LUMBER FACTS

We are producing in this country only about as much lumber as was produced in 1890, and yet we have 35,000,000 more people to care for, to say nothing of over-seas needs. In that period the standing timber of the country has not only decreased from about three thousand billion feet to a little more than two thousand billion, but what remains is now much farther away from the center of gravity of consumption.

These lumber facts are going to be pretty well understood by the people, and the man who wants to build a frame house or a house of some other construction into which wood largely enters, will feel that considering that his house will last a generation or longer, he can hardly make a mistake by buying lumber now.

STOCKHOLDERS OF NEW BANK MEET

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS OF NEW PEOPLE'S STATE BANK ELECTED WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

A meeting of the stockholders of the newly organized People's State Bank was held at Plymouth Hotel, Wednesday afternoon, and elected the following officers and directors:

President and Manager—John B. Hubert.
Vice President—Frank Rambo.
Cashier—Floyd Kehrl.
Chairman of Board—George Robinson.
Directors—Arthur Blunk, J. B. Hubert, J. L. Johnson, Frank Rambo, J. L. Olsaver, T. E. Johnson, John Patterson, George Robinson and H. C. Shaffmaster.

J. B. Hubert, president and manager, comes from Lansing to make his home in Plymouth. He has had over twenty-one years of experience in State and National banks in Michigan, and is very well known in banking circles.

The bank has bought the property at 833 Penniman avenue, owned by Frank Rambo, and work of remodeling has already begun. A stone front will be put in, and the building will be equipped with all the up-to-date facilities for good banking.

The bank has a capital of $50,000 and $10,000 surplus, which is fully subscribed, and held mostly by Plymouth people. It will conduct both a commercial and savings department, and will pay four per cent on savings deposits.

The officers and stockholders have explicit faith in the future of Plymouth. It is a well known fact for a city the size of Detroit, its suburban privileges are negligible at the present time, but with the proposed suburban service, and the paved highways, it is a safe forecast that Plymouth will continue to develop very rapidly.

WOMAN'S CLUB HEARS YPSILANTI PLAYERS

The Woman's Club was most fortunate on its thirty-first birthday, last Friday, and the members and guests who taxed the capacity of the Penniman Allen theatre, will always remember it.

The big treat was through the influence of Mrs. F. F. Bennett of Ypsilanti, a non-resident member, who with her husband are members of the Ypsilanti Players, a most talented organization of people, whose object is the serious study of the drama and the best writers of the day.

At 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Charles Humphries gave a hearty address of welcome, and presented Daniel T. Quirk, without whom there would be no Ypsilanti Players, and he explained the origin, history and purpose of this very interesting club. It is the usual plan of the club to give three plays, one of which is serious, one a fantasy and one comedy. "The First and the Last," by John Galsworthy, presented F. F. Bennett as Keith Darrant, K. C., to his Plymouth admirers, who were more than pleased with his splendid portrayal. The fantasy "The Beggar and the King," by Parkhurst, while the comedy "Christopher Morley's" "The Great Gatsby" is of humor in many respects, and was so well rendered that Kenneth parts perfectly.

The day was not filled with so much kindness, and the interest of the theatre manager, the Ypsilanti Players was appreciated by them and by the man's Club and guests.

The regular business meeting was held in the club rooms at an hour. One item might interest many people—the remaining cook books are reduced to fifty cents, making a very practical and enjoyable gift. Order at once of Mrs. F. B. Park.

COUNTY ROAD WORK STARTS

WAYNE COUNTY ROAD COMMISSIONERS LAUNCH BIGGEST PROGRAM IN HISTORY OF COUNTY.

An order went out from the Wayne County Road Commission, last Saturday, which set in motion the spring work on engineering projects, totaling $4,000,000, to be completed this year. This will be the greatest year of road work in the county's history, although Wayne county has more yardage of improved highways than any like area in the world.

Aside from the new stretches of pavements, the other improvements call for grade separations at a half dozen railroad crossings, construction of new bridges, widening of several highways, purchase of right of way for new roads, and the planting of thousands of trees. (That part of the program which will be of particular interest to Plymouth is as follows:

Plymouth road: To be concreted from Division road to the village of Plymouth.
Middle Belt road: To be concreted from Eureka south to Huron River drive. Same road from Plymouth road north to county line to be taken over by county, graded and concreted.

Telegraph road: To be concreted from Grand River to Michigan avenue.
Five Mile road: To be concreted from Telegraph road to Middle Belt road.

Penniman road: To be concreted from Plymouth westward to county line.

Ann Arbor road: To be concreted from Plymouth village to county line.

The Plymouth road paving will be done as a Federal aid project. The Federal and State governments together will pay 75 per cent of the cost; the county the remainder.
Five Mile road, connecting Fenkell avenue and Twelfth street in Detroit, will be completed in 1924 to give a direct route to Plymouth and Northville, crossing Davison, Grand River, Telegraph north and Wayne north and connecting the Northville-Phoenix road near the House of Correction. This work will be completed early to form a quick and easy detour to Plymouth road during its construction.

GLEE CLUB GAVE SPLENDID CONCERT

The entertainment given by the Albion College Glee Club at the Methodist church, last Saturday evening, was well attended. The Glee Club is made up of twenty college boys, and they are real entertainers. Every number on the program was high class, and pleased the audience immensely. The club was under the personal direction of Prof. Rexford D. Colburn of the Conservatory of Music of Albion College, who was also the accompanist. The program was well balanced, and besides the song numbers by the Glee Club, there was a cello number by Clyde Marsh and a violin number by Frank Gough. The baritone solos by Ralph Chrysler were especially pleasing.

One of the numbers on the program that was of particular interest to Plymouth friends, was the readings given by Kenneth Bartlett, one of our own Plymouth boys, who is a student at Albion College. "The Whirligig of Life" and "So Was I" were so well rendered that Kenneth was so well rendered that Kenneth had to respond to an encore.

It was a splendid entertainment, and the Methodist church choir, under whose auspices the concert was given, netted a nice little sum, which was applied to the building fund of the new Community House that will build in the near future. The Ypsilanti Players gave a very interesting play, "The Great Gatsby," at the Plymouth Hotel, April 2nd. All members of the club and their families were present, about seventy-five being present. The play was being given at the Plymouth Hotel, being a toast to the club upon several members of the club which was given by the club. The play was a very interesting one, and the entire evening was spent playing and dancing. Everybody enjoyed the fine time.

WILL BUILD ADDITION TO BRANCH BANK

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Plymouth United Savings Bank, Tuesday evening, the board voted to build an addition to the branch bank building in north village, and plans and specifications are now being prepared and the work will be completed during the coming season. The growth of the business of the bank necessitates more office room to facilitate the work. The board of directors also voted to pay four per cent interest on savings accounts, beginning June 1st next.

"WHITE SISTER" COMING TO LOCAL THEATRE

On another page of this paper will be found a half page advertisement announcing the coming to the Penniman Allen theatre, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, April 6, 7 and 8, "The White Sister," starring Lillian Gish. This is truly one of the most notable productions in motion picture history. Lillian Gish has achieved the best work of her career, and has created a part that will long be remembered. "The White Sister" is acclaimed by the press in all the large cities where it has been shown, as the biggest and best motion picture of all time.

In connection with the showing of this picture, the newest thing in motion picture history, called plastergrams, will be used. Each individual will be furnished with special colored glasses to view this wonderful invention. You have never seen anything like it.

Manager Lush was fortunate in securing this picture for Plymouth at this time, and although it has been showing in the larger cities at $2.00 prices, the patrons of the local theatre will be enabled to see this wonderful production at 55c for adults and 25c for children. Because of the length of this picture there will only be one show each night, starting at 7:00 o'clock.

"The White Sister" is now running in its second week at the Adams theatre in Detroit, and drawing immense crowds. We predict record-breaking crowds when the picture is shown here, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, April 6, 7 and 8, as everybody will want to see Lillian Gish in F. Marion Crawford's famous story.

"THE COUNTRY MINISTER" TONIGHT

The play, "The Country Minister," will be repeated in the high school auditorium, this Friday evening, April 4th. The entire proceeds of the evening will go toward the building fund of the M. E. church. Come and enjoy an evening's pleasure and help boost for the new Community House. Admission, 35c and 25c.—Advertisement.

"GOOD OLD DAYS"

Talking to a pioneer Plymouth citizen recently we said something about "the good old days," and he smiled and told us a few things that made us wonder if they were as good as they were cracked up to be. He said as late as 1875 a blacksmith made about $2.30 a day, a common laborer, $1 to $1.25, and a carpenter was lucky to get $2.50. Wheat sold at $1.75 in 1816, at 99c in 1845 and at 58c as late as 1894. The cost of living fluctuated considerably, for prices have always traveled in 50-year cycles, reaching about the same high peak every half-century. One generation has low prices and the next generation has high prices.

Wages in the old days, he points out, were not substantial. They were quickly changed to fit the price of commodities, and even then failed to keep pace when the cost of living soared. So the men born in an old-time period of high prices were out of luck. If sugar and coffee went to the bottom, wages went down with them, and it took wages longer to get back up again than it took the sugar and coffee barons to put the prices back up.

From this man's point of view, this generation is the first one in which wages have been elastic enough to keep ahead of the cost of living. Of course the cost of living still climbs faster than the average man's salary, but when compared with a few years back we are better off in this respect. At least we don't have to stand for a cut in wages every time somebody decides to jump the price of sugar or coffee or the bacon market.

YOUR SPRING PLEDGE

Not long ago an eastern man began forming an association of auto drivers, accepting for membership all who will take the society's pledge, and try to live up to it. We endorse his idea, and hope that the organization extends to Plymouth, and that every motorist in this community joins. It's easy to take the pledge before you start your spring driving. Read it, cut it out and paste it on the windshield, live up to it—and you'll be happier every time you climb into and out of your car:

1. I will always be ready for an emergency by keeping my eyes on the road.
2. I will watch particularly for curves, crossings and bridges.
3. I will always keep my car under perfect control.
4. I will never stop or slow down without signalling the car behind me.
5. I will never make a left-hand turn without first signalling.
6. I will never cut off another car unless I am sure there is ample space for both of us.
7. I will never start out from the curb without making sure the road is clear.
8. I will not try to save a minute or two by risking my life or the lives of others.
9. I will obey the rules of the road, whether it's law or common sense.
10. I will always be courteous—a gentleman wherever I am.

WHO'LL LAUGH LAST

The man who is laughed at today is honored in memory tomorrow. Older citizens of Plymouth recall laughing at Bell's announcement that he had perfected the telephone. They laughed at the Wright boys when they said they could fly. Road builders laughed less than 20 years ago when some fellow suggested building roads of concrete, and the public laughed when told that roads would some day cost many thousands of dollars a mile—and be cheap at that. Now comes a man with a suggestion to build roads of a steel composition—and people are laughing at him. But some of us can't see where the laugh comes in. The joke of yesterday may be the fact of today. Within a few years we may be riding on a national highway of steel. They laughed at steel rails for railroads, too—and they laughed at the thought of digging the Panama Canal. So, in face of what happened, wouldn't it be a pretty good idea to just sit back and see who laughs last?

DEATH OF MRS. MARY ELIZABETH CLAY.

Mary Elizabeth Williams, daughter of George and Jane Williams, was born at Nankin, Michigan, June 13, 1839, and would therefore have been eighty-five years old at her next birthday. She was married to Samuel Clay, and survived him thirty-seven years, he having departed this life January 7, 1887. Five children, Elizabeth, Della, Rose, Nellie and Frank, were born to them, (two of whom, Mrs. Rose Fulton and Frank Clay of Canton township, surviving. She leaves to mourn their loss, besides the son and daughter, eight grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren and a large circle of acquaintances and friends. She was a faithful member of the Presbyterian church of Dearborn.

Funeral services at her home in Canton township were conducted last Friday by Rev. S. Conger Hathaway, and interment was made in the Inkster cemetery.

The referendum was submitted to the voters next week and is expected.

A NEW BILLING PLAN

The Michigan Bell Telephone Company put into effect April 1st, a new "rotation billing" plan for the rendering of statements to subscribers, under which the date of sending out many of the bills will be changed and making it possible to bring all accounts up to date of billing.

"The term, 'rotation billing,' may not be familiar, but the general plan is well known to most people, for it has been used for some years by gas companies, and power and light companies."

"As applied to the Michigan Bell Telephone Company, it means that our monthly bills will be issued in six equal groups, dated the 1st, 6th, 11th, 16th, 21st and 26th, and will be mailed as soon as ready after those dates. All subscribers in the local exchange will have the same billing date each month—the 26th. The new plan will be extended to include all other exchanges which are handled by the Grand Rapids accounting center, about November 1st."

"The change from our present billing plan to the new plan presents an undesirable, although unavoidable, feature by requiring that about half of the subscribers receive two bills in the first month," continued Manager Crowe.

"The second and final step in bringing the present charges for bills up to date, and resulting in bills for some groups covering more than the normal period. Locally, with the future billing date the 26th of the month, the bill dated April 26th will carry charges for the period from the usual period of the month in advance and toll charges for the period from March 26, through to April 26. The next month's bill will then be on

LIBRARY NOTES

It was in the Kentucky mountains, in a rude wooden building, far off the beaten track. A boy, dismounting from a mud-spattered horse, climbed the hill, and sought out the little room that housed the library.

"Why, Bill," said the young woman in charge, "I'm surprised to see you so early this spring!"

The Plymouth library has recently received two valuable gifts of material giving historical information about the village. Mrs. Fred Dibble presented two copies of the Woman's Club paper recently published—The Leap Year Gazette. This number of this occasional periodical contains some very interesting notes on the early days of Plymouth.

Circulation for the month of March was 1840. Several new books have been added this week, many of them western stories. Among the new books are: "My Experiences at Scotland Yard," Thomson; "The Midlander," Tarkington; "Shadows of My Childhood," Abbott; "Tales of Fishes," Lane Gray; and "Variety in the Little Garden," King.

METHODIST NOTES

Lyman Judson will preach for us Sunday morning at 10:00, on, "The Enemy Within." Lyman is one of our young men preparing for Christian work, and has made a fine record in oratory at Albion. You will want to hear him, Sunday.

This is what a Methodist pastor at Hannibal, Mo., says about the work of the Prestons: "George Preston is a singer of exceptional ability. His solo work is of the highest class and he is a great leader of gospel singing. The people love and admire him. Mrs. Preston is a pianist with few equals and no superiors. Her work with young people and women is very helpful and thorough."

The first week the general topic is: "The Problems of Life." Sunday—Problem of Faith. Monday—Problem of Pain. Tuesday—Problem of Freedom. Wednesday—Problem of Sin. Thursday—Problem of Immortality. Friday—Problem of Temptation.

Second week, general topic: "In the Shadow of the Cross." Sunday—Pilate, the Dodger. Monday—Thomas, the Doubter. Tuesday—John, the Loyal Scout. Wednesday—Judas, the Betrayer. Thursday—Peter, the Mad Swearer. Friday—Jesus, the Saviour. Sunday—Easter.

Tuesday night the Sunday-school board will hold its regular monthly session at the church with a pot-luck supper at 8:15, preceding the meeting. This meeting will be important, and every teacher and officer ought to be there.

The Missionary Society will meet with Mrs. Mable Stuart on Church street, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. Keep praying, and working, and inviting. Attend every night unless health prevents.

Helps Over Hard Places Diluted with a little sweetened water, Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy is easy to take, and almost instantly cures colic and intense stomach pain, cramps and intestinal disorders. A mother is perfectly safe in giving it for little stomach aches to her babies from childhood.

CANADA'S FLOATING CITY STILL THRIVES

Citizens of Simoon Engage in Lumbering Along Coast.

In the Inside Passage of the Pacific ocean on the British Columbia coast is Canada's only floating city—Simoon City. It is now seventeen years old. It has no need for fire or police departments and its citizens pay no taxes.

This novel town was formed to meet the needs of its residents. Along the British Columbia coast are many mountains the sides of which dip into the ocean. These mountains are covered with rich timber growths. As it is a difficult matter to establish camps for those working these timber tracts, big operators have passed them by, and as a consequence the citizens of Simoon City is enabled to obtain many valuable timber holdings.

When permission to cut the timber has been obtained, explains the Canadian Pacific railway in a bulletin describing the floating town, the citizen attaches his floating house to a row-boat or a motorboat and moves it to the scene of his intended operations. Often two or three will band together and take up a concession. When the logs are cut they are shot into the water by chutes, or sometimes, if the mountainside is particularly steep, by gravity. The logs are then put together in the form of a raft and towed to the nearest lumber mill.

When operations have been discontinued the loggers tow their houses to Simoon City, where there are now eight permanent dwellings. There is no lack of entertainment. There are parties, dances, hunting and other forms of amusements to interest the citizens until they again start out to their concessions. If the dweller tires of local entertainment it is only a short distance to Vancouver.

There is one store in the city. About seventeen years ago a business man of Vancouver, realizing the need of a general store to cater to the wants of these floating homes, fitted up an old floating house, which he moved up and down the coast supplying the wants of the loggers. With the establishment of permanent dwellings at Simoon City, he anchored his boat there, and according to latest reports, is doing a thriving business. In addition, the city also boasts a post office, and a letter addressed to Simoon City is handled with the same dispatch as that addressed to one of the larger and more populous centers on the mainland.

PRESBYTERIAN NOTES

Our sympathy is extended to the Fulton family and their relatives, who have been unexpectedly bereft of mother and grandmother, this past week, in the death of Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Clay. She would have been eighty-five at her next birthday.

A new Bible drill, which proved to be very interesting, was given at the Christian Endeavor meeting, last Sunday night. Miss Henrietta Honderup was leader.

Book shelves for the Sunday-school library have been placed in the class room of the Daisy class.

The pastor and family are in Battle Creek this week, visiting relatives.

We join the members of the Methodist church in praying that a rich spiritual blessing may be the result of their special meetings, which are now beginning. There will be no evening service at our church, next Sunday night, that our congregation may attend the Methodist service.

PLYMOUTH BEST BREAD

The Nice Silky Loaf, 10c

HOW PLYMOUTH'S MAIN STREET LOOKED IN 1868

The above picture was taken July 3, 1868, and shows Main street as it appeared at that time. The band seated in their hand wagon were about to leave for Detroit, and as there were no railroads in Plymouth at that time, the trip to the city was made overland. The picture was taken from the second story window of a building that stood where Richwine's harness shop now is. The Plymouth band in those days had a reputation for being one of the best musical organizations in the state, and their services were much in demand. On this occasion they took a boat from Detroit to Toledo, where they had an engagement for several days on an excursion boat out of Toledo. They owned their own hand wagon, which enabled them to go to neighboring towns to fill engagements very conveniently. Of this band of musicians there is only one living today, and that is our townsman, Lewis E. Cable, more familiarly known to all his friends as "Toof." Mr. Cable was about 18 years of age when this picture was taken, and was the snare drummer, and can be seen seated at the rear of the band wagon. The late Michael Conner, a prominent citizen and merchant here for many years, was the leader of the band, and was a musician of splendid ability. Isaiah Gleason, who died several months ago, was also one of the last surviving members of the old band. The band was composed of the following members at the time the above picture was taken: Michael Conner, Andrew Reynolds, John Steele, Isaiah Gleason, Peter Gayde, A. Perrin, C. Roe, W. Roe, E. Lombard, D. Taylor, L. E. Cable. The driver of the wagon was L. Cogswell.

There is quite a contrast in the looks of the store buildings of that period from the up-to-date business blocks that now grace Main street. The wooden awnings of those days were quite the thing, but they have long been put out of use. None of the merchants who were in business on Main street at the time the above picture was taken are living today. It will be noticed in the picture that a wooden fence surrounded the park in front of the stores, and the large maple trees which are now standing there were very small at that time.

PLYMOUTH L. O. T. M. AT WAYNE

Between forty and fifty members of the local Hive, L. O. T. M., went to Wayne, last week Thursday afternoon, to witness the initiation of a class of fifty candidates into the Wayne Hive. After the initiatory work a very sumptuous banquet was served at 6:00 o'clock to over three hundred women. In the evening, a company of Detroit Guards put on a very fine military drill. Great Commander Burns was present, and spoke in her usual charming manner. Everyone present voted Wayne royal entertainers.

Prince of Wales

The title of prince of Wales, bestowed on the male heir first in line to succession to the throne of Great Britain, originated in the fourteenth century. Edward I, king of England, who accomplished the union of Wales, created the title in 1284.

Tradition has it that when a baby prince was born in Wales, the castles newly built in Wales by the victorious monarch, the baby was presented to the Welsh people as a prince who could not speak English. When the boy was seven years of age, to the glory of his father, he had to learn the language of Wales. The latter became King Edward II. His son, Edward III, was known as Edward of Windsor and was never made prince of Wales. But it has since become an invariable custom to honor the heir to the throne in this way.

The title is not hereditary, but must be created for each prince so honored. Being purely honorary, no power or authority is attached to it, although parliament votes a yearly sum for the support of its holder.—Detroit News.

Paying Him Off

A certain man in this city is inclined to be pompous and obstinate. A little while ago he visited the navy yard in Charlestown, and somehow he managed to get aboard a vessel from which visitors were at the time excluded. An officer encountered him upon the deck and told him that he could not remain. The visitor swelled up and said that he was a citizen of the United States, that as such he owned part of the warship upon which he was standing, and that he had a full right to be aboard and would not depart.

The officer looked at him a moment. Then he walked over to an anchor chain and with his pocket knife scraped a bit of rust from it. Returning to the visitor, he extended the flake of rust to him and said:

"Here is your share of this ship. Take it and get out, or I'll put you in chains."—Boston Herald.

Paper Mill Employees

in Germany Prosperous

While paper money in Germany is spelling poverty for thousands, employees in the paper industry are waxing happier and wealthier every day. According to a Munich business man, recently arrived in New York, paper making is now the key industry in the Fatherland and produces the most required article at present. It is the only industry with no unemployment. On the contrary, paper factories are run in double shifts.

Twenty large factories are entirely occupied in supplying the Reichsbank, according to the Munich citizen, and 72 in all are today working for it, converting trillions of paper into money. Owing to the rapid devaluation of the mark, notes are very short lived. In a very short time most of them become superfluous, prices having risen so greatly that a note of a hundred times higher denomination must replace them. Although they look brand new, notes issued but a few weeks before cannot buy, any longer, even the cheapest objects.

While their exchange value has fallen, however, their worth as raw material has grown meanwhile to exceed many times their value as legal tender. Notes up to 1,000 marks are worth more than forty times their printed value to the ragman. Those up to 100,000 marks sell for four times their nominal value as junk.

Faced by the tremendous demand for new paper marks, the Reichsbank has declared that it has only a small stock on hand and that despite the overworked papermen, only a quarter of a trillion represents the daily output. With the demand so high and the supply so low the Reichsbank can satisfy only to a small measure the demands of its patrons. It considers that the claims of the bureau which pay the stipends to the unemployed. Second to be considered are the industries which as far as possible are given a few truckloads of paper to pay the wage earner. Trade, including the banks, and the government authorities, receive little or nothing from the Reichsbank.

In the latter instance advantage is taken of the fact that the state employees are regarded as the most patient, suffering without making disagreeable complaints. Consequently thousands of state employees do not receive their salaries until they are many weeks overdue.

Small Girl Invests in Lemon

"Grapefruit," remarked the head of the family at breakfast, "is a comparatively new delicacy. The common fruit, anyhow, never had any of this product when I was a kid. Prunes were then the standard morning appetizer. Even oranges several years back, before the general use of refrigerator cars, were almost a curiosity in parts of the North. The big item in my Christmas stocking, in addition to a bunch of firecrackers and a pair of new skates, was an orange."

"Oranges go back farther than your day," corrected grandma. "Of course, they were rare and expensive. But I think lemons preceded oranges. I well remember the first lemon I ever saw. My father gave my Brother Joe and me each a nickel. Joe bought candy and shared it with me. Finally I asked the storekeeper what we could buy with my nickel. He took my fortune and gave me a lemon. It puckered our mouths so we couldn't eat it. My nickel was a total loss."—New York Sun and Globe.

Battles With Leopard

A thrilling story of an unarmed native's fight with a leopard comes from a village in upper Burma. The man and his family were asleep when a disturbance among the chickens under the house roused them.

The Burman found a large leopard trying to get at his fowls. The leopard stood his ground and the Burman, unarmed, rushed at the animal. They closed and fell, fighting desperately.

The leopard, which was underneath, was inflicting dreadful wounds on his adversary with his hind claw when the Burman's father, a very old man, came to his son's assistance with a knife.

Seizing the leopard's head he sawed the knife through its throat and killed it.

The injured Burman recovered after having been placed for some days in a bath of iodine solution.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Wood Buffalo Herd

Buffalo Park, in Alberta, has been set aside by the Canadian government as a wild life sanctuary, and will be unique in that it will serve as the habitat of the only herd of wild wood buffalo in existence. Virtually the same as the plains buffaloes in habits and customs, the wood buffaloes mate in September, migrate back and forth by the same trails, and take life easily at all times.

It is amazing how fast these clumsy-looking animals can travel. Even when they are walking a man must run to overtake them and when they are in a hurry it requires a fleet-footed horse to keep up with them.

A Mouthful

Bill wanted to slip out of barracks—unofficially—to see his girl and he went to the sentry and stated the case.

"Well," said the sentry, "I'll be off duty when you come back, so you ought to have the password for tonight. 'It's idiosyncrasy.'"

"Idio what?"
 "Idiosyncrasy."
 "I'll stay in barracks," said Bill.

BAPTIST NOTES

The services on Sunday were in good spirit. The sermon was on "Jesus Christ and His Mission." The choir sang another good anthem, and it provided an excellent spirit for worship.

The Sunday-school hour was crowded full of good things. Mrs. Noel's class gave another missionary entertainment at the opening of the school, and brought out the blessing of the medical missionaries in China, Japan, India, Africa, Asia and other countries. Each nation represented, was dressed in its own costume, and made the call very impressive and urgent for Christian doctors in the Orient. A good offering was taken.

The evening service found the choir left well filled with young people, and they sang with spirit, and led the singing very earnestly. The pastor's sermon was on "The Life of David."

The Ladies' Aid are planning a chicken supper for the 17th, and if you have a chicken you would like to donate for the occasion, phone the pastor, or send word to Mrs. George Wilkie. And let everyone who has promised an apron or fancy article have it ready for that date.

The Sunday-school has a fine program in hand for Easter.

The event of last week at the church was the celebrating of the third anniversary of the B. Y. P. U. of the Baptist church. The banquet was held in the church parlors, and the entertainment committee had everything in splendid order. The tables were decorated in red, white and blue, and with flowers to make us all think of the springtime of youth. Between 35 and 40 were at the tables. A splendid supper was served in several courses. At the close of the banquet supper, the president, Elbert Seger, made a few remarks, and called on the pastor for a toast. Ray Hammond of Farmington, president of the Wayne B. Y. P. U. association, gave a toast, after which Duane Sayles, who is home from Kalamazoo College, was called on for another speech. The president invited everyone upstairs, where the reports of the secretary and treasurer were given. Several songs were sung by the society, and gave cheer and brightness to all. The election of officers was next in order. Kenneth Wilkie and Gaylord Sayles were appointed tellers, and the following officers were elected: President—Ira Kingsley; vice-president—Pierce Owens; Secretary—Miss Willie Hancock; Treasurer—Kenneth Wilkie; organist—Miss Sarah Daly; assistant organist—Miss Vera Stoneburner. The speaker of the evening was Rev. J. W. Green, pastor of the First Baptist church, Walled Lake, who spoke on "Saturation." Have your life filled with good things. Have your heart and mind filled with God's word, as a real asset in life. The society gave a rising vote of thanks to Rev. Green, and invited him to come again; also the retiring officers for their splendid work the past year.

THE THEATRE

"THE WHITE SISTER"

"The White Sister," the greatest triumph of Lillian Gish's career, will be shown at the Penniman Allen theatre on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, April 6th, 7th and 8th.

"The White Sister," which is an inspiration production released by Metro, has been acclaimed one of the most significant films ever made. The story was taken from the famous novel by F. Marion Crawford, and screened entirely in Italy and northern Africa.

Rome, Naples, Sorrento, Tivoli, and even Mt. Vesuvius were some of the "locations" used, and the result, according to critics in the larger cities where the picture has played as a two-dollar attraction, is the most beautiful production yet made.

Besides Miss Gish to interpret the thrilling story, the cast includes Ronald Colman, a newcomer to the screen who has scored a sensational success; J. Barney Sherry, a motion picture pioneer; Gail Kane, heroine of many Broadway successes, and a thousand others drawn from the ranks of European players.

"The White Sister" tells the story of Angela Chiaramonte, daughter of an Italian prince, who is made penniless because of an intrigue of her older sister. The only thing left to sustain her is her love for Captain Giovanni Severi, of the Italian army.

For a time she is happy, but he is called to Africa on a military expedition, and Angela is left to take up the life of a governess. Then she receives word he has been killed by the Arabs. Stunned by the blow, Angela is driven frantic, and in order to find peace of mind and a definite place in life, she takes the vows as a nun.

Shortly after this Giovanni, who has merely been held prisoner by Arabs, escapes and returns to Rome. How Sister Angela solves the problems of choosing between her great earthly love and her heavenly vows supplies the dramatic situation that leads up to the powerful climax.

"The White Sister" has been called the artistic triumph of the present film season. Miss Gish has never appeared to better advantage, and her restrained conception of the difficult role of Sister Angela stands at the top of her many famous characterizations. Those who recall her in "The Birth of a Nation," "Way Down East," "Hearts of the World," and "Orphans of the Storm" will, it is promised, be delighted still further by her versatility and the depth of her playing in her latest effort.

The picture was directed by Henry King, who achieved distinction as the director of Richard Barthelmess in that star's greatest successes, including "Tollable David," which won the 1921 photoplay medal as the best picture of the season.

"The White Sister," a Henry King production, is a Metro release made by Inspiration pictures, of which Charles H. Duell, Jr., is president.

REPORT OF PUBLIC HEALTH WORK DONE IN PLYMOUTH TOWNSHIP MARCH 1, 1923 TO MARCH 1, 1924.

In submitting the annual statistical report of the public health work done in Plymouth township, your township nurse wishes to take this opportunity of thanking the superintendent of schools, the teachers throughout the township, the health officers, the members of the Plymouth Branch of the American Red Cross, members of the Parent-Teachers' Association and Women's Club and others, who have shown their active interest and cooperation in the health educational program.

This is the day of prevention. Happy, healthy, rosy cheeked children coming from clean, normal homes, maintaining a wholesome environment in which to live, play, and work, is your ideal. The men and women of Plymouth have cause to be proud that they belong to that forward looking group, who are willing to look ahead to the next generation, by providing the children of today with health instruction, which is going to make them better citizens and better prepared for their duties as the coming mothers and fathers.

We do not always get immediate results from teaching health. We are creating, however, an interest in the mental attitude toward our own physical well being, which not only results in physical health but also mental, spiritual, and moral health.

The work of our nurse might easily be divided into three divisions, viz.: Educational, Corrective and Community work.

Under educational work comes the school nursing, which makes a wide appeal to all of us. Our educational health work includes health talks and drills in the school; sanitary inspection of schools and premises; consultations with parents at school; promoting interest and supervising teachers in doing health work; assisting the doctor with medical examinations in the school; exclusions and communicable disease work; follow-up visits in the home to secure cooperation of parents in having the physical defects of the child corrected. Every family is advised to consult their family physician.

In the community work, the nurse gives instruction to members of the family for the care of their sick; nursing care to patients in the home when necessary; work with the health officer; visits of investigation and cooperation.

The corrective work is made possible through the family physicians; cooperation of the Detroit Hospital Clinics; and through the use of the Red Cross Clinics established at points in the county.

Before closing, mention should be made of the Red Cross Infant Welfare Clinic, which will be started in Plymouth the second Wednesday of April and which will be held once a month in the Plymouth school. In establishing this clinic, the women of Plymouth, who are sponsoring this movement, are taking a part in the state wide program to keep well babies well. The clinic is open to every mother and the women of Plymouth are invited to take an active interest in this work.

Your township nurse invites your closer cooperation during the coming year and will be glad to meet the mothers and fathers of the school children personally.

Signed,
ANNE W. LAWRENCE,
Plymouth Township Nurse.

AROUND ABOUT US

Rev. Karl Lorenz, who for the past nine and a half years has been pastor of the Clarenceville Lutheran church, has accepted a professorship in Concordia College at Portland, Oregon.

A man killed by an interurban car at Denton, last week Thursday, has been identified as H. L. Hall, 70 years old, of Detroit. Mr. Hall went to Denton to visit his nephew, Ransom Hall, but was unable to reach his farm because of the muddy roads, and decided to return to Detroit. Hearing an interurban car coming, he stepped out from behind a building onto the track directly in front of the car. He was identified by Mr. Hall. His body was taken to Detroit.

Oakland county has more lakes than any other county in the entire United States. And Holly township has more lakes than any other township in Oakland county. Among many other things, the year book of the Oakland County Road Commission, which has just been issued, contains a list of all the lakes in Oakland county, giving their location and the names by which they are generally known. Holly has 29, no other township in the county having more than half that number.—Holly Herald.

A very quiet wedding ceremony was performed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Franklin, when their eldest daughter, Grace Henrietta, was united in marriage to Mr. Chauncey Shoebridge, both of Salem, on Wednesday evening, March 26th, at 8:00 o'clock. They were attended by the bride's sister, Miss Irene Franklin of Salem, and their cousin, Albert Broegman of Plymouth. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Lucia M. Stroh of Salem. Today's Reflections

It's true men need a good deal of reforming, but it's not a bad idea to consult them about it first.

Nothing takes the bloom and blush away from the cheeks of some of our Plymouth girls like being caught out in a rain.

The thought of lowering the American public's taxes seems to pain Congress terribly.

Another thing you've never heard of around Plymouth, is a married couple getting a divorce because they tried to please each other as much after marriage as they did before marriage.

There are still a few wives who are never apparently contented until they commence spending the life insurance money.

We often have heard people say "numbers don't count," but we never heard a woman say "figures don't count."

It must be tough on our bachelor friends around Plymouth not to have a wife to blame when the monthly bills come rolling in.

A scientist says the world will end in 11,000 years. Maybe they'll have the Teapot Dome business settled by that time.

To our way of thinking, one of the biggest advantages in being president is you don't have to worry about mowing weeds in the summer time or carrying out ashes in the winter.

One of the hardest things in this world to find is the city man who doesn't believe he could get rich raising chickens.

A Plymouth woman tells us her husband is growing a mustache, and she is kissing a clothes brush to get tough.

They say girls don't dress to please men, but they do. They dress to please the men who design the styles.

Nowadays when the wolf comes around to the door of the average Plymouth man's house he finds the family out riding in the auto.

Of course a man has a right to remain a bachelor, but suppose Adam had felt that way about it.

MAKES INTERESTING TESTS ON HEARING

Variations With Age and Physical Conditions.

Prof. Martin Gildemeister has been conducting a new series of researches on various questions pertaining to hearing. Gildemeister has now constructed entirely new apparatus for his researches, through which more accurate results have been secured. His experiments were carried out on 51 experimental subjects, comprising pupils, students, girls, teachers, officials, merchants, farmers and workmen of various kinds. All these persons, whose ages ranged from six to forty-seven, were possessed of normal hearing, as was established by careful preliminary examination.

A number of interesting facts are deducible from the results of Gildemeister's tests on hearing. It is comparatively rare for the hearing of the right and left ears to be equally good. There is often great difference in hearing between the two ears, and the findings remain the same. But there was no evidence that the right or left ear, in general, was essentially superior with respect to hearing.

Age, however, plays a big part in the matter of hearing. Children and young persons up to twenty years of age hear best the high tones. Even in children a slow but gradual falling off in hearing can be noted, and from twenty up to the middle of the fourth decade the diminution becomes more marked. Up to the middle of the fifth decade, then, the hearing remains approximately at the same level, and then sinks rather rapidly up to old age. The diminution in hearing from age six to forty-seven is represented, on the average, by 7,000 vibrations—that is, it sags from 20,000 to 13,000 vibrations.

There is not the slightest evidence for the heretofore assumption that hearing through bone conduction is keener and better than through air conduction. Of 90 experiments hearing of the highest tones was better in 52 cases with air conduction; in 11 cases it was equally good, and only in 27 cases was hearing better with bone conduction than air conduction.

The variations in hearing that are brought about by the changes from day to day in physical well being may be represented by 200 vibrations at the most. On the other hand occupation and practice play a certain part, for it has been shown that persons who telephone a great deal often present much more than average upper limits of hearing.—American Medicine.

THE BLUE DAY

Before the coming of the Electric Washer, one day in the week was dark and dreary, no matter what the weather. Home routine was disorganized, dinner was a joke, the good housewife was fagged out, everybody was uncomfortable.

Today the family washing is done quickly, easily, pleasantly. It is no longer a labor; it's a mere incident.

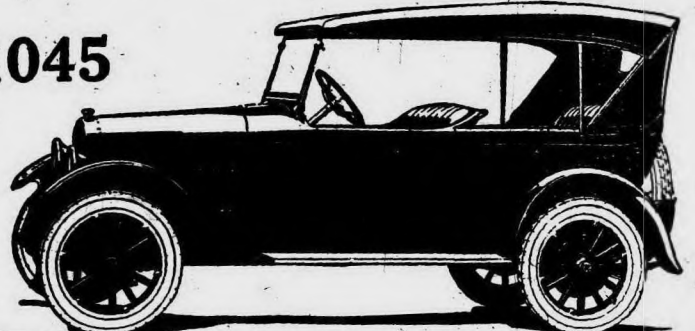

Come in and let us show you the workings of this great labor and time saving appliance. It costs but a few cents to operate; and you can buy it on very easy terms.

But we build 150,000 cars per year. We make our own parts. We build our own bodies in $10,000,000 body plants. We have 12,500 up-to-date machines. Our major costs are divided by enormous output. The result is a value no other maker even tries to match in a fine car of this size. Come see what it means to you.

Just as Good Mother

Here is a Pie that I bought down at the Hearn Bakery, Mother, and it is just as good as you can make.

The cost is much less, too, without considering the work it is to make Pies.

And after tasting the Pie, Mother has become one of our regular customers.

ROTARY CLUB HEAR GOOD TALK

The members of the Plymouth Rotary Club heard a splendid talk by State Representative Joseph Warner of Ypsilanti, at the noon-day luncheon of the club, last Friday. Mr. Warner is an interesting speaker, and discussed the various important state issues that are before the people, and gave his views thereon. The club also had as their guest, one of our former townsmen, F. P. Bennett of Ypsilanti. The club received an invitation to attend a meeting of the Ferndale Rotary Club, last evening, at which time the presentation of their charter was made by the district governor. A number of the members attended.

SALVATION ARMY LASSIES WILL VISIT PLYMOUTH MONDAY.

Next Monday, April 7th, four Salvation Army lassies will be in Plymouth to canvas the business places, as part of the annual Home Service appeal for funds in Plymouth, which has been endorsed by the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce. Subscription lists have been placed in all the factories of the village, and a limited solicitation of homes will be made. Everybody is urged to co-operate in this matter, because of the splendid work which this organization is doing not only in our own state, but throughout the whole country. In countless ways the Salvation Army has rendered helpful service to the unfortunate, and such an organization is deserving of every consideration and help.

A LETTER

The Plymouth Buick Sales Co. has received the following letter which explains itself:

Buick Motor Company, Division of General Motors Corp. Flint, Michigan.

November 22, 1923

To Dealers and Customers: While we all realize that unfair methods employed by any company or individual will act as a boomerang and eventually retard prosperity of the originator, we feel called upon at this time to state that reports being circulated to the effect that the Buick Company has been sued by one of its competitors for patent infringements is absolutely untrue and without foundation in any way, shape or manner.

As long as the buying public continues to appreciate our present design, as it certainly seems to, there is no intention on the part of this company to make any radical changes.

We feel that you are entitled to the above information as contradiction to propaganda being circulated by competitors who desire to retard our sales. You can emphatically state that such reports are absolutely without any foundation whatsoever.

Very truly yours,
H. H. BASSETT,
President and General Manager.
