WILL TAKE CENSUS NEXT TUESDAY

Next Tuesday, April 14th, is the day set by the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce to take the census of the village, and everyone is urged to give his hearty co-operation in making the count accurate. If you are not going to be at home next Tuesday, please remember to leave a slip of paper on the Mail box or pinned to the door, giving the number of persons residing in your house. Don't forget the babies and the children. There has been much speculation as to the population of Plymouth, and it is the purpose of the Chamber of Commerce to make the count thorough and accurate. The workers have been assigned to the various streets, as was published in last week's Mail. Remember, next Tuesday is census day.

A PLEASANT OCCASION

The Leap Year Bridge Club enjoyed a most pleasant occasion last week Thursday afternoon and evening, when the eight ladies who had the highest scores for the season, which closed the week previous, entertained the members of the club. The afternoon was passed with bridge, at the home of Mrs. A. E. Patterson on Main street. Mrs. Florence Webber won first honors, and Miss Florence Stevens second honors for the afternoon. At 5:30 o'clock, the ladies partook of a wonderful chicken dinner at the Plymouth Hotel Restaurant. After the dinner, the ladies attended the Penniman Allen theatre. ## WILL HAVE OPENING OF NEW SHOP SATURDAY NIGHT

Jewell, Blain & McCordle announce an opening of the new sheet metal shop, which has just been completed as an addition to their plumbing store on East Ann Arbor street, Saturday evening, April 11, to which the public is most cordially invited. One of the features of the evening will be a dance, with Perkins orchestra furnishing the music. Carnations will be given the ladies and cigars to the men.

The new building is a great credit to this enterprising firm, whose growing business has necessitated much additional floor space, which the new building now gives them.

Remember, that Saturday evening, April 11th, you are cordially invited to inspect the new building and enjoy the entertainment.

THE ELECTION MONDAY.

The annual township election in Plymouth last Monday, was a very quiet affair, as there was only one ticket in the field. There was a total of 192 votes cast in both precincts.

On the state ticket all of the Republican candidates received large majorities.

The amendment to pension county employes was defeated by a vote of 39 "Yes" and 137 "No."

At the annual town meeting held at 1:00 o'clock, the following sums were voted for the several township funds:

Contingent fund	$3,000.00
Highway fund	4,000.00
Library	100.00
Red Cross	1,200.00

It was not necessary to raise anything for the poor fund as there is a balance in that fund ample to meet the needs for the coming year.

The sum of $300 was voted for road work in the Sutherland subdivision.

The total amount to be raised this year is $4,000 less than was raised last year.

This speaks well for the splendid business administration of our township officials for the past year.

FOURTH ANNUAL AGGIE CLUB BANQUET.

The fourth annual Aggie Club banquet will be held Friday evening, April 17th, in the High school auditorium. A very interesting and educational program is planned, consisting of speakers and music.

Mrs. Wagar, lecturer of Wayne County Pomona Grange, and also woman member of the Michigan State Farm Bureau Board, and Prof. R. O. Linton of the Department of Agriculture at M. A. C., will be the principal speakers, although some local speakers will be heard from.

The menu for the dinner will be as follows:

Meat Loaf	Escalloped Potatoes
Buttered Peas	Waldorf Salad
Rolls	Butter
Pickles	Coffee

Apple Pie à la Mode
There will be a limited number of plates. Tickets will be sold by Aggie Club members for 60c for adults and 35c for children under ten years.

NEW COMPANY WILL OPEN SUBDIVISION

W. S. Bake has sold his Maplecroft subdivision, which he platted some time ago, to a company to be known as the Maplecroft Co., composed of D. M. Berdan, Mrs. Kate E. Allen, Frank Rambo and H. R. Lush. The new company have also purchased the Dennis property on South Main street, which adjoins the Maplecroft subdivision on the south. The George Macomber property on Mill street and Golden road has also been purchased by the new company. The whole allotment consists of 63 acres. Streets will be laid out and graded in that portion not already platted. Sidewalks and sewers will be constructed throughout the subdivision, shade trees set out and the lots will then be placed upon the market. This is a very desirable property, and contains a large number of choice home sites, that will find a ready sale when they are offered to the public.

PLYMOUTH DEBATOR WINS DIVISIONAL PLACE.

Lyman S. Judson of Plymouth, Mich., Albion college student, who won the state intercollegiate oratorical contest at Kalamazoo a month ago, will represent Michigan at the eastern divisional contest at Monmouth college, Monmouth, Ill., on April 10. Winners of first place in 14 state contests will compete, and the three highest orators will then go to Northwestern university at Evanston, Ill., May 2, to compete in the final national contest. In 1912 LeRoy Roginson, now pastor of the Ida M. Stiles Methodist church at Jackson, Mich., won first place for Albion college in the national contest and in 1921 Gernsey Guerton of Hurleyville, N. Y., Albion orator, took second place in the national meet, after winning the state contest. Professor Henry L. Ewbank, head of the public speaking department of Albion college, is secretary-treasurer of the Inter-State Oratorical association, founded in 1873, which has charge of the divisional and national contests.

HOME WEDDING

A quiet and informal home wedding occurred last Saturday afternoon at two o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin T. Derrick on Sheridan avenue, when the latter's sister, Miss Erroll Ione Kenyon of Plymouth, was united in marriage to Carl Henry Rounds, of Mt. Clemens, Michigan. Rev. S. Conger Hathaway, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiated, using the Presbyterian rite services. Lucille Derrick, the bride's niece, acted as flower girl.

After the ceremony, which was performed in the presence of immediate relatives only, a delightful two-course luncheon was served. Those present from out of town, were: Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Kenyon of Brookfield, Michigan; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Rounds and Clifford and Isabelle Rounds of Mt. Clemens, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rounds of Grand Rapids, Michigan.

After a short wedding tour, the bride and groom will be at home to their friends near Mt. Clemens, where Mr. Rounds is engaged in a garage and auto sales business.

STORE OPENING A GREAT SUCCESS

THE OPENING OF SCHRADER BROS. NEW DEPARTMENT LAST SATURDAY, WAS LARGELY ATTENDED.

THE BIG STORE WAS HANDSOMELY DECORATED FOR THE OCCASION.

The opening of Schrader Bros. new department on the second floor of their building, which was formerly occupied by the Masonic Lodge, last Saturday afternoon and evening, marked a most important epoch in the business history of this enterprising firm. About two thousand people took advantage of the invitation of Schrader Bros. to visit their store and inspect the new department, and that they were most agreeably surprised and delighted with the new department, and in fact the whole store and the big stock of well selected and nicely arranged display of furniture, rugs and house furnishings, was very evident by the many compliments that were showered upon Mr. F. D. Schrader, who greeted the throng of visitors that kept coming from early afternoon until late in the evening. Mr. Schrader was ably assisted by Messrs. I. D. Wright and A. S. Finn, employees of the store, while his son, Master Edwin Schrader, greeted the visitors at the door.

The handsome store was made still more attractive by the generous display of flowers and potted plants, which were distributed about the various rooms. Several beautiful baskets of flowers, which were sent by several firms and friends of the Schrader Bros., occupied prominent places in the front window. Carnations were distributed to the ladies, and cigars to the gentlemen as souvenirs of the occasion.

The Schrader Bros. have long felt the need of more room for the expansion of their business, and the second floor now gives them much additional floor space for the display of goods, and the separation of one line of furniture from another.

The first floor is now given over to the display of upholstered furniture, dining room suites, desks, library tables and odd pieces of furniture. The bedroom suites, rockers, rugs and floor coverings are on the second floor. The basement, which was recently remodeled, is given over to the display of kitchen furniture, porch furniture, refrigerators, springs, mattresses, etc.

It is truly a wonderful store, and one to which the people of Plymouth can point to with pride. The Schrader Bros. are to be congratulated upon the successful opening of their new department last Saturday.

PLYMOUTH BOWLERS AT BUFFALO LAST WEEK.

The Plymouth bowlers made a good showing at the National tournament held at Buffalo, last week. Jordan and Williams got fifth place in the two-man standing, while Stranich and Freyman and Wheeler and Lomas made high scores in the two-man events.

PLYMOUTH SENIOR CLASS ENJOY TRIP TO WASHINGTON

C. R. Ross, Writes An Interesting Account of the Trip and the Many Places of Historic Interest Visited.

The Impressions Gained by the Trip Will Have a Lasting Value to Every Member of the Class

Saturday, March 28th, will be a red letter day in the chronicles of the senior class of Plymouth High school. This was the day which saw the fruition of all the work and plans of the past two years, the day on which the class started for Washington. It is comparatively easy to narrate what we saw, but it is not so easy to make others appreciate the value and the joy of this trip.

We left Detroit at noon, Saturday. Our party consisted of thirty-two students and three chaperons, also Mr. Johnston, the B. & O. agent. We had two sleepers, a chair car and a diner, so that we were not crowded. For that matter, we had the entire train, for everyone on it from the porters to the other travelers were interested in our party. Perhaps here is a good place to tell how proud we should be of our young people. They had a happy, lively time from start to finish without any of the rowdiness so often found when young people get together. The management of the hotel where we stayed said it could hardly be told when our party was in the dining room.

We had lunch and dinner on the diner, a new experience for many of the boys and girls. The evening ended with an entertainment, in which everyone was supposed to take part. Even the negro porter sang for us. The night on the sleeping cars passed as such nights usually do, without much sleep, and when the train pulled into Harper's Ferry at seven Sunday morning, everyone was glad to get off the car. We walked up the street of the historic little town to Hill Top Inn seven hundred feet above the river and overlooking three states. Here we found breakfast waiting for us. Before going back to the train, we listened to a little lecture on the part Harper's Ferry played in the Civil War.

We reached Washington at noon and went directly to our hotel, which was one of the best in the city. Many of you doubtless have received cards showing the exterior of it. This was the Hotel Cairo where Champ Clark lived while in Washington. Our rooms were more than comfortable, and we had a taste for a little while of how a few live all of the time.

Our schedule was planned for us during the four days we were there. Two large busses were at our disposal, and we saw most of the places of interest. Sunday afternoon we were taken on a sight-seeing tour. I will not attempt to enumerate all we saw, but we got a very good general idea of the city and its beautiful buildings.

In the days that followed, we systematically visited the public buildings. We saw our money and stamps printed. Through the kind offices of Congressman Michener, we were able to meet the President and to go on his yacht, the Mayflower. We went inside the old church at Alexandria and sat in Washington's seat. We went to Mount Vernon and looked out over the Potomac, and pictured those old historic days when our national life was just beginning. It is impossible to tell all the details of our trip for want of space, but we came home so full of material and impressions and inspirations that it will take a long time to sort it out.

We returned over the same route, except that parts of the country passed in the night were seen by daylight on the way back.

An experience like this cannot fail to be of the utmost value in the making of citizens, and the senior class wish to thank the people of Plymouth for the hearty co-operation which has made this fine thing possible.

The following verses were written in appreciation of Mr. Johnston, the B. & O. agent, who did much to make the trip the success that it was:

The senior class went traveling across the U. S. A.,
The trip conducted personally by Johnston, as they say,
They rode upon the B. & O. and liked it pretty well.

As all who saw and heard them quite easily could tell.
They left Detroit and the state for automobiles famed,
And passed the land just to the south, Ohio it is named;
And moving swiftly onward through the day and through the night,
Left sounds of mirth and gladness, as they onward took their flight.
They stopped at Harper's Ferry and climbed a high old hill,
And ate so big a breakfast we feared they'd all be ill.
The train still to the eastward its burden calmly bore,
And we thought it really wouldn't care if there had been some more.

In Washington, Our Capitol, we finally came at last,
And half our journey's perils quite safely had been passed.
We're glad we came and most of us upon arriving home
Will really feel quite competent most anywhere to roam.
So, Mr. Johnston, here's to you, we like you pretty well;
We'll advertise you and your trip as we our story tell.
And we'll be glad to greet you and always be your friend,
And hope that we will see you in Plymouth now and then.

The following letter has been received from Congressman Michener:

Washington, D. C., April 4, 1925
Prof. George A. Smith,
Supt. of Schools,
Plymouth, Michigan.
My dear Mr. Smith:
I have just returned from St. Louis, Missouri, and I am informed by my secretary that the Plymouth School was in Washington, and apparently got through the ordeal without any casualties.

I regret that I was not able to be here to assist. I am pleased to hear you that the folks here who your school were much impressed with the general appearance, and I am informed from appearance the class was far above the average visiting Washington. This naturally makes me feel good because here we are all proud of our Districts, at the same time when I remember your splendid little city, your magnificent school equipment, and your able instructors, I do not wonder at so perfect a finished product.

Sincerely yours,
Earl C. Michener.

SAFETY MEETING A SPLENDID SUCCESS

The mass meeting held at the Penniman Allen theatre in the interest of the Wayne County Safety drive, Tuesday evening was largely attended and proved a very interesting and worthwhile entertainment. Village President Harry C. Robinson presided over the meeting and introduced the speakers of the evening, who were S. S. Raymond, L. J. VanShoick of the Detroit Automobile Club, and W. H. Safford, superintendent of Public Safety for this district, of the Wayne County sheriff's office. Each one of the speakers emphasized the need for the observance of all traffic rules and the laws governing the operation of motor vehicles upon the highways. Noble Larkins of the the sheriff's office, soloist and impersonator rendered several songs most excellently, and gave an impersonation in a very clever manner. The violin and accordion number was well received and they had to respond to several encores. The young lady who gave the harmonica number made a big hit with the audience with her clever monologue and the playing of the harmonica.

There were several reels of moving pictures, which were exceptionally good. The meeting was in charge of the local police department and it was a success in every way.

THAT ANNUAL CALL

Nine-tenths of the year we fellows in towns like Plymouth work hard at our trade for a living, selling goods, carpentering, repairing, editing a paper or something just as laborious and confining. We thankfully buy our vegetables and our fruit at the grocery, and talk about the farmer's hard lot. But the other one-tenth of the year, when breezes begin to blow soft and the sun shines warm again, we turn like homesick children back to Mother Nature, and wish we could step into the farmer's shoes, regardless of how hard may be his task.

It is this time of year that all of us want to get out and dig in the ground—to plant something; to watch something grow. In the big city tenement house the housewife digs in the hard-packed soil of a little wooden window box with a broken butcher knife and sets out the frail little geranium that has survived the winter's gas and smoke. Here in our town, where it is still possible for a good many to make garden, the call of the housewife to the plowman is heard—"Come and plow my garden next." The smell of warm, fresh earth is sweet to our nostrils—and once more we are thankful that we live away from the pushing, shoving crowd-congested city.

There is more to planting something than reducing the cost of living. There is a joy that comes from watching that which our own hand has planted, of seeing it grow and mature and ripen for the table. So, no matter how cheaply you may feel that vegetables will sell this summer, dig in the ground a little and plant something. Ask any man who does it, and he will tell you we're right—and he'll tell you it is the best remedy the world has to offer for "spring fever."

THE WOMAN DRIVER

No higher authority on motor car driving can be found than the traffic officers of our large cities, and they say that women drivers as a rule are far more careful than men. This may hurt the feelings of some Plymouth drivers who imagine they could give Barney Oldfield lessons, and they may reply that the women drivers ought to be better drivers in view of their training in driving from the back seat. But the fact remains that our smart Alec drivers are found among men. Watch, the next time you get in dense traffic, how deliberately the women drivers move along. You will find that it is the men who keep their horns blaring and who squeeze in and out of traffic as though they were driving a fire truck on a hurry run. It seems from reports made by traffic officers and published from time to time in the newspapers of our big cities that a mother's foot is as steady on the gas pedal as her hand is on the cradle.

SOME TIMELY ADVICE

This is the worst time of year from a health standpoint. Chill winds are still blowing; the sun shines hot and cold by turns and it is difficult to dress comfortably. Children sit and play on the ground. Keeping a fire is all right in the early morning, but before night it makes the house too hot—and illness results. In conversation with a physician a few days ago he gave these simple, yet sensible suggestions, and we pass them on to you: Drink plenty of water; keep bedrooms full of fresh air; don't go in a public place, where there is a crowd, unless there is plenty of fresh air; avoid sitting or sleeping in a draught. This is a simple prescription, yet we believe if Plymouth people will follow it closely there is more than an even chance that they will get into the open season of the year without sickness.

U. OF M. PLAN 23 CLASS REUNIONS IN JUNE.

APPRECIATED WORK OF OUR FIRE DEPARTMENT.

In the account of the big fire at Northville last week, the Record has the following words of appreciation of the work of the fire departments of the neighboring towns, who responded to the call for help:

"Northville people are very thankful to our neighbors from Plymouth, Redford, Farmington and Walled Lake for their prompt assistance. No urging was required to secure a prompt response to our appeal for help. All four of the departments made record runs to Northville and words are feeble to give expression to the appreciation all our people feel for this kind and neighborly assistance."

LOCAL MAN IN BOWLING CONTESTS.

H. H. Curl and Chet Sheere of Redford; Harry German and Jud Jordan of Northville, and Homer Williams of Plymouth, representing the County Five team of the Trolley Bowling League, were in South Bend, Saturday, attending the Michigan-Indiana state tournament, taking part in the five men, two men and single events.—Redford Record.

BUYING BY SIGHT

More people buy by sight than are induced to buy by argument. Good lighting sells goods.

As a rule the storekeeper is not a competent judge of his lighting. He lacks the necessary special training in the first place. He is, besides, so accustomed to, and familiar with, his surroundings that he often fails to observe deficiencies which may be causing him steady loss of sales.

Careful tests have shown that a well lighted store should have an illumination of 10 foot-candles or more, according to the character of the goods.

It will pay you to have your lights measured by foot-candle meter. We will do this for you without charge.

COUNTY SCHOOL PICNIC AND EIGHTH GRADE COMMENCEMENT, ELIZABETH PARK, JUNE 6TH.

Following the plan of last year, Wayne county rural schools will meet at Elizabeth Park, Trenton, for a big basket picnic, field day and eighth grade commencement, on Saturday, June 6th. This will be an all day event. Every school in the county is invited. Pupils, teachers and parents are all urged to come. Fill your baskets, and be on hand by ten o'clock for a program of sports and games, which will take place from ten to twelve.

Following the picnic dinner, the eighth grade graduates will receive their diplomas. Teachers are urged to begin to make definite plans to have their school present, with as many parents as will come. The interior of the big community house will be used for display of school work. The display will be by zones, and premiums will be given the winners. Further details will be given later, and a program of field day events will be sent out some time in April so that entries may be made for the various field contests.

Ancient Land Guards
Secrets of the Past

Where next will the seeker after ancient treasure pursue his romantic quest? asks Martin Pugh.

The answer is to be hoped, in countries in Syria. One of Professor Petrie's ablest lieutenants remarked to me not long ago when we were coasting along the Syrian seaboard: "When the excavator can get at the treasure this country holds, discoveries will be made that will put the wealth of ancient Egypt in the shade," quotes the Family Herald.

"We were passing Tyre. This ancient sought port stands guard over secrets which may one day set before us in undimmed colors, the romance of the Phoenician merchant adventurers. Diggers have, so to speak, scratched its surface, but hardly more. All Syria knows the legend that, from time to time, pieces of gold are found on its historic beach—fragments of the wealth its mariners won a score of centuries ago.

"Sidon, too—sleeping peacefully in the midst of its orange gardens and vineyards—has, as yet, yielded little to the searcher after objective history. Yet what wonders must lie beneath that ancient city!

"Relics of a hundred histories—Roman, Greek, Persian, Hittite and Chaldean, and who shall say how many more—lie, above and beneath the soil, in the country guarded by snow-clad Lebanon.

"Excavators hardly dare disturb the treasure-laden soil of Syria; for the law at present runs but feebly there, and once native cupidities were aroused no ancient site would be safe.

"Yet even searchings of the soil yield daily relics of successive conquering nations. I myself have turned over, in the dim shop of an old man who buys the petty spoils of grave-diggers, an alabaster image with queer (I think, Coptic) inscriptions, a fragment of the last crusading count of Tripoli, and neo-Greek statuettes dug from the mysterious hilltop of er-Rastan.

"Southward, in Palestine, there are ample harvests of historic worth to be won. Already Mount Zion is marked down for investigation. We may learn, ere long, whether the golden vessels of Israel do really lie beneath that magic, hollow-sounding stone in the Haram es-Sherif (often wrongly called the mosque of Omar) which is held by Muslims to be the site of hell.

"Transjordan, with its magnificent amphitheatres and gorges—indeed, all that desert which stretches from the Suez canal to the confines of Mesopotamia—has forgotten cities buried beneath its sand, and even the green plain of Sharon may one day deliver up secrets locked in it since the days of Solomon."

When the Two Met

Several days ago, while the non-tide of pedestrians was sweeping East Washington street, it happened that an unusual number of persons attempted to pass through the temporary arcade in front of the partly completed Solig building.

An angle and rather jovial fat man had elbowed his way almost through the crowd and was breathing a sigh of relief when the unexpected happened. Just as he started to turn from the arcade to the street he ran into a large colored woman of equal size. Both jostled the other.

"Why don't you get out your hand when you all is in to make a left turn?" exclaimed the colored woman as she poked herself up.

The fat man said nothing, but arose and dusted himself off. Before resuming his amble down the street he asked, "Did anybody get the number of that truck?" Indianapolis News.

Bumpers for Faucets

The faucets at the kitchen sink often cause trouble because they are so exposed that now and then a dish is broken on them. At the Horent store (and at others, too) you will find rubber tips used on cranes and crutches which sell for five cents each.

Two of these will fit over the ends of the faucets and, when the rubber is bored out to allow the water to flow, make admirable bumpers for the faucets at practically no cost. Twenty cents will equip both hot and cold water faucets in the kitchen and bathroom. They can be removed instantly for cleansing.—New York Herald-Tribune.

Fourteen water taps have been applied for the year so far. Only three were put in the first three months of 1924.

The water meter bills for the first quarter of of 1925 were mailed on April 1st. Remember, you save ten per cent by paying these within 15 days.

The well drill on the flats has penetrated a hundred feet or so. Between 70 and 80 feet deep there was quite a quantity of water in good gravel.

The dead oil for this season has been ordered. Sixteen hundred thousand gallons are to be shipped the 15th of May and ten thousand gallons the 15th of August.

The two assessors, P. B. Whitbeck and A. V. Jones are making their annual rounds now. How much do you think Plymouth has gained in property valuation over the $3,981,140 of 1924?

The Village President made some of his appointments Monday evening. A. V. Jones will be Assessor again. W. H. Hoyt and L. E. Cable will be the Board of Review. Carl Heide was made a member of the cemetery board.

NEWBURG

Easter services will be held at 11:00 o'clock a. m. next Sabbath. Please bring flowers to beautify the church.

The Epworth League desires a full house next Sunday evening, to listen to John S. Dayton, a well known lawyer of Plymouth, talk. His subject will be "The Goodness of Human Law."

A number from here attended the union services at Beech, both morning and evening last Sunday. The church was lovely with the decorations for Palm Sunday. After two weeks of revival meetings at Beech, Rev. Fred Ambler returned to his home at Brooklyn, Mich. Mr. Ambler has many warm friends here, who are always glad to see him.

The L. A. S. meeting held in the new home of Mrs. Mark Joy last week Wednesday afternoon, brought out a goodly number of members. The ladies decided to hold another contest this summer, with Mrs. W. R. Greer and Mrs. Jesse Thomas captains. They chose sides, and are ready to commence work. Each member is to earn at least a dollar. As there are two leaders, it will no doubt be a warm contest. Election of officers resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Bertha Joy; vice-president, Mrs. Greer; secretary, Mrs. Mae Stevens; treasurer, Mrs. Beulah Smith. The retiring officers are Mrs. M. Eva Smith and Mrs. Gladys Ryder, who deserve the thanks of the L. A. S. for the efficient manner in which they did their work. All enjoyed the self-serve lunch, after which they adjourned to meet with Mrs. Fay Grimm in May.

The L. A. S. are putting on an evening's entertainment next week Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, April 14 and 15, consisting of two forty-minute plays, entitled: "A Slight Mistake," and "The Stage Struck Yankee." The proceeds will apply on the parsonage fund. Everyone come and enjoy the fun, and help in a good cause.

After spending the winter with her daughter, Nettie, in Detroit, Mrs. Ann Farwell is back in her old home. Miss Jesse Geney has a position in the telephone office at Wayne. Mrs. Foster of Bloomville, Ohio, spent Tuesday and Wednesday with Mrs. Clark Mackinder.

Mr. and Mrs. Vern Mackinder and two children motored from Grand Rapids last Saturday, spending over Sunday at the parental home. Mr. and Mrs. Turnbull of Port Huron, spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carney.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smith attended the funeral of Harry Staman, Wednesday afternoon, at Livonia Center.

Wm. Lomas attended the bowling tournament at Buffalo, last Saturday. Margaret and Robert McGregor and Eleanor Edwards of Detroit, are guests at the Horton home this week. Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Cochran entertained a crowd of young people at their home Tuesday evening.

COMMUNITY CLUB

The last Home Demonstration sewing class was held at the home of Mrs. Bert Shuart, north of Cherry Hill. The dirt roads were bad, but there was a good attendance. Ladies from Waterford, Canton, Cherry Hill and Plymouth were present. We finished the perfect fitting patterns and had quite a few instructions on buying different articles. Miss Sorenson of the M. A. C. and Miss Lois M. Corbett, Home Demonstration Agent were present to teach the class. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Sam Spicer.—C.

WOMAN'S CLUB

The Woman's Club held their meeting in Wayne, last Friday, with the Arche Club, beginning with a hearty welcome by Miss Elizabeth Stellwagen, and response by Mrs. C. Humphries, at which the business meeting, was postponed to Tuesday afternoon.

The program began with piano numbers by a member's son, Frank Millard, who made a hit, as did the Ladies' Quintette, consisting of Mesdames, Brown, Cassidy, Bake, Moon and Oslaver, who in darky costume gave two numbers. Later the quintette gave Japanese numbers, also in costume.

A little play, "Joint Owners in Spain," by Alice Brown, was cleverly presented by Mesdames Murray, Stringer, Hubbard and Kenter.

The club expected to present Mrs. H. C. Shaffmaster of Detroit, but a sick voice prompted her to ask Mrs. M. C. Meyers of the Noble school to give several readings, that were relished.

A delicious repast was served in the church parlors, and a social hour made the day to be long remembered.

The Tuesday business meeting received the report of the nominating committee by Mrs. Hillman, and the executive board report. The next meeting is the annual one to elect officers, etc., Friday, April 17th, and all reports should be ready.

BAPTIST NOTES

Sunday was a great day in the church. The cowboy spoke in the morning, using the 51st Psalm, "Restoration." In the evening, the Cowboy Evangelist gave the story of his life, and the audience listened for one and a half hours to the wonderful exploits of his life. The many good lessons brought out by his experiences, will linger long in the minds of the people who listened. A great crowd taxed the church to its capacity, more than four hundred people crowding into the auditorium. We had a splendid service of song. People from many towns came in large delegations. The ministers were: Rev. McRea, Northville; Rev. Thibout, Wixom; Rev. Hartsough, Ontario, Wis.; Rev. Lizzie Moody Evans, Hillsdale, who were on the platform. Many people voted to ask Rev. Joe Payne if he would come back again this fall. A good offering was presented to Rev. Payne, and after many friendly good-byes, he went to Hillsdale to speak and baptize some converts. He will begin revival meetings in Parr Memorial, Petoskey, Sunday, April 12th. He made many friends while here, and all wish him God speed. The church has been decorated with many beautiful flowers and plants, making the room very attractive during the Revival.

The Sunday-school was unusually large last Sunday. Mrs. Nole's class sang the special song at the close of the hour.

The church wishes to thank Mr. and Mrs. George Wilkie for the splendid way they have cared for the church during the revival.

Last Saturday evening, the B. Y. P. U. met in the church parlors for their annual banquet and election of officers. Ira Kingsley, president, called the meeting to order, and introduced Morgan Williams, director of Religious Education of the Baptists of Michigan, to address the society. He also called on some of the older members who have been away at school, and they spoke. They were Duane Sayles, Elbert Seger and Alton Sayles. The officers elected were as follows: President, Miss Sarah Daly; vice-president, Kenneth Wilkie; secretary, Doris Shackleton; treasurer, Stillman Warner. The decorations were very pretty, and the tables attractive. All said it was a fine supper.

METHODIST NOTES

Tonight is especially young people's night at the Holy Week services. Everyone, young and old, is invited. The Hi-Y male quartette will sing for us. A pantomime of "Rock of Ages" will be presented. The preacher will preach a short sermon on, "The 'Where' B." Come to this Good Friday service. You will enjoy it.

Read the announcements for Easter Sunday, and be present at each service, from 6:30 in the morning till 7:30 in the evening.

The Sunday-school service will be united with the morning service of worship at 10:00. Each member of the Sunday-school should be on hand at this earlier hour.

Those desiring to furnish flowers for the pulpit on Easter Sunday, in memory of loved ones, are invited to do so. A committee will be in charge on Sunday morning to receive and arrange them.

The Sunday-school board meeting is postponed from next Tuesday night to the following Tuesday.

The Missionary Society meets next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Spicer on Ann Arbor street, for an all-day meeting.

Remember the prayer meeting this (Good Friday) afternoon at the church from 2:00 to 3:00.

The mid-week service of this church will be held next Wednesday night at 7:30. Every member of the church ought to be on hand. Sure.

The 24th and 25th of this month. What? The District Young People's Conference at this church. A big time.

Bring your Easter offering with you next Sunday. Half of it goes for local expenses of the Easter meetings and the management of the new community hall. The other half will be used to carry the gospel of the Cross of Christ, and the news of His resurrection to other parts of the world. Make it a big offering as a most practical demonstration of our appreciation of what Christ has done for us. A tithe of our week's income would be none too much.

Wanted—Enough men to fill the central section of the church next Sunday, and reach the goal. "Sixty by Easter." And then keep coming. Prayer meeting this week was at the home of Elder I. W. Hummel on Ann street.

Those planning to unite with the church, next Sunday, should meet the Session, if they have not already done so. The Session will meet for this purpose at 9:40, next Sunday morning. Please be prompt. The signing of application blanks will save time. Ask the pastor for them.

Mrs. R. A. Roe has charge of the Sunday-school exercises, next Sunday evening. Some of those taking part have been taking special training in Detroit. You must not miss hearing, "A Song of Dawn."

Tonight, April 10th, the pastor goes to Ypsilanti to moderate a congregational meeting of the First Presbyterian church.

Mrs. W. R. Shaw, Miss Carrie Partridge, Mrs. Mary K. Hillmer and Mrs. S. Conger Hathaway attended the Presbyterian meeting at Pontiac, Tuesday. Mrs. Dan Murray represented the local society there both Tuesday and Wednesday.

The American and Christian flags are to be dedicated at the service, next Sunday morning. They will be used by the choir in the processional and recessional hymns.

Parents desiring to have their children christened may have it done next Sunday morning. Adults also will be baptised and members received.

Neglect of Punctuality Often Source of Strife

Perhaps one-third of the unpleasantness that occur between husbands and wives come from not keeping appointments promptly and accurately. One of the easiest things in the world to do is to get mixed up about the place or the hour set for meeting in the heart of a city. Haven't you often seen a woman with knitted forehead standing in a shop vestibule-half an hour at a time peering this way and that to look for the friend who never comes? Or an impatient husband walking up and down a hotel foyer, watch in hand, getting writher every minute?

In the first place, do not be indefinite about the place, the Kansas City Star enjoins. Don't say: "I'll be at the Main street entrance of Blank & Co." when Blank & Co. have several entrances and you may be thinking of the Broadway entrance when you say Main street. You will go to the Broadway door and your friend will go to the Main street door, and just as you decide that she may be at the other entrance she decides that you are probably at the other door, and you miss each other in passing. An entrance is a poor place to meet, anyway; better go a little farther and set an absolutely unmistakable place, such as a small specialty shop, candy store or one-door shoe store.

If possible, always meet your husband in the same place. Set a convenient, comfortable central building, with chairs to be had, and always go to that same place unless there is some good reason not to. Early in your married life pick out your favorite rendezvous and go there in general, though sometimes it may be best to set some other place. If you change or meet in some strange city be very explicit, and when you have set a place, go there and stay there. Don't move about and try some other stand. Last of all, be prompt. Give up some of your errands, break away from friends or the machine, cut short a concert—but be there when you say you will unless your train breaks down or you are knocked down by an automobile. The greatest compliment any husband, wife or friend can give is to say: "He (or she) will be there on time, if it is a possible thing."

The Family Tweezers

When you recall the old days back in the boyhood home there is nothing dark about the picture except the thought of the tweezers and mother's firm inquiry, "Andrew, what are you limping about?"

"I didn't know I was limping," you said, at the same time putting your foot down flat to show her that everything was all right.

Taking your word for what it was worth under the circumstances, she asked to have a little look. She made you get down on the floor and put your foot in her lap, while your brother kindly volunteered to get the tweezers.

You reasoned with her, pleaded with her, and even accused her of wanting to hurt you, but she worked away until she finally brought a terrible scream from you and an ugly splinter from your foot.

Even now a shudder comes over you when you think of those tweezers and those awful wops:

"Andrew, what are you limping about?"—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Hindu Women Advancing

In 1914 an American woman, Doctor Sender, founded a school of medicine in India, but it was not till 1918 that the first native students began to attend. "Hindu women are not intelligent enough to take their degrees," was the verdict of the director of the Madras School of Medicine. The results of the last years, however, have proved the exact contrary. Up to the present, 93 per cent of women students have obtained their doctor's degree, while only 20 per cent of masculine students obtained it, the Dayton News says.

If we remember that out of 185,000,000 women there are only 150 who have obtained the right to practice medicine and that many Hindu women would rather die than be examined by a man, we must hope that this feminine victory will spread and that the number of students will increase in the different schools of medicine in that country.

Landmark to Disappear

The ancient Pictish capital of Scotland, Forteviot, is shortly to disappear, and a new modern village will rise in its place, Lord Forteviot having decided to rebuild the hall, school, and dwelling houses. Perth, overhangs the May water, which flows into the Earn. According to the legend of the foundation of St. Andrews, the king of the Picts built a church at Forteviot (then called Forteviot), and in his palace there Kenneth MacAlpin died in 860. It was on the "Miller's Acre," near the Hayhill, that Edward Balliol's army encamped before the battle of Dupplin (1322).

Remarkable Fruit

The agricultural explorer is the name given to a scientist who is sent to little-known parts of the world by the United States Department of Agriculture in search of new fruits and plants.

"One member of this unique profession has discovered in Ecuador an interesting group of fruits. One of these, the cherimoya, is described as vegetable ice cream, because of its white flesh, which has the consistency of a firm custard. It has the combined flavors of pineapple, strawberry, and banana.

What They Contain No Calorie! Mrs. J. M. Young, of New Hope, Ala., says, "Cherimoya's Tablets are the best things she has ever used for biliousness and constipation. As they contain no caloric, she never feels weak or sick after taking them. Small cost, only 25 cents.—Advertisement.

It was sixty years ago April 9th, that Lee surrendered to Grant at Appomattox, and the Civil war was ended. The surviving veterans, and they number less than a dozen, residing in Plymouth, well remember that momentous occasion, and no doubt recall many incidents of that day, when news was received by the army and of their great rejoicing that the bitter conflict in which they played a part had at last ended. Plymouth sent many soldiers to the front during the Civil War in the various Michigan regiments, but only a few of that gallant band are with us today. Not many of these surviving veterans are much less than eighty years of age. Once Plymouth boasted of a flourishing G. A. R. Post, with a large membership, but a few years ago the Post was disbanded because of its diminishing members.
