FATHER AND SON BANQUET A SPLENDID SUCCESS

Over Three Hundred Attended the First Annual Event Given by the Hi-Y Club at the High School Auditorium Tuesday Evening.

An Interesting and Pleasing Program Was Rendered and the Ladies of the Episcopal Church Served a Splendid Dinner.

The first annual Father and Son banquet of the Hi-Y Club of the Plymouth High school was held at the High school auditorium, Tuesday evening, February 9th. Over three hundred fathers and sons, and men who had no sons of their own, but who had borrowed a boy for the occasion were present.

Preceding the dinner the invocation was pronounced by Dr. F. A. Lendrum. The menu consisting of creamed chicken, biscuits and gravy, mashed potatoes, bread and butter, cream peas and carrots, jelly, apple pie and cheese and coffee, was served by the ladies of St. John's Episcopal church of this village. The cuts were delicious and the service was splendid.

Several numbers by the High school orchestra were well rendered. Miss Ruth Allison gave a piano solo in a most artistic manner, and responded to an encore. A cornet solo by Charles Duryee followed, and was so well given that he had to respond to an encore. Several group songs were sung, with Calvin Whipple as leader.

Test Hickey then introduced Dr. F. B. Hoyer as toastmaster of the evening. Dr. Hoyer made a splendid toastmaster, introducing each number on the program with appropriate remarks.

A male quartette composed of C. Whipple, A. Whipple, H. Jolliffe and E. V. Jolliffe, sang several pleasing numbers.

Oliver Goldsmith gave a splendid reading that was greatly appreciated.

Rev. H. E. Sayles gave a fine talk on a "Father's View of His Son."

A vocal solo was next rendered by Joseph Tracy, in his usual pleasing manner, and he also responded to an encore.

Wilbur Murphy was the next speaker, taking as his subject, "A Son's View of His Dad." It was well presented, and gave the dads something to think about.

The address of the evening was given by Mr. McKnight, associate director of the Detroit Institute of Technology. His remarks were most effective, and he brought a message that made a deep impression upon his hearers.

The banquet and program was a great success, and one of the best of its kind ever held in Plymouth, and it is hoped that every year in the future will see similar events held here. They are worth while.

WILL DISCUSS SCIENCE AND RELIGION.

Dr. F. A. Lendrum will discuss Science and Religion in his sermon next Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m. This topic has received a great deal of public attention of late, and ought to be of interest to all Plymouth residents. Dr. Lendrum has made a special study of this question, and has presented the subject in such an acceptable manner in other places that the men of the Methodist church have requested him to discuss it in his sermon next Sunday evening.

INFORMAL REPORT OF CHRISTMAS SEAL SALE.

The Christmas Seal Sale in aid of the tuberculosis sufferers of this vicinity was a financial success. We take this opportunity of thanking the following schools for their more than generous support: Plymouth High, Allen, Kinyon, Cooper's Corners, Cherry Hill, Hough, Barlett, Newburg, Elm, Briggs, Waterford, Livonia Center.

The sum secured was five hundred eighty dollars and twenty-two cents ($580.22).

We are further indebted to our local factories, our storekeepers, our church societies and Woman's Club and others for their generous contributions to this worthy cause.

Mrs. C. H. Bennett,
General Chairman.

THE PRIMARY ELECTION

Only one hundred and sixty voters in the village went to the polls Monday to cast their ballots for candidates for the nomination of village commissioners, two of which are to be elected at the regular village election on March 8th. Of this number, one ballot was spoiled. The following is the vote given each candidate, and the first four are the successful candidates: George H. Robinson 94
John W. Henderson 88
Arthur E. Blunk 87
Henry Houdorp 84
Karl W. Hillmer 82
Alton J. Richwine 56
Theodore Chilson 47

HAS DEED SIGNED BY PRESIDENT JOHN Q. ADAMS

Charles Augustus Root brought an interesting document to the Mail office Tuesday afternoon, in the shape of a land grant from the government to his grandfather, the late Augustus Root, dated Feb. 22, 1826, only lacking a few days of being 100 years old. The deed which is upon parchment, is in a splendid state of preservation. It was signed by John Quincy Adams, then president of the United States. The Augustus Root homestead, which is located on the Ann Arbor road, has never been out of possession of the family, and it is now owned by his grandson, Charles A. Root.

Mr. Root also showed us two very old newspapers, one of which was dated in the year 1770. The other paper, the Ulster County Gazette, was published after the death of George Washington, and tells of his funeral; also of the meeting of Congress to honor him with expressions of condolence and respect.

TO GIVE FATHER AND SON BANQUET.

The ladies of the Livonia Community church are to give a Father and Son banquet at the church, Wednesday, February 17th, at six o'clock. Let every father be proud to come and bring every son he has. This is a splendid way to show to the community that you are proud of these sons.

A very fine supper is to be served, after which a splendid program is to be given. The Burch family orchestra will also furnish music. All in all, this is to be one of the finest banquets ever held in this community. Ladies are also invited. Price, fifty cents.

GRANGE HALL WAS THE SCENE OF A VERY PRETTY BIRTHDAY PARTY.

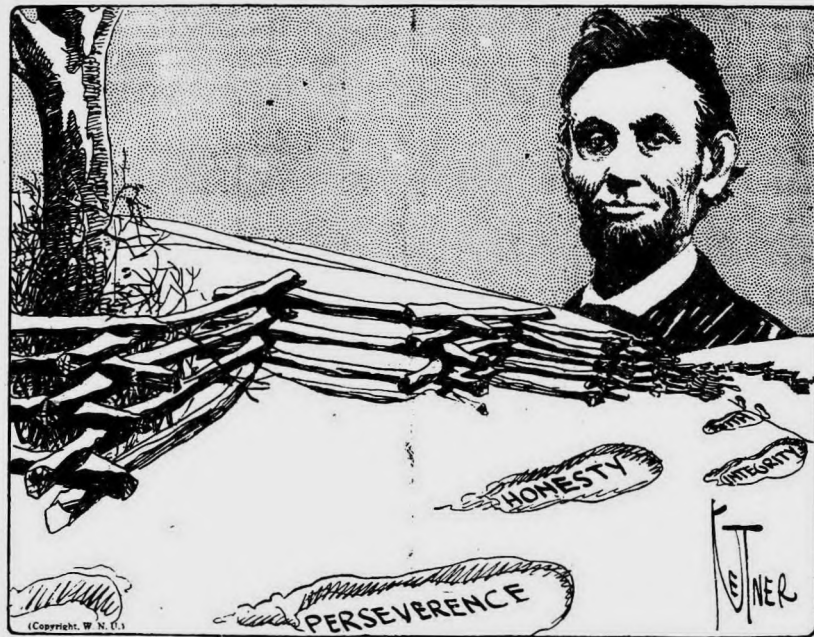

One hundred thirty relatives and friends gathered at the Grange Hall as a complete surprise on Otto Wagenschutz last Monday night, to help him celebrate his 53rd birthday.

The evening was spent in dancing. Dumpka's orchestra of Farmington, furnishing the music. At 12:00 o'clock everybody was called to the dining hall, where a lovely lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. Otto Wagenschutz. Lunch over, Mr. Wagenschutz was presented with a great many useful gifts, which certainly showed his friends were many.

Guests were present from Detroit, Ann Arbor, Redford, Northville, Elm, Livonia, Salem, and a large number from his home town. At a late hour, everyone left wishing Mr. Wagenschutz many more such happy birthdays.

The meeting of the Ready Service class of the Presbyterian church, which is mentioned elsewhere in this paper, for Tuesday, February 16th, has been postponed until Wednesday, February 24th, at the same place.

WOMAN'S CLUB

The Woman's Club met in the music room of the High school, last Friday, February 5th. After the business meeting, in charge of Mrs. Robert Chappel, a fine program with Mrs. Henry Baker presiding, was given.

The first number was a piano solo, Southern Melodies by Miss Ruth Allison. This was followed by two vocal solos, My Old Kentucky Home and Mighty Lak' a Rose by Wayne VanDyne, with Miss Czarina Penney at the piano.

Mrs. Baker then announced the arrival of "two colored boys from the south," who did two dance numbers to Miss Ruth Allison's accompaniment at the piano. The "boys" were afterward identified as the Misses Virginia Giles and Doris Whipple en costume.

Mrs. Rose Hillmer Holstein read a paper on the Colored Race Problem, after which the following program was given by pupils of Mrs. Ruth Huston Whipple's class in Public Speaking:

"Tommy"—Rudyard Kipling, by Franklin Atkinson.
"Mandalay"—Rudyard Kipling, by Barbara Horton.
"The New South"—Henry W. Grady, by Dorothy Hillman.
"Toussaint L'Ouverture"—Wendell Phillips, by Ida Mae Bennett.
"The Moral Conflict"—Henry Ward Beecher, by Mac Donnelly.

The next meeting will be February 19th, at which time this club will be guests of the Arche Club of Wayne, at the home of Mrs. James R. Hoese, corner of Second and Main streets, Wayne. All members are urged to attend this meeting. The Wayne Club will furnish the program.

INSTALLATION OF NEW PRESBYTERIAN PASTOR.

On Thursday, February 18th, Rev. Walter Niehol will be installed as pastor of the Plymouth Presbyterian church. Rev. I. E. Bradford, pastor of Redeemer Presbyterian church, Detroit, moderator of the Presbytery of Detroit, will preside and install the new minister. Rev. F. P. Knowles of Northville, will preach; Rev. S. C. Hathaway of Ypsilanti, will deliver the charge to the people, and Rev. W. E. Hall of Wyandotte, will deliver the charge to the minister.

The public is cordially invited to attend this service.

PLYMOUTH AND NORTHVILLE BASKETBALL MEET TONIGHT.

The biggest basket ball game of the season on the local High school floor, will take place this Friday evening, February 12th, when the boys' and girls' basket ball teams of Northville and Plymouth High schools will contest for honors. As there is always a friendly rivalry between the two schools, the games tonight are sure to be fast and furious, as both schools are determined to win. Both the boys and girls' teams of the local school are playing a strong game, and their work of the past week has shown a marked improvement. Northville will bring a large delegation of rooters, and it is to be hoped that our citizens will turn out in large numbers and thus encourage the home teams. The first game will be called at 7:30 o'clock. Admission, 25c.

EX-SERVICE MEN'S BANQUET GREAT SUCCESS

The Ex-Service men of Plymouth and vicinity gathered at the I. O. O. F. temple dining hall Monday evening, and enjoyed a splendid oyster supper, which was served most efficiently by the ladies of the Rebekahs. One hundred men were present to enjoy the supper and program.

Albert Groth, acting as toastmaster, certainly did fill the bill.

Oliver Goldsmith gave a reading that touched the hearts of every man present.

P. B. Whitbeck gave a talk that will be long remembered.

Sidney Strong, representing the Village Commission, seemed to be very pleased the way the club was progressing.

George A. Smith left a thought with every man present, that will always be remembered.

William A. Blunk presented the club with a beautiful silk flag and standard, which the club is very proud of owning.

Tickets were given out for a dance that the club is to give at I. O. O. F. temple, Friday evening, March 5th. The club hopes everyone will attend this dance, as it will be of great help to them.

Everyone left at the close of the program feeling they had spent a very pleasant evening.

MRS. JOSEPH KAUSS PASSES AWAY

Mrs. Joseph Kauss passed away at her farm home about two and one-half miles southeast of Plymouth, last Sunday evening, after a three months' illness. Mrs. Kauss has lived on the farm where she died, for the past thirty-five years, and she and her husband celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary a year ago last summer.

The deceased was born in Germany, December 4, 1855. Besides her husband, she leaves six children, Joseph, Jr., Frank, Paul and Raymond at home; Marie of Detroit, and Sister M. Lucinda, of Quincy, Ill.

The funeral services were held Wednesday morning at nine o'clock, from Our Lady of Good Counsel church, Fr. F. C. LeFevre, assisted by Fr. A. Graeber of Sturgis, and Fr. Joseph Schuler of Northville, officiated. The interment took place in Mt. Elmott cemetery, Detroit.

SKATING TOURNAMENT NEXT SATURDAY AT WALLED LAKE.

The skating tournament planned for January 30th by the Exchange Club of Walled Lake, and which was postponed at the request of the Michigan Skating Association, will take place Saturday, February 13th.

The event will start at 3:00 o'clock. Races open to the public are the mile race for men and half mile race for women. Full particulars will be furnished by Exchange Club officers, Glenn Buffinger, president, or Cameron E. Rose, secretary. Prizes will be furnished by Walled Lake business men.

A few fancy skaters from the international tournament on Lake St. Clair the preceding Sunday will appear here.

DEATH OF ISAAC D. WRIGHT

Isaac D. Wright, for many years a resident of Plymouth, took his own life at his home on Ann street, last Sunday forenoon, while members of the family were absent from the house.

Mr. Wright has been ill since last fall, and it is believed that despondency over his condition led him to commit self destruction, as he seemed to be as well as usual on the morning of his death.

The deceased was born in Canton township, September 3, 1875. For a number of years he has made his home with his sister, Mrs. Plato Hough and husband. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity, being affiliated with Plymouth Rock Lodge No. 47, F. & A. M., Northville Commandery, Knights Templar, and Union Chapter, B. A. M. of Northville, and the Macabees. He leaves four brothers and two sisters.

Funeral services were held from Schrader Bros. Funeral Home, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Dr. F. A. Lendrum officiating.

NORTHVILLE'S NEW THEATRE OPENED TUESDAY EVENING.

Northville's handsome new Penniman Allen theatre was opened to the public on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. Long before the time for the doors to open, there was a large crowd in waiting Tuesday evening, and when the program started, there was not an available seat to be had.

The citizens of Northville are delighted with their new theatre, and the management was the recipient of congratulations and expressions of appreciation on every side. Numerous floral pieces appeared upon the stage, from business concerns and friends which lent a pleasing effect to the beauty of the surroundings.

The new organ was presided over by Sidney F. Harris, and the numbers which he rendered preceding the opening of the show were greatly appreciated by the large audience. Mr. Harris is a master of the organ, and his playing is of the highest order.

Douglas Patterson of this village contributed several violin numbers that made a decided hit with the audience as did also the vocal numbers of Eddie McGrath, one of Detroit's most popular singers. There was also a color reel, "The Voice of the Nightingale," and a musical act by a group of Hawaiian musicians. The feature picture of the evening was, Mary Pickford in "Little Annie Rooney."

The people of Northville are to be congratulated upon the completion and opening of the new theatre, which is under the same management as the Penniman Allen theatre of Plymouth, whose policy has been and always will be to present the very best pictures obtainable, and to present them first, insofar as it is possible to do so, and this same policy will prevail in our neighboring town.

For the building of this new theatre credit must be given Mrs. Kate E. Allen of this village, to whose enterprise in this direction, both in Northville and Plymouth, the people are very much indebted.

Miss Marion Beyer attended the J-Hop at Ann Arbor, last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Petz entertained twenty friends at a six o'clock dinner, last week Wednesday.

NEXT NUMBER ON HIGH SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT COURSE

The Duval-Baldi Company Will Furnish the Program Next Friday Evening, Feb. 19th at High School Auditorium.

The next number on the High school entertainment course will take place at the High school auditorium on Friday evening, February 19th.

An unusually happy combination has been found in the Duval-Baldi Company: for Duval, master of the wizardry and magic, dazzles the eye with his cunning and baffling illusions, while Baldi enchants the ear with his delightful playing of the accordion.

Duval features amazing feats of mystery, sleight of hand and legerdemain, abounding in originality and clever surprises. Every "stunt" is replete with clean, riotous fun, presented always with an accompaniment of sparkling quips and jokes. He supplements his magic with a novelty which he chooses to call "Rag Pictures." In these he creates beautiful scenes, also portraits of famous personages, from mere rags pieced together on a board.

Baldi is a native of Calosso, in northern Italy, near the French border. The instrument which he plays is a piano-accordion, such as has been popularized by the nationally famed Pietro. It has 120 bass keys and 43 treble keys, and is one of the most beautiful instruments of its kind in use today, being of pure white, with silver trimmings. In his programs, Baldi uses both classical and popular numbers, including many selections that have been made into Victor records by Pietro.

THE DUVAL-BALDI COMPANY

MAKING IMPROVEMENTS AT GAS PLANT

The Plymouth & Northville Gas Co. have installed two new compressors, which give the company storage capacity for about 40,000 feet of gas to supply Northville patrons. Provisions for the installation of the two new compressors, only 5,000 feet were available for Northville. This increased storage will assure Northville gas patrons of a steady pressure and an abundant supply at all times. The company is contemplating other improvements at the local plant, and when completed, Plymouth will have as complete and up-to-date gas plant as will be found in the state.

Manager Harry Wrench, who recently assumed the management of the plant, is giving the patrons wonderful service, and a splendid quality of gas.

Just as soon as the weather will permit, work will be commenced to extend gas mains to Wayne, which village will be supplied with gas from the local plant.

INFORMAL REPORT OF THE RED CROSS CAMPAIGN OF 1925 FOR PLYMOUTH.

The funds secured during the 1925 drive of the Plymouth Red Cross workers in our community, went ahead of any on record, and amounted to the sum of one thousand four dollars and twenty-five cents ($1,042.25).

Your committee wishes to take this opportunity to thank all those who so generously gave of their time and means in bringing about this splendid showing for Plymouth. Especially do we feel grateful to Elizabeth Beyer, Helen Beyer, Mrs. F. K. Block, Mrs. Lyla Chambers, Mrs. Champ, Mrs. F. Doerr, Mrs. Isaac Gansolly, J. Gallimore, Mrs. John Henderson, Mrs. James Horan, Mrs. Rose Hillmer Holstein, Anna Hondorp, Mrs. Lydia H. Joy, Dorothea Idrance, Phyllis C. Larkins, Mrs. Fred H. Lee, Mrs. Ada S. Murray, Mrs. Robert Mimmack, E. B. Miller, Mrs. C. Olds, Pauline Peck, Mrs. F. Rattenbury, A. J. Richwine, Mrs. F. E. Sullivan, Mrs. G. A. Smith, Mrs. H. A. Smith, Mrs. C. Springer, Arthur J. E. Torre, Mrs. E. C. Vesley, Mrs. F. L. Webber, Katherine Wilcox and Galen Cripe, who filled the different R. C. booths and solicited funds in other ways.

The final results, show plainer than any words can tell, the splendid effort that all put forth.

Mrs. C. H. Bennett,
General Chairman.

ROOSEVELT HIGH DEFEATED BY LOCALS, 38 TO 8, HERE LAST FRIDAY NIGHT.

The losers of the main event were unable to score in any manner in the first two periods, but they made a better defense in the second half, and succeeded in getting three baskets from the field and two out of four chances from the free throw line.

Much credit for Plymouth's overwhelming victory goes to Doudt, whose accuracy in shooting twelve baskets for the locals, figured largely in the big score.

PLAYING WITH MATCHES

Now and then we read of some tragedy in which lives were lost, or persons seriously burned and property destroyed, through children playing with matches. The first thought that arises is that the parents have failed to teach that child "safety first," but the real cause belongs to the parents, or other persons, who leave matches where the children can get hold of them. But children are not alone in "playing with matches." Lots of grown people light them, use them and then carelessly toss them aside as though all danger from them had passed. Recently a smoker in one of the larger cities of this state dropped a match he thought was "out" into a waste basket, and two hours later he had burned down the plant in which he worked, and thrown himself and several hundred other men out of employment. We want no serious fire loss in Plymouth this year. So watch where you toss your matches when they have served their purpose.

STRENUOUS DAYS

In these strenuous days of competition states, like cities and individuals, must "sell" themselves to the country at large if they hope to keep in the front rank of progress. California has for several years been spending millions of dollars to advertise her climate and resources; Florida cities and towns spend millions annually, and the state of Florida has voted a big sum from its treasury for advertising in newspapers and magazines. Now comes Massachusetts with a bill in her legislature, appropriating $200,000 to be used in 1926 in advertising the advantages she has to offer the outside world. So it is easy to see that if whole states realize they must advertise to enjoy prosperity there is mighty little hope left for the individual merchant who shuts himself up like a clam, and who refuses to tell the public through the newspapers why he wants more business. There is certainly food for reflection in this, and we believe Plymouth merchants can profit by giving it the attention it deserves.

WEEDING THEM OUT

The various states of the union are fast waking up to the fact that the safety of their people, both motorists and pedestrians, depends upon weeding out the unfit and careless auto driver. Several states have already passed strong laws regulating the driving privilege, and several others are now considering the passage of laws making it absolutely necessary for a driver to stand an examination before being permitted to operate a car.

In New York state last year 11,000 motorists had their licenses revoked or suspended. More than 2,000 persons lost their licenses because they were convicted of driving cars while intoxicated or were held pending criminal prosecution on such a charge. Reckless drivers to the number of 1000 lost their licenses. Reports show that the state had 208 fewer deaths from motor accidents in the first 11 months of last year than in the same period of 1924, notwithstanding an increase of twelve per cent in the number of machines registered in 1925.

The New York auto law has teeth, and they were used. Any Plymouth driver will tell you that fear of losing his license and being forced to leave his car stand in the garage would do more to discourage reckless driving than all the fines that could be handed out to an autoist. He may not mind the fine—he can go out and get more money. But if his license is taken away from him and he cannot drive again, he is going to pause and do a little serious thinking before taking chances. Careful, sensible drivers do not object to such a law, and that is why it is safe to predict that many other states will follow New York's example and pass laws to that effect.

GREAT ORCHESTRA WILL VISIT DETROIT.

Music lovers of this vicinity will be genuinely interested in the appearance of the Philadelphia Orchestra, Leopold Stokowski, conductor, at the new Masonic Auditorium in Detroit, Saturday evening, February 27.

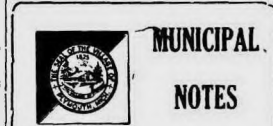

The visits of the Philadelphia Orchestra in this part of the country are rare occasions these days. It has been six years since this famous symphonic group has journeyed this far West, and it is during this interim that the Orchestra has gained the prestige of being the foremost Symphony in this country.

It is practically impossible to secure seats for the Philadelphia Orchestra for its eastern concerts, there being more than a thousand names on the waiting list for subscriptions in New York. With such popularity in Philadelphia and New York, the Orchestra cannot supply the demand in its own locality, and other cities have had to forego hearing this superb ensemble. The Western tour this season includes six cities, Detroit being on the favored few.

There is added interest in the Philadelphia Orchestra concert in Detroit, through the fact that the John Hayes Hammond piano will be introduced there for the first time with Lester Donahue as soloist. Mr. Hammond's invention makes it possible to hold a piano tone 50 seconds and to diminish or increase the sound at will.

It is also a notable feature that this distinguished musical event will take place in the new Masonic Auditorium, a magnificent structure, which is just being completed. This occasion will mark the first strictly public concert to be given in the new Auditorium. The concert will be one of the most brilliant that has taken place in Detroit.

Reservations may be made by writing Grace Denton at Grinnell Brothers. Prices, $3.30, $2.75, $2.20, $1.65 and $1.10.

Another primary election has come and gone. The board seemed much pleased with the new quarters in the rebuilt library room. There was not a very heavy vote—only 160. Mr. Samsen has a list of the votes as cast elsewhere in the Mail.

We had a call Monday from Mr. E. C. Watson of the American-La France Fire Engine Company, who sold us our pumper, last spring. He is trying to persuade Northville to get one like ours.

We had a request the other day for information concerning a Nathan Johnson, who lived here back about 1830. If anyone knows any dates or other data about this man, will they please let the Manager know.

There are a lot of cases of measles in town. You know what a time they are having in Detroit, where one in ten seems to develop pneumonia. Our health officer, Dr. Cooper, especially desires all doctors and parents to report any and all measles cases to him at once, so he may be better able to ward off any epidemic as in Detroit.

The State Department of Health recently requested a sample of our water for test. We sent them a bottle, and the report of the analysis has been received. The water seems to be all right except that it is quite hard—352 parts per million of calcium carbonate—and therefore it might be dangerous to fall down on it, especially if it were frozen.

In this connection we might state that we have had no warning from the County Park Board, and therefore the weekly tests which they make of our water at Phoenix Park must be satisfactory.

THE THEATRE

"THE KING ON MAIN STREET"

Adolph Menjou comes to the Penniman Allen theatre on Saturday, February 13th, as the star of the Mount Bell-Paramount production, "The King on Main Street," written for the screen by Douglas Doty from Leo Ditrichstein's New York stage hit, "The King." Greta Nissen and Beanie Love are featured opposite the star.

The story opens in Technicolor with Menjou, as the King of Slavonia, reviewing a long line of cavalry from a gorgeously draped dais. We get the idea that the young ruler is bored stiff with everything that's going on.

In one of the royal apartments a short time later, Menjou's Minister of Finance (Mario Majeroni) and other statesmen are reminding the king that the country requires a large loan. The only way it can be obtained is either through a marriage with the House of Slavonia or a trip to America.

"We shall go to America," the king announces, "via Paris."

The story goes on to show in a humorous entertaining way just what happens when the philandering king meets the most famous dancer in the French capital and then, in America, falls in love with a young American girl, only to be forced to return to his own country without her.

"The King on Main Street" is the culmination of a dream of years of both Mount Bell and the star. It is a perfect role for Menjou. He has the temperament, the air of sophistication, the finished type of acting necessary for it. He had his heart set upon making this one of his greatest efforts. And, according to all advance reports, he has more than succeeded.

"WOMANHANDLED"

Gregory La Cava makes his debut as a Paramount director at the Penniman Allen theatre on Sunday and Monday, February 14 and 15 when "Womanhandled," with Richard Dix as the star, supported by Esther Ralston, will be shown.

This combination promises to be an extremely happy one, in view of the success Dix and Miss Ralston made of "The Lucky Devil" and the splendid work of Mr. LaCava in supervising the rapid-fire action and thrills of that picture and Dix's previous production, "The Shock Punch."

"Womanhandled," adapted for the screen by Luther Reed from the Saturday Evening Post story of the same name by Arthur Stringer, author of "Manhandled" ("Womanhandled" is a sequel to "Manhandled"), is a farce comedy of modern western ranch life, in which an effete young man of New York goes to "the great open spaces" of his uncle's ranch to absorb western ruggedness and virility—all these because the girl of his heart loves real "be-men."

The ranch turns out to be next door to a good-sized town; there are no horses, the cattle being rounded up with automobiles. Then the girl arrives to see her sweetheart at the same time an "Artists and Models" company hops off the train and pays a visit to the ranch.

The laughs in the story are everything that the situation suggests. Moreover, the plot winds up with a real thriller of a cattle stampede. Margaret Morris, recently seen in "The Best People," Edmund Bruce and Ivan Simpson also have prominent roles in the cast.

Life Insurance

IS THE MODERN WAY OF PRACTICING

Thrift

Two of our greatest Americans, Washington and Lincoln, were strong in their admonitions of Thrift. We celebrate their birthdays this month when the truth of Life Insurance as a means of practicing Thrift is brought even more forcibly to the attention of thinking men and women.

Today's Reflections

The Plymouth man who got a Bible for Christmas should read it. We once knew a man who lost a $100 bill among the leaves of one.

There must be a certain amount of danger about us. We got rid of the saloon and now we've got the modern girl on our hands.

We've so many laws in this country that even crooks forget now and then and observe some of them.

The commandment "Thou shalt not kill" applies as much to the Plymouth man at the steering wheel as it does to the man with a pistol.

Another reason daughter can't get home in time to help with the dishes is she has to wait her turn in the barber shop to get her neck shaved.

Come to think about it, did you ever hear of a Plymouth man starting a shooting fray on pop and ginger ale?

The trouble with a lot of self-made men is they quit the job too early.

Now that the U. S. joined the World Court, why not start in by suing for some of the money the other nations owe us.

Uncle Sam says there's a prejudice against $2 bills. Why not popularize them by making it against the law to be caught with one of them?

It has been our observation that the average Plymouth man can do a full day's work by noon if he is going to get the afternoon off.

A scientist says bow-legs are a sign of courage. They certainly are if their owner wears a short skirt.

The man who ate forty buckwheat cakes at one sitting hasn't been invited by Coolidge to dine with him.

Maybe the reason some Plymouth men don't go to church oftener is they remember that they were married in a church.

The World Court will be all right if they can find somebody big enough to serve the bench warrants.

It very often happens in this world that the optimist has to borrow the pessimist's umbrella.

Maybe you've also noticed that as a Plymouth man grows older he spends less time on his pleasures and more on his ailments.

Our idea of a truly religious man is one who never swears when he hits the side of the furnace door with a shovelful of coal.

Picked Up About Town

Dad Plymouth says the honeymoon is about over when the groom begins to envy his friends who are deaf.

Out in town a man is interested in how a woman's clothes look. But at home he's only interested in what they cost.

"If women keep on adopting men's clothes," says Dad Plymouth, "then the wise man of the future is the one who will pick out a wife about three sizes smaller than he is."

Be on your guard, for a talkative friend can sometimes do you more harm than a silent enemy.

"Chewing gum," declares Dad Plymouth, "was probably invented by a woman who had no one to talk to."

Dad Plymouth says the trouble with some men is they work too hard trying to get something they don't need and never ought to want.

"A woman," asserts Dad Plymouth, "seldom wants to do better than her neighbors. All she wants is to be better off, better dressed and better looking."

VOTE ON ANNEXATION

ASKED IN PETITION

NANKIN TOWNSHIP TAXPAYERS TURN EYES TOWARD WAYNE.

Two petitions, signed by the required number of Nankin Township taxpayers, have been placed on file with the township board of supervisors asking for submission to voters of proposals for the annexation of four and a quarter square miles to the existing village limits of Wayne. The present limits of the Detroit suburb community, out Michigan avenue, covers one square mile, the westerly limits of which is the Pere Marquette Railroad, and embracing four quarter sections of the township.

The annexation proposals, which probably will be voted upon at the spring election, would, if favorably acted upon, increase the village population to about 3,000 there now being about 1,500 in the village. The petitions ask that the village limits be extended on the south to Moore road, on the west to Stellwagen road, on the north to Palmer road with Venoy road the entire boundary of the petition and the second petition extending the easterly boundary from Venoy road to Merriman road with the same north and south boundaries as the other petition.

Wayne would gain public improvements costing in excess of $500,000 as thus far installed, according to J. E. Adams of the Dunabue Adams Co., which has platted 240 acres along the easterly limits of the proposed annexation territory.—Detroit News.

REALTORS RECOMMEND

ELIGIBILITY STANDARD

Standardization of membership qualifications in all of the 580 member boards of the National Association of Real Estate Boards is a further step to insure the reliability of everyone bearing the title. "Realtor," was recommended by the board of directors in a resolution passed at the annual mid-winter meeting of that association at New Orleans.

The board also approved the formulation of a standard procedure for the enforcement of its code of ethics, to which every realtor is pledged.

The creation of regulation forms for undertaking investigation of alleged violations of the code would operate as does a formal procedure in a commercial arbitration, and, by bringing each individual case under a fixed and rigorous general ruling, would tend greatly to free board action from difficulties, it is pointed out.

A movement toward the setting up of uniform membership qualifications would tend to the establishment of a generally high standard as to business stability and responsibility, professional training and character.

HOW TITLE IS CLOUDED

If in a subdivision of 200 lots each owner was coerced (by being threatened with a law suit) into paying even $25 for a quitclaim deed, a rather handsome sum of $5,000 would be realized by schemers, who would in fact give nothing of value in return.

During the Chicago World's Fair period, a number of such attempts were made. In one case, a woman claimed an interest dating back nearly half a century in a certain North Side subdivision. She filed for record, in the office of the recorder of deeds, an affidavit setting forth that she still held a dower right in the quarter section of land referred to, which, with the buildings and improvements made since it was subdivided, had increased in value nearly half a million dollars.

As soon as the affidavit was filed, many of the lot buyers and home owners became frightened lest they should lose their life savings. It appears that in 1857 her husband quitclaimed all his interest in this tract of land, and that his wife did not join in the deed of conveyance, and for this reason she claimed to have a dower right in the house or lot of every owner in that subdivision.

A prominent attorney, John P. Wilson, an authority on real estate titles, was asked for an opinion. He decided that she had no dower or any other claim, for the reason that her husband bought the land subject to a mortgage which was never paid off, and in due course was foreclosed, and through this proceeding all their interest, including the dower rights of the wife, were cut off.

Quotes Lincoln's Advice.

After this complete and authoritative explanation, even a school boy could understand that the woman had no further rights in the premises, and yet some lawyers not expert in such matters assumed there might be a cloud on the title. Well informed attorneys call such spurious claims "stingers" to the title and totally disregard them.

Under the Torrens system, a person would not be permitted to file such a claim, having no foundation in fact, and no chance to cloud the title would be given her. The registrar of titles in his official capacity acts as custodian and protector of all title matters according to powers granted him by the state.

Abraham Lincoln, whose words seem as if prophetic of conditions that were to follow, says:

"Discourage litigation. Persuade your neighbors to compromise whenever you can. Point out to them how the nominal winner is often a real loser in fees, expenses, and waste of time. As a peacemaker, the lawyer has a superior opportunity of being a good man. Never stir up litigation. A worse man can scarcely be found than one who does this. Who can more nearly a friend than he who habitually overhauls the register of deeds in search of defects in titles whereupon to stir up strife and put money into his pocket? A moral tone ought to be enforced in the profession which would drive such men out of it."

REPORT ON REAL ESTATE MARKET

The report on the real estate market December 19, 1925, made by the National Association of Real Estate Boards, shows the condition of the market in Plymouth is much more active as compared with that of December 19, 1924, and inquiries are most frequent for city lots, business frontage and acreage.

The building situation shows that single family dwellings and apartments are not over built and there is a shortage. The subdivision market is much more active than it was in December 1924. The tendency of rents is up for unheated single family dwellings, and it is also higher for business property.

Mortgage money is greatest for loans on dwellings for the rising cost to the borrower.

We have a strong suburban movement from Detroit.

The Plymouth Buick Sales Co. has purchased 165 feet of Main street frontage, formerly known as the Groonwick property. Howard Richards, Realtor, represented the purchaser.

I represent a system of full returns from every dollar—
—a system of wise expenditures and regular savings.

I endorse the "building and loan" plan, because it is a safe plan, ideal for the thrift program of every man.

EPISCOPAL NOTES

Last Sunday there was a good congregation and the Rev. Charles Wesley gave a very appropriate address. We were glad to see the robed choir back in their places again, and the solo, "Just for Today," sung by Joseph Tracy, was much appreciated. We have still room for a few more voices, and we would be pleased to meet with any who wish to render this service to the church.

At the conclusion of the morning service, the little infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wrench was baptised, the whole congregation remaining to this service, and during the singing of the hymn, "In the Cross of Christ I Glory," the members of the Sunday-school marched in and took their places in the church to witness the baptism.

We were glad to see such a large number at the Sunday-school sessions. The singing of the hymns by the youngsters was hearty under the leadership of Elizabeth Strong at the organ and Dora Gallimore on the violin. This is one of the most responsible and important parts of our mission work. New pupils are coming in and we need two more teachers in order to better grade up the classes. Who will volunteer for this service?

"The Men of St. John's" turned out in full force again last Sunday morning.

Next Wednesday will be Ash Wednesday. The preacher will be Rev. Charles Wesley. During Lent the Lenten services will be held in the church every Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, and a special Detroit preacher for every week, which will be as follows:

Ash Wednesday, February 17—Rev. Charles Wesley.

Tuesday, February 23—Rev. A. S. Gill of St. Mathias church.

Tuesday, March 2—Ven. C. L. Ramsey, archdeacon.

Tuesday, March 9—Rev. R. S. Hannah of St. Mathew's church.

Tuesday, March 16—Rev. H. E. Ridley, Church of the Ascension.

Tuesday, March 23—Rev. Harry Midworth, Church of Our Saviour.

Tuesday, March 30—Rev. H. A. Wilson, Trinity church.

We invite the community of Plymouth to come and hear these Detroit speakers.

The primary department will hold a Valentine party in the church parlors, next Saturday afternoon, from 2:00 to 4:00.

BAPTIST NOTES

We have new members in the choir. The anthem was well rendered last Sunday, in a very acceptable way.

The promotion of the scholars in Sunday-school will make several changes in the classes.

The Primary Department has a good number each Sunday, and Miss Margaret Tillotson is in charge of the same, with others helping her.

Words of appreciation are received from Mrs. Scott, for the flower and remembrance sent her during her sickness.

The committee sent from the church to the Chamber of Commerce rooms to discuss the question of public playgrounds, reported by Walter Postin last Sunday, that if the plan works out, the park on Holbrook avenue will be set in order for that purpose, as well as the one back of the Presbyterian church. Supervised playgrounds are worth while.

The Ladies' Aid met last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Noel on Starkweather avenue.

The Cottage prayer meeting last Wednesday evening, was at the home of Mrs. E. M. Stewart on South Mill street, and next week it will be at the home of Mrs. Baun, (the old Birch home) on South Main street. Let everyone come, and pray for a revival in Plymouth.

The new pipes are placed on the furnace, and the electric wires and lights changed to meet the request of the board of Fire Control of the state, and when the city finishes the repair on the sewerage, we will be all O. K. once more.

EPISCOPAL NOTES

The great revival meetings which were held at the Livonia Community church, were closed last Sunday evening, the house being crowded to hear Dr. Lamkin's farewell sermon.

About seventy-five people were brought into the church during these meetings. As this is a Community church, striving to please the community, everybody is permitted to come in according to the dictations of his own heart.

As about sixty or more people have chosen to be baptised by immersion, arrangements have been made at the Northville Baptist church, to hold a baptismal service Sunday, February 14th, at 3:00 p. m. There will be a fine sermon by the pastor, Rev. Helen Phelps, and special music by the choir. Everybody is most cordially invited to attend this service.

Go to Church SOMEWHERE Sunday. If you have no church home, you will find a welcome with us.

LIVONIA COMMUNITY CHURCH

The great revival meetings which were held at the Livonia Community church, were closed last Sunday evening, the house being crowded to hear Dr. Lamkin's farewell sermon.

About seventy-five people were brought into the church during these meetings. As this is a Community church, striving to please the community, everybody is permitted to come in according to the dictations of his own heart.

As about sixty or more people have chosen to be baptised by immersion, arrangements have been made at the Northville Baptist church, to hold a baptismal service Sunday, February 14th, at 3:00 p. m. There will be a fine sermon by the pastor, Rev. Helen Phelps, and special music by the choir. Everybody is most cordially invited to attend this service.

ANCIENT EAR LORE FOUND IN HISTORY

Expressions That Go Back to Earliest Times.

It is an old saying that if your ears burn, people are talking about you. This is very old, for Pliny, the Roman philosopher who lost his life in the destruction of Pompeii, A. D. 79, wrote, "When our ears do glow and tingle, some do talk of us in our absence." In his charming comedy, "Much Ado About Nothing," act III, scene 1, Shakespeare makes the heroine, Beatrice, say to Ursula and Hero, who had been talking of her, "What are its in mine ear?"

"To set people by the ear," means to create ill-will among them; to set them quarrelling, as metal pots slung together rattle against each other. "Walls have ears," means that what is uttered in secret may get abroad. Nowhere is this idea better expressed than in Ecclesiastes 10:20, which reads: "Curse not the king, no not in thy thought. . . for a bird of the air shall carry the voice, and that which hath wings shall tell the matter."

Chaucer, the Middle ages poet, and the father of English poetry, expressed the same idea in a somewhat different manner. In one of his Canterbury Tales he writes, "That field hath eyes (eyes), and the wood hath ears."

Then there is the expression which takes one back much farther than even the time of Pliny. It is this, "Mine ears hast thou bored," meaning thou has accepted me as thy bond-slave for life. If a Hebrew servant declined to go free after six years of service, the master was to bring him to the doorpost, and bore his ear through with an awl, in token of his voluntary servitude, which continued during the remainder of the servant's life. Exodus 21:1-6.

The French have a saying which may be translated, "To send one away with a flea in his ear," meaning to send one away after giving one a good scolding, giving him through the ears or hearing something serious to think about so that he may correct his ways.

Blue Glass and "Colds"

Lord Clifford of Chudleigh, who for many years has been studying the action of colored light upon the growth of vegetables, thinks that colors may be used to cure diseases. One shade of red, he says, has a pronounced effect on cases of blood poisoning, while ultra-violet produces a fermentation in the body which reduces hardness of tissue. In all his "cures" exposure of the body to the particular ray of colored light is what is supposed to do the trick. A particular shade of violet, he says, causes the growth of veins. Indigo produces hydrocarbons and body tissues. A shade of blue causes muscular growth. Green induces fat and yellow restores the nerves. But, of course, Lord Clifford makes clear, great care must be taken that only the right shade of each color is used—otherwise opposite results may be obtained. Lord Clifford even went so far as to suggest that "colds" might be cured by the wearing of blue glasses.

Yes! there is a better gas

When you meet a man who says gasoline is all alike, ask him how such a thing could possibly be. Is all muslin alike? all glass alike? all brick alike? How about vinegar, varnish and vanilla?
C-E-R-T-A-I-N-L-Y NOT.

Indian Gasoline sold in this territory is made from one grade of crude to high, uniform specifications—the new Navy specifications.

Not everyone can get Indian. The big output is marketed in a few states only. It is a better gas—uniformly better—and you're lucky to be in the limited territory where it is sold.

CAR + RENT = A HOME

Being a Story of What Might Have Been

John Jones was an ordinary good citizen. He had a happy home (rented at $200 per month), a good wife and two healthy, bustling youngsters.

Each month John paid the landlord $50.00, a moderate rental, and the Jones family was happy.

One time when John fell for the polished patter of the automobile salesman, $200.00 down and $40.00 a month he paid for his new "Four in Line" sedan.

For two years the Jones family enjoyed their new plaything. Then the Browns and the Grays, lured by its "latest motor masterpieces" and the Joneses lured for more "speed, more speed, more cylinders, and four-wheel brakes." Getting a new car was the answer.

Then—this time Jones happened to meet up with a real estate salesman. He talked—Jones listened—learned and received a hard jolt. Translated into dollars and cents here was the jolt: His car, complete—plus freight, insurance and "extras," had cost him exactly $205.21. In the two years of steady running it had traveled over 7,000 miles at an average cost of five cents per mile—total $350.00.

In those same two years $1,200.00 had been spent for rent. That same amount of money put into a home would have meant a clear title in seven years—and then no further payments for rent.

The Jones family have returned to the shiny leather route for transportation—and are paying on a home. Their former "entire" luggage is now becoming obsolete. The new car will cost later.

MORAL: Figure it out for yourself.

ELM

The 20th anniversary or birthday of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, was observed by the association of Elm, at their regular meeting Tuesday evening, February 2nd. This anniversary is known as Founder's Day or Child Welfare Day, and is celebrated, nationally, on February 17th.

The meeting opened with community singing, followed by the message of the National President, read from the Child Welfare magazine. After a short business session, the members were entertained by a short comedy act given by the Rawleigh Twins.

The speaker for the evening was Mr. Fisher, school commissioner, who gave an interesting talk on his walking trip through France.

A birthday cake bearing two candles for the two years of the Elm association, carried out the observance of the day. The candles were lighted by Fred Wolfram, and as they burned, "My Tribute" was sung by all. The cake was cut by Mr. Fisher, as guest of honor, and was served with coffee to the members and friends.

The birthday offering given for National Extension work, was $3.70. Several subscriptions were taken for the Child Welfare Magazine, which is the official organ of the national organization.

A masquerade dancing party will be given in the Elm school building, by the Parent-Teacher Association, on Friday evening, February 19th.

The meeting for Zone B will be held at Elm school, Saturday, February 13. A good program will be enjoyed by all who attend. Prof. Prey of Ypsilanti, is the speaker. The program begins at 1:00 p. m., and we hope you will favor us with your presence.

The Judson Lumber Co. announces that it is now in position to finance the erection of new homes on lots owned by the parties who desire to erect new houses. Blakeslee, phone 301-F22, Redford, or James A. Fry, phone 289, Northville, who will be pleased to explain the plan in detail.

TEMPLE THEATRE

Detroit, Michigan

Charlotte Greenwood, the "So Long Letty" girl, bright star of musical comedy, headlines the bill at B. F. Keith's Temple Theatre starting Sunday afternoon. Miss Greenwood returns to vaudeville, bringing with her the choicest bits from the "Music Box" and the "Ritz" revues. Her sketch is called "Her Morning Bath," and it proves a delicious comedy morsel. Martin Broome, the well-known composer accompanies Miss Greenwood, and has provided her with some smashing song hits. Others billed: Bert and Betty Wheeler, late stars of Zigfield's Follies offer a routine called "Hits of Everything;" Joseph B. Stanley and Co., in a musical skit called "Waiting," with Jack Egan, Theo Brown and Florence Allen; Ernest Hlatt, one of the sure-fires on vaudeville, in his new offering "Nothing Serious;" Fridkin, Jr., and Rhoda, a vaudeville dancer, in a flash of color and grace; Violet and Charlotte Singer, two attractive girls in songs and chatter; "Hector," the world's most intelligent dog; and Clyde Cook in "Wandering Papist," Hal Ronech's latest fun film.

MEETING OF ZONE A

The February meeting of Zone A, Northern Division, was held February 6th, at Walker school, on Michigan avenue, with Mrs. Irene Smith of Walker school, and Miss Aris Blackmore of Palmer school, as hostesses.

The morning meeting opened at 10:00 o'clock, with the explaining of our February Outline Envelopes, by Miss Lorraine Cochrane.

Miss Aris Blackmore taught a silent reading lesson, using her sixth and seventh grade pupils.

Miss Cochrane, our helping teacher, taught a demonstration lesson in History correlated with Silent Reading and Language.

A very delicious dinner was served by the ladies of the community. The dining room was attractively decorated in Valentine colors, red and white.

The afternoon meeting was opened by singing, "Michigan, My Michigan." The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. This was followed by roll call. All of the teachers except one were present.

Miss Curtis, in behalf of Zone A, thanked the ladies for the dinner. Miss Reddeman invited Zone A to Newburg school for the March meeting.

An interesting program was given by the pupils. Mrs. Harris sang a vocal solo. Miss Olliphant, of the Wayne County Library, told a children's story, which held the interest of all. Miss Fischer, daughter of Commissioner and Mrs. Fred Fischer, of Belleville, gave two violin numbers.

Miss Wyatt, of the Lincoln Consolidated school, was the speaker of the afternoon. Mrs. Sharpe gave a short talk on the importance of giving toxin-antitoxin for the prevention of diphtheria.

Zone A voted unanimously not to have Division I of the M. S. T. A. divided in two sections.

Both in appearance and in service, concrete is the aristocrat of pavements
What Concrete Pavement Did for Cass City

Until about three years ago the main thoroughfare in Cass City, Michigan, had nothing but a gravelled surface. Heavy traffic made upkeep costly. No wonder local authorities and taxpayers became disgusted. In 1923 they decided to put an end to this sorry state of affairs. Profiting from the experience of other Michigan cities, they decided to pave with portland cement concrete. Cass City has taken on a new air of prosperity. Store fronts have been repaired and painted. Farmers come to town more frequently to trade. Tourists stop to spend their money. Business is a lot brisker—since the coming of concrete. Anyone in and around Cass City will tell you what a wise investment this has been. Concrete streets will bring new prosperity to any city, and at the same time put an end to costly street maintenance. All of the facts are in our free booklet on "Concrete Streets." PATIENTLY AWAIT ANOTHER MIRACLE

But Missionaries in Bagdad Have Hopes.

A delightful story comes from the Christian medical missions in Bagdad to the Youth's Companion. In the lovely date-palm gardens of the city a thief was discovered, not long ago, robbing one of the trees of its luscious fruit. The owner, a hearty, passionate man, promptly shot him, and the man fell from the top of a lofty palm to the ground. He was hurried away to the Christian hospital, with a bullet in his body, a broken arm and a shattered leg. On his way he begged to be put beneath a Moslem roof, even if it were a prison, rather than be left in the clutches of dogs of Christians. But, as he was a criminal, his captors paid no attention to his wishes.

At the hospital they speedily put him under an anesthetic, extracted the bullet, set his broken limbs, and before long he was comfortably settled on a palm-fabric cot, trussed up with dressings, but alive and likely to get well. For a long time he was very unresponsive and surly and would have little to say to the missionary whenever he attempted to converse with him. But gradually he yielded to the kind treatment he received and one day he astonished the missionary with the remark: "This is a miracle! It's a place of miracles!"

"We deal," replied the missionary, with much more difficult cases than yours, Ibrahim. You should see some of them."

"Ah! That is not my meaning," replied the man. "As I have been lying here I have seen rich men come to the door of this hospital and offer jewels even to half their wealth to the surgeon to come and attend their wives and children; but always he says, 'The poor must come first'; and he who might be so rich slaves here in the heat night and day for wretches like me, who can give them nothing. That is a miracle!"

Indeed, so touched was Ibrahim by the loving sacrifice of his new friends that he simply had to be turned away from the hospital when he was recovered.

"But what can I do for you, sir?" he begged. "Is there nothing I can do?"

"Yes," replied the surgeon, "send me some more patients."

"Allah!" cried Ibrahim. "Here is a man who might have all the world if he asked for it, and all he wants is more work. You are a miracle, sir! But I will do something for you. Do you like dates, sir?"

"Yes, I like dates," said the surgeon, smiling.

"Then, sir, let me know when you want some, and I'll always steal them for you!"

The missionary and the surgeon shook their heads over their patient, as he left them, and one remarked to the other, "Another miracle is wanted there, but evidently we've made some impression. Let us have hope that the rest will come in time."

Men's and Women's Clothes

A professor in Berlin recently had the curiosity to weigh first the wearing apparel of his assistant and the wearing apparel of the assistant's wife. He found that the man's boots alone weighed as much as the woman's entire clothing, and that in every detail the woman's garments were greatly lighter than her husband's. The result attained has led a woman critic to write on men's dress in the Spectator, London. She points out that it is remarkable that while in the last twenty years woman has steadily decreased the amount of clothing that she wears, there has been little fundamental change in male attire, and asserts that it may possibly be that man catches cold because he wears too much clothing and clothing of the wrong kind.

Honey From Thistles

The lowly thistle, commonly considered an obnoxious weed, has turned out to be a pretty good friend after all, according to the honeybee. Thistles grow in abundance in the Sacramento valley, especially Butte county, Cal. After the close of the southern California season the bees come north to these acres of prickly flowers, which hold a nectar that produces a large amount of honey suitable for marketing as well as for winter stores. This year's thistle honey crop in the Oroville district of California will aggregate 100 tons, it is estimated. This is as great as the output of the entire state has been in lean years. This year reports show an abundance of this nectar, due to heavy winter and spring rains.—Christian Science Monitor.

Britain Still Has Hold

Arrangements for building a park in Hawaii brought to light the fact that a small area of land in this country is owned by Great Britain. It was leased to the British government in 1877 by the late A. S. Cleghorn and his wife and has remained British territory ever since. It stands a peculiar instance of British-owned land in American territory.

The GREATEST Opportunity Ever Offered to Watch Buyers

This is an offer of almost unheard of liberality. We can extend it to only a limited number of buyers. The first ones who call will be the ones who get the benefit of it and we reserve the right to cancel the offer at any time without notice.

Remember this applies to any South Bend Watch in our stock. Railroad watches; Handsome Extra-Thin 12 size Chesterfields; 16 size commercial grades—15, 17, 19 or 21 jewel. Any grade case; enamel, metal or luminous dials. We are limiting the offer to South Bend Watches because we are featuring "South Bends." We have found them unexcelled for beauty and accuracy, and we want to get hundreds more of them into the pockets of men in this vicinity for the advertising value to this store.

The Chance of a Life-Time

We have never made such an offer before. We may never repeat it. Now is your chance to get rid of your present watch at a fair value and own a watch that you will be proud to carry.

You Must Act Quick To be sure of getting in on this limited time offer you must take advantage of it quickly. Come in today and let us make you a price on your old watch.

LIVE STOCK VALUATIONS

IN MICHIGAN AND U. S.

The total value of live stock on the farms of Michigan on January 1, is estimated at $140,411,000. Prices are higher on all classes than one year ago. While there was a decrease in the numbers of horses, cattle and swine, and only moderate increases in milk cows and sheep, the total value is over seven millions greater than one year ago, the value at that time being $133,140,000. For the United States, the total value is $5,001,297,000, an increase of $316,276,000 since January 1, 1925. The annual livestock report, containing estimates of the numbers of each class on farms January 1 together with the numbers shown by the Federal Census taken one year ago, were released February 1 by L. Whitney Watkins, Commissioner of Agriculture, and Verne H. Church, Agricultural Statistician, U. S. Bureau of Agricultural Economics.

Horses: The decline in number of horses which has been taking place for a number of years still continues. However, there are indications that the minimum has been nearly reached. There are now slightly less than two and one-half horses per farm on the average for Michigan. The total number on January 1 is estimated as 474,000 as compared with 406,000 one year ago. The average price per head is $57, making the total value, $41,238,000. One year ago, the price was $52 per head, and the total value, $40,672,000.

The decline continues throughout the United States, the total number on farms being 15,778,000 against 16,554,000 one year ago. The average value per head is $65.08. On January 1, 1925, it was $64.18.

Mules: The Federal Census showed that the number of mules was increasing slightly. As the estimates are given in even thousands, the total number remains at 7,000 for both years. The price per head is $90 as compared with $83 one year ago, making the total value $630,000 on January 1, 1926 and $581,000 on the corresponding date in 1925.

The number in the United States is estimated at 5,780,000 and the average value per head at $51.30. The corresponding figures for 1925 were 5,753,000 with an average value of $52.24 per head.

Milk Cows: A change in classification of cattle destroys to some extent the comparability of present with past estimates. However, the same change was made in the Census classification so that the figures are available for year after year on the new basis, which separates milk cows from heifers kept for milk purposes. The estimated number of milk cows on January 1 is 869,000 as compared with 852,000 one year ago, and the number of milk heifers, 153,000 against 150,000 on January 1, 1925. The average value of milk cows is $64 per head, or a total value of $55,616,000. Last year the average price was $60 per head and the total value, $51,120,000.

For the United States, the total number of milk cows declined from 22,528,000 on January 1, 1925 to 22,290,000 on January 1, 1926, a loss of about one per cent. The number of heifers between one and two years of age declined about nine per cent, from 4,234,000 to 3,802,000 during the same period. The average value of milk cows is $57.37 as compared with $50.68 one year ago, the corresponding total values being $1,278,877,000 and $1,141,450,000.

All Cattle: The total number of head in the state on January 1 is estimated at 1,381,000 against 1,417,000 one year ago, the decrease being in the number of beef cattle and young stock. The average value per head is $50.99, and the total value, $70,417,000, on January 1, 1926, they were $46.50 and $65,890,000, respectively.

The total number in the United States is estimated at 50,829,000, and the total value, $2,297,510,000, being an average of $38.40 per head. One year ago, the total number was 52,150,000, and the total value, $2,079,367,000, or an average of $33.46 per head.

Sheep: The census report on number of sheep is not yet available, hence no revision of the 1925 figures has been made. The estimated number on Michigan farms is 1,254,000, against 1,194,000 in 1925, a gain of five per cent. The average value is $11.90 per head, of a total of $14,923,000. One year ago, the total value was $13,313,000, or $11.20 per head.

An increase in the sheep industry is also indicated for the entire country, the number on January 1, 1925, being estimated at 39,390,000, and on January 1, 1926, at 40,748,000. Values have also increased, the price per head of the corresponding dates being $9.83 and $10.50, respectively. The total value one year ago was $379,302,000, and on January 1, 1926, $427,047,000.

Swine: A further decline of 10 per cent in the number of swine is noted in Michigan, the number on January 1, 1925, being 906,000, and on January 1, 1926, 815,000. The value of the latter is $13,203,000, of $16.20 per head. One year ago it was $12,684,000, or $14.00 per head.

The decline for the entire country during the year amounts to 8.2 per cent. One year ago, there were 55,780,000 on farms as compared with 51,223,000 on the first of this year. Notwithstanding this reduction, the total value is greater as prices are considerably higher. The average value per head on January 1, 1925, was $12.38, or a total value of $6890,328,000. On January 1 of this year, the total value was $779,348,000 or $15.21 per head.

A Nation's Tribute

Washington and Lincoln lived for the ages. The world joins the Nation in paying tribute to the memory of these men who gave unreservedly of themselves that certain ideals of right might prevail and that this country might live and find a place of high esteem among other Nations of the world.

Great as were these men, the homely virtue of good common sense was at the bottom of the power that enabled them to carry the country successfully through one crisis after another. The practice of thrift in the broadest sense of the term was widely advocated by both Washington and Lincoln, and surely if these two men found thrift a practice to be commended, you and I will find it equally good to follow.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The basket ball game with Ypsilanti Normal, Friday night, proved to be a success for the Plymouth team. During the entire game, the score was in favor of Plymouth. Through the excellent playing of our team we managed to keep the Normal from getting any points until the last quarter. The final score was 38 to 8, in favor of Plymouth.

The play, "Dear Archie," given by the Mark Cole Players, for the benefit of the Manual Training boys last Thursday night, proved to be a great success. Many a laugh was afforded the audience by the wealthy English bachelor who refused to look at his hostess or her niece because, as he said, "Every time I look into a pair of baby blue eyes, my senses just flutter away." The many tricks played upon him to cure him of his bashfulness proved a success in the end.

Between acts the company entertained with dancing and speaking, which was greatly appreciated. At the conclusion of the play, Louis Ribar was announced as the winner of the prize for selling the most tickets. Also a contest was held which any student could enter. Melvin Craig won first prize and Lucille Ebert won second.

The Juniors are busily preparing for the play, "Seventeen," which is to be given March 4th.

They afterward were spectators at the old-time dance, which followed the banquet. Jep Bisbee, the state champion old-time fiddler, led the orchestra.

The following couples enjoyed a very pleasant evening on Saturday, February 6th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. Innis on South Main street. Music and 500 was the entertainment until 12:30 o'clock, when Mrs. Innis served a delicious lunch of salad, wafers, cake and coffee, soon after which the guests left for home, all declaring Mr. and Mrs. Innis to be ideal hosts: Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Blunk, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Vealey, Mr. and Mrs. George Turner, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Jewell, Mr. and Mrs. Merie Rorabacher.

THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE INCOME TAX

law and its interpretations are so lengthy and involved that to take the time to become familiar with them for your own information would be a waste of valuable time. As in all other lines, the man who makes a business of a thing can do it better and cheaper than you can.

Our Income Tax Service is planned to give the taxpayer the benefit of every deduction and allowance that the law allows him—and no more. Most clients find that they are liable for less tax than they expected to pay before consulting us.

This thoroughly professional service is as handy as your telephone. Call "128" and get it.

Protecting Fruit Trees

A "windjammer" is the local name in California fruit-growing districts for a machine devised to raise the temperature of an orchard by the process of mixing air during critical periods when the fruit is threatened by frost. The weather bureau has had occasion to make practical tests with a number of these devices, but up to the present time has found no "windjammer" which can be recommended for complete protection from low temperatures. The use of many small orchard heaters is today the only practical means of raising the temperature of the air near the ground sufficiently to protect the fruit on the trees.

Couldn't Resist "Scrap"

A wireless program broadcast brought havoc to the receiving set of Charles E. Finkle of Fargo, N. D. King Finkle's bull terrier, awoke from a nap in time to hear an imitation of dogs and cats coming from the loud speaker and decided to join in the fight. He demolished the loud speaker and had started in on the set before Finkle could interfere.

Odd Instinct of Blind

A guessing contest was opened by a French radio magazine in which the winners received prizes for determining from the sound of the voice whether broadcasters were blonds or brunettes. This contest developed the curious fact that all the winners were blind persons.

How's Your

Coal Pile?

It's a good idea to bear in mind that there's going to be a long hard pull on the coal pile between now and actual spring weather.

Old February and windy March both have a habit of dishing out some mighty unpleasant weather. And having to scrape the bottom of the coal-bin doesn't add anything but more discomfort.

IT CAN'T SPOIL

No matter how much you have on hand, you will only burn just as much as you need—and if there is any left later on it will keep.

YOU'D BETTER HAVE A LITTLE EXTRA FUEL IN THE HOUSE DURING FEBRUARY AND MARCH THAN TO WISH YOU HAD.
