PLYMOUTH HIGH WINS FOOT BALL CHAMPIONSHIP

A large crowd of enthusiastic Plymouth foot ball fans accompanied the local High school foot ball team to Wayne, Wednesday afternoon, and saw them defeat Wayne, High in a hard fought game by a score of 12 to 0, and thereby winning the championship of the Suburban League for 1923. Plymouth has won five straight victories. Coach Coatta and the members of the team are to be congratulated on their splendid success in winning the championship of the league. Complete details of the game will be given next week.

OPERETTA A GREAT SUCCESS

The operetta, "Captain of Plymouth, Tuesday evening, at the High school auditorium, under the direction of Miss Fern Hall, instructor of music and art, was a success in every way. The auditorium was filled to the doors with an appreciative audience, who generously applauded each number.

The leading parts were well taken. James Hickey, as Miles Standish, was a veritable blustering captain of Old Plymouth town, and acted the part in his usual witty and engaging manner. Alta Hamill, as Priscilla, was an ideal Puritan maiden. Pierre Kinyon, who took the part of John Allen, her lover, was very grave and dignified, and staunch to his idea of friendship, as became that old-time character. Clifford Cline, attired in Prince Albert coat, with his ministerial bearing, made a fine "Elder Brewster." Doris Coleman, as the coy Indian maiden, was ideal. All the other parts could not have been better chosen. Their costumes, from the demure Puritan maidens, to the wild Indian dancers and mock army were in perfect harmony with each scene, while the stage settings were very attractive and well chosen.

The necessary time between acts was well filled by Miss Virginia Gilles, with her engaging readings. Mr. Coatta, physical training instructor, rendering two fine solos; three girls, in Chinese costume, gave a quaint and wordless love song, while four girls, dressed as farmerettes, did some excellent clog dancing. The whole performance held the interest of a large audience to the very last number.

LIFE-LONG RESIDENT DIES

Edward Andrews, a life-long resident of Plymouth, passed away at his home on Hamilton street, Saturday, November 24th, after a long illness. Mr. Andrews was born August 12, 1853, in Plymouth, and had all ways resided here. He is survived by his wife and two brothers.

WOLFE-MERRITT

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Merritt announce the marriage of their daughter, Opal E. to Albert Gerald Wolfe of Romulus, Michigan. The wedding took place Saturday, November 24th, at 4:00 p. m., at the home of the groom. Mr. Merritt Jackson and his wife, and Eleanor Wolfe Smith and her husband were the attendants. Rev. White of Romulus, officiated. The bride wore a beautiful gown of blue chiffon velvet and silver.

There will be a dancing party at the Pennington Allen auditorium, Saturday evening, December 1st. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Fillmore and son, Wellman, were week-end guests of relatives at Lansing. Mr. and Mrs. John Proctor were Sunday guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin, at Dexter.

CELEBRATED GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Rauch, who were married on Thanksgiving day, fifty years ago at Wixom, celebrated that event last Monday evening at the home of their only son, C. H. Rauch, of Church street.

The flowers that adorned the center of the dining table were margolds. Covers were laid for six. Besides the host and hostess and the guests of honor, Mrs. Harger of Northville, and Miss Lulu Barnes of this place, were present. A very sumptuous dinner was served, and Mr. and Mrs. Rauch received a beautiful bouquet of flowers and a purse of gold in honor of the occasion.

CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE FOR 1923

Once again the attention of the people of Plymouth and vicinity is called to the annual sale of Christmas seals. The sale will begin on Monday, December 3rd, and will be conducted here as heretofore by the pupils of the Plymouth High school, and the surrounding rural schools.

"Public health reports show there are five times as many persons in Wayne county having tuberculosis and needing sanatorium care and treatment as there are beds where they may be cared for and treated. There is very urgent need for all the funds which may be contributed for this work." And besides you really want these beautiful, helpful, little seals, do you not, for your letters and Christmas packages, especially when you know that each dollar expended for these seals brings great joy and happiness to the heart of some poor unfortunate.

Mrs. C. H. Bennett is again appointed chairman of the work for Plymouth township.

PLYMOUTH LOSES FIRST DEBATE

Plymouth's debating team, upholding the negative side of the question, "Resolved, that the adoption of a ship subsidy would be a wise National policy," was defeated by a two to one decision in their first debate of the season, Thursday evening. Much credit, however, is due the members of this year's team, which consists of James Hickey, Ira Kingsley and Julia Wilcox. These people have worked very hard to uphold the record of their high school in debating. The Howell team consisted of three young men.

In the debate last Thursday evening, the two teams were evenly matched, and the debate was a close one, as the decision would indicate. Plymouth should feel proud of her debaters as this is the first time any of them have ever debated. The next debate of the season is with Wayne at that place, December 14th. Plymouth again has the negative side.

NEW BUILDINGS AT PRISON FARM

Work has commenced at the House of Correction Farm on a new cow barn, 285x36 feet, with two sixty-foot wings. A new hay barn, 86x100 feet, will also be constructed. Four new silos are included in the building program.

9 IN PRISON BUS HURT IN CRASH

TRUCK HITS GROUP ON WAY FROM H. OF C. FARM TO DETROIT TO BE RELEASED.

The driver and eight House of Correction prisoners were injured, one very seriously, when a bus in which they were riding to Detroit from the prison farm in Plymouth township, overturned in a ditch at the Ridge and Five Mile road, about 11:30 a. m., last Saturday. The truck swerved into the ditch, after it had collided with a light truck driven by Frank Rossow of Northville township.

Thirteen prisoners, who were returning to Detroit to be granted liberty at the expiration of their sentences, were in the truck. The injured men were picked up by an empty bus, which was following, and brought to Plymouth, where their injuries were cared for by Doctors Kimball and Patterson, and later taken to Detroit.

In its account of the accident, the Detroit News says:

The prisoners were in a city bus going east on Five Mile road, Joseph Bennett, 1805 Holcomb avenue, the driver, declared. He signalled to the farmer's truck which was going north on the Ridge road, a dirt road, but Rossow did not see him. Bennett maintains. In an attempt to avoid a collision Bennett swerved his car far to the left of the road. When the cars crashed the city truck slid into a telephone pole, then overturned. Bennett suffered several cuts and a wrenched side.

Rossow admitted to Edward Denniston, superintendent of the House of Correction, that he did not hear Bennett's signal or see the city truck, according to a statement by Denniston. The front of Rossow's car struck the side of the bus. Denniston said, Rossow and his son, who was with the father, escaped injury.

Every pane of glass in the bus was smashed. The bus is a large and heavy one supplied to the House of Correction for the transportation of prisoners by the City Department of Motor Transport.

I will complete the collection of taxes on Wednesday, December 5th, at my home, 754 Maple avenue, every day from 9:00 a. m. to 4:00 p. m., except December 7, 14, 21, 28 and January 9th, on which days I will be at the Plymouth United Savings Bank. NEWBURG SCHOOL NOTES

The Thanksgiving entertainment given by the school children, last Friday evening, was very well attended, in spite of the very miserable weather. The songs and recitations were enjoyed by all; especially so was the very eloquent talk given by Rev. Haven on "Something to be Thankful For," which gave us all food for thought. We also wish to mention that we, as children, are very thankful for our Parent-Teachers' Association, who are doing all in their power to make things pleasant and comfortable for us. We have eight new benches, which makes it possible for us to be seated while our entertainments are being held. We hope to have a piano soon, then we will be able to do better. We have from Mr. Mackinder, a donation towards it.

The following were neither absent nor tardy in Miss Reddeman's room: Fifth grade—5 from class of 7; Charles Thompson, John Adams, Donald Dunn, Elda Foerster, Lydia Joy. THE THEATRE

"RUGGLES OF RED GAP"

From saloonkeeper's daughter to British aristocracy. This is a big stride gracefully accomplished by Lois Wilson, featured player in the Paramount picture, "Ruggles of Red Gap," which comes to the Pennington Allen theatre Saturday, December 1st. Miss Wilson has the role of Kate Kenner, daughter of the proprietor of the Klondike Bar, one of the showplaces of the little town of Red Gap. An English earl, in Red Gap for the purpose of rescuing his kinsman, the Hon. George Bassingwell, from the clutches of a designing woman, himself falls victim to her charms. The situation leading up to their first meeting and the ensuing scenes are bits of the finest comedy ever screened. See this picture and be tickled. Edward Horton, Ernest Torrence, Fritzi Ridgeway, Charles Ogle and Louise Dresser are featured in the principal roles along with Miss Wilson.

"ON THE BANKS OF THE WABASH"

Mary Carr will be seen in what she calls her greatest interpretation of the "mother" role for which she is famed, at the Pennington Allen theatre on Sunday and Monday, December 2nd and 3rd, in Vitagraph's "On the Banks of the Wabash." In this remarkable photoplay of a typical American town, Mary Carr plays the role of Anne Bixler, wife of an aspiring artist. Wagging tongues and petty jealousies and an unrequited love serve to disrupt her home. A flood and fire lay waste to the town and to the falsehoods and serve to rectify misunderstandings in one of the most dramatic climaxes ever filmed. With Mary Carr will be seen such famous players as Burr McIntosh, James Morrison, Lumsden Hare, Mary McLaren, Madge Evans and others of note. "On the Banks of the Wabash" is based on the immortal song by Paul Dresser. It is a J. Stuart Blackton production. It deals with life in a typical American town. A dramatic denouement is reached when flood and fire destroy the town.

"DULCY"

Don't take yourself too seriously. Constance Talmadge gives this advice free of charge. There's a lesson for all women in the satiric comedy of manners, "Dulcy," the timely New York stage success, in which Constance Talmadge has been filmed under Sidney Franklin's direction for Joseph M. Schenck productions. "Dulcy" is a First National picture and comes to the Pennington Allen theatre, Wednesday, December 5th. After reading over her role and observing the critical muddle which Dulcy, the feather-brained young wife who takes things too seriously, makes of things, Constance said: "After going through that nightmare of well meant mistakes, I've learned my lesson. I don't think I'll ever take myself seriously again." Others in the cast of "Dulcy" are Jack Mulhall, Claude Gillingwater, May Wilson, Frederick Esmelton, Johnny Harron, Anne Cornwall, Andre de Barranger, Gilbert Douglas and Milla Davenport.

Today's Reflections

The hardest thing any Plymouth woman has to do is to convince her husband she can get as tired cooking, washing dishes and house cleaning as he can get on a fishing or hunting trip.

Never lend money to a man with a poor memory—and never borrow from one whose memory is too good.

The average Plymouth wife likes for her husband to be liberal with his cash, but nothing makes her any madder than to have him too liberal with his advice.

When old Mother Nature has failed to make a girl pretty, we don't believe all the paint and powder in the world will overcome the handicap.

SECOND APPLE AND POTATO SHOW TEACHES MANY VITAL LESSONS

QUALITY AND QUANTITY OF ENTRIES SURPASS THAT OF LAST YEAR'S EXHIBIT.

Bigger and better in every way was the second Apple and Potato show held at Grand Rapids, November 20-23. There was a marked increase in both quality and quantity of exhibits over the show of a year ago. In every way the displays and programs were well arranged to benefit the farmers and city people who packed in to see them.

Ninety of the State's leading apple growers vied with each other for prize awards on their apples, exhibited on plates and trays and in bushel, barrel, ten bushel and fifty bushel lots. In this latter feature the show this year marked a new and very wholesome departure in the character of fruit shows, for in the past only plates and small containers have been used. The idea of the show this year was not only to prove that Michigan can produce a few apples of marked perfection, but to demonstrate as well that we can produce fruit of high quality and uniformity in commercial quantities and pack it fairly so that the consumer will not be disappointed.

The potato show demonstrated what can be done in a few years to standardize and improve the quality of one of our leading agricultural products. No one would envy the judge his job when they looked over the rows and rows of uniform activities of the organized potato producers of Michigan.

It is interesting to notice in this connection that the exhibits of the boys' and girls' clubs were of nearly as high quality as those produced by the adult farmers. This may be taken as an indication that the work of potato improvement will be carried out still further by those progressive farmers.

Not only was the Apple and Potato Show aimed to help the producers of these products, but it was organized and carried out with the idea of being of direct benefit to the city consumers as well, by showing them how to utilize apples and potatoes most economically.

A valuable recipe book had been prepared and was distributed to the visiting housewives, showing them how to use apples and potatoes to the best advantage. One both taught the lesson that "Quality and Flavor Vary," while another exhibited the various varieties of apples best suited for summer, fall, winter and spring use, with suggestions as to when and in what quantities to purchase the fruit. An adjoining booth told the various varieties best adapted for baking pies, sauce, jelly and raw consumption.

The State Farm Bureau had a booth illustrating its type of organization, showing some of the products handled, telling of the many services rendered to the members and giving some idea of the volume of business handled by the five affiliated commodity exchanges.

EPISCOPAL NOTES

The little church of St. John's was comfortably filled last Sunday morning, and the large congregation listened to a very impressive sermon delivered by the rector, who took his text from St. Luke, 17-17, "Where are the Nine." Part of the ordinary morning service was dispensed with, and the baptism service was substituted. This took place after the reading of the second lesson, when the infant sons of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney D. Strong, (Richard Sidney), and of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ware, (John Willard) were baptized.

The church school, too, was larger than the last Sunday; the session was divided. The first part of the session, the rector gave a splendid and instructive address on the teaching and learning of "The Christian Nurture Series"; the second part was devoted to the teaching of the lessons for the Sunday by the teachers.

Friends of St. John's are reminded that next Sunday the service will be in the evening, and we invite all to come and hear the rector. During these Sunday evening services, the rector will take as his discourse, a series of addresses on the Forward Movement, entitled, "My Experiences in the Mission Field," and the first of these will be delivered next Sunday evening. The rector will draw mental pictures of some of his experiences, the facts of which he says would hardly be credited.

During the offertory, last Sunday, Joseph Tracy was at his best when he rendered the solo, "The Plains of Peace" (Barnard), accompanied by the organist, Miss M. A. Pearson.

Next Sunday evening at six o'clock, there will be a choir practice in the church. All those interested in singing and of rendering the services of the church, as they should be rendered, are asked to assemble at that time, so that a full practice can be held.

The meeting of the Ladies' Guild will be held next week, at the home of Mrs. Arthur Torre on East Ann Arbor road, Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock.

A week from tomorrow (Saturday, December 8th), the Ladies of St. John's will hold a sale of work and baked goods, at the gas office.

Watch the church notice column for the services.

Unsightly Cords

Cords stretched up to the lighting fixture are unsightly and inconvenient, and there is no need to bother with them.

Use "convenience outlets" instead. They will cost you very little (nothing at all when not in use) and they are a wonderful comfort in the home.

Convenience outlets are small sockets placed inconspicuously in wall or floor, and supply current to floor lamps or irons, to toasters or percolators; in short to any electrical household appliance.

Come in and let us tell you about them.

Ford Trucks Are Bought On Performance Records

If you were to ask a hundred—or a thousand—Ford truck owners why they use Ford trucks, in preference to all others, they would likely say, "Because the Ford stands up." They would emphasize the work this truck does, not its initial cost.

SCHOOL NOTES

School notes were furnished by Ione Kelly. The Juniors are hard at work getting ready for the play, "Green Stockings," which is to be given the first week in January. The cast is made up of Muriel Bovee, Doris Coleman, Grace Herrick, Dorothy Melow, Ernest Ambrose, Wiber Petz, Russell Reiman, Everett Cummins, Juanita Coe and Walter Ash. Over $60.00 was earned by the Argyle Club in the subscription contest for Successor Farm play; Fruit, Garden and Home, and Dairy Farming, which ended last Monday. The school this year, will sell the tuberculosis Christmas Seals, beginning Monday, December 3rd.

PLYMOUTH DEFEATS FARMINGTON ON REDFORD'S FIELD Catching a forward pass in the last nine seconds, Trimble, with the aid of Captain Sayles, ran through an open field for a touch-down which gave Plymouth a 7 to 0 victory over Farmington, Friday, November 23. This game was witnessed by the largest crowd that has seen Plymouth play in a Suburban League game.

The game up to that point had been scoreless and it looked as though Plymouth Successor Farm play a third time with Farmington in order to get a chance at the championship. The game was played at Redford, on neutral ground by order of the Suburban League. Northville lost her claim by having to forfeit to Plymouth, the game played during the fair, because she had used a player who, coming from Farmington, was ineligible because of insufficient credits for preceding semester's work. This is a ruling of the M. L. A. A. to which all schools must conform. Thus Farmington and Plymouth would be tied for championship if Plymouth wins from Wayne at Wayne, Wednesday, Nov. 28th.

The game was bitterly contested with each team determined that the other should not win. Plymouth missed two good chances to score in the first half, due to poor judgment in calling signals, but, nevertheless, outplayed their opponents in all stages of the game.

The second half was a repetition of the first, with neither side having a chance to score. With four minutes left to play, Coach Coatta sent Kenyon into the game to use a forward passing attack. Immediately Plymouth started down the field on a forward pass, but was held on Farmington's 40-yard line. A line smash netted two yards. The next two attempts at forward passing proved failures. On the fourth down, with ten seconds left to play, Stevens threw a forward pass to Dee Trimble, who by the aid of Captain Sayles managed to cross the goal line. Kenyon added the extra point by a drop-kick.

PRESBYTERIAN NOTES

The pastor was appointed house committee by the trustees at their meeting Monday night. Those desiring the use of the church building for funerals, weddings, or social events, will apply to him and, upon nominal conditions, the request will be granted. The new men's class has started with snap and vigor. Come next Sunday and hear the discussion on prayer and fear.

Be sure and hear Mrs. Diefenderfer, next Wednesday. Being a child of New England parents, who early removed to the very section of our country where Mormonism had its rise, has given her exceptional opportunity to gain first hand knowledge. This knowledge has been supplemented by personal investigation in its present stronghold in the Rocky Mountain country, until she is without question one of the best informed women in America on this subject. In the capacity of speaker for the Home Mission Board of the Presbyterian church, for many years, she has traveled and spoken in almost every state in the union, before many organizations. She is considered authority on the Mormon question, and is a pleasing and effective speaker.

While hunting one day recently in the vicinity of Four Towns, Commerce township, J. G. Wright heard a peculiar chattering in a tree and on investigating, was surprised to see a good-sized South American long-tailed monkey clinging to the topmost branches. He started to summon a couple of hunting dogs that were in the vicinity, but before they could arrive the monkey climbed from the tree and started to run toward a nearby swamp, frequently stopping to look around. A search was made later of the swamp with the dogs, but the monkey could not be located. No one can explain how the monkey came to be in this vicinity. If not captured soon the animal will perish this winter.—Pontiac Daily Press.

The society held their monthly social last Wednesday evening in Reyer's Hall. All had a good time.

The Ladies Aid Society hold their next meeting at the home of the president, Mrs. George Wilks, next Wednesday afternoon. Let everyone turn out and help. The bazaar is only a few days away, Dec. 12th, and there is much to be accomplished.

Permanent-Reliable-Safe Heat in every room

No matter how large or small the building, "heat by radiators" has proved reliable, economical and satisfactory in every way.

Radiator heat saves fuel and provides constant, healthful warmth in every room. It is the cleanest, safest, most modern and most easily controlled method of healthfully heating any building.

Radiator heat has made sky-scrapers possible and convenient to live or work in. Imagine tending fires on the twentieth floor! It has also made the heating of the smallest building a matter of proportionately small expense.

"Heat by radiators" is the modern, reliable, permanent, safe, clean and economical way of heating. It lasts as long as the building. In practical terms, it alone has salvage value.

GRANGERS HEAR CONGRESSMAN MICHENER

Those not privileged to hear Congressman Earl C. Michener at the Grange hall, Saturday afternoon, certainly missed a great treat. Legislation was the trend, and many things made more understandable. As stated, he had no set speech, just a good plain talk. He said, the founding of the American Constitution is considered the greatest event in American history, and its maintenance requires our first and very best energy, as for the people, by the people and of the people. In visiting other countries, he finds ours the most desirable form of government, being, so to speak, a Democracy within a republic. Our relations should be a friend to all nations, but not a partner. The time has not yet arrived when there will be no more war. We must uphold our dignity by an adequate navy at home and abroad. Our line of defense to be lowered only in proportion to that of other nations. Law enforcement, he said, established by this government of ours can and should be enforced, prohibition and all it implies not excepted. Fault finding with our government never gets us anywhere, just get back of it and push. Practice economy in our homes and in our business and help the nation. The Congressman touched on other matters that were of particular interest to the Grange and the farmers. At the conclusion of his address, the speaker answered a number of questions and his attitude thereon, in a most clear and satisfactory manner.
