"WHERE WILL IT END"

It is almost impossible these days to pick up a newspaper that doesn't contain at least one report of bank or payroll holdups. Papers reaching here recently, have told of three such instances in Chicago; and Milwaukee, in which a total of close to $200,000 was involved.

The day of the little cross-roads postoffice robbery seems to have passed with the arrival of the high-powered automobile, and the nerve of those who prefer to make their living at the point of an automatic pistol seems to have been strengthened at the same time. The fact that only a very small per cent of those pulling off these high-handed robberies actually get away doesn't seem to discourage others, for within the past two months, in fact ever since cold weather arrived, highway robbery has been on the increase. Today the auto makes it possible for the bandit to escape quickly, and good roads in every section enable him to cover many miles before officials of the law can get into action. Banks and stores in towns like Plymouth, are brought into closer reach of those desperate characters, because they can get into safe territory much more speedily than in the days when they had to depend on shelter in the woods and hills by day, and their legs at night. Then, too, they can easily put telephone lines out of commission now with a few snips of a pair of pliers, and be safe in their haunts in a distant city before news of their banditry has been flashed to the outside world.

They say we are living in a fast age, and if anyone doubts it, all he has to do is to pick up a newspaper and glance over the accounts of bank and payroll robberies.

AUTO TAX MONIES

The Plymouth man who doesn't drive a car isn't as strong for good roads as the man who owns one, and who pays a pretty tax for the privilege of such ownership. And yet the man who has no car is in a way indebted to his neighbor who has. The superintendent of schools of the state of Ohio recently declared that "the counties that have the best roads also have the best schools." We accept it as the truth, and call attention to the fact that a vast per cent of the money that is being spent in this country for good roads is coming directly out of the pockets of car owners in the shape of taxes for auto licenses. So car owners, in paying their good money for roads are at the same time making better schools. And better schools are going to benefit the man who does not own a car just as much as they benefit the families that do. It is a pretty good idea, if you are a non-car owner, to consider this point in favor of those who do own them, but who are being taxed heavily for that privilege.

Christmas guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Spicer were: Mr. and Mrs. William Wakeley and two daughters and Mrs. Fannie Barker of Detroit; Miss Mabel Spicer of Indianapolis, Indiana; Lyman Judson of Albion, and Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Spicer and daughters of this place.

NOTICE OF ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the members of the Plymouth Home Building Association will be held at the Village Hall, on Monday evening, January 12th, at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of electing three directors in the place of Charles H. Bennett, Wm. E. Shaw and D. F. Murray, whose terms of office expire at that time, and for the transaction of such other business as may lawfully come before the meeting.

Signal, W. E. Shaw, Secretary.

PLYMOUTH GIRL HONORED

Miss Lucille Dickerson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Dickerson of this village, who is attending the Michigan State Normal College at Ypsilanti, has been honored by being elected as a member of the Stoic society, to which a membership is much coveted by students at the Normal. Miss Dickerson has received the following letter informing her of her appointment:

"Michigan State Normal College, Ypsilanti, December 22, 1924. Miss Lucille Dickerson, Plymouth, Michigan. My Dear Miss Dickerson:

"We take great pleasure in informing you that you have been elected a member of the Stoic society because of the high grade of your work and the high esteem in which you are held by the faculty and your fellow-students.

"You will be informed later of the time and place of the first meeting next term and if you wish to accept this invitation to membership, we shall hope to see you with us. The Stoic society has no ceremony of initiation and no dues.

"In awarding the three annual Stoic scholarships the society asked each member of the faculty to suggest two names from the sophomore class most worthy of this honor. A class standing list was also prepared and the opinion of the present members of the society was taken as to the students' helpfulness in the school. In this way a list of nineteen was selected who were most favorably considered for the scholarship. These were elected to membership in the society. We feel sure that all of them are worthy of the scholarship but only three of them can receive it. The scholarship awards will be announced later.

"We hope that the recognition of merit which is involved in election to membership in the Stoics will be a source of pleasure to you and to those near to you and it is our wish that it may help to bring you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year."

Very sincerely,
THE STOICS.

GRANGE NOTES

January 8th will be installation of officers. Let every member be present, and help start the New Year right. Do not forget, there will be a pot-luck dinner at noon. Also, there will be a roll call on "A New Year's Resolution or Quotation."

Mrs. Kurtz and daughter of Farmington, are spending the week with the former's father, Mr. Reinas.

L. A. Wiseley and wife entertained their children and grandchildren at a turkey dinner, Christmas day.

FORD TO BUILD POWER PLANT ON HURON RIVER.

A new 700-horsepower hydro plant will be built on the Huron river three and one-half miles southeast of Ypsilanti by the Ford Motor Co. This will be the second Ford water-power on the Huron river, the fifth in the Detroit area and the ninth in the United States.

The south end of the dam will rest on a 40-foot bluff overlooking a narrow valley through which the Huron meanders. The backwater will form a lake about three miles long covering approximately 1,000 acres and restoring to its original beauty what scientists at Ann Arbor say is the dried up bed of a lake formed during the glacial period.

The use of the water stored in this lake will be of material benefit to the present Ford hydro plant at Flat Rock, 10 miles downstream, by causing a steady flow in the river during the dry season.

The head of height from the water level above the dam to the level below will be 33 feet. Two turbo-generators of 350 horsepower each will be installed.

The Ford hydro stations now in operation or under construction and their horsepower are: Twin Cities, 24,200; Menominee river, 10,000; Green Island, N. Y., 9,650; Hamilton, O., 5,050; Flat Rock, Mich., 940; Nankin Mills, Mich., 80; Phoenix, Mich., 80; Plymouth, Mich., 40. Total horsepower, 50,040.

Music By The Northville Choir

Next Sunday evening there will be an exchange of choirs between the Presbyterian churches of Plymouth and Northville, and special music prepared for the holiday season will be given. Last Sunday night the church was crowded to the doors to hear Chief Skiuhushu. Let's repeat the attendance on this first Sunday of the new year.

season, and has been spiritually profited by the event, which each year has added significance for the welfare of each one of our lives, and for the whole world.

The pastor and his wife wish to thank all who so kindly remembered them at Christmas time.

Prayer from the parsonage is constantly ascending up before the throne of God, on behalf of every member of the church and congregation.

We earnestly beseech all our Christian folk to join us in prayer, for a great spiritual harvest during these winter months of activity, that many souls shall be saved, and confess Christ as Lord and Master.

The recreational program will soon be in readiness to be carried out for the season. You will be interested to join in the activities. Join the Recreational Association at 25c per, and you will help boost things along, and get a great deal more profit out of the activities.

The pastor and Sunday-school superintendent would like to have expressions of opinion from various members of the Sunday-school and church, as to their attitude to the hours of service that have been in use for the last two months. The period of trial is nearly up. Tell us now you like it, or don't like it. Christian Advocate subscriptions are due and payable now.

BAPTIST NOTES

The Christmas exercises by the Sunday-school on Christmas eve, were well renewed, and the audience seemed gratified to hear and see the program, as the children and young people carried out their parts. The orchestra opened the evening with many selections of music, and the choir sang some inspiring Christmas anthems. When Santa arrived, he shook hands with the children, but had to go over to the fireplace to warm his hands because he was quite cold from his long drive. Everyone went away happy, and wished each other a Merry Christmas.

Sunday was a cold day, and not many were at church, but the church was warm and comfortable. The pastor gave a New Year's sermon, using the 90th Psalm, and especially the twelfth verse.

The pastor thanks the church and friends who remembered them so generously, and wishes all a Happy New Year and prosperity.

The Sunday-school had a good attendance in most of the classes last Sunday.

Duane Sayles led the B. Y. P. U., and there was a good discussion on Americanization and our responsibility to every foreigner who comes to our shore.

The "Travelogue," to be given in our church by Mr. Jefferies, of his trip around the world, and which has come to us with the very best recommendation, will be held January 19th. Save this date for this entertainment.
The pastor's sermon for Sunday evening was, "Is the Young Man Safe?" II Samuel, 18:32. (1) Is his mind safe, does he think right? (2) Are his habits safe? (3) Is he a safe man in business? (4) Would he make a safe husband? (5) Is his soul safe?

The B. Y. P. U. held their New Year's social at the Baptist parsonage last Wednesday evening.

LIVONIA CENTER LUTHERAN CHURCH.

There will be regular services at the Livonia Center Lutheran church on Sunday, January 4th, in the English language. Sunday-school at the usual time. On Saturday, January 3rd, at 1:00 p. m., the annual meeting of the Ladies' Aid society will be held at the church. All ladies are kindly requested to be present.

CELEBRATED SILVER WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

A very pleasant event took place at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schroder last Sunday afternoon and evening, when about forty of their relatives and friends came to help them celebrate their silver wedding anniversary. At seven o'clock, a lovely chicken dinner was served in the dining room, which was prettily decorated in silver and white.

Immediately following the dinner, a mock wedding was performed. Mrs. Bell dressed in the conventional garb of a minister, led the wedding party down the broad stairway to the archway, to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March. She was followed by the bride, Mrs. Schroder, who was dressed in white and carried a bouquet of roses and baby mums, and the groom, Mr. Schroder. Mrs. George Miller of Salem, and John Melow of Farmington, acted as bridesmaid and best man. Music and other forms of entertainment followed, after which the evening was completed by a midnight lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. Schroder received a great many beautiful gifts in remembrance of their twenty-fifth anniversary. The guests departed at a late hour, wishing them many more happy years together, as they have had in the past.

SALEM

Your correspondent wishes the Mail and all its readers a very Happy New Year.

The Christmas spirit has been in full sway for the past two weeks or so, at both churches in Salem. The Federated church held their exercises Wednesday evening, and were surely pleasing in every way. About fifty children took part in the grand march, and the recitations, music, etc., were of the best. Old Santa put in his appearance, much to the joy of the youngsters. And Christmas Eve was a happy night for everyone.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Stanbro spent Christmas at the Emmett Gearharty home.

Frank Ryder is on the sick list. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Lyke and family entertained about twenty relatives for dinner, Christmas.

C. Stanbro and wife and E. Gearharty, wife and family spent Sunday of last week, with relatives in Ypsilanti.

Miss Ethel Doane of Ann Arbor, called at the Sylvester Atchison home, Saturday.

Mrs. Sarah Stanbro spent Christmas with her son, L. W. and family, of South Lyon. She is now a guest at the George Roberts' home.

James Bradley is ill at this writing, and under the care of a doctor.

Frank Westphal, a former resident of Salem, died at his home near West Branch, last week, and was brought to the Walker cemetery Tuesday for burial. Services were conducted by Rev. Halliday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Foreman entertained for Christmas dinner: Mr. and Mrs. D. Dake and Mr. and Mrs. James Dickie of South Lyon, and Miss Dorothy Foreman of Detroit.

Miss Florence Foreman visited friends and relatives in South Lyon, over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard McKenna entertained his sister, Mrs. Will O'Rourke of Detroit; his brother, H. J. McKenna, wife and daughter, Adeline, of Grand Rapids, and Ray Spears for Christmas dinner.

Rev. Halliday, wife and family and Mrs. Sarah Stanbro were in Detroit Sunday evening, and attended The Messiah Concert at Orchestra hall.

A surprise party was given Saturday evening, in honor of Stanley Proctor's twenty-first birthday. Refreshments were served, and all were royally entertained.

John Asplin of South Lyon, was calling on friends in Salem, Monday. Harold Foreman was in Detroit, Monday, on business.

Rev. Halliday had the misfortune to have his automobile quite badly damaged, Monday, while enroute to Detroit. Another car collided with his. Fortunately, he was not hurt. He was intending to bring home Mr. Doane, who has been at the hospital for some time, but was obliged to call for other assistance.

The many friends of Henry Doane will be glad to know that he has quite fully recovered from his recent operation, and was brought home Monday, by Mr. Burnham.

ELM

The writer of this column wishes to take this opportunity to extend to all the readers, a most happy and prosperous new year, and may your blessings be many.

The children of this district gave a very attractive program Tuesday evening, December 23, at the Elm school. There were many recitations and special music. They also had the customary Christmas tree, and each child received bags of candy and nuts from both the school and the Sunday-school, besides small gifts from teachers and playmates.

On account of the terrible ice storm, the Boy Scouts of Highland Park, postponed their demonstration until Friday, January 9th, 1925. Don't forget the date, and everyone come. There is no admission, and a good program is assured.

Mrs. Barrows, the matron of the Booth Home for children, wishes to express her sincere thanks to Harry Robinson and Dr. Champe and to the Rotary Club, for the bags of candy, fruit and nuts they distributed among the children of the home Christmas Eve.

The Booth Home children had a lovely Christmas program and tree in the Home school house, Tuesday, December 23rd, 1924. They gave the Christmas pageant, "Xmas Eve in the Land of Nod."

Miss Cleo Maher, the teacher of the Home, spent Christmas with relatives in Bay City, and will be in Howell for New Year's day.

Mrs. Georgia Barrows of the Booth Home attended a large Christmas party in Detroit, on Christmas Day. Many of the children left Wednesday, for their homes in Detroit, and Columbus, Ohio, to be with their parents for Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKinney are rejoicing over the arrival of a new baby girl, born December 29th.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Cort gave a large dinner party on Christmas day, at their home on Schoolcraft road. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Odby of Highland Park, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Morris of Detroit.

THE THEATRE

"THE BANDOLERO"

One of the most interesting features of "The Bandolero," which will be the feature at the Penniman Allen theatre Saturday, January 3, is said to be the bullfight scenes. These were made by Tom Terriss, the director, in Granada, Spain, near the famous Alhambra, while the Grand Fair of that nook of the world was in progress.

Mr. Terriss hadn't gone to all the trouble of taking his company to that authentic spot to get ordinary bullfight pictures. He was after something entirely different. As a matter of fact, he came very near getting nothing at all because of a bullfighters' union whose members decided they wouldn't do their business in front of cameras without getting paid extra special salaries for the occasion.

Things were looking mighty black so far as special bullfight scenes were concerned when Canero, the most renowned annoyer of bulls in Spain, came along with his ten thousand dollar white horse. Canero said he was willing to do his act, for which he usually receives one thousand pesetas, for nothing. That looked to Mr. Terriss like a very fair basis from which to begin bargaining; and as a result Canero and his ten thousand dollar nag soon were at work on a bull.

As Canero's specialty is not allowing any one except himself and his horse to get into danger—dodging the bull on horseback at the last possible moment, and then, for good measure, hurdling over the bull's back—Mr. Terriss got not only the different sort of bullfight that he was seeking, but also one that while packed with thrills, was innocent of those details that make most bullfights not only censurable, but also not highly diverting to most Americans.

"DOROTHY VERNON OF HADDON HALL"

Without question, and quite naturally, the greatest magnet in connection with "Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall," which comes to the Penniman Allen theatre, Sunday and Monday, January 4th and 5th, is the name of the star and producer—MARY PICKFORD.

This picture without doubt is the greatest photoplay Miss Pickford ever has made. It has everything in it that any other picture of hers ever had—and a lot more. It has romance; it has thrills; it has Mary Pickford mannerisms and characteristics that so endeared her to the public in the earlier days of her stardom; there is the delightful Mary Pickford comedy; there is action so fast that it will leave any audience breathless; Mary Pickford is more beautiful by far than in any other of her previous features; the picture is made from Charles Major's romantic novel of the same title—the novel which long has been in the list of best sellers of fiction.

MEN who see "Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall," will find many points to interest them, such as the thrills of fearless horsemanship and duels exemplifying the finest type of swordsmanship. The intrigue, the delightful comedy and the human treatment of the story will please all masculine tastes.

WOMEN will marvel at the beauty of the gowns worn by Mary Pickford and other feminine players. There are laughter and tears, tragedy and sorrow, pathos and humor; in fact, it is an emotional exercise which will gratify any woman. They will exclaim at the stupendous sets, beautiful photography and the genuineness of the love story running through the production.

"TONGUES OF FLAME"

Thomas Meighan comes to the Penniman Allen theatre on Wednesday and Thursday, January 7 and 8, next in a Paramount screen version of "Tongues of Flame," the last novel by the late Peter Clark Macfarlane—a Joseph Henabery production with Bessie Love, Eileen Percy and others playing in support of the star.

The picture shows how Boland, an unscrupulous business man, and Scanlon, his tricky lawyer, steal a large tract of land from the Indians. Through Boland's efforts three towns spring up on the land and thirty years later Boland, rich and powerful, rules the towns and everyone in them.

At the close of the Great War, "Hell Fire" Harrington, the role played by Tom Meighan, opens a law office in one of the towns. He falls in love with Boland's daughter, Billie, and for a time works for Boland, willfully blind to the latter's unethical transactions. Then a little half-breed school teacher who is in love with Harrington, opens his eyes to the fact that Boland is using him as a tool to swindle the Indians for the second time.

In spite of the fact that Boland threatens to ruin and disgrace him Harrington takes up the Indians' fight. The squabble over property rights reaches the Supreme Court and is decided in the Indians' favor. This turns the entire town against Boland—and what a scene there is! Crowds surge through the streets firing warehouses and shipping. It's a case of mob rule until Harrington arrives on the scene with a little band of loyal Indians who had survived in his company in the World War and brings the townspeople to their senses.

There's action-plus in "Tongues of Flame," drama, heart-appeal and all the rest. Meighan has never done anything quite like it before.

If you're a Meighan fan, you'll see this one!

Today's Reflections

The auto driver who hesitates at the railroad crossing says good-bye to the caboose instead of howdy-do to the undertaker.

Who among us in Plymouth, can remember when all men wore suspenders, and when they occasionally hung a man in this country for murder?

Political differences are not hurting America. It's the political indifference that does the greatest harm.

There are a lot of great men in this country, but few who can keep from looking silly when being photographed for the movies.

Up in Maine, a woman captured a deer in her front yard. Here in Plymouth quite a few girls capture dears in their front room.

Years ago the "full dinner pail" was a popular slogan in this country, but the present generation seems to favor the "full gas tank."

Go along the street in Plymouth, and you'll hear a man say confidentially: "The fact of the business is—" and then he'll turn right in and distort the facts.

Don't call a man a liar just because he says he never had a fight with his wife. Maybe he's a bachelor.

The principal difference between a cow chewing her cud and a girl chewing gum, is that the cow can always look unconcerned.

We've come to the conclusion that the trouble with the average Plymouth man is that he considers himself above the average.

There's one secret most Plymouth wives never keep from their husbands, and that is their opinion of them.

We wouldn't be surprised to learn most any day that congress will next investigate the cross-word puzzle craze.

Lincoln said the Lord loved common people, because He made so many of them. Could we say the same thing about Ford cars?

Most Plymouth men who get a circular from a fake stock-selling concern would give the price of a share of the stock to find out who sent in their name.

CROP REPORT

The excellent yields and satisfactory prices of the 1924 wheat crop have revived the interest in wheat growing. This has resulted in an increased acreage being sown this fall in Michigan and throughout the country. According to the official estimate issued recently by L. Whitney Watkins, Commissioner of Agriculture, and Verne H. Church, U. S. Agricultural Statistician for Michigan, the acreage seeded to wheat by Michigan farmers is 968,000, a gain of 46,000, or five per cent, over last year. The dry weather that prevailed throughout the fall months was unfavorable for a vigorous growth, especially where the crop was sown late, and has gone into the winter in many sections with a light top growth. In other localities the condition is fairly good. For the state as a whole, crop correspondents report an average condition of 83 per cent on December 1. Some damage by Hessian fly was reported from several southern and southwestern counties.

The area sown throughout the United States is estimated at 42,317,000 acres as compared with 39,749,000 one year ago, an increase of approximately 6.5 per cent. The condition reported is 81 per cent, which is seven per cent below that of the same date last year and 5.5 per cent below the ten-year average.

The acreage of rye in Michigan, which showed a marked decrease last year, has made a further decline of six per cent. The amount seeded this fall is estimated at 342,000 acres, or 22,000 less than last year's final figure. The December 1 condition was 86 per cent of normal, six per cent below that of one year ago and the ten-year average.

For the country as a whole, the acreage shows but little change from last year according to the preliminary estimate, it being 4,206,000 as compared with 4,178,000 sown in the fall of 1923. The prospective outlook is represented by a condition figure of 87.3 per cent. The average on the same date last year was 89.9 which was the same as the ten-year average.

The supply of farm labor has increased to 87 per cent of normal and the demand has fallen to 79 per cent of normal, the change in each case being one per cent during the month of November. This increases the ratio of supply to demand to 110 per cent as compared with 100 per cent on November 1.

A LETTER FROM FLORIDA

St. Petersburg, Fla., Dec. 25, 1924.
L. B. Samsen, Editor Plymouth Mail.
Dear Sir:
As today is Christmas, I will write a few lines, hoping you are well. We are all well, for there is no other way to be down here where there is nothing but sunshine. You know where there is sunshine, there is good health, so there is no other way for me to be.
But Christmas does not seem right to me down here, where there is no snow, and where there are flowers blooming, and the front yards are all nice and green with grass and foliage. It seems more like the Fourth of July than Christmas to me, but I like it at that, better than the snow and cold winds that we have up north. I am sending you the program of today's Christmas doings. It will show you what they do here to make it look like Christmas to us from the north, and the weather report of the 24th, so it will give you a comparison of the two places as to weather. We have all the good eats just the same as at home, for it all comes from there.
I will close for this time, wishing you and all my friends at home a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

William E. Wilske,
St. Petersburg, Fla.

AROUND ABOUT US

Frank Perrin of Northville, and well known in Plymouth, has gone to Florida, where he will spend the remainder of the winter.

Kibalchick Russian choir appears in concert at Hill auditorium, Ann Arbor on January 19th—a number of the extra concert series.

Inland lakes of Michigan are to be stocked with wall-eyed pike by the state department of conservation, providing the next legislature grants an appropriation for the establishment of a new fish hatchery at Houghton lake.

Rushton was quite honored at the recent International Grain and Stock show held in Chicago. W. A. Wortley received the second premium on the 10 ear Picket yellow dent corn test. His two sons, Lynn and Clair, received first and second premiums on the ten ear test of the same kind of corn as above from the department of the juniors, "The Boys and Girls' Clubs." The grain was grown this year on Mr. Wortley's farm in northeast Northfield township, making an international reputation for the farm, also putting Rushton on the map.—South Lyon Herald.

On a field in Dearborn where Henry Ford, as a boy, played about an old brickyard pond and watched the working of a small steam engine developing power that pressed the brick, now stands the new engineering laboratory building of the Ford Motor Company, ready for occupancy. Scores of Fordson tractors are at work in the fields nearby which have become Ford experimental farms where more and better ways to use power are sought. The bed of the pond has been deepened and transformed into a picturesque lake as a foreground for the massive, gracefully proportioned building in which the ideals of a world-wide organization are to be furthered. The building itself is dedicated to the advancement of an ambition inspired by the little brick press engine to apply motive power more generally to human needs.

HAPPINESS

The pursuit of happiness, no doubt, is the chief, though unconscious, occupation of mankind. Yet it is certain no one of us can be truly happy in a rented home. My business is to help show people the way to avoid doing this. For instance, I have one now for $4,000, which, at the moment it is seen, will command your serious attention. This one is centrally located. At the price offered, it is also a gilt edged investment. When do you wish to see it?

"Feed the birds in winter" is old advice, but it is seldom more necessary than right now. The thick coat of ice that covers not only the ground but every twig, bush and weed, makes it extremely difficult for the birds and wild game to get enough to keep alive. Many flocks of quail are near the starvation point, and there is no sign of the famine lifting unless man comes to the rescue. This is an urgent appeal to you to scatter grain or other food where it will be found by the birds to tide them over until they may again find their own living.

SIELOFF-BORDINE

A very pretty informal wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Sieloff, last week Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock, when their son, Mayford, E. and Miss Laura M. Bordine were united in marriage. At the appointed hour to the strains of Lehmgren's wedding march, the bridal party took their places before a flower banked altar. The Rev. Charles Strasen performed the ceremony, using the impressive double ring service.

The bride was charmingly gowned in peacock blue roshanara crepe trimmed in white fur. She carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Myrtle Rendel, who was dressed in blue charnense trimmed in fur, and carried a bouquet of Columbia roses.

The groom was attended by his brother, Theodore A. Sieloff. The rings were carried in two pink roses, by little Elizabeth Louise Sieloff, a niece of the groom.

After the ceremony, a bounteous dinner was served to about thirty-five guests. They received many useful and beautiful gifts. After a short wedding trip, the happy couple will be at home on their farm in Salem township.

"STOP THIEF"

In "Stop Thief," to be played at the High school auditorium, Tuesday, January 6th, there is a world of fun built upon the idea of the kleptomaniac. What is a kleptomaniac? He is a person who "takes things unconsciously," as James Cluney puts it in the play. And the world at large is inclined to ask with Jack Doogan, the real burglar, "Can you get away with it?" or say with him, "Gee, what an alibi!" To get at the idea of the play in another way, if you had entered a house as a sure-enough burglar, how would you feel to find that there was a man there ahead of you who believed that he had taken "unconsciously," all the things you tried to lay your hands on? The author of "Stop Thief" was not content with this. Not one but two characters are self-confessed kleptomaniacs, and they not only help Jack Doogan in his effort to keep the knowledge of the thefts from the police, but they enlist his aid to keep them from "taking things"—to Jack's satisfaction as well as their own.

Any suggestion of the story of the play would be incomplete without a reference to Nell, the demure lady's maid, and the clever assistant to the burglar. And besides these, a correspondence school detective and a big-as-life police sergeant complicated things still more.

A mere mention of the Seniors, who take the parts, is sufficient guaranty that the audience will get their money's worth of fun. Everett Cummins, who provided such mirth as Bobby Tarver in "Green Stockings," and "Johnny White" in "The Intimate Strangers," is funnier than ever, as the infirm absent-minded Mr. Carr. Mrs. Carr is played by Juanita Coe, so well received as Celis in "Green Stockings," while Doris Coleman, the "Lady Trenchard" of that play, is near perfection as the maid. Russell Rieman, who played father of these two last year, fills the part of the burglar even better. Ernest Ambrus has laid aside the role of the brusque and threatening Jamison, and again the audience will roar even louder at the change. The rest of the cast are new to high school dramatics. Yet those who are acquainted with them will begin to smile in anticipation as they read the names of George Palmer as Cluney, the prospective son-in-law; Pierre Kenyon as his friend, the doctor; Lawrence Holmes as the burly police sergeant, with Dale Wilson, Byron Becker and Francis Hieny as his assistants; John Shomberger as the detective, and Doyle Rowland as the minister. Thelma Davey will play the bride-to-be, with Thelma Packard and Lila Tegge as her sisters, Joan and Caroline.

"Stop Thief" is the most pretentious comedy yet attempted by the Plymouth High school group. With a large cast—17 in all—and without a change of scene, the action is fast, and the fun continuous. The Seniors hope to make this the best of their career. Since it is to be given on a school night, the play will begin promptly at 7:30, a half hour earlier than most such entertainments. Tickets are already on sale, and may be obtained from any of the Seniors, at 25c for students and 35c for adults. Reserved seats are 10c extra, are still available at the office of R. R. Parrott.

THE COMMUNITY FUND

The committee in charge of the community fund reports a great interest is being taken in this work, and everybody wants to see it continued. To do this the committee selected from members of the C. of C. and the Rotary Club will have charge of the work from now on.

If those who have so generously contributed to the fund so far, and others who will contribute to the fund during the coming year could but know the amount of good and happiness that found its way into some of the homes of our community through this fund, you will not hesitate to give this committee your whole-hearted support.

The funds which were received from the community dance and the individual contributions to date, total $144, and the following distributions were made through this fund: Cash, $40.00; 5 tons coal; clothing, $30.00; 8 baskets provisions; 7 baskets fruit; several bushels potatoes, toys and candy.

Contributions to this fund can be made at either bank, or to the Chamber of Commerce. There is plenty of work yet to be done, and everybody should do his part.

"I have had a lot of turkeys in my young life, but the one you brought in was the champion of them all. Honestly, it was just like a chicken, so young and tender, it really fell apart. We all raved about it at home yesterday and we certainly enjoyed it."
