PLYMOUTH HAS POPULATION OF NEARLY 4,000

Members of the Chamber of Commerce Take the Census of the Village Tuesday and Find a Big Gain Over the Last Census

For some little time there has been much speculation as to the present population of Plymouth, and it was decided a short time ago that the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce would take the census and settle the question. Last Tuesday the count was made, and from the first check over of the returns turned in by the enumerators, the number appears to be 3,877. The reports will, however, be gone over carefully, but it is not thought that there will be any material change either way. The government census in 1920 gave our population as 2,857. This is a nice gain over those figures. The count does not, of course, include the many subdivisions on the edge of Plymouth, which if they were included in the village limits would swell the figures considerably more than 4,000. The count Tuesday was made by workers from the Chamber of Commerce, and they did their work well and are deserving of a vote of thanks.

PLYMOUTH HIGH DEBATORS CLOSE SEASON

Six successive times has Plymouth won her way to the state elimination series, and this year, our team composed of Ira Kingsley, Julia Wilcox and Forrest Hulbert, with Ernest Abrams as alternate and time-keeper, gained a place among the sixteen best schools of the one hundred and seventy-five in the Michigan State Debating League.

Resolved, that the Philippine Islands should be granted their immediate and complete independence." was the interesting question used. Grosse Pointe, Milford and Northville were in the schedule for the preliminary contests, and all of these schools Plymouth defeated. A blank, due to the odd number of schools in the League, was drawn for the fourth debate.

Entering the eliminations with fourteen points to their credit, out of a possible sixteen, the Plymouth team first went to Britton, where a 2 to 1 decision made them victors. On April 9th, in a hard-fought struggle with Halfway, a town half way between Detroit and Mt. Clemens, they lost by another 2 to 1 vote. The judges were Prof. Wilbur and Mr. Metcalfe, both of the State Normal College, and Mr. Thomas, Principal of the Howell High School, and according to one of the judges, the two teams were so well matched, that it was almost like flipping a coin to decide which should get the vote.

Two practice debates were also held this year—one with Ypsilanti, and the other with Northwestern, Detroit city champions—in which there was no decision.

One of the interesting things the team did during the year, was to hear the Michigan-Northwestern University debate on the Philippine question.

EASTER PROGRAM AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

A wonderful service was enjoyed last Sunday morning, by an audience that taxed the capacity of the Presbyterian church. After additional chairs had been placed the audience overflowed into the lecture room. The central section was entirely filled with men. Two beautiful silken flags, American and Christian, were carried in the procession by Elton Ashton and Francis Hartway, and were dedicated by the pastor during the invitational prayer. These flags were presented to the church by the Choir Chapter and by the Ready Service class, and will be used each Sunday in the morning service.

The pulpit and platform were beautifully decorated with Easter lilies, hyacinths and white carnations fronted with a floral cross placed above the specially constructed communion table; and all intervening spaces were filled with white. H. J. Green and his assistants are to be congratulated upon the unusually fine effect thus produced. Some of the Easter lilies used in decoration, were donated by the Anderson-Everett firm on Penniman avenue.

The music given under the direction of Miss Genevieve McClumpha, ably assisted by the organist, Miss Olive Merz, was pronounced by many as the finest ever heard in Plymouth. In addition to the anthems rendered by the choir ensemble, solo numbers were sung by Joseph Tracy, Mrs. Maxwell Moon and Miss Marjorie Pollock of Detroit. The organist played for the voluntary, "Schelzo," by Guilmaut; for the offertory, "Traumerer," by Schumann; and for the postlude, "Chant Heroique," by Cesar Franck.

An interesting part of the service was the baptism of seventeen infants and adults, the pastor using in this sacrament, water from the River Jordan, recently brought him from the Holy Land by Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bennett, who personally procured it for this purpose. Enough remains to be used for some time in the baptismal services of the church. Following the baptism, eighteen persons were received into church membership upon profession of their faith in Christ. The Easter sermon by the pastor was followed by the Lord's Supper, of which an unusually large number partook. Altogether, it was a very impressive service which will be long remembered.

CELEBRATED THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING

A very pleasant event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ash on North Mill street on Saturday, April 11th, when about sixty-five relatives and friends gathered to help them celebrate their golden wedding anniversary.

At high noon, the guests entered the dining room, which was beautifully decorated with daffodils and gold and white crepe paper. Here they enjoyed a beautiful chicken dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Ash received many useful gifts, also flowers and gold pieces.

After partaking of the supper and enjoying music and cards, the guests departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Ash many more pleasant years together.

HELD FOURTH PHYSICAL TRAINING DEMONSTRATION

The fourth annual demonstration of physical training, given by the department of physical training of the Plymouth High school took place Thursday evening at the High school auditorium. The following program was given in a most satisfactory manner by the pupils taking part:

Comin' thru the Rye, Irish Lilt, Sec. 1, 7th Girls.

Formal Lesson, Leader System, 8th Boys.

Indian Chorus, Sec. 1, H. S. Girls.

Mats, 7th Boys.

Stunt Race, 7th vs. 8th Girls.

Pyramids, Basket Ball Girls.

Reuben Taps, 8th Girls.

Parallel Bars, High School Boys.

PLYMOUTH OBSERVES GOOD FRIDAY

At 12:00 o'clock last Friday business places were closed and business was generally suspended between that hour and 3:00 o'clock, and the citizens of Plymouth like those in cities and towns throughout Christendom knelt in adoration of the Christ and in sorrowing memory of the crucifixion.

A public service was held at the Penniman Allen theatre at one o'clock, and it was well attended. Rev. Charles Strasen, pastor of the Lutheran church, conducted the service. Miss Esther Strasen of Detroit, sang two beautiful selections appropriate for the occasion. She was accompanied on the piano by Miss Hanna Strasen. Rev. Strasen's sermon was very impressive.

These services at the local theatre are growing in interest and attendance each year, and it is hoped that next year on this day every seat will be occupied.

DEATH OF MISS ANNA MACK

Anna Mack, daughter of Josephine and the late Stanley Mack, died last week Wednesday, April 8th, at Caro, Michigan, and was buried from the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. Mertens on Our Lady of Good Counsel church Monday, April 13, at 9:00 o'clock. Interment at Holy Cross cemetery, Detroit, Mich.

The deceased was 28 years old, and had suffered for many years. To mourn their loss, are: her mother and three sisters, together with her two brothers.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. F. C. Lefevre, assisted by Rev. J. Schuler of Northville, and Rev. J. O'Mahoney of Dearborn.

KING-KAISER

The marriage of Leonard King and Christabelle Kaiser was solemnized at Our Lady of Good Counsel Rectory, Wednesday morning, April 15, in the presence of David King and May Ellen Hoban. Rev. F. C. Lefevre performed the ceremony. The young couple will reside at the home of the bride near Ypsilanti.

CELEBRATED THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING

A very pleasant event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ash on North Mill street on Saturday, April 11th, when about sixty-five relatives and friends gathered to help them celebrate their golden wedding anniversary.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR HARRY STAMAN.

Harry C. Staman, son of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Staman, was born in Livonia township, May 10, 1901, and died April 5 at Harper hospital, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis. He was apparently recovering nicely, but suffered a relapse Friday morning, and his condition grew rapidly worse until Sunday afternoon, when he died, at the age of 23 years, 10 months and 26 days.

He was a faithful member of the Livonia Evangelical Lutheran church, having been baptised there in his infancy, and confirmed into the faith on November 4, 1917.

Funeral services were held from the church Wednesday afternoon, at two o'clock, Rev. Oscar J. Peters officiating. Interment was made at Riverside cemetery.

Besides his parents, he leaves to mourn their loss, one sister, Elsie, one brother, William, and a large number of other relatives.

With his faithfulness, loyalty and cheerful disposition, he had endeared himself to a large circle of friends, who also realize their great loss. Thoughtful, upright, kind and cheerful. These were his virtues every day. But God wanted just such a person. So from us took him away. We, his loved ones, left behind him, when we will all be re-united. And love again will hold full sway.

LEAGUE OF WOMEN VOTERS

A meeting of the League of Women Voters was held Monday, April 13th, at the home of the Misses Pelham, with the newly-elected president, Mrs. Phoebe Patterson, in the chair. After the business meeting, a short and interesting program was given.

The next meeting will occur the second Monday in May, and it was decided to invite Mrs. Ida M. Peppers of Detroit, to give a report of the National Convention in Richmond, at this meeting. Mrs. Peppers is an interesting speaker, and will, no doubt, give an excellent report of the convention, if she consents to appear before the Plymouth League.

CHEVROLET MAKING BIG PRODUCTION RECORD THIS MONTH.

The Chevrolet Motor Company is producing this month an April record of 22,290 motor cars and trucks, or more than 2,000 for each working day. This monthly schedule, planned also for May and June, has been exceeded only twice in the company's history.

At the present rate Chevrolet will produce its "two millionth" car this fall. It will be the first three-speed gear shift type of car to reach that total.

Of the cars being made this month, 43,556 are destined for domestic sale, 5,234 are to be exported and 3,500 are to be built at the Chevrolet plant in Canada.

Accelerated by the demand for the improved new series with refinements previously obtainable only in cars of much higher price, the Chevrolet production has mounted rapidly since January 1st.

The capacity program requires approximately 17,546 workers at the twelve Chevrolet factory and assembly plants throughout this country.

The popularity of the new Chevrolet models has developed a unique situation in which sales and production figures practically are identical. Unfilled orders on hand indicate that production for the next three months, even at the high pace set, will be absorbed at once.

L. O. T. M. HAVE PLEASANT EVENING.

About ninety members and their guests of the local L. O. T. M. sat down to a delicious dinner, Tuesday evening in the dining room of the Grange hall. The room was beautifully decorated, the color scheme being purple and white. In the center of each table was a gorgeous nest filled with eggs of every hue, and over the edge peeped tiny baby chicks of fluffy yellow. Tiny chickens were also used as favors. The group was greeted by a song of welcome by the committee.

After dinner all repaired to the lodge room, which was also decorated with purple and white, and at different tables grouped about the room, fruit, candy, baked goods and fancy articles were for sale. For the sum of a nickel the gypsy, gorgeously arrayed in rainbow colors, would tell all the secrets of your life, past and present. In front of her tent door a young gypsy played the tambourine and danced gracefully to call the crowd.

Members of the committee, together with several others sang a group of songs, amusing and otherwise. A short one-act play was also given, which brought forth roars of laughter from the crowd. All departed at a late hour vowing the Lady Macca-bees of Plymouth royal entertainers.

PLYMOUTH WOMAN DIES IN SAGINAW AUTO CRASH

We take the following from the Detroit Free Press of Tuesday morning:

"Mrs. John Holden, 43 years old, of Plymouth, died early Monday from injuries received when the automobile in which she was riding, collided with another car driven by Frank Besick of Big Rapids, on Wadsworth road, Sunday. With Mrs. Holden were her husband, who was driving the car, and a nine-year-old daughter, both of whom were cut and bruised. The five occupants of the Besick car received minor cuts and bruises. Mrs. Holden suffered a fractured skull and did not regain consciousness, after being taken to the hospital."

Mr. Holden is employed at the new Wayne County Training School. The remains were taken from Saginaw to Canada, Mrs. Holden's former home, for interment.

BOVEE-HAMMER

Miss Katherine Hammer of Detroit, and Donald Bovee, son of Mrs. Teza Bovee of this place, were united in marriage by Rev. A. K. MacRae at the Baptist parsonage, Northville, last week Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Bovee will make their home in Plymouth.

DOG QUARANTINE IN WAYNE COUNTY

The fact has been established that a dog affected with an infectious and communicable disease known as "rabies" has recently been at large in the vicinity of Redford and Nankin Townships and is known to have bitten persons and live stock and may have come in contact with dogs as yet unknown.

Notice has been given that all dogs owned or kept in the County of Wayne, State of Michigan, unless properly vaccinated against rabies within one year by a qualified veterinarian, shall be kept securely chained or otherwise properly confined on the premises of their owner or keeper, or if allowed to run at large shall be securely muzzled to prevent the aforesaid dogs from biting other animals, or persons. All owners or keepers of dogs are hereby prohibited from removing any dog whatsoever from Wayne County, Michigan, during the period of this quarantine, unless the dog has been properly vaccinated against rabies by a qualified veterinarian within one year of date of removal.

ARBOR WEEK APRIL 27 TO MAY 2 IS DESIGNATED

The governor of the state of Michigan has designated the week of April 27 to May 2 as Arbor week. The department of public instruction is co-operating with Governor Grosbeck in the effort to make the week one of worthwhile endeavor, to inaugurate a movement which will conserve and beautify the great outdoors of Michigan.

To this end Superintendent Johnson is asking the children to help by cleaning up the school grounds and in other ways.

The plan as outlined by Superintendent Johnson is as follows: Monday, general cleanup day, school grounds and homes, removing the debris of winter; Tuesday, vegetable day, make a garden, plant vegetable seeds, make a home garden; Wednesday, make a flower garden; Thursday is conservation day, a tree may be planted on this day, and in order to encourage the children, arrangements have been made with a Michigan nursery to supply trees at a nominal cost. Schools are to have special programs on this day to teach the children how and why to plant trees; what they mean to the state and how forests should be conserved. Friday and Saturday should also be planting day for trees, both fruit and ornamental shade trees.

PLYMOUTH HIGH WINS OPENING GAME

Plymouth's opening game for the base ball season was with Wayne, here, last week Friday afternoon. Both teams were evenly matched as to playing ability, but Plymouth had the advantage when it came to pitching, making it look as if Wayne had a poor hitting team. At the end of the fifth inning, it was still a shut-out game, so the officials called the game, the score being 0 to 0 in Plymouth's favor. The following was the lineup: W. Curtis, c.; D. Rowland, R. Taylor, p.; H. Miller, 1b.; J. Schomberger, M. Kurze, 2b.; R. Taylor, 3b.; Pierce, L.; W. Losey, c. f.; L. Wisley, r. f.; Substitute, T. Hickey.

OPENING WAS A SUCCESS

The opening of Jewell, Blanch & Metcalfe's new sales metal shop, last Saturday evening, was a complete success. Hundreds of people visited the new addition to the plumbing shop, inspected the new building and enjoyed the dancing. Perkins' orchestra furnished the music, and everybody had a good time. Carnations were given the ladies, while cigars were passed out to the men. People were also present from Detroit, Ypsilanti and Jackson.

HERE TO STAY

When the Dodge Brothers automobile plant was sold a few days ago to a group of New York bankers for the stupendous sum of $140,000,000, we had proof that the auto is here to stay. But if additional proof is desired, we have only to listen to Henry Ford. He says autos will be bought by new customers as fast as they are made, by people able to own more than one machine, and to replace those torn up or that are constantly wearing out. And within a few more years other countries will get the fever, and it will take millions of machines to supply them. Nothing is going to take the place of the auto; he says, and no other country will ever be able to build them in such huge quantities as America. In other words, he says people will always want automobiles, and as long as they want them, they are going to be made, and made in such vast numbers as to keep millions and millions of dollars in circulation all the year round. If we have any Plymouth residents owning automobile stock, this ought to be a most interesting statement.

THE DAY OF REST

Man wisely sets apart one day in seven as a period of rest and change. Sunday is the day to emerge from the rue and grove of life and do something different. The successful farmer renews the soil each year; the flower grower feeds and waters the roots of his plants; the motorist cannot run his car unless he recharges the battery—all life has a tendency to run down if we don't keep building it up. Sunday gives us a few hours to pause and take new breath before making a fresh start. But resting up doesn't mean going to seed entirely, for there is always enough activity on Sunday, doing things that are different from what we have to do during the week, to keep us from growing stale. Going to church is the best way to rest. And we dare you to point to a man who will say that he ever felt he lost anything during the remainder of the week because he spent an hour or so inside a church on Sunday.

BEST IN FIVE YEARS

The best news that has come out of Washington City for a long, long time reaches us in an agricultural forecast dated April 5, and which states in positive language that the outlook for the farming interests of the nation is better right now than it has been for five years. The Secretary of Agriculture says there are no large surpluses of grain or livestock to handicap prices, as has been the case for several years past; that there is but one way for wages to go now, and that is back to normal, that world markets are open to the point where the demand is once more greater than our supply and that prosperity is going to shift within the next few months from the cities to the farms. There is still much unemployment in all of the larger cities, but this condition, too, is getting better, though it means that when harvest time again rolls around there will be no scarcity of labor, and the growers will not be forced to pay such high wages that their profit will be swept away. The report says every rural activity is in shape to realize good profits this year—wheat, corn, hay, cotton, livestock and fruits. And it not only forecasts a good profit but a bountiful production of everything.

"Go ahead with your spring work with the assurance that you are going to have the most prosperous season in five years," says Secretary Jardine. It is certainly a message that will bring joy to millions of hearts. Citizens around Plymouth can make their plans accordingly, for prosperity has had her visit out in the cities—she's going to tarry awhile now in the small towns and on the farms.

MUNICIPAL NOTES

The $50,000 of fire truck and water works bonds, were sold to good advantage Monday night. There were twelve bidders. Offers had been requested at three rates of interest—4 1/2, 4% and 5 per cent. It was decided that the bids at 4 1/2 per cent were for the best interests of the village, and Whittlesey, McLean & Co. of Detroit, were the high bidders at this rate. They offered a premium of $620.00. Michigan municipal bonds seem very attractive, and Plymouth apparently has a good reputation along this line.

The steel tank will be overhauled and painted soon. There are some loose rivets around the expansion joint at the top of the riser pipe to be fixed; and new lagging to put on. The fire siren will also be placed on this tower in order to have it where it may be more readily heard in all parts of the village.

The Village crew has been busy the last week putting in water taps, raking and seeding the parks and doing some cemetery work. With all the building going on in Plymouth, the water department is going to be a busy outfit this season.

We are sending out annual care notices to owners of lots in Riverside cemetery this week. Five dollars will care for a lot for the season, and one dollar is charged for the use of water by those who wish to care for their own lots.

The village manager is driving a new Ford coupe. He appreciates the extra comfort of a closed car, especially since his work takes him out in all kinds of weather.

BRIGGS SCHOOL NOTES (By Carlton Denton)

The Sixth and Seventh grades are making surface maps of Africa.

The boys of the base ball team are erecting a new base ball diamond. They have elected Leroy Simmons as captain of the team and Harley Wolf from as manager.

Miss Cochrane, the Helping Teacher, visited school last Monday. She heard the second grade reading and the Eighth grade recite in arithmetic class.

Betty Peck visited school Wednesday, April 8th.

Edward Beauman visited school Monday, April 6th.

Our school is proud to have eight stars of the twelve we have to get for the Gold Star school.

While at the school, Miss Cochrane heard a meeting of Briggsville. The meeting was called to order by Leroy Simmons, supervisor, after which the report of the clerk, Alma Wagenschutz, and treasurer, Beulah Wagenschutz were read. There were new officers to be appointed for the week, by the Supervisor, Street Commissioner and Justices of the Peace. The children voted on serving committees for the zone meeting, and the reception committee. After the meeting, the children were awarded the star for Citizenship, on their Gold Star school card.

The girls of the Sewing Club are working still harder this week, as they will have to have their Achievement day April 28, instead of May 5, as planned before.

The children are all practicing for their program for zone meeting, Saturday.

Sewing class meets with Mrs. S. W. Spicer in her new home east of town. Mrs. Paul Butt has been on the sick list the past week.

Members should not forget that the dues are payable at the annual meeting.

CENAQUA SHORES TO OPEN APRIL 18TH.

Cenaqua Shores, Walled Lake, will open for the season on Saturday, April 18th, when a formal opening will take place. This will be the fourth season for this popular resort, and the pavilion will be in charge of Howard Staman of Farmington, who promises a first-class place, well conducted.

OAKLAND COUNTY TO BUILD INFIRMARY AND HOSPITAL.

Oakland county placed its stamp of approval on the spreading of a three-quarters of one mill tax on the valuation of the county by the board of supervisors in next October's budget at the recent election. The three-quarters of a mill is sufficient to raise a sum of approximately $180,000, which the board of supervisors and county board of auditors believe is sufficient to complete and equip a county infirmary, contagious disease hospital, tuberculosis sanatorium and juvenile detention home.

Mrs. Fred Nollar spent a couple of days last week at Dearborn. The Henry Pribe family entertained eight or ten auto loads of friends from Detroit, Easter Sunday. Guests of Mrs. J. Kuhl's, Easter, were: Mr. and Mrs. John VanBuren, Mr. and Mrs. Thurman A. Walters and daughters, Lois and Marian, of Ypsilanti, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Raymond and children, Carl, Ralph and Ruth of Wayne.

Easter visitors at Fred Nollar's were: Mrs. May Jacobs and children, Claudine and Bernard of Pontiac; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Whipple and daughter, Hazel, of Northville; Mr. and Mrs. Griffin of Dearborn, and Mr. Briggs of Detroit.

Mrs. Lulu J. Kuhl received a telephone message Sunday, telling her of the death of an aunt, Mrs. Julia E. VanBuren of 20 South Grove street, Ypsilanti. Mrs. VanBuren, who was 74 years old in January, passed away Sunday morning, at 3:00 a. m. after suffering intensely since Friday evening when she fell down the stairs at her house following a call on her daughter, Miss Elsie T. VanBuren, who has made her home for the past two years with Mrs. Weston, on High street. No funeral arrangements will be made until the arrival of relatives from away.

Mrs. Clarence Saylor of Plymouth, is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Edith Moyer. Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Trowbridge of Cherry Hill, spent nearly all last week with their son, Russell, and family, assisting with the farm work.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meyers attended church services Sunday morning, in Ypsilanti, and spent the remainder of the day with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Campbell. Mrs. Lucy Parre of Ypsilanti, was confirmed and baptized Sunday, at the German Lutheran church.

The Free Church Sunday-school observed Easter with a very appropriate program, and Rev. D. Wright of Ann Arbor, preached a very impressive sermon.

There will be no school Friday, in the Free Church district, as Mrs. Meyer will attend the Teachers' Institute.

Mrs. Purcell of Detroit, is visiting at Edwin Conklin's. Mr. and Mrs. James Court visited their daughter, Mrs. Grover McDougal and family at Whitaker, on Saturday, and spent Sunday in Plymouth, at the J. H. Palmer home.

Russell Trowbridge and family spent Sunday in Inkster, with Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Harrison. Their mother, Mrs. Mary Pankonie, who has been spending the past week there, came home with them.

Fred Nollar and family were supper guests of L. J. Kuhl and family on Sunday evening.

Mrs. Edward Morgan spent last week with the Clark families, Carl of Ypsilanti township, Ray of Ypsilanti, and E. L. of Superior.

Loyal Heater of Ypsilanti, was a week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mosher and children. Bert Mosher of Ypsilanti, spent Sunday night with them.

Harry Morgan and family spent Sunday afternoon with her mother and sister near Deaton. Seventh grade examinations will be held May 14th.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Lidke, Jr., were Sunday guests at Floyd Parr's, in Ypsilanti.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Trowbridge, Russell Trowbridge and Mrs. Pankonie will go to Dearborn, Monday afternoon for the funeral of their friend, Mrs. Martin.

Emory Halliwell has the frame work of his house quite well up. Lee D. Wilbur has gone to Detroit, to work.

The Arthur Mosher family spent Sunday afternoon with the Arthur MacFarlane family.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank King were Sunday callers at Elaine Moyer's.

Fred Zimmerman and family spent Sunday with John Sutherland and family in Pittsfield.

The Ypsi-Side sewing circle presented Mrs. Earl Pettibone with a lovely potted plant, last week. She still continues to gain, although recovery is slow.

The Walter Linguin family of Detroit, were Sunday afternoon and evening guests of the F. Zimmerman family.

Mrs. James Hanson has returned from Ford Hospital.

Mr. Dennis' sister and family of Detroit, and Norman Hart of Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Johnson and sons were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Huston.

CANTON CENTER

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Sheppo are rejoicing over the arrival of a 6½ pound son. The young man's name is Marvin Junior.

A farewell party will be given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Frank Saturday evening, April 18th. They are soon to move to their new home in Plymouth.

Callers at the school recently, were: Mrs. Arthur Huston, Mrs. Lee Johnson and sons of Detroit; Mrs. Nina Watson; Mr. Norton of Ann Arbor; Mrs. Willard Pooler, Mrs. Clyde Truesdell, Helen Richards, Martha Richards, John Haggerty, Paul Haggerty, Mrs. Peter Furlong, Mrs. Colburn Dennis, Miss Madelyn VanWagner, Mrs. Nelson Mason.

CONDOR MIGHTIEST OF CARRION BIRDS

Has Gourmandizing Power That Is Remarkable.

This greatest of unclean birds, the condor, has been singularly unfortunate in the hands of the curious and scientific. More than fifty years have elapsed since the first specimen reached Europe; yet today the exaggerated stories of its size and strength are repeated in many of our textbooks, and the very latest ornithological work leaves us in doubt as to its relation to the other vultures. No one credits the assertion of the old geographer, Marco Polo, that the condor can lift an elephant from the ground high enough to kill it by the fall, nor the story of the traveler, so late as 1830, who declared that a condor of moderate size, just killed, was lying before him, a single quill feather of which was 20 good inches long, says a writer in the Wide World Magazine. Yet the statement continues to be published that the ordinary expense of a full-grown specimen is from twelve to twenty feet, whereas it is very doubtful if it ever exceeds or even equals twelve feet. A full-grown male from the most celebrated locality on the Andes, now in Vassar college, has a stretch of nine feet. Humboldt never found one to measure over nine feet; and the largest specimen seen by Darwin was eight and a half feet from tip to tip. An old male in the zoological gardens of London measures eleven feet. Von Tschudi says he found one with a spread of fourteen feet two inches, but he invalidates his testimony by the subsequent statement that the full-grown condor measures from twelve to thirteen feet.

The ordinary habitat of the royal condor is between the altitudes of 10,000 and 16,000 feet. The largest seem to make their home around the volcano of Cayambli, which stands exactly on the equator. In the rainy season they frequently descend to the coast, where they may be seen roosting in trees. On the mountains they very rarely perch (for which their feet are poorly fitted), but stand on rocks. They are most commonly seen around vertical cliffs, where their nests are, and where cattle are most likely to fall. Great numbers frequent Antisana, where there is a great cattle estate. Flocks are never seen except around a large carcass. It is often seen singly soaring at a great height in vast circles. Its flight is slow and majestic. Its head is always in motion as if in search of food below. Its mouth is kept open and its tail spread. To rise from the ground it must needs run for some distance; then it flaps its wings three or four times and ascends at a low angle till it reaches a considerable elevation, when it seems to make a few leisurely strokes, as if to ease its wings, after which it literally sails upon the air.

In walking the wings trail along the ground and the head takes a crouching position. It has a very awkward, almost painful, gait. From its inability to rise without running a narrow pen is sufficient to imprison it. Though a carrion bird, it breathes the purest air, spending most of its time soaring three miles above the sea. Humboldt saw one flying over Chimborazo. We have seen them sailing at least a thousand feet above the crater of Pichincha.

Its gourmandizing power has hardly been overstated. We have known a single condor, not of the largest size, to make away in one week with a calf, a sheep and a dog. It prefers carrion, but will sometimes attack live sheep, deer, dogs, etc. The eyes and tongues are the favorite parts, and first devoured, next, the intestines. We never heard of one authenticated case of its carrying off children, nor of its attacking adults, except in defense of its eggs. Von Tschudi says it cannot carry when flying a weight over ten pounds. In captivity it will eat anything, except pork and cooked meat. When full fed it is exceedingly stupid and can be caught by the hand; but at other times it is a match for the stoutest man. It passes the greatest part of the day sleeping, more often searching for prey in morning and evening than at noon—very likely because objects are more distinctly seen. It is seldom shot (though it is not invulnerable, as once thought), but is generally trapped or lassoed.

Cross-Words

Here is the story of a man, a girl, and a cross-word puzzle.

They sat opposite and alone in the train. His brows were deep-knit in thought.

"Blank, blank, P. blank, blank, blank, blank," he said.

"Surely you're not swearing?" she asked. "No," he replied. "I want to marry."

"Then why not 'espouse'?" she cried.

"Splendid!" he shouted. "The very thing!"

In the breach-of-promise action which followed the judge awarded her a startling damages, merely remarking: "What is a cross-word puzzle?"

Here's Innovation

Joseph Sparrow, retired jeweler at San Francisco, Cal., brought suit against his wife asking separate maintenance and $300 a month. He asserts cruelty and says his wife has a large income from property left her by a former husband. This is the first suit in the state of the kind since the legislature at the last session enacted a law enabling a man, as well as a woman, to sue for separate maintenance.

ODD COMBATS SEEN IN JUNGLE WORLD

Constant Struggle Seems to Be Nature's Law.

Boars, bears and hyenas are formidable fighting animals. Wolves and other members of the dog family hunt in packs and are clever fighters, says a writer in the New York Herald-Tribune. They are fleet of foot and full of courage. Sanderson, the Mysore hunter, gives some fine stories of the hunting capacity of dogs. He tells about the conquest of an elephant by dogs named Marquis, a bull-mastiff; Lady, a bull-terrier; Bismarck, Viper and Fury, pups of the above, nine months old, and Turk, an old bull-terrier. He said:

"I had taken my dogs to capture a bear in the jungle when we saw an elephant coming toward us. I decided to let the dogs attack him. Then the elephant turned and made off. He had not gone 200 yards. Turk and Lady were up to it and Lady had secured a cheek hump. Turk seized the trunk, Bismarck held an ear and Bill Sykes, another bulldog, had him by a leg. The fierceness of this fight cannot be told in words. The elephant roared lustily and dragged the dogs along, often on their backs, and apparently in imminent risk of being trampled to death. The smaller dogs, maddened by excitement, were yelling and snapping at the elephant's feet. This fight went on for hours until finally my men assisted the dogs and tied the elephant's legs with a rope. All the animals were completely exhausted and injured. All were bleeding from numerous wounds. Plenty of milk and good, soft beds of straw soon put the dogs into good bearing-hunting condition again."

This experienced hunter, in speaking of the courage of bulldogs, said: "A bulldog is not dismayed by any object, however strange. In this respect it differs from every other created being."

The jungle world is full of bloody contests of this character. Every hunter can relate innumerable examples and the many types of armor nature furnishes for the defense. It is a fighting world and must have fights, and as Bishop Whewell, in his Bridge-water treatise, wisely said long ago: "Regarding the material world, we can at least go so far as this—we can perceive that events are brought about not by isolated interpositions of divine power, exerted in each particular case, but by the establishment of general laws."

The struggle of the whole of the organic orders for existence is one of these general laws and would almost seem to be a necessary one.

Shaw's Good Stories

The vegetarian savant, George Bernard Shaw, has false teeth, it develops. He told a story about them while dining out, a thing he seldom does, usually preferring meatless meals at his own board.

While on a holiday in Italy last year, "G. B. S." said, he absent-mindedly left his teeth behind, and only recovered them when a youth rushed up the gangplank of his vessel, waving them in the air and shouting at him.

"What did you do?" Shaw was asked.

"Put them in, of course, with great éclat," he replied.

Shaw also referred to his patriarchal beard which, he avers, was turned a bright green by the recent pea-soup fog that darkened and dirtied London for 60 hours.

In order to restore a clean color to his facial adornment, he told his listeners, he had to scrub it with a cleansing preparation famous for polishing pots and pans.

Couldn't Be Shocked

Jimmie Wilkinson, editor-in-chief of F. O. B. pictures, outside of business hours is a wireless fiend. When it comes to radios he knows all there is to know, which explains how, when one of those rare occurrences, a thunder storm, threatened Hollywood, he went out and lowered his aerial and buried one end in the ground.

"But my heavens!" exclaimed Ted Cheeseman next day, "weren't you afraid the lightning would strike you while you were doing all that?"

"Of course not," retorted Jimmie. "Knowing that silk is a wonderful non-conductor I did all the work wearing my silk pajamas and socks. An outfit like that may be shocking under certain circumstances but not while fixing a radio."—Los Angeles Times.

Tenants Removed House

Mrs. Ida Ragsdale of Memphis, Tenn., recently ousted some tenants from property she owned because they failed to pay rent, and was astonished when she went to look over the property afterward to find the tenants in moving had lifted the house bodily and placed it on an adjoining piece of land. The ouster proceedings were instituted, Mrs. Ragsdale says, after the tenants had failed to pay their rent over a considerable time.

Horse Protected Baby

Mrs. Alice Hackett of Portland, Maine, tells of a horse protecting a baby against disaster. A baby had been allowed to play on the lawn where the family mare Buttercup was grazing and when the mother stepped into the house for a second, the mare straddled the baby and protected it against a runaway which careened into the yard.

Finnish Steam Bath

Something of Ordeal

When the Finlanders carried off many prizes at the Olympic contests at Paris there was wonder as to what natural qualities or methods of living had given them this advantage. A writer in a Victoria paper, an English-speaking school teacher, who lived in a Finnish colony on Malcolm Island, off the northern end of Vancouver Island, thinks she has discovered one cause. It is the steam bath, which is so popular with the race and is even continued under hard and primitive conditions of the west coast of British Columbia. The steam bath with the Finns is as popular as the bathroom or afternoon tea with the English.

On Saturday afternoon the entire family took their steam bath, the boys and father first, returning "pink and clean and slumberous," after which the visitor and the women folk took the lantern and went down to the shed.

A blast of hot air greeted us as we opened the door. The shed was in two divisions and I gathered we were all to undress in the outer part.

"The inner part of the shed was as hot as a moderate oven. On one side was a high platform and in the middle of the floor a big cairn of stones, something like an old-fashioned brick oven. Underneath was a fireplace, under which the fire was dying out. There was a tub of cold water, but I couldn't see any hot water. The girls and I got up on the platform, and in the dim light of the lantern I felt as though I were taking part in some prehistoric ceremony. I also felt extremely uncomfortable and absurd, physically and mentally. The heat was terrific near the roof, but I am a sport and I got out no sign or sound of complaint.

"The mother, clothed in naught but her innocence, looking like a plump priestess performing sacrificial rites, began to pour water over the hot stones, and the place filled with steam. "You weel now sweat," said the girls, and not so hot. Sweat I certainly did.

"They passed along a piece of soap and little bunches of cedar twigs. Rub yourself to get the tirt out," they said. These cedar bunches were the only loofahs these children of nature had ever heard of, and I meditatively rubbed, the 'tirt' certainly came out.

"I had a headache next morning, and when Saturday came round again I said as tactfully as I could that I thought I would just have my usual hot water bath in the washtub."

Valuable Paper Weight

After being used for years as a common paper weight, what is said to be the largest sapphire in the world has been taken from India to London. The jewel is worth more than $35,000, weighs 916 carats, and is in the form of a plucked flower with a short stem. It was acquired by a government official in India who, ignorant of its value, used it as a paperweight in one of the guard butts on the Indian frontier. The discovery of the jewel was made by the director of Indian revenue when he visited the outpost. Its history has been traced to the twelfth century when one of the Bellala kings, while on a pilgrimage to Ceylon, was given the sapphire by a Buddhist monk. During the reign of this king the stone became the object of much veneration and was afterward captured by Malik Kafur, the great general of Allaudin. Later it came into the possession of a state official, but was lost about 1875. Experts are of the opinion that the jewel was a hair ornament of an ancient deity, and there is, it is believed, a companion stone in existence.

Contradictory

Not far off the boulevard between Los Angeles and San Diego are some quaint towns and one of them has a unique garage. At one time it was a church, but now a double door has been cut through the side and the vestibule at the front is used for an office. But the blend of old and new affords a laugh to every traveler who stops there, for over the door, weather-beaten but still readable, is a scriptural quotation that goes: "Behold, I have set before you an open door." And on the panel below the garage man has inscribed in red paint, "Positively no admittance."

Horse No Flatterer

Because of the interest America takes in the young prince of Wales, and because the prince is so often thrown from his horse when playing polo, the following words of Ben Jonson, "Rare Ben," who lived 1574-1637, are of special significance, and show that "horse sense" is the same in all centuries: "They say princes learned no art truly—but the art of horsemanship. The reason is the horse is no flatterer. He will throw a prince as soon as his groom."

Report Gold Deposits

It is reported that gold and silver deposits have been discovered sixty miles from Mistassin, in the Lake St. John (Canada) district, according to word received by the provincial government. The exact value of the ore is unknown, as the samples have been sent to the assayers in that district.

Chance for Bachelor

A crate of apples from Hood River, Oregon, when opened at Lincoln, England, was found to contain a letter saying that the grower of the apples seeks a life companion, is well off, owns a large orchard, a well-equipped house, and four motor cars.

Defendant's Budget

The prisoner in a western court was charged with so trivial an offense that the judge told him that if he would plead guilty he would let him off with a fine.

"Before we plead guilty," replied the man's lawyer, "we'd like to know what the fine will be."

"Isn't it rather unusual to attempt to bargain with the court?" asked the judge.

"Perhaps it is, your honor," replied the lawyer, "but in this case it is important. You see, the prisoner has only $12, and as my fee is $10, we can't afford to plead guilty if your honor intends to fine him more than $2."

Wouldn't Mind

The return of the short skirt led Mayor Croyer of Los Angeles to tell a story at a luncheon.

"A girl," he said, "came down to dinner the other evening in a new frock that made her mother look ugly."

"Really, my child," she said, "I think you'd better lengthen that skirt."

"Yes? Why so?" asked the girl as she fixed a cigarette in a long amber tube.

"Men," said her mother, "will be apt to think you are a child and take you on their laps."

"The girl hiew a smoke cloud into the air."

"Well?" she said.—Los Angeles Times.

Use Much Silver in India

Although silver ceased to be the standard of value in India in 1893, it is still chiefly used for the currency in circulation there. For the purpose of coinage, in the industries, and for hoarding by the natives, India imports yearly from 80,000,000 to 100,000,000 ounces of silver—approximately 50 per cent of the world's production. The country is, therefore, the largest silver absorbing nation in the world.—Compressed Air Magazine.

Just Consider Cordiality

WHAT IS IT?

It's being human and friendly in the old-fashioned way, of course. But what does it mean in a bank, for instance. It's something like this, we believe: The cordial, friendly organization simply shows by its cordiality that it has forgotten itself, and has at heart the best interests of those whom it serves. That is the way we try to be here, and our friends tell us we are successful.

Wall Paper

Good Wall Paper is the real thought of true economy. It is within the reach of every home owner.

The total added expense of decorating a room with better grades is only the small additional cost of paper. The labor charge remains about the same, hence the investment is small compared with the ultimate results.

Be mindful of the fact that nothing stands out more conspicuously than wall decorations.

Wall paper is the background and support of all the furnishings. It is the final touch in beautifying a home.

Select the better grades and you profit both in beauty and economy.

RLM

The Sunday-school at Elm had a lovely Easter program on Elm Sunday. The school was decorated with Easter Lilies and spring flowers. The children had a very appropriate program.

Mrs. Dan McKinney is again confined to her bed. We are very sorry to hear that she is worse.

On Friday, April 17th, tonight, the P. T. A. will give a social. Everyone is requested to come and have a good time. Ladies will kindly bring lunch for two.

Mr. and Mrs. George Michelin and family had Easter dinner with relatives in Highland Park.

Margaret and Nelson Bentley, small children of Mr. and Mrs. George Bentley, were among the children who were christened in the Plymouth Presbyterian church, with water from the River Jordan.

Mrs. Clyde Bentley is improving slowly and will soon be able to see friends.

The regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association was held Tuesday, April 7th, at the Elm school. After the regular business, Norma and Eileen Snider, Edna and Alauk and Dorothy Bentley gave several musical selections. We were indeed very fortunate in securing Mr. Sawyer, superintendent of the Redford schools, to give us an address. Mr. Sawyer is an orator of exceptional ability, and it is to be regretted that every parent was not able to be there to hear him.

He took as the theme for his talk, "Educations of Tomorrows." The biggest work that God ever gave to man is the welfare of the child and in that great book is a text, "With-out vision a nation perishes." Then let us try to see a vision in education, for nothing progresses without that vision.

From the time of our forefathers, the public school has done its part in educating our children. The public school helped to see the vision of liberty for this country, to abolish the saloon, and to curb child labor. Our schools have done a noble work, and the schools of the past will not suffice for tomorrow. We must modify some of our studies and add more to meet the needs of tomorrow.

"Yes, we are awaking to our responsibilities," says Mr. Sawyer. "The child is divided into three parts—he is a trinity—mental, physical and spiritual. We are beginning to study the child, to realize we can not deal with Mary as we do with John. It has taken us 1900 years to realize this tremendous task. Our Lord taught it when He was here on earth when He said, 'Learn of the child, be as a little child.'"

We must teach the need for physical training. He cited that need by calling our attention to the World War, when we sent our best men and boys to the colors. Out of that best one out of every four was sent back physically unfit.

Then we have the spiritual side. The great call now is for soldiers—solvers of peace. Who will build civilization? Not Russia. Millions of her best men are gone. Not France; her best is all gone. Not England; it will take her years to recuperate from her loss. Not Germany with her great indebtedness to take care of it. America who? If any country can do it, America will have to produce the soldiers of peace. If America, then what institution? The public school aided by the church. The biggest call that has ever come to the public school has come today. We must teach the child thrift—we are a spendthrift nation; we have little regard for money. So we must teach the child the right use of it—how to save and how to spend wisely. We must also teach him civic responsibility. In our forefathers' time, every man went to the polls to vote, yet on April 6th only twenty-five per cent of our voters went to the polls to vote. We do not see our duty. We are living in an age of lawlessness. What will become of our government if we keep on in this way? So we must teach that a child owes something to the community in which he lives, and that later he is going to have a civic responsibility.

Now, are there any signs of an awakening? And what are they? Mr. Sawyer says that a few years ago we were compelled to have only three months school while now we have nine months. Only a short time back a teacher had to have only an eighth grade certificate. Now they must have a high school training. Next fall they must have one year of normal training, and in four years they must have two years in a normal. Another awakening is the divorcing of the school from politics. In a short time, instead of voting for a man to run our schools, he will be appointed by a board that has only the school at heart, regardless of whether he is a Republican or a Democrat. He may be called from anywhere in the country.

A few years from now we will have a secretary of education in the president's cabinet. Just think—we have a secretary of agriculture, and vast sums of money are appropriated to produce a $1,000 hen or a $50,000 cow; we have a secretary of war to make ammunition to shoot down our fellowmen; we have a secretary of navy to guard our rights on the sea; and yet we haven't a secretary of education to develop the most worthwhile thing on earth—the child.

But above all, the biggest awakening is the Parent-Teacher Association, for what we need today is co-operation. And when we realize that thousands of our parents and teachers are bonded together in this great organization, we can accomplish anything for the advancement of our public schools. Our country, our community. And give the world soldiers of peace, able bodied, intellectual and spiritual men and women.

Mrs. Pearl Wilson was hostess, and served delicious refreshments during the social hour that followed. In this talk by Mr. Sawyer, I feel we get our greatest inspiration to send a delegate to the state convention, and to take part in supporting these great questions that arise from time to time. We here, in our little community may not seem to accomplish much out in the world, but we do not forget that this great National organization is made up entirely of just such groups as we have here.

NEWBURG

A large crowd availed themselves of the beautiful day to attend Easter service, and listen to the old but ever new message of the Risen Lord, delivered by the pastor. A large chorus choir sang beautiful Easter hymns, with Mrs. Paul Havens at the piano. Miss Gladys Horton rendered a beautiful Easter solo, in her usual pleasing manner. Eight were taken into membership, and two infants baptised. There were 104 present in the Sunday-school. The children and little tots were a credit to Mrs. Green, who had taken the time and trouble to train them. The church is indebted to Mrs. Jack Horton for the beautiful Easter lily and other plants that brightened the church.

Quite a number were in attendance at the Epworth League service, Sunday night, to listen to John Dayton, lawyer, of Plymouth, talk on the subject of "Goodness in Law." The audience gave him the closest attention, and were benefited by the points brought out. In behalf of the Epworth League, Rev. Havens thanked Mr. Dayton for his kindness in speaking to the League. Mrs. Havens and Gladys Horton sang a beautiful duet, entitled, "Rock of Ages."

Services at the usual hour next Sabbath, with prayer meeting in the chapel, Thursday evening.

The Sunday-school is to have the Easter party in the hall, Saturday afternoon of this week.

The entertainment given under the auspices of the L. A. S., Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, was well attended, all taking their parts in a credible manner, especially the gentlemen. The special numbers, duets, solos by Mrs. Paul Havens, and reading by Mrs. Donald Ryder, "The Honor of the Family" were well received.

The L. A. S. wish to thank all those who assisted in the entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Joy attended the funeral service of the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Liscum, at New Hudson, Tuesday. Mrs. Liscum was formerly Miss Dorothy Joy.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Havens motored to Jackson, Wednesday.

Mrs. Frank Korndorff and two children of Redford, and Mrs. Homer Jennings of Detroit, spent Easter with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Blair, also Mrs. Rachel Aldrich of Ann Arbor, sister of Mr. Blair.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bierwirth and two children of Detroit, took Easter dinner with Mr. and Mrs. H. Grimm, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Ransom Lewis, who have been spending some time with their daughter, Mrs. Edgar Stevens, have located in Chelsea.

Mrs. C. E. Ryder and daughter, Mrs. H. Grimm, Jr., called on Mrs. Harry Armstrong in Detroit, and Mrs. Harmon Smith, Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Smith are occupying the house on the Dunning farm on Plymouth road, until their new house is built in Plymouth.

KING'S CORNERS
Mr. and Mrs. Albert Roediger and family of Southfield, spent Easter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnston.

Mrs. Kohnitz and sons, Lawrence and Kenneth and daughter, Hazel, of Roseland avenue, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Kaiser on Golden road. Amil Kaiser was also a caller there. Kenneth Lockhart is sporting a brand new Ford coupe.

Mrs. Yester was a Detroit shopper, Tuesday of this week. Otto Kaiser is building a new house. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parrish called on Mrs. Wagenschutz, Friday afternoon.

Joseph Pisarek and wife of Detroit, spent Monday with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. Michael Coopersmith were Easter Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Pisarek.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parrish spent last Sunday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Kaiser.

PATCHEN SCHOOL NOTES
(By Edward Yester)
Wednesday the seventh grade will have their final examination in history.

We have seven stars on our gold star card. Three more children have entered school. They are John, Edward and Leo Reba.

Miss Cochrane visited school, Thursday. The Fifth and Sixth grades are drilling in arithmetic for speed and accuracy.

Leonard Polasky was nominated and elected chief of police. The assistants are Mary VanDeCar, Opal Claburn, Evelyn Thompson, Clarice Green, Rose Malik, Earl Frick.

GRANGE NOTES
Regular meeting to be held April 20th in the evening. Third and fourth degrees to be conferred on a class of sixteen. Banquet to be served.

Mrs. Ben Tyler and Mrs. Charles Honeywell entertain the Ldy Club at the Grange hall, April 21. Each one to be dressed to represent his or her occupation.

We are adding new names to our subscription list every day. There's a reason.

Writer Speculates on Possible "Dog Heaven"

Been thinking again. Been sitting scratching my dog's ear and thinking. Nice little dog. She has more sense and more humanity almost than lots of humans whom I have met up with. What a wonderful thing is the love and care of an animal for her young! People have been coming over to see her puppies—three ugly little bull pups, with not much to see but wrinkles, says a dog fancier in Adventure Magazine.

Yesterday they disappeared mysteriously from their nest in the corner of my little barn. I looked round and by and by found them. She had dug a large round hole under the house and there she had taken them. I brought them out to the lawn. She smiled at me, in a superior and motherly manner and promptly lifted one by his hind thigh and bore him away to her newly made nest. In a very few minutes they were all back under the house. Then she came and looked up, smiling at me, and requested me to scratch her under the ear. It would be rather nice if there actually were a dog star, would it not? Where we might in the hereafter meet up with our old dogs and hear just what they had to say.

The complete trust and comradeship that a dog offers to a man is a lovely thing. Too bad so many men are not even fit for the trust of a little yaller dog! It is such an unwavering and utter trust. It ought to make a man the better, causing him to sense something of his responsibility to the animal creation. Don't you think so? It would be rather correct, I think, if in the hereafter there is a dog star in which the dogs will live happily together with all the doggy affairs arranged to suit themselves. Then, perhaps those humans who in this world have been unworthy of the confidence of their dogs will be led round on chains and fed upon old bones, and occasionally dipped in sheep dip to kill their fleas, eh? Shut in the pound and left there till some dog comes along and agrees to pay for their license?

How's that for an idea, now? Think I'm mad for sure, don't you? Well—maybe I am, but it was the mother of the puppies below my house who put me wise to it. You'd better look out. Maybe you will have to wear a muzzle yet in dog star land.

Rev. Havens preached a very touching Easter sermon to a small crowd. Why don't more people come to church at 8:00 o'clock? Everybody welcome.

Grandma Tait is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Jennie Oliver, of Detroit.

A meeting of the Aid Society was held at the home of Mrs. Havens, last week Wednesday. Our new president is a very good auctioneer.

Mr. and Mrs. Dove, who recently moved into our neighborhood, had the misfortune to lose their six months baby girl, with brain fever. The body was taken to Indiana for burial.

Mrs. Edna Theuer is entertaining the grip.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wolfgang and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hanchett attended church here Sunday.

Mrs. George Avery and daughter and children spent Tuesday with Mrs. May Kubie.

Marvin Kubie is on the sick list.

Viola Rorabacher is home with the mumps.

The Misses Edna and Helen Bridge have been entertaining their cousin, Miss Jorgerson, of Dearborn, over Easter.

A CARD—To my Plymouth friends who so kindly remembered me with flowers, fruit, post cards and other things through my sickness, I wish to extend thanks.

Mrs. Annie Henderson

STARK

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Chase are again with us, after spending the winter in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. James Love of Nankin Mills, spent Easter with the former's sister, Mrs. L. Warren Goodell, of Detroit.

A very beautiful Easter service was enjoyed by all, at the Union Church at the Center. The church was filled at both morning and evening services.

The P. T. A. of the Stark school will hold its next meeting, Wednesday, April 22nd.

Mr. and Mrs. Shunk were visited on Easter Sunday, by their grandchildren from Detroit.

Henry Ford is cleaning and deepening the well at Nankin Mills to supply the neighborhood with plenty of water.

Thomas Karriek of Nankin Mills, spent Easter in Detroit.

Miss Margaret Melbeck is not very well at this writing.

T. W. Lyke assisted Howard Fishbeck in moving his home, bought of C. J. Laskie of Dixboro, to his father, Fred Fishbeck's farm.

Miss Evelyn Lyke of Ypsilanti, spent a few days of her vacation in this vicinity.

Mrs. Clarence Sherwood is very ill at her home.

Mrs. Gordon Gill and son, Donald, of Cherry Hill, have been spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Fishbeck.

Miss Emily Freeman of Rochester, is spending her Easter vacation with her parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Grammel entertained a number of relatives at dinner, Sunday. They, with their daughter, Louise, expect to start on a motor trip to California.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rengert spent Sunday in Ypsilanti, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Klaffert. They attended services at the Latherau church Sunday morning.

Mrs. George Lyke is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Walker entertained Sunday, at dinner: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Speigelburg of Whitmore Lake, in honor of James King's birthday.

Will Schrader underwent a serious operation at Dr. Gates' private hospital, Ann Arbor, Friday, April 10.

Miss Ethel Shock was given a shower, Tuesday evening, at the home of her parents. Miss Shock will be an early bride.

Writer Speculates on Possible "Dog Heaven"

Been thinking again. Been sitting scratching my dog's ear and thinking. Nice little dog. She has more sense and more humanity almost than lots of humans whom I have met up with. What a wonderful thing is the love and care of an animal for her young! People have been coming over to see her puppies—three ugly little bull pups, with not much to see but wrinkles, says a dog fancier in Adventure Magazine.

Yesterday they disappeared mysteriously from their nest in the corner of my little barn. I looked round and by and by found them. She had dug a large round hole under the house and there she had taken them. I brought them out to the lawn. She smiled at me, in a superior and motherly manner and promptly lifted one by his hind thigh and bore him away to her newly made nest. In a very few minutes they were all back under the house. Then she came and looked up, smiling at me, and requested me to scratch her under the ear. It would be rather nice if there actually were a dog star, would it not? Where we might in the hereafter meet up with our old dogs and hear just what they had to say.

The complete trust and comradeship that a dog offers to a man is a lovely thing. Too bad so many men are not even fit for the trust of a little yaller dog! It is such an unwavering and utter trust. It ought to make a man the better, causing him to sense something of his responsibility to the animal creation. Don't you think so? It would be rather correct, I think, if in the hereafter there is a dog star in which the dogs will live happily together with all the doggy affairs arranged to suit themselves. Then, perhaps those humans who in this world have been unworthy of the confidence of their dogs will be led round on chains and fed upon old bones, and occasionally dipped in sheep dip to kill their fleas, eh? Shut in the pound and left there till some dog comes along and agrees to pay for their license?

How's that for an idea, now? Think I'm mad for sure, don't you? Well—maybe I am, but it was the mother of the puppies below my house who put me wise to it. You'd better look out. Maybe you will have to wear a muzzle yet in dog star land.

Rev. Havens preached a very touching Easter sermon to a small crowd. Why don't more people come to church at 8:00 o'clock? Everybody welcome.

Grandma Tait is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Jennie Oliver, of Detroit.

A meeting of the Aid Society was held at the home of Mrs. Havens, last week Wednesday. Our new president is a very good auctioneer.

Mr. and Mrs. Dove, who recently moved into our neighborhood, had the misfortune to lose their six months baby girl, with brain fever. The body was taken to Indiana for burial.

Mrs. Edna Theuer is entertaining the grip.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wolfgang and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hanchett attended church here Sunday.

Mrs. George Avery and daughter and children spent Tuesday with Mrs. May Kubie.

Marvin Kubie is on the sick list.

METHODIST NOTES

The District Young People's Conference will be held in this church, next week Friday and Saturday, the 24th and 25th. A big banquet in the evening, followed on Saturday by a splendid program of inspiration in the morning, and a basket ball tournament in the afternoon. All our local young people will of course be in attendance.

Mid-week service on Wednesday evening at 7:30. The People's Popular Pastime.

We rejoice in the splendid victories of Easter Day. If you were not present you missed the inspiration of seeing folks giving their lives in consecration to Christ and His church. May God richly bless each and every one of them.

The afternoon service for the christening of little children was also a blessed hour. Ten little ones were thus dedicated to the service of Christ. Also one adult.

The surest way to keep the spiritual inspiration of Easter up to the top notch is to be present at church every Sunday, for the Christian Sunday was adopted in honor of Him who arose from the dead on a Sunday. Every Sunday is resurrection day.

We hope and pray that still others may come to Christ, and unite with His church in the great program of the Kingdom of our Lord.

BAPTIST NOTES

The Easter Sunday was a happy day for the people. The pastor gave a sermon in keeping with the day, and the choir did their part to make the day one of joy and hope.

The primary department of the Sunday-school put on a short program in their rooms downstairs, and on invitation came upstairs, and repeated the same. The department is growing. Miss Mildred Harford is superintendent. Many little cards and mementos were given to the children, and their faces expressed their joy.

The school as a whole was large. Mrs. Sayles' class sang the special song for the hour. Several brought their mission banks. In the evening, Rev. Palmer Hartsough of Ontario, Wisconsin, preached the sermon, and used an illuminated text. Very nicely arranged across the front of the church, the letters of the text were about 20 inches deep. It was a novel plan and all enjoyed the evening sermon. We hope he will come again. The young people filled the choir loft, and their special was grand. After the evening sermon, the pastor baptised several young people. It was an impressive sight as they followed their Lord in baptism.

The prayer meeting last week was full of earnestness and intercession. Won't you come next week, at the church.

The pastor invited the deacons and trustees, with their wives, to meet at the parsonage this week Thursday evening for a business and social meeting.

The evening service will begin one-half hour later, after this date. April is the month we change the hour—7:30 instead of 7:00. B. Y. P. U. at 6:30.

The annual meeting of the church will take place, Thursday evening, April 30, to elect new officers for the church, listen to reports of the different societies and other business. The church will meet as near six o'clock as possible for a pot-luck supper. The Ladies' Aid are asked to arrange for same.

Last week Thursday, the Ladies' Aid Society held their annual Easter bazaar and chicken supper. The room was decorated with green and white; the tables were loaded with every good thing, and a large number came to eat, and buy at the bazaar. The ladies deserve praise for the splendid way everything was arranged and taken care of.

LIVONIA CENTER LUTHERAN CHURCH.

There will be services at the Lutheran church of Livonia Center, on Sunday, April 19th, in the English language. Sunday-school begins at 1:45. Everybody welcome.

Two Helpings

Linton B. Arnold, director of the recent Atlantic City Hotel exposition, said on the steel pier:

"A good many people dislike music with their food. The finest food, as a matter of fact, is always served without music, just as the finest music is always served without food."

"The only advantage of the combination of food and music is that the food helps you to forget the music, and the music helps you to forget the food."

Large Waste Basket

Berne, Switzerland, has established a "community waste basket." It takes the form of a huge tin receptacle placed in the heart of the public square, where the citizens of Berne will be expected to throw all their trash. The receptacle has a capacity of several hundred tons.

Elderly Victim of Cupid

Charles A. Warner, seventy, of Washington, a widower for less than two months, was married to Miss Charlotte Belle Nell, twenty-two, also of Washington. Warner's first wife died November 30, last. He and the bride were married at the residence of the bride's parents.

If you have anything to buy or sell, advertise in the Mail. It will pay you.

PRESBYTERIAN NOTES

I. W. Hummel was elected commissioner to Detroit Presbytery, and O. H. Loomis alternate commissioner. The meeting occurs in Pontiac, April 20 and 21.

Do not forget that the prayer meeting is to be at the church this week Wednesday.

If people keep coming as they have of late, a new and larger auditorium will have to be added to the church. Members of the Men's Class and George A. Smith's class met at the church last Monday night, to organize base ball teams for the coming season. All who wish to contribute to the purchase of equipment should see our athletic director, LeRoy Jewell.

A joint meeting of the Ready Service and Busy Woman's Bible Classes was held Tuesday, at the home of Raphael Mettetal on the Lily road. Over twenty-five were present to enjoy the pot-luck dinner and program. Those taking part in the latter, were: Mrs. O. H. Loomis, Mrs. Ida Stevens, Mrs. George Cramer, Mrs. Rose Tilton, Mrs. J. R. Rauch and the pastor. It goes without saying that the latter also took part in the former. In the absence of the president, who was detained by sickness in the home, the vice-president, Mrs. Raphael Mettetal presided.

The meeting of the Daisy-Weaver class which was announced for last Tuesday night, had to be postponed to a time which will be announced next Sunday.

Elder W. R. Shaw was in his place last Sunday, for the first time since his accident last December. We rejoice to see him about again.

The pastor and his family were pleasantly surprised on Easter with the gift of a fine large cake from the Bibly home; and a beautiful Easter lily from the church. Thank you kindly.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

(By Persis Fogarty.)

Our last P. T. A. meeting was held April 9th. After the business meeting we had a wienie roast, which was very much enjoyed by everyone.

We have a new picture for our school, "Christ in the Temple." We like it very much.

Barbara and Marlan Hix's uncle, who lives in California, sent us a great many things for our geography museum. Among the things he sent, were: a cactus plant, sea moss from the Pacific ocean, and branches of pepper, camphor, wild sage, mesquite and eucalyptus trees. He also sent us some very pretty shells from the Pacific ocean. We also have some sand from the Great Salt Lake in Utah, some shells from Florida, a horned load from California, and heather from Scotland.

Our zone picture for this month is a painting of Saint Gauden's famous statue of Lincoln which stands in Lincoln Park, Chicago. It is a very beautiful painting, and we have enjoyed studying it.

The Goodrich Rubber Co. of Akron, Ohio, sent us a rubber poster, showing the different kinds of rubber.

There are now five beginners in the Chant class, which started the first week in April. They are: Jean Dunham, Marian Hix, Warren Tillotson, Chester Kennedy and James Mack. This brings our total up to forty-four.

Mrs. Jack Fogarty visited school Tuesday afternoon.

Little Edith Mettetal was also a visitor at school on Tuesday.

THE THEATRE

"THE DENIAL"

"The Denial," Robert Henley's third production for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, will be at the Penniman Allen theatre, Saturday, April 18th. It is a story of two periods—of today and the time of the Spanish-American war, showing the outcome of two romances that were beset with similar difficulties.

Clairo Windsor, who plays the leading role, is said to do the best work of her career, appearing both as a girl of 1897, and as a mother of 45, at the present day. The part is a distinct novelty for this actress, and the report is that she has the opportunity for some fine character work.

William Haines is the 1897 youth, with whom Mildred (Miss Windsor) is in love. Bert Roach, who made such a hit in "Excuse Me" as the bibulous salesman, is his rival. Edward Connelly, the Metro favorite, and Emily Fitzroy appear as the girl's parents, one meek and quiet, the other domineering and ponderous.

Billy Eugene plays the roll of Mildred's brother, who gets mixed up with an 1897 "fast" woman, while Viva Ozden appears as the gossiping Aunt Ethel.

In the modern sections Lucille Rickson, the film sub-deb, and Robert Agnew are seen as the lovers.

"The Denial" is based on the play, "The Square Peg," by Lewis Beach, and in its screen adaptation by Agnes Christine Johnson has been divided into a prologue, main story and epilogue.

"AS MAN DESIRES"

A glamorous and thrilling tale of the South Sea Isles is unfolded in First National's new picture, "As Man Desires," which comes to the Penniman Allen theatre, Sunday and Monday, April 19 and 20.

Milton Sills of "Sea Hawk" fame, and Viola Dana are co-featured.

The story was adapted from Gene Wright's novel, "Pandora La Croix," and affords a quick-action drama based upon the old adage: "Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned."

Sills, in the role of a British army surgeon in the Indian service, is forced into disgrace and flight through a murder charge trumped up against him by an English society woman whose love he spurned. Thoroughly embittered of conventional life, he secures a schooner and captains it into the pearl fishing beds of the South Seas, where he sinks to the depths of degradation and becomes a terror of humanity.

In Tahiti he meets the dusky, bewitching native dancing girl of Viola Dana's interpretation. While luring all women, he beats off her other admirers among the scum of the harbor in a fierce battle and makes her his wife. It is his gesture of contempt toward all womanhood.

It is then that his real identity as the fugitive surgeon is uncovered by his enemies and a British agent summoned to arrest him. How the little dancing girl discovers his real love for a girl in London, clears up the false murder charge and brings them together, only to lose her own life in the net, gives "As Man Desires," a thrilling climax.

"NEW LIVES FOR OLD"

Snatches of the strained, hectic life of war-time pass in review in Betty Compson's newest Paramount starring production, "New Lives for Old," which will be shown at the Penniman Allen theatre, Wednesday and Thursday, April 22 and 23.

Companies of American and French troops in full war panoply move here and there, while around and about them flits Betty—now as a Norman peasant girl; now as a gorgeously gowned Parisian dancer—weaving the beginning of the story net of suspicion and intrigue, which culminates in a thundering climax toward the close of the story.

It's a tale of war-time secret service, with Betty as a dancer, who is caught in the net and gladly sacrifices everything—even, it appears, her great love—for her country.

Clarence Badger directed the production, which features Wallace MacDonald, Theodore Kosloff and Sheldon Lewis at the head of a strong supporting cast.

COOPER SCHOOL NOTES

Miss Cochrane, our helping teacher, visited our school Friday, March 27th, and was very much pleased with the geography posters made by our boys and girls.

The Sixth and Seventh grades have finished studying "The Romance of Rubber," which Miss Cochrane brought us. Several pupils have written very interesting stories about rubber.

Among the list of library books which we have purchased this year, were some Supplementary readers for our Fourth, Fifth and Sixth grades. For the past couple of weeks, they have been enjoying them very much.

On March 27th, we organized our citizenship league. We had a business meeting, and elected the following officers: President, Hazel Beyer; vice-president, Edna Proctor; secretary, Cecelia Steller; health officer, Dolle Fink; assistant health officer, Myrtle Beyer; housekeeper, Mable Steller; librarian, Hazel Beyer. We have several monitors, who each have a special duty to perform. The names of our monitors are: Donald Proctor, Beryl Proctor, Clinton Baehr, Roy Proctor, Lawrence Ossenmacher, Nora Badelt, Harry Bieszk, Viola Roddenburg.

About one-third of our pupils have been on the sick list for the past week, and many are still out with the flu and mumps.

We are busy selling candy, to help get our play ground equipment.

We are also working to gather stamps for a stamp collection. Donald Proctor and Ernest Bieszk have found the most stamps so far.

We have a new scholar, Gladys Gardiner, who has just entered school.

Those who are on the honor roll for not being absent or tardy all the month of March, are: Norma Badelt, Beryl Proctor, Donald Proctor, Edna Proctor, Frank Kubic, Cecelia Steller, Florence Steller, Mabel Steller and Hazel Beyer.

SCHOOL NOTES

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The Physics class is working on a survey of Plymouth industries which they hope to have finished soon in book form. They think that these will be of interest to the public.

Last Tuesday evening, a banquet was given to the Girl Reserves and Senior H-Y boys by the Sophomore H-Y club. The main speaker was Rev. Sayles; there were also other speakers, Pierre Kenyon of the Senior club; Wilbur Murphy of the Sophomore club; Juanita Coe of the Girl Reserves; Miss Allen, Mr. Ross and Mr. Holcomb contributed to the program. The Sophomore girls served the banquet.

The botany classes are studying bacteriology. A material called agar is used to grow bacteria in. This is used for testing in water and milk, and may be exposed to the air to find out the different kinds of bacteria found in the air. The action of bacteria in milk shows the relation of bacteria to butter and cheese manufacture.

The High school glee clubs are working on the operetta, "The Tornado," which will be given some time in May.

Rev. Harlow had charge of the Good Friday talk in the High school auditorium, where the upper six grades met to observe the day. His subject was "The Dead Languages of the Cross."

Sturdy spring has come. James Henry of the Eighth grade, brought to school a 7 1/2 in. blue river—dead, we may add.

Miss Schmidt and Helen Fish visited High school, Friday, and Katherine learned earlier in the week.

GRADE NOTES

The First A and B grades are reading out of the Winston and Elson readers. They have made many Easter posters, baskets and standards.

A little Easter party was held in their room Friday afternoon. The teacher presented each pupil with an Easter basket full of candy eggs.

The First grade entertained the kindergarten at an Easter party Friday morning. They are studying germination of seeds in nature study. A mother's meeting will be held in their room on Thursday afternoon.

The Second grades A and B have just finished their Natural method readers. An Easter party was held in their room Friday and a good time was enjoyed by all. They completed many Easter pictures for the blackboards and have been studying the Easter story.

The Third grade A gave a birthday party Friday for Kathleen Ford and Ruth Connell. The class is now at work making Japanese baskets.

Third grade B has two new girls, Margaret McGorey and Mary Trupis.

The Fifth grade is writing Palmer drills which are special and advanced work.

Miss Smidding and Miss Clough were guests of the Fifth grade last week.

The Sixth B are studying punctuation now.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

Last Wednesday afternoon the commercial students were entertained by Mr. Kane, Mr. Horton and Mr. Shouk from the Burroughs Adding Machine Co., Detroit. Mr. Shouk demonstrated the many uses of the adding machine, and told just what each part was for and its use. This was interesting to all those who are going further in the business colleges or in the business world. Mr. Kane spoke to the students from the text, "Our Venetian," or in English, "Why last thou come?" Mr. Kane explained how the school prepares the student for every branch of work. He also explained how the adding machines and adding machines are making commercial work much faster and more accurate.

The school notes this week were furnished by Mary Parrott, Clara Tyler, Thelma Peck and Wilbur Murphy.

THE CROP REPORT

The Nation's growing wheat crop offered the poorest prospect on April 1, of any year except that of 1917. The condition is 68.7 per cent as compared with 83 per cent last year. This condition represents a production of 474,255,000 bushels, which is 118,000,000 less than raised in 1924. The outlook is the most discouraging in the southern portions of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, and over a portion of the southwest states of the wheat belt. The condition is much better in the northern tier of states.

In Michigan, the crop came through the winter with very little injury, and the spring has been generally favorable. There were only scattering reports of damage from freezing and thawing during March, these being mostly in the northwestern counties of the Lower Peninsula. While the top growth was less than normal last fall, the plants are alive and in good condition for growth if sufficient moisture is received. The monthly report issued by L. Whitney Watkins, Commissioner of Agriculture and Verne H. Church, U. S. Agricultural Statistician, shows the state's average condition to be 85 per cent, one per cent below last year and one per cent above the ten-year average. Michigan farmers are to be congratulated upon this satisfactory condition, when the general prospects in other portions of the country are so far below normal.

The condition of rye in Michigan is rated at 87 per cent, two points below that of one year ago and one point below the ten-year average. As is usual in most years, the condition averages slightly higher than that of wheat. At the date of the report, rain is needed, but the outlook is generally good from every standpoint, except in a very few local areas.

For the entire country, the crop shows condition of 84 per cent, which is about the same as it was one year ago, but nearly four per cent below the average. Interpreting this condition figure, a crop of 61,652,000 bushels will be harvested if conditions remained normal throughout the remainder of the growing season. This would be about two millions less than produced last year.

The inquiry relative to pasture is rather early for Michigan, but shows a prevailing condition of 80 per cent. The average for all states combined is 87.5 per cent.

Farm wages are slowly reaching a lower level in Michigan. Monthly wages with board average $40 as compared with $43.20, and without board, $33 as compared with $38.60 last year. For the country as a whole, the average with board is $33.97 and without board, $47.58, there being practically no change from those paid one year ago. The demand for farm labor has increased during the last year from 79 to 83 per cent of normal and the supply from 67 to 87 per cent of normal in Michigan, the present ratio of supply to demand being 105 per cent as compared with 85 per cent on April 1, 1924.

For the United States, the labor supply averages 89.5 and the demand, 90.7 of normal, a ratio of 98.7 per cent.

BIGELOW CLAY PROD. CO. NEEDS EXPANSION.

The Bigelow Clay Products Co., of Birmingham, Mich., has just announced an expansion program which will mean much to the shareholders of this company in the future. The company is manufacturing approximately 15,000 hollow tile daily, but this production necessitates running the machinery only 4 1/2 hours a day because there is not sufficient dryer and kiln capacity to take care of the production, which the machinery is capable of turning out in 10 hours. The big electric shovel in the mine runs only 4 hours daily. At a recent meeting of the shareholders at which over two-thirds of the stock was represented, it was decided to build eight or nine additional kilns, 15 additional dryers, purchase additional dryer cars, rails, tracks, oil tanks, oil burning equipment, etc., so as to increase the production to around 38,000 hollow tile daily. This would keep the machinery running nine hours daily and would also mean that the profits will be greatly increased as the overhead would be reduced, it is said.

The shareholders and directors have authorized a special bond issue for the taking care of the financing of the expansion. The bonds are to be redeemed and retired from a subdivision of 295 parcels of land which the company will soon put on the market. The subdivision will include the acreage which the company owns which is clay land. The company proposes to build a dam and create a lake in the beautiful ravine, giving all lot purchasers the lake privilege. The lake will be provided with fish and the development includes the laying out of a community along modern lines. Fisher Bros., surveyors and engineers, have this work in hand and it is possible with the natural facilities at hand to create one of the beauty spots of Oakland County. This lake will be the nearest lake in Oakland County to Detroit and is said to be one of the most beautiful spots in this territory.

A number of the lots have already been spoken for. There will be a limited amount of business frontage as no doubt as time goes on there will be an entirely new town site at this property," said David Levinson, one of the directors of the company.

"The development, includes the paving of the land around the Bigelow plant, the cleaning up of the property around the plant, laying out of lawns, planting of shrubs and trees, etc. The company burns oil and hence there is no dust, soot, or unpleasant odors from the plant.

"Since the inception of the company over 2,000,000 hollow tile have been manufactured and sold," continued Mr. Levinson. "The company has passed through its experimental stage and has conclusively proven that the clay makes the very finest product that is used in this territory. Some of the leading building material firms in Detroit are handling the tile. Contractors and bricklayers state that the tile is smooth, straight, easy to handle, and economical to lay up in a wall. Big Pierce Arrow trucks are hauling the product every day into Detroit, delivering it direct to the job and thus saving the builder money, time and delay. With 50,000,000 tile used annually in Detroit the company will not have to seek any additional territory for the increased production.

It has been a very interesting study to watch the development of this company. Ordered in November of 1923, the plant was built and ready for production in June, 1924. "All clay is different," states C. F. Tefft, Ceramic Engineer with a national reputation who recently spent a month at the plant. "You have to learn your clay to succeed in this business. This clay is a glacial clay, fatty and difficult to handle, and the officers of the company deserve great credit for successful development. I believe they have jumped into successful production quicker than any company that I have been in contact with before. The plant is running smoothly now, the scrap has been reduced to a minimum, and its only a matter of kiln and dryer equipment to reach big production."

A member of the Detroit Building Department recently made the statement that those who build should use the building material near at hand and its only a matter of time when the majority of homes, stores, schools and churches, etc., in Oakland County and Detroit will be using hollow tile.

A recent financial statement shows assets of over half million dollars and the business looks to be in a healthy condition. The Directors of the company are C. E. Smith of Pontiac, George A. Sutton, attorney, of Pontiac, David Levinson and B. W. Volmar of Pontiac, who are active at the plant, and St. Clair Couzens of Pontiac.—Advertisement.

KINYON SCHOOL NEWS

The Kinyon school had a business meeting, Monday morning, April 13, 1925, for the purpose of organizing a baseball team. We elected a captain and a manager. The captain is "Det." Clyde Dethloff; the manager is "Archie" Harold Rebitzke. Names were suggested for a list. The name of "Live Wires" was chosen. The captain and manager selected the following team—"Archie" Harold Rebitzke, p.; "Walt" Walter Miller, c.; "Cur" Kenneth Holcomb, 1b.; "Det." Clyde Dethloff, 2b.; "Don" Donald Wilkins, 3b.; "Tim" Kenneth Hyde, l. f.; Owen Williams, c. f.; "Vin" Vincent Forshee, r. f.; Edward Bachaus, ss. The "Live Wires" challenged the Hanford school team to play baseball on Friday, April 17, at the corner of Ridge and Ferrisville roads, which they accepted. With all our pep and yell, there is no doubt that the "Live Wires" can live up to their name.

ANY other kind of watch is not worth the buying, for watches have a heritage value—they should be passed on down to successive generations. When Sonny Boy hears the first tick of his first watch, it is an important event in his life.

But then there must be cheaper watches for him—watches which will stand the wear and tear of childhood—and finally the watch that will remain with him during all his life.

We have both kinds and all kinds—particularly those delicate watches for women, which must combine perfect utility with beauty.

By the way—we have just received a complete new W. W. W. line of pearls and rings. Pearls—yes, this concern is now putting out a wonderful guaranteed pearl in a special jewel case. You will want to see it.

LOCAL NEWS

Mrs. Kate E. Allen, Julius Kaiser and H. R. Lush have purchased the site of the Elliott double store at Northville, and will build a modern theatre thereon. Work will be started at once.

About seventy-five members and guests were entertained at the season's last meeting of the Pleasure Club, in L. O. O. F. hall, Wednesday evening. After a delicious 6:30 dinner, dancing furnished entertainment. Honors for the season were awarded to Mr. and Mrs. George Wollgast and consolation to Mrs. Wm. Holmes.

LIVONIA CENTER COMMUNITY CHURCH.

The Community Church at Livonia Center was opened Sunday morning, with a beautiful Easter service. The weather was indeed all that one could ask for: the sun was shining in all its beauty. But not only on the outside was the sun shining and bright, but within every heart in the church the sun was shining as well, for every man, woman and child was happy. To them it was a day of great rejoicing: a day to which they had been looking forward. The church was beautifully decorated with ferns, cut flowers and potted plants. A half hour before time for the services, every seat was taken. E. C. Smith telephoned to Schrader Bros., and E. D. Schrader kindly donated the use of 75 chairs for the occasion, and they were immediately delivered.

Services were opened with a prayer by Rev. Cyphers. The choir rendered some very fine special music, consisting of anthems, solos and male quartets. Eight small children were dedicated to God and His service. The pastor, Rev. Helen Phelps, delivered a powerful sermon, both morning and evening. All in all, it was a day long to be remembered by all present. Services will be held every Sunday at 11:00 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Everyone cordially invited.

Three Odd Chums

A correspondent at Sydney, N. S. W., sends the following strange story to the London Mail:

More than three years ago a tortoise crawled into the grounds of Marengo Chase, Morpeth, N. S. W., the residence of Capt. F. J. Marshall. At the same time a bat appeared.

The tortoise and the bat were friends and their association caused much amusement. After wandering about the grounds for three months the tortoise left, followed by the bat. Neither the tortoise nor the bat was seen again for three years, but recently Captain Marshall was astonished by the reappearance in his grounds of the tortoise and the bat.

During their absence they had made a new friend—a magpie, and the queer trio now live in amity.

Explaining the Message

A telegram was sent by an old lady asking the doctor to come to her husband as he had gone. When the doctor arrived he found the old man in bed with bronchitis.

"What made you say your husband had gone when he is suffering from bronchitis?" asked the doctor. "You surely knew what was the matter with him?"

"Oh, yes, we knowed he'd got the bronchitis," replied the old lady cheerfully, "but neither one of us knowed how to spell it!"

Salvages Bird Shot

A man in California makes a living by picking up bird shot. He asks permission to salvage the shooting fields of gun clubs for bird shot. Then he scoops up the ground within a 200-yard radius of the shooting posts, sifts the shot from the dirt, and melts it into lead bars for commercial use.

WRITES OF JEWISH EMPIRE IN DESERT

Interesting Study of Medieval Africa by Frenchman.

Reviewing Charles de la Ronciere's recent book, "Decouverte de l'Afrique du Moyen Age," E. Dermenghem observes that in the Middle Ages relations between Africa and Europe were much closer, more frequent and more congenial than in the succeeding more "enlightened" centuries, says L'Action Francaise.

"In the Thirteenth and Fourteenth centuries the kings of Aragon concluded a number of commercial treaties with the Arab rulers of Tunis, Tlemcen, Marrakech, Fez and Sijilmassa. Majorca was formerly the seat of a famous Jewish cartographic school, of which the influence is apparent on all of the Catalan planspheres. Charles V. sent Abraham Cresques's Catalan atlas to the Louvre.

"These relations between Europe and central Africa were indeed largely due to the Spanish and Moroccan Jews, polyglot by necessity and tireless international traders. They ceased at the close of the Fifteenth century, when the Arabs were driven out of Spain and when the Jews, also expelled, were being massacred wholesale by the Moslems in the Saharan oases (1494).

"One of the most interesting chapters of M. de la Ronciere's book describes this Jewish era in the Sahara. Throughout the Middle Ages, in fact, the Jews in southern Algeria and Morocco, mentioned by St. Augustine, had extremely prosperous colonies in most of the oases. A Jewish empire of the Sahara may even have existed in the first centuries of our era. The first 42 kings of Ghana (up to the year 790), which was the capital of a great and flourishing state, were white. Hebrew inscriptions to this effect have been found in the recently unearthed ruins of the city, Ethiopia, where there are still a few Israelites along the Blue Nile, had a Jewish king in the Fifth century.

"Supporting his statement upon the persistent references to the mysterious Beni-Israel tribes and other evidence, M. Delafosse, author of 'Les Noirs de l'Afrique' and numerous other works, believes in the Jewish origin of the Peuhls. The Arabian geographer, Khordadbeh, tells us that in the Ninth century the Jews carried on a flourishing trade in slaves, epebes, swords, hides and spices; and a Kalroun Jew refers to a Jewish Saharan empire whose ruler, was converted to Islamism. In the Fifteenth century Malcant reported the survival of a rivalry between the Jews and 'Philistines' (the Touraregs) in the heart of the desert."
