PLYMOUTH HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS' BASKET BALL TEAM, CHAMPIONS FOR 1924

It is with much pleasure that we are enabled this week to present a half-tone picture of the girls' basketball team of the Plymouth High school, winners of the championship of the Suburban High School League, which consists of Dearborn, Wayne, Redford, Farmington, Northville and Plymouth High schools. The winning of the championship and the silver cup offered by the league, is the fourth time within five years that the girls' team of the local high school has succeeded in winning a competitive championship. The four championships were won in 1920, 1921, 1923 and 1924. Each member of the team has played splendid basketball, and the teamwork which they have displayed in every game, has counted greatly in the number of points which they have made. The team has been under the training of Miss Alice Beals, director of physical education in the public schools, and she, together with the members of the team, are to be congratulated in winning the championship of 1924.

Plymouth citizens have taken much interest in the games that have been played here the past winter, and everybody is proud of the record made by the champions. The following are the games that have been played, and resulting scores:

- Plymouth, 16; Birmingham, 31.
- Plymouth, 29; Walled Lake, 7.
- Plymouth, 22; Northville, 31.
- Plymouth, 21; Ypsi. Independents, 8.
- Plymouth, 41; Dearborn, 20.
- Plymouth, 20; Farmington, 12.
- Plymouth, 27; Redford, 25.
- Plymouth, 46; Northville, 36.
- Plymouth, 41; Walled Lake, 4.
- Plymouth, 26; Dearborn, 26.
- Plymouth, 23; Farmington, 13.
- Plymouth, 34; Redford, 31.

ROTARY CLUB HEARS SPLENDID TALK.

At the noon day luncheon of the Plymouth Rotary Club, last Friday, the members of the club had the pleasure of hearing a splendid talk by Hugh E. Van de Walker of Ypsilanti. Mr. Van de Walker has been prominent in Rotarian work for a number of years, and had a most enlightening and interesting message for the members of the newly organized club. The speaker confined his talk mainly to the aims and purposes of Rotary. He said that there were Rotary Clubs in every country of the world today, but one, and that Rotary is a spirit of practical service to the community, the individual and their crafts. The speaker said that the Rotary Club did not conflict with the work of the Chamber of Commerce, but on the other hand the Rotary Club was an existing agency to serve the community with its members through that agency. Mr. Van de Walker has served Rotary International as chairman of the committee on the department of boys' work, and he told something of the great work Rotary International was doing in that line. The speaker held the closest attention of his hearers throughout his talk, and it is the hope of the club that they may have Mr. Van de Walker with them again in the near future.

LUTHERANS DEDICATE CHURCH

MANY ATTEND THE IMPRESSIVE SERVICES AT EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN ST. PETER'S CHURCH LAST SUNDAY.

Last Sunday was a memorable day for the Evangelical Lutheran St. Peter's congregation of Plymouth, the dedication of its remodeled and enlarged church being the great festival event of the day. Although the weather was not very favorable, a large crowd waited at the door, when Rev. Charles Strasen, with his two assistants, Rev. F. Krauss and Rev. E. Rupp, appeared to open the church.

Two verses of an appropriate hymn—neatly printed programs had been handed to all present—were sung, when the contractor, Samuel J. Winters, handed the keys to the pastor, who again turned them over to the chairman of the building committee, H. J. Fisher. A few solemn words were spoken by the pastor, while Mr. Fisher opened the front doors. The pastors leading the procession, with the deacons and the building committee following, the congregation entered the church, the church bell ringing, while a march was played on the beautiful organ by Prof. R. Held. All seats were soon taken, and chairs had to be placed and many had to stand.

The church had been nicely decorated with baskets of cut flowers, bouquets and palms, and two floral pieces in memory of the late members, Fred Beyer and William Hillmer. After the singing of a hymn, the dedicatory prayers were read by the local pastor, assisted by Rev. Krauss and Rev. Rupp. This part of the service was very impressive. Rev. Krauss, president of the Synod, then delivered a fine sermon in German, touching the hearts of all.

The afternoon and evening services were in English. Rev. E. Rupp preaching in the afternoon and Rev. E. Rupp in the evening. In both sermons it was made clear, that a church is to be the house of the Lord, because the Lord, according to His promise, is present there and speaks to us through His word and the mouth of the preacher, and with His word blesses us, so His church becomes unto us a gate of heaven. In all the services, Prof. R. Held sang solos, appropriate to the occasion, and in the afternoon service, Prof. Held and Miss Esther Strasen sang the 84th Psalm. Miss Hanna Strasen accompanied the singers on the pipe organ.

The collections, which were taken in all the services, brought the amount of $350 into the building fund. The Ladies' Aid society served a splendid chicken dinner and supper to all present. Six to seven hundred people were fed from the well equipped kitchen in the splendid dining hall in the basement of the church. The free will offering netted the ladies' society about $400. The newly remodeled church is one of the finest in the village, and many were the expressions of surprise heard on every side, as the people marveled at the wonderful changes that had taken place. The Lutheran society has every reason to feel proud of its place of worship, and the splendid success which crowned the efforts in its dedication last Sunday.

Through the columns of the Mail, the pastor and the members of the church wish to convey their thanks and appreciation to all who made the day such a success by their help and attendance.

LUMBER FACTS

We are producing in this country only about as much lumber as was produced in 1890, and yet we have 35,000,000 more people to care for, to say nothing of over-seas needs. In that period the standing timber of the country has not only decreased from about three thousand billion feet to a little more than two thousand billion, but what remains is now much farther away from the center of gravity of consumption.

These lumber facts are going to be pretty well understood by the people, and the man who wants to build a frame house or a house of some other construction into which wood largely enters, will feel that considering that his house will last a generation or longer, he can hardly make a mistake by buying lumber now.

VILLAGE COMMISSION START NEW YEAR

J. W. HENDERSON RE-ELECTED PRESIDENT OF THE COMMISSION FOR THE ENSUING YEAR

The village commission met for the last session of the fiscal year, Monday evening, and after transacting a few remaining items of business adjourned sine die. The new commission was then called to order by Sidney D. Strong, village clerk. The first action of the new commission was the election of a president for the coming year. John W. Henderson, who has filled the office most satisfactorily for several years, was the unanimous choice of the members of the commission for this important office, and he was duly elected. Mr. Henderson, in a few well chosen words, thanked the members of the commission for the honor which had been conferred upon him.

No appointments were made Monday evening. The village manager was instructed to enter into a contract with the Badger Meter Co. for the usual number of meters to be installed during the year.

Manager Strong reported that he had a tentative proposition from the County Roads Commission, whereby it may be possible to have the pavement on South Main street widened to a width of 36 feet in the near future. This would be a fine improvement and also one badly needed.

Among them was one sent by the employees of the H. S. Lee Foundry & Machine Co. The floral pieces testified that she was held in high esteem by all who knew her. PLYMOUTH BOY SCOUT RECEIVES SPECIAL HONORS.

Next to the highest honor and rank that any Boy Scout in the United States can receive was bestowed upon Robert Tefft of Plymouth Troop No. 1, of the Boy Scouts of America, last Wednesday evening, at the regular meeting of the troop.

In the presence of the members of the troop and Troop Committee, and the parents of Scout Tefft, Troop Committeeman Strong presented with fitting words, the badge which makes Scout Tefft a Star Scout. This is the second highest rank that a boy scout can attain, the highest being Eagle Scout. These various ranks are earned, not merely given free for all, by attaining a certain amount of merit badges. A certain number are required before a scout can become a Life, then a Star, and finally an Eagle Scout. Tefft received both his Life and Star ranks last week, being the first scout in Plymouth to attain this coveted position locally.

In order to attain Life Scout a boy must prove to the satisfaction of a Court of Honor, composed of five business men of the community, and their report must be passed upon by a National Court of Honor, his proficiency in the following subjects: Pioneering, physical development, personal health, public health, and first aid, for each of which a scout receives a Merit Badge, to be worn upon his sleeve. To become a Star Scout, he must in addition earn any other five Merit Badges. Scout Tefft has successfully qualified in the following Merit Badge requirements in addition to the above mentioned: Swimming, firemanship, carpentry, electricity, craftsmanship in wood, and automobile. For Eagle Scout, one must qualify in ten other Merit Badges. Tefft already has one to his credit toward Eagle Scout.

A number of other Merit Badges were given to three other members of the local troop the same evening, which bring them near to being Life Scouts, namely: William Rambo, Edwin Schrader, Allan Strong. The troop is proud of the record of these boys, especially its first Life and Star Scout. Plymouth citizens ought also to be proud of them and encourage other boys to follow the same path.

AROUND ABOUT US

James Simons, a pioneer of Wayne, is dead. He was a civil war veteran. Production at the newly acquired plant of the Gottfredson Truck Co. at Wayne, is soon to commence. Farmington's centennial celebration dates have been set for June 19, 20, 21. William H. Yerkes heads the Republican ticket for supervisor of Northville, and Fred E. VanAtta for the same office on the Democrat ticket. When Emily Mutter played recently at the home of a wealthy lady in Detroit, who had invited in a number of her friends, she was asked as to her violin. The guests said if she could play like that on a $35 instrument what could she do with a good violin. Edsel Ford headed the list with a hundred dollar subscription towards a $1,200 violin. Miss Mutter initiated the new violin at the Howell Woman's reception last week.—Republican. A new company has been formed at Northville to take over the property of the American Bell & Foundry Co., and to continue the manufacture of furnaces in Northville. It is the plan of the new company to push the furnace business with enthusiasm and vigor. The business and professional men of Plymouth have organized a Rotary club, and will hold weekly meetings each Friday noon. The popularity of these luncheon clubs is spreading rapidly about the state and many villages and small cities now have them. They are not only of very great mutual advantage to the members, but they are of great benefit to the communities where they are located. Twenty or thirty men, all working in harmony for the good of the community and for the upbuilding of its enterprises and institutions, can accomplish a great deal. Plymouth is to be congratulated that an organization has been formed there.—Northville Record.

DO NOT PLANT UNTESTED SEED CORN.

The seed corn situation this spring is very serious. Corn matured slowly last fall, consequently went into the winter with a high moisture content, and just naturally is bound to show poor germination this spring.

Only kiln dried corn should be used for seed, and then every ear should be tested. A convenient tester is "The Rag Doll." This is probably the most rapid and efficient method for testing corn. It consists of a piece of cloth about four feet long, marked in squares so that the kernels from each ear can be placed on the cloth and the cloth rolled up. Moisten the cloth with water and put in a warm place, using caution not to let it dry. A good way is to put several rolls on end in a bucket so they can be moistened easily. After ten days unroll the cloth and count the kernels showing strong germination. Discard all ears showing dead or weak germinating kernels.

Do not buy any corn unless you know the percentage of germination.

WE MIGHT TRY THIS

Here is a suggestion for making our highways safer that we feel sure few people around Plymouth have considered, but which is so logical and so easy to put into practice that we believe they will endorse it without hesitancy.

The California Automobile Association has just started a movement to induce pedestrians to walk on the left-hand side of the roads. They point out that in walking on the left hand side the walker is facing the direction from which danger is likely to come. Right-minded and responsible motorists drive on the right-hand side of the road. Only a drunken, or reckless, or indifferent driver could harm a person keeping to the left-hand side, under ordinary conditions. The habit would also be helpful to the motorist. There would be no need to turn farther to the center of the road to miss hitting someone or maybe collide with a car coming from the opposite direction; there would be no crowding the walker off into a ditch or mud-hole. Coming in the other direction, or from behind the walker, the driver could easily swerve just enough to pass him without danger to either party. They equip automobiles with left-hand drives because it has long been found to be the safest. So why shouldn't left-hand walking also prove safest?

It wouldn't hurt to try it, next time you have occasion to walk along a highway. Keep to the left-hand side of the road and see how much greater your measure of safety will be.

A BELATED SPRING

Spring is going to be behind time this year, the best "weather sharks" in the country tell us. Seldom has a February passed without a generous thaw, and not often has a March clung on to low temperatures in most sections of the country as tenaciously as this. But we are getting around to warm days, which leads us to suggest to gardeners about Plymouth that they don't enthusiasm to get the better of them, and start planting too early. Better to watch weather conditions a little, and keep a close eye on the thermometer, than to do a lot of work that will have to be done over, a lot of planting that will only mean replanting or total loss. There is time ahead for gardening, for sowing all kinds of seeds, for pruning and spraying trees and vines and shrubs. So don't let a warm day or two tempt you to become too active. Just have everything ready to pitch right in when you are sure the temperature has gone up to stay—and then if you feel you've lost time you can easily make it up by working a little faster.

Today's Reflections

About the only tax-free securities a poor man can collect is his treasure in heaven.

Women appear to have good taste in everything else but picking out a man's neckties.

Most Plymouth men can make both ends meet. But only a few can make them lap over so they can tie a hitch-knot in them.

The Kansas City woman who was awarded one cent damages for a kiss probably feels that it doesn't pay to advertise.

We overheard a Plymouth citizen say yesterday that a doctor is a man who advises you to take a trip for your health when he knows you can't afford it.

Most any first-class whittler can think up a hundred things a fellow ought to be able to make a fortune out of.

We heard a Plymouth man say yesterday that a pessimist is a fellow who, when offered the lesser of two evils, takes both.

Machine guns are all right, but the quickest way to disperse a crowd is to take up a collection.

What has become of the Plymouth father who put on his war paint every time his daughter put on some of the drug store kind?

Our idea of hard luck is to ask some fellow to sing you know can't sing, and then have him consent to do so.

One thing every auto driver has to admit, and that is that he can't get much mileage out of the gas that comes from the back seat.

Maybe you haven't noticed it, but a woman never discovers what a good detective she is until after she gets married.

The way things are going even the man who burned the midnight oil will have a hard time explaining if he gets into politics.

We also observed that quite a few

Plymouth people spend a good deal of energy trying to find out things they don't want to know.

To the hungry man a head of cabbage boiling with a piece of corned beef in the pot has a sweeter odor than a bunch of violets.

One kind of citizen we don't like to encounter on the streets of Plymouth is the fellow who enjoys telling others what not to do.

CROP REPORT

The stocks of corn and oats on farms of Michigan are less than one year ago but the supply of wheat held its own according to the crop report issued today by L. Whitney Watkins, Commissioner of Agriculture, and Owen L. Dawson, Agricultural Statistician, U. S. Bureau of Agricultural Economics. Stocks of hay held are considerably below those of last year. The stocks of corn and oats for the United States are more and the stocks of wheat less than one year ago.

WHEAT: The supplies of wheat on Michigan farms on March 1 this year are estimated at 24 per cent of the total crop, which is a higher percentage than was shown last year and the ten-year average. This is equivalent to 3,849,000 bushels compared with 2,865,000 bushels last year and 3,413,000 bushels in 1922. It is estimated that 49 per cent is shipped out of the county where grown. The United States as a whole reports a reserve of 133,871 bushels against 155,474 last year.

CORN: While the official figures show that Michigan has 19,195,000 bushels of corn on farms March 1, if allowance is made for one-third of the crop which goes into silos the actual grain holdings are reduced to 12,797,000 bushels which is a lower reserve than the amount shown for the preceding two years figure on the same basis. Only a few sections produce a surplus above their needs. It is estimated that five per cent is shipped out of the county where produced. The quality of Michigan's 1923 corn crop is only 70 compared with 83 a year ago. Much of the corn was not fully matured and held a high per cent of moisture. The United States' reserves of corn are estimated at 1,153,175,000 bushels compared with 1,093,306,000 bushels one year ago.

OATS: The amount of oats remaining on Michigan farms March 1 this year was 1,200,000 bushels less than last year, but the production in 1923 was about 2,000,000 less than in 1922. The percentage of the crop held on farms is below the ten-year average. The reserves of oats in the United States are estimated at 444,810,000 bushels against 421,118,000 bushels on farms one year ago. Nineteen per cent of the Michigan crop will be shipped out of the counties where grown. This is a less percentage than last year or the ten-year average.

BARLEY: The stocks of barley are estimated at 684,000 bushels, which is more than last year, but less than the amount shown in 1922. Very little is sold off the farms and it is estimated that only ten per cent is shipped out of the counties where grown. Stocks of barley in the United States are higher than for the two previous years.

HAY: Hay reserves on Michigan farms on March 1 are reported at 30 per cent of last year's production, which is equivalent to 1,174,000 tons compared with the heavy reserve of 1,694,000 tons shown on last March. Production last year fell considerably below that of 1922, and continued heavy feeding demands has resulted in lighter stocks on farms than one year ago. The amount estimated shipped out of county is only 20 per cent compared with 25 per cent last year.

PRESBYTERIAN NOTES

Alma College reports that contributions totaling $455.04 have been received from members of the Plymouth Presbyterian Church during the current year. Presbyterian young people intending to enter college next year should consider this school.

At the vesper service at four o'clock next Sunday afternoon, the pastor will speak briefly on "Christianity and Music." This will take the place of the evening service. The Session will meet at the close of the service to receive applications for membership.

All who receive the Lord Jesus Christ as their personal Saviour and desire to make public profession of their faith and are willing to walk in fellowship with Christian people are prepared for membership in the Presbyterian church. Those who have not been baptized in infancy are baptized at the time of their public reception. Application blanks may be had of the pastor.

There is a Presbyterian family living at 660 Holbrook avenue, and another at 954 Mill street. Call on them.

We congratulate the Lutheran people upon their fine new auditorium. Their church has always stood staunchly "for the faith which was once for all delivered unto the saints," and is one of Plymouth's real assets.

METHODIST NOTES

Tomorrow night at 8:00—Albion College Glee Club in a concert at the church. One of the best things you've heard in a long time.

Sunday evening at the close of the service, Miss Marie Johnson will give her oration on "Darkness and Light," which won the recent Pontiac Group Epworth League Missionary Oratorical Contest. She is to give this same oration in a District Contest a week from Saturday at the Young People's Conference at Ypsilanti, the 4th and 5th.

This Young People's Conference of Ann Arbor District opens next Friday night with a big banquet, and continues through Saturday, with a program of special interest to young folks. We want a large number of our young people to go.

One week from Sunday, our Easter meetings begin. A real warm-up-the-heart revival. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Preston will be in charge of the music, both of whom are talented and capable leaders. You will richly enjoy their leadership. The pastor will do the preaching each night except Saturday. Big song service starts at 7:15.

Northville Methodism is experiencing a splendid revival which closes its meetings April 6. We are invited to attend the meeting next Monday night in a body. Those who have autos and can go, be at the church at 7:00. Those who haven't autos, and do not find room in any of the cars, can take the 7:07 street car. Evangelist Forsythe and son of Detroit, are in charge of the meetings.

Tuesday night the committee on Spiritual Activities and those related with our plans for special meetings will meet at the church for pot-luck supper to discuss final preparations for meetings, at 6:15. Official Board will follow at 8:00.

Cottage prayer meetings will be held on Wednesday night next week at 7:30, at the following places: With Brother and Sister Pinckney, 556 Mill street; with Brother and Sister O. F. Curtis, 324 Ann street; and with Brother and Sister Scott, 282 Ann Arbor street.

The general prayer service will be at the church on Thursday evening at 7:30.

The Ladies' Aid meets for its monthly business and social gathering on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30, at the church.

Next Friday night at 7:30, Company B repeats the home talent play, "The Country Minister," at the High school. Prices, 35c and 25c. Proceeds to be given to the Building Fund.

Tomorrow night, the Glee Club concert.

"Price Class"

the mysterious stranger in the motor industry

Does a difference in price indicate a difference in quality? Why is one car priced 25% to 50% higher than another of the same quality? The 4 questions that a buyer should ask when considering any car.

HERE are facts based on world's engineering authority. If you have any intention of buying an automobile, you are urged to read them.

No "Price Class"

There are only two kinds of automobiles today. Economically produced cars which give you more for your money. And cars which are not, and give you less.

Price does not indicate intrinsic worth. But an individual maker's cost of production.

Hence two cars may show a price difference of $400 to $1,200 and more. And be of the same quality.

The difference in price simply shows that it cost one maker more to make this car than the other. Judging value on price, this is folly. Price class is a myth.

Where the Difference Comes in Studebaker, producing 150,000 cars yearly, has reduced engineering cost to $3.33 per car.

This is based on a total engineering cost of $500,000 a year, which is the least on which any manufacturer can maintain an efficient engineering department.

Thus a manufacturer producing but 20,000 cars a year must add $25 per car for engineering, or eight times as much as Studebaker.

Other fixed overheads have been reduced proportionately. And these influence Studebaker prices.

A set of body dies costs $100,000. It will produce many thousand sets of body stampings, each one as perfect as though there were only a dozen made.

By building 50,000 bodies from a single set of dies, Studebaker reduces the die cost per body to only $2.00.

The average small manufacturer whose volume will enable him to build only 5,000 bodies from a set of dies in the same time in which Studebaker builds 50,000 has to charge each body $20 for die cost. The difference of $18 is in the price but not in the body. The customer pays it but he gets nothing tangible for it. It is one of the penalties of uneconomical manufacture.

Thus a car priced at $1,200 to $1,400 can be sold as low as $1045 when produced economically in quantity.

Why Studebaker excels the world in body building

For 72 years Studebaker has been a builder of quality vehicles.

This historical tradition has been inbred in generation after generation of coach-makers. And the Indiana city of South Bend is known as a world-Mecca of artisans of this craft.

In the modern $10,000,000 Studebaker body plants, there are sons and fathers and grandfathers working side by side. Their religion is fine coach building. And this is reflected in their work.

As fine body builders, Studebaker stands supreme. No other maker has the experience of Studebaker. No other the Studebaker traditions to inspire him.

Such a car is the Studebaker Light-Six Touring Car, at $1045. A clear difference of between $155 to $355.

The uneconomical manufacturer is not profiting. He is unfortunately situated, that is all.

Equalled Only by Costliest Foreign and American Makes

All Studebaker models are equipped with Timken bearings. There are few cars in America, regardless of price, which equal ours on this point. In our Light-Six, for instance, we put more Timken bearings than are used in any competitive car, within $1,500 of its price.

We subject Studebaker cars to 30,000 inspections. That requires 1,200 men. All told over 70,000 hand and machine operations are performed in the manufacture of a Studebaker car. In so many operations, though each one is small, there is great opportunity for economy and savings. 15% premium is paid on many steels to insure Studebaker specifications instead of "commercial run" used in cars many times Studebaker price.

No finer car can be built than the Studebaker of today. Only famous foreign cars and the most costly of American cars, compare.

See a Studebaker—Then Decide

Buy no car until you've seen a Studebaker. Go over it, point for point. Consult any unbiased expert. Ask your banker. And you will own a Studebaker.

Get an Answer to These 4 Questions Before Buying Any Car

- 1—Is this an assembled car? Or "partly" assembled. Insist on this answer. Assembled cars pay a profit to from 75 to 100 parts makers alone.
- 2—What sort of bearings? Studebakers are Timken-equipped. Everlasting smoothness and quiet performance result.
- 3—How many cars a year does this maker produce? Small productions mean either a higher price or cheaper car.
- 4—What sort of upholstery? Studebaker closed models are done in Chase Mohair, the finest material for this purpose known. Open models are upholstered in genuine leather.

PLYMOUTH DRAWS TWO HARD TEAMS
(Reported by Ralph Burch)
At the annual class B basket ball tournament held in Ypsilanti, last week-end, Plymouth boys were eliminated in the first round by Birmingham by a score of 30 to 7. The game was hard fought, but Plymouth could not find the basket.
In the consolation series, Plymouth drew the strong Howell team, who were eliminated by Wyandotte, 9 to 6. Our team played the best game of the season against Howell, but lost by the score of 27 to 12. Howell was the winner of the consolation series and Wyandotte winners of the Class B series.
Our attention will be turned to base ball, and Coach Coatta is hoping that we will have a more successful season in this than in the one just ended.

BOYS SECOND TEAM GAME
(Reported by Ralph Burch)
By the score of 10 to 3, Strathmoor's first team defeated Plymouth's second team boys at Strathmoor, Friday, March 21, the game being a good deal more than the score would indicate. Streater of Strathmoor got four baskets in the first half. Plymouth's defense in the last half was the best of the season, the whole team playing very well. Although the refereeing was liberal, the game was fairly clean.
During this season, Plymouth's second team has won seven out of ten games, winning once from each team played. Score at the end of half, 8 to 3.
Following is the line-up:
Plymouth—Grigware, L.; Holcomb, f.; Reiman, c.; Carruthers, g.; Ambrus, g.
Strathmoor—Jackson, f.; Downey, f.; Culbert, c.; Streater, g.; Kroh, g.
Substitutions—Plymouth: Henie for Ambrus, Lockwood for Grigware, Cummins for Lockwood, Grigware for Cummins, Ambrus for Henie, Draper for Reiman, Mills for Carruthers.

C. of C. NOTES

Every member of the C. of C. has received the first of a series of monthly letters, compiled by Secretary H. S. Lee, giving briefly the doings of the C. of C. for the past month. These monthly letters will contain much interesting information, and should receive the careful perusal of every member.

There was a large attendance of property owners at the regular meeting of the C. of C. last Tuesday evening. The matter of listing property with the C. of C. information booth was discussed at some length, and the matter was left with the secretary for further investigation. The handsome new seal, designed by Secretary Lee was displayed to the members present, and everybody was greatly pleased with it. The seal, which has also been adopted by the village, will be available for the use of the business houses on their stationery, etc., if sanctioned by the Chamber of Commerce and by permission of the Village Commission.

The C. of C. is planning an extensive advertising program that is bound to bring results in making a bigger and better Plymouth. Work has commenced on the new information booth. Henry J. Fisher has supervision of the work.

ALBION COLLEGE GLEE CLUB COMES TO PLYMOUTH.

One of the fine features of entertainment and inspiration that is coming to Plymouth, is to be here on Saturday night of this week in the nature of a concert by the Albion College Glee Club, which is touring this section of the state during their spring vacation. A group of twenty college boys, a selection of the best singers on the campus, will present some of the finest singing and entertainment that can be asked for. The Club is under the personal direction of Prof. Rexford D. Colburn, of the Conservatory of Music of Albion College. The concert will be interspersed with solos and quartet numbers and other features. We are delighted to notice also that the program includes a series of readings by Kenneth Bartlett, who graduated from Plymouth High school last year, and is in attendance at Albion this year. The boys, touring in a special automobile bus, will arrive in Plymouth about 6:00 o'clock Saturday evening, after a concert over the radio in the afternoon, from Detroit. The program will be given at the Methodist church, next to the school house, at 8:00 p. m., under the auspices of the Methodist church choir, and the proceeds will be used to apply on the building fund for the new Community House, which the Methodists are planning to construct in the near future.

Admission to this unusual concert is 35c for all school pupils, and 50c for all others. Tickets are on sale at Kimball's Music Store, Parrott's office and at Drake Sletzer's, or they can be purchased from the boys and girls who are selling them from house to house. Come early and get a good seat.

AUCTION SALE

A combination sale of Household Furniture will be held at the late home of Mrs. Orson Westfall, West Ann Arbor street, on Thursday, April 3rd, at 1:00 o'clock. House will be open for inspection of goods from 9:00 a. m., on day of sale. Terms—cash. H. C. Robinson, Auctioneer. EDWARD EVERETT, E. N. PASSAGE, Commissioners.

LOCAL NEWS

The Past Noble Grand Club was entertained by Mrs. George Meddaugh, Wednesday afternoon, at a luncheon party. Mrs. D. T. Randall and Mrs. Florence Webber entertained the Leap Year Bridge Club at the home of the former, yesterday afternoon.

The Mail has received a line from Alfred Strasen, who is a member of Fisher's Exposition Orchestra of Kalamazoo, stating they have closed their season at Miami, Florida, and they are now playing engagements in a number of southern cities. Alfred says many of the Florida cities would give a good deal if they had a band like the former Millard band.

There has been many complaints regarding the dog nuisance in the village, and Village Manager Strong was in Detroit Monday, and conferred with the county authorities regarding the matter, and it is now hoped that something will soon be done to get some action in this matter. The large number of dogs running at large without a license should be taken care of.

Rev. Charles Strasen was most agreeably surprised one day last week, when he found that the pastor's study in the nearby Methodist Lutheran church had been completely furnished with rug and furniture, through the generosity of F. D. Schrader. Rev. Strasen is very appreciative of Mr. Schrader's thoughtfulness in providing these useful and beautiful gifts.

William Wood attended the annual convention and "Bring Home the Bacon" contest of the Peoria Life insurance agents of the state, held at Ypsilanti, Monday. The contest opened February 1st and ended March 24th. Mr. Wood topped the list in the Wayne district. He brought home a big load of "hogs." Bill says to watch for his children's insurance ad in the Mail in the near future.

The lecturer has a special feature on the program for April 3rd, and feels it will be appreciated by all. Arrangements for the 50th anniversary celebration for Thursday, April 10th, are progressing nicely. A chicken pie dinner will be served from 5:30 p. m. until all are served. The evening meeting will be addressed by the Master of the State Grange, A. B. Cook, of Owosso. The public is urged to attend both features.

GRANGE NOTES

The Lily Club held a very successful meeting at Mr. and Mrs. Perry Campbell's the 18th, about fifty being in attendance. All enjoyed a pleasant evening.
