of buying the building materials here. Friends, architects and contractors will all tell you it would be a wise move.

THE THEATRE

"STRANGERS OF THE NIGHT"

Those who go to the theatre to see stars and those who attend to see a great story will both be at the Penniman Allen theatre, Sunday and Monday, October 21 and 22, when Fred Niblo's "Strangers of the Night" is shown.

All-star casts are sometimes discovered to be no-star casts, but Fred Niblo assembled a group of players who were individually famous when he began his production on "Strangers of the Night" for Louis B. Mayer and Metro.

For the role of "Captain Applejack," made famous in Walter Hackett's stage play from which "Strangers of the Night" was adapted, he selected Matt Moore. Miss Enid Bennett, remembered as Maid Marion in "Robin Hood," appears in the role of a demure little British girl, while Barbara La Marr is the spectacularly beautiful Russian adventuress. Robert McKim is again a screen villain, while such favorites as Otto Hoffman, Emily Fitzroy, Thomas Ricketts and Mathilde Brundage are exceptionally well cast.

"Strangers of the Night" is a mystery romance of adventure and love, told graphically against background of rare beauty. It opens in a mansion on the Cornish coast of England, and leads from a drawing room to a pirate cruise and back before the unexpected climax is reached.

"Strangers of the Night" is Fred Niblo's second independent production for Louis B. Mayer and Metro, following "The Famous Mrs. Fair," "The Three Musketeers," "Blood and Sand" and "The Mark of Zorro."

"BLUEBEARD'S 8TH WIFE"

Gloria Swanson's latest Paramount picture, produced by Sam Wood, is a picturization of Charlton Andrew's adaptation of Alfred Savoir's celebrated French farce, "Bluebeard's 8th Wife." It is said to afford Miss Swanson one of the strongest roles of her screen career, and what her women admirers will relish most perhaps, provides her with ample opportunities for the display of amazing gowns.

The story is that of a beautiful daughter of French nobility, whose father is impoverished and wishes to marry her off to a man of wealth. His wish becomes reality when a rich American meets and falls in love with her. She also loves him.

Then it is learned that the American is a "youthful Bluebeard" and has been married seven times. One wife, it is learned, died. The other six he divorced. Miss Swanson as the 8th wife is shocked by the cold-blooded business arrangement made of her marriage and determines she will not be like the other wives, divorced.

So she becomes his wife in name only and expects him to continue his usual outbursts of temper. But she also awakens his love and the real manhood in him. As a final taunt, she causes herself to be found in a compromising position with another man. Her husband is jealous and both realize he really loves her. She agrees to give him a divorce, but he, realizing what she means to him, does not want it. Instead, he goes to her humbly, her sweetheart.

Miss Swanson's leading man in "Bluebeard's 8th Wife," which will be shown at the Penniman Allen theatre next Wednesday, October 24, is Huntley Gordon, a popular player. Paul Weigel, Frank R. Butler, Robert Agnew and Irene Dalton are in the cast.

Property owners about the shores of Taylor lake, Spring lake, Bradley lake, Pork Barrel lake, Mayze lake and Bicking lake in Commerce township have petitioned the board of supervisors to officially discard these names and call the whole group Wolverine lake. They set forth that dams, which have been built, made them all virtually one body of water.—Milford Times.

Saturday afternoon when near the golf club house on the Seven roads, a truck driven by Robert Pickell was run into by another truck going in the opposite direction, and Mr. and Mrs. Pickell and Kenneth VanValkenburgh, who was with them, were badly shaken up. Kenneth was thrown through the windshield, but fortunately he was not seriously injured.—Northville Record.

Bounties totaling $8,792.57 on sparrows, rats, woodchucks and crows were paid in Washtenaw county during the fiscal year ending October 1st, according to the county clerk's annual report to the board of supervisors now in session. Approximately 88,500 sparrows, 39,000 rats, 9,500 woodchucks and 3,500 crows were killed during the year. Supervisors voted to continue the bounties of 2 cents and 10 cents a head on sparrows and rats, and to discontinue the bounties for woodchucks and crows.

M. A. C. BOY WINS AT NATIONAL DAIRY SHOW

C. D. MILLER OF EATON RAPIDS, BEST STUDENT JUDGE. CLUB BOYS ALSO DO WELL.

A Michigan boy, Charles D. Miller, of Eaton Rapids, won first honors in dairy cattle judging for college students at the National Dairy Show in Syracuse, New York, last week. Miller was a member of the Michigan Agricultural College judging team, which placed seventh among the twenty-nine college teams entered.

Competing against eighty-seven of the best college student judges in the country (there were three men on each team), Miller stood first with both Jersey and Holstein cattle, and ranked high enough in the other breeds to lead the entire contest for the sweetstakes award.

While M. A. C. teams have stood high before in the national competition, this is the first time that the premier honors among individuals have been brought back to the state.

The Michigan club boys judging team also won high laurels at the big show, finishing third among twenty teams from states scattered all over the country. Illinois and Connecticut won first and second places, respectively.

The Michigan team was composed of James Gallup of Gaazra, Iron county; Starr Northrop, Northville, Wayne county; Roland Stein, Ann Arbor, Washtenaw county, and Glenn Livermore, Romeo, Macomb county. A fitting team at the same show was composed of Wayne Clark of Sand Creek, Lenawee county, and Harland Andrews of Adrian, Lenawee county.

The boys were sent to Syracuse by the Michigan State Fair Association, having won the right to represent the state by virtue of victories in the club boys' judging work at the last state fair. They were accompanied to the National Show by Nevils Pearson, assistant state club leader, under the M. A. C. extension division, who supervised training for the judging work.

THIERSTEIN-STRENGER

About two years ago Oscar Thierstein came from among the Alps of Switzerland, to this country, and settled on a farm a few miles west of Plymouth. A few months later his brother, William Thierstein and bride followed, and took up their residence with him. After only seven weeks, Mrs. Thierstein died very suddenly. The stricken husband had her remains cremated, and took the ashes back to Switzerland for burial. Last Tuesday, the brother, Oscar, who remained in this country and who has been rooming for some time past on East Ann Arbor street, was made a very happy man, when his brother, William, again came from Switzerland, and accompanying him was Miss Emma Strenger, Oscar's fiancée. Miss Strenger and Oscar were married in Detroit Wednesday, and returned immediately to Plymouth. They expect to locate in the near future on a farm near Plymouth.

CROP AND FARM LABOR REPORT SHOWS DECLINE

According to the special crop report just issued by the U. S. department of agriculture bureau of markets and crop reports at Lansing, September rains have greatly improved pastures, late potatoes, sugar beets and some of the truck crops, but the cool and wet weather has delayed the maturing and harvesting of late crops.

Considerable damage has been done to beans in the process of harvesting, and the heavy frost in northern and some eastern counties stopped the growth of potatoes.

Of all the crops listed only potatoes, cabbages and sugar beets are declared in good condition, proportionately to last year. Farm labor, as a result of special inquiry, is found to be only 66 per cent of the demand. The average wage paid is $43 per month with board and $61 without board. The average daily wage is $2.80 with board and $3.65 without. The supply is 59 per cent normal.
