Outlay of $6,000,000 Is Proposed on Site

PLYMOUTH ROAD DEVELOPMENT NEAR ROUGE PARK ONE OF YEAR'S LARGEST.

One of the major developments expected to make the 1924 real estate selling season in Detroit one of the best in the history of the city, is that sponsored by the Plymouth Road Development corporation, involving 2,800 acres between Detroit's new River Rouge park and the town of Plymouth.

Several of the largest and most active real estate firms in Detroit are co-operating with the development corporation in marketing this property, for which commuter service into Detroit is planned.

It has been estimated that improvement of the tract, extending along Plymouth, Schoolcraft and Telegraph roads, as a new residential area, will involve an outlay of approximately $6,000,000.

The first unit of this development is now being marketed by the Robert Herndon company, through its agency, the Telegraph Road Land company. In addition this firm has sold more than 200 acres of the 2,800 to other real estate firms which, in turn, will subdivide it and place it on the market for individual buyers.

Creation of the new village of Grayton, in the vicinity of Telegraph and Plymouth roads will be encouraged by the Herndon organization in the lay-out and development of its properties.

Following the initial announcement of the marketing of this property last Sunday, 84 lots were sold the same day—Detroit Free Press.

PLYMOUTH FARMERS PURCHASED BLOODED CATTLE.

Wayne County breeders had the opportunity of securing two of the finest bulls offered at the state dairy cattle sale held by the Michigan Holstein-Friesian Association at M. A. C. during the recent Farmers Week. Harry Macomber of Plymouth bought a fine yearling whose mother is a half sister to the cow that topped the sale price at $420.

The junior member of the W. H. Wernett & Son firm of Plymouth, brought home a very showy and promising young bull calf out of W. R. Harper's herd of Middleville, Michigan.

These two head of cattle were all that were brought into Wayne county, but E. M. Stewart of Inkster, sold four head for an average of $263.25, which was above the sale average.

MANY ATTEND HOME TALENT PLAY.

The home talent play, "Star Bright," given at the High school auditorium last Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Plymouth Fire Department, was well attended. The members of the cast all took their parts exceptionally well, and are deserving of much credit for the manner in which the play was presented.

Little Zerepha Blunk sang several songs between the acts, and Miss Hannah Strasen, piano, and George Schulte, violin, played several selections during the evening, all of which were greatly appreciated. The proceeds of the evening netted the firemen a neat little sum.

The W. C. girls of the Methodist Sunday-school were entertained at the home of their teacher, Mrs. D. D. Nagle, Wednesday evening.

MRS. W. J. BURROWS PASSES AWAY

Mrs. William J. Burrows passed away at her home on Penniman avenue, last Saturday afternoon, February 23rd. Mrs. Burrows had been in failing health for several years. She was a lady highly esteemed and greatly beloved by a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

The funeral services were held from the home, Monday afternoon, and were conducted by Rev. Hugh N. Rowland of Portland, Indiana, a former pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this village, who spoke in appreciation of the cheerfulness, patience, courage and kindness of the deceased. The interment took place in Riverside cemetery.

Mary Elizabeth Park was born at Mendon, New York, October 26th, 1857. She received her education in schools in and around Honeoye Falls, and graduated in music from the Musical Academy of Lima, New York. She came to Plymouth with her parents in 1876, and was united in marriage to William J. Burrows, October 22, 1879. One son, Frank J., was born to this union, who, together with her husband and one brother, a number of cousins and a host of friends remain to mourn their loss. With the exception of a few years in Detroit and Saginaw, her whole married life was passed in Plymouth.

She was a member of the First Presbyterian church, and a charter member of Plymouth Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, and as long as her health permitted, was an active worker in both of these organizations.

The following from out of town attended the funeral service of Mrs. W. J. Burrows: Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Eggs, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Briggs, Calvin Bantap and Floyd Remington of Detroit, and Mrs. Ida Laing of Essex, Ontario.

The fire department was called to the home of Paul Nash early Monday morning, to extinguish a small blaze which had started in the roof, presumably from a spark from the chimney.

The Plymouth Fire Department wishes to thank the members of the cast who presented the home talent play, "Star Bright," for their generous last Tuesday evening, and for the liberal patronage which was given the play by our citizens.

There is a great deal said these days in criticism of the Volstead Act. Has prohibition failed? Would you like to see the legalized liquor traffic and the open saloon back again, making human wrecks by the thousands, causing men to sacrifice the lives of their children if they could but satisfy their desire for drink? If you have been thinking carelessly about this matter, be sure you see the "Country Minister" at the High school, March 14th. The third scene of that play may cause you to decide that we had better not go back to the days when we as a nation, were responsible because we legalized the liquor traffic.—Advertisement.

WORK—
EARN—
SAVE

One of the first things we all have to learn is that work is a necessity. We have to work in order to earn something with which to supply the necessities of life.

But that is not all. Saving is just as much a necessity as working and earning. When our working and earning days stop, expenses go on just the same. If we have saved consistently during our earning day, there will be something with which to meet expenses when we stop working.

Work, Earn and Save. It will make for independence in old age as well as in youth.

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?

A company of folks gathered together in conference one day, debated as to what would they do if Shakespeare came into the room. The unanimous verdict was: "We would all rise in his honor." The question was then raised: What would we do if Christ came into the room? Charles Lamb who was present declared: "We would all kneel."

What Think Ye of Christ?

Is He worthy of your soul's highest honor? Does He merit your most loyal service and devotion? In fact, what do you know about this Man of Galilee, the greatest person that ever walked this earth? Why not attend church next Sunday and hear about this Christ and know what He can do for you?

Evening Worship at 7:30. Sermon, "Repent Ye Therefore."

NEWBURG

There were fifty-six in Sunday-school, Sunday. The men's class is ahead in the contest. There was also a large attendance in Epworth League.

Mrs. Haven and Mrs. Donald Ryder are the teachers in the Missionary Study.

Everyone most cordially invited to attend all the services.

Mrs. Blake of Walled Lake met with the girls of Mrs. Haven's Sunday-school class on Friday evening, at the home of Mrs. Donald Ryder. The Queen Esther Circle was formed, and officers elected. After their pot-luck supper, they agreed to hold their first meeting at the home of the president, Leona Joy.

The Patriotic meeting was greatly enjoyed by those present at Mr. and Mrs. L. Gunsoil's, last week Thursday. A fine oyster dinner was served to 20. The table decorations were in honor of Washington—little cherry tree and hatched for center piece, with little silk flags for favors. After dinner, the meeting was called to order by the president, Miss Hattie Hoisington, and arrangements for Decoration Day were made. The committee for speaking—Mrs. D. Ryder and Mrs. Clyde Smith. Music—Miss Ada Youngs. To purchase flags—Comrade Charles Westfall. William Farley to place the flags on the soldiers' graves. The program in charge of Miss Ada Youngs was as follows: Singing, "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean," "Sketch of Washington," by Mrs. L. Clemens. Solo, "Good Night,"—Mrs. Paul Haven. Rev. Haven gave a most interesting talk on "Washington and Lincoln." Guests from Detroit, were Mesdames Whitteer, Mead, Gumore and Hemple; Mrs. S. Smith of Northville; Mrs. Lyle of Oklaoma; Mrs. C. G. Draper, Mrs. Wyman Bartlett, Mrs. Mastic and daughter of Plymouth, were also visitors. The place of meeting in May will be announced later.

Mrs. McLeod of Detroit, has come to us with Rev. and Mrs. Haven. Mr. and Mrs. James Norris and family took six o'clock dinner, Sunday, at the parental home, the occasion being Mrs. Norris's birthday.

Burt Paddock and sons of Detroit, spent Sunday at C. E. Ryder's.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith called on Mr. and Mrs. R. Mettetal Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Clara Grimm spent over Sunday at the home of her cousin, Miss Juliet Bierworth of Detroit.

Mr. Turnbull has had a sale every day for the past sixteen weeks, mostly around Port Huron.

The school entertainment called out a big crowd. Everyone thought it fine.

C. Carson has sold his house and lot next to the L. A. S. hall, to Fred

Orr of Plymouth. Mr. Carson has bought a place near Salem. Angeline Rousseau has resumed her studies at school again, after an absence of two months, through sickness. Glad to see her back.

"THE PARSON'S PERVERSITY" A GREAT SUCCESS.

The co-operative community spirit was plainly manifested Tuesday evening, by the wonderful attendance of the play, "The Parson's Perversity," given under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher association, at the school. It certainly was a most fitting compliment to those, who by their untiring efforts made of it the success it surely was (netting $54), considering the inconvenience of having to give it in the classroom. It brings it home to us more clearly, what could be done if we had our auditorium finished, for which we are all looking forward to, and hope to have in the near future.

We will repeat the play in about four weeks, for the benefit of those who could not be accommodated Tuesday evening.

The "Parson" was ably played by Mr. Stonehouse, whose "dignified personality" was most fitting for the part. Mrs. A. Allen, as Norah, and Mr. Bakewell, as Jimmy, in Irish characters were great. Sorry we have not space to mention all who took part, but suffice it to say that every one did splendidly—and were not unlike professional actors.

The extra numbers were also good. The opening number being a violin solo by Mr. Hutton, ably assisted by his sister, Miss Blanche. This was followed by a reading by Miss Rattenbury. Mrs. Paul Haven gave a splendid selection, which made us proud of our "new piano" under her capable fingers. Miss Gladys Horton's sweet voice pleased as usual, and Miss Leona Joy proved herself a most capable accompanist. Mrs. Donald Ryder, in humorous readings, was, as always, most graciously received. Another good reader, little Francis Adams. Duet—Mr. Bakewell and Miss Schauer.

Do not forget that there is a "drive" on for memberships in our Parent-Teacher Association, does for which are only 25 cents per year, and your co-operation in this will surely assist us in making a showing to the state association that Newburg people are "alive and doing." Help us to swell our membership by giving your names to the children when they call on you. This is a contest for them, and it closes on March 17th.

The next meeting will be on Tuesday, March 11th. Everyone welcome. Come and talk it over, so we can plan something big after Easter.

Again we wish most sincerely to thank all those who took part, or helped in other ways to make our efforts the success it was. Miss Reddeman, Miss Hall and Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Gates did much of the harder work, but the result was surely compensating.

CANTON

Sunday visitors at A. J. Kaiser's were Fred Kaiser and two sons, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kaiser and family, and Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Livingway of Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Sprague and family.

A large crowd was present at the dance given at D. D. Unruh's, Saturday evening, and an enjoyable time was reported by all.

Forest and Chrystabel Kaiser of Superior township; T. J. Kaiser and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kaiser and daughter, Pearl of Detroit, were Saturday evening visitors at L. E. Kaiser's.

The oyster supper given at the Grange hall Friday evening, brought out a large crowd, and a sum of nearly $45.00 above all expenses, was realized.

Monday evening visitors at L. E. Kaiser's were Mr. and Mrs. John Kaiser, A. J. Kaiser and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Sprague and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Reddeman and family were present Sunday at the christening of the former's little niece, Elizabeth Ida Hoppes, of Ann Arbor.

O. R. Kaiser and Clarence L. Hix attended a sale near Perrinsville, Monday, and also called at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hanchett, of that place.

T. J. and L. E. Kaiser were Northville visitors Monday.

While getting his bath one morning recently, little Bobby Allenbaugh had the misfortune to fall off the table. A physician was called in, but fortunately no serious injuries were sustained.

Lottie and Dale Kaiser, who have been afflicted with the grippe, are improving at this writing.

Louis and Harold Knapp were Sunday visitors at Harry Westfall's.

GRANGE NOTES

On account of the weather and conditions generally, some of us were prevented from getting to hear Mr. Carr's talk on "Farmers Week," at the February 21st meeting. Last evening, February 28th, Miss Woodworth presented some phases of her work which were emphasized during Farmers Week. A pot-luck dinner preceded the meeting.

The oyster supper and amusements on Friday evening, February 22nd, were well patronized, and a goodly sum realized.

Today's Reflections

Women are getting so unreasonable. Here is one in New York who wants her husband jailed because he hacked her head with an axe.

We heard a Plymouth schoolboy trying to figure out yesterday, why they call it a shipment when they send it in a car, and a cargo when they send it in a ship.

Women may be taking to politics, but they'll always be more interested in hats in a show window than hats in the presidential ring.

When a woman gets small wages for housework that's parsimony; when she gets none, that's matrimony, and when she gets enough money to live on, that's alimony.

Yesterday we heard of a city girl who married a farmer boy from near here, writing to his parents to send her a thoroughbred hen to set on some thoroughbred eggs.

The Mexican presidential election won't be held until July. That revolution down there now is just a part of the campaign.

A Plymouth man informs us his birthday is in April. He thinks his birthstone is a grindstone, since his nose is always to it.

We read where a Kansas City pair divorced 25 years ago are going to remarry. That's the longest vacation on record.

It has been our observation that a fall never jars a girl very much if she happens to be wearing her best stockings.

Critics can't agree on the ten best books, but around Plymouth the most interesting one just now is the seed catalogue.

The golden streets of the hereafter are going to be mighty hard walking for the fellows who are so lazy they won't want to fly.

Why is it that when some Plymouth men get talking down town they consider themselves commanders, but when they get home they are just high privates in the rear ranks.

What has become of the old-fashioned boy who couldn't see any reason for having more than one Sunday shirt when there isn't but one Sunday.

Half of the world doesn't know how the other half lives—but it has its suspicions.

Jack Dempsey says he will have to fight next year to pay his income taxes. A lot of people around Plymouth feel the same way about it.

DEPARTMENT STORE

PLYMOUTH MICHIGAN

Are We Extravagant?

Here are some costs on Studebaker cars—
Would you have us cut them down?

WE are lavish on Studebaker cars. For some features we pay three and four times what they need cost.

Here are some of those costs which affect you. Tell us—would you want any one reduced?

Our prices on high-grade Sixes run from $1025 to $2685. They stand at bottom in the fine-car field, despite these extra costs. All because the demand requires 150,000 cars per year.

But they could be lower if we cut these costs. Would you have us do it?

Engineering—$200,000

Our engineering departments cost us $500,000 yearly.

Our Department of Research and Experiment employs 125 skilled men. It spends vast sums in analyses and tests.

Our Bureau of Methods and Standards fixes every formula, every requirement. It makes 500,000 tests per year to maintain our high standards.

We make 30,000 inspections on every Studebaker car during manufacture before it goes out of the factory. We employ 1,200 men to do that.

Those are heavy costs. But remember how they are divided—by 150,000 cars per year. They form but a trifle per car.

$50,000,000 in plants

We have invested $50,000,000 in modern plants and equipment. $8,000,000 in drop forge plants. $10,000,000 in body plants—as the only way to do Studebaker coach work.

These plants are equipped with 12,500 up-to-date machines, many of them very expensive.

But consider the alternative. Profits to other makers. We save up to $300 for you by building Studebaker bodies in our own body-plants.

15% extra on steel

On some steels we pay a bonus of 15% to the maker. Just to get our formulas exact. We could save that extra on "commercial runs."

We are one of the very few builders, either in Europe or America, using crankshafts machined on all surfaces. It costs us $600,000 a year to give you this. But it results in that smoothness of operation, that lack of vibration which characterizes only the most expensive cars.

Every Studebaker car is Timken-equipped. The Special-Six and the Big-Six have more Timken bearings than any car selling under $5,600 in America. The Light-Six more than any competitive car within $1,500 of its price.

Don't Buy a Fine Car until you see the leaders

Studebakers hold the top place in the fine-car field today.

Last year, 145,167 people chose them against all rivals. They paid $201,000,000 for them.

For 72 years the Studebaker name has stood for the utmost in quality. It will never stand for less.

Today there are assets of $90,000,000 staked on the Studebaker cars.

Don't pay $1,000 or more for a car without knowing what Studebaker offers. You will find here some scores of advantages. Learn what they mean to you.

Other costly extras

Our bodies are finished with 18 operations, including 15 coats of paint and varnish.

We use real leather upholstery. We could cut the price of our open models $25.00 were we willing to use imitation instead of genuine leather.

We upholster our closed models in the finest Chase Mohair. Cotton or ordinary wool, or a combination of both, would enable us to reduce our price from $100 to $150 per car. But we would thus sacrifice Studebaker quality and reputation.

The many extras on our large closed cars would cost much if you bought them. The nickel-plated bumpers, the extra disc wheels and cord tires, the steel trunk, the courtesy light, motometer, etc.

Extras to our men

We pay the highest labor scale. Then we add extras to it.

Men who are with us five years or over get 10% of their year's wages in an anniversary check. Those anniversary checks last year cost us $1,300,000.

After two years all employees get a week of vacation with pay. That cost us last year $225,000.

Old employees who retire get pensions. All this to keep men with us while they grow more and more efficient. To make them happy, so they do their best.

This is all paid by people who buy Studebaker cars. But we figure that each such dollar saves us five dollars. Don't you agree with us?

The utmost in car value

The object is to give you the utmost in car value. You will find we do that if you make comparisons. In any Studebaker model, you will find scores of ways in which it excels any rival car.

That is why, in the fine-car field, the Studebaker leads. The demand has almost trebled in the past three years. These cars have become the sensation of Motordom. On some of these models we have never yet been able to meet the demand.

We spend money lavishly. We build without regard to cost. But, in our quantity production, we still bring costs to bottom.

You should learn what these things mean to you before you buy a car.

LETTER MAY BE RECALLED

Post Office Department Regulations Make Provision for Withdrawal From the Mail.

Have you ever written a letter, mailed it in a corner box or in your local postoffice and then changed your mind? asks a Postoffice department bulletin. Have you ever lain awake all night wishing you had the letter back again and thinking that, having once mailed it, there was no chance of recalling it?

If you have had such an experience don't let it worry you in the future, for under the postal laws and regulations it is a comparatively easy matter for you to get the letter back into your own hands.

All you have to do is to go to your local postmaster and explain to him that you want to withdraw your letter from the mails. The postmaster must comply with your request, providing you can furnish proofs that you are the sender of the missive. These proofs consist of giving an accurate description of the letter you wish to get back as well as presenting to the postmaster a sample of your handwriting, which must be identical with that on the original letter.

The rules of the Postoffice department also permit postmasters to telegraph to the railway mail clerk and get him to take a recalled letter out of a mail pouch after it has left the city on the way to its destination. This measure to secure the return of a letter is only taken, however, in extreme emergencies.

Gypsy Woman Boss

The wife and mother is the real boss of the gypsy family. She controls the property, manages the children and holds the strings of the family pocket book. They think the men are not wise and discreet enough to deal with such weighty matters. When the suffrage agitation was at its height in this country the gypsies marveled that American women were fighting for rights which their women had been exercising from the days of remotest antiquity.

The "gypsy queen" is a familiar character in the gypsy camps of Europe, but in this country a man is usually in apparent command of the company. But those who have penetrated into the inner circles of the camps tell us that the women are the real leaders.—Detroit News.

Another Mist

A visitor to a mountain school in the South, after prodding an unhappy little boy about various matters, asked him if he knew the Ten Commandments.

The boy said he did not. "You don't know the Ten Commandments?" the visitor repeated in astonishment.

"No, sir," the boy insisted. "What is your name, my lady?"

"Moses, sir."

The visitor gave it up.

Put It Off

The professor was a very absent-minded man, but he looked up as some of his family trooped into his study.

"Well, children, what do you want?" he said.

"We've come to say good-night, daddy," they all shouted.

"Well," said the professor, absent-mindedly, "wait till tomorrow morning. I'm much too busy now."

What Turkish Women Say About Marriage

Few travelers have had the opportunities to learn the circumstances and the views of life characteristic of the secluded women of the Turkish harems that Miss Grace Ellison, the English writer, has enjoyed. She declares that she has never seen an "old maid" in Turkey and does not believe that such a thing exists. Then she goes on:

I have talked with many Turkish brides and have received many confidences; the whole question of marriage in Turkey has always interested me immensely. The first Turkish bride I ever met, long years ago, had never seen her husband before marriage and had detested him from the first. "There was nothing the matter with him," she admitted, "except that I didn't like him." Ultimately she managed to escape, married a man of her own choice and was much more unhappy with him than she had been with the first.

Another bride told me that as a great favor she was allowed to see her future husband, and that she has regretted it ever since! "The dreadful imprudence seems to have robbed life of all its romance," she said.

Yet one more confession! "I peeped through the lattice window to look at him as he walked past," said another. "Quite an uninteresting little man, but he was my fate, and I might have got something worse."

But at her wedding I found a tall and handsome bridegroom. "What does this mean?" I asked. "What has happened?"

And she answered quite calmly: "I must have looked at the wrong man." —Youth's Companion.

Export Figures Show Origin of Shipments

To serve shippers in the interior, particularly in the Middle Western states, the Department of Commerce is compiling statistics of exports by states of original shipments. The department's statistical reports have previously shown only the exterior ports from which export freight cleared for foreign countries.

Under the new arrangement, all goods shipped on through bills of lading, for which the declarations are prepared by the shipper in the interior, will be credited to the interior state of shipment. Goods consigned from interior places to seaboard ports, to be there consolidated or reconditioned for export, will also be credited to the state of original shipment if an export declaration prepared by the interior shipper, showing the place of original shipment, is filed at the custom house.

Merchandise forwarded from the interior to the seaboard for export by commission merchants, forwarding, or other export agents, and the export declaration prepared by them will in most cases be shown as exported from the port of final shipment, and will so appear in the statistical reports.

Real Inducement

Widows and it very hard to remarry nowadays. (German widows find it especially hard.) A German newspaper per last summer there was an advertisement that read like this:

"Matrimonial: A war widow, Berlin born, under thirty-five, blond, healthy attractive, who possesses the entire wardrobe of her late husband (height five feet eight inches, weight 167 pounds) consisting of three good fur suits, two overcoats and five complete uniforms which would dye well together with hats, shoes, gloves, etc. to correspond, desires to meet gentleman under sixty with view to matrimony. Address Love and Faith.—Los Angeles Times.

Too Old to Be Good

Roy Chapman Andrews, of the Asiatic expedition in China overtook the expedition's account with the American Banking company at Peking. When the bank asked for more security Andrews offered two dinosaur eggs 10,000,000 years old. The banker refused to consider the eggs as collateral and it was necessary to sell the American-made automobiles which brought half the original cost despite the fact that they had traveled 6,000 miles over camel trails of northern China.

Not Worth the Effort

Bill wanted to slip out of barracks—unofficially—to see his girl, and he went to the sentry and stated the case. "Well," said the sentry, "I'll be off duty when you come back, so you ought to have the password for to-night. It's 'Idiosyncrasy.'"

Makes Night Day

At Mitchell aviation field on Long Island a new light of 5,000,000 candle power has been tried out for night aviation. It illuminates the field for a distance so great that houses a mile and a half away are clearly visible. Such a light would enable baseball to be played at night.

Making Money

Mrs. Jones—Did you take a spoonful of that cat oil? You know I promised you five cents if you would. Jimmy—You owe me 50 cents, maw. I drank the whole bottle.

Product of Club Work

The total value of all products produced by boys' and girls' club members in 1922 is given at approximately $8,824,000.

Distinction No Difference. Young Lady—You are a wonderful master of the piano, I hear. Prof. von Spleier (thrued for the occasion)—I play accompaniments to times.

Young Lady—Accompaniments to singing? Prof. von Spleier—Accompaniments to governments.—New York Herald.

RARE TYPE OF GENTLEMAN

Winslow Homer, the Noted Painter, Lived Almost the Life of a Recluse.

Winslow Homer's life was almost the life of a recluse. He lived during many years in a secluded village, Prout's Neck, on the Maine coast. He rarely visited Boston or New York. He was a reserved man, mingling little with men of affairs. Excepting the companions with whom he had been associated in the old Tenth Street Studio building in New York city, he knew few of the painters of our period. I recall an incident which illustrates this. On one occasion we were dining at the old Holland house. After lunch I suggested that we go to the "Varnishing day" reception at the National academy. To this Mr. Homer demurred, saying that he never put himself in where he was not expected; but presently we did go to the reception. Although his works were known to every man present, few of them had ever met Homer. I think I actually introduced him to a score of the younger painters within the first fifteen minutes. He was given an ovation. For half an hour it seemed like a Homer reception.

Some years before this incident occurred, Homer was elected by his fellow painters to serve on the Carnegie Institute jury of award. Frank Duveneck had also been elected to serve on this jury. Homer had telegraphed the time of his departure from New York and I went to the station to meet him. Duveneck stepped from the train, and as I greeted him I inquired for Homer, but was assured that Homer was not on the train. Hesitating to leave the station, I scanned the faces of the passengers and, seeing Homer, suddenly exclaimed, "There he is!" In surprise Duveneck said, "Why, that is the little gentleman with whom I sat in the smoker all the way over the mountains. We talked about everything but art."

These incidents illustrate what I mean. Homer did not mingle with the painters. This was not because he was not companionable. He was a delightful companion and a perfect host. The days I spent with him at Prout's Neck, when we tramped day after day along the rocky Maine coast made so familiar to art lovers by his masterly paintings, come back to me in memory as among the most delightful of my life. A practical, methodical man, exact in his form of expression, though a thoroughly business-like in all his dealings, he impressed me as a rare type of the old-time American gentleman.

Freak Bluegill Knew the Way to Her Nest

The uncanny ability of carrier pigeons to find their way back to the home loft is well known. Dogs, too, have been known to travel great distances to reach the old home from which they have been separated. And now we learn that fish also have a sense of direction.

Douglas Harrison of Wichita, Kans., recently informed the American Game Protective association of an interesting occurrence. He was fly-fishing for bass when he noticed near the shore of the lake a most peculiar bluegill fanning her nest. Mr. Harrison put on a small fly and after several attempts hooked the fish, which he wanted merely to examine.

He found that it had no tail; its body had been cut off close behind the dorsal fin, undoubtedly when the fish was very small. Nature had made amends for the accident by providing abnormal growth in the dorsal fin, which extended back behind the fish and acted as a rudder.

The appearance of the fish was so remarkable that Mr. Harrison dropped it into his "live box" in the boat and took it back with him to the clubhouse more than a mile away. There other members of the club came down to the dock and viewed the freak. After all had satisfied their curiosity the fish was tossed back into the water.

That afternoon while Mr. Harrison was walking up the bank of the lake, fly-fishing from the shore, he was greatly astonished, on reaching the spot where he had caught the freak bluegill in the morning, to see her again peacefully fanning over her nest.—New York Times.

Baking is Attaining Dignity of a Profession

The ancient calling of the baker is no longer a mere craft but is rapidly assuming the dignity of a scientific profession to which an increasing number of college and university men are turning every year with the purpose of making it their life work, says Dr. H. E. Barnard of Chicago, founder of the American Institute of Baking.

Doctor Barnard, who is a nationally known expert in food chemistry, was in Los Angeles recently primarily to take part in the program connected with the city's bread week. He is the head of the training school for bakers conducted in connection with the American Institute of Baking and is also the secretary of the American Bakers' association.

Doctor Barnard said that when the training school for bakers was established in Chicago it was a surprise to the men behind the enterprise to discover what interest was displayed by men who had specialized in chemical lines in the institutions of higher learning.

"We had a greater number of applications from college and university graduates than we could take care of," he said, "and the students we turned out are all men possessed of a high degree of technical training."—Los Angeles Times.

Airway 7,000 Miles Long

The French air ministry has promised financial support for what experts declare will be the world's richest airway from the point of view of the volume of express, mails and freight carried.

Promoted by the Societe Aeronautique du Sud-Ouest this airway covers a total distance of nearly 7,000 miles, starting from Paris and going via Bordeaux, Lisbon, Casablanca and Dakar across the Atlantic to Pernambuco, Rio de Janeiro and Buenos Aires in South America, says the London Mail.

In the initial working of the scheme mails and goods will be carried between Dakar and Pernambuco in the 25-knot steamers of the Compagnie Sud-Atlantique, but designs are already in hand for huge multiengineed seaplanes which will make the ocean crossing and enable loads to be airborne right from Paris to Buenos Aires.

Remarkable Cavern

The Carlsbad cavern, in the foothills of the Guadalupe mountains in the southern part of New Mexico, has recently been found to contain formations of such startling significance that in October President Coolidge set the cavern aside as the Carlsbad national monument. The natural wonders of the cave are said to be of the first magnitude. Parts of the cavern have been known for years, but it is only since the recent exploration that the untold wealth of natural growth was brought to light.

Rather Bad, Anyhow

A woman, rather deaf, who lives in an upper maisonette, descended the stairs to answer a knock, and found a policeman outside.

She seemed alarmed, and the policeman said: "I haven't come to tell you bad news!"

All she heard was "bad news," and she collapsed on the stairs. The policeman carried her upstairs.

When she revived she heard him say: "Will you take a ticket for our police concert?"

Force of Habit

She (to her publisher fiancé)—While I'm in the country, I'm going to write you every day, love.

He (absentmindedly)—Yes, do, and please write on one side only and don't forget to enclose return postage in case I can't use it.

True. It was Friday night, and he had just received notice of a reduction in his wages. He walked homeward mournfully, and when ten yards from his door slipped on some orange peel. His head came to rest on some paper lying on the pavement. He looked at the paper in a dazed sort of way, and saw that it was a book cover with the title: "You Never Know Your Luck!"

SCHOOL NOTES

The high school notes and boys' game are reported by Ralph Burch; the girls' games and grade notes by Mable Blackmore.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The Juniors' subscription campaign for the Crowell Publishing Company closed last week. It netted them over $30.00. They also netted $10.00 at the basket ball game. Last Saturday they sold plants which brought in $14.27.

The Aggie Club meeting, February 21st, had as feature a peppy entertainment and the initiation of three new members. In order to become a member of the Aggie Club, one must state whether or not he lives in the country, whether he is taking or has taken an agricultural subject, and what interest he has in the club besides the foods. His application is then presented to the club members, who decide by voting whether or not he should be a member.

The Snapping Scissors Sewing Club held their meeting of February 17th, in the high school. The next meeting will be at the home of Rhea Peck.

The Girl Scout Supper held Thursday, February 21st, netted them $45.00. The tables were decorated in red, white and blue as befitted the occasion. The girls were divided into groups and did all the work, no mothers assisting them. Some wish-bones from the supper will adorn memory books.

Notice has been received that Plymouth will be in the elimination series of the Michigan High School Debating League, this being Plymouth's fifth year in the series. The next debate is with Ypsilanti Central there, March 7th. Our team has the negative side.

GRADE NOTES

One hundred and forty books were drawn from the juvenile department of the library Friday, which was the most for this year.

Harry Miller from Battle Creek, entered the 5B grade last week.

Booklets on China and Japan are being made by the 7A grade.

Marjorie Atkinson visited the sixth grade last Friday.

Mrs. Holcomb is substituting for Miss Haselschwerdt of the first and second grades.

This is the last week which Eileen Arthur will be with the sixth grade, because her parents are moving away.

BOYS' FIRST TEAM GAME

Plymouth defeated Walled Lake there, by the close score of 15 to 13, last Friday night. The game was hotly contested throughout, and although they were not playing the best brand of basket ball, Plymouth put up a hard fight. Captain Holmes and Doudt played well.

The line-up—Palmer, I. F.; C. Cline, r. f.; Kenyon, G.; Holmes, r. f.; Stevens, l. f.; Substitutions—Mildard for Cline; Doudt for Palmer.

BOYS' SECOND TEAM GAME

Winning their first game on the Northville floor, Plymouth defeated Northville by a score of 14 to 12. There was poor basket-shooting on both sides, and the good playing came in spots. The team as a whole, seems to play better each week.

The line-up—Holcomb, l. f.; Grigware, r. f.; Reiman, G.; Ambrose, l. g.; Hickey, r. g.; Northville—Edwards, l. f.; Smith, r. f.; Fraser, G.; LaFerne, l. f.; Crouch, r. g.

Substitutions—Carruthers for Holcomb; Moyer for Grigware; Holcomb for Carruthers; Grigware for Moyer; Hill for Grigware; Carruthers for Reiman; Referee, Winn; umpire, Riley.

An easy game was won by Plymouth from Walled Lake there, with a score of 18 to 12, Friday night.

for Ione Bird, making four points. Plymouth took seven substitutes, all of whom had a chance to play in the latter part of the game, and they showed that they could do good work.

The line-up—l. Bird, forward; E. White, forward; G. Bird, center; J. Whipple, center; G. Hake, guard; E. England, guard. Referee Mr. Banfield.

BAPTIST NOTES

Last Sunday was a red letter day at the Baptist church in Plymouth, and a goodly number came to the first re-opening service of the church. Everyone seemed to be delighted with the new decorations, the new carpet, the re-finished wood-work and seats. Everything had the lustre and freshness, and all felt at home that day, and rejoiced at the "renewal" in the "House of the Lord." The orchestra played the opening selection, then the ordinary service followed. The pastor's theme was, "The Jubilee When the Silver Trumpets Were Blown in the Days of Moses." In olden times it meant release and happiness and a solemn occasion. The choir gave some good selections, and the male quartette sang also, while everyone joined in the hymns with gladness. At the close of the service, the pastor spoke of the deficit of a few hundred dollars, and in about fifteen or twenty minutes it was practically all taken care of, the Ladies' Aid assuming the balance. The committee has worked with the greatest zeal in getting everything in shape, and the church wishes to thank them and all others who have contributed to the repair of the church.

Mrs. Noel's class gave an illustrated exercise. Mrs. Savies class sang, and all enjoyed the music; at the close four young men sang as a quartette. The orchestra assisted in each service, morning and evening.

The B. Y. P. U. was led by Alton Searles, and it was a good meeting. At the close, Ray Howard of Farmington, president of the B. Y. P. U. of the Wayne Association, spoke to the society on "Leadership."

At the opening of the evening service, the young people had a part in the "Kisses" and a brief review of the history of the B. Y. P. U. in the Second Baptist church in Chicago in 1891. Elbert Sear gave the outline of the society for this year in its plan for work.

THE THEATRE

"THE HEART BANDIT" An entertainment of rare quality is promised when Viola Dana's newest picture for Metro, "The Heart Bandit," comes to the Penniman Allen Theatre, Saturday, March 1st.

The situations arising from the unusual association form the basis for many scenes of thrills and comedy, the girl getting into several scrapes that are impossible of solution until a new element—love—enters in.

"PIED PIPER MALONE" Film fans of Plymouth will see in Tom Meighan's new picture, "Pied Piper Malone," coming to the Penniman Allen Theatre next Sunday and Monday, March 2 and 3, a highly original comedian with a high-powered laugh-provoking talent.

"Mile-A-Minute Romeo" When Lambert Hillyer director of "Mile-A-Minute Romeo," Tom Mix's new William Fox production, completed one of its most strenuous scenes he sighed deeply and compared it to Napoleon's retreat from Moscow.

EPISCOPAL NOTES

The service last Sunday was held in the morning, and the rector preached from Matt. 11:3, "Art thou he that should come, or do we look for another?"

A CARD—We desire to thank the friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness during the illness and at the time of the death of Mrs. Rachel Westfall: for the beautiful flowers, those who furnished autos, and all who assisted in any way.

Briefly, it consisted of a cross-country fight, over hill and dale, river and lake, field and marsh. It was wild, hectic, and highly enervating.

Mix rode on the back of a harnessed horse. The horse was pulling a two wheeled racing vehicle on whose seat was another player in the cast. The trio, Mix, the cameraman and the extra player, all experienced the arduousness of making motion pictures, emphatically declared that they never worked so hard in their lives.

AROUND ABOUT US

Case I. Gittins of Milford, and formerly of Plymouth, is a candidate for the office of president of that village.

Ferndale, a Detroit suburb, is showing rapid growth with over 1,100 houses built in 1923, valued at $4,000,000.

The Royal Oak Chamber of Commerce has a membership totaling 650. This large number has been enrolled since 1922.

A Holstein cow belonging to Mulsolf Bros. of South Lyon, has made a very credible record. At the age of nine years and four months this cow produced in seven consecutive days 701 pounds of milk and 28,089 pounds of butterfat—equal to 35.10 pounds of butter. Her thirty-day record is 2,919 pounds of milk and 139.94 pounds of butter.

Three Fenton merchants were out $15 apiece the other day by cashing forged checks for a stranger, who had secured possession of some blank checks on a Fenton bank and used a Fenton man's signature. Then he made purchases for small amounts, receiving the change in cash after tendering the check in payment. Similar swindles have recently been worked on merchants at Holly, Pontiac and Rochester. Watch out for 'em!—Milford Times.

The Ford Motor Company will spend $1,000,000 on a textile factory and other improvements at Flat Rock, according to reports from this Wayne County village. At present the Ford company has a headlight factory at Flat Rock, which employs 300 people. Since the Ford company came to Flat Rock a boom has been on property has increased 100 per cent in value and many new homes have been erected. The Ford company has completed a high tension electric power line from River Rouge to Flat Rock. The company is drilling for glass sand on the Knight farm in Ash township.—Michigan Investor.

All Like to Give Advice.
A funny kink in human nature is that while men dislike to be told facts, they love to tell facts to others, writes Fred Kelly. Nearly everybody is trying to dodge facts. We are all seeking less reality and more fiction. Story books always sell better than those containing plain truths. Indeed, the only way to be sure of having facts read is to dress them up in story form as if they weren't necessarily true. But while we are trying to avoid hearing too many facts, some of which are likely to be unpleasant, what fun it is to meet somebody who will listen to a few of the things we know! Thus we find here a fortunate situation. When we have to learn something, it is not difficult to obtain reliable information. The man who is an authority on almost any subject is willing to drop his work and give first-hand knowledge to any one that comes and asks for it. Indeed, there is no surer way to gain a man's undying friendship than to go to him seeking advice. Even though his time is extremely valuable, the man who knows and knows that he knows, will talk and pass on his knowledge just as long as the caller will listen. In more than twenty-five years' experience as a reporter, I have never yet been refused information by a real authority. The business man who fails to find out what he needs to know has only himself to blame. There is always somebody who would gladly tell him. Even one's competitor will usually answer almost any reasonable question about his business.—Nation's Business.

A CARD—We desire to express our sincere thanks to those who assisted, and for the kindly offers of assistance, and for the many beautiful floral tributes sent us in our recent bereavement.

PATCHEN SCHOOL NOTES

The following children are out of school on account of the mumps: Henrietta Gohl, Glenford Green, George Gibbo, Violetta Gibbo, Charles Green, Marvin Green, Katherine Green, Dorothy Gohl and Benjamin Gohl.

The seventh and eighth grade children are having map work on Africa. Esther Stewart, Evelyn Thompson, Edna Leonard, Earl Fick stood up in a test of the multiplication tables.

The seventh and eighth grades are reading the King Arthur stories. The fourth grade children are making maps of South America, in their geography lessons.

The third and fourth grades are working hard on their base ball contest with the multiplication tables. John Parrish and Lillian Kolesky are captains in the second grade, and so far John Parrish's team is ahead. Mary Schultz and Raymond Urbanak are captains of the third grade, Raymond's team being way ahead.

Looking over the score for both sides, shows that all have improved immensely in this work. Be sure and attend the box shadow social held at the Patchen school March 6th, at eight o'clock. The children are going to give a short program, and we are going to have a speaker. Oh, yes, and a fish pond and many other exciting things will occur, and so come! The funds will go towards paying for the phonograph.
