A LOCAL BASKET BALL LEAGUE HAS BEEN FORMED

Teams Representing the M. E. Church, Presbyterian Church, Baptist Church, the Boy Scouts and the Boosters Compose the League:

On Monday, November 30th, the Local Basket Ball League will start the season of 1925-1926 at the M. E. Community Hall with teams representing the M. E. Church, Presbyterian Church, Baptist Church and the Boy Scouts. Six teams constitute the league, and three games are played each Monday evening so that each team gets into the fray every Monday evening. As the teams are evenly matched and all eager to win, there will be excitement galore at the M. E. Community Hall on Monday evenings. Following is the schedule for men's and boys' league:

The women's and girls' division of the league will start on Thursday evening, December 3rd, on a schedule much the same as the men's and boys', with six teams representing the M. E., Presbyterian and Baptist churches. As there is plenty of room on the side and in the balcony, the public is cordially invited to the games in both divisions of the league, and excitement aplenty is guaranteed. A very nominal charge of 25c for a season ticket is made, which gives admittance to the twenty games in both divisions of the league.

PLYMOUTH LOSES DEBATE TO YPSILANTI

Plymouth lost its first debate to Ypsilanti Central High school last Friday evening. Although Plymouth's case was as sound as Ypsilanti's, and was even better supported by evidence, the Ypsilanti team was better in delivery, due to more training and experience. Plymouth's next debate comes December 11, and before that time the team will have engaged in enough practice debate to put them in much better condition. The three who debated Friday evening were: Josephine Schmitt, Blanche Freeman and Julia Wilcox. The remainder of the squad who are working hard on the child labor question, are: Dorothy Hillman, Franklin Atkinson, Julia Learned and Malcolm Outler.

IDENTITY IS ESTABLISHED OF AUTO ACCIDENT VICTIM

The identity of the colored man, who was accidentally killed when he was hit by an automobile driven by George Richwine of this village, on the Plymouth road, last week Tuesday evening, has been established by the local authorities, who had been making efforts to locate relatives of the dead man. Oliver Goldsmith gave valuable assistance to Chief Springer in locating the relatives of the deceased.

A telegram from Harrodsburg, Kentucky, gave an accurate description of the man whose body was being held here, and gave his name as William Bellford, and that for the past two or three years he had lived in Detroit. Chief of Police Springer got into communication with Detroit officers, with the result that a son of the dead man came to Plymouth, and identified the body as that of his father, William Bellford. The son stated to the local officers that his father had been injured upon the head several years ago, and since that time had frequently wandered away from his home for several days, and nothing was thought of his absence the few days following his death.

The son made arrangements for the burial of his father, and services were conducted by Rev. Charles Strasen, from Schrader Bros. Funeral Home, Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. The remains were taken to Windsor, Canada, for interment.

SAD DEATH OF LITTLE BOY

The death of little Alexander Lendrum, son of Dr. and Mrs. F. A. Lendrum, the former being pastor of the Methodist church of this village, which occurred at Harper hospital, Detroit, last Saturday evening, cast a shadow of sorrow over the entire community. The little lad had undergone a serious operation for a double mastoid, on the Thursday previous. Although everything possible was done that medical skill and loving care could do, he gradually failed until the end came in the early hours of the evening above mentioned. Alexander was a very lovable little fellow, and although he had resided here but a short time, he had made many friends, who were sincerely grieved by his sad death.

Alexander Lendrum was born at Caro, Michigan, January 20, 1920. Besides the father and mother, he is survived by two brothers, Frederick C. and James T. Lendrum.

The funeral services were held from the home Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock. Dr. J. E. Martin of Ann Arbor, officiating. The interment took place in the family lot in the cemetery at Monroe, Michigan.

The family have the deepest sympathy of the whole community in their great sorrow.

ADVANCED CLOTHING PROJECT CLASS

The first meeting of the Advanced Clothing Project was held at the home of Mrs. Ray Dunham in N. E. Canton, November 18th, with an attendance of ten. The class was organized under the leadership of Mrs. Jacob Dingley and Mrs. M. Swegles. Both received their instructions from Miss Sorenson, the clothing specialist from the Michigan State College. The lesson was interesting and instructive. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Perry Hix, Wednesday, December 17th. The meeting will start at 1:00 o'clock sharp. Anyone interested in the advanced sewing is welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Matt Miller and friends from Dearborn, visited friends in Chicago, the past week.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Lutheran church will meet immediately after the morning services, Sunday.

Back on the Job

STAGE IS ALL SET FOR GREATEST STOCK SHOW

The twenty-sixth anniversary International Live Stock Exposition is ready to open its gates to the public on November 28th, for what promises to go down in history as the greatest of all agricultural and live stock gatherings. According to Secretary B. H. Heide, the International has never before had such a splendid array of educational and entertaining features to offer to its visitors. No matter whether one is directly interested in agriculture or not, there will be much among the numerous displays and events to make a trip to the show well worth the time and effort.

The International Grain and Hay Show has established a new record this year with 5088 samples of grains, small seeds and hay, an increase of 336 entries over last year. There will be 3212 ten ear samples and 1124 single ears of corn in the show. The junior corn classes will include 698 entries against 225 last year.

Over 200 carloads of fat and feeder cattle, swine and sheep, had been entered before the books closed, assuring the strongest display of market animals ever brought together.

The International Horse Show will include jumping, riding and driving horses from more stables in all parts of the country than at any previous session of the Exposition. A brilliant evening entertainment has been arranged to copy the Amphitheatre arena night, which will climax the day's program of judging, sales, demonstrations, meetings and sight seeing.

Interest in the National Boys' and Girls' Club Congress has increased 100% since last year, and the exhibits which will be on display in the junior building are expected to set a new high standard for club work. Over 1200 champion farm boys and girls and their leaders from 44 states and Canada have registered for the Congress. This department of the Exposition alone will be well worth anyone's effort to go a long ways to see.

Fourteen state agricultural colleges and the U. S. Department of Agriculture will have elaborate educational displays covering a wide range of timely subjects. The new feature display of the Grain Show will have over 50 recently discovered varieties of crops on exhibition which have been contributed by 25 experimental stations. The Meat Shop will contain experimental carcasses of lambs, swine and cattle from eight state stations and the Government. Meetings will be held by 45 agricultural organizations during the show.

Twenty-two colleges have entered teams in the Collegiate Stock Judging Contest and twenty-one states will send their junior teams to the Non-Collegiate Judging Contest. Five states will compete in these for the first time. Chicago will be the mecca for agricultural people from all parts of the continent during the International Live Stock Exposition, November 28th, to December 5th.

Frederick C. and James Thoburn Lendrum were called here this week from Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware, Ohio, by the death of their brother.

COMMUNITY FUND IS GROWING DAILY

ARE YOU ONE THAT CAN SAY, "I HELPED?"

The Chamber of Commerce teams who are making a canvas of the village for the Community Fund are meeting with splendid success. If by chance anybody has been missed by the sollicitors, you can leave your subscription at any of the banks or any grocery store.

Everybody should be interested in this matter, and should pledge whatever they can to make this fund as large as possible.

While it was expected that the campaign would close last Saturday, it was found impossible for all the teams to finish the work that day, and the time has been extended until a complete canvas is made of the village.

This is a most worthy effort, and the Community Fund should receive the hearty support of our citizens.

DEATH OF MRS. F. J. SCHMIDT

Funeral services for Mrs. F. J. Schmidt, wife of the president of the General Machine and Iron Works of Plymouth, who died at her home, 2230 LaMothe avenue, Detroit, Thursday, November 19, were held at the residence at 2:00 p. m., Monday. Mrs. Schmidt was 46 years old, and had been in ill health for some time. Her husband, a daughter, Agnes, and a son, Ernest, survive. Burial was made at Grandlawn Cemetery. Mr. Schmidt and family have the sympathy of this community in their bereavement.

Frank Watkins has sold his home at 283 East Ann Arbor road, and their many friends will be glad to know that they have moved to 425 North Harvey street, a home recently purchased from William Brennan, who has moved to Detroit.

HIGH SCHOOL CARNIVAL NEXT WEEK FRIDAY

The High School Carnival has been placed early in the year—a week from today, Friday, December 4th. In the afternoon and evening there will be on sale, baked goods, home-made candy, individual plum puddings, fresh eggs. In the evening there will be a boys' minstrel, a girls' minstrel and a kitchen cabinet band to render the old songs everybody likes. A movie will be shown in the auditorium. There will be on sale all the noise-makers one needs for Christmas, besides ice cream, pop-corn and hot dogs. The proceeds go toward the support of debating, oratory, athletics and the annual.

ANOTHER BUSINESS FIRM

R. R. Reeves has sold out his electric floor finishing machine and business to C. M. Wade & Son. Mr. Wade spent his childhood days here in Plymouth. He has had about twenty years' experience in Detroit and Pontiac as interior decorator. Mr. Wade says the old home town looks mighty good to him, and that is why he is locating here. The Mail joins in wishing the new firm success.

BURK-MAUK

Duncan Burk and Miss Edna Mauk, both of Elm, were united in marriage at the Baptist parsonage, last Saturday afternoon, November 21st. Rev. Saylor read the ceremony, using the ring, selling their promises to each other. They were accompanied by Miss Viola Mauk, a sister of the bride, and Harold Benjamin of Salem. Their many friends wish them a long and happy wedded life.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Korell and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schuman and family of Detroit, visited Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Kehrl, last Sunday.

NEW STORE OPENS SATURDAY

PALACE OF SWEETS IN THE REA BLOCK, PENNIMAN AVENUE, WILL HAVE FORMAL OPENING SATURDAY AFTERNOON, NOVEMBER 28TH.

On another page of the Mail today will be found a half page announcement of the opening of the Palace of Sweets in the Rea block on Penniman avenue, on Saturday afternoon, November 28th, at 1:30 o'clock.

Several months ago, A. S. Vateck purchased the confectionery and ice cream business conducted by Max Hoffman. Mr. Vateck closed the store, and contracted with the American Show Case and Fixture Co. of Detroit, for new fixtures and equipment, and when the new store opens its doors to the public tomorrow, Plymouth will have as fine a store of this kind as will be found only in the larger cities. Mr. Vateck has spared no expense in providing the new store with modern fixtures and the latest sanitary equipment used in stores of this kind. Everything is new, as the old equipment purchased with the store has been disposed of.

The fixtures were made especially to fit the store room, and are of many artistic finish, beautifully designed and artistically arranged. The walls on both sides and at the end of the store room are in paneled mahogany to a height of nine feet, while the balance of the wall is done in a pink shade.

On the west side of the store room as one enters the front door is the handsome soda fountain bar and back bar set with two large mirrors.

On the east side are wall cases with glass doors, for the display of package and hard candies, and a wall case for the display of tobaccos. Two large show cases are also provided for the display of candies and one for the display of cigars.

An artistic partition separates this part of the store with that part in which are ten booths for the serving of ice cream, sodas, etc. Each booth is equipped with a small table with bench seats on either side. A row of tables is also provided in the center of the room. The lighting effect in this department lends a very pretty effect to the surroundings. Each one of the booths is provided with an electric light with an orange shade, while two handsome chandeliers are suspended from the ceiling, each having a cluster of orange colored shades. At the extreme rear of the building is a neatly arranged stock room.

The basement of the building is largely given over to the candy kitchen, where home-made candies, which will be one of the leading features of the new store, will be made under the most improved methods and sanitary conditions.

Another feature of the new store will be the serving of light lunches, making a specialty of toasted sandwiches. An automatic electric toaster and a steam table have been provided for this department. A hot water system for the washing of glasses has been installed.

Mr. Vateck is a candy maker of much experience, he having been in the candy business in Detroit for a number of years, and conducted the store known as the Ferry Field Candy Land for three years.

A most cordial invitation is extended to the people of Plymouth and vicinity to visit the new store on opening day. Souvenirs will be given to the ladies, men and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Honey of Detroit, visited at the home of the former's mother, Mrs. S. H. Hills, last Sunday.

Plymouth Lodge No. 238, Knights of Pythias, will have election of officers next Thursday evening, December 3rd. All members requested to be present.

Richard Brusseau, who shot and killed two of his three sons and fatally wounded his wife early last week Friday morning, at his home at 1526 Pine street, Detroit, and for whom the officers were making a search through the surrounding country, was found unconscious with a bullet wound in his head, on the Plymouth tourist camp grounds about one o'clock last Saturday afternoon. His wound indicated that he had taken his own life, with a pistol, which lay at the victim's side. When Brusseau's clothes were examined, his name and address were scribbled on a package of cigarettes in his pocket. His shoes were dry, an indication, it is believed, that he had kept to the highways, and that he did not attempt short cuts through fields or woods.

Itay Sackett, on his way to the gravel pit for a load of gravel, saw the body lying in the grass about four feet from the road. Sackett hurried to a telephone and called the village manager's office, and officers William Hayball and Edward Jarsky were sent to the scene of the tragedy. Dr. A. E. Patterson was called and rendered the necessary surgical aid, and the wounded man was taken to the Receiving Hospital, Detroit, where he died later in the afternoon.

Persons who passed the spot some twenty or thirty minutes before Sackett found the body, said they had not noticed anyone lying near the road. It is believed from this, that Brusseau attempted to take his life shortly before Sackett drove along.

Brusseau disappeared early Friday after telling his brother, Louis, and his 16-year-old son, Clifford, of the shooting.

We take the following paragraph from the Detroit News:

Clifford Brusseau said his father woke him early Friday morning to take him to Brightmoor. As soon as they entered an alley next to the house, he continued, his father stopped the car and ran inside, leaving the motor running. He came out again in about 10 minutes. On the way to Brightmoor, Brusseau, according to Clifford, repeatedly said, "Oh, my boy, if you only knew; if you only knew, my poor boy."

Clifford said his mother and father frequently quarreled. Brusseau was shipping clerk for the Harry Brothers Manufacturing Co., Rivard and Woodbridge streets. His employers, who hold him in high esteem, said he had recently shown evidence of considerable strain. He was 40 years old.

Later in the afternoon, after the wounded man had been taken to the hospital, a squad of officers, accompanied by Brusseau's son, arrived in Plymouth.

FAREWELL RECEPTION

Plymouth Grange, uniting with the Canton Community Club, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hauk and family at the Grange hall, Friday evening, November 13th, with an attendance of about 100 friends. The evening was spent with music, short talks and a general social time. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wagner and Henry Hutton furnished several musical numbers. Mrs. Lucy Smith, in her pleasing way, presented Mrs. Hauk, former Grange chaplain, with a beautiful bouquet of chrysanthemums. S. W. Spicer presented Mr. and Mrs. Hauk with a two piece wicker set, consisting of a fernery and a table, after which light refreshments were served.

The out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Roy Losey and family and Miss VanVleet of Dearborn; Mrs. Leon Smith of Pontiac; Mrs. D. A. Campbell and daughter, Isabelle, of Detroit.

The Hauks will move to their new home near Saline, Nov. 27. They will be greatly missed in this community, as they have taken an active part in all community work.

Mrs. Ruth E. Huston Whipple spent last week-end in Ann Arbor, as the guest of her cousin, Miss Frances T. Gill.

PROTECTING THE HOME

Regardless of whether he is for or against prohibition, we believe every fair-minded man in Plymouth will approve the U. S. supreme court's new ruling that a private dwelling cannot be searched without a warrant "except as an incident to a lawful arrest therein." The highest court in the land holds that a man's home is his castle, and that an officer cannot, on flimsy pretense of enforcing the law, enter and ransack that home at will. He must have a warrant, no matter how strong may be his belief that the house contains the evidence he wants. No honest man objects to a legal search of his home—but he wants to know that it is legal and not being done by someone seeking to make trouble for him or just to show authority. What does a home amount to if there is no privacy and protection? The supreme court seems to know that it is dangerous to invest some men with too much authority, so it protects the public against such officials by its latest decision. And it is not going to weaken the enforcement laws, either, for an honest official would not want to enter a private home without a warrant.

THE GREATEST LOVE

We see where Will Rogers, the great comedian, and a former ranchhand, returned to his old home town in Oklahoma, and was greeted by thousands at the opera house, where he made a speech. In that speech he declared that every city man, has one anxiety deeper than anything else—and that is as to his standing with the folks back in his old home town. Will Rogers is right. Out in the world are many former Plymouth boys, now grown to manhood and surrounded with business worries. But nothing would worry them more than to know that their old home town has forgotten them. They may learn to love their newer surroundings, and they may become fond of their newer acquaintances. But deep down in their hearts the greatest love and the greatest admiration is for the town of their birth and the people they spent their boyhood with.

JUST A SUGGESTION

We are not trying to tell any man or woman in Plymouth their business. But if we know of a positive method by which they can add to their own happiness and general state of mind, we are not going to withhold the suggestion from them. In this case we want to suggest that before you are tempted to answer the mail-order ad that offers something attractive for Christmas, you first visit your home merchants. See if they have the same thing, or, if they haven't got it, ask if they can get it for you. Get the price, and compare that price with the one advertised. Then if you can't get what you seek, you have done your duty, and fulfilled an obligation you owe your neighbors and your town. If there is a simpler way of making your Christmas happy than by buying at home, we don't know what it is. And if we felt, that buying away from home would make you happier—we'd tell you so.

A FINE EXAMPLE

Along about this season of the year any figures that show how much money is spent in celebrating Christmas are of interest. But how any particular community gets hold of the money to spend is of more interest, so we are going to give a few figures from one particular state that are now printed all over the country. In Ohio almost every bank in almost every town has a "Christmas Savings Club." Making a little deposit each week of from 25c to $25, the members of these savings clubs draw interest through the year and early in December they get their Christmas savings checks from the banks. This year these checks will amount to $16,000,000 in the state of Ohio alone, or an average of $41.25 for each person who participated in a savings club.

We call the attention of Plymouth boys and girls—and it will not do the older set any harm to study it over—to this snug little sum that will go to those who saved a few pennies a week during the year. It comes right at a time, too, when it is most needed, and each one of them should have a right merry Christmas on that $41.25. If you are not in a position to join a Christmas Savings Club for 1926, begin the first week in January dropping a quarter a week into a baking powder can. Don't miss a single week—and see how much happier your next Christmas will be. There is no monopoly on this scheme—anybody can carry it out. And there's no monopoly on Christmas happiness—anybody can have more of it if he has saved and prepared for it than if he hasn't.

WATCH THE CROSSINGS

One of the largest taxicab companies in New York has ordered all of its drivers to slow down and stop if necessary at every street crossing. The order follows an investigation covering a period of six years, during which time it was found that a vast majority of accidents occur at street intersections. Last year the company had 8,850 accidents, and 80 per cent of them were at intersections.

What applies to New York City in the matter of street accidents will apply in a general way to Plymouth. There is altogether too much darting in and out of side streets and alleys and side roads before the driver pauses to ascertain if the other street is clear in both directions. Most of them take the darts and turns first and think about it afterwards, if at all. The "close call" is laughed at, and it seems some take positive delight in embarrassing another driver in the operation of his machine. It is only when accidents result in injury or damage, that they give a thought to their carelessness.

It is financially impossible for our town to maintain a watchman at every street or alley intersection, so this puts the whole matter up to the individual motorist. If he will study the number of auto accidents for any one year, and stop long enough to think about the great number killed through carelessness, he will likely come to the conclusion that crossing streets cautiously is not only the easiest thing to do, but the most sensible.

NORTHVILLE HAS A NEW ATHLETIC CLUB.

The Wolverine Athletic club has been organized for the benefit of the people of the surrounding towns who are interested in athletics but have no chance to compete in same. It is our hope to organize and run a club where the young athletes who have graduated from High school, and any one interested in athletics can come and take part in various games and enjoy good clean sport.

There being no Y. M. C. A. or other athletic organizations in any of the surrounding towns, we cannot help but think that this club or organization will succeed if we can get the support of our townspeople. There are a great number of young men from Northville and Plymouth who are interested in the organization and some older citizens who are quite willing to give it their support. We sincerely hope to gain the patronage of the public and the support of the merchants and townspeople. There has been some very generous offers made by some of the merchants of Northville and Plymouth to help in the organization and run a good club and put out some good teams, and the boys on their part will make every effort to give their supporters their money's worth.

We shall charge very reasonable admission fees to our games and athletic exhibitions and will give the public the best we have.

Our aim is to find some room or building in which we can equip a club-house and gymnasium, and run teams in all branches of sport. We hope to run teams in foot ball, basket ball, base ball, track and hockey. We also will run boxing and wrestling teams. We hope to have classes in physical training and give everyone belonging to the club, access to the gymnasium.

We have a wide and varied field of material to pick from and should be able to put out some very good teams. This club has been organized on the principle of clean living, and clean sportsmanship and we hope to be of real benefit to our community by giving the public a source of entertainment through good clean athletic competition and developing stronger, healthier, better citizens of our members.

We now have an enrollment of about thirty-five members and there are many more who are anxious to join us. The officers who have been chosen to take charge of the organization are as follows: Harold Stevens of Plymouth, president; Leland Doudt of Plymouth, vice-president; Russell Reiman of Plymouth, secretary, and Douglas Carruthers of Plymouth, treasurer; and James Wood of Northville, athletic manager.

We wish to announce our next foot ball game will be played with Saint Martins of Royal Oak, on November 29th.

CHANCERY NOTICE
No. 127356

STATE OF MICHIGAN, The Circuit court for the County of Wayne, in Chancery.

Charles A. Fisher, plaintiff, vs. Eli C. Matthews, John Dickerson, Earl Holsington, Peter Fralick, Elam P. Warner, Isaac B. Merritt, R. S. Durfee, whose first name is unknown, William Starkweather, A. M. Hurd and Company, William C. King, William C. King, George B. Martin, Thomas Briggs, and Charles H. Bennett, or their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns, defendants.

ORDER FOR PUBLICATION AT A SESSION OF SAID COURT, Held at the Court Room thereof in the City of Detroit, said County and State on the 16th day of October, A. D. 1925.

PRESENT: The Hon. JOSEPH A. MOYNIHAN, Presiding Circuit Judge. ON READING AND FILING The Bill of Complaint in this cause, from which it satisfactorily appears to the Court that titles, interests, claims or possible rights to the premises described in said Bill, and hereinafter described, which titles, interests, claims and possible rights of said defendants and each of them, if they ever had any validity, said plaintiff avers to be barred by the quiet, peaceable, open, notorious, adverse, hostile, undisputed, exclusive and continuous possession of plaintiff and his grantors for more than fifteen (15) years last past, and for more than fifteen (15) years since the several apparent rights to the possession thereof accrued in said respective defendants, which said possession has been, during all of said time, and still is, adverse and hostile to the titles, interests, claims or possible rights of said respective defendants; and upon reading the affidavit of JOHN L. CRANDALL, attorney for said plaintiff, that it is not known and could not be ascertained after diligent search and inquiry whether their titles, interests, claims or possible rights have been disposed of by will, and that it cannot be ascertained in what State or County said defendants reside.

ON MOTION OF JOHN L. CRANDALL, Attorney for Plaintiff; IT IS ORDERED, That Eli C. Matthews, John Dickerson, Earl Holsington, Peter Fralick, Elam P. Warner, Isaac B. Merritt, R. S. Durfee, whose first name is unknown, William Starkweather, A. M. Hurd and Company, William C. King, William C. King, George B. Martin, Thomas Briggs and Charles H. Bennett, or their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees and assigns, and the unknown persons who are or may be entitled to claim under them, cause their several appearances to be entered herein in the manner provided by Law on or before THREE (3) MONTHS from the date hereof, and that this Order be published or served as required by Law.

JOSEPH A. MOYNIHAN, Circuit Judge.
Peter J. Drexellus, Deputy Clerk.
SAID SUIT involves and is brought to quiet the title to the lands and premises described in said Bill of Complaint, as follows:

THE THEATRE

"HE'S A PRINCE"

Raymond Griffith, he of the million dollar personality and shiny "topper," has been elevated to stardom by the folks who turn over their hard-earned money at the box-office, and he's sure to vindicate the confidence the fans have in him with his first comedy as a full-fledged Paramount star—"He's a Prince!" portraying the life of a young European Prince during his working hours. What with reviewing parades, laying corner stones, christening ships, judging baby contests and a hundred and one other equally silly things, a son of royalty, contrary to the general belief, is not a gentleman of leisure. Actually he is a young man leading a mighty hectic life. But you can bet your life that Griffith manages to get a lot of fun out of it in his new picture, which will be shown at the Penniman Allen theatre on Sunday and Monday, November 29 and 30.

Mary Brian, the famous Wendy of "Peter Pan" fame, is featured in support of the star. "The Little French Girl" and "The Street of Forgotten Men" also saw her in prominent roles. Other big names include Tyrone Power, Nigel de Bruliere, Gustav Von Seyffertitz and Kathleen Kirkham. Carl Stockdale, Michael Dark, Lincoln Plummer, Jacqueline Gadsen and Jerry Austin complete the cast.

The coronation scene in "He's a Prince!" has yet to be equalled on the screen. Some idea of the magnitude of the scene can be gotten from a part of the call the casting office of the studio sent out before the sequence was "shot."

The order was for 20 palace guards; 10 palace officers; one major domo; 20 palace servants; 12 soldiers to the Queen; one Prime Minister; 4 Dukes; one Archbishop; 15 foreign ambassadors; 8 naval officers; 8 army officers; 6 peers in robes; 8 heralds; 60 women in court dress; 75 women in evening dress and 75 men in evening dress.

It's a real howl when Griffith kicks against being made King, and is carried bodily into the coronation room. Then he plans a little revolution to overthrow himself, but the bolsheviks double-cross him and make him president of the new republic—and he's just as bad off as before—except he wins the girl.

"He's a Prince!" is Griffith's story, Griffith's gags, Griffith's ideas, Edward Sutherland Ray's own choice directed. Keene Thompson wrote the screen play from the story by Reginald Morris and Joseph Mitchell.

Hugh Jennings' Own Story of 34 Years in Baseball

HUGH JENNINGS has been active in base ball for 34 years. He has been manager and player. He has developed some of the greatest players of all time. He has been three times manager of a pennant winning team. He is the only man in the game who has observed carefully the leading players in both the American and National leagues. He it was who developed Ty Cobb from a self-conscious youth to the most remarkable exponent of base ball in the world.

Hugh Jennings started in life as a mine boy. His career is not only interesting to lovers of the great American sport but to every man who enjoys reading of conquest and achievement. Hugh Jennings' biography is a fascinating tale. It tells of his struggles to obtain an education, of his efforts to win his father over to base ball, of the early sand lot victories in Pennsylvania and of his later conquests with the Baltimore Orioles, Louisville, Brooklyn, Philadelphia and Detroit.

You will read in this series the inside stories of pennant races and some unpublished base ball history that has never before been disclosed. Once started you will wait for each subsequent instalment with increasing eagerness for this is a story of a fascinating game by the most fascinating character it has produced.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Rev. W. W. Edwards of Lansing, Mich., will supply the pulpit of the Presbyterian church, next Sunday, November 29th.

Morning service at 10:00 o'clock.

Sunday-school at 11:30 o'clock.

Christian Endeavor at 6:00 o'clock.

Evening Service at 7:00 o'clock.

BAPTIST NOTES

The pastor's sermon on Sunday morning was about Thanksgiving, taken from Col. 3:15, using most of the chapter to bring out the thought.

The Sunday-school discussed the subject of "Conscience" from every angle. Sunday, and many good thoughts were given.

Kenneth Wilske led the B. Y. P. U. last Sunday evening, and the meeting was well directed. The subject was "Thankfulness." Miss Sarah Daly, the president, will lead next Sunday evening. Meeting begins at 6:30, instead of 6:00 p. m.

The B. Y. P. U. spent a delightful evening at the home of Miss Sarah Daly, last Friday. The contest games and other amusements made the evening full of joy and gladness, and all enjoyed the social. Last, but not least, were the dainty refreshments with ice cream. Many of these young people plan to be at Pontiac tonight at the rally.

Rev. R. E. Klenke was received into the Plymouth Baptist church, last Sunday, and given the right hand of fellowship, in the evening. He also preached that same evening and sang a solo. His native home was Russia.

We are sorry to hear of the unfortunate fall of Dr. Campbell, and the breaking of his hip. The church extends sympathy. It also extends its sympathy to Dr. and Mrs. Lendrum and family in this hour of their great sorrow in the loss of their young son. Our prayers will be that God comfort and sustain them in this great trial.

The trustees are receiving pledges to pay for the new furnace recently installed in the parsonage. Tell Mr. Allenhauch or Mr. Grainger how much you want to pledge to cover the expense.

The next prayer meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Patterson, corner of Spring and Mill streets. Everyone come. Remember its on Wednesday evening at 6:30.

LIVONIA CENTER LUTHERAN CHURCH.

There will be regular services at the Livonia Center Lutheran church on Sunday, November 29th, in the German language. Sunday-school at the usual time in the English language. Everybody welcome.

Gatherers of Taxes

Kept Busy in Italy

Italy, if not the most heavily taxed, is probably the most numerous country in Europe. Every cow, horse and pig is taxed. Every puppy is taxed. Signs are taxed. Houses are taxed as houses and taxed again if used as shops. The air space occupied by houses is taxed. The family is taxed. Every cabbage and bottle of wine that enters the city walls is taxed. Every rented room is taxed. Everything imaginable, one would have said, was taxed. But it has remained for the village of Villafranca d'Asti, near Turin, to find something else to tax. The city fathers of that commune have just decreed that the dead also must just pay taxes. All corpses laid to rest in the local cemetery must pay a tax—7 lire for fat corpses, 2½ lire for small corpses. These rates appear to have been made especially low to encourage home industries. On imported corpses—those brought in from outside the village limits—the tax is 100 lire, but this is reduced to 50 lire for those who pay it before they die.

Thief Gets in Spotlight

George Webber, proprietor of an electric station in Augusta, Maine, was the perpetrator of a good joke on a wood thief recently that incidentally saved his disappearing woodpile from further depletions. He rigged up an electric device connected with his woodpile so that when an easily accessible stick was taken it would automatically set up an electric current that lighted a flood spotlight, set bells ringing and sounded a horn. The spotlight lighted up the entire woodpile and, while the thief got a scare he managed to make his getaway, but the woodpile had no further nocturnal callers.

Barnacles Eschew Colors

Recent experiments have disclosed that the fouling of sea-going ships by barnacles may be greatly lessened by painting the bottoms of the ships with either green, yellow, red or white. The barnacles have an affinity for blue and black and the more somber hues, but bottoms painted bright colors are nearly free of them even after a long time in salt water.

Mothers-in-Law

I do not regard that formidable creature, the mother-in-law, as any altogether vicious person. I have found in many instances that she is simply jealous. But in any event, remember this: Once an in-law enters the home of the new wife, there is grave danger of domestic upheaval.—Judge Joseph Sabath, in Hearst's International-Cosmopolitan, 1921.

On motion the contract was awarded to Mr. Ray.

Mr. Bert Giddings was present and informed the Commission that he wanted it understood that the buildings on the property recently purchased by the village for the opening of Gravel avenue, were to remain his property. He also asked that Mr. Strong give them the line on that property on the Main street frontage.

The matter of Mr. Franklin Forsgren's sewer on the Woodworth property on Main street, was to be laid aside.

The plastering and flooring on the new part of the village hall was on motion to be as follows: Library, wash-room and two store-rooms—hard maple floor and plastered.

Hall as is.
Shop—Floor as is and plastered where lath is only.

Track-room—Floor as is and plastered where lath is only.
Stairway to be inclosed.

The President and Clerk were authorized to borrow twenty-five hundred and no-100 ($2,500.00) dollars, pending collection of special assessment money.

Today's Reflections

There is a big shortage in the potato crop, but as many "small potatoes" in the world as ever.

Women in Africa are said to be clamoring for American clothes. Well, Africa has the climate for such as they're wearing up here.

"Ankle agony" is said to be the latest plague of womankind. But feminine ankles have plagued mankind for many centuries.

It seems that a free country is one in which every 100 people have 100 different ideas of what constitutes wickedness.

What has become of the old-fashioned Plymouth man who used to refuse to get his hair cut in winter for fear it would give him a bad cold?

Last year autos killed 20,000 in the United States. But there is no way in getting at the number they broke.

One way for a woman to prove she's crazy to get married is to become the blushing bride of a man who has already lost four wives.

It must disturb the last rest of some men to feel that they can't come back and kick on the inheritance tax their estate has to pay.

Wouldn't Plymouth have been a rich town if every fellow who said he was going to start a savings account "next month" had done so?

At that the average modern girl knows' as much about cooking as the modern boy does about the products of the soil.

Maybe they refer to some fellows as "human dynamo" because everything they've got on is charged.

Wonder is there's a car owner in Plymouth who can tell why tires seem to develop weak places just as soon as you have decided they'll last until spring.

The reckless driver might be cured by being sentenced to lead the life of a pedestrian for a month or two.

The average Plymouth wife has a lot of worries, but she at least doesn't have to worry about burglars getting in and stealing all the jewelry her husband has given her on her birthday anniversaries.

Most every Plymouth housewife notices sooner or later that the tighter apples are packed in a barrel the greater the tendency of the large ones to work their way to the top.

GARRICK THEATRE Detroit, Mich.

"The Gorilla," delightful laugh mystery play by Ralph Spence, began the second week of its limited engagement at the Garrick Theatre, Detroit, Sunday night, November 22nd. The capacity audiences this week have literally rocked the theatre with laughter, while the critics of the Detroit papers were unanimous in declaring it a thunderous success.

"The Gorilla," widely heralded through its overwhelming successes in New York, Chicago, Boston and London, where it played to long runs with crowded houses, is regarded by both the critics and theatre-goers as the greatest thriller the stage has seen in a half century. Being a hilarious parody on the mystery play it brings to the stage something that is new and original, and occupies a distinctive position among the theatrical offerings of the season. Mr. Spence has devised a play that provides spontaneous and wholesome laughter for those who seek to be genuinely amused, and there are those who say that the laughs are so numerous that one cannot keep count.

One question the fact that more amazing characters than Mr. Mulligan and Mr. Garrity, the detectives whose ridiculous blundering afford much amusement throughout the play, have ever been seen on the stage. Their absurd attempts in running down criminals is the epitome of comic art. The cast comprising players of distinctive ability whose seriousness in the portrayal of their individual roles is a feature of the play, lends much to the merriment.

Donald Gallaher and James W. Elliott are the producers of this remarkable stage offering, and have organized each of their separate companies with a view to get the most fun out of the sensational mystery play as the actors' understanding of his character would be likely to allow. The company which will be seen at the Garrick Theatre includes such well known players as Joseph Barrett, Marion Haslop, Booth Howard, Jack Daley, Frank W. Shea, John Clubley, Jack LaRue, W. N. Halpo, Frank Fanning, Orrin Burke, Burr Carruth and others.

Northville citizens subscribed more than $800 for the American Legion Endowment fund, oversubscribing the quota assigned to that village.

Through the efforts of the South Lyon Board of Commerce, that village now has two morning trains on the Pere Marquette, making flag stops.

Ground has been broken for Clarenceville's new Community House. The new building will have a frontage of 50 feet, and a depth of 100 feet.

Hugh A. Austin, one of Wayne's most widely known pioneers, died at the home of his son, James Austin, in that village, November 11th. He was 82 years of age.

Mr. and Mrs. James Phelps of Commerce township, celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary recently. The ceremony on November 7, 1965, was performed at the bride's home, which has continued to be their home through sixty years of life together.

Work on the mammoth cement bridge over the Pere Marquette railroad at Novi, which was started thirteen months ago, is nearing completion, and will probably be opened to traffic before the holidays. It is said to be the largest structure of its kind in the state.

The D. L. Davis farm of 173 acres near Davidsburg, has been given to Oakland county for a county park. The gift carries a condition to the effect that the county must build a public golf course on the farm within five years, or 60 acres of the tract will revert to heirs.

Six Holly High school boys will attend the international stock show at Chicago, with K. D. Bailey, the teacher of agriculture. The boys were selected by reason of scholarship and results in agricultural projects and Holly business men assist in financing the trip.—Milford Times.

Charles V. Lane, head of the department of public safety of Michigan, is about to do some motion picture filming. Between Brighton and New Hudson is a tract of woods in which it is planned to have a raging forest fire which will be helped along with gasoline. The fire filmed and the scene worked into the complete picture which will be made elsewhere. Precautions will be taken that the fire does not spread to adjoining property.—Brighton Argus.

Stone Age Implements Found at Eagle Pass

Primitive stone age implements older, it is claimed, by thousands of years than Tut-Ankh-Amen's tomb are being plowed out of the ground on the farm of Thomas Griffiths at the mouth of the Eagle Pass, on the west side of the Columbia river, says a Ravelstoke correspondent of the Christian Science Monitor in a recent issue.

The farm is situated on the oldest known rock strata of mother earth, according to statements made by Doctor Dawson, an authority on such matters.

Each year Griffiths finds relics of what are believed to be the stone age during his farming operations. First he discovered crude, stone implements, then he unearthed stone circles of such special shape, size and surface as to suggest selection. More recently he has unearthed a great goblet of galena. No galena has ever been found in the district. The discoveries have created great interest, and the question is being asked, "Were the makers of these stone implements the first Asiatic discoverers of America, and what relation do the present Indian tribes bear to them?"

Hold Celebration at Old English Shrine

A sermon by the bishop of Chelmsford and lessons by the local Baptist and Wesleyan ministers marked a united service in celebration of the 865th anniversary of the consecration of the Church of the Holy Cross at Waltham abbey, says the London Daily News in a recent issue.

Waltham Abbey church was built by Toig the Great to house a miraculous crucifix, "the Holy Rood of Waltham," which became the object of immense veneration. It was here King Harold knelt before the battle of Hastings, and tradition has it that as he prostrated himself the figure of Christ bent down from the cross to kiss him; "for that many times he had spared an enemy whom he might have killed."

Third of Gas Is Wasted

Tests conducted by the Department of the Interior, through the bureau of mines, on many types and makes of passenger cars and trucks, have shown that an average of 30 per cent of the power of gasoline used as motor fuel is wasted by being discharged in the exhaust in the form of combustible gases.

"While the presence of these gases may be due to many factors," says a report of the bureau, "the outstanding feature of several hundred road tests and gas analyses was that improper carburetor adjustment was responsible in most cases for the major part of the waste. The average carburetor was found to be adjusted too far on the rich side."

World's Oldest Bush

According to Dr. Edgar T. Wherry of the Department of Agriculture, a box huckleberry bush in Perry county, Pennsylvania, is the oldest bush in the world. This remarkable bush is a mile and a quarter long and covers the entire side of a hill. Doctor Wherry estimates that it grows 6 inches a year. "Taking that as a basis, the plant must be something like 12,000 years old."

Magnetism From the Eyes

After a series of experiments, Doctor Russ states that the human eye emits a magnetic ray that can move a sensitive electrical instrument at a considerable distance. The human body, states Doctor Russ, is not magnetic, but an electrical force is apparently generated in the brain, and escapes through the eyes during sight.

Lightning Rod Value

A lightning hazard is rapidly increasing from year to year with the extension of telegraph, telephone, lighting and power lines over the country, says Nature Magazine. When a stroke of lightning occurs anywhere near such lines it causes, by induction, a sudden surge, or rush of current, which is likely not only to injure wires and insulation, but also to be carried into buildings, where it may damage costly electrical machinery and possibly cause fires. Buildings are protected by lightning rods, the value of which is fully proved by statistics.

Left Estate to Cat

Mrs. Fannie Pitcher, who died at Delhi, N. Y., left a will providing for the care of her pet cat, Woodrow. She bequeathed $300 in trust for the cat and $100 to a local butcher who had many times contributed a bit of meat for Woodrow's dinner. The cat died a short time before the testator, and as he left no known heirs the $300 will be divided among relatives of the testator.

Fish Holds to Needs

The Sargasso fish, which sometimes reaches three inches in length, is found exclusively amongst the gulfweed, says Nature Magazine. As a result of its continued life amongst the branches of the seaweed, the breast fins have developed into arm-like limbs, between which the animal can grasp and hold onto fronds of the weed.

Thrashing Them Out

Bishop Burt of Buffalo said at a reception: "Parental discipline used, perhaps, to be too strict. Perhaps today it is too lax. The mean, the golden mean, is what we need."

Selenium Has Value as a Fire Deterrent

A fireproof substance which itself will burn is one of the latest finds of science. The substance, selenium, is not new, only the fact that it can be put to this use.

But it has been found that although it burns, it prevents or delays the spreading of flame. Materials impregnated with it, when set fire to, burn slowly a second or two and then go out, unless the area set afire is very extensive.

Selenium is a sort of semimetallie element, more nearly related chemically, however, to sulphur than to any other common substance. Like sulphur, it burns with a blue flame and the formation of an ill-smelling gas.

It is especially effective for the fireproofing of the electric wiring of switchboards, taking the place of other substances formerly used. Incidentally, it is a good insulator itself.

The reason why it acts as a fire deterrent, although itself able to burn, seems to lie in the fact that it volatilizes into a gas before it burns and that this gas seems to have a slowing-up effect on combustion.—Baltimore Sun.

Is This a Record?

An Englishwoman is in the extraordinary position of having had a brother who died 143 years ago. "This brother," she tells Tit-Bits, "was born in 1782, when my father was twenty-two years old, and died the same year. My father married a second time in 1834, and I was born in 1837. Thus, in 1925, I can say that my brother died when George III was king?"

Before you pile up repair bills, try right oil!

TWO simple mistakes cost car owners 75 per cent. of the money spent on repairs. They are—
Use of wrong oil—and Wrong use of oil.

Cheap oil is wrong oil. Even quality oil is wrong oil, unless you get the proper grade.

Adding one quart of new oil to the dirty oil you already have gives you just that much more dirty oil. Unless you refill your crank case every few hundred miles, you are using oil wrong.

With the right grade of Havoline in your crank case, you can feel the difference for yourself. Your power will go up—and power is the one real test of oil.

There is knowledge that will keep you out of the repair shop and save you dollars on gasoline and oil.

We give free crank-case service—or you can buy Havoline in one and five-gallon cans.

Priceless Relic of Balzac at Princeton

Prof. Walter S. Hastings of the French department of Princeton university has discovered a hitherto unknown play by Balzac entitled "Cromwell," and is now making arrangements for its publication by the Princeton university Press. The play was Balzac's first work, being written when he was nineteen years old, says the New York Times.

In the opinion of Professor Hastings, the play, in addition to its literary interest, is of great importance to the biographers of Balzac, as it is copied in his mother's handwriting. For a long time scholars have disputed whether or not his mother was opposed to his taking up a literary career, and the newly found manuscript seems to prove that she was not.

The manuscript was discovered by Professor Hastings among the great collection of Nineteenth-century French documents at the Institute of France in Chantilly. It is a five-act tragedy in verse, built on the strictest classical lines and written in 1819, ten years before Victor Hugo's epoch-making play of the same name.

Old King Shortleaf

A graphic example of how lumber could be conserved by permitting trees to fully mature before taking them to market is illustrated in the case of Old King Shortleaf, the greatest shortleaf pine tree of the South. This monarch of the Mississippi forests was killed by lightning, and had to be cut down in its three hundredth year. Its trunk furnished more than 20,000 board feet of superior lumber sufficient to build a comfortable six-room house. It was 120 feet in length and 7 feet and 3 inches in diameter at the stump.

It measured 91 feet from the stump to the first limb, and was 4 feet in diameter at this height. A log train of 16 flat cars was required to carry the pine king to the saw-mill. Most of the logs were loaded one to the car, owing to size and weight.—Thrift Magazine.

What Worried Harold

Father was reading the evening paper. "It says here," he remarked to his wife, "that there will be a short banana crop." His wife, who was busy with her darning, made no reply, but small Harold, playing on the floor, suddenly burst into tears. "What's the matter?" exclaimed both parents. "Matter?" returned Harold. "What's the matter? That m-m-means no S-s-sunday school picnic! That's what's the m-m-matter!"

And Silence Reigned

A patron walked into a downtown barber shop, took off his coat and collar, and sat down to wait. "Next," announced a barber who was at leisure. "I'll wait for this barber," said the patron, indicating his choice. "But I was the one who cut your hair last time," said the rejected one confidently. "Yes, I remember," replied the patron quietly. "That's why I'm waiting this time." Save for the click-click of the shears, silence reigned.—Detroit News.

CRACKED CHINA

"China has certainly gone mad." "Not mad, only cracked."

Luck and Pluck

Some men regard themselves lucky if they find money, and unlucky if they have to earn it. Yet no man has ever found as much money as he can earn if he is plucky enough to work for it. There's as much difference in men as there is between luck and pluck.—Grit.

Discoverer of Canaries

The Canary islands were discovered and conquered by Jean de Bethencourt, a French adventurer, in 1402. He then procured for himself the official title of "Lord of the Canaries," and Christianized the king and natives.

No Worms in Clouds

Earthworms, fish and frogs do not rain down from the clouds as many people insist they do. Water vapor could not hold such creatures in suspension.

Great Cathedral May Have Campanile's Fate

Much interest centers around the restoration of St. Paul's cathedral. In passing, it is interesting to note that the great English cathedral has seating accommodation for 5,000 people, while Notre Dame cathedral, Montreal, can comfortably seat 13,000 and can accommodate 15,000 people, says the Montreal Herald. Should the wonderful dome of St. Paul's collapse, it would not be without precedent.

At present, probably, the record is held by Venice, whose beautiful Campanile, which soared to a height of 325 feet above the pavement of St. Mark's, collapsed without warning in 1902. Other memorable happenings of the kind are the collapse of a part of the roof of Charing Cross station some twenty years ago; the collapse of St. Patrick's cathedral, Dublin, in 1882, and the extraordinary accident in connection with Chichester cathedral in 1861, when the famous spire suddenly "telescoped" into the interior of the building, filling it with debris.

Artist's Legs Figured in Matter of Salary

When Tom Maguire, the pioneer California theatrical manager, was managing his California minstrel at the Standard theater, San Francisco, in 1876, all letters coming from artists asking for engagements were handled by the secretary and treasurer, who would consult Maguire. One of these letters was from Sam Martin, postmarked at New York.

"A letter from Sam Martin, the original one-legged song-and-dance artist," reported the secretary to his chief.

"What is his salary?" asked Maguire. "One hundred and seventy-five dollars per week," replied the secretary.

"Huh," ejaculated Maguire. "I wonder what he'd ask if he had two legs?"

Swiss Taking to Autos

Incredible as it may seem, there was up to a few days ago a small district in Europe which forbade motor cars to traverse its roads. The motor car, however, took up the challenge and fought a long battle against this prejudice. At last it has won. The district is the charming Grisons canton of Switzerland, at the gates of Italy. It contains some of the most beautiful watering places and winter sport centers in the world. The natives have long discussed the motor car. Nine times a referendum was taken and nine times the motor car was condemned. The other day, however, the proposal to permit the free passage of the motor car was accepted by 10,500 votes against 8,700.

Wonderful Thermometer

A new thermometer, which measures accurately temperatures as low as 380 degrees below zero, Fahrenheit, was described to members of the American Philosophical society by Dr. W. A. Noyes, professor of chemistry at the University of Illinois, says the New York World. As mercury freezes at such a low temperature, a bulb connected with a very narrow tube containing air is used. As the air expands and contracts with variations in temperature, a small globe of mercury, kept at a temperature above its melting point, moves back and forth, thus serving as an index.

Elephant World

Simla, the elephant that hauled a gun in the Afghan war episode of the royal tournament artillery pageant, is probably the most-traveled elephant alive. In addition to her travels throughout Great Britain and Ireland, she has visited India, the Straits Settlements, China, Japan, Borneo and Sumatra, has been twice to South Africa, has spent two seasons in Australia, and has also been to Russia. Her age is between fifty and sixty years.

Confined to the House

The pathetic humor of this tale impressed one of the girls engaged in social service work at the City hospital the other day. A little boy in bed with a broken leg asked his mother, who had come to the hospital to visit him, whether father was coming out to see him.

"No, dear," said the mother sympathetically. "Father will not be out today—his suit's at the cleaner's." —Indianapolis News.

SCHOOL NOTES

The High school notes are by Marie Miller and the foot ball by Hawley Mills.

Both the English ten class and the civics class had a Thanksgiving program, last Wednesday.

The Junior class is well pleased with their class rings, which they received this week.

The penmanship classes are beginning to work for their diplomas.

The physical geography class went on a field trip last Monday, to study streams.

Practice for High school basketball started Monday, and class basketball will immediately follow.

The Girl Scouts are soliciting for the community fund, and are taking full charge of it. They also filled Thanksgiving baskets.

The Girl Reserves and the Girl Scouts held a contest to see which club would have the best attendance at the last foot ball game of the season, held at Wayne, last Friday. The Girl Reserves won because there were no Scouts at the game.

The physical training classes are playing basketball, together with their other work.

The Glee Clubs are practicing Christmas music.

Miss Wiggins, a High school teacher, was absent Monday on account of sickness. Mrs. Mole substituted in her place.

The seventh grade is going to give the program for the Christmas assembly.

The High school is busily preparing for and anxiously awaiting the carnival, and all students are asked to contribute to the fish-pond and bring goods for the bake sale.

The following boys are in attendance at the Michigan Older Boys' Conference at Lansing: Robert Hubert, Harry Miller, Needham Lockwood, Harley Sallow and Carlton Moore, who are representing the Hi-Y; Edwin Schrader, representing the Presbyterian church; Gaylord Sayles, representing the Baptist church; Ernest Henry, representing the Episcopal church; Russell Robinson, representing the Senior class; Wilbur Murphy, representing the Junior class; Archie Cramm, representing the Sophomore class; Claire Travis representing the Senior class; Basil Carney and Rueling Cutler, representing the Newburg Methodist church, while R. Klenke, Paul Lee and B. J. Holcomb are going along to take charge.

The purpose of this conference is to afford opportunity for the older boys to determine the way they shall go as they face the problems of life and for the fellowship of the boys of the state as they lead the way in right thinking, clean living and Christian service.

The people of Lansing are preparing to entertain free all delegates. This includes lodging Friday and Saturday nights, breakfast Saturday, and breakfast and dinner Sunday. This makes the second year that delegates have been sent from Plymouth, and the movement is headed by B. J. Holcomb.

Six Girl Reserves from Plymouth, attended the inter-club luncheon at the Industrial Woman's Service Center in Detroit, last Saturday. This was held for the double purpose of getting better acquainted and for awarding the scholarship shield for last semester to the winner, Eastern High school. The girls who went were: Evelyn Schrader, Ruth Allison, Barbara Bake, Katherine Wilcox, Grace Lee and Julia Wilcox.

FOOT BALL

The Plymouth Rocks journeyed to Wayne, last Friday, the team being handicapped by the loss of three regulars, Doudt, Lockwood and Howell. The game was called at three-thirty, in a field of mud.

Wayne getting choice, received the ball after the kick, on their fifteen yard line, and ran it back ten yards where they were stopped. They then plucked the line, gaining first down, Smith of Wayne, carrying the ball for most of their gains. The Rocks showed their fighting ability when they held Wayne for three downs on the Rocks' goal line. Wayne's touchdown came when one of Wayne's backfield dove over the line for a touchdown. At the end of the half, the score was 6 to 0.

Plymouth Rocks went back with a fighting spirit, and held Wayne well on a blocked punt which rolled to Wayne's thirty-five yard line, Barlow took the ball back to Wayne's one yard line. After three downs, the Rocks secured a touchdown.

Wayne chose to receive, and on the kick-off, Lawrence from Wayne, ran 30 rods for their second touchdown. Through the fourth quarter, the ball was played in midfield. Though the Rocks lost, 12 to 6, they are tied with Wayne for second place. Wayne's courage was shown by their refusal to accept another game to play off the tie.

The Rocks lost six players this year: Mills, captain; Moore, Henry, Sallow, Kurze and Rodman. The attendance at the games this year has increased much over that of the previous years. There are prospects for a good next year's team.

The line-up was as follows: Carney, l. e.; Rodman, l. t.; Sallow, l. g.; Purridge, c.; Henry, r. g.; Barlow, r. t.; Moore, r. e.; Mills, captain, l. h.; Curtis, r. h.; Hickey, q.; Kurze, f. Substitutions: Cramm for Hickey, Tillotson for Sallow, Holmes for Kurze, and Hulbert for Rodman.

League standings: Redford, first; Plymouth and Wayne, second; Dearborn, fourth; Farmington, fifth and Northville, sixth.

GRADE NOTES

The first grade room have been making joluted turkeys and baskets for Thanksgiving. They have finished their health chart of cleanliness and have started another on cleaning the teeth.

Agnes Mattinson has entered the first grade, coming from Nova Scotia.

Second B grade room have been making ducks and turkeys for Thanksgiving.

Arthur Stroll and Donald Himes have been neither absent nor tardy so far this year.

Anne Reynolds has left the school, Wednesday, November 25, Miss Holt's room had a spell down.

Wednesday, November 18, the 3-B had the following visitors: Mrs. Gray, Mrs. Passage, Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Bauman.

Jack Reynolds has moved away.

Andrew Clark had his tonsils and adenoids removed.

Fifth grade have been making booklets which contain pictures and stories.

Sixth A have been making maps of Africa. They have also made borders of pumpkins and turkeys.

The work for the music memory contest has been started again in which the sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth grades can participate. They have already attended a contest down at Orchestra Hall in Detroit. The Symphony Orchestra furnishes the music.

The sixth grade domestic art class are making guest towels and tea towels for Christmas gifts.

THANKSGIVING DAY

Julia Learned, English 11

Of all the days in all the year,
I like this day the best;
It makes that day of old draw near,
That is different from the rest.

When the Pilgrims left their native land,
And settled near the coast;
Courageous was their little band,
Their hearts were filled with hopes,
They built their homes of pine and and birch.

And toiled the livelong day;
Every Sunday went to church,
And prayed their shape away.

Then came the long cold winter,
And sickness and famine and sorrow;
Yet their hearts did not grow bitter,
As they watched for the glad to-morrow.

Again came the sunshine and plenty,
With its sunshine and flowers fair;
And all the Pilgrims were happy,
God had answered their earnest prayer.

They had a feast and thanked the one,
Who had helped them all the way;
When evening came and the day was done,
They named it "Thanksgiving Day."

All Europe Eager to Be Taught English

It is said that any educated Britisher can tramp Europe these days, care free, and earn an excellent living at the same time. All he needs is courage and a roving spirit. He does not require any stock-in-trade; but he should have his clothes from a good tailor, and possess a perfect knowledge of English, the Family Herald says. From the English channel to the Mediterranean, Germans, Frenchmen, Italians and others, all anxious to learn his language, will welcome him. There are towns like Prague—where almost every one learns English—where an hour's teaching will bring in a dollar. There is Vienna, where 50 cents is paid for an hour's work.

Money markets are unstable, and languages have their fashions. Yesterday it was French, but today it is English. At present Prague is the best European market. In a few months it may be the turn of Paris. Many of these teacher tramps become stationary, succeeding in getting attached to a foreign university. The bulk of them, however, keep on roving, acquiring a language here, and a language there, and experience all the time.

House Owners Warned Against White Ants

The United States bureau of entomology has issued a warning to prospective home buyers against houses not made proof against termites or white ants in regions where these pests abound, says Science Service. Wherever they can get at wood that has not been creosoted or otherwise made termite-proof they will ruin it in a short time.

All untreated wooden parts of houses should be carefully kept away from contact with the earth. Purchasers should be particularly watchful to see that this has been done in houses which they buy, the entomologists state, and municipal building regulations should include rules to cover this point.

Dig Up Roman Antiquities

When the Roman legions guarded traffic on the Danube they lived in a city on the frontier of Pannonia, Not far from the Budapest of today was the town of Aquincum. It was equipped with thermal baths, an open-air theater and fine public buildings. The ruins are still in a fair state of preservation. Excavations have brought to light a fine, large mosaic depicting the Farnese bull. It is supposed to be a copy of the famous Farnese bull. When water is poured over the mosaic the colors are vivid and the picture of the bull, the floral decorations and designs form a harmonious whole.

Discouraging Stowaways

Stowaways destined for American ports from German ports will hereafter get prison sentences up to two years. Because of the great difficulty liners had with American-bound stowaways, and the infliction of a fine of $1,000 on companies by the United States government for every stowaway caught in America, it has become necessary for the German companies to insist on the imposition of a heavier penalty on passengers who sail without appearing on the passenger list.

Only Buick has the sealed chassis and triple sealed engine

Better Buick operating costs are very low. This car is thrifty—both in purchase price and in ownership.

Buick design protects all operating parts from dust and wear—barricades them with iron or steel housings in the famous Buick "Sealed Chassis" and "Triple Sealed Engine".

The famous Buick Valve-in-Head engine develops more power from a given quantity of gasoline than other types of engines.

And now, the Buick oil filter makes it necessary to change crankcase oil only at rare intervals.

Even smaller, less powerful cars do not match the Better Buick in low cost of operation and maintenance. You add to your power to economize when you buy a Better Buick!

March of Progress Puts End to Dream

The horse may be declassé, but he is by no means extinct. But the livery stable—dead as the Dodo bird.

I confess to what Mr. Friend would call a livery stable complex. "Portius" writes, in the Argonaut, "Until the widespread use of the motor car shattered my hopes, I had long looked forward to an old age that might be passed in happy retirement as a sort of supernumerary in a livery stable.

What better haven could a lazy man seek—a cool place to sit on a hot day, a sunny place to sit on a cool day; plenty of sticks to whittle, and a sharp knife to whittle them with; a dog—a retriever—to chase and bring back odds and ends thrown in the street; an old hat and an old shirt; an old pipe to smoke; a few old friends to sit with; a horse to harness now and then; a wood stove inside when it rained.

A modest ambition? Yes. Nor worth while? Of course not. Thanks to the motor car it is beyond achievement and discussion of its merits would be wholly academic. But show me a better job.

Lights Guide Aviators

Reaching high above buildings near London, according to Popular Mechanics Magazine, is an air-traffic controller tower from which a wireless operator can communicate with airplane express "trains" flying between England and the Continent, and guide them to the airfield, which he can see from his lofty perch in spite of fogs and mists. At night and on dark days, signals are sometimes given with a pistol that shoots brilliant light bombs visible at considerable distances. Standing on one of the balconies of the tower, the controller fires the lights for the assurance or warning of the pilots.

A New Way to Heat Your Home

Here is a new and unique heating plant for your home—the Sunbeam Cabinet Heater. It's as attractive as a fine piece of furniture and doesn't take up any more room than a phonograph.

It heats while it ventilates. And it gives you this heating result with the greatest possible economy. It burns either hard or soft coal or wood and easily heats five to seven rooms.

The Sunbeam Cabinet Heater takes the place of two or three stoves. It is clean, wholesome and healthful. Come in today and let us tell you more about this wonderful new heater, or ask us to send you descriptive literature.

Playgrounds in America

America's first directed public playground, a "san garden" which was opened in Boston in 1885, was modeled after similar recreation spaces for children in Germany. The growth of public recreation in this country since that date has been rapid. More than 500 cities now maintain playgrounds and recreation centers.—Thrift Magazine.

Gold at Foot of Rainbow

According to the fable, which dates back many centuries, if a person reaches the spot where a rainbow touches the ground and digs there he will be sure to find a pot of gold. For this reason visionaries and dreamers who seek the impossible are sometimes called "rainbow chasers."

England's Siamese Twins

The Biddenden Maids, so called because they were born at Biddenden, Kent, were the wonder of all England at the beginning of the Twelfth century. They were twin sisters, joined together like the Siamese Twins.

COMMISSIONER'S NOTICE

In the matter of the estate of Lee Roy McDonald, deceased.
The undersigned, having been appointed by the Probate Court for the County of Wayne, State of Michigan, Commissioner to receive, examine and adjust all claims and demands of all persons against said deceased, do hereby give notice that I will meet at 247 W. Liberty St., Plymouth, Mich., office of Russell A. Wingard, in said County, on Monday, the 4th day of January, A. D. 1926, and on Thursday, the 4th day of March, A. D. 1926, at 10:00 o'clock a. m. of each of said days, for the purpose of examining and allowing said claims, and that four months from the 4th day of November, A. D. 1925, were allowed by said Court for creditors to present their claims to us for examination and allowance.
Dated November 4th, 1925.
ALBERT GATDE,
Commissioner.

Since the crossing of the Pere Marquette on Main street was fixed, last week, the kicks on its condition have ceased, but true to human nature, neither have we heard any favorable comment. We are indebted to the Wayne County Road Commission for the good work.

The plasterers are done at the hall, and the new warehouse is in full use. The yard in front of the latter will be filled with cinders to provide a good working surface.

The work on the Ann Arbor sewer is progressing at a more rapid rate. The cut is no longer so deep.

The disposal plant contractor has the excavation for the Imhoff tank done, and has poured quite a lot of the concrete of the filter bed walls and floor. The site of this work is pretty muddy, but it would well pay the effort to inspect it. Drive in through the cemetery.

There have been put in or are in sight, eighty-eight water taps so far for 1925. The applications still keep coming in.

We wish auto drivers would remember our stop streets better. In general they do very well, but not as earlier in the season. It seems that the subject requires constant harping on. We would rather spend our time in other ways than in insistence on such subjects.

Some time ago the manager commented in his notes to a list of the presidents of this village since its incorporation in 1867. This list has been compiled from the village record books and is given below.

Now it is the idea to collect photographs of about cabinet size of these men, so that this record of the leaders of Plymouth may be preserved.

The Village Manager spent three very pleasant and profitable days last week at the twelfth annual convention of the International City Managers' Association held at the Pantlind Hotel at Grand Rapids. About a hundred and fifty managers, city commissioners and others interested in civic affairs were present together with the wives of many of the men. The city of Grand Rapids was a wonderful host and the association officers provided a fine program.

Subjects such as traffic regulations, zoning, accounting systems, training for the managerial profession, and various managerial problems were discussed by experts, and round tables gave the opportunity for general discussion on the points brought out.

Dr. Chas. E. Marriam, Director of the Department of Political Science, University of Chicago, Prof. Samuel C. May of the University of California, Harry W. Marsh, Secretary National Civil Service Reform League, and Miss Emily Kneubuhl, Director City Manager League of Rochester, New York, were speakers from outside the association. At one luncheon, Gov. Greenock drew an analogy between the commission-manager form of municipal government, and the present form of state government in Michigan. Many of the convention who were Rotarians, were fortunate enough also to hear the governor at a meeting of the combined luncheon clubs of Grand Rapids, at which he explained his position with regard to the road program, state finances and the parole.

In spite of all the good programs, one of the most interesting and beneficial experiences at such a convention is the personal contact and conversation with others in the same position or profession as oneself. Men were there from California, New Mexico, Florida, Connecticut, Westmount, Quebec, as well as from many of the more central states. Over a dozen Michigan men were in attendance.

Since 1908 the commission-manager plan of city government has grown until today there are over three hundre and fifty municipalities in thirty-five of the states, Canada and New Zealand governed in this way.

The convention next year will be in Colorado Springs in September. It will be under the guidance of the newly elected president, Harrison G. Otis, city manager of Clarksburg, West Virginia.

Calls "Spring Fever" Disease of Nerves

A new theory concerning "spring fever," spring tiredness or, in Finnish, "vartattihet," has been developed by the Finnish scientist, E. Ehrstrom. After an investigation of 3,039 cases, Ehrstrom has come to the conclusion that spring tiredness must be classified as a real and serious nervous disease.

With the data of thousands of cases at hand, Ehrstrom classified the patients according to the time of the year the difficulties developed. He found that they occurred mainly in the spring of the year when the birds were singing and the buds were beginning to appear. And the worst period was June, the happy month of brides. In the autumn the number dwindled, and in winter there were hardly any at all.

In order to carry his investigations a step further Ehrstrom tried for a correlation of his results with the chronological table showing within what months the 5,471 suicides occurred in Finland in the period between 1851-1907. Again he found that they occurred in the spring, particularly in June. Doctor Ehrstrom would revise an old folk saying so that now, in the spring, a young man's fancy lightly turns not only to love, but also to madness, and even to suicide.

Houses Only for Poor

The poor people have come into their own in West Bromwich, a suburb of Birmingham, England, where the town council has decided that only people with incomes of less than $1,500 may rent any of the houses owned by the municipality. Complaints had been made that most of the houses were rented to people who own motorcars, and, therefore, it was reasoned, could afford to build their own homes. The Bromwich council has built 1,200 houses of five to eight rooms, which rent for about $225 a year.

UP AGAINST IT

Bug Boxer—Hey, I didn't count to go up against no six armed stamp!

Electricity Did the Work

An ingenious method of getting work out of a mule was recently explained by Louis A. Beebe, a farmer of Council Bluffs, Iowa, who said: "This mule was lazy. I teamed him with three horses and every time I tried to whip him I aroused the horses and only amused the mule. So I rigged up a battery and connected the wires with the mule's harness. When I close the circuit the mule gets a lot of energy, while the horses know nothing about it."

Nations Docile in Youth

Most nations, like most men, are docile only in youth; they become incorrigible as they grow old. When customs are once established and prejudices rooted, it is a dangerous and useless enterprise to try to reform them, the people will not permit their misfortunes to be touched upon, even for their instruction—like the stupid and cowardly sick who shudder at sight of a physician.—Jean Jacques Rousseau.

Ghostly, as It Were

"Now, boys, can any of you say what is meant by posthumous works?" asked the teacher.
"Boy at the head of the class: "Yes, sir, I can."
"Well, now, let me hear what it means."
"Posthumous works are books which a man writes after he is dead."

Bird Hunts Snakes

The fanciful resemblance of the long feathers of his crest to a quill pen thrust behind his ear suggested the name "secretary" bird. The bird's habits are far from literary, as its business in life is hunting snakes and similar animals. It is an African and is one of the largest birds of prey.—Nature Magazine.

Conscience Won

The conscience of a Brighton (England) woman troubled her greatly because several years before she stole a cake at a cookery class. She has sent the school board three penny stamps.

Outselling the Country Over

In this community, and in virtually every city and town of size in America, motor car buyers are showing overwhelming favor for the new Oakland Six. The tremendous demand which greeted the new Oakland the very day it was introduced has not only continued unabated but has actually increased in succeeding months.

for example

factory sales for October were 8026 cars, an increase of 146% over October, 1924—an increase of 63% over September of this year—and an increase of 14 1/2% over the best month Oakland ever had.
Oakland is constantly expanding its factory facilities to meet the rapidly growing demand for the Oakland Six.
November daily production will be still greater than in October.

Oakland outsells because in public opinion it outclasses its field. More than 100 improvements, including new bodies by Fisher, Air Cleaner, Oil Filter, Four Wheel Brake refinements and The Harmonic Balancer, establish this car as the outstanding value of the year.

New prices $70 to $350 lower, plus savings of as much as $40 to $60 on the GMAC Time Payment Plan

Picked Up About Town

Dad Plymouth says most people get in debt because they think "wants" is synonymous with "needs."

We've often wondered what college students find to do after the football season closes.

"A man might not object to having his hat cover up his ears," says Dad Plymouth, "but with all there is to see you couldn't get him to shut off one eye with it the way some of the girls do with theirs."

Congress opens up in December. Maybe that's the reason they arranged to have Thanksgiving day come in November.

It remains for Dad Plymouth to assert that the reason some people can't keep down their grocery bills is because they haven't enough relations to sponge off of.

The question of "When is a man drunk?" has given way to the more puzzling question of "when is a girl clothed?"

Dad Plymouth says the average man always stands ready to help the other fellow—if he can help himself at the same time.

"That north pole," says Dad Plymouth "must be a barber's pole. Every explorer who goes near it has a close shave."

Mushrooms come up over night, and to the fellow looking for a parking place it seems that fire plugs do too.

BRIGGS SCHOOL NOTES

By Carl Denton

Glady and Viola Smith left Briggs school, Friday, November 20th, and our school presented Viola with a game and Glady with a small cedar cabinet, as tokens of remembrance.

Joe Armetto has returned to school, after being absent for a few days last week on account of being bitten by a dog.

Mr. Fisher, assistant county commissioner, visited school a few minutes after lunch, Tuesday.

We have turkey and pilgrim posters on our blackboards.

NEWBURG

Rev. Paul Havens preached a splendid Thanksgiving sermon Sunday. Misses Anna and Ada Youngs sang a beautiful duet, entitled, "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say," by H. Boner. Mrs. Clyde Smith and Miss Melvin Guthrie furnished two lovely jars of chrysanthemums. The church presents a very nice appearance with its new coat of white paint on the outside, and the interior redecorated, with oak floors and taupe velvet carpet on the rostrum and middle aisle. All wish to thank Fred Schrader for his kindly donation of $50.00 toward the carpet. The cost of repairing, decorating, carpet, etc., is a little over $700. Services at the usual hour next Sunday Epworth League in the evening. The following committee was appointed to have charge of the Christmas exercises: Mesdames Greer, Melbeck, Smith and Guthrie.

Mrs. Fred Melbeck entertained her Sunday-school class of little folks, Saturday afternoon, at her home.

The Newburg Patriotic Society had a most enjoyable time at the home of Mrs. W. R. Greer last week Thursday. After partaking of the usual nice dinner, the president, Miss Hattie Holsinger called the meeting to order. Song, "America," with Mrs. Havens at the piano. After the devotional and business meeting, a short program in charge of Mrs. Jesse Thomas was given. There were readings by Mrs. M. Eva Smith and Mrs. C. E. Ryder, and a Thanksgiving story, memorized over thirty years ago, was recited by William Smith, without a mistake. The next meeting in February, will be held at the parsonage.

George Clemens of Buffalo, and brother, Clarence, of Detroit, attended the foot ball game at Ann Arbor, Saturday afternoon, and spent over Sunday at the parental home.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Stevens and family spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Lewis of Chelsea.

Misses Anna and Ada Youngs were guests of their aunt, Kate Youngs, at Kingston, Thanksgiving.

The L. A. S. of Clarenceville, will give a play at the L. A. S. hall, next Tuesday evening. Admission 35c and 25c. The Newburg L. A. S. will receive half of the receipts. Everyone come and enjoy the entertainment which is highly spoken of.

Rev. Paul Havens, Mrs. Donald Ryder and Leona Joy, and Mr. and Mrs. Gowdy of Beech, attended the Epworth League district meeting at Belleville, Monday evening.

There will be a young peoples' rally at Trenton, December 5th.

The Queen Esther Circle will meet with Miss Jesse Geney, Friday, December 4th. All girls and boys cordially invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hott and mother of Lansing, spent Sunday, with Mr. and Mrs. C. Mackinder.

CANTON CENTER

The Canton Center Pedro Club met with Mr. and Mrs. Green, Thursday evening. Honors were won by Mrs. Ed. Bulson, Mrs. Norman Hart and Ruth Salts; Andrew Salts, Harmon Schrader and Nelson Mason. A pot-luck supper was served by the ladies of the club, and an enjoyable evening was spent by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chute moved to Detroit, Monday. A farewell party was held at the Chute home, Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sommer were Detroit visitors, Monday.

Mrs. Colburn Dennis was a caller at Canton Center school, Friday.

The next Canton Pedro club will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Foster of Cherry Hill, Friday evening, December 4th.

NEWBURG SCHOOL NOTES

Written by Ruth Forester

John Adams has recovered from diphtheria, and has returned to school. All the children are glad to see him back.

The girls have formed a sewing club, the first thing which they will make is a rag doll. The officers of the sewing club are: Ruth Forester, president; Hazel Lomas, vice president; Helen Carr, secretary; Irene Zielasko, treasurer.

The boys have taken up handicraft. The meetings of both the girls and boys are held every Monday after school. The officers of the boys are: Charles Thompson, president; Brono Taras, vice-president; Donald Dunn, secretary; Frank Clemens, treasurer.

Frank Clemens is the leader in the Curtis Test drills.

Eighth graders have made booklets of the Louisiana Purchase.

Using the eighth grade pupils, Miss Reddeman taught a demonstration lesson in Agriculture, at the Kenyon school, Saturday, November 21.

SUBURBS HELD

CITY'S FUTURE

B. E. TAYLOR ADVISES LOOKING AHEAD TO INEVITABLE DEVELOPMENT.

People who are planning to make money in Detroit real estate should stop looking at the city hall, turn about face and look toward the outlying sections of the city, said B. E. Taylor.

"There is a tendency on the part of many people to think about what has happened in Detroit real estate, rather than to think about what is happening and what is going to happen," he continued. "While there undoubtedly will be tremendous changes in the solidly built-up sections of the city, the average real estate purchaser of today must fix his eyes on the territories that the future will develop."

"For instance, in the Grand River Five Mile road district I am urging my salesmen, in developing their views of the future, to fix their eyes on Northville and Plymouth. It is with these places in mind that purchases of Detroit property today should be made."

"There are undoubtedly numerous cases in which people have been utterly unable to keep up with the growth of Detroit. I knew of a young man, who, by the way, is not young now, who had an opportunity to purchase a lot now worth $4,000 for $500 some nine years ago. He didn't buy the lot. The next year a salesman took him to some property about a mile farther out and urged him to buy. He found that the price was $500. He refused this purchase in indignation, saying that he could have bought a lot a mile nearer the city hall last year for $500. The next year, someone tried to sell him a piece of property another mile farther out, and he refused it, saying that a year ago he could buy a piece of property for the same price a mile nearer Detroit."

"As far as I know he is still refusing to buy real estate at present prices because he still remembers the chance he had nine years ago to buy that lot which is now worth $4,000 for $500.—Detroit Free Press, Nov. 22, 1925.

Nicholas Falter has bought the vacant lot from E. J. Mulry on Sheridan avenue.

SPLENDID BUS SERVICE

Attention is once more called to the fact of the improved motor bus service recently inaugurated between Plymouth and Detroit. Much credit must be extended to those pioneers of the last two or three years, who strove to give the people of Plymouth adequate service on their lines.

The present company is known to be a well financed corporation and able to fulfill every requirement of the service. In addition to its regular Detroit city service and the service to Plymouth, the company operates at least three other suburban lines. The entire trip from down town Plymouth direct to the campus in Detroit is made in one hour and twenty minutes. All of the trip is made over concrete highway, a part of which is the newly opened Tireman avenue pavement from Division road to the Boulevard. Eighteen runs are made each day, beginning at 6:30 a. m., and continuing until midnight. A nineteenth run, leaving Plymouth at 1:10 a. m., continues as far as the Motorbus Garage, at which point connection may be made with the regular city street car service. It is understood that all this service will be continued without interruption throughout the winter. And this means more boost for Plymouth. It is suggested that all actual residents of Plymouth keep these facts in mind when in conversation with potential residents of Plymouth.

1925 TO FAR ECLIPSE ALL FORMER FIGURES

TOTAL OF 180,000 PREDICTED. GAIN OF 30,000 OVER 1924 INDICATED.

That the year 1925 has soared far above all former years in volume of records filed by Wayne county property owners, is verified by the figures for the year, taken from reports in the office of Otto Stoll, Wayne county register of deeds.

The totals reveal an unprecedented amount of business in real estate and reflect the healthy condition of real estate, the basis of the city's financial prosperity.

With 155,020 deeds and mortgages already filed up till the middle of November, and a conservative estimate of 10,000 more instruments to be added in the remaining 40 days of the year, total will approximate 100,000 deeds and 80,000 mortgages, or 180,000 instruments for the 12 months period. The fees returned through Mr. Stoll's office, which so far total $168,513.92, will, collaterally approximate $180,000 for the year.

These figures reveal a net gain of 29,746 instruments over 1924, which was a record year. In 1924, there were 79,745 deeds and 66,529 mortgages, a total of 246,274 instruments recorded, with fees returned to the amount of $155,038.09. For the first ten months of 1925, including part of November, there have been 84,370 deeds (an increase of 4,631), 70,944 mortgages (a gain of 4,115), and $168,513.91 (a gain of $13,475.82), or a total gain so far of 8,746 papers filed. Add to this an estimated 21,000 papers still to be filed before January 1, 1926, and the total net gain of 1925 over 1924 approximates 30,000.

Seven "Peak" Months.

Seven high months feature the recapitulation of 1925 reports. In 1924 there was one peak month, October, with 8,495 deeds and 6,462 mortgages filed, the biggest single month on record till that time. This year April, June and July all topped October of last year, and March, April, May, June, July, September and October were all high months, with over 8,000 deeds filed in each.

This year marked also the introduction of duplex photostats, by means of which records are photographed on both sides of an especially-prepared paper. Thus, as Mr. Stoll points out, has enabled the register's office to keep pace with the immense increase and at the same time file better and absolutely accurate copies of all original documents filed.

Will Care for Increase.

The recorder's staff has been cut down by the elimination of about 35 typists and verifiers, formerly employed in the work of copying. The new photostats will, declared Mr. Stoll, amply provide for any estimated increase in the next five or six years, as their capacity is 1,500 pages or 750 two-page instruments each day. The present volume of instruments filed is between 375 and 450 daily.—Detroit Free Press, November 22, 1925.

LAURELS FOR THE BOARD

The recent dinner and meeting of the Atlantic City Real Estate Board where the plan for a "Know Your City Day" was broached and perfected, has been credited with accomplishing more for the real development of Atlantic City than any event which has taken place since the incorporation of the city in 1854, according to the Atlantic City Press.

November 6th was the day set aside for the advertising of the city to its inhabitants and neighbors. The board had pamphlets printed for distribution.

THE WOMAN'S CLUB HOLDS CANDLE-LIGHT MUSICAL

We, who attended the Candle-light musicale last Friday, were sorry that so many members of the club missed this rare treat. It was in the very appropriate drawing room of Mrs. William Wood that Miss Edith Rhett, the educational leader for the Detroit Symphony, explained to us the work she is doing with the Detroit children to make them appreciate music more. Her charming personality quite captured us, and we followed her interesting talk, illustrated by several selections on the piano, with more than ordinary enthusiasm. As a proof that Miss Rhett is succeeding with this work, she tells us that the children are never provided with programs at Symphony concerts, and the majority of them have no trouble in recognizing the various numbers and their composers. But—I will leave the rest for some interested club member to tell you.

It is true that "Music washes away from the soul the dust of everyday life," and in those pleasant surroundings, with music still ringing in our ears, and a tea cup balanced in one hand, we lingered, and once again declared Mrs. Wood "the ideal hostess." And now—let's concentrate on December Fourth!

OBITUARY

James T. Walker, son of George and Eliza Walker, was born at Inkster, September 18, 1872, and died November 14, 1925. Mr. Walker was left an orphan at an early age, and had made his home with Mrs. William Shields practically all his life. He leaves two brothers, George and William of Wayne, and a sister, Ora, of San Francisco; a nephew, Albert Walker, and niece, Miss Venus Walker of Wayne. Mr. Walker had been in failing health only a short time, and his passing was a surprise to his many friends.

Funeral services were held at Schrader Bros. Funeral Home, at Plymouth, Rev. Paul Havens officiating, with burial at Inkster in the family plot.

Peaceful be thy silent slumber,
Peaceful in thy grave so low;
Thou no more will join our number,
Thou no more our sorrows know.
Yet again we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled;
And in heaven with joy to greet thee,
Where no farewell tear is shed.

Tree Gives Out Rain

In the Canary islands there is a tree of the laurel species which sheds copious showers of pure water every evening. The rain comes from the foliage and when analyzed is chemically pure water. While it is unique, the fact is not exactly curious to science, as both hydrogen and oxygen are given off by plant life, but the curious fact is that this tree should combine the two properly to give water.
