SENIOR CLASS WILL GIVE COMMUNITY PATRIOTIC BANQUET

The Big Event Will be Held at the Methodist Church Dining Hall, Tuesday Evening, February 24th.

Dr. Crooks, President of Alma College, Will Be Principal Speaker, While Rev. Frank M. Field of Flint, Will Preside as Toastmaster.

A Community Patriotic Banquet has for a long time seemed a desirable event in the social life of Plymouth, and when such a banquet is suggested, Washington's birthday always seems to be the most appropriate date. Through the activities of the Senior Class, arrangements for such a banquet have been made, and next Tuesday, February 24th, selected as the nearest available date. As it is not practicable to use the High school auditorium, the Methodist church dining hall has been secured, and every effort made to make this an event of real interest to everyone in the community.

The principal speaker of the evening will be Dr. Crooks, President of Alma College. Many will remember the splendid commencement address given by Dr. Crooks in 1920. Dr. Crooks has the faculty of seeing the sunny side of life and reflecting it back to others. It is a rare privilege to be able to enjoy his delightful humor and wholesome philosophy again.

The toastmaster of the evening will be Rev. Frank M. Field, formerly pastor of the Methodist church here, later of Martha Holmes church in Detroit, and now of Flint. In his five years here, he more than once proved to this community his versatility and popularity as a toastmaster. Everyone who has heard him act in that capacity feels that his presence is a guaranty of an evening of real entertainment.

In securing the local speakers, the committee in charge have attempted to represent a cross-section of the interests of the community. With this in mind, the program will contain the names of representatives of the Chamber of Commerce, the Rotary Club, the High school and the churches.

Music for the evening has not been neglected, and those who have heard the Ladies' Quartet, will be more than glad to know that Mesdames. Bake, Cassidy, Moon and Olsvaver will sing. A piano solo by Miss Czarina Penney will be a real treat also.

The menu committee promises a "real feed," from "chicken a la king" all the way through to "pie a la mode," and those who know the personnel of the committee know they will make good on their promise. The banquet will be served at 6:30 sharp, in order to afford plenty of time for the speakers of the evening.

The ticket committee is making careful efforts not to outsell the capacity of the dining room, which is 300. Only that number of tickets have been printed, and a limited number are in the hands of each Senior, the price being one dollar. They are going fast, and if you have been missed, call the High school and have your tickets saved for you. The profit, if any, from the banquet will be turned in to the Washington Trip Fund of the class.

NEW DODGE CAR SALESROOM OPENS HERE

H. S. German & Son of Northville, have leased the F. W. Hillman salesroom on South Main street, and have already opened a salesroom for the sale of Dodge automobiles for which they have the agency in this territory. Mr. Hillman will continue to conduct his salesroom at Ypsilanti, for the sale of Jewett and Paige cars, and will also give a part of his time to the sale of these cars here. Becker & Hartung, who are operating the repair department at this garage, will still continue in the same location, and will do service work for cars sold by both H. S. German & Son and Mr. Hillman.

"THE THIEF OF BAGDAD" AT LOCAL THEATRE

WILL BE SHOWN HERE, SUN-DAY, MONDAY AND TUESDAY,
FEBRUARY 22, 23, 24.

The following was taken from the Detroit Free Press, regarding "The Thief of Bagdad," which comes to the Penniman Allen theatre, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, February 22, 23 and 24, with a matinee on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Many critics have gone so far as to say that Douglas Fairbanks' gorgeous spectacle, "The Thief of Bagdad," which began an extended engagement in the Adams theatre Sunday, is the greatest film ever made. This may be extravagant praise, but certain it is that Mr. Fairbanks has given us a picture that easily surpasses anything he ever brought forth before, and it is difficult to recall any photoplay fit to compare with it.

"The Thief of Bagdad" is a page torn from "The Arabian Nights," as far as atmosphere and color are concerned, though the story itself has all the novelty of a brand new narrative. It was directed by Raul Walsh and supervised by Mr. Fairbanks himself, aided by Edward Knobloch, British playwright, and brings to the screen a series of episodes that seem impossible of accomplishment.

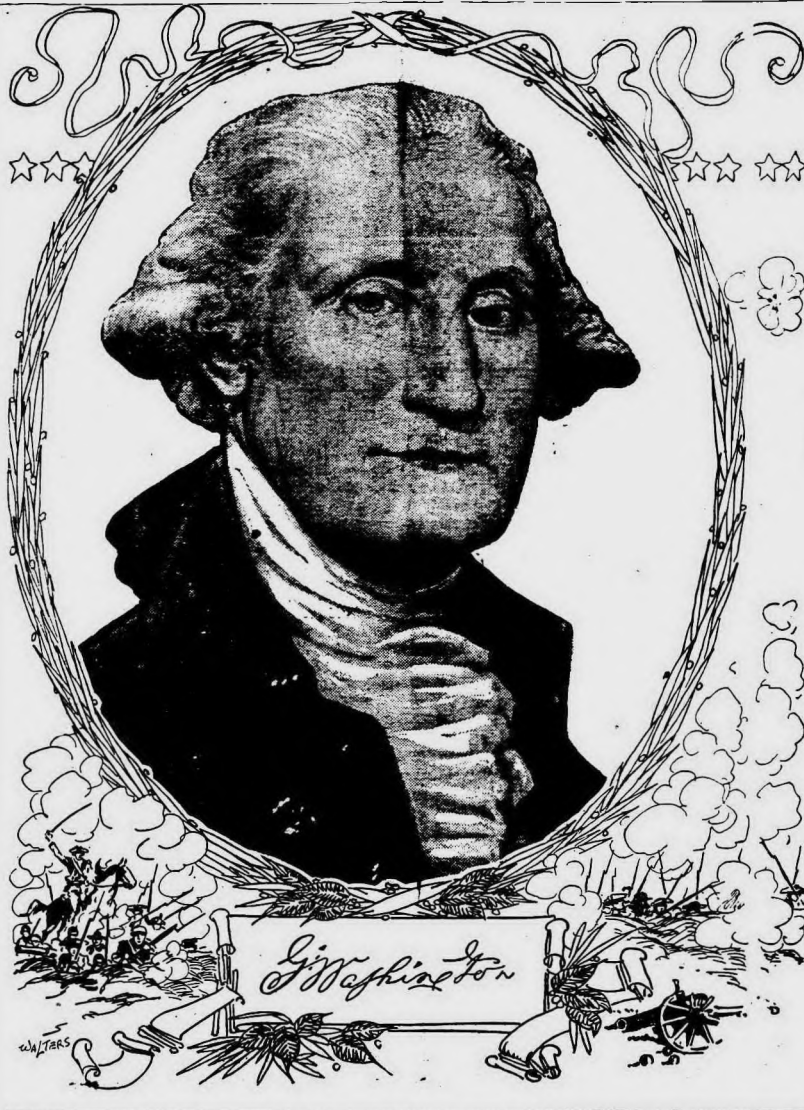

In the role of the audacious thief of Bagdad Mr. Fairbanks has given us a story that scales the heights of imagination. It is colorful, fantastic, massive and romantic, and packed with surprises and thrilling adventure.

The story reveals Mr. Fairbanks as a thief who gains entrance to the chamber of a princess through the aid of a magic rope which he has stolen. In his attempts to steal her jewels he touches her hand and instantly becomes a changed man. He goes to the mosque and hears the preacher explain how happiness is to be earned, and this becomes the passion of his life. At this time the princess is being sought in marriage by three powerful potentates. She sends them away on a search of the world, promising to marry the one who returns with the rarest treasure. The hero, no longer a thief, attires himself in a gorgeous raiment, and calls on the princess, who is secretly fascinated with him. He joins in the search for the treasure and after almost incredible difficulty discovers the magic chest of Nazir, which gives him absolute power over men. He returns to Bagdad, raises an army, by a mere wave of the hand, causing tens of thousands of soldiers, all fully armed, to spring from the ground. He drives out the army of his rivals and on the magic carpet flies away with the princess to the Land of Love, where the stars spell the words, "Happiness Must Be Gained."

The star is supported by a cast that includes Julianne Johnston as the princess; Snitz Edwards, who supplies the comedy, which runs through the entire production; Anna May Wang, Charles Belcher, Brandon Hurst and many others, besides the thousands who appear in the mass scenes.

As a feast for the eye "The Thief of Bagdad" has never been excelled. The sets are massive and costly, and the photography rarely beautiful. Most of the scenes were photographed in a sort of sepia tone, which lends an added charm.

To miss "The Thief of Bagdad" is to miss one of the greatest productions in the history of moving pictures.

FAMOUS TEMPERANCE LECTURER HERE

A GOOD SIZED AUDIENCE HEARD
WILLIAM E. ("PUSSYFOOT")
JOHNSON AT METHODIST COM-
EVENING.

About three hundred people heard the temperance lecturer, William E. ("Pussyfoot") Johnson give his address on world-wide prohibition at the Methodist church Community Hall, last Tuesday evening. The speaker was introduced by Rev. H. E. Sayles of the local Baptist church. When Mr. Johnson was first introduced, he spoke briefly and then introduced Dr. George M. Hammond of Tennessee. He explained that it cost a large amount of money to carry on the work of the World League against alcoholism and announced that envelopes would be passed around by the ushers, on which those present would be given an opportunity to make pledges for the work.

Mr. Johnson then took up his talk on world-wide prohibition. He referred to the Balkan states as the "cockpit" of Europe." He told of strides all the newly created seven states in the Balkans were making toward prohibition, and said they were monumental.

"There are 600,000,000 people in the Far and Near East who for 1,200 years have had as one of the major tenets of their religion a prohibition against alcohol. There are 1,000 Moslem newspapers; all are for prohibition. Every Hindu, every Buddhist newspaper is for prohibition. You must realize the enormous power that is for world-wide prohibition. When the United States went dry it was a signal for them to begin work, to spread the prohibition propaganda in all the world. They look to us.

"The combined forces can not be withstood. Liquor everywhere is on the defensive."

Mr. Johnson then described a dream he said he had of a world made almost perfect because of world-wide prohibition, and he said that dream would come true because he believed in God and in the great hearts of his fellow men.

"Stop Thief," the play given at the High school auditorium Tuesday evening, for the benefit of the O. E. S., was well attended, and presented in an exceptionally fine manner by members of the Senior class.

JACK MINER VISITS PLYMOUTH

Plymouth had the pleasure and opportunity of hearing Jack Miner, the bird man of Kingsville, Ont., last Friday. Mr. Miner was accompanied to Plymouth by his son, Ted, and both were guests of the Plymouth Rotary Club at their noon-day luncheon, where Jack made a most wonderful talk to the Rotarians and their invited guests, that will live long in the memory of every man who heard him.

Mr. Miner, who was brought to Plymouth under the auspices of the Woman's Club, gave his lecture to the High school pupils in the afternoon, which proved most interesting and helpful to the boys and girls, they being especially pleased with the pictures.

In the evening the auditorium was well filled by an appreciative audience, who listened with close attention while Mr. Miner told in his original and most interesting manner of his great work in behalf of the wild birds of the air. His lecture is based upon facts gathered from personal experience and observations. Mr. Miner said, "I am just a grown up boy, who was born bare-footed and raised on the toe of my father's boot." Mr. Miner illustrated his lecture with interesting pictures of his home and the ponds, where thousands of wild geese were shown upon the surface of the water. In the spring of 1923, he fed 2500 bushels of corn and 300 bushels of shelled corn during March and April. The money which Mr. Miner receives from his lectures goes toward the upkeep of his bird sanctuary.

At the close of his lecture he invited the people of Plymouth to visit his home and see the thousands of wild geese that gather there during the spring months. He said that the best time to come is between April 10 and 20, any day except Sunday, when visitors are not allowed.

Plymouth people are glad that Jack Miner came to Plymouth, and hope that he may come again in the near future. He will always find a royal welcome here.

On another page of this paper will be found the annual village election and registration notice, together with three bond issues, which will be submitted to the voters at the coming election. We call the attention of our readers to these notices, which explain in detail what the three bond issues call for. Read them over.

AN ENTERTAINMENT EXTRAORDINARY

The people of Plymouth and vicinity are going to have the opportunity of enjoying a real musical treat next Monday evening, February 23, when Betty Bryden and her "Seven Ambassador Girls" will give one of their high class entertainments in the High school auditorium, under the auspices of the Booster Committee of the I. O. O. F.

The "Seven Ambassador Girls" are all musicians of splendid ability and are among the best entertainers in Detroit. Besides the "Seven Ambassador Girls," there will also be a single and double comedy act.

The proceeds of the entertainment will go to the new temple fund. Everybody should attend this entertainment and help boost a worthy cause. The admission is 50c. The program starts at 8:15.

FORMER PLYMOUTH PASTOR WILL BE HEARD OVER RADIO.

Plymouth friends of Rev. B. F. Farber, of Pittsburgh, Pa., and formerly of this place, will be interested to know that a special service will be broadcasted from his church in that city, next Sunday evening, at 8:00 o'clock, Eastern Standard Time, there will be sent into the air the regular Sunday evening service, which will be appropriate to George Washington's birthday, and Rev. Farber will speak about "The Father of Our Country." Following this from 9:00 to 10:10, the quartette of this church will give a very fine sacred musical concert.

Rev. Farber's church is the only one in Pittsburgh that has broadcasted such a service, and it is done once a year. These two services will be broadcasted by Station KDKA. Rev. Farber's many Plymouth friends will be glad to listen in next Sunday evening.

DEPUTY COLLECTOR OF IN- TERNAL REVENUE WILL BE HERE FEB. 24-25.

Parrott's office in Plymouth, on Tuesday and Wednesday, February 24 and 25, from 10:00 a. m. to 6:00 p. m. of each day, to assist in preparing returns, without cost.

BOY SCOUTS OBSERVED 15TH ANNIVERSARY LAST WEEK

Local Troop Activities Covered Entire Week and It Proved a Very Pleasant and Profitable Time for the Scouts.

The 15th anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America was celebrated by local Scouts with fitting activities last week. The program opened with attendance at church on Sunday, the 8th, it being Anniversary day, where the various Scouts gave their oath in token of their renewal of their pledge of loyalty. Monday was School day, whereon groups of Scouts visited the various school-rooms, and related the spirit and purpose of the week, and stated their Scout Oath and laws. Tuesday was Home day, each Scout made it his special business to do good turns around the home.

Wednesday being Community and Citizenship day, the village commission and the village manager invited the troop to meet at the village hall at 4:00 o'clock. The Scouts hardly knew what to expect, but what was their delight after Mr. Henderson, village president, and Mr. Strong, manager, gave the boys very earnest and instructive talks on their work as Scouts, and expressed their appreciation of what they had been doing to help the community, they presented the troop with one of the new and beautiful village flags, following which Mr. Hillmer spoke encouragingly and earnestly of what Scouting can and ought to mean to every boy in Plymouth. Senior Patrol Leader, Robert Tefft, thanked the Commission on behalf of the troop for the gift, and the whole troop then repeated the Scout Oath in the presence of the Village Commission, thus pledging themselves anew to the tasks of helping to make this a better and cleaner community, and thus prove themselves worthy and growing citizens of this village. The boys will not soon forget this honor bestowed on them.

Thursday, Lincoln's Birthday, the boys met at 7:00 for their regular troop meeting. About thirteen of the members of the Rotary Club met with them. The boys demonstrated to these men, some of them fathers of boys in the troop, just what they have been learning as Scouts, in the way of First Aid, Signalling, knowledge of the Flag, Compass, etc. Following this "the boys" all gathered around a "camp-fire" that had been built on the floor of the Community Hall, and speeches and stories were told by the "older boys" to the delight of the younger boys, while the committee in an adjoining room was preparing some "eats," brought by the Rotarians. On signal the lights flashed on, and each Scout was invited to dig in and eat all the hot dogs and doughnuts they could, and at the same time give the "dogs" a chance to swim by drinking some delicious cocoa. It didn't take long to finish the job. The Scouts, and we believe the men, all had a good time. The Scouts only wish the Rotarians would come oftener.

Friday was Round-Up day. In the afternoon at the High school assembly, the troop gave a fine demonstration of their work as Scouts, showing their practical knowledge of the Compass, First Aid, Signalling by Semaphore, Knots, History and Forms of Respect due to the Flag, etc. The boys all took their parts well, and show that the efforts of Scouting have not been in vain. Friday evening, the Scouts and their dads had a pot-luck supper together at the Methodist church. We rather surmise that no one went away hungry. It was a delightful occasion. After the "stuffing," a short informal program was held of extemporaneous speeches by several of the dads present, and then those who were able to move carried their dishes to the kitchen, where "short" work was made of the cleaning up, while the rest of the Scouts and their fathers went to hear Jack Miner at the school house. We wish to thank the two Scout mothers, Mrs. Dicks and Mrs. Norris, for their generous and able assistance on this occasion. In the near future, the Scouts and their mothers are going to have a feast together.

Saturday was a perfect ending of a well-nigh perfect week of Scouting. A beautiful, warm, spring-like day dawned, and at about 11:00 o'clock, twenty Scouts started on one of the biggest and best hikes of the whole year. They spent the rest of the day in woods and the open, cooking over the open fire and playing games, etc. But then who can describe such an experience in words. Tired bodies coming home? That's part of the fun. There really is not much "joy in living," if a fellow can't hike to the woods once in a while.

SPEAKER TELLS ABOUT NEW SUBDIVISION

Although there were several other entertainments in the village, last Friday evening, there was a fairly good representation of Plymouth citizens at the mass meeting at the Penniman Allen theatre. The meeting was called for the purpose of acquainting the people with the development of the new Beechwood subdivision on the Plymouth road. Russell A. Wingard, Realtor, of this village, has charge of the selling of lots in the new Beechwood subdivision. Robert C. Beyers, sales director and lecturer for the Robert-Herndon Co. of Detroit, addressed the meeting, and explained in a most interesting manner the desirability of the fine subdivision mentioned above, and the bright prospects for its future development and growth. He also spoke of the great industries at River Rouge, and what this great industrial activity would mean to the territory adjacent to them, and particularly to Plymouth and vicinity. It was a very interesting and instructive talk.

MRS. L. B. LANGS PASSES AWAY

Mrs. L. B. Langs, a highly respected lady of this village, died at her home on South Main street, Wednesday, February 18th, aged 63 years, nine months and five days. The funeral services will be held from her late home, this Friday afternoon, at 2:00 o'clock, Rev. D. D. Nagle officiating. Interment in Riverside cemetery. Obituary next week.

LOCAL KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS VISIT DETROIT LODGE.

Plymouth Lodge, No. 238, Knights of Pythias, attended Detroit Lodge, No. 55, in Detroit, Tuesday night, Supreme K. of R. S., Harry Love, was there to assist in conferring the page, on a class of 500 candidates from different lodges in the vicinity and state, the work being put on by the Grand Lodge Session of Friendship team. Brother Love brought the original Rathbone Bible with which he obligated the class, known as the Rathbone Bible Class. Plymouth Lodge furnished two candidates for the event, and everyone reports a rare treat in being able to attend.

The Clothing Project club met at the home of Mrs. Wm. E. Dibble, Plymouth road, on February 12, with Miss Lois Corbett as leader. The work of altering patterns was taken up. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Grant Duffie, Beach, on March 12th. Anyone interested in this work is invited, each lady to furnish her own lunch.

STAMPING OUT DIVORCE

Anything pertaining to divorces interests the average man or woman everywhere. Here in Plymouth divorce gossip is second in interest only to a murder and, for that matter, so it is in all other towns, big or little. This being true, we feel our readers will be interested in a bill offered recently in the Ohio legislature, a bill that strikes the hardest blow that has ever been struck at divorce.

The proposed measure would make it illegal for any man or woman to remarry in the state of Ohio within two years after securing a divorce. It is a proven fact that a majority of divorces are brought about through the desire of the husband or wife to marry again, but if the new bill becomes a law there would be, in one state at least, considerable hesitancy on the part of this class of divorce-seekers. Besides, many would find their affection for the third party growing cool before the two-year period elapsed, and this thing of getting a divorce one day just to get married the next would not be so popular. We believe such a law would reduce the divorce mill's grist fifty per cent.

The divorce evil has grown so rapidly in this country that it has become a serious problem and one which threatens our homelife. Easy divorce has wrecked thousands of homes, and caused the growing generation to look upon marriage as an adventure or a joke. We hope Ohio passes this proposed law, because we believe it will do more than anything else to eliminate divorces, and if it works in Ohio then we can hope for its adoption here in our own state.

WORTH REMEMBERING

In conversation with a Plymouth carpenter recently we asked him how he managed to avoid mistakes, and answered, "I make it a rule to measure twice before I cut once." We've studied over that answer, and we believe that it would apply well in everything we do—measure twice before we cut, think twice before we speak, and so on. There is more time and energy and raw material wasted in this country from lack of forethought than one can even estimate. No one can do his best work when hurrying, and what is done in a hurry often has to be done over. Taking time to think over what you are about to do means that you can be sure of having it right when it is done. And having it right saves time in the long run. The carpenter has given us a thought well worth keeping in mind, "Measure twice before you cut once."

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Private Vernon Henderson, who died in the service of his country, on February 19, 1918.
In memory of our beloved son and brother.

Adrift on the deep, God beckoned,
And he crossed to the other shore.
His Mother, Sister and Brother.

AGED SUPERIOR RESIDENT DIES

William Grammel, aged 92 years, died at the home of his son, Joseph, Saturday, February 7th. Mr. Grammel was possibly one of the oldest residents of this section of Michigan. He has been a farmer here for many years, and only last summer the city of Detroit purchased his farm for use as a park. At that time Mr. Grammel and his son moved to a farm in Superior township, near Plymouth, Michigan, on the Ann Arbor road. Since that time he has lived there. He has been a widower for the past 37 years. Funeral services were held from St. Mary's church in Wayne, and interment was made in St. Mary's cemetery, Wayne, on Tuesday, February 10th. He is survived by his one son, Joseph—Dearborn Press.

DETROIT ENGINEERS LOOK FOR ACTIVITY OUT THIS WAY.

Real estate activity has been going on during the last year in the territory between the Pere Marquette railroad and the Seven Mile road, ranging west from Brightmoor to Northville and Plymouth, according to P. W. Keating, civil engineer, who has been closely studying this property for several years.

"Property values on farm land have jumped from $1,500 to $2,200 an acre within two miles of Plymouth," said Mr. Keating, Saturday. "And at the latter figure the prices are certainly not stopping. Along the Five Mile road, also known as 'Twelfth street,' one of the main streets of Brightmoor, the values for acreage have gone from $500 to $1,500 an acre. Much activity is evident in the neighborhood of Beech road and Telegraph road."

"One reason for this development is that this territory is the nearest property to the so-called Northville Hills. It is in this district that the Wayne county authorities have located three of the county institutions, the county Tuberculosis Sanatorium, the new House of Correction, and the Wayne County Training School. Also, Henry Ford has activities in this district."

"The story told by Mr. Keating was confirmed by B. E. Taylor of the Detroit Real Estate Board—Detroit News.

Another optimist is the Plymouth man who can think that his bald spot makes him look distinguished.

A Well Paying Investment

As a general rule, the higher the expected rate of return on an investment the greater is the risk. To this rule the store lighting investment is a brilliant exception, for the risk is practically nothing, while the return is usually high enough to pay back the investment in a short time.

You cannot lose on a store lighting investment. Experience has shown time and again that raising the standard of illumination infallibly results in increased business and a higher ratio of profit.

Come in and talk with us about your store lighting. It will be well worth your while to do so.

RESOLUTIONS

Resolutions of Plymouth Rebekah Lodge, No. 182, I. O. O. F. WHEEAS, The Divine Ruler has called from our midst our beloved brother, Allen J. Geer, leaving in grief and sorrow a wife, two sons, mother, sisters and brother, and while we deeply mourn our sad loss, be it

RESOLVED, That we as a society extend to the relatives and friends our sympathy in this their hour of bereavement, and extend to them that consolation which warm hands can give; who feel their sorrow is our sorrow, and above all would we commend them to him who doeth all things well; therefore be it

RESOLVED, That our charter be draped in mourning for a period of sixty days; a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family, and that they be placed upon the minutes of this Lodge; also that they be printed in the Plymouth Mail.

"Sleep that no pain shall wake, Night that no moon shall break. Till joy shall overtake, His perfect calm."

Small Things Really Test of Friendship

One of the tragedies of life is that so many friendships which began well end badly.

Of all human relationships it is doubtful if there is any sweeter, stronger, more disinterested than a perfect friendship between two men, two women, or between a man and a woman. Yet it is within the experience of almost all of us that two persons who have loved each other as friends for years suddenly separate.

No one knows why. "No, I haven't seen her lately," is the reply uttered with assumed nonchalance if one ventures to make an inquiry about the friend who has suddenly "dropped out."

Or, "Oh yes, I meet him at the club sometimes," is the airy answer of the man who appeared to be devoted to the friend with whom he is now rarely associated.

There are many things which spoil friendship. Perhaps the most common is the possessive sense of jealousy which misinterprets the most innocent action. Without trust in the sincerity of a friend there is no sure foundation for a permanent relationship. Friendship without trust swiftly perishes.

Impatience has destroyed many once happy friendships. No friendship can be in the first few months of its existence the joyous, exactly attuned communion which comes when storm, as well as peace, has tested it, when time has tried it. Friendship, whether it is the friendship of marriage, of the spiritual friendship of man and woman, must have room for growth.

Most of us have enough courage, sufficient generosity, and adequate imagination for those great needs in others which come infrequently, but it requires a great character to create a great friendship in the longer periods of unheroic events. To be able to offer some one we love the gift of friendship we must know how to be tender without being sentimental, be ready to understand the desire for solitude in others, to give what is wanted of us—and no more.

And that is not easy. "She wanted to do so much for me; I was very fond of her, but her kindness embarrassed me," I once heard a woman say of a friend. Real friendship may often mean refraining from giving.—Exchange.

Harsh Religious Laws

The term "Recusants" was first applied in England, in the reign of Elizabeth (1558-1603), to those persons who refused or neglected to attend the services of the established church. Harsh measures were enacted against them, especially in the case of the Roman Catholic Recusants, who were fined 100 marks for wilfully hearing mass and double that amount for saying mass, with a year's imprisonment in addition, in both cases. They were, furthermore, disabled from inheriting, purchasing or in any way acquiring lands; were forbidden to teach school; to hold public office; to keep arms in their houses, or to come within ten miles of London, under penalty of 100 pounds. They were not permitted to travel more than five miles from home without a special license, and could bring no action at law or in equity. Protestant Recusants were relieved from their disabilities by the Toleration act of 1689 and Catholic Recusants were relieved partially in 1791 and completely by the Emancipation act of 1829.—Kansas City Star.

London's Old Customs

Many Americans visiting London this season have found that several ancient customs still survive there. In Ely place, Hatton Garden, a watchman still cries the hour after the great iron gates are closed at 11 p. m., and will only admit late merry-makers or theatergoers after full identification; in Lincoln's Inn at nine o'clock the curfew is still sounded on the bell in the chapel tower. This bell was brought from Cadiz in 1590 by Queen Elizabeth's favorite, the earl of Essex. Every night at eleven the night watchman at St. James' palace makes a round of the grounds. A subaltern, a sergeant and three privates form the guard, led by a band boy carrying an ancient horn lantern, in which a candle burns. The lantern is a tradition of the guards, and so far nothing will induce them to go in for an efficient, modern electric flash lamp. "Want you buy my sweet lavender?" is still heard, but changed by market conditions to six instead of sixteen bunches a penny.

Modern Cable-Repair Ship

A ship of a thousand wonders recently anchored in the Thames to be outfitted for duty as a deep sea cable repairer. She is the Cyrus Field, the latest cable ship built for the Western Union Telegraph company. Her unfamiliar gear attracts attention. It all has its uses in locating a damaged cable, picking it up, and facilitating repairs. There are ingenious range-finders, wireless direction-finding installations, the Sperry gyro compass, electric log and searchlights; while the ship can draw upon 170 miles of deep sea cable coiled in her tanks. The vessel has sufficient bunker capacity to enable her to remain at sea for at least six weeks. A twin-screw oil-burning vessel of 211 feet in length, the Cyrus Field is to be stationed at Halifax, Nova Scotia, but she has work to do nearer the Irish coast before she makes for her base.

ELM

Sunday-school again next Sunday at the usual hour, 11:00 a. m. With the approach of the Lenten season our thoughts naturally turn more strongly to our obligations to our God, to our church and to our fellow men. So let us start in with Ash Wednesday, and strive to live so that we may have a most joyful Easter.

The friends at Elm will be shocked to learn of the death of Noble M. Cunningham. Mr. Cunningham was a faithful worker all last summer in the Sunday-school and occasionally preached a sermon at the school house. Noble Mack Cunningham was called to his heavenly home on Tuesday, February 17, 1925. He was born 64 years ago on a farm near Piedmont, Mo. At the early age of 16 years he married Nancy Helm, and to this union seven children were born. Mrs. John Mauk and Russ Cunningham of Livonia; Mrs. Floyd Kloppenstein of Brightmoor; Mrs. Richard Scott of Detroit; Mrs. Chas. Ellis, Mrs. John Farmer and John Cunningham of Patterson, Mo. Mr. Cunningham had been suffering for the past few months with a nervous breakdown and serious heart trouble, but for the past week was much better and was able to be up around the house, and so his death came very unexpectedly when he was taken with a severe pain in his back and side, which only lasted a few minutes, when he gasped a last goodbye to his wife who was at his bedside. The friends of Elm extend to the family their deepest sympathy.

The Farmerettes Thimble Club gave an afternoon musical tea to the ladies of the community on St. Valentine's day, February 14th, at the home of Mrs. George Bentley. Miss Lois Corbett gave a very interesting talk on club work among girls. Misses Norma Shaffer, Almeta Kuhn and Dorothy Bentley gave piano solos and the Misses Edna Mauk, Margaret Wilson, Viola Mauk, Edna Kuhn and Elaine Sharrow and Mrs. George Michelin sang solos. Georgia Rowe and Florabelle Rowe gave two humorous readings. The girls all joined in singing their club song at the close of the program. Red, the valentine color was carried out in the decorations, with red tulips centerpiece for the table. Each guest was presented with a valentine, with program printed on the back.

Mrs. Barrows, the matron of the Rooth home is drilling the children to take part in a patriotic entertainment to be given this week at the hall of Spanish-American War Veterans in Detroit.

Today's Reflections

Scientists say work makes life longer, but the average man is of the opinion that it only makes it seem longer.

Many Plymouth parents raise the deuce these days because their sons and daughters are as wild as they were at the same age.

Just when we got autos and balloon tires to get us away from home, here comes the radio and cross-word puzzle to keep us there.

What has become of the old-fashioned man who used to think

In the honors accorded him in the infancy of this Republic were shown the affection, the esteem and the trust in which George Washington was held by the people of his day.

As the years have multiplied, greater and greater tributes paid to the memory of the great Revolutionary General and First President have spoken eloquently of the debt this nation acknowledges to this steadfast, far- visioned, resourceful leader—in truth one of the founders of Liberty for the world.

The Detroit Council of Churches has designated Sunday, March 1st., as Home Coming Sunday. Every Presbyterian holding membership here, or elsewhere, is expected to attend services that day. "Ye are the light of the world"—but the switch must be turned on.

PRESBYTERIAN NOTES

The Ready Service Class held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. H. Weeks on Ann street last Tuesday. A splendid pot-luck dinner was served, and a quilt was tied. The pastor conducted the devotionals using an article from the Literary Digest of January 31st, selected by the teacher of the class, A. D. Stevens, and containing the following statement from the lips of Supreme Court Justice Lewis L. Fawcett, of Brooklyn, New York. After eighteen years on the bench, Judge Fawcett asserts: "The sustained, wholesome, moral atmosphere imparted through habitual attendance upon Sunday-school and church will expel criminal impulses. "Any man not contributing to support some church or organized religious work is living on charity—riding on some other man's transportation. If he really desires abatement of crime, he should ally himself with those agencies which prevent or abate crime." Read the whole article on page 32 of the Digest.

The members of the men's class are invited to supper at the home of Charles S. Biehy, corner of Penniman avenue and Moreland road, tonight, Friday, February 20th. "Nuff said."

The girls of the Daisy-Weaver Class are competing with the men in attendance. They were within five of the mark last Sunday. The men will hear them "honk" when they go by. Maybe!

Four years ago the pastor gave an address at the Presbyterian church of Milford, on the occasion of their Father and Son banquet. Last Sunday, he was recalled to give the address of the evening at a Hi-Y banquet held in the same church. There were 166 men and boys present, including Francis Hathaway, who went along to drive Henry IV.

Prayer meeting this week, was at the home of J. W. Henderson on Main street. If you wish the meeting in your home, notify Mr. or Mrs. O. H. Loomis, the committee in charge. No church can live, and no Christian life can be maintained without earnest, frequent and continuing prayer.

The pastor hopes it will not be necessary often for the choir to meet on Wednesday night. Two such important elements of religious life, as prayer and music, ought never to conflict, but work together. Occasionally it is unavoidable and must be endured. A large reward is awaiting the person who can put more nights in the calendar.

EPISCOPAL NOTES

Last Sunday we were pleased to find the rector able to take the services, although feeble after his slight operation of two weeks ago. We trust he will rapidly regain strength. Notwithstanding his condition, he preached a very impressive sermon to good congregation.

The vested choir have made a good start again, and expressions of appreciation were voiced by the congregation last Sunday, of the rendering of the church service and their leading of the general congregational singing; there is however, improvement to be had, and it is urged that everyone make a special effort to attend our choir practices each week.

The choir seats and the organ have been placed at the south side of the church, and it is believed this change will prove a great improvement as well as helpful to the congregation in their singing.

Much credit is due Miss Pierson, the organist, for her rendering of the service at the organ. A special practice will be held next Sunday evening at six o'clock, before the service; also on Wednesday evening at 7:30 (Ash Wednesday). All be present.

We are having very good attendance at the church school now, and we are glad to welcome the new pupils who have come in to join our little family. More interest is being taken by the elder pupils. Dora Gallimore brought her violin, and she, with Elizabeth Strong at the organ, led the singing of the hymns from the Mission Hymn book. It was fine to hear those youngsters sing, with the "orchestra" leading.

At the close of the session, one of the senior boys asked permission of the superintendent to propose the formation of an executive committee. This was discussed, and the proposition voted on. Next Sunday, the rules and duties of that committee will be discussed.

It is fine to see this spirit of service and responsibility among our youngsters, and we are sure much success will be the outcome of that service.

Don't forget the choir practice next Sunday evening at six o'clock. Church school in the morning, 11:15.

METHODIST NOTES

The Passion Play in beautiful colored slides, the most recent ones of the 1922 celebration of "The Reconciliation between God and Man," as the natives of Oberammergau call it, Rev. William Richards of Northville, will present them at 7:30, next Sunday evening.

Mid-week service next Wednesday evening, 7:30. "Studies in the Life of Christ."

Next week is the big Area Conference at Detroit Central church. Plan to go to at least some of the sessions. Address by the president of Fukien University, China, on Tuesday night; another by Dr. E. Stanley Jones of India, on Wednesday night; a pageant on Thursday night, and an address on Friday night by Bishop Waldorf. Sessions during the day also. Plan to go.

Our church basket ball teams play the High school teams, Friday night at 7:30 at the High school. It is sure to be a great time. Boost for our teams.

"The Lord is my Shepherd, I shall not want." Trust in Him.

At 6:00 o'clock next Sunday night, the Epworth League Missionary committee will serve a Chinese Tea to the members of the study classes. Inasmuch as they are studying China, this will be rather unique. Every member ought to be on hand to enjoy the brief social hour.

A number of the young folks in these study groups are also planning to go to Detroit next Tuesday night to hear the addresses on China, given at the Area conference.

Why Were YOU Not at Church?

You read of rotten politics—you boil with indignation—but you DON'T DO ANYTHING ABOUT IT.

If anyone said, "The Church ought to right these wrongs," you'd probably say, "What has the Church got to do with it? Let it keep out of politics."

And if you DID say that—mind you, IF you said that, it would BE either because you haven't been going to Church, or because if you have gone and held that view, your worship probably went no higher than the roof of the Church.

GET THESE FACTS STRAIGHT: Christianity was INTENDED, not only to bring people in closer touch with their Creator, but to ALSO help in the UPLIFT of the human race.

The Church that helps to release men, women and children from industrial slavery, that works for CLEAN POLITICS, that goes in for social service—is the Church that is APPLYING the teachings of the Carpenter of Nazareth to MODERN TIMES;

THE THEATRE

"MISS BLUEBEARD"

A word of five letters that means merriment. That's an easy one for you cross word puzzle hounds.

Laugh! Yes, you got it the first time.

It applies to Bebe Daniels' second starring picture for Paramount, "Miss Bluebeard," which comes to the Penniman Allen theatre, Saturday, February 21.

The production is an adaptation of Avery Hopwood's big Broadway success and includes Raymond Griffith, Robert Frazer, Kenneth MacKenna and others in support.

The story is a love farce of a gay French actress who gets married and then discovers that she has not one husband but two.

Complications? Laughs? The stage play was a riot in New York and crammed them in on a country-tour—and the picture is even better than the play.

The picture, directed by Frank Tuttle, brings Bebe to the screen in a role different from anything she has ever done before.

"THE BEAUTY PRIZE"

Beauty and comedy are the predominant features of Viola Dana's new Metro-Goldwyn picture, "The Beauty Prize," which is coming to the Penniman Allen theatre, Wednesday and Thursday, February 25 and 26.

The story by Nina Wilcox Putnam has for its heroine a New York manicurist, who is mistaken for a society girl when her mother takes care of a wealthy matron's home during the summer.

The picture enters a beauty contest, and is chosen to represent the state at the national finals. She wins and is about to accept the cash prize, when she decides she has triumphed under false pretenses, and gives the money back.

In order to escape the publicity of her act, she steals away to a small town, and nearly starves. Then occurs a climax said to be the newest thing in cinema.

Pat O'Malley appears opposite the star. Others in the cast include Edward Connelly, Eddie Phillips, Joan Standing and Edith Yorke. Lloyd Ingraham was the director, while Winifred Dunn did the continuity, and John Arnold was the photographer.

The February meeting of the Hough school P. T. A., was held at the school house a week ago Wednesday night. It was opened with the singing of "America." A very spirited business meeting followed.

The membership contest was closed, and it was decided after much discussion, that the men were the winners; thus making it necessary for the women to serve the banquet. Supt. George A. Smith of Plymouth, gave a splendid talk. Iris and Gladys Palmer furnished the music which was very much enjoyed.

The refreshment committee consisted of William Witt, Lou Buehler and Ernest Riddeman. They served a splendid lunch. Following this, the meeting adjourned.

Flora Gerst of the sixth grade has completed test 20-A of the Curtis Practice tests.

The children had their Valentine box and party Friday afternoon. Little Jean Dunham, Edith Metcalf, Chester Kennedy, Warner Peterson, Marion Hix and James and Richard Mack were guests at the party.

Don't forget the social and dance given by the P. T. A., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dunham to-night, February 20th, at 8:00 o'clock. There will be a good time for all.

PERRINSVILLE

The social at Ed. Holmes' was well attended, and a good time was had by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baird and Mrs. Blair of Rochester, and Mr. and Mrs. George Baehr and family of this place, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Erland Bridge of Plymouth. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Harris and Mrs. Belle Baehr called on Mr. and Mrs. Alden Genev and baby, Sunday.

A very pleasant time was had at the Ladies' Aid society at Mrs. Guy White's.

The Ladies Aid society will give a meat-pie supper at Gleasons hall, Friday, February 27th. A good supper will be served from 6:30 until all are served. Come one, come all and help the Aid along. A short program will be given after the supper.

Miss Mattie Lawton has returned from Cincinnati, where she was called two weeks ago on account of the death of her sister's husband.

Mrs. Carl Theuer, who has been on the sick list, is able to be out again.

Lingering Coughs Helped.

Bronchitis leaves a bad cough. So does "flu" and grippe. But these are hard things to get rid of easily to the healing and curative qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Good or troublesome night coughs, too. Every user is a friend.—Advertisement.

SCHOOL NOTES

Juanita Coe wrote the High school notes and the report of the girls' basket ball game; Dorothy Caldwell wrote the report of the boys' game and the grade notes.

Mr. Keenan, who has charge of the X-ray department at Eloise, and who gives electrical treatment to patients, entertained Mr. Ross' physics class last Thursday evening in his laboratory. He has apparatus illustrating completely, the development of the X-ray, and practically every other phase of electrical work.

The evening was very profitably employed in demonstration and explanation by Mr. Keenan and his assistants. The induction coil played a very active part in the entertainment, especially as various members of the class attempted to remain seated upon a stool which had a coil under it. Among the most beautiful experiments were those illustrating the phenomenon of the aurora or northern lights, by means of discharges in partial vacua.

This evening in the laboratory at Eloise, has come to be one of the worth while features of our course in physics, and will be remembered with pleasure by all who were there.

BOYS' GAME AT NORTHVILLE

Amid the enthusiastic cheering of the crowd, the Plymouth boys met their defeat at the hands of Northville last Friday, after struggling valiantly for the much coveted victory. When the final whistle blew, the score stood tied, 19 to 19, and the hopes of Plymouth were high, when it was agreed to play overtime, for the Rocks stood a good chance of winning. Northville's star forward proved too good for our boys, however, netting two baskets which gave Northville a 23 to 19 victory. At the end of the first half, the score was 10 to 5 in favor of Plymouth, but Northville came back strong in the last half, and the game was closely contested. Carney and Kenyon were especially good in making long shots, and it is hoped that with better luck and as good work as was exhibited in the Northville game, Plymouth will be more successful in future games.

GIRLS' GAME

Northville's team proved their prowess in last Friday night's game. This started with each side making a basket, but Northville's score began to grow, until it was double Plymouth's at the end of the first half. Northville continued to make baskets consistently, probably because of their good team work. The last quarter was fast and furious, but the score was too high for the Plymouth girls to out-number, and the game ended with a score of 12 to 49.

GRADE NOTES

The second grade is studying the life of Washington, and has made miniature George Washingtons for the blackboard. They have also been practicing for the physical training exhibition.

The 2-A has a perfect attendance chart. To all those who are neither absent nor tardy for a week, a star is given.

Mrs. Cammon and Mrs. Schwab were visitors in the 4-A last week. The children have been framing Maude Fangel pictures.

The first graders have completed their fun books. The children in Miss Stader's room greatly enjoyed the Valentine party which they gave last week. They made Abraham Lincoln booklets, and on his birthday, they celebrated by wearing red, white and blue badges. Due to an epidemic of mumps, many of the children are absent from school.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The Hi-Y boys celebrated Father and Son week with a banquet Thursday evening, February 19.

There are some promising young journalists in English 10 class, judging from the newspaper paragraphs that they have written.

The Commercial Club is planning to meet next Thursday evening, February 26th, and to have a program.

The plans are being completed for the patriotic banquet which the Seniors are going to give Tuesday, February 24th. Dr. Harry M. Crooks, president of Alma College, has been secured for the speaker of the evening, thus assuring everyone a good time, for Dr. Crooks is at his best as an after-dinner speaker. The toastmaster is Rev. Frank M. Field, who needs no introduction to Plymouth audiences.

Three of the Girl Reserve officers, Elsie White, Julia Wilcox and Dorothy Melow, accompanied by their faculty advisor, went to the second semester "Setting-up" Conference of the Detroit Girl Reserves held at the Industrial Women's Service Center on East Grand Boulevard, last Saturday. The theme of the discussions was voiced in the lines on the program:

"To be alive in such an age,
To live to it,
To give to it."

Plymouth is one of the six or seven suburban schools which have entered the Detroit and Wayne County Music Memory contest. The contest, which will be given at Orchestra Hall, March 6th, includes only children from the sixth to the ninth grades.

A team of ten children will represent Plymouth, and will compete with the other suburban schools. Likewise, the Detroit Public schools and parochial schools have their own separate contests.

A prize, which may consist of enough money to buy records for next year's music memory contest, will be awarded to the team in each group having the highest score. Children having perfect papers will also receive some sort of prize.

There are prospects that the village of Wayne may be served with gas from the Plymouth plant of the Plymouth & Northville Gas Co., before next fall, if the proper permission is granted by the village commission and the township boards through which it would be necessary to lay pipe. B. B. Adams, manager of the local plant, stated to a meeting of the Rotary Club and other business men of Wayne last Tuesday, that his company is ready to carry out their part of the improvement if satisfactory arrangements as stated above could be made. It has been estimated that there would undoubtedly be in the neighborhood of 400 meters installed in Wayne and vicinity. This program, according to Mr. Adams, would give Wayne in all probability the same rate as Plymouth and Northville, and might possibly mean the lowering of the rate in all three towns affected.

PERE MARQUETTE IMPROVEMENTS

The Pere Marquette railway's budget for the current year will probably run to approximately $3,500,000, of which $2,500,000 will be capital expenditures. Of this amount there is an item carried over from the last year of $433,300, which provides, among other works, $50,000 for the completion of the new Ottawa yards at Erie; $84,000 for the extending of 20 stalls of the engine house at Wyoming; $81,000 for grade separation work at Novi; $24,000 for building a bridge at Laporte, Ind. and scattering items that make up the balance. The rail program carries an item of $575,000. This amount is to cover the purchase of 12,500 tons of new 90-pound rail and the shifting of the rail being replaced on the main lines to less important sections of all divisions. Incidental to these are two other items—$27,000 for rail anchors and $50,000 for tie plates. The ballasting program contemplated includes 99 miles of work at an estimated cost of $227,000 and $100,000 is planned for ditching, cuts and widening of embankments. For bridging and grade separation work $357,000 will be asked for in the new budget. Of this amount, $198,000 will be expended in various grade separation works—the Plymouth road at Detroit absorbing $125,000 and Twenty-fourth street at Port Huron a further amount not yet determined. Other works of this nature will also be carried on.—Michigan Investor.
