HAS MOVED INTO ENLARGED STORE

R. W. SHINGLETON HAS ADDED A DRY GOODS DEPARTMENT TO HIS MEN'S FURNISHINGS AND SHOE DEPARTMENTS.

R. W. Shingleton has opened his enlarged store in the building formerly occupied by the Drake Sisters general store in North Village. For several weeks past, the work of remodeling and redecorating the interior of the store has been in progress, and it now presents a very fine appearance. The display window space has been enlarged on both sides of the store, and this now gives ample room for the attractive display of merchandise. The shelving has been re-arranged, and the whole store redecorated. New electric light fixtures have also been installed.

Mr. Shingleton has just recently added a dry goods department to his business and this, together with his rapidly growing Men's Wear, Shoes, Tailoring and Dry Cleaning departments, have made it necessary to have additional room. The shoes and footwear department will be largely added to and especially featured in the future. The dry goods department is complete with an up-to-date line of staple and fancy dry goods, all new stock, and is nicely displayed. This stock will form a companion department to the men's wear lines, which at the beginning was the exclusive stock of this store.

ROMANCE OF THE REVOLUTION SAID TO BE REAL EPIC

PAUL LEICESTER FORD'S LOVE STORY OFFERS BIG SPECTACLE

NEW PRODUCTION CALLED MOST AUTHENTIC FILM OF DAYS OF '76.

"Janice Meredith," Marion Davies' newest picture, which comes to the Penniman Allen theatre, Sunday and Monday, February 15 and 16, is the most pretentious picture ever made by the Cosmopolitan Corporation, combining a charming love story and a series of dramatic thrills with the most important events in the founding of the American Republic. It is being distributed by Metro-Goldwyn.

For magnitude, for dramatic sweep, for sheer splendor and magnificence of settings and costumes, it surpasses anything heretofore accomplished by Miss Davies. And it is American to the core. Historical authorities on the period of the American Revolution have pronounced it the most authentic picture of its kind ever produced. It is from the famous novel by Paul Leicester Ford.

From 1775 to 1783 "Janice Meredith" can be called a screen epic of the American Revolution. It embraces the entire Revolutionary era from 1775 to 1783. Such important events as the Boston Tea Party, the Ride of Paul Revere, the Battle of Lexington, Patrick Henry's speech, the crossing of the Delaware, the Battle of Trenton, the Battle of Yorktown, and surrender of the British; as well as many other incidents in the making of this nation, are all faithfully depicted in this picture.

George Washington, Benjamin Franklin, Lafayette, Alexander Hamilton, Patrick Henry, Paul Revere and other characters famous in the founding of the nation live again on the screen, together with Lord Cornwallis, Sir William Howe, Colonel Rahl, Major Pitcairn, King Louis XVI and Marie Antoinette.

More than 7,500 Players. More than 7,500 actors, including one of the most notable casts ever assembled on the screen, appear in "Janice Meredith."

Special co-operation on the part of the United States Government enabled the Cosmopolitan Corporation to utilize the services of the famous Twenty-Sixth Infantry as well as cavalry and artillery from Fort Ethan Allen for such scenes as the Battles of Trenton, Lexington and Yorktown, as well as the Crossing of the Delaware. The old Continental flintlocks used by the troops were loaned by the Government.

The wardrobe of "Janice Meredith" represents an expenditure of more than $200,000. Marion Davies, in the title role, wears twenty costumes. These gowns, designed by Gretl Urban, cost more than $25,000. They range from the simple frock of the daughter of a Colonial country gentleman to the elaborate costumes of satins and velvets worn by the ladies of fashion of the period. The designs were copied from old prints, paintings and models found in various museums in New York, New England and New Jersey.

More than 1,000 magnificent costumes of the finest silks, satins and velvets were used in the filming of the grand ball given in the honor of Lord Howe at Philadelphia. Nothing but the very best of materials was used in the execution of these elaborate costumes, for the pitiless eye of the camera will not tolerate shams or make-believes.

A village of fifty-eight houses, representing the village of Trenton, was specially constructed at Plattsburgh, N. Y. The village was reproduced from old maps and old prints just as it existed in the turbulent days of 1776. It represents the work of skilled artisans and architects with a special knowledge of the architecture of the Revolutionary period.

WILL GIVE TRAVELOGUE AT BAPTIST CHURCH

"Mexico and America, the Wonderland," will be the subject of a humorous and thrilling travelogue, by Rochester Irwin, author, traveler and entertainer, at the Baptist church, Saturday, February 21st, at 7:30 p. m.

This travelogue will tell of Mexican domestic and political life, including an account of their national pastime, the bull fight. It has a message from Gov. Enrico Manrique of San Luis Potosi, to the American people. Because of his far-reaching and spectacular reforms, Gov. Manrique has been called the Mexican Jesus.

The uniqueness of America, the wonderland, its marvelous natural scenery, its size and resources, with personal thrilling incidents of travel will be made very vivid.

Prof. C. N. Mitchell, superintendent of schools, Leonard, Mich., says of this entertainment: "Rochester Irwin gave his wonderful lecture, 'America, the Wonderland,' at our High school, and I feel we were fortunate in getting him to our town. His lecture was the best ever heard in this part of the country. It satisfies that feeling one has to be connected up with the outside world, and Mr. Irwin can be spoken of as bringing the world to your very door."

JACK MINER IN PLYMOUTH TODAY

NOTED BIRD MAN WILL GIVE HIS LECTURE AND MOVING PICTURES AT HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM THIS EVENING.

Jack Miner, the great naturalist, will be in Plymouth today, Friday, February 13th. He comes here under the auspices of the Woman's Club, and will give two lectures at the High school auditorium. In the afternoon he will speak to the pupils of the public school at four o'clock, for which an admission of ten cents will be charged. Every boy and girl should hear Mr. Miner's lecture. The evening's entertainment will commence promptly at eight o'clock. The admission is fifty cents. Mr. Miner will illustrate his lecture with forty slides and 2,000 feet of film. Plymouth is fortunate in having an opportunity to hear Mr. Miner, as he is in great demand as a lecturer everywhere, and he should be greeted by a capacity house this evening. Don't miss hearing this wonderful lecture, and learn what Jack Miner has done in caring for the birds at his home near Kingsville, Ontario.

WOMAN'S CLUB

An interesting meeting of the Woman's Club occurred in the music room of the High school, Friday afternoon. Being a regular meeting, the business of the day was first attended to, and the report of the civic committee, by Mrs. L. Hillmer, covered many important ideas. The club is now a member of the Chamber of Commerce, and wishes to co-operate for a centennial celebration for Plymouth, and wishes every member present at the coming mass meeting to discuss the needs of Plymouth. The civic committee told of their effort from October to January, before their municipal skating pond was finally flooded, due to low water conditions and promises. Anything that will mean something better for Plymouth will require the backing of every woman, man and child, so let's find the job.

Division VI, with Mrs. S. C. Hathaway leader, had a splendid program. Mrs. E. J. Allison gave a fine lesson on "Natural Wonders and Mountain Legend of the South Central Section," and Miss Nellie Riddle, another one on "The Great Rivers." Mrs. D. F. Murray added a humorous reading, "The New Organ," by Eliza Calvert Hall. The musical program by home talent, added much to an enjoyable affair. Piano duets by Helen Caruthers and Helen Beyer, violin solos by Wilbur Pets, vocal numbers by Pierre Kenyon accompanied by Juanita Coe, and piano solo by Marion Beyer, were greatly appreciated.

February 20th is the next meeting, and will be at the home of Mrs. Wm. Wood.

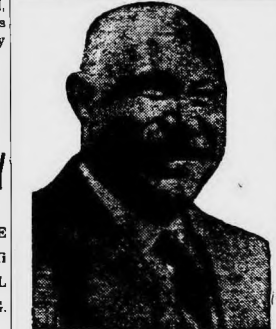

Today is the big treat for Plymouth folks who really care for fly-treats—a chance to hear Jack Miner. Every child and everybody can get entertainment besides helping Mr. Miner do his big work.

FAMOUS LECTURER WILL SPEAK HERE

WILLIAM E. "PUSSYFOOT" JOHNSON WILL GIVE FREE LECTURE IN M. E. COMMUNITY HALL, TUESDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 17TH.

William E. "Pussyfoot" Johnson, accompanied by Ben H. Spence, superintendent of the Dominion Alliance, are conducting a coast to coast speaking itinerary, under the auspices of the World League Against Alcoholism.

Pussyfoot arrived at Quebec on the liner Montcalm, November 14th, and began his itinerary on Sunday, November 16th. He is being greeted by multitudes everywhere. The Sydney Post, Sydney, Nova Scotia, in the issue of November 20th, says editorially, "What is sometimes sneeringly described as 'temperance fanaticism' was entirely absent from the addresses of William E. 'Pussyfoot' Johnson, traveler and reformer, of world renown, and Rev. Ben H. Spence, superintendent of the Dominion Alliance in St. Andrew's church, Tuesday night.

WILLIAM E. "PUSSYFOOT" JOHNSON

"Both speakers presented the case for prohibition with a closeness of reasoning and a moderation of language, which compelled conviction. Mr. Spence cast new light on the significance of Ontario's recent victory for prohibition. The case he built up for a national prohibition law was irresistible. Pussyfoot Johnson's address covered the world field. His summary of the world progress of the prohibition movement was a revelation to the great audience that filled St. Andrew's to the doors. The testimony he submitted of the success of the Volstead law in the United States was convincing to all who had minds open to logical conviction. Those who heard 'Pussyfoot Johnson' can have no difficulty in appreciating the sources of his power as a platform champion of temperance reform. Magnetism, humor, imagination, eloquence and sincerity are rarely combined so marvelously in a platform speaker. All honor to the man who consecrates such splendid gifts and graces to the cause of cleaner morals and better citizenship."

Coming to Plymouth This world renowned speaker is coming to Plymouth the evening of next Tuesday, the 17th, at 7:30 p. m. at the Methodist Community Hall. It cannot be said too strongly that this speaker is a man of extraordinary eloquence and delightful personality, that should draw people from miles around. It is a rare privilege that citizens of Plymouth have in hearing him, and the committee responsible for bringing him to Plymouth should be congratulated.

Gives Free Lecture Having just recently returned from a world tour, Mr. Johnson is well qualified to speak on, "The Balkans and the Orient," which will be the subject of his address next Tuesday evening. No admission is charged for this popular address. The humor, the eloquence and the forcefulness of the facts he presents will stay by you for many a day. This is not a Methodist gathering, we are given to understand, nor is it under Methodist auspices, but a community gathering in the interests of good citizenship.

MASS MEETING TONIGHT

We call the attention of our readers to the half page announcement in this paper of a mass meeting to be held at the Penniman Allen theatre, this Friday, evening, February 13th, at 7:30 o'clock. This meeting will be of especial interest to those who are interested in the future development of the Beechmore and Grayton subdivisions on Plymouth road. Good speakers will be present. No admission, everybody invited.

PRIMARY ELECTION BRINGS OUT LARGE VOTE

The primary election held last Tuesday brought out an unusually large vote. A total of 361 votes were cast, and of this number 22 were spoiled ballots. The vote given each candidate was as follows:

| | |
|---------------------|-----|
| Harry C. Robinson | 178 |
| Henry J. Fisher | 162 |
| Frank Rambo | 139 |
| John W. Henderson | 134 |
| George H. Robinson | 125 |
| Frank L. Barrows | 109 |
| Byron P. Willett | 92 |
| Theodore F. Chilson | 70 |

There were also three scattering votes.

The six candidates who received the highest number of votes will be the candidates at the regular village election, which occurs on March 9th, next.

ROTARIANS HEAR SPLENDID TALK

The Plymouth Rotary Club had the pleasure of hearing a splendid talk given by Cass Sheffield Hough, son of Rotarian E. C. Hough, at the noon-day luncheon of the club, last Friday. The speaker, who is a senior student at the University of Michigan, gave a most interesting description of his recent visit to South American countries, with a party of students from the University. He spoke in particular of the business conditions as he found them in those countries. Cass is a most pleasing and entertaining speaker and his talk was thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated by the members of the club.

"THIEF OF BAGDAD" WILL BE SEEN HERE

Manager H. R. Lush of the Penniman Allen theatre announces that he has booked Douglas Fairbanks in his glorious fantasy "The Arabian Nights, 'The Thief of Bagdad,'" for Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, February 22, 23 and 24. This picture has been acclaimed as being "The Royal Banquet of Film Entertainment." "The Thief of Bagdad" is an amazingly romantic and dramatic story, abounding in happenings, heretofore thought impossible of achievement, and told with enchanting charm. It was born of a poet's dream in Araby and developed by Douglas Fairbanks into a beautiful reality. Nothing like it has ever been attempted; nothing like it has ever been accomplished. Before your very eyes, Magic Carpet bears the lovers over the house-tops and into the clouds, a Winged Horse carries the Thief in a dashing flight through the air, a great Army is created out of nothingness by the scattering of a Magic Seed. It is said to be a treasure-house of almost unbelievable wonder.

AGED MAN TAKES HIS OWN LIFE

THOMAS MAXWELL WAS FOUND DEAD BY DAUGHTER, MONDAY AFTERNOON AT HOME IN NORTH VILLAGE.

Thomas Maxwell, aged 78 years, residing with his daughter, Mrs. John Spencer near the Ford plant in north village, committed suicide by hanging, Monday, about 1:30 o'clock. Mrs. Spencer went to the hen-house, where her father had been working, to call him to dinner, and upon opening the door, she found him hanging by a rope from a rafter in the building. Justice Phoebe Patterson empaneled a coroner's jury, and the inquest was held Tuesday afternoon, the jury rendering a verdict of suicide by hanging.

Mr. Maxwell had been rather despondent since the death of his wife and son, within the past few years, and it is thought that this probably caused the aged man to take his own life.

The funeral services were held from Schrader Bros. Funeral Home, Thursday morning at 10:00 o'clock, Rev. H. E. Sayles officiating.

Being poor wouldn't be so bad if it only lasted a few days instead of a lifetime. Paying cash for what you want is a mighty good way to break yourself of wanting so much.

WOMAN'S CLUB RECEIVE INTERESTING LETTER

Mrs. H. C. Hager, a former Plymouth resident, writes an interesting letter to the Woman's Club, which will be of interest to all of our readers:

Casa Grande, Arizona, Jan. 9, 1925

Madam President:

And to the members of the Woman's Club of Plymouth, greeting.

I always read with interest, the items in the Plymouth Mail, about the Woman's Club, as I am an active member of our club here, and every club likes to hear about what other clubs are doing. I noticed that you are thinking of building, and as we have just completed a beautiful little club building and Public Library combined, this summer, by concerted effort on the part of all our members, I thought you might be interested to know how we raised funds. Casa Grande has a population of 1,000, and is situated about 58 miles southeast of Phoenix, Arizona. It is a typical western desert town, with a sprinkling of Mexican adobe houses, and a few Indian wigwams on the outskirts. The rest of the dwellings are modern, and in these the larger share of the white population live.

Since taking the office of corresponding secretary last January, I have notified 34 new members of their acceptance, which brings our total membership up to 93. This seems to be a large club for such a small town. It was organized in 1913, and federated in 1916. The pioneers of the club were few, but their dream was to have a club house in which to hold their meetings. So in the latter part of 1923, it was decided to obtain a loan of $2,000, which, with the $1,800 already in the treasury, was enough to make a good start. Our goal was a $4,500 club house, but it has cost $5,000. We borrowed another $1,000 this year to complete the building and have paid it all back. How did we do it? We had a splendid president, who knew just how to set her army of members to work, and to bring out the best in all of us. We gave dances, private card parties. At these the members were charged 25c each to play bridge or "500," and the proceeds went to the building. Then we held ice cream socials, a rummage sale, catered for the Chamber of Commerce banquets, one member gave a big turkey dinner at her home, and it netted $75, as she served over 100 people. On October 18th, the ladies got together, and staged a big old-fashioned street carnival. They got permission from the mayor to have Main street roped off, where they erected booths, and decorated them appropriately. There was a cooked food booth, a fish pond, a ring throwing contest, a wheel of fortune, ice cream booth, novelties, fortune teller, throwing balls at stuffed cats, and several others. The whole carnival cleared us, free of all expenses, the sum of $463.72. The next big event was a combined dance and card party given in the newly erected club house, which was a very brilliant affair, the whole town seemed to be there. This, counting some donations from various business men, gave us another $400. Another enterprising member made 120 pounds of fruit cake, and sold it at $1 per pound. Then you may perhaps like to know how I added to the fund. It may strike you as rather gruesome, but it brought in some money. I lived seven years in Plymouth, but was not a member of your club, as I was too busy farming. Some of your members will be interested perhaps, in hearing of the way a Plymouthite earned money for her club in the deserts of Arizona. I hunted rattle snakes, and after separating the vertebrae bones from the rest of the body of the snake, I bleached these bones snow white, and then made them into pretty necklaces by placing a bright colored bead between each bone. It was surprising how quickly they sold. I turned into the fund $60 as the result.

So now we have the material for building all paid, but there still remains the $2,000 mortgage. This we hope to clean up in two years, or three at the outside, if we do as well as we have done this past year. Personally I enjoy the club work so much, and it keeps me quite busy, as I am chairman of press and publicity too, and send club items to five papers.

During my 1924 term of office as corresponding secretary, I have sent out 34 letters of acceptance to new members, 27 letters of thanks for donations of money, work, etc., 3 letters of condolence, and 1836 post-cards notifying members of meetings twice a month.

Trusting some of these ways of making money (except the snake method) may help to make your building fund grow, if tried out, and wishing the Plymouth club every success in their undertaking, I am,

Most cordially yours,

Gertrude J. Hager.

Corresponding secretary of Casa Grande Woman's Club, Casa Grande, Arizona.

P. S.—Forgot to say that all the club women hired a big truck and went out to the mountains here, and gathered the first load of rock for the foundation of the building. Later, my husband and I took our farm mules and wagon, and gathered four loads of rock, which I drove myself to town, five miles, and unloaded. It took me two days to do it, as two loads a day are all that a slow mule team will do.

C. OF C. GETS NEW MEMBERS

The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce held their regular weekly meeting on Tuesday evening at the Chamber of Commerce rooms. The membership campaign, which has been in progress for the past several weeks closed Tuesday night, with the "Blues" captained by Sidney D. Strong, in the lead, over the "Whites," captained by Arthur E. Blunk, by a margin of four new memberships. The "Blues" turned in 24 new members, while the "Whites" succeeded in rounding up 20 brand new ones. The "Blues" will have to give the winners a banquet, and this will be held the first week in March. Arthur Blunk will have charge of the arrangements and more particulars will be given in this paper next week.

The membership campaign just closed brought forty-four new members into the C. of C., and these together with the old members, will give the Chamber of Commerce its largest membership since its organization without a doubt, when all the old members have renewed their memberships, which of course they will.

A committee of two was appointed by President Robinson to co-operate with the village commission regarding a grade separation at Farmer street. The members of this committee are E. C. Hough and Edward Gayde.

Through William Wood, the Michigan Fire Prevention Association offered to come to Plymouth and make an inspection of buildings relative to fire hazards, next November. They make an inspection of one town each month. The board voted in favor of having the commission come to Plymouth.

A census of the village will be made under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce. It is planned to appoint men in different parts of the village to take the census on certain streets. This will be a fine thing to do, and it is believed that everyone will be willing to co-operate in having such a census taken, that we may know what our present population is.

Job H. Scott buried at Port Said, Egypt

Job Hart Scott was born July 31, 1852, in Plymouth township, Wayne county, Mich. When 12 years of age he came with his parents to Green Oak, Livingston county. He attended the Hollister school and the Brighton High school and the University of Michigan, graduating from the latter in 1881, after which he was superintendent of schools for two years in Wauseon and Perryburg, Ohio.

In June, 1882, he was united in marriage to Miss Carrie Vaughn of Lincoln, Neb. To them were born four children, Ora V., (Mrs. Forbes B. Wiley) and Harold L. Scott, both of Constantinople, Turkey; Carey Scott of Kobe, Japan, and Lewis Scott, who died in 1919.

In 1886 Mr. Scott graduated from the Baptist Theological Seminary at Morgan Park, Ill., and was pastor of Baptist churches at Bedford, Iowa, and Port Townsend, Washington.

In 1892 Mr. and Mrs. Scott went as missionaries in Osaka, Japan, where Mr. Scott died in 1912. In 1915 Mr. Scott was united in marriage to Miss Helen Elgie, a missionary to China. They continued their work at Osaka until last October, when they started for Constantinople to spend the remainder of the school year with his son and daughter. He was taken ill on shipboard, and was taken to the British hospital at Port Said, Egypt, where he passed away, and was buried January 13, 1925.

Mr. Scott leaves besides his widow and children already mentioned, one sister, Mrs. G. Muesch, and one brother, Walter J. Scott, both of Brighton.—Brighton Argus.

"STOP THIEF" WILL BE REPEATED HERE

Under the auspices of Plymouth
Chapter No. 115, Order of the Eastern Star, the Senior play, "Stop Thief," will be repeated at the High school auditorium, Tuesday, February 17th.

When first given, January 9th, the play won the audience from the start with its constant flow of uproarious fun and its quick action.
Even before the entrance of Jack Doogan, the burglar, all had become absorbed in the troubles of Mr.
Carr's family and the "taking ways" of Nellie, the maid. And upon the entrance of the police, "with real uniforms 'n' everything," the fun becomes both fast and furious.

The play was repeated at Northville last Wednesday night under the auspices of the American Legion, where it was well received by a full house. The rough spots of the first performance were smoothed out, so that it is certain that next Tuesday night's performance will be even better than the first.

The cast is as follows:
Joan Carr—Thelma Peck
Mrs. Carr—Juanita Coe
Caroline Carr—Lila Tegge
Madge Carr—Thelma Davey
Nell—Doris Coleman
William Carr—Everett Cummins
James Cluney—George Palmer
Jamison—Ernest Ambrus
Dr. Willoughby—Pierre Kenyon
Clergyman—Doyle Rowland
Jack Doogan—Russell Reiman
Joseph Thompson—John Schomberger
Sergeant of Police—Lawrence
Holmes

Officers—
O'Malley—Dale Wilson
O'Maney—Byron Becker
Casey—Francis Heiny
O'Brien—Verne Pelley
Chauffeur—Frank Millard

The Eastern Star took up the project of having the play repeated first of all because the first performance was given directly after the dedication of the new temple, and on the night of their regular meeting, which kept away many who wished to see the play. The second reason is that their share of the proceeds will be applied on the cost of furnishings for the temple.

Tickets are for sale in the hands of the members of the O. E. S., and at the following business places: Community Drug Store, Peoples State Bank, Stever's Market, R. R. Parrott's and the Broadway Market in North Village. The prices as before, are: 35c for adults and 25c for students, with reserves 10c extra. Reserved seats will be on sale tomorrow, Saturday, from 9:00 a. m. to 6:00 p. m., and Monday and Tuesday at Parrott's office on Main street.

BARTLETT SCHOOL NOTES

The P. T. A. held its regular meeting, Monday evening. Roll call was taken, and members responded with a quotation or joke. After a short business meeting, the program was opened by singing: "Auld Lang Syne." Recitations were given by Charles Hower, "Your Flag and My Flag; Harvey Zander, "Old Glory";

Amy Blackmore, "Old Flag; Heloise
Travis, "Work." All joined in singing, "Isn't Any Trouble Just to Smile." Mr. Crocker, secretary of the Ypsilanti Kiwanis Club, told in a very interesting way what the Kiwanians were doing for the rural schools around about Ypsilanti. Also we were pleased to have with us Mr.
McLeod, Kiwanis patron of Hanford school. He told what the work meant to the parents. Rev. Hathaway, in his impressive way, gave a splendid address on, "Moral Education."

Delbert Avery and Ora Chilson are absent on account of sickness.

We were very pleased to have
for our guests, Tuesday afternoon,
Mrs. Tegg and Mrs. Hower.

Don't forget the social and dance,
Friday evening, at "Beaud Inn." A cordial invitation is extended to all.

THE THEATRE

"REVELATION"

"The most satisfying picture of the year," describes Metro's special production, "Revelation," which comes to the Penniman Allen theatre, Saturday, February 14th. Story, cast and direction, are all three of extraordinary worth, so that the spectator comes away from the theatre feeling that he has seen something head and shoulders above the ordinary feature.

Motion picture fans have been saying all along that the crying need is better stories. They are answered in "Revelation," for the story, which was written by Mabel Wagnalls, is a classic of the screen, and is destined to stand out as one of the milestones in film history.

With such a story to work on, the chance was there to make a great picture, and George D. Baker, the director, never let an opportunity slip by. His good taste and tenderness in handling the subject is always manifest.

The picture is superbly acted by a real all-star cast that includes such favorites as Viola Dana, Monte Blue, Lew Cody, Marjorie Daw, Frank Currier, Edward Connelly, George Siegmann, Kathleen Key, Otto Matiesen, Bruce Guerin and Ethel Wales. The actors all seemed inspired, Viola Dana and Monte Blue, who carry the chief acting burden, doing by far the best work they have ever contributed to the screen.

The picture centers on a beautiful legend of an old French monastery. A monk planted a rosebush, and when it did not bloom, he thought it was because of his sins. When he was praying one day the Virgin appeared to him, the bush blossoming forth afterward as a sign of forgiveness.

The story proper concerns a young girl, Joline Hofer, who thrown from her home, takes her fatherless baby to a convent and goes to Paris to enjoy life as she can. She falls in love with a poor American artist, Paul Granville, and brings success to him by posing in a series of pictures.

Then Granville decides to paint the legend of the monastery rosebush, with Joline posing as the Madonna. When they start work in the monastery garden, the rosebush is no longer in bloom, and one of the monks, Brother Augustin, believes that its barrenness is due to the fact that he, like the monk in olden times, has sinned. He sees Joline in the garden and thinks she is the Madonna appearing to forgive him. Then—the rosebush blooms.

News of the miracle spread, but Joline, knowing the Madonna had not appeared, confesses to the Prior. He explains that the rosebush bloom is proof of a real miracle—that the Holy Mother had revealed herself through Joline's eyes. This revelation leads Joline back to a life of penance with her little boy, until Granville comes to marry her.

"NO MORE WOMEN"

"No More Women," a comedy drama by Elmer Harris, featuring Madge Bellamy, Matt Moore, Kathleen Clifford and a brilliant supporting cast is to be the feature offering at the Penniman Allen theatre, next Wednesday and Thursday, February 18 and 19.

Th third of a series of special productions being made by Associated Authors, Inc. an organization of screen writers and technicians bent on giving the author of a story better opportunity to build his story into a living narrative. "No More Women," is evidence that Elmer Harris' fiction characters are, on the screen, exactly as he had pictured them in his mind for, after writing the story, he prepared the scenario and produced the photoplay version.

"No More Women" is said to have a wealth of laughs and thrills in its development from a story based on broken hearts and fickle minds—and a faithful dog. It deals with the efforts of a young man, whose fiancée "stood him up" on the eve of their wedding, and who vowing never to interest himself in women again, is on the verge of success, when a pretty young miss being robbed by two ruffians screams and he finds that response to a common duty awakens his romantic soul and his pledge gradually evaporates.

Matt Moore, whose work in a score of recent releases is known to all screen lovers, is cast as Peter Maddox, the young woman-hater. Madge Bellamy, petite star of many popular plays, lends charm to the role of Peggy VanDyke, wealthy young miss in search of adventure and a husband. Kathleen Clifford essays the part of a fickle young butterfly who breaks poor Peter's heart, and then finding he has a new fiancée, repents to late.

METHODIST BASKETEERS WIN FROM PONTIAC

BOYS' GAME

Did you see the men's team of the M. E. church defeat the Pontiac Central team last week Thursday night? All during the game, the Plymouth team was able to find the baskets, while Pontiac had the ball their share of the time, they were not able to locate the baskets. Our boys' team has not practiced very much, but so far they have only lost one game. When you come to see the girls' team play, stay and help the boys along by giving them a cheer or two. We are in hopes that our teams will be as successful in the rest of the games of the season.

Score—Plymouth, 32; Pontiac, 9.
Line-up—Forwards, L. Coatta and H. Stevens; center, C. Cline; guards, C. Clements and L. Holmes. Substitutes, A. Soth, I. Gray. Referee, Kenyon. Linesman, Kearney.

GIRLS' GAME

Another victory was won by the Plymouth M. E. church on Thursday of last week, when they defeated the Pontiac Central church by a score of 32 to 20. Plymouth had the tip off, so during the first half the ball was in the forward court most of the time. During the third quarter Plymouth seemed to lose most of her good luck at baskets, and Pontiac ran their score up. In the fourth quarter, Plymouth's old luck of making baskets returned, and the game ended. Plymouth, 32; Pontiac Central, 20.

The M. E. girls' team has so far been a winning team. The one thing lacking is support. If you want your girls' team to win, make it your duty to come and support them. Watch the paper for an announcement of the next game.
Line-up—Forwards, A. Beal, L. Wright; centers, I. Bird, G. Weiber; guards, M. Bolton, B. Titus. Substitutes, C. Howell, B. Freeman, M. Beckett. Referees, 1st half, M. Amrhein; 2nd half, J. Whipple.

THE fascination of billiards and bowling has kept many people on the road to health. The bending and stooping necessary to play either game exercises the muscles directly over the digestive organs, stimulating them so that they function in a normal healthy manner. Most bodily ills are attributed to any sluggishness in these organs.

Players in their daily games in our rooms find our Brunswick billiard and bowling equipment the finest obtainable. And they appreciate the quiet air of refinement to be found in our rooms.

ELM

The Sunday-school services will be held at 11:00 o'clock, next Sunday morning. Every child in the community is invited to come and join. The children in Mrs. Fred Wilson's class are trying to earn a reward to be given at Easter for all who have attended regularly up to that time. Mrs. George Bentley has a class for ladies in the Sunday-school, and invites all the ladies in this community to join.

Miss Lois Corbett, Wayne County demonstration agent, met again with the Elm ladies, Tuesday, February 10, at the home of Mrs. Richard Smith. The day was spent cutting and altering patterns and fitting. When the course is completed, each lady will have a dress form exactly like herself, a complete set of patterns and a fitted cambric lining that she can cut garments from, and a general knowledge of the use of her machine equipment and attachments, and many practical uses for bindings and edges; how to make tailored button holes and set in pockets, and how to draft patterns.

The Farmerette Thimble Club of Elm, a club of girls in this community, extend a very cordial invitation to all the ladies to an afternoon musical tea at the home of Mrs. George Bentley at Elm on St. Valentine's day, Saturday, February 14, at 2:00 o'clock.

The children in school are planning a valentine party, with a box, on Friday, to exchange valentines with their many playmates.

Miss Grace Wright has been confined to her home at Elm with a very severe cold.

On Saturday afternoon, February 7th, Mrs. Albert Rohde entertained a group of small children in honor of the fourth birthday of her daughter, Lona Belle, and her niece, Mary Gail Shaffer's eighth birthday, that fall on the same day. The afternoon was spent in games, and at 4:00 o'clock a dainty lunch was served. The table and favors were of valentine design.

The Elm friends wish to extend deepest sympathy to the family of Sylvester DeFer in their late bereavement.

Children of the Booth Home have been out of school for the past few days on account of a faulty furnace. The next meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association, to be held the first Tuesday in March, is election of officers, and all members are requested to plan ahead to be present. Mrs. William Sharrow will act as hostess for the evening, and lunch will be served at the social hour that follows the business.

On Friday, February 20th, there will be a special founders' meeting of the Wayne County Council of Parent-Teachers Association in Detroit. The state president, Mrs. Edgar W. Kiefer of Port Huron, will be the special speaker. OBITUARY

FRED H. TIGHE

Fred H. Tighe was born in Strathroy, Ont., October 4th, 1861, and removed to Detroit with his parents in 1869, where he resided up to five years ago, when he came to Plymouth. In 1893, he was united in marriage to Miss Marion Maples of Detroit, who died in April, 1907. In June, 1908, he married Miss Mary Colton of Ionia, Mich., and of this union was born one daughter who died in infancy. He is survived by his wife, two brothers, Edward H. of Plymouth and Oliver F. of Pasadena, California; and one sister, Mrs. J. E. Mealley of Port Huron, Mich. He and his brother, Edward, were enthusiastic yachtsmen, and after completing his education in Detroit and Ypsilanti, he was attracted to sailor life, which he followed for two or three years, receiving his captain's papers at the age of twenty-two. Soon afterwards, however, he retired to enter business with his brother, Edward, in the manufacture and sale of microscopes and other optical instruments, in which they continued for twenty years. In 1904, they entered into the manufacture of furniture in Detroit, in which business they remained until 1914, since when he has devoted his time to his personal affairs.

Two daughters were born to this union: Mrs. Jessie English of Detroit, and Mrs. Frank Howe of Plymouth. He is survived also by four sisters: Miss Susan Atchison and Mrs. A. O. Lyon of Detroit; Mrs. Charles Cole of Pontiac, and Mrs. G. Curtis of Monroe; two grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, and by a large circle of more distant relatives and friends. Mr. Atchison devoted most of his active life to farming, living in and about Plymouth, where he was a member of the Baptist church; in later life transferring his attendance to the Presbyterian church.

Funeral services at the Schrader Bros. Funeral Home, were conducted Saturday afternoon at two-thirty, by Rev. S. Conger Hathaway, pastor of the Presbyterian church, Wayne Van Dyne of Northville, assisting as soloist. After the services, the remains were placed in the receiving vault at Riverside cemetery.

REV. S. CONGER HATHAWAY, A. M., PASTOR

It was a hot July afternoon. The jury shifted from one numbed bone to another. They squirmed, they fidgeted, but nothing could appease that three-hour flow of ranting oratory.

When ABRAHAM LINCOLN arose to reply, the jury shuddered and lapsed back to listen to another three hours of ranting. But not Lincoln.

"Gentlemen of the Jury," he said, I have concluded to adopt the tactics of my opponent and submit this case without argument."

And then he sat down. There was a titter, a giggle, then a shout of laughter. The jury filed out. And Lincoln got the verdict.....Why not come to church next Sunday? We submit the case without argument.

BAPTIST NOTES

Sunday was such a nice bright day that all enjoyed the worship. The subject Sunday morning was "Agreement," Matt. 18:19. In the evening he used the text, "The Word of God," Heb. 4:12.

The Sunday-school was out in good shape, last Sunday. During the past month Miss Scott's class repeated the book of the New Testament; Mrs. Collins' Class repeated the 23rd Psalm and Kathleen Ford of the primary department recited before the Sunday-school. Everyone in the Sunday-school enjoys these young people as they appear from week to week.

The B. Y. P. U. are to have a social in the church basement, this Friday evening. Come and have a good time.

Miss Willie Hancock will lead the B. Y. P. U. meeting next Sunday evening. The meetings are held in the basement one hour before the preliminary service. The quarterly meeting last Friday evening was enjoyed by all present. The supper was a great spread. Mr. Sutton of Pontiac, gave a talk on "Church Efficiency," and said many good and practical things that every church ought to know. The Ladies' Aid (Mrs. Daly's Division) gave a New England supper, last Thursday evening, at the church. At the beginning of the Aid for the new year, the ladies presented the president and treasurer with very nice silver casseroles, as an appreciation of their earnest work for the past year.

PRESBYTERIAN NOTES

The Easter music has arrived and the choir began its mastery last night. A full attendance is necessary each practice night.

The Busy Woman's Bible Class held its monthly meeting Tuesday, at the home of Mrs. M. G. Hill in Elm Heights. There was a splendid pot-luck dinner to which the hostess added chicken. Nothing other than a good business meeting could follow that.

There was nearly 30 per cent increase in the Sunday-school attendance last Sunday. The men have reached nearly half their Easter goal in less than half the time set. All out next Sunday.

There was a large attendance at the Girl Scout supper last Monday night. It was splendid training for the girls who made all preparations themselves and a good opportunity for those who attended.

The men meet Friday evening, February 27, to make final arrangements for the annual meeting which is to be held March 9th. J. W. Henderson is general chairman. Every man is to serve on some committee, so ask him for your assignment.

The Woman's Auxiliary met Wednesday at the church. The Christian Endeavor society held a Valentine social at the church last Thursday night. Miss Marjorie Pollock was present, and sang the solo at the closing exercises of the Sunday-school last Sunday. There were twenty in the young ladies' class.

Mrs. A. Stevens is confined to her bed, but is recovering nicely at this writing. During Mr. Stevens' necessary absence, the Ready Service class is uniting with the Busy Woman's Bible class under the leadership and teaching of Mrs. Louisa Stewart.

Valentine place cards were used Tuesday, at Mrs. M. G. Hill's home, when she entertained the B. W. B. C. After dinner much amusement was created as each guest was required to tell a story suggested by her place card. Mrs. Belle McClumpha is the champion story-teller of the class.

Next Tuesday evening, "Pussyfoot" Johnson will give an address in Plymouth. See the announcement elsewhere in this paper, as to hour and place. You cannot afford to miss this address.

Last Monday, the pastor gave an address at the Bartlett school P. T. A. Next Monday, he is to speak at Milford.

METHODIST NOTES

Next Tuesday night is to be an opportunity for Plymouth folks to hear one of the outstanding speakers on the American platform, one who has been around the world and knows world conditions from a standpoint that perhaps few today understand them. "Pussyfoot" Johnson of international fame, will speak here at the Methodist Community House. There is no admission charge for this community gathering. Mr. Johnson speaks on, "The Balkans and the Orient." Invite your friends and neighbors. His theme will be on one of the vital matters of national and international concern.

A district group meeting of the W. H. M. S. will be held here next Wednesday in the church parlors. Mrs. Nummer, field worker, will be among the speakers; also district officers. The Ladies' Aid society holds a bake sale at the gas office a week from Saturday, the 21st.

Have you been attending the Wednesday night meetings, and studying the Life of Christ? If not, why not? Listen! Something different next Sunday night. A special Lincoln Day program will be given. Subject, "Building Character." Extra music. Also an illustrated lecture on, "The Negro in the Rural South." It will be worth your while.

The Boy Scouts and their dads have supper together at the church, tonight. Special Lenten services begin March 29. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Taylor of Los Angeles, will be in charge of the music. Get into the game. It's usually the fellow who stands around on the outside doing nothing who has the most fault to find. The fellow who is working hard at his job usually has little time to pick out the faults of others. You are needed in the great christian game. Are you doing your best?

"He that forsaketh not all that he hath, cannot be My disciple." Young folks, be on hand for the Epworth League service, next Sunday night.

The big conference opens in Detroit, Tuesday evening, the 24th. Further details of the program will be announced next week. You will not want to miss this great event. Meetings will be held at Central church.

Our Sunday-school is still growing. Were you there last Sunday?

The community was terribly shocked to hear of the accidental death of Frank Kraft, one of our community boys, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kraft, who was crushed to death between the cars he was trying to couple, Wednesday evening. Born 25 years ago in Wayne, most of his life had been spent in this vicinity, where his parents moved when he was still a small boy. He is survived by his parents and one sister, Miss Laura Kraft. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock from the house. Rev. Peters of the Wayne Lutheran church, officiating. Six of his companions, men from the D. U. K., acted as pallbearers. The body was taken to Wayne for burial, forty autos going from here in the procession. The flowers were many and beautiful. The sympathy of the community goes out to the stricken family and also to the young lady, Miss Hazel Moyster, who was to have been his bride in the spring, in their sad hour of sorrow.

Mrs. Edwin Conklin is gaining slowly. Her sister, Mrs. Millie Quackenbush is still with her.

Mrs. Sadia Dixon was taken to Beyer hospital early last week. Her condition is considered serious. Russel Trowbridge and family and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Harrison and mother, Mrs. Mary Pannie, were Sunday guests at the Arthur Harrison home at Inkster.

Mr. and Mrs. James Court were guests, Sunday, of the former's sister, Mrs. Lou Purcell, near Sheldon.

The P. T. A. postponed their meeting, which was to have been held Friday, because of the death of Frank Kraft. No date has yet been decided upon for the meeting.

There were twelve in attendance at the W. F. M. S., at E. L. Strang's, Wednesday. Mrs. Beckman, the president led the business meeting, and Mrs. Harper gave the lessons in a very interesting manner.

and spent Saturday night, returning home with her parents, who called there, Sunday.

Sunday visitors at Fred Zimmerman's were: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lingum and daughter, Marion of Detroit, and L. Caine and family of Ypsilanti.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mosher and children, and Howard and Aletha Whitley spent Thursday evening at William Heater's in Ypsilanti, while LeRoy Mosher attended the High school play.

Gale school, District No. 5, will hold a box social at the John Hickman home, Friday evening, February 13th. Everybody come and have a good time.

PLYMOUTH WHIPS BELLEVILLE

The Plymouth boys felt pretty crowded on Belleville's small floor, but managed to give a good account of themselves by turning in a 21 to 16 win. The slippery condition of the floor, added to the smallness quite handicapped the boys, although they had more of an edge on Belleville than the score would seem to show. Kenyon and Doudt led Plymouth, scoring with 9 points each.

REDFORD WINS LEAGUE GAME

The Rocks journeyed over to Redford, last Friday, with hopes of a victory and came back with shattered hopes. Redford proved too much for them, and they were obliged to take the short end of a 24 to 21 score. The main reason for Plymouth's loss was a poor defense. The passing of the boys was not of the best. At the half Redford led by a comfortable margin. Then the third quarter found Plymouth fighting and more than holding their own, but they lost the game in the last quarter, when they could not stand the pace. Kenyon and Doudt led Plymouth, scoring with seven points each.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The Bohemian Glass Blowers gave their entertainment at the school, last Thursday. It was an extremely interesting exhibit of skill along those lines. Glass birds were fashioned skillfully out of colored glass. It was spun into thread-like softness and small vases and ornaments were drawn out. Along with the exhibition a talk on the history of glass-making was given.

Supr. G. A. Smith gave a talk to the pupils of the 10th, 11th and 12th grades, the gist of which was that we should commence to think of the life work we wished to pursue in our later years, and be sure it was one that suited us. We are what we seek to become, therefore, if we choose a lofty ambition as our aim, we would in time succeed in our purpose. The talk was greatly appreciated.

Several members of the Senior and Sophomore Hi-Y went to Jackson to the Southern Michigan Hi-Y conference. They returned, and brought back some new ideas which will be adopted by the local organizations.

The Senior class repeated its class play, "Stop Thief," at Northville, under the auspices of the American Legion, Wednesday, February 11th. The reservations at the Alseum theatre were half sold out last Saturday morning. The class is intending to repeat it at Plymouth under the auspices of the Order of the Eastern Star, Tuesday, February 17. The reserved seats will be on sale tomorrow morning.

The Senior class is making plans for a community patriotic banquet to be held on the Tuesday following Washington's birthday. Watch for details in next week's school notes.

GRADE NOTES

On account of so many accidents in the grades, traffic signs have been placed in the rooms. The children seem to be very much interested in the laws of traffic.

Five new pupils entered the kindergarten last week: Allen Penoyer, Ellen Mulry, Jack Hull, Eltrym Wilson and Mona Wilson.

The B second have just finished a border for their blackboard, of hatchets and cherries. An honor box has been made for this grade, in which all papers marked one hundred are put.

A Valentine party is being given this week, by the third grade, to which their mothers are invited.

Miss Dix's room was invited to hear the reports of the Eskimo trip given by the fourth grade pupils. The fourth grade pupils have been framing baby pictures. For language they are studying stories of George Washington.

C. Ashton of the sixth A. is absent on account of mumps.

LIBRARY NOTES

This announcement has just come from headquarters—"We cannot get renewals on interloans. It is a privilege that even patrons of the Main Library cannot ask for when books are charged for four weeks." For those who wish a book on a certain date, we would suggest putting in the request a month or five weeks ahead of that time and stating the date it is to be used.

"Jack Miner and the Birds," by himself, may be found at the library.

Also "Seven Times Seven," by Maria Thompson Davies, is the autobiography of the author of "The Melting of Molly" and "The Matrix." She has told her own life story with simplicity and frankness. She has divided her life into seven different phases, each one of which she calls a reel. In Miss Davies' life there have come many interesting and well known people. These she speaks of with intimacy and kindly criticism.

"Elsie and the Child," by Arnold Bennett. The Elsie of the title story is the servant girl of "Riceyman Steps," now in service with her husband Joe, in the home of Dr. Raste. All of the stories testify to the author's skill as a craftsman and his ability to reveal character without sacrificing the interest of the story itself.

"Picaro-Nordhoff," Chas. Bernard, presents a picture of southern California ranch life and of wartime France from the viewpoint of two brothers. Picaro, the designer of successful airship motors, and Blaise, the daredevil aviator for whom the older brother has made great sacrifice.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Utility
Every Day in the Month
Twelve Months in the Year

More motorists every day come to the conclusion that for year 'round utility there is no more practical or convenient car than a Ford.

The Fordor Sedan is roomy, comfortable, and attractive in appearance—inside and out.

In city traffic it handles and parks so easily that thousands drive it who could readily afford costlier cars.

On country roads it comes through where heavier cars frequently cannot. Such qualities as these have brought the Ford its well-deserved reputation as the "Universal Car."

O. E. S. HELD SPECIAL MEETING

A special meeting of the Order of the Eastern Star was held in the new Masonic Temple, Tuesday, February 10th. In the afternoon the regular officers of the chapter conferred the degrees of the order upon four candidates, and at 6:30 o'clock dinner was served to about one hundred and eighty members and guests.

In the evening the past matrons and patrons of the order exemplified the work, four candidates being initiated.

At the close of the meeting a drill, which was used by Plymouth chapter several years ago, was presented by fourteen members, under the direction of P. B. Whitbeck, drill master. Several chapters throughout the state were represented, and a guest was also in attendance from Hoboken, New Jersey.

The next regular meeting of the order will be held Tuesday evening, March 3rd. All members of the order are invited.

NO APPROPRIATION FOR EXTENDING CITY MAIL DELIVERY SERVICE AT PRESENT.

Postmaster Hill informs the Mail that there is very little likelihood that there will be any extension of the city delivery service for the present at least, as he is unable to get an increased appropriation for the local office that would make any additional service possible. An inspector was here recently, and he informed Mr. Hill that an increased appropriation for the local office could not be looked for at present. There are several localities about the village, where the residents have been asking for and are entitled to mail delivery, but without additional help it is not possible to give this service, with the present number of carriers. We understand that in some places, even larger than Plymouth, carriers are only making one mail delivery a day in residence districts. Postmaster Hill is desirous of giving the patrons of the local office the best service possible, but with the present working force, and his inability to get additional funds to hire more help, finds himself seriously handicapped in extending the city mail delivery service, much as he would like to do so.

Postmaster Hill has received notice that people living in the vicinity of the Detroit Piston Ring Co.'s foundry will be given mail delivery by rural carrier if they provide mail receptacles. Any further information regarding this additional service can be obtained at the postoffice.

AN INTERESTING RELIC

Village Manager Sidney D. Strong has added another relic to the collection of antiques at the village hall. The new addition is a piece of strap rail that was used upon the Michigan Central railroad back in the year of 1840 or thereabouts. This interesting souvenir of early railroad building in Michigan was the property of Ammon Warner of this place, and was by him presented to the village. It is a piece of iron about four feet long, two and one-quarter inches wide and five-eighths of an inch in thickness. The strap rail used in the early days of railroad building was spiked to a stringer placed lengthwise upon the ties, and fastened thereto by wedges. For many years this particular piece of strap rail above mentioned has been doing duty as a support for the brick work in a

BASKET BALL

PLYMOUTH AT REDFORD
Plymouth expecting to be beaten by Redford last Friday night, came home with a victory of 26-17. Plymouth girls, after last year's championship victory at Redford were very anxious to win the game. The first quarter was slowed up a great deal by the ball being out of bounds. The score at this time was 5-2 in favor of Plymouth. The second quarter showed up the teamwork of centers exceedingly well; Plymouth guards played their best in the second quarter, allowing Redford to score only one point. Plymouth forwards made fifteen points in this quarter, making the score at the half 20-3. In the third quarter substitutions were made for Plymouth. The score seemed to climb on both sides. The passes and teamwork in this half were not as good as those in the first half. The final score was 26-17 in favor of Plymouth. Friday night is the game at Northville. Everyone who saw the Northville game here, knows this will be hard fought. Don't forget that support wins the game.

PLYMOUTH AT BELLEVILLE
The idea that Plymouth carried with them to Belleville surely worked out like the eclipse. In spite of the fact Plymouth outplayed Belleville, they were defeated with the score of 12-15. Because of Belleville's small floor, Plymouth girls were continually over the lines. In the first half the girls led with a small margin of two points. Plymouth played their best in the third quarter, but when the final whistle was blown the score was 12 to 15 in favor of Belleville.
