Why You Should Build Now!

The average man builds one house in a lifetime. It means a considerable outlay of money—BUT—that house will last twenty-five years or longer, AND the amount of money required to supply the average family with food for the same period will far exceed the cost of the house. So, after all, the HOUSE is NOT the BIG item of living expense.

We will close Saturday afternoons during July and August.

THE GATES OF THIS CHURCH

are as broad as the gates of heaven. The sole requirement for admission is an honest confession of Jesus Christ as Lord and Master. Give your name to the pastor and arrange to unite with the church at the communion service next Sunday morning. The pastor will conduct the last service before vacation next Sunday evening.

When the choir chapter announces a pipe organ recital for Tuesday evening, July first, you may be reasonably sure that something exceptional is going to happen.

WORK ON COUNTY TRAINING SCHOOL IS PROGRESSING

SEVENTEEN NEW BUILDINGS UNDER CONSTRUCTION ON WAYNE COUNTY'S 1,000-ACRE SITE NEAR PLYMOUTH.

The site of the new Wayne County Training School, which is located near Phoenix, with its southern boundaries along the Plymouth and Northville town line road, is the scene of many activities these days. W. E. Wood Co., contractors and builders, have a large force of men at work, and the construction of the various buildings is progressing rapidly.

Seventeen buildings are under process of construction at present, and they are located on what was known as the Ed. Cook farm, on the high ground northeast of the farm buildings. It is an ideal site for an institution of this kind, and it is safe to say that when the whole project is completed it will be the finest of its kind in the county.

The site of the new school covers over 1,000 acres in Northville township. The topography of the land is admirably adapted for the beautifying of the grounds and the location of the various buildings. It is slightly and affords a perfect drainage and an abundant supply of water, both highly essential in the establishment of an institution of this kind. There will be several entrances to the grounds, besides the main entrance, which will be located at the intersection of the Plymouth-Northville town line road and the Plymouth-Northville road.

We do not believe that our citizens fully realize the magnitude of the building operations which are under way, and what the new institution will be when it is ultimately completed.

A representative of the Mail was recently shown the plans for the various buildings and taken over the site, through the courtesy of N. B. McLellan, superintendent of the W. E. Wood Co.

All the buildings will correspond as to architecture and the materials used in their construction. The buildings are to be of steel, face brick and Bedford stone with terracotta trimmings. Steel window frames and sash are used. The joice are of steel, while metal lath are to be used. The roofs are to be of cement and gravel. The floors will be constructed of marble, terrazo and cement. These materials will make the building absolutely fire-proof.

Eight dormitories are now under construction, four for boys and four for girls. Each building is exactly alike, and are 90x68 feet, two stories in height.

The boys industrial school is a two-story building, 121x35 feet in size. In this building the boys will receive instruction in the art of printing, carpentry, painting, weaving, broom making, cobbling, tailoring and basketry.

The girls' industrial school is a building 120x35 feet in size, one story in height. In this building the girls will be given instruction in weaving, sewing, mending, lace making, knitting and domestic science.

The service building is 142x61 feet in size, each end of which is two stories in height. This building will contain the bakery, kitchen, refrigerator room, dishwashing room, kitchen stores, employees' dining room and the staff dining room. The rooms on the second floor are given over to the sleeping quarters of the employees.

There is a school building 85x50 feet in size, two stories high with basement. This building will contain ten class rooms, with apparatus rooms, etc., in the basement.

The hospital building is to be 77x23 feet in size, with two wings 48x27, with full basement. This building will contain every facility of a modern hospital. There will be a drug store, laboratory, x-ray department, dental department, infirmary, clinic, morgue, etc., in the basement. All ambulances have direct access into the basement to the elevator has been provided for. The first floor will be given over to wards, utility rooms, isolation rooms, diet kitchens and sun rooms at each end of the wings. The second floor will contain the operating room, recovery rooms, the nurses' rest room, matrons and nurses' rooms.

The assembly building is to be 120x51 feet in size. The basement will contain a bowling alley, club room, billiard room, ladies' parlor, property and apparatus rooms, cloak room, etc. The first floor is given over to the stage, auditorium, lobby, lavatories, check and wash room and a gallery. This building will have a seating capacity for over 1,000 persons.

The laundry is 90x33 feet, one story in height. This building is to be equipped with the latest and best laundry machinery.

The power house is 95x88 feet in size, with a full basement. This building will contain the coal storage and engine rooms, ice making and ice storage plant. The power house has a smoke stack 175 feet in height.

All of the buildings will be heated from the central power plant, and there will be three miles of heating mains. A complete sewer system will be installed. It is expected that all of the buildings will be enclosed by November 1st.

The county is very fortunate in securing the services of W. H. Maybuly of Detroit, to have supervision of the building of the new school. He is a most able man, and well qualified for this big undertaking.

JUNE WEDDINGS

LAMMERS-KENSLER

Miss Eleanor Kensler, daughter of Mrs. Barbara Kensler of this village, and a teacher in the Toledo, Ohio, public schools, was married to O. H. Lammers of that city, at high noon, Saturday, June 14th, at the First Congregational church in Toledo.

They left after the ceremony for a honeymoon trip to Washington, D. C., Atlantic City and other eastern points. The bride is a graduate of Plymouth High school, and has a host of friends here who extend congratulations for a happy and prosperous wedded life. The young couple will make their home in Toledo.

DOWNING-WILLET

A pretty June wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Myron M. Willett, 143 Holbrook avenue, Tuesday, June 24, 1924, at high noon, when their youngest daughter, Winifred Mina, became the bride of William B. Downing, son of Mrs. Ella Downing of this place. The impressive ring service was read by Rev. S. Conger Hathaway of the First Presbyterian church, little Phyllis Alverna Rotnour, niece of the bride, carrying the ring in the heart of a rose. They were attended by James McLeod as best man, and Miss Margaret Streng as maid of honor. The bride was dressed in cream lace and flame georgette, carrying a shower bouquet of cream roses. Miss Streng wore yellow georgette and carried a butterfly bouquet of yellow roses.

The house was beautifully decorated with ferns, carnations and roses. At 12:30 a delicious breakfast was served to twenty-five relatives and friends by the hostesses, Mrs. Byron Willett and Mrs. Claude Burrows, assisted by the Misses Ha Eckles and Marion Williams.

The groom is the efficient local salesman for the National Biscuit Co. The bride graduated from Plymouth High school in 1922, and has just finished her second year as secretary to the superintendent of the school.

The happy couple left for Buffalo by boat, and will motor to points of interest in the east. On their return they will be at home at 855 Holbrook avenue. Their many friends extend congratulations and best wishes.

BRAND-GREGORY

Oak Knoll, near Plymouth, the summer home of Mrs. Louise M. Gregory, was the scene of a beautiful garden wedding Saturday, June 21, when her daughter, Mary Louise, became the bride of Mr. H. Farwell Brand, son of Mr. Fred W. Brand.

The services were read at 4:30 o'clock by Rev. A. MacKenzie, before an arch of pink roses.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her grandfather, Dr. M. J. Spangler, was charmingly attired in a bouffant model of white chiffon and process lace, with veil of tulle, carried a shower bouquet of white roses and valley lilies. The matron of honor, Mrs. Harold E. Stora, of Royal Oak, wore pink chiffon and ceru lace with tight bodice and full skirt. She wore a wreath in her hair, and carried a shepherds' crook. She showed with white and lavender sweet peas. The bridesmaids, Miss Marion Gregory and Miss Evelyn Dodman, wore orchid chiffon and lace, made like the maid of honor's, and they carried crooks with pink sweet peas and roses.

The bride's mother was gowned in powder blue chiffon beaded in crystal and wore a corsage of orchids and pink sweet peas. Two little flower girls, Mary Elizabeth Chamberlain, a cousin of the groom, and Frances Jean Weaver, wore white net over pink.

The harp, played by Mrs. Helen Burr Brand, added unusual charm to the bridal music.

The groom was attended by his brother, Richard Shirley Brand, and Charles B. MacLeod and Fred E. Gregory, Jr., acted as ushers.

After a wedding supper on the lawn, Mr. and Mrs. Brand left for Mackinac and Duluth.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. White of Minneapolis, Minn., grandparents of the groom; Mrs. James Tucker and Miss Jean MacDougall of Sacramento, Calif.; Arthur Dudman of Berkeley, Calif.; Mrs. E. A. Broadwell of Long Meadow, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ford of Dearborn; Mr. and Mrs. Edgar A. Guest, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff. B. Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Woodhouse and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ives of Detroit, were among some of the names noticed upon the bride's book of signatures.

Mr. and Mrs. Brand will make their home at Oak Knoll, Plymouth.

Convenience Outlets

When planning a new home, or considering changes in your present residence, it will be well to remember that much of the comfort of a home depends on the facilities provided for switching on the current in the different places where you may desire to use it.

Convenience outlets (small sockets in wall or floor) should be provided in every room; especially should they be found in dining room, living room and kitchen, in order that you may conveniently utilize the different electrical appliances that make modern housework so easy and pleasant a task.

Convenience outlets add nothing to your electric bill when not in use, and very little then. Speak to your electrical contractor about this.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES

The annual commencement exercises of our High school were held in the High school auditorium, last week Thursday evening. The decorations were very pretty, the color scheme being red and white, the class colors.

The exercises were opened with music by the girls' quartet of the senior class. Invocation by Rev. D. D. Nagle. The Misses Louva Rowland and Helen Fish had the honor of receiving the highest averages in the class. Louva gave the valedictory and Helen the salutatory. The young ladies did credit to themselves and are worthy of much praise.

The address was given by Prof. Louis Eich from the Oratory department of the University of Michigan. After congratulating the class and thanking them for the honor bestowed upon him, he announced his subject, "Citizens of Tomorrow." This was a very inspiring and forcible address, illustrated with many humorous stories. To be true citizens of tomorrow, we must be loyal to our physical, mental, moral, and intellectual and loyal to our state. How necessary it is after we are out of school to continue our physical exercise to keep our bodies strong. Reading the best books and classics was emphasized, together with a religious training that the youth may be guided in the right direction. The third point was our great problem of the day—how we can Americanize our foreign people and teach them to respect the laws of our great nation.

A violin duet was given by Henry Hutton and Catherine Learned. This was much appreciated by the audience.

Superintendent George A. Smith then spoke to the class, hoping that their training would make the world better, and urged them to scatter sunshine wherever they went. He called to go. He presented the diplomas, and declared them graduates of our High school.

The exercises closed by the audience singing, "America."

ALUMNI BANQUET

A HUGE SUCCESS

RAIN FAILS TO DAMPEN ENTHUSIASM OF OLD GRADS.

Amid the worst storm known to this locality for many years, about one hundred seventy-five alumni of old Plymouth High, enjoyed to the fullest extent their twenty-fifth reunion and banquet, last Friday night at the High school auditorium. Candles were placed on all tables for decoration, and when the storm caused a failure of electric lights, candles were lighted, and the program proceeded by candle-light. The orchestra failed to appear, but this only served to add to the enjoyment of the occasion, as each class entertained the crowd by singing their old High school songs, while the other classes were being served.

At the close of the banquet, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President—Clara Patterson-Todd.

Vice Pres.—Czarina Penney, '13.

Sec'y-Treas.—Louva Rowland, '24.

A. J. Richwine, president of the association, in his welcome to the toastmaster of the evening, Paul W. Voorhies, who took charge of the program. By this time the rain had succeeded in forcing its way into the auditorium which caused the toastmaster to remark that this was the first banquet he had attended for some time.

Robert J. Joffie responded to the first toast with an excellent speech of welcome to the new class. The class of 1924, numbering 33 members, was represented on the program by James Hickey, who responded to the welcoming speech on behalf of his classmates. Miss Czarina Penney was next on the program with two classical numbers on the piano. These numbers were exceptionally well rendered, and added no little enjoyment to the evening.

W. N. Labell, former superintendent of schools here, was next introduced, and spoke at some length on "Why I am a Teacher." This was Mr. Labell's first appearance in Plymouth for some time, and many of his old friends were on hand to greet his acquaintance and to welcome him back to Plymouth.

The Ladies' Quartet, composed of Madames Maxwell Moon, W. S. Baker, E. A. Cassidy and J. L. Osaver, accompanied by Mrs. Gilbert Brown on the piano, sang two beautiful songs. This quartet is a musical organization of exceptionally high quality, and, needless to say, their music was greatly enjoyed by all.

Rev. Ralph W. Brown of the class of 1914, was the next speaker, speaking on the subject, "Ten Years After Commencement." His toast was short, snappy and unquestion-ably the high spot on a most enjoyable program.

The banquet was served by the ladies of the M. E. Church, with the girls of the Junior class serving. With the failure of the lights and the unfavorable weather conditions, much credit is due the ladies for the smooth and efficient manner in which the meal progressed.

The plans for the next annual banquet and reunion under the direction of the new president, Mrs. Clara Patterson-Todd, include a special money raising event during the winter to provide extra funds for what should be the stellar banquet in the history of the Alumni association.

MANY COUNTY ROADS UNDER CONSTRUCTION.

Even though this has been a backward season in many ways, the work of constructing and modernizing the highway system in Wayne county has made some wonderful progress, according to a resume by Edward N. Hines, chairman of the Wayne county road commission, who has this to say in regard to the situation right at this time:

"Despite bad weather conditions and the usual organization of construction crews incident to starting the year's road improvement program, excellent progress is being made in the concreting of Wayne County's roads. Up to June 1st, 191,696 yards of 9-inch concrete pavement, approximately 16 miles of 20-foot concrete road, had been completed, which is a greater amount of new construction than has ever before been built at this period of our operations.

The Schoenherr road has been completed from the Seven Mile road to the Macomb County line, connecting with a 6-mile stretch of concrete in that county, making accessible the village of Warren and points north and opening up a new entrance to Detroit.

"The 3-mile gap on Five-Mile road has also been completed with a 9-inch concrete road, 30 feet over all and has been opened to traffic. The Five Mile road provides a continuous stretch of concrete starting at the junction of Livernois road and Fenwick avenue in Detroit and extending west 16 miles to the Plymouth-Northville road where a job is made necessary by the Ford Mill dam site and a connection is made with the Phoenix road 4 1/2 miles west to the Washtenaw county line. The Five-Mile road parallels the Seven Mile road two miles south, and will provide relief from traffic congestion on this important highway.

"The south 20-foot of Coon avenue has also been completed from the old city limits to connect with Division and Plymouth roads. This is a 40-foot concrete road and is open to traffic.

"A half mile cut-off has been completed and opened to traffic on the Ecorse road. This cut-off eliminates two dangerous railroad crossings for traffic going west on Ecorse road and south on Telegraph road. It is built of concrete, 20 feet wide, 20 feet over all.

"The north side of Grand River road has been completed from Division to Hill road and will be open to traffic in the latter part of June. This 20-foot roadway will be constructed to the center line of Redford by late fall.

"With two steam shovels, a concrete-breaker and a concrete mixer working on the grade, and a large

GAULT-SMITH

A pretty wedding was solemnized Saturday evening, June 14th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward D. Smith of Detroit, when their daughter, Wilma Hazel, was married to James Sherman Gault of Ann Arbor. The ceremony was performed in the presence of forty guests, by Dr. Edgar J. Warren, superintendent of the Detroit district of Methodist Episcopal churches, and a close friend of the bride's family. Mrs. Imogene Smith-Wuerth attended her sister as matron of honor, and the best man was William Eby Gault, brother of the groom. Mrs. Wallace Bartlett, a prominent church soloist, sang, "O Promise Me," by De Koven, and Prof. Charles L. Wuerth played Mendelssohn's wedding march. The ceremony took place under a canopy of green branches, ferns and snowballs, while the decorative bouquets were of pink roses. The bride carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses, and Mrs. Wuerth's bouquet was also of pink roses.

After the wedding luncheon, the happy couple left for Ann Arbor, where Monday, June 16th, Mr. Gault received his master's degree. Wednesday they left for an extended lake trip. They will be at home October 1st, in Ann Arbor where for two years Mr. Gault has been an instructor in the engineering department of the University of Michigan.

THE NEW INFORMATION BOOTH

The new information booth of the Chamber of Commerce on Main street, is nearly completed, and is certainly a nifty little building. It has been painted blue and white, the colors of the C. of C. Several flower boxes have been arranged at the front and sides of the building, which greatly add to its attractiveness. It will soon be in readiness to open to the public.

MACCABEE LADIES EXEMPLIFY WORK OF ORDER IN DETROIT.

About sixty ladies of the Maccabee Hive of this place, went to Detroit on Wednesday evening, to put on the public initiatory work of that order in Amity hall. A large audience witnessed the ceremony. The work was a repetition of the colonial pageant put on in Penniman Allen auditorium in February. The Plymouth ladies were guests of the Detroit Hive at a sumptuous banquet at 6:30 p. m. This gathering was the culmination of a three months' campaign for membership, in which Greenfield Hive received highest honors, having written up over forty-nine thousand dollars worth of protection. The special solicitor, who worked in that hive, was presented with a diamond ring in recognition of the splendid work done. Plymouth ladies received many compliments on the manner in which they put on the initiatory work.

HONOR ASSEMBLY

At the final High school assembly of the year, the students who had won honors during the year, were presented with medals, books, pins and letters.

Over 160 received pins and diplomas from the A. N. Palmer Co., in recognition of splendid work in penmanship in the several grades and High school.

The participants in athletics, oratory and debate received letters. The second term received 1924 numerals.

L. L. Ball, in behalf of Plymouth Lodge, Knights of Pythias, presented Ralph Burch with a gold medal, and Julia Wilcox with a silver medal for the best essays on the subject of "American Citizenship."

H. S. Lee, secretary of Plymouth Chamber of Commerce, presented books to Helen Fish, Catherine Wilcox, Elizabeth Murray, Irene Truesdale and Alta Hamill for the best essays on, "Plymouth—Its Envisable Past, Desirable Present and Possible Future."

The prizes given by the Knights of Pythias and Chamber of Commerce were both attractive and valuable, and much appreciated by the school and those receiving them.

METHODIST NOTES

Ladies' Aid picnic at Phoenix Park this afternoon and evening. Be sure to go. Pot-luck supper at 6:00. Bring the whole family.

Official Board meeting at the parsonage, next Tuesday night at 8:00 o'clock.

The Epworth League held its monthly social last Tuesday evening. A marshmallow roast was planned, to be held out in the country, but as it rained, they stayed at the church and spent a delightful evening under the leadership of the fourth vice-president, Mary Parrott.

Next Sunday would be a good opportunity for you to spend an hour or two in the worship of your Creator, by attending the services of the church.

The pastor begins Sunday night, a group of three sermons with a nature background, scenes from the Life of Jesus. First—"The Wilderness of Temptation."

"Let not your hearts be troubled; you believe in God; believe also in Me."

GRANGE NOTES

Bear in mind the Grange meeting, this, Friday evening, June 27th. Come with your "Liberty" response to roll call. It is expected that some arrangements will be announced at this meeting for our annual picnic, as a little out of the ordinary has been suggested.

Come to the ice cream social at St. John's church, Friday evening, June 27th.

Hupmobile

Drive Shaft and Piston one piece, drop-forged, 3/4 per cent nickel steel, case-hardened and double heat-treated, unusually heavy, with two chrome nickel steel taper roller bearings. Common construction calls for only ordinary carbon steel—with merely case-hardened bearings.

Vital Factors

That Make A Car Cost Less to Keep

Everyone knows what Hupmobile is and what it does—the finer construction of Hupmobile parts is one of the vital reasons why it is what it is and does what it does.

Seldom has greater help been given the buyer than the Hupmobile Parts Displays—one of which is a feature in our salesroom.

They show the finer, costlier practices of Hupmobile manufacturing—and you can contrast with them the lesser practices which frequently obtain.

Study these parts—read how finely they are built—then read, in the red type, what the common practice is. Know whether your next car is a product of the highest grade construction, or the other kind.

THE Big-Six Touring is a seven-passenger car—not merely a seven-passenger body mounted on a five-passenger chassis.

It was designed and built for seven-passenger service—with a motor of ample power and stamina for seven-passenger satisfaction.

Then, too, with the auxiliary seats folded away, the Big-Six becomes the most desirable five-passenger car in which you have ridden, with room enough for all the luggage you will ever need.

Big-Six appearance is attractive, distinctive, and in good taste. Its performance, acceleration, flexibility and dependability are known and respected the world over.

No car, regardless of price, surpasses it in quality or completeness of equipment.

If a smaller manufacturer or assembler were to build the Big-Six—of equal quality and workmanship—his price would be $3,500—perhaps more.

But Big-Six overhead is distributed over six times as many units as are built by any Big-Six competitor, hence Big-Six cost and selling price are surprisingly low.

Don't buy blindfolded. Examine, ride in and drive the Big-Six before you buy any other car.

Cruel Punishments of Pupils in Other Days

All the youngsters, whatever others may do, will approve the dismissal of the school teacher who dismissed a six-year-old boy as a punishment, says Girard in the Philadelphia Inquirer. The "cruel and unusual," so to speak, has almost vanished from the public schools.

Dr. J. George Becht, our Pennsylvania state superintendent, can recall when that was not the case.

The little gray schoolhouse—it rarely could afford to be painted red or any other color—was then heated by a big square stove which burned cord wood.

One mode of punishment was to make a boy stand upon a piece of wood on the floor, which required nice balancing and soon became a torture.

That was less punishment, however, than another often adopted. A boy or girl was made to hold a heavy book with outstretched arm.

Try that and see how heavy even the lightest-weight novel becomes in ten minutes.

One form of school punishment has not changed.

It is a common practice in Philadelphia to "keep in" boys and girls after school hours.

Wearing the "foolscap" or standing in a corner with face to the wall is still occasionally used as a corrective measure.

Doctor Becht can also remember when it was not uncommon for a teacher to compel a boy to bend over and keep his hands on the floor—a form of torture thought out by a real genius for devilry.

At that time a man would attain a reputation for severity of discipline which would make him famous, or rather infamous, over an entire county.

Method Devised to Detect Renewed Eggs

A new deception practiced on the consumers of eggs is now attracting considerable interest from the United States Department of Agriculture which, by the authority of the food and drug act, insists that the product of the hen when sold as fresh must be fresh and not merely look the part if it is to enter into interstate commerce. Large quantities of eggs are now preserved by first dipping in hot oil to seal the pores in the shells and are then immediately placed in cold storage. There is no objection to the practice, but recently it has been found that a number of egg concerns have been treating these eggs on removal from storage so as to give them the appearance of having been laid lately.

The treatment to remove the telltale oil gloss consists in "manuring" the shells with a blast of fine sand or in treating them with a bath in an alkali solution, after which they are dried and rubbed with French chalk or talc.

Chemists of the department have devised a method for detecting eggs which have been treated with oil and then subjected to the restoration process.

Brands Fruits and Nuts

One of the most recent applications of electricity to agriculture is the device which will brand various kinds of fruits and nuts with the grower's trade mark. It operates on current obtained from an ordinary electric lamp socket and is set next to the grading belt in the packing shed. The product to be marked rolls from the belt into a miniature oscillator which carries it over electrically-heated dies. These are kept at such a temperature that they will melt the natural wax in the peel or rind of the fruit and when thus prepared, other dies imprint the desired trade mark. The electrical fruit brander is now being used on oranges, water melons, apples and peaches to prevent substitution of inferior products for advertised brands.

Nothing Serious

A budding doctor gave a youth some excellent crimson lozenges and told him to chew them for the purpose of relieving a cough. In the afternoon he called and administered a gargle. The result startled him.

"My goodness!" he exclaimed, "You are bleeding internally!"

He was so agitated that the patient had to laugh. Upon recovering he explained: "That wasn't blood, doctor; just the crimson lozenges."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

All It Was Worth

A Scotsman who had just been married asked the parson what was the fee.

"Well," was the reply, "there is no fixed fee. Pay what you think it is worth."

Whereupon the bridegroom handed him one shilling. The parson took it, glanced at the bride, and handed back fourpence change.

SCREAM OF THE DOG FOX

Rarest and the Most Unearthly Animal Yell to Be Heard in North America.

Suddenly the stillness of a New Jersey countryside was broken by a perfectly appalling scream. Although I recognized what it was, my muscles jerked and twitched at the sound, and when it was repeated my companion, even though a veteran naturalist, gripped me so tightly that his fingerprints showed black on my arm the next morning.

It was the scream of a fox, probably the most sinister, unearthly wild animal note that can be heard in North America. The howl of the wolf and screech of the wildcat, or bay lynx, are all weird sounds, to say nothing of the frightful shriek which the horned owl sometimes gives, but none of them begins to be as fearful as the scream of a dog fox.

Usually he barks like a dog that is just learning how, and the vixen squalls and squawks like a heron; but none of these sounds can ever be confused with his scream, as rare and dreadful as that screech of a wounded horse which frightened even Hawkeye and Chingachgook.

A fox scream is not usually heard more than a few times in a lifetime. My first experience with the sound was on Cream Hill, up in Cornwall, Conn., one dark night when I was a boy—it was several years ago.

I was passing the Half Moon lot, whose thirty acres include a number of fox dens, and just as I reached Boundary Run, a vast tree which marked the corners of four farms, I heard a fearful scream in the darkness close at hand which I instantly recognized as the screech of a black panther.

Not having with me a rifle, a tomahawk, or even the long, keen hunting knife with which all the heroes of Harry Castleman and Mayne Reid, my authorities on panthers, black and blond, were always armed, I was somewhat at a disadvantage. In fact, a hurried examination of my pockets showed no more deadly weapon than a slate pencil.

However, I did not lose my presence of mind. Realizing instantly that flight was what the emergency required, I flew. At least I do not remember touching the ground until I crossed the bridge over the brook at the foot of the hill half a mile away.

At the time I felt that it was a very narrow escape and that I probably owed my life to the cool daring with which I had met the situation. In later years, however, since I learned that my black panther was really a red fox, I have had my doubts.—Samuel Scoville in Century Magazine.

Japs Excel in Carving

Japanese art is supreme in wood and ivory carving. Experts in such matters declare that there is nothing anywhere else that comes near what Japanese workmen can achieve. A specimen of ivory carving was shown to one investigator which represented a bag of rice with two or three dozen rats in and upon it. Every rat was an individual in character, position, and action, as if a special portrait had been taken of it, and the web of the bag, the glistening grains of rice and the sleek fur of the rodents could not have been better expressed in painting.

At an art show in Yokohama there was exhibited a piece of wood carving representing two life-sized wrestlers contending in the ring. Every muscle and every vein were delineated, every tendon and every ligament were anatomically perfect. It drew a constant crowd, and a policeman informed the proprietor of the shop that if he intended to continue the wrestling on his premises he must engage a posse of police to restrain the crowd. He was invited into the shop, and peered into smiles when he saw that the wrestlers were carvings in wood.

The Recounteur

"Well—how! how!—sir," laughed Tobe Sagg, "lemme tell you the funniest thing I ever heard of in all my life! Lank Lopstitch was riding along on horseback and lost his britches of He—"

"Lost them off? In the name of gracious how?" interrupted a motorist who had halted his car in the road to inquire the way to Presbyterian hill.

"Aw, it don't make no particular difference how. The story is about what happened afterwards, and—"

"But, wait! How in the name of the everlasting Sam Patch can a man lose his trousers off when he is riding horseback?"

"Looky yur! If you don't want to hear this story, say so!"—Kansas City Star.

BEECH-NUT and LONGEVITY

STICK to BEECH-NUT Chewing Tobacco and live to a ripe old age.

Insurance statistics show that chewers have better teeth, stronger digestions and sounder nervous systems than any other type of tobacco users.

Chief Justice White and Mr. Justice Harlan chewed even in the Supreme Court room, and died in harness and full vigor at 76 and 78 years respectively.

Wherever men are hard at work with head or hand—on or at the bench—on legislative and factory floors—or in the great big outdoors—BEECH-NUT Chewing Tobacco is steadying judgment, sustaining energy and arresting fatigue.

Over 250 million packages sold in a single year. Judged best everywhere. Far more than 10c. deserves.

HOLSTEIN FIELD DAY AT MT. CLEMENS

MEETING TO BE HELD AT DETROIT CERAMERY COMPANY FARM, TUESDAY, JULY 1ST.

On July 1st, the Macomb County Holstein Association, assisted by the State Holstein Association, will conduct a sort of field day at the farm of the Detroit Creamery Company at Mt. Clemens.

At this meeting, Bob Haeger, a veteran showman, as well as at present one of the leading judges of dairy cattle of the United States, will give a demonstration of judging. There will be plenty of material available, as the herd of the creamery company amounts to about 800 head. This day will be especially attractive to youngsters, particularly those engaged in club work, and especially so to those who will later in the season take part in judging contests.

Prof. Reed has been invited, so has C. M. Long from the National Holstein Association, and Jim Hayes (Ex-temperarian De-Luxe).

Big basket dinner at noon; inspection of the Detroit Creamery dairy equipment, etc.; judging demonstrations by Haeger, and talks on dairy topics will make a really worthwhile day. Come and bring your friends.

PRESBYTERIAN NOTES

We were glad to welcome to our pulpit, last Sunday morning, Rev. F. P. Knowles, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Northville, who exchanged pulpits with our minister.

The Ready Service class met Wednesday at the manse.

The Woman's Auxiliary had charge of the prayer meeting, last Wednesday night.

The Choir Chapter had a social gathering, last Wednesday night at the home of C. B. Weaver on the Northville road.

The church treasurer would appreciate receiving the July offerings regularly, even though the church is closed. Hand him your July envelopes before you leave for your vacation.

The Synod of Michigan met this week at Alma, Mich.

The church will reopen for morning service and Sunday-school, Aug. 3rd.

THE THEATRE

"THE UNINVITED GUEST"

One of the most marvelous as well as most beautiful photoplays of all time is coming to the Penniman Allen theatre, Saturday, June 28. It is a Metro production of "The Uninvited Guest."

Every kind of photography known in the making of motion pictures has been used in this photoplay. There is the ordinary black and white photography that is used for almost all pictures. There is the colored photography, made possible by the Technicolor Motion Picture Corporation, which shows all the beauty of the tropical waters and luxuriant growth of the South Seas. And there is the undersea photography, rarely used in moving pictures, and showing with realistic vividness scenes under water.

Ralph Ince directed this J. E. Williamson presentation which is based on Curtis Benton's story, "The Uninvited Guest."

"THE WOMAN ON THE JURY"

The courtroom is crowded; the hundreds of spectators are tense with suppressed excitement. The judge sternly watches for any outbreak of emotion. But everything is so quiet that the dropping of a pin would be audible in every section of the immense room.

The prisoner, a mere girl hugging a baby in her arms, sits beside her mother, tremblingly waiting for the verdict that undoubtedly will spell doom, for she is charged with murder. There is a single ray of hope for her—on the jury is a woman. Perhaps she will understand.

This is the dramatic atmosphere in which Harry O. Hoyt directed "The Woman on the Jury," a First National picture which is to be the feature at the Penniman Allen theatre, Sunday and Monday, June 29 and 30. But the courtroom episode is but one of the many powerful sequences which have been provided by the author, Bernard K. Burns, whose play ran for more than a year on Broadway.

Sylvia Breamer is featured with Frank Mayo playing opposite her. Other notables in the cast are Myrtle Stedman, Hobart Bosworth, Henry B. Walthall, Bessie Love, Mary Carr, Arthur Lubin, Lew Cody, Roy Stewart, Ford Sterling, Stanton Heck, Jean Hersholt and Leo White.

Director Hoyt, who adapted Colleen Moore's sensational "Flaming Youth," has proved in this new picture that woman was made for love, to love and of love, yet she must be trusted in return.

"TORMENT"

With half of the story laid in the American Bank of Yokohama at the time of the Japanese earthquake, Maurice Tourneur the director, promises a genuine motion picture novelty in his picturization of "Torment," which comes to the Penniman Allen theatre on Wednesday, July 2.

A sensational wrecking scene in which the characters become entombed in the lower regions of the bank, provides one of the gripping situations in the play. The following scenes make a band of international crooks, their victims and a fortune in jewelry removed from all communication with the outside world. The subsequent scenes are said to disclose one of the most unusual themes yet attempted for the screen. Interwoven in the highly tense story is a charming romance.

A massive reproduction of the lower vaults and adjoining rooms of the bank in Japan was built at the United Studios in Hollywood, where the sets occupied practically all of the floor space of one of the large stages. Exterior scenes and other atmospheric shots were photographed in Japan amidst the actual locale of the plot and used in conjunction with the situations filmed at the studio.

Owen Moore and Bessie Love head the cast, which includes Maude George, Joseph Kilgour, George Cooper, Morgan Wallace and Jean Hersholt.

FARM DAY AT M. A. C. SET FOR AUGUST 1.

Summer Farmers' Day at the M. A. C., an event which has come to be accepted as an annual event in Michigan rural life will be held on Friday, August 1, this year, according to announcement made here this week.

New features of entertainment and instruction will be included in the program for the day, an effort being made to provide a full day of activity for the thousands of farmers and their families who gather each year for the outdoor convention.

Speeches by nationally prominent agriculturists, a live stock parade or style review, made up of prize winners at state and national shows, special educational exhibits, and inspection of the extensive college experimental plots will feature the events of the day from the "business" side.

Band concerts, a big basket picnic lunch at noon, and informal gatherings of visitors from various sections will mark the entertainment side of the program.

Farmers' Day has grown from a special Wheat Day, held on the M. A. C. campus in 1918 to consider war conditions. Since that time the day has been made an all-college affair, with all departments of the agricultural division contributing to the program. More than 5,000 have attended for the past two years, and it is expected that the attendance figures will be broken on August 1, at the seventh annual meeting.

EPISCOPAL NOTES

Last Sunday, our service was held in the evening. There was a fairly good congregation, and the rector preached, taking his text from Matt. 4:12, "I will make you fishers of men." The rector was assisted in the service by Rev. S. Conger Hathaway, pastor of the Presbyterian church, who read the first and second lessons and also the portion of the psalms.

News has been received from Montana, that Franklin Gibson, our late minister, is to be ordained by Bishop Fox at Virginia City, next Wednesday, July 2nd. Mr. Gibson will leave for Detroit, on Thursday, the 3rd, for a month's vacation, and he hopes to pay Plymouth a visit during the vacation period. His old friends will be glad to see him again.

One of our young men, George Merryweather, leaves tomorrow for two weeks' camp at Camp Williams, near Port Sanilac. The camp is under the directorship of Rev. Charles McCurdy, rector of Birmingham, and has about 20 members.

This is the third season that George has attended this camp, where he says they always have "the King of these lives." Last year George won the silver cup for the best all around camper.

The pews have arrived and are placed in the church. They are a decided improvement over the folding seats we have been using.

The ladies are to give an ice-cream social in the grounds adjoining the church, Friday.

Next Sunday the service will be in the morning at 10 o'clock, and every Sunday morning during the month of July. There will be no evening services in July.

AN ORDINANCE

AN ORDINANCE relative to the discharging of oil, grease or inflammable liquids into drains, sewers and water courses, and relative to obstructing drains, sewers and water courses within the corporate limits of the Village of Plymouth, State of Michigan.

THE VILLAGE OF PLYMOUTH ORDAINS:

Section 1. No person, firm or corporation shall discharge any oil, grease or inflammable liquids into any drain, sewer or water course in the Village of Plymouth.

Section 2. No person, firm or corporation shall in any manner obstruct any drain, sewer or water course within the Village of Plymouth, either by the actual and intentional placing of an obstruction therein or by permitting any substance or material to be discharged into the same from property owned or controlled by him or it, which, by reason of the character thereof, will cause or produce such obstruction.

Section 3. All ordinances and parts of ordinances heretofore enacted by the Village of Plymouth conflicting herewith are hereby repealed.

Section 4. Any person, firm or corporation violating this ordinance shall be liable to imprisonment in the County Jail for a period not exceeding thirty days, or by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment, at the discretion of the court.

Section 5. This ordinance shall take effect from and after the date of its passage.

The University of Michigan graduated 1,800 students this year.

A dancing pavilion, 50x100 feet, is being erected at Whitmore Lake.

Redford and Brightmoor will have supervised playgrounds for the children this summer.

Wayne will have a Chautauqua this year. The dates are July 30, 31 and August 1, 2 and 3.

William H. Ambler, a well known citizen of Northville, died last week Wednesday. Mr. Ambler was nearly 80 years of age, and was born in Salem township.

At a special election in Holly, the taxpayers turned down a proposition to raise $20,000 by a bond issue for a school gymnasium and approved a proposition to spend $7,000 for two additional class-rooms.

Birmingham's boy scouts are to have charge of that village's flag, beginning Flag Day, June 14th, and continuing through the summer months, raising it each morning and lowering it each evening.

The factory building, formerly the property of the bankrupt Detroit Panel and Plywood Co., at South Lyon, has been sold to the Forged Seamless Tube Co., a manufacturing concern of the East, who expect to have the plant in active operation by October 1st.

The widening of Woodward avenue from the Detroit city limits, to the ten-mile road, will be completed and ready for use in time for State Fair visitors this fall. Work on the west side of Woodward, between the eight mile road and the village of Pleasant Ridge, is to be begun at once.

Birmingham's village tax rate has been reduced from $15.00 which was the 1923 rate, per thousand dollars valuation, to $12.50 per $1,000 for 1924. This was made possible by the increase of Birmingham's assessable property during the past year, to the amount of about $750,000.

Today's Reflections

Have you ever noticed that when a fellow takes his wife's advice, she always asks him later why he wasn't man enough to make up his own mind?

The chief trouble with being a man is that shaving takes longer than smearing on a little powder.

You may have noticed that Plymouth men who are so stingy they'd save match stubs for kindling are never much better off than the rest of us when they die.

Thirty years ago Plymouth women never thought of doing the things they do today. Maybe that's the reason they never did them.

Girls should remember that ardent admirers have to do more than admire after the wedding, if they keep out of the poor house.

A man can have great confidence in his wife and then be too sensible to teach her how to shoot.

When mother goes visiting she takes along an apron so she can help with the dishes. When daughter goes she takes along an old powdering, so she can help with the "dolling up."

The biggest fool in Plymouth is the man who imagines his friends will take care of him when he is down and out.

For general purposes time measure is all right, but a three-year-old auto is lots older than a three-year-old colt.

Russia is said to have a poets' union with 7,000 members. Now we know what's the matter with Russia.

The Plymouth boy who thinks his parents don't understand him is right. If they did he wouldn't be able to sit down more than half the time.

A LETTER FROM CALIFORNIA

Venice, Calif., June 11, 1924.

To "The Plymouth Mail":

This will be my last letter to the Mail before leaving California, as we expect, if nothing happens, to leave here on July 1st, but will not reach home for at least two months, as we are going to visit at several places along the way, and also spend about five days in Yellowstone Park.

We are both well, and still in love with this beautiful country. We are coming back to Michigan with the firm determination to some day come back to California.

We have seen a lot of Plymouth folks since we came out here last fall: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. George Van de Car, their son, Lester, and their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Hadley Underwood, Mr. and Mrs. John Lundy, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Ladd, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Will Todd, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shattuck, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Armstrong; Mr. and Mrs. Ora Chilson of Redford, and Mr. and Mrs. George Foster of Wayne. And last, but by no means least, we were very much surprised by a call from Miss Rowley. Her visit was all too short, and I hope she may make a real visit to California some day soon. You can see how many there have been here, visiting at Riggs' and at Wilcox's in the short time we have been here.

Ernie is working on a new double apartment house now, but will very likely be through a few days before we leave. We have been doing a lot of driving around over the country, and it is just beautiful everywhere. We were down to Riverside a few weeks ago, and that part of the country is especially lovely. I cannot understand how anyone, ever having lived there, could bear to leave for any other part of the world. The orange trees were loaded with blossoms when we drove down there, and the air was heavy with the most delicious fragrance; and the riot of roses everywhere, a sight to remember, climbing over every tiny shack or stately home, and along the fences, even up the trunks of the palm trees that border the roads on each side. Oranges are fifty cents a bushel. We have been eating strawberries for two months now; they have been as cheap as five cents a box.

I thought we were going to have the experience of a "quake" this morning. The house shook and the windows rattled, but it was only in practice, off the Los Angeles harbor about 18 miles, and nearly forty miles from here. We have been to San Pedro several times, and have seen the fleet there. The giant ships are a grand sight, especially to go over them on a tour of close inspection, as we did the "Oklahoma" and the "California." Such neatness, such shining brass and white decks. Mr. Wilcox is very much better in health than he was for a long time last winter, and is able now to get out quite a little.

The weather here is ideal, not too hot and not too cold, the most delightful breeze blowing from the ocean even on very warm days.

We read in the Mail of the many changes and improvements made in Plymouth since we left, so I expect we will hardly know where we are when we get there.

Do not send us the Mail any more, here, after you receive this, as we will not be here.

With best wishes to everybody,
from "The Vesleys"

BAPTIST NOTES

The theme for the morning service last Sunday, was "Vision." The vision of the soul—things that are not seen by the natural eye, but are revealed by God's power.

The flowers were of uncommon beauty, and gave to the "Children's Day" exercises a fine background. The B. Y. P. U. has done good work along this line every Sunday of the month.

The B. Y. P. U. held their monthly social in the form of a picnic supper at Phoenix Park, last Tuesday evening. There was lots to eat, and a good time reported by all.

The prayer meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stanley last Wednesday evening. Mrs. Kettel was the leader. All Christians ought to come together to pray, each week.

The Sunday evening service was a great success last Sunday. The Sunday-school pupils were eager for the program to be carried out, and entered heartily into the service. Everything about the program showed that the committee had given splendid attention to the singing, recitations and songs. So another Children's Day was a happy occasion. A large audience filled the church to greet the boys and girls.

The Board of Trustees met at the church last Monday evening.

PERRINSVILLE

Not many were out to church Sunday to hear the very impressive sermon on "The Sins of the World." Rev. Havens will be back next Sunday, when Children's Day exercises will be held. Everybody welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cousins entertained Mr. and Mrs. M. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Outhwaite of Detroit, Sunday.

Visitors at George Baehr's, Sunday, were: Mr. and Mrs. F. Baird of Rochester; Mr. and Mrs. George Miller of Royal Oak; Mr. and Mrs. F. Myhra and family of Birmingham; Mr. and Mrs. John Herr and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. Hjerpe and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Wolf and daughter of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Bills of Kansas; Mrs. James Cousins and Mrs. F. Outhwaite.

Grandma Decker is very poorly. Mrs. Helen Wolgast called on Mrs. Belle Baehr, Monday.

BASE BALL

Sunday, the House of Correction lost to the Windsor Mohawks in an eleven-inning game, by the score of 6 to 7. Shaw and Ima were on the mound for the Mohawks and pitched consistent ball, while Baehr for the others pitched good ball, but could not hold the Mohawks.

Ball game at Wayne City Tuesday night. The game was postponed one week on account of the grounds.

6000 PLATE GLASS SMASHES DURING 1923

Experience proves that any owner must expect to have at least one breakage every four years.

The replacement service of the UNITED STATES FIDELITY & GUARANTY COMPANY provides not only for the prompt installation of plate glass, but also saves the owner time, worry and money.

The loss of your window for 24 hours might easily be worth more than the actual value of the glass.

Politics and the Railroads

To the present generation of Michigan Railroad men it is a grateful thought that this Peninsular commonwealth is appreciative of the fact that Railroad Service is today the best in Michigan history.

We know this appreciation by actual expressions—spoken and written—and by the gradual disappearance of that ancient hostility which featured an era of Railroad long past.

Most people realize that Railroad Service has been re-established despite laws which restrict management in every detail—laws which add huge burdens of expense to Railroad operation without assisting in any way toward Railroad progress or the development of Railroad Service.

Those who understand these facts give full credit for the achievement of Michigan's twenty-four steam Railroads and are prompt to resent selfish attacks on them. Before this defense—a defense based on facts—railroad aspersion is becoming out of date, except for spasmodic revivals at election time, when office seekers, desperately fighting for votes, sometimes endeavor to turn Railroad abuse into political capital.

Railroads have small chance to meet such attacks. Railroad men are too busy furnishing transportation and conducting negotiations with the various Government boards and commissions which so closely supervise our every act. In this extremity we must rely on you to protect and defend us, and to insure us a square deal.

Is this reliance well placed?

A BUSINESS CHANGE

Russell G. Detting of Manchester, Mich., has purchased the business of the Plymouth Auto Supply Co. of O. R. Borck, who has conducted the business in the Fifth block on Penniman avenue for the past several years and took possession of the store last Monday. Mr. Detting is a young man and comes highly recommended from his home town. He will carry on the business, which has grown and prospered under Mr. Borck's management, and the same splendid service which the store has always given will be maintained by the new proprietor.

Mr. Borck expects to leave for the west in the near future. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Borck will be sorry to have them leave the village, but will wish them success and happiness wherever they may locate in the future.

LOCAL NEWS

Mrs. George Meddaugh is visiting friends in Cleveland, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dunn will spend this week-end with relatives at Lansing.

Maech Vealey and wife of Missoula, Montana, are visiting the former's brother, B. F. Vealey and wife.

Mrs. H. S. Lee entertained eighteen ladies at tea, Wednesday afternoon, at her home on Ann Arbor road.

A regular meeting of the Order of the Eastern Star will be held in Masonic hall, Tuesday evening, July 1st, at 7:30.

Mrs. Frank Burrows underwent an operation for appendicitis at Harper hospital, last week Thursday. She is getting along nicely.

Dr. and Mrs. Luther Peck attended the convention of the National Homeopathic Medical Society at Cleveland, several days this week.

Misses Lavina Holmes and Raiva Schilling are spending a week in Detroit with their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Westfall.

Mrs. C. J. Teufel of Toledo, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Willett, the first of the week, and attended the wedding of her sister.

Roy Herald of Detroit, candidate for state senator, First District, of which Plymouth is a part, was in town Tuesday, calling on friends.

Mrs. Frank Dunn will attend the alumni banquet of the Northville High school this evening. Mrs. Dunn was a member of the 1905 graduating class.

Many from Plymouth attended the polo game at the Grennan farm at Waterford, last Sunday. It was a very exciting contest and was very interesting to watch.

Walter Schiffe and Conrad Olson are building new houses, and Howard Beebe and George Lunger are building new additions to their cottages in the George H. Robinson subdivision.

Miss Hazel Reddeman left last Sunday on an extended trip through the west, visiting the Grand Canyon, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Salt Lake City, Royal Gorge, Colorado Springs and Denver.

The remains of Mrs. J. M. Miller, who died at her home in Detroit, last Saturday morning, were brought here Monday for interment in Riverside cemetery. J. M. Miller, husband of the deceased, is a brother of George C. Miller of this place.

Our treat—come and get some good things to eat

A good housewife won't take anybody's word about an article as important as an oil cook stove.

She wants to see for herself how it works and what sort of results it gives. We don't blame her.

That is why we are demonstrating the Florence Oil Cook Stove in our window.

An expert cook is doing all sorts of cooking right before your eyes and serving everything she cooks so you can judge the results.

Every good housekeeper will be interested and should make it a point to see this demonstration.
